

W. Master 1951

Chapter 1951

"Hand over the 'Nirvana Divine Flame' to me, and not only will you live, you will also be able to preserve the strength that you have accumulated over the years."

"But if you are captured by me, not only will you not be able to protect the 'Nirvana Divine Flame', you might even lose your life. As for the energy that you have accumulated in the world inside your body, I believe that by that time, you would have expended most of it, right?"

"..."

The fire phoenix in front of him did not reply.

Tang Huan unwittingly laughed, and did not mind, continuing her chase.

From the south to the north, from the east to the west ...

The scene of Tang Huan chasing and killing the fire phoenix was seen by a few lucky cultivators from time to time. After that, the scene was vividly described by their mouths, and then crazily spread throughout the entire Scarlet Radiance sky. Countless people were shocked by the powerful strength of the Upper Sky King, and more so by Tang Huan's cultivation speed.

Tang Huan's limelight became unparalleled at this moment.

Unknowingly, ten days had passed.

"If we go any further, we'll reach the end of the Crimson Light Sky!"

In the western part of the Scarlet Radiance Heaven's Primal Chaos, Tang Huan's voice suddenly reverberated in the air above the boundless desert.

Tang Huan had been in hot pursuit of the fire phoenix from start to finish. In these ten days, he had exhausted a large amount of Chaotic Force but the fire phoenix's speed still did not show any signs of slowing down.

However, since it had already come to this, Tang Huan naturally could not give up.

The existence of this fire phoenix was a great threat to him, as well as to the Jade Imperial City and the Royal Dragon Heavenly Mansion. Once it was allowed to escape, it would definitely come back in the future. It might be decades, or even hundreds of years ... Tang Huan was now an Upper Sky King, he could not stay in the Crimson Light Heavens forever.

Tang Huan had to completely remove this hidden danger this time.

Speaking of which, the reason Feng Ming could appear today, was because of the Fire Phoenix's embodiment. It wasn't wrong to say that it was Feng Ming's creator. But even so, Tang Huan could not be lenient towards it, and in the same way, if it met Feng Ming, it would definitely not let him go.

"..."

The Flamephoenix still didn't respond, only rapidly shuttling through the void.

After a while, the misty white spatial barrier entered Tang Huan's line of sight and at this moment, the fiery phoenix, that bright red figure, was right in front of the spatial barrier.

However, the fire phoenix didn't slow down in the slightest.

"It wants to enter the void of darkness!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan understood the Fire Phoenix's intentions, and her expression couldn't help but change.

In a situation where it could not escape its pursuers, it actually wanted to flee into the void of darkness. If a normal cultivator entered the void of darkness, it would be no different from courting death. However, if it was a fire phoenix, Tang Huan did not think it would be the same.

Even if it had entered the void of darkness, it would definitely have a way to determine the direction and not lose itself within. Furthermore, with the power it had accumulated, it shouldn't be too difficult to break through the spatial barrier of the Crimson Twilight.

"We can't let it escape!"

This thought immediately popped out from Tang Huan's mind.

However, it was impossible for Tang Huan to follow him in as well. This meant that once the fire phoenix broke through the spatial barrier in the sky, it would be able to escape from its pursuer. Furthermore, all the efforts it had put in these past few days would have been in vain.

Just as he was thinking, a few kilometers away, the Flamephoenix's body was covered in raging flames. The terrifying power surged violently, like an ancient volcano about to erupt. The violent aura spread out in all directions, and in the blink of an eye, it had filled a radius of a thousand miles.

"Fire Phoenix, what is this?"

Tang Huan suddenly shouted out explosively, and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" suddenly flashed and shot explosively towards the fire phoenix. An abnormally wonderful aura roiled and raged between heaven and earth, and in an instant, it had spread to the surroundings of the fire phoenix.

"This is ..."

The Flamephoenix was stunned and she immediately cried out in horror as she turned her head to look behind her, "A magic tool? How could you have a magical equipment? "

It was very clear that Tang Huan's goal was to stop it, but the moment it sensed the aura, it acted a little uncontrollably. Even though it had already awoken from its stupor after a short while, an abnormally fierce and blazing power was like a violent storm as it smashed towards the spatial barrier with an overpowering momentum.

However, in this moment of delay, Tang Huan's figure had already appeared several hundred meters away from it.

Tang Huan had not wanted to use the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" at all to attract its attention, because he could not be sure whether or not the Fire Phoenix she was chasing after was its main body. If the Fire Phoenix was the same as the phoenix in the lower realm, who only had embodiment, then the news of it possessing a magical artifact could very well be leaked out.

But at this time, Tang Huan couldn't care so much anymore.

The Fire Phoenix had vast knowledge, and it was unknown how long it had lived for, but normal things simply could not attract its attention, and could only delay it for a short while. Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had already been used outside the Jade Emperor City, and his deity avatar was also very useful, only this "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" could do it.

The facts proved that this "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was effective.

In that moment of delay, it was enough for Tang Huan to stop it. The moment the boundless power erupted from the fire phoenix, Tang Huan had already activated the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", causing pebbles the size of a baby's fist to whiz towards the fire phoenix with lightning speed like a shooting star.

It was also at this moment that, in front of the Fire Phoenix's body, on top of the spatial barrier, a dark black spatial hole was forcibly smashed out by the frightening power. It expanded at an astonishing speed to the surrounding area, and in half a blink of an eye, it had already expanded to a radius of several thousand meters.

"Clang!"

The Flamephoenix let out an angry cry, and her bright red eyes seemed to spit fire.

At this time, if it continued to rush towards the spatial hole, it was likely that it would be smashed by the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" that Tang Huan had activated before it could even sink into it. The passageway to escape was right in front of its eyes, but it could only watch helplessly. At this moment, the anger in its heart could not be described with words.

"Tang Huan, you damned bastard!"

With a roar, the Flamephoenix spread her wings and viciously swatted at the "Primal Chaos Crystal." Powerful and blazing energy swept out from her wings in a crazy manner. In an instant, it seemed to have turned into a torrent of flames that condensed into a torrent, seemingly able to melt all obstacles between heaven and earth.

In a split-second, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" collided head on with the torrent of energy, and the incomparably berserk Strength Qi swept out like a hurricane towards its surroundings. At almost the same time, the hole in space that had been blasted open by the fire phoenix quickly closed, and the spatial barrier returned to its original state.

Chapter 1952 - Endless Outcomes

With Tang Huan's use of all her strength, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" continued to take advantage of the blazing torrent of attacks and smashed towards the wings of the fire phoenix. Almost at the same time, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" appeared at the side, dragging an excited buzzing sound, and together with the Origin Crystal, it smashed towards the fire phoenix.

"Whoosh."

The fire phoenix's wings were like knives as they crazily danced about.

After an instant, it was as if countless fiery red and sharp blade lights exploded around Pang Shuo's body, and countless slashes seemed to have been cut open in the vast space that they passed through. In almost an instant, the fiery red blade-light that filled the sky had already covered both the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and "Nine Yang Divine Furnace".

"Boom! Boom!"

In a split-second, a series of concentrated collision sounds resounded between the heaven and earth.

The fiercely burning Strength Qi was like a wave, rolling out wave after wave in all directions. Immediately after, the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" shot out, returning to Tang Huan's side. The fiery red blade-light that filled the sky, also crumbled into nothingness.

"Tang Huan, I didn't want to fight to the death with you."

The fire phoenix's eyes were vicious to the extreme as it roared loudly, "But you won't let go no matter what. Since that's the case, don't blame me for not letting you go!"

"That's exactly what I want!"

Tang Huan laughed out loud, and the moment she said that, her body split into two.

The moment the avatar of the immortal body was revealed, it began to expand rapidly. In an instant, it turned into a massive giant that was over a thousand meters tall. Its entire body seemed to glow with a faint golden light.

With a swipe of his hand, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" landed in the palm of the golden giant.

Subsequently, the Origin Crystal began to rapidly expand like an inflatable ball. In the blink of an eye, the baby's fist-sized Origin Crystal reached three thousand meters.

"Clone?" Immortal Body? "

After looking at Tang Huan and the golden giant for a while, the fire phoenix revealed a shocked expression, but in the next moment, it could not help but sneer, "So what if you have an Immortal body clone? However, do you think that just with an extra Godly King like you, you would be able to win against me? "

As he spoke, the fire phoenix stood up all the feathers on its body like a hedgehog.

At this moment, each of its feathers seemed to have turned into a sharp blade made up of condensed flames. A blazing and sharp aura spread out from its body, and in an instant, it engulfed every inch of the surrounding space.

"If we can't defeat him, we'll know when we try."

Tang Huan laughed lightly. Her figure flashed and she actually hid behind the Immortal Body's clone, disappearing without a trace along with the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace'. Right at this moment, the divine clone suddenly took a step forward, and the enormous' chaos source crystal 'in her hand viciously shot towards the Flamephoenix.

"Hu!"

An ear-piercing whistling sound rang out, and it seemed as if the sky would be smashed apart by this strike.

The Flamephoenix was on guard, but after Tang Huan dodged into the Immortal Body avatar, she completely disappeared from his senses.

Even if it pushed its consciousness to the extreme, it would still be difficult for it to sense his existence. It was as if that fellow had never appeared here before ... It had always been full of confidence in its own Perception Ability, yet it continued to be humiliated by Tang Huan.

First, it did not sense the existence of Tang Huan and the three Highest Heavenly Kings outside of the Jade Emperor City, and now, Tang Huan had concealed herself right under its nose.

"Clang!"

Amidst the urgent and resounding screeching, the Flamephoenix swung her body and countless blade-like feathers flew off her body. They turned into streaks of fiery red light that covered the sky as they whizzed forward. A sharp sound pierced through the air, condensing into a huge sound wave, as if it was about to tear the world apart.

In the blink of an eye, the torrent of fire slammed into the 'chaos origin crystal' that was being thrown at it.

"Bam!"

Amidst the heaven shaking explosion, the violent and violent Strength Qi surged out in all directions, causing the space to distort severely, as though it could collapse at any time. At this moment, the area within a hundred mile radius was filled with flying sand and rocks. The sky and earth were completely dark, as if they were filled with an exceptionally frightening storm.

Under such a violent collision, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" immediately shot backwards like lightning. After receiving such an attack, Pang Shuo's body also rapidly retreated, and in an instant, he was already twenty to thirty miles away. However, not only did the fire phoenix not relax, but the alarm in its heart grew even stronger.

"Whooosh."

It was also at this moment that the cry sounded. The fire phoenix suddenly felt an incomparably majestic power of sucking that poured down from the sky like a waterfall. The aura faintly emitted by the sucking was exactly the same as Tang Huan's furnace shaped artifact. There was almost no difference.

"Tang Huan!"

As expected, the cauldron had already appeared thousands of meters above the sky without any forewarning. It was already like the "Primal Chaos Crystal", expanding countless times as the huge mouth of the cauldron faced its head, as if it wanted to suck it in.

"Hu!"

With a cold snort, the Flamephoenix's body rolled out of the ground.

Immediately after, a Pang Shuo's wing appeared beside the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace". However, in a split-second of effort, a loud noise like that of metal breaking stone resounded throughout the world, and the wings of the wings, which were wrapped in a blazing Strength Qi that was like monstrous waves, slammed onto the cauldron.

The cauldron directly swept out and the powerful sucking's energy naturally dissipated into nothingness.

However, the fire phoenix did not relax in the slightest. Instead, it became even more vigilant. Even though this Tang Huan is only a middle level Heavenly King, his methods and treasures are endless.

Just now, at the instant it had slammed its hand into the cauldron, it had felt a powerful sword intent that caused even its own heart to tremble uncontrollably. That sword intent was majestic and vast. Then, a snow-white sword beam came from the side and swiftly cut into the roots of the Flamephoenix's wings.

This sword intent was like a massive river rushing down from the highest heavens, unstoppable.

At this time, the Flamephoenix had no time to dodge, nor did she have the time to travel through space. She could only retract her wings as a violent flame rose from them.

The flame actually emitted a sparkling and translucent luster, and the moment it appeared, the surrounding heat seemed to have all been sucked in, yet all stayed within the flame without dispersing, like a volcano that was about to erupt. The molten lava churned within, but it did not leak out at all.

"Bam!"

Violent clashing sounds erupted, and at the moment the snow-white sword beam slashed down on the fire phoenix, the sparkling fiery red flames followed the sword beam and intertwined with it. The heat in the flame immediately started to erupt layer by layer, and after a flick of his finger, the white sword beam that contained a monstrous sword intent was destroyed and melted away.

Chapter 1953 - Azure Dragon Sect

"This is your 'Nirvana Divine Flame'?"

In his hand was a sparkling and translucent snow-white longsword, and an intense feeling of intelligence lingered within the sword. The cauldron that had been broken down, once again returned to Tang Huan's side, slowly swirling around him, as if it had turned into a living being.

But in an instant, Tang Huan and the cauldron once again mysteriously disappeared, and no trace of Qi remained.

"Tang Huan!"

This was because at the same time Tang Huan's original body disappeared, Pang Shuang's Immortal Body doppelgänger actually rushed back, throwing out the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" once again. Wherever it passed, there would be a loud whistling sound, and the space around it would intensely tremble as well.

An instant later, another explosive sound resounded, it was the Fire Phoenix who opened her mouth and spat out a huge fireball which landed on the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal". The blazing Strength Qi was like a raging storm that rolled in all directions, turning all obstacles into ashes.

But just at that moment, Tang Huan's figure appeared again, and another snow white sword ray swept towards the Flowing Gold Fire Phoenix's wings.

"Boom!" "Boom ~ ~ ~"

The Strength Qi churned, the world trembled, and the sound of metal breaking stone resounded one after another.

Around ten thousand miles away, on the peak that pierced the clouds, a dozen figures stood in the air. They looked to the west and although they could not see anything, they could still hear the terrifying sound from time to time. Among the mountain ranges, there were even more figures that would occasionally soar into the sky, and all of them were in a state of panic.

These people were all cultivators of the Azure Dragon Sect.

The Azure Dragon School was one of the sects closest to the barrier in the western part of the Crimson Waves Sect. It had medium strength, three Heaven Lords, and tens of thousands of cultivators.

The sudden commotion in the west immediately alarmed everyone in the Azure Dragon School.

The surrounding area of the Azure Dragon School had always been relatively calm, and there had never been any major changes. And right now, this kind of apocalyptic scene had never occurred before.

That sound most likely originated from near the spatial barrier, which made it extremely far away. But even so, the mountain that was the base of the sect was trembling, as though it could collapse at any time ... Everyone was shocked and anxious when they saw what had happened.

If that commotion were to spread over here, wouldn't the Azure Dragon School, which had been in existence for tens of thousands of years, be turned into ashes in the blink of an eye?

"Who the hell is fighting over there?"

In the sky above the peak, a thin old man with a head full of white hair couldn't help but speak with a trembling voice, but his eyes were already wide open and his pupils were filled with fear.

"To be able to cause such a commotion, the two must be Heavenly Kings."

A tall and sturdy old man wearing a black robe said in a deep voice. He was the Sect Master of the Azure Dragon School, Yuan Zhan.

Although he appeared calmer than the thin old man, Yuan Zhan's brows were also enveloped in a thick layer of fear. Even from thousands of miles away, one could clearly feel the terrifying power of the battle.

Even a fifth-grade marquis like him would vanish into thin air in an instant if he was caught in the crossfire.

"Heavenly King? Why would the King of Heaven come to our place? "

A middle-aged brute could not help but say, "Furthermore, we do not even have many Heaven Kings in the Crimson Radiance Sect. They should all be in Jade Imperial City ..." Speaking to here, the middle-aged man seemed to have thought of something and his voice abruptly stopped. His pair of eyes became rounder and rounder as he said in a trembling voice, "Mo ... Could it be... "

"Tang Huan! Heaven Dao Holy Academy's Principal, Tang Huan! "

Yuan Zhan immediately snapped out of his daze, his eyes wide open as he exclaimed, "That's right, it must be him!" The one fighting him was definitely the fire phoenix! He never thought that Dean Tang Huan, who was chasing after the fire phoenix, would actually come to this place ... This is too surprising. "

At the end of his words, the shock in Yuan Zhan's eyes had already been replaced by unconcealable excitement.

"Dean Tang Huan!"

"Fire Phoenix?"

"..."

When the surrounding people heard this, after a moment of astonishment, they all became inexplicably excited.

To their group of Blue Dragon Sect cultivators, especially those below the Sky Marquis, whether it was the Fire Phoenix or Tang Huan, they were all legendary existences. But now, no matter if it was Tang Huan, who was regarded as the number one person in Crimson Radiance Sect, or the ferocious and impressive fire phoenix, both had arrived nearby.

"If I cannot personally witness such a great battle, I will definitely regret it for the rest of my life."

Yuan Zhan laughed heartily. "I'm going over to check on the situation. You guys stay here and don't come near so that you won't be able to dodge in time and lose your lives."

"Grand master, I'll go with you." The skinny old man could not help but ask.

A short while later, Sect Master Yuan Zhan and the other four marquis had already flown off into the distance.

Although the rest of the Blue Dragon Sect cultivators also wanted to take a look, they could only helplessly watch as their figures disappeared from their line of sight. In a battle between Upper Sky Kings, if they rushed over, they would be affected very easily. With their cultivation, if they met with any danger, they would not even be able to escape.

Although it was dangerous for Yuan Zhan and the others to be near the battlefield, they still had a better chance of protecting themselves.

Several people moved as fast as lightning. As they moved forward, the vibrations in their minds became more intense. They were still thousands of miles away, but the ground below them was covered with ravines and ravines.

The four of them looked at each other in astonishment. No matter how excited they were, they could not help but tremble with fear at this moment.

After walking forward for another thousand miles, the few of them stopped. At this place, they could faintly make out the faint undulations in the distance and could clearly capture the terrifying aura that was roaring nonstop in front of them. This caused Yuan Zhan's group to be extremely shocked.

After a long while of trembling, the terrifying commotion in front of them finally showed signs of collapsing.

It was as if the outcome of the battle was about to be decided.

The four of them exchanged glances. After a moment, they finally mustered up the courage to continue advancing forward. Just as they had expected, the battle near the spatial barrier had indeed reached its final phase.

Tang Huan's original body and his Immortal body took turns fighting the Fire Phoenix. The Immortal Body clone relied on its strong flesh body and "Chaos Source Crystal" to face off against the Fire Phoenix head on, while the original body relied on the Space Moving.

"Primal Chaos Origin Crystal", "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", "Pure Yang Divine Sword", "Primal Chaos Dao Flame", and other treasures and methods came one after another. The fire phoenix was able to easily deal with them at the beginning, but as time went by, it became more and more unable to make ends meet, and completely ignored them.

Chapter 1954 Is it too late?

"Tang Huan, you despicable and sinister villain, if you have the ability then fight me fair and square!"

The fire phoenix was enraged to the extreme. At this moment, its appearance was unusually miserable. Fresh blood dripped from the flesh on its body. The two wings looked even more miserable. One of them had been snapped off from its roots and was now completely hanging down. Even though its cultivation had reached such a level and its recovery ability was peerless, its body was still not Tang Huan's copy of the Sun Immortal Body. It would not be able to immediately heal and recover to its original state.

Although its strength was not worth mentioning when compared to when it was at its peak, it had never encountered any setbacks since its rebirth.

From the Dan Sea Realm to the Flowing Flower Domain Realm, the only reason it had taken so long to travel was to recover its strength, rather than using a large teleportation array to quickly arrive.

Up till now, although it had not reached the Heavenly Emperor Realm, its cultivation was at least twice as strong as when it was chasing and killing Tang Huan ten years ago.

However, even then, he was still not Tang Huan's opponent.

It would have been fine if the person fighting against it was a Heavenly Emperor Realm Ranker, but its opponent was Tang Huan who was forced to flee in a sorry state more than ten years ago, and was even forced into such a dangerous situation by Tang Huan ... This huge contrast made it feel a great sense of humiliation.

"Fire Phoenix, you have lived for such a long time, yet you can still say such laughable words!"

The voice was like a thunderclap that exploded between heaven and earth, and the one who spoke was naturally not Tang Huan himself, but the Immortal Body Avatar. Before the words had even finished speaking, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had once again appeared in front of the Fire Phoenix with the force of a thunderbolt, seemingly capable of shattering all obstacles.

After battling for so long, the surface of the avatar of Immortals was covered in wounds.

In particular, a huge gash appeared on his chest, extending from his left shoulder blade all the way to his right abdomen. The gash was so large that golden blood continuously dripped from it.

It was cut by the wings of the fire phoenix.

However, even though the wound looked extremely frightening, it did not harm Tang Huan's vitals. Furthermore, the flesh on the wound was also wiggling rapidly, and the cracks were starting to heal at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye. Before long, the wound would completely close up.

"Clang!"

The Flamephoenix let out an angry cry and struggled to flap her unbroken wing. A blazing force then surged out like a broken dam, roaring towards the Origin Crystal.

After the deafening chime had finished, the Strength Qi violently rumbled and the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" paused for a moment. However, the fire phoenix's body flew outwards as if riding on a cloud, and in an instant, it was already several tens of kilometers away. While in the air, the body of the fire phoenix suddenly flipped, and a strange fluctuation appeared on the surface of its body.

In a split-second, the figure of the Fire Phoenix disappeared from the sky.

"Isn't it too late to run now?"

But right at this moment, a sneer sounded out.

In a split-second, the space within a few thousand meters of where the Flamephoenix had disappeared began to fluctuate rapidly. Immediately, a fiery figure emerged from the void. It was none other than the Flamephoenix. Right after it, another figure flashed out, shockingly, it was Tang Huan.

"Slash ..."

A sound that was like splitting silk suddenly burst out, Tang Huan lightly waved his right hand, and a snow white sword light shot towards the fire phoenix at lightning speed.

A blazing flame once again rose from the Flowing Gold Fire Phoenix.

The instant the sword beam landed on his body, the flames engulfed it. However, in this situation, the fire phoenix's "Nirvana Divine Flame" was clearly unable to achieve the same result it had at the beginning. Before the firepower erupted, the sword glow had already turned into an incomparably sharp force that wildly wreaked havoc.

In the blink of an eye, the flames were torn apart, and the sharp Strength Qi landed directly on the Fire Phoenix's body.

"Bam!"

After a violent collision sound, the Flamephoenix let out a muffled groan. Her body was like a meteorite falling from the sky, uncontrollably falling into a deep ravine below. The incomparably ferocious Strength Qi had the Fire Phoenix at its center as it fell from the sky, as it rolled in all directions, causing countless dust and sand to swirl in the air.

In not even a breath's time, the ravine became a deep and huge pit.

In the depths of the pit, the figure of the Fire Phoenix could be seen hidden under the cover of the dust and sand.

"Hu!"

A howl suddenly rose. It was actually the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" that was thrown into the hole by Tang Huan's divine body. BOOM! After a loud explosion, the dust and sand turned into a ten thousand meter tall wave that howled wildly at the surroundings. The originally huge hole immediately expanded rapidly at a speed that was difficult to see with the naked eye.

High up in the sky, Tang Huan raised his eyebrows slightly. In between his mind instructs (in a second), the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" had already appeared.

If an ordinary Upper Sky King were to be smashed like this by a "Primal Chaos Source Crystal," even if it didn't die, it would at least be severely injured. However, the Fire Phoenix was different.

"Rise!"

The Immortal body instantly let out a loud roar, and the "chaos source crystal" flew out of the hole and began to shrink rapidly. However, Tang Huan did not give the Fire Phoenix any room to recover, the Ten Thousand Swords Heavenly Diagram that was already fully opened immediately filled the blank space created by the departure of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal".

The mountain and river painting seemed to have turned into a living creature as the tens of thousands of mountains and peaks rapidly rotated in the air. The terrifying energy of the sucking spread out and enveloped the blurry fiery red figure at the bottom of the hole.

"Hu!"

A moment later, the fiery red figure soared into the sky and entered the mountain range. When it reappeared, it was already at the edge of the Supreme Xuan Lake.

"I've finally succeeded!"

Seeing that, Tang Huan heaved a sigh of relief.

In the blink of an eye, the avatar of the Immortal Body quickly shrunk and merged into Tang Huan's body. The "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" was also the size of a baby's fist, and when it fell into his palm, the tens of thousands of mountains instantly disappeared. The Mountain and River Painting Scroll reappeared again and floated in front of Tang Huan.

After tossing and turning for so long, he finally managed to capture the fire phoenix in the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace".

At this moment, Tang Huan felt as if his entire being had relaxed. In these ten days, although Tang Huan appeared relaxed, he was actually extremely nervous. The Fire Phoenix's speed of spatial travel was too fast. Tang Huan needed to focus all of his attention in order to be able to firmly follow it and not let it escape from his perception range.

In the battle just now, although Tang Huan seemed to have mastered the art with ease, his heart was even more tensed.

Furthermore, it could travel through space to escape at any time, so Tang Huan didn't dare to have even the slightest bit of distraction. In the end, he had to rely on his Immortal Body's close coordination with it to completely suppress the Fire Phoenix in this area.

Now that he had succeeded, it was as if Tang Huan had removed a heavy shackle and his entire being relaxed.

Chapter 1955 - Suicide?

"Is it over?"

Thousands of kilometers away, Yuan Zhan and the other three people of the Azure Dragon Sect couldn't help but look at each other in dismay.

On the other side of the spatial barrier, the activity that had persisted for such a long time finally stopped. The world had regained its calm, but an exceptionally terrifying aura still remained in the air.

The four of them hesitated for a while before bravely advancing.

If the battle were to continue, none of them would dare to go any closer. The noise was too frightening, and just the aura that it emitted already made their hearts tremble.

If they didn't keep their distance, even if they were Sky Marquis, they might not be able to guarantee their own safety.

Now that the battle was over, there was no need to worry about being affected anymore. Right now, the only thing to worry about was whether the winner was Tang Huan or the Flamephoenix.

If Tang Huan won, they would naturally be completely safe.

However, if it was the Flamephoenix who won, they would end up like the other "Pill Sea Realm" cultivators and completely turn into ashes.

The four figures flew through the air at high speed. The closer they got to the spatial barrier, the more terrifying the marks on the ground beneath them became.

The vast desert no longer had its original appearance. Huge and deep cracks spread out like spider webs. Between the cracks were many extremely large holes. The smallest one had a radius of several dozen kilometers, and the largest one had a radius of several hundred kilometers ... They were all bottomless.

From these scars, one could tell how fierce the battle just now had been.

Before long, Yuan Zhan and the rest saw the spatial barrier. However, other than that, they couldn't see Tang Huan or the fire phoenix.

The four of them tried to use their minds to investigate their surroundings.

However, even after they had pushed their senses to the maximum, they still could not detect any trace of Tang Huan and the fire phoenix.

"It can't be... Both sides will suffer, and both sides will perish together, right? " The skinny old man couldn't help but ask.

"Impossible."

Upon hearing this, Yuan Zhan shook his head without hesitation, "If we were to perish together, it's impossible for us to leave no trace behind. "This battle, there must be a side that has achieved complete victory."

Yuan Zhan paused for a moment, then spoke with determination, "The victor will undoubtedly be Principal Tang Huan. After victory, Dean Tang Huan brought the fire phoenix and left the place. Unfortunately, we came a step too late and were unable to meet with Principal Tang Huan. "

Yuan Zhan sighed with a regretful expression.

"Sovereign, why do you say that?" The middle-aged man asked in surprise.

"Of course it's intuition!"

"If the fire phoenix had the power to defeat Dean Tang Huan, it would have defeated Dean Tang Huan outside of Jade Emperor City a long time ago. How would it be possible for it to be chased by Dean Tang Huan for such a long time, from the Flowing Flower Region Realm all the way to this extremely western region of the Crimson Light sky?"

When the thin old man and the middle-aged man heard this, they couldn't help but roll their eyes.

For the fire phoenix to be able to flee for so long under the pursuit of Dean Tang Huan and for so long a distance, it showed that it was extremely strong.

Even if it was inferior to Dean Tang Huan, the gap between them was probably limited. In addition, in a battle of this level, as long as you were slightly careless, Dean Tang Huan could very possibly get injured by the fire phoenix or be killed by it ... Even if it was herself, Dean Tang Huan would probably not dare to say that she had to win.

However, the old man and others didn't retort.

Deep in their hearts, they, like their sect master Yuan Zhan, also hoped for Tang Huan to obtain the final victory. Only if Tang Huan won, would the Heavenly Law Palace be able to persevere on and the existence of the Heavenly Dao Academy would not be a bad thing for the Blue Dragon Sect.

Not willing to give up, Yuan Zhan and the rest wandered around the area for a long time, but to no avail. Only then did they leave in disappointment.

Flowing Flower Domain, Jade Imperial City.

"Haha, victory!"

Within the Emperor Dragon Guest House that had just been rebuilt, the Nine Spirits, who were sitting cross-legged on the ground, suddenly jumped up and started dancing as they laughed out loud.

By the side, Xiao Budian, Xiao Zihan, Xiao Nian Die, Nie Cangsheng and the rest all let out a sigh of relief when they heard this. Their tightly knitted eyebrows relaxed as unconcealable smiles appeared in their eyes.

Ever since Tang Huan chased after Huo Feng and left, they had been waiting here for news.

Although he was extremely confident in Tang Huan's strength, he still couldn't help but feel a little worried. After all, Tang Huan's enemy was too strong this time, and his background was extraordinary. This kind of expert, no one knew if he had the means and trump card to turn the tide at the last moment.

Fortunately, after every period of time, Tang Huan would send messages to the nine spirits, allowing them to feel at ease.

Just a moment ago, the nine spirits once again received news that Tang Huan had teleported over. They said that they had already intercepted the fire phoenix and heavily injured it in the Western Region of the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly End.

The once ferocious fire phoenix was now no longer a threat.

"I knew it. Big brother would definitely win." Xiao Budian also excitedly waved his two small fists. His two big eyes were like crescent moons.

"Now, everyone can feel at ease."

When the news spread, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace was filled with cheers of joy.

News regarding this matter began to spread rapidly from Jade Emperor City and quickly engulfed the entire Crimson Radiance Sect like a storm. However, there were still quite a few cultivators who were skeptical.

After all, all the news originated from the Jade Imperial City. Who knows if the news that came out was false?

However, not long after, there was even more detailed news that spread out from the Azure Dragon School in the Western Region of the Scarlet Radiance Heaven Extreme Heaven, and it also confirmed the authenticity of the news.

In an instant, no matter if it was Tang Huan or the Heavenly Law Holy Academy, both of them shook the world with their prestige.

The cultivators who were hoping for Tang Huan to lose with their sinister hearts had no choice but to put aside their unrealistic thoughts and continue lying low.

Just as countless cultivators were discussing fervently about this matter, in the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly Desert, a small scroll was hidden in the dark in a deep hole close to the spatial barrier. Although it was faintly glowing, it did not reveal even the slightest hint of an aura.

This was the 'Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram'!

Inside the dwelling that it carried, Tang Huan sat cross-legged inside the Supreme Profound Hall quietly. But outside the palace, the tens of thousands of mountain ranges seemed to have turned into living beings.

In the sky above the mountains, the Fire Phoenix Pang Shuo's body was surrounded by countless sword intents and had been completely imprisoned.

"Tang Huan, do you know that you are courting death?"

The fire phoenix was unable to move, and its eyes were extremely dark. A thick rage seemed to surge out from the depths of its eyes, turning the space that trapped it into ashes.

Chapter 1956 - The Fire Phoenix's Threat!

"Oh?"

Tang Huan said smilingly as her voice resounded beside the fire phoenix, "Fire Phoenix, you seem to have forgotten that the one who is about to die is not me, but you. In such a situation, wouldn't it be laughable for you to say such weird words? "

As he finished, Tang Huan's words were laced with a hint of ridicule.

"Tang Huan, I forgot to tell you. I am actually just an embodiment. The Flamephoenix suddenly laughed coldly.

"embodiment?"

Tang Huan was slightly stunned, but immediately revealed a look of relief on her face, "So that's how it is."

"You're not surprised at all?" Tang Huan's reaction was too calm. Shouldn't he be extremely shocked upon hearing such news?

"Why should I be surprised?"

When Tang Huan heard this, he could not help but burst out laughing, "I had already suspected that you were the same as the Phoenix from the lower realms, only possessing the embodiment of that fire phoenix. No matter what, the Flamephoenix was once an Empyrean. Even if her cultivation has fallen to the Heavenly King Stage, she shouldn't be able to defeat me like you did. "

After a slight pause, Tang Huan lightly shook his head, "You are indeed not weak. However, I can't sense much of the might of an Empyrean from your body."

Tang Huan had indeed already guessed this, it was just that she couldn't confirm it at all.

This was the reason why he had only used the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace' until he realized that the fire phoenix wanted to break through the spatial barrier and enter the void of darkness. If this fire phoenix was truly only using embodiment, the matter of him using a magical equipment would definitely be discovered by its true body ... This would be a great danger to Tang Huan's future.

Now, the Fire Phoenix had revealed the secrets within, it had merely made Tang Huan's judgement turn into reality.

When he had used the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace," he had already mentally prepared himself for this.

The threat of the fire phoenix wasn't in the present, but in the future. Currently, Tang Huan still had enough time to prepare for the upcoming crisis.

"You ..."

Being looked down upon by Tang Huan, the fire phoenix became angry from embarrassment.

However, before she could finish speaking, Tang Huan said once more, "A single embodiment, in a situation where it hasn't completely recovered, can already possess such strength, you are indeed worthy of being proud of. However, you are now my prisoner. No matter how strong you are or how revered you are, it has nothing to do with you. Other than that, although you are using your embodiment to impersonate your original body, the 'Nirvana Divine Flame' is real. "

"That's enough!"

When the last few words came out, Tang Huan's tone already had some meaning.

His unwillingness to kill the fire phoenix was not only for the sake of his life. The most important reason was not only to save Shan He from the world within his body but also to obtain the 'Nirvana Divine Flame' that was contained within his body.

Even if this fire phoenix was only an embodiment, its firepower could not be faked. If he were to absorb and fuse the "Nirvana Divine Flame", his "Chaos Daos" would also be able to transform.

"Tang Huan, you, you ... Are you really not afraid of death? " When the Fire Phoenix heard Tang Huan's words, he became extremely angry.

"Of course I'm afraid of death."

Tang Huan said with a smile, "However, if my guess is correct, your original body must have also encountered a huge change, it doesn't have the strength of the previous Heavenly Sovereign anymore. Since that's the case, what do I have to fear, even if it were to recover one day, I wonder how many years that would happen?"

"You ..."

The Flamephoenix stifled herself, and instantly said ruthlessly, "Tang Huan, you used a magical artifact against me. My original body must already know of this matter. If my main body spread the news that you possess a magic artefact, who knows how many people in the Heaven Realm would want to take your life and magic artefact from you. In this Heaven Realm, a magical equipment is hard to come by even in tens of thousands of years. Even an Empyrean like me has never possessed a magical equipment. "

Speaking up to here, the fire phoenix's tone became even more vicious, "You should be able to imagine how tempting this kind of magical equipment is to countless cultivators of the Heaven Realm. At that time, not to mention Sky King, even Sky Emperor would attack you and even Sky Sovereign would search everywhere for your whereabouts. "

"In that case, no matter how big the Heaven Realm is, there will be no place for you to stand up!"

As if she imagined Tang Huan being chased to the point she had to flee, the Fire Phoenix couldn't help but laugh out loud after speaking. After laughing for a while, the fire phoenix's voice suddenly stopped. After it finished speaking, Tang Huan actually did not have the slightest bit of response, which made it feel somewhat proud. "Tang Huan, are you afraid?"

"Afraid? Why should I be afraid? "

Tang Huan scoffed, "Fire Phoenix, I was indeed right before, you have lived such a long life in vain. You said it yourself, artefacts are rarely seen in thousands of years. Even an Empyrean would not be able to obtain one in a million years. "Even though your original body is an Empyrean, you also didn't have a magic tool. Now that you've finally gotten the exact information of a magic tool, it still hasn't had enough time to keep this a secret. How could you bear to spread this news?"

When its voice fell, Tang Huan's figure strangely appeared in front of the fire phoenix, and it was as if it was looking at an idiot.

"Tang Huan, you ..."

Tang Huan's disdainful gaze infuriated the Fire Phoenix to the point that it became ten meters angry.

At this moment, Fire Phoenix could not wait to rush forward and peck at Tang Huan who was just inches away with his peck. But no matter how much it hated Tang Huan, it could only imagine that scene in its mind. Other than being able to speak, it was as immobile as a sculpture.

However, no matter how much he hated Tang Huan, he had no choice but to admit that what Tang Huan said was extremely reasonable.

It was only an embodiment of the fire phoenix itself. Even though it had already given birth to its own consciousness, it could not change the decision made by its own body. After finding out that Tang Huan possessed an artifact, her main body would definitely keep it a secret like Tang Huan had said, so that she would be able to seize it in the future.

It had originally wanted to threaten Tang Huan, making him worry, and not dare to make a move on him.

But from the looks of it, this threat of its was evidently extremely unsuccessful. After being exposed by Tang Huan with a single sentence, it was completely unable to be of any threat.

"Flamephoenix, you're talking so much because you want to live." Tang Huan looked at the fire phoenix and laughed lightly, "It is indeed not easy for you to cultivate to your current state. "Since that's the case, it's not like I can't give you such an opportunity. The prerequisite is that you will listen to me!"

"Obedient? Tang Huan, do your daydreams! " The fire phoenix was enraged to the extreme, and it felt as if its head was about to explode from the anger.

"Since you don't value it, then don't blame me for it."

The corner of Tang Huan's mouth hooked into a faint smile. After that, her eyes focused and a "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" appeared in a flash within the mind instructs (in a second). The mouth of the cauldron aimed at the body of the fire phoenix. In a moment's time, an intense trembling sound resounded in the air, the powerful sucking's energy swept towards the fire phoenix.

Chapter 1957 - Internal World

In the next moment, wisps of fiery-red aura began to seep out from the body of the fire phoenix. Then, like iron scraps attracted by a magnet, they were all thrown into the furnace.

"Tang Huan, you really dare to use sucking on me!"

Sensing the rapid loss of firepower in his body, Fire Phoenix became anxious and furious, "The 'Nirvana Divine Flame' is extremely important to my body. If you attack my firepower, even if my body does not spread the news that you possess a magical equipment, you will definitely die in the future. If you stop now, you might be able to keep your life in the future. "

"Fire Phoenix, even a three year old child would not believe your words."

Tang Huan unwittingly laughed, "Even if I release you, if I don't use the sucking for your 'Nirvana's Divine Flame', your original body would not let me off. "Since you won't let me go, I might as well absorb your firepower to increase my own."

While speaking, not only did the power of the sucking that originated from the cauldron not weaken, instead, it became more and more powerful, and more and more fiery-red aura overflowed from the body of the fire phoenix.

"Tang Huan, since you're courting death, then don't blame me for this."

The fire phoenix became desperate and shouted, "Let me tell you the truth, my main body is currently asleep and does not know what is happening here. If nothing unexpected happens, I might not be able to wake up even after a few thousand years. However, since you have done all that you can, don't blame me for waking up my true body from its slumber ahead of time. "

"Oh? "Go ahead!"

Tang Huan's expression remained calm as she continued to control the cauldron, the sucking 'Nirvana Flame'.

Tang Huan did not turn back to shoot. No matter if the Fire Phoenix was awake or still asleep, Tang Huan had to take this "Nirvana Divine Flame" with him!

Seeing that Tang Huan was indifferent, a flash of ruthlessness flashed past Fire Phoenix's eyes.

After a short moment, a strange energy fluctuation emitted from its body. Tang Huan squinted her eyes slightly. This aura undulation actually came from the soul of the fire phoenix, and it seemed that it was indeed awakening the body that was currently in a deep sleep.

Thinking about it, it should have been in the upper or middle eighteen days, or it might even be outside of Heaven Realm. The possibility of my being in the lower thirty-six days should be the smallest ...

...

On the ninth day, in a strange fiery red space.

A huge, round ball formed from fire floated silently in the sky, but from time to time it would fluctuate slightly. There was no heat emitted from the fireball.

However, the inside of the fireball seemed to contain an incomparably violent heat, as if countless ancient volcanoes were brewing and erupting.

The whole space was dead silent.

"Hu!"

After an unknown amount of time, the undulations from the Pang Shuo's fireball suddenly intensified, and visible ripples like ripples to the naked eye appeared on the surface of the fireball.

"Huh?"

A soft exclamation of surprise suddenly came out from within the fireball, the voice was as clear as the chirping of an oriole, "There's actually embodiment that forcefully woke me up, how dare you!"

There was already a hint of anger in her tone, but she immediately said with a high voice, "A magical equipment? A magical equipment was born? "

"Crimson Radiance ... Flowing Flower Domain ... Tang Huan... "

"Upper Sky King ... Palace Chief of the Royal Dragon's Heavenly Palace ... The Principal of the Heavenly Court... Cultivators from the lower realms of Forging God Great World ... Possessing an Immortal clone Possessing chaos energy ... He had a treasure that could store the power of primordial chaos ... The actual sucking, the Nirvana Divine Flame, was used to transform the Dao of Primordial Fire ... "

" ... "

Strings of clear characters jumped out from within the fireball, but they were broken and broken.

"Unfortunately, this sovereign can't leave this place for the time being. However, due to the fact that there are a lot of embodiment, I can send a few of them to the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly Palace to find that Tang Huan.

A moment later, that clear sound finally completely quieted down, and the fireball also gradually recovered its calm state.

...

At the western border of Crimson Twilight.

"Tang Huan, you will definitely regret it!"

With a hoarse roar, the last few threads of "Nirvana Flame" were extracted from the body of the fire phoenix and thrown into the depths of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace".

To the fire phoenix, the "Nirvana Divine Flame" was the source of its power.

After the firepower dissipated, the Flamephoenix immediately became listless. Her pair of fiery red eyes were incomparably dim. Her ability to resist the restraining force had already been greatly depleted.

With regards to the Fire Phoenix, even if he managed to capture it, Tang Huan would not dare to let his guard down. Therefore, he did not only use a spatial cage, he had also activated the "Limitless Sword Formation" to imprison the Fire Phoenix. But now, without the "Nirvana Divine Flame", the fire phoenix would no longer be a threat.

The current Fire Phoenix was probably the equivalent of an ordinary Upper Sky King.

Currently, even if he did not have any treasures such as "Primal Chaos Origin Crystals" and "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", Tang Huan could still easily defeat this fire phoenix.

"I do not know whether I will regret it or not. However, I know that it is already too late for you to regret it." Tang Huan said indifferently. Within his mind instructs (in a second), the cauldron which was filled with the "Nirvana Divine Flame" had already returned to the Dantian. Feeling the extremely pure origin fire within the cauldron, Tang Huan could not help but reveal a satisfied smile.

" ... "

The Flamephoenix did not say another word as she slowly closed her eyes.

Just as Tang Huan had said, it was truly filled with regret. If it had known earlier on that this would happen, it definitely wouldn't have rushed to the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace for the sake of coveting the dragon's vein. But unfortunately, there would never be a medicine for regret in this world, and no matter how regretful he was now, it was to no avail.

Without the "Nirvana Flame" and also trapped by Tang Huan, there was no chance for him to resist. Even if it was the embodiment of the Heavenly Flame Phoenix Lord, it was not much different from fish on the chopping board.

It could already foresee its own future.

At this stage, it had no other choice but to resign itself to its fate.

Seeing that, Tang Huan smiled, and did not immediately absorb the Nirvana Flame. Instead, with a thought, she used the ability "Yin Yang dao diagram".

The black and white whirlpools faintly flashed, and Tang Huan's figure disappeared from where she stood.

"This ..."

An instant later, the eyes of the Flamephoenix snapped open as an expression of disbelief flashed in her eyes.

It suddenly sensed that Tang Huan had already forcefully broken into the world inside its body. What divine ability was this, to actually be so mystical?

"Hmm?"

The moment his figure appeared again, Tang Huan could not help but exclaim in a low voice, his gaze quickly sweeping his surroundings. The surroundings could be seen mountains and rivers, with vegetation everywhere. Birds were singing and flowers were fragrant. Every inch of space nearby was filled with an incomparable amount of vitality.

This surprised Tang Huan, and she immediately focused her mind.

Chapter 1958 - Opening of Channels

The interior of the Fire Phoenix's body could not be considered large. At most, it was only a few hundred kilometers in radius.

There were many mountains, deep grasses, thick trees, and misty clouds. Amongst the forest, there were actually birds and beasts wandering about. It was a peaceful and auspicious scene. From this point of view, this world was not much different from the outside world. However, the vitality here was much denser compared to the outside world.

Just in terms of vitality alone, it was not inferior to even the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

Tang Huan had originally thought that the space within the Fire Phoenix's body should be around the same as the space within the stomach of either the Nine Spirits or the Green Hellish Holy Dragon.

But now, Tang Huan realized that the space within the Fire Phoenix's body was actually extremely similar to her own "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace". Although this space could not be called a cave, it still had the rudiments of a cave.

"It would truly be a pity if this space were to be destroyed."

Tang Huan sighed inwardly.

Instantly, there were tens of thousands of auras. When they entered the range of the senses, Tang Huan could not help but perk up, "They should all be cultivators from the Mountain Sea Sect." In the next moment, Tang Huan's attention shifted over. Not long later, Tang Huan caught sight of a somewhat familiar aura.

"It really is Gao Zu's Mountain and River!"

Tang Huan's eyes lit up. Gao Zuishan and the other cultivators of the Mountain and Sea Sect were now several hundred kilometers away, in the very center of the area.

With that thought, Tang Huan disappeared from the place.

In a split-second, Tang Huan appeared hundreds of meters in the sky.

Below them, five mountains thousands of meters tall surrounded the small city like stars surrounding the moon. The small city was built around a tall platform. The tall platform had a fiery red color and its shape was quite unique. Looking down from above, it seemed like a ball of spreading flames.

Within the high platform, there seemed to be countless streams of fiery light, which formed the shape of a fire phoenix.

The fire phoenix seemed to possess a life of its own as it continuously opened and closed its mouth. Its wings flapped rhythmically as the surface of its body rippled nonstop.

Instantly, Tang Huan discovered that the fire phoenix was absorbing the vitality around it.

After the life force converged on the fire phoenix from all directions, it turned into extremely pure firepower within the phoenix's body. For this reason, although there was not a single thread of heat emitted from the fire phoenix's body, there was an unusually large amount of heat contained within the fire phoenix.

As for the area around the fire platform, there were hundreds of cultivators seated.

"So that's how it is."

Seeing this scene, Tang Huan could not help but understand a bit more.

Within the Five Elements, wood could start fire.

This space was full of vitality, all for the purpose of generating pure fire power. However, this transformation could not be completed automatically. The cultivators of the Mountain Sea Sect were brought here by the fire phoenix for the sake of activating the fire array, enabling the transformation of their life force and firepower to take place at any time.

It must have been after the fire phoenix woke up that the flame platform started to revolve like this.

To be able to create such a majestic firepower in a short ten years was already extremely shocking, and furthermore, what Tang Huan felt right now, shouldn't be everything. After all, during the time when the Flowing Gold Fire Phoenix was being hunted down, it must have drawn a lot of firepower from this place to replenish its energy.

Luckily, the Fire Phoenix sucked in the space within the cave and activated the Limitless Sword Formation, imprisoning it completely. Otherwise, if the Fire Phoenix detonated the space within the cave, it would probably cause quite a bit of damage to the Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace. The existence of that sword formation made it simply not dare to entertain such thoughts.

The moment it revealed the intention to self-destruct, the ten thousand sword intents would immediately invade its body and tear it to pieces.

Now, not only was the fire phoenix imprisoned, it had lost its "Nirvana Divine Flame" as well. Even if it wanted to self-destruct, it was already too weak to do so. However, Tang Huan still had to be prepared.

Although it could not self-destruct, it was still possible to cause some harm.

For example, killing the cultivators of the Mountain and Sea Sect.

It was precisely because of this that Tang Huan didn't dare to reveal her concern for Gao Zu's mountain river in front of the fire phoenix in order to avoid it noticing and threatening him.

"Hu!"

In an instant, a "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" appeared in Tang Huan's palm.

But, before Tang Huan could activate the treasure, Jianxin's voice suddenly resounded in Tang Huan's mind: "Master, there is no need to go through so much trouble."

"Jianxin, you have a way?" Tang Huan said in surprise.

"Master."

"Don't forget, the fire phoenix is currently in the cave, and you are in the space within the fire phoenix. With just a thought, you can rely on the connection you have with the cave and channel your power into the cave, forcefully forming a path between the cave and the fire phoenix, and teleporting them out."

"Oh?"

Tang Huan was startled, then suddenly laughed out loud: "Jianxin, you're right, I'm really just a fool, but you're a spectator."

Since he had an even better method, Tang Huan immediately put away the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and after a short while, a majestic force pierced through the space inside the Fire Phoenix's body with the force of a thunderbolt. It descended in front of Tang Huan and started to condense rapidly.

In just a short moment, a huge vortex appeared in midair, and the terrifying power of the sucking poured down from the skies, enveloping the entire small city that was in the vicinity of the flaming platform. The small city that was originally calm immediately began to rumble with excitement, and panic filled the air.

Around the flaming high platform, hundreds of cultivators were awakened with expressions of shock.

Among this group of cultivators, there was a middle-aged man wearing a red robe who also looked around in surprise. This middle-aged man was none other than Shanhe. However, before he could discover anything, a clear voice rang in his ears, "Ancestor Gao, do not panic. I have come to save you."

"Tang Huan?"

When he heard this voice, Shanhe's body suddenly froze. A name popped out from the depths of his mind, and his eyes were filled with disbelief. However, before he could even regain his senses, the terrifying power of sucking had already completely enveloped his body, pulling him up into the air.

Mountain River calmed his mind and rushed towards the whirlpool along with the sucking. Out of the corner of his eye, he saw that many of the surrounding cultivators were like him, involuntarily being sucked into the whirlpool. In the blink of an eye, the mountains and rivers were submerged in the vortex.

In the blink of an eye, all of the cultivators of the Mountain and Sea Sect, including Mountain and River Sect, vanished from within the Flamephoenix's body.

Immediately after, large groups of silhouettes emerged from the edge of the Great Xuan Lake in the outside world.

Chapter 1959 - Reunion after Long Distance

The Mountain Sea Sect's cultivators had already arrived at Tang Huan's cave. However, Tang Huan was not worried that the news regarding the cave would leak out in the future. They had no idea what was going on here, nor did they know where they were. Even if they wanted to leak it, they couldn't.

"Tang Huan, what are you doing?"

The fire phoenix's surprised voice suddenly sounded.

It was originally waiting for death to come, so even though it was surprised that Tang Huan had forced her way into the space within its body, it did not pay too much attention. She similarly did not pay much attention to the movements of Tang Huan in the space within her body. After all, it was meaningless to pay attention to such things when one was on the verge of death.

It believed that what Tang Huan was doing at the moment was only out of curiosity.

However, the Flamephoenix had never expected that Tang Huan would suddenly send out all of the Mountain Sea Sect's cultivators who were within its body.

"To be honest, one of the Mountain and Sea Sect Cultivators is my Ancestor." Tang Huan said while smiling.

"What?"

The Flame Phoenix heard and was shocked, amongst the human cultivators, there was actually a person, High Ancestor Tang Huan?

After a short period of shock, the fire phoenix suddenly came to a realization.

It finally understood why Tang Huan had suddenly appeared on Fire Phoenix Island more than ten years ago. At that time, it had just woken up from its slumber, and had only just finished absorbing the cultivators from the Mountain and Sea Sect into its body. Tang Huan must have noticed that Gao Zu had disappeared, and went over to check on the situation.

The reason why Tang Huan did not kill him after using her own Nirvana Divine Flame was definitely to save his ancestor.

After realizing this, the Fire Phoenix suddenly had a strong urge to vomit blood.

If he had known earlier, he could have used the Mountain and Sea Sect cultivators to threaten Tang Huan. It was impossible for Tang Huan to be tied down by her hands and feet, but at the very least, it allowed him to have scruples.

However, it was too late to say anything now.

"Tang Huan, I will let you be proud for a few more days. In the future, even if you want to cry, you won't be able to do so." Fire Phoenix said with hatred.

"Even if that day comes, you won't be able to see it."

Tang Huan smiled indifferently. When she was out, the fire phoenix would be able to be disposed of, and immediately, Tang Huan moved her body slightly, just as she was about to enter the whirlpool passage above the stage, Jianxin's voice suddenly sounded out, "Master, if the fire phoenix was killed, it would be too much of a pity."

"Oh?"

Tang Huan was surprised, "Jianxin, you mean to say"

"Master, the space within this fire phoenix already possesses the elementary form of a cave, so I can completely integrate it into my body. It will be of great help to the Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace in recovering." Jianxin said.

"Since that's the case, what are we waiting for?"

Tang Huan could not help but laugh, "However, before we begin, we still have to send the Mountain Sea Sect's cultivators out."

It would indeed be a pity if the space within the fire phoenix were to disappear just like that. If it was truly integrated into the cave, then that would be exactly what he wanted.

"Yes, master!"

"..."

... ..

"What is this place?"

Tens of thousands of cultivators of the Mountain and Sea Sect were standing at the edge of the Great Xuan Lake, wondering what was going on.

Under normal circumstances, they should have been able to see the Flamephoenix imprisoned above the lake. However, Tang Huan had activated her sword concept the moment they appeared and covered the Flamephoenix.

Right now, all they could see was the lake and the countless mountain peaks and tall mountains in the distance.

As for the sky above the lake, it was a misty white area. However, the boundless sword intent radiating from that area caused everyone's hearts to palpitate.

"Where did that fire phoenix go?"

A middle-aged man with a rather handsome face looked around, frowning. He was the Mountain Sea Sect's Sect Master Meng Chuwen.

The surrounding people looked at each other in dismay. Naturally, they couldn't give him a response.

Mixed within the crowd, a slight smile could be seen on the red robed Shanhe's face. Others might not know where this place was, but he was very clear about it.

This was the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Manor", and the towering lakes was the Supreme Profound Lake.

Back then, he had been trapped in this cave for many years, and it was only when his descendant, Tang Huan, entered this place did he manage to escape from the cave space, and Tang Huan had also become the cave's new master. At that time, the space of the estate was in ruins, and spatial tears could be seen everywhere.

But looking at the current situation, it was unknown how much stronger this "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" was.

Looking at the Great Xuan Lake opposite them, the mountains and rivers could not help but be filled with emotion.

Ever since he ascended to heaven, he had been hanging out in the Mountain Sea Sect, circling around the Pill Sea realm. More than ten years ago, the Flamephoenix had completely wiped out the entire Mountain and Sea Sect. As a Mountain and Sea Sect Cultivator, he had been unable to escape. He had thought that he would never be able to escape.

On the other hand, Tang Huan was able to survive.

Although he had experienced many dangers, regardless of whether it was Tools Method Attainments or cultivation, it was improving by leaps and bounds. Ever since the "Ten Thousand Domain Dao Art", not to mention this Crimson Radiance Heavenly, even in the entire thirty-six days, Tang Huan's name had spread far and wide, becoming the target of admiration for countless young cultivators.

Compared to Tang Huan, Gao Zu had indeed muddled through it rather miserably.

"I wonder what cultivation level this little fellow has now?"

He had once heard the Mountain Sea Sect's Sect Leader Meng Chuwen speculate that the fire phoenix that sucked them in was definitely the Heavenly King, or even the Upper Sky King. For Tang Huan to be able to rescue them safely from the Fire Phoenix's body, their cultivation must not be weaker than the Fire Phoenix.

"Upper Sky King?"

The words popped up in his mind, and he could not help but smile.

It was very likely that Tang Huan was already an Upper Sky King Realm Ranker. However, he had only just barely broken through to the first level of the Heavenly Marquis Realm a few years ago, after she had been swallowed by the Flamephoenix.

"Senior Brother Shanhe, have you thought of something?" A young man at the side asked curiously.

"I ..."

Just as he was about to speak, he heard cries of surprise from the surroundings. Immediately after, he realized that the sky above him had suddenly fluctuated rapidly, and the Mountain Sea Sect cultivators beside him had all uncontrollably soared into the air, disappearing without a trace in an instant.

In the blink of an eye, Meng Chuwen and the tens of thousands of cultivators had all disappeared.

There was actually only one mountain and one river left on the shores of the Great Xuan Lake.

Shanhe was stunned for a moment before he understood what was going on. The existence of the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Mansion" needed to be kept secret, and it would be inappropriate to keep so many Mountain Sea Sect cultivators here for too long.

"Grandfather Gao." In the blink of an eye, a black figure appeared by the lake and bowed to the mountain and river.

Chapter 1960 - Fire Phoenix Blood Essence

"..."

"Kid, you got the Sect Leader and the others out, and left me alone. When I get out of here, I'm afraid I won't be able to stay in the Mountain and Sea Sect much longer."

Inside the Supreme Profound Hall, seeing the smiling Tang Huan opposite of him, Mountain River helplessly smiled.

Meng Chuwen and the others outside the Immortal's cave would soon realize that he had disappeared. After all, he was a Heavengod Marquis, and was no longer a nobody within the Mountain and Sea Sect. In the future, if he appeared alive in front of Meng Chuwen and the others, it would be very difficult to explain the reason to them.

"If I can't stay, then I'll change locations."

Tang Huan said with a smile, "Grandfather Gao, in the period of time that you disappeared, quite a few things happened in the Crimson Radiance Sect. The Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace that I am in can now be considered as the number one sect in Crimson Radiance Sect, and I have long since ascended to the position of Palace Chief of Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace over ten years ago. "

"At the same time, I also created the Heavenly Law Academy."

"All of the sects of various sizes in the Crimson Radiance Sect are now under the jurisdiction of the Heavenly Dao Academy. In time, the power of the sects will become weaker and weaker, to the point of even disappearing. The Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace will not be an exception, and the Heavenly Law Academy will replace those sects and become the only power in the entire Crimson Radiance Sect. "

"Is that true?"

The mountains and rivers were dumbstruck, their minds greatly shaken.

For the Royal Dragon's Heavenly Mansion to become the number one sect in the Scarlet Radiance Sect so quickly and for Tang Huan to become the master of the Heavenly Palace, it was already surprising enough. However, Tang Huan had actually created a huge power that stood above all the other sects. Wasn't this the same as unifying the tempo of the Crimson Radiance Sect?

From ancient times till now, there had been many strong practitioners who wanted to unite this Heaven Realm, but no one had been able to do so.

But now, Tang Huan seemed to be very close to reaching his goal.

As the two of them spoke, the situation in the air above the Tai Xuan Lake had greatly changed.

Meng Chuwen and the other cultivators of the Mountain and Sea Sect were no longer around. There was no need to cover up the Flamephoenix any longer. At this moment, the fire phoenix looked even more miserable.

Accompanying the rapid circulation of the "Ten Thousand Endless Sword Formation", the illusory images of mountains that contained a strong sword intent pierced into the body of the fire phoenix one after another. Unknowingly, the Flamephoenix's massive body seemed to be riddled with thousands of holes, and the illusory mountain range had already turned her into a giant hedgehog.

"Rumble ..."

Within the mountain range simulacrum, sword intent lingered and revolved, as if it had provoked bursts of resonance, and intense tremors rose and fell one after another.

Although the soul of the fire phoenix had yet to die, it was already extremely weak. Not to mention emitting a clanging sound, even opening its eyes was extremely strenuous. As time passed, the illusory mountain range continuously merged into the fire phoenix's body.

One day, two days ... Five days ... Ten days ...

After an unknown period of time, the countless illusory mountain peaks finally merged with the Flowing Gold Fire Phoenix's body, and almost all of the illusory peaks were dyed a fiery red.

In an instant, an earth-shaking explosion resounded as the enormous body of the fire phoenix suddenly broke apart into countless illusory mountain peaks. After which, it turned into streaks of fiery red light and entered one mountain after another within the Great Xuan Lake.

High up in the sky, there were no longer any traces of the existence of the fire phoenix.

Inside the Supreme Profound Hall, Tang Huan who was sitting cross-legged suddenly opened his eyes, and a satisfied smile rose between his brows. Indeed, it was as Jianxin had said. The fire phoenix and the space within it had already been completely disintegrated, had completely fused into his "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace".

As for the Flame Phoenix's soul, it gradually disappeared during this process, becoming nothing more than ashes.

On the surface, it looked as if there wasn't much of a change after fusing with the cave space of the fire phoenix, but in reality, the current Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace had become a dual dimension. Now, Tang Huan only needed to think slightly and the space inside the Fire Phoenix's body would be reborn from the cave.

Of course, the Space of Rebirth must no longer have any connection with the fire phoenix.

"Fire Phoenix Space ..."

Tang Huan squinted his eyes and smiled. In a moment of thought, at the summit about a thousand miles away from the Tai Xuan Lake, a large area of fiery red Qi suddenly rose up. In the blink of an eye, a fire phoenix with a body of a few thousand meters long formed and spread its wings, as though it was about to fly away from the summit.

The interior of the Fire Phoenix's body was exactly the same as the interior of the Fire Phoenix's body.

"That's right."

Tang Huan nodded in satisfaction.

As the owner of the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", he could clearly feel every little change within the cave. The appearance of the two different dimensions had already caused the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" to become even more stable. Although it had not returned to its peak condition, it had already improved by quite a bit compared to before.

"Master."

A white shadow flashed, and Sword Heart suddenly appeared in front of Tang Huan's body without any warning, he extended a fair and white palm, on the palm of the hand was something the size of a chicken egg, looking like it was condensed out of fresh blood.

"What is this?"

Tang Huan's gaze swept past the dark red object and landed on Jianxin's face, and asked in surprise.

Even though he couldn't recognize it, he could clearly feel the burning intent contained within it. Not only that, it also contained a surging, majestic, and vast bloodline power.

It was obviously related to the Fire Phoenix that had already died.

"Master, this is a drop of phoenix blood essence!" Jianxin slowly said.

"Fire Phoenix Blood Essence?"

Hearing that, Tang Huan's heart could not help but move, and Phoenix's figure appeared in his mind. This "Fire Phoenix's Essence Blood" should have originated from the Fire Phoenix's true body, also known as the former Heavenly Sovereign Fire Phoenix. Presumably, it was its existence that gave birth to the Fire Phoenix's embodiment.

If he was able to refine it, it would only increase his Dao crystal, but if Phoenix were to absorb it, not only would her cultivation increase, her physique would also undergo a qualitative change.

In a moment of thought, Tang Huan had already made a decision, and said smilingly: "Sword Heart, fuse this ball of blood essence into the Fire Phoenix Space and nurture it, so that you can prepare it for Phoenix."

"Yes, Master." Jianxin left with his blood essence.

"It's time to return to Jade Imperial City."

After watching Jianxin's figure disappear within the Supreme Profound Hall, the depths of Tang Huan's eyes couldn't help but reveal a faint smile. He had obtained the Nirvana Fire for quite some time now, so it was time for him to return to the Jade Imperial City to go into seclusion, absorb it and fuse it together to form the true primal chaos Dao Flame.

This process might take a long time.

However, if he succeeded, not only would Tang Huan be able to master "Primal Chaos Dao Fire", his Tools Method Attainments would also experience a huge increase.

With that thought, Tang Huan's figure had already disappeared from the Supreme Profound Hall ...
