

W. Master 1971

Chapter 1971

"Rustle, rustle ..."

Huge sounds continuously reverberated in the desert.

Thousands of meters behind the woman in red was a billowing cloud of smoke and dust. It seemed as if a giant dragon made of yellow sand was rapidly moving; its momentum was extremely great.

The sand that churned forward contained countless black shadows.

It was a gigantic scorpion.

They were the 'Heartless Sky Scorpion' that was unique to this desert. Each of them had a sturdy body and incomparably fast speed. Furthermore, they liked to move in groups. After discovering their prey, they would definitely chase after it. They would never stop until they had eaten their prey.

Obviously, the woman in red in front of him was the prey of this swarm of scorpions.

Unknowingly, both parties had pursued each other for nearly half a quarter of an hour. However, the distance between the two did not decrease by much over time.

"These things are really haunting."

The woman in red slightly knitted her brows as anger flashed through her eyes. However, a trace of joy also surged up from the bottom of her heart.

She was a cultivator that had just ascended from the heavens, and the dense immortal spirit aura that emanated from her body was a testament to this. When she was in the lower realms, she was already mentally prepared for the dangerous situations that she would encounter after entering the Heaven Realm. She even planned all sorts of countermeasures.

Fortunately, this was the case. Otherwise, she would have lost her life the moment she was exposed to the group of scorpions. It would have been impossible for her to escape from the encirclement of scorpions.

However, even though they had escaped the encirclement, the group of scorpions were still relentlessly chasing them. It was truly a headache for them.

"Fortunately, although I have just ascended the heavens, my strength far surpasses that of ordinary people. Otherwise, I would have been caught up by these scorpions a long time ago." The woman in red's expression was grim. Her mind spun rapidly. She could still maintain her strength for another period of time, but she didn't know if she could surpass the remaining scorpions.

"I haven't seen him for decades. I wonder how he's doing right now?"

The woman in red's thoughts stirred, and a slender figure appeared in her mind. A strong longing filled her heart, but now was not the time to let her imagination run wild. The woman in red immediately suppressed her emotions and continued to think of a way to escape.

If he really had no other choice, he would have to use the molten lava Giant.

The woman in red pinched the thin jade slip in her hand. With a thought, she thought to herself. This jade slip was called the "Spirit Melting Puppet Seal" and was something that she had brought from the lower realms.

"Rustle, rustle ..."

With a blink, another several hundred miles passed. But just at that time, the movements behind him suddenly increased by quite a bit.

The woman in red quickly turned her head over, and suddenly discovered an unusually large black shadow shooting out explosively from the rolling smoke. With just a few leaps, the distance between the two sides had already shortened by several hundred meters. That was also a black scorpion, but its size was several times larger than the other scorpions behind her.

Compared to them, those scorpions were like children in front of the brawny man.

The giant black scorpion was extremely ferocious, as if it was an ancient vicious beast that had just broken free from its cage. It madly rushed forward, and a violent aura surged out from its body.

The woman in red's complexion changed. She immediately realized that she was no match for the giant black scorpion behind her.

Moreover, with the speed it was displaying, he estimated that it wouldn't be long before he was caught. By that time, if she had even the slightest pause, the countless remaining scorpions would chase after her and surround her. She would once again be surrounded by the black scorpions.

It would not stop there, but it would end up getting messed up!

These words subconsciously flashed through the woman in red's mind. This was something he often said when they were in the lower realms. Now, it was a critical moment in which he needed her to make a decision.

In almost an instant, the woman in red made her decision.

"Evil creature, how dare you attack human cultivators on the territory of our Azure Dragon Clan, you are really reckless!" However, just as the lady in red was about to activate the "Spirit Melting Puppet Seal", a thunderous shout suddenly rumbled and shook the entire area.

"Hmm?"

The woman in red didn't stop. Her delicate eyebrows slightly raised as a trace of surprise flashed through her eyes.

Almost at the same instant that voice was heard, five small dots appeared in her line of sight. In less than a breath of time, those specks of light had turned into five black shadows, shooting over from the distant horizon at lightning speed. Their speed was unbelievably fast.

In the blink of an eye, those five figures appeared in front of the woman in red.

The person standing right in front was shockingly an old man dressed in black robes, a burly man with a white beard and a face full of white hair. The person standing right in front was shockingly an old man dressed in black robes, a burly man with a white beard and a face full of white hair.

This person's strength is so strong, I wonder what cultivation he has?

Compared to him, the group of scorpions behind him, even the gigantic black scorpion, was nothing. The moment this thought flashed through her mind, the woman in red couldn't help but turn her head to look. The next moment, an extremely unimaginable scene appeared before her eyes.

The group of scorpions had already stopped moving forward. The huge black scorpion at the very front had already turned its body and its stomach was facing upwards as it seemed to be begging for forgiveness. The former impressive might was completely gone. The countless scorpions behind the giant scorpion also followed suit and revealed their stomachs in front of everyone's eyes.

The rolling smoke and dust that was carried by the scorpions had also swiftly scattered. The figures of the countless number of scorpions that were originally covered by the dust had become increasingly clear.

"You only thought of begging for forgiveness now? "Too late!"

The tall and sturdy old man snorted coldly, then waved his fan-like hand forward. The four figures behind him shot forward, and in an instant, they flew past the lady in red, like four sharp swords that revealed their sharpness, sweeping towards the group of scorpions. Wherever they passed by, all obstacles would be reduced to dust.

The giant black scorpion seemed to have sensed that begging for mercy was useless. It suddenly turned its body around and quickly fled in the direction where the group of scorpions had come from.

As it moved, the countless scorpions behind it also moved. It was a complete mess.

Although its speed seemed to be extremely fast, in a blink of an eye, a white sword light flashed past. It did not even have the time to react before Pang Shuo's body was split into two halves by the sword light.

After the sword energy passed, the cultivator didn't stop at all as he charged into the group of scorpions with the other three. He was like a tiger in a flock of sheep, and wherever he went, he was invincible.

Seeing this scene, the woman in red could no longer hide the shock in her heart. Surprise emerged on her beautiful face.

But at this moment, the tall and sturdy old man who had yet to make a move suddenly bowed to her. "The division head of the Azure Dragon Division of the Heavenly Law Academy, Yuan Zhan, greets Madam!"

Chapter 1972. It really was him!

Heavenly Court... Azure Dragon Clan... Madam...

Hearing the words of this tall and sturdy old man called Yuan Zhan, the woman in red was completely stunned. Even her mind couldn't help but be a bit muddled.

Perhaps the Heavenly Dao Academy was a sect from this Heaven Realm.

Azure Dragon Clan was presumably a branch of that sect ... For a branch head to possess such terrifying strength, how powerful must the Heavenly Law Palace be? However, why would the Azure Dragon Division's Patriarch perform such a great courtesy to him, and even address him as "Madam"?

He was just a man in heaven who had just ascended the heavens!

Was there some kind of misunderstanding?

Who knows? Maybe the Azure Dragon Division's Chief, Yuan Zhan, has mistaken him for someone else. It didn't make much sense either. All cultivators who had just transcended heavenly tribulation from the Lower Realms would have the essence of celestial spirits in their bodies. He could be wrong on the face, but it was difficult to be wrong on the face of a Celestial. Could it be that the 'Madam' he was referring to was also someone who had just transcended heavenly tribulation?

Of course, there was also the possibility that Yuan Zhan had other intentions in mind and that he was purposefully trying to recognize the wrong person.

Logically speaking, such a powerful being shouldn't have any designs on a small Heaven Realm person. But since he had just come to the Heaven Realm and wasn't familiar with the situation, he had to be careful.

If there was anything wrong, he would use the Spirit Melting Puppet.

Even if he did that, he wouldn't be a match for Yuan Zhan. However, no matter what, he had to try. After all, he couldn't just sit there and wait for death when faced with a dangerous situation that was difficult to resist.

"Madam, don't worry."

Seemingly sensing the woman in red's worry, Yuan Zhan tried his best to make the smile on his face friendly. He then said with a beaming smile, "This subordinate only said one name, and Madam will understand it all."

"What name?"

The woman in red subconsciously asked.

However, the moment the words left her mouth, her heart couldn't help but thump loudly. An exceptionally bold thought reflexively emerged from the depths of her soul. Could it be because of him? After dozens of years, with his talent and potential, his cultivation speed would definitely not be any slower.

Perhaps, he had also joined the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Furthermore, with his current status in the Heavenly Law Academy, he might even be above the Azure Dragon Division's Clan Chief. Only in this way would he be able to explain why Yuan Zhan was bowing so courteously to him. Perhaps he had used some method to find out that he had already transcended heavenly tribulation, which was why he sent Yuan Zhan's men to welcome him.

"Tang Huan!" In the next instant, these two characters jumped out from Yuan Zhan's mouth, and as he spoke the name, his expression was filled with reverence and reverence.

"It's really him!"

The moment she heard this voice, the woman in red felt as if her heart missed a beat. Then, a great surprise surged out from the depths of her soul, and a misty mist unconsciously floated into her eyes. She anxiously asked, "Chief Yuan, how is he? Where is he now?"

"Madam, don't worry."

Yuan Zhan hurriedly said, "The Heavenly Dao Academy has unified almost all the sects in the Crimson Radiance Heavenly Court, and it is now the sole power of the Crimson Radiance Heavenly Sect. As for Tang Huan, he is the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy ... After knowing that his wife had already transcended the heavenly tribulation, Principal Tang Huan immediately gave out an order to search for her whereabouts, and Principal Tang Huan was also rushing over from the Jade Emperor City, where the Heavenly Sacred Courtyard headquarters was located. However, it's a long journey, so she might not be able to arrive here so quickly. "

As the leader of the Azure Dragon Division, Yuan Zhan had received more information than he had revealed.

It was as if he had only ordered the cultivators of the Azure Dragon Clan to search for a woman who had just ascended the heavens, but he also knew that the woman was Dean Tang Huan's wife from the lower realms.

"Heavens ..." Heavenly Dao Academy headquarters... The principal? "

The woman in red was flabbergasted as she stuttered.

The information that Yuan Zhan had just revealed had completely surpassed her expectations, causing her to be unable to accept this fact. After all, the difference between what she had imagined and what she had imagined was too great, and it had dealt a great blow to her mind. She had originally thought that Tang Huan had a rather high position in the Heavenly Dao Academy, and that his position was higher than Yuan Zhan's. She did not expect him to be the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Furthermore, from what Yuan Zhan had said, the Heavenly Dao Academy combined with all the other sects, so it was the only power of this Heaven Realm. Doesn't that mean, that as the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy, Tang Huan had already become the number one person in this Heaven Realm ... In just a few decades, he had actually reached such a level!

At this moment, the woman in red's heart was shaking with a shock that could not be described with words.

"Madam, Dean Tang Huan is not only the Principal of the Main Academy."

Yuan Zhan laughed, "Currently, he is already an Upper Sky King and a Heaven rank talent. Not to mention our Crimson Ways, even if we were to include the next thirty-six days, he would still be worthy of being called the strongest person among the Heavenly Kings. Furthermore, the Heavenly Sacred Courtyard was created by Principal Tang Huan herself."

As he finished his sentence, the admiration in Yuan Zhan's expression grew even stronger.

Right now, Tang Huan was already revered by countless cultivators in the Crimson Radiance Sect, even if it was a few peak-level Ninth Marquis. He was just one of the few that Tang Huan worshipped, but the situation in the future would probably be completely different because he was lucky enough to find Dean Tang Huan's wife.

What ... "What?"

The woman in red was even more dumbfounded and didn't speak for a long time.

Yuan Zhan didn't disturb her. In fact, even the four Azure Dragon Clan cultivators wanted to approach her after they killed the scorpions, but he raised his hand and waved them away to prevent them from disturbing her.

Although Yuan Zhan was a native of Heaven Realm, at this moment, he understood what the woman in red was thinking. For any woman from the lower realms to remain calm after hearing about her husband's brilliant achievements in the Heaven Realm, that would instead be abnormal.

The woman in red didn't say anything, but she was so excited that tears welled up in her eyes.

Long before they went through the tribulation and climbed the heavens, Tang Huan had said that she would settle down in this Heaven Realm and wait for them to reunite with their children.

Now, Tang Huan had indeed done it, and it was even more outstanding than what he had promised back then.

It would not be an exaggeration to say that the entire Heaven Realm was the home he prepared for them and their children with that domineering "Heavenly Dao Sacred Courtyard".

"Thank you, Chief Yuan."

Only after a long time did the woman in red calm down a bit. She looked at Yuan Zhan gratefully and said with a faint smile, "Where are we going now?"

Yuan Zhan hurriedly said, "If Madam doesn't mind, we'll first go to your subordinate's Blue Dragon Tribe's encampment to rest for a while. Before long, Dean Tang Huan will arrive."

"Alright, let's do it as Chief Yuan said." The woman in red nodded.

Moments later, a group of people dashed towards the direction where Yuan Zhan's group had come from.

In that direction, the scorpion horde had already been completely turned into dust. Not only was she now completely safe, she even found out about Tang Huan's current situation ... In the near future, she would also meet the person that she had been obsessed with for decades.

Chapter 1973 hadn't changed at all!

"Has he been found? "So fast?"

"Of course, it was found by the Head of the Guards herself and rescued from the pursuit of the 'Heartless Sky Scorpion'."

"It is said that the Head of Department has addressed her as 'Madam' and has great respect for her. What exactly is her identity?"

After the Azure Dragon Tribe received the news that the person had been found, the cultivators that were searching everywhere all returned.

Everyone was extremely curious about the woman from the lower realms who had just ascended the sky. Originally, there were already many cultivators guessing that the woman was actually from the same world as Tang Huan, the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Courtyard, from the lower realms. Now, everyone was even more certain of their guess.

But who was that woman's wife?

Could it be President Tang Huan's wife?

This bold idea had just emerged in the minds of some cultivators when it was subconsciously rejected.

Dean Tang Huan was now an Upper Sky King, she was the true number one Ranker in the Scarlet Radiance Sky. To be able to become his wife, she must be a genius, she must have already gone through the tribulation, why would she wait until now to ascend to the sky? That girl might be a close friend or elder of Dean Tang Huan.

Otherwise, Dean Tang Huan only needed to send someone to pass down his orders, there was absolutely no need for him to give the order herself.

Everyone was guessing the identity of that girl from the lower realms, but their hearts were filled with envy.

Under normal circumstances, cultivators who had just ascended from the lower realms were in a very difficult situation. Their bodies were filled with a clear and rich immortal spirit energy, making them the target of many cultivators.

Because of this, from ancient times until now, countless cultivators from the lower realms had died as soon as they climbed up into the sky.

After all, it was impossible for the immortal spirit intent between their bodies to immediately dissipate, and this object was an exceptionally accurate indication of their identity. However, this lower realm woman was lucky to have someone like Principal Tang Huan as her backing, and the moment she appeared, she was immediately detected by Principal Tang Huan.

Following that, an order was given to reach the Azure Dragon Clan. So many cultivators went out in droves to search for her. Even the division lord, this level of marquis, did not slack off. Currently, she had been found successfully, and before long, she would be brought to the Heavenly Dao Academy headquarters in Jade Imperial City.

Furthermore, with President Tang Huan protecting her, not only would she no longer have to worry about her life, her path of cultivation would also be smooth sailing.

If the other cultivators of the lower realms who had experienced countless dangers to survive knew about her predicament in the Heaven Realm, they would definitely be envious of her.

The people of the Azure Dragon Clan discussed animatedly.

The red-clothed girl had already sat down cross-legged on the peak of the hall.

After sending her to this place, Yuan Zhan had already left in a considerate manner, leaving her alone in this space.

Even though a long time had passed, her heart was still surging with emotions and excitement that she found hard to conceal between her brows. When she was in the lower realms, she had imagined countless times what would happen after she entered this Heaven Realm. What happened half a day ago was completely within her expectations. What happened half a day later was completely out of her expectations.

She never thought that she would actually find out about his presence in the Heaven Realm in such a manner.

In just a few short decades, the current him had already become the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy. He was now the number one powerhouse of Crimson Radiance Sect, and even the first king of the lower thirty-six days. However, she had just transcended heavenly tribulation and was only a small heavenly man. The gap between her and him had already reached a hundred thousand miles.

After the initial excitement, she suddenly felt a sense of worry in her heart.

When they were in the lower realms, there was a gap between the two of them, but it was not by much. At the very least, one could still clearly see his back, but now, even his figure could no longer be seen ... For cultivators, it was normal for their strength to increase and their state of mind to change.

Moreover, it was still decades away. After such a long time had passed, who knew how much of that relationship between the two of them still remained?

For a time, the woman in red began to worry about her gains and losses.

After thinking for an unknown period of time, the woman in red's mind seemed to have reached a tacit understanding. She suddenly raised her head to look, and a slender black figure appeared before her eyes from outside the door of the hall. Immediately, she saw that handsome and familiar face. Over the past few decades, it had emerged from the depths of her soul countless times. Even today, that face that was deeply imprinted in her soul was still as clear as ever.

"..."

The woman in red sprung up like a spring. Her lips quivered, but she couldn't say anything. She could only foolishly stare at that figure.

"Hu!"

Right at this moment, the figure turned into a streak of light and instantly entered palace, appearing in front of her.

Immediately after, two arms tightly wrapped around her slender waist, as though she was going to rub her delicate body into her own body. Dozens of years worth of voices sounded in her ears, her tone was calm, but there was also a kind of stifling excitement: "Feng Ming, I've finally waited for you!"

"Tang Huan..."

Feng Ming subconsciously whispered, as thousands of words formed these two notes. At this moment, she felt as if he had been struck by a great happiness. His face flushed red with excitement, and even his delicate body trembled slightly. The worries that had been lurking in her heart instantly disappeared without a trace.

The palace was completely silent.

At this moment, it was as if there was no one else in the world, only the man and woman that were embracing each other.

After an unknown period of time, the two of them finally separated from each other as they tightly embraced. Their gazes met, and faint tears could be seen within their eyes.

"You haven't changed at all!"

The next moment, both of them opened their mouths at the same time, only to realize that they were talking about the same thing. After a moment of surprise, they couldn't help but smile at each other. The sense of familiarity he felt after being separated for so long immediately disappeared without a trace under this smile.

"Feng Ming, I have fulfilled my promise back then, I have already prepared a home for you all in the Scarlet Radiance Heaven. Here, no one can hurt you all."

Tang Huan's heart surged as he looked at that beautiful face. Compared to a few decades ago, Feng Ming's expression did not change at all, the passage of time had not left a single trace on her face. Of course, to cultivators, tens of years was nothing more than a flick of a finger.

"I know you've never let us down."

Feng Ming was like a little girl, repeatedly nodding her head, as a smile blossomed on her face, "Tang Huan ..." Before she could finish her words, a loud shout came from outside the hall, "Hey, big brother, you ran too fast and didn't wait for us. Oh right, you still haven't told me who went through the heavenly tribulation first ..."

"Feng Ming!"

A little girl in a colorful dress and a jade-carved little girl appeared at the entrance of the hall. After being stunned for a moment, they rushed over while cheering ...

Chapter 1974 Couple reunions

, who had just transcended the heavenly tribulation, had gathered with Tang Huan, Jiu Ling and Xiao Budian at the Azure Dragon Clan encampment located in the western part of the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly Temple, the "Heavenly Spear Region".

Ten days later, Shan Shan successfully transcended the tribulation and appeared in the "Meteor Domain Realm" in the southern part of the Crimson Radiance Sect.

Ten days later, Yu Feiyan had ascended to the heavens and appeared at the southeastern border of the Crimson Radiance Heavenly Territory, the "Boundless Region".

Ten days later, Mu Yan descended from the skies ...

... ..

Although Tang Huan had never explicitly announced it before, after all, he had personally issued four orders to each of the four realms four times before, so the news about it spread like wildfire.

Thus, the news of Tang Huan's four wives undergoing tribulation in the lower realms successively ascending the heavens had quickly spread through the Crimson Radiance Sect like wildfire. All sorts of rumors and rumors started to spread, and countless cultivators were curious, just what kind of woman could become Tang Huan's wife?

It was said that the four women who had ascended to the skies from the lower realms were all as beautiful as flowers and as beautiful as the beauties of nations.

That was normal.

In the Heaven Realm, there were no truly ugly women, no matter how ordinary she looked, after a long period of cultivation, as her cultivation level continued to rise, her appearance would also slowly change. Even if she wanted to maintain her seventeen to eighteen year old appearance, it was a piece of cake.

Of course, there were also many cultivators who would let their appearance naturally age with age.

There were so many middle-aged men and women, white-haired elders, and old women ... If they wanted to be young, they could do it at any time.

As a result, the heated discussion about Tang Huan's four beautiful wives quickly passed, and what surprised the crowd even more was Tang Huan herself.

Originally, they had only speculated about Tang Huan's origin and the numerous cultivators within the Scarlet Radiance Heaven Realm. But now, they could more or less confirm that Tang Huan was a cultivator from the lower realms.

This also caused the worship of Tang Huan by countless cultivators in the Scarlet Radiance Sect to reach a new height.

A cultivator who had transcended heavenly tribulation from the lower realms was actually able to ascend from a tiny little heavenly man to a haughty and supreme Heavenly King in just a few decades ... Such a magical thing had never happened before in the history of the Heaven Realm. At least, no one had ever heard of it.

From this process, it could be seen just how powerful Tang Huan's innate talent and potential was.

Allegedly, Tang Huan was not even a hundred years old. A hundred years was a very long time for ordinary people in the lower realms. However, for cultivators, especially for cultivators in the Heaven Realm, a hundred years was no different from a child in the ordinary world. However, in the Heaven Realm, she was excessively young.

Regardless of which city it was, just a casual swipe would be able to capture hundreds or even thousands of years old people.

From this, one could see how young Tang Huan, who was not even a hundred years old, was. At this age, Tang Huan was already the strongest warrior in the Crimson Light Heavens. If Tang Huan was given another hundred years, how terrifying would he grow up to be? In any case, as long as Tang Huan did not die, becoming a Heavenly Emperor would not be a problem.

Even if it was the supreme Empyrean Realm in the Heaven Realm, it would probably not be too difficult for Tang Huan to step in there.

It could be seen that as long as Tang Huan did not die, the Heavenly Dao Academy would not collapse. It would not even have a chance to collapse. The cultivators who were dissatisfied with their sects merging into the Heavenly Dao Academy all changed their minds and felt proud of the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Of course, with Tang Huan's strength, if he were to continue cultivating, she would definitely not be able to stay in the Scarlet Radiance Sect forever.

The majority of the cultivators only hoped that the day where Tang Huan left would come as late as possible. Because as long as Tang Huan stayed in this Scarlet Radiance Heaven, even if he did not show herself for decades, she would still be like a giant pillar supporting the entire Heavenly Law Academy. The traces left behind by the various large sects would also gradually fade until they disappeared.

Perhaps in hundreds, if not thousands of years, the Heaven Realm cultivators would only know about the Heavenly Sacred Courtyard, and the other sects that existed before would gradually be forgotten.

"Tang Huan, when do you plan to leave the Crimson Ways?"

In Jade Imperial City, in the encampment space of the Dragon Sky Mansion, Shan Shan, Feng Ming, Yu Feiyan and Mu Yan all looked at Tang Huan with burning eyes. After several tens of years, not only was Feng Ming still as beautiful as ever, Shan Shan, Yu Feiyan and Mu Yan also did not change their expressions.

Especially Shan Shan, her body had a unique kind of majesty.

After all, after Tang Huan ascended to heaven, she controlled such a huge Glory Empire for a long period of time. It was no surprise that she had developed such an aura over time, despite the fact that she was the most powerful in her life. This kind of temperament not only didn't damage her beauty, but instead made her even more charming.

Looking at their earnest gazes, Tang Huan could not help but laugh. "Shan Shan, where did you all hear this from?" After he finished speaking, Tang Huan reached out a hand and pulled Shan Shan and Mu Yan, who were closest to him, into his embrace.

After living like a monk in this Heaven Realm for several tens of years, Tang Huan naturally no longer needed to control them after Shan Shan and the others came up one after another. As a result, in the past few days, Tang Huan had not done anything.

"There's talk about the Jade Imperial City everywhere."

Shan Shan's face turned slightly red, and with a light twist of his delicate body, she broke free from his embrace.

Then, she said snappily, "Everyone says that the Heavenly King rarely stays for long at all for thirty-six days, especially the Upper Sky King. Tang Huan, you are now already a peak-level Heavenly King. If you want to progress further, you can only leave for thirty-six days, and head towards the eighteenth and ninth days. "

Feng Ming, Yu Feiyan and Mu Yan were all looking at Tang Huan with eyes filled with reluctance.

The lower and upper realms had been separated for dozens of years. Now that they had finally met again, how could they bear to part after so many days?

"Those people are right."

Seeing the four women's faces showing their anxiousness, Tang Huan immediately laughed, "I will indeed be gone for the next thirty-six days, however, I won't be so fast. "The four of you have just come up. My four children are still in the lower realms and have yet to ascend to heaven. Even if I want to leave, I have to meet them before leaving."

Tang Huan had heard Shan Shan and the others say before, that they would be the first ones to ascend the heavens when going through tribulation, and Tang Shan and the others would be the ones to observe and discuss it when a year had passed.

Of course, their strength had already reached the limit that they could reach in the lower realms and they could undergo tribulation at any time. The reason why they separated from Shan Shan and the others was because they wanted to be safe.

"That's good."

Shan Shan, Feng Ming, Yu Feiyan and Mu Yan all secretly heaved a sigh of relief when they heard this, and couldn't help but reveal happy smiles on their faces. To them, Tang Huan had to leave the Scarlet Radiance Heaven as late as possible. It would be best if they could stay together for as long as possible for the next few decades, no matter how long it took.

Chapter 1975 - Hidden Space

With Tang Huan's promise, Shan Shan and the others calmed down.

Husband and wife reunited after a long period of separation, of course can not avoid the lovemaking, like glue. However, as time passed, Shan Shan, Feng Ming, Yu Feiyan, and Mu Yan felt an increasing sense of urgency.

Having been in the Forging God Great World for dozens of years, their strength was also improving nonstop.

Before their tribulation, their strengths weren't inferior to the Great World of the Vermillion Bird City's City Lord Gu Jinglei. However, although such strength could be said to be revered in the lower realms, it was only enough to make them far stronger than ordinary Heaven Realm people.

Compared to Tang Huan who had already transcended heavenly tribulation dozens of years ago, and even Nine Spirits and Xiao Budian, there was an incomparably huge gap.

They were not immersed in their comfort zone. In this place, the pills, cultivation method, and other cultivation resources were endless, and the immortal sky was extremely rich with spirit energy ... Since Tang Huan had created such a good cultivation environment, if they did not strive for it and did not cherish it, it would simply be a waste of heaven's treasures.

Thus, before long, they had followed Nine Spirits and Xiao Budian and started to train diligently.

Seeing that they were determined, Tang Huan decided to let them be. Although there would be no danger here, but with a higher cultivation, it would not be a bad thing.

The original Emperor Long Tian Residence's encampment, in the inner palace's Sky Dragon Manor.

Tang Huan sat cross-legged, her mind as calm as water.

Currently, his cultivation had already reached the limit of a peak Superior Heavenly King. If he continued to absorb and refine more Chaotic Force from the Origin Crystal, it would not be of much help to his cultivation.

What he needed now was enlightenment, and opportunity.

Since his own cultivation difficulty had increased, and Shan Shan and the others were trying their best to increase their cultivation, Tang Huan decided to stop cultivating and returned back to his place of residence.

Back then, the fire phoenix had revealed that the reason it had left and fully awakened, was because it had sensed the dragon veins here.

Since he was free, Tang Huan might as well check the condition of the dragon fountain.

With that thought, the "Emperor Dragon's Ancient Bell" appeared in Tang Huan's palm, and after an instant, Tang Huan's enormous mind was completely immersed within the ancient bell that was the size of a bowl.

This ancient bell was able to control the sect protecting the sect, and was tightly connected to it.

Through this small ancient bell, Tang Huan could very clearly sense every single thread, even the most minute of condition, within the range of this sect protection array.

If he wanted to investigate the dragon vein, he might be able to find some clues from this ancient bell.

This ancient bell also contained a dao diagram.

If it was in a normal situation, it would take Tang Huan a long time to figure out the dao diagram it contained. However, the saint rank dao tool had already merged with his Mind Stigma, so it was much easier to achieve this.

Before long, the Ancient Bell's dao diagram appeared abnormally clear in Tang Huan's mind.

Tang Huan's mind was immersed in it, calculating it bit by bit.

The map contained countless unfinished meanings and was closely linked to the sect protecting formation of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Mansion. Only by comprehending the map could one deduce the sect protecting formation of the Heavenly Mansion. If there really was a dragon vein here, then when Tang Huan finished studying the sect protecting array, there would be no place for the dragon veins to hide.

"Eh? What is that? "

After about a month, Tang Huan seemed to have sensed something, her brows knitted uncontrollably, and exclaimed in a surprised tone. Immediately after, she closed her eyes, and once again calmed down.

"So that's how it is."

Another month had passed, and Tang Huan's eyes that had been closed suddenly opened, revealing a smile of enlightenment.

Although this sect protecting formation was extremely complicated, relying on the "Emperor Dragon's Ancient Bell", Tang Huan was able to deduce its current situation through meticulous calculations. What made Tang Huan surprised was that in the depths of the sect protecting array, there was actually another space hidden.

After Nie Cangsheng passed on his position to Tang Huan, he told her everything he knew about the situation in the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace.

Tang Huan believed that Nie Cangsheng should not have hidden anything from him.

This meant that even the previous Palace Chief, Nie Cangsheng, did not know of the existence of that hidden space. It wasn't just Nie Cangsheng, even the previous Palace Masters of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace probably didn't know of him. If even the Palace Chief was in such a state, there was no need to talk about the other cultivators of the Imperial Dragon Heavenly Palace.

From ancient times until now, there had only been one exception to the entire Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, and that was the founder.

But perhaps that Ji Qingtian of tens of thousands of years ago was an exception?

However, when he thought about it again, Tang Huan felt that Ji Qingtian should be like Nie Cangsheng and co. who was completely unaware of that hidden space.

In addition, he had fused with a dual attribute Dao flame, causing his Perception Ability to be astonishing. Just by looking at his current position in the top nine heavens of the "Black Yellow Dao Sect", one could tell his original situation. In the entire history of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace, people who could be compared with it were extremely rare, but looking at the things that Tang Huan had learned today, with his current strength at that time, he shouldn't have been able to detect the existence of this hidden space.

Tang Huan was very confident in her own strength.

In Tang Huan's opinion, the Ji Qingtian from before she left the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly Palace should not be as strong as he was now. But even if it was him, it would still take him a lot of effort to finally find the location of the hidden space after detecting the abnormality in the sect protecting array. According to Tang Huan's judgement, this step alone took almost a month.

No matter how strong Ji Qingtian's Perception Ability was, it could not compare with such a Tang Huan.

It was very possible that he couldn't even find out what was going on with the sect protecting array, let alone find out where the hidden space was.

"The dragon vein should be within that hidden space."

Tang Huan slowly stood up, a smile appearing in her eyes. The dragon vein was hidden so secretly, she did not know how the fire phoenix could detect it, but it was actually able to detect it when it was at the distant "Danhai Realm".

However, the fire phoenix's embodiment had already died and its "phoenix blood essence" had long been given to Feng Ming by him. It was currently being refined and absorbed by Feng Ming, so how it found the dragon vein was no longer important. Most importantly, Tang Huan had already roughly found the location of the dragon vein.

Since that was the case, Tang Huan would naturally not allow that dragon vein to stay right under her nose.

Chapter 1976 - Unusual Movements in the Heavenly Mansion

"Whoosh!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan disappeared from the mansion.

When his figure flashed once again, he had already appeared high above in the sky above the Inner Mansion's space. In his palm, he held the "Emperor Dragon's Ancient Bell" that was as translucent as jade.

"Thump!"

Boundless Sky Origin Energy gushed into the ancient bell, and in the next moment, the ancient bell seemed to have been struck by a huge hammer, creating an earth-shaking sound. The powerful sound wave swept out in all directions.

Instantly, the entire Inner Palace of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace seemed to tremble slightly.

Soon after, billions of dazzling white lights condensed into substance and burst out from Zhong Chujian. In the blink of an eye, they enveloped the vast space within the Inner Mansion.

"Ang!"

A resounding and excited dragon cry suddenly rang out.

Within that resplendent white luster, a huge golden dragon suddenly revealed itself. It surged about within the white luster, baring its fangs and brandishing its claws with terrifying power.

"Whoosh!" "Whiz ..."

In the Inner Mansion's space, many figures emerged from the mansions that had been scattered everywhere. Each and every one of them had their eyes wide open as they looked at the sky above in shock and bewilderment.

These were all former Emperor Long Tian Mansion cultivators who were cultivating in the Inner Mansion.

"What's going on?"

"What happened?"

"Mansion Lord!" Look, the Lord Prefect is there! "

"..."

When the previously panicking cultivators saw the black figure high up in the sky, they immediately calmed down. Although the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace had already merged with the Heavenly Dao Academy and Tang Huan was also the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy, they were still used to addressing Tang Huan as Palace Chief.

Seeing Tang Huan, was as though she was looking at her backbone, and even if she were to encounter a huge storm, she would eventually be able to safely pass through.

"This is ..." Emperor Dragon's Ancient Bell? "

In the northwest of the Inner Palace, in front of a simple and unadorned mansion, stood a figure with snow-white brows and bright hair. He had the demeanor of a transcendent being; shockingly, it was the former Palace Chief of the Imperial Palace, Nie Cangsheng.

"The ancient bell is a saint rank dao tool. This little fellow is only a peak-level Heavenly King, but it's actually able to fully activate it?"

Surprise flashed across Nie Cangsheng's face.

Just like a Heaven grade Dao tool, it required a Heaven King to be able to fully utilize it. A Saint grade Dao tool needed to be at least at the Heavenly Emperor level to be able to fully utilize it. But now, Nie Cangsheng had discovered that Tang Huan, who was merely a Heavenly King at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm, could actually activate the ancient bell, which was a saint rank Dao Artifact.

This was truly unbelievable.

However, upon thinking about the fact that it was Tang Huan who did this, Nie Cangsheng felt relieved. All these years, which one of the things that Tang Huan did was not shocking and unbelievable?

Compared to what Tang Huan had done in the past, completely activating a Holy-ranked Dao Artifact at the Heavenly King Realm was no longer unacceptable.

It was just that I wonder, why is Tang Huan activating the "Emperor Dragon's Ancient Bell" at this time?

Countless thoughts ran through Nie Cangsheng's mind. He couldn't help but furrow his brows as he curiously sized up the black figure in the sky and the tumbling golden dragon.

"Rumble ..."

Right at this moment, the entire Inner Palace of the Emperor Dragon's Sky Mansion seemed to have been attracted by the sound of the ancient bell and began to violently tremble. A huge sound exploded out, as if it had risen from the depths of an infinitely distant earth, and in an instant, it shook the heavens and earth like a thunderclap.

This commotion quickly spread from the Inner Palace to the Outer Palace, and then from the Outer Palace to the Jade Imperial City.

Almost in an instant, the newly-rebuilt city started to shake violently, as if the sky and the earth were about to turn upside down.

The sudden turn of events startled everyone within the city.

After which, countless cultivators soared up into the sky, standing in the air as they looked left and right. Not long later, the skies above Jade Imperial City was filled with a dense crowd of people, and on the ground of the city, as well as the buildings, even more figures stood, shouting and shouting.

"What just happened? Could it be that there is another Upper Sky King fighting nearby? "

"The power of the fight between the Upper Sky Kings is just too great. Such a big city is gone just like that."

"Impossible. With Principal Tang Huan overseeing the Jade Imperial City, who would dare to behave atrociously here? Furthermore, all of the Heavenly Kings of the Crimson Radiance Sect are currently in the Jade Emperor City. "

"..."

After a short period of shock and panic, the crowd of cultivators gradually calmed down.

Of course, the reason they were able to turn the situation around so easily was because they had enough confidence. After all, this city had a large number of experts from the Heavenly Dao Academy as well as the Principal of the Heavenly Dao Academy, Tang Huan. The moment they had fought the Fire Phoenix, everyone had a clear understanding of Tang Huan's terrifying strength.

With him here, there was indeed no need to panic.

The sound of it quickly weakened and then completely disappeared. It did not last for long.

All the cultivators in Jade Emperor City calmed down, but they could not help but discuss with each other curiously to guess the reason for the commotion.

Within the Inner Mansion of the Emperor Palace, there were traces of a golden aura that continuously separated from the void, merging with the body of the Golden Dragon. It was the same in the Outer Palace dimension. The separated golden auras first penetrated into the Inner Palace before fusing into the enormous dragon's body.

In merely ten short breaths, the already huge golden dragon's body had nearly doubled in size.

"Go!"

High up in the sky above the Inner Palace, Tang Huan waved her hand lightly. That enormous golden dragon seemed to be listening to an imperial edict, as it suddenly fled towards the deepest part of the Inner Palace. However, in a split-second, its massive body appeared in front of the spatial barrier, yet it did not stop at all.

Seeing this scene, Nie Cangsheng and the others from the Inner Palace couldn't help but be startled.

However, before they could react, the giant golden dragon ruthlessly slammed into the spatial barrier of the Inner Mansion. The expected loud sound did not appear, but instead, a scene that greatly surprised everyone happened. After the colossal dragon collided with the spatial barrier, its huge body actually rapidly drilled into it. Almost at the same time, a rich golden luster began to spread rapidly over the spatial barrier with the dragon as the center.

After a few breaths of time, the giant golden dragon had already disappeared from everyone's sight, as if it had completely merged into the space barrier. As for the area where the giant dragon had entered, it was constantly fluctuating, golden ripples rippling out in circles, as if it would never stop.

It was like an entrance to a passage leading to a mysterious unknown space.

"This is ..."

Nie Cangsheng's eyes widened in astonishment, and his mouth opened wide enough for two eggs to be stuffed inside.

He had been the Palace Chief of the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace for a long time. If he counted from the day he joined the Heavenly Palace, then he would have been able to hold the position for even longer. However, in all these years, he had never seen the Ancient Emperor's Clock being able to cause such a drastic change within the palace.

Chapter 1977 - The Dragon Pulse

High up in the sky, Tang Huan was like a black ray of light, and in an instant, she had already disappeared into the layers of golden ripples at lightning speed.

"Whoosh!" "Woosh ~ ~ ~"

In the next moment, Nie Cangsheng and the other cultivators, who had just regained their senses, also arrived in front of the spatial barrier.

However, although they were extremely curious, they didn't follow him in, even Nie Cangsheng was no exception. The abnormality here was caused by Tang Huan activating the "Emperor Dragon's Ancient Bell". The secret behind it, was definitely something only Heavenly Palace's Palace Chief, Tang Huan had the qualifications to know.

Even if Nie Cangsheng was the former Palace Lord, he shouldn't have entered. Naturally, the other cultivators did the same.

"Everyone, you may disperse."

After looking around for a moment, Nie Cangsheng waved his hand towards the crowd.

At this moment, he suddenly faintly guessed what was hidden behind the rippling entrance passage. Back then, Tang Huan had not hidden the reason why the fire phoenix had rushed towards the Emperor Dragon's Heavenly Palace from the shadows. Now, it seems that the dragon vein which the fire phoenix had coveted was located behind this passageway.

"Yes."

Everyone resisted their curiosity and scattered in all directions.

At this moment, Tang Huan's line of sight was filled with a dense golden light, an exceptionally strong energy surrounded her body, the energy fluctuation was extremely intense, surging and surging, like raging waves being swept up by a hurricane, pressing down from all directions, as though it was trying to crush Tang Huan into pieces.

Between the mind instructs (in a second), a layer of "Primal Chaos Daos" rose around Tang Huan's body, continuously melting the golden energy that was rushing at him into nothingness. After an instant, the power only lingered around Tang Huan's body and did not approach. It was as if it was afraid of the burning of Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Dao Flame".

"It really is the dragon fountain!"

Narrowing his eyes, Tang Huan revealed a slight smile on his face as his massive mind immediately began to spread around his surroundings at an extremely fast speed.

In just a blink of an eye, this entire area had been completely enveloped by Tang Huan's mind. This was a hidden space completely isolated by the Royal Dragon Heavenly Palace's Great Sect Protection Array. The entire space was curved and twisted like a giant dragon lying on the ground with its head and tail held together.

This colossal dragon was completely formed from the strange golden energy.

However, even though the dragon was 'lying on the ground', it was restless. The golden energy surged endlessly, causing it to look like every inch of its body was constantly twisting. An overbearing and berserk will was constantly churning within the dragon's body.

That enormous dragon was naturally a dragon's vein. As for the boundless golden energy that it contained, it was dragon's essence.

The dragon's vein was a type of innate strength. It was extremely helpful for cultivation, especially when used to break through higher realms. Those who could cultivate with such power would at least be Heavenly King Stage powerhouses. Any cultivator below the Heavenly King, even a peak-ninth level marquis, would not be able to withstand the backlash of Long Yuan.

Of course, from ancient times until now, even if it was the Heavenly King, when refining the dragon essence, there had been many people who had failed.

While he was thinking, Tang Huan had already sat cross-legged in the space he was in. With a thought, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" quickly absorbed the energy, causing the power of the sucking to spread outwards. An instant later, a strand of dragon essence separated from the dragon vein and was channeled into Tang Huan's body.

Seemingly at this instant, Tang Huan felt an incomparably violent impact.

At this time, what seemed to be pulled into Tang Huan's body was not a strand of power, but rather an ancient beast that had just escaped its cage. This ancient beast was furious and deranged, a terrifying force wreaked havoc on its surroundings, as though it wanted to tear Tang Huan's Spiritual Meridian that was within it into countless pieces.

"This Dragon Yuan is truly terrifying!"

Even if Tang Huan had been prepared for this, after personally experiencing Dragon Yuan's condition, she couldn't help but be slightly shocked. This kind of power was indeed very tyrannical and violent. No wonder some Heavenly Kings would borrow the power of the dragon fountain to attack the Heavenly Emperor Stage.

Just like that fire phoenix embodiment, he had such an idea.

However, this level of power was truly hard for an ordinary Heavenly King to control. Of course, if only a tiny bit of it was pulled into his body and refined, although he could withstand the backlash of the dragon essence, but doing so would not be able to achieve the goal of breaking through to a higher realm.

In terms of speed, they would not even be able to refine the spiritual energy of the heavens and the immortals.

Tang Huan did not need to worry about the backlash of Long Yuan.

Although his main body's flesh body was not as strong as the Immortal Body's clone, it was still far stronger than an ordinary peak level Heavenly King, and he could totally endure it. And with the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace', the speed at which he was refining the dragon essence, was definitely shockingly fast as well, allowing him to fully unleash this kind of power at his maximum potential.

In that instant, Tang Huan indeed had the thought of wantonly refining this dragon essence.

Just as this thought popped up, Tang Huan suppressed her restless thoughts. His original body's cultivation had already reached the limit of the peak of the Upper Sky Realm, she could indeed borrow Dragon Yuan to help him reach the Sky Emperor Realm. However, her Immortal Body clone had not reached the same cultivation level.

In this kind of situation, no matter how much dragon essence Tang Huan refined, her attempt to break through to the Sky Emperor Realm would inevitably end in failure.

In that case, not only would it be a waste of time, it would also be a waste of this sort of heaven and earth treasure.

Tang Huan sighed regretfully. However, although she couldn't refine the dragon essence directly, she could convert it into Chaotic Force through the "Chaos Source Crystal". Speaking of the effects of breaking through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm, the Chaotic Force would never lose to Dragon Yuan, or even surpass him.

Furthermore, the nine spirits, Xiao Budian, Xiao Zihan, Xiao Niandie, Jin Hong, Chong Ze, and Sang Xiangyang were all Heavenly Kings who could try to refine and absorb the dragon essence here.

Not to mention the few of them, even if the Heavenly King was ten times stronger, he would still be able to hold on for a long period of time.

"We'll do it that way!"

With that thought, Tang Huan made her decision.

In the next moment, Tang Huan appeared from within the dragon vein in a flash. When his figure once again appeared within the dragon vein, it had already been almost an hour. Furthermore, she wasn't the only one who entered this area, but Nine Spirit, Xiao Budian, Xiao Zihan, Xiao Niandie, and the Golden Rainbow all belonged to the Heavenly Kings of Jade Emperor City.

Moments later, cries of alarm rang out from the dragon vein.

"Big brother, is this the Dragon Yuan? Such tyrannical power! "

"No wonder that fire phoenix would come here from the distant Pill Sea Region. This dragon essence is indeed suitable for it to use to attack the Heavenly Emperor Realm." Fortunately President Tang Huan came back in time, and didn't let it succeed. "

"Ga ji!" I can't take it anymore. Let's try to refine this power first. "

"..."

Chapter 1978: This old man has returned!

Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace.

"Roaaaaaar!"

The earth-shaking roars were like a thunderclap that suddenly reverberated throughout the world. In an instant, even the surrounding space trembled.

Within the dense forest, a huge golden dragon raised its head and roared. A terrifying sound wave swept out, immediately causing many nearby plants to be affected.

The colossal dragon's body stretched for thousands of meters, and all of the grass and trees were transformed into dust.

"Haha, I'm back."

In the blink of an eye, the huge dragon turned into a golden-robed muscular man. His face was rough, his physique was unusually tall and sturdy, and he looked very fierce. Surprisingly, he was the second clan elder of the Dragon Clan who had escaped the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", Cang Xu.

"Hu!"

His body turned into a golden ray of light as he soared into the sky. In an instant, he appeared tens of thousands of meters above the ground as he looked down at the vast forest below him.

For countless of years, this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" had always been the domain of the Dragon Clan. The rest of the living beings were all the Dragon Clan's prey, with the exception of the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range. Because of this, both Great Elder Gu Keng and Second Elder saw the Spirit Hidden Mountain Range as a thorn in their eye and a thorn in their flesh.

However, after so many years, not only were they unable to pull out the spikes, but the situation in the Dragon Palace had undergone a tremendous change.

The Great Elder's body turned into ashes in an instant.

The Dragon God's mind instructs (in a second) seemed to have vanished into thin air. Even the Dragon Clan's lair, Dragon City, was almost destroyed by the change in events. Countless Dragon Clan fled in all directions.

Even he, the Second Elder, had no choice but to flee the Dragon Palace in panic.

He knew very well that if he did not leave, he would not be able to escape even if he wanted to. Those human cultivators would never let him, who was at that time the strongest warrior in the Dragon Clan go.

If he escaped, not only would his life be saved, it would also be a good thing for Dragon Clan.

Without him as the Second Elder, it would be very difficult for the other elders of the Dragon Clan to pose a threat to Ye Tingyun and the other cultivators of the Human Clan. Without him as the Second Elder, it would be very difficult for the other elders of the Dragon Clan to pose a threat to Ye Tingyun and the other cultivators of the Human Clan.

However, a dignified peak Elder, who was at the peak of the Heavenly King Realm, yet could only run away like a stray dog, was the greatest humiliation to him.

Every time he thought of this, it was as if there were countless venomous snakes biting at his heart.

"If I don't avenge this grudge, then I swear I will not be a dragon!"

Cangxu's face was ashen, and his gaze was sinister. He almost gnashed his teeth as he roared out in a low voice. After a while, he took a deep breath and slightly suppressed the anger within his chest. He then slightly opened his mouth, and a low and strange humming sound came out from his throat.

"Ang!"

Cang Xu's body was like a rock as he stood tall in the tens of thousands of meters in the sky. However, the sound of this roar continued to ring out unceasingly. This sound seemed to be a simple and continuous note, but in reality, it was not. It was formed from countless abnormally short and obscure notes.

However, these notes appeared too quickly, so it didn't feel like there was any change.

Roughly a quarter of an hour later, the whistling finally stopped.

This was a method of communication that was unique to the Dragon Clan. It could allow one's voice to spread throughout an area of a hundred thousand miles. Within this range, all Dragon Clan could receive the hidden message within the wail, and after obtaining the information, all Dragon Clan must abide by it and must not be violated.

This was because the people who could control such a technique were practically all the top rankers in Dragon Clan like Cangxu.

Ordinary Dragon Clan s were too weak to use such methods.

The voice stopped and Cang Xu did not leave. Instead, he continued to stand quietly where he was with a frown on his face. No one knew what he was thinking, but his eyes grew increasingly cold.

"Roaaaaaar!"

Another half an hour later, a low roar came from afar.

On the left, where the heaven and earth met, a small red dot suddenly appeared and approached at an astonishing speed. Moments later, the red dot turned into a blood-red dragon image, flying high in the sky at a lightning speed. In just a few breaths time, it was less than a kilometer away from Cang Xu.

It was a Blood Pterosaur, and its body was only a few hundred meters long.

However, the aura that faintly seeped out from the Blood Red Pterosaur's body was quite tyrannical. It had already reached the level of a peak lower stage Heavenly King. With a slight movement of his body, the Blood-red Pterosaur transformed into a skinny young man, and a dense blood-colored aura condensed into a robe that wrapped around his body.

"Blood Ink greets Second Elder."

With a flash of blood, the young man appeared in front of Cangxu, bowing deeply in joy. "Second Elder, you're finally back." When those words left his mouth, the young man had already been agitated to the extreme, his face completely red. However, after he finished speaking, he couldn't hold it in any longer and started to wail, as if he wanted to vent all of the grievances he had suffered during this period of time through his crying.

"The majestic Heavenly King is crying like this, what a shame!" Cangxu's face darkened, anger could be seen between his brows, and he began to berate.

"Yes, Second Elder."

The young man called Xue Mo immediately stopped crying.

Cang Wen's expression relaxed a little, he looked at Xue Li and said solemnly: "Tell me, in the years this old man has been away, what is the situation in the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace'?"

"Yes sir!"

Xue Mo nodded and quickly said, "Second Elder, after that incident, those people took over the Dragon Palace. We fled everywhere and spread throughout the Dragon Palace. What's especially hateful is that those fellows who were originally only fit to be our prey, actually started to attack our Dragon Clan Disciples s as well.

As he spoke to here, Xue Mo was enraged to the extreme. Blood dripped from his mouth, and he could not grind his teeth to pieces.

"That's not what this old man wants to hear."

Hearing this, Cang Wen's face became extremely gloomy, but he still resisted the urge to charge into the Hidden Spirit Mountain Range and start a massacre, "Where is that woman Liu Li? What about Ye Tingyun? Where are they now? What about that bastard who broke into the Dragon City and brought Ye Ziyun with him? "

"Second Elder, Liu Li, Ye Tingyun and that bastard called Tang Huan all seem to have left the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace'." Xue Mo hurriedly replied.

"Is that true?" Cangxu's eyes opened wide, and a brilliant light burst out from the bottom of his eyes.

"Second Elder, this is a judgment made after careful deliberation by the other Elders. It shouldn't be wrong." Xue Mo hurriedly explained.

"Good!" Good! The heavens are truly helping this old one! "

Ghaus smacked his palms together as he started laughing maniacally, his face full of malice.

Chapter 1979 - Dragon Clan Rebellion

The huge mountain was towering and majestic.

Outside the Dragon City, the desolate areas had also been covered with countless plants and vegetation. However, from the holes and ravines that still existed, it could still be seen just how fierce the battle between the two Celestial Emperors all those years ago had been.

In the air above an incredibly deep pit, a golden figure suddenly appeared. It was Dragon Clan's Second Clan Elder, Cangxu.

Not long after he appeared, a large group of people rushed over from the distant horizon behind him. There were roughly three hundred people, be it men or women, old or young, all of different appearances, but the auras coming out from their bodies were all extremely tyrannical.

These people were all the Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan, including Blood Ink.

It had been two years since Cang Xu returned to the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", and this was already the equivalent of all the Heavenly Kings in Dragon Clan that he could gather during this period of time. Of course, if he had stayed longer for another one or two years, the number of Heavenly Kings in Dragon Clan who would have reunited with him would have been even greater. However, he no longer had the patience to continue hiding.

The reason why he had brought everyone here this time was to seize the Dragon City.

Ever since Tang Huan and the rest left, Dragon City was occupied by a group of Dragon Clan's traitors.

The leader of the traitors was called Long Jun.

Cangxu had some impression of this Dragon Clan, but not much. He only knew that he was a peak Intermediate Heavenly King. This cultivation was not bad, but in the Dragon City where there were many experts, it was not very remarkable. At the time of the change in events, a group of Dragon

Clan Heavenly Kings had been working with Ye Tingyun at the center of Dragon City to cause trouble. At that time, Cang Xu did not know what had happened, but now, he knew that the group of Dragon Clan Heavenly Kings had long ago become traitors.

However, after knowing that Long Jun was the leader of the group of rebellious Dragon Clan, he was indeed extremely surprised. According to what he knew, among the group of traitors, there were many Upper Level Kings, or even Peak Heavenly Kings. However, they actually obeyed the commands of a Peak Heavenly King.

From the looks of it, they must have been coerced when they were rebelling in the Dragon City.

It was just that he did not know if the one forcing them was Liu Li, Ye Tingyun, or some other Human Clan Ranker. Long Jun had merely been assigned to be the leader. Of course, the passing of time did not matter anymore, nor did it matter whether they were forced or not.

Treason is treason, and the crime is unpardonable.

"Blood Ink, let those traitors know that this old man and the others are here!" Cang Xu snorted coldly, his eyes looking as vicious as a venomous snake.

"Yes."

Xue Mo slightly bowed and immediately shouted out loud, "Long Jun, Sword Thrust, you bunch of traitors. Second Elder has arrived. Hurry up and come out to greet you!"

These words were not loud, but the moment each note sounded, it was like a thunderclap, rumbling as it vibrated between the heaven and earth, causing waves of echoes that travelled far and wide.

After a while, the sound completely disappeared.

In an instant, the outside of the Dragon City was exceptionally quiet. The inside of the Dragon City had also become deathly silent.

Seeing that, the many Dragon Clan Kings could not help but look at each other, their faces more or less had a look of despise. In this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", although the Second Elder's strength was not as strong as the Human Clan's Ye Meiyun, he was still the strongest Heavenly King of the Dragon Clan. Now, after the Second Elder had returned to the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", those traitors who found out were still trembling in fear.

Right now, in the center of Dragon City, Long Jun and the group of sword assassins might be afraid of the rebellion.

His lips moved slightly, and just as he was about to speak, a loud laughter burst out from the huge mountain: "What bullshit Second Elder, are you talking about the scum of Dragon Clan who abandoned her own clan and ran away from the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace? "What, he's as timid as a mouse and dares to come back?"

Hearing the explanation given by the inner parts of the Dragon City, the faces of Xue Mo and the other Heavenly Kings of the Dragon Clan all changed.

"How dare you!"

"Long Jun, how dare you insult the Second Elder in such a manner. Are you really tired of living?"

"Long Jun, you reckless traitor, come out and accept your death right now."

"Long Jun, the reason the Second Elder left the Dragon Palace was to protect the Dragon Clan. How could you slander him!"

"Don't waste time talking to this group of traitors, activate the 'Dragon Soul Immortal Talisman' and kill your way in!"

"..."

The many Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan behind also scolded.

The anger that had accumulated in his heart seemed to erupt like a volcanic eruption. He had long known that his act of escaping would greatly damage his reputation, and that his image would become extremely unsightly in the eyes of some of his own kind.

However, being said and done with like that was another matter altogether. Furthermore, it was said in front of so many Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan.

"Considering the difficulty of the Dragon City's construction, it is not suitable for it to be damaged in the slightest. Long Jun, this old man will give you one last chance. If you come out, I can still spare your lives ..."

Cangxu's tone was incomparably cold, and his words were like a cold gust of wind blowing from the underworld. It sent chills down one's spine. "Otherwise, this Dragon City will be the burial ground for all of you!" As his voice faded, a terrifying killing intent began to wreak havoc in the area like a storm.

"This timid old thing has quite the big mouth. In that case, we will go out and meet him!"

At the same time the laughter rang out, numerous figures appeared out of nowhere in front of the huge mountain. There were also hundreds of people, and the auras emanating from their bodies were extremely powerful. It was evident that they were all Heavenly Kings like Xue Mo and the rest.

Amongst the group of Dragon Clan's Heavenly Kings, the one in front was Long Jun, he had already been promoted to the Upper Sky King.

In the past, there weren't many Heavenly Kings under his command, but now, they had expanded to ten times their original size.

"Cangxu, you cowardly rat, you still have the face to come back?"

As his gaze swept across the crowd, Long Jun's face was filled with ridicule and a cold smile.

The golden-robed man facing him was indeed the second clan elder of the Dragon Clan, Cang Wen. If he had died in the past, facing this expert who wielded immense power in the Dragon Clan, he would definitely be trembling with fear, and would not even dare to breathe too loudly. But now, his expression did not reveal the slightest hint of fear or panic.

Seeing Long Jun being so arrogant, behind Cang Xu, Blood Ink and the other Dragon Clan's Heavenly Kings immediately became furious.

However, after his scolding voice rang out, Cang Wen waved his hand. Xue Mo and the rest could only shut their mouths as they glared at Long Jun and the rest.

"The old me is a little surprised. Do you have any confidence that you can treat me like this?"

Cangxu let out a light breath and his eyes were like daggers as he stared at Long Jun. A sharp intent shot out from his bell-like eyes, as if he wanted to split Long Jun into two. At this moment, a livid expression had already appeared on his face.

Chapter 1980 - Thanks to You!

"Cangxu, with just us Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan, it would naturally be difficult for us to contend against a coward like you. However, you should have guessed it already, I already have a master's dragon." Long Jun chuckled. Otherwise, when he said these words, he didn't feel the slightest bit of shame. Instead, he felt rather proud of himself.

"Owner"

When he heard the two notes from Long Jun, Cang Xu's pupils constricted and an uproar arose behind him.

Previously, the reason why so many Heavenly Kings like Long Jun and the Sword Thrust had suddenly gone against their will was only because of their guesses and speculations. But now, Long Jun's words were equivalent to admitting the guesses they had made before. Before that incident that year, so many of the Dragon Clan's Heavenly Kings were actually controlled by someone without a sound? This ... Who did it?

Was that person still in the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace"?

"It seems that master of yours is where your confidence lies!"

Between mind instructs (in a second), Cang Xu had already said in a cold voice, "Speak, who is your master? "Ye Tingyun?" He had already thought things through clearly, on the Human Clan side, there weren't many who had the ability to control Long Jun and the other Heavenly Kings of the Dragon Clan.

However, even if it was Ye Tingyun, he was unafraid.

Back then, he was indeed no match for Ye Tingyun. However, after escaping from this "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", his luck was pretty good. He had obtained an extremely powerful trump card. Otherwise, even if he wanted to wash away the humiliation from before, he wouldn't rashly return to the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

"No, his master is me!"

However, just as he finished speaking, a loud voice rang through the air like a great bell.

Almost in the next instant, a figure appeared in front of Long Jun and the other Heavenly Kings of the Dragon Clan. It was a handsome, yet expressionless young man. His body was tall and straight, and he was wrapped in a black robe. However, that robe was not a material object. It was completely condensed by power. The aura that emanated from his body was also extremely strange. It actually contained an incredibly strong immortal spirit intent.

Of course, just by looking at the strength of this aura, this black clad man should also be an Upper Sky King.

"Immortal body?"

He never would have thought that he would meet a human cultivator with a celestial body here, and judging from the celestial spiritual energy, it was clearly a pure celestial body, not a pseudo celestial body.

With another thought, Cang Xu shouted in a stern voice, "Who are you?"

"Tang Huan! He is Tang Huan! "

Before the man in black could finish his sentence, Blood Ink had already cried out in surprise from behind Cang Xu, "This ... How was this possible? Didn't Tang Huan leave the 'Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace'? "

During the series of unforeseen events that occurred back then, many Disciples s were still completely befuddled when they escaped from the Dragon City.

However, as time passed, all sorts of information were spread around the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", and they gradually understood what was going on.

And the key to that change, was a guy named "Tang Huan."

That Tang Huan, a human Heavenly King who entered the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" not long after, used some unknown method to help the Heavenly Emperor of Glazed Glass, who had opened the Spirit Concealment Cave, escape the shackles and restrictions of the Spirit Concealment Mountain ... Heavenly Emperor Liu Li's escape meant a huge calamity to the Dragon Clan.

After that, Heavenly Emperor Liu Li and the rest had indeed charged towards the Dragon City.

Great Elder Gu Keng, with the help of "Dragon God Standing Qi", had a great battle with Heavenly Emperor Liu Li outside the Dragon City. Unfortunately, his body and soul disappeared, and while the two Sky Emperors were fighting, Tang Huan and Ye Tingyun had managed to sneak into the depths of Dragon City, causing that huge change.

Based on the information leaked out from the Human Clan, the most important person for the huge change back then was Tang Huan.

If not for him, it would have been impossible for Heavenly Emperor Liu Li to escape. Even if there were ten more Tang Huan and Ye Meiyun, they would still be unable to contend against Great Elder Gu Keng without Heavenly Emperor Liu Li's support. The crowd of Dragon Clan s thought that Tang Huan had already left the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", but they did not expect him to appear here.

"Tang Huan? It's actually you! "

Cang Xi's eyes focused, a boundless killing intent seeped out from his body, wantonly surging through the world. For a moment, Blood Ink and the other Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan felt suffocated.

"Of course it's me."

"This cowardly rat has fled. He even dares to come back. If I leave, won't I be able to enter again?"

He was naturally not the real Tang Huan, but the divine clone of Tang Huan.

After his main body returned to the Scarlet Radiance Heavenly Palace and removed the Fire Phoenix's threat, Tang Huan dispatched his Immortal Body clone to the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" that was filled with immortal spirit energy to cultivate. Over the years, Tang Huan's Immortal Body clone had already reached the cultivation level of an Upper Sky King.

As soon as he entered the Dragon Palace, his divine clone charged straight towards the Dragon City.

With Long Jun and the Sword Thrust leading the Dragon Clan's Heavenly King Guards, for the rest of the year, he did not step out of Dragon City, but instead concentrated on his cultivation. Until today, when the second clan elder of Dragon Clan, Cang Wen, suddenly led the group of people to attack. It was only then that he walked out of the cultivation grounds that he had been staying in for a long time.

"Tang Huan, this old man was just worrying about where to find you. I never thought that you would actually be able to return to the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace! "

Cangxu's eyes were fierce as he laughed savagely, "That's good as well. Since you've come, you don't have to think about leaving. Since ancient times, the Dragon Palace has been the domain of the Dragon Clan, but in recent years, countless Dragon Clan s have perished.

Almost at the same time as he finished speaking, Cangxu's body moved and he turned into a huge golden dragon. His body that was several thousand meters long floated in the air and his two large wings were completely unfurled.

"Kill —"

With a roar, the golden dragon's wings trembled, and it immediately shot towards Tang Huan's avatar.

Behind Cang Xu, Blood Ink and the other Heavenly Kings of Dragon Clan also recovered at the same time, and rushed out while roaring angrily behind the golden dragon. In an instant, the sky was filled with large and small dragon shadows as earth-shaking dragon roars resounded through the heavens.

Seeing that, Tang Huan's divine body sneered, and in the midst of mind instructs (in a second), her body began to rapidly expand.

With just a flick of a finger, Tang Huan's Immortal Body had also transformed into a terrifyingly huge giant. On her two thousand meter tall body, there was a layer of faint golden light, which made him look even more majestic, like a war god that had descended from the nine heavens.
