

Villain 663

Chapter 663: The Dark Heaven will appear in the world, Gu Changge's intention

Gu Changge did not kill the powerhouse of the Heavenly Emperor Mountain, but wore out his soul and made it into a puppet. This process was smooth and there was no hindrance.

Although the other party tried hard to escape, in front of Gu Changge, there was no possibility, and he was quickly taken down. But with this, the strength of this puppet was greatly reduced, it was also based on the presence of the Enlightened Realm.

For cultivators who had not entered this Realm, it was still a terrifying mountain that was difficult to counteract and could be destroyed with the lift of a palm. After doing all of this, Gu Changge stepped away from the star domain to find the rest of the Daoists who followed him.

Soon, in another barren star domain, he found a Daoist from the Wan Dao Sacred Mountain and made them into a puppet. In another area, someone deduced the opportunity and noticed that something was wrong, his complexion changed, and tried to escape. But after Gu Changge reached the Enlightened Realm, his strength was scary, and his spiritual sense was even more terrifying.

Just instantly, he learned about his intentions, broke the space for millions of miles, and chased after him. The other party was frightened, constantly asking for mercy, but Gu Changge's expression had no fluctuations, annihilating his soul fluctuations.

After a day passed, he already had five Enlightened puppets in his hands.

According to his true realm, Gu Changge was about to enter the late stage of the Emperor Realm. Thus, the origin of the Enlightened being was no longer useful for him.

In addition to some special World Origin, the Origin of Chaos, the Origin of the Absolute Beginning, only the Origin of the Remnant Immortal and even higher realm cultivators were useful to him. Therefore, the greatest value of these people was refining them into a puppet.

"The matter of annihilation of the divine souls from all ethnic groups is great. I am afraid that after the news spreads, the Upper Realm will set off endless waves... This matter will cause me a lot of trouble, but I have a solution."

Before Gu Changge left this place, he had an inexplicable look in his eyes, and many thoughts flashed in his mind. Taking advantage of this chaos, he could make the Upper Realm even more chaotic.

The scourge of Absolute Heavenly Extinction, the inheritor of demonic arts, the Immortal Path will appear...

"It just happens that my Inner Universe is about to be complete. Perhaps, it's time for the Dark Heaven to appear." Gu Changge's eyes were calm as he slowly took a step and appeared millions of miles away.

He swept his divine thought, and in an instant, he crossed many ancient stars, noticing that the powerhouse from the Primordial Lake was still tracking his traces.

At this moment, his sleeves waved and unleashed the three Enlightened puppets and they rushed toward the star domain to attack this person. The ancient star was very vast, and vibrant, home to trillions of cultivators.

The surrounding ancient forests were lush and tall as the shallots were extremely lush. Many of the forces were standing upside down and looked desolate and ancient. However, in Gu Changge's perception, the strongest cultivator of the ancient star was at most in the Supreme Realm, and he had not even entered the Quasi-Emperor Realm.

Of course, such ancient stars were countless in the Upper Realm, like sand in a desert. It was not surprising that the strongest strength was the Supreme Realm and not all of them had such a powerhouse.

At this moment, in this ancient star, a woman with a sloppy green skirt was frowning tightly. A terrible vision emerged in her eyes and rushed quickly before sweeping away, and looking around. She looked very young, but from the vicissitudes, the time of cultivation had absolutely surpassed millions of years.

As the Enlightened being from the Primordial Lake, her ontology was not of a human race, but a Green Holy Spirit that had been created by Heaven and Earth, lived for hundreds of thousands of years.

After millions of years of hard work, she finally entered the ranks of Enlightened beings. As the vein of the Holy Spirit of Nature, she had been nostalgic for the Heavens and the Earth since she was a child.

There were even rumors in the Upper Realm that if a cultivator attacked the Holy Spirit, he would encounter misfortune and even be condemned. Not to mention that the Holy Spirit was mighty and terrifying, and ordinary cultivators were not their opponents at all.

Therefore, after many people saw the Holy Spirit from afar, they wouldn't want to contaminate themselves with that karma at all.

"I have missed my Green Spirit Heavenly Lord for millions of years, but now, even his traces are gone. If he was here, I would never get lost." The green skirt woman's eyes were cold, her divine sense was vast and magnificent. They did not conceal, passing through many stars below, sweeping down.

As an Enlightened being, she was pursuing a group of people in black, but she was still lost now, which really made her angry. Although there were ancient stars below, she had always been unscrupulous and strong, so she didn't care.

At present, the terrifying aura shrouded the surrounding, trying to find some breath or traces.

Boom!

A terrifying fluctuation swept through the entire ancient star. The sky was turning, the sun and the moon trembled, and the large clouds were broken. Almost all the cultivators were alarmed, trembling, frightened, pale, and whitening. They didn't understand why such a terrifying powerhouse had suddenly arrived here.

The strongest people in the land of each force were shocked as they moved toward the sky, with fear. Many Quasi-Supreme existences that were in seclusion also changed their expression. They woke up and rushed to a high altitude as they were extremely worried.

“Greetings predecessor, I wonder why are you here?” Everyone did not dare to breathe, and could only ask the woman in the green skirt carefully, worried that she was angry.

“Have you seen a group of people dressed in black who fled from here, I am looking for them.” The woman in the green skirt asked and her expression was indifferent. Although she was a woman, the aura on her body was like a heavenly prison, which was shocking.

Hearing this, all the powerhouses of this ancient star were stunned and then reacted to understand that the Ancestor in front of them was chasing someone, and they were relieved.

“Reporting to the predecessors, I didn’t see any people dressed in black who fled here.”

At present, they all had serious expressions as they reported what they saw and heard, and dare not conceal anything.

“Didn’t they escape to this place, where would they escape?” The woman in the green skirt frowned tighter. She didn’t feel that the people in front of her would dare to lie to her.

Moreover, if they lied to her, with her cultivation, she could see it at a glance. So she couldn’t figure it out. Where would the people in black escape? They even concealed everyone’s perception.

“Senior, is the man you are looking for, is it that group of people...”

At this moment, the voice of an old man suddenly trembled slightly, as if he was extremely scared, looking outside Heavenly Domain. Almost at the same time, the complexion of the woman in the green skirt also changed dramatically, which was a bit incredible.

She felt a terrible aura sweeping, like a landslide sinking, the Heavenly Palace was destroyed, and the whole Heavenly Domain was shaking.

Dang!

The screaming sound was like a mountain and river dyke, drowning toward this place. The blurred figure standing in the black mist stood outside, looking indifferently, like the demon god who slaughtered the heavens.

“It’s them.” The pupils of the woman in the green skirt were tightened. Judging from this aura, it was definitely the group of black people who attacked them at the time.

She really did not expect these people to be so bold, not only did they not escape, but she also came here to attack her. The strength of this group of people in black was also beyond her expectations.

“Three Enlightened beings... If they fight each other, this aura will definitely destroy all the cultivators here...”

Seeing this scene, all the monks in this ancient star were scared and trembled. They felt that a war would definitely erupt after a while. For everyone, it was a terrible disaster.

The level of Enlightened beings was definitely capable of destroying the earth and stars by raising a palm and interrupting the galaxy.

Not to talk about the ancient stars on this side, even the ancient stars around them would be destroyed, and they couldn't bear the aftermath of the battle between Enlightened beings.

"Follow the lord's instructions, kill her."

At this time, the three black men appeared in the sky, and they came from above the sky. The black mist was surging and their eyes were indifferent.

"Damn, it's really the Enlightened beings..."

The complexion of the woman in the green skirt changed slightly, and it felt tricky. She did not expect that the strength of these three people turned out to be the level of Enlightened being.

When she was in the Great Yu Imperial Capital, she just felt that this group of people in black were extremely weird and it was difficult to see the reality. But now, if she tried to escape, it was estimated that she would be caught up by the other party.

The only way was to spread powerful fluctuations, which would alarm the rest of the people chasing this group of people in black, and let them come here to help.

Boom!

Thinking of this, she did not dare to be ignorant. She was surrounded by a green aura and endless swords. Finally, they condensed in the void and turned into a terrifying sea attacking the three people in black.

An unimaginable war broke out here.

In the vast sky, the vast star domain collapsed, and cracks appeared, which was annihilated by these fluctuations. Her whole body was blooming with the powerful aura from one place to another, as if crossing time and space.

She fought the three Enlightened beings, and at the beginning, she did not fall into a disadvantage, turned into a bolt of green lightning, running through the void, and launching a shocking attack. This was the collision of Dao, the evolution of the laws, accompanied by the rumbling thunder!

In the black mist, several people also made endless attacks. The Dao was intertwined, making the moonlight dim, and the powerful fluctuations were like an ocean, vast, and boundless! However, this situation did not last long.

Soon she fell into disadvantage and kept coughing blood. Too many cracks appeared on her body. There was not much suspense, and she was not their opponent.

"Impossible..." She was scared and felt regretful. These three black men in front of her, fighting alone, were not weaker than her.

Under their full strength, any Enlightened being would fall. Where did this kind of beings come from?

Boom!

The gunfire sounded as if splitting the big universe, the black hand was empty as it attacked her in four points and she kept vomiting blood. Even the cracks appeared. This was a terrifying scene.

Boom!

All the stars around burst away. Some ancient stars who had bred life also turned red under this fluctuation. Among them, the ten billion cultivators and creatures could not even scream as they were evaporated, causing many cultivators in the surrounding ancient stars to fear the extreme and feel that their last days had arrived

At the level of the Enlightened being, the aftermath of their battle could crack the stars, steam the stars, and not to mention the ordinary cultivators, even their souls would instantly turn into powder.

At this moment, countless cultivators were praying and sorrowful, hoping that someone could stop this war and save them.

“You don’t know how to die, and dare to pursue the trace of my Dark Heaven.” A black body was indifferent, and the eyes seemed to have no emotional rules.

“Dark Heaven... What is that... Am I going to die here?” The woman in the green skirt was surrounded by three men in black, and her body was collapsing, and it was difficult to maintain the original form.

At this time, she was already in despair, and she felt the fire of her soul becoming weaker, and it would go out at any time. There was no hope at all, and no cultivator came to save her.

She was regretting now, if had known this she would not have come to pursue the traces of this group of people in black.
