

Continuation of The Warrior's Abused Mate to In Love With My Best Friend

Blurb:

After a bad ordeal in the woods, Astrea wakes up in the centre of a ritual circle. She keeps it as a secret from everyone. Days pass and she slowly gets over it. Soon, she gets to meet her childhood best friend.

They both yearn for each other. However, they can't be together. Partly because wolves found their mates and they didn't want to ruin a sacred bond. And partly because they didn't want to ruin their friendship.

What would happen when Astrea doesn't find her mate on the day she turns eighteen? Will they start dating each other or will Leo date someone else? And what if her wolf feels the connection to the most wanted criminal during the worst possible time? Does it have anything to do with Astrea's little secret?
