Chapter 1831 - Seven Star Immortal Palace

Tang Huan's claws seemed to have stopped.

"Tang Huan, if you are willing to let me go, I can send a message to father and recommend you to enter the 'Asura's Supreme Sect'. This will be of great benefit to your cultivation and with your talent and strength, you will definitely be able to rise to prominence very quickly."

"Sandalwood Bell... Upper Shura Sect? It sounds like a good deal. "

Tang Huan nodded her head slightly. He was indeed a little surprised, she didn't think that sandalwood would actually have a father that had already left the Heaven Realm a long time ago.

"Of course!"

", do you know how many Heavenly Kings in the next thirty-six days are unable to enter the Asura Supreme Sect? "You can ..." When he said that, Yama Minamiya suddenly realized that Tang Huan's expression was strange, and her voice paused.

Tang Huan looked at sandalwood with a smile that was not a smile: "Sandalwood, perhaps you still do not know that after the end of the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts' more than ten years ago, someone gave me a promise to send me to the 'Eternal Heaven' of the first nine days and help me join the 'Black Yellow Dao Sect'. The only request the person had was that after I advanced to the Heaven Grade, I would be able to forge eight pieces of perfect Heaven Grade Divine Artifact.

"Mystical ..." "The Black Yellow Dao Sect ..."

The sandalwood bell stumped, muttering these words.

The difference between the Black Yellow Dao Sect and Asura High Sect, one was a super great sect with nine days of history and the other was a super great sect with 18 days of history, the difference between the two could be imagined.

"However, I refused." Tang Huan laughed unhurriedly, "I don't even plan to go to the Black Yellow Dao Sect, would I be interested in that so-called Asura High Sect?"

"Tang Huan, you, you ..." Not only sandalwood, even San-Xiang Yang stared at Tang Huan in disbelief.

"Don't let your thoughts run wild."

Tang Huan said indifferently, "Don't even mention that father of yours, even if he really returns to find trouble with me in the next thirty-six days, I would think of ways to send him here to accompany you, so long as you're still alive at that time." As his voice fell, Tang Huan's right claw suddenly exerted force, as she grabbed onto sandalwood's neck.

"Uh, uh ..."

Before the incredulous expression in her eyes could completely disappear, a boundless force had already followed Tang Huan's finger and crazily rushed into his body, with the power to topple mountains and overturn the seas.

After a while, the spatial cage dissipated, and Tang Huan also retracted her claws.

He looked as if he had aged several tens of years, and there was no longer any energy that could be felt overflowing from his body. Inside the Dantian, countless fine cracks had appeared on the surface of his dao soul and dao crystal, and he was on the verge of completely collapsing.

The previously incomparable and insufferable Inferior Heavenly King was now no different from an ordinary person.

That deep sense of despair caused Yumei to not even have the strength to curse at Tang Huan. He could only sit there lifelessly with empty eyes.

In another space cage, when San Xiangyang saw this scene, his eyes revealed unconcealable fear.

As a lower heavenly king, he could naturally feel how Yanzhi was feeling at this moment. This made his soul tremble slightly, and the resistance in his heart completely disappeared like a small boat hit by a huge wave. Seeing Tang Huan turn to look, he immediately regained her senses after catching his gaze.

"Tang Huan, I am willing to swear on the heavens to unconditionally swear my loyalty to you!" Instantly, this sentence almost flowed out uncontrollably from Xiang Yang's mouth.

During the battle in Yuhuang City, countless cultivators witnessed it. After the battle ended, news about the battle spread like a plague throughout the Crimson Radiance Sect.

Seven Stars Immortal Palace, Supreme Sword Sect, Spiritual True Immortal School, Godly Mt. Xumi, Wei Ling Immortal Sect ...

The dozens of sects that were involved in the operation, if placed in different parts of the Crimson Radiance Sect, would be considered the most powerful ones. As for the hundreds of cultivators that were participating, they were either sect masters, sect elders, or even two lower level Heavenly Kings and two middle level Heavenly Kings.

With so many experts joining forces, aside from one of the middle level Heavenly Kings who managed to escape, the rest were all taken in in one fell swoop.

Those sect masters and elders had actually been captured by Tang Huan without even having the chance to make a move. It could be said that the most powerful group of cultivators in the Crimson Radiance Sect had all fallen into the hands of Tang Huan.

Furthermore, no one knew whether Tang Huan would be satisfied after capturing them and let those dozens of sects go.

Although Tang Huan and the rest did not continue to move after the battle ended, the entire sky of the scarlet light was boiling because of the result of the battle.

Countless cultivators were in a state of panic.

Many of the sects, especially the ones that had participated in the siege of Tang Huan in the Immortal Sword Hall, were panicking even more. They gathered the experts and experts of the sect as fast as possible to discuss on how to deal with them and on the day of the end of the battle, more than ten sects had already decided to seal their sects.

... ..

Between the boundless sea and the sea, seven peaks that were in a circular shape rushed out of the sea surface and rose up like sharp swords. At the peak of each mountain, there was a wide stone bridge extending out, forming a stone platform above the center of the seven mountain peaks. It was also there that a blue palace stood.

This azure-colored palace was the entrance to the Seven Star Immortal Palace.

"Hu!"

A figure suddenly appeared high up in the sky. It was a woman in a white dress. Her figure was enchanting and her face was as pretty as a young girl. She was the previous Palace Head of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, Tang Hailan.

"I'm finally back."

Looking at the palace in the distance, Tang Hailan's heart was filled with bitterness, "So many sects chose to seal their sects, but I forgot about the Divine Martial Sect. If Tang Huan wanted to enter a sect, how could the Feng Sect stop his footsteps? Forget about it, it's time to leave. Although Tang Huan hasn't come yet, he might appear at any time.

Sighing lightly, Tang Hailan was about to move forward, but she suddenly felt that something was wrong. She couldn't help but look at him and asked, "Elder Chong?"

At the entrance of the palace, a figure emerged. It was Chong Ze with a small section of his limbs extended from his torso, as if he had just grown up.

"Hu!"

In the blink of an eye, Chong Ze appeared a kilometer away from Tang Hai Lan.

"Palace Head Tang, we meet again." Chong Ze let out a long sigh. When he looked at Tang Hailan, the expression in his eyes was complicated to the extreme.

"Where's Tang Huan?"

Tang Hailan said in a low voice. The vigilance and wariness in her heart had reached its peak.

She was very clear that Chong Ze had set up a Heavenly Dao Trial to swear loyalty to Tang Huan. Since he appeared here, then it was very likely that Tang Huan was also nearby.

Chapter 1832 Don't force me!

"Master... "He's not here!"

Chong Ze shook his head, and when he called out the two words "master", he could not hide the shame between his brows.

He was indeed too careful, and Tang Huan was indeed powerful, but if he wanted to leave, then even with the help of the medium sky king, Chong Ze, Tang Huan would not be able to keep him, unless there was the addition of the Emperor Dragon Sky Palace's Xiao Zihan.

"Elder Chong, you are already loyal to Tang Huan. This means that you and I are already enemies, not friends."

Tang Hailan looked at Chong Ze and said, "Now, I want to enter the Seven Stars Immortal Palace. Since you and I have a good relationship in the past, quickly get out of the way. I won't make a move on you."

Chong Ze smiled bitterly and said, "Palace Head Tang, the reason I'm here on Master's orders is to stop you from entering the Seven Stars Immortal Palace."

"You're not my opponent." Tang Hailan wrinkled her eyebrows.

"Of course I know."

The bitterness between Chong Ze's brows became even stronger, but his tone did not loosen the slightest bit, "So, I only have one way to complete the mission that Master assigned to me. Palace Master Tang, if you insist on breaking into the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, I can only detonate my Nascent Soul and die together with you. "

"You ..." Tang Hailan stared at Chong Ze with a face full of anger.

"Palace Head Tang, don't force me."

Chongze heaved a long sigh, "Dong Xingzhou of the Divine Martial Sect self-detonated his own Dao, but you were not the master. If I detonated my own Dao, you would be dead for sure. Even if you do not die, you would at least suffer an unprecedented heavy injury. At that time, if Master wanted to kill you, it would be as easy as flipping his hand. "

"Good!" "Alright!"

Tang Hailan was angered to the extreme as she laughed, "Chongze, you are ruthless! I never thought that you would be such a dutiful servant to Tang Huan! "Farewell!"

She understood in her heart that what Chong Ze had just said was not the least bit meaningless.

Although she was stronger than Chong Ze, if Chong Ze detonated his own Dao Soul, she would definitely be severely injured even if she did not die. If Chong Ze had never been loyal to Tang Huan, she would still dare take this risk. After all, unless there was no other choice, no one would self-destruct their own Dao. But now, she didn't dare make such a bet, Chong Ze had sworn an oath to the heavens, to become Tang Huan's servant, if Tang Huan really gave him the order to destroy his own Nascent Soul, he would carry it out without hesitation.

With Chong Ze guarding her, her chances of entering the Seven Stars Immortal Palace were practically zero.

Tang Hailan was a decisive person. She knew it would be useless to continue pestering her. Rather than wasting time, it would be better to leave as soon as possible.

After giving Chong Ze a fierce glance, Tang Hailan turned around and left without hesitation.

Chong Ze looked at Tang Hailan's figure flying away but did not give chase.

If Tang Hailan went, she might even leave the Crimson Light Heavens, or even leave for the next thirty-six days ... After a long while, Chong Ze sighed dejectedly as his body retreated.

One day later, at the entrance of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace.

After hearing Chong Ze's report, Tang Huan only frowned in regret.

If Tang Hailan were to hide in the Scarlet Radiance Heaven, he would have a high chance of finding her in the future. However, she shouldn't be that stupid. After leaving this place yesterday, she would likely think of a way to escape from the red light. As a result, it would be extremely difficult to find her.

However, this was inevitable.

If Tang Hailan was willing to stay and fight, Tang Huan would have ways to make her stay. If she didn't even fight, she would choose to escape, and even if Tang Huan had Chong Ze, the God King's help, he wouldn't be able to do anything to her.

For example, Xiao Zihan. Unfortunately, she was currently in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, and the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace had already sealed off their sect.

Entering a completely closed sect required a completely different amount of energy compared to entering a sect like the Divine Martial Sect, where there were still entrances and exits.

It would not be hard for Tang Huan to use the "Yin Yang dao diagram" to enter Divine Martial Sect, but after bringing Xiao Zihan along, it would not be so easy to execute the "Yin Yang dao diagram". And to reopen the sect would also require an extremely long period of time.

Because of this, Tang Huan needed to settle the matters outside before she could enter the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace. Naturally, she couldn't ask Xiao Zihan to come out and help him right now.

"He's just a God King. If he's gone, then he's gone. There's no need to pay too much attention to him."

Immediately after, Tang Huan laughed, and with a thought, the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared in her hand, and then she conjured a mountain and river painting that Shen Hanyun and a dozen other marquis appeared out of nowhere. This group of experts from the Seven Stars Immortal Palace were all controlled by Jianxin's "Puppet Immortal Seal".

Upon seeing the entrance to their sect, Shen Hanyun and the rest could only smile bitterly.

However, they did not have any thoughts of resisting. Even the middle level Sky King, Chong Ze, had become Tang Huan's servant. Although Jianxin was the one controlling them, and not Tang Huan, they did not dare disobey Tang Huan's orders.

"Leave quickly and return quickly!" Tang Huan waved her hand.

"Yes sir!"

Shen Hanyun and the rest bowed slightly, their silhouettes flickering as they entered the palace hall, disappearing without a trace.

This time, Tang Huan was the only one who came to the Seven Stars Immortal Palace. Jiu Ling, Xiao Nian Die, Jin Hong and dozens of others had already followed Yu Xin He and the others, who were also under the control of the "Puppet Soul Seal", to the various sects. They would be staying in those sects for a period of time before returning to the Jade Imperial City.

Not long later, Shen Han Yun's figure flashed out from the palace.

"Master!"

Immediately after, Shen Hanyun respectfully handed over two thin azure jade plates that were as thin as a cicada's wing. Within the crystal clear jade plates, it seemed as if seven stars were twinkling.

These were the identity tokens of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, and they were all brand-new.

Now, after controlling Shen Hanyun and the others, Tang Huan naturally did not need to directly use the "Yin Yang Dao Diagram" to enter the interior of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace. He and Chong Ze only needed to fuse with an entirely new identity jade tablet, and they would be able to easily enter and exit this sect like the Seven Stars Immortal Palace cultivators did in the past.

Back in the Divine Martial Sect, Tang Huan had also chosen to do the same thing, but he had been too lazy to waste that effort.

Taking the jade slip, he injected his Sky Origin Stage into it, and a clear buzzing sound rang out. From the jade slip, the seven stars seemed to come to life, bursting out with a brilliant blue light. After a short moment, the light vanished, and the jade piece returned to its original state. However, compared to before, it seemed to possess an extra spiritual will.

Within this jade slip, Tang Huan's Mind Stigma appeared.

"Let's go!"

led the way as he walked towards the palace. Chong Ze and Shen Hanyun immediately followed him.

The moment they entered the palace, azure light flowed out from the jade plates on their bodies, wrapping around the three of them.

With a flick of their fingers, the three of them entered the Seven Stars Immortal Palace.

Chapter 1833 - Virtual Diagram of the Seven Stars

Within the immortal palace, there were numerous mountains.

In the sky above the mountain peaks, seven giant stars sparkled brilliantly. A condensed deep blue ray of light bloomed like silk, crisscrossing in the air. Among these countless stars, there seemed to be many large and small nebula vortexes embedded within, as if they contained endless mysteries and mysteries.

"Master, this is the Seven Star Void Diagram!" Seeing Tang Huan looking up, Shen Hanyun subconsciously said.

"Do your own thing."

Chong Ze and Shen Hanyun left immediately.

Tang Huan activated the God Crafting Crystal and the Perception Ability rose to its peak. Her entire mind was focused on the gigantic star chart in the sky.

Tang Huan had a total of two objectives for coming to Seven Stars Immortal Palace this time. One of them was to experience the "Seven Stars Void Map".

For countless years, the reason why the Seven Stars Immortal Palace was able to prosper and prosper was all because of this star map.

Within the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, there was a cultivation technique called "Congealing Star Mantra". It was said that this cultivation technique could only be practiced by cultivators that had stepped into the Sky Marquis Realm. And after cultivating this cultivation technique, one could constantly obtain the power of the stars contained in the Seven Stars Void Diagram.

"It really is amazing."

After a long while, Tang Huan's face revealed a look of admiration.

"This' Seven Stars Void Diagram 'can continuously absorb the celestial spiritual energy between heaven and earth, and transform it into a special type of star power." The Seven Star Void Diagram was like a miniature version of the starry sky. The more Astral Energy it accumulated, the brighter the star map became and the stronger it became.

The stronger and more stable the star chart, the faster it could absorb the spiritual energy of the heavens and the earth, and the more star power it could transform into.

This was a perfect cycle!

"If it wasn't for the fact that this' Seven Star Void Diagram 'had completely merged with the space of this void, or even the Seven Star Immortal Palace, then it would have been quite useful to store it within the Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace."

Tang Huan shook her head regretfully.

This "Seven Star Void Diagram" had existed within the Seven Stars Immortal Palace for countless years, and had long since merged with the sect's encampment space. If he wanted to take it away, he would have to completely destroy the Seven Stars Immortal Palace. However, if the Seven Stars Immortal Palace were to collapse, the fused 'Seven Stars Void Diagram' would probably shatter into smithereens as well.

"However, although I'm unable to bring the Seven Star Void Diagram away, the star energy it contains can still be absorbed."

After that, Tang Huan smiled again.

In the next moment, the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared in front of him and Tang Huan's figure flashed as he entered the cave. The mountain and river painting that was slowly spreading out rose up under the control of Sword Heart, and in the blink of an eye, he was directly beneath the "Seven Star Void Diagram".

Inside the Illusory Sword Heavenly Mansion, the "Limitless Sword Formation" was revolving at high speeds. The terrifying power of the sucking was quickly being born and was spreading out with the painting as the center. In almost an instant, a large amount of azure Qi overflowed from the high altitude star charts and entered the Mountain and River Painting.

In the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, everyone could absorb the star power contained in the "Seven Stars Void Diagram". However, only cultivators who had cultivated the "Void Star Transformation Art" could refine it. However, Tang Huan didn't have such considerations. As long as it could be absorbed, any power could be refined.

With the Sword Heart controlling the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", absorbing the star power, Tang Huan then entered the valley that held the "Tai Yi Genuine Qi".

During the final period of time they were in the "Absolute Beginning Immortal Domain", Tang Huan, Jiu Ling, Kui Cow, She Yuji and the Pill Spirit Golden Rainbow were all cultivating in this valley. More than half of the "Tai Yi Genuine Qi" that the sword heart had absorbed over the years had been used up. Of course, most of it had been refined by Tang Huan.

After becoming a Heavenly King, the power that Tang Huan needed to condense a Dao Crystal had grown even more.

To the Celestial King, one hundred and one to two hundred million Dao-Crystals represented a lower level Heavenly King; two hundred and one to three hundred million Dao-Crystals represented a middle level Heavenly King; three hundred and one to four hundred million Dao-Crystals represented an upper level Heavenly King.

Until now, the number of crystals Tang Huan had obtained had just reached 104 million.

If he refined the rest of the "Tai Yi Genuine Qi", it would probably be able to increase his supply by another five or six million dao crystals, to around one hundred and ten million. But even so, there was still a huge gap between the two hundred million dao crystals needed to reach the peak of the lower realm. Furthermore, he did not plan to refine the "Tai Yi Genuine Qi".

These powers, he needed to give them to Jiu Ling and the others who had not yet stepped into the Heavenly King Stage.

The Sky King Realm was not comparable to the Sky Marquis Realm. Tang Huan reckoned that it would take him ten or even twenty years to advance to a middle Sky King.

While he was thinking, Tang Huan had already appeared in the huge valley next door, which was where the Sword Heart was prepared for the star power of the "Seven Star Void Diagram".

In the depths of the valley, there was a ball of azure energy with a radius of several meters.

Tang Huan laughed, then sat down cross-legged beside him. In between mind instructs (in a second), the "Creation Art" was activated, the Dantian for the Nascent Soul and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" were activated.

In the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, the "Seven Star Void Diagram" was circulating rapidly high up in the sky. A large amount of star power overflowed and poured down like a waterfall into the landscape painting scroll.

Unknowingly, a gigantic azure vortex had already quietly appeared with the mountain and river painting as the source.

It was difficult to not draw attention to this kind of commotion. Not long after, all of the cultivators in the Seven Stars Immortal Palace were alarmed, and one by one, their gazes looked toward the sky.

At that moment, the news of Shen Hanyun and the rest returning had spread throughout the sect.

In addition, Chong Ze no longer blocked the entrance of the immortal palace. The previously panicking cultivators finally calmed down a little. However, this unusual event once again caused them to feel anxious. It was no wonder that they were like this. Their recent situation had indeed caused them to become somewhat jittery.

"The speed at which the energy is being absorbed is really ..."

At the entrance of a beautiful palace, Shen Han Yun smiled bitterly and shook his head, "I'm afraid that before long, all the star power contained in this' Seven Stars Void Diagram 'will be completely absorbed." Although she was still a Palace Master of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, she was now even a servant controlled by Tang Huan.

When he thought about how the power of all the stars would enter Tang Huan's spatial treasure, although Shen Hanyun was extremely unhappy, but he could do nothing about it, because she was powerless to stop him, and could only watch from the side.

After a while, she retracted her gaze, looked at the elder beside her and said: "Tell everyone, do not panic, just tell them that the one who absorbed the star power was Master ... It's Tang Huan. We have already reached an agreement with him, and the price for letting go of our Seven Stars Immortal Palace is to casually absorb the power of the stars. "

"Yes, Mistress!"

Chapter 1834 - Search

A month or so later, Tang Huan walked out of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, and the number of Dao Crystals that she had condensed into a Nascent Soul stage cultivator increased from 144 million to 148 million.

The increase was much smaller than before, but Tang Huan was already very satisfied.

The 'Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram' remained within the Seven Stars Immortal Palace. When the 'Seven Stars Void Diagram' contained nearly all of its star power, Chong Ze would bring it back to Jade Imperial City.

Of course, Tang Huan didn't leave empty-handed.

Eighty-eight Heaven grade Dao stones, sixty-four Heaven grade iron crystals, a thousand and twenty-three high-grade Dao stones, nine hundred and thirty-seven high-grade iron crystals ... 4,400 low-grade dao stones, 6,160 low-grade iron crystals ...

This was Tang Huan's harvest.

Almost all of the Dao-stones and iron crystals that the Seven Stars Immortal Palace had accumulated for many years were plundered by Tang Huan. As for medicinal herbs and such things, Tang Huan naturally did not let them go.

The dao stones, iron crystals and medicinal herbs were the second reason why Tang Huan had come to the Seven Stars Immortal Palace.

Not long after he left the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, Tang Huan sent a message to the nine spirits, and quickly received a reply.

They had all returned to Jade Imperial City one after another. With the cooperation of the sect masters and elders, they quickly went through the entire situation of the various sects. When they left, they naturally reaped great rewards.

Seventy-one Heaven grade Dao stones, eighty-nine Heaven grade iron crystals, 604 high-grade Dao stones, 982 high-grade iron crystals ... This was the harvest of the Nine Spirits in the Spiritual True Immortal School.

Sixty-six Heaven grade Dao stones, forty Heaven grade iron crystals, 950 high-grade Dao pills ... This was Xiao Nian Die's harvest from the Wei Ling Immortal Sect.

One hundred and two Heaven grade Dao stones, ninety-one Heaven grade iron crystals ... This was She Yuji's harvest from the Holy Mountain of Xumi.

Seventy-nine Heaven grade Dao stones, eighty-six Heaven grade iron crystals ... This was the harvest of the Kui Cow in the Supreme Sword Sect.

... ..

Seven Stars Immortal Palace, the Spiritual True Immortal School, the Wei Ling Immortal Sect, the Godly Mt. Xumi, the Supreme God Sword Sect ...

All of these sects had strong foundations. Heaven grade dao stones and heaven grade iron crystals were indeed rare, but after plundering so many sects, they each reached a few thousand.

As for the high-grade dao stones and iron crystals, they were all at least 10 times more.

There were even more medium-grade and low-grade dao stones and iron crystals ... With so many refining materials, it would be enough for Tang Huan to squander.

"Plunder is much easier than searching for it or buying it yourself."

Tang Huan sighed with emotion, but with a happy smile on her face.

Tang Huan did not feel any sense of guilt or guilt when she robbed those sects. Since those sects had done something wrong, naturally, she had to pay a sufficient price.

Moreover, what Tang Huan wanted to rob was not only the dozens of sects like the Seven Stars Immortal Palace and the Spirit True Immortal Sect. Tang Huan had also planned to settle with the hundreds of sects that had participated in the operation of the Immortal Seeking Palace.

Of course, there was something else he had to do before he could settle the score.

Along the way, Tang Huan borrowed the large teleportation formations of the various regions to quickly return to the Flowing Flower Realm. However, he did not directly return to the Jade Imperial City, but instead came to another big city within the Domain Realm ...

... ..

The Qian Yuan Sky Sect.

"Elder Xue, what is the situation today?" Within the dazzling palace, Ren Gang frowned as he looked at Xue Yu.

"Those disciples are still quite resentful."

Xue Yu shook his head and smiled bitterly. "However, this can't be blamed on them. Our sect was indeed a bit sudden and didn't notify them, nor did we ask them to choose to stay."

"Humph!"

Ren Gang's brows creased even more tightly when he heard this, and snorted angrily, "Since you're a disciple of our Heaven's Expanse Sect, you'll have to live and die with the sect. I've previously enjoyed the sect's cultivation resources, but now that the sect is in trouble and wants to flee, how could there be such a cheap thing in the world? "

Xue Yu was silent. Ren Gang's words did indeed make sense.

If they allowed the sect's Disciples to decide to stay in the sect before the sect was sealed, then it would be good if only ten percent of the cultivators in the sect would be able to stay. After the sect was sealed, those cultivators wouldn't be able to leave for a short period of time. Thus, it was inevitable that they would complain.

"Elder Xue, tell them that even if they die, they must die of old age within the sect. If anyone dares to spout nonsense, they should be properly punished." If this is the case after the punishment, then there is no need for them to continue to stay in the Heaven Sect and waste the sect's cultivation resources. "

As he finished speaking, killing intent filled the space between Ren Gang's brows.

"Understood!" Xue Yu nodded his head heavily when he heard this. He could not help but sigh and said, "That Limitless Temple's movements are really quick. They were actually sealed when the various sects charged towards Jade Emperor City. Perhaps, they had already made preparations to seal the sect before Tang Huan had returned to the Scarlet Radiance Sky Sect. Compared to Everlasting Temple, we, the Heaven's Expanse Sect, are still in a bit of a hurry to get sealed. "

"There's no choice if we don't rush it, if we delay it, Tang Huan will probably rush over to kill us!" Ren Wei said bitterly, a deep regret resurfacing from the bottom of his heart. If he knew that one day the Heaven Sect would be forced to protect itself, he would never offend Tang Huan in such a way.

"I'm coming!" At this moment, a light laugh sounded.

"Tang ..." Tang Huan... "

Ren Gang and Xue Yu were stupefied for a moment before they looked in the direction of the voice.

Seeing that black figure leisurely strolling in from the entrance of the hall, Ren Gang and Xue Yu cried out in alarm, and they instantly felt as if they were struck by lightning. They felt as if their souls had become absent-minded, as if they were about to be peeled off from their bodies.

Tang Huan had actually barged into the Qian Yuan Sky Sect, and even appeared right in front of him!

The Qian Yuan Sky Sect had already been sealed, but they still could not stop Tang Huan? Both of their eyes were wide open as they stared straight at Tang Huan, their entire body ice-cold.

"Do you think that everything will be fine after the sect is sealed?"

Tang Huan sized up Ren Gang and Xue Yu with a smile, and like a cat toying with a mouse, her eyes revealed a sense of ridicule.

"Originally, I had thought that you were able to force your way into the Divine Martial Sect because there was an entrance to the sect. But who would have thought that after the sect was completely sealed off, you would still be able to come and go as you please. " Xue Yu came back to his senses and smiled sadly. "It's good that you've come in. At least you don't have to worry about being scared anymore."

"Come, Tang Huan, kill this old man!"

After he finished speaking, Xue Yu closed his eyes, waiting with folded arms for death.

Tang Huan's gaze fell on Xue Yu as his heart was filled with emotion. Back then, not long after he had entered the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly Palace, Xue Yu was a sect elder in the Nether Cloud City. His power was overwhelming, and Tang Huan was just a small Heaven Realm person who tread on thin ice.

"Plop!"

Even Xue Yu had also opened his eyes, and his expression had become quite interesting. Ren Gang had already knelt on the ground, knocking his head against the ground with loud bangs, "Tang Huan, spare me, spare me ..."

Chapter 1835 - Cosmic Cauldron

A vaunted ninth level sky duke had actually become such a kowtowing bug under the threat of death.

Compared to Xue Yu, Ren Gang's current performance was truly unpalatable. After Xue Yu recovered from his shock, his eyes couldn't help but reveal a trace of disdain.

Seeing Ren Gang's pitiful look, Tang Huan felt bored.

However, it was impossible to avoid him so easily. In the next moment, a ball of "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" whizzed out from Tang Huan's palm, covering Ren Gang within it.

In the blink of an eye, Ren Gang was like a duck that had its neck grabbed as he stopped begging.

Along with this sound, Ren Gang's body also disappeared ... Xue Yu was stunned for a moment when he saw this scene, and his eyes revealed a trace of inexplicable sorrow.

Now, he finally saw it with his own eyes, but the result caused Xue Yu to feel even more grief. Ren Gang's earlier actions were indeed extremely unbearable, but he was still the sect master of the Qianyuan Sky Sect, and now, in the blink of an eye, he had turned into dust.

Tang Huan waved her right hand lightly, and the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" once again fell into her palm and retracted into his body. Following that, Tang Huan's gaze once again fell on Xue Yu's body.

Xue Yu closed his eyes once again, and his heart was dead.

However, death didn't come for a long time. After a long while, Xue Yu opened his eyes in surprise, and saw that Tang Huan had already sat cross-legged inside the hall.

"You ..."

After standing there in a daze for a while, Xue Yu hesitated to speak, but before he could even finish, Tang Huan had revealed a slight smile on his face.

"Speaking of which, I have to thank your Heaven's Origin Sect for sending me to the Nether Realm."

Tang Huan did not have the interest to explain, but her gaze became distant instead. Her voice paused for a bit, then she said in a deep voice, "Elder Xue, hand over all the Dao Stones, Iron Crystals, Medicinal Pills, medicinal herbs, and other rare treasures of the Qian Yuan Sky Sect. Once you open the sect, this matter will be resolved."

"You're not going to kill me?" Xue Yu looked at Tang Huan in disbelief. In this world, no one wanted to die, especially cultivators who had bitterly cultivated for many years.

"I heard that when Ren Gang proposed to borrow the power of the three major sects of Flowing Flower Domain, the 'Heavenly Arts Competition', you tried to dissuade me?" Tang Huan smiled lightly.

"Unfortunately, I was not successful in persuading him. In the end, I was still convinced by the school head." Xue Yu laughed bitterly.

"That's enough!"

Tang Huan nodded, "Do as I say."

Ten years ago, Ren Gang and the rest of the Qianyuan Heavenly Sect experts had also been to Jade Imperial City. However, they had merely followed behind Chong Ze and the others, waving their flags and shouting. Now that Ren Gang was dead, Tang Huan was not in the mood to bother with the rest of the Heaven Sect cultivators anymore. The main reason was that Tang Huan's current standing was no longer as high up as before.

Moreover, after this incident, the Qian Yuan Sky Sect was almost finished.

From now on, not only would the Flowing Flower Domain and the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace be the rulers, even the entire Crimson Sky Kingdom would be the rulers of the Flowing Flower Region. As a result, a cultivator with outstanding talent would never choose to join the Heaven's Expanse Sect, and without the cultivation resources accumulated over the years, the decline of the Heaven Sect would no longer be suspenseful. In a few years, not to mention a second-rate sect, even third-rate sects would not be ranked.

Xue Yu's lips trembled for a moment. In the end, he did not say anything, and only bowed deeply towards Tang Huan before leaving the great hall.

The anxiety and depression from the past quietly faded, and was replaced with joy from surviving a calamity. Even though Ren Gang had died, Tang Huan had no intention to pursue this matter with the other disciples of the Heaven's Expanse Sect. For everyone present, this was a joyous news.

As for giving all the sect's treasures to Tang Huan, it was normal. To offend a Heavenly King Stage powerhouse so fiercely, there must be a price to pay.

As for unsealing the sect, many of the Qian Yuan Sky Sect cultivators raised their hands to support it.

Once the Heaven's Expanse School was reopened, they would be freed. They would no longer have to be trapped in the residence space of the sect.

It was a relief for everyone.

When the Heaven and Earth Sect gathered all their forces to lift the seal on the sect, Tang Huan entered the Heaven and Earth Cauldron, the cultivation holy land of the Heaven and Earth Sect.

To the Heaven and Earth Cauldron of the Heaven and Earth Sect, it was like the Soaring Cloud Violet Palace to the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace. Of course, the effects of the "Universe Cauldron" were far inferior to that of the "Soaring Sky Violet Palace".

The Cosmic Cauldron was located on the peak of the mountain where the Qian Yuan Sky Sect's leader resided.

Although it was called a 'cauldron', it was actually a giant boulder in the shape of a square cauldron. The huge rock was crystal clear, like a beautiful piece of jade. It was glowing red all the time. Even though it was located at the waist of an ancient tree, no matter where in the Qian Yuan Heaven Sect, one could almost see the light rising into the sky.

The four legs of the cauldron were like four jade pillars holding up the sky, firmly supporting the enormous body of the cauldron.

The Cosmic Cauldron contained pure energy. Under normal circumstances, only the highest ranked members of the sect and their most talented disciples would have the chance to enter the cauldron to train.

After passing through such a completely enclosed space in the sect's encampment, Tang Huan was unable to use the "yin and yang dao diagrams" anymore. The reason was mainly because she had exhausted too much of her mental strength during the process of teleportation and needed to slowly recover. While she was recovering her strength of heart, Tang Huan did not plan to help Xue Yu and the others open up the sect.

He would take advantage of this time to cultivate well.

As a result, Tang Huan would naturally not miss out on a suitable place for cultivation like the Qiankun Cauldron.

Inside the Universe Cauldron, there was no one else but Tang Huan, who was completely focused on absorbing the energy that was as cool as water, was completely unaffected by the movements of the outside world.

"Rumble ..."

After an unknown period of time, an earth-shattering sound suddenly rang out, as if the entire Qian Yuan Sky Sect was trembling intensely. The commotion lasted for several breaths of time before it gradually subsided. In the end, it completely disappeared, and then shouts of joy rang out one after another.

"Looks like the Qian Yuan Sky Sect has already been opened. It's time to leave."

At the bottom of the cauldron, Tang Huan slowly opened her eyes, the energy contained within the cauldron had almost been completely refined. After briefly sensing the situation in her body, Tang Huan couldn't help but shake her head and sigh, "Compared to the star power condensed from the 'Seven Stars Void Diagram' of the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, it's still inferior."

Tang Huan reckoned that she had stayed in the Universe Cauldron for even longer than she did in the Seven Stars Immortal Palace.

He was able to refine even more power, but the increase in the number of dao crystals was only a mere 500,000. And in the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, Tang Huan's Dao crystal had increased by 800,000. The reason for this situation was very simple. The quality of the energy within the cauldron could not be compared to the power of the stars.

He was only able to condense a single Dao-crystal of the same amount of power, while the other Celestial Kings were able to condense multiple or even ten of them.

At first, he had been optimistic, but at this rate, not to mention ten years, even twenty years wouldn't be enough to reach a God King.

Tang Huan rubbed her forehead, stood up with a headache, and rose upwards ...

Chapter 1836 - Returning to the Heavenly Abode

When Tang Huan left the Qian Yuan Sky Sect, she took a few things with him that were filled with spatial rings.

Within the sect, less than half of the cultivators were left. When the other half opened their entrances, they quickly scattered in all directions. In the following period of time, if the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion became more and more powerful, there would be more cultivators who would choose to leave the Qian Yuan Heaven Sect.

Tang Huan still did not return to Jade Imperial City immediately, but chose to head for her next target, Limitless Temple.

Limitless Temple was indeed quick to act, and Hall Master Feng Yushu was decisive enough. Even before the battle in Jade Imperial City broke out, he had already sealed off the entire sect.

However, this was useless.

How could the events of that year end just because of the Everlasting Temple's sect seal? Even if Limitless Temple sealed their sect, it would be impossible for them to escape the punishment they deserved.

Tang Huan teleported from city to city, quickly approaching the Limitless Temple.

The next day, news about the "Flowing Flower Domain" and the "Sky Origin Sect" spread. Even after the Heaven's Expanse School was sealed, they were still forced in by Tang Huan to kill their leader in the blink of an eye. The Heaven's Expanse Sect was forced back into the sect and all sorts of treasures were looted by Tang Huan.

Many of the sect masters who were also considering whether or not to seal off their sect and protect themselves were abnormally shocked, quenching such thoughts in succession.

Nearly two months later, news of the "Flowing Flower Domain" of Limitless Temple once again shocked the world. Limitless Temple, which had sealed its own sect earlier than the Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect, had also been forcefully broken into by Tang Huan. Sect Master Feng Yushu had descended, and over ten of its elders had their cultivations destroyed as the sect's most valuable treasures entered Tang Huan's hands.

"Everyone, it's time for us to enter as well."

Just as the countless cultivators in the Scarlet Radiance Heaven were shocked by the news, at the central plaza of the Jade Imperial City, Tang Huan, who had just returned, looked at Jiu Ling, Xiao Nian Die and the others who were beside him.

Hearing Tang Huan's words, everyone became excited.

After returning from the various large sects, they had been waiting for this day. However, Tang Huan still hadn't returned, so they could only restrain their anxious thoughts.

In between Tang Huan's mind instructs (in a second), the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared.

Two days before Tang Huan had returned, Chong Ze had brought Jianxin back to the Jade Imperial City. The accumulated star energy in the cave was enough for Tang Huan to cultivate for quite some time.

In the next moment, the mountain and river painting scroll that was extended out sucked the impatient crowd into the cave dwelling within the Supreme Mystery Temple.

The moment the closed scroll was returned to the Dantian, Tang Huan released the sacred art "Yin Yang dao diagram". Countless tiny vortexes appeared on the surface of his body, quickly converging and forming a gigantic vortex, while Tang Huan's body seemed to disappear into the depths of the vortex at the same time.

The mountain ranges were lined with mountains, and the dragon-like clouds and mist lingered between the peaks, giving it the appearance of a fairyland.

This was the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace!

Tang Huan once again returned to this place, and with a thought, the entire situation in the Outer Palace was imprinted in her mind.

To any sect, sealing their sect was a method that they had no choice but to use, and it was the same for the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace. The unforeseen event ten years ago had caused many of the cultivators of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion to give up all hope. The moment the news of the grand sealing of the sect spread, the number of cultivators who had fled the sect was now less than ten thousand.

This was far less than Sun Kui had estimated.

According to Sun Kui's words, there should still be around forty percent of the Heavenly Palace's disciples remaining. If he had stayed in Yuhuang City, it was only reasonable that he would have misjudged him.

Tang Huan didn't find the current situation in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace strange at all, even after seeing the situation with the Heaven's Qian Yuan Sect and the Limitless Temple.

After all, it was human nature to seek profit and avoid disaster.

"That's good too!"

Tang Huan smiled slightly, "Emperor Dragon Sky Palace has really gone to ruin. It's not a pity that all of the sect's Disciples who only know how to seek profit and avoid disasters have left. Those who remain behind are all people with a firm and resolute disposition, people who can live and die together with the sect.

It was still the same old saying. A forcefully twisted melon didn't taste good at all.

If those cultivators left, it would be even better for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace. At least, the atmosphere of the Outer Palace made Tang Huan very satisfied. Here, Tang Huan did not feel any of the mania and anxiety that filled the entire Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and Everlasting Temple.

Amongst the Outer Palace cultivators, Tang Huan also felt many auras undulations that she had not felt in a long time.

Lei Jia Yuan, Fang Xu, Yu Qing Rong, Shen Bai, Pang Tai Ran, Zhang Xinshui, Qi Yi, Zhu Han Lin ... Some of these people were familiar with Tang Huan back then, and some were ranked at the top of the Black Dragon Ranking.

In addition, there was also Liu Han Qing whose name was only one word away from 'Mo Han Qing'. There was also the Jade Imperial City Rankings head, Xiao Mu Shuang, who was Xiao Nian Die's younger sister.

These people all chose to remain in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion.

After so many years, their cultivation levels had both greatly increased. Among them, Xiao Moyan's cultivation was the highest, and she was now a Tier 1 Heavenly Lord. Liu Han Qing and Yu Qing Rong were also at high level. Lei Jia Yuan and Fang Xu's cultivation were slightly weaker, and they were only at the low level Heaven stage now.

Of course, it didn't matter.

With the plundered treasures from the various large sects, the cultivation of all the Heavenly Palace's disciples would skyrocket in the future, and the overall strength of the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace would greatly increase as well.

Tang Huan did not disturb the crowd that was currently cultivating.

Currently, everyone in the Outer Palace was wholeheartedly focusing on their cultivation. The unforeseen event ten years ago had obviously caused all the Heavenly Palace disciples to hold their breaths. If he could really maintain this feeling, even without the appearance of Tang Huan, when the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace opens their sect in the future, it would increase by quite a bit.

The current Inner Palace was even more quiet.

In Tang Huan's senses, there were only a few dozen people in the entire Inner Palace.

Ten years ago, in that great battle, Du Xinghe and several tens of elders were killed in battle. Sun Kui and the other elders' cultivation were crippled, so there weren't many elders left alive today.

For example, Palace Chief Nie Cangsheng, whose aura was actually faintly discernible. Moreover, the Sect Master of the Nine-Colored Immortal Sect, Xiao Zihan, the God King, seemed to have not completely recovered from her injuries. Her aura fluctuated between strong and weak, extremely unstable.

Tang Huan sighed inwardly, feeling extremely guilty.

Although the fellows who had killed the Heavenly Palace's elders were either killed by Tang Huan herself, or were eliminated by Sword Heart, it was still impossible for the dead Du Xinghe and the others to revive. Furthermore, the reason why the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace suffered such a calamity was actually because of Tang Huan.

If Tang Huan's performance wasn't too outstanding, the various great sects of the Crimson Radiance Sect would not have been able to join hands and take action against the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

After a long while, Tang Huan calmed herself down, and with a thought, she brought out the drawing scroll. Nine Spirits, Xiao Nian Die and the rest appeared in the Inner Palace at the same time.

Familiar and powerful auras suffused the air and instantly exploded within the Inner Palace ...

Chapter 1837 - Reopening the Sect

No one in the outside world was aware of what was happening within the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

However, the originally lonely Imperial Jade City had become more and more lively, showing a scene of prosperity. Almost every day, a large number of cultivators gathered from all directions. Among them were the residents of Jade Imperial City and the former cultivators of the Imperial Dragon Heavenly Mansion.

Of course, most of them were foreign cultivators.

Ever since the various sects joined hands to exterminate Tang Huan, only to end up losing greatly, everyone knew that the Crimson Radiance Heavenly Palace would be under the rule of the Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace. Although the current Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace had already sealed the sect, as long as Tang Huan was there, it would be possible for it to reopen its sect.

Since Tang Huan was able to trespass into the already sealed Qian Yuan Heaven Sect and Limitless Temple, she could naturally enter the sealed Emperor Dragon Heaven Palace as well.

Once the current situation was learned from Tang Huan, why would the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace continue sealing their sect and protecting themselves?

When the sect was sealed, the cultivators of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion had mostly dispersed. Once the sect was reopened, they would definitely accept disciples. This was a great opportunity to join the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion.

If I miss this chance, then if I want to join the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace in the future, the difficulty will certainly increase greatly.

There was never a lack of smart people in this world.

After determining this point, a large number of cultivators poured into the Jade Imperial City from all over the Crimson Radiance Sect. In just half a year after the war, the Jade Imperial City had become even more prosperous than it was ten years ago.

No one knew where the news about Tang Huan and the rest having entered the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace spread, but at the center of the plaza of the Jade Imperial City, there was a sea of people every day.

When had the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion ever reopened their sect? Everyone was looking forward to it.

"Judging by the time, it should be time for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace to reopen?" At the northern edge of the plaza, a young man wearing a green robe could not help but mutter worriedly.

"What's the rush?"

"No matter when Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace reopens, as long as it accepts disciples, with our cultivations and ages, we'll definitely be able to get it." As he finished speaking, the man in white was looking forward with confidence written all over his face.

"You're right, we're just over a hundred years old, but we're already at the Tenth Order." The azure-robed man laughed as well.

"Unless the disciples of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace are blind, there is no way for us to fail. We can just wait here in peace."

"Sigh, if we had known earlier on that Junior Brother Tang Huan wasn't dead, we would have stayed in the sect like Junior Brother Shen Bai and Junior Sister Yu Qing Rong." A vexed voice suddenly sounded from the west side of the square. The speaker was a slim young man with a pair of triangular eyes ...

"Yeah, who would have thought that not only did Junior Brother Tang Huan and the others return, they even became so strong. They even managed to cope with the combined attacks of four great heavenly kings and hundreds of heavenly dukes." A well-built man in black ruthlessly slapped the back of his head as he sorrowfully echoed the words.

"I'm afraid it won't be that easy for us to return to the sect." The one who spoke was the girl in green, her tone was filled with worry.

"That's not necessarily true."

A middle-aged man waved his hand and smiled, "Junior Brothers and Sisters, there is no need to worry too much. The Emperor Dragon Heaven's Heavenly Mansion is reopening its sect, and we are all Heavenly Palace's cultivators. At least it's better for us to return to the sect than to recruit new disciples. "

The surrounding cultivators nodded their heads, but they were not as optimistic.

Ten years ago, when the Sect was in danger and the Li Sect was in danger, they had left. To put it more seriously, they had betrayed the Sect. After the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace opened their sect, no one could guarantee whether they would be able to reunite with them or not. As for those with low cultivation, that was even more so.

However, regardless of whether it would succeed or not, they still had to give it a try.

After the end of that battle, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace with so many Heavenly Kings had already become Crimson Radiance's number one sect. If they could join Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, that would be the greatest of honors. Thinking of this point, many of the original cultivators of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion felt regret in their hearts.

Time flew by. January, February, March

Unknowingly, another half a year had passed.

The Jade Emperor City became even more lively, and the cultivators who wanted to join or return to the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion became even more anxious.

Although the Huang Long Tian Manor lost a lot of strength ten years ago, Tang Huan and Xiao Nian Die were strong enough to join in and reopen the sect. They estimated that they would only need a month to do so. But now, more than half a year had passed, and there was still no movement from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

Could it be that the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace didn't plan to reopen their sect this quickly? It seemed unlikely ...

The reason why the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion had been sealed was because of the threat from the Seven Stars Immortal Palace and the Xumi Sacred Mountain. Now that the threat had been eliminated, there was no need for the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion to continue sealing the sect.

"Rumble ..."

In the middle of the plaza of the Jade Imperial City, a loud sound rang out and turned into a loud sound wave. The sound wave travelled back and forth between the skies and the earth, spreading far and wide for thousands of miles.

The city began to shake violently, and countless cultivators outside the city were shocked.

One by one, they looked towards the center of the city, and the cultivators that had gathered around the plaza immediately regained their senses after a brief moment of shock. Soon after, a look of surprise and joy appeared on the faces of the previously suspicious cultivators.

There was finally movement within the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion!

In an instant, almost all of the gazes turned towards the white round cover in the center of the plaza. Under everyone's attentive gaze, the condensed and solid Pang Shuo round cover actually let out a wave of ripples. At the same time, the round cover was also continuously fading away.

About ten breaths later ...

The sturdy round cover that seemed to be condensed from countless white iron crystals had already disappeared, but the ripple like fluctuation still persisted, outlining the shape of the round cover.

"It opened! "It opened!"

In a split-second, shouts resounded everywhere.

Whether it was the former Emperor Long Tian Mansion's cultivators, the foreign cultivators, or the residents of the city, they were all extremely excited at this moment. Their eyes were filled with anticipation.

Since the sect was open, how long would it take for the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace to recruit disciples?

"Go!" Go! Let's enter the Heavenly Palace to take a look! "

A few middle-aged men shouted as they flew into the air, rushing towards the nearly transparent round cover. However, the moment they touched the undulation, an extremely majestic, formless energy seemed to roar out. Shortly afterwards, the middle-aged men were sent flying even faster.

Moments later, the group reached a hundred meters in the air, and their faces turned pale.

They suddenly came to a realization. Ten years ago, Sect Master Nie Cangsheng had given the order that all cultivators who left the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion would be free to leave. However, before they left, they would have to turn in their dragon tablets.

Without the dragon tablet, they wouldn't even be able to enter the entrance of the sect.

Chapter 1838 - Dragon Soul Heartbeat

"Since none of you can enter, then we'll take our leave first."

Just then, a light laugh sounded out, six young men actually shot towards the round cover like lightning, in an instant, a green light flashed by their waists, and their figures submerged into the round cover.

"These six guys are all Azure Dragon disciples."

"I know of them. Ten years ago, when word came that the sect was going to be sealed, they didn't return to the sect at all. They fled long ago, which is why they keep their dragon medallions."

"Shameless!" This is too shameless! "

"..."

Many of the cultivators of the imperial palace couldn't help but curse. They would first go to the elders to plead for mercy; they might even be able to return to the sect easily.

This made everyone extremely indignant.

When the foreign cultivators saw this, their expressions were filled with disdain as they sneered in all directions.

"Ahhhhhhhhh!"

However, it didn't take long before the clamor around the square was drowned out by a few screams.

Everyone looked towards the source of the voice. The figures of the six young men had once again entered their line of sight. They actually came out from the round cover, but they did not come out on their own. They were lifted and thrown out like eagles trying to catch a chicken, flying through the clouds and falling onto the ground at the edge of the plaza a hundred meters away.

The people who threw them out were six young men and women, and the Qi that emanated from their bodies were extremely powerful.

"A second level Heaven Marquis and five first level Heaven Marquis!" Outside the plaza, a thin looking Black Costume Old Man could not help but be moved from fright as she exclaimed in a low voice while being a little surprised, "It's only been ten years since the sect was sealed, and there's actually so many marquis among the young disciples of the Emperor Dragon Heaven Palace."

"Senior Sister Xiao Mushuang, Senior Sister Yu Qing Rong, Senior Sister Zhang Xinshui, Senior Brother Shen Bai, Senior Brother Pang Tai Ran, Senior Brother Zhu Han Lin ..."

The yellow-clothed youth at the side was clearly a disciple of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, he actually reported the lives of the six young men and women as if they were treasures. Hearing Black Costume Old Man's explanation, his eyes widened and he couldn't help but exclaim: "They're actually all Marquis of Heaven."

The ones who had recognized them were not only the yellow-clothed youth, but also many other cultivators of the former Emperor Dragon Heavenly Mansion.

"It's been more than ten years since we last met. Junior Sister Xiao and Junior Sister Yu are still as elegant as ever."

"Those fellows that wanted to go in earlier were actually thrown out by them ..." Emperor Dragon Heaven Palace has decided to not take any of the original sect cultivators? "

"It's so satisfying, so satisfying, that's how it should be handled!"

"That's right, the sect can slip away faster than anyone when they're in trouble. Now that the sect is strong and has shamelessly run back to rejoin the sect, how could it be so easy to do so?"

Be it admiration, doubt, indignation, or schadenfreude ...

The square was bustling with noise.

"After being sealed for more than ten years in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, we have finally reopened our sect today."

High up in the sky, Xiao Mushuang had a graceful figure and a peerlessly beautiful face. Her red clothes were like fire, but the aura she emitted was as cold as ice.

Her eyes were cold and clear, and a melodious note bounced out from her mouth, exuding a bone-piercing chill, "Back then, everyone had already turned in their dragon medallions, so they will no longer be Heavenly Palace cultivators. They will no longer be. Since the cultivators of the Heavenly Palace who did not obtain the dragon tablet have not returned to the sect before the sect was sealed, they will not be able to enter the sect walls of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace again in the future. "

Upon hearing these words, the expressions of countless cultivators from the former Heavenly Abode dimmed.

Before the sect opened, there was not much hope for them to return. However, everyone still had a sliver of hope in their hearts. However, that sliver of hope had now been completely destroyed. Although Xiao Mushuang was only a young disciple of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, the one who made that decision was undoubtedly the sect master.

Instantly, everyone was filled with regret, but unfortunately, there would never be any medicine for regret in this world.

"I refuse to accept this!"

A young man, who was thrown out, suddenly flew into the air and stopped ten meters away from Xiao Mushuang. His face turned red as he stared furiously at Xiao Moyan and shouted, "Back then we did not return to the sect before the envoys sealed us, because we were too late to return and we did not want to return. What right do you have to deprive us of our identity as disciples of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace?"

The other young men and women also looked angry as they all agreed.

"A good excuse."

"In the past, the sect was summoned by the 'Dragon Soul Heart Method' to a truly sealed sect. No matter where you are in the Crimson Light sky, you should have sufficient time to return to the Jade Imperial City through the teleportation formation. According to the information obtained from the 'Dragon Soul Method' that year, all the cultivators of the Heavenly Imperial Palace were within the Flowing Flower Region.

The six young men and women were at a loss for words.

The Royal Dragon's Heavenly Mansion's "Dragon Soul Heart Method" was closely related to all the dragon tablets. As long as one carried a dragon tablet, one could sense the approximate location of the Heavenly Palace's cultivators through the "Dragon Soul Heart Method". Furthermore, one could also sense and summon the Heavenly Palace's cultivators with a dragon token through the "Dragon Soul Heart Method".

Under normal circumstances, there was no place within the Flowing Flower Realm and it would take more than a month before he could return to the Imperial Jade City.

"Scram!"

"Just a moment ago, I was only punishing you. From now on, if there are any other cultivators that don't use their dragon tokens to break into the sect, I'll kill them without mercy!" When the last three notes rang out, an incomparably sharp killing intent surged out from her body, causing chills to run down one's spine.

Everyone was silent. The square was suddenly silent.

The cultivators of the former Heavenly Abode were all very dejected, while the foreign cultivators all felt a bit of excitement in their hearts. The Emperor Dragon Heaven Manor didn't have any intentions of accepting those cultivators from the original Heavenly Palace to return to the sect. This meant that if the Emperor Dragon Heaven Palace wanted to expand, it would have to recruit new disciples on a large scale.

In this way, their chance had come!

Xiao Mushuang, Yu Qing Rong and the others looked at each other and were about to return to the sect when a Black Costume Old Man shouted, "My friends from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, please stay here for now. If you have accurate information, please let me know. "

In an instant, countless gazes of anticipation landed on Xiao Mushuang and the other three.

"It's time to disappoint everyone. The Emperor Dragon Heavenly Palace will not accept any more disciples within ten years!" With that one sentence, Xiao Mu Shuang and the rest disappeared from the round cover.

"What?"

Around the square, everyone looked at each other in dismay. They couldn't believe their ears. Not accepting disciples for ten years? Didn't the Emperor Dragon Sky Mansion want to take advantage of this opportunity to quickly grow?

Xiao Mushuang's words caused an uproar within and outside Jade Imperial City.

A few days later, another piece of news that came from the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace shocked the entire Crimson Radiance Sect.

Chapter 1839 - Myriad Sects Congress

"What? The Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion is going to convene all the sects led by the Marquis of Heaven to hold a Great Sect Assembly in half a year?"

In the southern part of the Crimson Ways Peak, in the realm of the white light, in the Million Flows Sect, a brawny man in a red robe with a full beard couldn't help but exclaim out loud. His eyes were as round as bells.

The Myriad Flow Sect was the sect with the most powerful cultivation base in the White Light Domain. As for the red-robed man, he was the sect head of the Myriad Flow Sect, Wu Min, a ninth level pinnacle Heaven Marquis.

Suddenly, Wu Mu snapped out of his daze and jumped up from the praying mat. He grabbed the middle-aged man's shirt, looking like a demon. "Elder Lu, is this true?"

"Sect Master, it is absolutely true!"

The middle-aged man didn't seem to be surprised by Wu Mi's actions. He opened his claws and smiled bitterly, "I think this news has already spread throughout the Crimson Twilight."

"What does the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace want to do?" Wu Mubai frowned.

"I don't know either."

The middle-aged man could not help but sigh as he said in a depressed tone, "However, this is probably not a good thing for our Million Flows Sect. More than ten years ago, when Chi Guda continued to enter the Immortal Seeking Palace, disciples of our Million Streams Sect participated in surrounding and attacking Tang Huan. "

"Yeah."

Wu Mu smacked the back of his head and said in a vexed tone, "If I had known that Tang Huan would become so powerful, I wouldn't have let those few disciples join in the fun. It's all the fault of those bastards from the Seven Stars Immortal Palace. It's one thing to provoke Tang Huan, but you dragged our Million Flowing Sect along with you. "

Initially, it was the Flowing Flower Domain's Qian Yuan Heavenly Sect and Limitless Temple. However, because they were afraid of Tang Huan's threat, they formed a line and looked for powerful sects such as the Seven Stars Immortal Palace, the Spiritual True Immortal School, and the Supreme Sword Sect to request for help.

But later on, the Seven Stars Immortal Palace and the other sects would take the lead.

These sects that had the Heavenly King as their leader suggested together, that even if the other sects in the Scarlet Radiance Sect weren't too interested in killing Tang Huan, they would still more or less be able to gain some strength. There was no suspense at all for the cultivators of the Scarlet Radiance Heaven Realm who had entered the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain to exterminate Tang Huan and the other members of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion.

Wu Muyi also felt that there was almost no risk in this matter, so he readily agreed.

But he never expected that not only was Tang Huan and the rest safe and sound, they had even increased their strength and returned to the Heaven Realm.

The actions of the sect's disciples in the Hall of Immortal Ascension had also brought disaster to the Myriad Flow Sect.

Wu Mu rolled his eyes and suddenly said, "Elder Lu, if we don't participate in this Great Sect Assembly..."

"What do you think?"

Elder Lu rolled his eyes. He looked at Wu Muyi as if he was looking at an idiot.

Wu Mu's old face reddened slightly as he smiled in embarrassment. "Why are you looking at me like this? I was just casually saying that our Million Sect must attend this Great Sect Assembly. We must go!"

"..."

... ..

"Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace is truly amazing!"

Southeastern Crimson Light Sky Sect, Realm of the Dragon Flame Region, Celestial Sect of Dragon Transformation. A skinny old man couldn't help but sigh.

The Celestial Sect of Dragon Transformation was one of the two great sects in the Realm of the Dragon Flame. The skinny old man was the Sect Master of the Celestial Sect of Dragon Transformation, Li Jiantong.

"It's been thousands of years since such a grand gathering that encompasses so many sects has happened, right?" Opposite Li Ji, a green-robed old man sighed.

"That's right."

Li Jitong sighed with emotion, "Before this, even for sects like the Seven Stars Immortal Palace and the Godly Mt. Xumi, if they wanted to hold such a grand meeting, there would be many sects that would not buy it. But right now, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace is only releasing a single piece of news, and they don't even need to issue an invitation, which is enough to finish this big thing. "

The green robed elder nodded his head in agreement: "Indeed, as long as it's a sect that has the qualifications to participate, no one would dare to refuse to participate in this Great Sect Assembly."

"At this time, that old fellow from the 'Hundred Fiends' gate is probably having a headache about this."

After Li Jiaquan finished speaking, he and the green-robed elder glanced at each other, and both of them actually laughed out loud at the same time.

In the past, the 'Myriad Domain Dao Arts', the Hundred Herbs Sect was ranked higher than the Celestial Sect of Dragon Transformation, obtaining a placing to enter the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain. There was only a difference of eight ranks between the two of them. At that time, Li Ji's group was filled with regret, but now, they felt extremely fortunate.

... ..

On the vast snowy mountain ridge in the northwest of the Crimson Light Peak, a small city that seemed to be carved from snow stood tall and imposing.

This was the Void Snow City!

In the northwestern region of the Cyan Aurora Region, the snowy sky city was the only sect that was entirely composed of women. Moreover, there were very few of them, but their strength could completely be ranked in the top five.

"The Emperor Dragon Heaven Manor is holding a Great Sect Assembly. I heard that all the sects with the Marquis of Heaven are participating. It seems like our Snowy City has to make a trip to the Flowing Flower Region."

"Our Profound Sky City has never besieged the Emperor Dragon Sky Palace, nor have we offended Tang Huan. There's no harm in taking a look."

"This time, I plan to bring Hu Si and a few other disciples over to take a look. Great Elder, in the time that I have been gone, I'll hand all of Freezing Snow City over to you."

"Yes, Mayor!"

From time to time, exquisite sounds could be heard coming from the inside of a pavilion.

... ..

News that the Emperor Dragon Sky Manor would convene a Great Sect Assembly half a year later swept through the Crimson Radiance Sect like a storm.

It was said that all the sects that had Heaven Marquis cultivators as their leader had to participate.

Generally speaking, within a domain, there would be more than ten sects with Marquis of Heaven. Adding up the hundreds of Domain Realms, there would definitely be more than ten thousand sects.

As long as there was a marquis within the sect, he would automatically gain the right to participate.

In this regard, some sects were extremely happy.

However, this grand gathering was not a great occasion for every sect, especially those sects that had Disciples s that had entered the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain. As for the dozens of sects that had tried to harm the royal family in the past, their performance was rather relaxed.

Firstly, Tang Huan had already dealt with those sects once, directly or indirectly, and secondly, the sect master and a portion of the elders had already been indirectly controlled by Tang Huan.

The dozens of schools could only fully support the Ten Thousand School Gathering.

Thus, as the countless cultivators speculated about the purpose of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, they all rushed to the Jade Imperial City.

As time passed, the Imperial Jade City, which was slightly less heated due to refusing to accept disciples, once again became more lively, and it was even more rowdy than before.

The outside world was chaotic, but the inside of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion was completely silent.

However, there was a vigorous atmosphere in the silence, just like a dormant volcano. On the surface, it looked calm, but the molten lava were surging inside.

Soon, it was the Myriad Sect Assembly, and almost all of the cultivators of the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion were cultivating bitterly.

Tang Huan was naturally no exception.

Chapter 1840 - Nine Spirits Break through

Within the Inner Mansion, the Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram was placed directly on the ground.

Within the cave, in the valley that was filled with a large amount of star power, Tang Huan sat cross-legged. Of course, this was only his main body. Her avatar was in the Supreme Mystery Temple, absorbing the celestial spiritual energy contained within.

After the avatar was formed, the cultivation base of the original body would increase. Although the strength of the avatar would increase, if the avatar wanted to increase its cultivation base, it would have to cultivate on its own. For example, the Dao Crystals that Tang Huan had previously increased only belonged to his main body. The Dao Crystals of his Immortal body did not change at all.

The existence of the clone caused Tang Huan's power to increase drastically, but also caused him to require even more boundless power in her cultivation.

In the few months after he entered the Emperor Dragon's Celestial Palace with the "Yin Yang dao diagram", Tang Huan's main focus was to use the life force of the "Primal Chaos dao flame" to treat Sun Kui and a few other elders whose cultivation had been crippled. As for the rest of the Heavenly Palace cultivators, they were using the heaven and earth treasures that Tang Huan and the others brought back to train.

In just a few short months of time, Yu Qingrong, Shen Bai, Liu Hanqing, and many others who were at the Tenth Order all advanced to the level of Tier 1 Marquis. As for Mansion Lord Nie Cangsheng, she relied on a precious medicinal pellet she had collected from the "Seven Stars Immortal Palace" to completely heal her injuries.

After that, under the leadership of Nie Cangsheng, the numerous Heavenly Abode cultivators opened up the sect gates.

Tang Huan, who had just finished treating Sun Kui and the others, also entered the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" and started to concentrate on her cultivation.

After exiting Limitless Temple, Tang Huan's Dao crystal had increased to 108.8 million. Although's Dao Crystal's speed of refining the star power that came from the Seven Stars Immortal Palace wasn't fast, it was much faster than when he was cultivating in the Heaven's Expanse School and Limitless Temple.

After a long time.

"Boom —"

An earth-shattering sound suddenly exploded out.

Within the space of the cave, the entire world was trembling slightly as the void started to fluctuate rapidly. Soon after, the Heavenly Energy had already filled up every inch of the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace".

"Hmm?"

In the depths of the valley, Tang Huan suddenly opened her eyes, and the star power around him started to dissipate, following that, she soared into the sky, and in the blink of an eye, she looked at the neighboring valley, and revealed a smile between her brows: So it's actually nine spirits, and this little fellow has finally levelled up to become a low level Heavenly King.

The Heavenly Dao was everywhere, so even if he broke through within the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", there would still be signs of heaven and earth appearing.

However, this "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" created its own space, if one were to advance here, the phenomenon would not spread outside the cave. However, if one broke through within the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion, the phenomenon would spread out. Regardless of which direction one was in, they would be able to clearly see it.

"Ga ji!"

A deafening cry suddenly sounded out from within the valley. The sound was filled with excitement that was difficult to conceal.

An extremely bright and resplendent rainbow of lights suddenly burst out from the valley. Immediately afterwards, an unusually large, enormous, and multicolored bird spread its wings and rose into the air. The giant bird was none other than Nine Spirits. Its several thousand meters long body was stretched out, covering the sky and the earth. A leap in her cultivation caused her body to expand once more.

Almost at the same time, a horrifying deathly stillness surged out from his body like a violent ocean wave, filling the sky.

"Big brother, I am also an Inferior Heavenly King!"

With one glance, the nine spirits saw Tang Huan who was standing in the air and let out a weird cry of excitement. Pang Shuo's body moved, and was about to move over.

"Nine Spirits, don't waste any time. Hurry down and stabilize your cultivation." Tang Huan scolded.

"As you wish, Big Brother!"

With a mischievous chuckle, Pang Shuo's body transformed into a petite and exquisite figure before disappearing into the valley below like a streak of rainbow.

Tang Huan acutely discovered that after the Nine Spirits transformed into human form, their bodies seemed to have grown taller than before. The current Nine Spirits were about ten years old or so old. As his cultivation level continued to rise, he would definitely become a peerlessly beautiful girl with nine colors in the future.

The strange phenomenon gradually disappeared, and the world quickly returned to normal.

Tang Huan roughly sensed the situation in the neighboring valley, where only the three people cultivating were in the valley: Nine Spirits, Kui Cow, and She Yu Ji. Right now, Jiu Ling was already an Inferior Heavenly King, while the Kui Cow and She Yuji had already reached the peak of the ninth level of the Sky Sovereign Realm.

After a while, Tang Huan floated down the valley.

After continuously cultivating for so long, the amount of star power accumulated in the valley had been reduced by almost half, and the amount of dao crystals in Tang Huan's body had just surpassed 110 million. As for the number of dao crystals in Supreme Profound Hall, the divine clone had reached 103 million... Be it her main body or her avatar, they were still very far from the peak of the Inferior Realm. However, Tang Huan was not too anxious about the cultivation path.

While he was thinking, Tang Huan's figure disappeared from the Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace and appeared in the Inner Palace.

This time, his training had not been for a short period of time, and the Great Thousand Sect Assembly would probably begin soon, so Tang Huan had to go out and check the situation, and could not stay in the cave forever.

As he walked out of the residence, the situation in the Inner Palace appeared in his mind.

When Tang Huan returned to the sect, he only had a mere thirty or so Heaven Marquis of the Inner Palace, but there were more than a hundred of them now. Other than Song Jing, Xiang Miaomiao and the other forty odd people who had returned from the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain, there were similarly more than thirty. They were all low level marquis, obviously having just broken through.

The pills that he'd plundered from the various sects had indeed been of great merit.

Tang Huan smiled slightly, left the Inner Palace, and floated high above the Outer Palace at a moderate pace. After a while, Tang Huan revealed a satisfied smile. There were less than ten thousand cultivators in the Outer Palace, but compared to when he just returned to the sect, her overall strength had increased by a large amount.

There was already no one in Heaven, and there were only a few hundred or so Heaven Scholars.

Among the remaining cultivators, the Sky Sovereign and the Sky Lord each took about half, and within the thousands of Sky Realm, there were hundreds of people at the tenth level. With enough cultivation resources, he estimated that within a few years, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion might have tens or even hundreds of Heaven Lords.

With such a foundation, along with the four Inferior Sky Kings, Xiao Hui Die, the Elixir Golden Rainbow, and the Nine Spirits, it would be enough to raise the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion to the position of the number one sect in the Crimson Radiance Sect.

If one were to include Xiao Zihan, a Medial Level King Guest Warrior, as well as the controlled Medial Level King, Chong Ze, and the lower Level King, Sa Xiangyang, then the strength of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion would be even greater.

Tang Huan gathered her emotions and continued to move forward. When any Heavenly Palace cultivator that passed by saw him, they would look towards him with respect and admiration.

Not long later, Tang Huan arrived at the exit of the Outer Palace.

"Senior Brother Tang Huan!"

The two Marquis of Heaven guarding the exit were none other than Pang Tai Ran and Zhu Han Lin. When they saw Tang Huan coming, they reflexively stood up and bowed towards him. After the sect was reopened, there had always been a marquis guarding this place to prevent those who hadn't yet handed over their dragon medallion from sneaking in.

"Thank you for your hard work, junior brothers."

With a warm smile, Tang Huan's figure disappeared from the exit. Pang Tai Ran and Zhu Han Lin looked at each other with a complicated expression.

In the past, everyone was a disciple of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace's Black Dragon. Now, they were both first grade Heavenly Marquis, yet Tang Huan was already a lower level Heavenly King. Such a huge gap really made one sigh with emotion.

However, they were not the least bit envious or jealous of Tang Huan.

If Tang Huan's cultivation was only a stage or two higher than them, they would have such thoughts. They might even try their best to catch up with Tang Huan, but right now, they did not have such thoughts. To Tang Huan, all they had now was admiration, admiration, and even worship.

Only Tang Huan was capable of intimidating the various great sects of the Crimson Radiance Sect.

Only Tang Huan could bring the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace to the summit of the Crimson Light Kingdom; only Tang Huan could bring the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace back to its former glory and glory back to tens of thousands of years ago ...

Tang Huan was worthy of the admiration of all the Heavenly Palace's cultivators!
