Chapter 1711 - Mountain Sea Sect

"Tang ..." Tang Huan? "

When the news regarding Tang Huan spread, everyone in and outside the imperial palace was stunned for a while, then burst into cheers. Almost at the same time, within the resplendent and majestic palace of the Qianyuan Sky Sect, a green-robed elderly man with a thin face was stunned like a wooden chicken, completely dumbfounded.

This old man was the head of the Heaven Sect.

Ten years ago, the combined forces of the Qian Yuan Heaven Sect and the Limitless Temple had ruthlessly deceived the Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion, and had killed the most talented disciple in the sect, the Weapon Refiner. She had thought that with Tang Huan's death, the Qian Yuan Sky Sect would have one less threat.

But now, news had actually come. Not only was Tang Huan still alive, she had even obtained the first rank on the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts" Ranking on behalf of the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace.

Moreover, this glory also meant that there would be many spots to enter the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain".

"Where did this news come from?" It was only after a long time that Ren Gang finally woke up from his stupor. His eyes were glued on the middle-aged man who had come to report to him.

"Shay... Elder Xue Yu. " The middle-aged man quivered as he stuttered.

"Xue Yu?"

Ren Gang took a deep breath as his face darkened. Xue Yu was the captain elder of the Heaven Sect's cultivators this time. Since the news came from him, it must be accurate. He did not expect that with Tang Huan's weak cultivation back then, she was still able to obtain the "Netherworld Immortal Talisman" after it was sent away.

Alive.

Judging from Tang Huan's performance in this "Ten Thousand Domain Dao Art", he had already become a huge threat to the Qian Yuan Heaven Sect.

As long as Tang Huan was still alive, in the future, in the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", the Qian Yuan Sky Sect would not have a chance to shine, and in the Crimson Radiance Sect, it would be the same. Furthermore, the Qian Yuan Sky Sect and the Limitless Temple would probably face Tang Huan's revenge, so how could Tang Huan let what happened ten years ago go?

"We must not let him return alive!"

After an instant, Ren Gang forcefully suppressed the shock in his heart, gritted his teeth and growled. He instantly stared at the middle-aged man and said, "Go, gather the elders of the sect!"

"Zong ... Sect Master... "

However, the middle-aged man did not immediately take action. Instead, he mumbled out, "Amongst the group of people from the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace, there is a Heavenly King overseeing. It seems to be a middle level Heavenly King."

"What?"

Ren Gang simply could not believe his ears.

In the next moment, the figure appeared in front of the middle-aged man and grabbed his lapel. "Why would there be a Heavenly King in the Emperor Dragon Celestial Palace?" Ren Gang's expression was twisted, and saliva was spat on the face of the middle-aged man. However, there was an unconcealable fear in the depths of his eyes.

If there was really a Heavenly King within the group of people from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, who could kill Tang Huan?

"That Heavenly King seems to have come from Zi Yun Tian. It is said that he is the head of a sect called the Nine-Colored Immortal Sect." The middle-aged man swallowed hard.

"Zi Yun Tian ... "The Rainbow Immortal Sect"

... ..

"Elder Fu, don't make such a joke!"

In Limitless Temple, a white robed middle-aged man took a deep breath, a smile on his face that was even uglier than crying.

This white robed middle-aged man was the hall master of Everlasting Temple, Feng Yushu.

It was already unbelievable that Tang Huan had managed to return to the Scarlet Radiance Sky and obtained the top position on the Artifact Board from the Xuan Du Sky. Now she even said that Tang Huan's group was guarded by a Heavenly King Stage expert, wasn't this a joke? How many years had it been since the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion had given birth to a Celestial King?

Of course, it wasn't only the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion that was like this. No one from the Limitless Temple or the Heaven Sect had advanced to become a Heavenly King in a long time.

"Hall Master, it is absolutely true! This is what Tao YangHui, Elder Tao, said! " On the opposite side of Feng Yushu was a middle-aged man, who had a bitter smile on his long horse's face.

"Heh ..." Hehe, Heavenly King? I would never believe such absurd news! I will personally contact Elder Tao Yanghui later! "

"Forget it, forget it. With the Heavenly King's company, no matter how many people we send to intercept and kill, it wouldn't harm a single hair on Tang Huan's head." In the depths of the Supreme Sword Sect, a faint sigh could be heard.

"..."

"With Tang Huan there, no one would be able to stop the rise of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace. Perhaps in a few hundred or a thousand years, the imperial palace will become the number one sect of Crimson Radiance Sect, and its power will most likely surpass even the years in which Ji Qingtian was in command of the imperial palace. " A short and stout old man smiled bitterly in the Spirit True Immortal School.

" ... "

Heaven's Heaven's Sect, Everlasting Temple, Supreme Sword Sect, Spiritual True Immortal School ...

Similar scenes played out in countless sects. After the news spread to the sects, it was like a plague was spreading from one sect to the next.

For a time, the entire Crimson Radiance Sect was shaken.

Ten-odd years ago, many cultivators had heard of Tang Huan's name. The scarlet streak was numerous in number, but there were very few who could forge a perfect Dao Artifact. To be able to forge dozens of perfect Dao Artifacts in an extremely short period of time — Even if they were all Perfect Low Rank Dao Artifacts, before Tang Huan, they did not even have a single Perfect Dao Artifact.

Because of this, even after ten years had passed, many people still had a deep impression of Tang Huan.

It was at this time that they heard news of Tang Huan. This name, however, was deeply branded in the souls of almost all the cultivators in the Crimson Radiance Sect, and was never to be erased again.

On the south-western island of the Crimson Radiance Sect, Mountain and Sea Sect.

" ... "

"That Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Manor is truly amazing. They actually obtained the first place on the Myriad Domain Ranking Board. It seems like there are a hundred spots on the leaderboard that have entered the 'Ancient Era's Immortal Domain', right?"

"Tsk tsk, powerful, powerful. Right, what's the name of that Weapon Refiner from the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace?"

"I heard someone say it just now. I think it's called Tang ..." Tang... Hmm, I remember now, his name is Tang Huan. It's said that he's not even a hundred years old yet, and is even younger than us!"

" ... "

On the island, many cultivators gathered in groups of two or three in an ancient valley. Cries of surprise could be heard one after another.

"Tang Huan?"

Beneath a giant tree, a low cry suddenly rang out. A man who was originally sitting quietly with his eyes closed suddenly opened his eyes, revealing a strong sense of surprise. This was a middle-aged man around the age of forty. He had a robust and muscular build, and his appearance was extremely handsome. He wore a red robe.

If Tang Huan was here, she would definitely be able to recognize that this red robed middle aged man was none other than the Mountain and River Sect.

"Is it really that kid?"

Shanhe's brow slightly furrowed as he softly muttered in disbelief.

After a long while, he finally nodded to himself, revealed a slight smile, and muttered, "Maybe it really is him! He really did not expect that after so many years, not only had he already ascended to heaven, his cultivation and Tools Method Attainments had also reached such an astonishing level. "Alright!"

"..."

Chapter 1712 - Mysterious Treasure Snow Scale Beast

In the northwest of the Crimson Radiance Sect was the vast Snow Region.

At the foot of the snow-capped mountain which pierced the clouds, a mass of snow suddenly rose high. Soon after, a white figure carefully drilled out from the crack in the snow. It was a white Heavenly Beast about two meters long, with a long and narrow body.

Every one of its scales was crystal clear, as white as ice and snow. Beneath its scales, there seemed to be a glittering, glittering, precious light flowing out.

The Heavenly Beast seemed to be rather timid. It continued to make its way forward while sniffing and hoping. After a long while, the Heavenly Beast finally reached a depression a few thousand meters away. In the middle of the concave, a thin stem broke through the snow. At the top of the stem, a fiery red flower bloomed proudly.

Although there was only one such flower, it made this area of ice and snow much more beautiful.

"Squeak squeak ~ ~"

Seeing the red flower, the Heavenly Beast was immediately excited, it cheered and was about to pounce, but after taking only two steps, it slowed down, actually becoming even more cautious, its sharp head moving back and forth, in a short distance of 20 to 30 metres, it actually took almost a quarter of an hour.

The flower was already close at hand, and the Heavenly Beast finally relaxed its guard. Licking its tongue, a pair of gem-like eyes were filled with a human-like excitement.

After a moment, the Heavenly Beast opened its mouth and bit towards the flower.

However, at that moment, from behind the buttocks of the Heavenly Beast, a fair and delicate jade-like hand extended out suddenly. With a swipe of its hand, an invisible powerful force seemed to rush forth.

Unfortunately, it was still slower by a moment. It had only moved a few meters, but its body seemed to be firmly bound by that force, and it was unable to move at all. Only its pair of eyeballs remained, rolling around pitifully.

"I've finally caught this little thing. It's not in vain for me to have lurked here for a whole three months."

The crisp laughter suddenly sounded out, and a figure appeared out of the snow, it was actually a young lady in white, with a petite body, with a face as exquisite as a carved jade, smiling and waving, the white Heavenly Beast floated to her front, its eyes looking even more pitiful.

"Don't worry, I'll take some blood from your body and let you go."

Upon catching sight of the Heavenly Beast's gaze, the lady in white couldn't help but smile.

This type of Heavenly Beast was called the "Mysterious Treasure Snow Scale Beast", it was extremely timid and difficult to catch. However, its blood was incomparably precious, and could be used to refine many kinds of extremely powerful medicinal pills. While she was speaking, a light flashed in the palm of the girl in white, and a jade bottle the size of a fist appeared in the palm of her hand.

"Hmm?"

The girl in white raised her eyebrows and looked to the left. There, a green shadow suddenly appeared and shot over: "Senior Sister Hu Si!"

A delicate voice rang out at the same time, and the girl in white revealed a smile.

After a while, the green figure arrived in front of her. It turned out to be a beautiful girl about eighteen or nineteen years old. She wore an emerald green dress.

At this moment, the girl in green dress had an expression of unconcealable astonishment on her face. With just a glance at the Profound Treasure Snow Scale Beast, she said anxiously, "Senior Sister Hu Si, this is great news, this is great news! The 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' this time was actually obtained by one of the heavenly works of our Crimson Radiance Sect."

"Oh? Which heaven's work could have such shocking Tools Method? " The girl in white named Hu Si was quite shocked.

"Tang Huan!" Huang Hua Domain's Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion's Second Level Marquis of the Heaven, High Grade Heaven Ranked Tang Huan! It's said that he was ranked first in eight consecutive rounds of competitions at the Artifact Storage. He is the first in history! " The girl in the green dress spoke very quickly, "I really didn't expect that our Crimson Sky Kingdom would have such a powerful upper tier heaven defying skill! Furthermore, I even heard that Tang Huan is very young, much younger than us all, and not even a hundred years old. "

Senior Sister Hu Si, you told me before that you knew a very powerful young Weapon Refiner from the lower realms. That person was also called Tang Huan, and they couldn't be the same person, right? It shouldn't be possible, Senior Sister, you have only ascended to the heavens for more than ten years. That Tang Huan might still not have passed the tribulation, she must have the same name, yes, the same name ... "

"Tang Huan..."

Hu Si was stunned. Looking at the chattering girl in the green skirt, the expression in her eyes became extremely strange.

...

"Big brother, is this the Jade Imperial City?"

In the Imperial Jade City, outside the transfer array, the Nine Spirits, who had just revealed themselves, could not help but look around curiously.

Hearing that, Tang Huan smiled and nodded.

Ten years had passed and the scenery around the transfer array hadn't changed at all. However, the number of cultivators gathered in the surrounding plaza seemed to be a bit too many.

"Owner Que and the others have returned!"

"Look!" Tang Huan! It's really Tang Huan! "

"Tell me, tell me, which one is Tang Huan?"

"..."

In almost an instant, the surrounding crowd was set off by countless musical notes. Earth-shaking waves of sound soared into the sky, as if it could even pierce through the heavens.

The surrounding crowd had clearly been waiting in the plaza for a long time, and now, it was finally Tang Huan and the rest.

At this moment, when they saw Tang Huan, the excitement on their faces could no longer be hidden. After tens of thousands of years, the heavenly work of the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace had finally once again reached the top of the Artifact Board.

Although they had not personally witnessed the situation, they were still honored. Countless of them had swollen red faces and shouted out Tang Huan's name. As a sect that had once flourished for many years, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace had been stifled for far too long. Now, the excitement in everyone's heart had completely exploded.

Feeling the passion from the crowd, Tang Huan was also affected, even after entering the sect, her heart was still in turmoil.

Because, in the outer palace of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, the warm atmosphere was no less than that of the Imperial Jade City outside. No matter whether it was the elder-level experts, the Black Dragon disciples, the Azure Dragon disciples, or the Gold Dragon disciples, all of them were gathered here. Even Palace Chief Nie Cangsheng had moved out to welcome the return of Tang Huan and the others.

At this time, no matter where Tang Huan went, she was surrounded and protected in the middle of the crowd like a star, becoming the focus of attention.

In the competition for the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts" in the Profound Sky Continent, Tang Huan had swept away the decadence of the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace for tens of thousands of years and seized first place on the Artifact Board in one go. She was already viewed as a hero by countless people in the sect.

At this time, almost everyone's emotions were surging as they looked at Tang Huan with eyes full of unconcealable joy, excitement, admiration and admiration. Everyone was very clear in the depths of their hearts. With Tang Huan here, let alone the Flowing Flower Domain Realm, even if they were in the entire Crimson Light Sky Kingdom, the time for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace would come soon.

Chapter 1713 - Entering the Soaring Sky Violet Palace

As night fell, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace finally gradually calmed down.

At this time, among the thousand year old and under cultivators in the sect, the strongest group of marquis had already gathered and distributed the forty-eight Taishang Immortal Beads.

In the sect's inner sect, Tang Huan, Jiu Ling, Kui Cow, and She Yuji stood outside the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace."

The Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, and She Yuji were all allowed to train in the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" for five days, making an exception. As for Tang Huan, ten years ago, she had already obtained the reward of entering "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" to cultivate for seven days. Initially, Tang Huan planned to keep this reward for when she reached the Sky Sovereign Realm before using it.

Unfortunately, the plan couldn't keep up with the changes.

Before Tang Huan even had the chance to attack the Heavenly Monarch, she was forcibly sent away from the Crimson Waves Sect by the "Netherworld Immortal Talisman". Now that she had returned to the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, Tang Huan naturally did not plan to waste this reward. However, Nie Cangsheng and the other elders gave their full support to Tang Huan's intention of returning to the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" to cultivate.

Thus, the time limit for Tang Huan to train in the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" greatly increased, from seven days to twenty days. If Tang Huan needed it, she could even extend it further.

This meant that the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" had basically opened its doors wide for Tang Huan.

It was said that only Ancestral Master Qingtian had received this kind of reward before. In the next tens of thousands of years, no cultivator from the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion would receive this kind of treatment. If others were to receive such treatment, there would probably be countless cultivators in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace who would oppose it. However, if it was Tang Huan, no one would have any objections.

After all, in the last tens of thousands of years since Tang Huan became the Green Sky Ancestral Master, she was the only one to obtain the first rank on the Artifact Board, Heavenly Imperial Palace's Tian Gong.

Furthermore, the age at which Tang Huan obtained the first place on the Artifact Board was much younger than the Green Sky Ancestral Master from tens of thousands of years ago. This meant that Tang Huan's potential was most likely even above that of the Green Sky Ancestral Master.

All the cultivators of the Royal Dragon Celestial Palace knew that the stronger Tang Huan was, the stronger the sect was. And as the sect got stronger, they, as cultivators, would naturally benefit from it as well.

Furthermore, Tang Huan would soon be entering the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain", at that place, there would probably be countless cultivators over thirty-six days thinking of killing Tang Huan, in order to eradicate this Tian Gong, who would most likely be monopolizing the top position in the Artifact Board for the next thousand years. To Tang Huan, the journey to the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain was extremely dangerous.

In this kind of situation, the higher Tang Huan's cultivation, the safer she could be. Time was of the essence, and entering the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" to cultivate was naturally the best choice to increase her cultivation quickly.

As for the exception to allow Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, and She Yuji to enter the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace", it was naturally to increase the overall strength of their side. In the following period of time, not only would Tang Huan, Jiu Ling and the others cultivate in the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace", the other Heavenly Palace disciples who had obtained the "Pearl of Absolute Beginning" would also enter the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace".

The amount of time they spent in the Zifu Disciple level was tentatively set at five days, while the amount of time they had to spend in the Zifu Disciple level would come out from there to make room. As long as the Zifu was able to contain enough "Skycloud Violet Qi", whether it was the three of them or the disciples of the Heavenly Abode, they would all be able to cultivate for a longer period of time.

The day that the "Taishang Immortal Domain" opened, the group of people would definitely have a huge increase in their cultivation.

In the future, the main purpose of these fifty plus people entering the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain" was not to search for various treasures, but to search for ... Protect Tang Huan.

"Let's go in!"

Tang Huan tightened the purple jade tablet in her hand, and immediately shot forward explosively. An instant later, Tang Huan's figure had already disappeared into the rippling space of the palace door.

Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, and She Yuji all had expressions of anticipation and excitement.

According to the news revealed by Tang Huan, the day that the "Soaring Sky Purple Palace" existed, it was equivalent to a month in the outside world. Furthermore, the "Sky Cloud Violet Qi" inside could quickly raise one's cultivation.

They were not disciples of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, yet they were able to make an exception and cultivate inside for five days or even longer. It was naturally because of Tang Huan.

Such an opportunity was extremely rare.

In the next moment, the three of them had already transformed into streams of light and entered the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" just like Tang Huan.

Roughly two hours later, figures appeared outside the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace." The woman at the very front was Xiao Niao Die, and the other forty-eight people were all Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace cultivators who had just obtained the "Pearl of Absolute Beginning." Even though their cultivations were of different ranks, they were all experts who had already stepped into the Heaven Realm ...

Tang Huan had long since sat cross-legged in a small space with a circumference of three meters within the Mind Palace.

A dense purple aura filled every inch of the surrounding space. Within this purple aura, a pure and divine energy that seemed to be condensed was swimming about like strands of silk, like a spirit serpent.

This kind of power was a specialty of the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" — "Soaring Sky Purple Clouds"!

Once he entered the space once again, Tang Huan's cultivation had increased by leaps and bounds. At that time, Tang Huan was just a small man in heaven, borrowing the "Heaven-Firmament Purple Qi" to advance into a Huang Ji Realm. Right now, Tang Huan was already a second grade Marquis of Heaven, his cultivation and strength was countless times stronger than before.

With the sudden increase in his cultivation level, his perception of the "Purple Clouds" naturally differed greatly as well.

From Tang Huan's judgement, the "Sky Cloud Purple Qi" was a type of "Immortal Spirit Qi" power, the only difference was that the "Sky Cloud Purple Qi" did not contain any Immortal Spirit Qi, but, it was much purer than normal Spirit Qi, so the effect of raising cultivation was naturally not much different.

After entering the space, Tang Huan used all of her firepower.

Inside the Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "Dao Nascent Soul" were revolving to the extreme. The terrifying power of the sucking was spread out, and continuously sucked the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" into the cauldron, for rapid refinement.

Tang Huan did not simply refine the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds", at about the same time, Tang Huan detonated a "Dual Polarity Violet Pill" that had long been placed in the cauldron. The boundless medicinal power instantly surged out violently like stormy waves, wreaking havoc within the cauldron.

However, no matter how strong the medicinal strength was, it could not shake the cauldron that was moving at a very fast speed.

After a while, a mixture of medicinal power and "Sky Cloud Purple Qi" was refined by Tang Huan, in a blink of an eye, Tang Huan's number of Spirit Crystals started to increase at an alarming rate.

Compared to simply refining the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds", this cultivation speed was even faster.

Of course, there would also be great dangers. If the endurance was too poor, then there would be harm and no harm. This time, entering the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace",

The Nine Spirits and the Kui Cow would also use this method to try to cultivate. As for She Yuji, whose cultivation was the lowest, it would only start after she had advanced to the Sky Marquis level. The pellets they used were naturally not the "Dual Polarity Violet Pellet", but the "Yuan Luo Sacred Heart Pellet" and the "Moon-Shattering Moon Pellet", which were both weaker in terms of medicinal effects.

The remaining two pellets from before were all given to the three of them.

Chapter 1714 - Sky Marquis Fourth Grade

"I haven't seen him for ten years, but the speed at which he absorbed and refined the 'Purple Clouds' has already reached such a level!"

Within the central space of the Soaring Sky Violet Palace, a chubby old man with a pair of round eyes and white hair was standing there with a face full of shock that could not be hidden.

This fat old man was the Supreme Elder of the Emperor Dragon Sky Manor, Wang Qian.

Wang Qian had been in charge of the Soaring Sky Violet Palace for hundreds of years. A thousand years ago, his cultivation had already reached the peak of the ninth level of the Sky Marquis. Unfortunately, after a thousand years, he still could not cross that final step and advance to the Sky King. In the next thirty-six days, it was unknown how many cultivators of the ninth level like him had stopped at this level.

Here, Wang Qian was able to investigate the situation of the various cultivation spaces within the Violet Palace.

Now, in order to maximize the cultivation of the group of cultivators that had fused with the Primal Beginning Immortal Pearl before entering the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain", all of the cultivators that were originally in the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" had been invited out, including the elders. The space inside was only open to Tang Huan, Xiao Nian Die and the other fifty people.

Of course, of the more than fifty people present, the first person to be protected was naturally Tang Huan.

For the past tens of thousands of years, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace had only been opened a few times, but they had basically not obtained any benefits. Now, Tang Huan had finally brought over ten spots with great difficulty, and the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion was also giving its best, giving priority to cultivators who were about to enter the Immortal Region with all kinds of precious cultivation resources.

This, "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" was only one of them.

Although no one had made a breakthrough in the various Violet Palace spaces up till now, they were still able to catch a glimpse of the speed at which the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" were depleting.

Amongst the cultivators that entered the Violet Palace, Xiao Niao and the others absorbed and refined the "Skycloud Purple Cloud" the fastest.

However, their speed was completely incomparable to Tang Huan's.

Ten years ago, when Tang Huan was cultivating in the Violet Palace Realm, the "Heaven-Firmament Purple Qi", which was sufficient enough to support four days of Huang Ji's cultivation, had been completely refined by him in a single day. At that time, the speed that Tang Huan displayed shocked Wang Qian. But now, Tang Huan's speed was many times faster than before.

Wang Qian secretly estimated that in the same amount of time, the "Sky Cloud Purple Gas" that Tang Huan absorbed and refined alone was more than ten times stronger than Xiao Nian Die.

If it was just Tang Huan alone, then everything would be fine. But the speed of Nine Spirits, Kui Cow and She Yu Ji who had entered the Zi Palace with Tang Huan was also astonishingly fast.

Although she was not on par with Tang Huan, her nine spirits were on par with Xiao Nian Die.

As for the huge Kui Cow, it was only slightly weaker than Xiao Niao. It was true that the gap between She Yuji and Xiao Nian Die was quite large, but that was because her cultivation level was too low. If it was compared to other cultivators of the same cultivation level, it was likely that no one could compare to She Yuji.

Once she advanced to the marquis, the speed at which she absorbed and refined the 'Heavencloud Purple Clouds' would probably surpass many of the marquis in the Zifu region.

"Most likely, in just a few days, all of the Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds in this Zifu will be used up."

After he murmured softly, Wang Qian's expression did not contain even the slightest trace of regret. Instead, a smile appeared on his fat face.

For this trip to the 'Primal Beginning Immortal Domain', the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace needed to go all out.

Although this "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" was precious, it couldn't be compared to Tang Huan and the others. They were all part of the future of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, and in a few hundred years, they would all become pillars of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace. Tang Huan in particular, the rise of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace would all be because of him.

After entering the immortal realms, any one of them encountered an accident. To the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion, this was a huge loss. Compared to them, the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" was only a precious consumable. In any case, once the energy was used up, the Violet Palace Realm would slowly produce a new version of the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds".

In a moment of thought, Wang Qian focused his mind and carefully sensed the movement within the Violet Palace.

While Tang Huan and the others were focused on cultivation, the only mission of the Great Clan Elder was to ensure the supply of the "Sky Cloud Purple Aura" in every inch of space until all the energy was exhausted. Therefore, from time to time, he needed to guide the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" to a space where she didn't have enough power.

Of course, for the time being, the only place that he needed to replenish the "Heaven-Firmament Purple Cloud" was the cultivation space where Tang Huan resided.

Time trickled by, and before he knew it, two days had passed. To the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace", the two days in the outside world were equivalent to two months of time.

"Huh?"

Wang Qian suddenly opened his eyes and exclaimed in surprise, "Third level of the Sky Marquis... It's actually Tang Huan who made the breakthrough first, and not the few little fellows who have already reached the peak of their realm ... "

But after a short moment, Wang Qian was relieved and muttered softly, "Tang Huan absorbed and refined heaven Xiao purple energy far more than the rest of the cultivators, so it is normal for him to be the first to breakthrough ... I wonder, when the 'Heavencloud Purple Clouds' in the Zifu region are exhausted, what level of cultivation will he be able to reach? "

A sliver of expectation flashed across his eyes. Wang Qian slowly closed his eyes once again ...

... ..

Within his Mind Palace, Tang Huan once again ignited a "Dragon Phoenix Gold Pellet", and the vast and berserk medicinal power exploded like a volcano.

At this moment, an extremely fierce hurricane seemed to have been set off within Tang Huan's Dantian Furnace.

Even so, on the surface, Tang Huan looked like nothing had happened. Her body was like a wooden sculpture made out of clay, and had not moved an inch since the beginning. However, along with the rapid refinement of the medicinal power and "Purple Sky Cloud", the amount of Dao-Crystals that were produced and condensed within the Dantian Dao Nascent Soul, wildly soared once again.

31 million yuan Thirty-two million ... Thirty five million ...

40 million!

Tang Huan was calm and focused, she did not feel the passage of time at all, and following her training, his cultivation continued to soar at a speed that would make people flabbergasted.

"Fourth level of the Sky Marquis!"

In the center of the Violet Palace Realm, Wang Qian couldn't help but suck in a cold breath. Last time, when Tang Huan advanced from the second level of the Sky Marquis to the third level of the Sky Marquis, it only took him two days equivalent to the outside world. This time, it also only took Tang Huan three days to advance from the third level of the Sky Marquis to the fourth level of the Sky Marquis.

Since the appearance of this "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace", the number of marquis who had come to train had been innumerable, but no one had ever been able to break through at a speed as fast as Tang Huan's.

Five days had passed and almost all the cultivators in the Zi Clan had made one breakthrough, but the only one who had made two breakthroughs in a row was Tang Huan.

"In three or four more days, Tang Huan will probably be a fifth grade Heaven Marquis!"

Wang Qian pinched his fat jaw and sighed in his heart.

There was still about sixty percent of the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" in this "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace". The Heaven Marquis of the fifth rank was definitely not the end result of Tang Huan's cultivation this time.

Chapter 1715 - Continuing to Break through

The truth was as Wang Qian had expected. After four more days, Tang Huan had levelled up to a fifth grade Sky Marquis. At this time, the supply of "Sky Cloud Purple Cloud" in the other spaces had stopped.

Five days later, Tang Huan stepped into the Sixth Heavenly Marquis Realm.

Within these five days, Jiu Ling, Kui Cow, She Yuji, Xiao Niao, and more than fifty other cultivators had finished absorbing and refining the 'Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds' in their respective spaces and left the 'Soaring Sky Violet Palace'. Amongst them, even the ones with the slowest cultivation increase would make a breakthrough once, while the ones with the fastest speed would make three breakthroughs.

Just like Nine Spirits, he broke through three times in a row and advanced to a fifth level sky duke.

The Kui Cow, on the other hand, had entered the peak of the fourth level of the Heavenly Marquis Stage and could break through at any time, while She Yuji had also advanced to the second level of the Heavenly Marquis. As for Xiao Nian Die, she was already a peak rank 9 Heaven Marquis. The remaining 40 or so Emperor Dragon's Dragon Sky Mansion cultivators all had their breakthroughs, their cultivation and strength greatly increased.

They had all left the Soaring Sky Violet Palace, while Tang Huan was still within the spatial realm.

Under Wang Qian's guidance, the remaining "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" would occasionally pour into Tang Huan's space, to ensure that it was filled with energy.

Unknowingly, six days had passed.

"A seventh level sky marquis!"

Sensing the violent and powerful aura fluctuation that filled Tang Huan's residence space, Wang Qian could not help but take a deep breath, and sighed in her heart.

After calculating, it had been exactly twenty days since Tang Huan entered the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace".

Even if it was just one day, equivalent to one month, it would only be twenty months, not even two years, yet Tang Huan had already levelled up from a second stage Heaven Marquis to a seventh stage Heaven Marquis.

This cultivation speed could be said to be terrifying.

He had lived for close to three thousand years and had stayed in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace for close to two thousand years, yet he had never seen a freak like Tang Huan. The "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" in the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace" was extremely beneficial to cultivation, but if he continuously trained for too long, he would definitely encounter a bottleneck.

For example, Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, She Yuji, and the others, breaking through two or three times in succession was already their limit.

If he continued his cultivation, even if he refined more Purple Clouds, it would be difficult for his cultivation to break through. It was just that his power had become purer and more refined. It was precisely because of this that he stopped the supply of "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" when Nine Spirits and the others entered Soaring Cloud Violet Palace on the fourteenth day.

But on Tang Huan's body, bottlenecks didn't seem to exist at all. As long as she cultivated to a certain point, breaking through would naturally happen. In these twenty days, most of his energy was focused on Tang Huan, and he never realized that Tang Huan's cultivation had stopped.

It seemed as if as long as Tang Huan had enough "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds", breaking through to the eighth or ninth level of the Heavenly Marquis wasn't a problem.

"Unfortunately, the 'Heavencloud Purple Clouds' are almost exhausted."

Wang Qian sighed in pity and guided the last wave of "Sky Cloud Violet Qi" to the space in which Tang Huan was at.

The speed at which Tang Huan's cultivation increased was inconceivably fast, but she had used up a similar amount of the "Sky Cloud Purple Aura". About half of the "Sky Cloud Purple Aura" in the purple palace was refined by the nine spirits, Xiao Nian Die and the other fifty people, while the other half was consumed by Tang Huan.

The recovery speed of this "Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds" was extremely slow. After this round of cultivation, the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" would need at least another hundred years before it could be reopened to the cultivators of the Imperial Dragon Heavenly Palace.

Of course, not to mention closing "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" for a hundred years, even a thousand years would be worth it.

It was a pity that he did not know that Tang Huan was still alive and was going to participate in the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts" to obtain the first place on the Artifact Board. Otherwise, since ten years ago, he had stopped cultivators from entering the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" to cultivate. With the accumulation of the current "Sky Cloud Purple Qi", it was enough to send Tang Huan into the realm of the Ninth Marquis.

If he had entered the Heavenly King Realm from the Marquis of Heaven, he would not have encountered any bottlenecks, and Tang Huan might even be able to advance into the Heavenly King Realm after entering the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain".

A Heavenly King in his fifties, he was definitely the youngest Heavenly King in thirty-six days!

Once he was promoted to Heavenly King, no matter how evil the cultivators of the remaining thirty-six days were, Tang Huan should be able to ensure his safety.

While thinking, Wang Gan helplessly shook his head.

"Huh?"

Within a certain region of the Zi Clan two days later, Tang Huan exclaimed softly in slight surprise. Then, he opened her eyes and quickly scanned her surroundings.

The purple aura that had originally been blocking the surrounding space had actually completely vanished.

"The 'Heavencloud Purple Clouds' are gone?"

After being stunned for a moment, Tang Huan came to her senses.

Although he was surprised at the moment, he did not feel that it was a pity. Before entering the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace," he knew that if he let go of the time limit, with the speed at which he absorbed and refined energy, the "Heaven-Soaring Purple Cloud" within the Violet Palace would sooner or later be emptied out by his sucking.

When he entered the Violet Palace Realm, he was only a Tier 2 Heavenly Lord. But now, he was a Tier 7 Heavenly Lord, and his number of Dao crystals had reached an astonishing 73 million.

He should be satisfied with his five consecutive breakthroughs within the Soaring Sky Violet Palace.

Suddenly, Tang Huan laughed and heaved a sigh of relief. Immediately after, Tang Huan stood up, and bowed deeply towards the empty space to her right. With a thought, the surrounding space rapidly distorted, and strands of purple Qi separated out from the empty space, wrapping around him.

An instant later, Tang Huan rose into the air, transforming into a ray of purple light and disappeared from the spatial palace.

"This little guy actually found me."

Wang Gan had already opened his eyes in the middle of the sky palace. His abnormally fat face involuntarily revealed a trace of surprise.

It wouldn't be strange if Tang Huan only knew that there was someone like him in the Violet Palace Realm.

Many cultivators within the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion knew that the one overseeing the Soaring Cloud Violet Palace was him, Wang Qian. However, not a single person was able to determine his position after entering the Violet Palace Realm. Even the peak of the ninth level of the Heavenly Marquis, the Palace's Palace Master, Nie Cangsheng, was unable to do so.

This was because the instant a cultivator entered the Violet Palace, they would be randomly sent to any part of the space within the Violet Palace and this Soaring Cloud Violet Palace had fused with Wang Qian's Mind Stigma. The two seemed to be one; even if others knew that he was in the Soaring Cloud Violet Palace, they would not know his exact location.

But looking at Tang Huan's previous actions, he had clearly determined his position.

This was truly unbelievable!

After a long while, Wang Gan finally blinked his small eyes back to reality, and a trace of understanding slowly rose up from the bottom of his heart. Although Tang Huan was only a level seven marquis, his true strength was definitely beyond imagination, and furthermore, Tang Huan most likely had some kind of trump card that many people did not know about.

After entering the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain, the one who should be worried wouldn't be Tang Huan, but the other cultivators that had to go for thirty-six days.

Chapter 1716 - Within the Manor

Tang Huan's current residence was no longer at Black Dragon Mountain. Before he returned to the sect, Nie Cangsheng, who had received the news, personally arranged a manor for him within the Inner Palace.

Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, and She Yuji were currently living in that mansion, while Xiao Zihan had been given another residence by Nie Cangsheng. It was said that this place was where the various Heavenly Kings of the history of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace trained. In order to win over Xiao Zihan, the imperial palace had spent quite a bit.

However, when Tang Huan returned to the mansion, not only did she see Nine Spirits and the other two, she even saw Palace Chief Nie Cangsheng.

"Seven ... Seventh Heavenly Marquis, Tang Huan, you have already broken through to the Seventh Heavenly Marquis realm? "

The moment he saw Tang Huan, Nie Cangsheng, who was currently talking to Nine Spirits and the rest, jumped up in shock. His face was filled with shock and amazement that was hard to conceal.

If he remembered correctly, when Tang Huan returned to the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, she was only a Second Tier Marquis. But now, in less than a month's time, Tang Huan had actually already become a Seventh Tier Marquis. Even with the miraculous effect of "Soaring Sky Violet Palace", the fact that Tang Huan's cultivation could soar to such a level was already shocking enough.

"Big brother, how did your cultivation rise so fast?"

Hearing Nie Cangsheng's words and feeling the faint overflowing terrifying aura coming from Tang Huan's body, the three people of Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, and She Yuji were all pleasantly surprised.

Until now, Nine Spirits were at the fifth level while She Yuji was at the second level. As for the Kui Cow, it had broken through yesterday and stepped into the fifth level as well.

After arriving at the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, their cultivation speed was already astonishing enough, but compared to Tang Huan's, it was still far inferior.

Although this was due to Tang Huan staying in the "Soaring Cloud Violet Palace" for a longer period of time, the main reason was that Tang Huan's own cultivation speed far surpassed others. After all, even if they were allowed to stay in the Ling Xiao Palace for twenty days like Tang Huan, they wouldn't be able to continuously break through five times like Tang Huan had.

"It's a pity that the 'Heaven-Soaring Purple Clouds' in my Violet Palace isn't enough. Otherwise, by the time you see me again, I might already be an Inferior Heavenly King."

When Tang Huan saw their expressions, she couldn't help but laugh.

Seeing Nie Cang Sheng's eyes that were as wide as copper bells, as if he had already taken his words seriously, Tang Huan could not help but let out a dry laugh, and immediately said: "It's just a joke, even if there really is an ocean of 'Sky Cloud Purple Aura', it's still useless. Countless cultivators in Heaven Realm stop at the Ninth Level of the Sky Marquis. How can a Heavenly King be so easily broken through."

"Indeed."

Nie Cangsheng let out a long sigh as he shook his head with a bitter smile.

Not to mention the Heaven Realm, just by looking at the situation in the Huang Long Tian Residence, one could tell how difficult it was for a Tier 9 Heavenly Lord to become a Heavenly King. Tens of thousands of years after the Green Sky Ancestral Master passed, there were tens of thousands of cultivators in the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion who managed to break through to the Ninth Level of the Sky Sovereign Realm, but in the end, there was only one person who managed to break through to the Sky King Realm.

There were also many that left the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion and headed towards the 19th day to search for an opportunity to break through, but none of them had heard anything about it. It was unknown whether they lived or died.

If Tang Huan could really be promoted to Heavenly King so easily, then how would the numerous Heavenly Hou s under thirty-six days be able to endure it?

Of course, if what Tang Huan said was true, no matter how incredulous she felt it was, he would still be wild with joy. After all, to a sect, the existence of a Heavenly King Stage powerhouse was a completely different story.

After slightly tidying up his emotions, Nie Cangsheng continued: "Tang Huan, there's still quite a bit of time until we enter the 'Primal Beginning Immortal Domain', what do you plan to do next? If you want to continue cultivating, you can choose to use any of the sect's medicinal pellets and immortal herbs you want ... As long as it's useful for your training. "

When he heard from Wang Qian that the "Sky Cloud Purple Aura" was about to run out, Nie Cangsheng came to this mansion and waited for Tang Huan. The reason was very simple, he wanted to see if he could still need more.

's safety in the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain was of utmost importance. As long as it was effective in raising Tang Huan's strength, the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace would definitely not hesitate to come looking for him. Of course, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace also spared no effort in providing resources for the cultivation of Jiu Ling, Xiao Zihan, and the others who numbered over fifty.

"No need, I have enough pills on me."

Tang Huan thought for a moment and then shook her head with a smile. Out of the 34 pills she had obtained from the xuanji pill pavilion, there were still plenty left.

"Palace Chief, how many high-grade dao stones and iron crystals do we still have left? In the next few days, I will find a chance to refine several tens of high-grade dao tools and gift them to those disciples who are about to enter the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain, so as to increase their strength."

"Are you going to forge a perfect upper grade Dao Artifact?"

Upon hearing his words, Nie Cangsheng's eyes lit up.

He had long heard of Tang Huan forging many high grade perfect Dao artifacts in the Mystic Du Tian "Ten Thousand Domain Immortal City". He had even personally checked the weapon that Tang Huan had given Xiao Niu Die and found that it was indeed peerlessly powerful, surpassing all the high grade Dao artifacts that he had seen before.

If the tens of high-grade Dao tools that Tang Huan was going to forge were all of the perfect quality, then for the group of tens of cultivators like Xiao Nian Die, their overall strength would be raised by an immeasurable amount.

Since Tang Huan gave them her weapons after she forged them, their strength had increased tremendously. In the future, they would be able to better protect Tang Huan when they enter the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain".

"That's right." Tang Huan nodded and smiled.

"Alright!"

"I don't know how many high-grade dao stones and iron crystals there are, but it doesn't matter. I'll go to the 'Artifact Heaven Fault' and ask Master Du Que right away and have him deliver all of the dao stones and iron crystals over. If it's still not enough, then go and buy it!"

With these words, Nie Cangsheng's face turned red, and his robust body shot out.

"Martial House Master, this matter ..."

Tang Huan originally wanted to say something, but before she finished speaking, Nie Cangsheng's figure had already disappeared without a trace from the mansion, leaving Tang Huan, Jiu Ling, Kui Cow and She Yuji looking at each other in dismay. After a moment, the four of them returned to their senses, but they couldn't help but smile at each other.

It was no wonder that Nie Cangsheng would lose his composure. After all, Tang Huan was forging dozens of perfect, high-grade Dao tools.

It was rare to see even a single Dao tool of this level, much less dozens. It would be strange if Nie Cangsheng didn't have such an action. Furthermore, not to mention Nie Cangsheng, even the Patriarchs of various sects in the past thirty-six days would have such an expression, and would even lose their composure.

In less than a quarter of an hour, Nie Cangsheng returned to this mansion. The person who came along with him was the head of the "Heavenly Imperial Palace," Du Xinghe, who had brought a large amount of Dao stones and iron crystals with him ...

Chapter 1717 - Apologizing

The Qian Yuan Sky Sect.

"Sovereign, we can't drag this on any longer. We have to make a decision soon!"

The person who had spoken was none other than Xue Yu, and the person pacing up and down in front of him was actually the Director of the Heaven's Expanse Sect, Xue Yu. At this moment, Xue Yu's expression was rather solemn, while Ren Gang's expression was extremely gloomy.

As if pondering over an extremely difficult matter, Ren Gang hesitated.

After a long while, Ren Gang furrowed his brows and asked, "Elder Xue, what are the chances of the former enmity between our Heaven's Expanse School and the Emperor Dragon Heaven's Manor being resolved?"

"I estimate that it's only twenty to thirty percent."

Xue Yu hesitated for a moment, then finally sighed with a bitter smile. "However, things have already come to this point. Even if there's only a twenty to thirty percent chance, I still have to try."

"20-30% ..."

Elder Xue, you have the most contact with Tang Huan, so you can make a trip to the Emperor Dragon's Hall on behalf of our Qian Yuan Sky Sect ... Bring all the remaining high-grade dao stones and high-grade iron crystals of our sect. "

At the end, Ren Gang had a pained expression on his face.

"Yes, head. I will set off today."

Xue Yu nodded, and a trace of bitterness flashed within his eyes.

Although there was no clear evidence to prove that the Qian Yuan Sky Sect did it ten years ago, the Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion had already determined that it was caused by the Sect Leader of the Qian Yuan Tian Sect. That was indeed the case. The operation against Tang Huan was a conspiracy between the Heaven Sect and the Limitless Temple.

Among them, the former was in the lead while the latter assisted.

Therefore, for the past ten years, the Emperor's Heavenly Palace, the Qian Yuan Heaven Sect, and the Limitless Temple had been like water and fire, and they couldn't even maintain their friendliness on the surface. Conflicts between the disciples of the three great sects happened every so often, and there were many deaths and injuries every year. The Qian Yuan Sky Sect didn't pay much attention to this.

To be able to get rid of a major threat like Ji Qingtian, there was no harm in being able to become enemies with the imperial palace.

If nothing unexpected happened, this kind of hostile relationship would last for a very long time. It might last for hundreds, thousands, or even thousands of years.

However, at this point, the Sky Sect had no choice but to consider changing their stance.

The strength and potential that Tang Huan had displayed in the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts" Artifact Arena was a clear indication that his future was limitless. As long as Tang Huan did not die in the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain", becoming a Heavenly King was definitely an important matter. Offending a Heavenly King with limitless potential was not a good thing.

In addition, the Heavenly King Xiao Zihan from Zi Yun Tian was also a huge threat.

From the information that he had received so far, Tang Huan and Xiao Zihan definitely had an extremely deep connection. Although Xiao Zihan hadn't made any moves against the Heaven's Expanse Sect yet, if Tang Huan wanted to make a move against the Heaven's Expanse Sect, Xiao Zihan probably wouldn't sit idly by and do nothing.

It was said that she was a middle level Heavenly King. With the current strength of the Heaven's Origin Sect, whether it was from the perspective of the current situation, or the long-term interests of the sect, it was extremely necessary to restore the relationship between them and Tang Huan.

However, the relationship between the two of them wasn't something that could be improved upon if one wanted to, and it was likely that Xue Yu wouldn't even be able to enter the Imperial Dragon Heavenly Palace on this trip.

However, since things had come to this, regardless of whether it succeeded or not, he had to give it a try.

If he succeeded, it would be a great thing. If he failed, he could think of a way to deal with it as soon as possible. Of course, since he wanted to rebuild the relationship between him and the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, he would have to apologize to the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace and Tang Huan for what happened all those years ago.

Tang Huan was a high-grade heaven's work, it was indeed quite suitable for him to receive gifts with high-grade iron crystals, but the Qian Yuan Sky Sect would have to pay a huge price.

"Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace is really lucky. Several tens of thousands of years ago, there was Ji Qingtian, and now there's even Tang Huan ..."

Watching Xue Yu's figure disappear at the entrance of the hall, Ren Gang couldn't help but sigh, and he felt extremely helpless at the bottom of his heart. However, although he had no choice, he didn't have the slightest bit of regret.

If he were to do it again, Ren Gang would still choose to attack Tang Huan and eliminate this potential threat to the Heaven's Expanse School. Of course, Ren Gang would choose a more stable method to ensure that he could kill Tang Huan, unlike the last time where he used the "Nether Immortal Talisman" to send him away.

But unfortunately, he didn't have the chance to repeat this matter.

Since the "Nether Immortal Talisman" didn't kill Tang Huan, and it was hard to stop Tang Huan's soaring momentum, then it would be Qian Yuantian's turn to lower her head.

As the head of the Heaven Sect, it was indeed difficult to make such a decision.

Ren Gang had to drag on for a long time before he finally made up his mind ...

"Xue Yu wants to see me?"

Inside the Inner Palace of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, inside the Nine Spirits' stomach, Tang Huan, who had just came out of her cave, couldn't help but raise her eyebrows slightly and look at the Nine Spirits who had told him this news in surprise.

"That's right." Jiu Ling chuckled, "Not only is there the Qian Yuan Sky Sect's Xue Yu, there's also the Everlasting Temple's Yue Zichuan. She said she is here to apologize on behalf of the sect."

"Apologize?"

Tang Huan suddenly understood, and then she smirked.

With a quick thought, he found out the intentions of Xue Yu and Yue Zichuan.

Evidently, the fact that he had obtained the first rank in the Artifact Board in one fell swoop already made Qian Yuan Tian Sect and Limitless Temple extremely fearful of him. Moreover, he didn't return to the Crimson Radiance Sect alone this time, but Xiao Zi Han, the Mid Heavenly King of Zi Yun, also came along with him.

In the future, his threat would be Xiao Zihan's threat.

If Xiao Zihan were to make a move, no one in the Heaven's Expanse Sect or Limitless Temple would be able to defeat her. Relying on the great protective spell formation prevented the sect from being exterminated. However, after that, the two Sects would definitely suffer a heavy blow to their strength, and might not be able to recover from that blow. It was because of this that the two great sects had no choice but to lower their heads.

However, Tang Huan did not necessarily have to accept their apologies.

Ten years ago, the scheme of the Heaven's Expanse Sect and the Limitless Temple had indirectly facilitated the reunion of Tang Huan and the nine spirits, but if not for treasures like the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", Tang Huan would have vanished into thin air before she even arrived in the Nether Realm. How could such a grudge be resolved with just an apology?

On their return to Crimson Radiance Sect, if Tang Huan were to ask Xiao Zihan to help, she would definitely be willing to do so. The reason why Tang Huan did not do this, was because he did not want to do things by hand.

"Where is Xue Yu and Yue Zichuan?" Tang Huan said in a heavy voice.

"He is still waiting for the grand master's reply." Jiu Ling said with a smile, "I heard that they all brought high-grade dao stones and high-grade iron crystals from their sects. As long as you agree to let bygones be bygones, those things will be yours. The Sect Leader did not agree, and said that it would be in your opinion. "

"Since that's the case, tell the school head to return."

Chapter 1718 It's a good idea!

The Emperor Dragon Guest House was an extremely famous place in Jade Emperor City. Usually, the guests that came to visit the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion would all be first to stay in this guesthouse.

At this moment, within the guest hall, Xue Yu and Yue Zichuan were speechless.

They all came to Jade Imperial City almost simultaneously with the same goal in mind. Even the things that they brought with them to apologize were high-grade dao stones and high-grade iron crystals. However, just now, they had received a reply from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace at almost the same time. It was obvious that they had been rejected.

They had long since been mentally prepared for such an outcome. But when this truly happened, the two felt their hearts grow incomparably heavy.

More than ten years ago, Tang Huan had participated in the "Heaven's Mandate" in Youyun City, and both of them had watched the battle before. At that time, Tang Huan was just a tiny heavenly man, but who would have thought that in such a short period of time, Tang Huan had already grown to such an extent that they, as two great sects, were extremely afraid of.

"A Medial Level King is not someone that our Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and Everlasting Temple can contend against."

After a long time, Xue Yu smiled bitterly.

The Qian Yuan Heaven Sect and the Limitless Temple both had Heavenly King Stage powerhouses, but just like the other Heavenly Kings in the history of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, they had all left the Crimson Radiance Sect long ago and went for the eighteenth or ninth day. Some had already fallen, while some were still alive, but none of them were able to contact each other.

Moreover, even if they managed to get in touch, they wouldn't be able to return to Crimson Radiance just because of such a small matter.

"Can it be that I have to seal off the sect in order to survive this disaster?"

Yue Zichuan's face was very ugly.

Many of the elders of Limitless Temple had opposed the events that transpired ten years ago. After all, without Tang Huan, the biggest beneficiary would be the Heaven's Expanse Sect, not the Limitless Temple. Of course, there were still benefits. For the younger generation of Empyrean Terminus Sect, it was almost impossible to surpass Tang Huan in the next thousand years. However, it was much easier to surpass the younger generation of the Heaven Arts Sect.

As a result, Hallmaster Feng Yu had decided to participate even though he was the only one in charge of the tree trunk. Now that things had changed to such an extent, even the Limitless Temple could only bear the consequences of their own suffering.

Since the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace did not accept this apology, it meant that they would have to bear Tang Huan's revenge from the beginning.

Once Zi Yun Tian, that middle level Heavenly King, took action, if Limitless Temple made a wrong move, the outcome would probably be dire. However, if there was no other way, they could only seal the sect off to fend off the Heavenly King.

However, although doing so would protect the sect, it would have an extremely negative impact on the sect. If they closed their doors and left the sect, they would be able to sit on nothing. As time passed, their cultivation resources would be exhausted, and their sect's overall strength would become weaker and weaker. If they were to open their sect up again in the future, perhaps Everlasting Temple would have already been reduced to a second-rate sect.

"It's not to that extent."

Xue Yu took a deep breath and snorted coldly, "In the current Crimson Light Heavens, she is not the only Heavenly King. Even though she is powerful, she comes from the outside world. If she were to go too far in our Crimson Wing, the Heavenly Kings of Crimson Wing would definitely not sit idly by. As far as I am concerned, since the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace does not accept our apologies, it would be better for us to bring these gifts to visit the sect led by the Heavenly King, and ask them to settle the matter in the middle. "

"That's a good idea."

Yue ZiChuan's expression changed slightly. "If you only ask for the presence of one Heavenly King, then Xiao Zihan might not care too much about it. However, if several Heavenly Kings are invited, Xiao Zihan will definitely not dare to act rashly."

"In my opinion, there should be quite a bit of hope to get those Heavenly Kings to make a move on you. In this Crimson Radiance Sect, there are absolutely no sects that are willing to see the glory of the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace reappear tens of thousands of years ago! Furthermore, that Tang Huan possesses extraordinary talent and unlimited potential. It is possible for his to make the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace even more glorious than it was tens of thousands of years ago. "

Saying this, Yue Zichuan could not help but smile, feeling even more confident. "Elder Xue, I will return to Limitless Temple and report this matter to Hall Master."

"Alright, this old man has to hurry back as well."

" ... "

...

Time flew.

"Grand master, have the people from the Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and the Limitless Temple come back yet?" Inside the Inner Palace of the Royal Dragon's Heavenly Palace, Tang Huan looked at Nie Cangsheng who was sitting opposite to him, and said with a smile.

"How could they still have the face to come back?"

Nie Cangsheng nodded his head and smiled, "However, during this period of time, the actions of the Sky Sect and the Limitless Temple have never stopped. They first gathered the experts and disciples scattered throughout the Flowing Flower Domain, and then gathered them in the sect encampment. Then, the head disciple of the Qian Yuan Sky Sect and the hall master of the Everlasting Temple, Feng Yushu, started to attack from all directions to visit the sects led by the Heavenly King in the Crimson Radiance Sect. According to what I have heard, Ren Gang and Feng Yushu have already paid a huge price, and asked the four Heavenly Kings to mediate the feud between our Huang Long Heaven Palace and our clan. "

"The Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and Everlasting Temple want to borrow the Sky Kings of those sects to pressure us."

Hearing that, Tang Huan's eyes flashed with ridicule, "Unfortunately, they are destined to waste their time. I have never thought of settling the matter that has happened that year by pretending to be someone else, nor did I plan to ask for Sect Master Xiao's help. " Then, Tang Huan laughed again, "Sect Master, let's not talk about the Heaven's Expanse Sect and the Everlasting Temple, all of the high-grade Dao Artifacts that I mentioned previously have been forged. Next, I would like to ask Sect Master to distribute them to us."

"So fast?"

However, in the blink of an eye, the shock in his eyes had already turned into uncontrollable ecstasy. This was because, after Tang Huan had finished speaking, many bright and dazzling rays of light had already exploded one after another in front of him, making it hard to look straight at.

In a short span of time, a total of sixty-eight perfect high-grade Dao artifacts were quietly lying on the ground between Tang Huan and you, who were still alive. Multicolored rays of light continuously shone out from these tens of Dao artifacts, illuminating the entire mansion like it was a dream.

"Good!" "Alright ..."

Capturing the terrifying aura emitted by the weapons caused Nie Cangsheng's heart to surge with excitement. His face flushed red, and even his robust body started to tremble. This was sixty-eight high-grade ordinary Dao tools, but sixty-eight perfect high-grade Dao tools!

Xiao Nian Die, Jiu Ling and the others already had the perfect high grade Dao Artifact forged by Tang Huan.

Now, these 68 high grade perfect tools could not only make one for each of the other 40 or so cultivators that had fused with the "Pearl of Great Beginning", the remaining 20 could also be allocated to the cultivators of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion. This batch of Dao-artifacts could greatly increase the overall strength of the imperial palace.

After a long while, Nie Cangsheng finally suppressed the excitement in his heart, and left the manor with a face full of smiles.

"Big Brother, do you really not plan to ask Sect Master Xiao to teach Qian Yuan Tian Sect and Everlasting Temple a lesson?" Once Nie Cangsheng left, the nine spirits couldn't help but ask.

"Of course, those kinds of things would have to be done by oneself before one's thoughts would be clear." Tang Huan laughed, "Let's not talk about the Heaven's Heaven Sect and the Everlasting Temple for now. What we have to pay attention to now is the 'Primal Beginning Immortal Domain'. We can use this time to study the immortal arts we obtained from the Primeval Immortal Ruins."

"..."

Chapter 1719 Observing the changes

"Elder Lian, is there any movements from the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion?"

The tall and skinny middle-aged man standing opposite him was called Lian Xiang Ru. He was an elder of the Heaven's Expanse Sect, and he had been in charge of arranging and investigating the movements of the Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion the entire time.

"Nope."

Lian Xiang seemed to be very puzzled as he shook his head.

Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion and Heaven Sect were like fire and water. After the end of the "Myriad Domain Dao Arts", Tang Huan, who had thought that she had died, forcefully returned to the sect along with a middle heavenly king. A while ago, she even unhesitatingly rejected the Heaven Sect's apology ... From this, it could be seen how Tang Huan treated the Qian Yuan Sky Sect.

After Xue Yu returned, Ren Gang had already prepared for the worst. He wouldn't be the slightest bit surprised if Tang Huan led the Intermediate Heavenly King and the many experts of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace to attack the Qian Yuan Sect.

In order to deal with the huge threat that was about to come, during this period of time, he had partnered with the hall master of the Everlasting Temple, Feng Yushu. Not only had he personally visited those powerful sects under the command of the Heavenly King, but he had also not spared any first-rate sects that were on par with the Qian Yuan Sky Sect.

After all the hard work, the rewards were naturally very good.

Currently, he was already prepared for everything, but unfortunately, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace did not make any movements from start to finish, nor did they display any abnormalities. To him, those actions from before were just like flirting with a blind person. This made him extremely angry and puzzled.

As far as he was concerned, if there was nothing abnormal in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, it would be the greatest anomaly!

"Not at all?" Ren Gang's eyebrows creased, and before he could even reply, he spoke again with a dark face, "What about Absolute Monarch Sanctuary's side? Is there anything abnormal happening?"

"Not at all." Lian Xiang felt helpless.

"This is strange."

He seemed to be muttering to himself, and yet, it also seemed like he was speaking to himself. "Could it be that Tang Huan intends to wait until after he comes out of the 'Supreme Beginning Immortal Domain' before making his move?"

"Very likely."

"Tang Huan is only a second grade Heaven Lord. He must be trying to raise her cultivation level as much as possible in the period of time before the Celestial domain opens. After all, the more powerful he is, the safer he will be. In comparison, finding trouble with our Heaven's Expanse School and Everlasting Temple is a secondary matter. "

"Makes sense."

Ren Gang was slightly startled.

He suddenly realized that his previous thoughts were a little too exaggerated. Indeed, no matter if it was for Tang Huan or the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion who had obtained numerous placings, preparations to enter the "Primal Beginning Immortal Domain" was the most important matter. Before the Immortal Region opens, everything else had to be compromised.

"In that case, let's wait and see." Ren Gang's brows relaxed slightly, as if he was slightly relieved. However, he instantly warned again, "Even though you don't have to be as nervous as before, you still have to carefully watch the movements in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion. You can't relax."

"Yes, Sect Leader!"

"..."

... ..

"Elder Tao, you think so as well?"

A smile surfaced on Feng Yushu's face. The man opposite to him was surprisingly the top-grade heaven rank work, Tao Yanghui, who would lead his team to Xuandu to participate in the Myriad Domain Dao Arts.

"That's the only explanation."

"Tang Huan is not even a hundred years old yet she's ranked number one on the Artifact Board. This is enough to make all the other sects fear him for thirty-six days. If he had already stepped into the Heavenly King Stage, that would have been fine, but he was just a second grade Heaven Marquis. This level of cultivation was definitely at the bottom of the list amongst all the cultivators that obtained the Pearl of Absolute Beginning. Once you enter the 'Primal Beginning Immortal Domain', Tang Huan will certainly be in an extremely dangerous situation. "

"In the past few days, whether it's Tang Huan or the other Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion cultivators who are about to enter the 'Ancient Era's Immortal Domain', they must be frantically raising their cultivation."

Tao Yanghui replied slowly, "Otherwise, Tang Huan, who had the support of a heaven expert, would have attacked our Limitless Temple and Qian Yuan Heaven Sect when she returned to the Scarlet Radiance Sect. It would have been impossible for him to remain motionless even until now. Unfortunately, in such a short amount of time, even if they were to level up, how much could they improve? With the strength of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, they would have no chance of winning against all the sects for the past thirty-six days. "

As he finished speaking, a hint of pity appeared on Tao Yanghui's face.

"In terms of the results of your training, the 'Soaring Cloud Violet Palace' of the imperial palace is still quite good."

Feng Yushu smiled, "However, you are right. In such a short amount of time, no matter how fast they train, their improvement is still limited. Not only will Tang Huan not be able to keep her life during the upcoming trip to the "Taizhi Immortal Domain", it is possible that the entire army of cultivators from the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Manor will be completely annihilated. "

"Thus, we don't have to worry about him at all. At the very least, we don't have to worry too much before the 'Primal Beginning Immortal Domain' closes." Tao Yanghui had a confident smile on his face.

"We can't let our guard down either."

Feng Yushu nodded slightly, but then his smile faded as he said solemnly, "As long as that Sky King Zi Yun Tian is still staying in the Palace, we cannot relax for even a single day. Furthermore, if Tang Huan and the rest were to be annihilated, the Palace and the King would most likely jump off a wall in desperation."

"Palace Lord is right."

... ..

The Emperor Dragon Sky Manor. The Inner Mansion.

Nine Spirits, Kui Cow and She Yuji all sat cross-legged, focusing on their cultivation. Behind Nine Spirits, the Ten Thousand Swords Heavenly Diagram was quietly lying on the ground, emanating a faint aura of its own reasons.

Inside the cave, Tang Huan was also sitting straight on the ground like a statue.

At this moment, his skin seemed to be covered in a layer of golden luster. A majestic and tyrannical immortal spirit was roaring out from his body like raging waves. In this "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", the only person who could sense Tang Huan's situation was the spirit sword heart of the cave. As such, he didn't need to conceal his "Sun Immortal Body" at all.

Compared to before, Tang Huan's Dragon Tiger Celestial Art had improved by quite a bit.

Around his body, a rather large and sturdy golden dragon and tiger coiled around him. They suddenly separated and intertwined with each other, giving off a miraculous feeling of the convergence of yin and yang.

Tang Huan's face was calm, her state of mind did not change at all.

While training the "Heavenly Dragon Tiger Art", Tang Huan did not stop refining the pellets. Unknowingly, the amount of crystals in Tang Huan's Dantian that had condensed into a Nascent Soul, had already reached a frightening amount of eighty million.

As long as he could condense another critical dao crystal, Tang Huan would be able to advance into a Tier 8 Heaven Marquis easily.

After a long while, Tang Huan suddenly opened her eyes and jumped, but in the next moment, his figure had already disappeared from the Supreme Profound Hall ...

Chapter 1720 - Metal Spirit Fire

After a short moment, Tang Huan's figure suddenly appeared by the side of the Tai Xuan Lake.

"Ang!"

"Roar!"

Faintly, there seemed to be the sounds of dragons and tigers roaring. The golden dragon that was twenty to thirty meters long and the golden tiger that was nearly two meters tall were circling around Tang Huan at a fast speed, and boundless immortal spirit energy roared out like raging waves. After that, it not only filled an area of ten meters around him, it also seemed to have solidified.

Tang Huan's ten fingers danced in the air, the immortal sense around him was immediately activated, and fiercely fluctuated in the air.

The next moment, a mass of golden flames condensed and formed in the air. The mass of flames then split into two at an astonishing speed, with two halves being split into four ... In the blink of an eye, these thousands upon thousands of balls of flames had already gathered into a sea of golden flames that poured down from the sky with a loud rumble.

The area within a thousand meters was completely covered.

An unparalleled berserk aura surged out in all directions, and the air around the golden sea of fire distorted violently, visible to the naked eye. At this moment, the golden sea of fire didn't radiate any heat. Instead, an invincible and sharp intent rapidly spread out.

Under the sea of fire, the sand, rocks, and plants on the ground were continuously reduced to fine powder.

Immediately afterwards, a huge pit became clearer and clearer. It was at least a thousand meters in size, and its depth reached a hundred meters.

"Metal Spirit Fire!"

Tang Huan's ten fingers had already stopped moving, her body quietly floating above the hole, looking down at the hole and the quickly dissipating golden sea of fire, a smile suddenly appeared on her face.

Metal spirit fire, this was one of the nine great immortal arts that Tang Huan had obtained from the Beginner Immortal Encyclopedia!

The power was indeed extraordinary, and this was because Tang Huan was in his cave, and did not use his full power. Otherwise, the power she released would have been even stronger.

Tang Huan felt that this Immortal technique was the same as the magic that he had learnt in the lower realms.

Of course, the power of the two couldn't be compared in the same breath.

Celestial spells were like spells that had been upgraded countless times over. Ever since he had transcended the heavenly tribulation, Tang Huan had not used any magic at all.

This Heaven Realm that was filled with immortal sky spirit energy was actually extremely harmful to the magic. This meant that when using the magic, Tang Huan would need to consume more of her Sky Origin Stage spirit energy, and using it occasionally was not good.

But after trying out the 'Gold Spirit Fire', Tang Huan suddenly realised that it would be extremely easy for the 'Sun Immortal Body' to not hold back at all in its ability to cast spells. Furthermore, to cast spells in this kind of situation, there was no need to use Sky Origin Stage, all she needed to do was use the power of Immortal Qi.

While thinking, Tang Huan's heart started to move, after an instant, he started to try.

"Space Moving!"

In between Tang Huan's mind instructs (in a second), the immortal spirit aura around him started to fluctuate rapidly once again, and in less than half a blink of an eye, Tang Huan's figure had already disappeared from her original location.

When Tang Huan appeared again, she was already thousands of meters away.

"Sure enough!"

Tang Huan couldn't help but smile slightly.

In an instant, the ten fingers on his hands drew a line in front of him like a butterfly crossing a flower. Boundless immortal spirit energy whizzed out from the tip of his fingers. In an instant, ten huge fire dragons condensed in front of him.

Each fire dragon was several hundred meters long, and as soon as they appeared, they roared and bared their fangs and brandished their claws, causing heat to surge out like the tide. At this moment, the surrounding thousands of meters seemed to have been illuminated by the intense flames, turning the entire area red.

"Fire Dragon Berserk Dance!"

This was one of the fire magic that Tang Huan had trained in the lower realms.

At that time, Tang Huan could only condense five fire dragons, but now, the number of fire dragons Tang Huan could condense with her Immortal's Will had doubled. Of course, the power of this magic didn't come from the number of fire dragons, but from the amount of power each fire dragon could unleash.

Each one of these ten fire dragons seemed to contain an ancient volcano on the verge of erupting. Their might was extremely frightening.

However, before the Fire Dragon could explode, Tang Huan's hand movements suddenly changed, the Fire Dragon that was pouncing towards him at a distance of a thousand meters swiftly dissipated, and between heaven and earth, there seemed to be an extremely minute sound of water ripples surging outwards, but right after, the sound reverberated back and forth in the air like thunder.

Around Tang Huan, a deep blue will crazily appeared, and in an instant, it turned into an enormous wave that overflowed into the heavens. At this time, Tang Huan's entire body spanned a thousand meters, covering a vast ocean.

"Violent Waves!"

Numerous thick and sharp green thorns instantly shot out from the side of Tang Huan's body like bamboo shoots after a spring rain. They soared into the sky with an astonishing speed, from a thousand meters long to a few hundred meters short, it seemed as if many big or small holes had been poked out in the space around Tang Huan.

"Thorn Wood Piercing Fist!"

"Golden Bell Cover!"

"Earth Spirit Shield!"

By the side of the Tai Xuan Lake, dragons and tigers danced wildly. Tang Huan excitedly performed the magic that she had learnt continuously. To the current Tang Huan, these spells were naturally easy to execute, but when performed by Tang Huan, their power was not the least bit weak.

After an unknown period of time, Tang Huan finally stopped.

After sensing it slightly, a smile actually appeared in Tang Huan's eyes. Just now, the total amount of various spells that he had cast did not exceed a hundred, but the power contained within the "Celestial Sun Body", was still around fifty percent. This did not mean that Tang Huan had only consumed fifty percent of his energy. Rather, when his energy was being consumed, the power of her Immortal body was continuously being replenished. From this, one could see the profundity of the 'Draconic Tiger Celestial Art'.

This kind of immortal cultivation method, up till now, had only been considered to be at the initial stage.

It was only a small success of the celestial technique, but was already able to quickly replenish Tang Huan's power. It was no wonder that after the immortal technique matured, it was able to cause the power of the immortal body to grow and be inexhaustible.

Right now, the fighting strength that the "Sun Immortal Body" could bring out was not inferior to the fighting strength that Tang Huan could bring out using her Tao technique under normal circumstances. This meant that even if Tang Huan ran out of Tian Yuan one day, she still had a way to defend against enemies.

However, unless it was absolutely necessary, Tang Huan would never reveal her true Immortal body.

In the Nether Realm, even though it was rare to see people with celestial bodies, there were still a few. However, in the past 36 days, there had not been a single cultivator with a true Immortal body like him. With Tang Huan's current strength, it would be useless for him to let everyone know about this secret.

While he was thinking, Tang Huan took a light breath, his figure moved slightly, and he was back in the Supreme Profound Hall.

But just as Tang Huan was about to sit down, inside the Dantian, the "Primal Beginning Immortal Pearl" that had been silent all this time suddenly started to ripple.
