Chapter 1081 - Divine Dream Platform

"Senior Sister Sect Leader, this is what I should do."

Tang Huan immediately stood up, wanting to return the greeting.

There was something special about this "Divine Dream Heart Sect". It was that no matter how high or low the cultivation of the Sovereign, all of the Elders were called equals. Even if he was the disciple of an elder one day, when he became an elder one day, the relationship between the two of them would change from master and disciple to master and sister.

Of course, if it were a Highest Elder, then they would naturally grow up.

Tang Huan addressed Xue Ni and the others as senior and junior brother. Naturally, Chu Xiang and the other elders of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" became Senior Sister of Tang Huan.

"Thank you, Junior Brother Tang Huan!"

But before Tang Huan could make a move, all of the elders present, including Xue Ni, gave a deep bow at the same time, and their expressions became extremely excited.

After they finished reading the contents of the stack of pages, they were completely certain that Tang Huan had not hidden it away. He had indeed brought the complete "Soul Method True Explanation" back to the "Divine Dream Heart Sect".

This was something that was especially hard to come by.

"Seniors, no need to do this, no need to do this."

Tang Huan continuously turned, and cupped his hands, he was actually a little flustered.

Seeing Tang Huan's current state, Mu Xuanyin and the others couldn't help but laugh. Chu Xiang's brows raised into a slight smile as well. "Junior Brother Tang Huan, you don't need to be embarrassed. "Junior Brother Tang Huan, you have contributed so much to our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect', our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' will not treat you unfairly."

Then, Chu Xiang's voice rose, "I suggest that the 'Divine Dream Platform' open for Junior Brother Tang Huan for a month. What do you think, Junior Sisters?"

"Agreed!"

"Agreed!"

"..."

The voices of approval sounded out at almost the same time.

"Divine Dream Platform?"

Tang Huan's mind stirred, information about the "Divine Dream Platform" immediately surfaced in his mind.

It was said that in ancient times, the founder of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" had once killed a super strong expert, erased his consciousness, and sealed his True Spirit with a formation.

The place where the True Spirit s were sealed was the "Divine Dream Platform".

The array continued to circulate, and the True Spirit continued to absorb the energy of heaven and earth, condensing it into the "Illusory Paradise". By absorbing and refining the "Illusionary Divine Dew", one's cultivation speed would reach an unbelievable level. Normally, the 'divine dream platform' would be in a sealed state.

Only when they needed it, would the four Void Transformation Stage experts join hands and activate it.

Under normal circumstances, only when the Elders or disciples of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" contributed greatly to the sect would they be able to obtain the honor of entering Shen Meng Tai to train. Moreover, the longest time limit was only seven days.

Don't underestimate these seven days.

Seven days was more than enough time for a Nascent Mysterious cultivator to advance one stage. Without the 'divine dream platform', wanting to break through in such a short period of time was nearly unimaginable. Not just that, but after cultivating for a period of time on the 'Divine Dream Platform', even if one did come out, their cultivation would still increase at an alarming rate.

From this, one could clearly see the effects of the 'Illusory Demonshine' from the Divine Dream Platform.

And now, Chu Xianfeng and the rest had actually agreed to open the "Divine Dream Terrace" for Tang Huan for an entire month. This treatment could be said to be unprecedented, and would never happen again.

"The 'divine dream platform' is a cultivation Holy Land of our Divine Dream Heart Sect."

Seeing Tang Huan was stunned and speechless, Chu Xiang Meng thought that he didn't know what the "Divine Dream Platform" was, so she explained to him with a smile, "The" Divine Dream Platform "has a lot of" Illusory Divine Dew "accumulated inside, after Junior Brother enters, you can just absorb it and refine it. I am now at the peak of the third transformation, so I will definitely be able to step into the fourth transformation in three to five days. After having a breakthrough, the effect of continuing to refine the 'Illusory Divine Dew' will be a little worse, but fortunately, I have enough time, so in the next twenty days, Junior will once again break through.

"Thank you, Senior Sisters!"

Tang Huan returned to his senses and said gratefully, but he couldn't help but feel some guilt in his heart.

To be honest, he did not have any substantial relationship with the "Divine Dream Heart Sect", because the "Soul Method True Explanation" was something that he had snatched from the Demon Lord Fen Tian s. The things that he had told Xue Ni and the others before, were completely fabricated, and the so-called "residual soul" did not exist at all.

However, although Tang Huan's identity was a fake, he was still able to return the complete "Soul Method True Explanation" to the sect. If the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" allowed him to cultivate in the "Divine Dream Platform" for half a month, he would not lose out.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already settled down his mind.

When he was in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", Tang Huan had killed Ling Xiao Sword Sect cultivators. Although there were several puppets in the Ling Xiao Sword Sect that were under his control, they were not suitable for him to be protected publicly. At that time, if he were to clash with the Ling Xiao Sword Sect's fellows, with his peak of the third form, he would definitely not be able to gain anything from it. If he provoked an expert of the Ling Xiao Sword Sect, Tang Huan would probably only be able to avoid it.

If he could step into the realm of the Five Transformation before arriving in the Heavenly Region, it would be extremely beneficial for Tang Huan.

The opportunity he had obtained in the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" could be said to be in time for Tang Huan to arrive.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, this is what you deserve." Chu Xiang smiled sweetly, "There's no time to lose, we'll take you to the 'Divine Dream Platform' right now!"

"..."

The Divine Dream Platform wasn't too far away from this mountain peak. It was located in a valley 10 miles away.

The valley was quiet and elegant.

In the depths of the valley, between the luxuriant ancient trees, a white round table that was tens of meters tall and about ten meters in height was quietly standing.

This was the 'Divine Dream Platform'!

Chu Xianfeng and the other four Void Transformation Stage experts were already seated cross-legged on the round table. Their eyes were slightly closed and their faces revealed a solemn expression.

"Hu!" In a split-second, majestic Zhen Yuan roared out from the four people's palms and crazily poured into the round table.

"Rumble ..."

A low and deep ringing sound came out from the bottom of the round table. It was getting more and more intense. In an instant, the entire round table began to shake like ripples. In the center of this 'divine dream platform', a hole around 10 meters in size appeared bit by bit.

The void within the cave rippled nonstop like water. After a long time, the 'divine dream platform' still fluctuated, but the rumbling sounds suddenly stopped.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, quickly go in. During this month, you should focus on your cultivation and we will continuously open the 'divine dream platform'." Chu Xiang shouted.

"Thank you all for your troubles, Senior Sisters."

Tang Huan took a deep breath, then leaped up and landed on the "Divine Dream Platform", he did not stop moving, like a black ray of light, he entered the hole in the center of the round platform at lightning speed. In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already disappeared without a trace.

Chu Xiang and the other four Void Transformation powerhouses didn't stop. They continued to sit cross-legged, steadily pouring their true essence into the 'divine dream platform' ...

Chapter 1082 - Illusory Dew

After a split-second, Tang Huan was already in a white space.

This space was circular and had a circumference of ten meters. The ground that was as translucent as jade contained countless lines, but it was shining brightly like a spirit serpent as it coiled around. At the point where the lines intersected, there seemed to be invisible threads that rose into the air and concentrated in the air above this region.

It was actually as big as a two year old child. Its four limbs and five senses were clearly visible, and its entire body was shimmering with light. It was as white as snow, as if it was carved out of fine jade, looking extremely lifelike.

This huge white True Spirit was wrapped by layers and layers of invisible threads from underground, as if completely imprisoned.

However, one could faintly see auras constantly swimming around the True Spirit's body. Around it, there were also wisps of strange energy that separated and entered the white True Spirit's body. This should be the natural power that filled the void.

When all cultivators first step onto the path of cultivation, the Spiritual Qi of Heaven and Earth that they came in contact with was also the Power of Heaven and Earth.

However, it was the most basic form of the Power of the Heavens and the Earth, filling the entire universe. The "Power of the Heavens and the Earth" that cultivators often talked about was naturally not the spiritual energy of the world, but a high-grade power. This power seemed to contain the meaning of the laws of the world.

This kind of power was undoubtedly very mysterious.

The "Illusory Shrine" that was formed by the white True Spirit condensed the energy of heaven and earth was naturally even more mysterious.

"Ga ji!" The Nine Spirits, who had always been in Tang Huan's embrace, came out from the front of her clothes, and emitted a loud and clear cry. When they looked at the white True Spirit, their eyes revealed extreme human surprise. This was the first time it had seen such a large True Spirit.

"Drip!"

A crisp sound suddenly reverberated in the air. It was a drop of near transparent liquid that jumped out from between the True Spirit's eyebrows and fell into the small pond below. The pool was circular and only had a diameter of one or two meters. At this moment, the accumulated amount of clear water was almost half of the pool.

The water in this pond must be the "Illusory Shrine".

Under the illumination from the surroundings, the almost transparent liquid actually rippled and reflected an unusually gorgeous luster, causing one to feel as if they were in a dream.

This was probably the reason why the so-called "Illusory Paradise Dew" was named.

Just by sensing it, Tang Huan's face couldn't help but reveal a surprised smile. From the "Illusory Paradise", he could feel an incomparably pure and tyrannical energy coming from it, so when he absorbed and refined the "Illusory Paradise", his cultivation level would definitely soar at an astonishing rate.

In a split-second, Tang Huan's heart skipped a beat. With a slight movement of his feet, he arrived at the side of the pond. With a slight movement of his thoughts, the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace' immediately flashed out of the Dantian.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan reached out and grabbed it, and the "Illusory Divine Dew" immediately turned into a stream of water and rose up, falling endlessly into the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" like a rainbow absorbing water. The water in the pool was decreasing at a speed visible to the naked eye. In just a few breaths of time, all the "Illusory Shrine" had been completely absorbed by Tang Huan.

With that thought, the cauldron returned back to the Dantian, Tang Huan sat on the ground with his legs crossed, and started to circulate his cultivation technique ...

Day went and night came. Day came and went. In a blink of an eye, two days had passed.

In the depths of the valley, on the divine dream platform, Chu Xiangliu and the other three revealed slightly exhausted expressions. If he wanted to keep the divine dream stage open, he would have to continuously send in his true essence. Once the true essence was interrupted, not only would the divine dream stage close, Tang Huan would also be forced out.

After two days, most of their true essence had been consumed.

Fortunately, the Divine Dream Heart Sect had enough Void Transformation powerhouses. They could alternate between each other to guarantee that they would be able to enter the 'divine dream platform' with endless true essence.

"Yes!"

As Chu Xiang's low voice sounded out, the four Void Transformation Elders that were already waiting underneath the Divine Dream Platform immediately leapt up, arriving next to Chu Xiang and the others. He raised his hand and slapped. True energy gushed out from his palm and at the same time, Chu Xiang and the rest of the four withdrew their attacks and moved out horizontally.

A vigorous true essence coincidentally connected back into the divine dream platform and flowed into it. The four people immediately sat down.

"Hu!"

Chu Xiang and the other three let out a light sigh and immediately left the Divine Dream Platform.

However, just as they were about to land on the ground, an extremely tyrannical aura suddenly howled out from a hole in the center of the divine dream platform. In an instant, it covered an area of 1000 meters.

"Huh?"

The four people exclaimed in surprise, only to realize that the aura had started to rapidly soar.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan managed to step into the fourth transformation so quickly?"

"In just two days, Tang Huan unexpectedly broke through!" Although the Illusory Shrine was mysterious, Tang Huan's cultivation speed was astonishing. She had originally thought that Tang Huan would need three to five days before he could raise his cultivation to the fourth transformation.

Now, Tang Huan had directly shortened the time given by one fold.

"It really is the Profound Mysterious Four Transformations." A green-gowned woman exclaimed in a low voice, "Based on this speed, Junior Brother Tang Huan wouldn't have already stepped into the Void Transformation Stage after twenty-eight days, right?"

"How could the Virtual Level be so easily broken through?"

Hearing this, Chu Xiang couldn't help but burst out laughing, "Junior Brother Tang Huan is at the peak of the third transformation, and has long since been on the verge of a breakthrough, and suddenly absorbed and refined a large number of 'Illusory Divine Dew', which is why he was able to quickly step into the fourth transformation in one go. When Junior Brother Tang Huan comes out, your cultivation will probably be able to reach the peak of the Five Transformation. "

Chu Xianfeng originally thought that Tang Huan would only be able to break through to the five profound transformations, but now, she had stealthily increased her judgment of Tang Huan.

Upon hearing this, the few of them subconsciously nodded their heads.

As the days passed, her judgment soon turned into reality. Around the fifteenth day after Tang Huan entered the "Divine Dream Platform", an even larger and crazily growing Qi surged out from the hole, startling Chu Xiangxiang and the other eight Void Transformation Stage experts.

Tang Huan had already broken through to the Fifth Transformation of the Dongxuan realm!

Time quietly passed. Unknowingly, another ten days had passed.

"Whoosh!"

Suddenly, a black figure jumped out of the hole in the center of the "Divine Dream Platform". After flying into the air, it gracefully landed on the ground.

This man was Tang Huan!

After clearly seeing his appearance, regardless of whether it was the four people on the stage or the four Void Transformation Stage experts below the stage, all of them were shocked. The reward that the Divine Dream Heart Sect gave Tang Huan was to cultivate in the "Divine Dream Platform" for thirty days, and it had only been twenty-five days, yet Tang Huan had already run out from inside?

Chapter 1083 - Sect Master's Decision!

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, why did you come out earlier?"

Chu Xiang was stunned.

Judging from the aura that was seeping out from Tang Huan's body, his cultivation had indeed reached the peak of the five forms of the Ancient Profound Realm. If he were to absorb and refine the "Illusory Divine Dew" for another five days, even though it would be difficult for it to increase, his foundation would definitely be more stable.

"Senior apprentice-sister Sovereign, I've already finished absorbing the Godly Illusion Dew in the pool."

Tang Huan laughed awkwardly.

The "Illusory Divine Dew" inside was just enough for him to refine for another five days. However, the "Illusory Divine Dew" he refined was truly too much, and the effect of raising his cultivation was getting worse and worse. If this were to continue, it would not be of much help to his cultivation.

After sensing this point, Tang Huan decisively stopped. He took down the remaining "Illusory Divine Dew" and sent it into the Space Aircraft, allowing it to be absorbed by Yu Feiyan.

He was currently at the peak of the five transformations, but he just did not have the opportunity to break through. Otherwise, he could use the remaining "Illusory Demonshine" and the "Dragon Tiger Void Pill" that he obtained from the Green Rainbow Sect's leader Ling Wei to try to break through to Virtual Level.

"It's been completely refined?"

"What?"

"This... It disappeared so quickly? "

"..."

Chu Xiang and the rest exclaimed in shock, looking at each other in dismay.

They were completely shocked by Tang Huan's words. As sect masters and elders of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect", they knew very well how much of the "Illusory Divine Dew" remained in the "Divine Dream Platform". With each opening for seven days, it was more than enough for dozens of mysterious cultivators to go in and cultivate.

But now, Tang Huan had used twenty-five days to refine all of the "Illusory Divine Dew"!

This speed was simply miraculous!

Only after a while did Chu Xiang and the others regain their senses. The four people on the stage raised their hands at the same time and stopped the true energy transmission.

"Rumble ..."

A ringing sound erupted from within the divine dream platform. The surface of the round platform began to rapidly fluctuate, and the hole in the center of the platform began to slowly close up. Not long after, the divine dream platform had completely returned to normal. The echoing sound also abruptly stopped, and the valley returned to its previous tranquil state.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, don't worry about it. "

"It will slowly increase again after a while." However, there was something she did not say. If she wanted to reach the state where she had entered the Illusory Paradise, she would have to wait at least a hundred years before she could open it.

Her voice paused for a moment, and then she continued, "Next up, Junior Apprentice Brother might as well train in our Divine Dream Pagoda for a period of time. Although the cultivation speed there is not comparable to the 'Divine Dream Altar', junior will definitely be able to break through to Virtual Level within a year. "

"Thank you for your good will, Senior Sister."

Tang Huan was extremely grateful, but he quickly changed the topic, "It's just that I have some urgent matters to take care of, so I have to go to the Heaven Realm. I will be leaving in two days."

"If that's the case..."

Chu Xiang's eyebrows furrowed slightly, then she smiled. "If junior feels that it's convenient, why not let me know? Maybe we senior sisters can help out a little."

After a moment of hesitation, Tang Huan suddenly asked, "Senior Sister Sect Leader and the various worlds, have you all heard of the 'Sword Fantasy Paradise'?"

The Divine Dream Heart Sect was a great sect that was on par with the Ling Xiao Sword Sect and the Nine Star Holy Sect. Chu Xiangzi was the Sovereign of the Divine Dream Heart Sect, so she might even know about the existence of the 'Sword Illusion Paradise'. Not only that, but her understanding of the 'Sword Illusion Paradise' was even greater than the Green Rainbow Sect's ancient sacred arts.

As a result, Tang Huan decided to reveal some information and inquire Chu Xiang and the rest.

"Illusory Sword Paradise?"

Above and below the stage, everyone could not help but exclaim in a low voice.

Then, Chu Xianfeng said in a low voice, "I heard that it was an ancient expert's cultivation cave, it contains all sorts of treasures, but the cave is already shattered, and there are spatial traps and spatial cracks everywhere, it's extremely dangerous." Furthermore, although the 'Sword Illusion Paradise' is closely connected to the Forging God Great World, it is also independent of them, and their whereabouts are unknown. It is possible that this time, they will appear in the Li Province, and next time, they will be in the Hai Continent. "

After a while, Chu Xiang looked at Tang Huan, and her expression turned serious: "Junior Brother Tang Huan, what do you want to do, have something to do with the 'Sword Illusion Paradise'?"

"Exactly."

Tang Huan slowly said, "I have a friend who seems to have fallen into the 'Sword Illusion Paradise', so I have to rescue her there. I heard that the last time the 'Sword Illusion Paradise' was seen was in the Heavenly Region. If I want to find any traces or clues to the 'Sword Illusion Paradise', I can only go to the Heavenly Region first. "

"The last time 'Sword Illusion Paradise' appeared was indeed in the Heavenly Region, and it was even within the sphere of influence of the 'Ling Xiao Sword Sect'." "It's said that that place has been completely isolated by the 'Ling Xiao Sword Sect'. Ordinary people would not even be able to enter that place."

"Looks like I'll have to wait until I get there before acting."

Tang Huan was startled, and immediately laughed.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, that's good. Our Divine Dream Heart Sect will send a few Junior Sister from the Virtual Level to accompany you."

"When you were in the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm', you had a grudge with the cultivators of the Ling Xiao Sword Sect. Once you are recognized in the Heavenly Region, it might attract the revenge of the Ling Xiao Sword Sect.

"Senior school head, there is no need to trouble you all so much."

Tang Huan immediately waved his hand.

One could even say that he had used the "Soul Method True Explanation" in exchange for the "Illusory Divine Dew" that the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" had accumulated for many years. If the Void Transformation Stage experts of the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" were to make a move again for him, this favor would be too much. Tang Huan was indeed very sorry.

"We're all fellow disciples, how can you say this is troublesome?" "Now that junior has matters to attend to, how can we, senior sisters, just sit back and do nothing?"

"Senior sister sectmaster, this ..."

Without waiting for Tang Huan to finish speaking, Chu Xianfeng lightly waved her jade hands, took the stance of a sect master, and decisively said: "Junior Brother Tang Huan, you don't need to say anymore, it's decided. You just came out of the Divine Dream Platform today, rest well, and will head out to the Heavenly Region tomorrow."

"Yes. Thank you senior brothers and sisters. Thank you all."

Tang Huan could only agree. Seeing his helpless look, the few elders of the Virtual Level could not help but laugh.

Tang Huan turned to look, and his heart suddenly moved, as he asked probingly: "I wonder what rank of weapon all of you senior sisters are using?"

"Only Junior Sister Li Fan and I used middle-ranked Heaven Ranked Heavenly Soldier while the other Junior Sister used high-ranked Heavenly Soldier."

The mention of this gave Chu Xiang a headache.

The Forging God Great World did not lack weapons, but lacked high-grade weapons. "Whenever a good weapon appears, it will immediately be bought." The Divine Dream Heart Sect rarely came into contact with the outside world. In terms of purchasing weapons, their disadvantages were obvious. It wasn't that the Divine Dream Heart Sect wasn't willing to bid, but that they simply didn't have any high quality weapons to sell.

Chapter 1084 - Heaven

"If we have enough Divine Level Stone s, perhaps I can help all of you Senior Sisters exchange their weapons for top-grade Heaven Ranked Heavenly Soldier s." Tang Huan smiled from between his brows.

"Top quality Heaven Rank Heavenly Soldier?"

Hearing these words, Chu Xiang and the rest gasped.

Immediately after, the four people below the stage couldn't help but come to Tang Huan's side, and look at him with eyes full of disbelief.

"That's right."

Tang Huan said with a smile, "Senior sisters, if you've all heard of the things that happened in the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm', you probably know that I've sold a large number of top-grade weapons there. Those top quality weapons were all forged by me. Although I have yet to synthesize a Heaven Stage Divine Level Stone and have not forged a Heaven Stage Heavenly Soldier, as long as I want, I can become a Heaven Stage Gem Synthetic Master and a Heaven Stage Heavenly Blacksmith at any time. Furthermore, all of them are perfect Heaven Stage Divine Level Stone.

As he said these words, the bottom of Tang Huan's heart surged with boundless confidence.

Tang Huan did indeed have the confidence to say these words. His own pure Tools Method Attainments, the inheritance of the forging god's Tools Method, and the existence of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" made Tang Huan extremely confident in the forging of weapons. As long as his cultivation was there, he would be able to forge a corresponding Heavenly Soldier.

Hearing Tang Huan's explanation, Chu Xiang and the other Void Transformation Stage powerhouses were all stunned.

Over the years, they had come into contact with a few Heavenly Blacksmiths of Heaven Stage, but not a single one of them dared to say such words. Synthetic Perfect Heaven Stage Divine Level Stone, Forging top quality Heaven Stage Heavenly Soldier ... This was something that not even the Saint Grade Gem s and sage rank Heavenly Blacksmith s could do.

Of course they knew about Tang Huan's sale of weapons in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm".

However, it had only been a little more than a year since the closure of the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", and they felt that Tang Huan should still be a Upper Grade Blacksmith. The information that Tang Huan had just revealed seemed to be the same. Before this, Tang Huan had never synthesized a Heaven Stage Divine Level Stone, nor forged a Heaven Stage Heavenly Soldier.

Under these circumstances, Tang Huan actually dared to guarantee that he would be able to synthesize a perfect Heaven Stage Divine Level Stone and forge a top tier Heaven Stage Heavenly Soldier?

"Junior brother Tang Huan, is that true?"

After a long while, Chu Xiangliu finally came to a realization. Even though she couldn't believe it, there was still a bit of anticipation in her eyes.

A Void Transformation Stage expert was a high level Heavenly Soldier. If he were to use it in a fight with someone, it would indeed appear to be extremely shabby. If Tang Huan could really forge a whole batch of Heaven s, it would be great news to the "Divine Dream Heart Sect". Moreover, powerful weapons could also greatly enhance the strength of the Void Transformation Stage cultivators of the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

"You'll know once you try." Tang Huan unwittingly smiled.

Although the Divine Dream Heart Sect did not compete with the outside world and rarely made contact with the outside world, they had a very deep foundation and were very rich.

When Tang Huan entered the cave that the Divine Dream Sect stored all kinds of gems in, he was stunned for a long time before he regained his senses. Without mentioning the other gems, just the stock of Natural Divine Stone and synthetic Divine Level Stone alone was already more than a hundred times that of the "Pure Yang Sword Sect".

Pure Yang Sword Sect was second to none in the entire Yan State, but in this regard, it was completely incomparable to the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

The weapons of Chu Xiang and the other experts of the Divine Dream Heart Sect were truly poor. However, the reason for this was not because they were poor, but because the sect did not have any powerful Weapon Refiner nor did they have the opportunity to encounter a good weapon. Now that Tang Huan had appeared, he could definitely help them solve this difficult problem.

When the news of Tang Huan wanting to help the "Divine Dream Sect" forging the top-grade Heaven Rank Heavenly Soldier s spread, almost all of the inner sect disciples were shocked, and a large number of cultivators gathered outside the cave.

"Rumor has it that when he was in the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm', Tang Huan had already forged a large number of top-grade Heavenly Soldier.

"I never thought that Tang Huan would actually become the sect master and the elders' junior brother. Wouldn't we have to call him martial uncle then?"

"Martial Uncle Tang Huan is the first male cultivator that our 'Divine Dream Heart Sect' has had for many years."

"When Junior Brother Tang Huan was forging the top-grade high grade Heavenly Soldier in the 'Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm,' he had only just broken through to the first level of the Profound Rank, and his current cultivation has already reached the peak of the Five Transformation. He might even be able to forge a top-grade Heaven Ranked Heavenly Soldier. I don't know if it's started yet, but we'll wait and see. "

"..."

Outside the cave, all sorts of voices could be heard.

As the crowd was chattering, Chu Xianfeng and a few Void Transformation Stage Elders suddenly walked out from the cave, attracting everyone's attention.

"Everyone be quiet, do not disturb Junior Brother Tang Huan."

Chu Xiang suddenly shouted in a low voice.

The crowd finally quietened down, no longer making a sound. However, not many people left. Everyone was quietly waiting, even Chu Xianfeng, Xiang Xue, and the others.

Time flew by like a flying shuttle. Soon, it was already afternoon.

"Hu!"

A terrifying aura suddenly howled out from the inside the cave.

That aura that originated from the cave had actually reached the extreme cold. Wherever it passed by, the void seemed to turn into a ten thousand year old ice cave, while everyone else seemed to turn into ice sculptures. The cold chill seemed to have seeped into the depths of their souls.

At this moment, many of the cultivators shuddered at the same time, even the mysterious cultivators were no exception. Only Chu Xiang and the other Void Transformation Stage experts resisted the cold's onslaught. But soon after, regardless of whether it was a Void Transformation Stage expert or other cultivators, they all revealed expressions of uncontrollable excitement.

"Martial Uncle Tang Huan has become a weapon!"

"His aura is frightening right now. He must be a Heaven Rank Heavenly Soldier, and a top grade Heaven Rank Heavenly Soldier at that!"

"I never thought that Junior Brother Tang Huan would actually be able to forge a top-grade Heaven Rank Heavenly Soldier. If I heard correctly this morning, this should be the first Heavenly Soldier that Junior Brother Tang Huan can forge."

"..."

After a moment of astonishment, exclamations rose one after another.

The ones gathered at the entrance of the cave were all disciples of the Divine Dream Heart Sect with the lowest cultivation among them. There were also many Elders of the Cave Profound Realm and Void Transformation Stage powerhouses, and although the weapons they possessed weren't anything special, they were all highly discerning people. They immediately understood that the aura must have originated from their weapons, and were able to determine the grade of that weapon.

High-grade Heavenly Soldier s were rarely seen, let alone the top-grade Heavenly Soldier s of Heaven Stage.

The first time Tang Huan tried to forge a Heaven Ranked Heavenly Soldier, he brought out a top-grade weapon. The shock brought about by this to many Divine Dream Sect cultivators couldn't be described with words. Those people who originally did not believe in Tang Huan's Tools Method Attainments no longer had that bit of doubt in the bottom of their hearts.

The first Heaven Ranked Heavenly Soldier was a top-grade weapon, what was the difference in the following weapons? Thinking of this, everyone became excited.

What happened next completely confirmed everyone's speculations.

One after another, terrifying auras swept out from the inside the cave, signifying that top quality heaven stage Heavenly Soldier s were successfully produced one after another.

As the number of top grade heaven rank Heavenly Soldier s increased, the initial agitation of the Divine Dream Heart Sect cultivators also began to slowly grow numb ...

... ..

Chapter 1085 - Sky Province

The Sky Region was located in the center of the Forging God Great World. It was the most vast province in the entire world, and also the most powerful one.

The ten most populous cities in the Forging God Great World, three of them were in the Sky Region.

There were three sects in the top ten rankings of the entire Great World in the Sky Region. Moreover, the Forging God Great World's "True Fire" fire source was also in the Sky Region. Amongst the hundred thousand Weapon Refiner s in the Forging God Great World, there were at least ninety-nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine of them.

The remaining Weapon Refiner was either lucky enough to obtain a set of True Fire from the Heavenly Region, or had directly fused with a fire attribute Spiritual Fire. As for the other attributes of the Spiritual Fire, they could only become a Weapon Refiner after fusing with the True Fire.

Of course, the possibility of directly becoming a Weapon Refiner after fusing with a fire attribute Spiritual Fire was very small.

Because it could only be passed on in the Heavenly Province, a large majority of Forging God Great World s could only be found in the Heavenly Province, as well as the Yangzhou, which was next to the Heavenly Province, and other large continents.

The further away from the Sky Region, the fewer Weapon Refiner there were.

For example, the Southwest Li Prefecture, Southeastern Yan State, Northeast Hai Continent, and Northwest Taizhou were all pitifully few in number. Weapon Refiner that could be promoted to Heavenly Blacksmith were even more so existences that were as rare as phoenix feathers and qilin horns. However, in the Heavenly Region, just the number of Ling Xiao Sword Sect s was already over a hundred.

The number of Heavenly Blacksmith s in both the Constellation Sect and the Ice and Fire Sacred Region was not less than that of the Ling Xiao Sword Sect s.

The Ling Xiao Sword Sect, Constellation Sect, and Ice and Fire Sacred Domain were located north, southeast, and southwest of the Sky Region.

Between these three forces, there were also many sects of various sizes.

In the north of the eastern part of the Heavenly Province, there were endless mountain ranges. Amongst the lofty mountains and lofty ridges, there was a city called "Sky City". Its population was approximately several million. Such a city could be called a big city if it was placed in a remote city like the Yan State. However, in the Heaven Province, it was only a small city that few people knew about.

On the west side of the city, there was a towering mountain that pierced the clouds like a sharp sword rising up from the ground. However, the blade of the sword seemed to have been cut in half.

This was the territory of the Hunyuan Sect, the Broken Sword Sect.

It was noon, and the streets to the south of the Sky City were packed with pedestrians. Two figures quietly appeared on a small hill a few thousand meters away on the right side of the road.

One of them was a young man in his twenties. He was dressed in a black robe and had a handsome face. The other woman was about the age of twenty. She had a red dress that seemed like it was made of fire. She had a oval face and phoenix eyes. Her body was tall, slim and graceful.

These two were Tang Huan and Yu Feiyan.

After Tang Huan left the "Divine Dream Platform" and entered the cave that stored gems, he stayed there for an entire half a month before finally leaving the "Divine Dream Heart Sect".

Originally, Tang Huan had planned to leave on the second day. However, Chu Xiang's decision made him willing to stay in the "Divine Dream Heart Sect" for a period of time. During that half a month, Tang Huan focused on forging weapons without rest. The number of top quality Heaven Ranked Heavenly Soldier s increased continuously at the rate of two per day.

Before he left, he had forged exactly 30 top grade weapons for the Divine Dream Heart Sect.

Sect Master Chu Xiangliu, Li Fan, and the other Void Transformation Stage experts were basically able to do one for each person. With this weapon, each of them would definitely be able to improve their strength by a large margin, and when Tang Huan left the "Divine Dream Heart Sect", he would no longer be alone.

He was also accompanied by Li Fan and his other two senior sisters. They were all Void Transformation Stage experts, and Li Fan, who had the highest cultivation level, had actually already reached the Fifth Cycle of the Void Transformation.

Tang Huan did not reject Chu Xiang's good intentions.

His own cultivation had already reached the peak of the Fifth Transformation of the Dongxuan realm, and with these four Void Transformation Stage experts following him, Tang Huan already had enough confidence to make this trip to the Heavenly Region.

After flying for two and a half months without stopping, they finally arrived at the Sky Cloud City.

Tianyuan City belonged to the Hunyuan Sect, and the Hunyuan Sect was within the visual field of the "Ling Xiao Sword Sect", so it had always been the only "Ling Xiao Sword Sect" to command them. According to Chu Xiang, the last time the "Sword Illusion Paradise" appeared was near the Hunyuan sect.

Currently, the only ones who have appeared are Tang Huan, Yu Feiyan and the nine spirits.

Li Fan and the other three Void Transformation Stage experts were all inside the Space Aircraft. They were Tang Huan's trump card, so he naturally could not easily reveal his whereabouts.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, where are we going now?"

Yu Feiyan's slightly hoarse yet extremely magnetic, unique voice sounded out, as a tinge of excitement surfaced between her brows. The strange fruits inside the Space Aircraft, coupled with the "Illusory Divine Dew" that Tang Huan had kept, had greatly increased her cultivation. In just a few short months, not only had she crossed over to the origin realm, she had also stepped into the yin tribulation realm. The remaining "Illusory Divine Dew" was enough for her to continue cultivating to the peak of the yin tribulation.

"To the Hunyuan Sect."

Tang Huan squinted his eyes and looked at the distant "Broken Sword Peak" that seemed to have been cut in half at an angle. A faint smile surfaced on his face. The area where the Illusory Sword Paradise was located had already been sealed off. As a subordinate sect of the Ling Xiao Sword Sect, the Hunyuan Sect must have been involved in the gathering.

By capturing the master or elder of the Hunyuan Sect and using the "Puppet Soul Seal" to control it, he would be able to obtain a lot of useful information.

"Hunyuan Sect?"

Yu Feiyan was startled upon hearing this. Then, he said somewhat hesitatingly, "Junior Brother Tang Huan, why don't I do the same as Senior Li Fan and the others and stay in your Space Aircraft for a while?"

Her yin tribulation cultivation was not considered weak amongst the young, but it could not be compared with those experts from the Profound Wonderland, or even those from the Virtual Level. Tang Huan had to face all the experts and rankers in the entire Hunyuan Sect this time. If she was with him, she might become a burden.

"For the time being, there's no need."

Tang Huan laughed, "With this guy around, I will be able to protect you."

This little guy deserved to be called the "Netherworld Nine Spirit Bird" who had experienced nine cycles of reincarnation. After leaving the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm", the speed at which his strength rose was unbelievably fast, especially during the year with the "Firing Dragon Desperate Domain". Not only was Tang Huan able to reap great rewards, this little guy's gains were not inferior to his at all.

On the way to Heavenly Fang City not long ago, its strength had increased once again, and it had already reached the stage of void transformation.

With it protecting Yu Feiyan, there was indeed nothing to worry about.

"Ga ji ~ ~ ~"

She patted her chest with her little wings, looking quite pleased with herself, "Little girl, what is there to be afraid of in a mere Hunyuan Sect like yours? Just follow me in, I'll protect your safety."

Looking at its spirited appearance, Yu Feiyan was speechless.

"Let's go!"

"..."

Chapter 1086 - Explosive Punch!

When they entered the Sky City, Tang Huan's entire body was covered in black robes, and the nine spirits on his shoulders also activated the death aura in their bodies, covering up their beautiful feathers.

The reason for this was to prevent his true identity from being revealed the moment he arrived.

After all, no one knew if any of the cultivators from the Hunyuan Sect had seen Tang Huan and the nine spirits in the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm". Yu Feiyan did not need to hide it this way.

She had never entered the "Heavenly Desolate Secret Realm" and had always stayed in the Green Rainbow Sect. It was impossible for anyone here to recognize her.

After passing through the Sky Square City, they quickly arrived at the foot of the Broken Sword Peak.

At the foot of the mountain, the Great Way of the Steps extended upward, winding and faintly discernible, like a giant dragon coiling around a mountain peak. On both sides of the main road, new roads extended and slanted like vines, crisscrossing and crisscrossing, connecting together the various buildings that adorned the mountain peaks.

At this moment, on the road, the figures of cultivators could be seen walking around every now and then.

At the foot of the Great Dao Mountain, a mountain gate that was dozens of meters tall rose up from the ground. At the top of the mountain, the word "Primordius" was neatly written in a majestic manner.

This mountain was surrounded by an invisible barrier. If one wanted to go up the mountain, they could only go through this gate.

In front of the mountain gate, ten guards stood guard on both sides.

All of them were young men, wearing yellow robes. Judging from the aura emitted from their bodies, one of them was a Yang Tribulation Cultivator, and the rest were of the Three Yuan stage.

Tang Huan and Yu Feiyan's combination was rather eye-catching. Before they even got close to the gate, they were stared at by the guards. After all, Tang Huan's current attire was indeed strange. Only two eyes were exposed from head to toe, it was difficult to not attract attention.

"Who are you?"

When the two of them were only twenty or thirty meters away from the mountain gate, the armor-wielding Yang Chou, who was clearly the leader of the guards, shouted out. Everyone else stared at the two like a tiger staring at its prey.

"I heard that the experts of the Hunyuan Sect are as numerous as the clouds, and they are here to seek advice!" Tang Huan smiled slightly.

"Just the two of you actually dared to come to the Hunyuan Sect to seek guidance? You truly do not know the limits of heaven!" When the brawny man heard this, he could not help but laugh out loud.

"With how secretive and secretive he is, it's easy to tell that this isn't a good item."

"Senior Brother Wen, stop wasting time with them, hurry up and chase them away!" We're going to take turns. Don't let those guys laugh at us. "

"..."

The rest of the guards also laughed mockingly.

The so-called 'advice' was actually equivalent to provoking trouble.

If two experts had come, they might have treated them seriously. However, the man and woman in front of them clearly had no affinity with the word 'expert'.

That woman was indeed beautiful, and none of the female disciples of the Hunyuan Sect could compare to her, but her cultivation level was not high enough, probably only at the Yin Tribulation Realm. As for that male disciple, although he couldn't sense any aura, he was probably not much stronger than her.

On the other hand, the little bird on the shoulder of the young man seemed a little strange. Unexpectedly, a faint sense of deathly silence permeated the air. It must be a tamed beast. However, berserk beasts that could be tamed by Yin Tribulation cultivators naturally didn't possess much strength. These two idiots actually dared to stir up trouble. They really didn't know how to write the word 'dead'!

Although the majority of the people here were at the third level, the captain was a Yang Tribulation expert, and he alone was enough to kill all of them.

"Get the hell out of here right now! "Otherwise..."

With so many people jeering around, that muscular man didn't want to waste any more time either. His fierce gaze swept past Tang Huan, and when it landed on Yu Feiyan, a trace of undetectable greed and lust appeared in his eyes. It seemed too much of a pity that he didn't enjoy such a beauty properly.

"Otherwise what?"

The corner of Tang Huan's mouth raised slightly, and a hint of ridicule flashed past his eyes uncontrollably. It was as if he was looking at a mouse that was baring its fangs and brandishing its claws in front of a cat.

"Otherwise, I will have to capture you all and interrogate you all." The sturdy man licked his lips and laughed, his expression was ferocious.

"Come here!" Tang Huan crooked his finger.

"What?"

Everyone was stunned when they heard this. Was this guy crazy?

A hint of surprise flashed in the eyes of the brawny man. To provoke others so brazenly, even when facing a Yang Calamity expert, he did not show any fear. Could it be that he had someone else he could rely on?

However, he quickly composed himself.

So what if the two of them had something to rely on?

The one standing behind him was the Hunyuan Sect, and the one standing behind the Hunyuan Sect was the Ling Xiao Sword Sect, which made him even more fearless. With a quick thought, the robust man smiled. If the two of them were to actually scam by themselves, it would be a bit inconvenient for him to do anything. Right now, it was exactly what he wanted.

"Very good! This old man will help you! "

With an evil grin, the giant axe in the brawny man's hand exploded with hundreds of millions of dazzling black lights. With a hissing sound, the axe blade already streaked across the sky like lightning, and hacked towards Tang Huan. Wherever it passed, a black aura surged crazily, as if it was tearing a dark crack in the air.

Tang Huan's expression remained indifferent, his body not moving an inch.

"Has this fellow been scared silly?"

"It's too boring to solve it in one move."

"..."

Upon seeing this, the many guards of the Hunyuan Sect burst out in laughter, ready to enjoy the scene of the black-robed man being sent flying by the axe. However, just as the muscular man's attack was about to hit its target, Tang Huan reached out to grab it under the watchful gaze of the crowd.

Tang Huan appeared to be extremely slow, but everyone was able to clearly see the trajectory of his claws.

However, such a slow grab actually went through the churning black Qi with incomparable accuracy, grabbing the axe blade that was already in front of him.

Everyone was stunned.

In an instant, the expressions on their faces became extremely rich. Before the sneers from a moment ago had time to disappear, shock had already appeared on their faces. Compared to them, the brawny man was even more shocked. This result was completely out of his expectations.

However, before they could even regain their senses, the shock in their eyes turned to shock.

"Bam!"

Tang Huan's arm moved slightly, and the gigantic axe in the sturdy man's hand flew out without any suspense. Right after, a fist was imprinted on his chest. Like fireworks, the burly man didn't even have time to scream before his burly body instantly turned into a cloud of blood mist and scattered in all directions.

The many guards of the Hunyuan Sect, as well as the cultivators that were entering and exiting the mountain, were all as dumbfounded as wooden chickens. Their mouths were wide open as if a fist could be stuffed in, and their eyeballs seemed as if they were jumping out from their sockets.

The Yang Tribulation Cultivators were actually blasted apart with a single punch! Even a cultivator in the Void Calamity Realm would not be able to do this. Could it be that this person was a mysterious expert?

Chapter 1087 - Standing up for battle

Scanning with his eyes, Tang Huan began to move forward leisurely.

"Plop!"

As they fell on their butts on the ground, their bodies trembled slightly, and their faces were filled with unconcealable fear and panic. From time to time, strange gurgling sounds came from their throats.

But after a short moment, their bodies had already become completely stiff.

"Hu!"

A terrifying aura that could almost suffocate people swept out, rapidly spreading through the world. Soon after, everyone heard a deafening explosion. The huge mountain gate suddenly exploded, turning into dust. Within a radius of ten meters, all the cultivators of the Hunyuan Sect were thrown into the air.

"Run!" "Quick, run!"

After a moment, shouts of panic rose and fell.

After the Hunyuan Sect cultivators landed on the ground, they unhesitatingly got up, either running towards the Sky Square City, or fleeing towards the Broken Sword Peak, running like wolves.

"Sister Feiyan, Jiu Ling, you two wait for me at the foot of the mountain and act accordingly."

"Ga ji!"

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, be careful!"

Tang Huan did not care about this group of trash anymore. After instructing them, he stepped into Broken Sword Summit and followed the stairs as he headed up. He raised his hands and moved his feet, as though he was strolling leisurely, but Tang Huan's speed was extremely fast, in an instant, he had already surpassed all of the Hunyuan Sect cultivators who had just escaped.

"I heard that the Hunyuan Sect has experts as common as the clouds, especially here to seek guidance!" I hope that all of you will be generous with your advice! "

Tang Huan said these words once again, his voice was like a great bell and great rune, surging forth. In the blink of an eye, his words had already resounded throughout the entire Broken Sword Sect and Sky City.

Before this, the small commotion at the entrance of the mountain had not attracted much attention. However, now, the entire Hunyuan Sect was boiling over with excitement.

"Ask for guidance? They must be here to provoke him! Who has the guts to do so? Don't you know that our Primordius Sect is the subordinate sect of the 'Ling Xiao Sword Sect'?"

"He really is brave. Could he be a cultivator from the Constellation Sect or the Ice Fire Saint realm?"

"It seems like the sect has been destroyed, and a disciple of the Sun Calamity has been killed! In less than fifty years, we have been continuously beaten up into the sect. How did our Primordius Sect offend them?"

"Motherf * cker, no matter how many people we provoke, we can't let them leave the Broken Sword Peak!"

"..."

All sorts of sounds rose and fell continuously from the top of the Broken Sword Peak and Sky City.

As Tang Huan advanced upwards, countless cultivators in front of him jumped out in an attempt to stop him. However, when they caught sight of the frightening aura fluctuations that was whizzing out from Tang Huan's body, those fellows immediately flashed to the side with their fastest speed, in case they were unable to stop him and ended up losing their lives for nothing.

As if he had entered a place devoid of people, Tang Huan quickly reached the halfway point of the mountain.

On the side of the road in front of a large hall, nine figures lined up in a straight line. The auras emanating from their bodies were unusually powerful, and they were actually the experts of the Five Transformation. Four of them had even reached the pinnacle of the Five Transformation. Behind these nine people, there were hundreds more.

The cultivators of the Hunyuan Sect were on alert, but Tang Huan did not stop.

In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan was already less than fifty meters away from the group of Hunyuan Sect cultivators in front of him.

"Who are you?"

Although he was thin and weak, his voice was shockingly loud. Every character was like a thunderclap, resonating between the heaven and earth. With just one sentence, the loud sound was enough to tear one's eardrums apart.

Tang Huan smiled slightly: "Is it important who I am? I am only here to seek your advice! "

"Ask for advice?"

A sturdy old man angrily snorted, "Destroying my sect and killing my disciple, is this what you meant by asking for advice? Senior Brother, stop wasting words with him. No matter where he comes from, just kill him! "

"Whoosh!"

The sturdy old man was full of anger, and his murderous aura soared to the sky.

The moment his voice fell, he had already explosively shot forward, a long rod in his hand instantly releasing hundreds of millions of dazzling golden rays. Afterwards, they filled the sky with golden afterimages as they swept towards Tang Huan in an earth-shattering manner.

Seeing that, the green robed elder's lips moved, as though he wanted to stop the sturdy old man, but before he could even speak, he seemed to have changed his mind, but two pairs of eyes were staring straight at Tang Huan. It was obvious that the sturdy old man was going to make the first move, so as to test Tang Huan's strength.

"Fist Seal!"

Tang Huan only smiled slightly as he threw out his right fist.

The space between Tang Huan and the muscular old man seemed to be compressed rapidly. In a split-second, Tang Huan's fist, which had already become extremely large and large, seemed to have traversed across several tens of meters of space as it fiercely collided with the sky filled with golden rod silhouettes.

"Boom —"

The sound of metal breaking stone was produced from the air, and wherever the huge fist passed, the golden light would scatter, and the pole shadows that filled the sky would break and disappear, while the powerful Strength Qi swirled around layer after layer, and the surrounding space immediately revealed intense undulations that could be seen with the naked eye.

After shattering the old man's attack, in less than the blink of an eye, Pang Shuo's fist had directly imprinted itself onto the incoming golden long rod.

"Bam!"

A loud, hasty sound rang out once more.

In an instant, a frightening scene appeared before the eyes of the green-robed elder and the others.

In the instant before the two fists collided, an incomparably terrifying force gushed out from the fist. The staff in the old man's hand first bent into an arc, then the golden light immediately dimmed down. After a short moment, the long rod immediately cracked and shattered upon contact with the sturdy old man's body. That long rod cracked and crumbled into pieces, while that massive fist smashed straight through, instantly destroying the true essence barrier that he hastily condensed from the surface of the old man's body.

"Hu!" Like a kite with its string cut, the old man's sturdy body immediately flew into the air and appeared above the crowd of Hunyuan Sect cultivators.

"Elder Lei!"

In a split-second, exclamations sounded one after another.

Among the crowd, a middle-aged man leaped up and hugged the robust old man.

However, he did not manage to intercept the old man. Instead, he was sent flying backwards by the force of the impact. With a flick of a finger, two figures fell behind a group of people that were tens of metres away. The Strength Qi was forced to scatter, dust was swept around and a deep pit that had a radius of a few metres was revealed.

"Elder Lei!"

"Lin Xu!"

"Senior-apprentice Brother Lin!"

"..."

Shouts rang out.

"Pfft!"

As the middle-aged man sat up, he immediately spat out a mouthful of blood. The sturdy old man beside him had completely stopped moving, and his chest and abdomen had already collapsed. Although he still had a life, he was barely breathing.

He clearly did not expect this outcome from himself. Shock and disbelief still remained in his widened eyes.

Chapter 1088 - One to Eight

The many cultivators of the Hunyuan Sect were all completely stunned by this scene!

There was complete silence in front of the hall.

That sturdy old man was an elder of the Hunyuan Sect and he stepped into the five transformations two years ago. He had tyrannical strength, but the opponent only used one punch and not only did he destroy his weapon, he even heavily injured him.

The middle-aged man, who had jumped up to catch him, was also an expert who had transformed into a mysterious person. However, he was also injured by the force of the impact that wrapped around his body.

The power of one punch was actually this terrifying!

"Do you really think that there is no one in the Primordius Sect who can act so viciously?" After a short period of shock, the old man finally regained his wits and roared out in a stern voice. His thin face was now ashen, and his eyes burned with fury, as if they were about to spew out.

"This is called 'vicious and malicious'?"

Hearing these words, Tang Huan could not help but laugh, "Those who kill will always be killed. He wanted to kill me, but not only did I not kill him, I even spared his life. It's one thing if you're not grateful, but you still dare to be so rude, do you think I'm too merciful? "

Tang Huan did not want to cause too much harm when he came to the Primordius Sect this time.

After all, he had brought the Hunyuan Sect with him. Otherwise, that "Elder Lei" would have been like the fellow with ill intentions in front of the mountain gate; he would not even have been left with a single piece of dregs. Back then, when he was at the peak of the third transformation, Tang Huan had already killed an expert of the fifth transformation, and now that he was at the peak of the fifth transformation, a mere cultivator of the fifth transformation wouldn't even be able to retaliate in the face of his attack.

"F * ck your mother!"

The green robed elder was so angry that his entire body was trembling, and he angrily cursed, "You killed my disciple, destroyed my sect, severely injured my sect's elder, and you call this benevolence? "Elders, let's attack together and kill this bastard. Come to my Hunyuan Sect and do whatever you want. How can I allow you to live?!"

"Kill —"

The moment the green-robed old man finished speaking, the eight Five Transformation Stage cultivators, including him, shot forward like arrows that had left their bowstrings.

"Kill him! Kill him! "

"He actually dares to behave so atrociously in our Hunyuan Sect. He must be tired of living."

"A mere peak level cultivator of the five forms, yet he dares to be so arrogant. He's courting death!"

"..."

Behind them, the crowd of cultivators was also furious and clamoring.

After making a move, it was already difficult to conceal the aura of Tang Huan, which allowed many of them to faintly judge Tang Huan's cultivation level. Although one of the elders was already heavily injured, none of them took Tang Huan seriously.

Eight against one, how could he not win?

Moreover, the strongest power of the Hunyuan Sect was not the Peak Elder of the Five Transformation, but the Void Transformation Stage powerhouse. The reason why they had not acted yet was because they felt that there was no need. A cultivator of the five forms of the Abyss Profound Realm actually wanted to attack by himself? If word of this got out, his reputation would not be pleasant.

"Hu!"

As the crowd clamored, the green-robed elder and the other eight people simultaneously activated the weapons in their hands. Their dazzling lights intertwined, causing people's eyes to be dazzled.

Two blades, three swords, a spear, a hammer, a halberd ...

The eight weapons, in the hands of these cultivators, released their most powerful might. The terrifying attack pressed down towards Tang Huan, covering the entire sky and covering the earth with its unparalleled might. The extremely powerful Strength Qi filled the air, and a terrifying aura swept through heaven and earth.

All of a sudden, the sky shook and the clouds parted.

Within a radius of tens of metres, including Tang Huan, the space suddenly distorted, as though it was going to collapse at any time. The atmosphere was extremely heavy, and those hundreds of Hunyuan Sect cultivators all subconsciously shut their mouths, not making a sound, as though they were going to suffocate at any moment.

However, even though they felt that their breathing was a little unsteady, the crowd was still incomparably excited. Eight Five Transformation Elders working together, we shall see if you are still alive!

Facing such a powerful attack, Tang Huan remained calm and composed.

"Swish!"

In between mind instructs (in a second), the "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword" appeared in a flash, and then, like a butterfly, it danced extremely fast, the sword style was extremely complicated and the speed was astonishing fast, yet Tang Huan's every move was as smooth as the clouds and flowing water, it did not carry any traces of smoke or fire, nor did it seem hurried at all.

This was the "Sword Erosion" that Tang Huan had comprehended from the "Firing Dragon Desperate Domain"!

Compared to before, with Tang Huan's current cultivation, when using this "Sword Corrosion", was even more round and easy, and its power was naturally much stronger as well.

Instantly, the resplendent sword light, with Tang Huan's body as the center, rapidly expanded in all directions, and where Tang Huan was, seemed to have turned into a vortex formed from sword light.

In a split-second, the dazzling fiery red sword light had already touched the vanguard of the eight.

In the next moment, a scene that left everyone dumbstruck and horrified appeared. No matter what weapon the old man and the others used, once they touched the surging sword light, they immediately began to melt away at a speed that was difficult to see with the naked eye.

Standing in the center of the sword aura was not a cultivator at the peak of the Mysterious Five Transformations, but an ancient beast. It opened its bloody mouth and swallowed the attacks from the eight elders of the Hunyuan Sect in a single gulp ... Such a strange scene caused all the hairs on his body to stand on end.

When that sword light disappeared, the attacks of the eight elders had already been completely erased.

"This... "What's going on?"

Seeing this situation, the hundreds of Hunyuan Sect cultivators were all stunned. If not for the fact that those weapons were in a activated state, and the air around them still had traces of Strength Qi, everyone would have thought that what happened just now was just an illusion.

"What is this battle skill?" Or perhaps it was a divine ability? "

The green-robed elder and the rest of the eight men were still waving their weapons around, but they were tongue-tied. Their previous exchange had completely overturned everything they knew. As cultivators of the Sky Region, they were definitely more knowledgeable than cultivators of the remote regions. However, they had never heard of such a battle skill.

"Swish!"

However, before the eight of them could figure out what was going on, they were startled by the sound of something tearing through the air. They suddenly realized that the fiery red greatsword in the black robed man's hand had disappeared and was replaced with a Fire Red Long Spear.

The speed at which the spear penetrated through space seemed to be rather slow. Not only could it clearly capture its trajectory, it also seemed to be able to easily block it.

But in the blink of an eye, the green-robed elder's face had changed from the point of view of the Fire Red Long Spear.

In a flash, the spear was already in front of his chest. When he came to his senses, the spear had already pierced through his clothes and his muscles.

Chapter 1089 - Power Stampeding!

"Be careful!"

The hundreds of mixed elements cultivators behind still did not understand what was going on, but the expressions of the elders near the green robed elder all changed, and they exclaimed out loud. They practically brandished their weapons at the same time, and pounced towards Tang Huan, wanting to force Tang Huan to withdraw the spear that was thrusting towards the green robed elder.

"Ahhhhhhhhh!"

The green-robed elder cried out in horror.

At this time, he simply didn't have the time to use the weapon in his hand, nor did he have the time to use any offensive skills or supernatural powers. As he retreated backwards, he desperately circulated the true essence in his body and crazily roared at his chest in an attempt to block the stab of the fiery red spear.

It was a pity that the only thing he could do now was to fail. The actions of the other seven elders were all useless.

The entire head of the Fire Red Long Spear had already pierced into the green-robed elder's chest almost at the same time the elder's cry sounded.

The spear that pierced his body not only turned his heart into powder, but it also destroyed his internal organs. The heat carried by the spear even more so as it crazily exploded like a stormy sea, and his body continued to turn into ashes.

"Hu!" The green-robed elder made a prompt decision. Before his body completely melted away, the True Spirit had shot out and escaped with all its might.

"Elder Li —"

Instantly, cries of alarm rose and fell one after another.

Initially, they thought that they would definitely win if they fought eight people. However, after such a short period of time, the battle situation had changed drastically, and not only was the joint attack of the eight people eliminated, even the strongest elder was severely injured, leaving only True Spirit.

"Boom —"

At almost the same time, the other seven elders' attacks followed suit, completely engulfing Tang Huan within them. Amidst the earth-shaking rumbling sounds, the terrifying Strength Qi wreaked havoc on both sides, causing the ground to roll up layer after layer. In an instant, the area dozens of meters in radius was filled with countless sand.

Under the bombardment of such violent power, Tang Huan's figure was also instantly torn apart and disappeared without a trace.

"Dead! "Dead!"

"That bastard has been killed!"

"Haha, good!"

"..."

After a moment of surprise, a burst of excited exclamations came from the crowd in front of the hall. After paying the heavy price of two elders being heavily injured, that fellow at the peak of the five transformations was finally killed.

However, the expressions of the seven elders had turned extremely ugly.

Initially, just like the other Hunyuan Sect cultivators behind them, they thought that the black-robed man had been completely killed. But after being surprised for a moment, they realised that what was destroyed by the crowd's attack was just a ray of shadow, Tang Huan's real body had already escaped.

However, none of these elders of the five profound transformations were able to see through how Tang Huan escaped.

"Elder Lu, behind us!" Amidst the crowd, an anxious scream suddenly suppressed the surrounding noise, but before the voice finished, a scream resounded through the sky.

"Ahhhhhhhhh!"

Before a Black Costume Old Man could figure out what was going on, his body was suddenly pierced through by the Fire Red Long Spear behind him, and then he felt his internal organs shattering, the blazing heat spreading from his chest also started to quickly spread, and his body started to quickly melt. In a state of shock, the True Spirit immediately escaped.

Almost at the same time as the True Spirit scurried out, Black Costume Old Man's entire body had already turned into ashes.

Not even two meters away from him, the corner of Tang Huan's mouth lifted slightly, revealing a cold smile. The reason the two elders of the Hunyuan Sect were able to escape was naturally because he did not kill them.

Otherwise, when the "Conqueror Spear" pierced into their bodies and crushed their organs, it would also blast their True Spirit apart at the same time. They would not even have the chance to escape.

"Be careful of your sneak attack!"

"Elder Lu!"

..

In the blink of an eye, another elder at the peak of the five transformations had been severely injured. The remaining six elders were starting to panic from the bottom of their hearts. However, their reactions were extremely fast as well. The six figures flashed again and again, and in an instant, the six of them stood in a circle with their backs to each other.

Seeing that, Tang Huan laughed mockingly, he took a few steps forward, and an extremely real shadow appeared, but the real body disappeared once again.

At this moment, the six elders of the Hunyuan Sect all stared with widened eyes, their vigilance rising to the peak.

"Chi!"

The faint sound of something tearing through the air rang out once more.

In front of a yellow-robed elderly man, Tang Huan's figure suddenly appeared, the Fire Red Long Spear seemed to be rushing towards him. The yellow-clothed old man was already prepared for this attack. The long blade in the Sword Emperor's hand chopped down without hesitation, and the terrifying Strength Qi poured down onto the long spear like a waterfall.

The sound of an explosion resounded through the air, but his attack was not able to shake the Fire Red Long Spear at all. In that split-second, he was shocked to discover that the fiery red spear head had already pierced through his chest, and the long blade in his hand could not help but freeze in the air, as a sense of fear erupted from the depths of his soul.

"AA
AA!"

With a miserable scream, another True Spirit flew out of the Dantian and escaped with all its might.

Out of the original nine grand elders, only five remained. The remaining five were completely frightened, and their eyes were filled with uncontrollable fear. They suddenly realized that no matter how vigilant or defensive they were, they were useless in the face of this mysterious and unpredictable attack.

Although the two sides were of equal strength, the true strength of the other side was enough to completely crush all of them.

"Again!" Tang Huan squinted his eyes and laughed, his spear pointing towards the Black Costume Old Man who was the closest to him.

"Flee!"

The Black Costume Old Man quivered, and with a miserable cry, he chose to flee without hesitation. Tang Huan's eyes flashed with ridicule, he took a step forward, and chased after him. The Conqueror Spear in his hand pierced through the air, and although it seemed to be slow, it quickly approached his back.

"Stop!"

Just at this moment, a loud roar suddenly exploded in the sky above Broken Sword Mountain. The two short characters seemed to contain a monstrous rage, and a white figure jumped down from the stairs at an astonishing speed a thousand meters away. Before he even arrived, a terrifying aura had already rolled over like a wave.

The Transcendent Emptiness Realm Expert of the Hunyuan Sect had finally appeared!

[illegible]

However, what responded to that person was the Black Costume Old Man's miserable wails. In the blink of an eye, Black Costume Old Man had already followed the footsteps of the other elders and escaped from the True Spirit.

"Bastard!" "How dare you!"

The roar was like thunder, rumbling in everyone's ears. In the next moment, a white shadow appeared in front of the messy hall; it was a white-robed old man with long, thick hair and a long beard.

Chapter 1090 - Primordius

"Haha, the Sovereign is here!"

"Sect Master! It's the Sovereign! "

"The grand master is an expert at the second transition of the Void Transformation Stage. Now, this fellow is dead for sure!"

Among the crowd in front of the palace, shouts of pleasant surprise rose one after another. Everyone's faces were filled with excitement and excitement. Seeing this, the remaining few Dong Xuan Elders breathed a sigh of relief. The True Spirit that had escaped also floated in the air. With Sect Master around, they were not afraid of this person's wrath.

No matter how powerful a cultivator at the peak of the Mysterious Five Transformations was, could he be stronger than an expert at the Void Transformation Stage?

"Oh, it's Master Primordius. I pay my respects to you."

Tang Huan cupped his hands towards the white robed old man, his eyes revealing a smile.

If he remembered correctly, the current master of the Hunyuan Sect should be called Ai Yinghao. His current cultivation level was nothing among the Void Transformation Stage experts, but he was very old. It was said that he was already 500 to 600 years old and had already stepped into the Second Cycle of Void Transformation for more than 100 years.

"Kill my disciple, destroy my sect, and severely injure several elders of my Primordius Sect. No matter what your background is, you must leave your life in my sect today!" Ai Yinghao bellowed, and a terrifying power surged out from his body like a raging storm.

In the blink of an eye, the space within a radius of several hundred meters seemed to have frozen.

"Sect Master Ai, there's no need to have such a strong killing intent!"

Tang Huan smiled as he looked at Ai Yinghao, "It doesn't matter if a nameless newbie dies; since the sect is destroyed, I'll just have to pay the price. As for these elders of the Hunyuan Sect, I've already shown mercy, otherwise, none of them will survive. Master Ai, actually, I have a matter to ask of you. Since Master is here, there is no need for us to fight anymore.

"Shameless! "Shameless!"

"Now you know fear? "Let me tell you, it's already too late!"

"Grand master, kill this bastard!"

"..."

In the crowd, the sounds of angry curses gushed out like a tide. Even the few Elder Dong Xuan could not help but curse out loud when they heard Tang Huan's words.

"I have nothing to talk about with you!" Now, give me your life! "

A haze hung over Ai Yinghao's brows.

Whoosh! His palm, which was the size of a palm-leaf fan, started to expand rapidly, and in an instant, it became extremely huge. As for his five fingers, they rumbled and rolled towards Tang Huan like five collapsed mountains, as if they wanted to crush him into a meat patty.

"Look! The sect head's divine ability, the 'Five Fingers Peak'!"

"This is the Five Fingers Peak! It really is magical! "

"..."

Feeling the might of Ai Yinghao's attack, the many Hunyuan Sect cultivators who had retreated far away were all excited beyond words.

"Five Fingers Peak?"

The smile on Tang Huan's face faded as he shouted, "Old fellow, eat this!" Hearing Tang Huan's shout, all the mixed sect cultivators were stunned. Could it be that this fellow had gone insane from fright?

But after a moment, they only saw a red light flash before their eyes and Tang Huan's spear was actually replaced by a gigantic red blade.

"Saber Death!"

Once the blade was in his hands, Tang Huan's aura instantly changed, as though he was a war god looking down on the world with disdain.

In a moment, the blade in Tang Huan's hand hacked out, its speed was extremely fast, even his mind was not able to feel its strangeness. In an instant, the tip of the blade had already torn a dozen meters of space apart. Even the mountains in front of them seemed to be unable to withstand the sharp edge of the fiery red blade.

"Boom!"

[illegible]

In the blink of an eye, the huge, fiery-red blade landed on the first mountain peak that came whistling over and immediately hacked it into two, the mountain range immediately crumbled and the blade edge poured down on the second mountain peak with an unstoppable force, following that was the third mountain peak.

Amidst the rumbling sounds, the three finger peaks disappeared like smoke in thin air.

However, the fiery red greatsword had also lost all its energy. When it struck the fourth mountain peak, it was immediately bounced off, and the last two mountain peaks continued to crush towards Tang Huan. The violent and unstoppable Strength Qi howled out, shaking the air.

"Second transition of Void Transformation is indeed not an opponent that I can match up to right now!"

Tang Huan's face did not change, but his heart was secretly shocked, he had already activated the ability "Yin and Yang Void Method: Void Evasion", before the two finger peaks even landed on him, he had already disappeared along with his blade.

The current Tang Huan was not the Tang Huan who had just arrived at the Firing Dragon Mountain Range more than a year ago. At that time, even when facing Luo Yue who had just stepped into the Virtual Level, Tang Huan would still be obstructing him with the "Yin and Yang Void Method Air Escape". And today, even under the suppression of a Void Transformation Stage expert, Tang Huan was still able to use this method.

Almost the same instant Tang Huan disappeared, the two finger peaks landed on the place where he stood just moments ago.

A loud explosion tore through the sky, and at this moment, the entire Broken Sword Peak was fiercely trembling. Dust filled the air and instantly filled up a radius of several hundred meters. A long and deep pit that was difficult to see with the naked eye was revealed.

"Where is he? "Is he dead or ..."

"He doesn't seem to be dead?"

"Impossible, under the sect master's ability, the Five Fingers Peak, he can still escape?"

"..."

In the distance, many of the Hunyuan Sect cultivators looked at each other and exclaimed in surprise. They could not believe their eyes.

A cultivator at the peak of the Mysterious Five Transformations was actually able to dodge the attack of a second transition expert?

"He fled!"

Ai Yinghao's face turned dark, the shock in his heart was even greater than Tang Huan.

The sacred art "Five Fingers Peak" was his strongest technique. Even an ordinary second transition Void Transformation Stage cultivator would not be able to withstand this kind of attack. He was extremely angry. He immediately used such a divine ability, wanting to kill with a single strike. However, the result greatly exceeded his expectations.

Not only was the battle skill displayed by his opponent mysterious and unfathomable, it was also extremely overbearing and had even broken through three of his finger peaks.

If it was a second transition Void Transformation Stage expert or even a first transition Void Transformation Stage cultivator that could achieve this, he wouldn't be so shocked. However, his opponent was actually a fellow at the peak of the five forms.

Such a cultivator could indeed be considered an expert in the Hunyuan Sect, but in front of a Void Transformation Stage powerhouse, he was not even close. But now, not only did this guy who he didn't even pay attention to nearly take his attack, he even escaped from his attacks.
