Chapter 669: The Great Dream returns to the Immortal Technique, What more can a man ask for when he has a wife like this?

The Peerless Immortal Dynasty was located in the central area of the Upper Realm. It had a vast and boundless territory. It was faintly known as the No. 1 Immortal Dynasty in the Upper Realm.

Even the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, which was also a well-known dynasty, was far inferior to the Peerless Immortal Dynasty in terms of national power. There were many ancient countries and dynasties in this world. If one dared to take the name 'Peerless,' they would naturally have to bear its due cause and effect. Not to mention they needed great courage and background to suppress it.

This also showed the self-confidence and strength of the first Emperor of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty. It had been passed down since ancient times, and throughout the ages and many tribulations but the Immortal Dynasty had remained immortal.

And the most prosperous place in the Peerless Immortal Dynasty was the imperial city, which was as majestic as a piece of the immortal tower located in the mortal world. There were too many sacred mountains and ancient peaks floating up and down, silver waterfalls hanging down, cornices fighting corners, shrouded in chaotic mist, incomparably magnificent.

During these years, the crown Empress Yue Mingkong established the Immortal Justice Division, the Immortal Master Division, and the Star Law Division, assigned three hundred and sixty-five commanders, responsible for punishment, patrol, and defense... It could be said that each of them had their own duties.

The entire imperial capital was under her governance, well-organized and orderly. She combined the laws of many previous Emperors and summed up a new method of governance for the common people, which made many of the older generations admire.

Now in the Peerless Immortal Dynasty, all the cultivators who mentioned Yue Mingkong were full of reverence. In the future, she would be the Peerless Empress!

This was basically the consensus of everyone. Yue Mingkong's father, who was the current Emperor Yue, had retreated behind the scenes. Therefore, many affairs of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty were handed over to Yue Mingkong.

In the eyes of many ministers, Yue Mingkong's prestige was even higher than that of her father, Emperor Yue. At a young age, she had the peerless demeanor of a generation of empresses.

At this time, in the depths of the imperial capital of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty, in an extremely magnificent and simple palace. Yue Mingkong was wearing a loose robe and sitting on top of the throne.

She had a picturesque face, her blue hair was lightly drawn, revealing a delicate snow-white neck, her eyebrows were emerald green, her eyes were deep and calm, and she was reading many memorials. Below her, there were several female officials who had been selected by her and were highly valued by her.

They were reporting all the news about the Peerless Immortal Dynasty in a low voice, all parties in the Upper Realm, and Gu Changge during this period of time.

"Things about the Dark Heaven are now spreading among the various sects, causing great panic. Your Majesty, should we make preparations to prevent this Dark Heaven from infiltrating my Peerless Immortal Dynasty?" A female officer spoke softly, looked at Yue Mingkong above, and asked respectfully.

"Dark Heaven?" When Yue Mingkong heard the words, she didn't raise her head, but slightly parted her vermilion lips before saying lightly, "Don't worry about it."

Although she had never left the capital of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty during this period of time. But the turmoil of all parties in the Upper Realm could not be hidden from her eyes.

From Yue Mingkong's point of view, the appearance of the Dark Heaven was absolutely inseparable from Gu Changge. It was even very possible that Gu Changge was behind the push. He was actually the master behind the scenes of Dark Heaven.

"Yes, Your Majesty." Hearing this, although the female officer who spoke was puzzled, she didn't dare to ask more questions.

Although the Dark Heaven had a tendency to disrupt the Upper Realm in this world, if it wanted to shake the foundation of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty in this way, it was actually far from enough.

In her opinion, Yue Mingkong let them not care about it, it was a kind of great self-confidence, and she didn't take the Dark Heaven seriously at all.

“By the way, Your Majesty, I heard the news from the Ancient Immortal Gu Family that Young Master Changge is almost recovering from his injuries. A few days ago, he left the Ancient Immortal Gu house. Tracing the direction, it seems that he wants to come to see you.” The female officer suddenly seemed to remember another thing and reported softly.

“I know.” Yue Mingkong nodded, the corners of her mouth curved slightly, but she recovered quickly.

In fact, as early as a few months ago, when she received the Seven Heavenly Artifacts sent by Gu Changge from the Jianxuan Great World, she understood that Gu Changge had already planned to do something to the secret treasure of the Immortal Palace.

In the previous life, it was also before the two of them got married that Gu Changge sent people to search for all the clues of the Seven Heavenly Artifacts. So looking at it this way, the timeline had been pushed forward by a full three thousand years.

Although Yue Mingkong was reborn and returned. But the development of many things in this life had deviated from the original track, making it impossible for her to judge whether it was still the same as the future scene she experienced before.

Moreover, during this period of time, especially when resting with eyes closed, inexplicable images would always appear in Yue Mingkong's mind. She saw herself, but it was not her, but in a distant unknown place, deep and sacred, vast and ancient.

“Ten thousand years long, the wind and moon of one day...” At that time, she seemed to be a different person, indifferent and aloof, like a god, standing above the Nine Heavens, overlooking the vast sentient beings.

Those pictures were not clear so sometimes, they were just a few blurred fragments. She also speculated whether these pictures were memories from her previous life, but after thinking about it later, the possibility was not great.

After all, from the time she was killed by Gu Changge, to the time when she was reborn and returned, to Gu Changge's return from the Lower Realm half a year ago, she remembered everything clearly as if it was engraved in the deepest part of her mind.

So how those blurred images came about obviously had nothing to do with her previous life.

“The big dream is thousands of years old, what year is today... Dream Return to Immortal Technique...” Yue Mingkong thought of this, and suddenly felt a little tired, and waved to all the female officials and maids in the palace to head back.

This was an extremely mysterious technique, which appeared along with the images that appeared in her mind during this period of time. She didn't know the origin of this technique at all.

This made Yue Mingkong extremely puzzled. She was even worried, wondering what happened to her rebirth. Where did this mysterious technique come from? Why did it appear?

Judging from the current events, if she was really reborn thousands of years ago, why did so many things evolve and develop, always deviating from the track of her previous life?

Just talking about Gu Changge's various actions, she could actually see a lot. Not to mention that sometimes, some things that were already doomed in her opinion always changed unexpectedly.

Although the outcome of the battle of the Upper Realm against the Eight Desolations and Ten Regions did not change much, it was nearly a thousand years earlier. The same was true for the birth of the True Immortal Academy and Heavenly Extinction Imperial Court.

So sometimes, Yue Mingkong couldn't help but wonder if the scenes she experienced in her previous life were real. Was it the dream of yellow beams, or was it the flower and moon in the mirror or a dream of a butterfly? Or maybe it was a corner of the future that she caught in the dark.

Even if she didn't take the initiative to think about these problems, they would emerge involuntarily during this period of time.

“If I were to confess to Changge about my rebirth, what would he think about me? Would he think that I approached him with the purpose of revenge from the beginning? He finally trusted me, and I don't want to destroy the relationship we have now.”

In fact, Yue Mingkong still had her own thoughts in her heart. Regardless of whether the rebirth was true or not, the relationship between her and Gu Changge could not be faked now.

Gu Changge also agreed to her, and after the matter with the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty was resolved, he would come to the Peerless Immortal Dynasty to discuss the wedding date with her.

This was what she had waited for three thousand years in her previous life, and she had been looking forward to it the most. Now that it was right in front of her eyes and within reach, she was a little worried about gain and loss. And just when Yue Mingkong was full of emotions, a chuckle suddenly sounded outside the palace.

“I haven’t seen you for a few months, and I missed you a lot. Is Mingkong thinking about her husband?” Gu Changge walked slowly, followed by many female officials, with a bit of hesitation and entanglement on their faces.

According to Yue Mingkong’s instructions, no one was allowed to enter this place without her permission. But the person who came was Gu Changge, who was also Yue Mingkong’s fiancé, who would dare to stop him in the huge Peerless Immortal Dynasty. So they were also very tangled, a little worried about being blamed by Yue Mingkong.

“Changge, you’re here?” Yue Mingkong didn’t expect Gu Changge to come so soon, she raised her eyes, and was a little surprised. She thought it would be several days before Gu Changge arrived here.

But after thinking about it, Gu Changge’s cultivation was now comparable to that of a Remnant Immortal, and it took only an instant to tear apart the universe. Although this journey was vast, it was nothing for him.

“I’m here.” Gu Changge said with a slight smile and waved his hand to signal the many female officers behind him to step back.

It had been a long time since the two parted last time. Although there was a letter of contact between them, how could it be compared to seeing each other again?

The so-called long absence was better than being newly married was not without reason.

At this moment, even Gu Changge had a lot of things he wanted to say to Yue Mingkong. He had to admit that at first, he treated this woman with a mentality of taking advantage of her, but after getting to know her gradually, he realized what it meant to be affectionate.

After all, he was not really hard-hearted, facing a woman who was so passionate and sincere, willing to be an enemy of the whole world for him. How could he be indifferent?

“I thought it would take a few days for you to arrive. Are you tired from this journey?” Yue Mingkong stood up, and couldn’t help showing a bit of a smile on her serious face before walking over naturally, smoothing Gu Changge’s wrinkled collar.

Gu Changge smiled and said, “How can I get tired when I come to see you?”

While speaking, he held her slender waist very naturally.

Yue Mingkong glanced at him slightly, but she didn’t pay attention to his actions. Instead, her eyes sparkled and she said, “You... you came to see me, is something wrong?”

In fact, she asked this question knowingly, but she just wanted to hear the answer from Gu Changge.

“Of course, it’s about discussing our wedding date. I don’t want you to wait too long.” Gu Changge smiled and pulled a lock of hair hanging from her forehead to her ear.

“Don’t want me to wait too long...” Yue Mingkong’s mood suddenly turned sour.

If she could have heard this sentence earlier in her previous life, then she really wouldn’t have had to wait for three thousand years before being brutally killed by him on her wedding night.

“You didn’t lie to me this time again, did you?” Yue Mingkong stared at him blankly and suddenly said softly.

Gu Changge didn’t seem to notice the ‘again’ in her tone, and smiled slightly, “Why did Mingkong say that, when did I lie to you?”

He knew that in Yue Mingkong’s words, she was actually carrying the emotions of her previous life. But for the sake of harmony between the two, Gu Changge didn’t want to expose the secret of her rebirth.

After all, some things were buried in the soil, and sooner or later they would rot and fall apart, as long as you don't dig them up. Just like Yue Mingkong always knew his methods, knew how he had killed many young supreme beings, how he had put the black pot of the inheritor of demonic arts on other people's heads. But she never said it, pretending to be ignorant.

Between the two, from beginning to end, there was a tacit understanding of knowing everything, but pretending to be confused in front of each other.

"You lied to me so much." Yue Mingkong also quickly noticed the loopholes in what he said just now.

But she didn't care, she glanced at Gu Changge and said, "You never told me what the relationship between Jiang Chuchu, the Holy Maiden of the Human Ancestor Hall, is with you. When you went to the Demon World, you also got entangled with Empress Xi Yao from the Demon World, and you didn't tell me, and..."

"Don't say anything else. I know it all." Gu Changge had a slight headache.

Then he shook his head slightly and smiled, and said, "If you want to know, I can tell you, I thought you never cared about these things, but even you can be jealous sometimes."

"I also didn't think I would care. After all, whether it is now or in the future, I will be your official wife, and the rest can only be regarded as concubines at best. But when I think that when I'm not around you, there will always be swallows around you, I want to kill them." Yue Mingkong also shook her head and said this in a very calm tone.

Her character had always been strong and domineering. In some respects, it was even a little inhumane and indifferent, and it was not surprising that she would make such a move.

What was more, Gu Changge was not as indifferent as in his previous life. For all kinds of stunning beauties around him, he never refused anyone who came.

"Then if you stay by my side all the time, won't you be fine?" Gu Changge couldn't help chuckling when he heard the words, as if he didn't hear the resentment in her words at all.

“But you are going to leave the Upper Realm after all. If I leave with you, who will take care of the foundation you have built over the years? Or you don’t care about it at all, just let the ruined foundation collapse.” Yue Mingkong shook her head, gave him a slight look, and understood Gu Changge’s teasing meaning.

Gu Changge’s cultivation had reached this stage, and sooner or later he would break through the Realm of Immortality. Now that the Immortal Path was about to appear, the ancient existences of all forces and sects were ready to move, wanting to find that road.

In the near future, there would be chaos in the Upper Realm, Gu Changge would definitely take this opportunity to take that step, and then leave the Upper Realm. So she had to find a way to at least let Gu Changge leave without any worries.

“Mingkong, it’s very kind of you to think of me...” Hearing Yue Mingkong’s words, Gu Changge was taken aback for a moment, then smiled, and couldn’t help reaching out to pull her into his arms.

In fact, he didn’t expect Yue Mingkong to have such a plan long ago, and he was still a little bit moved. How could a husband ask for more, after having a wife like this?

For the next few days, Gu Changge stayed in Yue Mingkong’s bedroom, very leisurely and natural, never showing up. Although many cultivators in the Peerless Immortal Dynasty knew that Gu Changge had come here, no one dared to disturb him.

Even the many ancient existences of the Peerless Immortal Dynasty such as Emperor Yue were like this, and they were happy to hear about this scene.
