Chapter 664: Survival after the catastrophe, The force that is about to cause a sensation in the Upper Realm

Boom!!

The divine light skimmed through the sky and earth as if falling from a distant latitude, turning into a vast river of stars, sweeping across the sky and destroying everything.

In this star field, a terrifying black big hand descended as the waves roared endlessly. The three black-clothed figures were extremely powerful, standing at the end of the world. They continued to attack the woman in the green skirt with cruel methods, and there seemed to be no emotion in their eyes.

This was a world-shattering battle, and the terrifying aftermath destroyed the sky and earth along with all the stars and continents around it.

Large swaths of ancient planets were turned into dust under this fluctuation. The cultivators and creatures living among them had no time to escape, and their bodies and spirits were all destroyed. It would not be an exaggeration to describe all of this in terms of devastation. There was wailing and despair everywhere.

“Cough cough cough...” The rain of blood splashed and flooded the sky.

The woman in the green skirt fought with three mysterious black-clothed figures, her body was shattered, her soul fire dimmed, she was already on the verge of dying.

The Upper Realm had been peaceful for too long. Even though there were Enlightened beings born in various Immortal forces and Supreme sects, they were afraid and dared not act casually.

During this period, except for the encirclement and suppression of the Red Demon who was born in the Demon Burying Abyss, and the War of Immortality between the Purple Mansion and the Ancient Immortal Gu family, there had been very few world-shattering battles between such a number of Enlightened beings.

In the eyes of many cultivators and creatures, the Enlightened being was an invincible existence, overlooking the world, like a god, pushing across the ages. But today, three extremely terrifying black-clothed Enlightened beings surrounded and attacked the woman in a green skirt, intending to suppress and kill her in this place.

This scene alarmed too many cultivators who felt the fluctuations and had hurried over. Everyone froze in place, trembling all over, not daring to move.

There was even the existence of the Quasi-Supreme Realm in it, but they were far away. They dare not approach them, for fear of being shocked to death by the aftermath.

“What the hell happened? Why are there three such powerful Enlightened beings in black, and they all surrounded and attacked one of them?”

“Could the Upper Realm be in chaos again?”

Someone’s voice was trembling, containing great fear, and felt that this was incredible.

Perhaps in the near future, there would be terrible chaos in the Upper Realm, and all the forces and sects would be swept into it. It was even more difficult for ordinary cultivators to escape, and would be turned into ashes. Thinking of this, everyone trembled uncontrollably, terrified.

“What...” The woman in the green skirt fell into despair, and couldn’t help shouting.

Her whole body was glowing, the endless Dao and spiritual energy were shining, and she exerted her strongest means and divine powers, trying to survive. However, the opponent was too terrifying, and the three of them could fight any Enlightened person together.

Endless brilliance erupted, and there was chaotic energy rushing out of this place, submerging and directly destroying this star field.

“I’m not willing...” Seeing the three of them approaching and about to destroy her own soul light, her eyes were full of unwillingness and despair.

Boom!!

But at this moment, a clear sword light swept over from a distance, as if splitting the universe and dividing the four poles of Heaven and Earth. All the attacks were cut off by this sword, annihilated in the void as if they had never appeared before.

Such a scene shocked everyone instantly.

The many cultivators around, even the cultivators and creatures on these ancient planets, couldn't help opening their eyes wide. They were shocked, and looked toward the direction from where the sword light originated.

"That's..." Someone's face was filled with disbelief, his eyes were wide open, and his voice was trembling.

"It's Young Master Changge! It turned out to be Young Master Changge!"

"He came to save us!"

Someone recognized the figure that appeared, and couldn't help shouting. They were extremely excited, thinking that it was the fluctuation of the war here that alarmed Gu Changge so he appeared and came to save everyone.

A slender figure in white clothes was coming from the other side of the star field. There was a terrifying vision surging in the depths of his eyes, the stars were cracked, and the mountains and seas were collapsing.

"It's you..." One of the three black-clothed figures looked over. There seemed to be an emotional change in his indifferent eyes, and his voice was not as flat as before.

"Young Master Changge... Please save me! I am willing to offer a generous reward!"

Seeing the person who appeared here, the woman in the green skirt, who had already fallen into despair, was stunned for a moment. She was unable to believe it, and then shouted with surprise and excitement.

She never expected that at this time, someone would actually show up and block these attacks for her with a sword. Moreover, it was Gu Changge!

Gu Changge was an existence that could contend against the Will of Heaven, which was comparable to the Immortal Realm. With his help, she would definitely be able to turn the danger into a bargain and escape. Thinking of this, the woman in the green skirt, who was already in despair, once again ignited the fire of hope in her heart.

“It seems like I’m not too late.” Looking at the scene that could be described as a scene where people were devastated, Gu Changge frowned and said with a dignified expression.

He didn’t hesitate at the moment, he stepped forward from the other side of the star field. The river of time passed under his feet as if the long river of time was passing away.

“You still can’t stop, and are so cruel to living beings, disregarding all living beings, you really deserve to die.” Gu Changge’s eyes were very cold, and he swung his Dao sword and directly attacked.

Chi, Chi, Chi...

In an instant, terrifying sword lights struck, causing many meteorites to collapse into ashes, and all the laws and order were cut to pieces. He stepped forward, holding a shining and crystal Dao sword in his hand, like a pool of autumn water, extremely clear, but it contained peerless sharpness.

As one after another sword lights slashed away, as bright as lightning piercing through the sky. The faces of the three figures in black changed slightly, and they had to fight back. Displaying various tyrannical means and techniques as they dare not underestimate him.

“Could it be that you still want to rely on your own strength to stop us?” Surrounding them was a thick black fog, floating up, and down, like a square of the ancient world, being pushed forward.

And taking advantage of this opportunity, the woman in the green skirt activated the secret technique. Her whole body seemed to be on fire as she quickly fled toward the distance, swallowing a large amount of recovery pills, not daring to get caught up in this terrifying battle again.

She had already reached the point where she ran out of fuel and was unable to help Gu Changge anymore.

“Young Master Changge, be careful, these three people are all Enlightened beings and should not be underestimated.” She couldn’t help shouting, and although she was very relieved about Gu Changge’s strength.

She suddenly thought that Gu Changge’s origin was damaged, and he was still in the stage of serious injury.

“Your origin has been injured, and you dare to come here to die. It just so happens that you will be killed here today, which can be regarded as solving a serious problem for my lord,” a figure in black stood in the sky, said indifferently, staring at the murderous Gu Changge and his eyes were cold and heartless.

“Don’t talk nonsense with him, get rid of him quickly while he is seriously injured.”

“We can’t let him continue to grow up. Otherwise, it will only destroy the plans of my lord in the future!”

The other two figures in black were also merciless, and the terrifying vision appeared while they spoke, like a long river offering sacrifices to the sky, and tombstones emerged one after another, stretching across the sky, suppressing and attacking Gu Changge.

Endless brilliance erupted here again as if the world had collapsed, and the vast chaotic air was wrapped in various laws and orders, hanging down and covering everything.

All kinds of powerful techniques evolved, there were peerless divine weapons intertwined within the attack. There were also unrivaled immortal mountains floating up and down, big stars touched by the aftermath as they constantly turned into dust and disappeared in smoke.

“Three Enlightened beings, where did you come from?” Gu Changge stepped forward, and there seemed to be hundreds of millions of sword lights intertwining beside him, turning into a vast sea of swords, covering the sky and covering the sun.

The three Enlightened beings in black also displayed their powerful means to shake the sky and shatter the sea of swords.

With a clear whistle, Gu Changge's body transformed into immeasurable light, turning into a surging sword, slicing in all directions, as bright as a bolt of lightning, piercing the black starry sky, extremely blinding.

All the cultivators and creatures around watched this scene with incomparable excitement, but at the same time, they were also worried. Many people knew that Gu Changge was not in good condition now, and there were rumors of his injury everywhere.

Now in front of him, there were three Enlightened beings. Could he stop this disaster and save many ancient stars of life around him?

"You are now greatly weakened, are you still the opponent of the three of us?" Among the men in black, someone shouted coldly. The dark divine light was boiling around his body. He was burning like a divine furnace, releasing massive aura and majestic divine power.

"You'll know when you try it." Gu Changge's eyes were indifferent, filled with cold killing intent, sweeping across the sky and shattering the star field.

An unimaginable battle broke out again, and endless rays of light gushed out, blazing and brilliant, as if penetrating the universe.

Boom!!

Gu Changge performed the forbidden technique as his whole body glowed brilliantly. His hair was like a galaxy, and he was covered with chaotic energy, as if he had transformed into an eternal sacred furnace. He swallowed mountains and rivers, and his black hair danced, cutting out endless trajectories of the Dao, transcendent and mysterious.

At this time, he raised his hand to conform to the law of nature, in harmony with the Dao, and with a clear whistle, pieces of meteorites turned into powder.

With a shake of his arm, the galaxy was destroyed, the chaotic energy flowed back to the sky, and the blazing light swept away while the universe trembled, and the stars and the moon were darkened.

The three figures in black coughed up blood and flew upside down, as if they were about to crash out of this star field.

“This is Young Master Changge!”

“What a terrifying strength. I’ve never seen him make a move before. I didn’t know he was so strong. He is worthy of being able to resist the Will of Heaven...”

“And this is still in a state of serious injury, if it is intact, how terrible it would be!”

In the surrounding star field, many cultivators and creatures witnessed all this with their own eyes, all trembling and excited, feeling their minds swaying.

“It’s so terrifying. In the same realm, absolutely no one is his enemy!” Even the beautiful eyes of the woman in the green skirt widened, feeling that her Dao heart was shaking. It was unbelievable, his strength made her tremble to the extreme.

At this time, Gu Changge was so powerful and destructive that this star field was almost completely destroyed by him and razed to the ground.

“No, this guy is too strong...”

The faces of the three figures in black changed drastically, and they couldn’t help but growl. After several moves, they were already at a disadvantage, and with their combined efforts, it was difficult for them to contend against Gu Changge.

Chi!!

Moreover, at this time, Gu Changge used a secret technique, and he led the stars to fight. The sky full of stars descended, making his surroundings turn into a vast expanse of whiteness.

At the end, it could be seen that the sun and the moon were rotating around him. Ancient, majestic and countless stars appear in all directions, surrounding him in the center.

He seemed to have evolved into a cosmic star field. Gu Changge was like the lord of heaven, standing in the center, condensing all kinds of light, and finally submerged in the past.

“We are no match for him, quickly escape!”

“Escape as far as you can.”

The faces of the three figures in black changed drastically, and they seemed extremely horrified. Without hesitation, they burned their true souls and blood essence one after another, turning into divine lights and escaped. But the aftermath here was still too terrifying, it was almost like a universe was about to die.

The sky and the earth collapsed along the universe, and there was chaos all of a sudden.

“This is simply destroying the world!”

“It’s too scary. Anyone who steps into the battle of Enlightened beings will be wiped out, and disappear like smoke.”

All the cultivators and creatures were trembling in horror, their souls were trembling, and they were terrified to the extreme.

“Great, we’re saved!”

However, more cultivators and creatures cheered, with a sense of survival after disaster. Judging from this situation, these three mysterious Enlightened beings were repelled by Gu Changge, and all the surrounding life star fields were saved.

They were a million times more grateful to Gu Changge.

Whoosh whoosh!!!

Immediately, a series of divine lights swept up into the sky from all over the place, all of them were the most powerful people on every star, who had been watching from a distance before and dared not step forward.

Now that the crisis had been lifted, they rushed forward one after another, carefully avoiding the aftermath of the battle that had not yet spread.

“Thank you, Young Master Changge, for your help!” They all cupped their hands in gratitude, expressing their gratitude to Gu Changge.

“Thank you, Young Master Changge! If Young Master Changge did not step today, I am afraid that all of us would have died tragically, and the surrounding star fields will be destroyed.”

Many female cultivators had amazing eyes, and their hearts were swaying. Looking at the tall figure standing at the end of the sky, they couldn’t calm down for a while. Even the woman in the green skirt felt that her mood was difficult to calm down, and her heart was greatly touched.

If Gu Changge hadn’t suddenly appeared today, she would have also died here. Hearing this, Gu Changge seemed to have just come to his senses, and looked away from the direction where the three men in black fled.

“You don’t need to be like this, how can we cultivators sit idly by seeing this situation?” He waved his hand and said, his expression was calm and composed. It was like a different person from the strong and overwhelming person just now.

But just when Gu Changge finished speaking, his brows suddenly frowned as his figure swayed slightly, and he let out a muffled snort. A few wisps of divine blood spilled from the corner of his mouth.

“What...”

“Young Master Changge, are you alright?”

Seeing this scene, everyone here suddenly turned pale with shock and became extremely worried.

It was only then that many people remembered that Gu Changge was fighting with serious injuries just now, and they were so grateful that they almost knelt down and kowtowed.

“It’s okay, it’s just that I was injured in the battle just now. If I didn’t have this injury, it would not be that simple for the three of them to escape like this.”

Gu Changge waved his hands calmly, signaling to everyone not to care, but when he got to the end of the sentence, he still had some regrets that couldn't be concealed.

“Young Master Changge, I have... Here”

The woman in the green skirt looked worried, and took out a jade box, and wanted to hand it to Gu Changge. But Gu Changge didn't take it, shook his head and said, “Usual recovery pills are useless for me, and your injury is also serious, so keep it for yourself.”

The woman in the green skirt was impressed. She never expected that Gu Changge would think of her so much at this time. She had never been in contact with Gu Changge, but judging from his actions today, he really deserved to be as gentle as jade, elegant and extraordinary.

“I just don't know the origin of those men in black, they are so unscrupulous, and the forces involved behind it, I'm afraid I can't imagine...” Then, as if thinking of something, Gu Changge showed doubts and said to himself.

Hearing this, the expression of the woman in the green skirt suddenly shook, recalling the events at that time, she said solemnly, “At that time, those men in black thought I couldn't escape, and said something. They seemed to come from a place called Dark Heavenly Court, and they were following the orders of a certain lord to kill us all.”

She was shocked at the time, so she was particularly impressed by these words.

“Dark Heavenly Court?”

“What is that? I've never heard of it before. How dare they intercept and kill Enlightened beings from various factions?”

Hearing this, everyone around was shocked, and there was a huge wave in their hearts. They already had a premonition that this mysterious Dark Heavenly Court was about to cause a sensation in the entire Upper Realm.
