

W. Master 1961

Chapter 1961 - Great Power

The fiery phoenix that was filled with ferocity that caused the complexions of countless Crimson Radiance Sect cultivators to change color had finally disappeared.

Following the disappearance of the fire phoenix, after a period of boiling, Crimson Wyrms also gradually calmed down, and the Heavenly Law Holy Courtyard became even more powerful.

Everyday, there were endless streams of people from all over Crimson Radiance Sect who wanted to join the Heavenly Dao Academy.

At this time, the initially destroyed Jade Imperial City began to rebuild at an alarming rate, and the cultivators who had fled earlier were constantly returning.

Before long, the Jade Imperial City would return to its former prosperity.

The Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, the Inner Mansion.

As the residence of the previous Palace Masters, Sky Dragon Manor, Tang Huan sat cross-legged, as motionless as a sculpture. However, in the Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" had already been activated to the extreme. Within the cauldron, the "Nirvana Divine Flame" was being refined bit by bit, fusing into the "Chaos Dao Flame".

This was the ninth day since Tang Huan returned to the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace from the Red Radiance Heavenly End's west.

Although Shanhe and Tang Huan had returned to Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace together, she did not stay for long.

This great-grandfather of Tang Huan's never liked comfort. Otherwise, as the emperor of a glorious empire back then, he wouldn't have taken such a huge risk and headed to the Forging God Great World from a small world. Now that he was in the Heaven Realm, he was naturally unwilling to live under the wing of her descendants.

After staying in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace for five days, the mountains and rivers had already said their goodbyes to Tang Huan.

After Tang Huan tried to persuade him for a while, seeing that Shanhe had made up her mind, he could only allow him to do so. Fortunately, with the current state of the Crimson Radiance Sect, as long as they didn't encounter any powerhouses like the fire phoenix and didn't rashly enter dangerous places like the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace, the mountains and rivers should not be in danger.

After the mountains and rivers left, Tang Huan calmed her heart and began to absorb and refine the "Nirvana Divine Flame".

However, Tang Huan did one more thing before this, and that was to separate the avatar of the immortal body and send it to the Pill Sea Realm in order to enter the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". To the avatar, the effects of cultivating in the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace were much stronger than cultivating in the Crimson Wyrms Kingdom.

Currently, the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" no longer had any remnant thoughts of the Dragon God. Even Second Elder Cang Xu had fled and no living being could threaten him with his Immortal body. Furthermore, there were still many Sword Heart controlled Dragon Clan Puppets there. With them protecting him and his Immortal body clone, he could cultivate in peace.

With his Immortal Body clone, it would be very difficult for him to step into the Upper Sky King Realm in the Scarlet Radiance Sect. However, in the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", it should be much easier.

A clone was different from embodiment. In the future, if Tang Huan wanted to step into the Heavenly Emperor Realm, she needed both her main body and clone to break through at the same time.

This meant that if the avatar of the Immortal Body had always been a middle level Sky King, even if Tang Huan's actual body was already at the peak of the Upper Sky King, her cultivation would not have any hope of breaking through. Only when his main body and Immortal Body clones reached the peak of the Upper Sky King Stage and both reached the Heavenly Emperor Stage at the same time would she be able to advance.

For this reason, whether it was the original body or the celestial body, both needed to advance in cultivation at the same time.

After the Immortal Body clone left, the reconstruction of the Jade Emperor City, the Emperor Dragon's Hall and the Heavenly Sacred Courtyard were all taken care of by Xiao Nian Die and the rest. Tang Huan focused all of her attention on the "Nirvana Divine Flame".

The Fire Phoenix's "Nirvana Divine Flame" was the hardest firepower Tang Huan had ever encountered so far.

The process went on for four days, but he only managed to refine a small part of it.

Although this "Nirvana Divine Flame" was extremely difficult to refine, Tang Huan could still faintly feel a change in the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" whenever she absorbed a little bit of the firepower that was fusing with it. This proved that Tang Huan's previous line of thought was completely correct. If she wanted to obtain the true "Primal Chaos Daos," just by constantly absorbing and refining the Chaotic Force was far from enough. She still needed an extremely pure source of firepower as a guide.

This also made Tang Huan feel very lucky.

This "Nirvana Divine Flame" was indeed a very powerful firepower. Unfortunately, the fire phoenix's embodiment had not recovered and it was difficult for it to fully unleash its strength. Fortunately, the Fire Phoenix's embodiment had not fully recovered yet. If it was given another ten years, even if it was still a peak-level Heavenly King by then, Tang Huan would probably not be her match even if she had "Primal Chaos Origin Crystals" and "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" as well as other precious treasures.

Now, this kind of strong firepower was all advantageous to Tang Huan.

Time flew by ...

One month, two months ... One year. Two years

Unknowingly, the reconstruction of the Jade Emperor City was almost completed. Of course, restoring the condition back then was not something that could be done in a short one to two years. However, compared to before, the number of cultivators in the city was increasing every day.

Although it had been a long time since Tang Huan chased after the Fire Phoenix, Tang Huan's prestige did not decline at all due to him not revealing his whereabouts. The continuous increase in the number of people in Jade Emperor City was proof of that.

From the year after the great battle outside Jade Emperor City ended, sects began to choose ways to integrate themselves into the Heavenly Dao Academy. Furthermore, they even submitted their own inheritances to the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Of course, the first to do so were only the weak small sects.

The incorporation of the cultivators from the smaller sects would not increase the strength of the Heavenly Dao Academy by much. However, their actions were extremely effective in leading the charge. Very soon, the area under the red sky was filled with raging waves as more and more smaller sects chose to withdraw and merge with their sects.

In fact, many of the smaller sects were beginning to integrate into the Heavenly Law Palace as well.

For those small sects that chose to merge together first, the Heavenly Law Palace would not hesitate to give them to them. Therefore, it didn't take long for medium-scale sects to imitate it ...

Such a trend caused many great sects to become somewhat panicked.

However, they simply could not resist at all. The Heavenly Dao Academy was now the strongest colossus in the Crimson Radiance Sect. If any sect dared to resist, they would instantly be reduced to ashes. It was a good thing that the Heavenly Dao Academy didn't force the sects to join them. This allowed them to feel slightly more at ease.

However, those sects quickly began to despair.

Because, large sects had already merged into the Heavenly Dao Academy. Furthermore, the first large sects that did so were the Xumi Sacred Mountain and Supreme God Sword Sect ... The actions of these two great sects caused a huge wave of commotion among the countless sects in the Crimson Light Heavens Sect as they merged into the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Not long after that, the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace was merged into the Heavenly Law Palace.

This was like the last straw that broke a camel's back. The large and small sects that were originally waiting to see the wind had completely given up. The Heavenly Dao Academy unified the Crimson Light in the sky, and the situation had developed into this ...

Chapter 1962: Visitors from the Outer Regions

Red light covered the extreme north, covering the vast snowfield.

"Rumble ..."

The space within a rather wide rift in the snow suddenly fluctuated violently. Soon after, a dark spatial crack suddenly appeared.

"Whoosh!"

Immediately afterwards, a golden streak of light shot out from that spatial rift, traveling several thousand meters before coming to a halt in midair.

The spatial rift quickly closed. After a flick of his finger, the void returned to normal.

At this time, the golden light was clearly revealed. It was a ten-meter-long leaf. It was golden in color and sparkling, as if it was carved out of fine jade.

"Hu!"

Almost in an instant, two figures flashed out from the golden leaf.

One of them was a tall and sturdy old man. He wore an azure robe, and on his face, there was a thick beard, and both his facial features and eyes were sharp and sharp, with firm lines. The other man looked to be about forty years old. He was tall and had a thin face and slightly sunken eyes. He wore a white robe.

The auras that faintly seeped out from the bodies of these two people were exceptionally powerful.

"Brother sandalwood, this is the Crimson Light Heavens?" In the blink of an eye, the white robed middle-aged man looked around, before speaking with a smile.

"Exactly."

The tall and sturdy old man laughed, "Brother Tao You, welcome to our Crimson Sky Kingdom as a guest!" Saying this, the burly old man's rough face was immediately filled with emotion, "Time flies. Calculating the time, I've already left the Crimson Radiance Sect for almost a thousand years."

"It's really hard to come back from the middle of a journey of eighteen days."

His voice paused, and the tall and sturdy old man sighed, "Brother Tao You, it has been almost twenty years since we left the Asura High Sect right?"

"Twenty-one years!"

When the middle-aged man dressed in white named Tao You heard this, he also sighed emotionally and said, "Although it took a long time, it's fortunate that nothing happened along the way. Oh right, Brother Tan, I heard that the sect you are from is called the 'Spiritual True Immortal School'?"

"That's right."

The tall and sturdy old man nodded and smiled, "Brother Tao You, this time, we will first stay in the 'Spiritual True Immortal School' for a few days, then we will go and settle some official business."

Tao You said with a face full of smiles, "Brother Tan, you are the landlord. I will listen to your arrangements."

"Alright, let's go to the Spiritual True Immortal School." The tall and sturdy elder gestured grandly. "After leaving for so many years, I wonder what's going on with the Spiritual True Immortal School?"

"..."

The Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, the Inner Mansion.

Inside Sky Dragon Manor, which was so quiet that even a pin drop could be heard, Tang Huan sat cross-legged as still as a boulder, with a solemn expression on her face.

Ever since he had started to refine the Nirvana Divine Flame, he had maintained this posture and never changed.

"Hu!"

After an unknown period of time, a bizarre wave suddenly erupted out of Tang Huan's body like a volcanic eruption.

After a split second, the undulation outlined the shape of a large ball of flame, and from afar, it was as if Tang Huan was completely enveloped by a transparent ball of fire. The transparent flame churned and fluctuated rapidly, as though it contained an incomparable amount of power. However, it did not emit any aura.

This situation was extremely strange.

"It's finally done!"

Inside the transparent flame, Tang Huan suddenly opened her eyes, her face revealing a happy smile.

Ever since he entered the Heavenly Dragon Manor, Tang Huan had not gone out even half a step. He did not know how much time had passed, but the 'Nirvana Divine Flame' had been completely refined and absorbed. His Dao flame had also completed its transformation as he wished. Currently, it was truly a 'Dao Flame of Primal Chaos'.

During this process, a large amount of the energy contained within the "Chaos Source Crystal" was consumed.

Until now, the power of the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" still only had about sixty percent of its power left. Of the forty percent, part of it was absorbed by the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" after being refined, and the other part was used by Tang Huan to raise his cultivation. During this period of time, Tang Huan had not stopped his cultivation while refining the "Nirvana Divine Flame".

Currently, his number of Dao-Crystals had reached an astonishing 390 million.

Although Tang Huan was not yet a Heavenly King at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm, she was not far off. The massive increase in the number of Dao-Crystals allowed him to clearly feel her own strength rising. Even if she were to discard a treasure like the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and fight with the Heavenly King at the peak of the realm, Tang Huan was confident that she would be able to win.

However, what made Tang Huan the happiest was not the soaring number of crystals, but the transformation of the flames.

The moment the true "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" finished transforming, Tang Huan actually had a kind of incomparably wonderful feeling, making him feel as if she had already transcended the heavens.

Just like the transparent flame around him, it truly did exist in this space. However, other than Tang Huan, no other cultivator could feel its existence.

Others may think that it was because Tang Huan had restrained his fire energy and did not let it leak out, which was why she was able to deceive the other cultivators.

However, this was a completely wrong view.

Tang Huan did not retract the aura of the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame", as the flame constantly spread auras to her surroundings. It was just that this aura had already surpassed the aura of the Heavenly Dao, yet the remaining cultivators were all under the control of the Heavenly Dao ... The two were already at a completely different level, so she naturally couldn't sense them.

At this moment, Tang Huan suddenly thought about the information that Yuan Zheng had told him about the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" within the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain.

Now that he had the true 'Chaos Daos Flame', he could forge a Magic Tool, and even one of the 'Supreme Magic Treasures'. Now that the Dao Flame had been transformed, he did not know if he had the ability to forge a Magic Tool. However, just as this thought popped up in his mind, Tang Huan couldn't help but burst out laughing.

Although he was now an Upper Sky King, compared to forging equipment, his cultivation level was still too low.

With his current cultivation, wanting to forge a magical equipment was a fantasy story. To Tang Huan, forging equipment was still an extremely distant matter, so for the time being, he didn't need to think about it too much.

Moreover, even if Tang Huan really had the ability, she wouldn't start forging now. The movement caused by the appearance of the magical equipment was something that no space could cover.

A man's wealth is his own fault.

His cultivation was too weak, yet he was able to forge a magic tool ... This was truly no different from courting death. At that time, even an Empyrean from the Nine Heavens would attack him.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan stopped pondering about this, and only withdrew all of the flames outside her body into the Dantian.

"Looking at the time, Shan Shan, the rest of the children and the others should be coming up soon!"

Tang Huan let out a light breath, she stood up and looked at the location of the residence with a distant gaze. After dozens of years had passed, I wonder how they are doing?

Chapter 1963 - Sandalwood Bell

The Spiritual True Immortal School, Spirit Mountain City.

"Bo?" You. "Are you really Bai Er?"

In the slightly dilapidated courtyard, a burly old man in a green robe could not help but turn pale as he looked in disbelief at the figure in front of him.

It was a white-haired, stooped old man dressed in black.

His two eyes were unusually turbid, and they were deeply sunken in his eye sockets. There seemed to be a lot of bruises on his head, and there was not a single trace of strength that was emitted from within his body. He appeared to be an ordinary old man who was not far from death.

This old man was none other than the supreme elder of the Spiritual True Immortal School, Yam Bai.

In the past, many experts from various sects had gathered at the Jade Imperial City in an attempt to kill Tang Huan, but they had all failed in the end and were defeated by Tang Huan. Among them, this supreme elder of the Spiritual True Immortal School, Tan Bai, had been taken into the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", and even though he had managed to survive, his cultivation had been abolished by Tang Huan.

Later on, Tang Huan released sandalwood from her cave, and it was brought back by the Spiritual True Immortal School's Sect Leader Du Siwei.

"Father, this is my son!"

Yantai could not help but kneel to the ground with a 'putong' as tears rolled down his face. His eyes were filled with emotion, ecstasy, sorrow and disbelief.

The exalted supreme elder of the Spiritual True Immortal School, the Heavenly King Stage powerhouse, had suddenly turned into an ordinary old man without any cultivation. These past few years, he had been humiliated and looked down upon him, and it was a fate worse than death. In the past, countless times, he had wanted to end his own life just like that.

However, the hatred he felt for Tang Huan allowed him to continue living on tenaciously.

"Bai Er, how did you become like this? In recent years, what kind of unforeseen event happened to the Spiritual True Immortal School? "

Sandalwood's face was ashen as he roared in a low voice, his rough face was somewhat sinister. With his eyesight, he was naturally able to see what had happened to Yanzhi with a glance. He was the only son, and now his son was a cripple.

"Father ..."

Upon hearing Yantong's question, Yantai could not help but tear up, gnashing his teeth as he recounted the events that happened to him that year.

He'd always been waiting for a chance to wash away his shame, and now, his painstaking wait hadn't been in vain after all.

Today, he finally saw the hope of revenge. The tall and sturdy blue-robed elder in front of him was his father, Yanzhong. Currently, Yanzhong was an elder of one of the eighteen great sects, the "Asura High Sect". She was already a peak-level Heavenly King, just half a step away from becoming a Heavenly Emperor.

If only Yantong came, Yantai would not have confidence.

After all, a few years ago, the matter of Tang Huan chasing down the fire phoenix caused a huge uproar in the Scarlet Radiance Heaven. The fire phoenix definitely had the strength of a peak late stage Heavenly King, yet it was still killed by Tang Huan. Although Tan Zhong was strong, he was probably on par with the Flamephoenix. If he fought Tang Huan alone, his boyfriend had a chance of winning.

However, this time, the one who came from the Asura's Martial School was not just Yanzhong, but a middle-aged man who came with him.

Although Yama Minamiya had never heard of his father's identity, from the conversation between the two, he could faintly deduce that the other party was also an Asura Supreme Elder. Moreover, his cultivation was probably not any lower than Tan Zhong's. No matter how strong that Tang Huan was, it was impossible for him to defeat two peak-level peak Sky Kings.

"You've gone too far!" That Tang Huan is going too far! "

"Bai Er, don't cry like that, I will go and kill that Tang Huan right now to take revenge for you."

"Thank you, father."

She reminded him, "Father, that Tang Huan is very strong, and has several Upper Sky Kings by his side. Furthermore, he is now the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy, so she can gather countless people, and she needs to be careful in her actions ..."

"Upper Sky King?"

Without waiting for Yama Minamiya to finish speaking, Yanzhong snorted coldly and laughed wildly, "A few mere Upper Sky Kings, what's the point of that? As for the men he has deployed, they are not even worth mentioning. Below the Heavenly King, no matter how many people there are, they are just like ants, not even a little bit threatening for your father. "

Saying this, Sandalwood turned his gaze to the middle-aged man next to him and said, "Brother Tao You, why don't you come with me to meet the so called Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy?"

"Of course."

Tao You nodded his head and smiled, then said slowly: "That Tang Huan is not only sinister, but also barbaric, to think that she would think of unifying the Scarlet Radiance Heaven. This sort of character needs to be eliminated as soon as possible. Otherwise, once he steps into the middle of the 18 days, she might become a great threat to our Asura High Sect. "

"That's right, then Tang Huan will definitely not allow him to continue living."

sandalwood slightly narrowed his eyes and fiercely said, "However, before we go look for Tang Huan, this old man needs to clean up the sect. That Du Siwei actually dared to merge the Spiritual True Immortal School with the Heavenly Dao Holy Palace, and the countless years of inheritance of the Spiritual True Immortal School were destroyed. "Bai Er, wait here for me. Father will go to that sect and take Du Siwei's life."

"Father, it's not only Du Siwei who deserves to die, the elders from the Spiritual True Immortal School are also here!"

Yama Minamiya said hatefully.

As the previous Grand Elder of the Spirit True Immortal Sect, his hatred for Sect Master Du Siwei and the elders of the Spirit True Immortal Sect was not inferior to Tang Huan's in the slightest. The reason why he, a dignified lower Heavenly King, had fallen to such a state was all for the Spirit True Immortal School. However, after his cultivation had been crippled by Tang Huan, and Du Siwei and the others had brought him back to the Spirit Pass City, they left him here, left him to perish on his own, without even a trace of care and care.

If not for this, he would not have been reduced to such a miserable state.

Now, even a small heavenly being could easily bully and humiliate him. It was fortunate that although he had lost his cultivation, his body wasn't like an ordinary person's. He needed food to wrap his stomach; otherwise, he wouldn't have been able to live until now and starve to death.

Even so, his life was extremely miserable.

A few days before Sandalwood found him, he was just humiliated by a few thugs in Spirit Mountain City. He didn't dare to be humiliated and tried his best to resist, but in the end he was ruthlessly taught a lesson. Although those people weren't able to kill him, they still beat him until his face was bruised, and he was unable to move at all.

After recuperating for so many days, it was only today that he could have a little walk.

"Bai'er, even if you didn't say anything, I wouldn't have let them off so easily. Those bastards, they deserve to die." Tan Zhong's tone was cold, his gaze was sharp like a knife, and the rage in his eyes was like a volcano erupting, gushing out.

"..."

Chapter 1964 - Qing Huan City

"Du Siwei has been killed, and six elders have died?"

Inside an exquisite hall in the Heavenly Imperial Institution in the Jade Imperial City, Tang Huan was slightly surprised as she frowned.

Just a moment ago, Jianxin had actually informed him of Du Siwei's death.

A "Puppet Soul Seal", condensed from the power of Jianxin's soul energy, had also been planted in Du Siwei's soul. If his soul died, Jianxin would immediately sense it. Jianxin immediately contacted the other puppets of the Spiritual True Immortal School and found out that another six elders had been killed.

The current Crimson Radiance Sect had been run by the Heavenly Dao Academy like an iron bucket. Someone had gone to the Spiritual True Immortal School to kill someone, and had even killed seven of them in one go?

Now, even though the Spirit True Immortal School's encampment already existed, this sect had already been incorporated into the Heavenly Dao Academy. Du Siwei was no longer the head of the Spiritual True Immortal School. Instead, he was now the dean of the Heavenly Law Palace's branch division. Killing Du Siwei and the others like that was equivalent to showing off to the Heavenly Law Palace.

How could there be a cultivator so audacious in the Crimson Light Heavens?

"Do you know who did it?"

While he was thinking, Tang Huan sent a mind instructs (in a second) to the sword heart.

With a flash of white shadow, Jianxin's figure appeared in front of Tang Huan, and slowly said:

"That person claimed to be Yanzhong, and barged into the Spirit True Immortal School's encampment, reprimanding Du Siwei and the others, saying that they caused the extinction of the sect's legacy, and that it is no wonder they are disciples of the Spirit True Immortal Sect, and that their deaths are not worth lamenting."

"Sandalwood?"

Tang Huan was slightly startled, but immediately smiled, "I remember now, he should be the father of that great elder of the Ling Zhen Immortal Sect, Yumei. "According to what sandalwood revealed, his father, sandalwood, was an elder of the eighteen Upper Shura Sects. I didn't think that he would actually return to the Crimson Light Heavens Sect."

"Master, you really have a good memory. That sandalwood bell is actually Yantang Bai's father." Jianxin nodded.

"When sandalwood had left the Crimson Light Heaven, he was already a lower Heavenly King. Now, so many years have passed, his cultivation definitely isn't low, and he might even be a peak Upper Sky King. He will definitely not let this matter rest once he finds out about the situation with the Ling Zhen Immortal Sect and Yantai. "

While he was speaking, Tang Huan's face was full of smiles the entire time, but he was not the least bit worried, as he did not even place a mere peak stage Heavenly King in his eyes.

"Master, you mustn't let your guard down."

When Jianxin heard this, he couldn't help but slightly frown and slowly said, "According to the news that came from the other side, there was a person following beside that sandalwood. His cultivation might not be any weaker than that Tan Zhong's, and even their strength might not lose to that Fire Phoenix. We should still be extra careful."

"Jianxin, there's no need to worry too much. This day is different from the past."

Tang Huan laughed.

Even if the strength of the two of them were truly comparable to the fire phoenix, he would still be fearless. Of course, if it was before he refined the "Nirvana Divine Flame", Tang Huan would have felt that it was extremely troublesome to fight against them. However, right now, Tang Huan was not so worried.

"Since Master is confident, then I won't say anymore." The corner of Jianxin's lips slightly widened, and he seemed to smile a little unnoticeably.

"Even Du Siwei and the others were killed by Tan Zhong. As the culprit that caused his son to become trash, it's even more impossible for him to let me off. I think after we take care of Du Siwei and the others, the two of them will rush over here. "

Tang Huan laughed and said, "Jianxin, immediately send a message to those puppets to mobilize the people, pay attention to the teleportation formations of the various big cities, and find the whereabouts of the two people, and inform me at any time. It took a great deal of effort for this Jade Emperor City to be built, and it's best not to be destroyed because of them. "

"Yes, master!"

Jianxin nodded his head, and then his figure disappeared.

Tang Huan squinted as a dangerous chill flashed through her eyes.

He had a feeling that the return of the sandalwood bell definitely had nothing to do with the unforeseen event that had befallen his son, sandalwood. Back then, sandalwood said that if he were to make a move on him, his father would immediately know. Towards Yama Minamiya's words, Tang Huan only scoffed at them, it was only Yama Minamiya bluffing.

sandalwood definitely only found out about the miserable state of sandalwood after returning to Spirit Pass City.

The sandalwood bell must have come for some other reason.

However, no matter why the two Asura High Sect Elders came, Tang Huan would not allow them to take even half a step into the Jade Imperial City. This place was the lair of the Heavenly Dao Academy. After countless sects merged into the Heavenly Dao Academy, the Jade Imperial City began to expand crazily.

The current Jade Imperial City was a hundred times more prosperous than it was before it was destroyed.

If this place was destroyed again, it would truly be a pity.

After that sandalwood bell and sandalwood saw each other, they would definitely not waste any more time on their journey. They would definitely use the transportation formation. As long as he used the transportation formation, he wouldn't be able to escape the attention of so many puppets. Of course, Tang Huan could also directly use the power of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Courtyard, and at the same time, he could find out the whereabouts of the sandalwood anytime he wanted.

Sandalwood and the other two must die!

"This is the Qing Huan City, right?"

The city was vast, and in the center of the city, two figures suddenly flickered out from a teleportation formation. One was a middle-aged man in white, and the other was an extremely muscular old man in a green robe. The moment he appeared, the middle-aged man in white couldn't help but laugh.

These two were Sandalwood and Tao You.

"That's right, after a few more teleports, we will be able to enter the Jade Imperial City."

Tan Zhong also laughed, but after a moment, the smile on his face suddenly stopped. He frowned and said, "Brother Tao You, do you feel that something is wrong?"

"Something wrong?"

Tao You froze for a moment, but his expression instantly changed, "This Qing Huan City is too quiet. Not to mention the cultivators, there isn't even a single living being in this city."

"Such a big city, so many cultivators couldn't have suddenly disappeared, and they couldn't have all died out."

Sandalwood's expression was gloomy, "In that case, there is only one explanation, and that is that all the cultivators in the city have moved away. The only thing that could accomplish this in such a short period of time was ... "

"Heavenly Sacred Courtyard!"

Tao You's eyes slightly froze, and he let out these four notes, and then coldly laughed, "Brother Tan, it seems like our whereabouts have been exposed! I wonder what the Heavenly Dao Academy wanted to do with all the cultivators in the city? to avoid anyone from activating the teleportation formation to slow us down. "

"No, brother Tao You, you guessed wrong." "Not only does the Heavenly Dao Academy want to slow us down, they also want to completely stop us in the entire Qing Huan City ... Maybe that Tang Huan has already arrived at Qing Huan City and is waiting for us to appear. "

"..."

Who will I be?

"Sandalwood, you're not stupid after all."

Right at this moment, a slightly mocking voice sounded out, and in an instant, a black figure suddenly appeared thousands of meters away from Tan Zhong and Tao You.

"Who are you?"

Both sandalwood and Tao You's expressions changed.

Previously, their minds had already covered the entire Qing Huan City and they had carefully inspected it. There were no signs of life within the city, so it was naturally impossible for any cultivators to be present. But now, there was actually such a person appearing in front of the two of them.

What shocked the two of them the most was that not only did they not sense the appearance of this person, even when they were facing him, they did not sense any aura fluctuations coming from the other side. It was as if the person standing there was not a human cultivator, but a mass of air!

Sandalwood and Tao You were not ordinary cultivators, but rather peak stage Heavenly Kings, and even they were not ordinary peak stage Heavenly Kings, but peak stage Heavenly Kings who had already stepped into the Heavenly Emperor Stage. With their cultivation and strength, they were still unable to sense each other's presence.

This was indeed extremely unbelievable.

In that instant, Tan Zhong and Tao You suddenly felt a chill run down their spines. Could that guy be a Heavenly Emperor Stage powerhouse? If it's really like that, then this time they are in grave danger. The two of them subconsciously exchanged glances, but they both saw shock in each other's eyes.

However, when they thought about it again, both of them calmed down.

How could a Heavenly Emperor appear in the Crimson Wurm Heavens? Even in the middle of the eighteenth day, Celestial Emperors were extremely rare. Most of the Heavenly Kings had left early to go to the Nine Heavens, and even if there was a Heavenly King who had the luck to be promoted to Heavenly Emperor, they would still not stay for long for eighteen days.

Even in the last 18 days, let alone the 36 days.

This fellow dared to come out and intercept these two Peak Heavenly Kings, he must also be a High King himself, and the reason why he could not sense any of his Qi was probably because he had some sort of strange cultivation technique, or some sort of treasure that could completely conceal his Qi.

The Heaven Realm was vast and limitless. Although such cultivation techniques and treasures were rare, they were not non-existent.

"All of you have specially come here to kill me. Who do you think I will be?" That person smiled, and the ridicule in his voice grew even stronger.

"Tang Huan? You are Tang Huan! "

Both Honolulu and Tao You were taken aback by his words, but they quickly relaxed.

Tang Huan was the Principal of the Heavenly Sacred Courtyard. With the Heavenly Dao Academy's current might in the Crimson Light Heavens, he could be considered the strongest person in the entire Heaven Realm. If he gave the order, not to mention just Qing Huan City, even a hundred of these large cities would be easy to deal with.

Who would have thought that Tang Huan did not send any troops to the Jade Imperial City, but instead left the place where experts were everywhere, and came to the Qing Huan City to kill them.

Moreover, Tang Huan seemed to have come here alone.

This fellow seemed to have great confidence in his own strength. However, did he really think that after killing the Flamephoenix a few years ago, he would be able to contend against these two Peak Heavenly King Stage Asuras? This guy will pay a heavy price for his confidence very soon.

"Tang Huan, we were just about to go look for you, we didn't expect you to deliver yourself up to us."

In a second, a sinister smile appeared on Tan Zhong's face, "That's good too, it saves us the time to run over to the Jade Imperial City. As your burial ground, I think this Qing Huan City is pretty good too. " As soon as he finished speaking, a huge golden blade appeared in his hand.

"Kill!"

In the midst of the thunderous roar, killing intent filled the air around Sandalwood. The giant golden blade in his palm slashed out, and an incomparably resplendent saber light roared forward like a dragon that had just broken out of its cage. The ear-piercing whistling sound seemed as if it was even about to tear apart the void.

The saber light was violent and tyrannical as it emanated an extremely ferocious killing intent.

In an instant, the originally quiet and elegant Qing Huan City turned into a sea of corpses. Wherever the golden blade radiance passed by, a deep and huge crack appeared again and again, quickly spreading out. Wherever it went, a violent wave of force swept out like a tidal wave, turning the houses on both sides into dust.

"Not bad."

Narrowing his eyes, he looked at the terrifying attack from Tan Zhong sweeping towards him, and actually revealed a slight smile on his face.

The moment he finished speaking, he slowly flicked his finger.

In a blink of an eye, the space in front of Tang Huan began to ripple violently, as though there was a ball of flame that was surging and churning violently like a tidal wave. However, the flame was completely invisible and formless, as though it was completely transparent.

"Tang Huan, you are really courting death!"

That Tang Huan actually dared to be so arrogant, did she really think that he, a Heavenly King at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm, was just a decoration? Not far away, Tao You couldn't help but laugh. This Tang Huan might indeed be powerful, but it's a pity that her knowledge is shallow and arrogant.

The Heavenly King who had not left the place for 36 days, even though he had already entered the Upper Level, was still unable to understand how powerful a Peak Heavenly King from the middle 18 days was.

The Upper Shura Sect, in the last 18 days, was a super sect, and there were very few who could compare to it. As an elder of the Upper Shura Sect, whether it was sandalwood or Tao You, they were both famous.

But now, this Tang Huan dared to respond to sandalwood's attack in such a way, it was no different from courting death.

Thinking of this, Tao You also shook his head regretfully.

However, this regret was not directed at Tang Huan. Originally, the reason he came here with sandalwood was to make use of this opportunity to help sandalwood, so that he would owe him a favor. But unfortunately, it was not his turn to help, as that Tang Huan was about to be easily taken care of by sandalwood.

In Tao You's eyes, although Tang Huan was still alive, she was no different from a dead person.

However, in the next instant, the smile on Tao You's face froze, and his eyes immediately popped open, his eyeballs seeming as if they were about to pop out from their sockets. In his line of sight, the terrifying blade beam that seemed to be able to break through everything and destroy every obstacle finally collided with the unending waves in the empty space in front of Tang Huan. However, the following situation caused even a peak level Heavenly King like him to find it hard to believe his own eyes.

There were no earth-shaking sounds, no power that could wreak havoc everywhere ...

When the blade beam made contact with the rapidly fluctuating space in front of Tang Huan, it was like ice and snow under the blazing sun, and it continuously melted. In an instant, the enormous blade beam and the Strength Qi that had wrapped around it had already been melted away, and the space continued to expand at a rapid pace.

Chapter 1966 - Inconceivable

This ... What was going on?

Tao You could hardly believe his eyes. As an Asura Elder like Tan Zhong, he was extremely clear about the power of Tan Zhong's blade, and from the destructive power of the blade light, the area of ten kilometers on both sides of the blade light were instantly razed to the ground.

Even a peak Heavenly King like him had to go all out in order to withstand such an attack.

But Tang Huan, with such a casual tone, had completely melted away the sandalwood's attack. It was like a clay ox entering the ocean, it did not stir up even the slightest of ripples.

What method did Tang Huan use?

After a moment of shock, Tao You regained his senses, and looked at Tang Huan with eyes full of unconcealable bewilderment.

Tao You, who was an onlooker, was greatly astonished. On the other hand, Yanzhong, who was in the middle of a battle, was completely astonished. He looked as if he had seen a ghost.

Since he was the one launching the attack, he was naturally very clear about the power of that blade light.

However, that powerful blade ray that seemed to be able to destroy the heavens and earth, did not even cut a single hair on Tang Huan's body, and just disappeared without a trace.

This was simply unbelievable to the extreme.

However, in the next moment, Tan Zhong could not care about being shocked, the intense undulation that originated from Tang Huan's body, had actually already arrived in front of him.

If this was before, he wouldn't have felt that this would be a threat to him.

But now, he didn't dare have such thoughts anymore.

That violent fluctuation spread out like a sea of fire, seeming to be able to melt everything. A moment ago, it had completely destroyed his attack. If he didn't deal with it carefully, he might even suffer a big loss. With a thought, the sandalwood bell explosively retreated, the huge golden blade in his hand chopping down.

On the broadsword blade that was as wide as a door, a thick golden aura flowed out like a stream of water, causing the huge golden blade to look as if it had turned into a living spirit object.

"Slash ..."

A sound like the crack of silk suddenly burst forth, and the space in front of Sandalwood was immediately torn apart, and a narrow crack in space swept out towards that fiery fluctuation.

In the blink of an eye, the spatial crack was cut into the flame-like fluctuation.

However, in a short while, the cracks started to close. In less than a blink, the cracks in space completely disappeared, and the undulations spread up with frightening speed. Without even using lightning or fire, they already covered the front part of the huge golden blade.

Tan Zhong's expression changed in shock, and his pupils couldn't help but reveal a terrified expression.

The giant golden blade in his hand was a high-grade heaven rank dao tool. However, the moment it was covered by the fluctuations, he immediately felt a strange power invade the blade. He then discovered that the dao diagram inside the blade was constantly being destroyed.

In less than half a blink of an eye, the golden light emitted by the giant blade dimmed.

"Hu!"

Seeing that the fluctuation still did not show any signs of stopping, Yanzhong's heart violently twitched. Without the slightest hesitation, boundless Tian Yuan roared out from within his body, and like a violent stormy sea, it followed the huge golden blade and struck forward. At this moment, the surroundings of the huge blade seemed to have formed a violent storm.

This desperate activation of the sandalwood bell had finally had some effect.

The giant golden blade in his hand took advantage of the momentum and continued to retreat without any hesitation. When his body stopped a few thousand meters away, the force that had intercepted the fluctuation had indeed been completely melted away. The ripple did not continue to move forward, but retreated like the tide, finally disappearing from Tang Huan's body.

"Tang Huan, what the hell are you using?"

Honeysuckle Bell's heart trembled slightly. If his own body had been covered by that strange fluctuation, then it was likely that, just like the power, he would have been completely melted in an instant.

Right now, even though he had opened up a bit of distance between him and Tang Huan, the enormous golden blade in his hand was already severely injured, and could at most unleash seventy to eighty percent of the former strength. Furthermore, a distance of several thousand meters was not safe either.

Thus, at this time, his vigilance and wariness had already reached its peak.

"With your little bit of knowledge, even if I told you, you wouldn't know."

Tang Huan's gaze swept across the shocked sandalwood and the extremely shocked Tao You as she smiled and said, "You only need to know that this thing is enough to easily take your lives! The two of you, we have already been here for quite some time, why not both of you come at once so that we can quickly finish this battle. "

"What?"

Hearing Tang Huan's words, an intense rage almost immediately surged out from the depths of her soul. The two of them were peak level Heavenly Kings, with eighteen days of glory, no matter where they went, they would be respected, but after coming to this place for thirty-six days, they were actually looked down upon.

However, before this anger could burst out, it was as if a bucket of cold water had been poured over them.

They still had not figured out what kind of power Tang Huan was using, but the power of that power was truly eye-opener for them. They had a deep feeling that it could actually melt the attack of a peak Sky King so easily ... It was truly unheard-of.

If Tang Huan was a Heavenly Emperor Stage powerhouse, they would more or less be able to accept it.

After all, to the Heavenly Emperor, no matter how powerful the Heavenly King was, he was no different from an ant. However, according to the information they had received, Tang Huan was only an Upper Sky King, and might not even be a Peak Sky King. Such a guy actually had such unbelievable means. How could they endure such a favor?

Sandalwood and Tao You subconsciously exchanged a look, and immediately came to a decision.

"Tang Huan, since that's the case, then we will fulfill your wish." Right at the moment the voice came out, the giant golden blade in sandalwood's hand began to wildly dance about, countless golden blade lights condensed into a ball that rolled forward, becoming bigger and bigger like rolling snowballs. A terrifying aura also continuously surged out, almost to the point where every inch she advanced, she was tyrannical.

"Chi!" "Swish ..."

Almost at the same time, a series of piercing sounds could be heard.

Tens of thousands of silk-like white rays of light continuously bloomed in front of Tao You's body, like fireworks. A jade white sword appeared in his hand, with the body of the sword dancing rapidly like a butterfly.

The sword qi burst out at the same time. The terrifyingly sharp sword intent filled up the entire space. It seemed like it could instantly turn anything in the world into dust.

Chapter 1967

Two peak-level Heavenly Kings attacked at the same time, their blade lights and sword Qi swinging about wantonly.

The horrifying might instantly covered a circumference of a hundred miles. The vast space rapidly distorted, and the buildings in that space had already completely turned into dust.

Seeing that, Tang Huan could not help but smile sarcastically.

Just now, he was testing the strength of his blade by activating the true "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" that had completed its transformation. The power of the flame was already far beyond Tang Huan's imagination.

With the "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" on his body, not to mention the two peak level Heavenly Kings, Sandalwood and Tao You, even if there were more of them, Tang Huan would still be fearless.

Amongst the cultivators at the level of the Upper Sky King, Tang Huan, who possessed the "Primal Chaos Dao Fire", was almost capable of killing gods and buddhas with Divine Obstruction.

"Whoosh!"

After a moment, Tang Huan's figure was as fast as lightning, welcoming the attacks of Tan Zhong and Tao You.

Within Tang Huan's Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" had already started operating as boundless firepower gushed out. In the next instant, that bizarre fluctuation once again appeared around Tang Huan's body, and that vigorous "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" surged out of her body like a landslide, rolling in all directions like raging waves.

In a split-second, Tang Huan was enveloped by the "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" and directly struck towards the sandalwood and Tao You's attack.

One after another, the sword beams cut into the translucent flames like lightning, but they disintegrated at an even faster speed.

In less than half a blink of an eye, Tang Huan had forcibly blocked the attacks of the two people. From afar, it looked like there was a huge hole in the blade and sword beams that had filled the sky.

In a split-second, the expressions of Tan Zhong and Tao You changed.

They could already clearly feel that with every inch that the transparent hole expanded, their attacks would become weaker. And with every inch that Tang Huan advanced, the pressure they felt became stronger. That's right, Tang Huan's current actions had already brought about an incomparably huge pressure to the two Peak Heavenly Kings.

Their attack was so powerful, but Tang Huan, on the other hand, still treated them as nothing.

What kind of power was he activating at this moment?

It looked a little like a wave formed by transparent flames ... However, even at this point, no aura was released.

Could it be Dao fire?

However, how could there be a Dao Flame like this in this world?

Even if Sandalwood Bell and Tao You thought about it themselves, they would never have imagined that there would actually be someone in this world who possessed the true 'Chaos Dao Flame'. As such, the shock in their hearts could not be described with words. Not only that, looking at Tang Huan's powerful and straightforward figure, the two of them started to feel fear.

"You two, take one of my blows as well."

Tang Huan laughed loudly. In between the mind instructs (in a second), the baby's fist-sized "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" pierced through the lines of flames, and shot towards the gap between the sandalwood bell and Tao You like a meteor.

Seeing this, Tan Zhong and Tao You were both stunned.

If Tang Huan did not target either of them, what did she mean by that?

However, in the next moment, the expressions of the two of them abruptly changed. They could actually feel an incomparably enormous chaos energy. That energy was like a vast ocean that spread throughout the world, as if it wanted to completely annihilate them. At this moment, Sandalwood and Tao You felt their souls tremble.

Chaos energy ... This was an extremely wondrous item that originated from the most original power in the world.

In the Heaven Realm, even if it was the highest of the Nine Heavens, items that possessed the power of Chaos would be extremely rare, who would have thought that they would encounter such a thing in the Crimson Light Heavens. Moreover, just by looking at the intensity and density of the chaos energy, one could tell that the thing emitting the power of Chaos would be the treasure of this world.

Tang Huan, an Upper Sky King who had lived for thirty-six days, actually possessed such a treasure?

Looking at the small pebble that was emitting a majestic aura of primal chaos, the two of them could not believe the situation they sensed. However, before they could accept this fact, their pupils contracted.

At that time, the two of them did not have the slightest hesitation as the power within their bodies burst out without restraint.

"Bang!" "Bam!"

Immediately after, Tan Zhong and Tao You did not even have time to retreat or dodge, they were struck head on by the gigantic boulder, which produced an earth-shaking sound, and the Sky Origin Barrier that the two of them had condensed immediately crumbled, turning into Strength Qi and was sent flying in all directions.

At this moment, the two Peak Sky Kings were like ordinary people that had been struck by a giant rock, their bodies involuntarily flew backwards, as they were in midair, spitting out large mouthfuls of blood. Their faces instantly turned as white as paper, without a trace of blood.

In the blink of an eye, the two of them had flown back dozens of miles on a cloud.

At this moment, deep fear had already appeared in the depths of Tan Zhong and Tao You's eyes. The moment they were struck by that enormous object, the two of them felt as if their bodies, their Dao Nascent Souls, and even their souls were instantly dispersed by that incomparably terrifying power.

In that instant, the two of them even smelled the scent of death.

Right now, even though the two of them were still alive, their internal organs had been crushed, their skin and bones were cracked inch by inch, all of the bones in their bodies had been shattered into pieces, and even the Nascent Soul within the Dantian had innumerable dense scars.

That one strike had actually caused two peak Heavenly Kings to be easily injured. What terrifying power!

This Tang Huan, she would have to at least be an Inferior Sky Emperor to contend against!

In such a field, whether it is sandalwood bell, or Tao You, all are filled with regret. However, they did not take his words to heart. In their minds, they were elders from the Upper Sky Sect of the Central Eighteen Asura, and furthermore, they were all veterans of the Upper Sky Realm. Why would they need to respect a fellow who had lived for thirty-six days?

However, the reality slapped them hard in the face, causing them to wake up completely.

They had all completely realized that even if the two of them were to join hands, they would still not be Tang Huan's match. The most pressing matter of the moment was not to continue tangling with Tang Huan, but to quickly flee this place.

Just as this thought appeared in their minds, their hearts dropped to the bottom.

The gigantic object suddenly disappeared from their sights, but, replacing the gigantic object was Tang Huan's figure. Around Tang Huan, the ripple that could be seen with the naked eye once again appeared before their eyes, and Tang Huan had used that terrifying force once again.

Chapter 1968 - Surrender

"Since you two are here, don't even think about escaping!"

Tang Huan chased after the two of them like a shadow.

In the blink of an eye, sandalwood and Tao You, who were separated by a few hundred meters, were enveloped by the transparent flames that covered a vast area. Under extreme fear and despair, their eyes immediately turned deathly grey, and their faces became distorted.

They had personally witnessed the terror of that power. After being covered by it, how could they still survive?

In a split-second, they had already met their end. They had bitterly trained for thousands of years, yet they ended up like this. How could they be willing to accept this? However, things had already come to this point. No matter how unwilling they were, they could not turn the situation around and could only wait for death to descend.

Sure enough, a strong binding force came from all directions and completely trapped their bodies.

The two of them felt their souls tremble, but after a moment, they discovered that although the feeling of being imprisoned was still there, their bodies, their Dao souls, and even their souls had not been melted away.

"He's still alive."

Sandalwood and Tao You's eyes opened wide, and an expression of ecstasy involuntarily emerged from the depths of their souls.

However, this ecstasy didn't last for long before the two of them felt as if a bucket of ice water had been splashed onto their heads. A bone-piercing chill seemed to seep from their bodies into the depths of their souls. At this moment, two large hands appeared in their line of sight. Not long later, those two hands grabbed each of them by the neck and lifted them up.

"Do you two still have anything else to say?"

Immediately, Tang Huan's smiling face appeared in front of them.

Both Tan Zhong and Tao You did not say anything, but closed their eyes in despair, their complexions becoming increasingly pale. Just because Tang Huan did not kill them did not mean that she would not kill them just now. The reason why she still allowed them to roam about was perhaps because she wanted them to ruthlessly humiliate themselves for a while before making a move.

"The two of you seem to have nothing to say."

Tang Huan said with a face full of smiles. The transparent "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" still covered a vast expanse of space, "Since that's the case, let me do it." Tang Huan squinted her eyes as she looked at the bedraggled sandalwood and Tao You, "To me, the two of you are indeed not strong enough to withstand a single blow, but your strength is still not bad."

Even though they were waiting for death with their eyes closed, Tan Zhong and Tao You were still extremely angry and embarrassed when they heard Tang Huan's words. A touch of sickly red surfaced on their pale white faces.

"With such strength ..."

Tang Huan didn't care about the expressions of Tan Zhong and Tao You, but said with a smile all over her face, "Among the elders of the Asura Faction, the status of the two of them should not be too low. Generally speaking, after a cultivator enters the middle of the eighteenth or ninth day, they very rarely return for the next thirty-six days. "

"But, you guys actually came together, there must be a reason behind it!"

After saying that, Tang Huan's eyes suddenly stared straight at Tan Zhong, "Tan Zhong, don't you dare tell me that you are here to avenge your precious son. If I'm not wrong, when the two of you left for the last 18 days, Tan Bai did not seem to have become a cripple."

"I am very curious. Why have you all come here?"

In the next thirty-six days, the Crimson Sky Kingdom is not very eye-catching. However, it is this unremarkable Heaven Realm that was actually able to attract two Asura Elders to personally come here. The story must be very interesting, so you two might as well explain it to me in detail.

Sandalwood and Tao You still did not say anything, but a strange look flashed across their faces.

Tang Huan had already come to an answer in his heart, so she did not continue asking until the end. Instead, she smiled, "It's not easy for the two of you to cultivate to your current level. Right now, I have two choices for you two. One is to swear an oath to the heavens, and from then on, you will be completely loyal to me. The second is to plant an item called 'Puppet Soul Seal' in your soul, and it will be under my control from now on. "

"What's the difference?"

"Tang Huan, since we have already fallen into your hands, we no longer wish to live. If you want to kill us or cut us into pieces, just do as you say!" Even though he said that, the huge bell-like eyes of the sandalwood shone with a strong desire to survive.

"I choose the first choice." At this moment, Tao You suddenly spoke.

"Brother Tao You, you ..."

When Sandalwood heard this, his eyes widened as he looked at Tao You in disbelief.

He knew that Tang Huan did not want to kill the two of them, hence, he purposely displayed his unyielding nature, in hopes that he could advance and retreat together with Tao You, as well as gain some benefits from this. However, he did not expect that Tao You would actually choose to swear an oath of loyalty to Tang Huan before him, and let his previous plan go to waste.

"I am willing to swear an oath to you that I will be loyal to you from now on."

"Very good! Very good! A wise man is wise. " Tang Huan smiled and nodded, his gaze turned from Tao You to Tan Zhong and smiled, "Tan Zhong, since you have such determination, then I will not force you. "How about this, let me choose the third choice for you."

"The third way?"

The sandalwood bell slightly froze, as if suddenly realizing something, and its expression became miserable.

At this time, Tang Huan actually swept her eyes over Tan Zhong, smiled slightly, and spoke: "Tan Zhong, you were born in the Scarlet Radiance Sky and now you are back in the Scarlet Radiance

Sky. I will use this Qing Huan City as your burial ground, and I believe I won't disgrace you. "Now, rest in peace."

As he spoke, Tang Huan exerted a little more strength in his hands, as if he was about to break sandalwood's neck.

"Wait!" Sandalwood's face immediately swelled red, and he spat out a few notes with great difficulty, "I ... I also choose the first choice. "

It was just a few short words, but the sandalwood bell seemed to have exhausted all of its energy.

After he finished saying those words, his face had a dispirited expression, and his eyes were filled with shame. Previously, he wanted to reprimand Tao You, but in just a few short breaths of time, he had already followed in Tao You's footsteps and made the same choice as himself.

"Not bad, not bad."

Tang Huan smiled and nodded, "sandalwood, why didn't you say that earlier? However, I'm sorry to tell you, after the first choice has been made by your companions, there's no more left. So, you only have one choice now, and that is the second choice. "

"X. The second way? "

Chapter 1969 - Highest Heavenly King

Honeysuckle and Tao You, the two peak overlords of the Asura Supreme Sect, were captured alive. They did not cause much of a commotion in the Crimson Light, and not many people even knew of their arrival. However, the destruction of the Qing Huan City caused countless cultivators to be suspicious.

However, as time passed, these conjectures quickly vanished into thin air.

Inside Jade Imperial City, in an exquisite palace of the Heavenly Dao Holy Academy's headquarters, Tang Huan sat cross-legged, sizing up the two figures in front of him.

Now, Tao You had already pledged his allegiance to Tang Huan and became his servant, while Tan Zhong had merged with the Sword Heart's "Puppet Soul Seal", becoming a puppet controlled indirectly by Tang Huan.

Tang Huan's gaze fell on Tan Zhong and Tao You, her thoughts not on the two of them, but on the information she had heard from them.

Indeed, as Tang Huan had expected, the reason the sandalwood had returned to the Heaven of the Red Radiance was not because of her son, Yama Minamiya, but because of some other reason.

Tan Zhong and Tao You revealed that the reason why they spent so much time and spent so much time in the last thirty-six days was because they were ordered by the sect to come to Crimson Waves Kingdom to retrieve a precious treasure.

It was said that a supreme elder of the Asura Supreme Sect who possessed a great divine ability had communicated with the heavens to deduce the location of that treasure.

However, that treasure had yet to appear, and its time of appearance was still ten years away. Of course, such a small amount of time was not even worth mentioning to a peak-level Heavenly King.

For Tan Zhong and Tao You, just 18 days out of the two of them to arrive in the Crimson Radiance Sect, it had already taken them more than 20 years.

That was fast.

Spending even longer on that journey was common.

sandalwood and Tao You had originally planned to go to the place where the treasure would appear to check out the situation after getting rid of Tang Huan, but didn't expect that not only did they not get rid of Tang Huan, they instead became her servants and puppets.

"According to your guesses, how many people will know about the treasure in the end?" After a long while, Tang Huan suddenly asked.

"This..."

Tan Zhong and Tao You looked at each other as if they weren't sure.

After a while, Tan Zhong frowned slightly, "That's hard to say. In the entire Heaven Realm, there should be a few more experts who can make such deductions by communicating with the Heaven Dao. However, it's unlikely that anyone from the ninth heaven would come. After all, the distance is too far and it's very difficult to predict. As for the eighteenth day ... "

As he said this, he exchanged a glance with Tao You, and then he slowly said, "In the 18th day, there should not be more than 50 people."

"No more than fifty?"

Tang Huan muttered to herself, "They must all be top peak-level Heavenly Kings like you guys? Will there be any Heavenly Emperor Stage powerhouses coming over personally? "

"Nope."

Hearing that, Tan Zhong and Tao You both shook their heads without hesitation, "Although that treasure can help a person become a Heavenly Emperor, it isn't of much use to a powerhouse that has already stepped into the Heavenly Emperor Realm. The Heavenly Emperors of the eighteenth day would never waste their time on this. "

"That's true."

Tang Huan slightly nodded, and laughed, "Since there won't be a Sky Emperor coming personally, then there's no need to worry. Sandalwood, Tao You, both of you, go to that place now and wait there. Ten years later, I will rejoin you. "

"Yes sir!"

Sandalwood and Tao You hurriedly bowed and left.

Looking at the two of them disappearing quickly, Tang Huan could not help but mutter to herself, "I truly never thought that Chi Gen Tian would actually take out such a good thing, ten years later, I can just walk over there. In this Chi Gen Tian, I am the master, if those people want to snatch the treasures, they will have to see if I agree or not."

With a slight smile, Tang Huan closed the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" in her palm and then faintly closed her eyes. A moment later, strands of the Chaotic Force began to leak out and was channeled by Tang Huan's sucking.

If one entered the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", and fused with the mind sculpture, the power of the sucking's Primal Chaos Box would be even faster. However, inside, it was concealed by the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", so the perception of the outside world would be greatly reduced.

In order to reduce all distractions, Tang Huan no longer entered the encampment space of the Emperor of Yuan Huang Mountain City. Instead, she continued to stay in the Heavenly Dao Saint Courtyard in Jade Imperial City.

Right now, the date they had set was getting closer and closer. Shan Shan and the others could go through tribulation to reach the heavens at any time, so Tang Huan had no choice but to make preparations early.

For example, the "Celestial Destiny Mirror" was placed beside Tang Huan.

All of the auras that Shan Shan and the others gathered before the lower realms ascended the heavens were all absorbed by Tang Huan into the Immortal Mirror. It was also fortunate that Tang Huan had been using the energy of Primal Chaos to nourish their auras ever since she entered the Heaven Realm. Otherwise, their auras would have vanished into thin air long ago.

Right now, as long as Shan Shan and the others succeeded in transcending the heavenly tribulation and entered the Crimson Radiance Sect, the "Celestial Mirror of Heavenly Secrets" would immediately be able to sense them.

Tang Huan, as the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy, was already no different from the master of the Crimson Wyrms Sky. No matter which direction they appeared in, Tang Huan was able to use the Heavenly Dao Academy to mobilize the people closest to them. She would rush over to protect them first before rushing over herself.

With Tang Huan's understanding of them, they definitely wouldn't have gone through tribulation to ascend to the heavens at the same time. Instead, they would've come one after another, which just happened to give Tang Huan time.

Tang Huan had already made full preparations so he didn't have to worry about their safety anymore.

At this time, Tang Huan had only separated a strand of her consciousness to pay attention to the movements of the "Celestial Destiny Mirror", as all of her attention was placed on the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal". Time quietly passed by, Tang Huan had refined more and more Chaotic Force, and the number of Dao crystals in her Dantian Dao Nascent Soul had been increasing rapidly.

"400 million Dao crystals!"

After an unknown period of time, Tang Huan finally opened her eyes. She slowly exhaled, and a satisfied smile surfaced on her face.

A total of four hundred million dao crystals, meant that Tang Huan had already stepped into the realm of the peak of the Upper Sky King.

Another step forward would be the Heavenly Emperor.

However, for all the peak-level Heavenly Kings, this was an extremely difficult step. From ancient times till now, there had not been many who had reached the peak of the Heavenly King Stage. However, there were very few who had managed to take that step, and not even one in ten thousand. Amongst them, there were countless geniuses that were absolutely stunning but stopped in their tracks.

Even though Tang Huan was confident in herself, she was not so arrogant as to think that she would be promoted to the Heavenly Emperor Stage very soon. Even if she were to stop at this level for the next hundred years, Tang Huan would feel that it was very normal. Of course, if she could obtain the treasures that Tao You and the sandalwood bell mentioned, the situation would naturally be different.

Although he already had four hundred million dao crystals and had stepped into the realm of the upper peak Sky King, Tang Huan did not stop cultivating.

The same Upper Level Peak Heavenly King, there was also the strong and the weak. In the future, he would have to contend against so many Peak Sky Kings. Tang Huan needed to raise her strength to the absolute limit. Otherwise, even if there were treasures like the "Chaos Origin Crystals", it would be hard to not fail.

Tang Huan calmed her mind and focused, continuing to absorb the chaotic energy from the Origin Crystal.

Time passed bit by bit ...

"Rumble ..."

After an unknown amount of time, a trembling suddenly broke the peace of this palace.

Although the voice was soft, it was extremely loud in the originally tranquil space, causing Tang Huan who was immersed in cultivation to immediately wake up.

Turning his head, a bright white light immediately appeared in front of Tang Huan.

The bowl sized "Heaven's Secret Mirror", which was as thin as a cicada's wing, was now shining brightly. What used to be a misty whiteness within the Immortal Mirror seemed to be shrouded in a layer of mist. But now, that mist had been lifted, revealing countless criss-crossing, mysterious, and unfathomable veined patterns.

Soon after, strands of green aura began to rise from the patterns. In an instant, it condensed into a walnut-sized green aura.

"He's finally here!"

No matter how calm and resolute Tang Huan's heart was, she couldn't help but feel a surge of emotions at this moment.

In the next moment, Tang Huan extended her hand out like lightning and grabbed the "Heavencraft Immortal Mirror".

Immediately after, Tang Huan's mind was completely immersed within the "Celestial Destiny Mirror", and she began to carefully sense its effects. In just a few short breaths of time, Tang Huan stood up.

"The Heavenly Spear Realm!"

The moment the four words came out from his mouth, Tang Huan's figure had already disappeared from the palace.

The Heavenly Spear Realm was located to the west of the Scarlet Radiance Heaven's Extreme Heaven. Most of the land within the domain was occupied by the endless yellow sand and desert, and very few areas were covered by plants and vegetation.

In the western part of the territory, there was a sect called the Azure Dragon School.

Of course, the Azure Dragon School had already become a part of history. After merging with the Heavenly Dao Academy, the Azure Dragon Sect had become the Blue Dragon Division of the Tian Ge Branch of the Heavenly Dao Academy.

"Thump!" "Thump ~ ~ ~"

At the Azure Dragon Division's encampment, rapid and resounding bell chimes suddenly rang out from the mountain peaks. In just a short while, eighteen consecutive chimes had been rung out.

The cultivators scattered throughout the mountain range were all bewildered.

It had been a very, very long time, but the great bell at the peak of the mountain had not rung so many times in a row.

According to the rules of the former Azure Dragon School and the current Azure Dragon Clan, having eighteen chimes meant that the most urgent matter had occurred. After hearing the bell chimes, all the Azure Dragon Clan cultivators, regardless of what they were doing, had to immediately put them down. They then rushed to the plaza at the foot of the mountain, awaiting orders.

As a result, as soon as the bell tolled, many figures began to move through the mountain peaks at lightning speed.

In just a short moment, the thousand metre wide plaza at the foot of the mountain was already packed with people. All of the cultivators had expressions of amazement on their faces.

"Senior Brother, Senior Brother, do you know what big event happened in our Azure Dragon School?" Do we really need to gather everyone here? "

"I don't know either. However, we don't need to be anxious. The Head of the Division will definitely appear soon."

"Could it be that some powerful enemy is invading us?"

"How is this possible? "What are you thinking about? Right now, the entire Crimson Radiance Sect is under the command of the Heavenly Dao Academy. Where did this strong enemy invade?"

"..."

The crowd was bustling with activity as murmurs arose in all directions.

However, this hubbub only lasted for a short while before it suddenly quietened down. Numerous gazes looked towards the sky, where a figure was rapidly descending from the sky.

After a split-second, the figure had already landed at the front of the plaza. It was tall and sturdy, and wore a black robe. It was the former sect leader of the Azure Dragon School, the current Azure Dragon Division's head, Yuan Zhan.

Sweeping the area with his gaze, Yuan Zhan shouted out with a loud voice, "Everyone, we need to head to the Thoughtless Desert to find a woman who has just ascended to the heavens after facing the tribulation. When he found her, he had to be respectful and not show the slightest bit of disrespect. Violators would die! This is an order directly issued by the Principal of the Heavenly Law Academy.

"Yes sir!"

Everyone responded loudly, feeling increasingly bewildered and uncertain.

Let alone the headquarters of the Heavenly Dao Academy, even the Tiange Branch of the Heavenly Dao Academy was a bit out of reach for the remote Azure Dragon Division. But now, the order from the Heavenly Dao Academy's headquarters had actually come to the tiny Azure Dragon Division. What was going on?

Furthermore, the one who gave the order was the Principal of the Main Academy, Tang Huan!

To the audience, Tang Huan was an existence that was high and mighty, an existence that everyone looked up to. He actually wanted to find a woman who had just ascended to the heavens?

Where did that girl come from?

In just a few short decades, he had gone from a tiny little bit of a man in heaven, to the level of an Upper Sky King. The Heavenly Dao Academy that he had created not only unified the entire Crimson Wurm Kingdom, it had also made him the strongest person in the entire Crimson Twilight Sky Kingdom.

That woman might have come from the same great world as Tang Huan in the lower realms, and furthermore, she definitely had an extremely deep relationship with Tang Huan.

Thinking of this, all of the Azure Dragon Clan cultivators became excited. If they were able to find that woman, their days of meteoric rise would be over.

"Let's go!"

Yuan Zhan's lips moved slightly, he was about to say something, but he noticed that the crowd of cultivators became more excited, so he waved his hand and the note that rushed to his mouth turned into a loud shout.

"Yes sir!"

The crowd dispersed in a flash. Following which, several figures soared into the sky and headed northwest in groups of three or five.

The Heartless Desert was about ten thousand miles northwest of the Hidden Dragon Clan's encampment. The reason why it had such a strange name was because there was a unique creature within the desert, the "Heartless Sky Scorpion". This kind of "Heartless Sky Scorpion" had no heart, was extremely irritable and extremely aggressive.

Once other life forms were discovered, they would certainly attack in groups, not giving up until they were dead.

To cultivators above the Heavenly Lord, the "Heartless Sky Scorpion" was not a threat, but to those who had just ascended the heavenly tribulation, this kind of creature was extremely dangerous.

In the depths of the desert, there was an endless expanse of yellow sand.

"Whoosh!"

A graceful figure was running fast. Her body was high and fiery. She was a young woman with an extremely beautiful face. Not only was her dress a fiery red, her hair also contained a reddish hue. Even her eyes revealed a faint fiery redness.

From afar, the woman looked like a ball of red flames floating in the middle of the yellow sand, agile and agile.
