

Virginity 1681

Chapter 1681 - No backward steps

First the answer?

Angelica blinked, "Don't you want to eat first?"

Manuel replied seriously, "-Unt everything is cleared up, we are not going anywhere.

Angelica sently pursued his lips.

- How far can you evade the answer already? Hasn't enough time passed? Manuel smed. - You've probably already thought about things."

"No." Angelica denied, "I haven't decided."

- What? Manuel's eyebrows rose in surprise. - So far? Does my day presence prevent you from making a decision?

Angelica had no intention of saying anything to Manuel, she had task: make him nervous.

However, Manuel went against his plan, took the initiative, which angered Angelica.

The next second, Manuel took her hand and led her to a deserted, quiet place: -Wait here and think and when you decide let me know.

"Manuel, how do you"

I can't wait any longer. Do you agree or not.

Manuel stared at her with deep eyes, eyes as deep as night: "Just a word, just say yes or no."

It is difficult to put into words what Angelica was experiencing at that moment. Her heart was pounding, she could barely get enough oxygen to stand on her legs.

Inexplicably, Angelica felt her heart beating faster and her lips parted, "You, you are pushing me, I told you clearly that I didn't think it through." " You, you are pushing me. I clearly said I haven't made up my mind.

At the words, Manuel let out a low chuckle. Okay, if that's the case, let me give you five minutes. After five minutes, you will say.

Angelica was confused. Who does that? She was nervous, is she ready to give an answer in five minutes?

All week Manuel languished in anticipation, unable to wait any longer. he resorted to pressure.

The evenings spent together served as proof of Angelica's serious intentions, but she needed public confirmation.

He knew not to worry, everything was clear as day, however, fear took place. Manuel feared his doubts, frivolity and indifference.

If he refuses...

Manuel dared not even think about it.

She kept looking at her watch, there was a pinch sense. It did not stop her from thinking, it left the right to choose exclusively for her.

Of course, Angelica is ready to give her consent without a drop of doubt, but it is difficult for her to say a dear word "yes" for him. After all, she is a young and shy girl who is very modest in the manifestation of her feelings.

Angelica, biting her lower lip, squatted down and did not speak to him.

The time has come.

It's been five minutes, ready to give an answer? Manuel asked.

Angelica slowly raised her head and looked at him.

- So what? Manuel bowed his head and asked the question again.

A warm bright day was replaced by an evening, the sun did not bake more, the bright blue color of the sky darkened considerably. Only a street lamp gave lamination, the beam of which fell on Angelica's face. They are completely alone, these moments were the most intimate for them.

- If they disagree, will you immediately find another girl?

The smile on Manuel's lips faded for a few moments before he said, "It's hard to say. Maybe to heal a mental wound, get married right away.

- No! Angelica screamed at the top of her lungs.

If I refuse you, you will immediately run and get married, you are inhuman!

Manuel squatted beside her and pinched her cheek: -When I found out that you went on a date with someone else, I immediately explained my feelings to you. All these days that we have been together I have been waiting for your answer. How many of us are still inhuman? You don't seem to take me seriously at all. If you don't agree, I won't run off to find a new girl for myself.

After his rebukes, Angelica thought, really, of the two of them, now she is the one tormenting him.

"So what?" Angelica grunted heavily.

"Get what you deserve. You should have thought of that before. Now do you know how it was for me? It is painful and difficult.

- Yes, I understand - Manuel gently ran his thumb over her eyebrows, said sincerely. - What happened is a mistake. I should not have behaved like this, I ask you from the bottom of my heart forgive me, I'm sorry. "

His apology struck Angelica, she did not expect him to bow his head and apologize to her. Such an all-powerful and seemingly overbearing young man suddenly lowered his head in front of her?

- WI you accept my apology?

Angelica, without saying a word, looked at him.

- No? Manuel gently touched her by the tip of her nose. Should my apology also be considered?

- No, it is not necessary. I did not expect to hear your apology, but I can see that you are sincerely repentant. I forgive you.

- Since you have forgiven, then you are no longer angry with me. Let's go back to the original question.

Returning to this embarrassing question for her.

Manuel grabbed her by both cheeks: -It's been more than five minutes, do you agree?

There was sence, for a whe they looked at each other, Angelica blushing with embarrassment:

- How can I refuse you?

At that moment, Manuel's heart seemed to fall into his heels, he looked at her, the girl he had offended countless times, Manuel suddenly picked her up and lifted her into his arms.

"Ah." Angelica screamed, mechanically tightening her arms around her neck: Manuel!

He held her by the thin waist, said, - Since you agree, you can call me not only by my first name.

Manuel's warm hands held Angelica's waist tightly; she was so warm in his arms, he gently asked:

- What else to call you?

- For example, your favorite.

Angelica was speechless.

Favorite? It is too fast, he could not call it immediately beloved.

Manuel:

- What is it? Shameful?

At that moment, Angelica's stomach growled, she was very hungry and felt uncomfortable.

I want to eat, she looked at him embarrassed.

- Let's go to dinner. However, remember that you have accepted and cannot break your promise.

Chapter 1682 - Engaged to be married

So. Do you agree?!!!

Angelica was embarrassed, she had not yet explained or said anything, but everything had already been decided. Without a drop of resistance, she finally gave in to her feelings.

Hearing from Manuel, "You agree and cannot break the promise," the lover's heart clenched gently. In the end, she now got what she desired, immersed in the pool of love and happiness.

However, during dinner, nothing seemed to have changed. They were still sitting somewhat alienated Angelica still doubted, "Is everything that happened a dream?" Maybe just a figment of her imagination?

Because of her speculations, Angelica even lost her appetite.

After dinner, Manuel accompanied her to the school gate and stroked her head, saying, Go.

Angelica looked up, looked at him, approached him, squeezed his hand with all her strength.

At first Manuel was puzzled, then wrinkled his eyebrows in pain.

What is it? Does it hurt? Angelica asked.

- Of course, it hurts. Do we do this as well?

Manuel gently and affectionately pinched her cheek. Angelica's eyebrows furrowed and she let go of his arm.

"Manuel, don't pinch me."

Manuel took her hand again, looking into her with his piercing, touching gaze he said, -I said you can call me something else, not by my name.

Angelica snatched her hand, took a step back, with a disgruntled grimace on her face replied, I wl call you by your name.

- All right, as you wish. I wl see you in two days.

"For what?"

"Let's go on a date."

Date? Angelica blushed, thought to herself, "Let's go on a date like a real couple," but murmured under her breath: - Who wl go on a date with you ...

Then she ran away.

When she returned to the dormitory, Angelica rushed to Genara and Michela.

"Genara and Michela, you could pinch me."

Genara and Michela: they looked at her questioningly.

"What happened?"

"Faster.

So one of them reached out and pinched her arm.

"How come it doesn't hurt?"

Michela's face was expressionless: " Because I don't make any effort."

Michela grabbed her harder and twisted her arm.

"It hurts!" Angelica shouted

- What is wrong with you? Why are you asking to be pinched?"

I'm fine.

To the girls' surprise, Angelica was not offended that Michela hurt her. She sat by the bed, her eyes shining with happiness, Angelica could not hide her joy.

- All these days you and Manuel spend a lot of time together,â€ Genara said.

Did you speak today?

"Are you together?"

- How do you know? - Angelica surprised that the girls easily guessed.

- Everything is written on your face, here you cannot be ignored.

- Really together? Genara asked excitedly. Are you a couple now?

- Angelica, well, you come on. How did it come so easy? What's next?

- What? - So many questions fell on Angelica, she was already confused and did not understand what the girls were asking.

"You came back empty-handed, didn't you?"

"Yes." Angelica looked at her hands, "Is there something wrong with that?"

- So he didn't give you anything?

Do you need to make something as a gift?

Angelica found it difficult to answer, she only knew that their sympathy was mutual, isn't that enough?

Seeing that Angelica really didn't understand, Genara stuck her finger to her forehead: -You really don't understand anything. When a boy seeks a girl's favor, he should give her gifts, for example, flowers, sweets. It is obligatory, you know?

Small gifts in the form of jewelry, cosmetics, without this anywhere.

Otherwise, in the future, he simply will not love you, because he took you easy.

- I think whether he will appreciate me or not has nothing to do with these gifts.

- No connection? - Genara wanted to continue, but Michela interrupted her:

- Not convincing, he has a different view, different from our views.

However, I think Manuel is not one of the poor, he has money. Perhaps he simply does not attach much importance to gifts for him these are trifles.

Genara could only wince, " Probably so. Okay, the main thing is that you are happy.

In one way or another they are his friends, Michela and Genara expressed their joy.

- Yes, in any case, we are sincerely happy for you.

Angelica then smiled sweetly, "Thank you."

That night, Angelica woke up repeatedly during the night, after such an exciting day, the dream was restless. Finally, as she lay down on her bed, she firmly accepted that she and Manuel were together.

Then she covered herself with a blanket and fell asleep with a smile on her face.

The young people spent time together, went on dates, could be officially recognized as a couple.

Manuel bought her everything she wanted, Angelica just had to say. Despite the fact that Manuel did not belong among the romantics, he did not make any surprises, but neither did he violate the expectation in their relationship.

time went unnoticed, Angelica was soon in her final class, final exams were approaching, she prepared diligently, studied hard.

Encounters with Manuel faded into the background. After passing her exams, Angelica entered a prestigious university.

As for her friends, Michela and Genara did not sign up, so their paths parted.

On New Year's Eve, two families gathered for a celebratory dinner. Serena prepared a special gift for Angelica.

Since the young people were in a stable relationship, the parents intended to help arrange the wedding. The date of the wedding had not yet been set, the deciding vote was left to Angelica. No one wanted to put pressure on her, so they decided to have a wedding after she finished her studies, or when she herself was ready. Very warm and friendly relations developed between the families; there was no cause for concern.

However, despite such a long relationship between Angelica and Manuel, they seemed to be frozen on the same plane.

Manuel always showed restraint and self-control in showing love and tenderness. The most he could do was to hug her.

At first, Angelica thought it was normal, only after her friends' comments did she think about it.

Genara and Michela have always behaved very obsessively.

- What? You have been together for so long and you still haven't kissed?

- It can't be. So does he like you or not?

If he likes you, why does he act so introverted?

- Besides, you're going to have a wedding, and he treats you that way. There are only two possibilities, either he's too much of a gentleman or he doesn't love you."

Angelica, after reflection, concluded that he was a gentleman. How could he not love her? If she did not love him, why was he with her?

Chapter 1683 - Nonsense

As Angelica stirred, Lea encircled her with her arms and whispered, " - Before, when I called you daughter-in-law, you were always shy. Now our two families are united into one, you are marrying my older brother. You don't mind if I call you daughter-in-law?

Although it was very embarrassing for Angelica, she did not care.

After all, he and Manuel have been together for a long time. As the festive dinner came to an end, everyone wanted to give time and a chance for the young people to retire, Manuel escorted the guests.

"Where do you want to go for fun?"

Angelica half-closed her lips, "Anywhere."

"Why is it always like this?" Manuel stroked her head and lost his laughter, "Can't you ask for something harder for once?"

Ask for something more difficult? What do you mean by more difficult request?

Angelica, leaning her head to her shoulder, looked sently at Manuel.

"Never mind, do you want to see the fireworks?"

"Yes."

During the New Year celebration, a special place is reserved for fireworks. When Manuel brought Angelica to the appointed place, the fireworks had not yet started.

However, a large number of people have already accumulated on the square. Families, couples in love, friends who came. Especially there were couples in love, such as Manuel and Angelica.

time has not yet arrived, the fountain and fireworks have not been launched, however, looking only at the prepared square, Angelica guessed that the fireworks would be incredible.

All the seats were filled, many were standing, including Manuel and Angelica. Angelica looked at the people, her gaze falling on one of the couples.

The young man, unbuttoning his coat, warmed his girlfriend in his arms. Then in the girl's ear, he became closer and closer, and his lips occasionally touched her neck or cheek.

Angelica looked with envy at such a close and romantic relationship. Everything was different for him and Manuel; they seemed to be strangers to each other.

His thoughts were interrupted by the unexpected touch from Manuel. He approached it, "What are you looking at?"

His voice was low, his handsome face masculine scent captivated Angelica.

Why did he come so close?

"No, I wasn't looking at anything."

I just called you, you didn't answer.

- Angelica blinked, "I was just thinking about when the fireworks would go off.

- In half an hour, the fountain and fireworks will be launched together.

"Understood."

Manuel looked at the couple Angelica was watching: Are you jealous of them?

Angelica blushed, immediately shook her head: No!

" - You have it all written on your face, you still deny."

Manuel took a few steps back, unbuttoned his jacket, asked Angelica, "Are you cold?"

Did he just learn from that young man? Angelica did not expect him to see who he had been watching all along.

The girl was amazed, standing in her place and said, -No, it's not cold. Fasten your jacket.

Usually he never behaved like this; for Angelica it was unusual.

- I'm cold. Manuel said, took two steps forward and hugged gently.

Angelica's breathing stopped. the warmth of his body, embraced her, Angelica inhaled his aroma.

- It is much warmer, - Manuel, laughing , lightly tapped her forehead with his chin.

- Yes?

Angelica's face was burning, all words flew out of her head, she was speechless.

- Why are you so shy? Manuel, with displeasure, asked.

- When you looked at that couple, I thought you wanted it too and you like it.

Angelica immediately objected, -No, I just looked and that was it.

- So you don't like it? You don't want me to do it?

Angelica remained silent.

Not that she didn't like it, Angelica thought Manuel was intentionally teasing her. It's not easy for the two of them to get close, so she still asks such petty questions and giggles .

Angelica pushed him away firmly: Yes, I don't like it, go away!"

She did not expect that when she pushed him away, he would approach her again and, hugging her, say, Don't scream.

Angelica, biting her lip, with tears streaming from her eyes, said, -You intentionally want to offend me with words. Other couples behave as expected, courting each other.

It is you and I have what? You don't love me at all, do you?

"Sly girl, what nonsense are you talking about? Manuel wrapped his arms around both cheeks. - You and I are together, how can I not love you? Why should I tell you that I want to be with you all my life?

Tears dripped from the corners of her eyes, Angelica was no longer able to hold them back. Manuel wiped away their tears, but they did not stop falling.

- But... you and I have been together for so long, you have never even kissed me, Angelica squeezed out these words crying, the people standing next to her turned in their direction.

When Manuel heard her remark, he felt sorry and amused for Angelica:

-Why don't I kiss you, do you think I don't love you?

Angelica had already lost control of herself, she did not care about the people around her, she said, -

Michela and Genara said it. If he really loves you, how is that possible? There is only one reason: he doesn't love you.

The girl was crying, Manuel resolutely took her in his arms, Angelica only had time to wipe away the bitter tears.

Fortunately, she had no makeup on her face.

When in Manuel's arms, Angelica thought she had disgraced him.

On New Year's Day, she burst into tears in front of everyone. However, she did not care anymore, for too long Angelica tolerated and carried resentment.

They moved further and further away from the crowd; there were no people around, just a few large trees.

Before Angelica realized what was happening, she had been carried behind a tree, her back against the trunk, when Manuel's voice followed her.

-These are your friends who talk complete nonsense!

Chapter 1684 - Happy New Year

Nonsense? Unlikely.

Angelica stood with her back pressed against the tree, confusion and dismay gripped her spirit and body.

What is Manuel trying to do?

"Why don't you say anything?"

Seeing frightened Angelica pinned near a tree, Manuel approached.

He could feel her hot breath, clutching in excitement with difficulty saying, "I"

As he approached, Manuel saw the remnants of tears on her face,, leaned over her, touched his lips to her stl wet with tears on her cheek, Angelica abruptly grabbed him by the sleeve.

"Scared?"

Angelica did not know what to answer. Now what she had been waiting for was happening, Manuel was covering her cheek with his kisses. Angelica was excited, she could feel Manuel kissing every place where a tear fell.

"I ... am not afraid."

His sentence, Angelica voluntary accepted. Moreover, she hoped that their relationship would move to the next level.

- This is what you say...

"Yes, yes I say"

He wandered light kisses on her face, finally approaching her lips, Angelica froze....

At this point, flames seemed to burst inside her. Their lips melted together.

At first her kisses were tender, light, then the captivating feeling of love and desire flooded him, Manuel without hesitation with all the passion kissed her lips.

With his kisses, he blocked her breath, she tried to push him away a little, but her attempts were unsuccessful.

Manuel's strength is incomparable, only in those seconds did Angelica realize it.

Manuel always came across as a modest and complacent young man; he did not know the other side of him. Angelica looked like an ant trying to move a tree.

After a while, Manuel stopped, kissing her on the forehead.

"Do you still think, I don't love you?"

Angelica, like a withered little shrimp, clutched in his embrace felt uncomfortable with such a question.

Bang!

Fireworks exploded in the distance, the crowd in the square emitted loud cheers when it was time for the fireworks and fountains, and Angelica quietly looked up from Manuel's arms to look over.

They stood behind a tree, watching the delightful fireworks through the leaves.

Have the fireworks started yet?

Did Manuel say they would launch in half an hour? So their kiss lasted half an hour?

Half an hour. Angelica was embarrassed.

Such a long kiss!

Not surprisingly, he was a little dizzy; he seemed to lack oxygen.

- Are we going to watch the fireworks here or go to the square? Manuel's voice came from above.

- From here you can only see the fireworks, you cannot see the fountain.

Angelica wanted to look at the fountain, but because of shyness, she did not want to go to a crowded place, shaking her head, is said, -Let's not go.

As soon as she made a sound, she realized that her voice had fallen silent and unconsciously reached out to cover her mouth, which in turn revealed that her lips were indeed swollen as well.

The lack of experience and a cute reaction made Manuel smile, "Are you sure you don't want to go? It's only once a year, so if you don't see it this year, you'll have to wait until next year.

Angelica covered her mouth to maintain sence.

"So what?" Manuel touched her forehead and Angelica grunted, "Let's not go!"

- Angry again? Do you blame me for acting this way?

Manuel took her hand, moved closer, kissed her at the corner of her lips. Angelica, putting her hand on his chest, said, -No need, my lips are already swollen.

Good. Then let's see more fireworks and go?

Angelica could only nod as if there was nothing else to do.

Angelica, watching the fireworks, thought about something completely different. Right on the kiss, on his breath she felt next to her. There was complete chaos in her head. Not waiting for the ceremony to end, Angelica said she wanted to go home.

"All right." Manuel replied.

Manuel took Angelica home, without even saying goodbye, opened the door and jumped out of the car.

Manuel watched as he stumbled and ran home, and laughed.

He stood outside her house for a long time, then took out his phone and sent her a message:

Chapter 1685 - A lot of charm

The Ferrari family and the Rossi family soon set their wedding in motion with a grand engagement ceremony where they exchanged engagement rings.

Genara and Michela came in all their glory, their acquaintance and friendship with Angelica positively affected them, they changed for the better, both internally and externally. It is worth noting that Angelica's derision was no longer heard from their lips.

- Today is your engagement, you have to be the most beautiful and the center of attention, we look overdressed. Aren't you angry? Genara asked.

Michela hastened to say, "Why should she be angry? Angelica effortlessly got the most handsome boy in North City. She will not even notice us because there is only one girl in her heart.

With that said, Michela wrapped her arms around Angelica and made her way through the crowd, "Am I right?"

Angelica's cheeks were slightly red and she was a little shy, but she didn't really care how they were both dressed, since they were usually like that anyway, with their flamboyant personalities.

"Anyway, congratulations on your engagement, always let dreams come true.

"Thank you." Said Angelica, blushing.

"By the way, are you no longer in touch with Livia?" Michela asked and Genara immediately stopped her, "Why are you asking these questions?"

Michela froze and then laughed, "It's been so long, why not ask?"

When it comes to Livia, it always remains a sore point for Angelica. However, Angelica responded with a smile : " - It's okay, I forgot everything long ago and I don't hold a grudge, but we don't communicate with her anymore."

- Oh well, besides, life is like that. People come and go. Who knows, maybe our paths after college will diverge, Michela said with a sigh.

- There is nothing wrong with that. If there is a worthy person next to you, there is no need for other people."

True, as long as Manuel is always by his side, that is all that matters.

After the engagement party, Genara and Michela met some friends at the party and went out a few times. The girls said goodbye to bachelor life. They got together less and less, each of them had their own way.

Because of Manuel's work, and Angelica's school, they were not able to spend much time together.

After the engagement, not much happened.

On one of the school days, Angelica met Livia in the community of the newspaper office. Meeting a glance, Angelica thought, Livia would pretend not to see her, but contrary to expectations, Livia came to greet her.

"Do you want to join the organization?"

Hearing Livia's voice, Angelica's mind blurred. Not seeing each other for several years, Livia also initially believed that Angelica would not speak to her.

"Yes," Angelica replied.

"I have already joined the organization, if you suddenly feel uncomfortable, you can find something else.

Angelica was still in a state of shock.

Livia pulled her lips into a smile,

"Now every time I think about it, I realize that I behaved foolishly and childish then. You came to me with all your heart, for my personal goals I took out my anger on you.

Angelica's heart clutched at his words.

- Now I understand everything, my duty is to apologize to you."

- No, it is not necessary, - Angelica shook her head. - You don't owe me anything, then I made a mistake. You and I are two different people, I should not have stepped in and decided for you.

- Two different people? The same fell slightly from Livia's face. - Yes, you are right. You and I are different.

- So I should ask for forgiveness, smiling slightly, Angelica said.

- Aren't you angry because I interrupted your initiation ceremony then?

- Hate is of no use here. If I had been in your shoes, I might have done something worse.

Livia understood, Angelica does not care, she feels no concern. It turns out that all these years only she was hurt, and Angelica had long forgotten everything.

"Livia," Angelica addressed her by name.

I am so happy that you and I were friends.

Despite what happened, I do not regret our friendship. I understand you very well. You are fine now, I won't bother you anymore. You know, I realized that our friendship was predetermined by fate.

Livia said nothing.

"Anyway, I hope you can find someone who shares your interests and have a peaceful future. I will not join this association, I will look for something else.

Having agreed, Angelica calmly left.

Livia was still standing still, looking at Angelica's silhouette going into the distance.

Lowering her hands, she clenched them into a fist. Angelica apologized so quietly, said warm words and wishes, but Livia had nothing to say in response.

That's how many years of friendship are gone. With a look full of sadness and sorrow, he turned and left.

For Angelica, meeting Livia is a small episode in her life. She devoted herself entirely to her studies, not attaching much importance to this unexpected collision.

Angelica had previously regretted the lost friendship, but when she saw Livia in front of her, she realized that there was not a drop of regret in her heart. Since it is not easy for both of them to be close, leaving is the right decision.

When Manuel is not so busy at work, they always spend time together. They have also dedicated vacations and vacations to each other. In two or three years, they have traveled all over Italy. Their future plans included a trip abroad, to look at the landscapes of other countries with at least one eye.

Time proved so fleeting, it was time to graduate from the university. Manuel came specially to the ceremony, waiting for Angelica at the main gate.

When Angelica was heading toward him, on the way she was stopped by one of the junior students, who looked at her with a nervous and very tense expression and narrowly asked:

- Hi, can I have your Facebook page?

Facebook?

Angelica saw Manuel standing nearby and timidly replied:

"I already have a boyfriend."

At those words, the student's face blushed, "What?"

Angelica pointed to Manuel. The student, seeing him, blushed, apologized and left.

After he left, Angelica ran to Manuel.

Manuel."

- It seems that someone has a power an incredible charm.

Chapter 1686 Grand Finale

After he finished laughing at Angelica, Manuel stroked her head.

Someone comes to you all the time and asks for a phone number. Has anyone been able to get their hands on it yet?

Angelica was confused. How could she give someone her number if she was already engaged to Manuel?

Judging by your words, wll you easy give your number to the first person you meet?

- No, I'll talk to you first. If you don't mind, why not, Manuel replied, raising his eyebrow slightly.

- I wll be against it! Angelica protested noisy. - Now you can't tell other girls your phone number. You already have a girlfriend!

- All right, all right, calm down. I promise I won't. Are you happy now? Manuel immediately calmed her down, holding her to him.

Now you are not only forbidden to give away your phone number, but also to chat with other girls. Sure, you can exchange a couple of sentences with them, but no more than that. And stay away from all your fans. Smed Angelica in response.

Hearing this, Manuel spoke up and smed slightly. - When did you become so jealous? You used to be such a naive and simple girl. Why do you worry about other girls now?

- I am now your girlfriend. How can I not pay attention to this as before? Angelica said and chased her lips.

All my friends think you are a great guy. If I don't take care of you, someone wl take you away.

Therefore.

As soon as she finished the sentence, Manuel suddenly leaned over her and wrapped his arms around her.

- Don't you trust me at all? He whispered right in her ear.

From the surprise, Angelica was caught off guard.

- I have given you my heart. If someone steals me from you, then what is left of me?

From these words she blushed slightly and bit her lower lip. She knew that no one could take Manuel away from her anyway, because for so many years he did not even have a girlfriend. Their feelings for each other were strong and sincere, and everything else did not matter.

-That's good. And listen to your friends less. Now let's go home

"Okay. Maybe you can carry me on your back."

-Are you an adult and still want to be carried on your back as a little one?

- Yes, I don't care what people think. Besides, you always did it before. And as soon as we started dating, you immediately stopped.

Her words sounded funny to Manuel, and he stroked her lightly on the head.

- Sometimes I don't understand at all what is going on in this beautiful head. I stopped doing it because now I can just hug you anytime. You complain that I don't carry you on my back anymore. But now all I do is hug you all the time.

Angelica felt uncomfortable because Manuel was right.

- So what? Anyway, I need both, Angelica couldn't stand it.

Saying this, she jumped on Manuel from behind, wrapping her arms around his neck and hanging her legs around him slightly. Only then did a satisfied smile reappear on his face.

- Okay, now I'm going to do all this in turn."

Angelica's parents insisted that the wedding would be held immediately after the graduation party, but Cristian and Serena had a different opinion. They believed that the boys should get married whenever they wanted.

Fiona believed that finding a boy like Manuel would be a great success for her daughter, so she wanted them to get married sooner. She kept asking her daughter for the date of the ceremony, but Angelica did not answer her anything. She explained it by the fact that they were in no hurry, but her mother was still worried.

- Look at what a chance you have! You should never miss this opportunity. How much longer do I have to wait for your wedding?

- We are already engaged. So Manuel is not going anywhere . Why, then, such a rush?

- Why are you so sure that he will not be able to leave you, since you are engaged?

Men are capable of anything. Besides, you have been together for so long. What if his feelings for you change before marriage? What are you going to do then?

- This will never happen, Angelica shook her head. - Manuel is not like that.

"You can't be so sure in that."

"Mother, I may not know anything about the other boys, but I can say for sure that Manuel is different.

All these years, many beautiful girls revolved around him. But he never even looked in their direction.

Fiona could not help but agree.

- That's right. But will you still tell me when you plan to get married? He repeated his question to his daughter.

- I don't know, we haven't discussed it yet.

I have just finished my studies and so far I am not eager to start a family life. I just want to enjoy my freedom a little more. And then we'll see.

"Does Manuel know what you want?"

"Yes."

Remembering this, Angelica was slightly embarrassed. On graduation day, Manuel was carrying her on his back when he asked her about her plans for the future.

Recognizing her thoughts, he fully supported her.

-Are you saying he has already asked you about marriage? How nice. So, he himself is waiting for this event.

So another year has passed and the wedding has not yet taken place.

Angelica's attitude remained the same, and she still avoided talking about it.

Year after year, Manuel became older, so his parents became concerned about this, and themselves began to rush him into marriage.

Trying to find out from Angelica's mother what the issue was, but she herself did not understand anything.

Another six months passed. Manuel and Angelica never announced their marriage, which is why their parents began to really worry.

Suddenly, however, Angelica became pregnant.

The parents found out by accident. They took part in a banquet together. At dinner, Angelica vomited several times and her condition worsened, so she was taken to the hospital.

The parents, along with Manuel, were waiting in the emergency room. At first, everyone thought Angelica had been poisoned by something. None of them expected the doctor to suddenly report her pregnancy.

After this news, their parents immediately began to engage in accelerated preparation for marriage.

Angelica was angry and blamed everything on Manuel.

- It's your fault. Why didn't you take precautions? I'm not ready for marriage yet, Angelica attacked him with her fists and continued until Manuel shook her hand.

- Stop cursing and hitting me. Maybe it's time to calm down?

- Calm down! Now everyone knows that I got pregnant before the wedding! What a shame, Angelica burned with shame.

When the doctor announced to everyone the cause of her nausea, she was so embarrassed that she was ready to fall to the ground.

- And what is the problem? Manuel hugged her.

- After all, we have been engaged for a long time. Is pregnancy such an unusual phenomenon in our case?

It would be strange if it didn't happen.

- What are you talking about?

- If you couldn't get pregnant for a long time, then everyone would start thinking, something is wrong with us. And now everything has gone in such a way that you can't think of a better one. So calm down.

- But. - Angelica's lips trembled.

- After all, I am still small.

Manuel sighed, "Yes, you are young, but I am not."

"You are right."

Manuel was five or six years older than Angelica. He was already at the age when it was time to have children.

All right. Then we will prepare for the wedding?

Parents will do everything for us.

- I'm a little worried

- Don't worry, they are there.

- Will it hurt to give birth?

- Don't be afraid, I will be with you when it happens.

If it is very difficult, then I will not give birth to a second child, okay?

- Okay, one is enough for us.

- And if we have a daughter, then won't our parents ask for a grandchild from us?

- No, it's up to us.

"Excellent, so let's get married."
