

W. Master 1051

Chapter 1051 - Countless Methods of Death!

In that moment, Tang Huan suddenly wanted to laugh.

From a small world to a Forging God Great World, he had to experience so many dangers to be able to reach such a state. Yet today, he was actually killed by a statue here?

According to Yan Zu's meaning, entering this place would give one the chance to obtain the inheritance of the God Forging martial arts, so there shouldn't be any danger to their lives. Furthermore, Yan Zu would not intentionally harm them, with Yan Zu's strength, if he truly wanted to take their lives, there was no need to go through all this trouble.

Could it be that all of this was just an illusion?

Tang Huan shuddered, he suddenly woke up and in a blink of an eye, he realised that he was already outside the cave. Was the scene inside really just an illusion? Tang Huan was bewildered, the feeling of being shot and killed by the statue was too real!

Even until now, Tang Huan still felt a strong pain in his chest.

Letting out a light breath, Tang Huan calmed his mind and took a careful look at the spear that was stabbed out by the Yan Zu statue.

The fiery red spear images continued to flash across Tang Huan's mind. He suddenly realized that although the spear seemed ordinary, it was actually ever-changing and all-encompassing. It was just one thrust, but it seemed to have turned into the essence of all the spear skills in the world. It was unavoidable, undefensible.

It was truly worthy of being called the martial arts of a God Forging!

In Tang Huan's heart, there was actually a feeling of admiration. He had only personally experienced the "Absolute Spear" technique once, and he already felt that he had benefited a lot from it. If he entered a few more times, his harvest would be even greater. Also, there wasn't just one statue, but five.

"Huh?"

After a long while, Tang Huan finally regained his senses, but just as he was about to step back into the cave, he exclaimed in surprise. It was as if his cultivation had increased by a little.

He was actually able to raise his cultivation after being killed by the statue of the Flame Ancestor?

Tang Huan was slightly stunned, and carefully recalled his previous encounters once again. Only now did he realize that the moment he was pierced by the long spear, an incomparably pure energy seemed to have entered his body, fusing together with his True Essence ... Clearly, this was the reason why his cultivation level had increased.

Tang Huan was pleasantly surprised, and entered the cave without hesitation.

Once again arriving in that vast space, Tang Huan's gaze immediately landed on the Flame Ancestor's sculpture, as it had already returned to its original state.

Tang Huan calmed his mind and focused, quickly approaching the sculpture. Inside the Dantian, both the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the True Spirit were revolving quickly, holding not only the Fire Red Long Spear but the spear in his hand.

At this moment, had already activated both his True Essence and Great Ultimate Spiritual Fire at full power.

"Spear Extreme!"

When the distance between them was about ten meters, the Yan Ancestor Statue once again opened its eyes, as though it had turned into a living spirit object, and then the Fire Red Long Spear instantly formed and pierced forward.

Tang Huan's Perception Ability had reached an unprecedented level, as he stared at the sculpture.

The moment the sculpture opened its eyes, Tang Huan had a thought to counterattack, but it was useless. The thought had not even been put into action when the Fire Red Long Spear in front of him once again entered his chest.

Tang Huan was killed once again!

When he woke up again, Tang Huan had once again appeared outside the arched cave.

Tang Huan didn't expect that he would be able to dodge or block that spear, but he didn't expect that even after making all his preparations, the result would still be the same as before. This caused Tang Huan to be even more shocked and he couldn't help but have a trace of mind instructs (in a second) in his heart that refused to admit defeat.

As he carefully recalled the scene of that spear strike, Tang Huan entered that space for the third time. Very quickly, it was the fifth, sixth, seventh time ...

The hundredth time ... The thousandth time...

... ..

Tang Huan kept changing his position ...

True Flaming Rainbow Spear Technique, Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique, Flying Flower Spear Technique, and the self-created "Flame War Eight Directions"... Tang Huan had used all sorts of spear type offensive skills, and he had even used them in various angles, including the "Extreme Flowing Spiritual Fire Barrier" and "Extermination Finger".

However, the result was exactly the same. Tang Huan was shot in the chest every time.

Even when Tang Huan approached the sculpture and immediately used "Sword Escape", "Air Escape", or "Flowing Gold", it had no effect.

However, even so, Tang Huan was not one bit discouraged.

He tried and tried, and he experienced the pain of death again and again ...

Tang Huan felt that his embodiment was acting for the sake of a sickly, masochistic person. In the end, even he himself did not know whether he had been killed thousands, tens of thousands, or even tens of thousands of times by the Flame Ancestral Statue. The continuous killing had already made him numb to death.

Fortunately, although Tang Huan continued to endure this kind of self-torture, he still had some gains.

As time passed, his cultivation rose bit by bit, and his comprehension of the Yan Zu Statue's "Spear Extinction" became deeper and deeper. In the end, Tang Huan completely abandoned all of his previous methods, and started to follow his own insights, imitating the "Spear Extreme Mirage" style to attack the statue.

At first, Tang Huan was still killed time and time again, but gradually, Tang Huan felt that the distance between him and the statue was getting closer and closer.

Another long period of time passed ...

"Spear Extreme!"

In the vast space, facing the Tang Huan who had once again appeared, the Flame Ancestor Statue once again spat out these two runes mechanically, and then stabbed forward with its spear simply. But at the same time, ten meters away from the other party, Tang Huan also thrust his spear out.

In a split-second, the two Fire Red Long Spear s collided.

An earth-shaking ringing sound spread out in this space, while the terrifying Strength Qi surged out in all directions crazily. The spear in the Yan Zu's hand quickly melted like snow under the blazing sun. Tang Huan's spear was not injured at all, but he was forced to retreat continuously.

"I did it!" I did it! "

Only after retreating dozens of meters did Tang Huan stabilize his footsteps, and let out a loud, excited laugh. Receiving the spear attack from the Yan Zu statue, it meant that he had comprehended the Cast God's' Spear Extreme Death 'style. In exchange for countless deaths, he had finally succeeded. In this instant, Tang Huan was wild with joy.

"Swish!"

Just at this time, the Yan Zu statue suddenly pointed, a fiery red light shot out like lightning, with lightning speed, it struck Tang Huan in the chest. In the next moment, Tang Huan felt a vast and pure energy, in an instant, it had spread to his four limbs and bones, and his five viscera and six organs.

Then, Tang Huan felt his entire body exploding.

Chapter 1052 - Mysterious Two Transformation

"What's going on?"

After a short moment, Tang Huan regained consciousness outside the arched cave. The sudden turn of events caused him to be unable to restrain himself from perspiring.

Wasn't he killed by the statue? Furthermore, the way he was killed was very different from before.

Tang Huan felt the condition of his body in surprise, but was immediately stunned.

Above the True Spirit of the Dantian, there were actually two "spirit caves". One of them was already there, and in the location of the Dantian, there was another in the middle of the True Spirit.

"Second Transformation of the Dongxuan realm?"

As a Dongxuan Cultivator, how could Tang Huan not know what this meant?

Was this also an illusion?

Tang Huan looked around doubtfully. He had indeed left that space and arrived outside the arched cave. The true essence in his body had also increased by leaps and bounds. He had indeed already broken through to the Second Transformation, and it seemed like the power coming from the statue of the Flame Ancestor had instantly allowed him to break through.

Tang Huan was a little pleasantly surprised, and couldn't help but enter the arched cave again ...

... ..

Amongst the rolling molten lava, there was an extremely thick and long skeleton standing there. The lower half of the skeleton was coiled on the ground, while the upper half was flying straight up into the sky. Looking at the skeleton's appearance, it was obvious that it was a giant snake.

Black air surged between the bones, isolating the molten lava outside as well.

"Ga ji!" "Ga ji ~ ~ ~"

The shrill cries echoed in the void from time to time, but it was actually the bottom of the giant snake's skeleton. The nine spirits flapped their little wings non-stop, and strands of black Qi coiled around its body, as if there were countless small snakes slithering in and out of its body, causing it to suffer a great deal of pain.

"Little thing, come up and rest first!"

On the fiery red boulder that was not far away, Yan Shi Yan reached out his hand and grabbed, the nine spirits flew out, landing on the boulder. On the fiery red boulder that was not far away, Yan Ling reached out his hand and grabbed, the nine spirits flew out, landing on the boulder.

Seeing its pitiful appearance, Yan Xiao could not help but laugh.

"Huh?"

"That little fellow's progress is astonishing. I originally thought that it would take him at least a year to comprehend the 'Spear Extinction' style, but who would have thought that he only used three months to do it."

"Ga ji?" Nine Spirits did not know where the power came from, but he suddenly raised his head, his dull colored eyes once again lit up, "I also want to continue!"

"Little thing, are you sure?" Yan Xiao said with a smile.

"I'm sure!" Nine spirits fiercely nodded their heads.

"Since that's the case, then... "Go on!"

With a wave of Yan Qing's hand, the nine spirits once again entered the black aura surging from the gigantic snake skeleton. The scene from before replayed once again, and a miserable cry continued to resound ...

... ..

Inside the cave, Tang Huan arrived in front of the statue of the Flame Ancestor at such a close distance.

The statue was now a real statue, it did not have any movements, Tang Huan walked around the statue once again, but there was still no movement, even when Tang Huan brandished his spear towards the statue, it was already motionless. At this point, Tang Huan was finally able to confirm that he had completely obtained the Legacy of the Casting Divine Martial Arts contained within the statue.

This statue is a spear art, I wonder what the other four statues inherited?

"Next!"

Tang Huan's heart surged with endless confidence, flying straight towards the statue of the Flame Ancestor that was next to him. When he was about twenty meters away from the sculpture, Tang Huan suddenly slowed down his speed, and walked forward step by step. His long spear released a red glow, and the True Essence in his body and the "Great Ultimate Spiritual Fire" were activated with all his might.

When the statue was about ten meters away, it suddenly moved.

"Saber Death!"

The instant these two characters came out from his mouth, a huge red blade appeared in the hands of the statue, and with lightning speed, it cleaved down.

This slash was the same as the "Spear Extreme Death" technique displayed by the previous statue of the Flame Ancestor. It was a simple battle skill, but it gave off a completely different feeling.

The latter was neither fast nor slow. It was possible to clearly capture its trajectory. However, the speed at which the former tore through space was unbelievably fast. When Tang Huan came to his senses, a tearing pain had already surged out. His body had actually been split into two, and completely melted away.

The first attempt of the second Yan Ancestor Statue, Tang Huan died without any suspense!

After pondering for a while, Tang Huan once again entered the arched cave and arrived in front of the Yan Ancestor Statue. This time, the moment he walked to the position where he could trigger the statue's attack, Tang Huan's long spear had already pierced out, and he was displaying the "Spear Extreme Arctic Technique" that he comprehended previously.

In less than half a second, Tang Huan had already returned to the area outside of the arched cave, in a daze.

Tang Huan had indeed unleashed that spear skill, but the strange thing was, it did not have the slightest effect. In front of the Yan Zu statue's attack, it was like air in front of the spear, thus, maintaining his fighting stance, Tang Huan once again experienced the pain of his body being torn apart.

When facing the Ancestor Flame statue, the combat abilities comprehended from the other statues were useless?

In a moment of thought, Tang Huan frowned slightly.

In the next moment, Tang Huan kept his spear and took out the high levelled Divine Armament that he obtained from Luo Yue's cultivation grounds. Since 'Absolute Spear' was useless, then he might as well not use the spear and use the same weapon as the statue of the Flame Ancestor. Unfortunately, the 'Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword' was not by his side, otherwise, it would be much more convenient.

After re-entering the space within the cave, Tang Huan calmed down and gave up any tricks he had up his sleeve. Just like before, he started to practice the Flame Ancestor's sword techniques again and again.

"Saber Death!"

"Saber Death!"

"..."

Another new cycle was born inside and outside the archway. This time, although he could not differentiate day and night, Tang Huan was immersed in it, and did not feel the passage of time in the slightest ...

... ..

Northwest of Yan State, Le Prefecture.

In the evening, in a quiet and elegant courtyard, a woman in red sat on a stone bench in the west of the majestic Orchid Mountain City. Her eyebrows revealed surprise: "The Tang Huan that those people spoke of must be Junior Brother, but I didn't think that he would actually be in the Southeastern Yan State, which isn't too far away."

"With my cultivation at the Sky Origin Stage, if everything goes well, I should be able to reach Yan State in at most half a year!"

"As long as we can find Junior Brother Tang Huan, then we can set off to save Shan Shan. With Junior Brother Tang Huan's current strength, the chances of success are very high."

This woman's body was extremely tall and slim, around the age of twenty. She had phoenix eyes, willow leaf eyebrows, oval face, a beautiful face, and skin as tender as cream.

"Bam!"

However, almost immediately after she finished speaking, there was a loud sound of an explosion. The courtyard door actually exploded, and four figures immediately entered in a flash.

Chapter 1053 - Green Rainbow Sect

"You really are hiding in Lan Ling City!"

The black clothed middle-aged man in the lead swept his eyes over and then sneered, "Yu Feiyan, in all these years, it seems like our Green Rainbow Sect has been treating you well, especially the Young Sect Master, who views you in a new light. It's one thing if you don't feel grateful, but you actually dared to injure the Young Sect Master and take away the 'Long Li's True Spring'. Today, we will capture you and bring you back to the Green Rainbow Sect to punish you severely. "

Yu Feiyan picked up the fiery red halberd that was laid on the stone table by the side and sneered, "You want to force me to marry the retarded son of the sect master of your 'Green Rainbow Sect'? I have already shown mercy by not killing that retarded person on the spot. "

When the middle-aged man heard that, he immediately became extremely furious, "Even now, you still dare to say such rude words. You simply do not know your place! Everyone, take her down! "

"You pieces of trash!"

Yu Feiyan slightly raised her brows, her charming face congealed into frost. Within her beautiful eyes, a baleful aura surged. The fiery red halberd in her hand glowed resplendently, and she had already unleashed a shocking amount of power.

The middle-aged man and the other three were all in the Sky Origin Stage, and any one of them were stronger than Yu Feiyan. But now, they were looked down upon by her, and nearly exploded out of anger.

One must know that a few days ago, when she had just escaped from the "Green Rainbow Sect", she was only at the peak of the Origin Condensation Realm. Although she had relied on the "Dragon Li True Spring" that she had obtained to enter the Sky Origin Stage, the day of her breakthrough was extremely close.

"Go!" "Let's attack together!" The middle-aged man roared as the four of them brandished their weapons at the same time.

In the City Lord's Mansion at the center of Orchid Fragrance City.

Inside a tall building, five men were drinking heartily. The one sitting on the main seat was a man in his thirties. He was dressed in blue, and although his appearance wasn't very handsome, he was extremely elegant. Amongst the four people accompanying him, there were three middle-aged men and a tall and sturdy old man with white hair.

Halfway through the wine, the tall and sturdy elder smilingly asked: "Brother Yue, this time you've come to our Lanling City, is there something urgent?"

"City Lord, I am just an idle person in the sect. Even if there is something important, he would not tell me."

"I have always been a person who is used to idling around. After staying in the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm' for three whole years, I have been holding my breath for a long time, and now that I'm out, I just happen to be walking around. I've been wandering around the Lai Prefecture for more than half a year and this Lanling City is my last stop.

"Brother Yue, you must stay in Orchid Tomb City for a few more days, and let me, your brother, do my best to be your host."

The tall and sturdy old man secretly let out a sigh of relief.

His name was Mu Hong and he was the Mayor of Orchid Fragrance City. As for the blue clothed man, his name was Yue Haoyang and he was the grandson of the Third Elder of Sky Dragon Sect, Yue Ziyu.

Lanling City was one of the subordinate cities of the Heavenly Dragon Sect. If Yue Haoyang caused any trouble here, Mu Hong would definitely have a headache. However, after interacting with him for half a day, he discovered that Yue Haoyang was extremely courteous, his demeanor was graceful, and was very different from what was rumored.

"Thank you, City Lord."

Yue Haoyang laughed and immediately seemed to have noticed something. He looked outside the building in a blink of an eye and asked suspiciously, "City Lord, what happened over there? Someone is fighting in the city? "

Mu Hong followed Yue Haoyang's gaze and glanced at him, and then he laughed, "It's nothing big. A few guys from the 'Green Rainbow Sect' are arresting a female disciple who defected and escaped. They said hello to me, and I've arranged for people to watch over it, so there won't be any big problems. "

"A woman?"

Yue Haoyang was surprised and laughed, "It must be an old woman with about seventy or eighty years of age."

Mu Hong laughed. "Brother Yue, you are wrong, that traitor from the Green Rainbow Sect is a peerless beauty that has the beauty of a nation. I, your brother, am extremely tempted when I see him. From what the few guys from the Green Rainbow Sect said, that girl seemed to be called Yu Feiyan, I ... "

"Yu Feiyan?"

Yue Haoyang's eyes flashed with a strange look, "City Lord, hearing you say that, I feel a little itchy. Now that I'm full of wine and food, why don't I go and join in on the fun?" Without waiting for Mu Hong's reply, Yue Haoyang smilingly stood up. With a movement of his body, he jumped down from the window.

Seeing this, Mu Hong and the three middle-aged men couldn't help but look at each other in dismay.

Yue Haoyang's actions gave Mu Hong a bad premonition. He really wanted to give himself a slap. He had really talked too much just now.

"City Lord, we ..." A middle-aged man asked hesitantly.

"Let's go over and take a look!"

"..."

"Boom —"

Intense cries rose and fell as Strength Qi wreaked havoc in a berserk manner. The area with a radius of tens of metres, including this courtyard, was filled with ravines and was in complete disarray.

There were already many cultivators gathered around, pointing fingers from time to time, but no one interfered.

[illegible]

A mournful scream suddenly tore through the dark night sky. Wherever the red glow passed, a man dressed in black actually turned into a cloud of bloody mist and scattered.

This was the second Heavenly Yuan cultivator to die under Yu Feiyan's halberd.

But at almost the same time, two sharp attacks also landed on Yu Feiyan's back at the same time. The protective barrier condensed from True Essence instantly shattered, and her graceful body flew out uncontrollably, smashing a deep pit, causing dust to swirl around and filling the air.

"Pfft!" Just as he was barely able to lift his body, Yu Feiyan spat out a mouthful of blood, his face instantly becoming pale white.

"Yu Feiyan, can you still act so arrogantly now?"

The black-clothed middle-aged man had his hair in disarray and his clothes were tattered, as if he was a savage that just came out of a forest deep in the mountains. He was in an extremely sorry state. The moment the cold voice left his mouth, he had already walked toward Yu Feiyan step by step. His appearance was ferocious, and his eyes flickered with a brutal and manic intent.

He originally thought that this capture was an easy task.

However, the following battle completely exceeded his expectations. Yu Feiyan, who had just broken through to the Sky Origin Stage, was not only not weak at all, his fighting strength was also extremely tyrannical. With the four of them working together, he actually killed two of them.

Seeing that his opponent was quickly closing in, the corner of Yu Feiyan's mouth raised in a mocking smile. The look in his eyes became extremely determined, the skin outside his robes actually had a faint red luster.

There were four Sky Origin Stage cultivators attacking her, making it impossible for her to escape.

Although she had done her best to kill two of them, she had suffered an unprecedented heavy injury. Her internal organs were almost crushed, and the True Spirit s were also full of cracks. Such an injury left her with no hope of escaping.

She could not choose to live, but she could choose to die.

She could instantly burn herself to ashes but it was a pity that she couldn't see Tang Huan and she couldn't ask him to save Shan Shan either. Although the two of them were like enemies in the small world, she couldn't afford to ignore the dangers of coming to Forging God Great World.

However, with Tang Huan's capabilities, perhaps even if no one informed him, he would be able to find Shan Shan in the end.

A trace of laughter flashed across Yu Feiyan's eyes. He was about to take action when a playful voice suddenly echoed: "Tsk tsk, daylight ..." "Oh, no, under the watchful eyes of everyone, the four Sky Origin Stage cultivators are besieging this little girl. The Green Rainbow Sect is getting more and more shameless ..."

A figure suddenly appeared by his side, causing Yu Feiyan to be shocked.

However, he didn't have the time to do anything. Two musical notes directly drilled into his ears. After the instant of extreme shock, Yu Feiyan, who had been holding on, felt as if a heavy burden had been lifted off her shoulders. Her delicate body slowly fell down, and her beautiful eyes immediately closed.

Chapter 1054 - Fist Seal

Yan State, Firing Dragon Mountain Range, the hinterland of the Absolute Realm.

The giant serpent remains remained unmoving even as the blazing molten lava rumbled. However, the black aura lingering around the bones grew fainter and fainter.

"Ga ji ~ ~ ~"

The nine spirits spread their wings as they laid at the bottom of the skeleton. Wisps of black Qi roamed around the surface of their body like snakes. They actually let out a comfortable groan.

On the fiery red boulder not far away, Yan could not help but laugh.

On the other hand, Tang Huan's progress could be said to be extremely effective on the little guy. Every time it was about to be unable to take it anymore, once it heard that Tang Huan had comprehended another set of the Forging God's martial arts skills, it would immediately become a hundred times more spirited, and once again throw itself into the huge snake's skeleton.

After such a long period of time, its improvement was extremely remarkable.

"Hmm?"

Suddenly, Yan Mei raised her head and her smile disappeared. However, an unconcealable look of admiration appeared in her fiery red eyes as she softly sighed: "As expected of the Cast God's chosen one. In just a short year, I've completely comprehended the Cast God's five martial arts techniques!"

"Ga ji?" At the bottom of the giant snake's skeleton, the nine spirits suddenly turned and flew into the air.

Within the space within the arched cave.

Tang Huan punched out, his fist expanding rapidly, the space in front of him seemed to be compressed infinitely, in an instant, it clashed with Pang Shuo's fist that was thrown out by the Yan Ancestor Statue.

Amidst the heaven shaking sound, the Strength Qi rumbled and surged in all directions. A frightening wave that could be seen with the naked eye was being sent out in all directions.

After receiving such an attack, Tang Huan was instantly pushed back over ten meters, and only then was he able to stabilize his legs ...

"Fist Seal!" "Done!"

Not only was Tang Huan not depressed, his eyebrows were actually filled with a happy smile.

To be able to withstand the attacks of the statue and not die meant that he had completely comprehended the martial arts battle skills it contained. As for being forced back, that was normal.

At this point, he had completely comprehended the Cast Divine Martial Arts that the five statues contained.

"Chi!"

The statue raised its finger, and a red light shot out like lightning, entering into its chest. Soon after, a majestic and pure energy spread out, and the familiar feeling of a body exploding appeared.

In the next moment, Tang Huan appeared outside the arched cave.

"Peak of the third transformation!"

Tang Huan's brows revealed a strong sense of joy.

The energy originating from the Ancestral Flame Statue had the most obvious effect the first time it had endured; it directly caused him to break through from the Profound Wonderland to the Profound Wonderland's Second Transformation. The second time, the effect was a little weaker. As a result, only until Tang Huan comprehended the third type of offensive skill did he manage to step into the third form.

After enduring two more surges of power, he had barely reached the peak of the third form, far from breaking through.

Moreover, the breakthrough in his cultivation was only one of them, it might even be considered secondary. The most important thing was the Forging Divine Martial Arts that Tang Huan had learned from the five Flaming Ancestor Statues.

Tang Huan had a premonition that what he had comprehended now was only a fraction of the five martial skills. Not to mention the God Forging Stage, even if compared to the power that Yan Zu was truly displaying, it was probably not even a billionth of the original power. This was determined by the huge gap in cultivation and could not be made up by hard work.

Of course, Tang Huan would not feel discouraged. After all, this had only just begun.

"Spear Extreme Art, Blade Fall, Sword Corrosion, Arrow Defense, Fist Seal ..."

Five different combat skills, using a spear, knife, sword, and arrow, these four different weapons, as well as fists. The characteristics of the five different battle skills were all different. The conditions that they could be used in were also different. However, there was one thing in common, and that was that they all possessed incomparable might.

"Spear Extreme!"

In between the mind instructs (in a second), Tang Huan stabbed out with his spear, neither too fast nor too slow.

On the tip of the spear, there was no spear light condensed from true essence, nor was there any "Great Ultimate Spiritual Fire" lingering around it, but the sharpness and heat that suffused the air was terrifying to the extreme. What was even weirder, was that the two meter long spear seemed to be extending forward at a speed that was difficult for the naked eye to catch, in the blink of an eye, it pierced through the hundred meter space in front of them, as though nothing could stop it.

"Saber Death!"

As if he was a war god looking down on his enemy, Tang Huan abruptly slashed out with his sword. His speed was as fast as lightning and his speed was unbelievably fast, in an instant, he had torn the space in front of him apart.

"Sword Corrosion!"

Immediately after, a third weapon appeared in Tang Huan's hands.

Whether it was 'Spear Jue 'or' Blade perish ', they were all simple, direct and crude, but this Sword Corrosion was extremely complicated, making one dazzled and dazzled. The long sword danced like a butterfly and the resplendent sword light glimmered in the surroundings, seemingly corroding and melting the surrounding space for dozens of meters.

"Arrow Defense!"

In Tang Huan's palm, a longbow suddenly appeared, the tip of the longbow drawing a bowstring, looking like a full moon as an arrow condensed.

With the sound of a bowstring, the long arrow left the bowstring. Wherever it went, the space became distorted as if it was about to collapse. In an instant, the arrow had passed through the area in front of the cliff and entered the isolated surging lava. The fiery red molten lava quickly rose up, its momentum was extremely terrifying, as if a huge dragon was crazily rolling down from below until it was a few thousand meters away.

After changing his weapon and unleashing four techniques consecutively, Tang Huan became excited and threw away his bow and clenched his fist.

"Fist Seal!"

But just as Tang Huan's fist was halfway out, the fist shadows suddenly stopped expanding, Tang Huan's right fist stopped in mid air, a look of surprise and joy flashed past his eyes.

"Is there any news from Sister Feiyan?"

Tang Huan could not help but exclaim out loud. Just now, he had caught a message from a puppet. Suppressing the agitation in his heart, Tang Huan calmed his mind and tried to feel it carefully, "Le zhou Lan Ling City... Green Rainbow Sect... "Hmm?"

The more he sensed, the more unsightly Tang Huan's expression became, "All of your organs? The explosion of the True Spirit? "

"How hateful!"

Tang Huan's expression was terrifyingly gloomy, the moment the two characters appeared from between his teeth, a terrifying killing intent surged out from his body like a volcanic eruption, as though it had condensed into reality, and set off an ice cold hurricane in the area, causing the space to become extremely stagnant in an instant.

Since the small world came to the Forging God Great World, it was impossible for everyone to be as lucky as Feng Ming and Mu Yan. One of them joined the upper sects Fen Tian, and the other joined the Medicine God Sect.

This time, it was fortunate that the puppet had coincidentally come to Orchid Fragrance City. Otherwise, it would have been unimaginable just what would have happened to Yu Feiyan!

Chapter 1055 - Divine Traversal Talisman Beads

"Kid, did something happen?"

Yan's figure suddenly flashed out from within the molten lava not far away, and arrived in front of Tang Huan.

"A friend of mine was severely injured by someone in the Le Prefecture, causing his True Spirit to explode. I need to hurry over there. Otherwise, it is truly possible for her to lose all her cultivation!"

Tang Huan suppressed the anxiety in his heart and said softly. While he was speaking, Tang Huan had already kept all his weapons.

However, Tang Huan was no longer in the mood to pay attention to this. He only had one thought in his mind right now, and that was to return to the Yan Yang City as soon as possible, and then head to the Le Prefecture with the fastest speed possible.

"Don't worry, it's not impossible for True Spirit to recover from your injuries. As long as your friend's True Spirit has not disappeared, your life force will be the best cure."

Yan consoling Tang Huan, sighed, "Unfortunately, this old man's original body is extremely far from here, to the point where I can't even return after a year. Right now, this old man's set of mind instructs (in a second), which is unable to leave this area, is powerless to do anything. "

"Senior, please don't say that. Senior has already given this junior enough favors."

Tang Huan immediately said.

If it wasn't for Yan Zu's Dragon Seal, he would have been seriously injured even if he didn't die when facing Luo Yue, who had just completed his transformation. Yan Zu could be said to have done him a great service, not to mention that the five battle skills he had obtained were all because of Yan Zu.

After a moment, Tang Huan cupped his hands and deeply bowed: "Senior, this matter cannot be delayed, I will take my leave, thank you senior for your generous bestowment!"

"Wait!"

Xiao Yan smiled slightly, "Little fellow, even though this old man cannot send you to Le Prefecture, I can still help you with a little."

Saying that, Yan extended his hand out to grab the molten lava outside, and a small ball of black Qi separated out from the bright red molten lava, landing in his palm. With a few strokes, the ball condensed into a thumb sized black ball.

"Chi!" With a light flick of his finger, the black bead entered the Nine Spirits' bodies.

"Senior Yan Zu, what is this?" Jiu Ling was shocked.

"This is a 'Divine Traversal Talisman Pearl' that this old man condensed, it is able to stay in this little thing's body for half a month. With it, this little thing's flying speed can be greatly increased, and at most, ten days will be enough for me to send you to any place you want in the State of Xilei." Yan Xiao said with a smile.

"Ten days?"

Tang Huan could not help but be shocked. The Yan Ancestor's methods were indeed godly, a single "Divine Traversal Talisman Bead" was enough for him to arrive at the Le Prefecture in ten days. He had originally thought that even if he had to go all out, it would take him at least two to three months to reach Le Prefecture.

Jiu Ling was stunned for a moment before understanding what was going on. She hurriedly protested, "No, no. Senior Yan Zu, are you asking me to be your big brother's mount?"

"Of course." Yan could not help but laugh. "Little thing, what is shameful about being a mount? Back then, this old man was a mount of the God Forging Beast. So what if you become a mount for Tang Huan?"

"How can this be the same? Big Brother is not a God Forging expert!" Nine spirits snorted.

"You're not this old man!" The meaning behind his words was extremely obvious. Even this old man can act as a mount, but you don't think you can be one?

"This ..."

Jiu Ling was at a loss for words, but soon after, she dejectedly said, "Alright, alright. This time, I don't like to be ridden by others." It obviously knew that even if it didn't agree, Tang Huan could still use the "Puppet Soul Seal" to get it to agree, so it had no choice but to compromise.

"Thank you, senior!" Tang Huan regained his senses and bowed deeply once again.

"Little fellow, there's no need to be so courteous. I'll send you out first!" Yan Zu waved his hand lightly, and his body turned into a ball of fiery red Qi that carried Tang Huan and the nine spirits straight up into the sky.

"..."

... ..

"Whoosh!"

High up in the sky, the nine spirit bodies were like nine colored flowing lights as they flashed and disappeared.

At that instant, Nine Spirits' palm-sized body expanded by a large amount. His body was a meter long, and his two wings spread out. Each of them was almost three meters long. Without using the "Giant Spirit" ability, this was the limit of what the nine spirits could achieve.

Sitting on the Nine Spirits' back with his legs crossed, Tang Huan had a smile that was difficult to hide.

The moment the nine spirits started to fly, Tang Huan was indeed shocked. Although the speed of this little guy was not at the level of "Yin and Yang Void Method Sky Escape", it had surpassed "Sword Escape" and "Flowing Gold". The most important thing was that whether it was "Air Escape", "Sword Escape", or "Flowing Gold", they all required primeval essence to be used up, especially "Air Escape", and the rate at which primeval essence was used up was even more terrifying. The last two consumption rate was not much, but compared to "Air Escape", these three methods could not be used nonstop for a long time.

But nine spirits were different. With its strength, even if it flew without rest for ten days and ten nights, it would still be able to endure.

A single "Divine Traversal Talisman Bead" was able to allow nine spirits to reach such a speed; it was a miracle. Even after a long while, Tang Huan was still exclaiming in his heart.

With this speed, Tang Huan had already completely calmed down. Within ten days, he could feel that he was still in Yue Zhou.

The situation was urgent, so Tang Huan did not enter the Wind Howling City, but instead headed straight for there. In a short span of a day, Tang Huan had already returned to the Hidden Sword Pavilion.

Inside the pavilion, the "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword" was quietly lying on the ground. It exuded a monstrous sword intent that seemed to be able to pierce through the heavens. Just by looking at the situation inside, Tang Huan knew that he had achieved his goal of nurturing the sword. Now, he no longer appeared in the space at the bottom of the Hidden Sword Pavilion, but in the space above. In the three layers of space, the sword intent in the pillar had been completely absorbed by the middle stage Divine Armament.

"Hu!"

With a slight movement of his mind instructs (in a second), a "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" appeared in a flash. Tang Huan first threw the "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword" into the furnace, then threw the two high ranking Divine Armament s he had found in Luo Yue's den into the cauldron as well. In the next moment, the cauldron began to operate at a high speed.

The fusion began!

For this fusion, he completely focused on the Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword. Two high leveled Divine Armament s naturally could not be willing to be devoured by one middle leveled Divine Armament, and immediately erupted with strong resistance. However, under the terrifying sword intent of the "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword", the two high leveled Divine Armament were forced to retreat step by step, and in an instant, the "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword" had gained the absolute advantage, and then completely lost all ability to resist.

After a long while, Tang Huan left the Hidden Sword Hall and entered the Heavenly Sword Hall with the nine spirits.

In less than half an hour, the nine spirits already carried Tang Huan and soared into the sky. In the blink of an eye, they had already disappeared into the distant horizon.

Chapter 1056 - Goodbye Yu Feiyan

Among the low mountain peaks, the houses rose and fell continuously. The city was vast and boundless; this was Dragon City.

Dragon City was not only the encampment of the Sky Dragon Martial School, but also one of the two largest cities in the Le Prefecture. As for the other big city, the Rainbow Night City, it was the encampment of the Green Rainbow Sect.

The Yan State was a great sect of the Pure Yang Sword Sect, but the Le Prefecture was a place where the Heavenly Dragon Sect and the Green Rainbow Sect stood side by side.

The Sky Dragon Sect and the Cyan Rainbow Sect were located in the western part of the Lai Prefecture. There would normally be many small conflicts between the disciples of the two sects, but there were very few big fights, which was more or less enough to maintain the peace of the Lai Prefecture. At least, it would not be like the Hai Continent where it was common for the sect to be destroyed and the sect to be destroyed.

The night was getting late. In a courtyard at the south side of Dragon City.

"It's here!"

The courtyard door creaked open and a man in blue clothes walked in first. Following closely behind him was a handsome man in black clothing. On his right shoulder, there was a bright colored bird.

The black clothed man was naturally Tang Huan.

Relying on the [Divine Traversal Talisman Bead] that had been fused with his nine spirits, the time from Firing Dragon Mountain Range to Dragon City, and even the time he had spent in Yan Yang City, Tang Huan had spent seven days in total.

As for the blue clothed man, he was Sky Dragon Sect's Third Elder's grandson, Yue Haoyang, a Nihilism Tribulation Realm cultivator.

When he was still in the Yang Tribulation Realm during the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", he exposed his identity and background when he stole the Cloud Crystal from others. In the end, he was unluckily captured by the flying boat, and became Tang Huan's puppet.

That day at the "Firing Dragon Desperate Domain", Tang Huan had received his message.

Yu Feiyan was originally a disciple of the Green Rainbow Sect. After betraying the sect, he was chased by four Sky Origin Cultivators from the Green Rainbow Sect. Two of the four people were dead and two were injured, while Yu Feiyan was severely injured. In that moment of crisis, Yue Haoyang should have changed his appearance and appeared to kill the other two people.

Tang Huan had already sensed the extremely weak aura within the courtyard house and was extremely anxious. Yu Feiyan's condition seemed to be even worse than what he had imagined.

"Whoosh!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan brushed past Yue Haoyang's body, and in a moment passed through the dozen metres of space, and pushed the door open.

In the room, the light shone through, and a red figure laid quietly on the bed. Her eyes were slightly closed, and remained motionless, and she was Yu Feiyan. Even in her deep slumber, her eyebrows slightly knitted together, and a sickly flush appeared on her beautiful oval face.

At the side of the bed, there was a female Dark Tribulation Realm warrior sitting cross-legged on a cushion. Her figure was graceful and her face was beautiful, she was the cultivator Yue Yang invited to take care of Yu Feiyan. When she originally heard the commotion outside, she, who wanted to stand up, was shocked by Tang Huan who suddenly barged in.

Yue Haoyang, who followed closely behind, quickly waved his hands. Only then did the woman in black heaved a sigh of relief.

Tang Huan did not wake Yu Feiyan up. Instead, he went to the edge of the bed and sat down, gently pressing his right palm on the Dantian on her abdomen.

In between his mind instructs (in a second), a gentle true essence came out from Tang Huan's palm, and bit by bit, it entered Yu Feiyan's body, and then slowly swam around.

Yu Feiyan had obviously taken the most effective healing medicine before, her injuries between her internal organs and the Spiritual Meridian had already improved a lot, but the True Spirit in the Dantian was now filled with cracks like a spider web, as if it could completely burst apart at any time. Right now, there was not even a bit of True Essence left in her body.

With her current condition, she couldn't use a cultivation method, nor could she use a combat skill. She also didn't have any true essence to use, so she had already lost all her cultivation. It was a good thing that Yu Feiyan possessed the "Illusion Spirit Body" of the Seven Planets Spirit Body, allowing her to bear much more than normal cultivators, if not for it, the True Spirit would have already collapsed.

With the True Spirit gone in this way, even though she could preserve her life, she could only be an ordinary person in the future.

For a cultivator who had cultivated for more than 20 years and had reached the Sky Origin Stage, suddenly becoming an ordinary person was worse than death.

"I gave Lady Feiyan the healing pellet. Her life is fine, her internal organs and Spiritual Meridian will quickly recover, but her True Spirit's injuries are too severe, and the medicine from my Heavenly Dragon Sect won't be of much use. We can only maintain the current situation and not let her continue to deteriorate, but there's nothing we can do to cure her." Yue Haoyang lowered his voice and said carefully, with a helpless look on his face.

"Thank you Brother Yue, you've already done very well. Leave the rest to me. You guys can leave first." Tang Huan slightly nodded, and once again focused his attention on Yu Feiyan.

"Alright!"

Yue Haoyang nodded, and when he turned around and left, he waved towards the girl in black.

When the black-clothed woman saw this, she hurriedly followed. However, her eyes revealed a trace of surprise.

However, when he was talking to the young man now, there was actually a faint sense of respect on his face. Although that man called her "Brother Yue", but when he spoke, it was in a commanding tone, Yue Haoyang did not resist at all, the two of them did not seem like friends, but rather seemed like seniors and juniors.

Could this seemingly young man really be a senior from the Heavenly Dragon Sect?

Moreover, the feeling he gave off was indeed profound and unfathomable, just like the feeling she gave off when she faced those powerful elders of the Heavenly Dragon Sect.

In a blink of an eye, the girl in black had already followed Yue Hao out of the room.

This area regained its silence, Tang Huan dispelled all distracting thoughts and remained calm like water.

The green flame had already risen from his palm, and in the blink of an eye, it had already engulfed Yu Feiyan's body. The extremely dense life force did not scatter, but instead, converged, and under Tang Huan's urging, it slowly entered Yu Feiyan's body.

Using the life force of the "Great Ultimate Spiritual Fire" perfectly, Tang Huan then used the "Circular Harmonization of Life Tactic" at the same time.

This kind of cultivation technique would not be of much use in other times, but in this situation, it had miraculous effects. What Tang Huan needed to do now was to give life to the True Spirit that was about to explode. With life, the withered trees can regrow and the True Spirit can naturally heal.

Of course, with Yu Feiyan's current condition, no matter how strong the life force was in her Great Ultimate Spiritual Fire, she would not be able to recover in a day or two.

Time trickled by, Tang Huan was completely focused and immersed in his training.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan!"

After an unknown amount of time, a slightly hoarse voice entered his ears. Tang Huan suddenly opened his eyes, only to see that Yu Feiyan had awoken from his sleep, and within those phoenix eyes, an unconcealable joy appeared. "I'm not dreaming, right?"

"Senior apprentice-sister Feiyan, long time no see." Tang Huan's face revealed a smile.

Outside the window, the sky was bright.

Chapter 1057 - Disappearance

"What?" You appeared at the same place as Shan Shan? "

After a long while, Tang Huan's surprised exclamation suddenly sounded out in the room.

With the nourishment of his boundless vitality, Yu Feiyan's True Spirit that was on the verge of exploding also became thin in business, adding a few more points to its brilliance. Thus, after the joy of reuniting after a long period of separation, Tang Huan could not help but inquire about Yu Feiyan's experiences over the past few years.

After leaving the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road", they would be randomly sent to various areas in the Forging God Great World. For example, Tang Huan was in the Yan State, Feng Ming was in the Hai Continent, and Mu Yan was in the Yang Province.

Forging God Great World was so vast, the chances of two people being teleported to the same place was close to zero.

However, this kind of thing that was basically impossible to accomplish had actually happened to Shan Shan and Yu Feiyan, the enemies of this small world.

"Senior sister Feiyan, is Shan Shan in the Le Prefecture?"

Tang Huan's expression changed, and couldn't help but ask. It had been such a long time since he had news of Shan Shan and Yu Feiyan, but now, he knew everything.

"I don't know where she is either." Yu Feiyan laughed bitterly and shook his head, sighing softly, "It seems like Shan Shan and I have entered the cave of a broken ancient elite. There are mountains and rivers inside, and the scenery is extremely beautiful, but there are spatial rifts and traps everywhere."

"However, that place is extremely suitable for cultivation!"

"Shan Shan and I quickly and easily stepped into the True Spirit Level, unfortunately, it was not for long, and in less than two years, Shan Shan was engulfed by a trap and I also fell into a spatial crack.

"Later on, I joined the Green Rainbow Sect nearby.

His voice paused slightly, and Yu Feiyan continued, "At the beginning, I thought that it would be in the Le Prefecture, so I've been constantly asking around, but I didn't find anything. From the looks of it, that place should not be in Le Prefecture. Even if it is in Le Prefecture, it should be an extremely secretive and independent space. "

"That's hard."

Tang Huan frowned more tightly. According to Yu Feiyan's explanation, all the spatial cracks there should have had a teleportation effect. If this was really the case, then the place where she and Shan Shan were originally at might be any of the thirty-six provinces of the Forging God Great World.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, you must definitely find Shan Shan. Even if I fell into the spatial crack, I wouldn't die, and she is definitely still alive." Yu Feiyan looked at Tang Huan, his tone solemn.

"I also believe that nothing will happen to Shan Shan."

Tang Huan took a light breath, and said word by word.

He and Shan Shan had already known about it before, and although they could not connect soul to soul like Feng Ming, the combination of Yin and Yang of "Sun Spirit Body" and "Extreme Yin Spirit Body", as well as their water and milk, allowed Tang Huan and him to have a miraculous reaction. If one party died, the other party would definitely be able to sense it.

"Right."

Yu Feiyan nodded his head, then, as if he remembered something, he took out a yellow and old paper from the drawer of the bedside table and handed it over to Tang Huan: "Junior Brother Tang Huan, this is a part of the map that I drew from my impression, look at the Yan State, there are none that match up to it."

Tang Huan brought it over and took a look. On the page, it was actually a landscape painting.

A moment later, Tang Huan's heart thumped. He immediately took out the scroll he obtained from the Sumeru Magical Ring, and opened it in front of Yu Feiyan: "Senior Sister Feiyan, is that place like this?"

"That's right, just like that!"

Yu Feiyan only needed a single glance to immediately jump down from the bed with his bare feet. Pointing to the center of the scroll, he said in shock, "Look at this mountain. Junior Brother Tang Huan, where did you get this? "

"Took it from someone else."

Tang Huan said in a rather depressed manner, "It's just that I don't know what it's drawing either! Its previous owner is already dead, and not even a speck of dregs are left. "

Luo Yue was scared out of his wits. The rest of the people in Luo Village had also completely disappeared. Otherwise, they would have been able to uncover some information. However, even though he didn't know where the painting on the scroll was pointing to, he was certain that there was something else hidden within the scroll.

After obtaining it, Tang Huan had never paid any attention to it. Since it was related to Shan Shan's whereabouts, he must first thoroughly study it.

Hearing Tang Huan's words, Yu Feiyan was also a little disappointed.

"So many years have passed, there's no need to rush to get to know about Shan Shan."

Tang Huan took a light breath and asked in a deep voice, "Senior Sister Feiyan, what happened between you and the Green Rainbow Sect?" As he said till here, an additional coldness emerged in Tang Huan's eyes.

Upon hearing the words "Green Rainbow Sect", Yu Feiyan's brows were already filled with anger: "The matter is very simple. The son of the Sect Master of the Green Rainbow Sect went to the" Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm "to gain experience, and seemingly wanted to snatch a treasure called the" True Marrow of Five Elements ", only to be injured severely in the process."

"Although he barely managed to preserve his life, after coming out he became retarded. He didn't even know how to circulate his true essence and there was no longer any future for him. In the end, that old bastard from the Green Rainbow Sect started to find wives for him among all the female disciples in the sect.

"Don't even mention that guy being retarded, even if he wasn't retarded, I still wouldn't marry him! So, I injured that guy and stole a bottle of 'Long Li's True Spring' to escape. I originally thought that I would be safe in Lan Ling City. I never thought that they would catch up to me so quickly. "

"Thank god your friend showed up in time. Otherwise, you probably wouldn't be able to see me." When he finished speaking, Yu Feiyan remembered that he almost caused the backlash of his "spirit body" to die, and couldn't help but sigh. As long as Yue Haoyang came a little later, she and Tang Huan would be separated like heaven and earth.

"Senior Sister Feiyan, the 'true essence of Five Elements' of the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm' actually flowed out from my hands."

Tang Huan was a little dazed when he heard this, and couldn't help but rub his nose, as he said somewhat apologetically.

Indeed, he did not expect Yu Feiyan's betrayal of the Green Rainbow Sect to actually have something to do with him. He had used "true essence of Five Elements" twice in the Central Wasteland City to exchange for Natural Divine Stone and other treasures of heaven and earth. There were many cultivators who had obtained this kind of treasure, and the number of battles that occurred was even more numerous.

Back then, if Tang Huan hadn't used them to exchange for Natural Divine Stone, then the son of the Green Rainbow Sect's leader wouldn't have coveted them and would have naturally not become retarded after getting injured. If he was not retarded, his father would not have thought of choosing a wife for him, and of course, would not have provoked Yu Feiyan's escape.

However, if Yu Feiyan did not betray her, Yue Haoyang would not be able to meet her. Like this, it was unknown how long it would take for Tang Huan to find out about her and Shan Shan.

The butterfly's wings gently flapped, causing a series of coincidences to appear.

Yu Feiyan obviously understood this point as well. She looked at Tang Huan in a daze, an unimaginable expression appearing on her beautiful face.

Chapter 1058 - Rainbow Night City

"It seems that our reunion was all thanks to that fool."

After a long while, Yu Feiyan laughed involuntarily, "However, this old lady will not be grateful to him. Before entering the Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm, he had harmed countless female disciples of the Green Rainbow Sect. Although he had become a fool upon coming out, he had not forgotten about that sort of thing and had instead intensified it. During this period of time, quite a few female disciples had suffered. "Before I betrayed the Green Rainbow Sect, I actually wanted to kill him, but unfortunately, I didn't dare to do it. If he died, that bastard old man would personally follow me.

As he finished speaking, Yu Feiyan felt rather helpless.

"Sister Feiyan, your most important thing right now is to heal your wounds. Don't think too much about other things, I'll help you with what you haven't done." When the last few words came out of his mouth, a terrifying killing intent swept out from Tang Huan's body, causing the temperature in the room to plummet.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, you're not thinking of killing that fool, are you?" Yu Feiyan was shocked.

"How can killing such a fool be enough?" Tang Huan's eyes flashed with coldness, "This time, the entire Cyan Rainbow Sect must pay the price!"

"Tang Huan, you must not act rashly, there are several Void Transformation Stage experts in the Green Rainbow Sect, and even more Nascent Profound cultivators."

Yu Feiyan tried to advise her.

According to what she had heard, Tang Huan seemed to have been a profound practitioner at the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm" for more than a year. Now that it had been more than a year, even if Tang Huan had improved, he was only at the second profound transformation.

"Senior Sister Feiyan, do you know how many days it took for me to come here from the southern part of Yan State?" Tang Huan suddenly laughed.

"How many days? At least a few months! "

Yu Feiyan calculated the distance between each place and said as if it was a conditioned reflex.

But when he said that, Yu Feiyan was stunned.

She suddenly realised that from the time she was rescued by Yue Haoyang, it had not even been eight days. Tang Huan had obviously arrived last night, and it had been exactly seven days. In just seven days, he had traversed through almost the entire Yan State and half of the Le Prefecture? When she realized this, her face was filled with shock.

How could a Dongxuan cultivator be so fast?

Even if it was a Void Transformation Stage cultivator, his speed would not be so fast.

"Seven days?" After a moment, Yu Feiyan could not help but exclaim.

"With such speed, what's there to be afraid of?"

Tang Huan smiled lightly.

In the short term he didn't use the Dantian, and adding the fact that today, the "Divine Traversal Talisman Bead" in his body could be maintained for eight more days, Tang Huan decided to make use of this time to make a trip to the Cyan Rainbow Sect.

After all, if he missed this opportunity, it would be a long time before he would have another chance.

"Ga ji!" The nine spirits called out, like Lei Ming, they shook their glossy and beautiful feathers, looking extremely proud.

"This is ..." Spiritual Beast? "

Yu Feiyan was slightly surprised.

She had long seen the multicolored bird on Tang Huan's body, but didn't pay too much attention to it. She didn't expect its cries to be so shocking, and what surprised her even more was that the spirit that the multicolored bird had, other than the bird's shell, looked extremely similar to a human being.

"Ga ji!" Jiu Ling glared at Yu Feiyan in dissatisfaction.

"Saint Beast!"

Tang Huan corrected him while smiling, "The reason I was able to come so quickly was all because of it."

Hearing Tang Huan's words, the nine spirits were overjoyed. They were also extremely pleased with themselves as they pecked the feathers on their wings from time to time.

"So that's how it is."

Yu Feiyan took a deep breath in shock, and then calmed down, "Since that's the case, there's no harm in going to the Green Rainbow Sect. Junior Brother Tang Huan, when I joined the Green Rainbow Sect, there was an item that was brought out by an elder of the Green Rainbow Sect. In the end, he forced me to leave and said that I had borrowed it to enjoy it for a few days, but never returned it. If we can get it back, it might be helpful in finding that place. "

"Oh? Which elder is it? "

"Gu Cheng'an!"

... ..

In the western part of the Le Prefecture, countless stone peaks that were hundreds or even thousands of meters tall towered over the endless forest. In the western part of the Le Prefecture, countless stone peaks that were hundreds or even thousands of meters tall rose up into the endless forest.

This was Rainbow Night City!

This enormous city was divided into the inner city and outer city. The people living in the outer city were ordinary cultivators, while the people living in the inner city's circumference of almost a hundred miles were all from the Green Rainbow Sect. A huge round cover formed from azure light separated the inner city from the outer city.

There were only four entrances between the inner city and outer city. Without permission, no one from the outer city was allowed to enter the inner city.

"Trash!" He's practically a piece of trash! "

In the evening, in a hall on top of a mountain in the inner city, an angry roar suddenly rang out, "Four Sky Origin Stage cultivators, it's one thing if they didn't capture that traitor, but she still killed two of them, and the other two were also killed by someone else!"

"I've trained for so many years, but I've always cultivated for the sake of a dog!"

The one berating in anger was a rather tall Black Costume Old Man. His face was ashen, like a lion who had been angered to the point of baring his fangs and brandishing his claws.

This Black Costume Old Man was the Green Rainbow Sect's Elder, Gu Cheng'an!

After Yu Feiyan fled, he had to arrange for a complicated group of people to organize and apprehend him.

Just a moment ago, news had spread from Lan Ling City. Ten days ago, four Green Rainbow Sect cultivators had fought with Yu Feiyan, but in the end, the result enraged him.

Not only did they not succeed, they were even killed by Yu Feiyan. In the end, another person with a black cloth over his face appeared, took care of the other two, and saved Yu Feiyan. Today, Yu Feiyan had already disappeared without a trace.

Such a large sect could not even deal with a traitor. If word of this got out, the Green Rainbow Sect would become a laughingstock in the Le Prefecture.

Moreover, he had no way of explaining it to the Sect Leader!

In front of Gu Cheng'an, the three middle-aged men's faces were sprayed with saliva, but their heads drooped down fearfully, not daring to refute.

"Immediately send people to Orchid Fragrance City ..."

With a gloomy face, he shouted, "No, the three of you will go to Orchid Mountain City personally and investigate carefully for me. I want to see who has the guts to dare to openly take away the rebellion of our Green Rainbow Sect!"

"There's no need to go to Lan Ling City. I'm already here!"

However, before the three middle-aged men could reply, a string of notes, which were as cold as ice, reverberated in the palace without any warning.

Chapter 1059 - Life and Death!

"Who?"

This voice came too suddenly. Both Gu Cheng'an and the three middle-aged men were shocked and when they looked towards the source of the voice, they saw that a figure had appeared in the hall. The figure was covered entirely by a black robe and only two eyes could be seen.

"Did you save Yu Feiyan's rebellion?"

Suddenly, Gu Cheng'an came back to his senses. He shouted out loud, and his face showed a surprised and uncertain expression.

The Green Rainbow Sect was divided into the inner city and outer city. The four corners were guarded by cultivators day and night. It was impossible for outsiders to barge in silently. However, not only had this person barged into the inner city, he had even managed to find the residence of an elder without anyone noticing. No matter how they looked at it, it was somewhat inconceivable.

Could it be that this man was a traitor of the Green Rainbow Sect, and was extremely close to Yu Feiyan?

Otherwise, how could a passerby risk offending the Green Rainbow Sect to save a traitor, and even kill two Green Rainbow Sect cultivators?

A lot of thoughts flashed across Gu Cheng'an's mind in the blink of an eye.

"That's right!" The black-robed man nodded.

"I was about to send someone to find you, but you actually delivered yourself to my doorstep." Good! Good! "Very good!"

Gu Cheng'an's face was extremely dark.

It was one thing for the man to save Yu Feiyan, but he actually dared to infiltrate his clan elder's residence, because he was too arrogant. If he let him escape, how would he have the face to stay in the Green Rainbow Sect? Then, Gu Cheng'an waved his hand and shouted, "Surround him, don't let him escape!"

"Whoosh!" "Whiz!" "Whiz!"

The three middle-aged men woke up and immediately displayed their full strength. They moved as fast as lightning and immediately surrounded the man in black.

When the man in black saw this, he didn't panic at all. Instead, he revealed a smile, "Gu Cheng'an, since I have the guts to come here, how could I run away like this?"

"You know me?" When Gu Cheng'an heard this, his pupils couldn't help shrinking. He felt more and more that this person was a spy from the Green Rainbow Sect. He shouted in anger, "Who the hell are you?"

"You think this old man can't find out who you are just because you're dressed like this?"

"In the Green Rainbow Sect, there are very few people who are on good terms with Yu Feiyan and have the strength to easily kill two Sky Origin Cultivators. "As a Green Rainbow Cultivator, it's fine if you don't want to return the favor. But you actually dared to save a traitor and killed a fellow disciple. It's not worth dying for!"

"However, as you have committed your first offense and your cultivation was not easy to cultivate, if you hand Yu Feiyan over and cripple your own cultivation, this old man can beg for mercy from the sect master and spare your life! Otherwise, not only will you die, I will also find and kill all your friends and family members! "

As he said that, Gu Cheng'an's expression became stern.

"You think I'm a cultivator from the Green Rainbow Sect?"

The black-robed man seemed to be stunned for a moment, and then, he couldn't help but laugh, "If you want to think so, there is no reason why you shouldn't. Gu Cheng'an, cut the crap. Hand over that thing that you took away when Yu Feiyan joined the Green Rainbow Sect, and I'll let you die a quick death! "

"What?"

Gu Cheng'an's face suddenly changed. He laughed out of anger. Give this old man a quick death? This old man will let you know how the word 'death' is written now! "Attack! Without question, life and death!"

With that said, the three middle aged men almost all unsheathed their swords at the back at the same time and pounced on Tang Huan at the same time.

The golden, red and yellow sword beams were either unrivalled in sharpness, extremely berserk or extremely powerful. The Strength Qi intersected and the sword intent filled the void, sealing off dozens of space including Tang Huan. The terrifying aura rippled and quickly filled the entire palace.

Gu Cheng'an squinted, while a snake-like cold smile flashed in his eyes.

Although he did not know how the black clothed man barged in soundlessly and stealthily, nor did he know how he concealed his presence, but he was certain of one thing, that the black clothed man was a spy who was on good terms with Yu Feiyan, and his cultivation was definitely not high enough.

Being able to cultivate to the Yin Tribulation Realm meant that he was definitely not an idiot. He must have something to rely on to brazenly appear here. It was a pity that the black clothed man's three opponents were all at least at the third transformation. With such a huge gap in strength, it would be a joke no matter how much he relied on.

Furthermore, other than the three experts of the Third Transformation, this hall also had him, the Elder at the peak of the Fourth Transformation standing guard!

This traitor had no way of escaping today.

However, at this moment, an incomparably terrifying sword intent suddenly exploded out of the sword light that filled the sky. The smile in Gu Cheng'an's eyes suddenly disappeared, and his expression immediately changed drastically. His uncontrollable trembling rushed out from the depths of his soul, making him feel as if he was being instantly torn to shreds.

At this moment, Gu Cheng'an was extremely shocked.

How could this traitor activate such a terrifying sword intent? Compared to the sword intent that had suddenly appeared, the sword intents of the three Mystic Three Transformations cultivators were pitifully weak.

"Sword Corrosion!"

At the instant the two notes rang out, the dazzling sword light suddenly surged from the center of the region. Wherever it passed, the sword light that filled the surrounding space was constantly being corroded, to the point where even the three middle-aged men who had been launching attacks were unable to escape, and instantly melted away.

Seeing that, Gu Cheng'an's expression changed even more.

The three experts of the Third Transformation were completely wiped from this world before they could even make a sound. Was that traitor's strength really that terrifying? Gu Cheng'an didn't dare to believe his eyes. His mind was filled with the three's faces filled with fear and despair.

"Hu!"

Dazzling sword light exploded out like a volcano, constantly gushing out in all directions, as if wanting to erode and melt the surrounding space. Gu Cheng'an was suddenly awakened. Without any hesitation, he explosively retreated backwards. Boundless true essence gushed forth like raging waves and instantly condensed into barriers.

However, under that sword light, his true essence barrier rapidly dissipated.

When the fourth true essence barrier was corroded by the sword light, Gu Cheng'an was extremely close to the side wall of the hall. However, he didn't hesitate as his back directly collided with it.

"Bam!"

With an explosive sound, rubble flew everywhere, and a large hole appeared in the wall.

Gu Cheng'an's body, accompanied by countless crushed stones, passed through the cave and landed about ten meters away. Another thick layer of true essence formed in front of him, and within his line of sight, the entire palace wall rapidly melted.

In the blink of an eye, the wide hall disappeared completely. When the sword aura was about to touch the True Essence barrier in front of Gu Cheng'an, it stopped expanding and quickly faded away. In less than a breath, it completely dissipated.

Chapter 1060 - Instant Capture!

Gu Cheng'an calmed down from his shock and heaved a sigh of relief.

He had completely awakened, the black clothed man who saved Yu Feiyan was definitely not a traitor of the Green Rainbow Sect.

With his peak of the fourth transformation, even though he could kill the three second transformation cultivators, it would not be as easy as it was now. In the entire Green Rainbow Sect, only a few Void Transformation Stage powerhouses and a very small number of Elders of the Five Transformation Stage were able to do something like this.

None of those Void Transformation Stage experts or the five transformation elders had a figure, voice, or aura that matched this man in black.

Who was this person?

Was his cultivation at the Five Transformation of the Abyss Profound or the Void Transformation Stage?

While Gu Cheng'an was shocked, a sliver of joy appeared in his heart. It was fortunate that he didn't join in the attack with those three people earlier. Otherwise, he might not be able to live on in this world anymore! Although they hadn't truly fought, he could sense that he was definitely going to be his opponent's opponent.

After a moment, the sense of joy in his heart had already disappeared, and a flash of panic appeared in his eyes.

The black-clothed man's figure had already appeared in his line of sight. He held a huge fiery-red sword in his hand and was flying over at a lightning speed.

"Halt!"

Gu Cheng'an was frightened and shouted, "Your sword intent has already alarmed the entire inner city. The experts of my Green Rainbow Sect have disappeared in a blink of an eye. If you put down your weapon and surrender, I can still plead for you. Otherwise, once the experts of my sect arrive, you will die without a burial place. "

At this moment, he was also desperately trying to find a cure, hoping that he could stall for time.

"Idiot!"

The man in black sneered.

The moment the two runes appeared, Gu Cheng'an's vision blurred, and the huge sword in his hands disappeared. In place of the sword was a Fire Red Long Spear.

"Chi!"

In a split-second, the spear had already pierced out at a moderate pace.

Upon seeing this, Gu Cheng'an heaved a sigh of relief. Thankfully, the opponent had only used a simple attack and hadn't used the powerful battle skill from before. He could clearly see the trajectory of his opponent's spear. With his peak level of the four forms, it shouldn't be difficult for him to block it.

However, the moment this thought appeared in his mind, Gu Cheng'an was stunned.

That spear did not seem to be very fast, however, in less than half a blink of an eye, the fiery red spear head that contained a blazing aura had already penetrated several dozen meters of space and appeared in front of his chest in an extremely strange manner.

"So fast?"

Gu Cheng'an was shocked, but before he could react, he let out a groan. At the same time, a sharp pain came from his chest. This caused him to be so shocked that his soul almost flew out of his body. He hurriedly looked down and saw that the fiery red spear had pierced through his chest.

Seeing that, Gu Cheng'an couldn't believe his eyes.

It was clearly a slow spear, but why was it so fast? Almost at the same time he moved, his right hand had only just grasped the sword hilt, and he didn't even have the time to pull it out of the sheath.

"You, you ..."

Gu Cheng'an felt that it was a bit unbelievable, but before he could even finish speaking, a star shaped white-colored odor appeared before him. Immediately after, a sharp pain surged out from the depths of his soul. Gu Cheng'an immediately became confused, and his consciousness entered into a trance.

In the next moment, a Space Aircraft appeared above Gu Cheng'an's head and sucked him in.

"What rascal, how dare you act so atrociously in my Green Rainbow Sect, put him down!" It was at this moment that an explosive shout suddenly exploded out, rumbling back and forth between heaven and earth like thunder. In an instant, it shocked the entire inner city of the Green Rainbow Sect.

"You said to let it go just like that?"

The black clothed man laughed coldly, the Space Aircraft quickly shrank, and crawled into his sleeves. On his chest, there was a small ball of black shadow that appeared, it was actually a palm sized black little bird, it's body quickly expanded, and in a moment, it was already around one meter long.

The black-clothed man soared into the sky and sat on the back of the Dark Bird with his legs crossed.

"Whoosh!"

Immediately afterwards, the rainbow bird scurried out, its speed unbelievably fast.

Almost the same instant the black bird and the man in black disappeared into the horizon, a white silhouette landed on the peak of the mountain. It was a white-robed elder with a long beard that brushed his chest and a ruddy complexion.

"Want to run?" This old man wants to see where you can escape to! "

With a shout from his mouth, the white-robed old man shot out like an arrow leaving the bow. Not only was his speed shockingly fast, he was even moving on air.

Not long later, several other figures appeared on top of the unkempt mountain peak. Everything that had happened here had already spread crazily throughout the inner city.

"What's going on? What was going on? An enemy broke into the inner city of our Green Rainbow Sect? "

"That sword intent just now was too scary. Could it be that the intruder was a Virtual Level Ranker?"

"Elder Gu Cheng'an has been captured, Dong Changsheng, Ke Bo and Ma Zheng killed ... What was the background of that person? How dare you come to our Green Rainbow Sect?"

"Elder Xian Hai Pearl has already caught up to him. He is a second transition Void Transformation Stage expert, there's no way that guy can escape!"

"..."

In the vast inner city, people were discussing everywhere on the streets and alleys. All sorts of discussions were going on.

The outer city was as calm as ever. The movements in the inner city had not spread out yet, but the four tunnels were tightly guarded. Only people could enter, not leave.

Southwest of the outer city, in an abandoned courtyard.

The dense vines climbed up, covering a wide pavilion. Inside the pitch black pavilion, a Space Aircraft was currently blooming with a faint luster. Above the aircraft, a small black bird the size of a palm had already squatted down. The black aura surrounding its body gradually disappeared, revealing a beautiful, nine colored light.

Inside the aircraft, a black clothed man was sitting cross-legged on the ground.

In front of him, there was a tall and big old man quietly lying down. There was a charred black hole that was the size of a bowl in his chest, and it had penetrated his entire body.

"Hu!"

Letting out a light breath, the black clothed man took off his hood, revealing an extremely handsome face. It was Tang Huan.

The person in front of him was naturally Gu Cheng'an.

Beneath Tang Huan's spear, even though his heart had completely disappeared, when Tang Huan used the "Absolute Spear" style, he had already retracted a bit of his strength, and only harmed his internal organs, not the True Spirit s. As long as the True Spirit was not destroyed, cultivators, even if they had internal organs, would not die.

Keeping Gu Cheng'an's life was in order to retrieve Yu Feiyan's things from his body.

Now, Tang Huan was not interested in turning Gu Cheng'an into his own puppet, so he directly reached out to grab him, and took out his soul.
