Chapter 601: I have long been interested, He just don't know how to flatter

Emperor Yu took the initiative to speak as he intended to choose her daughter to enter into a marriage contract with Tuoba Xiaoyao.

In his eyes, Tuoba Xiaoyao was young, but mature and stable with traits that suggested he could become a master.

Judging from his low-key personality these years, it was enough to see that he was not simple. He was not the kind of impatient person who regarded fame and fortune as everything. Coupled with Gu Changge's suggestion, Emperor Yu was also very moved for a while.

He had quite a few children, besides the eldest daughter Yu Feiya, there were several other princesses who were also talented and beautiful. If using a marriage, he could also win over the minister Tuoba Yuntian, it would be the best for both of them.

"Haha, but for this kind of thing, you still have to listen to the opinions of the parties involved." Emperor Yu laughed and looked at Tuoba Xiaoyao with appreciation.

"What His Majesty Emperor Yu said is very true, but I think the third son of the Tuoba Mansion will not refuse His Majesty's kindness." Gu Changge on the side was dressed in white as he seemed spotless and fairy-like.

He lightly drank the wine before lowering his eyes from time to time. He had a gentle smile on his face all the time, causing many heavenly girls here to look at him quietly, with slight dizziness on their faces. His whole person seemed to be from outside the world, witnessing an insignificant incident.

Many young lords here cast envious eyes on Tuoba Xiaoyao. If he could really marry a princess and hug the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty's thigh tightly, Tuoba Xiaoyao would not have to worry about his next life.

Even the Tuoba mansion behind him would enjoy endless glory and wealth, and his power would increase further. What could he do?

In the eyes of many people, if Gu Changge hadn't said such an extra sentence suddenly, it was estimated that Emperor Yu would not have granted the marriage. This made them extremely envious and jealous, why couldn't they encounter such a good thing?

Tuoba Qiongling and Tuoba Qingyu, who had heard Tuoba Xiaoyao say that Gu Changge would harm him, were completely confused.

If Gu Changge wanted to kill Tuoba Xiaoyao, then why did he propose a marriage on his behalf? After marrying the Royal family, Tuoba Xiaoyao would naturally be more valued and appreciated by Emperor Yu, and it could be said that he would get all benefits and no harm.

If Gu Changge wanted to deal with Tuoba Xiaoyao in the future, wouldn't it become more difficult?

And just when everyone was full of emotions, the person involved, Tuoba Xiaoyao, finally spoke.

He calmed down and looked up at Emperor Yu's face before considering his words, then he declined politely, "Tuoba Xiaoyao thanks His Majesty Emperor Yu for his kindness, but I already have someone in my heart, and if His Majesty bestows a marriage, I will probably disappoint you. Your Majesty's kindness is greatly appreciated."

He knew that this was Gu Changge's conspiracy, but he had no choice but to refuse at the risk of offending him. No matter what the reason was, it was impossible for him to agree to this marriage offer.

Emperor Yu's gift of marriage must be given to another daughter, not Yu Feiya. Apart from Yu Feiya, he couldn't tolerate anyone in his heart.

"What?" Hearing this, the hall went almost silent for a moment.

After reacting, everyone's eyes widened, and they all wondered if their ears had heard it wrong.

Tuoba Xiaoyao actually refused His Majesty Emperor Yu's offer of marriage.

Where did he get the guts?

They couldn't believe whether this Tuoba Xiaoyao was really stupid or just pretending to be stupid. At this time, he rejected Emperor Yu in front of everyone. Where was Tuoba Xiaoyao putting Emperor Yu's face? Didn't he know what kind of benefits this marriage would bring him?

This made everyone feel unbelievable. The faces of Tuoba Xiaoyao's second sister and fourth sister, also turned pale, extremely worried. Perhaps the only person in the audience who was not surprised was the eldest princess Yu Feiya.

She stood quietly behind Emperor Yu and only looked up at him when Tuoba Xiaoyao refused. In some aspects, she even knew Tuoba Xiaoyao better than his parents.

"Xiaoyao, you..." Filled with surprise and pride, Tuoba Yuntian was drinking wine with a few colleagues next to him.

At this moment, his eyes were also wide open, and the wine glass in his hand fell to the ground with a clang, his voice trembling. He also never thought that Tuoba Xiaoyao would refuse.

In his opinion, there was absolutely no reason to refuse. Then, he would become a relative of the Emperor and would be more prominent than before. But Tuoba Xiaoyao actually refused, which made his eyes go dark, he couldn't bear it and almost passed out.

Emperor Yu was also stunned for a while, apparently, he did not expect Tuoba Xiaoyao to reject him in front of the officials. The smile on his face disappeared quickly, and his voice was dignified, "Are you looking down on the Emperor's daughter?"

Compared with the previous amiable and cheerful look, the present Emperor Yu had a terrifying coercion on his body. The ministers trembled, and hurriedly got up from their seats, prostrating themselves on the ground before begging Emperor Yu to appease his anger.

Anyone with a discerning eye could tell that Emperor Yu was angry.

Tuoba Xiaoyao's complexion changed slightly, and then he returned to normal. His words were neither humble nor overbearing, "His Majesty Emperor Yu misunderstood. It's not that Xiaoyao looks down on the princesses, but that he has someone in his heart, and he really can't tolerate anyone else."

"The princesses are beautiful, which is rare in the world. If it weren't for this reason, it would be too late for Xiaoyao to be happy... This sentence is true, and there is no falsehood."

He had already decided that even if he offended Emperor Yu, he would speak clearly today.

"This guy is still thinking about imperial sister." Yu Ming saw Tuoba Xiaoyao's intention at once, and couldn't help sneering.

Beside him, Yu Lie's face sank like water, and he didn't say much.

As the heir of the Great Yu dynasty in the future, Tuoba Xiaoyao personally rejected the marriage offer from Emperor Yu today, which made him feel that the dynasty had been provoked. He, who didn't like Tuoba Xiaoyao in the first place, was even more displeased at this moment.

"Hehe, I see that you don't have the guts. Which of the daughters of the Emperor is not the most beautiful in the world? Since you have your own heart, then the Emperor will not force you." Emperor Yu snorted coldly, although he was unhappy, he didn't continue to get angry.

Although this kind of thing made him lose face, he would not blame Tuoba Xiaoyao too much. It was just that from now on, it would become more and more difficult for Tuoba Xiaoyao and the family behind him to get his reward and respect.

Many ministers were also silent and did not dare to say more. Although Tuoba Xiaoyao's explanation was reasonable, it seemed extremely stupid to them.

"I was reckless to speak of this matter, and that made His Majesty Emperor Yu unhappy. If I had known that the third son of the Tuoba mansion had someone in his heart, I wouldn't have proposed the marriage." Gu Changge sighed softly at this moment. He seemed a little helpless, and apologized slightly.

Hearing that the anger on Emperor Yu's face dissipated, he waved his hands and said, "Young Master Changge, what did you say? How can I blame you for this matter? You also have good intentions..."

He didn't say the remaining sentence, "It's just that Tuoba Xiaoyao doesn't know how to flatter you." He didn't say it, but many ministers knew what it meant, and couldn't help but look pitiful and gloat at Tuoba Yuntian.

Just now they were envious and jealous of him, but in the blink of an eye, they not only vomited the fat that was brought to their mouth but also cursed him as unpalatable. This kind of consequence not only made Emperor Yu furious, but he was left out in the cold after that, probably afraid of offending Gu Changge inadvertently.

The glory of Tuoba Mansion might never come back after today. Tuoba Yuntian's face was also gloomy. He looked extremely depressed as he lamented in his heart. n0VellUsb.c0m

In front of everyone, it was not easy for him to blame Tuoba Xiaoyao. He should be happy because he was hiding his strength, but he was not happy at all.

Chapter 602: Thinking too much, Put him in prison

“Young Master Changge, why should you care about such a trivial matter? Let Yu Lie offer a toast to Young Master Changge.”

“If you have a chance in the future, you should spend more time with Young Master Changge. I think you are about the same age as Young Master Changge, but the gap is like a catastrophe. As long as you can reach one-tenth of Young Master Changge’s level, this Emperor can also hand over the Great Yu dynasty to you with confidence.”

On the top seat, Emperor Yu’s expression quickly recovered. After all, he was the Emperor of the Immortal Dynasty. A smile appeared on his face as he changed the subject and stretched out his hand for the second prince Yu Lie to step forward for a toast.

“Yes, father.”

Knowing that this was an opportunity for him to get closer to Gu Changge, Yu Lie also had a humble smile on his face. He walked, holding a wine glass in his hand, looking handsome and extraordinary like a tiger emanating a luxurious demeanor. Such an expression was completely different from the indifference and arrogance that he had when facing Tuoba Xiaoyao.

“Yu Lie respects Young Master Changge for a toast.”

“Second prince, please!” Gu Changge nodded with a smile on his face. He then thought of something, and said with great interest, “Speaking of which, I’m actually a little curious about what kind of woman is worthy of being rejected by the third son of the Tuoba Mansion, His Majesty Emperor Yu.” His words stunned everyone.

It was okay if he didn’t say anything, everyone here couldn’t help but become a little curious. To put it bluntly, it was to reject good intentions and look down on those princesses.

Emperor Yu’s expression was also a little moved, he was also a little curious after all. If Tuoba Xiaoyao couldn’t explain the reason he would punish him for the crime of insulting the Emperor.

“This Emperor also wants to know what Young Master Changge said.” He smiled and nodded.

Gu Changge smiled and replied, “How about this, if the third son of Tuoba Mansion is interested in Great Yu’s woman, His Majesty might as well be a man of honor and offer them a marriage. It’s just that I was a bit reckless right now, so I can apologize to the third son of the Tuoba House.”

Emperor Yu didn’t know why Gu Changge valued Tuoba Xiaoyao so much and even planned to apologize. But since Gu Changge said so, how could he refuse, he immediately asked Tuoba Xiaoyao again.

After all, this was just a trivial matter, a matter of his words.

“What do you think? If the woman you like is from my Great Yu, then this Emperor will decide and marry you two.” Emperor Yu asked with majesty in his eyes.

“It should be because Young Master Changge cherishes his talents. The performance of Tuoba Xiaoyao in the hunting conference was noticed by Young Master Changge.”

“Yeah, I heard that Young Master Changge mainly cares about his subordinates, he is very protective, and he is very good to his followers...”

“Why is this kid so lucky to be so highly valued by Young Master Changge? If he can’t get married once, there will be another time.”

Seeing this scene, many ministers guessed, feeling even more envious and jealous.

Tuoba Xiaoyao looked at the smiling Gu Changge, and the familiar feeling of fear struck again, making him look a little ugly as he clenched his fists. He knew that Gu Changge was absolutely uneasy and kind.

Whether it was the marriage gift before or the questioning now, it was for his own good on the surface, but secretly it was to incur the wrath and alienation of Emperor Yu. Gu Changge must have guessed his relationship with Yu Feiya, he must have done that on purpose. Every sentence implied a murderous intent, leaving him no way out, it was really hateful.

Facing Emperor Yu’s question, Tuoba Xiaoyao took a deep breath and replied again, “His Majesty Emperor Yu, the person Xiaoyao likes is actually Princess Yu Feiya, not someone else.”

What he said was very bold and direct, without any hidden meaning. And when he was speaking, he looked at Yu Feiya above, seeing that she seemed to be a little shocked, he couldn’t help sighing softly.

If it wasn’t for Gu Changge’s calculations, he didn’t want to reveal the matter at this time. But this was also good, if he said this in front of the officials, he could also make plans to prevent the marriage between the Great Yu and Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court in the future. n0VelSb.c0m

Even though Emperor Yu would be completely offended to death after today, and his previous plans would be cut off, there was no other way. Gu Changge forced him to death, he had no choice.

“Are you serious about what you said?” Emperor Yu’s face darkened again, and he suppressed his anger.

He really never expected that Tuoba Xiaoyao would say that the woman he liked was the eldest princess Yu Feiya. How did this end?

All the ministers were also deeply surprised, their eyes widened, and they couldn’t react for a while.

At this time, even Jia Luo, the prince of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court who had not spoken much at the banquet, squinted his eyes and looked at Tuoba Xiaoyao.

His marriage partner was the eldest princess Yu Feiya. And now that this guy said he was planning to fight with him?

It was just that Yu Feiya was a little silent, holding her sleeves tightly with her bare hands, her heart was not at peace.

“It seems that Princess Feiya has a good relationship with the third son of the Tuoba Mansion.” At this time, Gu Changge’s slightly surprised voice sounded, bringing Yu Feiya back to her senses.

“Why did Young Master Changge make such a statement?” She asked, a little puzzled.

Gu Changge smiled and answered, “Looking at Princess Feiya’s appearance, she doesn’t seem too shocked. Presumably, Princess Feiya has known about the secrets of the third son Tuoba, right?”

Seeing that Yu Feiya remained silent, Gu Changge knew that he had guessed right. He smiled indifferently, and looked at Tuoba Xiaoyao again. Now that the matter had developed to this point, he wanted to see how this guy would end up.

Tuoba Xiaoyao still wanted the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty to be his last protective shield? He was thinking too much.

After today, even if Emperor Yu knew that Gu Changge was going to snatch the Heavenly Sword from Tuoba Xiaoyao, he would turn a blind eye and close his eyes, and would not interfere.

Even if Tuoba Xiaoyao's talent was extraordinary and his future was limitless, so what?

In Emperor Yu's heart, Tuoba Xiaoyao was no longer the young hero he was before, but a stupid person who was ignorant of current affairs and compliments. It was impossible for him to tear himself apart from Gu Changge for such a Tuoba Xiaoyao. Because it was not worth it.

"Reporting to His Majesty Emperor Yu, this statement is absolutely true. Xiaoyao's favorite woman is Princess Feiya." Tuoba Xiaoyao didn't care about the expressions of the people around him at all. He took a deep breath, and asserted again.

In his new life, he used to be timid and scrupulous, but today he would be proud once again. He also couldn't do anything to hide his mind at this time.

"Good, good... Very good!" Emperor Yu laughed back in anger, uttering the word 'good' thrice in succession. The golden light in his eyes shone, and there was a scene of the destruction of the universe.

A terrible aura circulated around his body, making the star field above the sky tremble.

Tens of thousands of stars swayed as if they were about to fall, and terrifying clouds billowed, covering the sky and covering the sun. This was the wrath of the Emperor of the Immortal Dynasty, which directly affected the changes in the star field within the territory.

Joy, anger, sorrow... Any emotional change was closely related to the Luck in this territory, affecting everything in the world.

At this moment in the Great Yu territory, countless cultivators raised their heads in amazement, shocked by such a vision. Many ministers in the hall were also trembling like chaff, prostrating on the ground, not daring to raise their heads.

Tuoba Yuntian and the two daughters behind him also turned pale and were frightened.

Today, Emperor Yu had been furious twice, and this time was probably even more serious.

Knowing that Emperor Yu intended to marry Yu Feiya and the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, Tuoba Xiaoyao said it so recklessly, wasn't this a slap in the face of Emperor Yu?

And it was still in front of the officials. Could it be that Emperor Yu really wanted to agree to the words of marriage that he promised earlier? This was obviously impossible.

“Very well, the Emperor is telling you that it is impossible. It’s impossible for me to give Feiya to you, so you should die. Since you are sincerely provoking me today... Come here, put Tuoba Xiaoyao in prison for me!”

Emperor Yu was furious, his anger was hard to suppress. He immediately shouted and waved his hand, causing the guards outside the hall to step forward and put Tuoba Xiaoyao into the prison.

Tuoba Xiaoyao had already guessed such an ending, not surprised, his face looked extremely calm. It was just that when he looked at Gu Changge, there was unconcealable hatred deep in his eyes.

Soon, the guards outside the hall entered, holding Heavenly Swords, Heavenly Spears, and other weapons as they escorted Tuoba Xiaoyao away.

Tuoba Yuntian and the others turned pale. Looking at this scene, they didn’t even dare to say a word, let alone stop them.

Many ministers also felt a burst of embarrassment, a good man who was a proud son of heaven was wronged and became a prisoner in the blink of an eye. Wasn’t this the end of his own doing?

Chapter 603: Emperor Yu’s other thoughts, Then what are you to me?

In the hall, there was silence, many singers crawled down in fear, and all the ministers were also silent. Tuoba Xiaoyao was detained by the enraged Emperor Yu.

Although it was just a small episode, many ministers could feel Emperor Yu’s displeasure, his face was extremely gloomy, revealing a palpitating majesty. Even the most favored princes did not dare to speak easily.

Yu Feiya looked worriedly in the direction where Tuoba Xiaoyao was taken away and continued to remain silent. She didn’t know why Tuoba Xiaoyao would offend Emperor Yu at this juncture.

Wasn’t he clearly slapping Emperor Yu in the face before everyone? As the Emperor of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, how could Emperor Yu easily spare him?

For a moment, she sighed slightly in her heart, a little at a loss, not knowing how to deal with the matter.

Tuoba Xiaoyao was still too reckless, without considering the priorities and gains and losses of things.

“Feiya, it seems that you also have many things to hide from this Emperor.” Emperor Yu’s complexion finally recovered, he glanced at Yu Feiya lightly before saying.

He was not stupid, as could be seen from Tuoba Xiaoyao’s attitude, he and Yu Feiya might not simply know each other. It was just that Yu Feiya had never mentioned it to him before.

This made Emperor Yu a little disappointed. In his eyes, Yu Feiya had always been an obedient, steady, and well-behaved representative. How long ago has she been hiding so many things from him as she was now? When did she learn to hide so many things from him because of a man?

Yu Feiya’s face was slightly pale, and she whispered, “Daughter didn’t intend to hide it from her father. There is a reason...”

She was about to explain, but Emperor Yu interrupted her with a wave of his hand, and said lightly, "You don't need to explain, you will stay in the mansion from today onwards. You are not allowed to step out of the mansion without this Emperor's order."

When she heard this, Yu Feiya's face became pale and her body trembled, as if struck by lightning. It was a little unbelievable for her.

At such a big age, it was the first time that she was grounded by Emperor Yu, and she was not allowed to take half a step out of the mansion. She knew that Emperor Yu was really angry.

"Yes, father." But at this moment, she didn't dare to disobey Emperor Yu's wishes, she lowered her head and replied in a low voice, her eyes dimmed.

She inadvertently glanced to the side but saw Gu Changge with a vague smile on his lips as if he was also looking at her. This gave Yu Feiya a strange and indescribable feeling as if everything that happened in the palace today was caused by Gu Changge's deliberate promotion.

If it wasn't for Gu Changge, Tuoba Xiaoyao would not have aroused Emperor Yu's wrath.

"I let Young Master Changge laugh. I didn't expect this kind of thing to happen today. It's really embarrassing."

Afterward, Emperor Yu turned his head to look at Gu Changge, and couldn't help shaking his head and sighing.

Gu Changge withdrew his gaze from looking at Yu Feiya's expression. Watching the development of things all the time, it was actually similar to what he had expected.

Hearing this, he smiled, then shook his head and said, "It really surprised me, this third son of the Tuoba Mansion would say these words in public. People are afraid of embarrassment."

Not only did he reject Emperor Yu's offer of marriage in public, but he also publicly announced that his favorite person was Princess Yu Feiya. This was no longer as simple as indescribable treason, but courting death.

For Gu Changge, things became easier after Tuoba Xiaoyao was imprisoned. Although the prison of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty was known as a net of heaven and earth, in the deepest part, even the enemies and Enlightened beings were imprisoned there.

But if Gu Changge wanted to sneak in quietly, it was still easy. Even if Tuoba Xiaoyao died in prison, no one would suspect him.

After such an incident, many ministers including Emperor Yu lost interest in the next banquet.

The faces of the people in Tuoba Mansion were gloomy. Such a big event happened, no one had even imagined it before. From now on, Tuoba Mansion would definitely be alienated by Emperor Yu and would not be valued again.

The glory was gone, and it was going to decline. Although Tuoba Qiongling and Tuoba Qingyu were very concerned about Tuoba Xiaoyao, they were helpless at the moment and could only worry about it.

They really wanted to tell their father about Tuoba Xiaoyao, but Tuoba Xiaoyao repeatedly told them not to tell those words to other people, including their parents.

During this period, Jia Luo, the prince of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, once again raised the matter of marriage. Just now, Tuoba Xiaoyao said those words in front of everyone, which made him feel quite uncomfortable, and he was a little worried that Emperor Yu would refuse.

Although he didn't really admire Yu Feiya, in his eyes, their marriage was a certainty.

Suddenly, Tuoba Xiaoyao had jumped out, deliberately blocking this matter, and it felt like the other party didn't take him seriously.

In Jia Luo's view, Tuoba Xiaoyao was just a small son of the General's mansion, and it was far from possible to compare him with him in terms of cultivation level or status. As long as Emperor Yu was smart, he would know how to choose.

"As for the marriage proposal proposed by Prince Jia Luo, this Emperor will consider it for a few days and give you an answer in five days." Facing Jia Luo's proposal of marriage again, Emperor Yu answered in this way, impeccably, and had no intention of fully agreeing.

In fact, he still had other thoughts in his mind, let Prince Jia Luo hang out for a few days first, and then discuss the proposal.

On the other hand, Emperor Yu actually had other thoughts. At the time of the hunting conference, Tuoba Xiaoyao showed terrifying strength. That was not something his realm could display.

Therefore, Emperor Yu judged that there must be some big secret hidden in Tuoba Xiaoyao. If he had time, he would torture him.

After the banquet was over, the officials left tremblingly, and the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court and his party were also led by the maids to the other side of the palace.

Gu Changge also took Jiang Chuchu and returned to his residence. He was not in a hurry to investigate the situation of Tuoba Xiaoyao. If what he expected was correct, Yu Tianzheng should be waiting for him at his residence right now.

At the time of the hunting conference, he told Yu Tianzheng to give up the assassination, fearing that he would ruin his plan. Now, Yu Tianzheng must be unwilling and would definitely want to ask about it.

"Looking at it this way, I still have to make that guy more obedient..." Gu Changge narrowed his eyes.

With such a chess piece in place, he naturally needed to plan carefully. Now that he knew the identity of the Master of the Heavenly Sword, he was not in a hurry about the matter of the Heavenly Sword.

On the contrary, it was the huge Great Yu Immortal Dynasty that gave him an opportunity to take advantage.

"Did you already know what happened between Tuoba Xiaoyao and Princess Yu Feiya?"

Jiang Chuchu and Gu Changge walked side by side, dressed in white with light veils on their faces. She was only revealing the brows and eyes with an aura that transcended the dust. The blue hair fluttered like the moon god who was about to return to the wind.

She asked softly, having witnessed all the incidents in the palace today, she could naturally see that those words were intentionally made by Gu Changge, just to use Tuoba Xiaoyao to make Emperor Yu furious.

It stood to reason that Tuoba Xiaoyao and Gu Changge had no enmity and they had never seen each other before. However, Gu Changge acted as if he knew him very well, which puzzled her a lot.

“Yeah, I knew it a long time ago. Otherwise, how could I be bored to the point of planning someone else’s marriage.” Gu Changge smiled and put his arms around her slender waist.

Jiang Chuchu had an expression as if she expected it. Seeing that she still wanted to ask, Gu Changge couldn’t help but chuckle, and said, “That Tuoba Xiaoyao has the Heavenly Sword in his hand, and he endured it for so many years in order to avoid my detection.”

“It’s a pity that I saw through it at the hunting conference. If something like the Heavenly Sword falls into his hands, it will only kill him. Unfortunately, he still doesn’t understand and is trying to fight against me.”

“Handing the Heavenly Sword?” Jiang Chuchu blinked her eyes thoughtfully.

She naturally knew about the Seven Heavenly Artifacts and knew that Gu Changge already had those. No wonder he wanted to attack Tuoba Xiaoyao, it turned out to be for this reason. However, Gu Changge would tell her such a secret thing so frankly, which moved her a little.

After all, people like Gu Changge were rarely willing to tell the truth.

“Actually, you don’t need to tell me these things.” Jiang Chuchu’s eyes were shining, she raised her head to glance at Gu Changge, and then looked into the distance as if nothing had happened.

“But I just want to tell you.” Gu Changge smiled, grabbed her soft and boneless little hand before placing it in his palm.

“Who asked you to tell me? I... I don’t want to know these things.” Jiang Chuchu suddenly felt her heart beating very fast. Her face couldn’t help being stained with a faint rosy color, and she wanted to pull her hand out. But Gu Changge held on tightly, which made her a little ashamed.

“Why does it matter, them looking at us? Can’t I still hold your hand?” Gu Changge smiled lightly, “We are an old couple, why are you so shy?”

“Who is the old couple? Yue Mingkong is your fiance.” Jiang Chuchu wanted to give him a white look, showing annoyance.

At this time, she always felt that her face under the veil must have been as red as rouge.

In front of everyone, she was a sacred and dignified Holy Maiden of the Human Ancestor Hall, untainted by the world, detached from the outside world. Her mind was like a mirror, and would not change in the slightest because of external things. nOvEℓu&ℓ.C0m “Mingkong is my fiancée, so what are you to me?” Gu Changge still chuckled lightly.

“You...” Hearing this question, Jiang Chuchu felt ashamed and annoyed again, feeling a little inexplicably disappointed.

Yes, Yue Mingkong was a legitimate fiancée, so what was she?

Gu Changge sighed and said, “I understand, you will probably be a spoiled maid in the future, the kind who is especially bullied. Not only bullied by me but also bullied by others...”

“You are not allowed to bully me.”

Although Jiang Chuchu was adjusting her mood, she still felt aggrieved when she heard this, and pulled his hand out of Gu Changge’s palm.

“Then don’t be a maid in the future.” Gu Changge smiled, showing a gentle and sympathetic expression.

Jiang Chuchu always felt that he was here purely to tease him today.

“You will marry me, right?” She lowered her eyes and her voice gradually became lower.

Chapter 604: Getting in the way of my business, Facing the greatest enemy for the first time

Marry? This word came to Gu Changge’s mind as he smiled and said, “That’s natural.”

The sky was dusky as the sun set, and the two walked side by side in the palace like a godly couple.

Although she was speaking softly, Jiang Chuchu always kept the guards up watching quietly.

“That Tuoba Xiaoyao is now locked in the prison, so should we kill him and grab the Heavenly Sword? The Prison of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty shouldn’t be able to stop the two of us.” On the way back to the residence, Jiang Chuchu suddenly had a thought.

Gu Changge didn’t expect her to say that. He put his hand on her pretty face, and said with a smile, “It’s natural to kill him, I want to take the Heavenly Sword, but it’s not us, just me.”

“I can help you too...” Jiang Chuchu couldn’t help herself from saying.

Gu Changge shook his head lightly and said, “No need. Don’t forget your identity, you are the Holy Maiden of the Human Ancestor Hall, this kind of thing is not suitable for you.”

Jiang Chuchu had been influenced by the scriptures of the Human Ancestor Hall since she was a child. She had a heart for all people in the world, and upheld a sense of justice. If she did this kind of thing, it would only pollute her heart of Taoism for no reason.

“For you, I have turned my back on my master, so what are these things?” Jiang Chuchu lowered his eyes, knowing what Gu Changge meant.

“But I don’t want you to fall into the mortal world and be contaminated with vulgarity.” Gu Changge smiled.

Jiang Chuchu stared at his face, and finally hummed softly. At this moment, she felt that she had paid so much for Gu Changge, and it was all worth it.

When Gu Changge returned to the palace, as he expected, Yu Tianzheng was already waiting there. He remained silent, although he still looked respectful, he was a little unwilling as if he wanted an explanation from Gu Changge.

“Go and rest first,” Gu Changge smiled slightly and asked Jiang Chuchu to leave before walking over on his own.

“Yu Tianzheng greets Young Master Changge.” Yu Tianzheng’s appearance was very similar to Emperor Yu’s, with a square nose and mouth, but he looked older, adding a sense of vicissitudes.

He obeyed Gu Changge’s order and canceled the assassination plan against the second prince Yu Lie at the hunting conference. But he couldn’t figure out why Gu Changge did this.

If the second prince Yu Lie had died there, then the entire Great Yu Immortal Dynasty would be in chaos, and the many methods he deployed would also be effective. This was also the reason he wanted to question Gu Changge.

Gu Changge smiled when he heard the words, and asked unhurriedly, “Why, what do you want to see me for?”

He asked knowingly, wanting to know Yu Tianzheng’s attitude. If Yu Tianzheng was smarter and obeyed his orders obediently and didn’t bother with what shouldn’t be asked, then Gu Changge could let him go.

If he didn’t know to differentiate good from bad, Gu Changge would naturally not show mercy.

“I don’t understand something, I hope Young Master Changge can explain something to me,” Yu Tianzheng raised his head with some questions in his words. He had been unwilling these days.

“Oh, what is so unclear?” Gu Changge still spoke unhurriedly.

Yu Tianzheng looked directly at him and said, “With sincerity, I intend to cooperate with Young Master Changge. If I can take over the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, I will definitely make an oath of heaven and hand over the Great Yu, but Young Master Changge, without telling me the reason, you made me give up the assassination. If it’s not that you forgot the agreement between the two of us, or you and Emperor Yu jointly planned to capture me?”

He had made a lot of preparations for this trip, so his words were not polite at all. Before, it was because he was too polite that Gu Changge felt that he was being bullied and was constrained by him.

His own cultivation base was stronger than Emperor Yu’s, but the techniques and divine powers of the two were not the same. All these years, he had tried his best, even if he was facing an Enlightened being, he could still fight.

What was more, Yu Tianzheng expected that if Gu Changge still had a plan against the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, he would not do anything to him. He uttered these words, on the one hand, to vent the anger in his heart, and on the other hand, he also wanted to let Gu Changge know his importance.

To consider his words in his next actions and plans.

“So you came here especially to question me tonight?” Gu Changge still had a faint smile on his face. But for some reason, Yu Tianzheng had an ominous premonition in his heart.

He still bite the bullet and said, “It’s not a question, I just want Young Master Changge to give me an explanation, otherwise the next plan...”

“What’s the next plan?” Gu Changge interrupted him, asking with great interest.

“In the next plan, I’m afraid I won’t fully obey your orders.” Yu Tianzheng said bluntly.

Gu Changge smiled and said, “Actually, it’s nothing. I asked you to cancel the assassination plan not because I was worried that your assassination would fail. It’s because you hindered my affairs.”

“Your affair?” Yu Tianzheng’s face changed slightly, and there was some anger in his voice, “What can be more important than assassination?”

“You don’t have to worry about it.” Gu Changge smiled lightly, and naturally, he would not tell Yu Tianzheng about Heavenly Sword and Tuoba Xiaoyao.

“Okay, since that’s the case, let’s think about the next plan...” Yu Tianzheng was silent for a moment, feeling that Gu Changge still didn’t take him seriously, his heart sank, and he cupped his fists and said, intending to leave.

But the next moment he hadn’t even finished speaking as a look of shock and disbelief appeared on his face.

Buzz!!

“Did I permit you to leave?” Gu Changge looked calm. He didn’t say much, just stretched out his hand towards him and the void seemed to freeze at this moment.

The big hand surrounded by five-color chaotic energy reached forward, covering the sky.

At this time, Yu Tianzheng stood upside down with a hair raising chill emerging on his body. His soul trembled as a wave of cold swept from within. He never expected that Gu Changge would strike so suddenly, so viciously.

“In that case...” Yu Tianzheng shouted angrily.

Even though he knew he was no match, he still went forward to block it, not wanting to have an accident.

There was a sound of “Clang”, and a crystal-clear Dao sword lingering with the laws of Heaven and Earth were thrown out before slashing down immediately.

This was a Quasi-Emperor weapon. Although it had not yet recovered, it still possessed terrifying power.

“Dang!”

But Gu Changge’s big hand lingering with the chaotic energy didn’t hide. He went straight forward to grab it. The crystal Dao sword struck a finger, shooting out sparks. Still, it couldn’t pierce.

This made Yu Tianzheng terrified, his Quasi-Emperor weapon was solid and immortal. It was refined by Fortune Immortal Gold but it couldn’t pierce a single finger of Gu Changge, instead, it made a terrifying trembling sound as if it was about to burst. He really didn’t know how Gu Changge had cultivated his body, it was hard to imagine what kind of state he had reached.

“Buzz!”

In the next instant, the void in front of him collapsed, making it difficult to bear the power of this palm. And to Yu Tianzheng’s despair, the surrounding world seemed to have turned into Gu Changge’s domain, sealing off every inch of void in his mind. Even if he wanted to escape, there was no other way.

“Young Master Changge, please spare me... I was wrong...” Fear appeared on Yu Tian’s face, and the Dao sword in his hand developed a crack, which was about to be shattered by Gu Changge’s palm.

One must know that this was a Quasi-Emperor weapon. In terms of forging materials, it was already comparable to some Enlightenment artifacts. But it still lost to Gu Changge’s random palm?

He felt extreme regret as he felt him being already strong enough. There were still many methods he hadn’t used. But now it seemed that even if those methods were used, they would not have the slightest effect.

Gu Changge was definitely an Enlightened being! Probably, not many people in the huge Upper Realm knew about this.

“I don’t like people who think they’re smart. If you don’t want to die, let go of the primordial spirit and let me plant the slave mark.” Gu Changge said lightly.

He imprisoned Yu Tianzheng, and grabbed his soul from the center of his eyebrows. Although he didn’t intend to kill Yu Tianzheng just like that as it was still useful to keep him alive. But in order to keep Yu Tianzheng obedient, he still had to plant the demonic seal. n0vel.usb.c0m

Although planting the slave mark meant being a slave for the rest of his life, at this moment Yu Tianzheng had no other choice.

The horror and trickiness of the demonic seal lay in its weirdness, which was rooted in the deepest part of the soul, even the Enlightened being who was the most proficient in the soul could never find out.

...

The news about the third son of the Tuoba mansion bearing Emperor Yu’s wrath in the banquet and being imprisoned in the prison spread throughout the entire imperial capital almost immediately after the banquet ended.

The cultivators in the streets and alleys were discussing this matter, and Tuoba Xiaoyao, who was involved, was pushed to the forefront. He hid his strengths and bided his time for more than 20 years. He shined in the hunting conference and became a young supreme comparable to the second prince. For a while, he shone so beautifully that countless people envied him.

But in a blink of an eye, he fell from the skies to become a prisoner. Even the Tuoba Mansion, which was very lively at the entrance, was empty and deserted. It could be called a difference of worlds, which made many people sigh.

The matter of Tuoba Xiaoyao admiring the eldest princess Yu Feiya was treated as a farce, which made everyone laugh and cry. Those who had good things spread the embarrassing and useful comment that Gu Changge said at the banquet.

The many disappointments revealed in it made many people feel the same. Obviously, there was an opportunity to reach the sky in one step, but Tuoba Xiaoyao abruptly refused it. If this was not stupid, then what was it?

And just as the outside world was talking about it. In the depths of the Great Yu Imperial Capital, the prison seemed extremely quiet.

Tuoba Xiaoyao was tall and straight with a firm face, sitting cross-legged in the cell with his eyes closed as if he was deaf to many things outside. Strands of sword intent lingered on his body, and there were thousands of sword auras intertwined in a trance, which made people's skin ache.

Having been a human for several lifetimes, he naturally knew that the possibility of him wanting to escape from the prison was almost zero. The only way was to wait for Emperor Yu's anger to dissipate.

Or his father, Yu Feiya, and others try to rescue him. So he didn't resist, nor did he have the idea of running away. Although the defense of the prison was tight, Tuoba Xiaoyao was still a little worried.

With Gu Changge's strength, if he wanted to sneak into this place, it should be very easy. The many guards and jailers outside, and even the formation patterns, were useless to him.

But at this moment, Tuoba Xiaoyao felt a sudden change in the void in front of him, he suddenly opened his eyes, a dazzling sword intent flashed in his eyes as his expression became extremely fearful.

Buzz!!

A layer of silver ripples spread, the void collapsed, and a slender figure like a god stepped out of it.

"Gu Changge!"

Tuoba Xiaoyao squeezed out the name almost word for word. This was the first time he had faced his great enemy directly since he was reborn, and there was unconcealable hatred in the depths of his eyes.

Chapter 605: How can I be willing to choose between Heavenly Sword and my relatives?

"I'm actually curious why you have such deep hostility towards me. It stands to reason that we haven't met before."

A portal opened in the void, and Gu Changge walked out from it, dressed in white.

He smiled and spoke, his hair glittering and shining. Three thousand gods appeared and manifested behind him, exuding a terrifying aura that made one's heart tremble.

Just as Tuoba Xiaoyao expected, the many prohibition formations here were nothing to Gu Changge. Even for the few Enlightened beings sleeping deep in the dungeon, it was difficult to find his aura and traces.

Tuoba Xiaoyao calmed himself down. He stood up and looked directly at Gu Changge, and said, "Don't you already know the reason? What's the use of asking me now?"

Rebirth was one of his greatest secrets. He would not be easily exposed to anyone.

"There are no outsiders here, Gu Changge, just put away your hypocrisy." He said coldly.

Gu Changge smiled lightly, and then said unhurriedly, "Since you want to say that, it should be very clear that I came to you to get something. If that thing falls into your hands, it will only bring you disaster and misfortune. If you are wise, give it to me, and I may spare your life."

However, Tuoba Xiaoyao had expected it a long time ago, he was very disdainful, and said with a sneer, "Hehe, Gu Changge, you should give up. Even if you kill me, you won't be able to get the Heavenly Sword."

In order to guard against this day, he used the secret method he learned in his previous life to cultivate the Heavenly Sword into a Heavenly Sword Embryo a few years ago.

The Heavenly Sword Embryo was closely related to his life and soul, and the two were inseparable. Even if Gu Changge killed him, it would be impossible to get the Heavenly Sword.

The current Upper Realm had no way to crack it. The only way to crack it was hidden in the sword pavilion of the Shu Sect, the sect he cultivated in his previous life. Even he himself had no solution.

It was for this reason that Tuoba Xiaoyao felt confident that Gu Changge would not kill him. Because once he died, the Heavenly Sword would be destroyed at the same time, and Gu Changge wouldn't be able to get all Seven Heavenly Artifacts together.

"Oh, you are so confident, it seems that you should have a countermeasure."

Hearing that there was a faint smile on the corner of Gu Changge's mouth, he didn't take it seriously.

As a reborn person, Tuoba Xiaoyao must have anticipated this day long ago, so he would definitely do his best to ensure that he would not get the Heavenly Sword.

So in fact, there was no need to think too much, Gu Changge could guess it all.

Tuoba Xiaoyao should have bound the Heavenly Sword with his life and death through some method, which was the so-called sword was in people, and the sword was in death. But Tuoba Xiaoyao was alone after all, and Gu Changge did not believe that he could ignore the safety of the people around him.

Before coming, he thought of many reactions of Tuoba Xiaoyao.

"So you should give up, you won't be able to get the Heavenly Sword." Tuoba Xiaoyao stared at him coldly, not knowing what Gu Changge was thinking at the moment.

Gu Changge shook his head and smiled casually, "I don't know why you are so hostile to me. You just have to give me the Heavenly Sword, and I will spare your life. This is the best for both of us. In your hands, is it possible that the sword has other functions? Why do you want to oppose me like this, and hold the Heavenly Sword firmly in your hand?"

"Don't you like Yu Feiya? But now she is going to marry the prince of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court. Yet here you are, imprisoned in the prison. And I still remember how many brothers and sisters you have, do you think I can't deal with them?"

Tuoba Xiaoyao's expression darkened, whether it was Yu Feiya, Tuoba Qiongling, or the others, they were all his weaknesses. However, he had already made plans to burn jade and stone together, so his voice was very decisive, "Gu Changge, if you want to threaten me, then you too should be prepared to suffer before it's too late. When the time comes, I will self-destruct the sword embryo, and you will never get together the Seven Heavenly Artifacts."

"You will never get the Heavenly Sword."

Although this was the most helpless and the least choice, if the matter developed to that point, Tuoba Xiaoyao would naturally have no scruples. He was now certain that Gu Changge intended to wield the Heavenly Sword, and dare not do anything to him.

"Oh?" Gu Changge narrowed his eyes, and then laughed again, still not caring, "According to what you said, I will stop holding the Heavenly Sword, but your relatives and beauty will pay a heavy price for your stupid choice in the future. You have to know that I have thousands of ways to make them regret living in this world. Perhaps I don't need to say more, you can think of it."

Although Gu Changge said these words in an understatement, Tuoba Xiaoyao felt a terrible chill, which made his hair stand on end and he couldn't help shivering.

For a moment, Tuoba Xiaoyao's expression was extremely ugly, and he fell into silence.

In fact, what Gu Changge said was what he was most worried about, and he had thought about it before.

For Gu Changge, the Heavenly Sword was just a foreign object, and he was now standing at the pinnacle of the Upper Realm, even if he didn't get the Heavenly Sword, he won't lose anything.

But Yu Feiya, Tuoba Qiongling, Tuoba Qingyu, and the others were a threshold that he couldn't pass, they were his backs, and they were his weaknesses. Because of his rebirth, he always felt that he could take revenge in this life, so he forbore it until now.

Yet when Gu Changge saw through his disguise and he faced Gu Changge directly, he realized how big the gap between the two was. This was simply desperate. All the efforts he had put in over the years had not been able to play any role.

If he continued to be persistent, he would definitely follow in the footsteps of his previous life. Still, if he just succumbed to Gu Changge like this, he would really not be reconciled. The hatred from his previous life was still vivid in his mind now. nOVelUSb.cOm

“I’ll give you time to think about it. Next time I come to see you, I want an answer from you.” Gu Changge noticed Tuoba Xiaoyao’s uncertain face, and smiled faintly, knowing that his heart was shaking.

He already had six of the Seven Heavenly Artifacts in his hand, and he wanted to get the Heavenly Sword no matter what.

Since Tuoba Xiaoyao tied his life and death with the Heavenly Sword, he must have a solution. Even if there was no way, he had to find a way. Hearing this, Tuoba Xiaoyao once again had an uncertain look on his face.

He knew that he would not be able to hold the Heavenly Sword no matter what, and he had to make a choice between the Heavenly Sword and his relatives. If he hadn’t met Gu Changge so early, he would have had other choices, but now he couldn’t help it.

At that moment, Tuoba Xiaoyao took a deep breath and said, “The Heavenly Sword has merged with me, I can use its power, but I can’t separate it from my body. In the current Upper Realm, no one can solve it. Including me.”

Hearing this, Gu Changge raised his eyebrows, the smile on his face gradually faded, and said, “Do you think I really won’t kill you?”

As he spoke, he leaned forward, and with Tuoba Xiaoyao’s somewhat horrified expression, he broke the sword intent in front of him, strangled him by the throat, and lifted him up like a chicken cub.

For a moment, Tuoba Xiaoyao felt that he could hardly breathe. The terrifying cold aura swept over him as if a vast abyss covered the sky, making him tremble, and his skin almost burst.

The bones of the whole body were crackling, and the spine was about to be crushed. Blood flowed out from his seven orifices, and his vision became blurred.

“I... can swear by my Dao heart, there is not a single lie in these... words.”

Tuoba Xiaoyao’s face turned pale, his soul trembled, and he once again had the fear of facing death. He answered intermittently while coughing blood from his mouth.

“Oh?” Gu Changge’s expression returned to calm, with no signs of happiness or anger.

At this time, Tuoba Xiaoyao should not have the guts to deceive him. This situation actually exceeded his expectations.

Tuoba Xiaoyao was also a ruthless person, in order to prevent the Heavenly Sword from being taken away, he did not hesitate to make such a bad move.

But Gu Changge thought of the Good Fortune Immortal Boat before, if Tuoba Xiaoyao was used to refine the sword, could he resurface the Heavenly Sword?

As the Prophet of Destiny, Xiao Ruoyin might have a solution.

Chapter 606: In half a month, Plan to set up a big net

There was dead silence within the dungeon, only the deep area one would sound with some low-pitched roars from time to time. It was as if some kind of terrifying beast was imprisoned, making people feel horrified.

In this world, all the laws and order were sealed, and it was difficult for even Enlightened beings to find abnormalities.

Gu Changge grabbed Tuoba Xiaoyao's throat with one hand, regardless of his pale appearance due to suffocation, his expression seemed a little thoughtful. It was still unknown whether Xiao Ruoyin, the Prophet of Destiny, could use Tuoba Xiaoyao as a material to refine the Heavenly Sword.

Before that, Tuoba Xiaoyao's words made Gu Changge suspicious. If Tuoba Xiaoyao had just a simple rebirth, why was he so sure that there was no solution in the current Upper Realm?

"It seems that you still have a lot of secrets hidden in you." Gu Changge's eyes were dark, staring at Tuoba Xiaoyao's eyebrows, trying to gain insight into his spirit.

But at this moment, he seemed to be aware of the crisis.

Buzz!!

Dazzling brilliance diffused out like a red glow, and Tuoba's forehead shone brightly. One could even see blood flowing.

A palm-sized sword talisman floated out. It was less than an inch long, but exuded a dazzling sword intent, buzzing like a divine sword about to be unsheathed and capable of cutting through everything.

"It turns out that the Heavenly Sword and primordial spirit have been cultivated into a sword embryo."

After taking a closer look, Gu Changge recognized this object. As it was tainted with the breath of Tuoba Xiaoyao's life.

At the same time, there was also the unique brand of the Heavenly Sword. If he forcibly searched for the soul, it would definitely destroy the sword embryo, thus damaging the Heavenly Sword.

"You should be able to believe me by now?"

Although Tuoba Xiaoyao's face turned pale, there was still an expression of unyielding and unwillingness in the depths of his eyes.

Gu Changge let go of the hand that was holding his throat, and said lightly, "I don't care how you did all this, but if you can't hand over the Heavenly Sword within half a month, no matter if it's Yu Feiya or your brother and sisters, they will pay the heavy price you deserve."

As he said before, even if there was no way, Tuoba Xiaoyao had to find a way. Who told him to choose such a dead end at the beginning? Wasn't he just reaping the consequences of his actions himself?

If after half a month, he still couldn't get the Heavenly Sword, Gu Changge would naturally have to resort to other means. And this half a month was exactly the time when Xiao Ruoyin could come here.

"Half a month?" Tuoba Xiaoyao's complexion changed. Gu Changge only gave him half a month, how could he find a way to break this technique?

But he also understood that this was the deadline Gu Changge provided him. If he still couldn't hand over the Heavenly Sword after half a month, then whether it was Yu Feiya, Tuoba Qiongling, Tuoba Qingyu, etc., they would probably pay a heavy price for his actions.

"I see." Seeing that Gu Changge didn't intend to say anything more to him, Tuoba Xiaoyao saw him turn around and step into the void.

He was silent for a moment before he breathed a sigh of relief and touched his neck which was almost broken. The feeling of facing death was still there, making his back wet with cold sweat.

If he hadn't cultivated Heavenly Sword and Primordial Spirit as one, Gu Changge might have searched his soul to find out the secret of his rebirth and reincarnation just now.

Although Gu Changge gave him half a month, it also included the time when he was imprisoned in the prison by Emperor Yu. So after careful calculation, there was not much time left for him.

Revenge? This was an unattainable luxury.

On the other side, after Gu Changge returned to the palace, he sent someone to call the man with the scar from the hunting conference that day.

The scarred man's name was Song Ye, and he was a sequence seed cultivated by the Spring Breeze Pavillion. He had the strength to kill all young supremes and was proficient in disguise, absconding, and assassination.

That day, under the heaven and earth net arranged by Emperor Yu, he also escaped safely. Using a different face he hid in the capital of Emperor Yu.

"Greetings, Young Master."

Soon, Song Ye rushed over. He now looked like a weak scholar with a fair and weak face, as if he had just recovered from a serious illness. He appeared extremely respectful in front of Gu Changge.

As the assassin sequence of the Spring Breeze Pavillion, he was qualified to contact the top management, so he naturally knew that the master behind the current Spring Breeze Pavillion was actually Gu Changge.

In other words, Gu Changge was actually the real master behind the scenes of the Spring Breeze Pavillion.

"Go and arrest that Fourth Miss from Tuoba Mansion." Gu Changge ordered lightly.

Although he had already given Tuoba Xiaoyao half a month, there was still a threat that he should have, so Tuoba Xiaoyao should not worry about the rest of his thoughts.

"Yes, my lord." Song Ye replied with a nod, not daring to ask the reason.

The Great Yu imperial capital was known as a net of heaven and earth, with strict defenses, not to mention one sentry at five steps, and one post at ten steps, it was almost the same.

Yet as the serial seed of the Spring Breeze Pavillion, he was sure that he could take Tuoba Qingyu away without anyone knowing it. After seeing Song Ye leave, Gu Changge fell into thought again.

He wasn't worried about Tuoba Xiaoyao warning Tuoba Qingyu and the others in advance, making Tuoba family wary, he was just thinking about the next plan. n0VeiUSb.c0M

The ripening time of the Dao fruit of the Epoch Tree was approaching soon, but he hadn't laid out this big net before that. Needless to say the allure and temptation to become Immortal, even he couldn't avoid it, let alone other people.

It was just that there was still a lack of a place to arrange this big net. Gu Changge considered manifesting his Inner Universe as a place to hide it. But in terms of the current level of the Inner Universe, it was still not stable. It was not up to the level that Gu Changge had expected, so he planned to refine part of the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction to evolve the Inner Universe, and then consider this matter.

What needed to be considered before this was the matter of Seven Heavenly Artifacts and the Secret Treasure of the Immortal Palace. His strength had now reached a bottleneck, and it was difficult to break through.

It had been a few days since Tuoba Xiaoyao was imprisoned, and the entire Great Yu Imperial City had gradually calmed down.

Under Emperor Yu's deliberate arrangement, the confinement of eldest princess Yu Feiya was lifted as she accompanied prince Jia Luo of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court to walk around a few times, in the name of getting to know each other.

However, Emperor Yu was still very tight-lipped and did not mention whether he would agree to the marriage plan. There were even various speculations and rumors among the ministers.

Some people thought that Emperor Yu still hadn't given up and was still playing with Gu Changge. If Gu Changge displayed a little bit of interest in Yu Feiya, he would definitely abandon Absolute Heavenly Prince Jia Luo without hesitation. However, during the days Gu Changge was temporarily living in the Great Yu Dynasty, he lived in a simple way.

Even if many princes wanted to see him, it was very difficult, not to mention other ministers. Many people also noticed that the prince of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court often visited Gu Changge, and they had no way of knowing whether they saw anyone or not.

In the past few days, a small incident also happened in the Imperial Capital of Great Yu.

One day, Tuoba Qingyu, the fourth lady of the Tuoba mansion, suddenly disappeared. Several maids who were in charge of serving her also died tragically in the mansion without a sound.

Many guards patrolling outside did not perceive all this.

Tuoba Yuntian had just experienced being neglected and alienated by Emperor Yu, his temples were graying, his face was full of sorrow, and his fourth daughter was kidnapped in the mansion, which almost made him pass out.

Many people suspected that it was the scarred man from the hunting conference. His behavior could be described as daring. However, no one witnessed all of this, and it was even more difficult to find any traces. In addition, Tuoba Mansion was neglected by Emperor Yu, and very few people paid attention to this matter.

And after these few days, Emperor Yu's anger at the banquet had almost dissipated.

Thinking of Tuoba Yuntian's many contributions in the early years, now that his daughter had been taken captive, depressed and unhappy, he couldn't bear it, so he ordered the release of Tuoba Xiaoyao.

Originally, he was a little interested in the secrets of Tuoba Xiaoyao, but after experiencing this incident, he still felt a little sympathetic so he didn't make things difficult for him anymore.

Of course, part of the relationship was that Emperor Yu had seen Yu Feiya's expression being a little unhappy these days. His heart was a little soft, and he felt a little guilty towards her.

"Qingyu was taken away from the mansion?"

After leaving the prison where the sky was never seen, and finally returning to the mansion, Tuoba Xiaoyao learned the news. His whole face quickly became gloomy and ugly. His elder brother was still at the border and had not yet returned home.

Only the depressed father and second sister Tuoba Qiongling were the ones in the family. The elders of the clan didn't care about this matter at all.

"Alas, I don't want to restore my family right now, as long as you guys are safe." Tuoba Yuntian had a lot of things he wanted to say to Tuoba Xiaoyao, but at this moment he just let out a long sigh, with a helpless expression on his face.

Tuoba Xiaoyao clenched his fists and remained silent. In fact, he already guessed in his heart who was behind it.

"Third Brother..." Tuoba Qiongling actually had guessed in her heart, she couldn't help looking at Tuoba Xiaoyao, and asked with her eyes.

"Father, don't worry, second sister will be fine." Tuoba Xiaoyao said in a deep voice.

Chapter 607: The space portal of the borderlands, A hunting game

Regarding Tuoba Xiaoyao's guarantee, Tuoba Yuntian just sighed softly, thinking that he was comforting him, and didn't take it to heart. His fourth daughter was kidnapped from the mansion, and her whereabouts were still unknown.

Although he had sent people to search everywhere these days, there was no trace of clues, like a stone sinking into the sea. Tuoba Yuntian already had a bad premonition in his heart, but it would be difficult to accept this reality for a while.

"It seems that I can only be cheeky and beg His Majesty, maybe he will send someone to help me because of the hard work I have done..." Tuoba Yuntian had a sad face and pinned his last hope on Emperor Yu.

If even Emperor Yu couldn't find out the whereabouts of Tuoba Qingyu, then he had no choice but to acknowledge that the other party was extremely bold and arrogant.

Not only did he commit murder in the Great Yu imperial capital, which was known as the net of heaven and earth, but he also sneaked into the General's mansion and kidnapped Tuoba Qingyu in front of all the maids and guards.

Although there were many forces with such means in the huge Upper Realm, they were not something that a small General like him could contend with.

"Xiaoyao, do you think it's true? Could it be that Gu Changge really sent someone to kidnap Qingyu?"

After a moment of silence, seeing that there was no one else there, Tuoba Qiongling asked in disbelief.

"Except for Gu Changge, no one will attack Qingyu. He is warning me to not play tricks." Tuoba Xiaoyao's face was gloomy, and he clenched his fists tightly.

He naturally knew Gu Changge's plan, it was to make him cautious and not dare to act rashly.

At the same time, he wanted him to hand over the Heavenly Sword within the agreed time, otherwise Tuoba Qingyu's life would be in danger.

"Gu Changge..." Tuoba Qiongling fell silent, feeling a strong sense of powerlessness in her heart.

In the face of such a terrifying enemy, even if they resisted, they would be like a mantis trying to stop a chariot with their arms, looking for a dead end.

"But don't worry, as long as I don't give that thing to Gu Changge, second sister will be safe. Gu Changge shouldn't embarrass Qingyu during this period." Tuoba Xiaoyao then comforted, telling his first sister not to worry, he would find a way.

"I hope so." Tuoba Qiongling sighed. www.ovelus.com

"By the way, second sister, some time ago in the border area, it is said that a never before seen ancient world has appeared. The eldest brother is now leading troops to guard there. How much do you know about this?"

Then, thinking of another important matter, Tuoba Xiaoyao couldn't help but solemnly ask, with a serious expression.

This matter was very secretive, only the senior officials of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty knew about it, and he only heard about it from his father by accident.

When he was in the prison, he carefully considered how to hand over the Heavenly Sword within the agreed time.

The final conclusion was to go to the Shu Sect from his previous life and read and decipher the classics in the Sword Pavillion in the forbidden area.

In his previous life, when he was observing his ancestors crossing the catastrophe, he was affected by the scope of the catastrophe and died accidentally. As a result, a wisp of his soul survived and fell to the Upper Realm, and was reborn as the third son of the Tuoba Mansion.

Then when he was a teenager, he awakened the memory of rebirth, so he was certain that he was now a human being in the third life. The classics for refining the fetus of Heavenly Sword come from the Sword Pavilion of the Shu Sect.

“What’s the matter? Brother is indeed guarding the space portal over there now, in case the rest of the Immortal forces find out.”

“Why did you suddenly ask about this?” Tuoba Qiongling asked, a little puzzled.

The ancient world that has never been opened up there was said to have a profound foundation and a long history of Luck. It could even give birth to existence at the level of an Enlightened being.

This also meant that the ancient world contained infinite resources.

Before exploring, the Great Yu immortal Dynasty would definitely do everything possible to cover up the news of its existence and try to eat the biggest piece of meat before the news was exposed.

The major forces in the Upper Realm, all do this in the face of this unexplored ancient world, so it was not surprising to Tuoba Qiongling. Because the Upper Realm, as the center of the Heaven, gathered hundreds of millions of Lower Realms.

The level of space barrier for some of these worlds was already comparable to the Upper Realm, and occasionally space cracks would appear due to the collision of the two worlds, exposing their existence.

“I need to go find my brother.” Tuoba Xiaoyao nodded when he heard the words, and there was thought in his eyes. He was not interested in the ancient world that had never been explored before, but he suddenly thought of a possibility.

Could it be that the reason why he was reincarnated in the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty was that the world he was in before was adjacent to this place?

What if the ancient world that was suddenly exposed was the world where he lived and cultivated before?

If this was the case, then he could return to the original world to find a solution.

Of course, Tuoba Xiaoyao had other plans in his heart, and his desire for revenge became active again. If that world was really the world he originally lived in, didn’t that mean that he had an ancient world as his background, which could compete with Gu Changge?

Thinking of this, Tuoba Xiaoyao didn’t stop. After packing some luggage, he embarked on the road to the border.

After leaving the prison, he didn’t even have time to look at Yu Feiya. Of course, Tuoba Xiaoyao also knew that now was not the time to talk about the love between children. There were more important things waiting for him right now.

Compared to the rush on Tuoba Xiaoyao’s side, Gu Changge on the other side seemed a little leisurely.

In the past few days, Jia Luo, the prince of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court had come to him from time to time to discuss departing for the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, but Gu Changge was naturally perfunctory about this.

Despite this, Jia Luo still respected him very much, and there was no lack of flattery in his words, and he even intended to follow him. Gu Changge thought for a while and felt that sooner or later he would go to the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

It would be nice to have such an errand guy, so Jia Luo's request was not rejected.

Walking in front of him, Jia Luo looked very familiar with it.

The mountain behind the palace was an extremely wide hunting ground. The ancient forests were luxuriant, the mountains were stretching, and so tall that you couldn't see the edge at a glance. They were shrouded in a thin mist, and from time to time, there were various colors of gorgeous rays of light rushing into the sky.

This place used to be a blessed place, and it was said that there were Immortals preaching here, but it was abandoned later. But in some corners, sometimes many rare treasures were found, and there were even ancient inscriptions, which recorded some kind of powerful divine powers.

Therefore, a certain generation of Emperor Yu specially transformed this place into a hunting ground. Generally, the children of the Royal family liked to come here to hunt ferocious beasts when they had nothing to do.

There were many prohibition formations engraved around the hunting ground, and soldiers were also sent to patrol. One wouldn't have to worry about someone coming to disturb them while hunting.

There were many buildings and pavilions in the hunting ground, the buildings were magnificent shining with precious light just like a majestic Immortal palace.

At this moment, Gu Changge, second prince Yu Lie, the Absolute Heavenly prince Jia Luo, the eldest princess Yu Feiya, and many famous young lords of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty had gathered here, standing in the pavilion and looking at the scene in the hunting ground.

Gu Changge was dressed in a moon-white long dress, his crystal-clear hair tied with a simple hair rope, his eyes were warm and peaceful, looking simple and leisurely, displaying a sense of laziness.

"Young Master Changge was invited to come here today. In fact, I wanted to have nothing to do. It just happened that we received many captives from the border, so I wanted to play a small game."

Yu Lie was tall and straight with the steps of a dragon and a tiger like a young emperor. He had a hidden brilliance all over his body as he said with a smile.

Emperor Yu personally ordered him to get closer to Gu Changge. So when he had nothing to do, Yu Lie arranged a small game and invited Gu Changge and others to come and have a look, so as to draw closer the relationship between him and Gu Changge.

Gu Changge smiled when he heard the words, "Oh, what kind of small game is it? That actually made Prince Yu Lie so arrogant, inviting us here?" Having said that, he was not at all curious or interested.

During this period of time, Gu Changge was actually planning to arrange for people to kill Yu Lie, so as to plunge the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty into chaos.

However, this matter had not been arranged yet, and Yu Lie could not die in front of him. It was not easy to do anything in the Great Yu Imperial Capital, so he could only push it for later.

“A captive brought back from the frontier?”

When many young Supreme Beings here heard this, their expressions moved a little, obviously, they had guessed something.

“Naturally, it’s a small game. In other countries, these people are great geniuses and big shots.” Yu Lie laughed out loud and didn’t explain much. Immediately after his words fell, there was a rumbling sound outside the hunting ground.

A few prison carts were pushed over, covered with a layer of black cloth which could isolate the probe of the divine mind, and everyone could not see the scene clearly. However, from this situation, everyone present still guessed something, and there was a flash of unbearable disgust in Yu Feiya’s eyes, but she still didn’t say anything more.

“Bring them all up.” Yu Lie looked indifferent, waved his big hand as he ordered people to push all the prison cars over. The black cloth was only lifted when he got close, revealing the scene inside.

There were quite a few cultivators and creatures imprisoned in these prison cars, men, women, and old people of all races, with pale faces, ragged clothes, and extremely embarrassed.

Their expressions were either angry, cold, numb, hateful, desperate, fearful... not the same. As an Immortal force, although the territory of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty was endless and its background was huge, it still had friction with those big forces around it.

There were frequent battles at the border. These people were all from the hostile forces at the border. There were ordinary disciples, as well as geniuses, Holy Maidens, and elders of hostile forces.

“Since you are unwilling to surrender to my Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, today I will give you a chance to survive.” Yu Lie looked indifferently at the people in the prison car and said.

These people were all wearing shackles that restricted their cultivation, which was extremely heavy. Even the elders with profound cultivation were now no different from ordinary people, unable to use their cultivation power. Even walking was extremely difficult.

“If you want to kill or cut, you can do whatever you want, if the old man frowns...” Hearing this, someone in the prison car cursed angrily, but before he finished speaking, he let out a shrill scream.

The chains under his feet suddenly glowed, and streaks of purple thunder flashed and crackled, splitting his whole body into a ball of ash, destroying his body and spirit.

This scene made the people around them even more terrified, and many people couldn’t help trembling, terrified to the extreme.

“You really don’t know how to live or die. I gave you a way to survive but you are seeking death.” Yu Lie’s expression did not change at all, and he was still extremely indifferent.

These were prisoners of hostile forces and should have been executed long ago, but he thought it would bring him some fun, so he kept them alive.

“Today, I can let you live. The ancient forest in front of you will be the place where you will flee for your life. If you are still alive after three days, then I will let you go, and I can even let you return to the forces behind you,” Yu Lie said lightly, explaining the rules of this game to everyone.

There were not only ferocious beasts in this hunting ground, but also various dangerous places, and besides, they were chasing after them. These captives had been sealed, and they were no different from ordinary people. Even if they fled desperately, they couldn’t run very far.

Of course, in order to increase the fun of the game, Yu Lie and others would not use divine powers. The rest of the young lords here were obviously used to this kind of thing long ago, so it was no surprise that there was no change in their expressions.

On the contrary, Jia Luo, the prince of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, was a little interested. He didn’t expect that the little game Yu Lie was talking about would be this.

And after Yu Lie finished talking about the rules of the game, the prison car was opened, and everyone in it scattered with heavy chains. Even if he was a man with more backbone just now, he chose to compromise and fled to the depths desperately. He would not let go of such a chance to survive.

Ants were still alive, let alone humans, although the chance of surviving was extremely slim.

“I won’t participate in this little game, just watch it here.” Seeing this, Gu Changge’s expression was not too disturbed, facing Yu Lie’s invitation, he shook his head and smiled.

“Haha. In that case, I’ll see you in three days.”

Yu Lie didn’t expect that Gu Changge would refuse, his face felt suffocated, but he didn’t care. After laughing, he rode his mount, picked up his bow and arrow before quickly chasing after them.

In such a hunting game, each participant would be ranked according to the prisoners killed. The winner could also get a lot of good things and win the lottery from everyone.

Soon there were only a few people left in the pavilion, except for Gu Changge, the eldest princess Yu Feiya did not participate, and she looked rather haggard as if she had something on her mind.

“Why didn’t Young Master Changge participate in this hunting game?”

Seeing that Gu Changge seemed to be looking at her, Yu Feiya couldn’t help but come to her senses and said with some doubt.

Although these people were all captured by hostile forces, she still couldn’t bear it and didn’t want to torture them again before they died.

“Of course, it’s just boring.” Gu Changge smiled lightly and said casually.

Yu Feiya forced a smile and said, “For Young Master Changge, such a hunting game is really boring.”

“Are these captives brought back from the Borderlands?” Gu Changge smiled noncommittally and then asked.

“Naturally.” Yu Feiya didn’t know why Gu Changge asked such a question and nodded.

“That’s kind of interesting.”

Gu Changge’s eyes became a little interested, and his divine sense enveloped the entire ancient forest in an instant before landing on a thin and petite figure who was struggling to escape while holding a heavy chain.

Chapter 608: The girl from another world, Destroying the extraterrestrial demons

The range of the hunting ground was not very large, it only covered hundreds of thousands of miles. For a cultivator with a high level of cultivation, it would only take a moment for his divine sense to completely cover it, and he could gain insight into everything that was happening in it.

Gu Changge stood on the pavilion with his hands behind his back, facing the window and looking into the distance with far-reaching eyes.

“Interesting?”

Yu Feiya was taken aback for a moment, she didn’t know what Gu Changge meant by these words. She was preoccupied and seemed a little absent-minded.

Gu Changge smiled but didn’t intend to explain to her.

Before he came to the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, he knew that in the borderland of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty there seemed to be an ancient world that had not been explored yet.

It was just that this news was well hidden by the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, making it difficult to tell the truth from the fake. Among the captives from the border of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, he sensed a strange aura.

To be exact, it was a completely different aura of the laws of Heaven and Earth.

“If it’s just contamination, that aura will disappear with time, but it doesn’t look like simple contamination, it’s more like being born and grown in another world... Could it be an aborigine from another world? How could she be a prisoner in this world?”

Gu Changge’s divine sense swept away and landed on that petite and thin figure.

Judging from the appearance, she was just a fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl in an unkempt sackcloth. Her long hair was stained with blood, sticking together, some parts were even knotted, and her gender could only be vaguely distinguished.

There were heavy shackles on her ankles, and it was very strenuous to walk around without making a lot of noise.

Even in this situation, she was still running desperately in the wild forest. Her face was covered with dirt, and her eyes were extraordinarily calm, revealing a great desire and will to survive.

No matter what kind of cultivation level or background she had before, she was just a prisoner now. The only way to survive was to try to escape and not let the hunter behind him catch up.

Gu Changge's divine sense swept across the rest of the captives, but he didn't feel this abnormal aura of Heaven and Earth laws from them. This girl suddenly made him intrigued.

If she really had come from the ancient world that the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty tried to hide, perhaps he could learn a lot of news from her mouth.

Gu Changge's current Inner Universe was at a critical moment of transformation, and the Dao Fruit of Epoch tree was also about to mature. He urgently needed to find a suitable world origin for integration.

Although there were hundreds of millions of Lower Realms around the Upper Realm, the level of those worlds was too low. Even if he fused with the origin of the world, it would not have much effect on Gu Changge's Inner Universe transformation.

What was more, he also planned to go fishing and enforce the law, setting up bait to attract various forces in the Upper Realm. If he could use an ancient world as bait, it would be suitable.

Thinking of this, Gu Changge was not in a hurry and just paid attention to the girl's actions with his spiritual sense. The range of the hunting place was very large, the dense forest was vast and boundless.

The number of captives who escaped for their lives were also quite a lot, there were hundreds of them scattered and fleeing in all directions. Someone was chased and killed by several princes riding ferocious beasts on the way and was shot to death by several arrows in despair.

More people were bitten to death by ferocious beasts in the hunting grounds and became food. Some people strayed into dangerous places or touched some dangerous restrictions, and exploded into a blood mist in an instant.

"There is a deep pool three thousand miles ahead, and there is a poisonous dragon hiding there. If you continue to escape, you may die."

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows, originally he wanted to see if the girl would survive, but judging from the current situation, she was about to encounter a life crisis.

With her cultivation blocked and her hands and feet in shackles, facing a poisonous flood dragon in the Sacred Realm, she would definitely die. If she just died like this, it would be difficult for him to find clues about that ancient world.

"I am idle and have nothing to do, Alpha, you can go with me."

Gu Changge was not interested in this hunting game at first, but he immediately changed his mind. He ordered Ah Da behind him to pick up the bow and arrows and other things beside him before planning to set out.

Yu Feiya was a little stunned, she didn't expect Gu Changge suddenly to change his words, but she didn't ask any more questions. From her point of view, maybe Gu Changge felt that staying here with her was a bit boring, and it was not as good as this hunting game.

"Since Young Master Changge is interested, why not let Fei Ya accompany you..."

Yu Feiya thought for a while and opened her mouth.

But before she finished speaking, Gu Changge had already smiled and waved his hand to refuse, "I won't bother Princess Feiya, I'll just let Alpha follow me."

Naturally, he wouldn't let Yu Feiya follow her in this kind of thing. That girl obviously had some secrets hidden in her body, and she didn't look like an ordinary captive.

"Ok."

Yu Feiya didn't expect Gu Changge to refuse her so straightforwardly and felt a little embarrassed in her heart. However, as the eldest princess of Great Yu, her good self-cultivation made her not display the slightest abnormality.

She knew that the Alpha Gu Changge mentioned was a subordinate at the Quasi-Emperor Realm. His strength was extremely terrifying as he had shown a terrifying aura when he was in Kunwu City.

Gu Changge didn't say much to her, and then took Alpha out of the pavilion before heading toward the dense forest and ancient trees. The mist was thin and permeated the surroundings as the trees were extremely luxuriant, covering the sky and casting a large shadow.

"Shushasha!"

Large pieces of dry and fallen leaves were trampled to pieces by the hurried footsteps, buried into the deep mud.

This was a swamp overgrown with thorns, surrounded by miasma. Many insects and ants could be seen crawling, and there were some corpses buried in the mud. It was unknown for how long they had died here.

The girl with her coarse linen clothes looked extremely tattered as her exposed skin was covered with blood and dirt.

Dragging a heavy chain, she fled all the way. Looking back at this moment, she didn't see the hunter who was chasing her. She couldn't help but let out a long sigh of relief. Then she leaned against a dead tree and gasped for breath. But when she was panting, she seemed to have touched the injury, which made her frown, and her face turned pale with pain.

Fortunately, her face was covered with dirt, and her face could not be seen clearly.

After resting for a while, the girl quickly got up, not coveting too much the comfort of this moment, but chose to continue fleeing. Although they were given a full three days to escape, she knew very well that the other party had a cultivation base, and it was too easy to find her location.

So she had to seize every opportunity to escape to the depths so that she could have a little more hope of surviving these three days. She had to live, she couldn't die here, she still had a lot of things to do!

The girl's eyes were very heavy and calm, beyond ordinary people. Especially at this moment when she was full of scars, and she was still dragging the heavy chains. Ever since she was caught and her cultivation was sealed, she had not eaten any food, including water. Even though she used to be a powerful cultivator, she was almost on the verge of passing out under such circumstances.

Moreover, she was no different from ordinary people now, and she had no advantage except for her physical strength. In the eyes of those beasts hiding everywhere, she was the best food.

“Father’s whereabouts are unknown ever since he fought against the demons from outside the territory, and my mother is still at home waiting for me to go back. I can’t die here! I want to go home!”

n0vεℓu.s.b.c0M

The girl clenched her palms tightly, she was holding a very ordinary dagger, which was no longer than the length of a palm. This was her only weapon now, and the only way to save her life.

She was not from this world, to be precise, she was not from the Upper Realm, but from an ancient big world where everyone cultivated swords.

Her father was one of the most powerful beings in that world, and one of the few sword immortals left, but because he was indifferent to fame and fortune and didn’t like fighting, he had been living in seclusion in the mountains.

And she had learned swordsmanship since she was a child, and her talent was astonishing. She had already been taught by her father. But everything that seemed perfect was destroyed half a year ago.

On that day, a terrifying crack suddenly appeared outside the sky, stretching hundreds of thousands of miles, like a wound in the sky. Even from a long distance, mortals could clearly see the horrifying scene, trembling and terrified.

Terrible winds and chaotic currents blew there all the time as if leading to another terrifying world. Even the most powerful existence known as the Sword Immortal did not dare to set foot there lightly, for fear of being involved and being smashed to pieces.

In their world, the lifespan of Sword Immortals could be counted in tens of thousands of years. Their strength could only be described as terrifying. Picking up stars and moons, moving mountains, and filling seas was also a piece of cake.

But in the face of such a big crack in the sky, there was nothing they could do.

Then something even more terrifying happened. In the following days, many creatures appeared from that crack, and their strength was extremely terrifying.

Some old people said that this was the Extraterrestrial Heavenly Demon recorded in the classics. They came from the far and boundless outside world, and they might even be on the other side of the starry sky. When the space barrier was broken, they would invade.

They had all kinds of terrifying weapons, and their appearance was even more horrifying. They attacked and started to wreak havoc in their world, trying to occupy their world.

Such creatures seemed to be inexhaustible. They fought against a wave, and more creatures attacked later, and their strength was even more terrifying.

Later, even a so-called invincible Sword Immortal was seriously injured by the powerhouse of those creatures, and his life was in danger. Although the group of terrifying extraterrestrial demons was forced to retreat in the end, they also suffered heavy losses.

And they knew that the alien demons coming next time would be even more terrifying, and they had no possibility of resisting.

Therefore, Shu Sect, Jianya, and Mount Kong, the leaders of the righteous way, began to gather Sword Immortals from all walks of life to discuss the matter of jointly resisting the extraterritorial demons. If there was a crack, then sending people through it to the source on the other side of the crack, and wiping out the source, thereby preventing this disaster.

Ever since Shu Sect's previous old Sword Immortal fell, no one in their world could break through space so, this was the only way. And her father happened to be among the group of Sword Immortals who went to destroy the source.

Her father had promised her and her mother that he would come back after destroying the source... But after a few months, there was no news and he was nowhere to be found.

She didn't believe that something would happen to such a powerful existence as her father, so regardless of her mother's objection, she resolutely stepped into that crack.

Chapter 609: Cat and mouse game, A boring guy

Although it had been less than half a year since the Extraterrestrial Heavenly Demons invaded, it had already caused great panic and disaster in their world. Many older generations even asserted that the next time the extraterrestrial demons invaded, it would be the time when their world would be completely shattered.

Therefore, many of the powerhouses who had reached the level of Sword Immortals had gathered in various sects, trying to find a way to solve it. And the strategy to eliminate the source of the demons was also proposed by the current lord of the Shu Sect, Yi Jianxian, who was known as a Sword Immortal that could level the sky.

Her father was a famous and powerful existence in their world. When faced with such a crisis, he naturally chose to rush to that crack to try to prevent this disaster.

Unfortunately, several months passed, and there was no news of her father. The rest of the people who went with him also disappeared without a trace like a mud cow entering the sea.

Then, without telling her mother, she embarked on the road her father had left. If her father died there, she would bring his bones back. She couldn't die here without finding traces of her father.

Many thoughts rushed to her, making the girl look a little dazed.

In fact, when she passed through that crack in space, she never thought that besides the terrifying spatial turbulence and various chaotic storms, there would be a majestic and thick world aura on the other side.

Under that heavy aura, even the battle clothes her father had left for her back then couldn't hold up for a moment before it was broken. She didn't go far and saw the familiar group of extraterrestrial demons arriving.

They emerged in a copper-colored warship, majestic and terrifying, like a majestic divine mountain, traveling through the turbulent flow of space. All kinds of terrifying and chaotic auras around them couldn't stop them.

At that time, the girl finally understood in despair that the power of the heavenly demons outside the territory was far beyond what they could contend and resist. Even the so-called invincible Sword Immortal couldn't move an inch in this kind of place.

However, the heavenly demons outside the territory could control all kinds of terrifying weapons like walking on the ground, destroying the world. How could they resist such a group of terrifying enemies?

Facing the group of extraterrestrial demons, she was caught within a short distance. Her hands and feet were shackled with heavy shackles, unable to use the slightest amount of cultivation, and she became no different from ordinary people.

Then she was imprisoned in a cold and damp cage, where she spent a period of darkness and fear.

Fortunately, later, she discovered that a senior who came with her father to destroy the source was actually imprisoned beside her. The senior was seriously injured and almost couldn't survive, but he still dragged his body and told her some useful news.

The good news was that her father was not caught by the group of extraterrestrial demons. At the critical moment, his cultivation base suddenly broke through, and he escaped into the chaotic and turbulent flow before disappearing.

But the bad news was that the group of extraterrestrial demons was just a certain force in the huge world they were in now. They did not include all the ethnic groups, and their strength and terror were far beyond what they could compete with.

It was just a joke to wipe out the source.

What desperate news this was! The real powerhouse had not yet appeared, and everything was still in the process of testing.

Otherwise, it would be impossible for them to repel the group of extraterrestrial demons.

Later, that senior burned her body with a secret method, creating chaos and helping her escape. But the escape was unsuccessful, and she was caught halfway.

The only fortunate thing was that her aboriginal identity was not exposed, and she was held together with another group of local captives who tried to escape. From the mouths of those captives, she gradually learned some news about this world.

"This world is incomparably vast, and it is the center of the Heavens. There are countless strong people like trees, bordering all worlds, so there are often things that invade and capture other worlds..."

The girl's eyes were extremely calm, she didn't recall the past few days, and began to concentrate on running for her life. She knew very well that the group of so-called extraterrestrial demons was actually sent by the force that was imprisoning her now.

The Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, even in this vast and mysterious world, was a terrorist force at the level of a supergiant. Its inheritance time had exceeded tens of millions of years and spanned many eras.

In the world she lived in before, the power with the longest inheritance was only a few hundred thousand years old. In front of such a huge monster, it was as small as an ant, and there was no possibility of comparing the two.

Hurrah!!

Suddenly, the sound of wind piercing through the air came from behind, causing the girl's expression to change, and she hurriedly hid in the bluestone corner beside her.

Although she had no cultivation level now, her five senses were still extremely amazing, and she could hear movements not far away. Someone was chasing her in this direction, and there were quite a few of them!

She quickly lowered her breath and didn't move at all. Now she was no different from ordinary people, facing a group of cultivators, she had no chance of surviving at all. She could only hope that the crowd didn't find her.

"Huh, just now, I clearly sensed that there was prey in this direction, why did it suddenly disappear? Could it be that my perception is wrong?"

A group of gorgeously dressed young men and women arrived riding ferocious beasts, all of them covered with light, looking very extraordinary.

The person who spoke was a man in brocade clothes with good facial features but a slightly gloomy face. He held a precious bow in his hand and seemed to be ready to bend the bow and set an arrow to shoot the prey.

At this moment, he seemed to see his prey escape and had a surprised expression on his face while looking around.

"Maybe our perception is wrong, why don't we look in another direction?"

Besides the man in brocade clothes, another cold-looking man asked deliberately with a mocking smile on the corner of his mouth.

Seeing this, the rest of them also laughed with cat-and-mouse smiles on their faces, as their voices echoed, "It seems that the prey escaped, what a pity, if we came here earlier, we might be able to catch it."

"It's really a pity, forget it, let's look in another direction."

The man in brocade clothes also had a helpless expression and seemed to sigh. Then everyone turned around and left on the beasts, moving toward another area to search.

The girl had been hiding behind the bluestone, tense all over, extremely nervous, holding her breath. She was drenched in a cold sweat, and did not dare to move at all.

Hearing the movement of everyone leaving at this moment, she couldn't help but breathe a sigh of relief. However, she was very cautious, and did not show her face directly, but continued to hide, planning to wait until it was finally safe before leaving.

After a few quarters of an hour, the girl finally felt that the crisis was gone, and the group of young men and women went in another direction without finding her. Her whole body almost collapsed from behind the blue stone, and she was covered in sweat.

But just when she was about to reveal her figure from behind the bluestone and continue running for her life, a burst of laughter suddenly came from the other side.

It was extremely abrupt, like a thunderclap exploding on the spot. Hearing this voice, the girl froze all over, and her face suddenly turned pale.

Although her body was covered by dirt, one could still see her uneasiness and disbelief.

However, she was by no means simple as she quickly recovered herself. Her eyes were extremely calm and composed as she turned her head to look closely at the group of young men and women riding on the beast.

The small hand under the sleeve tightly held the dagger that was less than an inch long, like a little cat about to pounce on the enemy.

"Hahaha, this woman really thinks we didn't find her. It's just ridiculous. I like to watch their expressions change from hope to despair. One moment they think they escaped from heaven, but the next moment they fall into hell. Didn't you expect that?"

"It's really interesting."

"The more desperate you are, the happier we are. This kind of struggle when watching the prey dying is simply one of the great pleasures in life."

The man in brocade clothes and others appeared on the other side of the girl riding a beast, with playful smiles on their faces. They didn't leave, they just went around in another direction, and then returned to their original place.

So they had been watching the many changes in the girl's expression, from the initial long sigh of relief to astonishment and disbelief, this was their favorite thing to do before hunting their prey.

After all, with their strength, how could they fail to find the girl's trace?

However, in the face of ruthless ridicule and jokes from the man in brocade clothes and others, the girl showed extraordinary calmness and ferocity. Her dark eyes were unmoved as if she was outside the world, and she didn't have the fear, or despair that the man in brocade clothes and others wanted to see.

This expression made the smiles on their faces gradually disappear, and the brows of the brocade-clothed man frowned even more, very displeased.

"She's such a boring person. She's even calm when facing death?"

The man with a gloomy face cursed in a low voice and was also extremely upset.

Because the girl did not do what they wished, showing any panic or despair, let alone begging for mercy. This made them suddenly feel that things became boring.

“If you want to survive, maybe you can kneel down to us, and we might let you go.”

The man in brocade cloth said with a lofty expression and a compassionate attitude as if doing charity.

If the girl knelt down to plead with them at this time, crying bitterly and wanting to survive, then they could show a little bit of their intention to let her go, and then kill her when she was full of hope.

They had a way of torturing people. However, the man in brocade clothes was still disappointed. The girl’s expression was still so indifferent, calm, and fierce as if she would fight them desperately at any time.

“I’ll give you three breaths to escape. After three breaths, whether you can escape my arrow depends on your fate.”

The man in brocade clothes opened his mouth lightly, and as the words fell, he began to bend his bow and set his arrows. The attendants at the side took out a few arrows stained with light blue and handed them to him. Obviously, these arrows were stained with poison.

Even if it was just a scratch on the skin, it could kill a cultivator in a short time. And on the way to escape, there would be fear and pain, and there was nothing to do but wait for death.

Hearing what the man in brocade clothes said, the girl’s expression changed a little, she turned around and fled to the swamp behind her.

The miasma was soaring there with all kinds of silt and poisonous insects, and this group of gorgeously dressed young men and women would definitely not chase there.

“One...”

Whoosh whoosh!

The corner of the brocade-clothed man’s mouth curled up mockingly. When he finished counting one, he didn’t continue, but directly drew his bow and shot in the direction where the girl was fleeing.

The arrow pierced through the air, with a terrifying whistling sound, like a divine light, directly splitting the large swamp above the swamp, revealing the dry riverbed below. n0VεLusb.c0m

Many ancient trees on both sides exploded under this aura, not to mention people with no cultivation base, even a fierce beast with a strong body would be shot by an arrow at this time, destroying both body and spirit.

The rest of the people looked at this scene with mocking and compassionate expressions, quietly waiting for the moment when the girl was shot.

In their view, there would not be any surprise.

“Am I going to die here?”

The girl never thought that she would trust the man in brocade clothes as a captive, so she ran for her life immediately, but the speed was still far behind the arrows behind her.

There was only one thought left in her mind, she staggered and fell directly into the swamp.

Chapter 610: Young lady Chen Ah Qing, You are a good person

Puff!

The next moment, the thick blood light splashed in the air, looking extremely dazzling. The girl stared blankly at the scene in front of her, feeling a little unbelievable.

She didn't feel the slightest pain, because when those arrows were about to hit her, they were shot down by an invisible force and exploded into ashes in the air.

A few arrows landed not far away as they pierced the eyebrows of the man in brocade who was riding on the beast like lightning. There was even a cruel sneer on his face up until the moment he died, he hadn't realized what was going on.

“Who saved me?”

The girl struggled from the swamp to stand up. As she turned her head, and looked around, trying to find the direction of the arrow. She couldn't believe that someone would save her life at this juncture.

“Zhao Kang is dead... It's over, his father is the elder of Chi Lian Sect, we are all dead!”

The brocade-clothed man's companions also froze in place at the moment. With horrified expressions on their faces, they never expected that someone would suddenly strike and kill Zhao Kang.

“Who is it? Who is secretly attacking?” Someone reacted and roared, their eyes full of anger, trying to find the person who shot.

“It's me.” From within the thin mist not far away, a flat male voice sounded, and Gu Changge appeared with Alpha.

He seemed to have just finished shooting the arrow as he handed the bow and arrow in his hand to Alpha behind him before walking toward this place unhurriedly.

The moment they saw Gu Changge, the complexions of many young men and women here suddenly turned white. Many of them widened their eyes in disbelief. They couldn't help but tremble in place, terrified to the extreme.

“Changge...Young Master Changge...” The person who roared just now was trembling and extremely terrified.

Even if he was 10,000 times more courageous, he wouldn't dare to scold Gu Changge casually.

“They are an eyesore, kill them all.” Gu Changge didn't pay attention to the expressions of the people here as he said casually to Alpha, and still walked on his own.

“Yes, my lord.”

Alpha's expression was indifferent and ruthless. He was donned in a black and blue battle armor, like a burly god of war. He went straight ahead wanting to kill the group of young men and women here.

n01εLusb.c0m

Seeing this scene, the faces of this group of people turned pale. They were almost terrified. They never thought that Gu Changge would attack them.

Someone reacted quickly and was about to turn into a divine and escape. But Alpha's palm directly covered tens of miles. It even crushed the sky, covering everyone in it.

With a puff, all of them turned into a blood mist. Before they even had time to scream, they were completely annihilated.

The royal powerhouse who was in charge of guarding the hunting ground in the dark watched this scene from a long distance. His eyelids twitched, and he quickly looked away, pretending not to know.

"Now you can stand up." The girl looked at all this in a daze, but before she recovered, a flat male voice suddenly sounded near her ear.

She looked at the palm stretched out in front of her in disbelief. It was slender, white, and clean as if it hadn't been stained with the slightest dust.

At this moment, this overly good-looking young man walked in front of her through the swamp full of mud. The originally clean white clothes were stained with a lot of dirt, but he had an expression of indifference, completely different from those people she had met before.

Just now he appeared suddenly, killed the group of young men and women, and saved her.

The girl could also see clearly that the group of young men and women just now were extremely terrified of him. The entourage behind him was even more frighteningly powerful, and even gave her the feeling of seeing a Sword Immortal.

But despite this, the girl was still very silent. Her eyes were very vigilant, she didn't grab this hand to stand up, but frowned tightly. She endured the severe pain and grabbed the vine next to her and stood up with great effort.

She understood the truth that there existed no good things without a reason in the world. She and this person in front of her have never known each other before, so why did the other party suddenly choose her? This was something abnormal.

Seeing that the girl was very stubborn and calm with extremely vigilant eyes at the same time, Gu Changge smiled lightly and withdrew his palm, "What a pair of beautiful eyes!"

The girl understood his words. In fact, during the time she was imprisoned, she had learned the language of this world, but she seldom spoke.

Seeing that Gu Changge didn't have the slightest malice, the girl was silent for a moment, then walked from the swamp to the edge, and then asked in a hoarse voice, "You... you, why save me?"

She was very calm and composed, holding the short sword tightly in her hand, still full of vigilance in her heart.

The real bad guys didn't display malice on their faces, this was a truth she had understood ever since she was a child.

"Don't worry, I'm not a bad person, I just happened to see this scene and felt sorry for you. You have to know that it's not that there are no good people in this world, it's just that you rarely meet them." Gu Changge smiled lightly, with a casual tone in his words.

The girl was silent for a while, raised her dark eyes, looked at him, and said, "Are you a good person?"

It was the first time she had seen someone say that he was a good person so bluntly.

"No, I'm not a good person either, I just bestow kindness occasionally." Gu Changge shook his head, still smiling.

The girl was still silent. The young man in front of her clearly made her feel terrified, but she didn't feel the slightest danger. It was a strange and conflicting feeling.

"Your injuries are very serious. Even if you can escape, you will be eaten by some fierce beast." Gu Changge glanced at her casually.

The girl nodded without changing her gaze, "I know."

Then it seemed that it was not appropriate to say this, and said, "Thank you for saving me just now."

Gu Changge smiled, waved his hands, and said, "You're welcome, it's just a matter of little effort."

"I'm going to keep running for my life..." The girl's face was covered with dirt, and her expression could not be seen clearly, "If I can survive, I will repay your kindness in the future."

After saying that, she planned to turn around and continue to escape to the depths.

Although Gu Changge seemed to be very powerful and had a mysterious origin, it was even possible to let her survive easily. But she didn't ask for it. In this kind of field, she was still proud of her physical strength.

What was more, she understood the truth that the man in white in front of her was not obliged to save her. Perhaps it was just because of the effort of raising one's hands that he made the move. But why should she let the other party continue to save her?

Yet when she tried to take a few steps, she accidentally touched the injury, her face turned pale from the pain, and she almost fell to the ground again.

"I told you that your injuries are serious..." Gu Changge seemed to sigh helplessly.

The girl frowned slightly as she covered the wound, blood seeped out from it again, mixed with a lot of dirt, making the ground in front of her eyes black.

She really couldn't escape anymore. If she escaped again, she would die from her injuries before the hunters behind her could catch up. Thinking of this, the girl fell silent. She hadn't found her father yet, and she hadn't gone back to give her mother an explanation.

She couldn't just die here.

“Can you help me?” She raised her eyes and looked at Gu Changge behind her, with questioning and a little vigilance in her eyes.

“What’s your name?” Gu Changge didn’t answer her directly but smiled casually.

“Ah Qing, Chen Ah Qing.” The girl replied.

“Ah Qing? That’s a good name.” Gu Changge admired slightly, and then said,

“I can save you and keep you alive, but I want to know about your world.” The young girl Ah Qing was stunned, her eyes suddenly became vigilant. Gu Changge was different from the others, he actually saw through her origin.

“Don’t look at me with this kind of eyes. It’s hard to see what’s going on with this kind of thing. After living in a different world, you will always be contaminated with the aura of the original world. The aura on your body will always be different from ours.” Gu Changge smiled.

“And you have to know that there are always good people in this world, why don’t you try to believe me.”

“You are a good person?” Ah Qing was silent for a moment again, not knowing what to say, so she could only say this sentence.

It seemed that only this sentence could make her feel at ease.

“Actually, I’ve always felt that way too.” Gu Changge smiled.

Because of Gu Changge’s protection, the girl Ah Qing also felt a little relieved. Her nerves and body, which had been tense all this time, suddenly relaxed. But this relaxation almost made her pass out from the pain, both old and new injuries broke out together.

Fortunately, she had practiced swords since she was a child, and her willpower was extremely amazing, so she forcibly endured this pain.

In addition, she still had a lot of worries in her heart. She knew nothing about Gu Changge, including his name, identity, origin, etc., although his entourage was very powerful.

After experiencing the fight against the demons outside the territory, she discovered that in this world, it seemed that such a powerhouse was not uncommon.

Gu Changge killed that group of people lightly before, and how would he solve the many troubles that would follow?

She was very sober and calm in her heart, and understood that the young men and women participating in this hunting game were all descendents from famous families in this world, with powerful backgrounds, and they must not be provoked.

Although Gu Changge looked relaxed all the time and didn’t seem to take those things to heart, she was still very worried. But it was not good for her to ask Gu Changge about these things.

In the next few days, Ah Qing did not find anyone chasing after her, and there were no roars of ferocious beasts around her. Because she had swallowed an elixir given by Gu Changge, many old wounds were miraculously healed, and its efficacy could be termed as a divine elixir.

In the world she lived in before, if such a pill appeared, it would definitely trigger a war from all sides. Its value was simply unimaginable, and it could even be regarded as another life. However, in Gu Changge's hands, it was used for her healing, which seemed extremely common.

In fact, this injury could be healed as long as she was given a little time. There was no need to waste such a precious elixir. Many details made Ah Qing guess Gu Changge's identity.

Who the hell was he?

On the way, she never saw Gu Changge towing his bow and shooting arrows to kill the other captives. Even if she saw it, she didn't care too much and let them fend for themselves.

A few days passed quickly, and the hunting game was finally over. Ah Qing silently followed Gu Changge and returned to the place where they were held in the prison car, to be more precise, in the pavilion.

There, the Second Prince Yu Lie, Yu Ming, Absolute Heavenly Prince Jia Luo, and many other young lords were already waiting.

They came back early and were surprised to learn that Gu Changge had also entered the dense forest after they left, so they waited quietly here for Gu Changge's return.

For them, this small hunting game was just a boring time to pass, and it was not of much use. But if this kind of thing could be used to deepen the relationship with Gu Changge, it would be great.

"Young Master Changge, this is?"

Yu Lie, Yu Feiya, and the others looked at Ah Qing who was following behind Gu Changge at this moment, they were very surprised and asked in puzzlement.

Dressed in rough linen clothes, some places were still tattered, and unkempt. Her face was full of dirt, and her long hair had been knotted, only the outline of her facial features could be vaguely seen, and she was a girl.

She looked like a prisoner. How could such a person follow behind Gu Changge?
