Chapter 1901 - Longevity Flowers

"Sure enough."

Tang Huan took a deep breath and suppressed the shock in his heart.

Just at this moment, a thick green aura lightly rose from within each of the large flowers, quickly gathering into a ball in the air above. It was obvious that this "Nine Palace Glass" had a total of nine flowers. This was also consistent with the information in Pan Ji's memory.

That ball of green aura fluctuated rapidly, instantly condensing into a graceful figure.

She looked like a sixteen or seventeen year old girl. She was tall and slender, had a graceful figure, and wore a green dress. Of course, no matter if it was her body or her clothes, they were all made of power. Her face was extremely beautiful, and her facial features were as exquisite as a painting. However, her eyes were closed.

"It's just as I thought. He's really very, very young."

The moment she appeared, the green dressed young girl couldn't help but laugh like a proud blooming flower that could shake the world. However, as she spoke, the corners of her lips curled up, seemingly intentionally or unintentionally.

"Naughty?"

Tang Huan came back to reality as these two words suddenly popped up in his mind.

Of course he knew that this person was referring to him. With his cultivation, it wasn't difficult for him to determine his true age. However, this Senior Heavenly Emperor gave him a rather strange feeling. In his past understanding, for someone to be able to break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm, no matter male or female, they must be old monsters who had cultivated for countless of years and had already become spirited. However, this woman in front of him instead made Tang Huan feel that she was a little weird.

This huge contrast surprised him even more.

In an instant, Tang Huan exchanged a glance with Xiao Zihan, who had also just recovered from her shock. Just as the two were about to bow and greet him, the girl in the green skirt waved her delicate and beautiful hands at them without a care.

He then turned his head to the side and looked at Ye Tingxiao, smiling as he said, "Xiao Yunzi, first take this little girl to the side to rest. I'm going to have a chat with this little brother of yours."

Xiao Yunzi? Little girl? Little brother?

The names that came out of the mouth of the girl in the green skirt caused Tang Huan and Xiao Zihan to be somewhat stunned. How long had it been since someone had called them this? However, thinking about it, this Senior Heavenly Emperor must be countless times older than him, both of them felt relieved.

As for Xiao Yunzi ...

Tang Huan and Xiao Zihan subconsciously looked towards Ye Xinyun.

This white-haired, over ten-thousand years old "Spirit Hidden Cave" owner, to be addressed like this by a young girl was indeed something that caused one to be unable to restrain their laughter. Although they knew that Ye Tingyun was no different from a child in front of this world, they still could not help but smile.

"Cough, cough!"

Sensing Tang Huan and Xiao Zihan's strange gazes, Ye Tingyu could not help but let out a dry laugh in embarrassment. She said a little awkwardly, "Brother Tang Huan, then you can stay here and chat with Senior." Then, he turned to Xiao Zihan and said, "Sect Master Xiao, why don't you visit this old man?"

Xiao Zihan did not immediately reply, but first looked unconsciously at Tang Huan.

"Little girl, don't worry, it's not like I'm going to eat him."

"Take it. This is my greeting gift to you." As she spoke, the girl in the green dress flicked her finger, and a crystal clear green flower quickly condensed and floated in front of Xiao Zihan. Although it was only the size of a palm, it glittered brightly and was incomparably agile.

"Flower of longevity!"

Ye Tingyun's eyes lit up. With a bit of envy, she smacked her lips, "Senior, why did you suddenly become so generous? You started off with 'Flower of Life'. Sect Master Xiao, this is a good thing. Not only can it greatly increase your cultivation, it can also increase your lifespan by at least ten thousand years. "

After Tang Huan heard this, he couldn't help but be moved.

If it was really as Ye Tingxiao had described, then this "Flower of Longevity" would indeed be considered a rare treasure, especially for those cultivators approaching their end. If a certain cultivator stayed at the Heavenly King's Realm for many years and had no way of breaking through, just as he was about to die, he would obtain this kind of "Flower of Life". This meant that he would be able to continue searching for the opportunity to break through in another ten thousand years.

Xiao Zihan was extremely shocked in her heart. She didn't think that this Senior Heavenly Emperor would bestow such a great gift from the start, and it was even for her.

"Thank you for your kindness, Senior. But, this' Flower of Life '..."

After being stunned for a while, Xiao Zihan hurriedly shook her head. However, before she could finish speaking, the young lady in green's face darkened as she spoke in a somewhat angry tone:

"You, this little girl, are truly a silly person. I'll give it to you, and you'll take it. I'll never take back what's given to me."

"No, but it can be transferred." Ye Tingxiao chuckled and said with a shy face, "Senior, Sect Master Xiao doesn't want it. Why don't you give it to me? I don't mind how precious it is."

"Scram!"

The girl in the green dress lifted her foot and kicked. It seemed as if the distance between her and Ye Tingyun had shrunk to less than a meter.

The smile on Ye Tingxiao, the peak-level Heavenly King, had yet to fade away. Before he could even react, the sole of his foot had already imprinted itself onto Ye Ziyun's abdomen. A somewhat exaggerated blood-curdling screech resounded. Ye Tingyun was actually sent flying out of the cave like a kite with a broken string.

Seeing this scene, Tang Huan and Xiao Zihan were both dumbstruck.

Of course, they knew that the two of them were joking. However, the terrifying strength displayed by the girl in the green skirt was enough to shock even their souls. The moment her foot kicked out, an enormous invisible force sealed off the space around Ye Qingyun.

The strength of a Celestial Emperor was indeed unfathomable.

Raising his feet and raising his hands, he could shrink space and lock down his enemies. If he were to face his enemies, with just a single kick, he would probably be able to kill a peak-level Heavenly King.

The difference between a Heavenly Emperor and a Heavenly King was indeed like the difference between heaven and earth. Even the most powerful Heavenly King, in front of a Heavenly Emperor, couldn't even fight back. Tang Huan thought that if he was the one standing on Ye Meiyun's seat, he would also be the one casually kicking the Heavenly Emperor elder.

"Sect Master Xiao, it's better if you accept this than to be respectful."

Suddenly, Tang Huan laughed.

After seeing this Senior Sky Emperor, Tang Huan realized that he could almost completely put aside the worries he had when he was outside the Spirit Hidden Cave. Since she was not a spirit body, there was naturally no need to possess another person. The thing that Tang Huan was most worried about would not happen, and he no longer had to be as cautious as before.

The most important thing was that even now, Tang Huan did not feel the slightest bit of danger.

Moreover, with this Celestial Emperor's strength, if he really had any plans for him, in this current situation, there was no need to conceal them, nor would he need to give the incomparably precious "Flower of Life" to Xiao Zihan as a present. Since things had already come to this, he might as well let go of his heart and see what she had to say.

"Many thanks, senior. Then, junior will take his leave."

Xiao Zihan understood Tang Huan's intentions. After grabbing the "Flower of Life" into her palm, she gave a deep bow to the green-dressed girl, turned around, and walked out of the cave.

Chapter 1902 - Nihilum Ship

For a moment, only Tang Huan and the girl in the green skirt were left in the cave.

"Senior, do you have any orders for me to come down here?" Tang Huan leisurely walked forward, in a moment, he had already arrived in front of the green skirted girl.

"Little brother, I want to ask you for a favor."

The girl in the green dress indicated towards Tang Huan, then sat down with her legs crossed and asked curiously, "However, I'm not in a rush to ask you this. I have a question I want to ask you, if I'm not mistaken, you seemed to know my identity the moment you laid your eyes on me."

"It's just a guess, I can't be sure."

Tang Huan also sat down opposite of the girl in the green skirt.

The girl in the green skirt could not help but move closer to Tang Huan, and asked curiously: "Then tell me, what is the result of your guess?"

Tang Huan hesitated for a moment, then probed: "Senior, is your original body the 'Nine Palace Glass'?"

"I actually guessed it right!"

The young girl in the green dress clapped her small hands and then stroked her round lower jaw, her pretty face full of surprise. "Little brother, how did you guess it?" The name "Liu Li from the nine palaces" was given to me countless years ago. It seems like I have never told this to anyone, not even Xiao Yunzi. "

"Huh?"

Tang Huan was immediately a little taken aback.

In that moment, he suddenly recalled that after he entered the Heaven Realm, he had also absorbed the memories of many living creatures. However, the existence of "Nine Palace Glass" was only recorded in the memories he had absorbed from the lower realms.

The four words "Nine Palace Glass", if it was really taken by her, then it was highly likely that she was the plant that she had seen previously. She did not expect that she would actually travel from the ninth heaven to the thirty-sixth day, and even stayed in this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" for countless of years.

"Did Senior really never tell anyone?" Suddenly, Tang Huan couldn't help but ask.

"No!" Absolutely not! "

The girl in the green dress subconsciously shook her head, her tone resolute and decisive.

But then she suddenly hesitated, "Did I forget?" As she spoke, the girl in the green dress frowned slightly, as if she was in deep thought.

"Senior, do you remember a cultivator from the Pangu Sky Sect named 'Pan Ji' from the previous nine days?"

Tang Huan had no choice but to remind her, "Back then, when Pan Ji met with Senior during training, Senior revealed that he was" Nine Palace Glass "during the fight. After that, he was sealed in the lower realms by a powerful expert. After countless years, only a very weak residual soul remained in his body. This junior obtained the memories in his soul, so I know the name of this senior. "

"Yes, that's it."

The girl in the green dress was suddenly enlightened. Then, she smiled widely and said, "When I heard you mention the Pangu Heaven Sect, I remembered."

Suddenly, a look of reminiscence appeared on her face, "I wonder how many years ago that was. At that time, it was my first time leaving the place of cultivation, but I didn't expect to be surrounded by Pan Ji and the others soon. "Pan Ji escaped, but I killed the other cultivators of the Pan Gu sect.

"After that, I'm being relentlessly hunted by the Pangu Heaven Sect."

The girl in the green dress let out an angry snort, and then began to laugh with pride. "Fortunately, I had some tricks up my sleeves and wasn't captured. However, it was getting harder and harder to stay for the next nine days. And so, after I advanced to become the Heavenly King, I boarded a 'Voidboat' and arrived at the 18th Heaven. "

"However, not long after, he offended the strongest sect there, the Great Change Spirit Sect, and was chased by a group of peak Superior Heavenly Kings. In the end, he had no choice but to hide in there for thirty-six days. Afterwards, in order to find the opportunity to break through, I entered the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace', but was unable to leave, and stayed there till now. "

As she finished her sentence, the girl in the green skirt seemed to be at a loss.

She was indeed the "Nine Palace Glass" that Pan Ji had encountered countless years ago. Judging from this, she should be someone from the same generation as the Dragon Casting Abyss, but her luck was evidently not very good as she was continuously being hunted from the top nine days to the middle eighteen days to the bottom thirty-six days. In the end, she was trapped in the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" and had lived for an extremely long period of time.

"Little brother." After a short while, the girl in the green skirt called out to Tang Huan again, and said with a face full of smiles, "That Pan Gu Heavenly Sect Pan Ji escaped from my hands, but he still died in your hands in the end. Do you think we are fated to meet?"

"Indeed."

Tang Huan was startled, and couldn't help but laugh out loud.

If not for Pan Ji, the "Nine Palace Liu Li" would not have been able to escape for the next nine days. Naturally, it would not have been possible for them to encounter each other in the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". From this point of view, Tang Huan and this Senior Sky Emperor was definitely fated, but this sort of fated fate was not a good fate for Pan Ji.

Of course, Pan Ji had long been turned into ashes, and naturally, he wouldn't be worried about this matter.

"Since fate has brought us together, as an elder sister, I cannot be stingy. "Little brother, this is my elder sister's gift for you."

With a wave of her hand, a crystal clear green flower quickly condensed and floated towards Tang Huan. It was another "Longevity Flower", but compared to the one given to Xiao Zihan previously, this one was at least five times bigger.

Moreover, the energy that leaked out from this Flower of Longevity was even purer, and the aura of life was even more majestic.

"Senior, you won't receive anything without merit."

Tang Huan was astonished but he did not know whether to laugh or cry. This Senior Heavenly Emperor who had given him such a precious greeting without giving him a single word was really unaccustomed to it, "Senior, how about you tell me how I can help you. If this junior can help, it's not too late for me to accept Senior's gift."

"Meeting gift is meeting gift and helping is helping. These two things should not be confused."

The young lady in the green dress threw the green flower into Tang Huan's embrace without any explanation, then smiled and said, "Little brother, I asked for your help, you have to be able to do it, in this 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace', only you can do it, if not I won't let Xiao Yun Zi invite you here."

Helpless, Tang Huan could only put away the "Longevity Flower" and slowly say: "As long as this junior can accomplish it, I will definitely do my best, with all my strength."

"Alright, then I'll thank little brother first."

When the young girl in the green dress heard this, she was quite happy. Then, her expression turned serious. "However, before that, I still have a question to confirm. I hope that little brother can answer truthfully."

Chapter 1903 - Celestial Fire

"Senior, please ask." Tang Huan said with a stern expression.

"When you attacked those reckless Heavenly Kings, I sensed an abnormally strong presence of primal chaos." "That chaos energy, did it originate from your own power?"

"Yes, and no."

Tang Huan laughed, although the Heavenly Emperor's eyes were still closed when he asked that question, Tang Huan could faintly feel the anticipation in those eyes beneath her eyelids.

"Oh?"

The young girl in the green dress was slightly puzzled.

Tang Huan laughed and said, "Junior's dao flame is a primal chaos dao flame. Although it has yet to completely complete its transformation, the meaning of the Primal Chaos is rather strong. However, the chaos consciousness that Senior sensed earlier did not originate from a Dao flame nor a Heaven Origin Stone. Instead, it came from it." As he spoke, that "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" flashed and appeared in Tang Huan's palm.

"This is what I got from the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace."

There is no need for Tang Huan to hide it, "It contains a huge amount of chaos energy, and the meaning of chaos is naturally also shockingly strong. When this junior entered the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace a few years ago, I was only an Inferior Heavenly King. It was all thanks to it that I was able to advance to a God King in such a short period of time."

As he spoke till here, Tang Huan added, "This thing, this junior calls it the 'Primal Chaos Source Crystal'."

"There's actually such a thing in the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace', not bad, not bad."

The girl in the green skirt didn't seem to mind the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" in Tang Huan's palm.

She only turned her head slightly, faced towards where his right palm was at, and turned her head, her interest towards Tang Huan had obviously far surpassed the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", her eyebrows revealing a smile, "Little brother, you are even more outstanding than what I imagined, I have truly found the right person to ask for your help."

"You should have guessed it already, not only will I not be able to leave the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace, I won't even be able to leave the Spirit Hidden Cave."

The green dressed girl's smile turned into intense depression, "I entered the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace' not long ago, and found this place. You may not know this, but back then, there was an extremely powerful metal-type celestial flame hidden here Yes, you didn't mishear it wrong, it's not the Spiritual Fire, but the Immortal Fire! "

"Immortal fire?"

After a moment of surprise, Tang Huan came to a realization.

Celestial fire was like a celestial item, containing within it the intent of celestial spirits. Countless years ago, when the Immortal World collapsed and turned into the Heaven Realm, such a treasure was rarely seen in the Heaven Realm. But this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" was different, this place contained an extremely dense immortal sense, it was normal for her to be able to find immortal fire here.

The girl in the green dress nodded her head: "My main body is 'Nine Palace Glass', it is the plant spiritualization, coupled with the fact that I have long merged with the Wood Attribute Spiritual Fire, so I am a Weapon Refiner myself, and the Tools Method Attainments has always been pretty good. When I entered the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace', it was already a heaven grade work of art."

"As a First-Grade Heaven Grade divine work, I naturally will not give up when faced with this sort of celestial flame."

"Thus, even if the Immortal Fire's Five Elements is metal and is coincident with my own wood type dao flame, I still could not help but take action."

"I am also blaming myself for being too impatient. Before I merged with the celestial fire, I did not manage to thoroughly investigate the situation. I do not know that the celestial fire has already fused with this world." In the end, although I spent a long time fusing with it, I myself was also imprisoned in this small world, unable to escape from it. "

"Senior, is this world you're talking about the Spirit Hidden Cave?" Tang Huan asked curiously.

"Not just the Spirit Hidden Cave, but the entire Spirit Hidden Mountain Range including the Spirit Hidden Cave." The girl in the green dress sighed. "This mountain range contains countless fire veins. The Immortal Fire will spread along the fire veins and include all of the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range. The Spirit Hidden Cave is only the location of the fire seed."

"Because of this reason, although I am in the Spirit Hidden Cave, my mind can follow the Fire Vein and spread throughout the entire Spirit Hidden Mountain Range. As long as I want to know, I will be able to detect anything that is happening outside ..." Including many dragons and a small bird within your space. " A crafty smile appeared on the face of the green-clothed young girl, as if she was extremely proud of being able to see through the secrets of others.

"Birds?"

If the nine spirits knew that someone called her that, she would probably be so angry that she would jump up and down. Of course, if she knew that this person who called her that was a Heavenly

Emperor Stage powerhouse, no matter how angry she was, she could only swallow her anger and silently complain.

However, the information revealed by this Senior Heavenly Emperor made Tang Huan sigh to himself.

Within the limits of the mountain range, she was no different from a god. After she had advanced to the Sky Sovereign Realm, the Hidden Spirit Mountain became the Dragon Clan's forbidden area, but this place had also sealed her, preventing her from escaping for countless of years.

"The Spirit Hidden Cave was not like this before."

The green dressed lady continued, "At that time, it was just a small cave. Other than cultivating, I was bored, so I continuously modified it, and then accepted the cultivators of the Human Clan to live here, which caused it to gradually become like this. And during this process, I unknowingly stepped into the Heavenly Emperor Realm.

"Later on, there was a Heavenly Emperor Elder that appeared in Dragon Clan. He also came over to make a mess, but he was unable to do anything about it."

"However, it does not dare to make a move on this Human Clan cultivator from the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range, because I once threatened him, if he dares to kill a Human Clan cultivator in the range of this mountain, I will head towards Dragon City and kill all of the Dragon Clan, leaving him with only one dragon left in this' Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace '."

"That guy didn't know I couldn't leave here."

As she spoke up to here, the green-clothed young girl laughed mischievously, like a little fox that had succeeded in stealing a chicken.

Hearing that, a smile surfaced in Tang Huan's eyes, but he instantly questioned: "Senior, I just don't understand, why would the Immortal Fire fuse with the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range? Even if it was born in this mountain range, it should not be in such a situation. "

"Little brother, you don't know this."

The girl in the green dress had a bitter face as she said in a muffled voice, "This Spirit Concealing Mountain is not a real mountain, but a very powerful Dao artifact. The Immortal Flame is also sealed within the Dao artifact, and over time, it has fused with it. If it was only that, then it would be fine, but this Dao item was used by the guy that is formed the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace' to build this realm, and has already completely fused with the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace'. "

"According to the normal way, if one wanted to get rid of this situation, they would have to break through the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace, in order to separate the Dao Artifact from this space. Unfortunately, after I merged with the Immortal Fire, I have already become a part of the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace'.

Chapter 1904 - Mountain Flipping Seal

"The Spirit Hidden Mountain Range is actually formed from a Dao item?"

Tang Huan was truly shocked, if not for this senior Heavenly Emperor speaking, he would not have noticed anything.

Of course, this was also because Tang Huan had been outside for too little time and hadn't carefully investigated him either. Otherwise, he would have been able to discover some clues.

"That's right."

The girl in the green dress nodded. "Not only is it a Dao item, it is also an extremely rare Divine Grade Dao item. The person who pulled out this' Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace 'can be considered to be a big spender, to actually be willing to take out this Divine Ranking Dao item and merge it into this space. "

"Divine grade Dao Artifact ..."

Tang Huan secretly took a deep breath. Anyone who could take out a Divine Ranked Dao Artifact would at least be an Empyrean level powerhouse, or even a Divine Level expert. Thinking about it, Tang Huan's heart couldn't help but move, the "Dragon God" that was worshipped by the Dragon Clan, should be the person who refined this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

Perhaps he was truly a supreme existence that had already proven himself as a divine being, but what remained in this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" was definitely not his original body. Perhaps it was just a remnant of his will, or perhaps it was merely a wisp of his mind. Otherwise, he was afraid that the Dragon Palace wouldn't have been allowed to enter the Spirit Hidden Cave.

With a quick thought, Tang Huan could not help but ask: "Senior, does this' Mountain Flipping Seal 'belong to that Dragon God?"

"Who else could it be?"

The girl in the green dress snorted, then said angrily, "That old fellow's main body had long left the Heaven Realm, and what is left here is only his remnant will. Every hundred years, he would make use of the power of the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace' 's formation to stir up trouble, turning the entire Dragon Palace into the Dragon Clan's hunting grounds.

Instantly, she said with a slightly rejoiced tone, "However, it was fortunate that this was the case, otherwise, I'm afraid my life would have been lost long ago. Even if I was alive, I wouldn't have been able to escape this Mountain Flipping Seal."

"Senior, you must have a way to escape now?" Tang Huan could not help but smile slightly. He had already vaguely guessed the method this Heavenly Emperor elder was planning to use.

"My method is actually very simple."

The girl in the green dress said with a smile, "That is to cut off the connection between the Immortal Flames and this' Mountain Flipping Seal '. The reason why I am bound by the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range is because the Immortal Fire and the Mountain Flipping Seal are one and the same, just like its artifact spirit. As long as the connection between the Immortal Fire and the Mountain Flipping Seal is broken, I will naturally be able to leave the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range and not be bound by this land. I have already thought of this method a long time ago, but unfortunately, it was never successful. "

As she spoke to here, a hint of joy appeared on the face of the young girl in the green dress.

"However, after discovering that you've appeared in the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range, I knew that hope has come."

"The connection between the Immortal Fire and the Mountain Flipping Seal, ordinary strength cannot cut it off. However, the power that contains the meaning of primal chaos can melt it into nothingness." The girl in the green dress said with a smile, "It must be because the heavens can't bear to see me always living here, so they sent you, this great savior, to me."

"Senior's method is indeed feasible."

Tang Huan slightly nodded his head, but then suddenly changed the topic, "However, I have a better method, I wonder if senior would like to hear it?"

"A better way?"

Hearing that, the girl in green dress was slightly startled, then she started laughing in surprise, urgently saying, "Of course I want to hear it, little brother, speak quickly, speak quickly. Oh right, stop calling me Senior. You make me look like an old man, and from now on you can just call me Sister Liu Li. "

"Fine."

Tang Huan was a little speechless. If we were to compare age, you are already very old, right? However, this thought could only go through Tang Huan's mind, "Sister Liu Li, don't call me 'little brother', just call me Tang Huan." Little brother, no matter how I hear it, it feels weird.

"Uh, why is that?" The young girl in the green dress was slightly puzzled.

"This... It's a long story, let's explain it to big sister later. "

Tang Huan laughed dryly and changed the topic, then said, "Sister Liu Li, you should know, the reason why you were bound by the 'Mountain Crushing Seal' and the Immortal fire when you fused with it was because your fusion of the Immortal fire was not complete yet."

His voice slightly paused, and Tang Huan's tone became determined, "If it could completely fuse with the Celestial Fire, even if the Celestial Fire is sealed in an even stronger artifact, it could also completely separate the Celestial Fire from the artifact, and not tie you together with the artifact that carries the Celestial Fire."

"Of course I know that."

Liu Li sighed with a bitter face, "At that time, I was too careless and didn't know the real situation. By the time I woke up, it was already too late. After completing the fusion, it had become a part of the 'Mountain Flipping Seal'. Even if he were to be promoted to the Heavenly Emperor Stage later on, it would be impossible for him to complete the fusion again. "

At this point, Liu Li said in a muffled voice, "However, then again, with my cultivation and strength at that time, even if I knew, it was still impossible for me to completely fuse with the celestial fire and seal it's divine grade Dao Artifact. It's too powerful, even if no one uses it, it's not something I can contend against."

"That's true."

Tang Huan nodded, "However, Sister Liu Li does not need to worry anymore. My method is actually very simple as well. Since Big Sister has not completely merged with the Celestial Flame, I shall just completely merge it with myself ... Although I haven't fully mastered my Chaos Daos, I should be able to help out. "

"Tang Huan, is it really possible?"

Liu Li couldn't help but be pleasantly surprised.

If it was executed according to Tang Huan's method, the result would be better. If the connection between the Immortal Fire and the Mountain Crushing Seal was broken, the Immortal Fire would be greatly weakened, but if the Immortal Fire was completely merged, not only would the Immortal Fire be able to escape, it would also allow the Immortal Fire to remain at its peak state.

"Of course."

Tang Huan nodded slightly, and said, "However, before we take action, I need to first have a good sense of the condition of the Immortal Flames and the 'Mountain Flipping Seal', and also of your situation, Big Sister."

"That's easy."

A smile brimmed on Liu Li's face as she suddenly opened her eyes.

Tang Huan's heart was startled, Liu Li's eyes were completely different, the left eye was green, the right eye was bright white, and the emotions hidden in the eyes were also different. Being stared by her eyes, Tang Huan felt as though half of his body was being completely melted by the endless vitality, while the right side of his body felt as though it was being pierced by a terrifying sharp golden will, and was being pierced like a thousand holes. In this instant, Tang Huan finally understood why she had kept her eyes closed the moment she appeared.

Under the gaze of these two terrifying gazes, even Tang Huan was actually somewhat unable to endure it.

Liu Li said slowly: "Tang Huan, my two eyeballs contain the fire seed of my Wood Type Dao Fire and Metal Type Immortal Fire. Through them, you can find out the situation of me and this 'Mountain Overturning Seal'."

Chapter 1905 - Myriad Fire Veins

As she spoke, Liu Li's figure had already disappeared, leaving only two eyes that rapidly expanded.

In just two or three breaths of time, Liu Li's pair of eyes had already turned into two huge fireballs. One of them was emerald green, and it was the wood type dao flame that Liu Li already possessed, as well as the fire of life, while the other was bright white like snow, exuding not only an extremely powerful and sharp golden Qi, but also a dense immortal essence. It was naturally the immortal fire sealed within the "Mountain Flipping Seal" divine grade dao tool.

From the immortal essence within the celestial fire, it could be seen that the fusion between the Heavenly Emperor Glazed and it was incomplete.

If she had truly fused them together, then the will of the Immortal would have long since been completely refined, and the Immortal fire would have transformed into a Dao flame. But now, although she and the Immortal fire had fused, it was still just Immortal fire.

After Liu Li's eyes turned into a fireball, the impact that was originally majestic and full of emotions had finally dissipated by a large amount.

Tang Huan took a light breath. "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and "God Casting Crystal" were activated to the extreme, and his unusually strong mind immediately enveloped the two balls of fireballs.

"Little brother Tang Huan, your mental strength is really a bit beyond my expectations."

In an instant, the clear and melodious voice of the Heavenly Emperor Liu Li resounded within the space woven from whiskers, and his voice was filled with unconcealable surprise, "The range that Xiao Yunzi's mind can scan may have surpassed you by quite a bit, but your ability to perceive things with your mind is definitely stronger than his."

"In this aspect, even if you were to repeat the process over and over again, in all the sixty-three days, no Heavenly King would be able to match up to you." The surprise in Heavenly Emperor Liu Li's words had already been replaced with deep admiration, "Little brother Tang Huan, I am more confident in you now."

"It's Tang Huan, not little brother Tang Huan!"

Tang Huan corrected with a bit of depression. After that, he slightly closed his eyes, calmed his heart and concentrated, carefully sensing the surroundings.

Indeed, it was as Liu Li had said. The two fireballs formed by her eyes were the fire seed from the wood type dao flame and the metal type immortal flame. Through the wood type dao flame, one could find out the condition of her body's "Nine Palace Glass", and through the metal type dao flame, one could sense the condition of the "Mountain Riding Seal".

It was as if there were countless threads connecting the "Nine Palace Glass" and "Mountain Flipping Seal" to the two Fire Elementals. The Dao fire and the Immortal Fire were also inextricably linked.

Under Tang Huan's probing, Heavenly Emperor Liu Li actually did not put up any defense, and did not resist in the slightest.

Thus, when his consciousness penetrated into the two Fire Elementals, every single detail of the "Nine Palace Glass" and "Mountain Crushing Seal" was caught by Tang Huan and then clearly displayed in his mind. After a long while, Tang Huan finally opened his eyes, and his eyes couldn't help but reveal a touch of amazement.

Liu Li of the Nine Palaces was indeed a Heavenly Emperor Realm expert. Her complex body somewhat exceeded Tang Huan's imagination.

There were only nine flowers, and each flower had nine hundred and ninety-nine petals. Around the flower, the total number of leaves reached nine thousand nine hundred and ninety-nine, and the root hairs had reached an extreme level of development. A thick main root had separated nine thin roots, and the nine root hairs had also separated ninety-nine smaller roots.

Nearly a billion tendrils intersected and intertwined tightly, finally weaving into this space.

In addition, it must be because the number of flowers, petals, leaves and roots was related to the number of "Nine" that she named herself "Nine Palace Glass".

But the thing that caught Tang Huan's attention the most wasn't this, but the fact that there were countless complex patterns on the roots of the "Nine Palace Glass", which interweaved into formations of various sizes. Furthermore, whether it was the patterns or the formations, they were all naturally formed.

These formations, with the main root as the center, formed a great formation that encompassed the entire "Nine Palace Glass" inside.

The most miraculous thing was that the formation contained the power of space. It could be seen that it was a spatial formation. At this moment, Tang Huan finally understood why this Heavenly Emperor Liu Li was able to escape from the nine heavens to eighteen, and then to thirty-six days under the pursuit of powerful enemies.

That spatial formation gave her the ability to travel through space in an instant, allowing her to quickly escape in times of danger. It was a feat that was similar to his "Void Evasion".

In addition, every petal, leaf, and root of the "Nine Palace Glass" contained a strong power of the laws of the world. The Heavenly King communicated with the natural laws of the world, channeling Heavenly Energy, while the Heavenly Emperor directly imbued the natural laws, which was also known as Heavenly Energy, into his body.

Having reached such a state, if one was not able to control it, every move of his or her would cause the heaven and earth to tremble.

As for the "Mountain Flipping Seal", the dao diagram it contained was also extremely complex. It was worthy of being called a divine grade dao tool.

If he didn't have Heavenly Emperor Glazed, and if he was allowed to examine this Divine Grade Dao item by himself, he would probably have to spend a long time to sense and deduce the item before he could truly gain an understanding of it. However, after fusing with the Celestial Emperor Glass, he had already understood it thoroughly over the years. Furthermore, when Tang Huan investigated the Immortal Fire Seed, he was able to easily make all of the information regarding the Mountain Crushing Seal become his own.

Not only that, Tang Huan even followed the many hidden fire veins of the "Mountain Flipping Seal" and extended his attention throughout the entire Hidden Spirit Mountain Range. There were a total of 360 meridians for this divine grade Dao weapon.

Each main meridian also had thirty-six supplementary meridians. The nearly thirteen thousand fire meridians connected the entire Spirit Concealing Mountain Range. To the "Mountain Flipping Seal", the Fire Vein was like the Spiritual Meridian to a cultivator. The unending stream of Immortal Flames within the Fire Vein was like the Sky Yuan in a cultivator's Spiritual Meridian.

Right now, although the Immortal Fire Seed was in front of Tang Huan, the Immortal Fire within the Fire Vein was still vigorous.

These Fire Veins were the lifeline of the 'Mountain Flipping Seal'. In order to completely fuse immortal flames, one had to be like him. Possessing the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" that could melt everything, or else, one would have to be able to suppress the "Mountain-toppling Stamp".

Of course, the immortal fire back then would definitely not be as powerful as it is now.

Although Heavenly Emperor Liu Li had not completely merged with the Immortal Fire, he had become a part of the "Mountain Crushing Seal". Although Heavenly Emperor Liu Li had not completely merged with the Immortal Fire, he had become a part of the "Mountain Crushing Seal".

"Tang Huan... "Little brother, how do you feel?"

Liu Li teased, obviously teasing Tang Huan in such a manner.

Towards her naughty taste, Tang Huan was speechless, he shook his head helplessly and spoke with a somber expression: "It's about time, however, this Immortal Fire is too strong, and my cultivation is still too weak. If I want to completely fuse it, I will need at least a year, Sister Liu Li must be mentally prepared."

Chapter 1906 - Stupid!

"Even if it's a hundred years, it's fine, let alone a year."

To her, who had stayed here for countless of years, a hundred years was just a blink of an eye.

"If I need that much time, I won't be able to help Big Sister Liu Li for the time being," Tang Huan laughed bitterly.

"Why is that?"

Heavenly Emperor Liu Li said in surprise.

Tang Huan said in a deep voice, "I have a brother from the Dragon Clan in the lower realms. After he ascended to the heavens, he entered this' Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace 'and I found out about it a while back. It is very likely that he has already been selected by the Dragon Clan as a Divine Attendant, and perhaps after the end of this hunt for the Dragon Clan, he will be taken as a sacrifice to the Dragon God. The reason why I have controlled so many experts of the Dragon Clan is so that I can one day infiltrate the Dragon City and rescue the Dragon Clan brothers. "

"So that's how it is."

"The reason why the Dragon Clan chose the divine servants and offered them as sacrifices was to maintain the remnant consciousness of the Dragon God. One reason was to prevent them from passing through the river of time, and another reason was to allow them to have the ability to activate the so-called 'Dragon God's Fury' once every hundred years."

"Little brother Tang Huan, if your brother Dragon Clan is chosen as the Divine Attendant, it would be extremely difficult for you to save him after the competition ends. Even if you control those dozens of dragons, the chances of success are not high.

"I know."

Tang Huan replied, "But no matter how difficult it is, I still have to try."

"Aiya!"

Heavenly Emperor Liu Li suddenly cried out loud, and started laughing loudly, "Little brother Tang Huan, you are such a fool, and this sister is such a fool too. If you can help me fuse this Celestial Fire before the Dragon Clan's Hunting Competition ends, I can leave this place. At that time, leave that Great Elder of the Dragon Clan to me. You just have to be in charge of saving your brother of the Dragon Clan. Xiao Yunzi will not help you either! "

Tang Huan's expression turned happy, but then immediately became hesitant: "Sister Liu Li, I wonder, compared to you, is the Great Clan Elder of the Dragon Clan's strength, higher or lower?"

"How can he compare with me?"

That dragon is definitely not my opponent. If I wasn't trapped in this Spirit Concealment Cave and couldn't escape, I would have killed him when he came to the Spirit Concealing Mountain. This time, even if I do not save your brother Dragon Clan, I will kill him. "

"Great!"

Tang Huan heaved a sigh of relief and said with a smile all over his face, "Then this little brother will thank Sister Liu Li first."

He had indeed thought of asking Heavenly Emperor Liu Li for help, but in the end he did not say anything. He was just worried that Heavenly Emperor Liu Li's strength was weaker than the Great Clan Elder of Dragon Clan. In terms of time taken for her to be promoted to Heavenly Emperor Stage, Liu Li would definitely be countless years ahead of the Great Clan Elder of Dragon Clan, but her strength would not be based on her age.

This Divine Grade Dao Artifact, "Mountain Crushing Seal" was used to hold back the Heavenly Emperor Glaze. However, to Heavenly Emperor Glazed, it was also an extremely strong protective shell.

In this Spirit Hidden Mountain Range created by the "Mountain Flipping Seal", no matter how strong the Great Clan Elder was, as long as he had not surpassed the Heavenly Emperor Realm, he would not be able to do anything to the Heavenly Emperor Liu-Li. However, once the Heavenly Emperor Glazed Beast escaped from the grasp of this "Mountain Crushing Seal," it would mean that it had lost its protection.

If the Heavenly Emperor Liu-Li's strength was not as good as the Great Elder of Dragon Clan, asking her to help was equivalent to sending her to her death.

Tang Huan couldn't do this sort of thing.

But now, after hearing Heavenly Emperor Liu Li's words, Tang Huan was completely at ease. He immediately said somewhat impatiently, "Big Sister Liu Li, I'll first release my friend from the spatial artifact, then we can begin immediately." With that, Tang Huan took out the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram", and summoned the nine spirits out of the cave.

From now on, Tang Huan would be staying here for at least a year. During this period of time, it would be more appropriate to let her cultivate outside.

"What a beautiful bird." Heavenly Emperor Liu Li clicked his tongue in admiration.

"Who said I'm a bird?" Jiu Ling was still a little confused about the situation outside. She had only turned her eyes a few times when she heard these words. Her face immediately tensed up and her eyeballs stared out. A thunderous angry roar reverberated throughout the interwoven strands of hair.

"Jiu Ling, do not be rude, the one speaking to you is the senior who refined this Spirit Hidden Cave, Heavenly Emperor Glazed!" Tang Huan immediately pulled the little girl back.

"Liu Li... "Celestial Emperor ..." Jiu Ling was dumbfounded, her angry expression frozen on her face.

Not long after, upon learning the general situation, Jiu Ling took three steps back and walked out. The anger on her small face had been completely transformed into surprise. As soon as the little girl's figure disappeared, a dense green Qi came out from the cliff and blocked the entrance of the cave.

"Sister Liu Li, this matter should not be delayed. Let's begin now."

Tang Huan took a deep breath, calmed his mind and concentrated. In the next moment, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" circulated to the limit, and the majestic "Primal Chaos Daos Fire" firepower instantly roared out from his body, transforming into a transparent flame. It roared forward and after a flick of a finger, covered the white fireball completely.

At almost the same time, Tang Huan also held the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" in both of his palms.

In the center of the space of the Origin Crystal, the mind sculpture was already rapidly circulating, unceasingly controlling the chaos energy stored within the Origin Crystal.

In the future, Tang Huan would need to continuously refine the metal-type fire essence.

The fire spark was connected to the fire of the celestial fire that was spread throughout more than ten thousand meridians. By refining the fire seed, the fire power would be constantly replenished. With the power of its firepower, Tang Huan could not continue to refine it without stopping. If he used up all the power of his "Primal Chaos Dao Flame", he would naturally not be able to continue refining it.

However, with the help of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", Tang Huan could maintain a strong firepower at all times.

After all, that celestial fire was a part of the Divine Grade Dao Artifact "Mountain Crushing Seal". It was impossible to refine it so quickly. This was a protracted battle, it was up to who could last until the end. If Empyrean Glazed and Tang Huan were opposing each other, Tang Huan wouldn't be completely confident, but right now, Tang Huan had complete confidence.

Because during this entire process, Empyrean Liu-Li was not a spectator.

The biggest resistance from refining the Celestial Fire came from the Divine Ranked Dao Artifact 'Mountain Flipping Seal', and the greatest effect of Empyrean Liu-Li was to suppress the 'Mountain Flipping Seal'. Without the obstruction of the "Mountain Crushing Seal", Tang Huan could refine the Immortal Fire with all his might, without any distractions.

After the celestial fire was refined, it would be absorbed by Empyrean Glazed.

After he finished refining the celestial fire, the fire that Empyrean Liu-Li fused with his body was actually metal type. It was no longer metal type like it was in the past.

Chapter 1907 Changes in the Mountains

"Hu!"

The flames surged, causing the space to fluctuate violently.

Indeed, as expected, as soon as the "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" engulfed the Immortal Fire Seed, an incomparably majestic resistance surged forth from within the ten thousand or so fire veins following the fire power of the Immortal Fire. It surged and surged, as though it was a wave that was swept up by a hurricane, and wanted to smash Tang Huan into pieces.

"Humph!"

Faintly, a cold snort sounded out.

In an instant, the firepower still continuously gathered from all directions, but the resistance within it gradually dissipated. By the time it had arrived in this space, it had already scattered into nothingness.

This was the use of Heavenly Emperor Glazed Light!

Tang Huan was completely relieved, her attention completely focused on the Immortal Fire Fire Seed. Chaos Daos could melt everything, and they were the nemesis of all sorts of flames. Immortals flames were no exception. Of course, Tang Huan's goal this time, was not to melt the immortal fire, but to completely refine it.

In the following period of time, Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" produced the effect of filtering.

The filtered Celestial Fire will no longer contain any Celestial Spirit Awareness and will only contain pure metal type firepower. They will be returned to the Heavenly Emperor Glazed.

"Hu!"

After a short while, a large portion of white-colored odor had been released from within the Primal Chaos Dao Flame. This was the firepower of the refined Immortal Flames.

As soon as the firepower appeared, it was absorbed into the interwoven root hairs of the "Nine Palace Glass".

"Haha, it worked."

In an instant, Heavenly Emperor Liu Li's excited laughter resounded in the air.

Although the firepower she absorbed was insignificant compared to the firepower of the entire Celestial Fire, she could clearly see that the hope of completely getting rid of the Mountain Flipping Seal was right in front of her eyes.

However, amidst her excitement, her voice sounded a little surprised. "Strange, after this firepower was refined by your 'Primal Chaos Dao Flame', it actually became a lot purer ... Could it be that little brother Tang Huan's 'Primal Chaos Daos' was transformed from the flames of the Five Elements? "

" ... "

Tang Huan was like a statue, unmoving, without responding. However, the refined Immortal fire from the "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" continued to roar out.

"Five Elements Dao Fire?"

"If you want to obtain the Five Elements and Dao flame, you need to absorb the Spiritual Fire of the five elements - metal, wood, water, fire, and earth ... "

"Someone from the lower realms was able to do this?"

"Looks like this little brother of mine was an extraordinary figure when he was in the lower realms ... Oh, in this Heaven Realm, little brother Tang Huan must also be very impressive, and his future is limitless. "In all these years, I have never seen a second cultivator who was capable of possessing the essence of primordial chaos."

"Well, I've not seen many cultivators, haha..."

"..."

The Heavenly Emperor Liu Li muttered to himself. He did not slow down in absorbing the Immortal Fire firepower at all.

The moment the firepower entered the roots, it was completely fused with her and converted into a metal-type Dao flame.

Not only did the changes in the firepower surprise her, she was also extremely surprised at the speed at which Tang Huan was refining the firepower. Tang Huan was merely a middle level Heavenly King, but the speed at which he refined the firepower had reached an extremely shocking level.

The wonders of the Dao of Fire of Primordial Chaos could be seen here.

After a long time, the space that was made up of the roots of the "Nine Palace Glass" finally quieted down. However, the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range outside had undergone a tremendous change.

A strange fluctuation seemed to have risen from within Pang Shuo's mountain. On the surface of the mountain, sand, rocks, and plants continued to crack before turning into fine powder.

"Eh, what's going on?"

"What happened?"

In the depths of the mountain range, before the cliff, a few cultivators looked at each other, bewildered and uncertain.

At this moment, the originally hard ground beneath their feet had already become soft. From time to time, a large amount of dust would roll up like a wave, and around them, countless enormous trees that reached into the sky turned into dust, drifting about in the air.

A moment later, they subconsciously flew up.

In an instant, they were like arrows that had left the bow as they charged tens of thousands of meters into the sky and looked down at their surroundings from a high vantage point. A bizarre scene gradually appeared in their line of sight.

Within the vast mountain range, the originally everywhere green color had disappeared and was replaced by an endless earthen yellow.

In the midst of this earthen yellow land, thick white lines were faintly discernable under the cover of the dust that permeated the sky. They were just like giant dragons that were meandering around the mountain range.

Everyone exchanged glances and remained silent. However, they could all see the unimaginable look in each other's eyes.

Following that, everyone's gaze once again landed on the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range that was ten kilometers away. That strange fluctuation continued, and dust and dirt were not swept away, and those indistinct white lines also gradually became clearer. The crowd quickly discovered that although the white lines were extremely thick, they were still small and big compared to the white lines.

The larger ones seemed to be the main line. They converged from different directions and connected to the Spirit Hidden Cave. There were a total of 360 lines.

The smaller ones seemed to be side lines that separated from the main line and connected to the other main lines. However, the mountain range was extremely vast, so it was hard to tell how many side lines there were. However, the main thread and the secondary thread seemed to have formed a huge white net that enveloped the entire mountain range.

"Quickly return to the Spirit Hidden Cave and report this to the Cavemaster."

Several people looked at each other. In the next moment, they suppressed the shock in their hearts and rushed down at the same time.

At this moment, at the edge of the mountain range, on the banks of a large river, there were two figures similarly standing in the sky. It was Jiu Ling and Xiao Zihan. They didn't stay in the Spirit Hidden Cave for too long. After bidding farewell to the Cavemaster Ye Tingyun, the two of them arrived at the cave. But not long after they started cultivating, something happened.

Withdrawing his gaze, Jiu Ling looked at Xiao Zihan and chuckled: "It seems like this' Mountain Flipping Seal 'has gotten angry!"

"Patriarch Tang Huan is truly powerful."

She already knew the general situation from the nine spirits. "It hasn't even been a day and this divine grade Dao Artifact couldn't hold itself back any longer."

"It's useless even if I can't hold it in."

Nine Spirits snorted, "Although it is a Divine Grade Dao item, how can a God Grade Dao item without a owner really suppress the Celestial Emperor? The only reason why it is able to trap Heavenly Emperor Li Li here is because it has already become a part of this' Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace '."

Xiao Zihan slightly nodded her head, but a smile instantly appeared in her eyes. Turning her head to look, she said, "Dragon Clan also noticed the movements in the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range."

Nine Spirit's eyes turned. At the end of their line of sight, another two huge dragons were rapidly flying away.

Chapter 1908 - Dragon Clan's Second Elder

With such a huge commotion occurring in the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range, it was impossible for the many cultivators in the Spirit Hidden Cave to not be aware of it.

In particular, when many people walked out of the Spirit Hidden Cave and witnessed the astonishing change that occurred in the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range, many cultivators were extremely shocked.

A wave of panic began to spread in everyone's heart.

High up in the sky, numerous gazes were directed towards the nearby Cavemaster Ye Tingyun, who was standing in the middle of Yu Xu. Seeing that his expression was still calm, everyone seemed to have found a way to calm down, but soon after, a strong sense of bewilderment emerged in their hearts, unable to be suppressed.

This group of people had stayed in the Spirit Hidden Cave for tens of thousands or even hundreds of thousands of years.

They were all very familiar with the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range. However, they had never expected it to be like this under the thick soil, sand and trees that reached into the sky.

After the dust that filled the air dispersed, the true appearance of the mountain range was completely revealed.

Right now, the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range was like an extremely large piece of jade as it lay prostrate on the ground of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". A faint earthy yellow luster emitted from every part of the mountain.

The tunnels seemed to be filled with countless flames.

However, at this moment, the flames were flowing in the same direction like a stream of water. Their destination was the Spirit Hidden Cave. Seeing this scene, even a fool would know that the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range was definitely not an ordinary mountain range. It was definitely a treasure.

In that instant, many Heavenly King Stage powerhouses could not help but feel their hearts palpitate.

However, in just a split-second, it was as if a bone-chilling ice water was poured down, extinguishing this thought in their minds.

The immortal body below was constantly emitting intense fluctuations, and the incomparably sharp aura was like a raging wave, crazily churning. Even though they were separated by a great distance, their hearts were trembling. This gave everyone a premonition. If they truly wanted to use this precious treasure, then it was likely that they would be shattered by this aura.

The Hidden Spirit Mountain range was like an enraged ancient beast that could devour anything that approached it.

What made everyone happy was that the area within a hundred miles of the Spirit Hidden Cave was relatively calm.

Although the ripple had also covered the entire area, it was much weaker when compared to the surroundings. At the very least, it did not exceed the limits of the crowd and allowed them to freely enter and leave the Spirit Hidden Cave. This allowed them to avoid being confined or isolated by the mountain range.

"Master, what's going on?" A cultivator could not help but ask.

"I don't know either."

Ye Tingxiao shook his head and smiled, "However, everyone need not worry too much. No matter how much the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range changes, the Spirit Hidden Cave will continue to exist. Even if the Spirit Hidden Cave were to collapse one day, we would still have the strength to contend against the Dragon Clan. "

Finished speaking, Ye Tingxiao gave a meaningful glance at the crowd before diving down. In an instant, he had returned to the Spirit Hidden Cave. High up in the sky, the crowd couldn't help but look at each other in dismay. Ye Tingyun's words were light and casual, but for some reason, everyone was a little scared and jittery.

Could this Spirit Hidden Cave really collapse?

If that was really the case, when that day came, how could the countless cultivators of the Human Clan who had lost their sanctuary contend against the Dragon Clan? It had to be known that the Dragon Clan had a Great Elder of the Heavenly Emperor Realm, and the strongest person on the Spirit Hidden Cave Lord was still a Peak Heavenly King.

Even if the cave master was the strongest peak stage Heavenly King of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", he still wouldn't be a match for the Dragon Clan's Heavenly Emperor!

Even if something happened to the Dragon Clan Heavenly Emperor, it would be difficult for the cultivators of the Human Clan to fight him. On the Spirit Hidden Cave's side, although there were many people, most of them were below the Heavenly King Stage. A Heavenly King Stage powerhouse was not comparable to the Dragon Clan in terms of numbers.

At that time, if the Dragon Clan attacked on a large scale, wouldn't the human cultivators become the prey of the Dragon Clan?

All of a sudden, many of the cultivators had their doubts in their hearts. The cave master Ye Qiuyun was not someone who would speak nonsense. Could it be that the Spirit Hidden Cave had someone else to rely on but they didn't know?

This sudden change had broken the peace of the Spirit Hidden Cave for a long time.

In the space deep within the Spirit Hidden Cave where the roots of the "Nine Palace Glass" interweaved with each other, the roiling flames would also occasionally emit waves of hissing sounds.

Tang Huan still had her eyes closed as she sat cross-legged, not moving at all.

Refining the Celestial Fire made Tang Huan's firepower run out quickly like water.

Now, Tang Huan needed to continuously absorb the Chaotic Force from the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and refine it while at the same time. Fortunately, Tang Huan had refined the Chaotic Force even faster and was able to keep her firepower strong, so she wouldn't have to stop the refinement of the Immortal Flames.

Meanwhile, the Heavenly Emperor was calming down from his initial excitement. While suppressing the Immortal Fire and even the 'Mountain Crushing Seal', he was also absorbing the firepower that had been refined by the 'Dao Flame of Primal Chaos'.

Although Tang Huan and Heavenly Emperor Liu Li had not known each other for long, their teamwork was extremely tacit. Time quickly flowed by as the two refined and absorbed each other's energy.

Unknowingly, half a year had already passed.

"Roaaaaaar!"

An earth-shaking roar suddenly rang out.

A figure shot over from the distant horizon like a meteor. In an instant, it had arrived above the edge of the Hidden Spirit Mountain range, and was actually an enormous, golden dragon.

Its body was several thousand meters long, and a team of giant fleshy wings completely spread out. Its length had actually reached two times that of its body, and it seemed to cover the sky. On its huge head, two sharp horns pierced the sky like sharp swords, making it appear even more mighty.

Staring at the completely changed mountain range below, the golden dragon's eyes were filled with shock.

In the blink of an eye, it had risen several tens of thousands of meters into the air, and shot towards the depths of the mountain range with lightning speed. In the blink of an eye, it was already over a thousand kilometers away. However, right at this moment, a green figure suddenly appeared in the sky in front of the dragon, blocking its path.

The person who had come was Shuang Mei with her bright hair and was dressed in green. It was the Spirit Hidden Cave Lord, Ye Tingyun.

"Second Elder, long time no see. How have you been?"

Compared to the Golden Dragon Pang Shuo's body, Ye Tingyun was like a rock at the foot of a towering mountain. However, the aura that faintly seeped out from the Spirit Concealment Cave Lord's body was not any weaker than the Golden Dragon. "I originally thought that the one who came this time would be Great Elder Gu Keng, but I didn't expect it to be you. This old man is rather disappointed." Ye Qingyun shook her head, her face filled with disappointment.

Chapter 1909: Get lost!

The golden dragon's body rippled rapidly, and then it transformed into a muscular man dressed in golden robes.

On his face, rage suddenly flared and his two golden eyes stared straight at the Hidden Spirit Cave Lord, "Ye Tingyun, what the hell is that woman doing? The Hidden Spirit Mountain Range was created by the Lord Dragon God's' Mountain Flipping Seal '. With just that woman, how could she possibly hope to get rid of the shackles of this Divine Ranking? "

"This is simply daydreaming!"

Saying this, the golden-robed man laughed coldly, "If you see that woman later, you better help me persuade her and let her obediently stay in the Spirit Hidden Cave. If she continues to act so recklessly, it won't do her any good! The rage of this Mountain Flipping Seal is not something she can endure! "

Ye Tingxiao laughed involuntarily. "Cangxu, you don't need to speak lies to this old man. Don't you know that the rage of this' Mountain Flipping Seal 'has already lasted for half a year?"

Under normal circumstances, Heavenly Emperor Liu Li, as a part of the "Mountain Crushing Seal," would fight back against the Divine Grade Dao Artifact. No matter how hard she tried, she would only fail in the end.

According to his knowledge, about ten thousand years ago, Heavenly Emperor Glazed had already made such an attempt.

Of course, this was not the first time she had done this.

That time, she had fought against this 'Mountain Flipping Seal' for a full fifty years. The final result did indeed end in failure, and it even caused her to become extremely weak. In the end, she had to spend hundreds of years to recover.

However, the situation this time was very different.

While the Heavenly Emperor of Liu Li was defending against the Mountain Crushing Seal, Tang Huan was also refining the Immortal Fire Power, and the refined Immortal Fire Power was also continuously being absorbed by the Heavenly Emperor of Liu Li.

During this process, the power of the "Mountain-toppling Stamp" was being rapidly consumed and the strength of the Heavenly Emperor Glazed Beast was also being rapidly consumed. However, compared to this, the consumption rate of the "Mountain-toppling Stamp" was even faster.

In this situation, it went without saying how the final result would be.

This could be seen from the reaction of the "Mountain-toppling Stamp".

In the long years that had passed, Heavenly Emperor Glazed had tried many times and the Spirit Concealing Mountain Range had never moved, but this time, the soil, rocks and plants on the mountain surface were all crushed into fine powder and swept away. Even the original appearance of the "Mountain-toppling Stamp" was completely revealed.

Unfortunately, no matter how much the "Mountain Crushing Seal" did, it could not do anything to Heavenly Emperor Liu Li and Tang Huan.

Sky Emperor was just around the corner.

Thinking up to this point, Ye Tingyun could not help but feel relieved.

Hearing this, the golden-cloaked man's face became extremely gloomy. How could he not know what Ye Tingyun had said? After hearing the news that the Dragon Clan had sent back, he felt that the situation wasn't good, so he rushed over from the Dragon City without stopping to check out what was going on.

In this half a year, there had been countless nearby Dragon Clans sending him messages. He had mentally prepared himself.

However, after seeing the situation here with his own eyes, he was still shocked. In just half a year, the "Mountain Shifting Seal" had been forced to such an extent by the Heavenly Emperor Glaze. In the past, that woman had tried many times to get rid of the 'Mountain Crushing Seal', but she had all failed. Could it be that this time she would let him succeed?

The golden-gowned man's expression was uncertain. He suddenly said in a deep voice, "Ye Tingyun, you should know that the reason why my Dragon Clan had you all gathered in the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range all these years was to sharpen my Dragon Clan so that they would know that there are still great enemies in this 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace'. We do not dare to slack off in our cultivation. But that woman, if she were to separate herself from this Mountain Flipping Seal, then there would be no need for you to exist! "

"Cangxu, it's best if you don't put too much gold on the face of your Dragon Clan."

Hearing his words, the smile on Ye Tingxiao's face suddenly disappeared as he coldly snorted and said, "The existence of the Spirit Hidden Cave might really be able to help you temper the Dragon Clan, but that is only because you had no other choice. If you really have the ability to destroy the Spirit Hidden Cave, then you would have long made your move."

Cangxu couldn't help but feel somewhat embarrassed and annoyed that Ye Tingxiao had revealed his true intentions with a single sentence.

"Ye Tingyun, don't be complacent."

In a blink of an eye, Cang Xi shouted angrily, "This' Mountain Flipping Seal 'is a treasure left behind by Lord Dragon God, it is her honor for that woman to be able to fuse with it. Now that she does not know what's good for herself, and is extremely disrespectful to Lord Dragon God, my Dragon Clan will definitely not sit idly by. Ye Tingyun, don't blame my Dragon Clan for not showing mercy. If you want to blame someone, blame it on that woman."

Ye Tingxiao's eyes narrowed slightly as he slowly said, "Cangxu, are you threatening this old man?"

Cangxu laughed and viciously said, "You can believe that!"

"Cangxu, you're quite courageous. You actually dare to say such words in front of me. Aren't you afraid that you won't be able to leave the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range even if you can enter?" Ye Tingyun narrowed her eyes as she stared at Cangxu, a hint of ridicule could be seen in her eyes.

"Hmm?"

Cang Xu's pupils constricted and his face darkened, as if he recalled an unbearable past. A trace of undetectable anger and fear flashed across his bell-like eyes, and he growled with gritted teeth, "Ye Tingyun, do you still think that it's still five hundred years ago? "That time, your father was careless and you were lucky enough to win. But if you want to fight your father again, you will never have the chance to win!"

His words were full of vigor, but his expression clearly showed that he was trying to put on a show of strength.

"Really?" This old man really wants to give it a try! "

At almost the same instant he finished speaking, his green robe seemed to have been blown by a violent wind and began to flutter. An exceptionally terrifying aura surged out from his body like a volcanic eruption, immediately setting off a terrifying storm in the sky. In an instant, it was as if the apocalypse had arrived. The air distorted intensely, as if it could break at any time.

When he felt this frightening aura, the heartstrings trembled, and he almost reflexively retreated backwards by a hair's breadth.

However, just as he had retreated a short hundred meters, Cang Xu suddenly woke up. His face was red and his previous reaction had made him both embarrassed and angry.

Five hundred years ago, in the battle against Ye Meiyun, he had been defeated miserably. He had the same cultivation level, but from start to finish, he was completely crushed by the other party. The shadow brought upon him by that tragic defeat had not been erased even today.

"Scram!"

Ye Tingyun chuckled lightly and then waved her hand towards Cang Xu as if she was driving away a fly.

Gongxu keenly sensed the disdain in the other party's expression and felt as if his head was about to explode. His face turned from red to green, then to green, then to black, and he almost bit his teeth to pieces. He roared out almost word by word, "Ye Tingyun, are you humiliating me?"

Chapter 1910 - Arrival at large

"You're right!"

Ye Tingxiao smiled indifferently and said, "Cangxu, you're right. It's not five hundred years ago. 500 years ago, I could have spared your life, but today I won't be so lucky. I'll give you five breaths of time. If you are still in front of me after five breaths of time, then leave your life behind! "

Ye Tingyun said those words calmly, but the killing intent in his tone was like the clouds in the sky.

Ghaus' expression changed, and he suddenly became nervous.

In the beginning, when he came to the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range to investigate the situation, he hadn't harbored the intention of comparing himself with Ye Meiyun, but when he truly stood in front of the Spirit Hidden Cave Master, he discovered that he did not have the slightest confidence in defeating him.

At this moment, he was slightly regretful.

If he had known this earlier, he would not have rejected the Third Elder's request to travel with him when he left the Dragon City. If he had teamed up with the Third Elder, then even if he could not defeat Ye Tingyun and fight him to a draw, it would not have been a problem.

"Ye Tingyun, don't go too far!" After a moment, he couldn't help but roar.

"It has already been two breaths of time. You don't have much time left."

Ye Tingxiao indifferently glanced at Cangxu, the look in his eyes seemed to become more and more dangerous. Within his body, there seemed to be a surge of frenzied energy unceasingly surging about. A tyrannical aura permeated his body, ready to explode forth with earth-shattering might at any moment.

"You ..."

Gobi's face flickered with uncertainty. Gritting his teeth, he turned and left.

He really wanted to act tough, but at this moment, his reason overcame his impulse.

The instant he turned around, an intense feeling of shame and resentment uncontrollably surged out from the depths of his soul. The dignified second elder of the Dragon Clan had actually fled without fighting when he was facing the cave master of the Hidden Spirit Cave. If this news spread, he would lose a lot of face in the Dragon Palace.

This would even have an extremely negative impact on the other Dragon Clan s.

However, his life was precious. He didn't care too much now, and his speed was instantly pushed to the limit. In an instant, the tall and sturdy golden-coloured figure disappeared into the horizon.

After watching Cang Xu leave, Ye Tingyun withdrew the smile on his face and a serious expression appeared on his face.

Cang Xu, the second clan elder of Dragon Clan, had left the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range, but would never go far. In a few months, many Dragon Clan Warriors would probably arrive and kill them all.

He really wanted to get rid of Cang Wen just now, but if Cang Xu died, the Heavenly Emperor of Dragon Clan would definitely take action.

Right now, it was the crucial time for Heavenly Emperor Liu Li, Tang Huan and the Mountain Flipping Seal to fight and refine their Immortal Flames. If the Dragon Clan Heavenly Emperor came over, it might cause a change to the situation. On the other hand, if Cang Xu was still alive, he definitely wouldn't dare to rouse the Dragon Clan Heavenly Emperor. This was because not long after that old fellow had returned from the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range, he had started cultivating in seclusion and had yet to come out.

If it was in the past, it would not matter how many Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan there were.

But before Heavenly Emperor Liu Li managed to get rid of the "Mountain Crushing Seal," no one could guarantee that the Dragon Clan Rankers would be able to help this Divine Ranked Dao Artifact. And this was what Heavenly Emperor Liu Li had instructed him to do. If the Dragon Clan were to attack heavily, he had to do his best to stop them.

"I need to prepare first."

With a light mutter, Ye Tingyun immediately shot towards the direction of the Spirit Hidden Cave.

Deep inside the Spirit Hidden Cave, inside the space weaved by the roots of the "Nine Palace Glass", the Heavenly Emperor Glazed Light, who had been silent for a long time, suddenly shouted in excitement, "Tang Huan ... "Little brother, let's work harder. I can feel that the 'Mountain-toppling Stamp' will not be able to hold on for long!"

"Don't worry, Sister Liu Li."

Tang Huan still had her eyes closed, and laughed lightly: "At this rate, perhaps in less than a year, we will be able to complete the refinement of the Immortal Flames ahead of time." As she spoke, Tang Huan's activation of the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" and his absorption of the energy of primal chaos also did not slow down in the slightest.

Not only did Heavenly Emperor Liu Li notice that the "Mountain-toppling Stamp" was almost at its end, Tang Huan also noticed it with his sharp senses.

At the beginning, the "Mountain Crushing Seal" was extremely aggressive, wanting to use its power to suppress the Heavenly Emperor Glazed Glass, and then quickly wipe out Tang Huan, this troublesome person. However, it had overestimated itself, underestimated Heavenly Emperor Glazed, and even underestimated Tang Huan, who possessed the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame".

As more and more of the Celestial Flame's firepower was refined, it had become increasingly weak.

The fire waves that were transmitted to the Fire Seed had already clearly highlighted this point, which made Tang Huan and Heavenly Emperor Liu Li even more confident.

"Little brother Tang Huan, you have given me such a big help. Elder sister should think of a way to thank you." Heavenly Emperor Liu Li said with a smile.

"Big Sister Liu Li, there's no need. The Flower of Life you gave me was already enough." Tang Huan didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"How can that be? One is a greeting gift, the other is a gift of thanks. How can the two be confused?" Heavenly Emperor Liu Li snorted, and said snappily.

"There's no hurry. It won't be too late when you escape, Big Sister Liu Li." Tang Huan said helplessly.

"Alright then!"

"..."

Once again, the entire space had become silent. The only sound that could be heard was the unceasing whistling of the firepower.

A few months quietly passed by.

Within the Spirit Hidden Cave, a tense and depressing atmosphere suddenly swirled. Just like before, all the Heavenly King Stage powerhouses had already gone all out, even those that had cultivated for many years were no exception. Currently, in this long valley, there were only a few thousand Heavenly King Stage and below cultivators left.

According to the news that the Heavenly Kings revealed before they left, it seemed that many Dragon Clan Rankers had arrived on a large scale. Their arrival seemed to be related to the change that occurred in the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range in the last year.

Perhaps, a great battle would soon occur.

Everyone gathered in one place. There was absolute silence, and they were all deeply worried.

Although they wanted to help, the battle between the Heavenly King Stage powerhouses was not something that they could interfere in. They could only wait here quietly for news outside.

At the edge of the Hidden Spirit Mountain range, a dense killing intent filled the air.

Ye Tingyun, Wang Yichun and a thousand other Heavenly Kings stood in the sky with solemn expressions. And in front of them, were the figures of Dragon Clan experts.

There were Pterosaur, Gale Sword Dragon, Blood Dragon, Two-headed Eagle Dragon ... The number of Dragon Clan Heavenly King Rankers was more than the number of Human Clan Heavenly Kings, it was already more than a thousand. There were also many types of them, some were large, some were small and some were thin.

Some of the Dragon Clan Warriors still retained their original appearances, while some had already taken human forms.

Terrifying auras roared out from the bodies, colliding with the auras of the Human Clan's Heavenly King with a loud bang. The air between the two of them shook intensely, as though a stormy wave had been set off.
