

W. Master 1861

Chapter 1861 - Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace

"He really got hooked with me!"

This thought flashed through his mind, and Tang Huan already couldn't remember how many times he had used the sacred art "Void Evasion".

He was already convinced that the one who was unwillingly pursuing him was indeed a phoenix, but from start to finish, it had only revealed a phoenix's head.

Many times he had glanced behind him, but he had not been able to see the full face of the phoenix.

This confused Tang Huan.

However, even if it was only the head of the phoenix that appeared, the power that it revealed was enough to make one's soul tremble. Although Tang Huan relied on his "Air Escape" to dodge its attacks dangerously every time, the terrifying sounds that continuously appeared behind him, which made him feel as if the world was collapsing, gave him a sense of nervousness that he hadn't felt in a long time.

Once he was pecked by the phoenix mouth, his flesh body would definitely be reduced to smithereens.

However, he didn't know if the baby could be reunited. If it could reunite, the main body would naturally have a chance of surviving. If it couldn't reunite, the main body would truly die out. Of course, that "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was an extremely powerful weapon after all, and should be able to remain unharmed.

"Phew!" "Whooosh."

Air escape! Space escape ... His figure flashed and disappeared again and again, and the moment he disappeared, the terrifying sound that seemed to destroy the heavens and earth rang out behind him.

Tang Huan went from left to right, going up and down, changing directions from time to time. However, no matter where he escaped to, the phoenix head would always catch up to him in an instant.

Its power seemed endless, and its pursuit seemed endless.

Tang Huan frowned, if she continued to be chased by the phoenix head, sooner or later, her energy would be depleted, and at that time, she would be able to hide in the Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace. At that time, the Illusory Sword Heavenly Mansion would have to endure the terrifying peck attack from the phoenix beak. After all, it was impossible to use the 'Space Escape' technique with the help of the scroll.

Compared to when he first obtained this cave dwelling, it was countless times more powerful.

However, there was still a heaven and earth difference when compared to it when it was at its strongest. Tang Huan wasn't sure if it could withstand the phoenix head's attacks. According to Tang Huan's judgement, the power that the phoenix beak had released when she pecked had probably reached the level of an Upper Sky King, or even a Peak Sky King.

If it was only the strength of a peak middle age Heavenly King, Tang Huan could still stop and use all of her trump cards to fight it head on.

But now, not to mention stopping, even if he were to react slightly slower, it would be no different from courting death. The Nine Yang Divine Furnace was incomparably stable and the God Crafting Crystal was also extremely powerful. However, to Tang Huan, the stronger she was, the stronger the power they could unleash would be.

With Tang Huan's current strength, even if she pushed the Nine Yang Divine Furnace and the God Crafting Crystal to their limits, it would still be difficult for him to match the phoenix head.

"There seems to be no other way to escape ..."

Tang Huan laughed bitterly to herself.

It had been so many years since he had transcended the heavenly tribulation, but this was still the first time Tang Huan had been forced into such a sorry state. Even back then when he was forced out of the Heaven Scarlet Radiance Sect with the "Netherworld Immortal Talisman" and barely broke through the spatial barrier to leave the Nether Realm, he had never been in such a difficult position to advance or retreat.

Right now, Tang Huan could no longer differentiate which direction she was in right now.

Before, he would still be able to see a few islands from time to time. But now, Tang Huan had already consecutively "escaped through the air" dozens of times, but he had never seen a single island. Every time he appeared, he saw a vast ocean.

"Since there's no way to get rid of it, let's wait and see who can last longer!"

Tang Huan let out a cold snort, and the figure that was just revealed disappeared like lightning, avoiding the fierce peck from the phoenix mouth behind him. When Tang Huan's figure appeared once again, the rapidly revolving "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" inside the Dantian had already begun to refine a new pellet in order to recover Sky Origin Stage.

After sensing that he would not be able to get rid of the phoenix head for a short period of time, Tang Huan had already started to refine the pellets.

Since the beginning of their escape, Tang Huan did not have the time to retrieve pills from his spatial equipment, nor did he have the time to summon his cauldron and store them in. However, luckily, Tang Huan had placed quite a few medicinal pellets into the cauldron when he was leaving the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, which he had used to refine them on the way here.

Although the rate of replenishment wasn't as fast as the consumption, it was enough to slow down the reduction.

"Boom!" "Boom ~ ~ ~"

Tang Huan constantly went from one mountain to another as earth-shattering explosions occurred one after another behind him, as if she would never stop.

Unknowingly, an entire day had already passed.

Tang Huan did not slow down at all, and the speed of the phoenix head did not decrease in the slightest as well. Originally, Tang Huan had thought of it as a fluke, she hoped that the phoenix head would give up on the idea of killing him after seeing that time had passed in vain. But now, Tang Huan had completely given up on that idea.

"Huh?"

After another "Air Escape", Tang Huan couldn't help but exclaim in a low voice.

Within his line of sight, a gorgeous green light was imprinted into the horizon, illuminating the distant horizon until it looked like a dream-like illusion. Within the green light, there seemed to be a palace on the water that was faintly discernible.

"Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace?"

Tang Huan's heart jumped, as though the words had flashed past her mind, she felt a strong sense of danger surging out from the depths of her soul.

The "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" was one of the most dangerous places in Crimson Radiance Sect.

"In the depths of this" Dan Sea Realm ", the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace could appear anytime, anywhere." Within a radius of 36 miles, the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace was filled with an incomparable amount of power. Even a peak-ninth level marquis would not be able to get close to that power; at the very least, they would have to be a Lesser Heaven King.

Even if a peak-ninth level marquis relied on some sort of powerful spatial artifact to approach the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", they would still be unable to withstand the oppressive feeling generated by that power and be instantly blown apart. However, even for the Heavenly King, the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace was extremely dangerous.

It was the same for the Heavenly King of the Crimson Radiance Sect, and it was the same for the other Thirty-Five Heavenly Kings.

This is because in every Heaven Realm for the next thirty-six days, there is the existence of this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". From ancient times until now, this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" had existed for countless years. In the next thirty-six days, many Heavenly Kings had entered, but the number of those who could survive was extremely few.

However, even those Heavenly Kings who survived seemed to become extremely dazzling powerhouses in the entire Heaven Realm.

For example, Ji Qingtian of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace was rumored to have entered and made it out alive from the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". Currently, he was already a supreme elder of the "Black Yellow Dao Sect" in the Upper Nine Heavens.

The Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace was not only a dangerous place, but also a precious place.

Chapter 1862 - Dragon and Phoenix Contest

Tang Huan never thought that she would actually encounter "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" here.

However, even though he was shocked, Tang Huan's reaction did not have the slightest hesitation. He did not dare to have the slightest hesitation either, because at this time, he already had no other choice.

Because the moment Tang Huan realized that the green-colored palace in the distance was "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", she had already unleashed half of her "Void Evasion". At this moment, if it stopped, there would be no time to redirect its direction. It would only be able to endure the terrifying attack from the phoenix head.

That level of attack, was not yet something that Tang Huan could handle.

Of course, Tang Huan was also very clear that once she used "Air Escape" this time, there would be no retreat.

At the moment, he was not too far away from the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", and in order to successfully avoid the threat behind him, he definitely could not travel that far. This meant that the next time he appeared, he would already be within a thirty-six mile radius of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

The "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" seemed to have a magical power. Once they entered that area, they could only move forward and not retreat.

Unless they entered the palace and made it out alive.

Indeed, in a split second, Tang Huan felt a powerful force, and immediately, her figure separated from the air, as a terrifying pressure pressed down from all directions.

It was very obvious that the distance between Tang Huan and the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" was less than thirty six kilometers.

"Whooosh."

With that thought, Tang Huan still did not hesitate at all, and directly withstood the invisible huge power, and rushed forward as fast as lightning.

In such an environment, it was no longer convenient to use the sacred art "Void Escape" because the power consumed would multiply, and the distance and speed of the teleportation would be greatly reduced. At this time, Tang Huan activated both the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "Dao Crystal" to their limits. In comparison, she was moving even faster.

In the instant that Tang Huan sped up, the phoenix head suddenly appeared again, and with lightning speed, pecked down from the sky. Every time it pounced, the power it unleashed would be extremely terrifying, and the power radiating from the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace was unbelievably strong.

In a split-second, the two enormous forces clashed, causing a deafening explosion.

On the surface of the sea, a crater that was several hundred meters deep and several thousand meters in circumference appeared. Around the crater, a huge wave that was a thousand meters tall rumbled and soared into the sky, as if it could instantly shatter the sky.

Tang Huan only felt a terrifying wave rolling from behind him, his body was immediately struck by a powerful attack, and her speed instantly increased. However, under the dual pressure of the impact force and the pressure from the surroundings, the blood in his body began to churn violently.

"Ang!"

It was also at this moment that countless dragon roars sounded out from Pang Shuo's palace in front of them, causing their souls to tremble.

Tang Huan looked over, only to see that over ten miles away, the green light had exploded, and inside the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", countless of dragon silhouettes appeared.

The dragon image above the palace quickly condensed into a green dragon, which was about three thousand meters long. It hovered in the air with its fangs and claws bared, like a king above the nine heavens. It looked down on all living things, and its immense pressure was irresistible.

Tang Huan's mind floated, she immediately used the God Crafting Crystal to stabilize her soul.

In the instant that the heaven-shaking, earth-shattering dragon's roar sounded, Tang Huan had already understood that strange objects like the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" could not possibly give birth to sentience. The actions of the phoenix head just now had evidently caused it to feel that its dignity had been greatly offended, which was why it made such a move.

I wonder how the phoenix will deal with it?

"Clang!"

Feng Ming's voice resonated from behind him. The phoenix head seemed to have stopped as it stopped moving.

Although Tang Huan did not turn back, she could hear a strong sense of fear from his voice. However, Tang Huan did not let out a sigh of relief. Sure enough, a moment later, a whistling sound rang out and the phoenix head actually caught up to him.

Once it entered the thirty-six mile radius of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", it would be impossible for it to leave.

Unless it had the power to completely suppress the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

"Whoosh!"

Tang Huan's body was like a ray of light, the distance between him and the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" swiftly shortened.

The palace became clearer and clearer in Tang Huan's eyes. Indeed, it was as the rumors said, the height of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" had reached a terrifying height of a few thousand meters, as if it was completely condensed from dense green luster, giving it a mysterious charm.

On the walls of the dragon palace, countless faint dragon roars could be vaguely heard. Every dragon shadow seemed to possess a life of its own as they lingered and swam about within the walls. The entrance of the giant dragon palace was completely open. Inside the palace, there was also a bright green light shining, and it was hard to tell what was going on inside.

The Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace was like a huge ancient beast with its mouth wide open. It floated above the sea, waiting for its prey to fall into its trap. In the sky, the spiraling and imposing huge green dragon made the Dragon Palace even more mysterious and powerful.

"Ang!"

The Strength Qi seemed to have solidified, as it gushed out of the dragon's mouth like a volcanic eruption. The next moment, a wave that could be seen with the naked eye spread out at a terrifying speed towards the fiery red phoenix head that was chasing behind Tang Huan.

After this frightening fluctuation, the huge green dragon's body swayed and it turned into a long ray of light as it shot towards the fiery phoenix head. Even if the green dragon wasn't targeting him, at this time Tang Huan also felt a mighty dragon's might that could suffocate one's breath.

Fortunately, there were God Forging Crystals and Nine Yang Divine Furnace s, so Tang Huan was able to endure them.

"Clang!"

Behind him, Feng Ming surged. Tang Huan still maintained his fast speed, not stopping at all.

In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan was already less than a kilometer away from the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace. At this moment, Tang Huan was still unable to hold back. She could not help but stop and look behind him.

Ten kilometers away, the enormous green dragon and the fiery phoenix ruthlessly clashed against each other. The terrifying Strength Qi wreaked havoc in all directions. In an instant, the space distorted severely, as if it was going to collapse at any moment. The seawater turned into monstrous waves, as if doomsday had arrived.

Chapter 1863 - Gigantic Ants

"Clang!"

Feng Ming said passionately, as if she was somewhat unwilling to give Tang Huan a glance.

The moment his voice fell, countless large and small cracks suddenly appeared on the head of the phoenix in Tang Huan's line of sight.

The phoenix head, which had been chasing Tang Huan for an unknown distance, finally disappeared into thin air from this place.

However, Tang Huan was also clear that the phoenix head was only condensed out of energy. The phoenix head on Fire Phoenix Island would not die because of this.

However, even though Tang Huan had already completely escaped from the phoenix head that was in hot pursuit, it was already impossible for him to leave the thirty six kilometer radius around this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

He had just exited the tiger's den and entered the wolf's lair ...

This was what Tang Huan felt at this very moment.

He wondered what would happen if he retreated here ... Tang Huan subconsciously moved his feet, but he discovered that there seemed to be an additional invisible barrier behind him that was indestructible, making it difficult for him to move backwards at all. Tang Huan did not continue to try. He understood in her heart that no matter how many times she tried, it would all be useless.

Of course, he could also stop at the same place and not move at all.

However, this choice was definitely the stupidest. If he stayed in this place, he would have to constantly defend against pressure. Once his power ran out, he would die. Even if he could provide enough power, he would be stuck in this place until the end of his life.

After entering the area thirty-six kilometers around the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", the only way to gain a chance of survival was to move forward.

"Ang!"

The dragon's roar shook the sky. The huge dragon in the distance separated into countless green dragon shadows. Like lightning, they streaked across the sky and merged back into the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

Tang Huan could faintly feel that before the gigantic dragon split, it was either intentionally or unintentionally, it looked at him once. There was a hint of warning in its eyes.

"Forget it."

Tang Huan let out a long breath, and thought, "A calamity would come, and a blessing would come. Since we're here, we might as well take care of it, the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace' is not a complete absolute region. If the Green Sky Ancestral Master is able to walk out of there alive, then my current strength is probably not any weaker than when the Green Sky Ancestral Master first entered, there's no need for me to be cowardly."

In the next moment, Tang Huan calmed her mind and continued moving forward.

As the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace got closer and closer, that majestic and vast aura that was like a mountain gave Tang Huan an extremely small sense of pressure, as if the person standing in front of him was a god standing on top of him, looking down at all living beings, wantonly releasing her own terrifying might.

However, with the continuous activation of the God Sculpting Crystal, after a short while, the feeling was expelled from the depths of Tang Huan's soul. A strong sense of confidence welled out from the bottom of her heart once again.

"Whoosh!"

After a moment, Tang Huan suddenly sped up, and like an arrow that had left its bow, shot forward. In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already entered the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

In that moment, Tang Huan felt as if she had entered a whole new world.

The instant he passed through the palace gates, a green colored great road spread out beneath Tang Huan's feet, and quickly extended forward following Tang Huan's flying speed. On both sides of the road, it seemed as if there were countless large and small dragon shadows that were writhing about. Those dragon shadows also had different appearances, and were all extremely strange.

After an unknown amount of time, the green road in front of them suddenly stopped. Instead, it rose up like a green ocean.

"Pah!"

Tang Huan was startled, and immediately flew into the water, the sound of a heavy object dropping into the water resonated out, and countless of ripples flew out.

Without any hesitation, Tang Huan immediately channeled her Sky Origin Stage and rushed out of the water surface to the sky, her two eyes quickly sweeping across the area.

It was a lake with a radius of tens of meters.

Tang Huan's expression relaxed slightly. With a slight movement of her figure, she floated down to the bottom of a rather oddly-shaped huge tree by the lake. However, not even one breath of time had passed and Tang Huan was already stunned. After that, she could not help but raise her brows, and the expression on her face immediately became extremely interesting.

He suddenly realized that the tree beside him was not a real tree. It was a weed, a weed that was hundreds of meters tall.

On the lakeshore, there were several more weeds that he saw as giant trees.

In that moment, Tang Huan suddenly realised that the lake she had fallen into was probably not a real lake, but a small puddle of water between a few weeds.

In this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", if a weed could become so big and terrifying, to what extent would a real tree grow to?

After a while, Tang Huan finally regained her senses and turned her neck stiffly.

Indeed, through the cracks, one could see that the surrounding weeds were everywhere, and between the weeds, the puddles were densely distributed.

It was obviously a grassy area filled with water.

However, this kind of grass gave Tang Huan quite a bit of shock. Although the Heaven Realm was big and full of surprises, but after facing the heavenly tribulation for so many years, Tang Huan had never thought that one day, when she stood in front of the weeds, she would feel so insignificant.

Of course, the weeds here could not compare to ordinary weeds.

No matter if it was the leaves or the stems of the weeds, all of Tang Huan's gaze revealed a lustrous luster, as though they were sparkling with a spirited charm. Moreover, the environment here was completely different from the sky of scarlet light, it was somewhat similar to the Primal Heavenly Immortal Domain, where the innate spirit energy contained an extremely dense amount of immortal spirit energy.

"This world is truly different from the others."

Tang Huan laughed self-deprecatingly, and muttered, "In this 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace', there is no way that even an ant would be more born than a person ..."

Before he even finished speaking, Tang Huan's gaze grew a little stiff.

On the opposite side of the puddle, a huge head popped out from behind the weeds. It was yellow in color, with two black eyeballs and two long antennae resting on it.

Under Tang Huan's attentive gaze, the fellow's entire body was quickly revealed, and completely golden.

Behind its head was a sturdy torso and a fat, round abdomen. Six long, skinny legs bent to support its ten-meter-long body. The surface of its body was dotted with countless fine hairs, and its legs had sharp, blade-like teeth, as if it could cut any hard object apart.

It's really Cao Cao, Cao is here! This was a giant ant!

Tang Huan didn't know what to say to express her feelings at the moment. In this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", even an ant was so shockingly huge, and the aura seeping out from the giant ant was also extremely tyrannical, reaching at least the peak of the ninth level of the sky marquis.

Chapter 1864 - Ants

In this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", even an ant had such strength!

Tang Huan lamented in her heart.

However, in an instant, he was alarmed. Ants had always been social creatures. Since there was one here, it was very likely that there would be a second one, a third one ... There were even thousands and thousands of them. Furthermore, no one could guarantee that there were no Heavenly King Stage powerhouses amongst the ants.

Just as this thought came out, Tang Huan sensed many powerful auras.

In just the blink of an eye, the area around Tang Huan was already densely packed with giant golden ants. Countless pairs of eyes were staring straight at this uninvited guest.

"Could this be an ant's nest?"

Tang Huan was startled, immediately her powerful consciousness spread out in all directions.

Indeed, within the several hundred miles of area, many auras interweaved. Although the auras were different in strength, it was clear that they came from the huge golden ants. Tang Huan couldn't help but estimate that the number of ants in this group exceeded at least a hundred thousand.

It was one thing even if it was like this. Those with the weakest auras could be compared with a Tier 6 Heavenly Marquis; it was comparable to both a Tier 9 or a peak Tier 9 Heavenly Marquis.

Beside Tang Huan, there were hundreds of giant ants that were equivalent to peak Ninth Level Marquis of Heaven.

Moreover, this kind of giant ant's aura was exceptionally overbearing and violent, as if it was a barrel of gunpowder that was ready to explode at any moment. From the looks of the surrounding giant ants who were staring at him, Tang Huan could clearly feel an exceptionally strong sense of ruthlessness.

The moment they appeared, they had already assumed an offensive stance. The reason why there were still no movements was because they seemed to be waiting for orders.

Once the order was given, they would probably pounce ferociously from the surroundings.

This ant colony was definitely different from ordinary ant colonies.

The ones who could give them orders were naturally the leaders of this colony of ants. Roughly a hundred and fifty kilometers away from Tang Huan, an even more powerful aura was faintly discernable. The strength of the aura had already far surpassed the limit of a peak-ninth level Sky Marquis, and it had almost reached the level of a mid-level Sky King.

It should be that ant king.

In this ant swarm, the King Ant was not the only one with power. In the surrounding thousands of meters, there were five auras as comparable to a lower Heavenly King lurking, surrounding and protecting the King Ant like stars surrounding the moon. A middle level Heavenly King, five lower level Heavenly Kings, and more than a hundred thousand Heaven Marquis ...

Before Tang Huan had returned, her strength was enough to sweep through any sect in the Scarlet Radiance Sect, including the Seven Stars Immortal Palace and the Godly Mt. Xumi.

However, in this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", it was only the size of an ant colony.

However, although Tang Huan was surprised, she secretly heaved a sigh of relief when she understood the situation of the colony of ants.

"Sizzle ~ ~"

A strange sound suddenly came from afar, as if something was violently rubbing against the hard stone surface. It was extremely ear-piercing.

The surrounding giant ants swayed their antennae, and immediately listened to the imperial edict. They jumped down from the stalks of weeds, crazily swinging their long and sharp legs, pouncing towards Tang Huan. Every giant ants opened their mouths wide, as if they could tear all their prey into pieces.

Tang Huan squinted, her expression calm.

If the Ant King and the other six Heavenly King Stage Ants came personally, Tang Huan would have to be extra careful. However, even if there were a large number of Sky Marquis Ants, he would not pay attention to them.

"Whoosh."

In between his mind instructs (in a second), Tang Huan's aura, which had originally been restrained, suddenly whizzed out of his body.

At this moment, it was as if an incomparably violent storm had appeared out of nowhere around Tang Huan, and all of the astonishingly tall weeds around him began to topple outwards.

The giant ants who were rushing forward all paused for a moment, as if they were frightened by Tang Huan's terrifying aura.

"Sizzle ~ ~"

The intense and ear-piercing rubbing sounds once again rang out, seeming to have become a little hurried in establishment.

The long antennae of the surrounding ants trembled. They shook their long legs with all their might, turned around and ran away. In an instant, they disappeared.

Seeing that, Tang Huan could not help but be slightly startled.

"They were scared off just like that?"

Tang Huan felt that it was a little unexpected, although the aura he was activating was tyrannical, the colony of ants also had powerful experts of the same level guarding them, especially since the Ant King was a Mid Level Heavenly King. Even if they wanted to retreat, it would have to be after the battle, but now, they had actually retreated without fighting.

This didn't seem to make sense.

After a while, Tang Huan revealed a puzzled look. Not only was the ant that was just about to attack him retreating, the entire ant swarm started to move within a few hundred kilometers. All the ants were moving towards the same direction at an astonishing speed.

Even the six Heavenly King Stage powerhouses, including the Ant King, were moving together.

They seem to be.

"Fleeing?"

The two words that popped out from his mind made Tang Huan even more suspicious. The group of ants that came out right now had the attitude of running for their lives.

Just then, Tang Huan suddenly realized that the ground had started to tremble.

Originally, Tang Huan thought that it was a movement caused by the ant colony, but in the next moment, Tang Huan discovered that it wasn't so. Although the giant ants were huge in size, every single one of them had landed on the ground without making a sound.

Thousands of miles away, there were actually two incomparably terrifying and powerful auras. There were actually two abnormally terrifying auras.

"Roar!"

"Roar!"

The roar shook the heaven and earth.

Even from far away, they could clearly hear it. It was as if two Heavenly Beasts were fighting, and the ground was shaking more and more violently.

In terms of auras, those two Heavenly Beasts were not much weaker than the phoenix head that was chasing after Tang Huan at the "Pill Sea Realm".

At this moment, Tang Huan finally understood why these ants were rushing and desperately trying to escape. If the fight between the two Sky Beasts were to spread to this place, the ants would definitely suffer countless of deaths and injuries. If this place turned into a battlefield, then the entire colony of ants might turn into ashes.

Tang Huan's face darkened, her eyebrows knitted together.

He suddenly realized that his current situation was no different from those ants who were fleeing for their lives. With his strength, he could be considered a top powerhouse even in the entire 36 days. But in this Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace, he was nothing.

If he was affected by the fight with the Heavenly Beast, he would be in danger too.

Of course, he could also hide in the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" or use the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" to resist, but once he attracted the attention of the two Heavenly Beasts, he would be in even more danger.

What should he do now?

Chapter 1865 - Nest

Very quickly, Tang Huan's guess became a reality.

As the two Heavenly Beasts closed in on them, the ground started to tremble. For such a powerful existence, a thousand li was a short distance.

No more hesitation!

Tang Huan thought for a while and made her decision.

Almost an instant later, Tang Huan retracted her aura, and her body moved like lightning as she explosively shot forward. In just a short span of one or two breaths, Tang Huan had caught up to a gigantic ant that was at the peak of the ninth level of the Sky Marquis class.

The giant ant was currently running around frantically with all its might, and as Tang Huan did not leak any of her Qi, it did not sense a thing.

However, an ant that was extremely close to it saw Tang Huan, who was following behind it.

The giant ant was frightened and subconsciously turned its head to look, but there was not even a shadow of a ghost behind it.

Just as it looked at its companion with suspicion, the giant ant felt the weight on its back become heavier. It turned around and saw that its back was still empty. This confused it and frightened it.

Obviously, it was shocked by Tang Huan's sudden disappearance.

Of course, it was impossible for Tang Huan to truly disappear into thin air. The moment she caught up to the giant ant, Tang Huan immediately used the sacred art "Heavenly Invisibility" and then leaped up, landing on the ant's back as she treated it as her own mount.

The reason why he chose to travel with the colony of ants was very simple.

Compared to Tang Huan who had just arrived, these ants were obviously local serpents of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". Such a huge colony of ants could actually survive until now, and with the appearance of six Heavenly King Stage powerhouses like the Ant King, it was likely that they had encountered quite a number of dangerous situations.

If he followed them, he might be able to find a refuge.

"Rumble ..."

The loud noise came one after another, as if the world was falling apart. The two fighting Heavenly Beasts behind were getting closer and closer, after a while, they were less than five hundred li away from the colony of ants.

At this time, Tang Huan could even faintly feel the Strength Qi's fluctuations as it swept across the sky.

Four hundred kilometers. Three hundred. A hundred kilometers ...

As the Heavenly Beasts drew closer, the ant swarm that was running away was also surrounded by a tense atmosphere.

Tang Huan frowned, was her judgement wrong? This colony of ants was just running aimlessly, they had no place of refuge?

"Sizzle ~ ~"

Right at this moment, a sharp and ear-piercing sound suddenly rang out.

Within Tang Huan's senses, all the giant ants scattered across the vast area started to change their direction, and headed towards the front line where the ant king was.

In the next moment, Tang Huan discovered that the Ant King's Qi had disappeared.

Following that, the five Heavenly King's auras also disappeared. Following that, the auras of the rest of the giant ants also largely escaped Tang Huan's senses.

"It looks like... There's hope! "

This sudden change of events made Tang Huan's heart twitch.

The disappearance of the giant ants such as the Ant King was definitely not because their souls had dispersed. Instead, it was because they had hidden somewhere to hide their auras.

Of course, it would be useless if he did not want to be affected by the fierce battle of the Heavenly Beast behind him, and could only conceal his presence.

The hiding place of the colony of ants would surely be extremely sturdy, and would be able to withstand the impact of a powerful force ... The ant colony must have believed this to be the reason for them avoiding it.

It might even be the nest of the ants.

Tang Huan calmed her mind, and was about to investigate further, when she saw a round hole dozens of meters tall, which was in her line of sight through a gap in the grass. noticed that there were quite a few of these round holes. The ants in front all entered them without hesitation.

In the blink of an eye, the giant ant under Tang Huan also brought him into the cave.

The round hole was like stone yet not like stone, not like jade yet not like jade, continuously exuding a white luster, causing the inside of the hole to not be gloomy at all, and instead appear rather bright. Moreover, after entering the hole, they began to climb up obliquely, without having to worry that the water outside would pour into the round hole.

The material that formed this cave wall was extremely special, when Tang Huan's mind entered, it was like a clay ox entering the ocean, no wonder it was able to block his senses.

Tang Huan lamented in her heart.

The ant rapidly advanced. After just a few thousand meters, the round hole and the other round hole merged into one. The ants that poured in from the two round holes also converged together. They then rapidly ran through the wider passage. After another few thousand meters, a second reunion occurred. Then a third time, a fourth time ...

The greater the advance, the larger the round hole would be, and the larger the army of ants.

Tang Huan's mind had long followed the passageway and extended outwards, so she already had a lot of understanding towards this area. The convergence of this round hole and colony of ants continued to take place nearby. Moreover, after the ninth gathering, circular tunnels began to appear horizontally, connecting the rest of the tunnels together.

Not only that, there were even new tunnels leading upwards and downwards which began to appear, and the tunnel that Tang Huan was in instead extended outwards in a flat and flat manner.

The appearance of a large number of new tunnels caused the already enormous colony of ants to begin to split apart.

This maze was obviously the nest of the ants.

Tang Huan had already caught sight of the existence of the Heavenly King Ants. They had all entered the deepest part of the nest, and were about a few hundred kilometers away from Tang Huan. However, the results of her investigations had surprised Tang Huan. In that place, there were more than six Sky King Stage ants, but there were two more.

Out of the two new ones, one had an aura that was about the same as the ant king and was also about the standard of a middle level Sky King. Perhaps it was the queen of this ant colony, and the other one was about the same as the other five ants. The number of ants in the sky should have also increased.

"Huh?"

After a short moment, Tang Huan exclaimed in shock.

The ant that carried him did not proceed any further. Instead, it met up with the Queen of Ants and the Queen of Ants. After extending for several thousand meters, the passageway split into two. One continued to go forward, but the other actually turned and headed outside.

Dozens of ants made the same choice.

Tang Huan realised that all of these giant ants were at the peak of the Ninth Level of the Sky Marquis. Excluding the eight Sky Kings, they could all be considered strong in this ant colony. Tang Huan had a conjecture that this group of giant ants was probably equivalent to soldiers among the ordinary ants.

Not long after, another long passageway appeared before them.

There were many holes in the tunnel that had a radius of several meters lined up neatly. Through the holes, he could clearly see what was happening outside.

Chapter 1866 - Tigerbear

This ant's nest should be located in the middle of a huge mountain. And, this place is the superficial layer of the mountain. As for these holes, they were obviously used for sentinel and watchful purposes.

The giant ants carrying Tang Huan had already occupied one of the holes, and the ants behind them had all taken their positions. Tang Huan's gaze and consciousness shifted to the left and right side of the tunnel, as ants continuously surged from other places and drilled into the hole.

This passage had actually circled the entire mountain.

It was unknown whether this giant nest was dug up or formed naturally. If it was the latter, it would truly be an amazing work of art. It was truly amazing.

With that thought, Tang Huan quietly floated down from the back of the ant.

The ant suddenly felt something light on its back and was startled. It turned its head suspiciously, and the two tentacles were also swaying back and forth.

Tang Huan naturally could not be touched by it, and quietly arrived at the edge of the hole.

With a single glance, Tang Huan could not help but feel a stir in her mind. The hole was at least ten thousand meters away from the ground. Standing there, the weeds that were several hundred meters tall could be ignored. As far as the eye could see, there were huge trees that reached into the sky. Every single huge tree was thousands or even tens of thousands of meters tall, and could be said to be roughly on the same level as the row of holes.

The two fighting Heavenly Beasts were not far away, and the entire nest was shaking violently.

Tang Huan did not activate her mind to check on the situation.

Although Tang Huan was extremely confident in her Perception Ability, even those stronger than him would not be able to realize that she was spying on them. However, she was not afraid of ten thousand, he was afraid of what would happen if the two Heavenly Beasts did sense him and treat her spying as a provocation, and that would not be worth it.

The sound of the Piercing Golden Crack Stone's angry roars shook the heaven and earth.

"Whooosh."

Violent whistling sounds came one after another, and the gigantic tree in the distance continued to sway violently towards the direction of the nest. Every time this happened, a wave of Strength Qi would surge forth like raging waves, causing the gigantic tree that was tens of thousands of meters tall to turn into a small boat in the middle of the wave.

The impact of the Strength Qi caused the entire mountain, which contained the ant's nest, to tremble uncontrollably.

Moreover, it seemed that the Strength Qi did not really touch the mountain either. The moment they came into contact with it, it was as if an invisible Strength Qi had stopped them and caused the Tang Huan and the giant ant inside the cave to not be affected at all.

Even so, the giant ant was still trembling in fear.

With such a powerful Heavenly Beast battling nearby, even knowing that it was safe and safe, it was reasonable for fear to arise. After all, nothing was absolute.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had calmed her mind.

In just a few short breaths of time, at the end of his line of sight, where the heaven and earth came into contact, an enormous cloud of dust rolled over. It was like an incomparably massive dragon, crazily churning through the jungle.

"Bam!" Accompanied by the sound of an intense collision, that cloud of dust suddenly expanded at a speed that was difficult to see with the naked eye.

"Roaaaaaar!"

Soon after, a painful scream shook the world.

From within the smoke and dust, a huge figure rushed out and flew towards the ant's nest while riding on a cloud of dust. After slashing through tens of miles of space, he fell down ruthlessly, and in an instant, dozens of giant trees were instantly smashed into pieces.

A huge, deep pit was revealed.

In the depths of the crater, a giant, multicolored tiger rolled and rolled as it stood up. Its four limbs were as thick as giant pillars that supported the heavens, and its sturdy body that was thousands of meters long seemed to contain an incomparably terrifying power.

When Tang Huan saw this, she could not help but secretly inhale a breath of air. Although the terrifying aura of the giant tiger had yet to spread in, its body was enough to cause one's heart to waver.

"Roar!"

Another earth-shattering roar rang out. The smoke and dust that had stopped for a moment once again surged forward at a rapid pace. Wherever it passed by, countless plants and trees disappeared.

Tang Huan looked over, and within the smoke and dust, there was a faintly discernable figure, as if it was a huge black bear that was thousands of meters tall. It actually completely ignored the huge expanse of gigantic trees that reached the sky in front of it, and sprinted forward, rampaging about.

That giant black bear's speed was unbelievably fast, in just two or three steps, it crossed dozens of miles and appeared in front of the giant tiger. That giant black bear's speed was unbelievably fast, in just two or three steps, it crossed dozens of miles and appeared in front of the giant tiger.

"Roar!"

Almost at the same time, the colossal tiger bared its fangs and roared. Its huge body actually curled up into a ball as it crazily charged towards the huge bear palm.

With an explosive bang, the bear's paw swung open, but the body of the tiger was still stretched out in the air. Its long tail rolled back and actually wrapped around the giant black bear's neck with lightning speed, then it unhesitatingly swung it forward, involuntarily lifting the giant bear into the air and sending it flying.

The gigantic black shadow immediately blocked Tang Huan's line of sight, and the gigantic black bear smashed towards the mountain peak.

"Boom —"

Immediately after, an extremely terrifying explosion sounded out, causing Tang Huan's ears to buzz. At the same time, the mountain that contained the ant nest, started to tremble, as though it could be smashed by the huge body at any time.

Behind Tang Huan, the giant ant jumped back in fright, retreated out of the hole, and returned back to the tunnel inside.

"En!"

A groan that resembled a Lei Ming's immediately rang out, and right at that moment, Tang Huan's vision went dark, as the giant bear's body fell down from the hole, and was almost within reach. When the black color disappeared, Tang Huan's field of vision was actually replaced by a blood-red.

And what Tang Huan saw was precisely the huge tiger's eyes.

The giant tiger obviously saw Tang Huan, but it did not slow down at all. With a sway of its body, it grabbed towards the black bear that was at the foot of the mountain. It was not only the giant tiger, but also the giant bear. It was likely that they had seen Tang Huan and knew that countless creatures were hiding within the heart of the mountain, but this did not arouse their interest in the slightest.

To them, Tang Huan and the colony of ants were like ants to an elephant.

If the ant didn't disturb the elephant, the elephant would naturally look down on it. However, if the ant bared its fangs and brandished its claws at the elephant, the elephant wouldn't mind stomping the elephant into a meat patty. Of course, if an elephant didn't see an ant on the ground and stomped it to death, it wouldn't feel the slightest bit apologetic.

Chapter 1867 - Intent of Chaos

This made Tang Huan secretly heave a sigh of relief, but she also felt quite helpless in her heart.

Regardless of whether it was him or the colony of ants, if they were to be caught up in the battle between the giant tiger and the giant black bear and be annihilated, the tiger bear would not feel the slightest bit guilty.

This was the sorrow of the weak!

But strength is relative, temporary, not absolute, eternal. The path of cultivation was the process of the weak constantly evolving into the strong. Countless creatures were scared out of their wits during this process, but there were also countless weaklings who turned into strong individuals. Although the tiger bear was strong, Tang Huan was not discouraged.

If they couldn't catch up to them now, or even surpass them in time, then it wouldn't be too far off.

A strong desire for power rose from the bottom of his heart, at the same time, a huge confidence surged within Tang Huan's chest.

"Zi la!" "Sizzle ~ ~"

The giant ants trembled as they returned to the hole. They produced a series of fine rubbing sounds, and similar sounds constantly came from the surrounding hole.

These ants seemed to be expressing their shock.

After another frightening and fierce collision, the figures of the Multi Colored Giant Tiger and Black Bear had already disappeared from Tang Huan's line of sight. Obviously, the two giant beasts are moving away from the area

All of the giant ants in the hole seemed to have relaxed.

The buzzing sounds grew louder and louder as if they were conversing about something.

Tang Huan was not interested in trying to figure out the meaning behind the voice of the ants. Instead, she stood at the entrance of the cave and looked at the messy forest outside, as she entered into deep thought.

The situation regarding the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", greatly exceeded Tang Huan's expectations.

He needed to figure out what he should do next. There was one thing he was sure of, which was that the life and death of the mountains and rivers were uncertain. He had already agreed upon more than half the time with Shan Shan, Feng Ming and the others, so he couldn't stay in this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" for long.

However, right now, he knew nothing about the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" and had no clue to leave this area.

"Sizzle ~ ~"

An ear-piercing sound suddenly came from the depths of the ant's nest.

Tang Huan's ears immediately quietened. All the surrounding ants stopped making any sounds, they just laid there motionlessly inside the hole like guards, while Mi Li paid attention to what was happening outside.

Seeing that, Tang Huan's heart suddenly moved.

In order to understand this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" more, perhaps he had to rely on this ant colony. After all, this group of giant ants had eight Heavenly Kings, and two of them were Mid Level Heavenly Kings.

In the next moment, Tang Huan leaped past the giant ant like a ghost, and quickly followed the passageway towards the heart of the mountain.

It would not be good for Tang Huan if eight Heavenly King Ants were to gather together.

However, there was no need to think too much into it now. He would first go over and take a look at the situation. In any case, with his current strength, even a God King would not be able to discover his existence.

Along the way, a large number of Sky Marquis level giant ants came and went, flowing in an endless stream. However, with their strength, not one of them was able to detect Tang Huan's whereabouts.

Before long, Tang Huan was only a few thousand meters away from the eight Heavenly King Ants.

Tang Huan did not slow down at all and continued to fly forwards.

At this time, the passage Tang Huan was in was already extremely broad, with heights and width exceeding a kilometer. At the end of the passage, the white luster suddenly became rich and dazzling, making it difficult to look at. The auras of the eight Heavenly King Ants were leaking out from that piece of white light.

After a while, Tang Huan quietly passed through that white luster, and her field of vision immediately became extremely wide.

It was a hemispherical space with a diameter of approximately ten thousand meters. There were five huge tunnels connected to it. Within the space, a bright light shone as though a strong spiritual will was swirling around it.

In the center of this space, a Pang Shuo ant that was hundreds of meters long was quietly lying on the ground, not moving at all. Right in front of it was an especially robust giant ant, and although it was only fifty meters long, every part of its body seemed to be filled with explosive power.

They should be the queen and queen of this colony of ants, each with the strength of a Heavenly King at noon.

Around the Queen and the King of Ants, there were six sturdy ants. Their bodies were only twenty meters long, and they surrounded the queen and the queen like stars surrounding the moon. The aura they emitted from their bodies had already reached the level of an Inferior Heavenly King.

They were the most powerful ants in this colony.

Tang Huan squinted her eyes as her brain spun quickly. Once she took action, it would definitely alarm all the Heavenly King Stage Ants. Tang Huan was still an Inferior Sky King now, but compared to when she fought with the middle level Sky King, Chong Ze, she had improved by quite a bit.

However, in this ant's nest, Tang Huan didn't need to fight against them head on.

Tang Huan's plan was actually very simple. It was to stealthily approach a giant ant that only had the strength of an Inferior Sky King, then appear out of the blue, launch an attack, and suck it into the cave space. At the same time, Tang Huan herself would also hide inside the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace".

As for what would happen next, there was nothing to consider.

Just the other seven Heavenly King Stage ants alone, even if they attacked together with all their might, would not be able to shake the cave mansion that was controlled by Jianxin. As such, the [Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram] could definitely stay in the depths of the nest, while he could peacefully search for the memories of the lower Heavenly King Ant in the cave.

Tang Huan immediately decided to do it, and in the next moment, she directly went to the ant behind the Ant King.

"Eh, that's not right?"

After rushing a few metres forward, Tang Huan suddenly stopped in her tracks, a look of surprise appearing in her eyes.

Just now, standing at the place where the passageway connected with the hemisphere's space, Tang Huan didn't feel anything, but the moment he entered this space, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" inside his Dantian started to tremble intensely. At almost the same time, Tang Huan also felt something, an unusual expression appearing between her brows.

On the ground under Tang Huan's feet, there were actually lines that were almost transparent. They densely crisscrossed and spread out like a spider web, covering the entire space in the hemisphere. Among these transparent veined patterns, Tang Huan actually felt traces of an intention that she was extremely familiar with.

Chaos energy!

Tang Huan's dao flame was named "Primal Chaos dao flame". Even though it was not the true "Primal Chaos dao flame", it still contained the meaning of primal chaos. Tang Huan's original Law of the Tao, was also part of the Primal Chaos Laws, and similarly contained the meaning of Primal Chaos. With regards to this item, Tang Huan could not be more familiar with it.

Chapter 1868 - Giant Rock

With the chaos energy, that meant he had the power of primordial chaos.

It was truly inconceivable that the nest contained the power of primal chaos. However, this mountain peak was indeed extraordinary. To be able to block out the perception of one's mind while also being able to withstand the fierce impact of the huge beast without being harmed in the slightest, how could an ordinary mountain do such a thing?

After she, who possessed the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" and had comprehended the Primal Chaos Law of the Tao, entered the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", he did not enter any other place. Instead, he came to the vicinity of the mountain peak.

Perhaps, there was a mysterious power that pulled him forward after sensing the chaos within his body, allowing him to reach this place.

Tang Huan's mind raced, the more she thought about it, the more she felt that it was possible.

If that was the case, then this enormous mountain should not be the real mountain. The criss-crossing tunnels within the mountain were most likely not naturally formed. This colony of ants had probably only stumbled upon this mystical mountain peak by chance, which was why they had used it as their lair.

Tang Huan's thoughts quickly turned, she changed her mind, quietly left the space, and rushed out.

He planned to first figure out the condition of this mountain peak before deciding on how to move it. At present, the roars of the Multi Colored Tiger and Black Bear could no longer be heard, and the trembling of the peak had become extremely weak. It was evident that the two giant beasts had distanced themselves from this area during their battle.

The threat of the giant beasts was no longer there. If he went out now, he would not be in any great danger.

Not long after, Tang Huan walked out of the passage. The weeds at the foot of the mountain, which were hundreds of meters tall, were almost completely wiped out by the battle between the two giant beasts. The few remaining scattered stars also collapsed to the ground.

Tang Huan revealed herself and soared into the sky, but her aura still remained restrained.

In a split-second, Tang Huan was already more than ten thousand meters in the air. Many of the giant ant guards in the hole felt their vision blur, but when they looked carefully, there was nothing in their line of sight. Immediately, they were somewhat bewildered, and sounds of buzzing could be heard from time to time.

At this moment, high up in the sky, Tang Huan's eyes uncontrollably revealed an expression of amazement.

At this position, although the entire peak could not be seen, the rough shape of the peak could be seen. The mountain was almost fifty thousand meters tall, and its surface was covered with a white luster. Although it was extremely faint, it was crystal clear and smooth. Not only were there no vegetation on the peak, but there was no dirt or dust.

Even though this mountain had just experienced a fierce battle, no sand landed on it.

The shape of the mountain was quite strange ...

Although it was called a mountain peak, it was actually more like a huge rock. A fifty thousand meter tall rock was shaped like a goose egg ... Of course, it was only half of a goose egg. If the part that was buried deep underground was fifty thousand meters deep and maintained a similar shape as the upper half of the goose egg, then it would be a complete, huge pebble.

"A hundred thousand meters of cobblestones..."

Tang Huan muttered, and then she could not help but laugh secretly.

Although Tang Huan had personally seen the scene before her eyes, if she were to tell it to Xiao Niu and the Kui Cow in the Crimson Light Heavens, everyone would probably think it was a fantasy. It was impossible to see such a huge boulder in the Crimson Light Heavens, and it completely exceeded everyone's expectations.

However, in the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace, it was rather ordinary.

Ants that were tens of meters long, hundreds of meters long, weeds that were hundreds of meters tall, and trees that were tens of meters tall ... It was no surprise that another huge boulder that was over a hundred thousand meters tall would appear.

Aside from the cultivators that came in from outside, everything else in this mystical space seemed to be several times larger than normal. It was probably because they were so common that the two terrifyingly strong giant beasts ignored this huge rock. "Roar!" "Roar!" "Roar!" "Roar!" "Roar!" "Roar!" "Roar!" ". "

After a while, Tang Huan let out a light breath, calmed her mind and slowly floated up.

After a few breaths of time, Tang Huan floated to the top of the huge boulder and sat down cross-legged.

In that instant, not only did Tang Huan activate the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the Dantian Dao Nascent Soul, she also activated the God Creation Crystal. The Perception Ability had already been raised to the limit. Not only that, the "Chaos Daos Flame" within the cauldron was also violently churning, and the chaos energy was constantly being emitted from within her body.

This boulder did not emit any Qi, and before that, Tang Huan could not even sense its existence.

It was only through the continuous disappearance of the giant ant's aura that they were able to determine that there was a strange ant nest hidden here, and only found out about it when they personally entered the huge rock. But now, Tang Huan could truly feel that this boulder was right below him.

The reason for this was extremely simple.

It was that after his own chaos energy had been released, it had actually formed a strange resonance with the chaos energy contained within the boulder. Through the threads of connection brought about by this resonance, the huge boulder was finally caught by Tang Huan's mind, and then appeared within his senses.

Tang Huan was ecstatic, as long as she could sense the existence of the gigantic boulder, things would be much easier.

In the next moment, Tang Huan slowly closed her eyes, eliminating all distracting thoughts and following the connection between the chaos energy and chaos energy, her mind slowly penetrated into the huge boulder.

The state of the boulder appeared in his mind again and again.

After a long while, Tang Huan's eyebrows uncontrollably raised in surprise. There were countless blood vessels of varying sizes in the human body, and the criss-crossing circular channels were the blood vessels of the huge rock. What flowed in the blood vessels of a human was blood, but what flowed in the blood vessels of huge boulders was power.

It could be said that the number of tunnels contained within the boulder was far beyond Tang Huan's imagination. The colony of ants was only a small part of it. The holes that ants used as sentries and guards were also densely packed onto the surface of the huge rock.

The power was continuously sucked into the innumerable tunnels and then continuously advanced into the depths of the boulder.

The process of strength advancement was a process of refinement. During this process, the small amount of energy in the world's origin began to gradually merge and transform. The other forces that were eliminated from the world were released through the countless holes, returning to the world.

This huge rock was like an incomparably massive furnace, cycle after cycle removing turtles and plants of energy.

If Tang Huan was not mistaken, the final form of the fusion transformation should be the power of primal chaos that contained the meaning of primal chaos.

Chapter 1869 - Primal Chaos Source Crystal

Such a discovery caused Tang Huan's mind to tremble.

The boulder was like an exquisite instrument from his previous life. The process of power entering and leaving it was orderly, as if it could operate endlessly and eternally.

This kind of effect of the huge rock had a naturally formed probability of being extremely low.

Just like this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", it couldn't possibly appear naturally ... This was made clear by the countless translucent runes within the boulder.

Perhaps, the giant boulder had already existed when the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" appeared. Of course, it could also have been brought in later by an expert.

Although he did not know who exactly allowed it to have such an effect, even a fool could guess that its strength must have reached an unparalleled level. It was definitely not something that the two huge beasts from before could compare with.

After so many years, the amount of Chaotic Force accumulated by this enormous boulder must have reached a frightening degree.

Thinking of this, Tang Huan couldn't help but become excited.

The power of primal chaos was the best tonic available to cultivators who possessed the "Chaos Dao-Flame" and had comprehended the Primal Chaos Law of the Tao. If the power of chaos was as much as he had guessed, after refining them all, let alone a middle level Heavenly King, even a High Heavenly King would have a high chance of winning.

Tang Huan's thoughts changed as a smile appeared on her face.

If this boulder had truly existed since the time of the appearance of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", over the course of countless years, countless Heavenly Kings would enter the place in the next thirty-six days, making it impossible for no one to have found this place.

I wonder if anyone has discovered and even successfully seized the Chaotic Force within the boulder?

If there was, how much Chaotic Force would be left?

If it hadn't, then how difficult would it be to obtain the Chaotic Force? It was obvious even after so many years that no one had managed to obtain it. Could he really do it?

Suddenly, Tang Huan revealed a smile.

He did not know about the others, but he was sure of one thing. Without the chaos energy in his body, even a peak-level Heavenly King would find it difficult to sense the power of chaos within this massive boulder. Even if one was lucky enough to discover it, one wouldn't be able to refine the Chaotic Force so easily.

From this, it could be inferred that no matter what had happened in the past countless years, the chaos energy it contained was definitely plentiful.

Moreover, compared to other Sky Kings, Tang Huan had a unique huge advantage.

That was, he had chaos energy within him as well.

"Whether it succeeds or not, we will know after a try."

Tang Huan smiled slightly, and calmed her heart down once again. In just a short while, the situation inside the boulder had been completely captured by Tang Huan, and within the swarm of ants, Tang Huan knew every movement from each ant, including the Ant King, the Ant Empress, and a few lower level Sky King level ants.

According to Tang Huan's judgement, the reason they were able to become Heavenly Kings was because they stayed inside the huge rock all year round.

Although they were unable to refine the Chaotic Force, it was still the most primordial power of the world. It was imbued with the will of chaos day and night, so it was bound to have a subtle effect on their cultivation. Of course, even they themselves might not know this.

However, they definitely knew that staying in the space in the middle of the huge rock would be beneficial to one's strength.

It was just like when they were all sprawled there at this moment. The chaos that was continuously emitted from the huge rocks quietly washed their bodies. The eight Heavenly King Ants were looking at him with an expression of enjoyment, and had not noticed in the slightest that he was being observed by Tang Huan's mind.

Tang Huan did not disturb them as her mind, which was enveloped in the meaning of primal chaos, seeped into the patterns.

He had a premonition that the key to obtaining Chaotic Force would be the transparent veined patterns that covered this entire space. Now, Tang Huan had finally understood that they were all formed from the primal chaos of giant boulders. They interweaved into one, and it was extremely possible that it was an incomparably complex dao diagram.

Regarding the dao diagram, no matter how complicated it was, Tang Huan was still fearless.

Tang Huan's heart was as tranquil as water, her attention was completely immersed in the boulder, she did not know how much time had passed, but the lines in the depths of her mind were becoming clearer and clearer.

"So that's how it is!"

After an unknown period of time, Tang Huan's face revealed a look of enlightenment.

As he expected, the patterns formed a dao diagram. It was the central hub of this huge boulder, connected to countless passages. Since the giant rock could refine the energy of primal chaos, the usage of the map was great. was also amazed by its wonders.

Furthermore, just as Tang Huan had guessed before, this huge boulder was indeed a gigantic pebble.

Through the dao diagram, Tang Huan could clearly feel that there was a huge boulder that had the same body size as the ground buried under the ground. The two sections of the diagram were connected together, and whether the diagram was connected to the upper half of the ground, it connected to the lower half of the diagram.

Tang Huan still didn't know how much Chaotic Force that giant boulder contained, but he was sure that the giant boulder's Chaotic Force was all gathered in the ground.

"This boulder is a Dao weapon."

Tang Huan's thoughts quickly spun, and she could not help but feel a little restless, "Moreover, it's a Taoist tool, which is also a celestial item. If we can integrate the Mind Stigma into it, not only can we control all the Chaotic Force contained within the boulder, we can also take the boulder for ourselves. "

To Tang Huan, the latter point was the most important.

The power of chaos could only benefit Tang Huan for a moment, but this boulder that could give rise to the power of chaos was able to provide endless help to Tang Huan.

"I don't know what your name is, so I'll call you 'Primal Chaos Source Crystal'."

Tang Huan muttered to herself. When she looked at the gigantic boulder, her eyes burned with passion, "With you here, I don't need to worry about my future cultivation."

After countless years of being in the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", this huge boulder had only instinctively absorbed and refined the energy of Primal Chaos. However, if one controlled it, under the control of a person, its speed of refining the energy of Primal Chaos would definitely increase greatly, causing Tang Huan to not dare to cultivate in any environment.

Even in the endless void of darkness, it was no exception.

If he wanted to take the "Primal Chaos Crystals" away, he would need to fuse the Mind Stigma into the dao diagram. It would not be easy to do so. Although Tang Huan had a complete impression of the dao diagram and had some understanding of it, he was still far from being able to understand it completely. Next, Tang Huan needed to extrapolate from it.

The day of deduction was the day of completion.

Chapter 1870: It's time to try!

This process would probably take a very long time.

It might take two to three years, or even four to five years. Even if they did not raise their cultivation, it was still worth it.

Of course, it was impossible to deduce the Dao Diagram above the "Chaos Source Crystal". It was too dangerous outside, once there was a giant beast with terrifying strength like the tiger or bear again, it would be very troublesome. Not every giant beast was like them, not caring about the surrounding creatures.

If he was interrupted while analyzing the dao diagram, it would take a lot of time.

With that thought, Tang Huan made her decision.

After a short while, he once again activated the sacred art "Heavenly Invisibility" and once again sneaked into the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal".

Right now, the direction of the countless passages within this "Primal Chaos Crystal" were imprinted in Tang Huan's mind. He naturally did not need to follow the tracks of the ant colony. After walking in circles for a long time, Tang Huan came to a place without ants.

This passage was more than 40,000 meters below the ground, and the colony of ants were generally 20,000 meters below the ground.

With a thought, Tang Huan revealed herself. The "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared from within the Dantian in a flash, and then, she summoned the nine spirits from her cave.

"Big brother, there really is such a big stone."

Jiu Ling's pair of nine colored eyes kept rolling around. Her small face was filled with an unconcealable sense of novelty. Almost as soon as her feet landed on the ground, she couldn't help but ask.

While she was still in the cave space, Tang Huan had already told her everything that had happened after he had left Fire Phoenix Island through telepathic transmission, causing her to be extremely curious about the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

"How can this be fake?"

Tang Huan laughed hoarsely, "However, we still can't go out right now. We need to stay here for a while, you train well and help me monitor the surroundings, don't run around and bring the ants over."

As long as it did not cause too much of a commotion, Tang Huan was not worried that the Heavenly King Ants would notice the two of them.

The two of them were separated by a winding tunnel. With the control and control the Heavenly King Ants had over their minds, it was impossible for them to sense the auras coming from him and Nine Spirits through the long tunnel.

The nine spirits could cultivate in peace.

Of course, this did not exclude the possibility of one or two ants accidentally making their way here. However, those that did come were definitely Heaven Marquis level ants, and those Heavenly Kings usually stayed in the center of the "Primal Chaos Crystals".

With Nine Spirits' strength, they could easily kill any Tianhou ant that came running without anyone noticing.

Even with the appearance of the Heavenly King Ant, the Queen of Ants, and the Queen of Ants, as well as the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" controlled by Jiu Ling, even if they could not win, they would still be able to withstand it.

With the nine spirits guarding him, Tang Huan did not need to worry about being disturbed while analyzing the dao diagrams within the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal".

"Relax, relax, I definitely won't run around."

Hearing this, Jiu Ling hurriedly waved her small hand, nodded her head like a chicken pecking rice, and said, "Big brother, you can do your thing without worry."

While they were talking, their eyes sparkled.

When Tang Huan saw her expression, she immediately knew what he was scheming, and said with a stern expression on his face: "Jiu Ling, I am not joking with you, the dangers of this' Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace 'are definitely beyond your imagination. Not long ago, there were two extremely powerful Heavenly Beasts fighting outside, and from my estimation, those two Heavenly Beasts should be around the strength of a Peak Heavenly King. There will never be a lack of experts like them in the Dragon Palace. "

Jiu Ling nodded her head heavily and said, "Big brother, I understand. I will definitely not run around randomly."

Not running around outside did not mean that he was not running around inside the "Chaos Source Crystal".

Tang Huan did not see through the little guy's devilish thoughts. If her curiosity was not slightly satisfied, she would not be able to cultivate peacefully. Fortunately, as long as she did not walk out of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", and brought the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" with him and was careful, he would not be in any danger.

After handing the mountain and river painting over to the nine spirits, Tang Huan didn't say anymore and sat cross-legged, closing her eyes.

The nine spirits also quietly sat down beside Tang Huan. They cultivated for a while, as if they were sitting on pins and needles, and continuously looked to the east. Not long after, the little fellow could no longer hold back and cautiously looked at Tang Huan, and then quietly slipped out through the tunnel.

After a long while, Jiu Ling finally returned with light steps, and sat next to Tang Huan with satisfaction. Her small face was filled with a crafty smile, like a weasel who had just succeeded at stealing a chicken.

Time trickled by, Tang Huan remained as motionless as a statue.

Her "Life and Death Dao Lotus" was able to turn one's life force into an aura of death, and in this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" with countless giant living creatures, the majestic life force had reached an extremely shocking level. To her, this place could be called a cultivation paradise.

The efficiency of cultivating here made Jiu Ling extremely satisfied. From then on, she never sneaked out even half a step.

"Sizzle ~ ~"

He did not know how much time had passed, but the ear-piercing sound suddenly came one after another, awakening the nine spirits who were cultivating. They blinked their eyes doubtfully a few times, then looked at Tang Huan who was at the side.

What she did not know was that outside of the chaos source crystal, an intense battle was happening.

Both sides in the battle were filled with hordes of ants. Once the colony of ants discovered this chaos crystal, they wanted to change their nests. However, one mountain couldn't hold two tigers. Thus, it would be difficult to store two ants within this chaos crystal.

As a result, a great battle unavoidably broke out.

The ants' battle power was naturally incomparable to the tigers and bear beasts that had appeared before, but their victory was in their numbers. After the war, the chaos source crystal was in a complete mess. Not only was the ant swarm not weakened, but it also increased the power of its enemies. All the enemies that were still alive were sucked into the crystal.

As a result, when Tang Huan paid attention to the colony of ants once again, the number of Heavenly King Stage ants had increased to ten, and the total number of ants had also exceeded two hundred thousand.

The change in the swarm of ants was very large.

However, Tang Huan was only slightly surprised for a moment, and did not pay any more attention to it, her expressionless face had finally melted, and her happy smile was revealed. After analyzing the Dao Diagram in the center of the chaos source crystal for so long, it was finally completed.

"It's time to try!"

With a slight movement of Tang Huan's thought, "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the Dao Nascent Soul were already activated to the extreme, and the God Forging Crystal was also fully utilized. Her enormous consciousness rushed towards the center of the Origin Crystal, and at almost the same time, a rich sense of primal chaos unreservedly overflowed from Tang Huan's body.
