

W. Master 101

Chapter 101

Tang Si? Traitor? Could it be him?

Tang Huan suddenly remembered a rumor he heard ten years ago.

At that time, among the young generation of Tang Family, Tang Long's innate talent could be ranked first, but the one ranked second was a Disciples from a side branch of Tang Family. That person's father was a small military officer of the Great Tang Empire. When he was young, he died fighting the Demon Clan in battle.

From then on, the man and his mother lived each other's lives.

But ten years ago, that man suddenly killed one of Tang Tianshi's sons and escaped.

At that time, the Furious Waves City was a city full of troubles and rumors were rampant in the outside world. It was said that the reason he did such a thing was because his mother hanged herself, unable to bear Tang Tianshi's insults.

If Tang Huan remembered correctly, that person's name was Tang Si.

And Tang Long's words, seemed to prove that Tang Si was the same as him. Tang Huan originally thought that he had already been killed by the Tang Family, but he didn't expect that he was still alive and well.

"If I were a coward, I wouldn't have killed that little bastard Tang Gao back then. I would only have hated him and failed to kill that old bastard Tang Tianshi." Tang Si laughed mischievously. "Tang Long, it's been a few years since we last met, you have not made any progress at all. You even stole a little girl's item, I feel embarrassed for you!"

"What? You want to stand up for them?"

Tang Long had already recovered from his shock, his fair and handsome face immediately revealed a mocking and mocking smile, "Tang Si, with just you alone, I'm afraid you don't have the ability. If you really dare to stand up for the family, I don't mind eliminating your rebellious nature right now."

"What if you add me?"

Seemingly at the same time Tang Long finished speaking, a loud shout similar to that of Hong Zhong's suddenly rang out. Every note seemed to contain an intense rage, rumbling through the forest like a thunderclap, causing one's ears to ring.

Tang Huan looked over to the source of the voice and saw a tall and sturdy figure.

It was a red-clothed man who was over two meters tall. His body was extremely sturdy, as he strode forward like he was flying, and he was actually like a beast in human form that had just escaped from a cage. Every time his feet landed, the ground would violently shake.

When he first saw the man in red, he was still more than ten meters away. However, in the blink of an eye, they were only ten meters away from each other.

"Such a fast speed!"

Tang Huan was slightly startled. The red clothed man's face had distinct features, as if he had been sculpted with a knife or axe. In his hands, was a heavy sword that was more than one and a half meters long, and the sword was at least a foot wide.

"Gu Ying!" The moment he saw the red-clothed man, the color of Tang Long's face changed once again. The instant the name was spat out, a hint of seriousness appeared on his forehead.

"Brother!"

Behind Tang Huan, Gu Fei screamed emotionally and ran towards the red-clothed man like a whirlwind. A moment later, like a swallow throwing herself into his arms, she threw herself into the red-clothed man's arms and hugged her muscular body. Her tears couldn't help but fall down with a "pa da" sound.

Brother? Tang Huan immediately realised that the person was actually Gu Family of the Furious Waves City.

"Gu Ying?"

Then, Tang Huan realised that he seemed to have heard of this name before.

Therefore, Tang Huan searched through the memories of the youths in the depths of his mind, and quickly recalled some things related to Gu Ying. This Gu Ying was Gu Fei's cousin, the number one expert amongst the young Disciples.

Tang Family's Tang Long, Gu Family's Gu Ying, and the Lu family's Lu Lushui were also known as Furious Waves City's three great young geniuses.

Tang Long and Gu Ying were both here, but where was Lu Lushui?

"Little girl, everything is fine."

Just as Tang Huan was thinking about this, Gu Ying patted on Gu Fei's head gently and consoled him. He then looked towards Tang Long who was not far away, and the anger in his eyes seemed to have turned into a burning rage, "Tang Long, you, a peak of the fifth step Martial Master, actually dared to bully a Stage Four Martial Master? The face of the Furious Waves City is about to be completely thrown away by you. It just so happens that you are the Stage Five Martial Master and I am also the Stage Five Martial Master. Why don't you and I have a good fight in this match?"

"Gu Ying, I have no interest in pestering you here right now."

Tang Long retracted the long rod in his hand, and lightly touched it to his shoulder, "There are still five days before Star Ocean Commerce's' Phoenix Spirit Martial Meeting '. Head of the Martial Competition, I am determined to win, Gu Ying, you must not lose midway, that way, I will be very disappointed. "

"Alright, as you wish. We will fight in Martial Competition!" Gu Ying took a deep breath with a dark face, and laughed coldly, "We will definitely meet there."

"That's good."

Tang Long snickered, his gaze sweeping past Gu Ying's body, and landed on Tang Si's body, "Tang Si, I'll let you go today, but I suggest that you find a good place to hide. Otherwise, if I don't kill you, there will be other experts from the Tang Family who will kill you too."

"Are there any experts in Tang Family?" Hearing that, Tang Si shrugged and laughed out loud.

"Brother Tang Si, you are wrong."

Tang Huan suddenly cut in and said seriously: "There are still two experts in the Tang Family, eh, I am talking about those who only know how to eat. For example, Tang Tianren, who managed to climb up the Luo Shen City's Mei family's wife, and Tang Tianshi, who climbed up the Luo Shen City's old woman."

At first, Tang Si was startled, but after hearing Tang Huan's words, he started laughing out loud, "Right, right, you are too right. These two experts are not only the experts of the Tang Family, even in the entire Glory Continent and the entire Origin Continent, they are also great experts."

"Ye Ze! You are courting death! "

Tang Long's face was ashen, two pairs of eyes landed on Tang Huan's body, their eyes instantly turned extremely cold, and their killing intent uncontrollably shot out from the depths of her eyes.

Before he finished speaking, Tang Long had already leaped forward, the rod on his shoulder fiercely jumped up like a spring, bringing with it a brilliant blue light that smashed straight towards Tang Huan's head, like a huge wave that had flipped high up in the sky, and then smashed down ferociously with the force of a thunderbolt.

The power of this staff strike was vast and majestic. When the staff drew an arc in the air like lightning and began to sink, it seemed as if a hurricane had rolled towards both sides.

In a split-second, the surrounding vegetation began to sway violently.

"Brother!"

Sensing Tang Long's fearsome attack, Gu Fei immediately held back his tears.

The moment the voice came, Gu Fei felt her vision blurred, Gu Ying's burly figure suddenly disappeared, following that, she heard a loud "Dang" sound that seemed to be able to pierce through her eardrums, she immediately looked over, and saw that Gu Ying was already standing in front of Tang Huan.

Chapter 102

The neon light shattered, the long rod and the heavy sword split apart almost instantly, but at the instant the two clashed, an unusually ferocious Strength Qi swept out in all directions, causing dust and sand to fly everywhere within a radius of two metres.

Gu Ying and Tang Long were evenly matched, as though they had both taken a step forward.

And Tang Huan, who was standing behind Gu Ying, couldn't help but sway slightly under the pressure of the two people's surging Strength Qi.

Tang Huan stabilized his body, but he was secretly shocked.

That day at the guest shop in Phoenix City, he had told Lei Ming and Du Xi that his chances of obtaining the head of the Martial Competition was extremely slim, but at the bottom of his heart, there was inevitably some hope.

When he was in the Furious Waves City, Tang Huan had only exchanged blows with the two Stage Five Martial Master twice. When he met with the surprise attack on the way to Phoenix City, he felt that the Stage Five Martial Master was only that kind of situation.

But now, after looking at Gu Ying and Tang Long's actions, Tang Huan finally understood that he had still underestimated the Stage Five Martial Master.

He had a feeling that he probably wouldn't be a match for either of these two.

If he had really started fighting with Tang Long earlier, at the end, he could only have carried Gu Fei and escaped. He was quite confident in his own speed, and the existence of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" could allow him to quickly replenish the Genuine Qi, so Tang Long believed that it was impossible for him to do this. In a situation where his speed was relatively low, Tang Huan could completely use time to deplete Tang Long's Genuine Qi, and then escape together with Gu Fei. "Love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love!"

At this time, one could choose to escape, but at the "Phoenix Spirit Martial Meeting", he would not ...

Many genius Martial Warriors of the young generation gathered within Feng Ming Mountain. There were probably quite a few young experts like Gu Ying and Tang Long. If he couldn't make a breakthrough in the next few days, not to mention the champion, he might not even make it into the top hundred.

Instantly, a sense of urgency arose in the bottom of Tang Huan's heart.

"Tang Long, you want to fight with me right now?" With a sullen face, Gu Ying slightly raised the heavy sword in his hand. The sword's location was shrouded in a red glow, and the burning heat was continuously being emitted. From afar, the wide sword's body seemed to be covered in a thin layer of flickering flames.

"Ye Ze, Gu Ying can protect you for a while, but he can't protect you for the rest of your life."

Tang Long did not respond to Gu Ying's question. Instead, he only glanced at Tang Huan who was behind Gu Ying, his lips curling into a mocking smile, "Your life, will sooner or later be mine. Perhaps in a few days, we will meet again."

The blue light on the longstaff in Tang Long's hand faded as it once again returned to his shoulder.

As soon as he finished speaking, he turned around and left. However, the moment he turned his head, he swept a glance at Tang Huan, as if he was looking at a dead man.

"Whoosh!"

Tang Long's speed was extremely fast, in a few jumps, his figure had already disappeared from everyone's line of sight.

With a clear clang, Gu Ying snorted. The heavy sword in his hand returned into the sword sheath, then turned around and said with a frown: "Brother Ye Ze, you were a bit reckless just now. This Tang Long will definitely take revenge.

"What are you afraid of?"

"Brother Ye Ze, what you said just now was really f * cking correct. As long as I don't die, once I possess enough strength in the future, I will definitely uproot and uproot the Furious Waves City."

As he finished speaking, Tang Si gnashed his teeth.

Hearing Tang Si's words, Gu Ying couldn't help but shake his head and smile bitterly. His friend's actions were really too extreme, but this couldn't be blamed on him.

"You scolded yourself. Your surname is also Tang."

Gu Fei also skipped over, at this time, she had already dried her tears, although her eyes were still red and swollen, but her expression was much more relaxed, "Also, what you said is not right, the Tang Huan inside Furious Waves City is not bad."

After he finished speaking, Gu Fei couldn't help but look at Tang Huan with a hidden look, with some curiosity and worry in his eyes.

"Tang Huan, I've heard of that kid before. He's not bad indeed, but he isn't related to that Tang Family at all." Tang Si nodded and smiled.

"Who said it? He's not Tang Tianren's"

Gu Fei could not help but retort. Halfway through her words, her voice suddenly stopped, forcefully swallowing the three words "illegitimate child".

"Girl, are you trying to say that he's the illegitimate child of that weak old dog Tang Tianren?"

The entire Furious Waves City thought that he was Tang Tianren's illegitimate child, but I actually knew that he had absolutely nothing to do with Tang Tianren. His mother was already pregnant when she first entered the Tang Family. "

"What?"

Hearing Tang Si's words, not only were Gu Ying and Gu Ying stunned, Tang Huan could not help but cry out. Although he did not return to the Tang Family, nor did he have any plans to recognize Tang Tianren as his father, he had always felt that his body was related to Tang Tianren by blood.

But from the looks of it, this was not the case?

"Big Brother Tang Si, how did you know?"

Gu Fei found it hard to suppress the astonishment in his heart and he could not help but ask. Tang Huan also looked at Tang Si with blazing eyes, which was what he wanted to ask.

"I overheard it by accident. I will explain the details to you when I have time in the future. Now I have to follow and see if there's a chance. If Tang Long died at Feng Ming Mountain, the Tang Family would probably be extremely lively. " Tang Si chuckled, he extended his tongue and licked the corner of his lips, a look of desire flashing through his eyes, he looked like a hungry wolf that had smelled fresh meat.

"Hey, hey, if you have the chance, don't do it. He's my opponent in the 'Phoenix Spirit Martial Meeting'." Gu Ying could not help but shout.

"None of my business."

Tang Si threw down these words, and just like a ghost, he quickly blended into the shadows in the forest, and in the next moment, he disappeared without a trace.

"You bastard, are you still my friend?!"

Gu Ying was so angry that he rushed towards the direction that Tang Si disappeared to. He cursed loudly, but there was nothing he could do.

Tang Huan's words from before made his heart itch, and he wanted nothing more than to drag Tang Si back to him, extend his hand, and take out all of the words he had hidden in his stomach. However, Tang Si left way too fast, when he came back to his senses, Tang Si was already gone.

However, Tang Huan had already seen through it. Even if Tang Si was not able to defeat Gu Ying in a head-on confrontation, his strength was definitely not inferior to them.

What Tang Si was well-versed in, should be the way of stealth and assassination!

Chapter 103

"Although this guy has an extreme personality, he does have a meticulous way of doing things." Brother Ye Ze, with this guy following Tang Long, you don't have to worry about him doing anything to you in the next few days. "

Gu Ying retracted his gaze and laughed, "Martial Competition is done, you can leave Feng Ming Mountain with us and return to Furious Waves City. On the way there, you don't have to worry about your safety, but after we return to Furious Waves City, you have to be extremely careful, it's best if Tang Long doesn't discover your whereabouts."

"Then I'll thank Brother Gu first." Tang Huan cupped his hands and smiled.

"I should be the one thanking you. If you hadn't helped delay things for a while, this girl would have truly been in danger." Gu Ying laughed and patted Tang Huan's shoulder, and said gratefully, but then he looked at Gu Fei in confusion, "Little sister, why is Tang Long making a move on you?"

"Just because of this."

Gu Fei waved the small package in his hands, and immediately opened it with a wide smile, revealing a fiery red object that was a few feet long. Upon closer inspection, it looked like a feather that had fallen off from the wing of a bird, not only did the feather have a layer of bright and beautiful luster curling around it, within the feather, it also seemed to contain an extremely strong heat, but this heat had congealed and remained, like a dormant volcano.

Suspicion flashed across Gu Ying's eyes, but after a moment, he involuntarily cried out: "This is ... Feng Yu? "

Feng Yu? A phoenix feather? "

Tang Huan was slightly taken aback.

Gu Fei repeatedly nodded his head, as he said joyfully: "Even if it's 'Phoenix Feather', I only found it by chance. I originally wanted to wait for you at the foot of the mountain, but somehow, Tang Long found out, and chased me here. Luckily that Tang Long tried to force me to a rather remote place before making a move.

"It's too dangerous."

Gu Ying couldn't help but say with a sigh, "But little girl, your luck is quite good. Tang Si and I went around there for a few days, but were unable to find anything. The phoenix, with the help of the Nirvana Sacred Fire, is constantly transforming, and its feathers contain the crystal particles of the Nirvana Sacred Fire. If it were to fall into Weapon Refiner's hands and absorb and refine it, the True Fire would definitely increase by countless times. "

"Brother Gu, Miss Fei, may I ask, where did you find this phoenix feather?" Tang Huan couldn't help but ask.

"Brother Ye Ze, you also want to find Feng Yu?"

Gu Ying couldn't help but laugh when he heard this, "The place where we found the phoenix feather was extremely close to here, at the peak of Blood Flame Mountain next to Phoenix Spirit Valley. But that place is too hot, Brother Ye Ze, the battle skill that you are training in is probably a fire attribute battle skill, even so, you may not be able to handle it, if Brother Ye Ze wants to go, you can try your luck at the foot of the mountain, it is not suitable for you to enter the mountain. "

"Thank you, Brother Gu, for your information."

Tang Huan said happily.

Since even Gu Fei could go to that Bloody Flame Mountain, then there probably wouldn't be too much danger.

If he could find a phoenix feather, that would be great. What he valued was not Feng Yu's increase in the True Fire, but rather the crystal of the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" contained within it. After absorbing and refining it, it would become easier to fuse with one of the five great Spiritual Fire s, the "Nirvana Sacred Fire".

"Ye Ze, it's too dangerous if you go over there by yourself. What if you meet Tang Long ..." Gu Fei could not help but ask.

"Isn't Brother Tang Si following behind Tang Long, it's fine even if we run into him, what's more, if you're so timid, then you've lost your original intention to train in this Feng Ming Mountain."

Tang Huan smiled casually.

"Brother Ye Ze, your words are really too ..." However, Gu Ying laughed with approval.

"Brother!"

Gu Fei coquettishly snorted as she glared at Gu Ying fiercely.

Seeing that, the burly guy immediately shut his mouth, laughed awkwardly, then said: "Err, it's really too wrong. Brother Ye Ze, in my opinion, why don't you train with us, we can take care of each other."

Tang Huan secretly laughed, and said: "Many thanks for Brother Gu's good intentions, but I'm already too used to being alone. In a few days, we will definitely meet again at Phoenix Spirit Valley."

"Brother Gu, Miss Fei, I'll be taking my leave."

Tang Huan cupped his hands and just as he was about to turn around and leave, Gu Fei ran to Tang Huan with a straight face, and said angrily, "Since you don't want to come with us, then take this'

Phoenix Feather 'with you. I don't want to owe you a favor." With that, he directly threw the bundle into Tang Huan's embrace, and turned to leave.

Seeing her sudden action, not only was Gu Ying stunned, he was also stunned. Such precious phoenix feathers had nearly caused her to lose her life. But now, she was giving it away just like that?

"Brother, hurry up, we're leaving!" Ten metres away, Gu Fei waved her hand and called out, waking the two of them up.

"Brother Ye Ze, quickly take care of it."

Gu Ying's throat rolled twice as he reluctantly looked at the phoenix feather in Tang Huan's embrace. After repeatedly admonishing her, he finally went to chase after Gu Fei, seemingly muttering some words in response, "Truly a little prodigal girl, even if we have to thank Brother Ye Ze, we can still give him something else. Why would we give this phoenix feather? The Ye Ze brothers were not Weapon Refiners, so this thing was useless to them. If you keep it and absorb and refine the sacred fire crystal inside, the True Fire will probably rise to the point of being extremely close to a high level Weapon Refiner. "

"Miss Gu Fei..."

Tang Huan called out to her consecutively a few times, but Gu Fei didn't even turn his head back. In a moment, she and Gu Ying had already disappeared from Tang Huan's sight.

Tang Huan stood there in a daze for a long time before he wrapped the phoenix feather tightly and stuffed it back into his chest.

Just by hearing what Gu Ying had said just now, one could tell just how precious this Phoenix feather was. The phoenix feather was just a bit warm, but holding it felt like it was burning his hands.

This thing was too valuable.

If they met in the "Phoenix Spirit Martial Meeting" in a few days, it would be better to return Feng Yu to her.

Tang Huan had already made up his mind. He recalled the map of Feng Ming Mountain and after determining the direction, he also began to run among the trees.

About a quarter of an hour later, a clamor of noise entered his ears.

After following the sound for a few hundred meters, the scene suddenly became clear and bright. What entered their eyes was a sea of black figures. After the crowd passed through, the cliff face became even more imposing. At the bottom of the cliff, there was a triangular-shaped entrance passage. As one's line of sight passed through the passage, they could see a vast and bare space.

At the entrance, there were more than ten figures, most likely Star Ocean Commerce experts, and a long line of people were already lined up in front of the cliff, as if they were registering.

Tang Huan estimated that there were at least a thousand Martial Warriors that came here.

"Fortunately, I didn't go inside."

Tang Huan heaved a sigh of relief.

Behind that cliff was the Phoenix Spirit Valley, and there was an extremely high probability that the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" was within that valley. All the gathered Martial Warriors stayed outside of the Phoenix Spirit Valley, so it was much less likely that they would scare him away. It was a pity that it was very difficult to enter the Phoenix Spirit Valley at the moment.

He could only go to the peak to take a look!

Tang Huan looked to the east in the blink of an eye. A red mountain peak was faintly discernable at the end of his vision ...

It was a pity that it was very difficult to enter the Phoenix Spirit Valley at the moment.

Tang Huan looked to the east in the blink of an eye. A red mountain peak was faintly discernable at the end of his vision ...

[illegible]

Inside the mountain, not only was it steaming, it was also blood-red in color. It was as if the entire mountain had been dyed red with blood.

It was as if all the heat had been sucked into the range of the peak, and only by stepping onto the peak could one feel the heat.

For the time being, the temperature of the area at the foot of the mountain could not be considered a threat to the Weapon Refiner.

Tang Huan's footsteps were light as he continued to climb.

In just a short hundred meters, Tang Huan had encountered three sets of Martial Warriors s dripping with sweat. In such an environment, for Gu Fei to still be able to find a Phoenix feather, his luck was heaven defying.

Since there was one phoenix feather, there had to be two or three.

According to legend, this Feng Ming Mountain was the resting place of the Ancient Spiritual Beast Phoenix. The feathers that fell from its body were immortal and would not disappear even if they were buried in the ground for thousands or tens of thousands of years.

It was a pity that the Spiritual Beast Phoenix had long disappeared from this world, and no one knew where it had gone to.

As for the "Flamewing Phoenix King", it was actually not a real Phoenix. According to what Shan Shan had revealed, she was initially just a statue by the door of Feng Ming's Phoenix-Nest. In the end, that Demon Lord Fen Tian somehow resurrected her and from then on, she was one of the eight great Demon King.

"Little brother, please wait!"

A loud shout came out, startling Tang Huan out of his deep thoughts.

Looking towards the source of the voice, Tang Huan saw that three figures had appeared within his line of sight. One of them was in his thirties, dressed in green, with a short stature and a rather simple and honest face, while the other two looked to be in their twenties. One of them had a scar on his face, which looked like it had just been added, and the other looked rather weak.

"What can I do for you three?" Tang Huan swept his gaze across the three of them and smiled.

"Is little brother Stage Five Martial Master?" The light robed man looked at Tang Huan with shining eyes and asked instead of answering.

"No, I am just a Stage Four Martial Master."

"Level 4" Stage Four Martial Master was almost done.

The light robed man was a little hesitant at first, but then he asked, "Is little brother Weapon Refiner?"

While speaking, his gaze landed on the Fire Red Long Spear behind Tang Huan, the other two also looked at Tang Huan with anticipation. "Love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love!"

"That's right, I am a low level Weapon Refiner."

Tang Huan laughed, he had already noticed the gaze of the azure-dressed man.

After separating with Gu Ying and Gu Fei, he no longer wrapped himself with the Crimson Flame Spear. The spear constantly emitted a distinct warmth, and indeed, it was easy to associate it with the Weapon Refiner.

Of course, not all of those who carried such weapons with them were Weapon Refiner. There was also the possibility that they were Martial Warriors who had cultivated fire-type battle skills.

"Great."

When the three of them heard this, their faces lit up with joy.

Immediately after, the green clothed man looked around quickly and smiled mysteriously: "Little brother, I am Hong Qiang. These two are my friends Yuan Xiang and Wu Hui, we have found a very secretive tunnel at the end of Blood Flame Mountain. At the end of the tunnel, there are extremely valuable treasures, but it's too hot inside, so the three of us can't get near it.

"Little brother, after obtaining the treasures, the two of us ... How about 50% each? " After he finished speaking, the man dressed in green, named Hong Li, had a pained expression on his face.

"Oh? What treasure is this? " Tang Huan's eyes flashed, filled with interest.

"This..." Hong Qiang hesitated for a moment before clenching his teeth, as if he had made a great decision, "Two phoenix feathers and four phoenix stones!"

"What?" Tang Huan was shocked.

"Shh!" "Shh!" Hong Qiang made a small gesture, "Are you interested in this little brother?" Although it is only a middle-ranked gem, the weapons it forges are definitely the most suitable for Weapon Refiner to use out of all the weapons. Every single one of them is priceless, and the phoenix feather is even more precious than the phoenix stone.

"Of course I'm interested. Where is the passageway? Let's go."

Tang Huan also lowered his voice, but he was still unable to conceal the excitement in his eyes at all.

"Alright, alright, we'll go right away. What's your name, little brother?"

"You can just call me Ye Ze. Brother Hong, are you Stage Four Martial Master or Stage Five Martial Master?"

"The three of us are just like you, we are all just Stage Four Martial Master!"

"..."

With Hong Li leading the way ahead, Yuan Xiang and Wu Hui following behind, Tang Huan walking in the middle, the four of them moving forward in the mountain with huge rocks covering the ground.

Looking at Hong Li's figure, the excitement on Tang Huan's face gradually faded, but what replaced it was a smile that was not a smile.

Along the way, he was very careful and no one said a word.

Unknowingly, the four of them had already traveled two to three hundred meters within the peak. The heat gradually rose, and it was now almost twice as high as at the foot of the mountain.

Hong Qiang, Yuan Xiang and Wu Hui were already sweating profusely, while Tang Huan's condition was much better. Only, fine beads of sweat had started to seep out from his forehead.

"As expected of a Weapon Refiner who has fused with the True Fire, she is even more resistant to heat than us ordinary Martial Warriors." In front of a pile of strange, blood-red boulders, Hong Li stopped in his tracks, turned his head to look at Tang Huan, and said with some envy.

"I'm about to reach my limit too."

Tang Huan laughed, his eyes quickly sweeping around as he said, "Brother Hong, are we there?" This area that was filled with strange rocks had a circumference of several hundred meters. Between the rocks, there were indeed countless holes of varying sizes. However, it was unknown which passage they were talking about.

"We're here, this is the place."

Hong Qiang was the first to enter the two-meter-tall cave. After entering for just a few meters, he stopped again and pulled out a huge stone slab from the wall that was also made of many stones. A bright red hole immediately appeared, and an even more intense heat surged out of the cave.

"Brother Ye Ze, please look!"

Hong Jin indicated towards Tang Huan.

Tang Huan could not resist the heat wave and arrived at the cave entrance. Looking inside, it was indeed a circular, arched shaped, blood-red tunnel. The surroundings were all stone, as if the tunnel was dug out from inside an enormous boulder.

"Brother Hong, that Phoenix Feather and Phoenix Stone are ..."

Tang Huan turned his head to ask subconsciously. Before he could finish speaking, his line of sight was filled with two rays of pitch black light and a bright golden light, which were actually two long rods and a heavy blade carrying a powerful Strength Qi that was about to cut down on him. Behind the blade-like figure, three sinister faces could faintly be seen.

Chapter 105

"You all..."

Tang Huan's face changed in shock. He simply didn't have time to retaliate, and just as he was about to pull out the Crimson Flame Spear s from his back, the three weapons had already whizzed down.

Caught off guard, Tang Huan could only block horizontally.

"Bam!"

Amidst the deafening sound of the collision, the extremely violent Strength Qi surged out of the cave entrance, as though it was stirring up a strong wind, and Tang Huan did not even have the time to snort before his body was flung out more than ten metres like a piece of leather, smashing into the blood red tunnel. Then, his head tilted, and no longer moved.

"He died so quickly?"

The thin and weak looking Wu Hui was stunned for a moment before he asked in surprise.

"Needless to say, he is definitely dead. Even the top experts of Stage Five Martial Master like Tang Long, Gu Ying and Gao Ling would not necessarily be able to withstand a single all-out attack from our three Stage Five Martial Master s, let alone a mere Stage Four Martial Master. "

"His internal organs are definitely all broken!"

Yuan Xiang laughed. The scar on his face was actually twisting like an earthworm, looking extremely sinister and terrifying, "The box on this guy's back is at least several dozens of pounds, it's definitely filled with all kinds of gems! He carried such a big box on his back at Feng Ming Mountain, but he was still able to live till now unscathed. It is simply a miracle, looks like his luck was pretty good before, it's a pity that he meets us now. "

"Come on, let's hurry over and see what's in his box. If it's really a gem, then we'll share it with him after we leave it in the cave for a few days." "Go to my room and tell me. AiqUxs.Com."

Hong Li chuckled and walked forward, "He is not just carrying that big box. As you can see, the cloth bag on his chest is very valuable ..."

Just as he said that, Hong Qiang's voice suddenly stopped, his eyes staring straight at the small ball of blue flesh that was exposed on Tang Huan's chest.

"Spiritual Beast! Spiritual Beast Blue Dragon! "

Wu Hui was stunned, then he suddenly thought of something, his eyes suddenly widened and he couldn't help but cry out, even his voice started to tremble, "The Golden Horn has a blue body with a pair of wings on its back, Hong Jing, Yuan Hui, quickly look, is that the Blue Dragon that is ranked second in Spirit Beasts Board ..."

As he spoke, Wu Hui was already rushing forward. His thin face was filled with unconcealable excitement. However, he had only taken two steps when he couldn't help but grunt. His body suddenly stopped in place as he looked down in disbelief at the sharp spike that had pierced his chest.

"Yuan..." "Yuan Xiang..."

Wu Hui turned his head with difficulty.

At this moment, Yuan Xiang let out a cold snort. With a swing of his long rod, the spike that had emerged from the tip of the long rod had already left Wu Hui's body. As blood spurted out from his mouth, Wu Hui's voice suddenly stopped. His body fell to the ground and remained motionless.

Almost at the same time, Yuan Xiang didn't even turn his head. The staff in his hand swept out behind him without the slightest hesitation. However, he still swept away everything with his staff.

Yuan Xiang seemed to have thought of something, and his expression changed drastically as his body bounced up.

"AA AAA!"

While he was in the air, Yuan Xiang let out a mournful scream. Even though he leaped up, his two calves were left permanently on the ground with blood spurting out from the cross section.

Behind Yuan Xiang, a ball of energy was curling up with a long saber in its hand as it leapt up.

"Hu!"

At the same time as the intense whistling sound cut through the air, the heavy saber in Hong Qing's palm turned into a dazzling golden light and slashed towards Yuan Xiang's neck like a waterfall.

This slash was as fast as lightning and abnormally violent, unstoppable.

Before Yuan Xiang's miserable scream could fall, the dazzling golden blade had already cut diagonally into the right side of his neck, and then quickly dragged out from his left rib. His body, which had just lost two calves, was once again cut into two by Hong Qiang's slash, causing blood to gush out wildly.

"Hong Qiang, you are so vicious ..."

Yuan Xiang didn't die immediately, instead, he screamed out in despair.

Unfortunately, before his upper body could fall to the ground, the incomparably sharp golden blade radiance once again rushed over and directly landed on his head.

Wherever the blade passed, the head split in two and fell to the ground, splashing red and white.

"I'm vicious, how can you be more merciful than me?"

Hong Li curled his mouth. A vicious expression that did not match the simple and honest face surfaced on his face.

However, when his gaze landed on the little blue ball of meat on Tang Huan's chest, his eyes flashed with an unconcealable greed, and he could not help but burst out in wild laughter, "Haha, what a group of idiots. Spiritual Beast, gemstones, they are all mine now!"

With a few steps, the torrent of energy reached Tang Huan, and grabbed at the small ball of blue figure.

Just as the hand claws were about to touch Blue Dragon, Hong Qiang suddenly roared out in pain like a wounded beast, and his body bounced up like a rubber ball after receiving such a heavy blow. After smashing into the ceiling of the cave, he fell back to the ground, the long blade in his hand escaping his grasp and landing a few meters away.

Almost at the same time, Tang Huan flipped his body and sat up, laughing as he retracted his palms.

"You, you ... "You're not dead?"

His eyes were shocked as he stared at the smiling black clothed young man not far away. Beads of sweat dripped down from his forehead, while a hole had already appeared on the clothes on his abdomen, and his lower abdomen was charred black.

"If I were to die so easily, would I still be able to bring Blue Dragon Spiritual Beast and so many gems to the Bloody Flame Mountain?"

Tang Huan squinted his eyes and laughed, then stood up.

With a hum, the Crimson Flame Spear pierced forward, the sharp tip of the spear pressing onto Hong Qiang's throat, Tang Huan teased, "I am not dead, but you are dying soon. These few days, I have killed quite a few Stage Five Martial Master s, this time is definitely the easiest. "Hong Jing, thank you so much. You've saved me a lot of effort."

"You ..."

Hong Strength Qi was about to vomit blood, clenching his teeth, he roared out loud, "Ye Ze, you're crafty! I... I hate it! "

At this moment, Hong Qiang was filled with regret and regret.

Unfortunately, he couldn't even stand up anymore. Not only was his abdomen charred by Tang Huan's palms which were filled with the power of the True Fire, his Dantian had also received heavy injuries. If he had enough time, he might be able to slowly recover from his injuries, but now ...

Tang Huan smiled compassionately: It is not that I am too cunning, but you all are too stupid.

"Wait, wait. Ye Ze, I can give you a lot of gems, as long as you give me a chance to live." Hong Qiang suddenly shouted.

"A large number of gems?" Aren't all the gems you gathered in this cave? " Tang Huan laughed, "If you die, they would naturally all be mine. It's really interesting for you to exchange something that belongs to me for your little life. "

"..."

His face was pale, and he was suddenly awakened by a sharp pain. The tip of the spear had cut through the skin of his neck, and the heat seeped into his neck, making him feel as if his throat was being roasted.

Chapter 106

"Ye Ze, don't kill me!"

Desperate and unable to control himself, Hong Qiang tilted his head back and cried out in panic, "My second brother is right inside Feng Ming Mountain. If you kill me, he will soon know who killed me. He is one of the most talented young geniuses of our Sha Long Empire. He can step into the Stage Six Martial Master realm at any time and his strength is far stronger than me.

"What is his name? Is he that powerful?" Tang Huan pulled back his spear slightly and spoke in an unusual tone.

"His name is Hong Tao, he ..."

But in the next moment, his smile froze on his face, and his eyes gradually became blank.'s right hand moved quickly forward and retracted it, and the sharp tip of the spear left a charred hole on his neck.

Hong Qiang tried his best to open his mouth, but not a single sound came out. His eyes were wide open as he fell to the ground, face up, and no longer made a sound.

"His death is near at hand, yet he still dares to threaten me."

Tang Huan sneered. He swept his eyes over Hong Qiang, Yuan Xiang and Wu Hui. There was no trace of sympathy in his eyes.

The three of them had a tacit understanding with each other. In this Bloody Flame Mountain, they probably used the Phoenix Stone and Phoenix Feather to lure the Martial Warriors and then kill them for their goods.

To Weapon Refiner, there were not many who would not be moved after hearing about the Phoenix Stone and Phoenix Feather.

Tang Huan was no exception.

However, this did not mean that Tang Huan would completely believe them. If he was truly hit by them that easily, he would have already died dozens of times on the way to Feng Ming Valley.

In the past few days, he encountered many Martial Master s on his way to Phoenix Spirit Valley. There were even a few people who wanted to snatch the wooden chest with the gems, but ended up getting killed by him instead.

On the way here, Hong Qiang, Yuan Xiang and Wu Hui did not reveal any flaws. They did not even glance at the wooden chest on Tang Huan's body. Tang Huan had once suspected if they had really discovered the Phoenix Stone and Phoenix Feather. However, Tang Huan never let down his guard.

Especially when the huge force had moved the stone slab away, creating this hole, Tang Huan's vigilance had been raised to the maximum.

As expected, the three of them attacked.

Tang Huan had long since been prepared, so naturally, he wouldn't really be injured by the combined sneak attack of the three of them. The Genuine Qi that had invaded his body was all lured into the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", and it was quickly dispelled. Tang Huan had only recently discovered that the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" had this ability, if not, Tang Huan would not have given them the chance to sneak in an attack.

However, what made Tang Huan even more surprised was that the accidentally revealed Blue Dragon would actually cause them to kill each other.

Just as Tang Huan had said to Hong Qiang, this had indeed saved him a lot of effort.

"Pah!"

However, at this time, a crisp sound burst forth. A small ball of white light the size of an egg flashed on Hong Qiang's chest and disappeared without a trace.

"What is this?"

Tang Huan frowned, the moment that ball of white light appeared, he felt a strange energy wave, it was actually similar to the energy wave that Mo Ye's "magical pearl" gave rise to, perhaps the energy wave that disappeared from this ball of white light was also something from the Tian Clan.

Tang Huan suddenly thought back to what Hong Li had said before he died. Could it be that Hong Tao found out who killed his brother because of this?

"We'll use force to deal with it. If that Hong Tao is really able to find us, we'll just have to fight."

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had calmed down and did not continue thinking about it. That Hong Tao must be an expert at the same level as Gu Ying and Tang Long. In a head-on clash, Tang Huan reckoned that he was not his opponent, but if he could not win he could still escape. If the opponent wanted to kill him, it would not be that easy.

Tang Huan laughed, then walked into the cave.

They were all young men lying on the ground in a mess. Some had been dead for a long time, and the water in the flesh body was evaporated by the heat of the cave, turning into dried corpses. Some people should have just died two days ago, and there was even an expression of disbelief on their faces.

It was obvious that these people had all died at the hands of Hong Qiang and the other two.

Not far from these corpses, there was an enormous black cloth wrapped around them, faintly emitting a variety of lights. Opening the bag, an even brighter and denser rainbow light burst out, dazzling everyone. Sure enough, there were all kinds of gems inside, and most of them were mid-grade gems.

There were at least three to four hundred of them. Within the gem, there were two small wooden boxes called the "Spirit Exquisite Tree". It was unknown what was inside.

Seeing these things, Tang Huan's face became gloomy.

If it was in any other environment, Tang Huan would definitely be wild with joy to have acquired so many middle ranked gems. But right now, he couldn't be happy at all.

If not for the death of Hong Qiang, Yuan Xiang, and Wu Hui, many people would have been lured here and died in vain.

"Rest in peace, I have avenged you!"

Tang Huan sighed lightly. His gaze landed on a pile of gems. With so many items, his wooden chest would definitely not be able to hold them, but it would not be difficult for him.

Previously, Tang Huan only allowed Xiao Budian to eat ten gems a day. However, it was not because Xiao Budian could only eat ten gems, but because the number of gems he had was limited.

But now, the little fellow could open its stomach and eat.

After pondering for a moment, Tang Huan ran out and placed the stone tablet back to its original place and blocked the entrance of the cave. He then carried the huge package and continued to drill deeper into the cave for around ten metres before stopping and sitting down.

Within the Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the Spiritual Wheel were quickly revolving.

As Tang Huan refined the "Pure Yang Pill Bead", he also smelted a middle ranked gem. After activating the True Fire to its peak, Tang Huan's speed of smelting gems was shockingly fast. After around two hours, Xiao Budian had already swallowed around twenty middle ranked gems.

Inside the cave, the heat wave was raging, but Tang Huan's movements did not stop at all.

As time passed, the number of mid-ranked gems in the large bag became fewer and fewer. Unknowingly, the little guy had already eaten over three hundred gems. With so much gemstone solution added together, there was at least a huge basin, but Xiao Budian's stomach did not bulge much.

"There are only a few dozen pills left. It can't be that you can't wake up after eating all of them, right?"

Even if he had already expected it, Xiao Budian's appetite caused Tang Huan to be surprised. In an instant, Tang Huan grabbed another black middle ranked gem, but just as he was preparing to continue with the refinement, the sharp horn on Xiao Budian's head suddenly released trillions of rays of gold light, and an exceptionally cool Qi pervaded out, instantly causing the temperature within the area of a few metres to drop.

Seeing that, Tang Huan was ecstatic in his heart.

"Plop!" "Plop ..."

Immediately after, a powerful heartbeat resonated out from within the cave. Tang Huan looked down and realized that the little fellow's body was actually bulging like a balloon.

Chapter 107

Xiao Budian was growing up?

Seeing this scene, Tang Huan was startled, her eyes revealing an uncontrollable look of surprise.

Xiao Budian's body expanded extremely quickly, in just a few breaths of time, it had turned from a small ball of meat to a big ball of meat, its size was at least five times bigger than before, and its two small wings finally had the appearance of wings again. However, with its current size, it was still rather difficult for it to truly fly.

In addition, at the base of each of its wings, there was a small sprout growing out. It was unknown what that meant.

After the change had stopped, the bright golden light at the sharp corner of Xiao Budian's head slowly faded away as well.

"Yiya?"

Not long later, Xiao Budian opened his eyes.

After sleeping for many days, it finally woke up. Its curled up body slowly stretched, but its dark blue eyes were filled with confusion and doubt.

"Xiao Budian!" Tang Huan could not help but exclaim, his eyebrows filled with joy.

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian was finally completely awake, she shouted out loud and pounced on him, her big head intimately rubbing against Tang Huan's chest, looking like a silly person.

Tang Huan also hugged Xiao Budian while laughing.

It suddenly grew so much, causing Tang Huan to not be used to it for a moment, but right after, Tang Huan thought of a problem, it became so big, it was obviously impossible for it to be hidden in the cloth bag like it was in the past, but if it was allowed to follow Tang Huan, wouldn't it become a public target?

"Yiya?"

At this time, Xiao Budian seemed to have also noticed the change in his body. He jumped out of Tang Huan's embrace with a cry, and opened his arms wide to the limit subconsciously. He fanned his body a few times in the air, and then shakily landed on the ground.

This was obviously the first time Xiao Budian had tasted this kind of flying sensation. Before this, its pair of small wings were just for show, and were completely unable to lift the weight of its body. As long as it jumped into the air, it would immediately land there.

After being stunned for a while, Xiao Budian became extremely excited, he flapped his wings with all his might, and started to cry out yayaya sounds. His voice was filled with novelty. It was only two meters away from the ground, and he could only stay in the air for a little more than four seconds. This was Xiao Budian's current flight result.

After a long while, Xiao Budian's initial novelty finally passed, but after that, it seemed to have thought of something and its body started to twist intensely. After a series of crackling and popping sounds, its body started to shrink rapidly, and in the blink of an eye, it had become as big as it was before it evolved.

"It can change back?"

It couldn't help but hold Xiao Budian up and look at him carefully. Although its body had shrunk, the two small sprouts on its two wings were still there. After pinching them, there seemed to be bones extending out from beneath its skin.

Xiao Budian was satisfied with his current size. She curled up comfortably in his arms.

But after a while, Xiao Budian's blue eyes suddenly lit up, and after that, her small body transformed into a blue ray that shot out from Tang Huan's embrace.

When Tang Huan came back to his senses, there were only about twenty gems left in the bag, and beside Xiao Budian, there was a pile of gems.

"Ga ba!" "Ga ba"

Xiao Budian's mouth moved nonstop, and loud chewing sounds came one after another, as one gem after another was stuffed into its mouth by its two little claws, then turned into pieces and spat out. In around ten seconds, all of the remaining twenty-odd middle ranked gems were eaten by Xiao Budian.

Tang Huan couldn't help but swallow his saliva. This little guy's eating speed of gems was getting faster and faster.

After exterminating so many gems, Xiao Budian was still unsatisfied. She opened the lid of the two small wooden boxes containing the "Spirit Exquisite Tree"...

With a flick of a finger, Xiao Budian's figure appeared in the large wooden chest, while Tang Huan himself arrived in front of the two small wooden boxes, his eyes shining like the stars.

There were two wooden boxes, and one of them was holding two black gems. They were the high-grade gems, the "Obsidian".

But at this moment, Tang Huan completely ignored the precious high-grade gem. His gaze was completely focused on the other small wooden box.

Inside the box, there was a fist-sized white stone quietly lying on the ground. It was crystal clear, glossy like jade, and shaped like a pebble. Inside the stone, a fiery red aura was slightly fluctuating on the ground, looking like a phoenix spreading its wings in the air; it was extremely gorgeous.

"Phoenix Stone!" It's definitely a 'Phoenix Stone'! "

Tang Huan muttered these words, his voice brimming with unconcealable excitement.

He could never have imagined that he would actually obtain a "Phoenix Stone" in such a manner. Just who had Hong Qiang and the others robbed and killed here?

After a long while, Tang Huan finally managed to suppress his joy. He flipped and turned the "Phoenix Stone" in his hands, completely ignoring the two "Obsidian Stone".

As a high-grade gem, the Obsidian Stone was naturally extremely valuable.

Amongst the "Weapon Refining Competition" that was held not long ago, the "Obsidian Stone" had appeared as a reward for being the champion of the tournament and being ranked second. However, compared to the "Phoenix Stone", the "Obsidian Stone" was far inferior.

The tentacles of this "Phoenix Stone" were warm, but Tang Huan knew that the phoenix shaped fiery red aura within the stone definitely contained an incomparably terrifying heat.

"" Heart Flame Stone "and" Phoenix Stone "can both forge weapons suitable for Weapon Refiner, but there is absolutely a heaven and earth difference in effectiveness between the two." The weapons forged by the "Heart Flame Stone" were the most suitable for middle stage Weapon Refiner s, but weapons forged from Phoenix Stones were very suitable even for Weapon Refining Grand Master s.

"Yiya!" "Yiya ..."

Clear chirps sounded out one after another.

Tang Huan snapped out of his daze and looked over in the blink of an eye, only to find that the big wooden box was empty now, and all the middle ranked gems inside had been swept away by Xiao Budian. The little guy didn't seem to have eaten enough and ran over to the small wooden box, staring at the two "Obsidian Stones", drooling all over.

"It's all yours." Tang Huan didn't hesitate at all as he grabbed the two "Obsidian Stones" and slapped them into Xiao Budian's claws.

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian shouted excitedly and immediately stuffed a piece of Obsidian into his mouth. However, after chewing for a bit, Xiao Budian opened his mouth and spat out the "Obsidian Stone". The surface of the gem was completely undamaged.

"Can't eat?"

Tang Huan immediately understood.

Before Xiao Budian fell asleep, he basically only ate low-ranked gems. It wasn't that he didn't want to eat mid-ranked gems, but that he couldn't bite most of them. After growing up and awakening, Xiao Budian could easily eat mid-ranked gems. But high-ranked gems, were likely to not be something that it could chew on.

"It seems like you don't have the luxury for the time being."

Tang Huan placed the two pieces of Obsidian inside the box. He had never tried smelting high level gems before, but he believed that he could do it, it would take him a while to do it, so he smilingly smacked Xiao Budian's head, "Don't be dejected, I will smelt them for you to eat in a few days."

"Yiya!" Xiao Budian cried out happily as she pointed at the "Phoenix Stone" in Tang Huan's hand and licked her lips.

"I have to keep this one."

Tang Huan laughed, placed the "Phoenix Stone" inside, and then placed the small wooden box into a wooden box. He tied up his bag, hung it on his body, and stood up, "Come, let's go out."

After walking a few steps towards the cave entrance, he realized that Xiao Budian was not following him. Tang Huan turned his head to look and was surprised to see that Xiao Budian was waving at him while pointing towards the depths of the cave.

Tang Huan's eyes immediately lit up. Could it be that there was some precious gem inside?

Chapter 108

With regards to this cave, Tang Huan had long been curious.

After all, he had already stayed here for quite some time, and his stomach was already rumbling with hunger. If he continued to venture deeper, then if there was an accident where he was trapped, not to mention that he might even starve to death by delaying the Martial Competition.

But with Xiao Budian's guidance, the situation was completely different. The only thing that could make it so excited was definitely a gem, and it was very possibly not far away.

Since that was the case, there was no harm in going in to take a look now.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already strode deep into the cave. With a happy "yiyaya", he jumped onto Tang Huan's shoulder with his four claws.

The blood-red cave twisted and turned. The further they went, the more intense the heat wave became.

After walking forward for around two hundred meters, Tang Huan was already drenched in sweat. Even he found the heat of this place difficult to endure. But just as Tang Huan was about to use the "Heaven and Earth Art" and use the True Fire's power to resist the heat, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" inside the Dantian suddenly took the initiative to spin.

"This is ..."

A trace of doubt flashed across Tang Huan's eyes.

Such an abnormality had also happened before, and it was when the "Pure Yang Pill Bead" in Shan Shan's body was about to erupt. Now that the cauldron was showing signs of such activity, could it be that there was something similar to the "Pure Yang Pill Bead" in front of the cave?

While he was thinking, Tang Huan started to feel it carefully.

After just a moment, Tang Huan discovered that following the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" 's quick rotation, traces of a slight but strange pure heat was separated from the surrounding waves of heat, quickly entering his body, and followed his meridians to enter the Dantian Furnace.

Without those wisps of strange heat waves, the surrounding temperature suddenly dropped.

"Nirvana Sacred Fire?"

In the next moment, Tang Huan's state of mind started to fluctuate.

The warm energy that was being absorbed by the cauldron was actually extremely similar to the Phoenix feather that Gu Fei had given him.

Although the heat exuded from both sides were strong and weak, they were exactly the same, seemingly from the same source.

"Could it be that the 'Nirvana Sacred Fire' is in the depths of this cave, and not in the Phoenix Spirit Valley over there?" Tang Huan couldn't help but think of this.

If the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" really appeared in front of him, Tang Huan would not be surprised at all. As one of the Five Great Spiritual Fire s, it had existed for countless of years and was extremely intelligent. It was not surprising for it to have moved from the Phoenix Spirit Valley to the Bloody Flame Mountain.

"Should we go or not?"

The blood-red cave had yet to extend outwards by who knows how far, but Tang Huan was beginning to hesitate.

That "Nirvana Sacred Fire" was one of his goals for coming to Feng Ming Mountain, but he had never thought that he would encounter the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" so soon.

In his initial assumption, he would only act after the end of the "Phoenix Spirit Martial Meeting". At that time, without the attraction of the "Phoenix Flame Essence", the gathered Martial Warriors would definitely disperse quickly. Furthermore, he would be able to search for traces of the Spiritual Fire slowly as well, so he did not need to worry about being disturbed too much.

However, the plan was completely unable to keep up with the changes.

He originally only came to this Bloody Flame Mountain to search for Feng Yu, but in the end, by chance, he actually found the true hiding place of the "Nirvana Sacred Fire".

"Since we're already here, how can we retreat?"

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan made a decision to continue advancing.

However, when he took a step forward, Tang Huan had already activated his cultivation technique to its limits. Inside the Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "Spiritual Wheel" were both rotating at a very fast speed, and that bizarre heat wave was seeping into his body at an even faster rate, slowly being refined and absorbed by Tang Huan.

The heat wave was like a surging wave, roaring continuously towards him. However, the moment they got close to Tang Huan, the bizarre heat wave contained within was immediately sucked in by the sucking, and the heat that Tang Huan could feel instantly dropped greatly. It was almost at the same level as the cave entrance, which was completely within the range that Tang Huan could endure.

"Xiao Budian, what you discovered just now was not a gem, but a 'Nirvana Sacred Fire', right?" Tang Huan walked briskly and could not help but ask with a smile.

"Yiya?"

Xiao Budian scratched his head, as though he had his own suspicions.

Tang Huan laughed involuntarily. It wasn't impossible, no matter if it was the "Phoenix Stone" or the "Phoenix Feather", the heat aura they contained was actually extremely similar to that of the "Nirvana Sacred Fire". The heat wave that came surging out contained the heat of the sacred fire, so it was normal for it to misjudge.

They continued to advance for nearly a kilometer, but the strange heat was ten times more intense.

The speed at which Tang Huan refined the heat was no longer able to keep up with the speed of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", as more and more heat gathered in the cauldron.

It was also at this time that the cave in front suddenly expanded rapidly, and two blood-red gates suddenly entered Tang Huan's line of sight.

The two doors were a few meters wide and ten meters high. There were barely any gaps between the doors.

On the surface of the door, each one was carved with an upside-down, fiery red phoenix. Its long tail and feathers were linked together, forming a big circle with its beak facing the other. The heatwaves that filled the tunnel were emitted from that door one after another, as if they would never stop.

"Since there's a door, there must be a heavenly passage behind it!"

Tang Huan quickly walked to the door. If the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" was truly deep inside the cave, then it was definitely right behind these two doors.

However, how would he be able to open these two gates? Tang Huan's mind raced, his palms that were filled with Genuine Qi landed on the door, he pushed on the door with his Spirit Qi, causing the two doors to not move at all.

Seeing that, Tang Huan immediately understood.

If he wanted to open the door, he must not use too much strength. Moreover, he must be able to open the door, otherwise, how did the person who made this door enter? How could he enter the "Nirvana Sacred Fire"? In a flash of thought, Tang Huan began to carefully observe his surroundings.

"Huh?"

After a while, Tang Huan realized that below each of the two phoenixes' heads, there was actually a tall red ring, sparkling and translucent, as if it was carved out of jade. Each ring was as thick as three fingers and as big as two basketballs.

Tang Huan only hesitated for a moment before extending both of his hands to grab each of the hoops.

But in the next moment, Tang Huan frowned slightly.

Seemingly at the very instant he touched the ring, he felt a strong surge of sucking power, which actually firmly sucked his two palms into the ring. Immediately afterwards, the Genuine Qi in Tang Huan's body was activated, and like a broken dam, it surged out violently and disappeared into the ring.

"This thing can actually wield the power of sucking."

Tang Huan's brows furrowed even more. With the speed at which he was being absorbed by the ring, it would not take long before all the Genuine Qi in his body was exhausted.

In a short period of mind instructs (in a second), Tang Huan activated the True Fire.

Under the enveloping force of the True Fire, the bizarre heat wave that was gathered inside the Dantian passed through the Spiritual Meridian and revealed two palms, which were actually also absorbed by the ring.

Chapter 109

Tang Huan's brows immediately relaxed, and he heaved a sigh of relief. "Love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love, love!"

Since the ring could absorb heat energy, then there was no need to worry about the Genuine Qi running out of energy. Before thinking of a way to get rid of the ring, he only needed to constantly absorb the heat energy and continuously send it into the ring.

Time flew, Tang Huan circulated his cultivation technique, using both the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the Spiritual Wheel to their limits.

Unknowingly, at least an hour had passed.

More and more heat was absorbed by the two sucking s on the door, but Tang Huan tried his best to think of a way, but his hands were still firmly stuck to the rings and refused to let go.

"If this continues, I won't die from exhaustion, but will starve to death!"

Tang Huan felt a headache.

Xiao Budian also noticed that Tang Huan was in a dilemma, moving around on his shoulders, scratching his ears and cheeks.

"Don't worry, we'll think of something eventually."

Tang Huan turned her head to comfort Xiao Budian, but just as she turned her head back, a blinding fiery red luster appeared before her eyes. The two phoenixes carved on the gate seemed to have come to life at this moment, their bodies releasing trillions of rays of light as their beautiful feathers gently swayed, as though they were about to spread their wings and fly away.

In Tang Huan's line of sight, the phoenix on the door had turned into a spiritual object with life.

"Yiya?"

Xiao Budian was shocked by this sudden turn of events. He stared blankly at the two lifelike phoenixes in front of him, his dark blue eyes wide open.

Within Tang Huan's eyes, there was also some surprise.

But right after, Tang Huan felt relieved, he suddenly understood that the two hoops on the door had absorbed a large amount of heat from his body. It was probably because the phoenix had absorbed it.

It was just that they did not know why they needed to absorb so much energy.

Just a moment ago, although Tang Huan did not lose much of his Genuine Qi, the amount of strange heat he absorbed with the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" had already reached an extremely shocking level. If not for the Nine Yang Divine Furnace, Tang Huan reckoned that he would have been sucked dry.

Not to mention a Stage Four Martial Master like Tang Huan, even Stage Six Martial Master or the Stage Seven Martial Master might not be able to make such a change to this pair of phoenixes simply by relying on their own strength.

"Clang!" "Clang!"

Just as Tang Huan was pondering, two loud and clear bird calls suddenly came out from the door, the two phoenix wings started to flap, as though they wanted to break free from the door's restraints, and flew high into the sky.

Seeing that, Tang Huan subconsciously took two steps back.

"Yiya!" "Yiya!"

Xiao Budian pointed at Tang Huan's palm and screamed excitedly.

It was only then that Tang Huan realized that his palms had already left the ring. It was at this moment that, as the phoenix wings flapped, the two doors actually began to rapidly open from the inside. It was as if the gap in the door was expanding at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the situation behind the door revealed itself bit by bit.

It was actually a fiery red palace.

The beautiful phoenix designs could almost be seen everywhere. On the inside of the palace, there was a tall and wide arched door that was open, and through the arch, one could actually see an even larger arched door.

This palace actually had three levels. In the center of the most innermost Heavy palace, a red light flashed. It seemed to be an entire ball of blazing flames.

"Could that flame be the 'Nirvana Sacred Fire'?"

Tang Huan squinted, his thoughts racing as his eyes revealed anticipation and excitement.

The strong heat wave whistled over, the strange heat wave contained within was much stronger than the heat wave outside the shrine. Fortunately, Tang Huan was able to absorb the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", and was able to withstand the heat wave.

However, this was only temporary. Once the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was filled with heat, the situation would be very different.

He had to leave this cave passage before the cauldron was full.

"Yiya!"

Just as that thought flashed past Tang Huan's mind, as if he had discovered something, he suddenly jumped down from Tang Huan's shoulder while cheering, shaking off his legs, then left and right between the pillars and the furnishings, in a short period of time, he disappeared.

Regarding his safety, Tang Huan was not worried at all. Xiao Budian's Perception Ability's killing intent far exceeded his own. If there was any danger over there, it would not have ran over.

"Whoosh!"

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already leaped forward, and at the same time, he flipped the spear shaft on his back. The direction that Xiao Budian was heading towards was not dangerous, but that did not mean that there were no dangers ahead either.

In this strange environment, it was always right to be careful.

Tang Huan leaped as if he was flying, and in a few moments, he had already traversed a hundred meters of empty space, passed through an arch, and entered the second stage of palace. Aside from the beautiful columns in the surroundings, there were practically no other decorations. However, on the two sides of the palace, there were many shiny objects piled up, just that they were too far away to see clearly.

Tang Huan only glanced at them once before suppressing his curiosity and continued to run.

After a short while, Tang Huan entered the third realm of palace.

In the center of the palace, there was a gigantic Phoenix statue. Its wings were spread wide, and its neck was stretched outwards, its head held high, as though it wanted to soar into the sky. Its astonishing tail feathers floated in the air, as if dancing in the wind. The statue was filled with a spirit aura.

In front of the sculpture, there was a round table about 2 meters tall, with a height of about 20 meters.

The entire round platform was like a huge red jade. On top of the round platform, a huge flame was burning fiercely, and a scorching heat wave continuously swept in all directions. Within every wave of heat wave that was roaring over, there was a strange heat wave that Tang Huan was currently absorbing, and it was unusually strong.

"This is definitely the 'Nirvana Sacred Fire'."

Tang Huan's eyes instantly became fiery hot. Looking carefully, he discovered that there was an enormous depression in the center of the round platform, and flames that covered most of the round platform were surging out from the depression, and not only that, one could even vaguely see a pair of intertwined fiery red wings.

A petite figure seemed to be wrapped within the wings.

"With wings on his back, he appeared in this Feng Ming Mountain Blood Flame Mountain Range..."

Tang Huan muttered softly. After a moment, four musical notes uncontrollably jumped out from his mouth, "Flamewing Phoenix King?"

Chapter 110

Before leaving the Furious Waves City, Tang Huan had specially asked Shan Shan about the "Flamewing Phoenix King", and had gained a certain understanding of her situation.

Most importantly, in the current Feng Ming Mountain, other than the "Flamewing Phoenix King", there would be no one else who would appear here.

Unexpectedly, not only was the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" here, even the "Flamewing Phoenix King" was here.

Furthermore, the entire body of the "Flamewing Phoenix King" was wrapped in the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" ... Could it be that she was using the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" to heal her injuries?

In that moment, the thought of leaving palace flashed through Tang Huan's mind, but he quickly calmed down and thought of something.

Being one of the eight great Demon King s as well, the threat of a "Flamewing Phoenix King" should be even greater than that of a "Howling Firmament Wolf King" who was heavily injured by Shan Shan. Although Tang Huan coveted the remnant Divine Weapon Catalogue s in the "Flamewing Phoenix King", he had never thought of going against the "Flamewing Phoenix King" head-on.

After all, the two sides were no longer on the same level.

Under normal circumstances, once Tang Huan opened the hall door and entered this place, the "Flamewing Phoenix King" would be able to detect him. With his strength, no matter how injured he was, killing the Tang Huan who was merely a Stage Four Martial Master would be an easy task. But up until now, she had been lying in the pit on the round table without any movement.

Could it be that she had fallen into a deep sleep, or ... He couldn't move at all?

"Hu!"

Tang Huan's eyes became serious, and he suddenly jumped, and landed at the edge of the round stage, 'Crimson Flame Spear' then transformed into a red light, sweeping towards the ball of flames.

"You're courting death!"

A sharp and tender voice suddenly sounded out, after an instant, from the hole at the center of the round platform, the pair of fiery red wings extended out wide, and flapped towards Tang Huan.

Whoosh! In a split second, the strong wind whistled and a large ball of fierce flames rolled towards Tang Huan.

"Buzz!"

Tang Huan's pupils shrank, his spear's potential changed greatly. Amidst the excited clashing, a circle of spear shadows bloomed, impressively using the method of "Flaming Rainbow Spear Art"!

In the blink of an eye, the Burning Fire that originated from the Crimson Flame Spear collided with the ball of raging flames.

Amidst the earth-shaking ringing, the heat was raging crazily.

As though he had suffered a heavy blow, Tang Huan's body flew backwards, and landed on the stage. The blood Qi in his body fluctuated slightly, and on the stage, the figure had already risen from the pit.

"Flamewing Phoenix King?"

With a single glance, Tang Huan's brows revealed a look of astonishment.

Although the person in the flames had huge wings, the figure in the middle of the wings looked like a four or five-year-old little girl. Although the person in the flames had huge wings, the body in the middle of the wings looked like a four or five-year-old little girl.

This was completely different from what Tang Huan knew. The "Flamewing Phoenix King" should be an adult female, how could it be such a cute little girl?

"Who are you to be able to enter the 'Phoenix Nest'?"

The little girl did not answer but asked instead, her big black eyes stared straight at Tang Huan as she shouted out with her childish voice, her beautiful young and tender face full of anger.

"Phoenix nest?"

The surprise in Tang Huan's eyes faded as he said with a smile, "Is it really that difficult to enter this place? I just grabbed the rings on the door and after they drew a bit of strength from them, the two doors opened themselves. "

"Impossible!"

Tang Huan said calmly, but when the little girl heard him, she became a little mad, "The gates to the Phoenix Nest is absolutely not something that a foreign Martial Warriors can open, even a Stage Nine Martial Saint cannot. The only thing that could open it was the purest power of fire. Otherwise, anyone beneath the Martial Lord of the eighth step, as long as they touch the ring, all their power and blood essence would be cleansed by the sucking of the Phoenix Nest Gate and turned into a dried corpse! "

"Speak, who the hell are you?"

At the end, the little girl's voice became shrill again.

How could there be such a mystery hidden on the door?

If it were not for the fact that he could absorb the heat emitted by the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" and send it into the ring, the consequences would have been unimaginable.

"I am just a small Stage Four Martial Master."

Tang Huan's heart trembled, but he maintained a calm smile on his face, "However, you've really broadened my horizons. Before this, I never would have thought that the dignified Flamewing Phoenix King, one of the eight great Demon King s, would actually be a little girl that didn't have any hair at all. "

"How dare you!"

Embarrassed and furious, she shouted, "Little thing, since this is only the first time you have offended me, I will give you a chance. Get out of here immediately, I can stop arguing with you, or else, you can leave your life in this phoenix nest."

The little girl's childish and furious scolding, coupled with her fuming appearance made her seem even more adorable.

She seemed to know that she did not have any power to intimidate others. Almost as soon as she finished speaking, the gigantic fiery red wings on her back flapped forward ferociously and the flames on the circular platform turned into a blazing torrent of flames, covering Tang Huan.

"When did one of the Demon Clan's eight great Demon King s become so benevolent?"

Not only was he not scared, he started laughing loudly instead. His right foot stepped on the ground, causing his body to leap once again towards the round altar, the Crimson Flame Spear in his hand pierced out at a speed that was hard to see with the naked eye, the sharp whistling sound resonated throughout the entire palace.

The reason he said that earlier was to probe things out.

If the "Flamewing Phoenix King" didn't say anything else and continued to chase him, he might have had thoughts of retreating, but since the "Flamewing Phoenix King" actually let him go, this made Tang Huan even more certain that the "Demon King" was very likely to have some misgivings, and did not dare to attack him with all his might. It might even be because of some accident, but the "Flamewing Phoenix King" no longer had the strength to kill him!

"Chi!"

Tang Huan had already pushed the Genuine Qi to the extreme.

Spears of spear blossomed, the flames of the prairie fire condensed again and collided ruthlessly with the flapping flames of the "Flamewing Phoenix King".

On the high platform, flames danced wildly as waves of heat waves churned.

This time, Tang Huan actually struck the torrent of flames with his spear and struck the edge of the round platform. In the center of the round platform, the body of the "Flamewing Phoenix King" slightly moved, as if it was blown back by the flames.

"Little thing, since you're courting death, I'll grant your wish!"

Within the flames, an even more intense rage appeared on Flamewing Phoenix King's exquisite and beautiful little face. She opened her small mouth and let out a "clang" sound, and a ball of flames immediately sprayed out, transforming into a small fiery red phoenix in the blink of an eye, as it pounced towards Tang Huan with lightning speed.
