Chapter 668: Gu Changge's next plan is to head to the Peerless Immortal Dynasty

Gu Qingyi took little Wang Yue with her and left. Even apart from Gu Changge and a few members of the Gu family, no one knew her whereabouts. Of course, among the Gu family, not many people knew of Gu Qingyi's existence, let alone care about her.

"What is this bet, why can't I remember..." On the way back to the Gu family, Gu Changge kept thinking about it and frowned. He had a deep premonition that this matter involved a lot and it could even be thought of being involved in a huge secret.

But Gu Qingyi didn't go into details, she just mentioned it, and then left. Her figure turned into a ray of light and dissipated on the spot. She was carried away by the breeze as if she had never appeared before. Even the traces of the existence of this world were erased by her own hands at that moment.

What she said to Gu Changge was more like a whim than any deep meaning.

"I'll remember sooner or later? Do you mean the memory of the Demon Lord?" Gu Changge shook his head lightly, and quickly put the matter aside, without giving it any further thought. The so-called water naturally came to the bridge. It was useless for him to think too much now.

On the contrary, it was Gu Qingyi who reminded him that the Upper Realm was about to be purged in chaos, and the Immortal Realm would appear in the world, which aroused Gu Changge's interest.

On the one hand, the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree that he had obtained was about to mature and could set up a shocking situation, attracting the existence of the Dao lineages of various forces in the Upper Realm, thus helping him enter the Immortal Realm.

On the other hand, the chaos in the Upper Realm was also a rare opportunity for the Dark Heaven.

"The opportunity to become Immortal in the Upper Realm actually lies in the Dao fruit of the Epoch Tree. Without my permission, who can become Immortal?" Many thoughts flashed through Gu Changge's mind, but he was not worried.

After all, that Epoch Tree was sought by all the forces in the Upper Realm in their massive campaign against the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions. Now it was standing in his Inner Universe, dripping with the aura of vast chaos, condensing the essence of black and yellow, majestic and immortal.

The Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree also contained the part of Heaven and Earth Laws that were lacking in the current Upper Realm.

Gu Changge had no doubt that as long as he spread the news about the Epoch Tree, it would definitely cause a sensation in the Upper Realm and set off endless bloody storms. So before that, he needed to be fully prepared to deal with everything.

“Although the Immortal Path is not visible now, there must be Immortal power sitting in the various Immortal forces and Supreme sects, especially some forces that are inextricably linked with the Immortal Realm. There is absolutely no shortage of Immortal weapons.”

“According to the classics, the Upper Realm is actually called the Ancestral Land. Even after the taboo era, the connection between the Immortal Realm and the Upper Realm is Absolutely Heavenly, but after so many epochs, there must be many existences who have used various means to lower their realm, or break into the Immortal Realm. There is never a lack of connection between the two.” Thinking of this, Gu Changge frowned slightly.

Although the Ancient Immortal Gu Family’s background was unimaginably deep, and it was even more involved with the Ancient Immortal era, it was the most mysterious force in the Upper Realm. But it didn’t mean that the Ancient Immortal Gu family had the strength to be an enemy of the entire Upper Realm, which was also unrealistic.

After returning to the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, Gu Changge went to the Hidden Scripture Pavilion to browse through many classics, hoping to find some sporadic records about the Immortal Realm.

In the end, he discovered a secret that interested him a lot. That was, 80 million years ago, there was a power in the Immortal Realm that wanted to guide the Gu family in this realm. But this matter failed because the Laws of Heaven and Earth were extremely incompetent at that time, and the Immortal Path was incomplete.

This matter was clearly recorded in the classics, and there was even a guiding Immortal Path that appeared at that time, trying to attract many elites and the fresh blood of the Gu family at that time.

“It seems that there may have been some accident in the Immortal Realm...” Gu Changge raised his eyebrows lightly. He wanted to confirm the trace of the Immortal Path in this life, but he might have to rely on other people in the future.

With his own strength alone, it was difficult to find its location. Thinking about it this way, this Immortal Path might not be easy to find, and the trails in this life were basically broken. Even those Remnant Immortals were just lingering and could not determine the location of the Immortal Path at all.

Some ancient existences who were well versed in the Dao of the deduction did not dare to risk their lives by deducing about the Immortal Path. Since ancient times, countless cultivators had been struck to death by lightning because of leaking secrets.

“Bai Lian’er’s father, Bai Kun, and her younger brother, Bai Hua, are good at divination, maybe I can let them try.” Gu Changge thought of the method he used to threaten Bai Lian’er before going to the Demon World.

If he remembered correctly, Bai Lian’er’s father was the Demon Master Bai Kun, who had the talent to spy on the secrets of Heaven. When he was in the Chaotic Star Region, he ordered the thirteen thieves to intercept his Enlightening Mirror.

As for his apprentice, he had an extremely mysterious Heavenly Physique, who had inherited his mantle and possessed the ability to break through the mysteries. He didn’t kill the two of them, they were used as hostages to threaten Bai Lian’er to do things for him.

Now, although Bai Lian’er had no objection, Gu Changge had always been cautious and had always kept a backhand between the two of them.

“Enlightening Mirror and Time-Space Monument, I wonder if I can return to Immortal Ancient by relying on the space-time coordinates, otherwise it is also a way...” Regarding the traces of the Immortal Path, it made Gu Changge think of the two artifacts he obtained after killing the Son of Luck.

However, if he wanted to use these two artifacts and trek through the long river of time, he not only needed extremely powerful strength but also exact space-time coordinates.

Otherwise, it would be extremely easy to get lost in the long river of time and space, and it would be difficult to return to the current world. Moreover, even if he could return to the Ancient Immortal era, he would not be able to change the past. He could only be a passer-by and witness the traces that existed.

Otherwise, the small actions caused may trigger a landslide and tsunami-like reaction, causing the Dao to backfire.

“I’m not in a hurry about the Immortal Path. My current strength has not yet reached the late stage of the Emperor Realm. When I set foot on the Immortal Path, I need at least the strength of the Immortal Realm.” Gu Changge shook his head and temporarily put the matter aside.

After arranging everything, he began to think about another thing. When he stepped into the Immortal Realm, he would definitely head to the Immortal Realm. And the huge power and energy left in the Upper Realm would be entrusted to other people.

There was no doubt that the Human Ancestor Hall would be handed over to Jiang Chuchu. As for the Wan Dao Business Alliance and the Ancient Immortal Continent, it would be handed over to Yin Mei.

It seemed that the rest of the forces still had to be handed over to Yue Mingkong, and it might not be long before she would truly take over the Peerless Immortal Dynasty. The Moon Empress of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty sent someone to ask about their wedding date some time ago.

Gu Changge also promised Yue Mingkong to discuss the matter with her after the matter of the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty was resolved. But now it seemed that he still had a lot of things to deal with, and there might be some delay.

After all, there would be a visit to Heavenly Extinction Imperial Court sooner or later. In any case, the Origin of Heavenly Extinction was a substance comparable to the origin of the world. It was extremely scarce and could help Gu Changge to refine the Dao bottle. Gu Changge definitely wanted this thing.

In addition, the prescription of the Purple Pill Elixir that he asked Lin Qiuhan to inquire about before had also disappeared. As an elixir that only existed in legends, the Purple Pill Elixir had infinite uses, and it was difficult to understand its effects. It was even said that it would make cultivators ascend into the sky.

Although this was just a rumor, it could also be seen that it was mysterious. There were Nine Elixirs in the Upper Realm, one of which was the Purple Pill Elixir. The recipe for refining this pill was envied by Heavens, sliced into ashes by ninety-one thunderbolts, and annihilated in the long river of time.

Later, a Supreme being tried every means to collect them, but they were still lost. Although Gu Changge himself might not need this kind of elixir, he might one day step into the Realm of Immortality and leave the Upper Realm.

Many of his relatives and beauties in the Upper Realm should be able to use this pill. So he was more concerned about this. After Lin Qiuhan sent back the news from the Purple Pill Sect, he sent people to start searching for traces of this pill formula.

After Gu Changge arranged and ordered many things for the next few days, he started to leave for the Peerless Immortal Dynasty. Before, when he was still in the Jianxuan Great World, he sent someone to deliver the Seven Heavenly Artifacts to Yue Mingkong and asked her to help him condense the key.

Now he didn't know exactly which step Yue Mingkong had achieved.
