

W. Master 181

Chapter 181 - All is ready

"What? Disappeared?"

In a mansion located in the center of Dragon Spring Town, a golden-robed elderly man suddenly frowned. He was Sha Long Empire General Dugu Yan.

"That's right!"

The armored young man nodded, and said rather helplessly, "Right now, we have already searched through the entire Dragon Spring Inn, but we have not found the couple. Those who want to buy the Heavenly Wood Stone might have already started searching the entire city for them."

Dugu Yan said in a deep voice, "Could it be that they entered Dragon Spring Inn for the purpose of confusing the vision, but in reality, they did not stay there?"

"General, your subordinate has already asked the owner. That couple did indeed live there with their child last night."

The young man had a puzzled expression, "Moreover, ever since they returned from Divine Armament Tower, the owner has not seen them leave. It was only when the head manager of the Spirit Feather Merchant Guild, Fu Chi, entered the inn to look for them that he realized that there was not a single person in the room they were staying in. This is truly strange. Could it be that they can fly away? "

When Dugu Yan heard this, his brows tightened even more.

... ..

"He really went missing?" On the third floor of the Divine Armament Building, a blue clothed elderly man stroked his snow-white beard as he chuckled. He seemed to not be surprised at all.

"The Tower Lord knew that they would disappear?"

Another voice rang out. This time, it was the middle-aged man who had bought the gem from the gambling den. At this moment, his face was filled with amazement.

The blue-clothed old man chuckled, "If this old man is not wrong, then that husband and wife didn't stay at the Dragon Spring Inn at all, right?"

"No, they really do live there. They were there last night." The middle-aged man shook his head.

"Huh?"

The blue-clothed old man stared blankly for a moment. His hands also stopped moving, almost pulling off a few strands of his beard. "Logically speaking, it's impossible. Could it be that this old man's previous guess was wrong?"

"What did OP think before?" The middle-aged man asked in surprise.

"I originally thought that he was pretending to be stupid, and the goal was for people to look down on him."

The blue clothed old man slowly said, "As a result, when he said that the people at the Dragon Spring Inn were bidding to buy the Heavenly Wood Stone, no one would be suspicious. Even the people following him previously wouldn't take him seriously.

"OP means to say that he has no intention of selling those three 'Heavenly Wood Rocks'?" The middle-aged man was stunned.

"That's right."

The blue-clothed old man nodded, his expression also showing a trace of confusion, "I had originally thought that he was just using the Dragon Spring Inn as a cover to escape. However, since he had already stayed at the Dragon Spring Inn, it didn't make sense. If he revealed his true location, it would mean that he really wanted to sell the Heavenly Wood Stone. It seems like the ignorance that he displayed in the gambling den was also true, and was not an act. "

"Unless he already knew that his stone gambling house would be filled with precious high-grade gems such as the 'Heavenly Wood Stone', he would have stayed in the Dragon Spring Inn in advance to prepare. However, this is completely impossible. Even Stage Nine Martial Saint can only try my luck in this kind of stone gambling. "

"OP, could someone have gotten in first and taken them away?" The middle-aged man couldn't help but ask.

"Logically speaking, that's not the case. There are only a few experts in Dragon Spring Town, and this old man knows them all. In broad daylight, even if they were to make a move, they would reveal their abilities." The blue-clothed old man hesitated, "Could it be that even more powerful people are hiding in this Dragon Spring Town?"

"..."

... ..

The appearance of the three "Sky Wood Rocks" in the gambling den was enough to cause this small Dragon Spring Town to stir up a commotion, but after the couple with the "Sky Wood Rocks" disappeared, the Dragon Spring Town became even more chaotic. Countless Martial Warriors were mobilized, searching for their tracks in all directions.

It was extremely quiet in a courtyard southeast of Dragon Spring Town.

"Those guys must be hopping up and down by now."

In the room, Tang Huan laughed and pulled the beard off his face.

That "Dragon Spring Inn" was indeed a path of retreat that Tang Huan had prepared beforehand. As early as last night, Tang Huan and Mu Yan had each entered the tavern using their different identities, and then quietly slipped out, using their changed appearances to bring Feng Ming to the tavern once more.

After returning to the Dragon Spring Inn from the Divine Armament, the two of them immediately changed their appearances.

Tang Huan had become a brawny man with a full beard, while Mu Yan had become a pregnant woman with a belly as big as a * *.

The Dragon Spring Inn was located in the west side of the city, and those who came from the Crescent City entered from the west side. This made the inn very lively, with Martial Warriors going in and out of the inn, no one paid attention to Tang Huan.

"I will never act like a pregnant woman again!" Mu Yan turned her back and snappily snorted. She then lifted up her red dress and untied Feng Ming who was tied to her abdomen. When she turned around with Feng Ming in her arms, her pretty face was already flushed red.

"I guess you won't even have the chance to play the role in the future ..." Is that so, Feng Ming? "

Tang Huan received Feng Ming from Mu Yan's hands and smilingly smacked the little girl's pink cheeks.

When he was dressing up in the tavern, in order to prevent Feng Ming from revealing his flaws, Mu Yan used some methods that caused the little girl to fall asleep immediately. It was only now that the girl finally opened her eyes. She still felt a bit dizzy. Being kissed like that by Tang Huan, the little girl was stunned for a moment. After a while, she woke up, her little mouth flattened, as if she was about to cry.

"I haven't eaten anything in the whole morning, I think I'm just hungry. Mu Yan, as Feng Ming's mother, don't you plan to feed Feng Ming some milk?" Tang Huan joked.

"Hey your head!"

Mu Yan's cheeks were slightly hot. She glared at Tang Huan and Feng Ming angrily before she left the room. The little girl seemed to be scared stiff by Mu Yan's fierce look. She pouted her little mouth and resisted crying, but her eyes were filled with tears.

Tang Huan knew that Mu Yan must have gone to prepare food for Feng Ming. He smiled slightly and placed the little girl on the bed, "Xiao Budian, look at Feng Ming first."

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian was playing on the bed with the Rainbow Spirit Mouse, and upon hearing this, he immediately jumped and slipped in front of Feng Ming, sat down, and stared at Feng Ming with his pair of dark blue eyes. The Rainbow Spirit Mouse also followed over, and quickly climbed onto Xiao Budian's back.

Feng Ming's pure eyeballs rolled around, and after a while, the little girl burst into laughter, and her giggling and the cries of the two Spiritual Beast quickly became one.

Feng Ming, Xiao Budian and the Rainbow Spirit Mouse started to play while Tang Huan had already opened the wood case of the "Spirit Severing Tong".

Now, everything was finally ready!

Chapter 182 - Inside a Secret Chamber

Roughly an hour later, in a rather spacious secret room under the courtyard.

Tang Huan sat cross-legged. Sky Wood Stone, Phoenix Stone, Dragon Crystal, Phoenix Flame Essence, Sun Scorching Stone, Fire Iron and Indestructible Gold Stones were arranged in a row. If such items were to be seen in the Dragon Spring Town, the entire town would probably be bleeding profusely from the competition for them.

Outside the secret room's exit not too far away, Mu Yan was similarly sitting cross-legged on the ground without making a sound.

Outside this secret room, there was another secret room connected to each other. Feng Ming, Xiao Budian and the Rainbow Spirit Mouse were all there. Mu Yan did not pay any attention to the movements in the secret room outside, she was completely focused on Tang Huan. This was her first time seeing Weapon Refiner forging a weapon that could be upgraded.

Tang Huan's mind was even more focused, as he continuously picked up and put down the things in front of him.

Tang Huan had already thought through what kind of weapon he would need to forge this time.

There were only two powerful offensive techniques that he currently trained in. One was the "Flaming Rainbow Spear Art" and the other was the "Burning Heaven Slash Technique". He did have a Rainbow Shocking Blade. However, with the current situation, it was not suitable for him to carry around as it would expose his identity too easily.

Therefore, when he left the Dragon Spring Town, Tang Huan would leave behind the Rainbow Blade.

From the looks of it, it didn't matter if it was a forging knife or a spear. However, after careful consideration, Tang Huan still chose to forge a spear. It was because of the fact that, among the two battle skills, the "Burning Sea Slash" only had four incomplete moves, while the "Flaming Rainbow Spear" art was complete.

In addition, the current materials were more suitable for forging a long spear.

After a long while, all that was left beside Tang Huan were the large piece of Fiery Iron, five Dragon Crystal s, a Phoenix Flame Essence, a Phoenix Stone and three Heavenly Wood Rocks.

These were the materials that Tang Huan had selected.

The reason why he chose "Blazing Iron" instead of "Indestructible Brilliant Gold" was very simple. With his current Genuine Qi, even if he used all his might to activate the "Nirvana Sacred Fire", it would still be difficult for him to refine a precious material like "Indestructible Brilliant Golden", that could be used to forge a divine artifact.

According to Tang Huan's estimations, only after he had advanced to the eighth stage of Martial Lord would he be able to use the "Indestructible Brilliant Golden".

As a result, Tang Huan could only use "Blazing Metal" right now, and this kind of weapon that was forged by iron ore had a certain flexibility, it was a very suitable weapon for forging pikes. As for the spearhead, as long as it was tempered to 60% of its normal temperature, it would become incomparably hard.

After the main material was confirmed, it was the gem.

Of the five elements, wood could ignite fire, but the combination of these two gems had to be perfect. The weapon that Tang Huan wanted to forge had to be of the fire attribute, in order to be able to maximize the power of the Spiritual Fire. Thus, he naturally used the fire attribute gem, which was also known as the "Phoenix Stone", as his main weapon.

In this way, the effects of the "Heavenly Wood Stone" would definitely not be stronger than the "Phoenix Stone".

Otherwise, it would cause a ruckus and affect the weapon's performance, but the effects of the "Sky Wood Stone" could not be too weak.

This was like a burning flame suddenly adding a large pile of firewood. Not only could it not become stronger, it might even cause the flame to extinguish, but if only adding a very small branch into the fire, it would also not help in increasing the intensity of the fire.

Therefore, it was a great test of a Weapon Refiner's judgement.

Tang Huan had originally thought that these two "Heavenly Wood Rocks" were about enough to match one "Phoenix Stone", but after a moment of close inspection, he discovered that one "Phoenix Stone" required three "Heavenly Wood Rocks". Although the "Phoenix Stone" was only a middle-ranked gem while the "Heavenly Wood Stone" was a high-ranked gem, the effectiveness of the "Phoenix Stone" was far beyond what the "Heavenly Wood Stone" could compare to.

"Mu Yan, you should take care of the little fellows outside."

Tang Huan looked up at Mu Yan.

Ever since Tang Huan had promised to level up to the eighth stage of Martial Lord and set her free, Mu Yan's mindset had undergone a tremendous change. Before that, Mu Yan who had become a puppet felt that he had nothing to live for, if he was not afraid of being humiliated after death, he would have committed suicide long ago. But knowing that she had the opportunity to regain her freedom, the will to die in her heart gradually dissipated.

It was not easy to die. Especially after one's life force was reignited, it would no longer be easy for one to have the intention to die.

Such a Mu Yan would cause many misgivings to rise in his heart.

If it was still the same Mu Yan from before, Tang Huan would definitely not dare to disguise himself and bring her into the Divine Armament Tower to gamble. After all, in that place, if Mu Yan did not care about the Spiritual Fire in her Dantian at all, as long as he loudly revealed his identity, it would be impossible for him to escape.

"Humph!"

Hearing that, Mu Yan did not say anything, he only snorted, and accepted it.

Tang Huan smiled, retracted his gaze, and took a light breath. A moment later, Tang Huan was already calm and focused, with a light stretch of his hand, the large piece of "Obsidian Iron" was caught in his palm. Almost at the same time, within Tang Huan's Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the two stages of Spiritual Wheel were already operating to their limits.

"Hu!"

In the next moment, a captivating red flame whizzed out from Tang Huan's palm.

"In an instant, the entire piece of [Obsidian Iron] had been completely covered." Once the Nirvana Sacred Fire was activated, an incomparable heat wave began to frantically engulf the surroundings. In the blink of an eye, the secret room seemed to have turned into a furnace that was unbearably hot.

At the exit of the secret room, Mu Yan felt the change in temperature, and his expression couldn't help but change slightly.

Even until now, she still had some lingering fear from the Spiritual Fire that Tang Huan had displayed. Now that she saw the flames in Tang Huan's palm, she felt as if her shoulders were aching again. The miserable situations of Hu Sen, Tian Hong, Hong Xin, and Rong Qi uncontrollably surfaced in her mind.

However, in his lingering fear, Mu Yan rejoiced slightly. After taking action against Tang Huan, he was still alive and well until now.

She knew very well that even though Tang Huan was only a Stage Five Martial Master, after fusing with one of the Five Great Spiritual Fire's "Nirvana Sacred Fire", the Stage Six Martial Master was simply incapable of contending against him. Even if it was a Stage Seven Martial Master, it would probably not be an easy task to kill him. With Tang Huan's potential, as long as he does not die prematurely, becoming a Stage Nine Martial Saint and a Weapon Refining Grand Master in the future was something that was already certain to happen.

She had completely resigned herself to her fate. Becoming a follower of a future Stage Nine Martial Saint and a Weapon Refining Grand Master was not a very shameful thing, not to mention that Tang Huan had promised to restore her freedom after advancing to a Martial Saint of the eighth step.

After getting along for more than ten days, she had a good understanding of Tang Huan's personality. Since Tang Huan had already said so, then he would definitely not go back on his words.

Of course, this was also because after Tang Huan had used the power of the Spiritual Fire to control her, he had always treated her with respect, and never threatened her with any threats.

Mu Yan's mind spun, facing towards a place ten meters away, the flame in Tang Huan's palm had already changed, and was actually churning like a wave.

This was actually a technique that Tang Huan had used before in the "Weapon Refining Competition" — —

Great waves breaking through the sand!

Chapter 183 Double Dragon Beads

A few days after Furious Waves City's "Weapon Refining Competition", Tang Huan arrived at Origin Continent, and from then on, he no longer had the chance to forge weapons. However, Tang Huan's art of forging weapons was not wasted at all, and when he used "Great Wave Sands", he became even more proficient in it.

In addition, the flames that Tang Huan was using now, had also changed from the normal "True Fire" to "Nirvana Sacred Fire."

"Drip!" "Drip drip ..."

Although the sound was quite soft, it appeared unusually loud in the secret room.

Mu Yan, who was indulging in his thoughts, suddenly woke up from his stupor and glanced in front of Tang Huan. The liquid on the ground quickly dried up and turned into powdery, dark-red particles.

Although Mu Yan was not a Weapon Refiner cultivator, she knew a thing or two about artifact forging. At this moment, she could tell at a glance that what was falling down was the impurities within the "Blazing Metal".

"Such fast speed. As expected of the 'Nirvana Sacred Fire'."

Mu Yan's heart was slightly moved, her beautiful eyes couldn't help but reveal a trace of unconcealable astonishment.

If an ordinary middle stage Weapon Refiner were to use "Obsidian Iron" to forge weapons, not only would they have to activate the True Fire to temper their weapons, they would also have to borrow the strength of iron hammers and other tools to repeatedly forge their weapons. However, the current Tang Huan had completely abandoned all external objects and directly used flames to temper the "Obsidian Iron".

This was already the tactic of a high level Weapon Refiner.

Not only that, the speed at which Tang Huan refined the ore and removed the impurities was equally astonishing. According to her knowledge, even the most powerful would have to wait at least a quarter of an hour for impurities to be removed after the ore was burnt by the flames.

However, Tang Huan, on the other hand, hadn't even shown half of a quarter of an hour since the start.

In her mind, only a few dozen breaths of time had passed.

"I wonder what the weapon forged with Spiritual Fire will look like?"

Seeing the extremely focused Tang Huan, Mu Yan suddenly had some anticipation. Although she had never seen a weapon that could be promoted, just by looking at the materials that Tang Huan used such as "Phoenix Stone", "Sky Wood Stone", "Dragon Crystal", and "Phoenix Flame Essence", she knew that the weapon was definitely extraordinary.

Furthermore, when Tang Huan forged his weapon, he did not use the normal True Fire, but rather the Spiritual Fire that not many had ever succeeded in.

"Drip!" "Drip drip ..."

The sound of the liquid dripping became more and more urgent. However, it did not last long. After a dozen breaths of time, the sound suddenly stopped. Immediately after, the flames on Tang Huan's palms weakened, and the iron ore that was covered in flames became visible.

At this time, the "Obsidian Iron" had greatly changed its appearance. It was bright red, translucent and without any other colors. It looked like a flawless red jade.

A weak flame flowed out from his left palm like a stream, coiling around the large piece of "Blazing Metal" that had been tempered. However, Tang Huan's right hand grabbed a "Dragon Crystal", and an even more blazing flame roared out and covered it.

"It's finally begun!"

At the entrance of the secret room, Mu Yan's delicate body was already drenched in sweat. The red dress stuck to her skin, making it seem more and more convex, and it curved in a way that she did not mind in the slightest. The moment she saw Tang Huan grab the "Dragon Crystal," her pair of beautiful eyes also emitted a bright light.

According to her knowledge, the first key to forging this kind of weapon that could be promoted was the fusion of "Dragon Crystal" and "Phoenix Flame Essence" with iron ore.

Amongst them, the refinement of "Dragon Crystal" was the most important.

This kind of gem contained an extremely strange power. When refining a gem, one could not cause the slightest bit of damage to that power, or else, the 'Dragon Crystal' would be destroyed.

As for whether or not the energy contained within the "Dragon Crystal" was damaged, it was extremely simple. All he needed to do was to see if or not the little golden dragon inside the gem was still intact after the completion of the smelting process. If the gold royals were complete, the power of the gems would not be damaged at all. On the other hand, they could only be exchanged for gems.

Maintaining the golden dragon's integrity sounded simple, but doing so was exceptionally difficult.

This pair of flames and Genuine Qi's coordination, as well as the flames and Genuine Qi's control, all required an extremely high level of requirements.

And it was also because of this reason that even if someone gathered enough ingredients, they would not invite a high ranking Weapon Refiner to forge a weapon that could be promoted. Instead, they would invite the Weapon Refining Master, or even the Weapon Refining Grand Master himself to make a move, which the Weapon Refining Master and the Weapon Refining Grand Master basically would not reject.

Forging such a weapon was a huge temptation to the Weapon Refining Grand Master.

After all, this kind of weapon could be raised continuously in the future. From the middle rank to the high rank, from high rank to heaven rank, and from heaven rank to saint rank, this was extremely close to the Divine Armament. To the Weapon Refining Grand Master, it was not easy to forge a weapon like the Divine Armament.

"Hu!"

In Tang Huan's right palm, flames raged.

Within the "Dragon Crystal", the white piece covering the golden dragon was melting at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye, while the golden dragon seemed to have come to life as it slowly swam around inside the gem. Its mouth was also constantly opening and closing, as if it was absorbing something.

Mu Yan understood that the golden dragon was actually absorbing the [Dragon Crystal].

After the white part of the gem melted, it did not disappear. Instead, under the urging of the surrounding flames, it directly seeped into the gem and was entered by the golden dragon sucking. These things were like nourishment, causing the little golden dragon to become even more agile.

The flames in Tang Huan's palm were wild and ferocious. Not long after, the "Dragon Crystal" was reduced by about half, and the little golden dragon inside seemed like it was about to break out from the boulder.

Seeing this, Mu Yan's heart uncontrollably tensed up.

If the flames were too strong, the golden dragon would definitely be injured. In the bottom of Mu Yan's heart, there was even an impulse to remind Tang Huan to quickly restrain the flames.

However, she suppressed this thought with all her might, and did not disturb Tang Huan. She believed that Tang Huan would not make a mistake here.

As expected, after almost an instant, the flames on Tang Huan's palm began to contract.

But in the next moment, Mu Yan's beautiful eyes suddenly turned round as she stared at Tang Huan's right palm without blinking.

The flame on his palm had indeed shrunk, but it immediately split into two again. The two gentle flame seedlings were like a pair of gentle hands as they slowly propped up the "Dragon Crystal" that was originally lying on his palm.

After about three to four breaths of time, the "Dragon Crystal" had already floated above his palm. Immediately after, the two flame seedlings suddenly became stronger and weaker, and the 'Dragon Crystal' also started jumping up and down, left and right, agilely jumping up and down on top of the flame tips like fairies.

"Twin Dragon Pearl?"

Mu Yan's red lips opened slightly as she muttered to herself unconsciously.

Chapter 184 Dragons and phoenixes

The moment these four notes popped out from his mouth, Mu Yan quivered and woke up. Following that, her beautiful face was filled with uncontrollable shock.

If she remembered correctly, the origin of this kind of artifact forging technique was the extremely famous Weapon Refining Grand Master's Ou Xie a hundred years ago.

It was said that this kind of refining technique was specially created to refine gems like the "Dragon Crystal".

When the "Gemini Bead" was born, Ou Xie, who was already renowned throughout the world, became even more famous. If not for the fact that at that time, there was still another Weapon Refining Grand Master whose fame had become even more prominent, his refining methods alone with the [Twin Dragon Theatre Pearl] would have been enough to make Ou Xie become the number one Weapon Refining Grand Master in the world.

It was a pity that after the leader of the Human Clan who founded the "Glory Empire" passed away, Ou Xie became like the Spear Saint and disappeared without a trace.

After several tens of years, Ou Xie was no longer silent and the [Twin Dragon Orb] that he created never appeared again.

Today, the only thing the people knew about Ou Xie was that he had passed away. On the continent, countless people had felt extremely regretful that such a miraculous artifact forging technique had been lost to them.

But now, the "Dragon's Twin Orbs" had actually appeared in Tang Huan's hands!

First, it was the "Flaming Rainbow Spear Art" of the Spear Saint, and then it was the "Duo Dragon Duo Pearl" of the Weapon Refining Grand Master. What exactly was the identity of this fellow?

A descendant or disciple of Ye Chongshan? Or a descendant or disciple of Ou Xie?

Or both?

Looking at Tang Huan's age, it was more likely that he was the descendant of two people, but there was a possibility that Tang Huan was their disciple. After all, experts like Ye Chongshan and Ou Xie, who were at the peak of Stage Nine Martial Saint's strength, could live up to a hundred years without much of a problem.

"Roar!"

Faintly, a dragon's roar reverberated in the chamber.

Mu Yan suddenly woke up from his stupor and looked over. He saw that on the two flame tips of Tang Huan's right palm, a small dragon was leisurely swimming around, and its small body was explosively emitting a bright golden light. Not only did it dazzle people's eyes, it also gave them an extremely mysterious feeling.

Mu Yan even felt that the little golden dragon was a spiritual object that possessed life.

Tang Huan didn't let his imagination run wild like Mu Yan's. The two flame seedlings swayed nimbly, and the golden dragon floating at the tip of the flame gradually sank. After a while, it was engulfed by fire.

The flame shrunk rapidly. In the blink of an eye, it turned into a fist-sized fireball.

Inside the fireball, the golden dragon was still spiraling.

Tang Huan's movements didn't pause at all, with a move of his right palm, the fireball in his palm was already pressed onto that piece of "Blazing Metal" that was still completely red. His palm slowly sank down and the fireball wrapped around the little gold dragon slowly fused with the iron ore. Only after nearly half a quarter of an hour did the fireball completely enter it.

"Hu!"

Seeing this, Mu Yan could not help but let out a long breath, and his taut heartstrings also quietly relaxed.

Actually, after she knew that Tang Huan had used the "Twin Dragon Orb" created by the Weapon Refining Grand Master, she had known from the start that the probability of Tang Huan making a mistake in this step was extremely small.

Even though she said that, during the forging process, any accidents could happen. Unless it was the last moment, no one could say for sure. Now that she had personally witnessed the fusion of the gold dragon and iron ore, she could finally relax.

Of course, Mu Yan was this concerned about Tang Huan's refining process, not because she had any feelings for Tang Huan, but because she had the instincts of a Martial Warriors. Being able to witness the production of a good weapon was an extremely exciting thing for almost all Martial Warriors.

But just as he heaved a sigh of relief, Mu Yan quickly concentrated again to hold his breath, because Tang Huan had already grabbed the second "Dragon Crystal".

With his previous experience of success, the probability of Tang Huan failing this time was even less. Mu Yan's mind also relaxed quite a bit as he began to appreciate Tang Huan's methods.

The more he read, the more Mu Yan gasped in surprise.

This Tang Huan is really a born Weapon Refiner. Now, she could already conclude that Tang Huan had only started using the method of "Twin Dragon Hunting Beads" just today to refine "Dragon Crystal." When he had made his first "Dragon Crystal," Tang Huan had seemed to have held back, but now he was completely at ease.

This was especially true when he once again used the technique, 'Dragons' and 'Beads of Dragons'. In his palm, the two flame seedlings seemed to have come alive.

If it was a Weapon Refiner, even if he were to practice "Twin Dragon Orbs" multiple times, it would probably be impossible for him to reach Tang Huan's level. However, after only using it twice, he had already completely grasped the profundity of it, and in terms of Tools Method, this fellow had an innate comprehension and talent.

If she didn't know that he was like her previous life, she would have thought that Tang Huan was a genius Weapon Refining Grand Master in his previous life, and that he had inherited the experiences of his previous life while still in his mother's womb. For the past ten or so years, he just didn't have any insights, but once he did, he would immediately amaze everyone.

Time flew by like a shuttle. Inside the secret room, the heat was rising.

Two, three ... Five crystals ... Unknowingly, the five Dragon Crystal s had all been smelted, and the huge piece of "Blazing Iron" had already been fused with the five little golden dragons. After they entered the ore, they continued to move around, but their speed became much slower.

"It's time for 'Phoenix Flame Essence'!"

Mu Yan exhaled lightly as her beautiful eyes stared at Tang Huan's right palm. In the next moment, as expected, Tang Huan grabbed a piece of the "Phoenix Flame Essence".

Looking at this, Mu Yan's heart suddenly twitched, as if a voice was shouting. That 'Phoenix Flame Essence' was something that I had risked my life to obtain.

In a split-second, when Mu Yan looked at Tang Huan, his expression suddenly changed to one of gritted teeth.

But after a short while, Mu Yan threw that bit of resentment out of his heart, and stared at Tang Huan's right palm. An instant later, a ball of strong and fierce flames appeared in Mu Yan's dark pupils, swaying uncontrollably.

Smelting "Phoenix Flame Essence" was much simpler than "Dragon Crystal". There was only one important part of the process, and that was the fierce fire.

The fiercer the flames, the faster the Phoenix Flame Essence would melt.

When Tang Huan activated the "Nirvana Sacred Fire," how could the heat contained within the flames be compared to a normal True Fire? Thus, in a blink of an eye, Mu Yan realized that the temperature of the room, which was already extremely hot, had increased once again. For a moment, even she, a Stage Six Martial Master, found it hard to endure.

However, the interesting moment was about to arrive, how could Mu Yan bear to leave now, so he endured the heat and continued to watch.

After a while, the "Phoenix Flame Essence" that was wrapped within the blazing flame became more and more round. Under the impact of the firepower, the "Phoenix Flame Essence" surface rippled slightly ... This meant that the "Phoenix Flame Essence" had begun to melt.

Under Mu Yan's attentive gaze, the melting of the "Phoenix Flame Essence" continued at a speed that could be seen by the naked eye. In the span of a few dozen breaths, the "Phoenix Flame Essence" had already transformed into a ball of liquid that did not scatter under the bindings of the fierce flames.

"Draconic Phoenix and Mirage of the Cry ... "It's about to appear..."

Mu Yan's beautiful eyes slightly moved, as she muttered to herself, her beautiful face that was roasted red uncontrollably revealed a touch of anticipation.

Author's Note: After laying out for so long, for the sake of this weapon, I have written it down in detail. Very soon, the weapon will be ready. In the end, everyone was so amazing that they had already passed the 5200 monthly tickets. Little friends, please don't stop there.

Chapter 185 - Cloud Movement

"Hu!"

With a flip of his right palm, the liquid ball wrapped in flames touched the "Blazing Metal".

Immediately after, the melted "Phoenix Flame Essence" completely fused with the iron ore at an astonishing speed and continued to expand. After a short span of three to four breaths, the scattered "Phoenix Flame Essence" seemed to have transformed into a vivid phoenix.

"Clang!"

With the strong and fierce heat pushing it, the phoenix also trembled slightly. From Mu Yan's perspective, it seemed as if the phoenix was about to spread its wings and fly away. At almost the same time, a cry came out from the phoenix.

"He's here!" Mu Yan bit her lips lightly as her beautiful eyes widened.

"Roar!"

The moment Feng Ming's voice fell, a loud and clear dragon cry immediately reverberated out, and in the next moment, the five small golden dragons that were roaming around seemed to be attracted, and they all moved closer to the phoenix at the same time.

Not only that, the five golden dragons were also closing in on each other.

When it approached the phoenix's head, it had already fused into one, turning into a small golden dragon that was almost the same size as the phoenix.

"Roar!"

"Clang!"

The dragon cry and Feng Ming's voice matched each other, and the moment this voice sounded, the dragon mouth and phoenix beak had already made contact, as though they were a couple kissing.

"Sure enough!" Seeing this scene, Mu Yan's heart was filled with an unexplainable joy.

"Hu!"

He then moved the [Obsidian Iron] to his left palm, but the flame did not extinguish. Instead, it became even more intense and violent. On Tang Huan's right palm, the flames had converged but the Genuine Qi was surging like a violent storm and it contained an incomparably scorching heat.

"Bang!" "Bang ..."

Immediately after, knocking sounds continuously resounded in the secret room. Tang Huan's right hand kept hitting that huge piece of "Obsidian Iron" continuously, rising and falling, sometimes fast and sometimes slow. That sound was also sometimes strong and sometimes weak, as though a strange melody was lingering in the air.

Mu Yan let out a long breath, and a slight smile appeared on his face. This was what forging was called, once the forging was done, the weapon would be the elementary artifact slab.

Relatively speaking, forging an embryo using an instrument such as an iron hammer was much easier, but it would take a much longer period of time.

Directly using Genuine Qi to complement the flames would shorten the time but would also be more difficult.

The better the iron ore, the better it was.

Of course, this was only for the other Weapon Refiner s. Tang Huan possessed the "Nirvana Sacred Fire", so it was impossible for him to forge the "Everlasting Gold" with just his hands. However, this "Blazing Metal" was not difficult for him. In comparison, this step should be the simplest for Tang Huan.

The following situation completely verified Mu Yan's guess.

That huge piece of "Blazing Metal" continued to change its shape under Tang Huan's attacks. In less than half an hour, a spear had already been formed in Tang Huan's hands.

The body of the spear was more than two meters, while the head of the spear was over two feet.

The spear head had a beautiful curve, like a phoenix's tail, and near the spear head, two curved blade thorns extended out from both sides, like a pair of slightly spread wings. Behind the spear head, the spear head started to quickly shrink, looking like a phoenix that was flying in the sky.

It looked just like a small dragon head. It was also at that spot where two sharp thorns were protruding obliquely, much like a dragon's horn. The position of the spear behind this dragon head also had some faint dragon lines ...

However, whether it was the spearhead or the spear shaft, they were all crimson like flames at that moment.

The tip of the spear was like a phoenix, the body of the spear was like a dragon. Where the head of the spear was connected to the spear, the dragon mouth was also connected to the beak of the phoenix, matching the dragon phoenix and phoenix cry formed by the "Dragon Crystal" and "Phoenix Flame Essence".

Looking closer, Mu Yan could see that there were three grooves where the spear tip and the spear body met.

With a quick thought, she understood in her heart that it was a spirit channel that Tang Huan had left behind. In the future, to upgrade her weapon, she only needed to melt the gem and directly insert it into the spirit channel. Three spirit channels were just enough for this weapon to advance three more times.

"Next, I'll have to draw a Spirit Map."

Mu Yan's heart slightly shook, and his gaze swept past the three "Heavenly Wood Rocks" and one "Phoenix Stone" in front of Tang Huan.

After a while, under Mu Yan's gaze, Tang Huan grabbed the three "Sky Wood Stones" at the same time

...

"Chu Feng, has everything been arranged?" In a manor in the center of Dragon Spring Town, Dugu Yan said solemnly.

"It's all set up."

He was dressed in armor and his face was cold and hard like steel, "General does not have to worry, within the four city gates, your subordinate has already arranged for enough manpower. As long as that couple is still in Dragon Spring Town, they will not be able to escape even if they have wings."

"They must still be in town."

Dugu Yan gave a light snort, "It's a pity that this Dragon Spring Town is governed by the three Kingdoms. If not, this old man could have sent troops to search the entire town. However, this is all we can do now." For the sake of this new batch of raw stones, this old man has already stayed in Dragon Spring Town for a few days, and I can't delay any longer. In a while, this old man will leave Dragon Spring Town and head over to Crescent City to intercept and kill that Tang Huan.

"This subordinate understands. No matter what, this subordinate will obtain those three 'Heavenly Wood Rocks'." Chu Feng said in a low voice.

"Very good! This old man has already gathered all the materials needed to forge a weapon, I'm only short two pieces of the 'Heavenly Wood Stones' ... Chu Feng, continue to secretly search the city, don't relax! "

"Yes sir!"

"..."

"Haven't you found it yet?" In a courtyard behind the Spirit Feather Gem Store, a middle-aged man in white slightly frowned.

"Nope."

The middle-aged man opposite of him shook his head, "However, we did discover two suspicious looking people in the Dragon Spring Inn."

"Oh?"

The middle-aged man in white was slightly surprised.

The middle-aged man laughed: "Those two people were a man and a woman. They were also staying at the Dragon Spring Inn that they were in succession last night. However, after they entered the room, they never left the room. Only until today when the husband and wife returned to the Dragon Spring Inn did they leave one after the other, and then did they never appear again.

"What do you mean? You suspect that they captured the couple?" The middle-aged man in white frowned.

"No, no!"

The middle-aged man shook his head and laughed, "Don't you think this matter is too strange? Who would stay in an inn for so long that they would never show up, not to mention that one of them was pregnant? It was not exactly accurate to say that they never showed up. Not long after the couple returned to the inn from the Divine Armament Restaurant, the other two people left and not long after that, the husband and wife pair were also discovered missing ... "Isn't this too much of a coincidence?"

"You suspect that the man and woman were dressed as husband and wife?" The middle-aged man in white came to his senses. "But where did the children of that couple go?"

"Such a young child, if you hide him under your clothes and cover him up a little, as long as the child doesn't cry or make a ruckus, who would be able to discover him?" The middle-aged man laughed.

"I see." The middle-aged man's expression suddenly became excited as he said, "Send out people to search the town for the pregnant woman."

"..."

Chapter 186 - Dragon and Phoenix Spear

"Done!"

Underneath the courtyard, within the secret room, Mu Yan found it hard to control his emotions and she actually jumped up while cheering like a little girl. At this moment, she had completely forgotten that she had become a follower controlled by Tang Huan.

"Hu!"

Not far away, Tang Huan also heaved a sigh of relief.

At this moment, the flames in Tang Huan's palms had already been completely withdrawn. The long spear in his hands had once again undergone a bizarre change. The entire long spear was filled with flowing lights and vibrant colors. At a glance, one could clearly feel the strong spirit radiating from it.

The spearhead shaped like a phoenix was crystal clear and looked as if it had been carved out of red jade. When the power of Phoenix Flame Essence was concentrated on the tip of the spear, it made the interior of the spear head look like it contained a small phoenix. After drawing the outline of the phoenix, the phoenix seemed to come alive, becoming even more lifelike.

The location of the spear that was more than two meters long seemed to also contain a golden dragon that bared its fangs and brandished its claws. The dragon head appeared to be connected to the tip of the Phoenix spear while the dragon body was hidden within the spear body.

If a spear was forged in this manner, it would no longer need to be quenched by other tempering items. All it would need to do was wait for the spear to cool down naturally.

There was no need for quenching. Drawing out the outline of a Spirit Map was the final step.

To Tang Huan, it was precisely this step that exhausted the most of his attention and energy.

used the "Phoenix Stone" on the tip of his spear, while the three "Sky Wood Rocks" were all used on the body of the spear. In order for the two gems to be effective, not only would the Spirit Map outlined from the two gems need to perfectly link together, the "Dragon Crystal" and "Phoenix Flame Essence" within the long spear would also need to reach a state of perfect harmony. What was most troublesome was that the tempering of the spear's body and the spearhead would still be different.

The amount of time Tang Huan spent on this step, was actually more than the sum of the previous few steps.

Fortunately, he still succeeded in the end!

Looking at the spear that was just forged, Tang Huan could not hide the joy and excitement on his face.

With a slight movement of his thought, the Genuine Qi that contained the power of Spiritual Fire entered the spear's body.

"Buzz!"

After a moment, the body of the spear trembled, and the sound of dragons and phoenixes clanging against each other could be heard. Then, the Spirit Map within the spear seemed to be stimulated, and a resplendent green light quickly rose up into the air, spreading outwards like a tide.

It was also at this moment that the green light actually condensed at a rapid speed, and then gushed out from the dragon's mouth, but once the extremely concentrated green light passed through the point where the spear head and spear body met, it seemed to ignite, turning into an incomparably gorgeous red light, revolving around the spear head as if it was real.

"Hu!"

Almost at the same instant the red light exploded, an incomparably intense heat swept out from the fiery red spear head. Wherever it went, the surrounding space began to ripple and distort, and then, like a firecracker, a series of crackling sounds exploded around the spear head.

"Hiss!"

Outside the secret room, Mu Yan's beautiful eyes widened and she could not help but take in a breath of cold air.

However, what surprised Mu Yan the most was not such an abnormality, but the burning heat that erupted from the tip of the spear along with the incomparably sharp and fierce intent.

At this moment, she actually felt a trembling that came from the depths of her soul, as if her entire body was about to be pierced through, as if she was about to be burnt to ashes.

They were separated by such a long distance, and Tang Huan had only casually activated it, the spear was already able to unleash such terrifying might, if Tang Huan used it with all his might, what kind of situation would it have? Most likely, the opponent would be afraid before the battle.

"Good spear!"

Tang Huan could not help but let out a carefree laugh, and immediately retracted his Genuine Qi. His spear was shining with a bright light, but the tip of the spear was still burning with a strong heat, and did not dissipate.

Tang Huan was very satisfied with his spear.

"Tang Huan, what is your name for this spear?" Mu Yan regained his senses and couldn't help but take a light breath as he suppressed the fear in his chest.

"Let's call it the 'Dragon and Phoenix Spear'." Tang Huan said with a smile.

"Dragon and Phoenix Spear ..."

No matter what cultivation the Martial Warriors was, when they saw a good weapon, they would all be more or less moved. Mu Yan, who had personally witnessed the entire process of "Dragon and Phoenix Lance" being born, was even more so.

In Mu Yan's opinion, although this "Dragon and Phoenix Lance" of Tang Huan's was only a middle ranked weapon, in terms of power, it could definitely compare to a high ranked weapon. If it were to be upgraded to a Holy-ranked weapon in the future, even if it could not compare to the Divine Armaments, it would not be much different.

If he could possess a similar weapon to that of the advanced stage ...

"There are still five 'Dragon Crystal' and quite a few 'Phoenix Flame Essence' left. If you have the appropriate gemstones and iron ore, I can help you forge a weapon like this." His gaze swept across Mu Yan's red-hot face, who suddenly revealed a smile.

"What?"

Mu Yan who had just sat back on the ground not long ago suddenly jumped up in shock and said in disbelief, "You ... You're willing to help me forge a weapon? "

"As long as I have the materials." Tang Huan said with a smile.

"Yes, yes, of course."

After Mu Yan heard this, he could no longer hold it back and excitedly nodded his head, "I have two 'Dragon Crystal'. I have already prepared the other gems when I heard that the Star Ocean Commerce had discovered the 'Phoenix Flame Essence' ... Um, all that's left is 'Phoenix Flame Essence' and 'Dragon Crystal'." At the end, Mu Yan was a little hesitant. Whether it was "Phoenix Flame Essence" or "Dragon Crystal", they were both incomparably precious.

"You don't have to worry about 'Phoenix Flame Essence' and 'Dragon Crystal'. Bring the materials over, I'll help you forge a levelled up weapon tonight."

Tang Huan said with a smile.

To the Weapon Refiner, the sense of accomplishment from a weapon's forging could not be described with words. The better a weapon was, the more intense the feeling of accomplishment was.

For example, when this "Dragon and Phoenix Lance" was successfully forged, Tang Huan had done so.

If he had not already used up a large amount of Genuine Qi and its power, in addition to the fact that he did not have enough materials, Tang Huan might have immediately begun forging a second weapon.

Now that Mu Yan had the materials, Tang Huan would naturally not reject it. Firstly, it was to temper his own skills, and secondly, to rope him in.

"Alright, alright."

Mu Yan secretly heaved a sigh of relief, and said with a smile, "Tang Huan, the 'Dragon and Phoenix Spear' has been completed. Do you want to go outside to take a breather now, or should I first recover?"

"Recover your Genuine Qi first before leaving."

"..."

Chapter 187 appears!

In another room next door, the wood case of the Psionic Tree had already been opened and all the things inside had been poured out.

"Mine!" "My..."

Feng Ming sat beside the wooden box, and like a little hen protecting her eggs, he continuously dragged the "Phoenix Stone" and "Phoenix Feather" from Xiao Budian to his side.

Not long later, it was empty in front of Xiao Budian.

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian was so anxious that he scratched his ears and cheeks, and kept walking around Feng Ming's body.

There were several times when he had stretched out his tiny claws in an attempt to grab a "Phoenix Stone" or a "Phoenix Feather" from Feng Ming's leg, but they were immediately slapped back by Feng Ming's tender white hands. Even though she was only a little bit big, her reaction wasn't slow at all.

"Zhizhi!" Seeing that Xiao Budian had missed, the Rainbow Spirit Mouse cried out urgently a few times before suddenly rolling around on the ground, as if rolling and rolling about while laughing.

"Yiya!" Xiao Budian squatted down, and drooped his head, as though he was discouraged.

"All mine."

Seeing this, Feng Ming squinted his big black eyes, and laughed complacently, then grabbed a "phoenix feather", patted it clean and placed it into his mouth and started to suck, tsk tsk tsk, with a look of relish, but after sucking in two breaths, Feng Ming's small body had already become unnoticeably stiff, and a hint of panic flashed past the depths of her two black eyes.

"Xiao Budian, Feng Ming, little brat, what are you doing?" The doors to the two secret rooms silently opened and Tang Huan and Mu Yan walked over in large strides.

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian's eyes lit up, he twisted his chubby body and ran to Tang Huan's side, then climbed onto his shoulder like a wisp of smoke, with his little claws pointing at Feng Ming who was kneeling on the ground, he anxiously and angrily barked, like a child complaining to his father.

"Zhizhi!" The Rainbow Spirit Mouse also scuttled onto Mu Yan's shoulder, laughing until it fell.

"Dad, mom, I'm hungry ..."

Feng Ming's mouth flattened, while sucking on her "phoenix feather", she looked at Tang Huan and Mu Yan with teary eyes, looking delicate and pitiful.

"You can't eat this even if you're hungry."

Carrying the long spear in his hands, Tang Huan walked over in large strides. He picked up Feng Ming, pulled out the phoenix feather from her mouth, and threw it back into the wooden chest.

Hearing Tang Huan's words, Xiao Budian immediately withered away like an eggplant. He glared at Feng Ming who was just inches away with indignation.

"Mn, you can eat a 'Phoenix Stone' today." Tang Huan very quickly added on, as a faint smile floated between his brows.

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian was dumbstruck for a moment, then, as if he had been injected with chicken blood, he cried out happily and jumped off Tang Huan's shoulder. He first couldn't wait to stuff a "Phoenix Stone" into his mouth, then started chewing with cracking sounds while waving his little claws.

Feng Ming pressed her lips together, grabbed Tang Huan's shoulders, and suddenly burst into tears.

... ..

They followed the stairs up by a few metres, moving the thick stone floor. The exit was already revealed, and was right inside Mu Yan's bedroom.

The light from the window was rather dim, indicating that it was already dusk.

Tang Huan walked out first with one hand holding Feng Ming and the Dragon and Phoenix Spear in the other. Mu Yan followed closely behind.

"That's not right!" Someone came into my room! " Mu Yan put down the wooden case, and after a glance through her beautiful eyes, her beautiful complexion changed as she exclaimed in a low voice.

"Oh?"

Tang Huan's heart skipped a beat, "Someone found us here so quickly?"

Anything, as long as they did it, would leave behind traces, such as the matter of him and Mu Yan disguising themselves. As a result, Tang Huan had long since been mentally prepared for this place to be found.

He had originally thought that it would be at least a day before those people came to this place, and at that time, he and Mu Yan would have long since left the Dragon Spring Town.

However, he didn't expect that they would arrive so quickly.

"Mu Yan, go back to the secret room and get the boxes and the gems that you want to forge. We will leave immediately."

With just a thought, Tang Huan said in a low voice.

According to Tang Huan's judgement, those people should have only searched through this area before, but they could not confirm if he and Mu Yan lived in the center of this courtyard.

The most important thing was to leave this place as soon as possible. Of course, if one were to return to the secret chamber to hide, it was indeed possible to temporarily hide. However, if one did so, it would be too easy to be caught red-handed. Most importantly, the entrance to the secret chamber wasn't particularly secret. If he were to conduct another search, he might be discovered.

"Alright, I'll go now!"

Mu Yan did not hesitate and rushed back to the secret room.

Feng Ming seemed to have realized that the situation was critical as she pursed her lips, looking like she wanted to cry but did not dare to. Meanwhile, Xiao Budian simply slipped away from Tang Huan's body.

When Tang Huan finished tying the cloth bag, Xiao Budian had already crawled inside and curled into a ball.

It was also at this moment that Mu Yan returned to his room with the wood case that he had brought with him.

After a short while, the two of them were ready. Feng Ming was carried on his back, while Tang Huan was tied up by the large package containing the box containing the "Mortal Spirit Tree". The Dragon and Phoenix spears in his hands were also covered by the long black cloth, causing the dazzling luster to disappear, but the warmth emitted from the spears was something that could not be concealed no matter how hard they tried.

"Creak!"

"Creak!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan opened the door to his room. Dozens of meters away, the courtyard door was almost pushed open at the same time.

They were five men. Although they were short and fat, they were all wearing black. The person in the lead was about thirty years old. His long and thin horse face was very eye-catching.

At this moment, not only Tang Huan and her, the five men at the entrance were also stunned.

"Who are you people? How dare you barge into my house! "

In the next moment, Tang Huan regained his senses, but his face was gloomy, he shouted out loud, his eyes staring straight at the incoming person, anger emerging from between his brows.

"Misunderstanding, misunderstanding. We've walked into the wrong place. We're going out now."

The horse-faced man seemed rather surprised and laughed awkwardly. Just as he was about to turn around and leave, he seemed to have thought of something and suddenly asked, "Brother, are you husband and wife going out?" As he spoke, his two gazes had already quickly swept towards Mu Yan who was behind Tang Huan.

"That's right!" Tang Huan coldly snorted, and quickly walked forward.

"It's almost dark, and you're still bringing such a young child out?"

The horse-faced man smiled merrily as he welcomed Tang Huan. The four people behind him also moved forward at the same time. The young master of our Head who is not even two years old has been intercepted by criminals today, and the reason why we came here is to look for the young master.

"Attack!"

Before he could finish speaking, the horse-faced man suddenly shouted, and the long saber at his waist clanged out of its sheath!

Chapter 188

"Buzz!"

However, almost at the same instant that the horse-faced man's last two notes rang out, a deafening vibration echoed throughout the courtyard.

Tang Huan did not even get the chance to take off the cloth cover when the Dragon and Phoenix Lance smashed towards the horse-faced man.

A blazing heat burst forth from the tip of the spear, and in a flash, the black cloth was already on fire.

"Hu!"

The whistling sound pierced through the air, and the heat emitted by the long spear poured down like a waterfall, causing the space around it to ripple unceasingly.

The horse-faced man's expression changed.

He did not expect Tang Huan to attack at the same time as him, much less that the other party's speed was even faster than his. Just as he pulled his blade out of the sheath, the other party's long spear flew straight down. Especially the terrifying heat contained within the spear, it made his heart jump.

At this point, he no longer had time to think, and immediately activated the Genuine Qi on his body.

"Chi!"

Immediately after, the horse-faced man inclined his body to retreat, and the black long saber in his hand transformed into an unparalleled sharp black light that swept towards the sky. In an instant, a huge black streak appeared between the two of them, as if it wanted to devour all the remaining light in the area.

"Ah!"

In a split-second, the sound of an enormous collision could be heard, followed by a series of cracking sounds.

With that one strike, the longblade in the horse-faced man's hand shattered inch by inch. The longspear whizzed down like lightning and landed on his left shoulder. The horse-faced man didn't even have the time to snort before he fell onto the ground. There was no more movement, and his body was completely twisted and deformed.

"Captain!"

The other four men in black couldn't help but cry out in shock.

In the afternoon, the movements of the Spirit Feather Merchant Guild could not be hidden from the other forces of Dragon Spring Town. When the Spirit Feather Merchant Guild found this place, the other Martial Warriors also followed in. Some of the Sha Long Empire's soldiers had also been sent over.

Five people in a group searched the entire area.

Not long ago, this courtyard had been searched by the Martial Warriors of the Spirit Feather Merchant Guild. They thought that no one lived here, so they decided to come in and see if they could find any other clues. However, what was unexpected was that as soon as they pushed open the gate, they met the owner of this place.

When they saw the young child on the woman's back, especially the way he was dressed, they immediately became suspicious.

As a result, when they saw their captain's actions, they understood and made their preparations. When their captain gave the order, they all drew their blades.

However, they never expected that their opponent would be so terrifying. Their leader had been decapitated and killed before they could even draw their blades.

The leader is a Martial Master who is at the peak of the fifth step!

Even Martial Master of the peak of the fifth step had been killed in a single strike, let alone them!

"Retreat!"

After a short period of shock, the only thing that emerged from the bottom of their hearts was unconcealable fear, and they almost simultaneously retreated backwards.

However, in the next moment, their bodies stiffened and their limbs became numb. Despair uncontrollably emerged from the depths of their souls.

Within his pupils, the fiery red spear tip had come closer and closer. It had actually completely locked onto them.

For a moment, it was as if they had returned to the battlefield of gold, iron, horses, blades, and blood. An incomparably terrifying killing intent swept over them and covered their entire bodies, causing them to feel as if their bodies were falling into an icy cavern.

The hearts of the four of them were ice-cold. In a trance, they seemed to see a beautiful phoenix of fire flashing past before their eyes. After that, they completely lost their consciousness.

"Buzz!"

With a light cry, Tang Huan retracted his spear. The four black clothed men opposite him collapsed to the ground at almost the same time. On each of their chests, there was a black hole.

The moment the "Flaming Rainbow Spear Art" was used, all four of them died instantly.

The same method, now revealed by the "Dragon and Phoenix Spear", was vastly different from when he was at the "Phoenix Spirit Martial Meeting" back then.

"Let's go!"

However, not only was Tang Huan not happy at all, his expression had turned serious. Waving his hand at Mu Yan, he rushed out of the courtyard without hesitation.

Although the five men who barged in had all been taken care of, the commotion just now had already attracted the attention of the nearby Martial Warriors. Tang Huan could even faintly hear the shouts from afar. They had to leave this place as fast as possible, otherwise, they would definitely be heavily besieged.

"Whoosh!" "Whiz!"

On the road, two figures that were like flowing lights shuttled swiftly.

In the southeastern part of the Dragon Spring Town, there were many large and small courtyards. The terrain was open and the roads were crisscrossed, so there was basically no suitable place for him to hide. Furthermore, the Dragon and Phoenix Lances in Tang Huan's hands were like a beacon leading the way under the gradually dimming night sky.

Things had already gotten to this point, and Tang Huan could no longer afford to care about all that. He already did not have enough time to look for another spear sheath for this Dragon and Phoenix Lance.

"Brother, don't run!"

"We're soldiers under Your Highness's Sunshine King. We don't have any ill intentions; we're only looking for you to buy the 'Heavenly Wood Stone' for King Sunshine!"

"The generals under the King?"

Tang Huan's mind slightly stirred, but his footsteps did not stop at all.

Since the Reflecting King needed the "Heavenly Wood Stone", if he still had it now, it wouldn't matter if he sold one or not. But since the three "Heavenly Wood Stones" he obtained from the bet were all used to forge weapons, how could he possibly sell anything else? However, these words could not be explained to them.

If people found out that he had used the "Heavenly Wood Stone" and forged it into an advanced weapon, then the surrounding Martial Warriors would probably not be after the "Heavenly Wood Stone" anymore, but for the Dragon and Phoenix Spear! How could the allure of advanced weapons be compared to a few "Heavenly Wood Stones"?

"Brother, please wait a moment. We are not villains, so please do not misunderstand..." The rough voice from behind came again.

"Haha, over there! Stop them!"

At the same time, wild laughter came from the front, and more than ten figures suddenly rushed out from the forks in the road, excitedly pouncing towards Tang Huan.

"Be careful!"

Tang Huan said without turning his head. Not only did he not slow down, he even ran faster and faster. With a leap, he was already several meters away.

The distance between the two sides rapidly shortened.

"Brat, you even dare to deceive our General Dugu. You must be tired of living!" At the front of the group was a red-clothed man about 35 or 36 years old. He was tall and strong, and his face also looked extremely fierce. He opened his big mouth and roared ferociously, making him seem even more fiendish.

"Kill —"

Tang Huan shouted out explosively, the Dragon and Phoenix Lances in his hands trembled, and an incomparably dazzling luster exploded from within the lance. Under the activation of the Spiritual Fire's power, the instant the long spear pierced through the void, that terrifying heat wave also crazily rolled in all directions like surging tides.

Chapter 189 - Killing along the way

"You're courting death... "Huh?"

The red-clothed man grinned fiendishly. His eyes flashed with surprise, but his hands didn't slow down at all. The blood-red spear was like a dragon that had left its hole, shaking out a halo of spear light as it rolled forwards to kill.

The moment the spear was thrust out, a mountain of corpses and a sea of blood erupted like a volcano. A baleful aura gushed out from the large man's body, seeming to solidify into something that caused one's heart to palpitate.

However, a few meters away, Tang Huan's expression did not change, his movements were unaffected, the evil aura was washed away by the crazily roaring heat from the dragon and phoenix spear before it could even approach Tang Huan, as though it had never appeared.

"Ding!"

After the flick of a finger, the loud sound of metal clashing resounded throughout the world.

The red clothed man could not help but exclaim in surprise, and the long spear in his hand was immediately blown away. In the blink of an eye, he involuntarily retreated a few steps, but Tang Huan's steps were swift, the Dragon and Phoenix Lances were like a shadow following him, and between the layers of spear shadows, a red light burst forth. It was as if specks of fire were quickly connecting, forming a prairie fire.

"This is ..."

The fierce smile on the red-clothed man's face had already completely vanished, and unconcealable shock and panic appeared on his face. However, before he could finish speaking, his voice suddenly stopped, and his tall and muscular body was completely annihilated by the raging prairie fire.

After a moment, the Strength Qi dissipated, and the Dragon and Phoenix Lance in Tang Huan's hand had pierced through the red-clothed man's chest.

Seeing this scene, the ten men that appeared together with the red-clothed man were all dumbstruck. Their faces were filled with horror.

"Hu!"

After successfully striking the spear, Tang Huan did not stop. With a wave of his hand, the body on the spear tip smashed towards his opponent. Under the rising heat, the red-clothed big man's appearance greatly changed. Flames even ignited on his clothes. His terrifying appearance caused everyone's hearts to split and they all retreated to the sides.

"Whoosh!" "Whiz!"

Tang Huan did not want to get entangled with them, and so, he immediately brushed past the Mu Yan who was following them.

When Tang Huan and Mu Yan rushed twenty to thirty meters, the ten of them finally regained their senses. Looking at the red-clothed man who had turned into a fiery man on the ground, their eyes were filled with terror.

"Oh my god, who the hell is that guy?"

At this moment, the group of Great Tang Empire Soldiers who were in pursuit also subconsciously stopped their steps, and all sucked in a breath of cold air in shock.

"I know the person in front. He's a 'hundred generals' from Sha Long Empire, called Tong Ba. The Stage Six Martial Master was actually killed so easily by that guy with just one spear strike."

"Hiss, that guy can't be a Stage Seven Martial Master, right? Furthermore, looking at Tong Ba's corpse, he should be a Weapon Refiner. Fortunately we did not stop him, otherwise, he would be in the same state as Tong Ba. "

"Big brother, should we chase them or not?"

"This... But we must not fight him. We only want to buy the 'Heavenly Wood Stone', he is unwilling to sell it, and cannot force the demand. Sigh, we can only blame the people of Sha Long Empire, if it were not for their misdeeds, how could they have gotten to such a state? "

"..."

... ..

"Those two people, stop them! "Stop them!"

"General Tong Ba has been killed, do not let him escape!"

"..."

"What the hell are those fellows from the Sha Long Empire doing, it's only three 'Heavenly Wood Stones', is there really a need to do that? Damn, we came to find this couple just to see if we can buy a 'Heavenly Wood Stone'. But now, it seems like we are fighting over the 'Heavenly Wood Stone'. "

"That guy is really something. If he doesn't want to sell, then so be it. Why are you running?"

"If he didn't run, he would have been caught! Not everyone is as law-abiding as we are. "

"..."

"F * cking hell, he got kicked out again!" Just what level of cultivation is he at? Even if two hundred generals were to join hands, they still wouldn't be able to stop him! "

"He won't be able to escape. Lord Thousand Generals definitely already received the news and will quickly rush over."

"..."

The southeastern part of Dragon Spring Town became more and more lively.

Although the majority of the Martial Warriors soldiers who tried to stop them were Sha Long Empire soldiers, there were also quite a few Martial Warriors who tried to fish in troubled waters. In just a short distance of a thousand meters, Tang Huan and Mu Yan had encountered at least ten attempts of interception.

Tang Huan did not retreat. On the way, he had killed nearly twenty people of the Martial Warriors who died under the spear in his hands.

Amongst them, there were even four Stage Six Martial Masters.

Tang Huan and Mu Yan leapt up and down, flying quickly. Unknowingly, the city walls were already in their view.

Whether it was the east gate or the south gate, there must be a large number of Martial Warriors gathering. The north gate and the west gate were too far away and they had to directly climb over the city wall.

"They want to leave the city from there!"

Behind him, shouts rose and fell.

Although there were only two people, each of their bodies were like a thick wall, giving people a huge pressure. All of their strength were definitely above the hundred generals of Sha Long Empire.

"If you want to leave the city, that's fine. Leave your guns behind!"

A tall and skinny man who seemed to be in his thirties laughed sinisterly. His hawk-like cold gaze swept across the Dragon and Phoenix Lance in Tang Huan's hands, and then uncontrollably stuck out his tongue to lick his lips. His eyes revealed a burning look, as if he was a hungry wolf smelling the smell of blood.

"Since you want the spear, then the beauty is mine!" The tall and sturdy youth in green beside him also laughed loudly. "As for the 'Heavenly Wood Stone', who wants it?"

"If I remember correctly, you used to be a virgin, but now you're so hungry that you don't care for food. You even want a young married woman who's been married and has children?"

The tall and skinny man mocked in a sinister manner.

The green robed youth laughed. "You don't know this, but virgins only have the scent of virgins. Young women have the charm of young women." "You haven't even touched a woman's hand, even if I told you, you wouldn't understand. How about after I've had enough, you can enjoy yourself as well."

"Scram!"

"..."

was so angry that her beautiful face was flushed red, she clenched her teeth, and a red light started to appear in her palm.

However, just as she was about to make her move, a mosquito-like voice suddenly sounded in her ears, "Take your things and leave first! Little ghost, stay behind and lead the way. I'll catch up to you then! "

"This ..."

"Stop nagging!"

Mu Yan was startled, but before he could finish speaking, he was abruptly interrupted. A black shadow flashed before his eyes, and the package containing the Absolute Spirit Tree's wooden chest was thrown over.

Mu Yan subconsciously caught it, then gritted his teeth as he patted his towering chest. The Rainbow Spirit Mouse then quickly slipped out and jumped onto Tang Huan's body.

All of this only happened in a split-second. With the protection of its body, the seven-colored spirit mouse's movements were not detected by anyone.

"Whoosh!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan shot out like an arrow that had left the bow.

Chapter 190 Be careful of that gun!

"Haha, I'm not seeing things, right? That's Wandering Ming and Gao Yu?"

"That's right, it's the two of them. The two of them stayed in the Dragon Spring Town and had trained there for many years, both being at the peak of the sixth stage. It's said that under their combined strength, they had once killed a Stage Seven Martial Master who had just levelled up. With them blocking their way, the couple will not be able to escape. "

"Although Wandering Ming and Gao Yu don't belong to any factions, they have a character that can't be helped. Why are they trying to stop us this time?" Could it be that they want the Heavenly Wood Stone? "

"Didn't you hear what Wandering said? He took a fancy to the spear in that guy's hands, while Gao Yu's pervert took a fancy to that guy's woman."

"What rank weapon is that fellow's gun? How could it be so powerful?"

"..."

The numerous Martial Warriors that were chasing after them were all extremely surprised and overjoyed.

and Mu Yan who were in everyone's line of sight did not slow down at all, especially Tang Huan who was in front.

"Chi!"

In just a few breaths, the distance between the two of them had shrunk to a few metres. Tang Huan thrust the long spear in his hand out without any fancy tricks, and the sharp ear-piercing sound cut through the air, the blazing heat engulfing the two people in front of him like a wave.

"Wandering Ming, I'll leave this guy for you. Leave that beauty to me."

The green clothed youth's eyes flashed with a look of astonishment, then laughed out loud. The blade on his shoulder slightly rose, and his gaze landed on Mu Yan who was behind Tang Huan, who was following closely behind.

The tall and skinny man called Wandering Song didn't reply, but a flash of surprise could be seen on his face.

"Good spear!"

However, in the next moment, his eyes lit up, and he could not help but praise the spear. Then, with a loud "pa" sound, a red shadow swept out from his waist, coiling around the tip of the Dragon and Phoenix Spear like a spirit serpent.

What Wandering Song used was a long, fiery whip.

Seeing this, Tang Huan couldn't help but sneer in his heart. With so many Martial Warriors in pursuit, it was impossible for everyone to be blind.

Now, such a person had finally appeared.

It's just that it took me so much effort to gather all the materials and to craft the Dragon and Phoenix Spear that I spent so much effort to forge.

Almost the instant before the whip wrapped around the spear head slightly, within Tang Huan's Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the two stages of Spiritual Wheel madly revolved, and the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" was immediately pushed to the limit.

Immediately, a green glow bloomed on the body of the spear.

Just like a barrel of oil being poured into a flame, the heat emitted from the spearhead suddenly soared and then turned into a ball of raging flames. From afar, it looked like there was a phoenix dancing within the flame, its brilliant red light illuminating the surroundings as if it was day.

"Such strong firepower ..."

You Ming's heart skipped a beat. Although he was not Weapon Refiner, he had the physique of fire of the five elements, and he trained in the appropriate technique, but even so, when he felt the sudden warmth, he could not help but feel his heart palpitate.

The other party was without a doubt Weapon Refiner, but from his judgement, the other party was most likely just Stage Five Martial Master. A Weapon Refiner who was only at the Stage Five Martial Master, yet he could materialize flames on his weapon, how strong must the "True Fire" inside the Dantian be?

However, he was after all a Martial Master at the peak of the sixth step, and with a single thought, he calmed his heart down.

But soon after, he realized that something was wrong. He lightly shook his right wrist almost without any hesitation, and the tip of the whip that had just wrapped itself around his opponent's spearhead quickly relaxed.

"Beauty, you are mine!"

Just then, the green clothed young man chuckled, he took a step forward, and a blade that was more than two meters long welcomed Mu Yan from the bottom up.

He truly was a shameless person, and his actions were so vulgar!

A flash of anger appeared between Mu Yan's brows, but he did not dodge, and continued to run, as though he did not see the sharp blade.

"Does this woman not want to live anymore?"

A hint of astonishment flashed through the eyes of the green-clothed youth, but after a short moment, he caught a whizzing sound.

The voice was weak at first, but in the next moment it sounded like Lei Ming. Immediately afterwards, a dazzling ball of red light appeared in front of him, and Tang Huan's dragon and phoenix spear had already smashed down from high up in the sky.

"Gao Yu, be careful of that gun!"

Almost at the same time, a low roar from the side exploded. Gao Yu's brows creased slightly. Just as a trace of doubt arose in his heart, his sword and spear fiercely collided in midair.

"Ah!"

An enormous sound reverberated in the night sky, as if one's eardrums were being torn apart.

From the place where the sword and spear clashed, an even more terrifying Strength Qi swept out, and small ripples appeared in the surrounding space.

In the blink of an eye, the swords and spears separated.

Gao Yu's heart trembled slightly, with just a touch of their weapons, he had already understood, this fellow, who might not even be a Stage Six Martial Master, was actually not weaker than him at all. If he fought alone, he might not even be able to take him down within a short period of time.

"Whoosh!" Mu Yan's footsteps did not stop for a moment, as he flew past Gao Yu and reached the city wall in an instant.

"Where do you think you're going?"

Gao Yu woke up from his stupor, and with a shake of his long saber, he was about to give chase. However, the cracking sound that immediately entered his ears caused him to be startled, and as he reflexively looked towards the source of the sound, he saw that a tiny crack had actually appeared on the dark blade's body.

"This is ..."

The whistling sound drilled into his ears once again, waking Gao Yu up. It was the long spear in Tang Huan's hand that swept over once again.

Even before the spear had arrived, the terrifying heat wave had already swept through.

Gao Yu instinctively turned his body, his long saber slanted as he subconsciously moved to intercept the blow. However, the moment the saber appeared, Gao Yu seemed to recall something, and the color of his face immediately changed.

"Pah!"

Just at this time, another explosive sound resounded through the air, and a red light shot out from Gao Yu's back, instantly straightening up like an arrow and aiming straight for Tang Huan's throat.

Tang Huan's arms sank as his Dragon and Phoenix Lance trembled violently.

"Buzz!"

With a violent hum, the spear's power changed greatly. Tang Huan's body turned quickly, the spear in his hand also turned like a dragon, spiralling towards the whip.

Gao Yu couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief when his long blade missed its target.

However, that moment earlier, it had already scared him to the point where he was drenched in cold sweat. With just a single strike, cracks had already appeared on the weapon. With just two strikes, his weapon might have already been completely broken. If that happened, even if he was a of the sixth step, he would still be sent flying with serious injuries.

Fortunately, Wandering Sound came in time to help!

Gao Yu raised his head to take a look, and his expression changed once again. The sizzling fiery-red whip was entangled with the tip of the spear, which was wreathed in raging flames.

"This is bad!"

Just as these two words flashed through Gao Yu's mind, the whip had already disappeared.

Following which, he noticed that the long whip in You Ming's hand had shrunk to about 20% of its original size. The tip of the whip broke into several pieces and fell from the tip of the spear to the ground.