

W. Master 1071

Chapter 1071 - Zhan Zhangkong

"I'll ask again, are you willing to give it a try?" Tang Huan immediately spoke out again, but his tone had already sunk.

"No!"

The scar-faced man said these two words with determination, and looked at Tang Huan with a tinge of ridicule in his eyes, the red-robed elder beside him also stared at Tang Huan like a tiger, his gaze filled with ridicule, clearly showing that he did not care about Tang Huan at all.

"If you don't want to, then scram!"

In a split second, Tang Huan's right fist was already out.

The fist was like a balloon that rapidly expanded, and the air in front of him seemed to have been compressed to the extreme. Pang Shuo's fist appeared in front of the scar-faced man at a speed that was hard to catch with the naked eye.

"Fist Seal!"

This was impressively the last technique Tang Huan had comprehended from the space within the Flame Ancestor.

The scar-faced man's expression suddenly changed. Previously, the reason he was so fearless was obviously not because of his own strength, but because of the two words "War Clan".

As a Disciples, no matter where he went, no one dared to bully him.

With such an identity blocking the entrance of the passage, even if it was a Void Transformation Stage expert from the Green Rainbow Sect, they would not act rashly to avoid the intense retaliation from the War Clan.

But he did not expect Tang Huan to not have such considerations at all.

After confirming that he was unwilling to give up, he immediately used the simplest and most direct method to deal with it. Seeing this sudden punch, the shock in his chest could not be described with words. He was only a peak cultivator of the second transition, but judging from his aura, his opponent's cultivation should have already reached the peak of the third transformation.

It was one thing to have a higher cultivation base than him, but the power of that punch was even more unbelievable. Even an ordinary cultivator of the Five Transformation wouldn't be able to use it.

It was impossible for him to withstand such a punch.

It was a good thing that aside from him, there was also a companion at the peak of the five forms.

Seeing how frightening his opponent's attack was, that companion of his would definitely not sit there and do nothing. With his help, he was most likely able to block this lightning strike.

"Get out of the way!"

Sure enough, an anxious shout exploded from the side. Almost at the same time this voice rang out, he retreated without any hesitation. However, it was useless. He didn't even have the time to lift his right foot to take a step back before the shadow of Pang Shuo's fist covered his entire body.

"Bam!"

With an explosive sound, the scar-faced man didn't even have the time to let out a snort before his body flew backwards like he had been defeated.

Before his body even landed on the ground, it suddenly exploded and turned into a ball of golden blood mist. After that, it instantly dissipated into nothingness under the onslaught of the whistling terrifying Strength Qi. Even the enormous blade in his hand disintegrated inch by inch as it shot out in all directions, completely crippling him.

At this time, the red robed elder had only just raised the long blade in his hand, and the Genuine Qi had not even entered the blade's body yet.

As the red-robed old man saw this, he was immediately dumbfounded.

The surrounding cultivators were tongue-tied. The two ends of the tunnel fell into a deathly silence. Seeing Tang Huan, the god of plague that had plagued the Green Rainbow Sect for many days, clashing with someone from the War Clan, they felt gloating in their hearts, and were even eager to fight against him.

In everyone's minds, no matter how brazen this god of pests was, he would not dare to kill the people from War Clan.

After all, the War Clan was one of the strongest forces in the Forging God Great World and there were many Void Transformation Stage powerhouses in the clan. Even if the ten Cyan Rainbow Sect members combined, they could not compare to a single War Clan.

The next moment, the god of pests made his move.

However, what no one expected was that the god of pests would actually destroy the experts of War Clan with one punch, and not leave any trace of residue at all.

"Sky!"

The red robed elder woke up from his stupor, and in the next moment, both his eyes widened, his pupils splitting apart, as though he wanted nothing more than to tear Tang Huan into pieces, "You actually killed Kong Chang?" As he spoke, boundless killing intent gushed out from his body and instantly condensed into a substance. This area immediately became extremely oppressive.

"Sky?"

Tang Huan's eyes moved slightly. "Zhan Zhangkong?"

He felt that this name was rather familiar, and after a moment of thought, Tang Huan suddenly remembered that in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", there was a War Clan who was extremely famous, and that was Zhan Zhangkong. Although Tang Huan had never seen him before, she knew from the memories of the crowd that there was someone like him.

To have such a cultivation level at such a young age, he was clearly a genius among the young generation of War Clan.

However, although Tang Huan was surprised, he did not feel the slightest bit of regret. So what if he was the young genius of War Clan?

"You dare to kill my War Clan!? This old man will make you beg for death!"

As if he was an enraged lion, the red robed elder roared, the long blade in his hand slashed at Tang Huan crazily, one slash after another, his speed was extremely fast, in a blink of an eye, hundreds of incomparably sharp blade lights roared out, filling up the entire pathway.

"Chi!"

Tang Huan laughed coldly in his heart. The instant the "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword" appeared, it transformed into a "Conqueror Spear", and then, the Fire Red Long Spear stabbed forward. It did not look fast or slow, but its speed was extremely terrifying.

Spear Extreme!

"Boom —"

[illegible]

In the blink of an eye, the hundreds of blade lights had completely collapsed. As for the "Conqueror Spear", it traversed a dozen meters of space and stabbed into the body of the red-robed elder's long blade.

"Ding!"

The sound of metal clashing rang out.

The red-robed elder immediately retreated twenty to thirty meters as if he had suffered a heavy blow. His entire face was suffused with a faint golden color and blood seemed to be about to seep out from his pores. Although he immediately stabilized his steps, his eyes were still filled with disbelief.

He was not an ordinary cultivator of the five transformations, but an expert at the peak of the five transformations. He was only half a step away from Virtual Level, but now, he was actually forced back by a fellow at the peak of the three transformations. If that fellow had used some sort of powerful offensive skill or divine ability, then it would have been fine. However, that spear was simple. Even the lowest grade of spear skills were slightly more complex than this one.

"Chi!"

The sharp sound of something tearing through the air rang out once more.

In his line of sight, the black figure had actually already passed through the Strength Qi's and the spatial distortion tunnel. A simple thrust from his spear again, the spear's speed did not seem fast, but the spear's speed had already reached the pinnacle, and the moment he saw the spear, he felt as if his entire body was locked on, as if he would not be able to dodge the Fire Red Long Spear's attack no matter where he went.

Chapter 1072 - Battle King Gold Body

A terrifying sense of impenetrable danger arose from the depths of his soul. The red-robed old man didn't hesitate as he brandished the long saber in his hand.

"Hu!"

With a whistling sound, the incomparably sharp storm roared out, and as it did, the streak of fiery red light had already pierced into the storm.

The scene from a moment ago played out once more.

The tornado formed by the Strength Qi and the blade intent had not even fully displayed its power yet, and had already dissipated, while the long spear had once again struck the blade's body.

"Bam!"

With a loud roar, the old man was forced back again.

Only after retreating thirty to forty meters away did he manage to stabilize his feet. The violently churning vital energy and blood in his chest could no longer be suppressed. Immediately, golden blood wildly spurted out from his mouth. At this moment, the red-robed old man's brows subconsciously revealed a hint of fear.

When the Strength Qi storm was destroyed by the Fire Red Long Spear, he could still clearly see its trajectory, as if he only needed to slightly shift the blade in his hand, and then casually take a step back to avoid it. However, before he could put his thoughts into action, the spear and blade had already collided against each other.

"What kind of battle skill is this?"

As he panicked, the red-robed old man felt even more inconceivable.

Under normal circumstances, if the former faced the latter, it should be impossible for the latter to retaliate at all. However, if the latter was really that ruthless, the former should be killed in a matter of seconds. But now, the situation was completely reversed. Not only did the former completely suppress the latter, but just two simple shots had already caused the latter heavy injuries.

"From the looks of it, he is not very old. How could there be such a powerful Xuan expert among the younger generation of the Cyan Rainbow Sect?" Could it be that he was not lying before, and is really not a cultivator of the Green Rainbow Sect? " In an instant, many thoughts flashed through the old man's mind.

"Swish!"

At this moment, it was clear that no one would give him the answer, and what Tang Huan responded with, was another simple spear.

The red-robed old man's pupils shrank. He couldn't help but feel a chill in his heart. Without any hesitation, he threw away the sword in his hand and backed up as fast as he could.

Almost at the same time, a golden aura gushed out from the red-robed elder.

The originally tall and sturdy body began to rapidly expand at a speed that was beyond the reach of the naked eye. In less than a blink of an eye, his height had already reached a terrifying twenty meters. From afar, it looked like a mountain of flesh, its entire body surrounded by an extremely dense golden aura. Violent and domineering fluctuations rolled out in all directions like stormy waves, looking like a thunderbolt that struck at ten thousand men.

"Kill!"

The War Clan suddenly stopped in his tracks, and his right leg brazenly kicked at the Fire Red Long Spear that was stabbing at him. Instantly, the surrounding space started to crack and shatter, and terrifying energy exploded out layer after layer.

The terrifying Strength Qi blotted out the sky and the earth, as though it could instantly destroy any obstacle in the world.

"Battle King's Golden Body!"

Tang Huan squinted his eyes, and immediately recognized the technique the War Clan elder was using.

Back then, when they were in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", Tang Huan had controlled numerous puppets from different provinces, so he naturally did not miss the War Clan. From the War Clan Puppet's memories, not only did Tang Huan learn about the's special ability, "Battle King's Gold Body", he also learned about its cultivation method.

Once this ability was used, not only would the body become incomparably strong, the strength of one's flesh body would also increase explosively.

Due to the fact that he possessed the same golden blood as the Disciples, Tang Huan was extremely interested in this sacred art that could only be cultivated with the War Clan's bloodline. He even spent some time to study the "Battle King's Golden Body", but the result made Tang Huan extremely happy.

Not only did his physical condition and the "Battle King's Golden Body" not reject him, they even complemented each other very well.

In the blink of an eye, Pang Shuo's foot, which carried the overflowing Strength Qi, ruthlessly kicked the long spear.

Amidst an earth-shaking explosion, the exceptionally terrifying Strength Qi crazily swept in all directions, and it seemed as though a terrifying hurricane had suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

For a moment, the surrounding area had a drastic change in color as sand and rocks were sent flying everywhere.

Within a hundred meter radius, some cultivators with weaker cultivations were directly thrown into the air. All of the buildings were turned into dust, and the originally even ground started to collapse. Dense dust and sand rose into the air, causing the space in front of the path to suddenly become blurred.

Under the cover of the dust, the War Clan elder was pushed back a step, while Tang Huan was under the impact of the huge force, he was forced back a few steps before he managed to stabilize his body.

After the War Clan's old man unleashed his "Battle King's Golden Body" ability, he actually held the upper hand.

"Take another of this old man's punches!"

A huge whistling sound tore through the air. At this moment, it was as if a huge mountain had collapsed, and the Strength Qi was pouring down from the skies like a waterfall. A terrifying might spread throughout the world, causing it to be difficult for anyone to defend against it.

Seeing that, Tang Huan was not only not worried, but also had a strange smile on his lips.

In a blink of an eye, the "Conqueror Spear" in Tang Huan's palm had disappeared, following that, his body released a faint gold luster, and after that, a dense gold Qi roared out, and his body started to expand at an astonishing speed, the clothes covering his body started to completely tear.

In just the blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already surpassed twenty meters tall, and quickly increased to a height of twenty-five meters. Not only did he surpass the old man from War Clan in terms of height, his physique was even more muscular and sturdy than the old man from War Clan.

"You, you ... 'Battle King Gold Body '? Who exactly are you? "

He had never expected that the person who had first killed Zhan Zhangkong, then heavily injured him and forced him to use a sacred art, would be able to do the same to him.

The Battle King's Golden Body could only be cultivated by cultivators with the War Clan bloodline.

The opposing party was several heads taller than him, and his body was also a full circle larger. Obviously, his opponent's attainments in a divine ability like the 'Battle-King's Golden Body' far surpassed his own.

In the entire War Clan, only those Void Transformation Stage powerhouses would be stronger than him in this regard.

This person was at the peak of the third form, so it was one thing to be able to use the "Battle King's Golden Body", but his attainments in sacred art had actually far exceeded his own. Such an unbelievable thing could actually happen? The War Clan looked as if he had seen a ghost.

Chapter 1073 - Killing in one strike

Could it be that this man was disguised by some War Clan Ranker? Or, was he a scattered War Clan?

The possibility of the former was very small, but the latter was very likely. War Clan had been in the Forging God Great World for countless of years, so it was not surprising that they had Disciples in their possession.

But, this man had the War Clan bloodline, not only did he not support his own kind, he had even ruthlessly killed his own kind!

After the initial shock, the War Clan elder suddenly felt an indescribable rage from the bottom of his heart.

"Hu!"

In the next moment, Pang Shuo's fist smashed out.

At almost the same time, Tang Huan also threw out a punch, as if two gigantic meteors were approaching at a rapid pace, with a huge whistling sound that seemed to be able to tear ear drums.

"Bam!"

In the blink of an eye, the two massive fists collided with each other.

An ear-piercing explosion shook the world. When the two fists collided, a terrifying wave of energy visible to the naked eye swept in all directions. In an instant, it had already spread over a hundred meters away. From a height of twenty to thirty meters in the sky, it was as if a hurricane had risen out of thin air, causing the Strength Qi to wreak havoc in the surrounding area.

"Deng —"

Immediately after, the sound of feet stomping the ground resonated outwards, Tang Huan was pushed back one step, while the old man from War Clan was pushed back three steps, both of them landed on the ground, causing dust and sand to roll up, the dense and dense cracks actually extended out in all directions like a spider web with the sole as the center.

They were both "Battle King's Golden Body", but this kind of sacred art, the stronger and stronger the body, the stronger the War Clan would be, and the old man would once again be at a disadvantage.

"Hu!"

Without the slightest hesitation, Tang Huan's fist smashed out once again, but the War Clan elder did not show any signs of weakness. He roared out like an injured beast and returned the punch with his fist.

"Bam!"

"Bam!"

"..."

The two of them punched each other, and huge explosions sounded out one after another.

Watching the two golden giants continuously attack each other from the front and back of the passageway, many cultivators were completely stunned.

"Old man, is this how you make laozi beg for death?" Tang Huan laughed out loud, and threw out his ninth punch, which had the force of a thunderbolt.

"Who the hell are you?"

The War Clan elder growled, and immediately waved his fist to meet the attack.

At this moment, his situation was already rather bad. Not only was golden blood overflowing from his seven orifices, the skin on his body had countless chapped cracks as blood spurted out.

"I'm your father!"

At the same time Tang Huan laughed, both his fists had already fiercely collided together.

"Bam!"

Another loud explosion shook the heavens.

This time, Tang Huan's body did not move, but the old man from War Clan was no longer pushed back by three steps like he was in the past, and his huge body was immediately flung out, smashing hard onto the ground tens of metres away, causing the entire city to shake violently.

"You ..." The War Clan Elder somersaulted as fast as he could, but he was so angered by what Tang Huan had said that he directly spat out a mouthful of golden blood.

"It's time to end this!"

Tang Huan gave a weird laugh, "Once you are in the Underworld, don't forget who killed you!"

The moment his words fell, Tang Huan's right index finger pointed out. Not only was it extremely fast, it even constantly expanded. In the blink of an eye, a small finger, as if a gigantic pillar that lifted the sky, rumbled as it pressed down towards the War Clan elder.

In a split-second, the space began to collapse inch by inch. An unusually terrifying power wantonly ran rampant between the heavens and the earth, and a majestic and boundless powerful aura filled the sky.

It was as if the end of the world had arrived. All of the surrounding cultivators were shocked into silence, and their eyes revealed a sense of fear. Even if this attack wasn't directed at them, it gave them the illusion that they were going to be crushed into dust.

Divine ability, Divine Annihilation Finger!

This was a method obtained from the bodies of "Ling Xiao Sword Sect" s cultivators. Back when he was in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", Tang Huan had already successfully cultivated it, but up until now, he had only used it against his opponent.

"This is ..." Destroy ... "Divine Finger ..."

War Clan and Ling Xiao Sword Sect were both great powers of Forging God Great World, so the old man immediately recognized the origins of Tang Huan's finger. He could not help but be terrified, and when he lost his voice, his pair of huge eyes once again revealed an uncontrollable fear and trepidation.

The moment he shouted, the War Clan Elder threw out both of his fists at the same time.

However, before he could finish speaking, the giant finger had already covered him, and then fell to the ground with a rumbling sound, looking extremely unstoppable, it was completely unstoppable. Within a radius of a hundred meters, countless dust and sand swirled up, covering the sky and covering the earth, and even Tang Huan was engulfed within.

"Ahhhhhhhhh!"

Faintly, there seemed to be a mournful cry that rang out from the dust and sand in the sky. However, before it could spread out, it had already been completely annihilated.

After a while, the dust in the sky dispersed and the air gradually became clear.

After clearly seeing the scene before their eyes, many of the surrounding cultivators couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air. All of them were dumbstruck. This area actually had a huge and deep pit.

In the pit, the figure of the War Clan Elder could no longer be seen. It was unknown if he had been turned into dregs, or if he had already escaped, but the god of pests that had caused the Green Rainbow Sect so much that everyone was confused. Even his Dark Bird mount had disappeared without a trace.

After a long time, the crowd finally recovered from the extreme shock and started to cry out in alarm from the surrounding area of the crater.

"He's really going to be scared to death. Is that old guy from War Clan already dead?"

"He's definitely dead! He never thought that both of the experts from War Clan would be killed by him! It's fine if it's the one in front, but the one in the back is at the peak of the Five Transformation."

"..."

"Is he from War Clan? can actually also unleash the War Clan's ability 'Battle King's Golden Body'?"

"Was it the internal conflict between the War Clan's experts just now? That shouldn't be the case. That old fellow from just now clearly did not recognize the identity of his opponent."

"..."

All sorts of noises could be heard from time to time.

But after a moment, all the sounds suddenly disappeared, and the entire crowd became silent. Their expressions were filled with unconcealable fear, as they stared fixedly towards the north. From the horizon, a black dot had actually appeared, and before the person had even arrived, a terrifying aura had already rolled over.

"A Void Transformation Stage expert from the War Clan?"

Such a thought subconsciously emerged in everyone's minds.

But right after that, their expressions changed greatly. The two experts from War Clan were killed in Rainbow Night City, and the god of pests who killed them had already left the place. If they could not find him, there was a 90% chance that the War Clan would blame this on the Green Rainbow Sect.

Chapter 1074 - Heavenly Dragon Sect

Sky Dragon Sect, Dragon City.

In the early morning, within a quiet courtyard room, Yu Feiyan was quietly lying on the bed. At this moment, her entire body was enveloped by dense green flames, and a boundless life force continuously flowed from Tang Huan's palm into the Dantian.

"Hu!"

After a long while, Tang Huan finally let out a sigh of relief and slowly stood up from the side of the bed. A faint smile unconsciously surfaced on his face, and at this moment, the green flames that were enveloping Yu Feiyan's body also entered Tang Huan's palm like a tide, without leaving anything out.

This was two months after he left Rainbow Night City.

That day, after using the sacred art "God-Slaying Finger" to kill off the War Clan expert, Tang Huan quietly left the Green Rainbow Sect with his nine spirits and with the fastest speed, rushed back to Dragon City.

Through Ling Yiming's control over the "Puppet Soul Seal", Tang Huan was extremely clear about what was going to happen in the Green Rainbow Sect.

Two experts from the War Clan were killed, and those cultivators from the War Clan could not find the real culprit. In anger, the Green Rainbow Sect became the scapegoat, and the final battle erupted in the inner city.

This time, the War Clan sent a total of eight cultivators, two of them became hollow spirits, and six became mysterious.

Originally, based on the prestige of the War Clan, even if they were all Dongxuan realm cultivators, Ling Wei and the Ancient Sacred Technique would not dare to disobey Ling Yiming's orders. Furthermore, Ling Wei had already mentally prepared himself, for example, to choose his first wife and many concubines for Ling Yiming, so that he could have his own heir.

However, the deaths of the two War Clan cultivators caused a huge change in the situation.

The cultivators of the War Clan did not bring up the matter of Ling Yiming, but rather, shifted the matter of Zhan Zhangkong and Meng Li's death to the Green Rainbow Sect. They started a massacre in the inner city, and even threatened to destroy the entire Green Rainbow Sect. Ling Wei, the Ancient Sacred Art and the others tried to stop him, but unfortunately, the anger of the War Clan cultivators only increased.

When one of the Void Transformation Stage cultivators from the Green Rainbow Sect was killed, Ling Wei and the others could no longer hold it in and attacked the War Clan cultivators. In the end, out of the six War Clan cultivators, only one expert at the Void Transformation Stage was able to escape, the rest all chose to stay in the Green Rainbow Sect.

Ling Yiming had only injured a War Clan in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", and that had led to the invasion of the War Clan. Now that he had killed several people, how could the War Clan let this go?

Ling Wei and the others knew that a great disaster was about to befall upon them. Thus, they immediately dismissed their sect's Disciples, scattered and fled all around Rainbow Night City, even leaving the Le Prefecture. Among them, the ancient sacred art went to Wu Zhou in the western part of the Le Prefecture, while Ling Wei and Ling Yiming went to Dan Prefecture, which was right next to the Le Prefecture.

At this point, all of the foundations and inheritances were all useless, and the real thing was to preserve one's life.

As long as a person was still alive, he would never have the chance to rebuild the Green Rainbow Sect.

Soon, the news about the Green Rainbow Sect's activities was spread to the Heavenly Dragon Sect. The Heavenly Dragon Sect wanted to be like the Pure Yang Sword Sect, dominating the entire Lai Province, not just a day, but a day. They would not miss such a good opportunity, thus they started to go on a large scale, continuously nibbling away at the territories that the Green Rainbow Sect had once occupied.

In just ten short days, the Heavenly Dragon Sect's power had nearly doubled.

Tang Huan was not too concerned about the movements of the Cyan Rainbow Sect and the Sky Dragon Sect. After returning to Dragon City, he continued to treat Yu Feiyan's True Spirit s.

After so many days, Yu Feiyan's injuries were finally almost healed.

On the bed, Yu Feiyan's eyes suddenly opened, and she sat up straight. Her beautiful and charming face revealed a smile of pleasant surprise: "Junior Brother Tang Huan, my True Spirit has already completely healed."

Not only that, after being immersed in the vitality fire for a long time, with the addition of the treasures Tang Huan gave her, her cultivation had also increased quite a bit. She had now reached the pinnacle of the Sky Origin Stage.

"Senior apprentice sister Feiyan, it looks like we can set off for the Sky Region."

Tang Huan couldn't help but laugh as well.

Currently, Tang Huan was certain that the two of them had fallen into the "Sword Illusion Paradise", that Yu Feiyan, who had fallen into a spatial crack, had unintentionally activated that "Profound Void Stone" and came to the Le Zhou Region. As for Shan Shan, who had fallen into the spatial trap, she should still be within the "Sword Illusion Paradise".

That "Sword Illusion Paradise" had been constantly moving, and its whereabouts were unknown. The last time it had revealed its presence was in the Heavenly Province.

Traveling to the Heaven Region and finding the cultivators that knew of the existence of the "Sword Illusion Paradise" might help them find some clues.

"I'm afraid that it will take one to two years to travel from here to the Sky Region." Yu Feiyan's smile became serious.

"There's no need to go through all this trouble."

Tang Huan laughed, "Let's go directly using the teleportation circle." With Tang Huan's current cultivation level, he could definitely use the teleportation circles between the various provinces to travel far away. Moreover, the current Tang Huan was extremely rich, enough to pay the price for activating the teleportation circle.

"Teleportation array?"

Yu Feiyan was slightly startled. She had already been in the Forging God Great World for many years, so of course she knew that the various regions had long-distance teleportation formations. However, those teleportation formations could only be entered by cultivators at least in the Nascent Profound Realm. Otherwise, they wouldn't be able to withstand the pressure of the teleportation.

This was not a big problem. When teleporting, she would be able to enter Tang Huan's Space Aircraft.

The most important thing was that this kind of teleportation formation wasn't accessible to just anyone. Moreover, the price one had to pay to activate it was enormous. Even with the strength of the Green Rainbow Sect, they wouldn't be willing to let Ling Wei or the ancient powers use the Teleportation Formation once.

"Brother Tang."

At this moment, Yue Haoyang pushed the door and entered, cupping his hands and smiling respectfully.

Tang Huan slightly nodded his head, "Brother Yue, inform your grandfather and ask him to tell the sect master of the 'Heavenly Dragon Sect' that the young sect master of the Yan State 'Pure Yang Sword Sect' has come to pay him a visit." Yue Haoyang was the grandson of the Third Elder of the Sky Dragon Sect, Yue Ziyu.

"Yes, I'll go now!"

In the center of Le Prefecture, the mountain range was vast and stretched for countless tens of thousands of miles.

The highest peak of the Le Prefecture, 'Chao Yang Peak', was located there. On top of the peak, there was a gigantic teleportation formation.

This teleportation formation was originally under the joint control of the Green Rainbow Sect and the Heavenly Dragon Sect. The two sects have assigned a Void Transformation Stage expert to guard this area. After the change in the Green Rainbow Sect, there was only one expert at the peak of the Chao Yang Peak, and this teleportation formation was now monopolized by the Heavenly Dragon Sect.

The sun had just risen, and a large number of figures had already gathered at the peak of Chao Yang. Other than Tang Huan and Yu Feiyan, the rest were all Celestial Dragon Sect cultivators.

The Heavenly Dragon Sect themselves were reluctant to activate the teleportation formation. After all, they had to consume a huge amount of "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" every time they activated it. However, if someone were to use a teleportation array, the Heavenly Dragon Sect would definitely want it. According to the rules, borrowing a teleportation array required one to pay a high fee.

Chapter 1075 - Teleportation

"Master Weng, sorry to trouble you."

Tang Huan quickly took a look around, and his gaze landed on the yellow-robed elder on the left. He was the Sect Leader of the Heavenly Dragon Sect, Weng Bao Shan.

"There is no need to be courteous, Young Sect Master."

With a smile and a nod of his head, he waved his hand and called out, "Four elders, we will activate the teleportation array right away!"

As the sound of his voice faded, Weng Baishan and the other four elders stepped out from the crowd. The aura emanating from their bodies was incomparably tyrannical — they were all Void Transformation Stage powerhouses from the Heavenly Dragon Sect.

This sort of ultra-long-distance teleportation array could only be activated with the combined power of five Void Transformation Stage experts.

The generous rewards that Tang Huan, the Young Sect Master of the "Pure Yang Sword Sect", had paid were completely worth it for the sect master of the Heavenly Dragon Mountain and the four Void Transformation Elders to personally take action.

"Whoosh!" "Woosh ~ ~ ~"

The sound of something breaking through the air could be heard, as the people of the Rong Mountain group took up five different positions.

In front of the five of them was a five-pointed high platform, seemingly sculpted out of white jade. The high platform was extremely huge, occupying at least a few hundred meters of space. Countless complex and profound patterns crisscrossed and intersected within the high platform.

What this high platform carried was a teleportation formation.

At this moment, Weng Baoshan and the others were seated cross-legged at the five corners of the high platform. In front of each of them was a five horned jade platform, which had shrunk several times in size.

"Begin!"

With a loud shout, the five of them pressed their palms against the small jade platform, while their right hands gained two pure white jade plates.

These were all crystal cards, and they were even 50 million level ones.

Every crystal card had fifty million Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal. The number of Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal held by the five people of the Weng Bao Mountain was already five hundred million.

This was already the price of two top-grade saint rank Heavenly Soldier s.

After Yu Feiyan fully recovered, he stayed in Dragon City for another half a month before using the Sky Dragon Sect to exchange the various heavenly resources for enough "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal". Furthermore, these five hundred million "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal s" were only the items needed to activate the teleportation formation, and Tang Huan also had to pay an additional one hundred million "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal s" as compensation for borrowing the teleportation formation and inviting the five Void Transformation Stage powerhouses such as the Weng Bao Mountain.

The total price of six hundred million "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" wasn't something that anyone could take out.

For example, if he wanted to spend a huge amount of Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal to activate the teleportation formation, all of the elders of the Sky Dragon Sect would probably oppose him.

"Buzz!"

Boundless true energy gushed out from the five people's palms, and within the five jade platforms, a massive sound reverberated out. A brilliant white light burst out at the same time, dazzling everyone who saw it.

In just a split-second, the white light seemed to have condensed into a solid substance which was rotating in a clockwise direction. Not long after, the five jade platforms in front of Weng Baoshan and the others seemed to have turned into a rapidly spinning whirlpool, as terrifying amounts of sucking energy poured out.

Immediately after, a large number of Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal began to surge out of the crystal card in their right hand like a flood. They madly entered the whirlpool and then exploded like fireworks, turning into an incomparably pure energy that was completely swallowed up by the whirlpool.

"Bang, bang ~ ~ ~"

Dense explosive sounds rose and fell one after another, deafening.

Following the disappearance of the five streams of Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal in the whirlpool, the dazzling white lights quickly followed the dense lines and spread to every corner of the stage. A magnificent scene immediately appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

"Six hundred million Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal ...."

By Tang Huan's side, when Yu Feiyan saw that the "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" were exhausted like water, he felt extremely pained in his heart. Although the Green Rainbow Sect had temporarily ceased to exist, for the sake of caution, she still put on some disguise at this time. Her red dress had changed to a white one, and her face was also covered by a veil.

Seeing her expression, Tang Huan could not help but smile.

To him, six hundred million "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" was just a number. With the various heavenly and earthly treasures he had acquired from the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm" and the treasures he had plundered from the Green Rainbow Sect, it was enough for him to activate the teleportation formation several times. It was fortunate that the Heavenly Dragon Sect did not know he had such a huge fortune, otherwise they would have taken the risk.

In this negotiation with the Heavenly Dragon Sect, if Tang Huan didn't have the status of Pure Yang Sword Sect's "Sword Lord", the people of the Weng Bao Mountain would definitely view him as a fat sheep that could be slaughtered. After all, by killing Tang Huan, they could immediately obtain for nothing all the hundreds of millions of "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" worth of treasures.

It was only because they were worried about the "Pure Yang Sword Sect" behind Tang Huan that the upper echelons of the Sky Dragon Sect suppressed their greed and conducted the transaction with Tang Huan normally. The very close distance between the Le Prefecture and the Yan State was also an extremely important factor. If the two prefectures were very far apart, the Heavenly Dragon Sect would not hesitate to take action.

Of course, that way, Tang Huan wouldn't rashly look for the Sky Dragon Sect.

Time flew by bit by bit. Under the watchful eyes of the crowd, the fine lines on the stage were lit up continuously. More and more bright lights started to rise from the summit.

In less than half a quarter of an hour, the "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" within the crystal cards of the five people had been completely used up. With the new crystal cards being used passively, the "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" still flowed out like water and entered the depths of the whirlpool, turning into pure energy to activate the teleportation formation.

After another quarter of an hour, the "Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal" in the second crystal card of the five people were used up. At the same time, the entire Pang Shuo's stage was lit up.

"Buzz!"

More and more intense tremors spread out and shook a thousand miles away. On the high platform, the dazzling white light began to condense at a frightening speed. In just a few short breaths of time, a white whirlpool with a radius of several tens of meters had already condensed in the center of Pang Shuo's platform.

"It's about time to set off!"

Tang Huan's eyes slightly narrowed, he summoned his Space Aircraft and sucked Yu Feiyan into it. The nine spirits that were originally squatting on Tang Huan's shoulder also entered his bosom.

"Young Sect Master, after you!"

In that instant, Weng Bao Mountain immediately sprung up, smiling as he looked at Tang Huan.

Tang Huan nodded his head. With a thought, he kept the Space Aircraft and revolved both the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "True Spirit" to their limits. Boundless and boundless true essence surged out of his body like a vast ocean and enveloped his entire body.

"Whoosh!"

Taking a deep breath, Tang Huan moved his feet slightly and appeared on the stage like a meteor. He did not hesitate to enter the gigantic white vortex. In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan had turned into a small black dot, and then disappeared into the vortex without a trace.

Chapter 1076 - Divine Dream Heart Sect (1)

The western part of the Sky Region was the Xuan Province.

The most powerful sect in Xuanzhou was the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". Their strength was comparable to the "Ling Xiao Sword Sect" of the Heavenly Region, the "Nine Star Holy Gates" of the Yangzhou, the "War Clan" of the Qingzhou, and the "Tian Clan" of the Taizhou.

It was said that the cultivators of this sect were all women, and what they excelled in was the path of the soul.

The "Illusory Mountain Range" located in the northeast of Xuan Zhou was the encampment of the Divine Dream Heart Sect. Within the mountain range that spanned tens of thousands of miles, clouds covered the sky and illusions filled the air. If one was not careful and lost their way within the mountain range, they would not die of hunger and thirst.

Because of this, ordinary cultivators didn't dare enter the dreamland mountain range. To the Divine Dream Heart Sect that was located deep within the mountain range, the dreamland mountain range was a natural barrier.

South of the center of the mountain range, a peak rose from the ground.

At the peak of the mountain stood a large pentagonal high platform. It was sparkling and translucent like jade, white like ice and snow, and the interweaving patterns within was incomparably profound.

This was the teleportation formation of Xuanzhou.

"Buzz!"

Suddenly, a burst of trembling sounds rang out. On the pentagonal platform, the small jade platform at the southwest corner suddenly bloomed with a dazzling white luster.

In a split second, a black figure appeared out of nowhere on top of the small jade platform. He had a slender body and a handsome face, he was none other than the Tang Huan that was just teleported over from the Le Prefecture.

"Xuan Province, Divine Dream Heart Sect!"

Tang Huan heaved a sigh of relief.

It was impossible to teleport to the Heavenly Region from the Lai Prefecture. Other than the Sky Region's main teleportation formation, which could reach the other 35 prefectures, the rest of the teleportation formation in the Forging God Great World was only connected to the five prefectures. The five jade platforms on the five-pointed high platform represented the destination of the teleportation.

When activating the teleportation formation, the small jade platform that was the leader would head to the corresponding prefecture.

Connecting with Le Prefecture were the Yan State, Dan Prefecture, Xuan Prefecture, and other prefectures. However, even at that place, he still needed to cross two more provinces before he could reach the Heaven Province. The Teleportation Array in the Xuan Province could not go directly to the Heaven Province.

With Tang Huan's cultivation, if nothing unexpected happened, he would need at least two to three months to travel from Xuanzhou to the Sky Region.

With just that amount of time, Tang Huan could still accept it.

Due to the special circumstances of the Illusory Mountain Range, when other people used the teleportation circle, they would not choose this place as their destination, in case something happened and Tang Huan had nowhere to run to.

And because of this, this transmission array had never been guarded by any of the powerhouses of the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

This also allowed Tang Huan to save a bit of money on expenses.

"Whoosh!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan's figure moved slightly, he had already leaped down the stage, and the small jade platform behind him retracted its light, returning to its previous appearance.

Then, Tang Huan flew down the mountain without stopping.

The mountain range was surrounded by clouds and mist, and in the sky above the mountain range floated a thick layer of white clouds ... This kind of scene covered every corner of the Illusory Mountain Range.

Walking in the Illusory Mountain Range, almost all of the time he was in an illusion.

At this time, not only did Tang Huan activated "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and "True Spirit" at a high speed, even the "Intangible Buddha" in the depths of his soul had been activated to the limit.

The incomparably powerful Perception Ability instantly enveloped an area of nearly a thousand meters.

As he moved forward and carefully checked his surroundings, Tang Huan's eyes quietly closed.

Unknowingly, a huge tree that was over a hundred meters tall was placed horizontally in front of him. However, Tang Huan seemed to be unaware of it as he directly crashed into it at high speed.

"Hu!"

After a split second, Tang Huan's body actually passed through the thick tree trunk completely unharmed, while the giant tree was still quietly standing in its original spot. However, when Tang Huan neared the second huge tree that was a few hundred meters away, he stopped moving through the tree.

He went around to the side.

There were illusions everywhere. Sometimes, the trees that looked real were fake; sometimes, there was no ravine in front of them, but once they stepped into it, they would immediately fall into the bottomless abyss; sometimes, there were giant peaks blocking their way, but in reality, they were nothing more than small hills of earth several meters tall.

Let alone an outsider, even if it was a Divine Dream Heart Sect cultivator, if they weren't careful they would still be lost in these endless illusions.

The strangest thing was that the Illusory Forest seemed to be filled with a strange energy, and every time it was disturbed by the illusion, its mind would be affected more and more. The next time it was affected by the illusion, the probability of it being affected would be higher.

Fortunately, to Tang Huan, this kind of illusion wasn't enough to confuse him.

After understanding the illusions here, Tang Huan was no longer satisfied with travelling quickly. In the next moment, Tang Huan used the ability "Yin and Yang Void Method: Void Escape", his figure quickly melted in the air, and in a split second, Tang Huan was more than 100 miles away.

Back then in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", when Tang Huan comprehended "Void Evasion", he had only changed his cultivation a little. Every time he used this method, he could only travel a few dozen kilometers and all his true essence was enough for him to cast it about twenty times. Of course, that was under the circumstances of simultaneously using "Heavenly Invisibility" and "Air Escape".

Now, Tang Huan was already at the peak of the third transformation, the distance of one pass could almost double, and with his current primeval essence, if he did not use the method of "Heavenly Invisibility", using "Air Escape" a hundred times shouldn't be a problem.

This meant that when Tang Huan had used up almost all of his True Origin, he would be thousands of miles away.

Although he couldn't determine the direction to go from here, as long as Tang Huan continued to move forward, with multiple cycles, he would definitely be able to leave the Illusory Mountain Range.

Time after time, "Void Evasion" occurred again and again. In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already traversed two to three thousand kilometers of space.

"Huh?"

The moment Tang Huan's figure appeared, he began to descend. This time around, his teleportation directly appeared in midair.

Subconsciously looking down, what entered his sight was a lake with a circumference of nearly a hundred meters. The lake water was clear and rippling, and there were actually six slender and graceful figures swimming in the water. After a short moment, the clear and melodious laughter was replaced by an embarrassed and furious scream.

Tang Huan's heart skipped a beat, before he even fell into the lake, he activated Yin and Yang Void Method: Void Escape Technique again, and his figure quickly merged into the air.

"Bam!"

In that moment, Tang Huan felt as if he had struck an invisible barrier, not only did he reveal himself, he was blown away by the extremely terrifying rebound, and landed at the edge of the lake that was more than ten metres away. This time's "Air Escape" ended in failure.

Chapter 1077 - Divine Dream Heart Sect (2)

"Whoosh!" "Woosh ~ ~ ~"

Lightly piercing sounds sounded one after another, and around Tang Huan, six figures suddenly appeared.

It was the six women that were just bathing in the lake. In such a short period of time, not only were they dressed, they had even surrounded Tang Huan in the middle.

The six of them had beautiful faces and enchanting bodies. They looked to be in their twenties. However, their true age definitely wasn't limited to just that. Not only that, the aura that gushed out from their bodies was extremely tyrannical. They were actually all experts at the peak of the Five Transformation.

"Insolent bastard! How dare you trespass into my Divine Dream Heart Sect!" Lie down! "

Amidst the anger and shame she felt, a black clothed female suddenly shot out a small white-colored odor that was as small as a needle from between her brows, flying straight towards Tang Huan.

When Tang Huan saw their figures in the lake, he realized that he had possibly unintentionally barged into the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". In order to avoid trouble, it was best to leave as soon as possible.

"Soul Killing Stab?"

The moment he sensed the white-colored odor, Tang Huan couldn't help but be stunned. He subconsciously gasped and stopped performing "Air Escape".

If the black clothed female had only used her soul attack, that would have been fine, but she just had to use a technique that Tang Huan was extremely familiar with.

Within the "Divine Dream Heart Sect", there was actually someone who was able to use the soul attack technique from the "Soul Method True Explanation".

"Chi!"

In the time that Tang Huan took a moment, that incomparably sharp white-colored odor had already pierced into his soul like needles. At almost the same time, deep inside Tang Huan's soul, the "Intangible Buddha" slightly trembled, instantly dispersing the black clothed female's soul attack.

Seeing that Tang Huan not only knew the name of the soul attack technique, but also didn't seem to be in a daze, the black-clothed female and the other six were all stunned.

"Who are you, and why do you know about the 'Soul Killing Stab'?"

The black clothed female's expression changed, her beautiful eyes staring straight at Tang Huan. The Soul Killing Stab, this kind of soul attack technique, was simple, but it was performed by a peak level cultivator of the five transformations. The power could be imagined, but the soul of this young man in front of him seemed to not be affected at all.

Forcefully resisting her "Soul Killing Stab" was one thing, but to be able to see through her attack methods in an instant, this was not something that a good eye could do. This person was either extremely related to the Divine Dream Heart Sect, or he was an enemy that had a deep understanding of the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

The other five women seemed to have realized this as well, and their gazes towards Tang Huan became serious.

"Because I also know this method." Tang Huan snapped out of his daze, and suddenly revealed a smile, as a wisp of a white-colored odor that was as thin as a sliver of silk shot out from between his brows.

"Soul Killing Stab!"

The expressions of the six people almost simultaneously changed, and their eyes uncontrollably revealed shock. It was not only because Tang Huan had unleashed the same soul attack technique, but also because Tang Huan's "Soul Killing Stab" was even more powerful than the one the woman in black had just now.

When he used this "Soul Killing Stab," the more his own soul force shrunk, the more power he would be able to unleash. All of them were proficient in the way of the soul. Once Tang Huan's white-colored odor formed from soul energy appeared, they knew about his attainments in that area.

Although she was shocked, the woman in black didn't slow down at all.

"Hu!"

A lump of white-colored odor appeared between the black clothed female's eyebrows and instantly turned into a gust of wind, howling out.

In a split-second, Tang Huan had activated a sharp needle that was as thin as a thread, and it was wrapped up by the attack, causing an extremely ear-piercing sound to burst out.

An intense formless ripple spread out.

After the flick of his finger, although the needle had finally penetrated the storm, it could no longer maintain its extremely congealed state and swiftly dissipated. The white-colored storm formed by the black-clothed woman's Spiritual Strength had lost its former might as it swiftly melted into the air.

"About that, I know it too!"

Tang Huan laughed again as a ball of white-colored odor s appeared between his eyebrows, transforming into an even more violent soul storm as it roared towards the girl in black.

"Soul Killing Storm?" When the six women saw this, they were shocked. Not only did this person know "Soul Killing Stab", he also knew "Soul Killing Storm"!

"Hu!" Without the slightest hesitation, she activated the "Soul Killing Storm" once again.

In the blink of an eye, the two white soul storms violently collided, and an even more terrifying formless ripple swept in all directions.

At this moment, not only Tang Huan, but the six women's souls also suffered a huge impact at the same time. Of course, this kind of attack couldn't do anything to Tang Huan, who had fused with the "Intangible Buddha," but those women's souls were agitated. The woman in black, who bore the brunt of the attack, was even absentminded for a short moment.

However, the black clothed female was after all an expert who had reached the peak of the five transformations. An instant later, she had already regained her senses, and shock had already appeared in her beautiful eyes. Not only was this person's Soul Killing Stab stronger than hers, the might of his Soul Killing Storm had also surpassed her.

"I won't, and you can even do this!" Astral Souls Explosion! "

The black clothed female clenched her teeth, and a white star burst out. But immediately after, she was stunned, and a white star appeared between Tang Huan's brows.

"Flying Astral Soul Explosion?" The beautiful faces of the surrounding five women paled as they exclaimed at nearly the same time.

Like two shooting stars, the moment the two star-like auras collided, they both exploded at the same time. The terrifying invisible waves were like raging waves, one after another, rolling in all directions. This time, the soul shockwave was even more terrifying.

Tang Huan's body did not move, but the black clothed female's delicate body slightly trembled, and she let out a stifled snort. The other five people also fell into a trance for a moment.

Although the six of them quickly came to their senses, the events that had transpired left them stunned and speechless.

Whether it was "Soul Killing Stab", "Soul Killing Storm", or "Flying Star Soul Explosion", they were all secret techniques of the Divine Dream Heart Sect, and they were all skills that only Elders could learn. Ordinary disciples would not even be able to come into contact with these soul attacks, yet this person could actually use them all?

Where did he come from?

Could it be that a certain senior of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" had taken in a disciple while he was travelling in the Forging God Great World? It was only because he was a man that it was inconvenient for him to bring him back?

"What a coincidence, I happen to know this' Flying Astral Soul Explosion '."

Tang Huan laughed, "Not only do I know of 'Flying Astral Soul Explosion', I can also use other soul techniques." The moment he said that, a strange undulation came out from the depths of Tang Huan's soul. Ordinary cultivators wouldn't have been able to detect these fluctuations, but after catching sight of them, the six women seemed to be listening to a strange melody.

Chapter 1078 - Divine Dream Heart Sect (2)

"Heavenly Note Soul Controlling Art?"

The black-clothed female and the other six people could not help but exclaim in surprise. But after that moment, the Qi undulations seeping out from Tang Huan's soul had undergone a huge change.

"Heavenly Luo Soul Refining Art!"

Immediately afterwards, the six blurted out at the same time.

Tang Huan smiled slightly, his soul undulations changing over and over again. Each time changing, it represented a new type of soul technique.

"Heart Twining and Soul Searching Method!"

"Divine Sense and Soul Consolidation Method!"

"Eight Directions True Devil Soul Formation!"

"..."

Strings of characters involuntarily jumped out from the woman in black's mouth.

After Tang Huan continuously used more than ten soul techniques, the six of them had extremely strange expressions on their faces. There was some shock, some suspicion, and even some excitement.

"You ... Who exactly are you? "

When Tang Huan stopped, the woman in black could not help but ask with her trembling voice. The six of them stared at Tang Huan with their twelve pairs of eyes.

At this time, they had completely eliminated all suspicion that this person was an enemy of the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

What he had displayed just now were all the secret arts of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". Being able to call out their names to their enemies was already very unbelievable. It was impossible for them to be able to use every single one of them. There were even a few secret techniques that they had only heard of before.

Moreover, judging from his demeanor, he would definitely know more than what he had just revealed.

This person had extremely deep attainments in the path of the soul. He definitely had to carefully guide him through the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'. Otherwise, it would be impossible for him to reach such a level.

When Tang Huan saw their expressions, he vaguely understood what was going on.

There was a 90% chance that the "Soul Method True Explanation" found by the small world's Demon Lord Fen Tian s originated from Xuanzhou's "Divine Dream Heart Sect". It must have been a huge battle that happened at the southwest border of Forging God Great World. The "Divine Dream Heart Sect" also had strong experts participating in it.

It was very likely that the expert had suffered heavy injuries or even died in battle.

Therefore, the "Soul Method True Explanation" that he carried with him ended up in a small world, which Fen Tian later obtained, and in the end, fell into Tang Huan's hands.

From the reactions of the six people just now, it was obvious that this was the first time they had seen Tang Huan using some methods, and they had probably only heard of it before. From this, one could see that the 'Soul Method True Explanation' was left behind in a small world. There were many things recorded within that 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' that had lost their inheritances.

He really didn't think that the 'Soul Method True Explanation' would actually be related to the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'.

There were many methods recorded in the "Soul Method True Explanation", many of which could be used when one's cultivation was extremely low, such as the "Sky Sound Soul Controlling Art", but there were many methods as well. Until now, Tang Huan still had not mastered them, and they could be considered a complete book on soul techniques.

When he was in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", Tang Huan had controlled a Yang Calamity disciple who was born in the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". He had also searched through her memories, but he did not find any information related to the "Soul Method True Explanation". Although she could also use soul attacks, she could only use a few of the simplest techniques. "Soul Killing Stab", "Soul Killing Storm", and "Flying Star Soul Explosion", these were things that she had never heard of before, nor had she even heard of them.

Now it seemed that the reason she didn't know was because her status in the Divine Dream Heart Sect wasn't high.

If he could get some information from her memories regarding the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" and "Soul Method True Explanation", Tang Huan would definitely make sufficient preparations before teleporting to the Illusory Mountain Range.

Fortunately, it wasn't too late to find out now.

Tang Huan had a faint premonition that he might be able to obtain some good fortune in this "Divine Dream Heart Sect." This could be seen from the expressions of the six women.

When they had surrounded him, the six of them had been enraged to the extreme.

However, after seeing the various soul techniques that he had used, their expressions became rather intriguing. When they looked at Tang Huan, their eyes were mixed with shock, doubt, and even excitement and joy. However, they did not have the greed to force Tang Huan to reveal all of his soul's methods.

"My name is Pure Yang Sword Sect's Young Sect Master, Tang Huan." In a second, Tang Huan cupped his hands and smiled.

"Tang Huan? You are Tang Huan? "

The moment she heard Tang Huan's name, the woman in black couldn't help but cry out.

After a short moment of disbelief, she asked again urgently: "That Tang Huan who possessed both the identity of Weapon Refiner and Gem Synthetic Master, and had comprehended the entire 'astral bridge' Spirit Map in the Realm of the 'Heavenly Mystery Realm', and passed through the bridge with the fastest speed?"

"Exactly."

Tang Huan smiled and nodded without hesitation.

After receiving Tang Huan's affirmative answer, the woman in black and the others couldn't help but exclaim in a low voice.

After the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret World' was opened, many disciples of the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' also entered into it to gain experience. After three years, when they came out, the person they talked about the most was a Yan State cultivator called "Tang Huan." As "Divine Dream Sect" elders, they had naturally all heard of him.

They were also extremely surprised that they had suddenly received information regarding Tang Huan.

When he first entered the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", he was only at the Essence Condensation Realm. In a short three years, he had already improved to the Profound Mysteries, to the point where even the second transformation Ling Xiao Sword Sect cultivators were not his match. It was fine if he was just that, but he was actually a Weapon Refiner, and also a Gem Synthetic Master.

There were very few cultivators with such status in the entire Forging God Great World.

As for the other things that Tang Huan had done in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", almost every single one of them was enthusiastically discussed by the many cultivators of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". There were even many young disciples who viewed Tang Huan as their idol, they did not expect that he would suddenly appear in the middle of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect".

"I have heard of the 'Pure Yang Sword Sect' as well."

"That sect seems to be most proficient at sword skills. You are the young master of the 'Pure Yang Sword Sect', so why would you be proficient in all sorts of soul techniques of our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'?"

"Before I joined the 'Pure Yang Sword Sect', I went deeper into the southern part of the Yan State to train. By chance, I encountered a residual soul that was about to dissipate."

As he spoke, a look of reminiscence flashed past Tang Huan's eyes, "I don't know where that residual soul actually came from, and he didn't take the initiative to mention it either. But looking at the things that he revealed piecemeal, he should have participated in that great battle that occurred in the southwest border of Forging God Great World, and caused the entire 'Spirit Province' to fall apart. From this, it can be seen that he truly has existed for an extremely long period of time.

His voice slightly paused, Tang Huan then softly sighed: "That senior took me in as his disciple before my soul completely died out and even taught me the 'Soul Method True Explanation'. All the soul techniques that I am able to use now, all of them were cultivated from the 'Soul Method True Explanation'."

Chapter 1079: Everyone is from the same sect!

"Soul Method True Explanation?"

Hearing these words, the black-clothed female and the other six people couldn't help but cry out in surprise. Their brows were filled with unconcealable excitement and ecstasy.

When they heard Tang Huan's words, they did not doubt in the slightest that it was because of these four words.

In the entire Divine Dream Heart Sect, only Sect Master, Grand Elders, and Elders knew of that "Soul Method True Explanation." The average disciple had never even heard of it.

Tang Huan knew about "Soul Method True Explanation" and was even able to unleash various secret techniques within. From this, it could be seen that the residual soul clearly existed.

"Brother Tang must have also realized that 'Soul Method True Explanation' and 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' have a deep relationship."

The black-clothed woman suppressed the excitement in her heart and slowly said, "To be honest, the 'Soul Method True Explanation' was once a sect's treasure book of our Divine Dream Heart Sect, but it was lost tens of thousands of years ago. At that time, Sect Master of our Divine Dream Heart Sect also participated in the great battle that occurred in the southwest of Forging God Great World. However, after the great battle ended, she never returned.

Her voice paused for a moment, before the black clothed girl's voice became excited again, "I never expected that after tens of thousands of years, it would see the light of day once again in Brother Tang's hands."

She had heard of all of the things that Tang Huan had done in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", so she naturally knew that he was not even thirty years old yet. However, at this time, calling him "Brother Tang" did not have any psychological obstacles, since according to Tang Huan's description, she had to call him "Ancestor".

"It seems that the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' and I are fated to meet." Tang Huan could not help but laugh, looking at the black clad woman and the others, he asked, "May I know what the names of the six big sisters are?"

"My name is Xue Ni, an Elder of the Divine Dream Heart Sect."

The other five beautiful women also introduced themselves. One of them was Du Yuxi, dressed in yellow, while the other was Qiao Yuke, dressed in white. The woman in red was called Ran Qian, while the other two were a pair of sisters, named Ye Siyu and Ye Silu.

These six people were all Elders of the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

"Sisters, please forgive our offense just now." Tang Huan cupped his hands with an apologetic tone.

"Brother Tang, we should be the ones talking."

Ye Zichen shook his head at Xue Ni and smiled in embarrassment.

When they were bathing, they were met by a man. In their shame and anger, they did indeed have the impulse to kill Tang Huan, but fortunately, they did not truly start a fight. After all, Tang Huan was the entering disciple of the "Divine Dream Sect" sect master tens of thousands of years ago, and was completely on the same side as them.

Ran Qian waved her hand and said with a smile, "It was just a misunderstanding. Let's not talk about it anymore. Brother Tang ..."

"Sisters, we're all in the same sect. Why don't we call each other 'Brother Tang'? I feel really uncomfortable with the way we address each other."

Tang Huan interrupted her and said without waiting for her to finish.

The reason why he spoke of the origins of the "Soul Method True Explanation" was all because his soul was simply too strong. It was impossible to tell whether it was real or fake from the fluctuations of his soul's aura, including Xue Ni and the others. Since the so called "disciples entering the rooms" was a lie, Tang Huan naturally couldn't possibly allow them to call him "Ancestor", and calling him "Brother Tang" was indeed awkward. If they wanted to build a closer relationship with the "Divine Dream Heart Sect", then it was indeed appropriate to address him as "brother and sister".

"This..."

After all, Tang Huan's seniority was really too high. Tens of thousands of years ago, when the sect master of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" tried to enter, not to mention them, even if the Grand Clan Elder saw Tang Huan, he would have to kneel down and kowtow to him, calling him his ancestor.

Tang Huan could not help but laugh: "Six Senior Sisters, Master has also said before, even though she accepts me as her chamber disciple, if I were to enter the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect', I would be considered an ordinary disciple of the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect', so regardless of our seniority, just looking at our age is the most suitable for her."

"Since that's the case, I will ask you to call me Junior Brother." "Junior Brother Tang Huan, the Yan State and the Profound Province are separated by tens of thousands of miles, why did you suddenly come here, and even enter the hinterland of our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'?"

"Master said that I would have the chance to return the 'Soul Method True Explanation' to the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'."

Tang Huan laughed, "I am heading to the Heavenly Region this time, so I came to the Divine Dream Sect on the way. I entered the depths of the Illusory Mountain Range through the teleportation array. However, the moment I left the teleportation circle, I lost my way and wandered around randomly. As a result, I came here. "

Having said so, the six others, Xue Ni, Du Yuxi, and Ran Qian, were all dumbstruck.

A moment later, their fair faces flushed red from their extreme excitement. Then, he asked Xue Ni with a somewhat trembling voice: "Junior Brother Tang Huan, is what you said true? You really want to return the 'Soul Method True Explanation' to the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'? "

Du Yuxi, Ran Qian and the other two also looked at Tang Huan eagerly.

At this moment, most of the things that were running through their minds were the first half of Tang Huan's speech. As for the other words that Tang Huan had said afterwards, they had already completely forgotten about it.

"Of course."

Tang Huan smiled as if it was a matter of course, "Six senior sisters, although I am the Young Sect Master of the 'Pure Yang Sword Sect', I am also a disciple of the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'.

"Good!" Good! "Great!"

Hearing this, Xue Ni was unable to contain her emotions, "The return of the 'Soul Method True Explanation' has caused the long-cherished wish of countless seniors of our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' to finally be fulfilled for the past tens of thousands of years." As she finished her sentence, her eyes actually reddened. Du Yuxi, Ran Qian, and the others did the same.

After a long while, he finally calmed himself down and said to Xue Ni, "Let's go, Junior Brother Tang Huan. We will bring you to meet the Sect Master and the other elders of our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'." After he finished speaking, he had already grabbed Tang Huan's wrist and flew forward. Du Yuxi and the others also followed behind him at almost the same time.

The six of them surrounded Tang Huan like stars surrounding the moon.

Very quickly, Tang Huan came into contact with the invisible barrier that broke his "escape through space" and bounced him off, but this time, it did not reject Tang Huan like it did before.

Almost the instant before they touched each other, a bizarre power surged forth from the palm towards Xue Ni and completely enveloped Tang Huan's body. The moment Tang Huan touched the invisible barrier, the power immediately fused into it, and did not trigger any sort of movement.

After a short moment, the scene in front of Tang Huan changed.

Outside the invisible barrier, Tang Huan could see the mountain ranges and lush vegetation. However, after passing through the invisible barrier, although there were still mountain ranges, mountain ranges, and verdant forest, there was no longer any desolation within his line of sight.

Chapter 1080 - Fragrant Chu

"Our Divine Dream Heart Sect is divided into the inner and outer sects."

"This is the inner sect, and the place where the outer sect is located earlier." The surroundings of the outer sect were covered in extremely powerful illusions. Even a Void Transformation Stage cultivator would find it difficult to easily break in ... Junior brother Tang Huan, you are only at the peak of the third transformation, how could you enter without a sound? "

"Using divine abilities to instantly teleport across a hundred kilometers?"

So that's how it is, I was wondering how you could suddenly appear in that place, your ability is truly marvelous, far above Tian Clan's' Space Moving '!

"The majority of the outer sect disciples are our Divine Dream Heart Sect's ordinary disciples. Sect Master, Supreme Elders, Elders, and those disciples that are focused on nurturing them are usually from the inner sect. Look, those few buildings are where the six of us live. However, most of the time, we are stationed at the outer sect. " kept introducing the situation of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" to Xue Ni and Du Yuxi. Some of them were things that Tang Huan was aware of, while others were things that Tang Huan had never heard of before.

Along the way, they met many cultivators of the 'Divine Dream Heart Sect'. Some were middle-aged, some were middle-aged, some were young, and some were all young; all of them were women. Seeing Xue Ni, Du Yuxi, and the other elders appear with a young man, the cultivators revealed looks of surprise.

Not too long after, the seven of them arrived at the foot of a mountain.

The mountain peak wasn't very high, only a few hundred meters high. A flight of stairs led to the summit. However, before Tang Huan and the rest could even step on the stairs, a dozen or so figures jumped down from the summit at an astonishing speed. In a blink of an eye, they were already in front of Tang Huan and the rest.

At the front was a thirty year old girl. She was tall and well-developed, had a beautiful face, wore a white dress, had a graceful bearing, and was very dignified and elegant. The dozen or so women behind her all had varying ages, but the auras they emitted from their bodies were all extremely tyrannical.

Obviously, this group of people were all Void Transformation Stage powerhouses of the Divine Dream Heart Sect!

To have such a cultivation level, his age was definitely not young, but no one looked old. To cultivators above Heavenly Domain, if one wanted to control them intentionally, it was entirely possible for them to maintain their appearance forever. It was even possible for them to become more and more elegant and beautiful, and it was only to see if they wanted to do so.

"You are Junior Brother Tang Huan?" The white dressed woman's gaze immediately fell on Tang Huan's body, uncontrollable joy between her brows.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, this is our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect's Chu Xiang, Sect Head Chu." Ye Zichen hurriedly said to Xue Ni.

"Tang Huan greets the sect master."

Tang Huan cupped his hands and bowed, a smile plastered on his face.

On the way, she had already spread the news out to Xue Ni, and only then did Chu Xiang and her mother personally lead people down the mountain to welcome them. From this, it could be seen how much importance she had placed on Tang Huan. Of course, it was also because she didn't value Tang Huan, who had brought the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" sect guarding grimoire.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, there's no need to be so courteous. Let's go up and have a good chat."

On the peak of the mountain was an extremely exquisite pavilion.

The building was three stories high and had a very large and sturdy structure. Looking from afar, it actually emitted a crystal clear luster, as if it was made of jade and stone.

In the spacious room of the pavilion, everyone had already taken their seats.

However, at this time, no one spoke. The only sounds that could be heard were 'shua shua' sounds. On the table, there was a stack of papers. On the other hand, Tang Huan was writing like a dragon or a snake, and each character flowed out from the end of the brush.

The gazes of Chu Xiang Lu, Xue Ni and the rest landed on Tang Huan, and uncontrollable excitement and happiness surged within every pair of eyes.

Tang Huan did not hand over the original body of the "Soul Method True Explanation", but rather, wrote out the contents inside it.

One page, two pages... 5 pages...

The pages continued to circulate in the hands of Chu Xiangxiang and the others. The more they read, the more surprised they were.

After approximately half an hour, Tang Huan put down the brush.

Tang Huan had written down all the contents of the "Soul Method True Explanation" in silence, and did not choose to leave them out. That "Soul Method True Explanation" originated from the "Divine Dream Heart Sect." Chu Xiang and the others definitely knew the names of the various secret techniques within, but they didn't know of the cultivation method.

If Tang Huan purposely cut them by one or two, they would definitely be noticed. Since that was the case, why not give them a thorough explanation?

He wasn't worried at all. After the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" accepted this "Soul Method True Explanation", they would immediately turn hostile and covet his other treasures.

Other than the fact that Tang Huan was the Young Sect Master of the "Pure Yang Sword Sect", it was also because he had both the identity of a Weapon Refiner and a Gem Synthetic Master.

"This identity represents many powerful Heavenly Soldier." The Sect Master and all the elders of the Divine Dream Heart Sect should know very well how much help a Junior Brother Tang Huan could bring to the sect. As long as one wasn't a fool, they could easily see through the issue.

Chu Xianfeng and co. would not do something so short-sighted.

Furthermore, based on Tang Huan's observation of Chu Xiang Lan and Xiang Xue and the others, their behavior should be more upright and not the kind of person to lose sight of benefits and justice.

This had a great deal to do with the environment of the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

The dreamland mountain range isolated the Divine Dream Heart Sect from the outside world, making it so that the Divine Dream Heart Sect had very little contact with the outside world. In the entire Divine Great World, the sect that held the most peace and harmony would most likely belong to only the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". This could be seen from the actions of the Divine Dream Heart Sect in Xuan Zhou.

As the fully deserving overlord of Xuanzhou, the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" wasn't like the "Pure Yang Sword Sect" and tightly controlled the entire province. In the battles between the other sects in Xuan Province, the Divine Dream Heart Sect rarely interfered. However, those sects did not dare to cause too much trouble.

After all, as long as this "Divine Dream Heart Sect" existed, the enormous deterrence it represented would never disappear.

A person with a calm personality naturally wouldn't suddenly go and kill someone for their goods.

Of course, if they really had that intention, Tang Huan was confident in escaping. Over a year ago, Luo Yue's coercion made Tang Huan unable to use "Air Escape", and he could only use the Yan Zu Dragon Seal to resist. However, after staying in the "Firing Dragon Desperate Domain" for a year, Tang Huan's cultivation had increased explosively. Even though he was still not a match for the Void Transformation Stage experts, escaping using the "Void Evasion" technique was definitely not a problem.

As long as they were out of their range of attack, Tang Huan could definitely conceal himself in the inner sect of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect".

"The 'Soul Method True Explanation' has finally returned to our sect!"

After that, she jumped up from her seat and looked at Tang Huan, "Junior Brother Tang Huan, giving back the 'Soul Method True Explanation', to my Divine Dream Heart Sect, is equivalent to paying respect to another act of kindness. Please accept my respect!"

Saying that, Chu Xiangrui actually gave Tang Huan a deep bow.
