

W. Master 1161

Chapter 1161

This brat really can do it?

At the top of Pang Shuo's iron pillar, Tang Huan stood tall and straight, quietly standing there. Hu Si was still tied to his back, and he had already been out of that space for twenty to thirty days, and had still yet to wake up.

At this moment, Tang Huan's attention was completely focused on the metal pillar.

Originally, Tang Huan wanted to see whether this metal pillar contained Spirit Map s. If there were Spirit Map s, he could directly retreat from the Spirit Map and deduce their contents. This way, he might be able to release the arch even faster.

However, Tang Huan did not do it recklessly.

This "Dark Ink Mystical Iron" was different from ordinary iron ore, it had beehive-like fine holes within. The power of the Law of the Tao could be released from those holes, so Tang Huan was naturally able to directly send his firepower into the depths of the metal pillar through those intersecting holes.

Inside Tang Huan's Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was quickly circulating, and the "Intangible Buddha" was being urged.

At this moment, Tang Huan's Perception Ability had risen to an unprecedented level, as he began to carefully explore the holes, choosing a path for the future delivery of firepower.

"Can this kid really do it?" Seeing Tang Huan not moving at all on top of the metal pillar, the gold robed elder frowned slightly.

"It's best if he can do it, or else ... ." The skinny elder beside him snorted as a cold light flashed through his narrow eyes.

"..."

The other Void Transformation Stage experts also had a skeptical expression.

Shao Yang secretly glanced at the golden-robed and skinny elder, and slightly frowned as he started to have a headache.

The golden-robed elder's name was Xiang Cong, and he came from the Hai Continent's "Fen Tian, Shang Zong". The skinny elder's name was Yuan Lingfeng, and he came from the "Ling Xiao Sword Sect" of the Sky Region.

Among the six, Xiang Cong and Yuan Lingfeng were the strongest, and had already reached the peak of the Void Transformation Stage. This time, Shao Yang had forcefully entered the "Wind Fire and Thunder Realm" from the "Mystic Frost Snow Realm" and had asked Yuan Lingfeng to transfer from there to there. As a result, Tang Huan was temporarily not being hunted down by Duan Wuya's followers.

He had originally thought that everything would go smoothly after he had exposed her.

But now, he realized that things were already starting to get out of his control. Regardless of whether or not he could successfully open the secret realm, it seemed like it would be difficult for him and Tang Huan to reach a deal.

In an instant, Shao Yang's brows frowned even tighter.

He had already obtained that Divine Weapon Catalogue for many years, and now that he finally saw the dawn of a Saint-rank Divine Armament, how could he possibly back down so easily?

"Hu!"

A slight sound of breaking through the air sounded out. Shao Yang looked towards the sound and saw a ball of dark blue fire in front of him. Tang Huan had already activated his Spiritual Fire.

"Water attribute Spiritual Fire?"

Yuan Lingfeng, Xiang Cong and the rest were slightly startled when they saw this scene.

Tang Huan ignored the dozens of gazes that came from below the metal pillar, the flames in his palm became even stronger, and after a while, they poured down like a waterfall, and in an instant, the jade blue flame light had already covered the entire top of the metal pillar.

In the next moment, an extremely magnificent scene entered the eyes of Shao Yang, Yuan Lingfeng, and Xiang Cong.

Within the inky black metal pillar, tiny threads of blue light poured down from above, quickly spreading like spider webs. In the blink of an eye, it had already covered the entire iron pillar. A brilliant blue light was released, making the surrounding space seem like it was a dream.

In an instant, whether it was Shao Yang, Yuan Lingfeng, Xiang Cong, or the others, they all couldn't help but reveal an unconcealable expression of shock.

This entire area instantly became silent, leaving only the roaring sound of flames from time to time on the metal pillar. After covering the entire metal pillar, countless blue lights seemed to have started to quickly advance towards the interior of the metal pillar from all directions. Unknowingly, the white arch inside was completely covered by a dark blue intent.

"What a strong control!" What a powerful Perception Ability! "

After a long while, Shao Yang could not help but exclaim softly. Even though he already had a better understanding of Tang Huan's strength, he was still surprised at this moment.

The shock between Yuan Lingfeng, Xiang Cong, and the others became even more intense.

They were all experienced and knowledgeable people, although they were not Weapon Refiner, they could still see that Tang Huan's control over fire and Perception Ability had reached a superb level.

"Such a powerful young Heavenly Blacksmith actually came out of the Forging God Great World?"

Yuan Lingfeng couldn't help murmuring to himself.

From what he knew, the power to control firepower and the Perception Ability, to such an extent, could not be found in the s, nor could they be found in the other great sects of the Forging God Great World s. Even the few old fellows hiding in the "Ancient Clear Heaven Domain" might not have reached such a level.

When Shao Yang said that this person's Tools Method Attainments could enter the top five in Forging God Great World, he probably underestimated him.

If this young man's abilities in other areas such as Spirit Map could also reach such a level, it would not even be an exaggeration to say that he was Forging God Great World's number one Heavenly Blacksmith. After discovering this metal pillar, they had used true essence to investigate the inner workings of the metal pillar. None of them had succeeded.

The reason it was like this was not because their true essence was not strong enough, nor was it because their true essence was not strong enough, but because their control and Perception Ability were unable to reach such a state.

"Brother Shao, where is this person from?"

Xiang Cong couldn't help but turn to look at Shao Yang in the blink of an eye.

Shao Yang came back to his senses, shook his head with a smile and said in a low voice, "I'm not very clear about this either. On the way here to the 'Wind Fire and Thunder Realm', I asked around many times, but he never revealed anything. However, looking at his Tools Method Attainments, his background is definitely extraordinary. "

Tang Huan's identity was recognized outside Skypiercing City.

However, Shao Yang was sure that because of the cold wave blocking the way, the news about that place had yet to spread to the "Wind Fire Thunder World", so it was even more impossible that Yuan Lingfeng and the others knew about it.

"That must be it."

Yuan Lingfeng subconsciously nodded towards Cong Cong. He squinted his eyes and looked at Tang Huan who was standing at the top of the metal pillar.

On top of the metal pillar, the surroundings of Tang Huan and Tang Huan were practically completely engulfed by the raging blue flames.

However, this flame was controlled by Tang Huan in the first place. Even if Hu Si was unconscious, he would not be affected by the flame in the slightest. Tang Huan's current state of mind was completely immersed within the metal pillar. Thousands and thousands of dark blue flames had already completely entered the metal pillar.

At this time, Tang Huan suddenly realised that this metal pillar was actually hollow and not solid.

There were no Dark Ink Mysterious Iron inside the arch and the surrounding area of the arch. Instead, it was filled with a rich energy of the Law of the Tao. When Tang Huan's firepower entered that space, it was like a calm lake that was suddenly thrown in many huge rocks. The power of the Law of the Tao actually started surging intensely.

In that moment, Tang Huan had a premonition that this metal pillar did not even need to be refined!

Chapter 1162 - Heavenly Phenomenon

"Buzz!"

In the instant that this thought swept across his mind, Tang Huan saw an intense fluctuation originating from the arched door, following that, an earth-shaking earth-shattering sound suddenly erupted from the center of Pang Shuo's metal pillar, causing everyone in the area to have buzzing sounds in their ears. (TN:

[illegible]

"This is bad!"

In a flash, Yuan Lingfeng's complexion suddenly changed. Such a big commotion could spread hundreds of miles away, perhaps it could attract the nearby cultivators over.

Shao Yang, Xiang Cong, and the others' expressions changed greatly as well, as they'd obviously thought of this.

However, before they could even think of a way to deal with it, at the top of the metal pillar, Tang Huan seemed to have sensed something and suddenly retreated backwards while carrying Hu Si.

More and more intense explosions rang out from within the iron pillar.

Immediately after, an incomparably terrifying power exploded forth from within. The originally incomparably sturdy "Dark Ink Mysterious Iron" instantly turned into dust and dissipated, revealing a tall platform as well as the arched door above it. And that enormous power was destroying everything ...

Even after the Dark Ink Mysterious Black Iron was gone, it continued to madly sweep in all directions like stormy waves. Whether it was Tang Huan and Hu Si, Shao Yang, Yuan Lingfeng, and Xiang Cong, the six of them didn't even have time to resist, and were all sent flying in the air.

"Hu!"

After a while, everyone rushed out of the cloud layer, and flew back a few thousand meters like they were riding on clouds. Only then did they manage to stabilize their bodies, and when they looked over, their faces were filled with shock.

The clouds in front of him, which had a radius of several thousand meters, roiled violently, as if they had set off a monstrous wave.

In the violent churning of the cloud waves, an arch slowly rose up, reaching a height of ten meters. Soon after, the high platform carrying the arch also entered everyone's line of sight.

"Buzz!"

An earth-shattering sound once again shook the heavens.

The space within the arch violently fluctuated, and the massive arch revealed trillions of rays of white light, making it hard to look at. At almost the same time, the incomparably strong white-colored odor soared into the sky, and actually condensed into an incomparably large arched silhouette ten thousand meters up in the sky.

"This is a passage!" A passage to the Heaven and Earth Dao Realm on the third floor of the Tong Tian Tower! " Xiang Cong was the first to react. He began to crazily shout as he danced about. His copper bell-like eyes were filled with uncontrollable ardor and desire. His entire person had become a little crazy.

"That's right, this is most definitely a tunnel. Back then, when we squeezed into the Wind, Fire, and Thunder Realms, this was the sign that appeared." Yuan Lingfeng also found it hard to suppress his excitement.

"It really is a passageway."

Tang Huan's mind was uncontrollably shaken, the surrounding Void Transformation Stage experts were also extremely excited, looking at the scene in the sky, they all wanted to bow down and pay their respects.

... ....

Northwest of the Wind Fire and Thunder Realms. At the border between the Fire and Wind Domains.

"Hmm?"

In the blink of an eye, the shadow of an enormous arched door stretched across the sky like a god overlooking all living things. Soon after, an incomparably powerful fluctuation swept across, followed by a terrifying pressure that surged out from the depths of her soul, causing people's hearts to tremble.

Nie Zhitong stopped in her tracks as a hint of doubt flashed across the depths of her eyes.

But soon after, the doubt in her eyes disappeared, and an unconcealable joy erupted from the bottom of her heart. Her pretty face seemed to become slightly distorted, and under her extreme excitement, her drunk red immediately covered her cheeks at a speed visible to the naked eye.

"The passageway to the Cosmic Dao Realm ..." The passageway to the Universe Dao Realm has actually appeared ... "

At this moment, not only was Nie Zhitong's voice trembling, even her body was trembling slightly.

She stayed in the "Ancient Clear Heaven Domain" for more than a thousand years, and countless people followed her into the sky. However, she kept suppressing her cultivation, insisting that she wouldn't cause the Path of Heaven to descend because of the "Heaven and Earth Dao Bead" in the "Heaven and Earth Dao World" on the third floor of the "Tong Tian Tower".

Over the past thousand years, she had explored almost every corner of the "Wind, Fire, Thunder" World, yet she had not been able to find the entrance passage to the "Universe, Dao World".

In the past few hundred years, she had not held any hope of entering the "Universe Dao Realm." However, the obsession that had existed in her heart for hundreds of years had caused her to never give up searching.

And now, the passageway had finally appeared!

"Let's go now!"

Nie Zhitong had originally planned to go to the northwest to meet Duan Wuya and ask him to mobilize people to search for the black-robed youth's whereabouts. However, she had immediately changed her mind. In the future, the black-robed youth could continue to search for him. However, the sooner he entered the Universe Dao Realm, the better.

It was one thing that the entrance to the "Universe Dao World" had not been opened, but now that it had appeared, she was determined to obtain the "Universe Dao Pearl"!

"Whoosh!"

With almost no hesitation, Nie Zhitong changed directions ...

... ..

Firestorm Lightning World, northwest border.

"Huh?"

A surprised low cry suddenly sounded from a palace formed from the clouds.

It was an old man dressed in green, with white brows and white hair. His face was covered in layers of wrinkles, and his stooped and aged body gave off a heavy atmosphere.

He was the same person who was on the same level as Nie Zhitong in the entire Ancient Realm - Duan Wuya!

"Hu!"

It was like a gentle breeze blowing past. After an instant, Duan Wuya appeared outside the hall and raised his head to take a look.

Above the sky, the arch of an arch came into view.

After a short moment, Duan Wuya's dim eyes burst forth with a breathtaking, brilliant divine light. His stooped body had already straightened up, and his entire body seemed to have grown taller. It was as if the withered old tree had suddenly regained its vitality.

"We can finally enter the third floor of the 'Tong Tian Tower', hahahaha ..."

Duan Wuya actually started off with a nervous laugh, his laughter was rather small, but it became louder and louder. After an instant, it was like a thunderclap that shook the heaven and earth. It was only after a long while that the laughter finally stopped. On Duan Wuya's face, there were only tears.

"'Heaven and Earth dao pearl', this old man is taking it for sure!"

... ..

"... This is the entrance to the 'Cosmic Dao Realm'? " In the southern part of the Wind Fire and Thunder Realm, the red-robed man named Ji Haoran was stunned for a long time before jumping up as if he had just awoken from a dream. His brows were filled with pleasant surprise.

"Haha, f * ck, your father's luck is too good. Once I enter, the entrance to the third floor of Tong Tian Tower will appear." On the western platform of the Wind, Fire, and Thunder Realms, a middle-aged man had just emerged from an arched door.

At almost the same time, powerful aura fluctuations had already swept through every nook and cranny of the "Wind Fire Thunder World". The Void Transformation Stage cultivators on the second floor of the "Tong Tian Tower" all saw the phenomenon of the arch that suddenly appeared in the sky, and then rushed towards the east as if they had gone mad ...

... ..

Chapter 1163 - Turning Enmity!

East of the Firestorm Way.

Tang Huan had finally recovered from his initial shock. When the firepower had entered the center of the metal pillar, he had guessed that he might not even need to refine the "Dark Ink Mysterious Iron".

Any form of energy, once it had reached a certain degree of strength, would be able to resonate with the boundless power of the Law of the Tao once it rushed into the center of the metal pillar at the same time. From activating the arched door, it would directly destroy the 'Dark Ink Mysterious Iron' metal pillar that sealed the surroundings with the fastest speed possible.

This meant that no matter who it was, as long as they could do this, they could break the iron pillar's seal on the arch. However, there were definitely not many cultivators with this ability within the "Heavenly Ancient Region". At the very least, Yuan Lingfeng and Xiang Cong, the two experts at the peak of the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower, could not do it.

If one wanted to send a large amount of energy to the center of the "Dark Ink Mysterious Iron" metal pillar, not only would they have to have a powerful controlling ability, they would also need an extremely strong Perception Ability. Otherwise, it would be impossible to find enough ways to transfer energy through those densely packed holes.

Perhaps Void Transformation Stage experts like Nie Zhitong and Duan Wuya would be able to accomplish this in the Ancient Regions.

It was a pity that Yuan Lingfeng and his group would not go and find them to fight. After all, those two old monsters were too strong. As soon as they came, they would have nothing to do with Yuan Lingfeng and his group.

The things that happened next confirmed Tang Huan's guess. Not only did Pang Shuo's metal pillar dissipate in an instant, the arch leading to the "Heaven and Earth dao realm" was completely revealed afterwards, and an incomparably shocking phenomenon was condensing in the sky.

At this moment, it was likely that all of the Void Transformation Stage cultivators had already detected the commotion and were madly rushing over.

The temptation of the "Heaven and Earth Dao Realm" was something that even Nie Zhitong and Duan Wuya could not resist.

Of course, since the entrance passage to the third floor of "Tong Tian Tower" was right here, Tang Huan would definitely want to enter as well.

"Hmm?"

In a moment, Tang Huan suddenly heard a slight sound of breaking through the air, and immediately, he saw a shadow flash past, and he could not help but raise his eyebrow. In the blink of an eye, he had taken a look around, and Tang Huan then laughed coldly: "Seniors, what is the meaning of this?"

At this time, Shao Yang, Yuan Lingfeng, Xiang Cong and the other powerful Warriors at the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower had already surrounded Tang Huan in the middle. There was still some lingering excitement on their faces, but when they looked at Tang Huan, their killing intent was completely revealed, and they did not conceal it at all.

"Boy, don't you understand the meaning of this old man and the others? Naturally, it's to send you on your way."

Yuan Lingfeng sneered.

If this person's strength was insufficient, he could spare his life or even allow him to enter the "Heaven and Earth Dao Realm." However, the Perception Ability and control ability this person displayed when opening the passage was too shocking, if he also entered the "Heaven and Earth Dao World", then it would not be a good thing for everyone.

Of course, the most important thing was that this person's cultivation was only at the Fifth Cycle of the Void Transformation Stage.

Being surrounded by six experts at the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower, there was no way for this person to escape. Not only that, killing this person wouldn't take too long as well.

"What a bunch of idiots!"

Tang Huan laughed, "Since I dared to come here, did you think I would not be prepared at all?" The Space Aircraft appeared almost as soon as he said it, and then quickly expanded. In a short time, it returned to its original size.

Upon seeing this scene, Yuan Lingfeng, Xiang Cong and the rest were stunned for a moment before bursting into laughter.

Such a small Space Aircraft, any one of them had the ability to destroy it. Using the Space Aircraft to escape was simply a dream.

But after a moment, the laughter stopped, and two figures appeared from within the Space Aircraft at the same time.

It was Geng Xu and Chou Rui!

The cultivation of the two was originally at the Void Transformation Stage Eight, but after absorbing and refining the "Black Ice Red Lotus" from Tang Huan, their cultivation had already broken through to the Void Transformation Stage Nine Revolutions. As for Yin Yu, Yu Zi Chen and Wang Hao, Tang Huan did not summon them out. Although they had also relied on the "Black Ice Red Lotus" to increase their cultivation from the Seventh and Eighth Cycle of Void Transformation to the Eighth Cycle, they were still a little lacking to contend against Yuan Lingfeng and the others.

"Gengxu? Chou Rui? It's the two of you! " Yuan Lingfeng immediately recognized the two of them and his expression darkened. He then sneered, "To think that you've broken through to the Void Transformation Stage. Congratulations!" However, with just the two of you, you dare to come forward for this kid's sake? "

He subconsciously thought that Geng Xu and Chou Rui were the helpers that Tang Huan had hired.

On the other hand, Geng Xu and Qiu Rui were expressionless and did not say a word, but their hearts were filled with helplessness. They were Tang Huan's puppets, and even though they knew that they were no match for Yuan Lingfeng's group, they still had to listen to Tang Huan's orders, even if they lost their lives in the end.

"Humph!" Immediately, a cough sounded, "What if you include me?"

"Shao Yang?"

Yuan Lingfeng and the others followed the voice and looked over, and their expressions suddenly changed.

The person who had suddenly opened his mouth was shockingly Shao Yang, and the moment Shao Yang finished speaking, his footsteps slightly moved, as he stood by Tang Huan's side.

Tang Huan was slightly surprised. According to his observation, this old fellow should have a disposition of protecting his own, yet he actually stood up for him?

But, upon thinking about it, Tang Huan understood what was going on.

Shao Yang obviously couldn't bear to give up the opportunity to obtain a Saint-rank Divine Armament. He was different from Yuan Lingfeng and the others, he had once seen the Ten Thousand Swords Heavenly Diagram in his cave, and he knew that it was impossible for him to be killed. With the appearance of Geng Xu and Chou Rui, the two experts of the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower, he would be able to stand out and win his favor.

This plan was indeed not bad.

Of course, Tang Huan did not care. No matter what Shao Yang thought, standing on his side had indeed greatly increased their strength.

"Shao Yang, you actually want to become enemies with us?" He was filled with both anger and shock.

"Since this little brother is here at my invitation, I am responsible for his safety. Brother Yuan, now that the entrance has been opened, it's fine if you don't want to be grateful, but instead wants to take action against little brother, how can I just sit by idly and do nothing?" Shao Yang's face darkened as he spoke righteously.

"Good!" "Alright!"

Yuan Lingfeng's complexion couldn't help but turn ashen when he heard this. He stared at Shao Yang and angrily growled, "Shao Yang, since you want to die, then accompany this kid and die!" Everyone, let's all go together. Once we get rid of them, we'll quickly enter the Universe Dao Realm! "

"Hey, hey, you guys are shouting like this. Have you asked me for my opinion?"

But just as Yuan Ling Feng and the others were about to pounce towards Tang Huan and the rest, a voice that was as clear as the cry of a oriole suddenly sounded out in everyone's ears.

Author's Note: I'll explain it again. In the past, it was usually updated in advance, but the actual time for updating was around 7 PM. These words have been hanging on the page for a few months already. Since there are no manuscripts saved, I can't guarantee that I will be able to update every day in advance, but I can guarantee that I will be able to update every day in advance. This book has been updated for almost a year, so everyone can rest assured.

Chapter 1164 - Eating me up!

The voice wasn't loud, but it seemed to ring directly in his ears, making it impossible to tell where it came from.

"Who is it?"

Yuan Lingfeng's and Xiang Cong's hearts skipped a beat as they instinctively glanced over the crowd.

They had been observing their surroundings the entire time without noticing anyone. And now, there was still no one approaching. Where did that female voice come from?

Not only them, Tang Huan, Shao Yang and the others were also a little bewildered and uncertain.

After a moment, Tang Huan seemed to have thought of something, and turned his head to look. The first thing that entered his eyes were two eyes that were as black and bright as stars at night.

Hu Si had actually awoken!

"It's you!"

Yuan Ling Feng and the rest had clearly noticed it as well, and one after another, their eyes fell on Hu Si who was carrying Tang Huan, and their expressions were unsettled.

"Of course it's me."

Hu Si squinted his eyes and smiled lightly.

Immediately after, Tang Huan felt her body becoming lighter, the cloth belt binding her delicate body had been completely torn apart, allowing Hu Si to float lightly to the ground.

"Greetings, Master Hu Si." Tang Huan immediately cupped his hands in respect.

"No need to be so polite."

Hu Si smiled and waved her white and tender jade hands, then tiptoed and patted Tang Huan's shoulders, "Little fellow, thank you!"

"I really did not expect that we would have a hidden expert by our side!"

Without waiting for Tang Huan to speak again, Yuan Lingfeng's face darkened as he sneered.

Originally, he and Xiang Cong didn't think much of the unconscious girl that Tang Huan was carrying, but now, he realized that everyone seemed to have seen wrongly.

The woman named "Hu Si" was extremely young, and looked to be only sixteen or seventeen years old. However, this was only her appearance;

But strangely, Yuan Lingfeng could not see through Hu Si's true age. Not only that, Hu Si's Qi was also extremely strange, causing him to be unable to see through her, and it was difficult for him to determine her true cultivation level. However, he was certain of one thing, that Hu Si was definitely an expert.

However, Yuan Lingfeng did not put her in his eyes at all.

He was well aware of the powerful people within this "Ancient Clear Heaven Domain". He had never heard of this woman called Hu Si before. He could contend against five or six such cultivators.

"What a pity!"

Xiang Cong had already regained his senses, and looked at Hu Si with eyes full of pity and ridicule, "If you had been unconscious this entire time, maybe you would have been able to keep your life. Now, you can only accompany them in death. When we reach the Nine Springs, don't blame us for ruthlessly destroying your flowers. "

"You little thing, your tone is not small at all."

Hu Si sized up Luo Cong and said casually, "Since that's the case, then you'll have to eat my rod first!" The instant his voice fell, a black and white luster flashed and in Hu Si's palm, a long rod appeared. A black dragon actually coiled around the body of the staff, which was as white as jade.

"Coiling Dragon column?"

Tang Huan's heart jumped, and he shouted out softly. The weapon that Hu Si took out, looked exactly like the Coiled Dragon Pillar, only countless times smaller.

Not only that, the Qi that the long rod was emitting was exactly the same as the Coiling Dragon column.

Furthermore, looking at the way Hu Si had just summoned it just now, the coiling dragon pillar had definitely become one with her Dantian, just like his "Absolute Yang Scarlet Scale Sword", "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram".

He did not expect that after he left that space, the Coiling Dragon Pillar would have already merged with Hu Si's body.

At this moment, Tang Huan finally realized that the "Dao Artifact" Nie Zhitong was referring to was not his "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", but Hu Si's "Coiling Dragon Pillar". Thinking back to the moment when he had escaped using "Air Escape", Nie Zhitong had witnessed the scene of the "Coiling Dragon Pillar" merging into Hu Si's body.

"Wrong, it's called 'Coiling Dragon Staff!'" Hu Si earnestly corrected Tang Huan.

"Coiling dragon rod?"

Xiang Cong was startled.

He also thought about that giant pillar that had spanned countless years in the southern part of the "Wind, Fire, Thunder" Realm. Amidst his amazement, he didn't know whether to laugh or cry. This woman looked young, but when she spoke, she seemed old.

As he thought about it, he smiled at Cong. His expression was somewhat obscene as he said, "Little girl, I still feel that it's better for you to eat my rod ..."

However, before he could finish his sentence, Xiang Cong's voice suddenly stopped.

The smile froze on the rugged face and the pair of eyes stared at Cong Cong like they were copper bells. The smile froze on the rugged face and the pair of eyes stared at Cong Cong like they were copper bells.

"Hu!"

When Hu Si heard that voice, he immediately swung the Coiling Dragon Staff in his hand towards Su Yun's head.

Such a simple staff strike seemed to contain an incomparable pressure, sealing off every inch of space around Cong Cong, wanting to smash him into a meat patty so that he wouldn't be able to escape or escape. At this moment, Xiang Cong actually smelled an aura of death that caused one to feel despair.

"Aooo!"

He let out a beast-like roar, and his face turned completely red, as he crazily concentrated the true essence within his body into the golden long blade in his hand, and blocked the attack.

"Clang!"

However, just as Xiang Cong's long blade reached the top of his head, the staff had already fallen.

"Bang!" With an intense collision sound, the golden blade exploded at a speed that even the naked eye couldn't catch, while the staff smashed into Cong Cong's head with an irresistible force. With a "peng" sound, the expert at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage turned into a cloud of blood mist, then was forced out of the way by the Strength Qi in the rod, rolling in all directions. In an instant, there were no longer any traces of existence.

In an instant, the entire space had become deathly silent.

Not only were Tang Huan, Shao Yang and the rest dumbstruck, even Yuan Lingfeng and the rest looked like their eyeballs were about to pop out of their sockets, their faces filled with extreme shock and horror.

An expert at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage had been smashed away by a single pole strike?

At this moment, Yuan Lingfeng could not believe his eyes. His cultivation level and strength were on par with Xiang Cong, and even Xiang Cong was not able to withstand Hu Si's rod, so how could he, who was at the peak of the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower, be an exception? It was laughable that he had wanted to kill Hu Si, Shao Yang and the others earlier.

Just where did this woman named Hu Si come from, to actually possess such frightening strength?

When did the Ancient Regions have such a powerful expert? Ancestor Wuya and Nie Zhitong, the two strongest individuals in the "Skypiercing Ancient Region", were probably not even comparable to her, right? Yuan Lingfeng instantly thought of countless possibilities as a deep fear emerged from the depths of his soul.

Chapter 1165 - Skysplit Tower's third floor

"You ... Who exactly are you? "

After swallowing a mouthful of saliva with great difficulty, Yuan Lingfeng finally opened his mouth. His voice was actually somewhat trembling.

If he had known earlier that the Weapon Refiner with such a mysterious background had such a helper, he would not have provoked him! His Perception Ability was indeed shockingly strong, but the "Universe Dao Realm" was so large, he might not necessarily have such good luck that he could snatch away everyone's opportunity.

If not for the current situation, he, Xiang Cong and the rest would have long entered the "Heaven and Earth Dao World." There was no need to be so afraid, afraid to even run away, in order to not enrage the girl called Hu Si again and cause them to kill him, making them want to follow in his footsteps.

At this moment, not only did Yuan Lingfeng feel regret, but his three companions also felt regret for Mo Di.

Compared to them, after Shao Yang's extreme shock, he was instead rejoicing endlessly in his heart. Initially, he was the same as Xiang Cong. Even though he recognized the origin of the "Coiling Dragon Staff" in her hands, he did not take her seriously. However, he did not expect that after an instant, his understanding of Hu Si had completely changed.

This beautiful woman who did not appear to be anything special was actually someone with overwhelming strength.

Originally, Shao Yang hesitated for quite a while before he decided to turn against Yuan Lingfeng and the others. But now, he felt that his decision just now was too wise. If he did not stand on Tang Huan's side, he would definitely be like Yuan Lingfeng and the others, riding a tiger and having difficulty getting down.

"Of course I'm the one who wants your life!"

Hu Si squinted his eyes and laughed, then smashed the coiling dragon rod towards Yuan Lingfeng's head, "You little thing, you're too arrogant, take my rod too!"

"Senior, don't kill me, don't —"

Yuan Lingfeng did not expect Hu Si to make a move as soon as he said that, he was so shocked that his soul left his body. As he begged, a dense blood colored Qi exploded out from his body, and at the same time, a small ball of white shadow scuttled out from the Dantian's location, flying at a shocking speed into the distance.

This was Yuan Lingfeng's Void Spirit.

"Blood Spirit Escaped Skill!"

Yuan Lingfeng understood from his experience that if he were to take Hu Si's attack head on, he would definitely die. If he were to run, it would be difficult for him to escape Hu Si's Coiling Dragon Staff.

When he used the "Blood Spirit Escaped Skill," he did have a slim chance of survival.

As for whether or not he would be able to survive in the "Wind, Fire, and Thunder Realms" after using his hollow spirit, he did not care about that anymore. The most important thing was to keep his life.

Right at this moment, a resounding dragon's roar rang out from the rapidly descending Coiling Dragon Staff. Following that, the black dragon wrapped around the snow-white rod seemed to have turned into a living creature. Immediately afterwards, a huge, black dragon's shadow spiralled outwards.

The colossal dragon opened its mouth and swallowed the Void Spirit that was swiftly fleeing. Then its body rapidly contracted and it once again coiled itself around the snow-white long rod.

Hu Si's coiling dragon rod had already returned to its original form, while Yuan Lingfeng, who was at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage, only had a cloud of blood left.

"Tsk, he actually dares to use such a small trick."

Curling her lips, Hu Si swept the long rod in her hands with light force, dispersing the mist of blood. Her gaze then fell upon the other three experts who had reached the Void Transformation Stage.

"Flee--"

The three of them were completely terrified, and upon meeting Hu Si's gaze, they shuddered awake and began to flee in panic. However, their souls were already trembling, their faces as pale as paper, wishing that they could grow a pair of wings and escape from that terrifying woman as fast as possible.

Hu Si wrinkled her nose, and her figure suddenly disappeared.

"Bang!" Bang! "Bam!"

The sounds of explosions sounded out one after another, and the three figures that had scattered out turned into blood mist, which was then dispersed by the Strength Qi.

When Hu Si's figure returned to its original spot, not even a single breath of time had passed before the traces of the three Void Transformation Stage experts could be seen in the surrounding space.

"Kid, how do you feel?"

Carrying the coiling dragon rod on his shoulder, Hu Si walked in front of Tang Huan.

"Master Hu Si, you really are ... "Awesome!"

Tang Huan let out a long sigh, praising her wholeheartedly.

Before this, he was a little worried that Hu Si would not be a match for Yuan Lingfeng and the others, and he even secretly ordered Geng Xu and Qiu Rui to prepare for helping him. After all, Hu Si had been sealed for two thousand years, so even if he had a Dao Artifact "Coiling Dragon Staff", he still might not be able to contend against a warrior at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage.

However, what happened next caught him off guard.

First it was Cong, then it was Yuan Lingfeng, then it was the other three ... The five experts of the Void Transformation Stage were killed by her each and every one of them.

Originally, Tang Huan had planned to let Shao Yang, Geng Shu, and Chou Rui fight with Yuan Lingfeng, Cong and the others for a while to stall for time. As long as the nearby Void Transformation Stage cultivators rushed over, Yuan Lingfeng and the rest would definitely choose to enter the "Heaven and Earth Dao World" first, and not continue to kill him.

Unexpectedly, with Hu Si's move, all the problems were solved.

"Haha, I think so too."

Hu Si laughed loudly, his eyes squinted into crescent moons as he said, "Little fellow, let's go. Let's go take a look around the 'Universe Dao Realm' first. The moment I woke up, I encountered an extremely rare opportunity like this, one that occurs once in ten thousand years, when I opened the Universe Dao Realm.

Regardless of whether Tang Huan agreed or not, Hu Si immediately grabbed Tang Huan and rushed towards the arched door, after a while, the two of them had already disappeared.

Shao Yang, Geng Xu and Chou Rui looked at each other as if they had just awoken from a dream and quickly followed.

... ..

On the third floor of the Tong Tian Tower, within the "Universe Dao Realm", the first thing Tang Huan saw was still a high platform and an arch. However, he was a little unable to understand the situation around the stage.

The Blackfrost Snow Realm was an endless expanse of ice that filled the sky with frost flowers; the Firestorm Thunder Realm was a ring-shaped lightning, fire, wind, and outermost fog world; and this "Heaven and Earth Dao Realm" was actually a misty, primal chaos. It was unknown just how vast it was, nor what sort of dangers awaited them.

"Is this the so-called Cosmic Dao Realm?" Hu Si was surprised.

"Perhaps... After entering, there's no other way? "

Tang Huan said with uncertainty.

After both of his feet landed on the ground, he secretly probed but could not detect anything. It was as if there was nothing around him.

Not only was Tang Huan and Hu Si puzzled, Shao Yang, Geng Shu and Chou Rui who came later also looked at each other with confusion when they saw what happened.

They couldn't figure out what was going on either.

Before this, no one had ever entered the third floor of the "Tong Tian Tower", so no one knew anything about this floor. Even the news of the Heaven and Earth dao beads on the third floor was passed down from time immemorial, and no one had ever seen it before.

After a while, Tang Huan could not help but say: "Master Hu Si, let's go in and try, or ..."

"Of course I'll try. "Since you've come, how can you return empty-handed?"

Hu Si said with a smile, "Little guy, stay by my side. Now, get ready! "

1166. With a thousand people gathered, the universe began to move!

When Tang Huan heard this, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the hollow spirit inside the Dantian began to circulate rapidly, causing his True Essence to be completely mobilized. Deep inside his soul, the "Intangible Buddha" had also been activated. At this moment, whether it was True Essence or Perception Ability, Tang Huan had already reached the peak.

Everything within this "Universe Dao World" was unknown, so Tang Huan needed to make certain preparations.

"Let's go!"

Ignoring Shao Yang, Geng Shu and Qiu Rui who were behind him, Hu Si grabbed Tang Huan and leapt off the stage, entering into the white and misty primal chaos.

Shao Yang hesitated for a moment and then also rushed out. His body was covered with a layer of true essence.

Geng Shu and Chou Rui did the same, following closely behind.

This place became completely empty in an instant. However, in just a short span of one or two breaths of time, two figures shot out from the Primal Chaos and floated above the high platform. It was Tang Huan and Hu Si. Soon after, Shao Yang, Geng Shu, and Chou Rui also returned to the high platform.

"What's going on?"

"We're back?"

"Is this really the Cosmic Dao Realm?"

The few of them exchanged glances, feeling extremely surprised.

Tang Huan frowned, completely at a loss. The moment he entered the Primal Chaos, Tang Huan felt a repulsive force, it became stronger and stronger, and not only was he unable to hold on, even Hu Si had difficulty resisting. He was pushed back continuously, and in a short while, he returned to the stage.

"Eh? Everyone, quickly look! "

Shao Yang suddenly exclaimed in a low voice as he raised his hand to point at the ground.

Everyone looked over and only then did they realize that the platform contained countless fine lines. The lines interweaved with each other and seemed to form a few huge characters.

"A thousand people ..." Gather together, universe ... Start moving? " Tang Huan meticulously recognized the words and these words were uttered very quickly. He asked in surprise, "These words mean that a thousand people must gather here before the 'Universe Dao Realm' will truly open?"

"In that case, let's wait here."

Hu Si nodded and sat down cross-leggedly. Then, his gaze fell on Tang Huan and a strand of True Essence directly sent a clear voice into Tang Huan's ears, "Little guy, you do not have the bloodline of the Tiger Clan, you should be surnamed Disciples. How do you know that I am trapped in the 'Tong Tian Tower'?"

She had stayed inside the dragon's abdomen where the "Coiling Dragon Staff" was located for a long time. She had countless doubts in her heart, and now, she could ask Tang Huan about it.

"Does Master Hu Si still remember our ancestor?" Tang Huan sat cross-legged opposite of Hu Si and also activated his Quintessential Essence to direct the sound into Hu Si's ears.

"Of course I do."

Hu Si started laughing as a look of reminiscence flashed past his eyes, "That brat Hu Chan has actually been called 'Ancestor' already. From the looks of it, I have been trapped here for at least a thousand years. After so many years, with that brat's talent, he should have long since led the way up into the sky. "

"Master Hu Si has actually been trapped for two thousand years, and Master Hu Chan..." Tang Huan slightly paused, his expression somewhat dejected.

"Two thousand years? That long? "

Hu Si frowned, and immediately noticed that Tang Huan's expression was strange, and could not help but change: "Little guy, what happened to Hu Chan, that brat?"

"Patriarch Hu Chan did not ascend to the sky. Nearly ten years ago, he was no longer alive."

"What?"

"..."

Realizing that Tang Huan and Hu Si were secretly conversing, Geng Shu and Chou Rui sat down on the stage by themselves.

Shao Yang was also like that, but his gaze would glance over from time to time, and very quickly discovered that Hu Si's expression was turning uglier and uglier, as if he was doing his best to suppress the sadness in his heart.

This caused Shao Yang to be greatly surprised in his heart. What exactly happened to cause such a huge emotional fluctuation to appear in a peerless expert like her? However, even though he was curious, Shao Yang did not dare to pry, nor did he dare to look any further.

"Hu!"

The air in the sky shook slightly, and two figures quickly appeared from within the arched door. It was actually a pair of twin elders. Their appearance seemed to have been imprinted from the same mold and they were all wearing grayish-brown robes. The aura they exuded from their bodies was also at the point of void transformation.

Seeing Tang Huan and the other two seated on the ground, the two of them were startled.

Doubtful looking at each other, the two of them impatiently rushed out of the stage. Not long later, the two of them returned to the top of the stage like Tang Huan and the rest.

Suddenly, the doubt on their faces became even stronger. The lips of one of them moved as though he wanted to ask something. But before he could finish his question, faint whistling sounds pierced the air as eight silhouettes appeared at the entrance. Each of them exuded powerful auras, all of them experts at the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower.

"Everyone is sitting here in a daze instead of seizing the time to look for the Heaven and Earth bead, what a group of idiots."

Just like the twins, when they saw the situation on the stage, the eight of them were rather surprised. In an instant, a rough voice sounded out, and the one who spoke was a Demon Clan Lion Man, who had an abnormally tall and sturdy body.

"Lionheart, if you don't want to die too quickly, it's best that you do it while you're still alive!"

When Shao Yang heard this, he could not help but snort coldly.

The Demon Clan Lion Man was also a Void Transformation Stage cultivator who often messed around with the "Wind Fire Thunder World." His strength was about the same level as Yuan Lingfeng and Xiang Cong, and there was even a possibility that he was slightly stronger. In this "Ancient Clear Heaven Domain", other than Duan Wuya and Nie Zhitong, no one could be a match for him.

With his tyrannical strength, he had always acted quite arrogantly, and his words were even more unrestrained.

"Yo, isn't this Shao Yang?"

As if he had just discovered Shao Yang, Lion Yuan laughed mockingly, "A defeated opponent of this daddy actually dares to call this daddy immoral. Even if your father doesn't mean anything, what can you do? "If you have the ability, then come and kill me. I've been tired of living."

As he finished speaking, Lion Origin couldn't help but laugh out loud. The surrounding Void Transformation Stage powerhouses also laughed and looked at Shao Yang with ridicule in their eyes.

"You ..."

Shao Yang flew into a rage as if he wanted to shoot his body up. However, when he thought about the strength of his opponent, he forced himself to sit back down, but his face was completely red. His strength was also extremely strong. Ordinary experts at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage were truly not his match. Only a few of them were able to defeat him.

However, this Lion Origin was one of them.

"What a pussy."

Lion Source glanced at Shao Yang in disdain, then at Tang Huan and the others, before waving his hand. "Everyone, let's go, don't waste too much time on these idiots."

"Since you've gotten tired of living, there's no need for you to leave. Just stay here with your life!"

At this moment, a delicate voice sounded.

Chapter 1167 - You Can Die!

"Hmm?"

Liao Yuan was startled, then stared straight at Hu Si with his bell-like eyes, and then laughed sinisterly with his mouth wide open, "I only realized now, that it was such a pretty girl, when I get hold of the 'Heaven and Earth Pearl', I'll play with you, this girl, for fun."

Hearing his words, Shao Yang, Geng Shu, and Chou Rui were all stunned.

That Hu Si was a top Ranker that could easily kill Yuan Lingfeng and Xiang Cong, but this Lion Origin actually dared to take liberties with her. Naturally, it was impossible for them to warn Lionheart. After a while, the three of them had strange expressions on their faces, especially Shao Yang, who was gloating at Lionheart's misfortune.

Not far away, Tang Huan looked at Lion Origin with ridicule.

Right now, Hu Si's mood was extremely bad, but this Lion Origin was actually so perverted, he would probably not be able to escape from Hu Si's attack.

"Brother Lion is in a good mood."

The short and stout middle-aged man that came with Lion Yuan could not help but tease, "This lady's skin might not even look twenty, but she might be a few hundred years older than all of us."

"Your elder's appetite has always been good. Not to mention a few hundred years old, even if I were one or two thousand years old, your elder would ..."

Lion Source laughed maniacally.

But before he finished speaking, his voice suddenly stopped, and an expression of surprise surfaced in his eyes. Hu Si who was just sitting cross-legged on the ground suddenly appeared in front of him, with his strength at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage, he was unable to follow Hu Si's trajectory.

In that instant, Lion Yuan immediately realized that this seemingly young girl in white had a strength that exceeded his expectations.

"Hu!"

Without any hesitation, Lion Yuan raised his arm, and the thick mace in his hand struck out. Amidst the hissing sounds, a terrifying storm seemed to have arisen out of thin air.

However, he still didn't think that his opponent would be able to contend against him. The instant he attacked, his eyes couldn't help but reveal a fiendish light. He had originally planned to play with this little girl after finding the "Heaven and Earth Holy Man's Pearl." Since she was in such a hurry to die, he had no choice but to grant her wish.

But after a split-second, the malevolence in Lion Yuan's eyes was replaced by shock.

"Bam!"

Just as the black and white lights flashed past his line of sight, Lion Source felt as if he had been struck.

Immediately after, the Wolf Fanged Mace in his hand exploded like an egg that had hit a hard rock. The storm that he had just condensed immediately vanished into thin air, and a somewhat familiar snow-white long rod wrapped around the black dragon entered his body.

"This ..."

Lion Source lowered his head, his eyes wide open, his mouth wide enough to fit a few fists.

At this time, his abdomen had already been completely penetrated by the long rod, and the appearance of the long rod became all the more clear before his eyes. At this moment, he finally remembered why this staff looked so familiar. It resembled the coiling dragon pillar that he had seen in the southern part of the "Wind, Fire, Thunder World".

Although there was a huge difference in size between the two, their appearances were completely the same. The long rod faintly emitted an aura, which further convinced him that the pole was the 'Coiling Dragon Pillar'.

"Who exactly is this woman? can actually use the 'Coiling Dragon Pillar' as a weapon? "

Lion Source's eyes were already filled with horror and despair, because he had already discovered that not only was his abdomen pierced by the rod, the hollow spirit within the Dantian was also quickly collapsing.

"Am I going to die?"

Lion Source muttered in disbelief.

He was no ordinary expert at the peak of the Nine Revolutions Transcendental Tower. Aside from the two terrifying old monsters, Nie Zhitong and Duan Wuya, he was rampant and had never feared anyone before. Yet now, he couldn't even withstand a single blow from this woman?

"Aren't you tired of living? "Now that I'm dead, I'll have a taste of what I wanted."

As the cold laughter entered his ears, an intense unwillingness emerged from the bottom of Lion Yuan's heart. He moved his mouth, but before he could even make a sound, his consciousness had already been completely extinguished, and the long rod in Hu Si's hand moved slightly, as his body exploded into a cloud of blood.

Tang Huan, Shao Yang and the others already knew that this would be the result.

When the twin old men and the short middle-aged man saw this scene, they were flabbergasted, and felt their hearts skip a beat. When they looked at Hu Si, it was as if they had seen a ghost, and their eyes were filled with unconcealable shock and amazement, to the point that they didn't even dare to breathe heavily.

"You can also die now!" Hu Si curled her lips, and swung the coiling dragon rod towards the short and stout middle-aged man.

"Spare me ..."

Sadly, before he could finish speaking, the coiling dragon rod had already landed on his head. With a "peng" sound, a bloody mist filled the air, and the short and stout middle-aged man had already followed in the lion's footsteps.

Hu Si pointed his rod at the other six people.

The six Void Transformation Stage experts no longer had the same arrogant expressions as before on their faces. They were trembling, trembling, and trembling. There were even two people kneeling on the ground.

To be able to cultivate to such an extent, not only were they talented, but they were also very determined. They also wanted to show that they were unyielding, but in such a life or death situation, it was difficult for them to ignore death. For most people, the longer they cultivated, the more they cherished their lives!

"A bunch of trash, scram!" Hu Si's gaze turned as he shouted out in a low voice, filled with excitement.

"Yes, yes!"

"Senior, thank you for sparing our lives."

"..."

After being stunned for a while, the six of them woke up. They were ecstatic as if they had been granted amnesty and rushed to the chaos outside the stage.

"I'm talking about that!"

Hu Si snorted as he pointed his staff towards the arched door.

Returning to the "Wind, Fire, and Thunder Realms" meant that the fate of this "Heaven, Earth, and Dao Realms" no longer concerned them. Although the six of them were extremely reluctant to leave, they did not dare to stop for even a moment.

The most important thing was to stay away from that woman.

The six of them turned around at almost the same time and rushed towards the arched door at their fastest speed. In the blink of an eye, they disappeared without a trace.

The high platform was once again restored to its previous calm.

Hu Si returned to his original spot and once again sat down cross-legged. His mood seemed to have improved by quite a bit. The two elderly twins had also discovered the words "a thousand people gathered, the universe begins to move" that were condensed from countless lines. They didn't dare to ask any more questions and quietly walked to the edge of the high platform, quietly sitting down.

Following which, Tang Huan released Yin Yu and the other two from the Space Aircraft.

Also, Ji Haitian's and the other high levelled Void Transformation Stage experts, Tang Huan had all moved to the stage, and even called out the nine spirits.

Only after gathering a thousand people could the 'Heaven and Earth dao world' be truly opened. They just so happened to occupy a few more spots, and might even be able to obtain a rare opportunity.

Time flew by and the number of cultivators on the stage increased.

At first, there were still people constantly trying to enter the primal chaos, but as time passed, the number of people trying became fewer and fewer. "Thousands of people have gathered, the universe begins to move" was widely spread among the Void Transformation cultivators.

Chapter 1168 - Dao Infant (1)

"It's only 600 people. It's already been a few days, right?"

"Before this, no one has ever entered the Universe Dao World. Is there really a Universe Dao Bead inside?"

"I wonder how the Cosmic Dao Realm will look like after it has truly opened?"

"Tsk tsk, a thousand people ..." I wonder how many people will be able to obtain the Heaven and Earth Dao Bead in the end? "

"..."

On the high platform, all sorts of murmurs could be heard from time to time. There were looks of anticipation and anxiety on the faces of the crowd, after all, whether or not the "Heaven and Earth Pearl" really existed was still unknown. Even if it did exist, it was not possible for everyone to have a share.

"Hu!"

Another figure flashed out from the arched door. It was a purple-clothed woman with a beautiful face and a graceful figure.

Almost at the same moment he appeared, a suffocating aura came out from his body and quickly engulfed the entire stage. The originally noisy space immediately became deathly silent. Many people's minds flashed with a name out of reflex.

Nie Zhitong!

Who else could possibly possess such a terrifying aura among the female cultivators in this "Ancient Realm of Heaven Passing" other than Nie Zhitong? She really did come here!

This was normal, as she and Duan Wuya had stayed in the Ancient Regions for more than a thousand years just for the 'Heaven and Earth dao pearl'.

Now that the entrance to the 'Heaven and Earth dao world' had finally opened, how could she give up such an opportunity? She was here, even Duan Wuya would be here soon!

Everyone's thoughts quickly changed. Whether it was those cultivators who recognized her or those who didn't, no one dared to make a sound. It was said that this woman's personality was rather eccentric and violent. If something bad happened to her, the outcome would probably be very tragic. It was better to just keep quiet for now.

"This old freak really came."

At the edge of the stage, Tang Huan, who was surrounded by Shao Yang, Geng Wen, and the others like a crowd of stars, couldn't help but slightly change his expression, but he was actually not surprised in his heart.

When the arched entrance appeared, Tang Huan had already guessed that Nie Zhitong would definitely enter the third floor as well. When he realized that he could only stay on the platform before the thousand people gathered here, he had a hunch that he would run into Nie Zhitong again. However, he wasn't worried at all.

Not to mention that Hu Si had already awakened, even if Hu Si was not there, he could still hide in the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace".

Although Nie Zhitong was powerful, she couldn't possibly destroy the Ten Thousand Swords Heavenly Diagram inside the cave. As long as she could make it to the true opening of the "Universe Dao Realm," she wouldn't have to bother with him.

As Tang Huan thought about it, Nie Zhitong's gaze also swept across the crowd, as if she was searching for something.

After a while, their four eyes met. Tang Huan grinned, and Nie Zhitong's gaze immediately became as sharp as a blade. She sneered, "Little bastard, you're really here, give it to me ..."

As his body moved, the distance between Nie Zhitong and Tang Huan was already less than ten meters, yet he suddenly stopped. His voice also stopped as his gaze fell on Hu Si who was seated cross-legged opposite of Tang Huan.

Nie Zhitong had already recognized her. This white-clothed girl was the person Tang Huan had brought out from the space inside the Coiling Dragon Pillar. In the end, the Dao Artifact, Coiled Dragon Pillar, had also merged with her body.

In the period of time she chased Tang Huan, she had always been in deep sleep. Even now, although her eyes were still closed, she had clearly awakened. Nie Zhitong also could not determine the woman's true age, but the aura that emanated from her body caused her expression to darken.

The aura was faintly discernible and illusory. It was extremely strange and unfathomable.

She had once felt such an aura from a single person.

That was more than a thousand years ago.

At that time, not long after she had entered the Ancient Regions, she had once encountered a powerful expert who had stayed in the Ancient Regions for nearly fifteen hundred years.

It was said that after crossing the divine retribution, the hollow spirits would form back into their bodies and form back into the Dao Nascent Soul. However, there were a few with very high cultivation levels that could form their Dao Nascent Souls before the divine retribution descended. The super expert she had met was exactly the same.

The key to condensing a Nascent Soul is the Law of the Tao.

Over the past thousand years, that supreme expert had long since ascended into the sky. Nie Zhitong had focused on cultivation, and had only just reached the edge of the Soul Formation stage. However, judging from the aura, the white-clothed girl in front of him was most likely a step higher than her. A 'Dao Soul' had completely formed.

If that was really the case, then her strength must be extremely tyrannical, and she might not necessarily be her match.

With a quick thought, a trace of fear unconsciously emerged from the bottom of Nie Zhitong's heart. Her expression also became unsettled, as she stared at Hu Si word by word, "Who are you?"

"How childish, to be able to ask such a question. Of course I'm me!"

Hu Si raised his eyebrows slightly and glanced sideways at Nie Zhitong, as if he was ridiculing her. After the past few days, her emotions had completely calmed down. If no one came to cause trouble, she would not kill them for no reason. However, if there was someone with ill intentions, she would not be soft-hearted.

Just like Nie Zhitong, she recognized her with a single glance.

When she had been carried by Tang Huan, although she had been unconscious, she had actually been immersed in a miraculous state of mind, and knew all the activities happening in the outside world like the back of her hand. Naturally, she also knew that Nie Zhitong had always wanted to kill Tang Huan and snatch the 'Coiling Dragon Staff' from her body.

It was already considered very good that he had not attacked Nie Zhitong as soon as they had met. Naturally, he would not treat her nicely.

"You ..." Nie Zhitong was infuriated as killing intent burst forth from her brows.

"You what you!"

"Since you haven't even formed your 'Dao Nascent', then you'd better be honest. If you dare to bounce around in front of me again, I don't mind teaching you how to conduct yourself, but I hope that you can bear the cost."

Hearing Hu Si's words, the people on the high platform immediately burst into an uproar.

Nie Zhitong was the only supreme expert in the entire Ancient Regions who was on par with Duan Wuya. Even though her cultivation was still stuck at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage, an ordinary expert at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage wouldn't even be able to withstand a single blow from her. From this, it could be seen how powerful she was.

Just what kind of background did this woman in white have? How dare she speak to Nie Zhitong in such a manner two or three times? Was she not afraid that Nie Zhitong would kill her completely out of anger?

This Nie Zhitong was not someone easy to talk to!

However, what happened next made everyone so shocked that their eyeballs nearly popped out of their sockets. Although Nie Zhitong's expression was extremely ugly after being scolded by the woman in white, she did not flare up on the spot. Instead, she forced a smile on her face. "Senior's teachings are correct. Junior will take his leave now!"

Chapter 1169 - Dao Infant (2)

As expected, Nie Zhitong had retreated!

When she heard him say the two words "Dao Nascent", she knew that he had already fully formed his "Dao Nascent". Not many people in the entire Forging God Great World knew of this name, as their cultivation did not reach a certain level. They simply could not understand what kind of situation it was.

One of them had a "Dao Nascent Soul", and the other was just about to form a "Dao Nascent Soul." The strength of this was obvious at a glance. If she were to put her life on the line, she might be able to injure her opponent. However, that was all. She would have to pay the price with her own life.

At this point, as long as Nie Zhitong wasn't stupid, she would know what to do. She would definitely snicker if the other party didn't mind her chasing after him.

The surrounding people didn't know why, but they were all at a loss for words.

Even Shao Yang and the other cultivators on the third floor found it hard to conceal the surprise in their eyes.

They had all seen how Lion Source and the others were easily killed by Hu Si, and had also guessed that Nie Zhitong was probably not Hu Si's match. However, they had never expected that after encountering Hu Si, Nie Zhitong's performance would be even worse than what they had imagined, like a mouse seeing a cat.

A moment later, under the shocked gazes of the crowd, Nie Zhitong went directly to the back of the arch and sat down in a cross-legged position.

Everyone snapped back to reality as all sorts of questions surfaced in their minds. How big was the gap between Nie Zhitong and that white-clothed woman? Even after being reprimanded in such a way, they could only swallow their anger? What exactly is the "Dao Nascent" the white-robed woman spoke of? Also, what kind of enmity did Nie Zhitong have with that young man who had just reached the Fifth Cycle of the Void Transformation Stage? She actually dared to attack him as soon as they met? What was the relationship between him and the white-clothed woman?

"Master Hu Si, what is a 'Dao Nascent'?"

Everyone had their questions, Tang Huan's heart was also filled with doubts, he could not help but ask. But he condensed his True Essence and directly sent his voice into Hu Si's ears.

"The embodiment of the hollow spirit is the 'Dao Soul'."

Hu Si slightly smiled, "After reaching the peak of the Void Transformation Stage, as long as you can completely comprehend a type of 'Law of the Tao,' you will be able to obtain enough Law of the Tao energy, and then you will have the chance to condense a 'Dao Nascent Soul' before the heavenly tribulation arrives. Otherwise, you can only wait until after the heavenly tribulation."

Hu Si paused for a while, before continuing, "Although I have lost my freedom after being trapped for more than two thousand years, my gains from this are still great. "For example, the Coiling Dragon Staff and the Dao Nascent Soul!"

"The spirit that sealed me is this' Coiling Dragon Staff 'artifact."

"For the past two thousand years, the artifact spirit has always wanted to possess me, but unfortunately, he didn't succeed. As I fought against the artifact spirit, not only did I comprehend the Law of the Tao, I also continuously absorbed the Law of the Tao's power from the space inside the 'Coiling Dragon Rod' and gradually formed a 'Dao Nascent'. Only then did I become the host, becoming the owner of the 'Coiling Dragon Rod'. "Kid, when you rescued me, I was at the critical moment of forming my 'Dao Nascent Soul'. And when the entrance to the third floor opened, my 'Dao Nascent Soul' was completely formed."

"Seems like even without my help, Master Hu Si will be able to escape soon."

Tang Huan suddenly nodded his head. When he saw Hu Si, there was only a bit of the sealing power around her body left, and at that time, she should already be considered the master of the "Coiling Dragon Pillar." Once she had completely condensed the "Dao Nascent Soul", she would probably be able to escape from her confinement.

"Kid, you're wrong."

Hu Si laughed, "If you had not saved me and kept me by my side, I would have at least needed a hundred years to form my Nascent Soul and escape from my imprisonment."

"Why is that?"

Tang Huan was puzzled.

"Back then, when I was just trapped by the spirit of the 'Coiling Dragon Staff' artifact, in order not to be immediately possessed, I had performed a kind of secret soul technique for myself, causing my soul and body to be in an indistinct state. Although I could sense everything happening around me, I still couldn't awaken it, and even if the 'Dao Nascent Soul' was formed, it would still take a very long time to recover."

However, the moment you open the entrance to the third floor of the Tong Tian Tower and the arch is revealed, the tremendous power and powerful aura that erupted out caused both my body and my soul to tremble intensely. The two of them merged back into one body in the shortest amount of time possible and only then were I able to wake up.

"So that's how it is."

Hearing that, Tang Huan couldn't help but laugh, this was truly a coincidence.

It was fortunate that this was the case, otherwise, Tang Huan would need to arrange for special people to protect Hu Si when he leaves this "Ancient Clear Heaven Domain".

"Kid, you don't have to think too much about it right now."

Hu Si looked at Tang Huan, and said slowly, "To condense a 'Dao Nascent Soul', one has to be at least at the peak of the Void Transformation Stage, and sometimes it will also depend on luck. In the future, when you exit from the third floor, you can gather more Wind Crystal, Flame Crystal, Thunder Crystal, and Ice Crystal. In the future, if you get lucky, they can also be of use. "

"I see."

"..."

Time passed bit by bit, and only after about half a day, another abnormally terrifying aura enveloped the platform. That person was an old man in green, with creamy eyebrows and bright hair. His face was covered in layers of wrinkles, making him look like a piece of old bark that had dried up.

"Patriarch Wuya!" Almost as soon as he appeared, many Void Transformation Stage powerhouses stood up and bowed.

"Duan Wuya?"

Tang Huan's gaze swept across the old man in green. He only sensed that something was amiss when his eyes flashed, and then, he gave a light nod of his head in realization.

Not only was Duan Wuya's appearance old, his entire body was filled with a strong sense of dejection.

This meant that his end was near. Void Transformation Stage powerhouses were still far from being able to transcend life and death realms. They were only able to live longer than ordinary people.

For example, if Duan Wuya didn't ascend to the heavens, he would die of old age in at most three years. This old fellow was obviously unwilling to ascend the sky like this, and did not plan on dying from old age either. He ordered people to collect ice crystals at the entrance of Tong Tian Tower's second floor, clearly wanting to use those ice crystals to extend his life.

Not only did the ice crystal contain a dense amount of Law of the Tao energy, it also contained a boundless amount of vitality.

Duan Wuya first gave a slight nod to everyone, then turned towards Nie Zhitong. He furrowed his brows, then directly sat down near the arched door, slightly closing his eyes. After a while, he seemed to have sensed something and looked at Tang Huan and her. Doubt appeared in his eyes.

However, after a short moment, Duan Wuya was shocked. He hurriedly retracted his gaze, it was as though someone had stealthily sent him a message.

After Duan Wuya, another six people appeared at almost the exact same time.

It was the six people who came in with Lion Yuan and the others, but were ultimately scared witless by Hu Si. They probably did not know that the "Universe Dao Realm" could be opened by a thousand people, which meant that they felt that after so long, Hu Si and the rest should have left the stage, which was why they entered again.

When they saw the situation inside, they were all stunned, and when they caught a glimpse of Hu Si's figure, they nearly fainted from fright, and in less than a breath of time, they rushed back into the arch with their fastest speed, and disappeared without a trace.

Seeing this, everyone was baffled.

Tang Huan had also noticed the movements of the few fellows, he only laughed, and did not pay any more attention to them. Unknowingly, several days had passed. When two Eight Revolutions Demon Clan entered together, the number of Void Transformation Stage cultivators that gathered on the stage had already reached 999.

Chapter 1170 - The Tribulation of Five Elements

"One more to go!"

"There are finally enough people."

"Everyone, get ready!"

"..."

Everyone was already calculating the numbers. Now, there was only one more person to gather up to a thousand people. Everyone was in high spirits and was ready to move at any moment.

"Rumble ..."

However, just at that time, intense trembling sounds suddenly surged out from the depths of the stage. It was as if it was like a thunderbolt that could shake the heaven and earth, and could even tear one's eardrums. Soon after, the arch in the middle of the stage began to quickly dissipate. In the time it took for one or two breaths, it no longer existed.

This sudden turn of events shocked everyone.

"What's going on? Isn't it said that 'a thousand people have gathered and the universe has started moving'? Now that there are only nine hundred and ninety-nine people, the 'Cosmic Dao Realm' is about to appear? "

"We already have a thousand people. Did we make a mistake?"

"How is this possible? One or two people making a mistake is fine, but everyone can make a mistake? "

"The arch has disappeared. Could it be that people outside won't be able to enter for the time being and the people inside won't be able to leave?"

"..."

Everyone's face was filled with surprise as they exclaimed in low voices.

Only Shao Yang and a few other cultivators could vaguely guess that the reason why the "Universe Dao Realm" didn't even need a thousand people to appear was probably because they had included Tang Huan's little nine-coloured bird.

The crowd quickly forgot about this matter as their attention seemed to be completely attracted by the commotion that followed.

"Rumble ..."

The trembling sound continued, and after the arch disappeared, Pang Shuo's high platform also started to sink. Almost at the same time, the white misty aura started to surge in from all directions like stormy waves. In the blink of an eye, the sky was covered by chaos.

Unknowingly, the platform beneath their feet had also disappeared. Everyone was standing atop the clouds. After an unknown period of time, the deafening vibrations finally died down.

It was as if Heaven and Earth had just opened, and the murky air had sunk down to form the ground. A clear air rose up, which transformed into the Heavens.

Although the surroundings were still misty white, it had become much wider. It had to be at least a few dozen miles in radius, and the ground was flat and vast. There were no mountains, rivers, insects, fish, birds, flowers, trees, and so on.

However, the silence was quickly broken by exclamations and exclamations.

"What a rich power of the heaven and earth and the power of the Law of the Tao!"

"If I train here, I will probably be able to step into the Void Transformation Stage very soon."

"This is the Cosmic Dao Realm. It's way too small, isn't it?"

"..."

Hearing the voices of the crowd, Tang Huan was also praising the power of the heaven and earth and Law of the Tao in his heart. An instant later, Tang Huan sensed something and suddenly raised his head to look.

Immediately following that, an incomparably boundless aura roared down, filling up the void.

Instantly, all the voices of the crowd stopped, and they all raised their heads to look. The shock in their eyes became denser and denser.

"Heavenly Road?"

Several cries of surprise sounded out at the same time.

Tang Huan frowned, Hu Si had a surprised look on his face, but Nie Zhitong and Duan Wuya's expressions became extremely ugly. They were not afraid of the heavenly tribulation that accompanied the Heavenly Road, it was just that the Heavenly Road had suddenly descended before they had obtained the "Universe Divine Bead".

"Ga ji?"

A small head popped out from Tang Huan's chest, looking at the sky in shock, and in the surrounding crowd, many Void Transformation Stage cultivators had flustered looks on their faces.

"Everyone, don't panic. This isn't a true Heavenly Road!"

After a flick of his finger, Duan Wuya's vigorous voice suddenly sounded. His complexion had already turned for the better. Apparently, Nie Zhitong had realized this as well, and her tense face relaxed.

Everyone was startled by these words and immediately calmed down.

They had already noticed that the Heavenly Road in the sky above was shockingly large, practically enveloping the entire space within a radius of tens of kilometers. Throughout the countless years of history, such a massive Heavenly Road had never appeared before. No matter how strong the cultivators that were about to undergo tribulation were, the Heavenly Road wouldn't be this strong.

In just a breath or two, the Heavenly Road had completely descended, enveloping the nine spirits, Tang Huan and the other cultivators within.

"Rumble ..."

The Heavenly Road trembled, and an incomparably terrifying power was born out of thin air.

Immediately after, the entire space started to distort and ripple. An instant later, all the cultivators felt as if they were enveloped by an incomparable force, and then, they quickly moved away. Even the nine spirits on Tang Huan's chest were pulled away by that energy, and then, they became further and further away from Tang Huan.

Not long after, the space returned to normal.

Tang Huan looked over in the blink of an eye, and discovered that a thousand creatures had already been evenly distributed within a radius of several tens of kilometers. Hu Si, Jiu Ling, Shao Yang, Geng Xun, Ji Haitian and the others who were originally by his side had already left. The ones closest to him, however, was Nie Zhitong, who was extremely close, just a hundred meters away.

The existence of the nine spirits was noticed by many cultivators.

Only then did the crowd discover that the reason why there were less than a thousand people in a series of movements was because the Nine-Colored Bird occupied a spot.

Even though they were somewhat curious as to how it had appeared, everyone's attention was quickly diverted once more. Somehow, a voice had sounded from the depths of everyone's souls: "The arrival of the Five Elements calamity ... Life and death meant nothing to him... Those who are able to make it into the top ten of the Qiankun Dao World will be able to acquire a single Qiankun Dao Pearl ... "

"Tribulation of Five Elements? Do I have to experience metal tribulation, wood tribulation, water tribulation, fire tribulation, earth tribulation simultaneously? "

"Life and death will be decided by fate ..." could have died under the divine tribulation here? "

"Dammit, this is actually not the true 'Universe Dao Realm'. Only by passing through the tribulation of Five Elements can one enter the 'Universe Dao Realm', and only the top ten can obtain the 'Universe Dao Bead' ... "Doesn't this mean that the cultivators who are ranked tenth and below, are all wasting their time?"

"..."

All kinds of distracting thoughts and expressions appeared on everyone's faces. Some were expectant, some were perturbed, some were excited, some were regretful, and some were full of confidence and some were anxious.

Amongst the thousand creatures, only the top ten could obtain the Heaven and Earth bead. Counting the hundred creatures, only one of them could obtain this opportunity. Everyone already knew that the Heaven and Earth dao beads would not appear in large numbers, but it was still rather surprising for it to be reduced to such a state.

The few who had weaker cultivations felt regret in their hearts.

If he had known about the situation on the third floor, he would not have entered. If he had not been able to enter the "Universe Dao World" and even lost his life, it would not have been worth it. It was a pity that things had gotten to this point. No matter how much he regretted, it was useless.

Currently, he was within the Heavenly Road. Without an exit, it was impossible for him to leave.

Now, all he could do was hope that the Celestial Tribulation wouldn't be that terrifying. However, the loud whistling sound that followed immediately broke the last thoughts in the minds of many cultivators.

"Hu!"

Above the sky, it was already a field of crimson red, and a violent and blazing aura crazily poured down.
