

Villain 701

Chapter 701: The various forces with no path of return, The end of the war

The last hall of Hell was finally breached. This place was filled with screams, and the traces of war spread far and wide. The starry sky was boiling, the powerhouses were like a forest, rushing vertically and horizontally throughout, and the laws were like rain, falling continuously.

Even the Supreme being would be overwhelmed quickly in this kind of battle, and the might of each powerhouse was easily shattered in this magnificent battle. Because all the powerhouses were standing side by side, there was no weakling. They came from all the most powerful races. Only a Quasi-Emperor could gain a foothold, and not be wiped out by the aftermath.

All the assassins of Hell were screaming, trying all kinds of methods, even if it meant dying, it didn't matter. However, the armies of various Immortal forces were too many, stretching endlessly as they had been attacking from the ancient warships.

This world was really too big, even if the True World in the palm was constantly merging to interfere with the Laws of the world, it was difficult to change the ending. For many years, there had never been a large-scale battle like this.

Even some Immortal Wars between Immortal forces had never been so tragic. Human life was worth less than grass, the powerhouses fell like pieces, and the world was stained red with blood. This was a doomsday scene, and everyone was crazy.

Even the Enlightened beings went crazy, their eyes were scarlet, and they would not stop until they killed their opponent.

Boom!!!

However, at this moment, endless runes ignited between Heaven and Earth, spewing out infinite light and a red haze that penetrated the sky as if all the Laws were hooked together. This energy was as vast as a sea of smoke, endless and boundless, sweeping from the deepest part of Hell all at once. All the cultivators couldn't help trembling, and their souls were terrified.

"What kind of aura is this..."

“Could it be that the Lord of Hell has revived?”

Many Enlightened beings who were fighting each other were the first to feel that something was wrong, and the lights of their souls were flickering. Their complexions changed drastically, turning extremely dignified as they stared at the deepest part of Hell.

The mist surged there, like the chaotic gas that had been incubating for hundreds of millions of years before erupting violently. The unrivaled aura filled the universe, cracking the starry sky in all directions, and an extremely blurry figure was slowly emerging.

Boom!!

In its palm, there were endless red rays of light intertwining. It was an ancient Divine Kingdom, blooming with the brilliance of billions of Dao, compared to when it was in the hands of the Third Hall Master, it was more than tens of millions of times more brilliant, like a scorching sun.

Terrible laws surged in the air, and everyone was trembling, wanting to kneel down under this aura.

“This is... Could it be that the Lord of Hell has appeared? This aura is not right, we are definitely not his opponent.”

“The Laws of Heaven and Earth in this world have changed even more, I’m afraid it will be difficult to escape.”

The Enlightened beings of all forces couldn’t help showing fear and reluctance on their faces. They had never expected that the most mysterious Lord of Hell to be actually hidden in the deepest part of Hell.

Seeing this scene, all the powerhouses of Hell couldn’t help cheering, their faces full of excitement. All the despair and defeat were swept away as if a new life was ushered in again.

“Is this really the Lord of Hell?” However, there were still many people who secretly felt suspicious.

If the Lord of Hell was still around, then how could he have watched Hell come to this point with his own eyes before choosing to attack?

“Why is my lord not here? Wasn’t he very interested in the mysterious Lord of Hell?”

On the contrary, Bai Lianer, who came here together, noticed that Gu Changge was missing from the ancient warship. Usually, Alpha, who almost followed him like a shadow, stood there like a dark iron tower at this time.

This made her doubt the true identity of the Lord of Hell.

...

“Attack!”

Because of the appearance of the Lord of Hell, everyone on the battlefield briefly went absent-minded. But soon they rushed into the battle again.

Rumble!

The sky and the stars were trembling, the whole world was collapsing. The divine might of the extreme Dao was blooming and endless auspicious colors of light were gushing. The long bronze bell of Hell that contained the might of Remnant Immortal was recovering. It fell to the end of the sky, letting down endless brilliance and chaotic energy.

Every ray of light was extremely thick and contained power beyond the level of Enlightened beings. Everyone retreated, but anyone who stood in the way could only die.

Under the oppression of this kind of power, Emperor Realm cultivators could only explode and turn into a bloody mist, vulnerable to even a single blow. When the Remnant Immortal weapon was activated, there was no more opponent.

Buzz!

The ancient warships collapsed and disintegrated. The many Enlightened beings standing on them were no match for this aura. Blood was dripping from the corners of their mouths.

“The Remnant Immortal Artifact was unleashed and is being controlled by someone, it didn’t recover spontaneously...”

“The person behind the Remnant Immortal Artifact is by no means an ordinary Enlightened being, and may really be the Lord of Hell.”

A female Enlightened being from the Violet Sky Valley looked solemn and looked back at the space barrier in this world. She felt that things were getting worse.

If the Lord of Hell hadn’t shown up, she would still have had a chance to lead everyone to escape unscathed. But now even the space barrier had recovered, and there was a vast and supreme power pervading there. The rest of the Enlightened beings were also very uneasy.

According to the rumors, the Lord of Hell was one of the longest-living beings in the Upper Realm. No one could tell how terrifying his means were. In fact, they also had the forces behind them to try to have a look at whether the Lord of Hell was dead or alive today.

“Attack!!” But at this time, because of the appearance of the Lord of Hell.

Everyone from Hell was as if they had been injected with chicken blood. They were not afraid of death. They were even braver than before. At the end of Hell, the figure standing in the thick mist was indifferent and ruthless as he raised his big palm, and slowly pushed toward the front.

Suddenly, the whole world seemed to be in his palm, a pair of invisible hands seemed to emerge from the sky and the earth, pressing toward the infinite army ahead.

Rumble!!

This was an unmatched terrifying force, vast and endless, with landslides and ground cracking as chaos raged everywhere. Even an Enlightened being felt that he was like an ant at this moment, and it was difficult to compete. However, they also reacted quickly, knowing that this was the will of this world.

Since the Lord of Hell controlled the Divine Kingdom and allowed the Divine Kingdom to merge with this world. Then he was definitely the master of this world, and his thoughts were the will of this world.

All those who fought against the Lord of Hell were rebelling against this world and would be suppressed by the will of Heaven and Earth. The sky, which was already riddled with holes, trembled constantly.

All the Enlightened beings looked serious. They flew forward, their Daos were blazing, boiling like a sun, and trying to fight against this power together. Seeing this, the rest of the Enlightened beings of Hell rushed over one after another to fight with them.

An unimaginable battle broke out here, huge stars were shattered one after another, and turned into dust. Ancient warships exploded as they quickly collapsed and disintegrated.

The Divine Kingdom merged with this world, and the Laws of Heaven and Earth were all controlled by the Lord of Hell. He was like the only God in this world, with cold and heartless eyes, standing at the end of the world and pushing across.

His big palm was boundless, like a continent falling down, and all of those who were disobedient were collapsing and exploding. The blood rained to the sky, the bones piled up into the mountains, and there were tragic scenes everywhere, which were enough to make ordinary cultivators terrified.

This battle to eradicate Hell lasted for several days, and in the end, the Enlightened beings of all races had also reached the point where their energy was exhausted, making them sacrifice the artifacts they carried.

Fortunately, they found that the terrifying figure of the Lord of Hell did not actually exist, it seemed to be just a Dharma body left here. The contained energy was rapidly disappearing and as long as they could persist till the end, they could leave alive.

During this period, they tried to contact the forces behind them, but they found in despair that the world barrier was as strong as it was cast by Immortal gold. The news of their desperation could not be passed on at all, nor could it be known to the outside world.

In other words, even if they could bury everyone from Hell, they would only be buried here later. This result was unacceptable to them.

“Ahhh... I’m not reconciled, why did it end up like this...” There was an Enlightened being shouting, extremely unwilling. It was difficult to persevere because he had reached the point where his body was exhausted and was running dry.

His body finally collapsed, turning into a blood mist that filled the sky, like a rain of blood sweeping across the entire universe and the scene was terrifying. Some Enlightened beings in the distance were also shouting, in despair as they exploded one after another, and did not last until the last moment.

There was not much left of the originally mighty army. There were only a few ancient warships floating above the sky, but they were also extremely dilapidated. This battle finally came to an end, and Hell was almost uprooted.

However, all the forces that came to encircle and suppress them suffered heavy losses. Almost the entire army was wiped out, and there was nothing left, which was close to nothing.

This news would definitely shake the entire Upper Realm.

Chapter 702: Cleansing the Dao Heart? Gu Xian’er’s determination

Hell, an organization that had existed for countless eras and had controlled the underground world, causing countless powers and forces to fall into fear and anxiety, was finally destroyed today.

Endless flames of war swept across the world, devastated Heaven and Earth, shattering the whole world until the point of collapse and decay. Too many cultivators and creatures died in this battle. Their bones were buried here, and even their souls were scattered around. Their bodies and spirits were all destroyed, nothing was left behind.

All the temples had been destroyed, only the broken walls were left behind, no trace of cultivators. The only Enlightened beings left in Hell had also fallen, and no one survived.

Above the sky, a few ancient warships floated, stained with blood, looking extremely dilapidated. The people who survived looked at all of this in silence, still feeling lingering fear.

From their point of view, if it wasn’t for the fact that the Dharma body left by the Lord of Hell wasn’t able to support the devastation for too long, everyone would have died and been buried with Hell.

“The True World in the palm has been broken, and all the forces have paid their due price.”

The surviving cultivators felt a wave of fear at the moment. This battle was really too terrifying. There were more than seven or eight Enlightened beings who had fallen. Moreover, they were all Ancestor-level figures of the Immortal forces.

Although Hell was destroyed, the price was really too high. Many forces who didn't participate in this final battle felt fortunate to have suffered from no major losses. On the contrary, when they searched the Halls of Hell, they found many precious things.

There were Daoist teachings, ancient scriptures, divine materials, immortal medicines... and the wealth accumulated by Hell over the years.

In addition, these ancient worlds occupied by Hell were also extremely rare. They were inscribed with the Emperor Realm Dao runes and Emperor Realm formations of Hell over the years. They possessed monstrous attacking power, and could be used for protection.

In the next few days, many Daoists also came to search, digging three feet into the ruins of Hell, revealing the foundation. Some people found the remains of their Ancestors, and some found some broken weapons that had been buried with the aura of their Ancestors.

In short, this battle had finally come to an end, but the aftermath still had not stopped. The next half month, a large number of cultivators would still show up outside the Battlefield of Hundred Realms.

Ancient warships rolled across the sky, rumbling and rolling over, not sparing any corner of Hell. The details of this battle quickly spread under the discussion of many cultivators, spreading to every corner of the Upper Realm.

The destruction of Hell was naturally a good thing for the whole world to celebrate. However, many Immortal forces had also sounded the alarm.

In this battle, Gu Changge's impact was absolutely far-reaching and terrifying. Without Gu Changge, it would be absolutely impossible for various forces to destroy Hell.

Moreover, Gu Changge seemed to have known for a long time that Hell still had the 'Lord of Hell' trump card that had never been used.

In the final battle, if they had withdrawn early, the loss could even be described as negligible. In the beginning, Gu Changge was the first to discover the hidden world of Hell, and he was the one to retreat first.

No one knew why Gu Changge did this.

Could it be that there were spies planted in Hell, so he knew every move of hell?

Of course, because of this battle, many people had also raised their vigilance against another assassin organization that had risen rapidly in recent years, the Spring Breeze Pavilion. Many forces even felt that Gu Changge was the mastermind behind the Spring Breeze Pavilion.

The Upper Realm, which had been peaceful for a long time, once again became turbulent because of the destruction of Hell. The cultivators of the older generation felt that in the near future, the Upper Realm would be completely chaotic, filled with endless blood and fire.

As Hell was destroyed, another assassin organization with the same ancient heritage, Buddha, had also displayed its claws during this period, making it difficult to maintain peace of mind like before.

All forces were also looking for clues about the Buddha one after another, planning to destroy the Buddha completely just like destroying Hell. Regarding the matter of the Buddha, Gu Changge didn't care much about it because all of this was within his expectations and calculations.

After solving the matter of Hell, he returned to the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, began to search for a suitable ancient world, and cast a net in advance. As for Qing Luo, the First Hall Master of Hell, and the Third Hall Master, Gu Changge did not kill them.

After planting the slave mark and controlling their life and death, he left all the management affairs to Yin Mei and Bai Lian'er. Regarding the matter of the Dark Heaven, Gu Changge had never informed anyone around him.

But after experiencing the destruction of Hell, the originally peaceful and stable environment in the Upper Realm had undergone great changes, causing many cultivators to feel uneasy enough to pray day and night. Those with a strong cultivation base could better perceive the existence of the Dark Heaven. Although they hadn't fully dedicated their faith yet, the thoughts in their heart had been shaken.

In Gu Changge's view, after creating chaos in the Upper Realm, he was able to collect faith and gather believers. Soon, half a month passed, and the time for his and Yue Mingkong's wedding was getting closer and closer.

At this moment, Gu Changge's usual peaceful state of mind, for some reason, couldn't help but feel a little turbulent. He sighed softly and put down the jade slip in his hand before walking out of the palace. He came to a mountain top without knowing it.

Looking around, there were countless islands in the Ancient Immortal Gu Family. Sacred mountains and ancient mountains covered a vast territory with brilliant lights everywhere, and immortal mist, making it like an immortal resort.

Standing on the top of the Upper Realm, overlooking hundreds of millions of living beings, they could live forever and observe forever. And he had almost reached the step when his words could easily destroy hundreds of thousands of miles of mountains and rivers.

"System..." Gu Changge's mood was a little restless, his eyes gradually deepened, and he called out to the system that hadn't been activated for a long time.

It was not that he was worried about any accidents during his and Yue Mingkong's wedding. Instead, he suddenly felt that after so long, although he seemed to possess a bright future, he actually had to calculate many things secretly, making it really hard to feel at ease.

He knew that he was once a Demon Lord, and there were many shocking secrets hidden in his body. Including the origin of this system and the identity of the transmigration, everything was hidden behind this layer of fog. In fact, there were actually too many unsolved problems.

It was just that he rarely took the initiative to think about these things usually. Now that the wedding was approaching, even Gu Changge felt that his mood was in great turmoil, and he couldn't help but think of these things.

I have tasted the gorgeous scenery, but I have also experienced the lonely night.

"Is this cleansing the Dao Heart?" Gu Changge smiled self-deprecatingly, where did he receive his Dao Heart, and how did he rely on these along the way?

Then his eyes fell on the familiar interface that reappeared in front of him. The origin of the system had always been mysterious, and he once thought about whether it was created by the Demon Lord, but later such an idea was rejected.

If it was said that the only thing within him that was related to the Demon Lord was probably the reincarnated body and the Demon Heart. On the contrary, the memory of the system and his identity was more nebulous in the dark.

“It’s been a long time since I met a Child of Luck that can really work for me, and maybe the system hasn’t prompted me for a long time. What is the relationship between a Child of Luck and the system?”

Gu Changge couldn’t help but shake his head slightly, his mind racing. But he had a feeling in his heart that he would figure it out one day.

In the Immortal Realm, there must be something waiting for him.

“I’m still a little tired of calculating all the way.”

A faint smile appeared on Gu Changge’s face, not because he denied his actions. He was just surprised that he thought so too.

Although his perception of Dao had surpassed many Enlightened beings, he had not yet reached the Realm of Immortality. But even an Immortal should have difficulty getting rid of such introspection.

Thinking of this, he sighed lightly, and no longer restrained his thoughts, he closed his eyes slightly, and quietly took a nap here.

Within the lands of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, he was not worried about any accidents.

...

And at this time, outside the outer island of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family. A divine rainbow crossed over, skimming over islands and mountain ranges, passing between the teleportation arrays.

Many clansmen couldn't help but change slightly when they saw the person coming. They became extremely respectful and saluted once they observed the person, not daring to show any disrespect.

This was the little princess of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, with an unparalleled status. Whether it was outside or within the clan, no one dared to underestimate or provoke her.

Moreover, because of some secrets at the beginning, the current Patriarch and many clan elders felt extremely guilty about this person. Of course, there was also a big reason, which was the talent of this little princess, which was really terrifying.

In terms of peers, she was second only to Young Master Changge. Many Ancestors who were born in the world also paid special attention to her, even taught her personally, and bestowed many treasures and divine powers.

Some time ago, this little princess disappeared without a trace and went somewhere, causing many clansmen to be a little worried. Seeing her return safely now, they felt somewhat relieved.

"Is Gu Changge here?"

Gu Xian'er had a slender figure, a beautiful face, and black hair like a waterfall, exuding a proud coldness and aloofness. Even the act of asking the clansmen at this moment was filled with immortality.

Although she looked extremely cute in front of Gu Changge on weekdays, it didn't mean she was stupid. In terms of talent alone, she definitely surpassed the countless heavenly beauties of her peers in the Upper Realm.

"Young master arrived a long time ago and has been here all this time." The person who reported skipped a beat and hurriedly replied.

In the entire Ancient Immortal Gu Family, the person who dared to call Gu Changge by his name was probably this one. Nowadays, even those Ancestors who came out of the depths of the clan were still polite to Gu Changge and dare not treat him as a junior.

“He is still there?” Gu Xian’er nodded, a look of pain and complexity flashed across her face, but she quickly regained her composure.

In fact, she heard a lot of news about Gu Changge on the way back to the Ancient Immortal Gu Family from the divine island, a foreign land.

Including his and Yue Mingkong’s wedding date. Then he went to the Battlefield of Hundred Realms, and destroyed Hell... Almost everything.

Originally, she was skeptical about what she saw in the pool of past lives, and she couldn’t even believe it. But all this way, and the constant contact over the years, Gu Changge’s actions made her think about that.

In fact, she was also very painful in her heart, and was unwilling to accept the picture in the pool of reincarnation. But even Da Hong was convinced that the things reflected in Heaven and Earth like the Pond of Reincarnation could not be fake.

Of course, it might be only a fragment of the future, or a possibility or an ending of the future. In fact, she was not the only one who saw the scene in the Pond of Reincarnation. She even saw the other things.

Gu Xianer not only saw her own ending, she also saw the day when Gu Changge and Yue Mingkong held their big wedding, but that night in the cave mansion, the red cover was splattered with blood.

Gu Changge killed his wife with his own hands, being indifferent and ruthless as if he had no emotion at all.

“All of this hasn’t happened yet, and it can still be changed. Gu Changge won’t do this. At that time, he must have been controlled by the Demon Heart... I knew that all along, the problem of his Demon Heart has never been solved.”

Gu Xian’er gritted her silver teeth slightly, looking at the distant islands and mountains, her eyes became more crystal clear as if they were shining like silver.

Chapter 703: A corner of the future, He can no longer control himself, right?

The mountains were quiet and peaceful with the immortal mist lingering. The spiritual spring was bubbling, and the silver waterfall was cascading down the mountains. Many auspicious beasts and birds were singing, drinking haze, and swallowing air. Their feathers were reflecting the divine chains, and the sun was shining brightly, just like the immortal backyard in the myth.

Gu Xian'er traveled through many islands all the way and arrived at the divine Island where Gu Changge usually rested. When the guards in charge saw her coming, they did not dare to stop her, nor did they enter to report.

Because Gu Xian'er was the only exception of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, who could freely come and go to this divine island without Gu Changge's consent. Another exception was Gu Qingyi.

"Gu Changge isn't in the palace?" Gu Xian'er came all the way to the dormitory where Gu Changge cultivated, but she didn't see him there.

She was a little stunned as she wandered around, and couldn't figure out where Gu Changge had disappeared. Could it be that he quietly left the Ancient Immortal Gu Family without telling everyone, and was now planning a big event somewhere?

After guessing like this, Gu Xian'er's expression suddenly became a little depressed. On the way here, she had already made plans to find Gu Changge and decided on how to speak with him. Because it took a lot of courage to say those words, but now there was not even the figure of Gu Changge.

The words she wanted to say could only be kept in her heart, and the next time she saw Gu Changge, she didn't know if she would have the courage to say that to him.

"If Gu Changge really brings disaster to the Heavens in the Upper Realm in the near future, what should I do?" When she thought of the many future scenes she saw in the Pond of Reincarnation.

Gu Xian'er shuddered and felt uneasy. She really couldn't believe that in the near future, Gu Changge would plunge the entire Upper Realm into a dark era. All beings and spirits lived in his fear and shadow.

At least the Gu Changge she knew would never do such a thing. It was more like Gu Changge, who was controlled by the Demon Heart when he was a child and was full of terrifying evilness. This made her feel both painful and entangled.

The Pond of Reincarnation let her know the fate of the entire Upper Realm in advance, what was the significance of it?

“Do you want me to stop this?” Gu Xian’er couldn’t help muttering softly, her crystal clear eyes revealed a touch of sadness.

She still remembered that scene in the Peach Village. Taoyao told her about Gu Changge’s Demon Heart, explaining that Gu Changge had an Innate Demon Heart. Gu Changge needed to suppress his demonic nature to stay awake, just like he would dig out her Dao bone before.

Although there were episodes of his Demon Heart being dominant, many things were actually done subconsciously by Gu Changge.

In the Nirvana Pool of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, Gu Changge couldn’t suppress his demonic nature because he returned the Dao bone to her, and almost caused a catastrophe. But at that time, Gu Changge would rather destroy his own arms than hurt her at all.

This scene was still vivid in Gu Xian’er’s mind. When she was in the Peach Village, she insisted on digging out her Dao bone to suppress the demonic nature of Gu Changge.

Gu Changge displayed unprecedented gloominess and violence, and threatened her not to do so. She must keep the Dao bones, otherwise, she would understand what it meant to be worse than death.

Gu Xian’er understood that those were Gu Changge’s words threatening her, not the truth, and his original intention was to prevent her from doing such stupid things.

“He also said at the time that he would rather die than let me get hurt like this.” Gu Xian’er whispered to herself.

For a moment, a faint rosy color appeared on her white and delicate pretty face, and there were many thoughts in her heart. Unknowingly, she left the palace and headed toward the top of the mountain.

The clouds and mist rolled there as if hidden in the deepest part of the clouds, far and wide, overlooking the Ancient Immortal Gu Family.

“Gu Changge...” Suddenly, Gu Xian’er was stunned and saw a familiar figure beside a bluestone on the top of the mountain.

Dark clothes and black hair, handsome facial features, better than a banished immortal. Gu Changge actually had closed his eyes slightly and fallen asleep leaning against the bluestone. So peaceful and detached, not stained with the slightest dust.

“How could he fall asleep here?” Gu Xian’er quietly looked at Gu Changge and didn’t make a sound that would disturb Gu Changge.

Gu Changge with such an appearance was really rare, and she couldn’t bear to break this tranquility. It seemed to be the same as the last time when he fought in the Eight Desolation and Ten Regions. Gu Changge fought against several Enlightened beings and suffered serious injuries.

And when she went to visit Gu Changge, he fell asleep so peacefully, still leaning on her shoulder. Gu Xian’er still remembered that clear and steady breathing.

“Having tasted the splendor of the world, he should be very tired during the weekdays.”

At this moment, Gu Xian’er couldn’t help feeling pity in her heart. In front of people, Gu Changge was overwhelming the ages, and extremely gorgeous. Yet , who was qualified to see this side of Gu Changge?

All of a sudden, the scenes of the Pond of Reincarnation reappeared in her mind. Although her final ending was very tragic, at that time, Gu Changge should have been unable to control himself, right?

“If I dig my Dao bone for him, will it be able to suppress his demonic nature and stop everything in the future?”

This idea emerged uncontrollably in Gu Xian’er’s mind, making her stare at Gu Changge in a daze, not knowing what to do for a while. If her Dao bone could really rewrite the future, then wouldn’t it be a blessing?

She survived when her Dao’s bone was dug out when she was young. What was Dao bone now?

“What’s wrong? Xian’er, why are you looking at me like this?” And just when Gu Xian’er was in a daze, an unhurried voice suddenly sounded in front of her. Gu Changge opened his eyes and looked at her before asking with a faint smile.

Although he took a nap for a while, it didn’t mean that his five senses were closed. So the moment Gu Xian’er stepped onto the top of the mountain, he had already sensed it and woke up.

“Did I interrupt your rest?” Gu Xian’er didn’t expect Gu Changge to wake up at this time, her eyes were a little flustered, and she hurriedly looked to the side.

It seemed that she felt guilty after discovering that she had been staring at Gu Changge just now.

“Then do I look good? Since you’ve been staring at me for so long, how can I not notice it?” Gu Changge got up and walked toward her with a smile.

“Don’t talk nonsense, who stared at you for so long?” Gu Xian’er was a little anxious, with a rosy look on her face. She also panicked when Gu Changge spoke something that stirred her heart, so she quickly denied it.

She had a lot on her mind to say. But after being teased by Gu Changge, she couldn’t say anything.

“Maybe I was wrong.” Gu Changge smiled and looked her up and down.

Seeing that her cultivation base was much more advanced than the last time he saw her. It could be seen that during this period of time, she had encountered many opportunities and her improvement had been great.

In the current younger generation, there were not many people who could be her opponents.

“You must have read it wrong, when you fell asleep.” Gu Xian’er snorted.

Gu Changge ignored her small thoughts, smiled, and said, “By the way, where have you been all this time? If you didn’t come back, I would have to send someone to find your whereabouts. ”

Although this was a joke, he was indeed a little curious about what happened to Gu Xian'er. Why did she look at himself with such complicated eyes after returning to the Gu family?

"What do you care where I went? It's better than you, destroying Hell." Gu Xian'er did not mention the matter of the Pond of Reincarnation. Her expression returned to her usual coldness, and she didn't want to talk to Gu Changge very much.

She hadn't figured out how to explain it to Gu Changge yet. Although the picture in the Pond of Reincarnation indicated that Gu Changge would be the enemy of the whole world in the future.

He was even framed as the inheritor of demonic arts and was attacked by various forces. But that didn't stop Gu Changge.

On the contrary, the forces of all parties would pay a heavy price for this. In the future, the entire Upper Realm would also be shrouded in the terrifying shadow of Gu Changge.

"Forget it, since you don't want to say it. I am also too lazy to force you. It just so happens that you are back. I will go to the Peach Village in a few days. It will be more convenient to have you with me." Gu Changge smiled but did not continue to ask.

It just so happened that he planned to go to Peach Village before the wedding date and ask Taoyao about some things. At the same time, he would take a look at Yaoyao, his little apprentice brought up from the Lower Realm.

Of course, Gu Changge still remembered that in the True Immortal Academy, there was an Old Stone Demon that was once a contemporaneous figure with Taoyao, Chan Hong Yi, and Demon Lord.

"Back to Peach Village?" When Gu Xian'er heard this, her eyes darkened a little, and she thought of the future picture she saw in the Pond of Reincarnation. Her masters were all brutally killed by Gu Changge in order to avenge her.

Even Sister Taoyao was left with only a charred peach tree stump standing at the head of the desolate village. The thoughts in her heart wavered again.

If the images displayed in the Pond of Reincarnation were all true.

In the near future, not only her but also Gu Changge's fiancée Yue Mingkong, her master, and relatives... Too many people would face a tragic fate.

Peach Village was located in the depths of the Land of Abandoned Immortals, and there was a wild area in the middle, where there were many terrifying beasts born since ancient times.

Especially in recent years, great changes had taken place in the Upper Realm, and many ancient Enlightened beings had recovered one after another. The level of danger in that wild area had increased by more than a thousand times.

The strength of the Great Sacred Realm in the past could be used to traverse. But now even a Supreme Realm cultivator was terrified, afraid, and dare not set foot in it. It was very quiet there as if isolated from the world, with little rays of light and mist.

The emerald-like small lake was located, the grass was long, and many deer were looking down for food. A group of children at the entrance of the village were playing, and several old men were gathered together, smoking dry tobacco, very leisurely.

An extremely luxuriant and gorgeous Peach Tree bloomed at the head of the village. The peach blossoms were blooming, with a rouge-like color. Some ferocious beasts with incomparably terrifying auras couldn't help casting fearful and awe-inspiring gazes at this small village when they passed by in the distance from the entrance of the village.

Except for the Peach Tree with terrifying and unfathomable morality. Many old people in the village had cultivation bases that were hard to guess. It was absolutely not a problem to kill someone at the Supreme Realm to death casually.

But today, above the sky beyond the entrance of the village, a divine light descended, and two figures, a man and a woman, slowly descended.

Chapter 704: Returning to the Peach Village, Speculating on Gu Changge's identity

"It's Sister Xian'er, Sister Xian'er is back." Peach Village was not big, and the few children playing at the entrance of the village saw Gu Changge and Gu Xian'er.

They cheered in surprise and hurried over to greet Gu Xian'er. Although Gu Changge had only been here once, they were no strangers to him. The last time Gu Changge came to the Peach Village, he gave them many toys and spiritual fruits to help them practice. So they had a good impression of this young man who looked like a banished immortal.

“Xiao Hua, Xiao Hu, you have grown taller.” Once Gu Xian’er returned to Peach Village, she changed her previous cold appearance and greeted several children with a smile on her face.

A few villagers at the entrance of the village also came over. They were very pleasantly surprised, and greeted Gu Xian’er. It had been a long time since Gu Xianer returned to Peach Village. They also missed Gu Xian’er very much.

“Xian’er, this girl still knows how to return to see us old men.” Several old people gathered around with kind smiles and ambiguous eyes as they kept turning around Gu Changge and Gu Xian’er.

This made Gu Xian’er somewhat ashamed and annoyed as she gave them a hard look.

“Greetings Mr. Gu.” However, they also were aware Gu Changge’s identity, so they didn’t dare to be too presumptuous, and displayed him a little courtesy.

“You are all relatives of Xian’er, so you don’t need to be polite.” Gu Changge seemed indifferent to this. He had a slight smile on his face all the time.

Soon, several masters of Gu Xian’er also appeared from the village. They were still as inscrutable as before, lame or blind, each with different injuries. In fact, at this level, it was easy for a powerhouse to be reborn with a drop of blood.

Only some extremely serious injury to the Dao or the origin would always exist. Then it would be difficult to regenerate limbs. However, these masters of Gu Xian’er all had their own experiences and stories. They didn’t want to let the broken limbs and lame legs heal just like that.

“Great master, Second master, Third master... Xian’er is back to see you.” Gu Xian’er obediently greeted each master one by one, changing the arrogant and cold appearance she had in front of Gu Changge.

“Xian’er, your cultivation has improved a lot...”

“It seems that you encountered many opportunities during this time.”

The masters measured up Gu Xian'er several times with admiration on their faces, confirming that she had not slackened in her cultivation during this period. They were extremely satisfied.

As for Gu Changge on the side, in their view now, he had reached the point where they couldn't see clearly through him. They couldn't figure it out, and were even afraid to some extent.

They knew when Gu Changge first arrived at Peach Village, his cultivation was even at the Supreme Realm. But in just a few short years, he was already standing at the pinnacle of the Upper Realm, and even the Enlightened beings were no longer his opponents.

It made them feel incredible. Even though they had seen quite a few Enlightened beings, they had never seen such a monstrous cultivator as Gu Changge.

"Greetings to several seniors." Gu Changge also behaved very naturally. He bowed slightly to Gu Xian'er's masters, and then looked at the village seriously again.

Compared to the last time he came, now he could perceive the strength of Gu Xianer and these masters more clearly, almost all of them had the strength of Enlightened beings.

Among them, the village head, who was Gu Xianer's Great master, was the most terrifying. Compared with Yan Luo, the Fourth Hall Master of Hell, Ah Er, was not much worse.

This was a person of the same generation as the Great Elder of Heavenly Dao Immortal Palace. If the world allowed it, he could definitely take the last step.

For many Immortal forces and Supreme sects in the outside world, if they knew that there was such a terrifying village hidden in the deepest part of this land abandoned by Immortals.

Not to mention that there was a coquettish and mysterious Peach Tree at the gate of the village.

"Master... Master..."

And at this moment, in Peach Village, a little girl in a colorful jacket came running over in surprise. Her facial features were exquisite and picturesque, her skin was as white as porcelain, and she wore a shofar braid. Her pair of black and crystal eyes were revealing a delicate meaning, making her even cuter.

It was Yaoyao, the apprentice that Gu Changge took in when he was in the Lower Realm. After he brought Yaoyao to the Upper Realm, he fostered her in Peach Village, and never cared about her afterward.

Of course, the one reason was that Yaoyao and the Peach Demon at the entrance of the village were of the same origin. The two were like sisters, living here together was also a peaceful and happy thing for Yaoyao.

Looking at Yaoyao running toward him, compared to before, Yaoyao still hadn't grown much. Gu Changge displayed a gentle expression on his face as he squatted down, stroked her head, and replied, "I haven't had time to see Yaoyao, Yaoyao wouldn't blame Master, would she?"

"No, no, Yaoyao didn't blame Master. Although Yaoyao misses Master, she knows that Master is very busy and has no time to visit Yaoyao. Yaoyao has a very good life in Peach Village. The uncles and aunts in the village are very kind to me, and Yaoyao has a sister here, so she lives happily every day."

The little girl's face was still as well-behaved and sensible as before with a happy smile as she said so, making people feel pitiful.

"It's good that Yaoyao likes being here. Look at what Master has brought you." Gu Changge smiled gently, and a brilliance flashed in his hand as he spoke.

All of a sudden, there were many mortal toys, trinkets, and all kinds of delicious cakes and spiritual fruits. Looking at these things, Yaoyao's eyes suddenly brightened a lot, and they bent into crescent moons happily.

"Thank you, Master." She was not interested in spiritual cultivation, and living a carefree life was her only pursuit.

Therefore, Gu Changge did not bring her many things about cultivation.

Afterward, the little girl shared her life in Peach Village during the recent years. She also distributed the various little things that Gu Changge brought her to many children in Peach Village.

Gu Changge could tell that she was indeed very happy in Peach Village, and everyone treated her very well. During the period, Taoyao also took her to the Lower Realm where she lived before and found the mother-in-law who adopted her back then.

It was a pity that Yaoyao's mother-in-law didn't want to come to the Upper Realm. At first, her relatives were slaughtered by the enemies, and after her revenge, she guarded the graves of her relatives. Because of the arrival of Gu Changge and Gu Xian'er, Peach Village became extremely lively.

Many old people and aunts took out their own fine wines to treat the two of them. Although the Land of Abandoned Immortals was desolate, the most indispensable thing outside was all kinds of beasts and meat.

Gu Changge and Gu Xian'er had long been used to eating all delicacies from mountains and seas, delicacies of immortality. But tasting meat cooked in other ways in Peach Village had a special flavor.

The Peach Tree at the entrance of the village was ostentatious. The petals were crystal clear and coquettish, and when the breeze blew, strands of immortal ribbons hung down.

As night fell, the bonfire went faint, even Gu Xian'er had drunk a lot of wine, showing a charming expression. She rolled up the sleeves of her skirt, revealing the flawless arms of white and tender snow while tearing up the meat of those fierce beasts. She didn't look the same as cold as an immortal. There seemed to be sparkling water in those big eyes, reflecting the campfire and Gu Changge's face.

She seemed to be staring at Gu Changge blankly, as if thinking of something, there was an unconcealable glow on her little face.

"Gu Changge, you are not allowed to bully me again..." The words were indistinct as if muttering in a low voice.

Many villagers around couldn't help laughing when they heard this. Even Gu Xianer's masters smiled. Because of the tragic experience in their childhood, they loved and spoiled Gu Xian'er a lot.

The last time Gu Changge returned to Peach Village with her, they were still worried whether Gu Xian'er was threatened by Gu Changge. Gu Changge was the chief culprit who dug out her Dao bone when she was young and had almost killed her.

She didn't care about it at all, but she was very close to Gu Changge. Though later, from Tao Yao's mouth, they learned that Gu Changge had an innate demonic heart, and what he did when he was a child was actually not under his control. But they were still wary of Gu Changge.

"Are you drunk?" Seeing Gu Xian'er leaning towards him, Gu Changge shook his head speechlessly.

"I'm not drunk." Gu Xian'er glared at him as if she was very dissatisfied with Gu Changge's disdain for herself.

Gu Changge sighed, took out a clean handkerchief, and gently wiped off the oil stains from the corners of her mouth.

"I am warning you, don't bully me in the future." She closed her eyes slightly, muttered again, and found a comfortable position to lean against Gu Changge.

"Maybe, but don't provoke me." Gu Changge smiled.

However, Gu Xian'er ignored him. She soon let out a slight and steady breathing sound, holding a piece of the oily thigh of a fierce beast in her hand before she grabbed Gu Changge's sleeve without thinking about anything, smearing all the oil stains on it.

Everyone in Peach Village looked at this scene, and they were really frightened. Although they had never been to the outside world, occasionally they could meet some casual cultivators while hunting and learn some news about the outside world from their mouths.

How terrifying was Gu Changge's power now?

Enlightened beings would be trembling and fidgeting in front of him, who would dare to be as presumptuous as Gu Xian'er? However, Gu Changge had long been accustomed to this, drinking with a calm expression.

The night was getting darker and the moon was dim, making Peach Village even quieter and more peaceful. The bonfire dissipated, and many villagers returned to their homes one after another.

Gu Xian'er was taken to rest by several aunts as she was still in a deep sleep. After returning to Peach Village, her whole body was at peace. She didn't need to think or worry about anything, and it was rare to have a good rest.

"Aren't you going to come out to see me?" Gu Changge didn't take a break but instead walked toward the entrance of the village unhurriedly with a wine glass in one hand and a jug in the other.

Then, ignoring the astonished gazes of Gu Xian'er and his masters, he sat down on a stone beside it. He seemed to be talking to himself, but he was actually talking to Taoyao.

Clatter!!

Under the blowing of the breeze, the leaves flew lightly, making a sound like a wave. The Peach Tree looked more and more crystal clear, and every petal of the peach blossom hid the chaotic atmosphere. A fog descended, and it soon enveloped the surroundings, making the old monsters in Peach Village unable to see the scene clearly.

They also looked away tactfully and didn't look at it. Taoyao's cultivation was even more unfathomable. As the Guardian of Peach Village, she was definitely not someone they could spy on. Usually, even the village head treated Taoyao with great respect.

A magnificent blurred figure slowly emerged from the Peach Tree, with a slender figure. It seemed that there were three thousand divine kingdoms around her, hazy and sacred that had a strange feeling.

"Long time no see." The Peach Demon appeared with a glow surging from her long black hair, the light could be seen, and she looked at Gu Changge with glazed eyes, revealing complicated meanings.

Gu Changge felt that there seemed to be other meanings in her words. This phrase, "no harm, no foul" suddenly made many pictures flash in his mind like lightning. To be precise, it was not a picture, but a figure. This was not a person, but a goblin.

It was hugging her knees and sat in the endless wilderness, with a dead Peach Tree behind her. She was born beautiful. The long black hair was like a bright mirror, and the light could be used as a guide.

She was looking at the sea of clouds, the clear sky and mountains were reflected in her pupils, but her expression was still lonely as if she was waiting for someone.

Gu Changge knew that this figure was the Peach Demon in front of him. She was a rare friend of Chan Hong Yi, who was once brought back by Chan Hong Yi to the mountain where the Demon Lord lived and was planted beside a bluestone.

Before the Forbidden Era, she blocked the blow of the Demon Lord for Chan Hong Yi, she was severely injured and almost died. After various coincidences, she became the Guardian of the Peach Village.

Perhaps because of Yaoyao's relationship, Taoyao seemed to remember a lot of things now compared to the last time Gu Changge saw her. But Taoyao was different from Chan Hong Yi, she didn't seem to have too much hatred for the Demon Lord.

"Aren't you going to meet your old friend?" Gu Changge poured a glass of wine with a calm expression and drank it on his own.

Taoyao looked at him with a slightly complicated look, knowing that the old friend Gu Changge was talking about was Chan Hong Yi who had escaped from the Demon Burying Abyss.

Up to now, she actually didn't know Gu Changge's identity, was it the reincarnation of the Demon Lord, or what?

If it was really the Demon Lord. Then why would the Demon Lord who pushed everything horizontally and buried the entire era into darkness eventually reincarnate?

One must know, when she was just an extremely weak little demon, the Demon Lord stood at the pinnacle of the entire world, his cultivation was unpredictable and unspeakable.

Even if she became Immortal later and went further in this realm, she still felt that she was as small as dust in front of the Demon Lord. In fact, if the Demon Lord really wanted to kill Chan Hong Yi, it wouldn't take much effort at all.

It was absolutely impossible for her strength to be able to stop the Demon Lord's blow. How many secrets did this hide?

Taoyao really wanted to ask Gu Changge all of this in person. But she still didn't know in what capacity Gu Changge was talking to her.

She was able to make it this far, and it all depended on the guidance of the Demon Lord at the beginning.

Otherwise, she was just a little ordinary Peach Demon, and she didn't have much talent, let alone reach the Immortal Realm, and move so far in this realm.

Chapter 705: Calculating against the entire Upper Realm, The situation begins to collapse

At the entrance of Peach Village, white mist surged, making it blurry. Taoyao had manifested her true body. With a fluttering skirt and silky hair, she was peerless and elegant.

"It's the same whether she sees me or not. If she wants to come to see me, she will come over." She was a little dazed, then recovered and gently shook her head.

Of course, she had heard about the fact that Chan Hong Yi escaped from the Demon Burying Abyss, killing all parties, and established her own Demonic Mountain.

It was just that she had always been lazy, and she had long been used to staying in the small place of Peach Village. She didn't even want to take half a step out of the Land of Abandoned Immortals.

How many epochs and years had passed since the Forbidden Era? She had almost forgotten Taoyao, her former friend, was she still the same as her now?

Moreover, Chan Hong Yi should be able to feel her aura, knowing that she was still alive. If she really wanted to see her, there were not many people in the Upper Realm who could stop her.

"Is that so?" Gu Changge raised his glass and drank, smiling slightly. "She is busy taking revenge on me now, so naturally she doesn't have the time to find you."

“What happened in the past?” Hearing this, Taoyao was silent for a moment, then looked at Gu Changge. She couldn’t help asking softly, after all, she finally was revealing the doubt in her heart.

This was something she never understood. For Chan Hong Yi, Gu Changge was the person she respected and admired the most, who was also her teacher and father.

Although Gu Changge was harsh on her, he never let her suffer. Taoyao didn’t know why Chan Hong Yi, who once loved Gu Changge so much, chose to fight him with a sword in the end.

After all, that battle was too terrifying. Even in her original state, she was deeply frightened, turning humble like an ant.

The Heavenly Dao collapsed, all kinds of calamities descended, even the long river of time collapsed and became disordered. The worlds were destroyed, and even the Immortal Palace was destroyed and so on.

After burying an entire period of time, the discoloration of future generations would change, which could only be called taboo.

“Would you believe me if I said I can’t remember now?” Hearing this question, Gu Changge didn’t seem surprised, and asked with a smile.

“I believe. If it was you back then, you wouldn’t talk to me like that.” Taoyao also smiled lightly when she heard the words. Her already glamorous figure became more and more refined and extraordinary.

When she was still a small Peach Tree, she also talked with Gu Changge like this at night. It was just that at that time he was like the lonely moon and the elusive wind, and she was just a tiny speck of dust who could only look up to him silently.

“It seems that after all, something unimaginable happened to make this happen.” Taoyao shook her head lightly and sighed, feeling a little regretful and emotional about it.

After she woke up, it took a huge price for her to slowly recover her memory. If it wasn’t because of Yaoyao’s relationship, she might still be in a hazy state until now.

Gu Changge used to be such an indescribable and incredible existence, if he wanted to recover, the price would be even more unimaginable.

“The Upper Realm is about to be in chaos, and I will leave soon. Maybe the Immortal Realm and the Upper Realm will merge, or maybe a bigger opportunity will arrive...” Gu Changge took another sip of wine and added.

Originally, he thought that Taoyao could sense something, even if it was some fragments of the future. But judging from her reaction now, she didn’t seem to want to meddle in external affairs, and she didn’t even want to leave Peach Village for even half a step.

“You came to me, it shouldn’t be just to reminisce about the old days, it shouldn’t be as simple as saying these things?” Taoyao couldn’t understand what Gu Changge meant, so she asked after a moment of silence.

Gu Changge smiled approvingly, and said, “Actually, it’s not a big deal, I just want you to do me a favor.”

“What’s the matter that needs my help?” Taoyao was somewhat interested in this, although her current cultivation had indeed surpassed the shackles of this world.

But it didn’t mean that she could exert power beyond the Immortal Realm. Gu Changge’s current methods were definitely more terrifying than hers. How could she help with things that even he couldn’t solve?

“I want you to help me guard something, to be precise, help me guard an ancient world.” Gu Changge said slowly.

“An ancient world?” Taoyao was even more stunned when she heard the words. With his strength, he was more than enough to protect an ancient world, even if it was to protect an Immortal force and Supreme sect.

Moreover, why did Gu Changge want her to do this? Was there anyone in this Upper Realm who dared to oppose him, dared to take action against the ancient world he wanted to protect?

Gu Changge was not surprised by Taoyao’s reaction. He nodded and said, “I’ve thought about it for a long time, and I think your identity should be the most suitable.”

In fact, a long time ago, he was planning to calculate against the entire Upper Realm. What he wanted Taoyao to help him protect was not something else, but the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree.

In terms of time, the ripening time of the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree was just around the corner. Gu Changge intended to use the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree as a bait to attract the strongest foundations of all forces in the Upper Realm to help him take the last step.

This plan was not complicated, but the only thing that needed attention was to keep it from everyone. Especially those peerless old evildoers who had cultivated for tens of millions of years, some even from several epochs ago, who were sealed up and hidden.

They were the most powerful beings behind the various Immortal forces. Although it was impossible to step out of the Immortal Realm, if they really faced the existence of the Immortal Realm, there would be no way to counter it.

In their era, they were also amazingly talented, unmatched through the ages, and unmatched by anyone. Not only were they terrifying in strength, but their minds were also unbelievable. Anything that was not right would cause them to notice and even deduce a flaw. So Gu Changge had to be careful, in order to achieve his objective.

He not only needed to find an extremely long and ancient world, but also needed to store the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree in it, so as to reveal and attract those big fish into the net.

Among them, the role that Taoyao needed to play was to make those peerless old monsters feel at ease. After all, as a Dao Fruit of Epoch Tree, how could there be no Guardian?

Taoyao was a character from the Forbidden Era, and the aura on her body was unpredictable. Who could deduce her origin and footsteps? On the other hand, it had been countless years since the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree disappeared from the Upper Realm.

For this reason, the Upper Realm fought in the Eight Desolations and Ten Domains for many eras, because it believed that the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree was lost on that side.

It was a pity that after destroying the Eight Desolation and Ten Domains in this life, the Immortal forces and the Supreme sects of all parties in the Upper Realm had searched all the Eight Desolation and Ten Domains, and had not found any clues about the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree.

Now, a lot of news about the Immortal Path had appeared, and rumors about the Dao Fruit of the Epoch Tree were also being revealed. Could those peerless old monsters and powerful ancient beings who were hiding the deepest in the Upper Realm still sit still?

“I see.” Taoyao was silent, and did not ask Gu Changge the reason behind this.

Even if she didn’t agree, she also knew that Gu Changge definitely had the means to make her agree. Whether in the past or now, Gu Changge was not the kind of soft-hearted person who would show any mercy because of past friendship.

“Don’t worry, I’m just borrowing your Dharma Body. Of course, if you want to go with your true body, you can.” Gu Changge smiled casually.

He hadn’t found a suitable ancient world yet. So next, he had to go to the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court to retrieve the Heavenly Extinction Origin.

After that, things would be even simpler. Gu Changge only needed to completely refine and fuse that suitable ancient world with the True World in the palm that he got from Hell, and turn it into the Divine Kingdom in the palm.

Even if Enlightened beings or even Remnant Immortals stepped into it, they could only perish forever, die and disappear. Weren’t the various sects in the Upper Realm secretly planning to deal with him?

Then Gu Changge would prepare such a huge surprise for them in advance.

For the next few days, Gu Changge stayed in the Peach Village, bickered with Gu Xian’er, took Yaoyao around, chatted with Taoyao at the entrance of the village, talking about some things about the past or things from the Forbidden Era.

Many of Gu Xian’er’s masters were also familiar with him, and sometimes they would argue for a long time when they talked about some issues related to cultivation.

In a certain way, some of Gu Changge's words made them feel a sense of clearing the clouds and seeing the fog, and they deeply admired him. Until this moment, they didn't believe that Gu Changge would hurt Gu Xian'er, instead they began to guess Gu Changge's real identity.

If someone said that he was really just a younger generation, they wouldn't believe it even if they were killed. The younger generation's understanding of the Dao would make them feel shocked, incredible, and even in awe.

Instead, they believed that Gu Changge was the reincarnation of some incredible powerhouse. The cultivation base at the peak was unpredictable and unspeakable, maybe, he was an Immortal King, Immortal Emperor, Dao Ancestor!

And during Gu Changge's stay in Peach Village for the past few days, the Upper Realm was also changing and undercurrents were surging. A lot of news about Hell, Buddha, and the recently risen Spring Breeze Pavilion, spread by those who were interested, quickly swept through the Heavens of the Upper Realm.

Every day, in various ancient cities, cultivators and creatures were discussing this matter, causing panic.

"Actually, the reason why Hell and Buddha suffered catastrophe is because they blocked the way for the Spring Breeze Pavilion to rise."

"Many people are saying that the Young Master Changge is actually the master behind the Spring Breeze Pavilion, and he is silently supporting this assassination organization, that's why he attacked Hell and Buddha."

In the restaurant, many young geniuses were gathered. Each of them was shrouded in divine brilliance and had a strong aura. They were also talking about this matter with great interest and cared about everything about Gu Changge.

Judging from all the current signs, Gu Changge was absolutely inseparable from the Spring Breeze Pavilion, and had a deep connection.

Therefore, there were also Immortal forces calling on everyone to find the headquarters of the Spring Breeze Pavilion, just like destroying Hell, to completely wipe it out, so as to eliminate future troubles, and did not want it to develop into a second Hell.

Of course, there were also cultivators who were skeptical about this. If Gu Changge really wanted the Spring Breeze Pavillion to dominate, then why didn't he continue to attack the other assassination organization, Buddha?

Many people thought that Gu Changge should have some inexplicable hatred with Hell.

However, under the deliberate suppression of various Immortal forces, this kind of discourse was very weak and could not stir up much waves.

"Actually, this is just a trivial matter. The Spring Breeze Pavilion only emerged in the last few thousand years. If it really wants to grow to the day comparable to Hell, it's too early..."

"In my opinion, there is something even more important."

In the pavilion, a genius shook his head and said softly. He was tall and handsome, with golden eyes. Traces of the cross could be flowing, and his aura was mysterious, not like a person of this era. The rest of the people were extremely respectful toward him, and they couldn't help but stare in astonishment when they heard this.

"I wonder why Brother Jin Yun made such an assertion?" A heavenly girl asked in a delicate voice with brilliant eyes.

The man in front of him was a taboo genius of ancient times. This era was only broken from the divine origin. He came from the Immortal force, Violet Sky Valley. Its strength was extremely terrifying. A giant-level figure among the younger generation.

His words were naturally more convincing.

"Actually, you all overlooked a very important point, but I believe that the forces behind you should have explained something." The taboo genius named Jin Yun raised his wine glass and shook his head lightly.

There was a strange flash in his eyes, and he remembered the explanation of Violet Sky Valley, and he spoke unhurriedly. Although he himself had no contact with Gu Changge. But he heard rumors about him almost every day, and his ears were almost calloused.

He who was proud and firmly believed that he was invincible waited to be born until this era. In fact, it was also to hone oneself and touch the legendary Immortal Realm. But the existence of Gu Changge made him have great doubts about this and about himself.

“Brother Jin Yun means... the young master Changge is actually the real inheritor of demonic arts...” Hearing Jin Yun’s words, there was almost a moment of silence in the pavilion, and everyone’s expressions became unnatural.

It was not just them. Now there was such news everywhere, saying that Gu Changge was actually the real inheritor of demonic arts. It was just that he hid it too deeply, and never showed any flaws.

Otherwise, how to explain that he had reached such an unbelievable level at such an age?

One must know that even ancient classics did not dare to record it like this. However, many geniuses present were not stupid, they would not follow blindly, and they also had their own thinking.

In fact, from the perspective of the younger generation, they really couldn’t see that Gu Changge had anything to do with the inheritor of demonic arts. On the contrary, it had been Gu Changge who had been fighting against the mysterious inheritor of demonic arts, saving many geniuses from this difficulty.

“Actually, this is inevitable.”

“The situation has tipped.”

“This doesn’t need any evidence, it’s nothing more than just wanting to commit a crime. There is no excuse, Young Master Changge has grown to the point where everyone is afraid...”

“The Upper Realm needs such a reason to attack him.”

There was a moment of silence in the pavilion, and a young genius with a more straightforward personality sighed, with emotion in his eyes.

Jin Yun shook his head disapprovingly and said no more. He just conveyed this meaning according to the instructions of Violet Sky Valley behind him. Everyone was silent again, although a little bit sad, there was still a kind of relief at the bottom of their hearts.

The pressure that Gu Changge put on everyone was really terrifying, it laid over the top of their head, almost suffocating.

“If Young Master Changge falls, it will actually be a blessing for us.”

“Come, come, drink, drink, this matter has nothing to do with us, we are also not qualified to speak about it.”

Then, some geniuses broke the silence, smiled wryly, and began to invite everyone to drink, not wanting to think about it.

Chapter 706: Raging undercurrents and murderous intent, Heading to the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court

In fact, there was no need for any dissemination of news. During this period of time, undercurrents were also surging in the Upper Realm. Since the destruction of Hell, many Immortal forces had been searching for clues for another assassination organization, Buddha.

Among them, many traces of the Spring Breeze Pavilion had also been revealed under the investigation of various forces. Many ancient figures with profound attainments in the Dao of deduction were peering into the Heavenly Secrets to trace the origin of the Spring Breeze Pavilion.

Of course, Gu Changge had expected this matter. So a long time ago, he ordered Bai Lian'er to let Bai Hua and Bai Kun cover the Heavenly Secrets of the Spring Breeze Pavilion.

Speaking of which, this was not a long-term solution, and Gu Changge didn't expect to be able to hide it for the rest of his life. He just wanted to delay it for a while.

Rumors about Gu Changge being the inheritor of demonic arts had spread across the Heavens in the Upper Realm with the momentum that had started a forest fire.

In the beginning, it was only spread among the major sects. Later, the rumor intensified. Not only the disciples and elders of the major sects were discussing, but even ordinary and casual cultivators were discussing.

“As long as the situation continues to develop, I believe Gu Changge will soon be unable to resist this. He would be forced to exit seclusion to clear the rumors.”

“And then it will be a good opportunity for us to wait and attack.”

“He will definitely not bear his reputation being tarnished...”

In the deepest part of the ancestral land of many Immortal forces and Supreme sects. Gazing at the end of the sky, the terrifying figures surrounded by chaotic mist couldn't help but sneer. All of this was within their expectations, and it was even under their instigation and promotion that the rumors had such a big impact.

In the final analysis, Gu Changge was so dazzling that everyone was afraid of him, so they had to resort to such an evil tactic. Of course, such things had not been uncommon since ancient times.

How many astonishing geniuses had existed in all ages? More or less because of some reason, they collapsed on the road, and failed to truly become invincible.

In their view, Gu Changge's fate was already doomed. No matter how dazzling he was now, he was just a short-lived firework, a meteor that would pass by in a flash. In the long river of history, at most, he could only be a small wave, which was fleeting.

“This is from all ethnic groups and different forces. Are they planning to attack my Gu family?”

“Could it be that you want to kill until the Heavens collapse and the ages are overthrown?”

And in the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, in an extremely magnificent palace. Many clan elders who had received the news were gathered here. Their faces were very heavy, and there was a bit of coldness along with killing intent.

In the depths of the hall, many figures with terrifying auras stood tall. Everyone seemed to be walking from another world, their eyes were extremely cold, and there were many terrifying scenes evolving. The moon and stars were destroyed, the universe collapsed, all living beings mourned, and even Dao collapsed.

They were all Ancestor-level figures of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family. They came out in this generation, in order to compete for the chance to become Immortals. For them, Gu Changge was not just a simple junior, but also the hope of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family for countless epochs.

How could they allow various Immortal forces in the Upper Realm to calculate and target him?

“How could Changge have something to do with the inheritor of demonic arts? It’s nothing more than them wanting to commit a crime.”

“All they want is a plausible excuse. As for evidence, that’s not needed.” A clan elder said with an ugly face, he naturally knew what kind of calculations the various forces were making.

It was just that Gu Changge’s brilliance was really dazzling, and they were worried that he would grow a step further and destroy the balance that the Upper Realm had maintained for countless years.

Of course, the biggest reason was that they couldn’t watch a young man grow up quickly, to the point where they were terrified and frightened. The destruction of Hell was the best example.

“After all, Changge is too high-profile, he didn’t even let me wait to make a move, and destroyed Hell with his own power. All of them are terrified, deeply disturbed, and want to erase this worry in advance.” An old Ancestor deep in the palace sighed, although he had just woken up not long ago, he had figured out the cause and effect.

Another old Ancestor beside him, with unusually cold eyes, said slowly, “I didn’t expect that after so many years, so many forces and sects had almost forgotten about me. Do they really think that my Gu family is something they can handle?”

“It seems that I have been gone for too long. If the Immortal Path becomes accessible in the Upper Realm, the people from the Immortal Domain will definitely descend. At that time, even the Upper Realm would collapse.” The other Ancestor was also speaking, with murderous intent and anger in his voice.

The longevity of the Gu family was so ancient that it could even be traced back to before the taboo era. Later, because of the collapse of the Dao of Heaven and Earth, many laws were shattered. The connection between Immortal Domain and Upper Realm was extremely difficult.

The vast majority of the great divine powers had no choice but to leave the ancestral land and continue in the Immortal Domain. Over the past countless years, the Ancient Immortal Gu Family and Immortal Domain have actually developed a very deep connection, and they were not afraid of any forces in the Upper Realm.

This time, if the various forces really dared to attack Gu Changge, they would naturally make them pay a very heavy price.

“With the words of the Ancestors, Lin Tian can rest assured. Changge is not in the clan during this time, and as his father, I have no idea about his plans. However, Changge has been smart and steady since he was a child. He must have thought of countermeasures before the destruction of Hell. I don’t have to worry too much about it.”

The person who spoke was Gu Changge’s father, Gu Lintian, who nodded with a serious face.

As the head of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family, although in terms of cultivation, he was far inferior to Gu Changge. But in many matters, big or small, he still had the right to speak.

Soon, a large number of troops began to gather on the many peaks of the divine islands of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family. From some small worlds, there were also bright doors as space portals emerged one after another.

Many knights stepped out, their evil spirit was overwhelming as blood mist billowed, and the sky was shattered. Among many Immortal forces such as the Peerless Immortal Dynasty and Primordial Divine Sect, many ancient existences also began to discuss countermeasures because of the news spread by the Heavens in the Upper Realm.

The Primordial Divine Sect was the most solid ally of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family. There were even rumors that the Primordial Divine Sect was actually a branch of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family many years ago.

Of course, there was no way of knowing whether this rumor was true or not. In short, if there was an Immortal War or Calamity in the Upper Realm, the Ancient Immortal Gu Family and the Primordial Divine Sect would definitely be in cahoots.

There was no doubt about it.

And the Peerless Immortal Dynasty, because of the marriage between the current Empress Mingkong and Gu Changge, had a close relationship with the Gu family.

Once time arrived, she would definitely be on the side of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family.

In addition, there were many hidden forces and sects in the Upper Realm, which were inextricably linked with the Ancient Immortal Gu Family and Gu Changge. This turbulent undercurrent was quietly sweeping across the entire Upper Realm.

Many cultivators and creatures felt a kind of tranquility before the storm. They were deeply disturbed by this and didn't want to be drawn into it. All the forces and the sects were closely watching Gu Changge at this moment, wanting to know his actions and reactions to this.

But to the disappointment of many people, after destroying Hell, Gu Changge suddenly seemed to have evaporated from the world. Even the many elders of the Ancient Immortal Gu Family did not know his whereabouts.

Many cultivators speculated that Gu Changge had a premonition that there would be a catastrophe against him, so he deliberately found a place to avoid the limelight. Of course, many people thought this was impossible.

In terms of Gu Changge's character, was he the kind of person who would hide from the world?

But at this moment, Gu Changge, who was a famous person in the world, had quietly left Peach Village. According to the token given to him by Princess Jianan, the head of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, he planned to head to the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

In Peach Village, after Gu Xian'er realized that he had left without saying goodbye, she was about to explode with grievance and resentment. For the past few days, she had been thinking about how to speak to Gu Changge to prevent the catastrophe of the future. But Gu Changge had secretly left Peach Village without telling her. She didn't even know where Gu Changge went.

"Damn it..." Gu Xian'er really couldn't help it, she really resented Gu Changge's actions.

The Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court was located in the deepest part of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, and it was the most mysterious place. The Absolute Heavenly Extinction did not belong to any of the Heavens in the Upper Realm.

Basically, all the creatures and cultivators in the Upper Realm knew the name of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction and felt horrified and terrified by it. Because the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was truly terrifying, and it contained an unimaginable crisis.

Many powers and sects were swallowed by the Absolute Heavenly Extinction as they disappeared, and ceased to exist. A few years ago, many forces in the Upper Realm joined forces to establish the True Immortal Academy.

It was just to cultivate a True Immortal in this era to prevent the disaster of Absolute Heavenly Extinction. Human Ancestor, who resided in the Human Ancestor Hall, also took it as his duty to bring down the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

When it came to the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, there was no cultivator who did not turn pale and fearful. Now, Gu Changge was holding Jianan's token and standing on a very mysterious land.

The dark land was devoid of any vegetation and one couldn't see its end. They couldn't even see any life. Only corpses of various colors piled up with blood dyed the ground black.

It looked misty, covering an endless territory, even the heaven and earth were black, and the edge could not be seen. Guiding Gu Changge was an Absolute Heavenly creature that came to pick him up. It was a middle-aged man who looked very similar to the human race.

Generally, only the Absolute Heavenly creatures with the blood of the Absolute Heavenly Royal Family could look like humans.

"Greetings my lord, the villain's name is Jia Ming, and I am the servant of the eldest princess. She ordered this villain to come here to pick you up." The middle-aged man said respectfully, knowing Gu Changge's identity.

The Absolute Heavenly Extinction was extremely mysterious, and outsiders had almost never set foot here.

“What about Jianan? Why didn’t she come to see me in person?” Gu Changge casually glanced at the person in front of him and was a little surprised.

“The Eldest Princess is currently busy worshiping her Ancestor, and it is difficult to get away. She cannot come to greet you in person. I hope you will not blame me.” The middle-aged man heard the words with a solemn expression, fearing that Gu Changge would be angry, he hurriedly explained.

“An important matter of worshiping Ancestors?”

Gu Changge raised his eyebrows. In fact, it was the first time he had come to the land of Absolute Heavenly creatures, and it was also the first time he had heard about worshiping Ancestors.

“Yes, my lord, it is the great event of worshiping Ancestors. It’s related to casting the Reincarnation Platform. In recent years, the number of members of our Absolute Heavenly Clan has been decreasing.”

“Even if one is buried in the deepest part of the clan for tens of millions of years, it is still difficult to breed pure Absolute Heavenly creatures.”

Seeing that Gu Changge was a little puzzled, the middle-aged man hurriedly explained. Because the eldest princess, Jia Nan, had told him before that everything about the Reincarnation Platform could be disclosed to Gu Changge.

“A pure Absolute Heavenly creature?” Hearing this sentence, Gu Changge was even more surprised.

Could it be that the creatures of the Absolute Heavenly clan could be divided into pure and non-pure? There was a difference between the two?

“Reporting to my lord, in fact, our Absolute Heavenly clan is not as the outside world thinks. Being born is actually very difficult. Those creatures in the outside world that are contaminated by the Absolute Heavenly aura only contain a trace of the Absolute Heavenly aura, and are not true Absolute Heavenly creatures.”

“Even if they are in our world, they can only survive at the lowest level, like slaves, and it is difficult to survive for a lifetime. And the true Absolute Heavenly creatures can only be conceived and born in the deepest part of the clan, or born from extremely pure Absolute Heavenly creatures...”

The middle-aged man continued to explain, telling Gu Changge the difference between pure and impure creatures.

When the Absolute Heavenly Extinction erupted and swept across the Upper Realm, the Absolute Heavenly aura that diffused would transform many creatures into Absolute Heavenly creatures. But such creatures were actually not pure, and could not really be called Absolute Heavenly creatures. Because they were mentally disabled, even leaving only their brutal and killing nature.

“The deepest part of the clan?”

Hearing this explanation, Gu Changge felt a little thoughtful. The origin of the Heavenly Extinction that he needed might come from the deepest part of the ancestral land of Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

The Reincarnation Platform that Jianan, the princess of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, wanted him to forge should also be related to the birth of the Absolute Heavenly creatures.

“If that’s the case, will the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation be involved...”

“When I was in the Ancient Immortal Continent, I felt that the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation had left behind many successors and inheritances. He shouldn’t be someone who would just sit down and die like that.”

“The Dao of Reincarnation is extremely special, involving the mystery of Life and Death. If he has been hiding in the world, no one will be able to detect it. Then what is he plotting?”

Gu Changge suddenly felt that something unexpected might happen during this trip to the imperial court. Maybe there would be some unexpected gains.

He had learned the handwriting of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation when he was in the Ancient Immortal Continent. Except for the Dragon Clan, the rest of the Immortal Clans were all calculated by him to death.

If Gu Changge hadn't intervened, the true heir of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation would have inherited everything logically and stood on the top of the Upper Realm.

After all, the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation was a true Immortal Realm existence. He was also good at mastering the Dao of Reincarnation and controlling the Law of Time. It was not impossible to glimpse a shard of the future.

Thinking of this, Gu Changge's expression became intriguing. Soon, the middle-aged man led him through this dark and desolate land before it came outside this gray and dead barrier.

The overcast sky was isolated from the outside world, which contained great danger and crisis. It was difficult for ordinary people to reach here, let alone pass through the outer barrier.

"Greetings, senior."

Here, Absolute Heavenly creatures were waiting as they stood beside a very magnificent black jade chariot, waiting for Gu Changge's arrival.

Chapter 707: The Origin of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, The ancestral ritual

The Absolute Heavenly Extinction was a mysterious place. Since ancient times, there had been a barrier outside to isolate everything. Even if there were Enlightened beings, they dare not set foot in it lightly, for fear of being contaminated by the aura of Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Now here, a group of Absolute Heavenly creatures was standing respectfully, waiting for Gu Changge's arrival.

"My lord, Your Highness the Eldest Princess has already ordered me to guide you. Now she is waiting for you in the imperial court." The old coachman in charge of driving said respectfully.

He also looked like a human race, but his aura was as deep as the sea, extremely terrifying. Undoubtedly, like Jia Ming who came to escort Gu Changge, he also had the blood of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

Gu Changge nodded slightly as he glanced at all the Absolute Heavenly creatures in front of him, and then slowly stepped onto the chariot. Although it was his visit to the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, he didn't feel any discomfort at all.

The Absolute Heavenly aura here was extremely strong. If ordinary cultivators were placed here, they would soon be infected before falling into Absolute Heavenly Extinction and lose their sanity.

The old man in charge of driving looked at Gu Changge calmly, but he was full of admiration in his heart. Although he was only responsible for driving, his own strength should not be underestimated.

As a person from the human race, Gu Changge was not affected by the aura of this place at all, and his expression was calm, like a real Absolute Heavenly creature. This was not just from something as simple as a terrifying cultivation base. It should be more about Gu Changge himself, who was not afraid of the aura of Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Soon, the black jade chariot lifted into the sky, turned into a black divine light, and rushed straight to the depths of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction. The mist was heavy, with a round dark gray sun hanging in the sky, with a kind of dead light.

The land was full of pits and hollows, densely covered with many terrible rift valleys, from which a thick gray mist spewed out, covering the sky and the sun, making it extremely scary.

The entire cloudy sky was more like a dead burial ground, where many corpses and incomplete things were buried. Strands of gray mist floated from nowhere, blowing across the desolate land. Here, Gu Changge hardly saw any traces of living beings, not even ferocious beasts were present here, making it extremely silent.

It was more like a terrible war had taken place here. Countless creatures seemed to have died tragically, forming an ancient battlefield.

“Since when were all of you born with memories?” In the chariot, Gu Changge looked at Jia Ming at the side and asked with interest.

“This...” When Jiaming heard this, he couldn’t help displaying a look of embarrassment on his face.

But in the face of Gu Changge, he still didn’t dare to refuse, and could only reply, “My lord, I waited for my own memory to start, it was the day when I walked out of the deepest part of my clan, and my previous memory was actually blank.”

In fact, this already involved some kind of secret of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction. The birth of an Absolute Heavenly creature not only required the cultivation of the clan's land but also required a long period of time to transform. Sometimes, even they themselves were confused about who they were.

Was someone's body transformed after death, becoming a new race? Or was it the original person, buried in the clan soil, erasing his own memory to gain a new life?

But it was undeniable that in the deepest part of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, the origin and the biggest secret of their birth was hidden. And this secret might only be known to the most mysterious Lord of Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

"The Origin of Absolute Heavenly Creatures is related to Life to death. Could all of this have something to do with Reincarnation?" Hearing Jia Ming's words, Gu Changge felt a little thoughtful.

Speaking of which, the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction was an extremely cold energy. It could devour all the surrounding matter, including law and order. Even space was not spared

This kind of origin was not like something that could be born in the Upper Realm. It seemed to be brought from a strange and mysterious place by some unknown existence, in order to achieve a certain purpose. The central area of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was a magnificent group of palaces, with many towers located, and it looked quite prosperous.

Compared to the desolate and dead silence in the fringe area, there were many more creatures here. People came and left, although it was not lively, there was a lot of noise. The black jade chariot galloped all the way before passing the sky through this piece of the city wall, and went all the way to the depths.

The Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court was located there, and the majestic imperial city looked ancient and boundless. There was an aura corroded by the years. Wisps of gray mist lingered around, making the world here look extremely gray.

"Can we really trust him on the matter of the Reincarnation Platform?"

In the depths of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, in a palace. Several figures stood erect, and a gray mist was also lingering around them. One couldn't see the face clearly, only the eyes reveal endless vicissitudes and a decadent aura. They seemed to be communicating but they seemed to be talking softly as their eyes penetrated the entire palace and looked out of the city.

“Reporting to the Ancient Ancestor, Gu Changge killed the heir of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation and took his inheritance as his own. Perhaps only he can do it in the Upper Realm today. We have to trust him. At this point, there’s no other way.”

Under these figures, Princess Jianan, the Chief Judge of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, stood with her hands down respectfully as she replied.

“He killed the true heir of the ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation? He’s a very ruthless person. Isn’t he afraid of causing great karma in the dark?” A figure shrouded in gray mist shook his head lightly, his eyes revealing his thoughts, apparently not believing it.

The Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation, who, in the oldest times, had come to the Absolute Heavenly Extinction and had left behind a prophecy. It was said that one day in the future, the gray fog would cover the earth, and the true Absolute Heavenly Extinction would arrive to all worlds.

Such a character, who was proficient in the Dao of Reincarnation, could even trek through the long river of time, influencing the current world in ancient times. If it was really his chosen successor, how could he be killed so easily?

“This is not necessarily true. There is a general trend in the dark. The general trend is irreversible, but it does not mean that it cannot be reversed.” Hearing this, another Ancient Ancestor shrouded in gray mist shook his head and added.

“As long as we can cast the Reincarnation Platform and attract the aura from that latitude, we can break free from the shackles and achieve detachment. The well water in the clan land is about to dry up.” Another Ancient Ancestor sighed, their aura was extremely powerful. Although they were only standing in this palace, they seemed to be oppressing this sky.

There was no doubt that if they stepped out of this place and appeared in the Upper Realm, it would definitely cause boundless waves.

The Laws of Heaven and Earth in Absolute Heavenly Extinction were completely different from those in the Upper Realm, and their strength was by no means comparable to ordinary Remnant Immortals.

“Is the well running dry?” Hearing the Ancient Ancestor’s words, Jianan, who was standing below with her hands down, suddenly widened her eyes, as if she couldn’t believe it.

In fact, the birth and gestation of all of the Absolute Heavenly creatures were inseparable from the well water deep in the clan. To be precise, it was three extremely mysterious ancient wells.

Those three ancient wells created the huge Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, and they were also the source of the origin of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Now, from the Ancestor’s mouth, she heard the news that the well water was about to dry up. Didn’t that mean that the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was facing a day of collapse and destruction?

Then where would all the Absolute Heavenly creatures go?

“No wonder even you, the Ancient Ancestors, were alarmed.”

There was a haze in Jianan’s heart, and Absolute Heavenly Extinction was actually not as peaceful as the outside world thought. It was facing the danger of destruction at any time.

“If the casting of the Reincarnation Platform fails, then our entire Absolute Heavenly group can only think of other ways out.” As the eldest princess of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, she suddenly felt that the responsibilities on her shoulders were much heavier.

“Go and receive Gu Changge first, if there is anything else, I will let you know later. As for the matter of the Ancestral Ritual, you can take charge of it first. After all the materials are collected, I will open the ancestral well and guide everything.”

Several Ancient Ancestors in the hall withdrew their gazes from the outside of the city, soon the place became dead and silent again. The matter of ancestral ritual was actually related to the Reincarnation Platform. If the Reincarnation Platform was cast successfully, the chances of success would be greatly increased.

This was not only about their detachment, but also about the survival of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

As early as many years ago, the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation left a prophecy, and saw a corner of the future of Absolute Heavenly Extinction. That was why they were told that in the future, they would forge a Reincarnation Platform to stabilize the laws of Reincarnation of Life and Death here.

It was a pity that the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation had long since disappeared, and they had no way to find it. Therefore, Jianan could only be sent to find the descendant of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation, trying to learn about the whereabouts of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation.

Now, there was no news of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation, and they could only pin their hopes on his descendants. But this descendant killed the original true descendant of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation, and then took everything as his own.

It made them speechless. At this moment, in the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

As the black jade chariot landed, many members of the royal family, headed by Jia Luo, stepped forward to salute. Prior to this, after being summoned by Gu Changge, the eldest princess Jianan ordered everything to be arranged.

The current Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court seemed to be headed by her.

“Greetings, Young Master Changge. After the farewell in the Great Yu Immortal Dynasty, it’s good that Young Master Changge is safe and sound.” With a respectful expression on his face, Jia Luo smiled and motioned Gu Changge to enter the hall.

Many members of royal families behind him also looked at Gu Changge with awe and respect. Even in the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, they had already heard many rumors about Gu Changge.

Regardless of status or cultivation, he was already standing at the pinnacle of the Upper Realm, and they needed to look up to him.

“Brother Jia Luo, I haven’t seen you for a long time.” Gu Changge smiled back, and followed Jia Luo into the hall.

“Imperial Sister has already ordered someone to prepare a banquet for Young Master Changge.” Jia Luo slightly signaled that in the main hall, a banquet had already been set up.

A lot of spiritual fruit wines were shining brightly, and a group of beautiful singers danced slowly, and their singing was very touching. Many ministers of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court had already been waiting here, secretly looking at Gu Changge.

Quite a number of imperial daughters also cast brilliant gazes, thinking about them in their hearts. To put it bluntly, in the current Upper Realm, no matter where it was. All the heavenly girls who knew Gu Changge were curious or admired him.

Even if they were the princesses of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, there was no exception. Soon, Gu Changge sat down with a calm expression, looked at the many delicacies and wines in front of him before he began to taste them, which looked very natural.

Compared with the outside world, the spiritual fruit in the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was more or less contaminated with a lot of Absolute Heavenly Aura. For ordinary cultivators, this was highly poisonous and could corrode cultivation and soul. But for Gu Changge, it didn't have the slightest influence.

“Hasn't Imperial Sister come yet?” Jia Luo asked the maid next to him while pouring wine for Gu Changge.

In the current Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, Jianan was highly regarded by several Ancient Ancestors, and she was also fully responsible for receiving Gu Changge.

“Reporting to Prince Jia Luo, the eldest princess rushed to the ancestral hall, and now she should be on her way back.” The maid replied respectfully upon hearing the words, not daring to hide anything.

“The ancestral hall?” Jia Luo raised his eyebrows slightly.

The ancestral hall was generally a place for several Ancient Ancestors to retreat and cultivate. Without their permission, no one should disturb them. Jianan was suddenly summoned, and it was obvious that the Ancient Ancestors had something to explain to her.

Thinking of this, Jia Luo glanced at Gu Changge without any trace, thinking deeply.

In fact, he also knew about the casting of the Reincarnation Platform. And he was very clear that Gu Changge was not the true successor of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation.

Gu Changge controlled the inheritance of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation, and it happened that the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court needed his help, the two had tacit understanding.

“All the way, the Absolute Heavenly Extinction I saw was far from what I imagined.”

At this time, Jia Luo’s thoughts were suddenly interrupted by Gu Changge who was chuckling beside him.

His complexion changed slightly, but soon returned to normal. He explained with a smile, “Since ancient times, it has never changed. It’s just that outsiders have hardly set foot here and know little about it.”

Gu Changge put down his wine glass, smiled lightly and said, “It seems that I was worrying too much.”

On the way he came, he had already carefully looked at the Absolute Heavenly Extinction. To be honest, although there was quite a lot of Heavenly Extinction aura contained in it, it was far from his psychological expectation.

From a certain point of view, Gu Changge even felt that the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was drying up now, and it was impossible to really pose a threat to the Upper Realm.

Before that, he asked the eldest princess Jianan to get him the origin of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction. The other party refused in every possible way, and even delayed for a long time before finally sending some.

At that time, Gu Changge wondered if some kind of drastic change had taken place in the Absolute Heavenly Extinction. And Jianan explained to him that there was civil strife in the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

She needed to calm the chaos anyway, and couldn't spare any extra time to find the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction for him. But judging from the current situation, it's not that Jianan didn't have time to find the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

But the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction had become extremely rare, and it was already difficult to find it, let alone use it to make a deal with Gu Changge.

"In this case, this so-called ancestral ritual should be extremely interesting." Gu Changge smiled meaningfully, and looked outside the palace all of a sudden, his eyes falling somewhere.

When he was on the road, he felt that several eyes were spying on him, with some kind of scrutiny. But he had another plan, and he didn't want to startle the enemy, so he pretended not to know.

Now it seemed that there should be a few big guys hiding in the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

A heavy mist shrouded the earth like wisps of ghosts in the darkness that could never be removed. To the outside world, the incomparably mysterious Absolute Heavenly Extinction was actually nothing special except for the lingering and pervasive Absolute Heavenly Extinction aura.

From Gu Changge's point of view, at least the Laws of Heaven and Earth were not much different from those of the outside world. Palaces and towers were located in the city, separated by mountains and rivers.

The land was full of traces of ancient battlefields that were once left behind, extremely devastated. Almost all cultivators and creatures in the Upper Realm feared the Absolute Heavenly Extinction like ghosts. But in fact, they were really afraid of just the Absolute Heavenly aura, that kind of substance was weird and mysterious for them.

After arriving at the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, Gu Changge felt a premonition. As long as he came into contact with the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction, he was sure to fight against the entire Upper Realm. Thus, the origin of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was the top priority of his plan.

"Greetings, Young Master Changge." Jianan, who was late, stepped into the palace and glanced at Gu Changge. She couldn't help but smile and cup her hands.

"Greetings, Princess Jianan." Gu Changge looked at her before he nodded slightly.

“Absolute Heavenly Extinction is no better than the outside world. If there is a lack of hospitality, I hope Young Master Changge will not be offended.” Jianan smiled and added.

There were many powerhouses behind her. Everyone’s aura was filled with vicissitudes of life. They had cultivated for many years in the lands of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction. In the outside world these would be existences at the Supreme and Quasi-Emperor Realm, sweeping away in all directions.

With the arrival of Jianan, almost everyone in the hall looked over. Before that, everyone knew that Gu Changge was carrying the inheritance of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation. His arrival in the land Absolute Heavenly Extinction himself, in fact, was to fulfill the promise he made with the princess.

The matter of the Reincarnation Platform was of great importance, and it almost touched the core of all Absolute Heavenly beings.

“After the eldest princess shows up, they should discuss with Young Master Changge about casting the Reincarnation Platform, right?” Many ministers of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court guessed in their hearts.

In order to cast the Reincarnation Platform, the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court had waited tens of millions of years, searching for the materials. The only thing lacking was an existence who was proficient in controlling the Dao of Reincarnation.

“Princess Jianan is too worried.” Hearing this, Gu Changge waved his hand with a faint smile. He then glanced at the several powerhouses behind Jianan.

The true beings that made up the foundation of Absolute Heavenly Extinction were not present. There was not even a single Enlightened being. However, the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court did not need to be so cautious.

After all, since ancient times, there had never been a record of an outsider who had attained Enlightenment setting foot here.

“In that case, I will have to trouble Young Master Changge.” Hearing this, a smile appeared on Jianan’s face.

Then she sat down next to Gu Changge as she took the jug from Jia Luo's hand, and poured it for him. As the person in power of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, her behavior had already given Gu Changge enough respect.

"According to the agreement, I will help you cast the Reincarnation Platform, but I hope you will not break your promise for what I need." Hearing this, Gu Changge glanced at her with interest before reminding her.

A slight unnaturalness flickered on Jianan's face. But she recovered quickly and squeezed out a smile before she said, "Naturally, we made a great oath at the beginning, so naturally we dare not break our promise."

She didn't know if Gu Changge had seen something. For a long time, only in the ancient well in the deepest part of the clan could the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction be obtained. But now, the three ancient wells of origin were already on the verge of drying up. She didn't know how much of the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction was left.

Gu Changge smiled faintly and did not expose Jianan. No one in this world dared to treat him empty-handedly as a white wolf. Now he wanted to know even more about what happened in the Absolute Heavenly Clan.

Why did it lead to the exhaustion of Absolute Heavenly Extinction? Soon, the reception banquet ended as many dancers and ministers also retreated.

In the main hall, only the royal family of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court and Gu Changge were left as everything descended into silence all of a sudden.

Gu Changge didn't want to waste time, so he went straight to the point and asked Jianan to take him to the place where the Reincarnation Platform was to be cast.

"Master Changge, it's getting late today, why don't you rest for a night first. When everything is ready tomorrow, we will ask you to take action." But hearing Gu Changge's request, Jianan displayed a bit of embarrassment as she uttered.

"Do you want to wait until tomorrow?" Gu Changge smiled as if surprised. His tone was calm and indifferent, making one feel like basking in a spring breeze. But he was not surprised.

There must be something hidden in the deepest part of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court's land, otherwise, Jianan would not delay so much. After all, for Absolute Heavenly Extinction, wouldn't it be better to cast the Reincarnation Platform earlier?

"Young Master Changge must have been tired after a long journey. The process of casting the Reincarnation Platform consumes a lot of mental energy, so in case of accidents, I think Young Master Changge should only make a move after you maintain the peak state." Jianan seemed afraid that Gu Changge would think too much, so she couldn't help explaining.

"In that case, then I'll follow the arrangement of the eldest princess." Gu Changge's eyes were strange, and he smiled but didn't say much.

After all, he was just a guest now. Since the host asked him to wait one more night, what if he waited another night?

No matter, he would be able to enter the depths of the so-called Absolute Heavenly Extinction's Clan to find out tonight.

"Xiao Jiu..."

At this time, Jianan's eyes suddenly swept across with a little majesty. In the end, it fell on a girl who was relatively far among the disciples of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

The girl looked only fifteen or sixteen years old, petite and exquisite with white and crystal-clear skin like that of snow porcelain. She had a silver hair shawl, her eyes were slightly glazed with blood, and her face was expressionless, giving her an extremely indifferent appearance that unwelcome strangers.

At this moment, when Jianan called her, the girl frowned slightly, with a slight puzzlement in her eyes, and she looked over.

"Imperial sister..." She didn't respect Jianan as much as the other royal disciples, but she just asked with some doubts.

“Young Master Changge has come from afar to forge the Reincarnation Platform for my Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court. Don’t spare your hard work, you will be responsible for serving Young Master Changge tonight.” Jianan’s face remained unchanged, she glanced at her with some deep meaning and added as her words revealed an unquestionable taste.

And hearing this, the other disciples of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court couldn’t help but widen their eyes in surprise. It seemed unbelievable. Several of the princesses showed envious eyes toward the silver-haired girl.

Gu Changge also raised his eyebrows lightly, looking at Jianan with some interest.

“Why is the eldest princess doing this?”

Jianan shook his head slightly. She looked at him, and said, “Young Master Changge came from a long distance to solve the problem of my Absolute Heavenly Extinction. How can there be no one to serve you while you rest and go to bed? If it spreads, wouldn’t it hurt my reputation? It might even raise questions on the hospitality of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court?”

Her explanation in this way made the rest of the royal disciples suddenly feel that she was right. But Gu Changge’s smile suddenly became intriguing. He didn’t say much anymore but looked at the silver-haired girl who didn’t seem to have reacted yet.

“Sister, I…” The silver-haired girl also seemed to be stunned by these words.

The expression on her face suddenly became extremely shocking, and it took a while to react. She almost wondered if she had heard it wrong.

Although for the princesses of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, this kind of opportunity to get close to Gu Changge was once in a lifetime, it was too late to be envious. But she was really an exception, she didn’t want to get such an opportunity at all, she just wanted to keep it at a respectful distance.

“Xiao Jiu, don’t you even listen to what the Emperor said? Serving Young Master Changge is your honor, how many people wish for it?” Seeing that the silver-haired girl fell silent, she didn’t speak. Jianan looked at her with a gloomy expression, there was an inexplicable meaning in her eyes as if she was warning her.

Looking at Jianan's expression, the silver-haired girl could only relax her frowning eyebrows. Finally, with a slight sigh, she knew that she had no room to refuse. Although Jianan was her biological sister, it did not mean that she could resist Jianan's will. However, judging from her understanding of her sister. How could she suddenly make such an arrangement and ask her own sister to serve Gu Changge?

Was there any deep meaning in this?

"Yes, imperial sister." The silver-haired girl named Xiao Jiu resumed her previous expressionless face and nodded in response.

Jianan nodded with some relief, then bid farewell to Gu Changge with her hands folded. She then went to prepare for tomorrow's ancestral ritual and casting of the Reincarnation Platform. She knew that with Xiao Jiu's intelligence, she would definitely understand her deep meaning.

Before the casting of the Reincarnation Platform was completed, Gu Changge must not be allowed to gain insight into the exhausted state of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Otherwise, it would cause unimaginable and dire consequences. So before that, she had to find a reliable person to follow Gu Changge and know his actions. At the same time, it would also prevent Gu Changge from finding the deepest part of the clan territory during this period.

"What's your name?" After the silver-haired girl left the hall, Gu Changge smiled with great interest and casually greeted her.

The silver-haired girl was still as serious as ever. Hearing this, she said in a very respectful tone, "Reporting to Young Master Changge, my name is Jia Jiu'er."

Now, she had actually guessed her sister's intention, she didn't ask her to please Gu Changge. Instead, she had placed her next to Gu Changge to keep an eye on his actions to avoid unnecessary accidents.

Among the many children of the royal family, she was the most powerful.

"Jia Jiu'er? Oh, so what's your relationship with Jianan?" Gu Changge still looked very interested.

“She is my older sister.” Jia Jiuer replied.

Hearing this, Gu Changge did not continue to ask and he had already guessed Jianan’s intention. It was just that Jianan seemed to have overestimated her sister a little too much. Seeing that Gu Changge did not continue to ask.

On the contrary, Jia Jiu’er felt a little puzzled in her heart, and of course, she was more apprehensive. If Gu Changge really wanted her to sleep with her, would she be able to refuse then? What should she do?

The palace was magnificent, located northwest of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court. This was the temporary dormitory specially arranged by Jianan for Gu Changge.

After arriving here, Gu Changge looked at Jia Jiu’er who was standing at the gate of the palace with a strange look on her face, and suddenly waved his hands before smiling, “Gu is not that kind of person. You are a delicate person who needs someone to serve you even when you go to bed, so you should go back. Just tell your sister that I asked you to go back.”

Speaking of this, his tone had a flash of playfulness. However, upon hearing this, Jia Jiu’er, who was still a little bit tangled and struggling, seemed to react suddenly.

The originally serious little face also squeezed out some smiles as she hurriedly shook her head and said, “It’s nothing, I hope Young Master Changge won’t drive me away.”

If she was driven away, wouldn’t the matter arranged by her sister Jianan fail? How would she explain to her imperial sister at that time?

Chapter 709: The origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction, One can obtain Immortal Eternal Life

Although Jia Jiu’er looked only fifteen or sixteen years old, in terms of the lifespan of the Absolute Heavenly royal family, her true age had already exceeded hundreds of years. So Gu Changge didn’t treat her as an ordinary girl at all.

What was more, she was the spy sent by Jianan.

“Since you don’t want to leave, you can stay at the gate of the palace tonight.” Hearing this, Gu Changge’s expression became a little playful. He then went straight into the palace without waiting for Jia Jiuer’s answer.

“Young Master Changge...” Seeing that Gu Changge had disappeared, Jia Jiu’er couldn’t help but shout, no matter how anxious she looked on her face.

Although she had a quiet personality since she was a child, it didn’t mean she didn’t know the importance of the matter. This time, Absolute Heavenly Extinction had encountered an unprecedented test.

In the past, no matter how big things happened, those Ancient Ancestors would not step in. This time six Ancient Ancestors had woken up together, as long as she was not stupid, she could guess that something great would happen in the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Jianan also emphasized the importance of the Reincarnation Platform more than once.

At this time, if Gu Changge noticed something in advance. Then she would become the criminal of the entire Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, and even death could not redeem her. Now she regretted deeply in her heart, she should have not hidden her struggle just now. But just when Jia Jiu’er gritted her teeth and was about to step into the palace.

Terrifying pressure suddenly filled the air, as if a divine mountain was standing in front of her, carrying a monstrous evil spirit.

“The Lord has ordered that no one should disturb his rest.” A burly figure wearing a Dark Iron Battle Armor appeared, looking at her coldly and mercilessly.

Jia Jiu’er’s face turned pale as cold sweat dripped from her forehead in an instant. She didn’t dare to act rashly, feeling a terrifying divine sense enveloping her. If she dared to take a step forward, the burly figure in front of her would definitely slap her down mercilessly, destroying her body and spirit.

This was a true Enlightened being!

Even in the Upper Realm where Enlightened beings frequently appeared, it was enough for them to be invincible, and it was difficult to find an opponent.

“Yes, Yes...” Seeing this, Jia Jiu’er had to retreat tremblingly, not daring to provoke an Enlightened being. She also didn’t expect that when Gu Changge arrived at the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, there would be such a subordinate by his side. Moreover, this person was not afraid of the Absolute Heavenly aura in the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Alpha stood indifferently at the gate of the palace, watching Jia Jiu’er step back, without any change in expression on his face, as if looking at a humble ant. The expression on Jia Jiu’er’s face changed, displayed fear, unwillingness, and regret.

In the end, she was pretending to be noble. She thought that facing someone like Gu Changge, she didn’t need to bow down like the rest of the royal family’s disciples or watch her words and be cautious. But in the end, in Gu Changge’s eyes, she was not much different from an ordinary ant.

“Hopefully there will be no surprises tonight.” She took a deep breath and let herself calm down.

Jia Jiu’er simply stood by the gate of the palace, and she could only explain to her Imperial sister that it was Gu Changge who didn’t want her to set foot in the palace. She didn’t dare to offend Gu Changge, for fear of death.

With Gu Changge’s strength, if he wanted to leave the palace and enter somewhere without telling her, he didn’t need to expend any effort at all. It was impossible to do so because he thought that he would have to give Jianan an explanation at that time.

In the palace, Gu Changge didn’t pay attention to Jia Jiu’er’s expression, she was just a little girl, did she really think he would take her seriously?

“Deep in the clan territory of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, there is always a wisp of gray mist...”

He sat cross-legged on the bed, and there were bursts of deep rays of light filling the position between his brows. One side seemed to be slowly emerging like a palace located on the top of Reincarnation. Terrible runes of Dao were intertwined, causing the void in the front to begin to collapse.

It seemed that it was difficult to contain the aura of this soul palace, and it would be crushed into ashes and nothingness.

Buzz!!

In the next moment, the door of the Soul Palace opened, and a villain with the same face as Gu Changge walked out. His eyes were deep and ruthless as if he had wiped out all the emotions.

The villain's eyes were indifferent, exuding a cold and terrifying aura. Even an Enlightened being would be terrified by this, kneeling and trembling on the ground.

“Go.” Gu Changge looked at his soul and said lightly.

Buzz!!

The villain's indifferent eyes did not change, he raised his feet and took a step, tearing the space in front of him instantly, and the figure quickly disappeared.

The deepest part of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court was a dead and silent place shrouded in mist. The world was gloomy with an ominous atmosphere. All the light and Laws here seemed to be broken. There seemed to be an invisible substance in the middle, swallowing everything, leaving only the eternal darkness and coldness.

Every wisp of mist seemed extremely heavy, blown by some unknown force, and lingered here.

“It took countless years to absorb it, if there is really someone at the other end, why would he delay?” An extremely decayed existence was seated here cross-legged, looked tattered, like different creatures spliced together.

He was speaking, his words were flat and ruthless, and he would not be affected by external objects.

“Sacrificing the platform and lighting the divine fire, this is the only thing we can do now.”

Another existence spoke, his eyes were indifferent and filled with vicissitudes, and as they turned, there seemed to be big stars rumbling in them, creating a terrifying momentum, causing the surrounding laws to explode.

As the six Ancient Ancestors of Absolute Heavenly Extinction, their existence was too long and ancient. It could even be said unceremoniously that there were the first creatures of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

The origin of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was extremely mysterious. When the disaster swept the Upper Realm, no powerhouse could find relevant traces and records.

It came suddenly, without any sign, as if it had fallen from a mysterious and unknown latitude, corrupting the entire Heavens of the Upper Realm, including thousands of ancient worlds.

This was an unpredictable and terrifying power, and even Enlightened beings dare not touch it.

“The ancestral well is about to dry up. If we can’t find that place again, we’ll die.”

“Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation promised us to wait, I’m afraid it will be difficult.”

They were whispering, looking at the deepest part of the clan, with worries and reluctance in their eyes, more unwillingness and regret.

All things in the world would eventually have their lifespan exhausted, and even Immortals were no exception. But they relied on the three ancestral wells to survive one era after another and lived for endless years. Even if it was difficult for them to improve their cultivation, it would not affect their immortality at all.

They had been waiting for an opportunity. They had been waiting for an opportunity to detach or get rid of these shackles since the birth of Absolute Heavenly Extinction until now. It was a pity that when the three ancestral wells were about to dry up, they would not see the day predicted by the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation.

“The Reincarnation Platform contains the Dao of Life and Death, which can reverse the remaining power in this world and help us ignite the last flame.”

“If we still can’t find that, we can only choose eternal silence.”

The six Ancient Ancestors spoke in a calm voice without emotion. Now even they were going to be silent forever, so what if the entire Absolute Heavenly Extinction was buried and collapsed?

Once they were contaminated by a ray of gray mist that leaked from nowhere and accidentally entered a strange and unpredictable place. Their souls and bodies encountered thousands of collapses and reunions, experiencing the most terrifying torture in the world.

Because of the special nature of that strange land, even under such circumstances, they never died, keeping their sobriety and sanity. It was also there that they found three ancient wells, which were the three ancestral wells that represented the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Perhaps all the forces in the Upper Realm would never have imagined that the horrifying and trembling calamity of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction originated from three ancient wells.

Over the years, the six Ancient Ancestors tried every means to find that strange land again and enter it again, but there was no way at all. That strange land represented the unknown and the great terror.

In the beginning, they only strayed into the outermost layer, where they obtained almost immortal life. Although they had paid a heavy and unimaginable price for this kind of acquisition.

“Huh?”

“Why does it feel like someone is spying on me?”

At this time, an Ancient Ancestor suddenly frowned and looked outside the clan. He felt that there seemed to be a gaze there, spying on the things here.

As far as they were concerned, these long years could not improve their cultivation in the slightest. But the majestic and vast spiritual power that had been honed all the time was simply unimaginable. Even in the face of the True Immortal Realm cultivator, they were not afraid at all.

“Who came to the land of my people?”

“How dare you!!”

The other Ancient Ancestors also opened their mouths, and their eyes suddenly became extremely deep. Someone's vast spiritual power swept away like a piece of the sky and the universe was crushed down, suppressing each path and bursting.

The entire clan land was cracking, the momentum was shocking, and the mist was soaring into the sky. They were so keenly aware that they could almost conclude that someone had appeared there just now, and it couldn't be their hallucination. But now it disappeared without a trace as if it did not exist.

"It seems that the young man surnamed Gu is a little restless after all." An Ancient Ancestor spoke with a cold and heartless voice.

"Since he is here, he must have become suspicious of my Absolute Heavenly Extinction. The matter of casting the Reincarnation Platform is of great importance, so I'll let him go for now."

"If casting the Reincarnation Platform fails, it will be difficult for him to escape from this place, and he will die with us. There is no need to worry about it." The rest of the Ancient Ancestors also slowly fell silent and did not continue to attack.

In terms of cultivation alone, they could only reach the peak of the Enlightened beings at most, not the Remnant Immortals. But in the field of spiritual power and Daoism, they dare to assert that even if all the forces in the Upper Realm joined hands, no one could compare with them.

So although Gu Changge's strength was terrifying, they didn't care, they were confident that they could easily suppress him. After all, they were a total of six people, and there were three ancestral wells behind them, which could wash away all decay and obtain immortality.

Chapter 710: You are a smart person, Who lit up the coordinates?

In the deepest part of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court. The heavy mist was floating along with wisps of gray fog, casting thick shadow. It was difficult to see the sky, the laws were broken, making it gray and dark.

The six Ancient Ancestors of Absolute Heavenly Extinction guarded three mysterious ancestral wells, standing on the highest point of the clan's land, overlooking the world indifferently. They seemed to have existed in this world since the beginning.

Indifferent and ancient, surrounded by an impenetrable gray fog, their eyes were either cold, ruthless, or empty, displaying a gray color. Only on the arm stretched out from the fog could one see many decayed traces and corpse spots.

At this moment, all the creatures of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction felt a sense of palpitation and submission, wanting to kneel down and worship toward the deepest part of the clan's land. The six Ancient Ancestors shaped the entire Absolute Heavenly Extinction, and at the same time nurtured and created all Absolute Heavenly creatures.

In previous eras, even if some kind of drastic change occurred in the Absolute Heavenly Extinction, only one Ancient Ancestor would appear. It was definitely the first time that the six Ancient Ancestors had appeared altogether now since the creation of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.

Ordinary Absolute Heavenly creatures couldn't even imagine what this meant. Only those with relatively pure bloodlines and some highly cultivated Absolute Heavenly creatures could feel a premonition.

And at this time, in a palace of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court, Eldest Princess Jianan was frowning and dealing with some matters. Suddenly, sensing a huge change in the depths of the clan land, she couldn't help standing up, looking at that place, full of surprise and anxiety.

"Only a few people in the imperial court know about the birth of the Ancient Ancestors. Now the six Ancient Ancestors have manifested together. Why? What happened to startle them?"

Jianan frowned as she hurriedly put down the things in her hands, turned herself into a divine light, and rushed toward the direction of the tribe.

At the same time, she sent a message to the other powerhouses of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court to let them all rush over. In addition to the six Ancient Ancestors, there were still many ancient existences in the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court.

Although their strength was far inferior to the six Ancient Ancestors, they were also true Enlightened beings who could sit on the top.

"Could it be that something happened to Xiao Jiu, and Gu Changge sneaked into the clan's land?"

Jianan felt uneasy in her heart. She was worried that Gu Changge might have noticed something at this moment.

Soon, she passed through layers of restrictions and stepped into a desolate and devastated land. Against the thick and scattered gray mist, she found the six Ancient Ancestors in the clan's land.

"Did something happen here, Ancient Ancestor?" With a respectful face, Jianan couldn't help asking.

"It's not a big deal. It should be that the younger generation surnamed Gu. He went all the way to find the clan's land. After being noticed by us, he retreated quickly." An Ancient Ancestor glanced at her and said in a calm tone.

"Gu Changge really can't hold back." Jianan's face darkened a little.

She had asked Jia Jiu'er to keep a close eye on Gu Changge's actions, but Gu Changge sneaked into the clan land secretly.

"He shouldn't have noticed anything. We noticed him when he first sneaked into this place." Another Ancient Ancestor added.

He didn't think Gu Changge could discover anything in such a short period of time. However, they didn't have the slightest evidence to prove that the abnormal movement they noticed before was Gu Changge.

Hearing this, Jianan also understood. Gu Changge should have just stepped into the clan territory before being sensed by the six Ancient Ancestors.

After all, having survived for almost endless years, the perception of the six Ancient Ancestors was astonishing, especially when they were backed by the clan's land and the ancestral wells. Here they were Quasi-Immortal with vast, unimaginable power and omnipotence.

"If that's the case, then I'm relieved." Jianan breathed a sigh of relief and did not continue to disturb the six Ancient Ancestors as she retreated quietly.

In her opinion, since Gu Changge knew about the existence of the six Ancient Ancestors, he should not dare to mess around for the next few days. In a way, this was also a great deterrent.

“It turns out that there are six old guys hiding here, but this aura is too rotten...”

At this time, in the palace, Gu Changge also got up. The position between his eyebrows fluctuated with a vast aura and his divine spirit came across the void before disappearing quickly.

In fact, what he saw just now was a bit beyond Gu Changge's expectations. He had known for a long time that the aura of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was being exhausted. But he never thought that the aura of Absolute Heavenly Extinction would contain such six old monsters, enabling them to live for countless years.

The stench of decay and vicissitudes was like a corpse that had rotted in a coffin for one era after another.

Of course, what surprised him the most was that the spiritual power of these people was extremely large and vast, far exceeding the level that an Enlightened being could achieve.

“Did the aura flowing from them shape the current Absolute Heavenly Extinction, or did the so-called origin create everything?” Gu Changge was lost in thought.

He always felt that somewhere in the dark, there seemed to be someone who was planning and calculating. Why did the Absolute Heavenly Extinction try every means to shape the Reincarnation Platform?

Before coming to Absolute Heavenly Extinction, Gu Changge never thought about casting the Reincarnation Platform for them and just wanted to take the origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction and leave. But judging from the current situation, this Reincarnation Platform must be cast.

Gu Changge was not worried that the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court would suddenly attack him. Before the Reincarnation Platform was successfully cast, even if they had complaints in their hearts, they did not dare to say more.

For the entire Absolute Heavenly Extinction, this night was destined not to be peaceful. The six Ancient Ancestors appeared, standing in the depths of the clan land. Their figures were incomparably large, towering above the sky, shrouded in endless gray mist, making people tremble and palpitate. The beings could not help but kneel down.

Except for Jianan, no one knew what happened in the Absolute Absolute Heavenly Extinction's Clan land and why the six Ancient Ancestors were alarmed. Almost all the Absolute Heavenly creatures were shocked by this, and they bowed in that direction as many people became even more terrified.

"Why did the Ancient Ancestor wake up? Were they startled?" Many powerful Absolute Heavenly creatures were whispering.

Jia Jiu'er's heart was also throbbing, and she couldn't help but respectfully salute in the direction of the clan, before looking at the quiet palace.

Alpha still stood there like a terrifying divine mountain, exuding the indifference and murderous intent that no one should enter. She didn't dare to step forward, even if she guessed that the movement from the six Ancient Ancestors was related to Gu Changge, she didn't dare to ask for proof.

The next day, in the huge square in the very center of the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court. Pieces of black crystals engraved with strange patterns and characters were piled up and placed there.

These black crystals were incomparably neat and they came from an unknown place. There was a faint death intent lingering around them. Even if the Absolute Heavenly creatures approached, there was a feeling that made their spirit and soul frozen.

On the other side, there were a large number of white crystals piled up, also engraved with strange patterns and words. Different from the black crystals, these white crystals were full of vitality, lingering with strands of vital chains.

The area around the square had been cleaned up. Except for Jianan and the others, the rest of the Absolute Heavenly creatures couldn't get close. They couldn't even watch from a distance.

"Are these the materials for casting the Reincarnation Platform? Life Crystal and Death Crystal?" Gu Changge appeared, followed by the silent Alpha, and the somewhat anxious Jia Jiu'er.

“This is the Life Crystal and Death Crystal that our family has found over the endless years. It must be enough to cast the Reincarnation Platform.” Jianan replied, looking at Jia Jiu’er with deep meaning in her eyes, but Jia Jiuer just shook her head to avoid her gaze.

Seeing this, Jianan knew that the matter of letting Jia Jiu’er keep an eye on Gu Changge last night must have failed. In the first place, she didn’t hold out much hope for it.

“Life Crystals and Death Crystals are hard to find. Only in the Yellow Spring, which is said to involve the Land of Death, one has the opportunity to see them. I didn’t expect the Absolute Heavenly Imperial Court to collect so many.” Gu Changge said with a sigh as if he didn’t know what happened last night.

“After all, it is a major event involving the Reincarnation Platform. No matter how difficult it is to find, our family will do everything possible to find it.” Jianan replied with a smile, with some implication.

She just wanted to inform Gu Changge that casting the Reincarnation Platform was extremely important to Absolute Heavenly Extinction, so important that they could give everything they could.

On the one hand, she was also worried about what Gu Changge would do. Even the other six Ancient Ancestors didn’t know anything about the Dao of Reincarnation.

“Now that the materials are all ready, let’s start. Oh, by the way, I wonder if Princess Jianan has prepared what I want?” Gu Changge smiled lightly, then changed his tone when he got to the back and looked at Jianan.

“Of course. “This is what you want, Young Master Changge, and the rest will be given to you after the Reincarnation Platform is cast.” Hearing this, Jianan was not surprised and handed Gu Changge a pitch-black crock pot held by the maid behind her.

She knew that Gu Changge belonged to the kind of character who wouldn’t see the rabbit until he knew the eagle. Although the Absolute Heavenly Extinction was now drying up. The origin of Absolute Heavenly Extinction was extremely precious, but it was still possible to take out part and gain Gu Changge’s trust first.

“Princess Jianan is a quick-witted person.” Gu Changge still said with a faint smile and was not surprised.

He just waved his hand and accepted the pitch-black jar without even looking at it, as if he didn't care how many origins were contained in it.

“He shouldn't dare to play tricks unless he doesn't want to get out of the Absolute Heavenly Extinction.”

In the deepest part of the Absolutely Heavenly Clan's land, six indifferent gazes kept staring at Gu Changge's every move in the square, and their spiritual thoughts surged.

For the next few days, this place was shrouded in a mysterious black and white. A large area of divine fire burned, melting the Life and Death Crystals, and then building them in a certain order.

Laws collapsed, time loomed, and unpredictable forces circulated. In a daze, everyone saw an endlessly flowing Yellow Spring emerging from an unknown latitude, which contained countless innocent souls and bones.

In this Yellow Spring, there was a Daoist platform that floated up and down, surrounded by misty black and white colors, life and death go hand in hand.

“This aura can't be wrong, really can't be wrong.”

“It's really the Reincarnation Platform of the Ancient Heavenly Lord of Reincarnation, it can reflect that place...”

At this moment, even the six Ancient Ancestors, whose state of mind was like the dead sea, couldn't help but focus their eyes, with joy and excitement flashing across them.

At the same time, in a certain mysterious and distant space. A Daoist sitting cross-legged in the dead silence of nothingness, shrouded in a haze of Dao, seemed to have sensed something, and suddenly opened his eyes.

“This fluctuation, who lit up the coordinates? Oh, so it's there... Looks like it's time to harvest.”

His eyes were very clear and bright, but they seemed to be extremely muddy and filled with vicissitudes, sometimes cold and deep, without emotion.

In just a moment, his gaze seemed to penetrate time and years, washing away a certain era. But at the next moment, it seemed that he suddenly sensed something.

The Daoist, who looked like an ancient god, sneered coldly, "You ignorant ants, you have never had the slightest chance of winning this game."

While speaking, ripples appeared in the void in front of him, and then a picture emerged. It was an equally endless, distant, and ancient world, where pieces of the universe collapsed with the laws and order broken.

Shouting to kill and shaking the sky, the fighting spirit soared to the sky. Many powerful men who were tearing through the sky with blood and vitality roared in despair. They were fighting with an unspeakable figure from an unknown latitude. Large pieces of figures fell and collapsed, turning into blood all over the sky.