

W. Master 1671

Chapter 1671 - Spiritual True Immortal School

"What?" In a few days, will the Xuanji Pill Pavilion auction another ten perfect mid-grade Dao tools? "

"I missed the opportunity last time. I can't miss it this time."

"Rumor has it that the Jin Yang Sect obtained a perfect Dao Artifact at the auction. In just ten days, some of the disciples in the sect have comprehended something, and their medium-grade Heaven Arts have risen to high-grade Heaven Arts." In this competition of Tools Method for the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts', the ranking of the disciple from the 'Gold Sun Sect' will definitely not be low. "

Not long after, the news of another ten perfect mid-grade Dao artifacts appearing in the xuanji auction had once again caused a sensation in Saint Dao City.

Especially those sects within the "Ten Thousand Realms Immortal City", who were going to participate in the auction for the artifact, they were even more eager to see the perfect tool, in hopes that they would be able to comprehend and raise the Tools Method Attainments. For this reason, even if they had to spend all their wealth, they would not hesitate to do so.

"Elder, should we join the auction too?"

In the Myriad Domain Immortal City, in a palace located in the Flowing Flower Domain, a clear voice suddenly rang out. The speaker was a man wearing a white robe. This person was Zhang Yishan from the Heaven Sect.

This time, not only Zhang Yinren, but Sun Yingwu and Tao Yanghui would also participate in the Ten Thousand Domain Dao Arts.

In the competition nearly ten years ago, they lost miserably to Tang Huan of the "Emperor Dragon Sky Manor".

After so many years, after consuming a large amount of precious resources, Sun Yingwu and Tao Yanghui were both at the peak of the eighth level of the Sky Realm. In addition, the three of them also received a huge increase in Tools Method Attainments, all of them levelling up to medium-grade Heaven Arts.

In the competition for the Myriad Domain Dao Arts, it was very difficult for a middle-ranked Heavenly Craftsman to obtain a good rank.

However, as long as they were able to surpass the mid quality skills of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion and the Limitless Temple, they would be able to win the placing to enter the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain" for the Heaven Sect.

For them, it wasn't too difficult, but it was still a bit risky.

The outstanding Tools Method genius Tang Huan of the Emperor Dragon Sky Manor had long since disappeared, as if he had turned into ashes. This time, the only one participating in the competition for the Emperor Dragon Sky Manor was Lu Zhitao, and his Tools Method Attainments did not pose much of a threat to Zhang Yi Ren and his gang.

So, the only risk laid with Hua Xiaoyan, who represented "Limitless Temple" participating in the Artifact Battlefield Competition. Nearly a decade had passed, and with the sect's all-out effort to nurture her, her cultivation had increased by a huge amount just like the Tools Method Attainments.

It would be a great thing if his cultivation could increase before the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts".

Therefore, upon hearing the news that the "Phanerox Pills Pavilion" was about to auction a Perfect Middle Grade Dao Artifact, Zhang Yidao, Sun Yingwu, and Tao Yanghui immediately came to see Elder Xue Yu.

The Heaven's Expanse Sect actually had a perfect Dao Artifact. They had studied it before, but it was only an Inferior Grade Dao Artifact. If they could obtain a mid-grade Dao Artifact, it would be more beneficial to their Tools Method Attainments. This caused the three of them to look at Xue Yu with eyes filled with anticipation.

"This old man has asked around."

Xue Yu slightly frowned when he heard this and sighed lightly. "In the last auction, the transaction price of every perfect mid-grade Dao Artifact was nearly thirty million Heaven beads. So, this time, the competition will probably be even more intense, and there's a possibility that the transaction price of each item will exceed thirty million Heaven beads. We only brought ten million Heaven beads with us, even if we sell the other things that we don't need, we can only gather twenty million to participate in the auction, and it will be impossible for us to succeed. " Speaking to this point, Xue Yu also felt quite helpless. If he had known earlier that the "Phecda Pill Pavilion" would bring out so many perfect artifacts for auction, he would have brought several tens of millions of Heaven beads with him when he set off.

Zhang Yi Ren, Sun Ying Wu and Tao Yang Hui looked at each other, their faces immediately filled with depression and helplessness.

"You don't have to worry."

When he saw their expressions, Xue Yu couldn't help but smile. "Then the Righteous Noble Sect of the Flowing Waves Region will surely participate in this auction. With their wealth, it shouldn't be difficult for them to obtain a perfect mid-grade Dao Artifact. I am acquainted with the leader of the 'Spiritual True Immortal School'. When the time comes, I will be able to borrow that perfect Dao Artifact for a few days.

"Thank you elder!"

Although it could only last for a few days, it was still better than nothing. The three of them happily departed.

He was indeed familiar with the elder from the "Spiritual True Immortal School", but in a situation like this, if he wanted to borrow the perfect Dao Artifact, not only did he have to give up his old face to ask for it, he also had to prepare a generous gift.

It was such a pity, if Heaven Sect had a talented genius like Tang Huan, they would not be like this.

Xue Yu shook his head and tossed out the young and handsome face that appeared within his mind.

Several days later, the xuanji auction was held as scheduled.

Indeed, as many cultivators expected, when the perfect mid-grade dao tool appeared, the bidding became even more intense than before.

Another two months passed.

"This... How is that possible? "

Xue Yu couldn't help but exclaim in surprise within a hall in the 10,000 Domain Immortal City's Flowing Waves Region cultivators' residence area, and his brows were filled with an expression of disbelief.

Right now, he was wielding a long white sword.

The sword was over a meter long and three fingers wide. Its entire body was sparkling and translucent, as if it had been sculpted out of jade. It was perfect without the slightest flaw. The aura that emanated from the sword was extremely powerful. Not only was it as majestic as the vast ocean, it also possessed an unstoppable sharpness.

Nearly two months ago, the "Spiritual True Immortal School" auctioned it for over 30 million Heaven beads for a perfect mid-grade Dao tool.

This sword was indeed worthy of its perfect quality. Even though it was a mid-grade Dao item, its power would not be inferior to an ordinary high-grade Dao item if it was fully displayed.

However, what caused Xue Yu to lose his composure was not the sword's power, but the incomparably familiar feeling he felt from the sword.

More than ten years ago, in the Crimson Radiance Sect's "Flowing Flower Domain" Nether Cloud City's "Phantom Pill Pavilion", he had obtained a low-grade Dao Artifact, which was also a perfect quality.

After studying the perfect Dao Artifact for a long time, even someone like him, who was a heaven's work, would benefit from it. His Tools Method Attainments leveled up greatly. He was extremely familiar with the Dao Artifact as if it was a part of his body. Thus, when he saw the long white sword, he felt a strange sensation.

placed the remaining three "Yuan Luo Sacred Heart Pellets" into the cauldron. The words "remaining" had to be deleted, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, but I'm sorry, I'm sorry, I'm sorry, but I'm sorry.

Chapter 1672 - The First Rank of the Sky Marquis

If his judgement was correct, that perfect low-grade dao tool and this perfect mid-grade dao tool most likely came from the same heaven's work.

He had once suspected that the person who forged the perfect lower grade Dao Artifact in You Yun City was Tang Huan, but because Tang Huan's cultivation was too low, he removed his suspicions. However, after knowing that Tang Huan had forged several tens of Perfect lower grade Dao Artifacts in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, the suspicion from before surfaced once again.

Although he had never tried to verify with Tang Huan before, his guesses had always been stuck in his throat.

After all, Tang Huan had died ten years ago. Even if she was lucky to still be alive, she was currently trapped in the Nether Realm and it was impossible for him to return. From the looks of it, the one who forged that perfect low-grade Dao tool was indeed someone else.

Could it be that the powerful Tian Gong had also come from the sky of the Crimson Radiance Sect to the sky of Xuan Du?

"Brother Xue, what's wrong?" A surprised voice sounded out, and the person that spoke was a green-robed old man with a white beard and thin figure that was tall and thin, and when he looked at Xue Yu, his eyes flickered with surprise and bewilderment. This green-robed old man was the elder of the "Spiritual True Immortal School", Xie Feichen.

"Nothing, nothing."

Xue Yu seemed to have just awoken from a dream as he squeezed out a trace of a smile on his face and said in embarrassment, "Thank you for your understanding, Brother. The crafting of this perfect mid-grade Dao Artifact is truly too miraculous. I have seen many perfect Dao artifacts, but this is the first time I've seen one that has reached such a level.

"Haha, not bad. I agree." Xie Feichen stroked his beard as he smiled in agreement.

"Brother Xie, do you know where you got those perfect Dao artifacts from?" Xue Yu took a deep breath and couldn't help but ask.

"I only heard a bit of information after asking a lot of people. Brother Xue, don't tell anyone else." Xie Feichen said mysteriously, "It's said that those perfect Daos are all from the Purple Cloud Region's Nine-Colored Immortal Sect. There seems to be a total of thirty of them."

"Zi Yun Tian? "The Nine-colored Immortal Sect?" A trace of doubt flashed within Xue Yu's eyes.

"Haha, your father is finally the Marquis of Heaven!"

In the Myriad Domain Immortal City, in the neon region of the Violet Cloud Sky Sect, Jiu Ling's joyous voice resounded in the quiet back hall. Almost at the same time, the strong energy fluctuations that surged out from her body gradually subsided and finally disappeared.

At this moment, the little girl was so excited that her face had an intoxicating red blush. Her two eyes were narrowed into crescent moons, making her look all the more adorable.

Stepping into the first level of the sky marquis meant that she was qualified to participate in the competition of the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts". She still had the "Yuan Luo Sacred Heart Pill" and the "Moon-Shattering Moon Pill" on her body. She would definitely be able to step into the second rank of the Sky Realm in the remaining time.

Of course, by participating in the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", she would be able to enjoy the show, but she did not plan on obtaining any good rankings. Of course, by participating in the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", she would be able to enjoy the show, but she did not plan on obtaining any good rankings.

After a long while, Jiu Ling calmed her heart and calmed down. In the blink of an eye, she looked at Tang Huan who was about 10 metres away.

"It seems your big brother is about to break through as well."

Jiu Ling chuckled before taking out the "Yuan Luo Sacred Heart Pill" and tossing it into her mouth. After that, she closed her eyes and the smile on her face disappeared.

After around two to three days, an even more violent aura fluctuation spread out from the palace.

"First rank of the Sky Marquis!"

Tang Huan suddenly opened her eyes, revealing a trace of happiness between her brows.

The moment that critical dao crystal was formed, Tang Huan felt as if her strength had instantly increased by countless of times, and inside her Dantian Dao Nascent Soul, every single dao crystal contained a tremendous amount of power that roared fiercely, and if this power completely erupted, it would produce an extremely terrifying power.

After a while, Tang Huan calmed her mind, called out the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", took out two "Moon-Shattering Moon-Shattering Pellets" and placed it inside, then continued to cultivate.

To Tang Huan, as long as she had stepped into the Sky Marquis Realm, everything was fine. As long as her cultivation was at the first or second level of the Sky Marquis, it did not matter as long as he was participating in the competition. However, Tang Huan was extremely confident in her own Tools Method, and there was still quite a bit of time before the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", so there was no need for him to immediately try forging a high grade Dao Artifact.

It wouldn't be too late to forge a high-grade Dao weapon when there was only one month left.

Right now, Tang Huan still had enough time to try and see if she could raise her cultivation to the second level of the Sky Marquis class before the "Myriad Domain Dao Art" was held.

Time passed bit by bit.

Inside the palace, Tang Huan's body was as still as a rock.

The shape of the "Moon-Shattering Moon Pill" was rather peculiar. The thumb-sized round and fiery red pill seemed to contain a crescent moon covered in cracks. This strange structure actually caused this pill to contain an incomparably fierce medicinal effect, which faintly revealed a trace of feminine intent. However, the presence of that feminine aura did not cause the medicinal energy to reject it. Instead, it made the medicinal energy even more restrained and condensed.

Just as Pan Yue had said, the effects of the Moon-Shattering Moon Pill were indeed shockingly strong. Although the effects of the pill had become more concentrated, the backlash from the pill had also increased.

Even a Tier 3 Heavenly Marquis would have to carefully slow down when refining this "Moon-Shattering Dan."

If the Heavenly Marquis below the third rank refined it, it would be extremely dangerous under the backlash of the medicine. He might even lose his life. However, the existence of "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was able to isolate the backlash of the medicine inside the cauldron, neutralizing it, and preventing it from spreading to the body.

Without fear of the side effects of the medicine, when Tang Huan went all out, the speed at which she refined the medicine was shockingly fast. In the Dantian, the number of crystals was also increasing rapidly.

Unknowingly, there were only two months left until the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts".

The next thirty-six days of cultivators had all passed through the Heaven Splitting Platform and arrived at the "Profound Capital". The nearly full "Myriad Domain Immortal City" had already become extremely lively. Almost every day, there would be many cultivators sparring and competing at the wide plaza in the center of the immortal city.

It was also at this time that the "Phecda Pill Pavilion" announced that it would release a third batch of perfect mid-grade Dao artifacts in the next auction.

The moment the news came out, the Immortal City was stunned.

When the twenty mid-grade Perfect grade Dao Artifacts that were auctioned two times fell into the hands of Tian Gong, many people's Tools Method Attainments had improved by leaps and bounds.

After finding out about this, many of the workers in the Immortal City were so envious that their eyes turned red, especially the ones who were going to participate in the Artifact Storage Hall competition. For others, increasing their Tools Method Attainments would mean that they would have to face an even more powerful opponent in the artifact market competition in the future.

Thus, on the day that the xuanji auction was held, almost all of the sects that were participating in the competition within the Immortal City had begun to take action.

The auction of these ten perfect mid-grade Dao artifacts would definitely be even crazier than the first two.

Chapter 1673 - Earning It!

Myriad Domain Immortal City, in the Flowing Flower Domain cultivators' residential area of the Crimson Radiance Sect's "Flowing Flower Domain".

"Owner Que, are we really not going to participate in that auction?"

Lu ZhiTao's voice broke the peace of palace. As he looked at Du Xinghe, who was sitting on a prayer mat, his expression was filled with worry.

The Crimson Radiance Heaven "Flowing Flower Domain" was the most wealthy sect in the entire Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion.

Currently, the Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and the Everlasting Temple had both gone to participate in the Xun Ji Auction, but there was no activity from the Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion. How could he sit still?

If he could obtain a mid-grade perfect Dao Artifact, then he would be able to gain more insights and understand more about it. He would definitely be able to obtain a better ranking in the artifact market.

Regardless of whether it was for himself or for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, this was an extremely good thing.

However, even though the Emperor Dragon Heaven's Hall clearly had the means to obtain a perfect mid-grade Dao Artifact, Du Xinghe remained indifferent and pretended that this was not the case.

He finally opened his eyes and said slowly: "Within our sect, there are many perfect low-grade Dao artifacts forged by Tang Huan. Many years ago, this old man had found a few for you to examine and study. After so many years, have you comprehended any of them?"

"This ..."

Lu Zhitao's face slightly changed. He was a bit embarrassed and stammered without being able to say anything.

After Tang Huan's assassination attempt disappeared, Du Xinghe had indeed found some low-grade perfect tools for him to study. However, he hated Tang Huan to the extreme, and hated him to the core. She also loathed the Dao Artifacts forged by Tang Huan to the extreme, and didn't even waste time and energy to comprehend them.

"So many low-grade perfect Dao tools for you to study, and yet you've come up empty-handed. Even if you manage to obtain a mid-grade perfect Dao weapon, what can you obtain in the short span of two months?" Du Xinghe waved her hand and calmly said, "Go, and focus on your cultivation. Don't let your thoughts run wild anymore."

"Yes sir!"

Lu Zhitao's face was flushed red. He was embarrassed and annoyed, but he did not dare to let it out. He also did not dare to say anything else as he bowed his head and retreated.

Watching Lu ZhiTao's figure disappear at the door of the palace, Du Xinghe could not help but shake her head and sigh.

He no longer had any expectations for this competition of the "Ten Thousand Domain Dao Arts". The reason he let Lu Zhitao participate was only to make up the number of people. Naturally, he could not afford to spend a high price to buy a perfect mid-grade Dao item. With so many Heaven beads, he might as well buy some cultivation pills for Xiao Niandie and the others who were about to participate in the competition for the Myriad Domain Dao Arts. He had indeed already done so.

"It's a pity that little fellow Tang Huan isn't around anymore ..."

Once again, that young and handsome face appeared in his mind, and Du Xinghe dejectedly closed her eyes...

In the xuanji auction, ten perfect medium-grade Dao artifacts appeared.

Normally speaking, although a Perfect Medial Grade Dao Artifact was precious, it was still of a lower grade. To be able to sell it for 20 million Heaven beads was already quite good. However, under the special circumstances of the soon opening of the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", coupled with the fact that the assistance of these perfect mid-grade Dao tools to Tian Gong had already been impressively spread, the third batch of perfect mid-grade Dao tools had been fiercely robbed, and the final price had exceeded forty million Heaven beads.

The last two even exceeded fifty million Heaven beads.

This was definitely a sky-high price.

If there were no special circumstances, even a superior grade Dao item would not be able to sell for this price. As for the high grade perfect ones, that was only sixty or seventy million. From this, it could be seen just what degree of competition for the 10 perfect medium-grade Dao artifacts had reached in the xuanji auction.

After the auction ended, the sects that succeeded in bidding would naturally be wild with joy.

They didn't know where they got the perfect mid-grade dao tools from because they came from the Nine-Colored Immortal Sect. As a result, there were many people who found the neon region where the cultivators of the Violet Cloud Sky Sect lived, wanting to visit the head of the Nine-Colored Immortal Sect and try to buy the perfect dao tools there.

Naturally, they wouldn't be able to see Xiao Zihan. All of them had been blocked by Pang Xuan and four other elders, and it was also impossible for them to buy a Perfect grade Dao Artifact from the Nine-Colored Immortal Sect.

If the Elders of the Nine Colored Immortal Sect were not strong, perhaps there would be people who would want to change the way they communicate with each other. However, no one would dare act rashly with four Tier 9 Heavenly Marquis and the Heavenly King that was hiding deep within the palace. As a result, all of the cultivators that came could only bitterly leave.

"50 million Heavenly Jewels, tsk tsk, this price is indeed a little scary."

Inside the rear hall, looking at the smiling Xiao Zihan opposite him, Tang Huan, who had just woken up from cultivation, couldn't help but be speechless.

Only after consuming four full "Moon-Shattering Moon-Shattering Pellets" did Tang Huan manage to step into the Second Rank of the Sky Marquis Realm. This was a joyous occasion, but the rate at which the pellet was being consumed also shocked Tang Huan.

After spending two days to consolidate his cultivation, Tang Huan invited Xiao Zihan in. In the end, he found out a lot of information about the xuanji auction from her.

While exchanging for the pellets, Tang Huan had already thought that if the "Phecda Pills Pavilion" were to auction out the perfect mid-grade Dao tools, the price would definitely exceed twenty million Heaven beads. However, the final batch of perfect mid-grade Dao tools had cost more than forty million Heaven beads or even fifty million Heaven beads, which was indeed out of her expectations.

He had originally thought that it would already be pretty good to be able to reach thirty million Heaven beads.

"This is because the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' is about to begin. Without the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts', a Perfect Middle Grade Dao Artifact wouldn't be able to sell for this price." Xiao Zihan said with a smile.

"Indeed."

"Yes." Tang Huan also nodded in agreement, but then a strange smile appeared on her face, "The 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' will only start in two months. Sect Master, tell me, if I were to forge a few high quality perfect Dao Artifacts for auction, what kind of price would I get for it?"

Xiao Zihan gently smiled, "Normally, sixty to seventy million heaven beads are already at the peak. Before the Myriad Domain Dao Arts, there's absolutely a chance of it surpassing one hundred million heaven beads!"

"In that case, we might as well take the opportunity to make a profit." Tang Huan squinted her eyes and fiercely clapped.

"That's exactly what I was thinking." When Xiao Zihan heard this, she unconsciously smiled, "However, that is only if you can forge a perfect mid-grade Dao Artifact."

"Sovereign, please wait and see." Tang Huan laughed.

Xiao Zihan did not stay long. She quickly left the palace, but before she left, she left Tang Huan with hundreds of high-grade Dao-Stones.

In addition to the several hundred high-grade dao stones, all the dao stones that the Nine Colored Immortal Sect had brought with them had fallen into Tang Huan's hands.

To Tang Huan, these few stones were more than enough.

"Big Brother, first go into my space, then enter the Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace to forge a high-grade Dao item ..." A voice filled with anticipation rang out. It was the Nine Spirits that had awoken from their cultivation.

"..."

Chapter 1674 - The Perfect High Rank Taoist Instruments

"..."

"Nine Spirit Grandmaster, Ancestral Master Tang Huan summoned us. Is there anything she wants us to do?"

"I heard that Ancestral Master Tang Huan is already forging a high grade Dao Artifact, has she finally succeeded?"

"Last time, Martial Ancestor Tang Huan said that she would give each of us a high grade perfect Dao Artifact. When she called us over, could it be that she really wanted to give them to us after she succeeded in forging?"

"..."

Another day passed, and the tranquility of the rear palace was suddenly broken by a flurry of chirping. After Hua Die, Zhang Jingling and the rest received the news from Nine Spirits, they all ran over.

After a year, all of their cultivation had increased, but of course, they were not as obvious as Tang Huan and the nine spirits.

After all, with their cultivations at this level, even the "Xun Ji Pill House" would not necessarily be able to purchase a pill that was suitable for them. Even if there were one or two pills that appeared occasionally, the price would be outrageously high.

They were extremely curious as to why Tang Huan had called them over.

Ever since they entered the "Ten Thousand Realms Immortal City", they had been wholeheartedly cultivating and almost never went out. However, they had also heard of some news. For example, the "Phecda Pill Pavilion" had auctioned 30 perfect mid-grade Dao artifacts in three batches. It was even known that all of these Dao artifacts came from the Nine Colored Immortal Sect.

They were well aware of the Nine Colored Immortal Sect's situation. Regardless of whether it was the sect head or the four great elders, none of them were able to produce so many perfect and middle-grade Dao tools.

This could only mean one thing, all the perfect mid-grade Dao tools came from Tang Huan and the nine spirits.

Amongst the two Ancestral Masters, it was naturally most likely that Tang Huan had forged them herself. After all, he had given him all the mid-grade dao stones she had brought with him from the sect. It was precisely because of this that they admired Tang Huan's Tools Method Attainments so much that they were astounded.

Tang Huan had once said that she would give each of them a High Rank Dao Artifact of perfect quality.

At that time, although they didn't reveal it directly, they truly didn't believe that the nine of them, along with the four Elders, were nothing more than thirteen perfect, high-grade Dao artifacts.

Even if it was a [Holy-ranked Sky Crafting], it would take tens of hundreds of years to forge it, needless to say, Tang Huan, who had just levelled up to become a High-ranked Sky Crafting Master. However, after they found out about the 30 mid-grade perfect Dao-seals, their thoughts quietly changed by quite a bit.

Perhaps, there really was such a possibility!

"You guys are right." The nine spirits gave a strange laugh. "In a while, you all will be able to obtain a high grade perfect Dao Artifact."

"Ancestral Master Nine Spirits? Are you for real? "

Hearing Jiu Ling's words, Hua Die, Zhang Jingling and the rest were all stunned. They looked at each other in dismay.

When Tang Huan had stepped into the Second Sky of Sky Realm, they had also felt it. At that time, the Sect Leader seemed to have given all his high grade Dao tools to Tang Huan.

If you counted from that time onwards, it had only been a short one and a half months.

In such a short period of time, Tang Huan had not only levelled up to become a high-grade heaven rank dao tool, she had also forged at least nine perfect high-grade dao tools? This didn't seem possible. If it were a few more years, there would be hope!

However, they did not completely suspect that Tang Huan had actually used a month to craft thirty perfect mid-grade Dao Artifacts.

Just as they were beginning to feel skeptical, Sect Master Xiao Zihan, Pang Xuan, Gu Jingbo, and the other elders also floated in with smiles on their faces. They had clearly received Nine Spirits' notification as well.

"Whether it's true or not, you'll know in a while."

After the nine spirits finished speaking, they giggled and closed their eyes. Not long ago, she had also stepped into the second level of the Heavenly Marquis Realm. Now, she needed to consolidate her strength a bit more.

Everyone had different expressions on their faces when they saw this.

Hua Die and the rest were all bewildered. Could it be that the Nine Spirits Grandmaster was for real? In that moment, they started to worry about the gains and losses. If Tang Huan really was able to create a large number of perfect high-grade Dao tools, it would be extremely good for them, and would be of great help to them in participating in the competition.

However, if Nine Spirits were teasing them, then it would be a waste of their happiness.

Although Xiao Zihan, Pang Xuan, and the others were also rather surprised, compared to Hua Die and Gu Jingbo, their moods were much more stable. Especially Xiao Zihan;

Since Tang Huan had the nine spirits call everyone over, then she was sure that they had already forged a perfect quality high grade Dao Artifact. Moreover, there were quite a few of them.

Time quickly passed. After a long while, the nine spirits suddenly opened their eyes. They opened their mouths slightly and a black vortex rapidly formed.

In the next moment, Tang Huan's figure flashed out from the depths of the whirlpool.

However, after a short while, terrifying auras started to appear one after another from within the palace hall. Soon after, cries of shock, ecstasy and disbelief started to resound from the mouths of Hua Die, Zhang Jingling and the rest.

Each of them was now holding a weapon, a knife or sword, a spear or whip.

The weapon released a variety of colorful and resplendent lights, illuminating the entire palace as if it were a dream. The shock and excitement on everyone's faces was also clearly shown. These weapons were all those that Tang Huan had just taken out.

It was one thing if that was the case, but these weapons were actually extremely compatible with their respective strengths. It was as if they were custom-made specifically for them.

Not only were the nine of them equipped with high-grade Dao artifacts, even Pang Xuan, Gu Jingbo, and the other elders were the same.

Thirteen times, Tang Huan actually did it. Moreover, the entire process only took half a month. One had to know that Tang Huan had only stepped into the second level of the Sky Marquis Stage a month and a half ago, and she had not even come into contact with the forging of high-grade Dao artifacts before.

But now, after just such a short amount of time, Tang Huan had not only successfully levelled up to a upper tier heaven's work, she had also successfully forged so many upper tier perfect Dao Artifacts. Since ancient times, no one had ever heard of a Tools Method Attainments that could be so shocking to such an extent.

At least, they had never heard of it.

If this news were to spread out, the entire 'Myriad Domain Immortal City' and the Sacred Dao City would be shaken.

Once the "Ten Thousand Domain Dao Art" was completed, the cultivators in the Immortal City would return to the various Heaven Realms. The name Tang Huan would spread throughout the entire thirty six days very quickly.

Of course, they had to keep this news a secret, at least before the Myriad Domain Dao Arts.

In the martial arena competition, this type of Dao weapon was an extremely powerful trump card. If he used it at the most dangerous moment, he might be able to turn the tide and win the battle.

I don't want to embarrass you!

After a long while, Hua Die and the rest left the rear hall with excitement.

Even though Pang Xuan, Gu Jingbo, and the other elders did not have to fight in the Myriad Domain Dao Arts, they were still pleasantly surprised. A perfect high-grade Dao Artifact would be able to greatly increase their strength. On the other hand, after experiencing the initial shock and joy, Xiao Zihan's mind very quickly recovered to calmness.

"Big brother, what about me? Did you do it?"

After watching Xiao Zihan's figure disappear into the distance, Nine Spirits looked eagerly at Tang Huan.

In that short moment, not only did Tang Huan send out thirteen High Rank Dao artifacts, she even gave three to Xiao Zihan for her to handle in one go. It won't be long before those three Perfect upper grade Dao Artifacts can be exchanged for even more precious upper grade dao stones and iron ores.

"Big brother would never forget you even if he forgot you."

Tang Huan laughed.

With a thought, a streak of black light appeared in Tang Huan's palm. It was a longblade that was shaped like a feather, with a body as dark as ink. The moment the long blade appeared, an extremely strong sense of deathly stillness spread out, as though the palace had turned into a dead zone in an instant.

"Quick, let me take a look."

The terrifying aura swept out in all directions, and at the same time, billions of extremely dense black light exploded outwards. In an instant, all the light in the surrounding area seemed to have been extinguished by the sucking, and the entire wide palace seemed to have suddenly turned from day to night, as though it was dark all around, and it was so dark that one couldn't even stretch one's hands to see the five fingers of one hand.

"Good saber!"

In the darkness, Nine Spirits' praise rang out.

The palace gradually regained her clarity. The nine spirits grinned, happily stroking the long blade in her hand, and after a long while, she finally kept the blade back into her own stomach, "Big brother, what are we going to do next?"

"The 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' is about to begin. I need to go to the residence of the Crimsonbright Realm's Flowing Flower Domain. I can't miss out on the registration time for the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace."

"Even if we miss the registration, it's still alright. We can just use the Nine Colored Immortal Sect's name to participate." Jiu Ling smiled in disapproval. "As long as Big Brother is able to make a name for yourself in the Myriad Domain Dao Arts, when you return to the Crimson Radiance Sect in the future, you will be able to achieve the same results."

"..."

"Brother Du, in another half a month, the Myriad Domain Dao Arts will officially begin."

In the Ten Thousand Realms Immortal City, at the place where Crimson Radiance Heavenly Flowing Flower Domain Realm cultivators resided, a voice suddenly sounded from the palace in the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion, "The various sects in the Crimson Radiance Sect are gathering together to discuss Tools Method properly. I wonder what Brother Du thinks about this?"

The one who spoke was a woman in black. Her body was slender and enchanting, and her face was young and beautiful. However, her long hair was already snow-white.

She was a ninth level marquis from the "Dragon-Flower Territory" of the Crimson Light Sky Kingdom. Her name was Jiang Bamei, and she was the leader of the "Supreme Sword Sect". On her body, there were two other people. One was an elder of the "Flowing Flower Domain" Spiritual True Immortal School, Xie Feichen. The other was an impressive elder of the "Flowing Flower Domain", the elder of the Qian Yuan Sky Sect, Xue Yu.

"Elder Jiang, in my opinion, there's no need for that, right?"

When Du Xinghe heard this, her eyelids slightly lifted as she said nonchalantly, "At this point, no matter how much we communicate, the improvement is still very limited. There is no need to waste anymore time." Once the Myriad Domain Dao Method begins, the victor or loser will be determined by their own fortune. "

Jiang Baumei said with a smile, "Brother Du, you are wrong. It is precisely because the Myriad Domain Dao Arts is about to begin that we have to learn more about each other, allowing everyone to adapt to the intense competition, so as to prevent the Myriad Domain Dao Arts from going out of control due to nervousness."

"Thank you for your kind intentions, Elder Jiang."

Du Xinghe remained unmoved and shook her head, "However, our Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion should not continue to join in on the fun. For us, the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace, it is enough to be able to participate in this competition for the Myriad Domain's Dao Arts. As for the outcome, it doesn't matter. "

Seeing that Du Xinghe had repeatedly refused, Jiang Baoyun frowned, his expression was a little ugly, and he said in a deep voice: "Brother Du, during this exchange, the Crimson Light Sky Sect had all joined in, and only your Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion is outside, are they looking down on our sects?"

"Elder Jiang, if you ..." Du Xinghe's eyes narrowed, and his expression darkened slightly.

"Elder Du, what need is there to be so discouraged?"

However, before Du Xinghe could finish her words, a voice cut in, "I heard that ten years ago, a heaven's work disciple called Tang Huan appeared in your sect. She was extremely talented and talented, and managed to craft dozens of perfect low-grade Dao artifacts in one go. "Something happened to him. Not only is it your sect's loss, it is also the loss of our entire Crimson Radiance Sect."

"However, there is no need for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace to give up just because they lost Tang Huan. They have to give up the once-a-century artifact competition. As far as I know, your sect's Lu Zhitao who is preparing to participate, is already not bad and his talent is not bad either. While the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' has not started, to interact more with the passage will definitely allow him to perform better in the next competition! "

When Du Xinghe heard this, her expression became even darker, and there was even a hint of anger hidden between her brows.

However, before Du Xinghe could react, a clear voice sounded from the hall's entrance, "Three elders, the Que Master has always refused to participate in the so-called event of communication. It's just that she didn't want to be too direct and embarrass you all. Since all of you are pestering me like this, then I can only speak up on behalf of Master Que, and make things clearer. Your so-called exchange event will only gather a bunch of useless people. Not only will it waste your time, it will not help you improve at all. Is there a need to participate in such a event? "

When those words were spoken, the entire hall fell into a deathly silence.

In the blink of an eye, Jiang Bamei and Xie Feichen turned to look at the entrance of the hall. In the blink of an eye, a black figure walked in, neither too fast nor too slow.

Beside him was a little girl. She wore a nine colored dress, and her facial features were exquisite to the extreme. She looked like a jade doll, and she was incomparably beautiful. Especially her pair of nine colored eyes, it was even more eye-catching.

However, at this moment, Jiang Baoyun and Xie Feichen did not have the slightest interest in that beautiful little girl. Their faces were already filled with gloom, and the anger in their eyes seemed to want to erupt out.

They were all grand ninth level heavenly kings, and yet they were being humiliated like this. Not only that, the ones who humiliated them were only second level heavenly duke!

Chapter 1676 You're still alive?

Compared to Jiang Baoyun and Xie Feichen, Du Xinghe and Xue Yu's expressions were extremely strange.

The instant he heard that voice, Du Xinghe's body trembled, and the instant his gaze touched that person's face, his body almost became a bit stiff. His two eyes became rounder and rounder, and even his breathing became a bit hurried.

His eyes bulged high, as if they were about to jump out from his eyes. His face was also filled with unconcealable shock, and after staring blankly for a moment, he pointed at the figure and cried out with a trembling voice, "You .... "You ..."

"Who are you? "How dare you!" Jiang Baoyun did not notice Du Xinghe and Xue Yu's strange behavior and shouted harshly.

"I am Tang Huan, a disciple of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace!" The young man cupped his hands together and smiled indifferently. He had already walked into the palace with the little girl in the colorful dress.

"Royal Dragon Sky Hall's disciple?"

Xie Feichen couldn't help but sneer and turn around to look at Du Xinghe. With a cold expression, he shouted while clenching his teeth, "Elder Du, is this how your Huang Long Heaven Manor discipline disciples? "He doesn't even need to bother being polite at all..." Before she could even finish her sentence, Xie Feichen's voice abruptly stopped. He had already noticed the strange expressions on Du Xinghe and Xue Yu's faces and was immediately somewhat astonished and baffled, "You ... You. "This is ..."

"You, you ... Tang Huan, you're still alive? "

However, Xue Yu did not pay attention to Xie Feichen. He stared fixedly at Tang Huan who was slowly walking over. That familiar face caused him to not dare believe his own eyes.

"Tang Huan, is it really you?" Du Xinghe regained her senses and, in an indescribable state, even her voice was trembling. However, she couldn't help but step forward, and her speed became faster and faster. In a split second, she had already appeared in front of Tang Huan like a tornado, and even her eyes were slightly red.

"Wait, what are you guys talking about? Tang Huan? that Tang Huan from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace ten years ago? "

Xie Feichen finally came to his senses, and looked at Du Xinghe and Xue Yu in disbelief. Then, his gaze landed on Tang Huan as he cried out involuntarily.

He naturally knew of the disciple called Tang Huan from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

Just a moment ago, he had even mentioned Tang Huan's name in front of Du Xinghe.

If he remembered correctly, that year, after the "Heavenly Arts Competition" at the "Flowing Flower Domain", Tang Huan had already met with an accident and was sent out by the "Nether Immortal Talisman".

With Tang Huan's weak cultivation back then, it was basically impossible for him to safely reach the Nether Realm, and she would definitely have turned into dust halfway through her journey. Furthermore, even if he was lucky enough to still be alive, it would be impossible for him to return to the next thirty-six days or at least impossible for him to return to the next thirty-six days in a short ten years.

But if it wasn't for that Tang Huan, could it be that there was a second Tang Huan in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace?

That was also impossible! Listening to Xue Yu and Du Xinghe's intentions, the person in front of them, was obviously the Tang Huan from back then! This ... What was going on?

Jiang Baoyun also seemed to understand what was going on, and the depths of his eyes were filled with shock.

Due to the large number of perfect Dao artifacts, the name of Tang Huan back then was spread far and wide in the Crimson Light Sky. Even she, who was far away at the "Dragon Flower Domain", had heard of it.

After that, the matter of Tang Huan being forcefully sent away using the "Netherworld Immortal Talisman" caused an uproar.

Because of that incident, the Emperor Azure Dragon's Heavenly Mansion and the three major sects of the Flowing Flower Domain, such as the Qianyun Heaven Sect and the Limitless Temple, were almost like fire and water. The reason for this was very simple. Nie Cangsheng and many other experts of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion determined that the Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and the Limitless Temple were the masterminds behind that incident.

But now, not only was the Tang Huan who had been tricked not dead, she had even appeared in the Profound Sky "Ten Thousand Realm Immortal City".

Seeing Du Xinghe's expression, it was clear that she did not know Tang Huan was still alive.

"Disciple Tang Huan greets Que Master."

Tang Huan smiled slightly, bowed deeply to Du Xinghe, then looked at Xue Yu in the blink of an eye, his lips curled up into a ridiculing smile: "I am indeed still alive, Elder Xue, how have you been?!"

Tang Huan didn't hold any resentment towards Du Xinghe, Nie Cangsheng and the others. After all, even Palace Chief Nie Cangsheng had personally come out to protect him and brought him back to the sect. What's more, if it wasn't for that incident, he didn't know how long it would take to see the nine spirits.

However, Tang Huan didn't have any good expression towards Xue Yu.

There was no way that the Heaven's Expanse School and the Limitless Temple could not be blamed for what had happened that year, and with Xue Yu's position, he definitely knew about it long before the Heaven's Craftsmanship Competition.

Moreover, he was probably the target of the "Heavenly Arts Competition".

After all, his existence had already become a serious threat to the Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and the Limitless Temple. With his Tools Method Attainments, he could completely suppress the heavenly work of the two sects in the Myriad Domain Dao Arts workshop for the next thousand years. If he helped the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace cultivate the disciples of Tian Gong, he might be able to suppress the two great sects for a longer period of time, making them completely unfated to the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain".

"Good!" "Alright!"

Du Xinghe tightly held onto Tang Huan's hands. She could not help but cry, "It's good that you're alive, it's good that you're alive." All these years, he had always been incomparably regretful from the unforeseen event back then. Now that she saw Tang Huan still alive, the excitement and ecstasy in his heart could not be described with words.

"Tang Huan? So what if you have Tang Huan? "

With a slightly sharp shout, Jiang Baumei looked at Tang Huan with an ice-cold gaze. "No matter how strong your Tools Method is, you are just a mere disciple of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace. How dare you humiliate countless sects in the Crimson Radiance Sect like that? "If you don't give me an explanation for this matter, I don't think you can get away with it."

"Hey, hey, old woman, stay by the side first. Don't disturb my big brother."

A clear and melodious voice suddenly rang out. The young girl in the colorful dress was naturally Jiu Ling. She was currently casting a sidelong glance at Jiang Baoyun with a disdainful expression on her face.

"You, you ..."

Jiang Bamei was so angry that her entire body was trembling, and an exceptionally terrifying aura burst out from her body. In an instant, her clothes flapped, and her snow-white hair crazily danced at the back of her head, as if wisps of sword intent were gushing out from her body.

"Du Xinghe, if you can't discipline your own sect's disciples, don't blame me for helping you!" It was obvious that Jiang Baoyun had also taken Nine Spirits as disciples of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion.

"Elder Jiang?"

Du Xinghe had yet to speak when Tang Huan opened her mouth and laughed, "This one did not humiliate the Tian Gong from your sects that are about to participate in the artifact competition, and was only speaking the truth. Even though I am only a second grade Heaven Marquis, I am already a high-grade heaven's work. Compared to me, how are they any different? "

Chapter 1677 - High-grade Heavenly Crafts

"High-grade Heaven Crafting?"

Hearing Tang Huan's words, not only were Jiang Baumei and Xue Yu extremely shocked, even Du Xinghe was shocked.

Many of the middle-ranked divine tools were only barely able to be upgraded to high-ranked divine tools when they reached the eighth or ninth level of the Sky Origin Stage. Some were even only able to reach the high-ranked divine tools when they stepped into the Sky King Stage. It couldn't be said that there was no one who had advanced to the upper tier at the second rank of the Heavenly Marquis. However, it was definitely pitifully few in number.

"Kid, are you serious?" Instantly, Du Xinghe regained his senses and exclaimed in surprise.

"Of course."

Tang Huan smiled and nodded.

"That's good, that's good. Kid, with you here, this old man doesn't have to worry about the artifact competition of the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' at all."

Du Xinghe was all smiles.

With regards to Tang Huan's current cultivation of the second level of the Sky Marquis, Du Xinghe was not surprised at all. One must know that back then in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, the cultivation speed Tang Huan displayed was extremely frightening. If Tang Huan had stayed in the sect and focused on cultivation during these past ten years, her cultivation would definitely have far surpassed her current level.

With Tang Huan's talent, coupled with the resources of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, it was not impossible for him to surpass the ninth level of the Sky Sovereign Realm and become the youngest Heavenly King of the Scarlet Radiance Sky.

Unfortunately, Tang Huan was forcefully teleported to the Nether Realm.

Even though he had already returned, Du Xinghe was still a little worried that Tang Huan's increase in Tools Method would fall behind his breakthrough. But now that Tang Huan had personally confirmed it, he was completely relieved.

Tang Huan might not have been promoted for a long time, but judging from his performance ten years ago, her Tools Method Attainments should not be lower than the high-ranked heavenly resources that had a breakthrough for many years. With Tang Huan's current condition, there was little chance for him to enter the top 100 of the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", but it was definitely not a problem to surpass the Heaven Arts from Qian Yuan Heaven Sect and Limitless Temple. As far as he knew, the two sects' participants were only middle-ranked Heaven Arts.

Xue Yu had obviously thought of this as well, and his expression became abnormally unsightly in the blink of an eye.

Previously, there was only Lu Zhitao participating in the competition in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, so he didn't take it seriously. This was because the three people of the Qian Yuan Sky Sect were all stronger than him. However, if Tang Huan represented the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace in battle, even if Tang Huan was only a mid-grade heaven's work, Zhang Yi Ren and the others would not have any chance of winning.

Moreover, this Tang Huan was already a top grade heaven's work!

He had originally thought that he had succeeded when he used a technique to remove the huge hidden danger that was Tang Huan. He had not expected that at the critical moment when the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts" was about to begin, he would discover that his efforts had failed and Tang Huan had actually managed to appear alive. As long as he was still alive, representing the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace in the tournament was almost a foregone conclusion.

"High-grade Heaven's Arts can be so arrogant?" "Tang Huan, just by taking part in the Myriad Domain Dao Arts this time, there are more than twenty people from the upper tier heaven's work. Adding in the entire thirty-six days, there would be even more people, and with just a high-tier heaven's work that just recently advanced, you dare to be so arrogant? Aren't you afraid of having your teeth broken?"

"I don't know about the standards of the other Heaven Realm participants."

Tang Huan smiled slowly. "However, before the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts', I still need to hastily organize the so-called exchange festivals to adapt to the atmosphere of the equipment arena competition. In my opinion, this is no different from a chicken or dog.

"Tang Huan, you ..."

Jiang Baoyun was so angry that his lungs almost burst. He looked at Du Xinghe angrily, "Du Xinghe, look at your disciple from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion. Who else do you have to say?"

"This old man feels that what Tang Huan has said is not without reason." Du Xinghe stroked his beard and smiled, then said slowly, "Besides that, this old man is proud of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace having a disciple like Tang Huan. Thus, if you help this old man discipline a disciple, then Elder Jiang needn't say anymore. "If Elder Jiang is determined to try, this old man does not mind communicating with you before the event called by Elder Jiang for participating in the skylink exchange."

"These words are what this old man wanted to say to Elder Xie."

After a slight pause, Du Xinghe turned to Xie Feichen with a smile on her face, but her expression was one of determination. As for Xue Yu of the Heaven's Expanse Sect, he had never paid any attention to him. However, if the other three were to really make a move against Tang Huan, Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace would definitely accompany them to the end.

Hearing Du Xinghe's statement, Xue Yu was fine, but Jiang Baumei and Xie Feichen's faces were ashen.

"Good!" Good! "Alright!"

He did not make a move on this place, and coldly swept his eyes across Tang Huan, "Tang Huan, you have really broadened my horizons today, I hope that you can still be this arrogant above the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts'."

"Elder Jiang, you're wrong. This is not arrogance, but confidence." Tang Huan said smilingly, "I don't dare say whether or not I can beat the other Heaven Arts participants from the other Heaven Realms. However, there is no problem if my ranking surpasses the Crimson Wing's, especially those who are participating in your sect."

Hearing this, not only did Jiang Baoyun and Xie Feichen's expressions change, even Xue Yu's expression became increasingly unsightly.

"Confidence? I hope you can continue being so confident! Elder Xie, Elder Xue, let's go! " Jiang Baoyun said these words through gritted teeth, before he left without hesitation. She was afraid that if she stayed any longer, she would really be unable to control the raging anger in her chest.

"Humph!"

Xie Feichen let out a cold snort and left the palace. However, the instant he left, his gaze towards Tang Huan became as cold as a poisonous snake.

Xue Yu followed the two, but his expression was much more complicated.

Du Xinghe did not take the departure of Jiang Baimei, Xie Feichen, and Xue Yu seriously at all. When she looked at Tang Huan, her eyes still contained traces of unconcealable excitement and joy.

After a long while, Du Xinghe sighed emotionally and said, "Little rascal, I'm really sorry for what happened that year. Luckily you were still alive and went back for 36 days. Otherwise, I would never have been able to rest in peace." As he finished speaking, his tone was filled with apology.

Tang Huan laughed and said, "The matter that happened that year, can't be blamed on the sect and its owner. There's no need to bring up the matters of the past anymore. "

"Alright, let's not talk about it. Let's not talk about it anymore."

When Du Xinghe heard this, his heart was filled with even more emotions.

After a while, he calmed his mind and suddenly thought of the beautiful little girl beside Tang Huan. He could not help but ask, "Oh right, Tang Huan, this young lady is ..."

"Her name is Nine Spirits. She's the little sister I met in the Nether Realm." Tang Huan smiled and rubbed Jiu Ling's head.

Chapter 1678 - Tang Huan is back!

"What, Don. Tang Huan is back? "

At the edge of the plaza in the center of the Ten Thousand Domain Immortal City, Lu ZhiTao opened his eyes wide, looking at the fellow sect member who came to report, he could not believe his ears.

"That's right!"

The yellow-clothed man that reported the news nodded his head heavily. His eyes also revealed a look of disbelief. When he received the news, he was also incomparably shocked.

"Impossible!" This is impossible! "

Lu Zhitao continuously shook his head, his face slightly twitched, "Wasn't he forcefully sent away by the 'Nether Immortal Talisman' back then? With his cultivation at that time, he must have been scared out of his mind before he even reached the Nether Realm. How could he return for the next thirty-six days? "

At the end, Lu Zhitao's expression had become quite ferocious, staring at the yellow-clothed man in front of him like a demon.

In fact, he had already made arrangements for Tang Huan's attack. Unfortunately, once the tournament ended, Tang Huan was sent off by Palace Chief Nie Cangsheng and she did not even have the chance to attack. She could only give up. When he heard about the unforeseen event that had befallen Tang Huan, he was overjoyed for a long time.

With Tang Huan gone, there was no doubt that the next Asgard Mistress of Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace would be him.

But now, not only was Tang Huan not dead, she had even come to the "Myriad Domain Immortal City" ... This news was like a huge hammer pounding on his head, making it hard for him to accept this fact.

Tang Huan was still here. With his Tools Method Inherent skill, she would definitely not be able to get Lu Zhitao involved in the next round.

Moreover, after almost ten years had passed, Tang Huan had definitely levelled up to become a medium-grade heavenly work, and Du Xinghe would definitely let him participate in the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts".

As long as he had Tang Huan, no matter how good his performance was, he wouldn't have a chance to shine in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

"Senior Brother Lu, this is absolutely true." Looking at Lu ZhiTao's expression, the yellow robed man vaguely guessed what he was thinking at the moment. A trace of sympathy quickly flashed across his eyes, and then he resolutely said, "Clan Master Que is currently calling everyone back to meet Tang Huan."

"Tang Huan... Tang Huan... "Why did he come back just like that ..."

"..."

... ..

"Could it really be him?"

In the Myriad Domain Immortal City, at the residence of the Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect, Xue Yu had a wooden expression as he sat cross-legged. He muttered to himself as a weapon flashed through his mind.

The perfect mid-grade Dao Artifact that Xie Feichen had bought at the xuanji auction had been borrowed by Zhang Yiren and company for a short period of time. In his opinion, the perfect mid-grade dao tool and the perfect low-grade dao tool that he had once obtained came from the same heaven's work.

He originally thought that the two perfect Dao Artifacts wouldn't have any relationship with Tang Huan.

But after he saw Tang Huan, he realized that his previous judgement might very well be wrong. When he obtained the low-grade perfect Dao Artifact in Youyun City, Tang Huan had been in Youyun City, and when she saw the mid-grade perfect Dao Artifact in the Myriad Domain Immortal City, how could there be such a coincidence in this world?

Most importantly, from his observations, when he saw those two perfect Dao-seals, they should have both been forged not too long ago.

If it wasn't a coincidence, there was only one possibility, and that was that they were all forged by Tang Huan! Moreover, taking out thirty perfect mid-grade Dao Artifacts in one go was extremely similar to Tang Huan's style of doing things. Back then, when he was at the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, he had created dozens of perfect, low-grade Dao-artifacts!

When it came to low-grade Heavenly Arts, a low-grade Dao item could be forged. When it was middle grade, it could be forged to be the most perfect mid-grade Dao item in the world!

Tang Huan's Tools Method talent and attainments could be easily imagined.

The only thing that was worth celebrating was that Tang Huan should have only just levelled up to become a Superior Grade Dao Artifact. Her method to forge a Superior Grade Dao Artifact should not have reached the pinnacle of her ability yet.

Otherwise, the following competition for the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts" would probably become Tang Huan's stage!

In an instant, Xue Yu's heart was filled with bitterness.

He did not particularly care about what Tang Huan had said to him before, as well as what Jiang Baumei and Xie Feichen had said to him. For the others, being able to forge one or two perfect Dao Artifacts was already something to be proud of, but Tang Huan had probably forged hundreds of perfect Dao Artifacts. Especially since he was young enough, there was still an unlimited future for him.

Previously, he had had great hopes of accepting Tang Huan into the Heaven Sect, but unfortunately, he missed that chance.

After that, Tang Huan's performance made the Heaven's Expanse Sect feel a huge threat, so they planned to eliminate this hidden danger before it could erupt. But unfortunately, the scheme from that year had completely failed. In the future, the threat that the Heaven's Expanse School would face would only get more and more terrifying.

"Elder..."

A hurried voice suddenly sounded.

Xue Yu suddenly recovered and raised his head to look. He saw Zhang Yi Ren, Sun Yingwu, and Tao Yanghui rushing in from outside the hall with faces full of surprise and suspicion.

"No need to ask, the news is real!"

Xue Yu naturally knew the purpose of their arrival, and he sighed lightly with a bitter smile.

Just as Xue Yu had guessed, they were indeed here to seek confirmation of the news regarding Tang Huan. They didn't dare believe it when they heard the news that Tang Huan was still alive, but now that Xue Yu had personally confirmed it, the little bit of luck they had in the bottom of their hearts had been completely destroyed.

"He's a high-grade heaven's work now!" His voice slightly paused, then Xue Yu added.

"What?"

Zhang Yi Ren, Sun Ying Wu and Tao Yang Hui cried out in shock, their faces instantly turned as pale as paper.

The three of them were only middle-ranked Heavenly Crafts, but Tang Huan was already an upper ranked Heavenly Crafts. The difference between them was like the difference between heaven and earth. With the difference of an entire grade, they had no chance of winning the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts". Tang Huan's final ranking would definitely far surpass theirs.

They had come ambitious from the Crimson Light, but before the competition had even begun, they had been dealt such a painful blow.

"Go."

Xue Yu waved his hand and a deep helplessness could be seen in his eyes. "If nothing unexpected happens, then our Qian Yuan Sky Sect has no hope for this Artifact Storage Competition."

Zhang Yi Ren, Sun Ying Wu, and Tao Yang Hui did not say anything else, they were all scared out of their wits and left.

Within the palace, Xue Yu let out another long sigh, and a frightening killing intent flashed past his eyes. Tang Huan was currently only a second grade Sky Marquis, if she were to kill him ...

However, the moment this thought appeared, it was as if a bucket of cold water had been poured over Xue Yu.

With the blood lesson from that year, Du Xinghe and the others in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace would definitely strengthen their protection of Tang Huan. The Myriad Domain Dao Arts was about to begin. She was afraid that she would not have the opportunity to make a move. Moreover, the perfect mid-grade Dao artifacts forged by Tang Huan came from the Nine Colored Immortal School of Zi Yun.

What was his relationship with the Nine Colored Immortal Sect? It was said that there was a Heavenly King Stage expert overseeing this "Ten Thousand Realms Immortal City"!

After thinking it over, Xue Yu still shook his head dejectedly in the end ....

Chapter 1679 - Innocence

"Everyone, not only is Tang Huan safe and sound, she has also been promoted to high-grade heaven's work. Next up, he will also represent our 'Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace' to participate in the Artifact Battlefield Competition of the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts'."

Compared to Xue Yu's bitterness and dejection, Du Xinghe's face was flushed red.

On the other side of Du Xinghe, other than Xiao Niandie, who had yet to return, nearly twenty elders and cultivators of Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion like He Qingzhu had gathered within this spacious palace. At this time, almost all of the gazes were gathered on Tang Huan and the nine spirits by Du Xinghe's side.

With regards to Tang Huan's appearance, after everyone had recovered from their initial shock, all that remained in their hearts was ecstasy.

Before this, in such a large sect like the "Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion", only Du Xinghe was a high-grade Heavencraft. Moreover, she had only advanced two years ago. It was said that Tang Huan was truly fortunate that he was able to become an upper-ranked Heaven-grade equipment. It was because of the perfect tools that Tang Huan had forged that he had gained some insights and improved the Tools Method Attainments by a lot.

Now, Tang Huan, who had originally thought she was dead, had returned to the sect, which meant that there were already two upper-level Sky Crafts in the Emperor Dragon Palace.

Especially Tang Huan, who was not even a hundred years old. If placed in the Heaven Realm, she could be considered excessively young. His potential in Tools Method would probably be many times greater than Du Xinghe who was already thousands of years old.

Not only was the speed at which Tang Huan forged Dao artifacts unimaginably fast, the quality of the Dao artifacts she forged was also ridiculously good. If she could forge Dao artifacts in the future, that would be great, and within the sect, having this kind of high quality heaven's work was a heavenly blessing for all Heavenly Palace disciples.

Of course, not everyone thought so.

Seeing Tang Huan's smiling face, Lu Zhitao forced out a smile, but in his heart, he felt as if there was a poisonous snake biting him.

Tang Huan was not present. He was the most powerful middle grade heavenly work amongst the young cultivators of the Heavenly Palace, and was already seen as the only successor to the next position of "Heavenly Imperial Equipment Spirit Fault". When Tang Huan returned, he became a complete foil to him. It would not be long before the Heavenly Palace cultivators only know that Tang Huan is here, and not Lu Zhitao.

Tang Huan detected Lu Zhitao's strangeness, she only glanced at him indifferently, and did not take him to heart.

Ten years ago, Tang Huan's cultivation was not as good as Lu Zhitao's, but her Tools Method Attainments was much stronger. Now, not only was Tang Huan's Tools Method Attainments far superior to his, his cultivation was also far superior to his. The two of them were not on the same level anymore, and in the future, the gap between Tang Huan and Lu Zhitao would only grow larger and larger.

"With Tang Huan here, our Emperor Dragon Sky Manor will definitely surpass the Qian Yuan Sky Sect and Limitless Temple to be number one in the 'Flowing Flower Domain' in this competition." He Qingzhu said with a beaming smile.

"Flowing Flower Domain's number one?"

Du Xinghe laughed heartily upon hearing this, "Elder He, you are underestimating Tang Huan too much. From my point of view, with Tang Huan's strength, it wouldn't be a problem for him to take the title of number one in Crimson Radiance Sect." In front of everyone, he and Tang Huan had chatted for a long time, completely confident in Tang Huan's Tools Method Attainments. In his opinion, Tang Huan definitely had enough strength to beat all the other members of the Heavenly Arts competition.

"Hiss, the number one in the Crimson Wyrms Kingdom? Is Owner Que saying things that are too exaggerated? "

"Junior Brother Tang Huan's Tools Method Attainments is already this strong?"

"If that's the case, then our Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion will be greatly proud and proud this time!"

"..."

Everyone was discussing with each other and were extremely surprised. They never thought that their Clan Master, Du Xinghe, would actually have such a high estimation of Tang Huan's Tools Method.

After Tang Huan heard this, she did not refute his.

This reminded everyone of the rumors they heard about Tang Huan on the way back. They were also in this palace, and not long ago, Tang Huan had angered Jiang Bai Mei and the rest, they had thought that Tang Huan had acted too arrogantly, and now it seemed that Tang Huan was really as confident.

With just a thought, they, the group of Heavenly Palace's cultivators, all felt extremely excited.

However, the feelings of the other Crimson Radiance Sect cultivators were not so wonderful. Especially those that were going to participate in the competition, the Crimson Radiance Sect, they were filled with rage.

The Scarlet Radiance Realm had a few hundred people participating in the competition. There were two thousand people participating in the competition and among them, there were more than twenty of the Superior Grade Heaven Crafts.

"Motherf * cker, that Tang Huan is really going too far, she actually dares to look down on us!"

"Ten years ago, Tang Huan had only joined the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace for a short period of time, and she had already forged dozens of perfect low-grade Dao Artifacts. Now, ten years have passed, and her Tools Method Attainments might have grown by quite a bit."

"So what if Tang Huan has forged a large amount of Perfect lower graded Dao Artifacts? That was ten years ago. It was said that his cultivation was only at the second level of the Sky Sovereign Realm, which meant that she had only recently advanced to the upper tier. This old man does not believe that his Tools Method Attainments can surpass those high ranked Heavenly Marquis that have long been made from heaven! "

"..."

In the Scarlet Radiance Sect's residential area, all sorts of curses and scoldings could be heard from time to time.

Some of the more hot-tempered people began to gather towards the palace that was the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

However, when they arrived at their destination, they discovered that there was a dark blue long spear erected at the entrance of the palace. The inside of the spear also seemed to be turbulent with jade waves. A terrifying aura seeped out of the spear and spread out in all directions.

The vast majority of those who came here were people from heaven. The moment they saw the spear, many people immediately determined that it was a high-grade dao tool. Furthermore, it was a top-grade one at that.

What did it mean for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion to place such a treasure outside the hall?

Just as everyone was in a state of shock and bewilderment, a cultivator from the Royal Dragon Sky Mansion walked out. He said that the high grade Dao item was forged by Tang Huan, and if anyone could forge a better Dao item, they could bring the Dao item to look for him at the residence of the Nine Colored Immortal Sect in the Purple Cloud Sky "Nebula Realm".

When everyone heard this, they were extremely shocked.

Wasn't it said that Tang Huan had just levelled up to upper tier heaven's work? She was actually able to produce upper tier Dao Artifacts right now?

A few of the middle-grade heavenly work who came running over to denounce him immediately left dejectedly.

In the end, they could only leave hatefully. Although they were also high-grade, but they could at most forge high-grade spirit artifacts of medium quality, and were completely incomparable to Tang Huan's high-grade spirit artifacts of high-grade quality. If they were to continue fighting, they would only be bringing about their own disgrace.

It was not like no one suspected that the high grade Dao Artifact was created by someone else and was used by Tang Huan to scare the crowd.

However, this doubt was not too good to overlook. After all, borrowing other people's Daos would only fool them for a short period of time. Once they entered the auction, they would immediately reveal their true colors. Tang Huan was not stupid and probably would not play such a small trick.

In comparison to the shock that the high grade Dao Artifact gave to everyone, the other information that Tang Huan had left behind was something that not many people paid attention to. Tang Huan was a disciple of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, why did she not come here to find him, but to the Nine Colored Immortal School in the Violet Cloud Heavenly Nebula Region?

Naturally, not many people knew the answer to this question, and very quickly, no one paid any attention to the commotion caused by Tang Huan.

An even more shocking piece of news, like a thunderclap, suddenly exploded within the "Ten Thousand Realm Immortal City" without any forewarning, instantly setting off a huge uproar and attracting almost all the cultivators' attention.

Chapter 1680 - Special Auction!

It had been less than a month since the last auction. The Xuanji Pill Pavilion would hold another special small-scale auction, and this time, only two high-grade Dao artifacts would be auctioned.

It wasn't surprising that it was a high-grade Dao weapon.

Within the Ten Thousand Realms Immortal City, there were many marquises from the lower thirty-six days. There were countless of them that had high-grade Dao tools, and many of them were of superior quality.

However, the two high-grade Dao artifacts that were auctioned off by the Xuanji Pill Pavilion were of the perfect quality.

There were low quality, medium quality, high quality and perfect quality Dao artifacts. The first three levels were like three to five, five to ten, but between the superior quality and the perfect quality, there was a difference of ten to fifty, or even a hundred. This gap was undoubtedly huge.

It was also because of this that countless cultivators would flock to the perfect quality of a Dao item the moment it appeared.

It could be said that any cultivator of the Heaven Realm would dream of obtaining a perfect Dao Artifact, but unfortunately, perfect Dao Artifacts were extremely rare, and very few cultivators could actually obtain such a Dao Artifact.

Generally speaking, the possibility of buying a perfect Dao Artifact in the market was extremely slim. This was also the reason that the Sacred Dao City had auctioned a total of 30 perfect mid-grade Dao Artifacts in three auctions.

From ancient times until now, such a thing had rarely happened in the entire thirty-six days. And now, the Xuanji Pill Pavilion was auctioning two high grade perfect Dao-tools. The crowd of cultivators were all shocked and their hearts were itching for action, especially those wealthy sect cultivators like Xuan Du Tian; they were wild with joy.

Participating in this auction, Xuan Du Tian and the other cultivators from the other large sects held the absolute advantage, as they could obtain financial support from the sect anytime, and cultivators from the other thirty-five days would not be able to bring too many Heavenly Jewels and treasures with them.

After all, no one had expected that a high-grade, perfect Dao Artifact would be auctioned off in the city.

In addition to the previous three auctions of the Perfect High Grade Dao Artifacts, many of the sects had already used up most of their Heavenly Jewels, so this auction of the Perfect High Grade Dao Artifacts was likely to have insufficient strength, and could only watch helplessly, not to mention the news that came from the xuanji Pill Pavilion, not accepting any Heavenly Jewels for this auction, and only accepting high-grade Dao stones and precious iron crystals.

As a result, after many cultivators had recovered from their shock, they sighed endlessly with grief.

Even so, the news of the xuanji Pill Pavilion had caused countless cultivators in the Ten Thousand Realms Immortal City and Saint Dao City to go crazy. The commotion caused by Tang Huan in the Scarlet Radiance Sect's Residence District quickly became a topic of discussion. The topic of discussion for the cultivators had turned into the two perfect high-grade Dao artifacts.

For many cultivators, even if they were unable to obtain the high-grade perfect Dao Artifact, it was still a very good experience to personally feel its aura at close range.

On the afternoon of the second day after the news had spread, more and more cultivators began to gather outside of the Xun Ji Pill Pavilion.

By evening, there was a sea of people outside the xuanji Pill Pavilion. With so many people, it was impossible for them all to enter the auction house. Thus, the Xuanji Pill Pavilion had long since set down the rules. This auction was open to only seventh grade and above Marquis Tian.

However, there were already quite a few high rank marquis in the remaining thirty-five days, and even more high rank marquis in "XuanDu Tian" who'd gathered in the Sacred Dao City. Although the rules of the Xuanji Pill Pavilion prevented most of the cultivators from entering, when the auction house was opened, it was still overcrowded.

"I really did not expect that the two perfect upper grade Dao artifacts would attract so many Heaven Marquis experts."

On the second floor of the auction house, Tang Huan looked down from above at the bustling venue on the first floor. She could not help but sigh, and her eyes revealed a look of anticipation.

The perfect upper grade Dao artifacts that were auctioned off by the Phecda Pavilion were naturally the two items that he had given to Xiao Zihan.

Tang Huan had originally wanted to let Xiao Zihan deal with them in this way, as long as she could get top grade dao stones and precious iron crystals in exchange. Xiao Zihan's handling of the matter was rather surprising to Tang Huan. She was not like what Tang Huan previously thought, she directly sold the Dao Artifact to the xuanji Pill House, and instead asked for the "xuanji Pill House" to help with the auction. The participating cultivators in the auction would then directly bid for the Dao Stones and iron crystals.

Before the auction, all the cultivators who wanted to participate would have to hand over 30 million Heaven beads as a deposit, and return it after the auction ended.

During the bidding process, the xuanji Pill Pavilion would evaluate the dao stone and iron crystal, and after the auction was successful, the time of the transaction could be delayed by two days, in order to gather the dao stone and iron crystal. Of course, if he was still unable to take out enough Dao Stones and Iron Crystals at that time, the trade would be cancelled.

In such a situation, it was naturally impossible to return a deposit of sixty million Heaven Jewels.

After the transaction was completed, the dao stones and iron crystals would all belong to Xiao Zihan. As for Xiao Zihan, she only needed to pay 20 million to the xuanji pill pavilion.

Tang Huan was quite satisfied with the treatment method Xiao Zihan and the xuanji Pill House had discussed.

Before the auction house opened, he, Xiao Zihan, Jiu Ling, Pang Xuan, Hua Die, and many other Nine Colored Immortal Sect cultivators all came to this room on the second floor of the auction house.

The auction house of the xuanji Pill Pavilion was constructed in a special way. From here, one could clearly see the situation of the first floor through the second floor.

"Ancestral Master Tang Huan, you don't know how enticing the perfect upper grade Dao Artifact that you forged is."

Hearing Tang Huan's laments, Xiao Zihan unconsciously smiled. "A perfect high grade dao tool, its power is comparable to a low grade heaven grade dao tool, but it is much more stable and durable. "If I didn't already have my Heaven grade Dao Artifact, I'm afraid I wouldn't have been able to help myself and participate in this auction."

"The grand master is right."

Nine Spirit's smiled and said, "Big Brother's Tools Method Attainments is something you can completely not say. As for the other heaven's work, even if they were able to forge a Perfect upper grade Dao Artifact, its quality wouldn't be able to compare to Big Brother's forged upper grade perfect Dao Artifact. This kind of Dao item, would definitely be something that all cultivators would fight for. "

Pang Xuan, Gu Jingbo, Hua Die, and Zhang Jingling subconsciously nodded when they heard this.

At this moment, the dozen of them were filled with emotions.

The experts on the first floor squeezed their way down to try and obtain a perfect high quality Dao Artifact forged by Tang Huan. The thirteen of them each had a perfect high quality Dao Artifact, and there was only one reason why they could easily obtain such a treasure, which was because they were all from the Nine Colored Immortal Sect and Tang Huan was their ancestor. Thinking to this point, when they looked at Tang Huan, the reverence in their eyes became even stronger.

The Nine-Colored Immortal Sect was indeed incredibly fortunate to have a Patriarch like this!
