

W. Master 1991

Chapter 1991

However, the taunts from the twenty or so Peak Heavenly Kings did not last long before that sneer froze on their faces, and unconcealable shock almost appeared in their eyes at the same time.

They believed that under the onslaught of so many fierce attacks, the rapidly moving peaks below would instantly vanish into thin air. After all, those weren't real mountains. They were only illusions created by the power of some sort of Dao Artifact.

To them, who were also at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm, how strong could a Peak Sky King Dao Artifact be?

However, in the blink of an eye, the turn of events completely turned their minds upside down. When their attacks landed on the mountain peaks, not only did the mountain peaks not collapse or dissipate as they had hoped, but their attacks were like mud that entered the sea, not stirring up even the slightest of ripples.

An incomparably terrifying power of sucking seemed to have emerged from the mountain peaks and instantly swallowed their attacks.

Just what was this Dao item that it was so powerful?

Although their twenty plus peak Heavenly Kings had not used their full power in their attacks just now, their combined attacks would definitely not be any weaker. To think that things would turn out like this, this was truly far beyond their expectations, and completely overturned their common sense.

If those who managed to do all these were Heavenly Emperor Stage powerhouses, then it would have been fine, but as for Sandalwood and Tao You, both of them were at the peak of Heavenly King Stage.

"Sandalwood, Tao You, you ..."

A gray-robed elder couldn't help but shout out.

However, before he could finish his words, he abruptly stopped. At almost the same time, the surroundings resounded with gasps of shock.

Furthermore, in such a short period of time, that surge of sucking power had already risen rapidly from the peaks. In an instant, it had enveloped all of the twenty plus people who were high up in the sky.

The power of the sucking was extremely terrifying, and in that moment, everyone felt that it was unbearable.

Even though they had experienced countless storms, this group of peak-level Heavenly Kings was still shocked to the core.

"Disperse!" Disperse! "

"Retreat!" "Quickly retreat!"

Chaotic shouts rose and fell one after another, many of the peak stage Heavenly Kings were extremely shocked, but their reactions were not slow, as they pushed their Dantian Dao Nascent Souls to their limits. Boundless and mighty Skies surged out of their bodies like stormy waves, surging in all directions with a force that could topple mountains and overturn the seas.

While using this power to resist the pulling force of the sucking, the weapons in everyone's hands were also swung one after another. Streams of terrifying attacks once again wrapped around the violent Strength Qi, and like a waterfall, they poured down from the sky.

What they wanted to do now was to reduce the power of the sucking that came out of the mountains and escape from its range. As long as they increased the distance between them, they would not need to fear the sandalwood bell and Tao You's Dao Artifact.

Furthermore, with the current experience, they could easily spread out and launch an attack from further away, completely killing off Tan Zhong and Tao You.

Of course, the prerequisite for all of this was that they could escape the range of that treasure's power with the fastest speed.

It had to be said that they were all peak-level Heavenly Kings with a lot of battle experience, and their power was extremely tyrannical. This action had indeed caused the power of sucking that they had to endure to be reduced by quite a bit. The twenty plus people were overjoyed. Without hesitation, they chose different directions and shot off into the distance.

Even though their speed had been greatly affected under the influence of the sucking, they were still not slow. It would only be a short while before they would be able to escape from the mountain peaks.

However, as soon as their joy appeared, the shock and terror in their hearts grew even stronger.

The wave of sucking that had just risen, was indeed the result of their attack being reduced. However, in less than half a blink of an eye, an even more powerful wave of sucking surged forth from the mountain peaks.

The power of the sucking was like a monstrous wave that was being stirred up by a hurricane, wave after wave stronger than the previous wave.

High up in the sky, the expressions of more than twenty of the peak stage Heavenly Kings became extremely ugly. They had no choice but to endure the pull of the sucking once again as they desperately waved the weapons in their hands. However, they had already dispersed. Whether it was the effect of resisting the power of the sucking or the might of their attacks, they were both far weaker than before.

Even though he had used all of his strength, his body still couldn't help but sink down.

He used all the methods he could muster to finally stop his body from landing. But this time, before he could escape, the even stronger power of sucking surged forth once again, and his body that had barely stabilized was immediately pulled like a meteorite that was flying from the sky, falling rapidly towards the mountain peaks.

At this moment, even with their determination, it was difficult for them to remain calm. They cried out repeatedly as panic surfaced on their faces. However, at this point, no matter how they resisted, they could no longer resist the incomparably tyrannical power of the sucking.

In less than half a breath of time, the twenty or so Peak Heavenly Kings had all disappeared into the rapidly moving mountains below, and the mountains had also disappeared, turning into a picture scroll. For a time, only the sandalwood and Tao You remained in this vast snowy region.

Immediately after, the scroll closed and turned into a scroll, falling into the hands of the sandalwood.

The two of them could not help but look at each other, and they both saw the shock and fear in each other's eyes. From the start to the end, the two of them only watched from the bottom, and did not help.

What the two of them did was to lure this group of peak stage Heavenly Kings over, and to keep them away from the other peak stage Heavenly Kings.

Previously, they were indeed confident in Tang Huan's strength.

After all, Tang Huan had that terrifying "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", had a strange and unpredictable ability to travel through the void, and also had an incomparably mystical ability to hide her aura.

However, what Tang Huan could do, was only to cause the death of the group of peak stage Heavenly Kings to suffer great casualties. She did not expect that Tang Huan had such an idea in mind, and in a moment, she had captured over twenty of the peak stage Heavenly Kings. With these treasures in hand, the other twenty plus people probably wouldn't be able to escape.

If he forced these forty over peak peak Sky Kings to swear their allegiance to him, to what extent would Tang Huan's power grow? Just by thinking about it, Sandalwood and Tao You shuddered.

But right after, the two of them became extremely excited, they were already Tang Huan's puppets and servants, the stronger Tang Huan was, the better it was for them. Unable to hold back their emotions, they exchanged glances, and Honeysuckle and Tao You soared into the sky almost at the same time, following the sound of movement in the distance.

Chapter 1992 Seizing the opportunity to rob

"Rumble ..."

The heaven and earth trembled as deafening sounds rang out one after another.

Before long, Tan Zhong and Tao You arrived above the collapsed large snowy mountain peak and continued their journey east. The ground that was originally covered with snow and ice turned into a crisscrossing, desolate landscape ... These shocking traces continued to extend into the distant horizon.

The areas through which the trail passed, the high and low peaks, had almost completely disappeared, and only the occasional mound of earth showed that they had ever existed.

After chasing for a while, the group of peak Heavenly Kings and the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul" had already faintly appeared before their eyes.

The battle twenty or thirty li away was not only extremely intense, but also extremely chaotic.

From time to time, the terrifying attacks from the more than twenty peak Heavenly Kings would bombard the "Spiritual Path and Heavenly Soul", and would also occasionally press down on the nearby cultivators. Not only did they have to keep an eye on the movements of the "Spiritual Road's Heaven's Soul", they also had to keep a close watch on the movements of the surrounding cultivators in order to not be ambushed.

The berserk Strength Qi violently raged, and the area of tens of kilometers seemed to be engulfed by a hurricane.

As soon as Honolulu and Tao You arrived nearby, powerful minds constantly swept over them. They did not have Tang Huan's method of concealment, at such a close distance, it would be difficult for them not to be discovered by the peak level Heavenly Kings. They might even know that their companions had all been caught, because even Tan Zhong and Tao You felt a strong sense of vigilance and vigilance from them.

They had obviously treated the two of them as the main culprits behind the disappearance of their companions.

In an instant, the twenty or so Peak Heavenly Kings had all disappeared without a trace. This was truly shocking. In reality, the people surrounding the "Spirit Dao Heavenly Soul" were indeed a bit terrified. They had never personally seen what happened over there, but they could feel the general situation. After they felt their companions' auras disappear, the shock in their hearts could not be described with words.

Their companions originally wanted to get rid of Tan Zhong and Tao You first, but they didn't expect that they would lose to them instead.

Right now, as Sandalwood Bell and Tao You approached, everyone was slightly worried.

At this time, their most suitable response was naturally to give up on the "Spiritual Dao Heavenly Soul". Then, they would join hands and deal with the threat of the two, lest they end up following the footsteps of the other twenty or so peak Heavenly Kings. But unfortunately, this thought flickered slightly before being abandoned by the crowd.

If it was at the beginning, there was a possibility.

Now that the rare treasure was right in front of them, and they had been fighting for it for a long time, many of them had been ambushed by other peak level cultivators, and some of them had even been injured because of it. It was impossible for them to trust one another, and it was even more impossible for them to join hands with one another in such a situation.

Honolulu and Tao You only watched from afar, and did not continue to approach.

However, the more the two of them were like that, the more the group of peak stage Heavenly Kings would focus on them, and if the two of them were to rush over and join in the battle, it would be much easier for them.

Everyone chased closely after the "Spiritual Road's Heaven's Soul." Almost at every moment, it would have to endure several attacks.

The white light that condensed around the body of the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul" was like a solid shield that continuously deflected the attacks. It was as if its strength was truly unparalleled. If it was a peak-level Heavenly King, it would have been turned into dust long ago, but it had lasted till now.

Just from this, one could see the value of the "heavenly soul of the spirit dao".

Luckily, the "Holy Spirit of the Spirit Dao" only had a strong defensive power, and did not have many powerful attacks. Otherwise, let alone those peak Heavenly Kings, it would have been a great fortune if they had not been killed. Of course, if the "Spiritual Path and Heavenly Soul" really were this dangerous, they wouldn't have started killing each other long ago.

However, no matter how strong or solid the defense was, it would still be weakened.

Within the sandalwood and Tao You's line of sight, the area of effect surrounding the "Spirit Dao Heavenly Soul" was shrinking bit by bit, and the method of rebounding attacks were becoming weaker and weaker. As for the group of upper peak Heavenly Kings, they were completely oblivious to the situation, while Tan Zhong and Tao You could only watch from the sidelines, keenly aware of the unusual situation that was occurring within.

The "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul" had also realized that the situation wasn't good. It desperately charged left and right in an attempt to escape.

Unfortunately, every time it tried, it was stopped by the surrounding peak Sky King. Of course, although it did not successfully escape, the battlefield still rolled forward under its lead. Not long later, it moved several thousand meters, leaving behind countless shocking marks on the ground.

Although they were wary of Tan Zhong and Tao You, the intensity of the battle didn't decrease in the slightest.

Unknowingly, the area enveloped by the white light by the "Spirit Dao of Heaven" had shrunk by at least half.

Right at this moment, a black shadow suddenly appeared beside the "Spirit Dao Heaven Soul" without any forewarning. A pebble-like object appeared in his hand, and a tyrannical attraction force spread out from it. The moment it appeared, the "Spirit Dao Heaven Soul" had already quickly approached it.

"Who is it?"

"Leave the 'Spirit Dao Heaven Soul' for this old man!"

Seeing this, the twenty or so peak stage Heavenly Kings were shocked and furious, and they all shouted out loud.

They never would have thought that other than the Asura Supreme Sect's sandalwood and Tao You, there would be a third person hidden nearby. Moreover, that person seemed extremely strange; even after he appeared, he did not reveal any of his aura, making everyone unable to determine his cultivation level.

The defensive power of the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul" was about to be exhausted. It was the perfect time to put it into his bag.

However, before they could do anything, they were interrupted by someone. At this moment, the anger in everyone's hearts could no longer be described with words. Almost as if it was a conditioned reflex, the twenty or so Peak Heavenly Kings turned their attacks towards the black clothed man who had suddenly appeared.

"Whoosh!" "Whiz!"

Seeing this, the expressions in Tan Zhong and Tao You's eyes hardened, and almost simultaneously shot forward. In an instant, they shot across the space of a few thousand meters like meteors.

"Be careful!"

Noticing the two of them acting strangely, many of the peak Superior Grade Heavenly Kings felt a chill in their hearts, and they shouted out loud.

"Hu!"

At this time, the sandalwood bell raised his right hand and threw out the scroll in his hand. In a split-second, the scroll extended and turned into a painting of mountains and rivers. In the next moment, the countless mountain ranges within the painting seemed to have transformed into living spirits that rose up unceasingly and revolved at a high speed.

The terrifying power of sucking crazily spread ...

Chapter 1993 - Disregard as Nothing

"Retreat!"

The more than twenty Peak Heavenly Kings were all shocked, their companions seemed to have been destroyed by such a power. In an instant, almost everyone had the same thought in their minds, before the sucking could even touch their own bodies, they all started to retreat quickly.

However, as they retreated, their attacks were also launched. However, their target was not the cultivator that suddenly appeared, but the rapidly moving mountain range.

Sandalwood and Tao You's goal was also to snatch the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul."

In their minds, Tan Zhong and Tao You definitely wouldn't allow that guy to take away the "Spiritual Path and Heaven Soul". Once they retreated, the two of them would definitely attack that guy. Therefore, their attacks were not aimed at attacking Tan Zhong and Tao You, but rather, blocking the spread of the sucking's power to him.

"Boom —"

In a split-second, the attacks of twenty Peak Heavenly Kings exploded in the air, transforming into an incomparably ferocious Strength Qi, rolling out in all directions layer by layer. For a time, space shook violently, and terrifying energy waves that could be seen with the naked eye spread out in all directions.

This wave of attack had indeed isolated them from the spread of the sucking, allowing them to instantly pull the distance between them to a relatively safe distance. However, the Strength Qi that emerged from the attack did not affect the moving mountains in the slightest. When the Strength Qi came into contact with the mountain range, it disappeared without a trace.

Although this situation surprised everyone, it was within their expectations.

Avoiding the threat of the sucking, everyone's attention was focused on the "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao". They were forced back by Tan Zhong and Tao You, no one could stop the black clothed man who suddenly appeared. Everyone could only watch helplessly as the "Spiritual Path of Heaven's Soul" was sucked into the cobblestone object.

Everyone was anxious and angry at the same time.

Only after attacking for such a long time did they finally wear down the terrifyingly strong defensive power of the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven". Originally, they had wanted to fight over the ownership rights, but they could only watch as this rare treasure fell into the hands of another ... This feeling was terrible to the extreme, making them go insane.

However, at this moment, everyone's hearts were filled with amazement. They finally felt something extraordinary, and that was the meaning of primal chaos. As he absorbed the "heavenly spirit of the spirit dao", the pebbles actually transmitted an extremely strong sense of primal chaos.

What kind of treasure could emit such an aura?

Although everyone was quite puzzled, at this very moment, the attention given to the rare treasure was enough to quickly put this doubt behind them.

They still had hope!

How could the sandalwood and Tao You just sit back and watch as the rare treasure was taken right under their noses? Furthermore, in order to obtain the "heavenly soul of the spirit dao", the black clothed man had delayed for a little while and was already completely unable to dodge.

Next, it was time to have fun.

However, in the blink of an eye, everyone was so shocked that their eyeballs almost jumped out of their eye sockets. Their faces were filled with disbelief.

"This... This ... How is that possible? "

"He isn't affected at all, what's going on?"

"Where did that guy come from?"

The crowd could not hold it in any longer and exclaimed in shock.

In their line of sight, the black clothed man who was covered by the power of the sucking was actually as firm as a boulder from start to finish. Not to mention being pulled over, her clothes did not even flutter in the slightest.

If the black clothed man had used some sort of powerful technique to resist the influence of the sucking, they would more or less be able to accept this reality. However, that black clothed man's finger didn't even move ... Furthermore, from beginning to end, they had never felt any hint of power emanating from his body.

Not long ago, the power of the sucking that was produced by those mountains had only absorbed more than twenty peak Superior Heavenly Kings!

The black clothed man actually completely disregarded him as if he was nothing. What kind of terrifying strength was this?

Could it be that he was a Heavenly Emperor?

This thought uncontrollably appeared in everyone's mind. They were extremely astonished. If that was really the case, then why were they still fighting with such vigor? If that person was truly the Heavenly Emperor, then even if peak peak Heavenly Kings like them had a large number of people, they would not be able to get their hands on the "Spiritual Dao Heaven's Soul".

As for Tan Zhong and Tao You, even though the Dao equipment they activated was a huge threat to those at the peak of the Sky King Realm, it could not even shake a single Heavenly Emperor.

The current situation was a clear proof of that!

This "Spiritual Path and Heavenly Soul" was a rare treasure to the Heavenly King, but to the Heavenly Emperor, it did not have that much use. Refining it would just increase the amount of Dao crystals it had, so it was completely not worth the time it took to come here.

Of course, there was also the possibility that a certain Heavenly Emperor was making profits for his descendants.

As for the Celestial Emperor of the Upper Nine Heavens, it was impossible for him to come. Firstly, the distance between them was too far, and the experts there could never guess that the "Spirit Dao Heaven Soul" would appear in the Crimson Light Heavens, and as for the next thirty-six days, it was impossible for the Celestial Emperor to exist.

The most important thing was that if that person was the Heavenly Emperor, he could completely ignore the defensive power of the "Spiritual Path Heavenly Soul" and directly snatch it away at the peak of the Snow Peak. There was no need to hide his body at all.

It was just that he did not know where he came from, how he was able to conceal his own aura to such an extent, and how he was able to prevent the sucking from affecting him in any way?

Suspicion grew in everyone's hearts, but once again, hope was born in their hearts.

However, after a short moment, an even more inconceivable scene appeared before their eyes, causing them to be speechless and speechless, like wooden chickens.

They did not manage to shake the black clothed man, and the group of peaks did not continue to circulate either, activating an even more powerful sucking. Instead, they quickly converged and once again turned into a mountain and river painting, then folded back into the shape of a small scroll and floated down onto the sandalwood bell which had just revealed its figure.

In the next moment, Tan Zhong and Tao You's bodies were like flowing lights as they shot towards the black clothed man like lightning.

However, the strange thing was, the two of them did not attack the man in black. The man in black also did not block them. In a blink of an eye, Tan Zhong and Tao You appeared a few metres in front of the black clad man, and then, these two peak-level Heavenly Kings actually bowed to him ...

Chapter 1994 Master and Servant

"This... "What's going on?"

The crowd could not believe their eyes. The scene from afar had given them an incomparably strong impact.

They had been hoping that Tan Zhong, Tao You, and that man in black would engage in an intense battle. It would be best if both of them suffered injuries, so that they could take advantage of this situation.

Although there were many other opponents nearby, compared to the mysterious black clothed man, the sandalwood and Tao You who could use such treasures, the other opponents were much less threatening. But they had never expected that Honolulu and Tao You would do this to the man in black.

"They're a team!"

After an instant, someone exclaimed loudly as if they had just awoken from a dream.

The situation over there was already very clear. Sandalwood, Tao You, and that black-clothed man were most likely already acquainted with each other. Moreover, looking at their respectful attitude, that black-clothed man might even be one of the two elders of the Asura High School. However, even if they had never seen the upper peak Heavenly Kings of the Asura Faction before, they knew that there seemed to be none that could match up to that black clothed man.

Of course, there was also the possibility of him being a certain reclusive Heavenly King at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm who had not shown his face for many years, and his seniority should be much higher than Tan Zhong and Tao You.

He originally thought that the Asura Supreme Sect would only send sandalwood and Tao You, but he never thought that there would actually be a third person!

Right now, it was extremely troublesome to deal with. Just the treasure in sandalwood's hand was already extremely difficult to deal with, and with the addition of that elusive fella, it would be even more difficult to deal with him.

"Congratulations, Master, you've obtained the 'Spirit Dao of Heaven's Soul'!"

In the distance, Tan Zhong and Tao You didn't pay attention to the twenty over peak of the Upper Sky Realm's useless reactions. As they bowed, they opened their mouths and spoke with smiles.

The black clothed man they were facing was naturally Tang Huan.

At the same time that Tang Huan activated the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram", she also left the cave. When the power of the cave sucked all of the twenty over peak stage Heavenly Kings in, Tang Huan also released his sacred art "Heavenly Invisibility", stealthily lurking outside the battle circle, waiting for the chance to make her move.

When the Heavenly Kings had almost worn down the defensive power of the "Spiritual Path and Heavenly Soul", they suddenly attacked, and then had Sandalwood and Tao You attack from the side ...

Thus, the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul" had easily fallen into his hands.

Hearing sandalwood and Tao You's words, Tang Huan subconsciously laughed, then turned his gaze to the group of peak Sky Kings standing in the distance.

At this time, the expressions of the other Heavenly Kings were all filled with disbelief.

"Master?"

After catching the two notes that had jumped out from the mouths of Tan Zhong and Tao You, the crowd could not believe their ears. The two elders of the Upper Level King and Asura High Sect actually called the black-clothed man their master? This ... Was this an illusion?

They had thought that the man in black was an elder of the Asura High School, and had an exalted status. That was why Tan Zhong and Tao You were so respectful to him.

But now, they realized how wrong they were.

That black-clothed man was actually not Tan Zhong or Tao You's sect elder, but his master. Tan Zhong and Tao You were both powerful, and in the Asura Faction, they were the strongest. With the dignity and pride of a peak Heavenly King, he would never allow them to become someone else's servants. Thus, they were bound to be coerced. Just what kind of strength and methods did that black clad man possess to actually be able to force two peak-level Heavenly Kings to recognize him as their master?

Everyone exchanged glances, feeling bewildered and uncertain.

However, before they could figure out what was going on, the man in black suddenly disappeared. Immediately after, the scroll unfurled once again in everyone's line of sight, turning into a painting of mountains and rivers.

In the blink of an eye, the mountain peaks had already occupied an extremely vast space and the extremely tyrannical power of the sucking once again filled the entire sky.

Instantly, the expressions on the faces of the twenty or so peak stage Heavenly Kings changed.

They had yet to decide how to deal with it, but their opponent had already launched an attack. Should they attack first and continue to snatch the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul", or should they just retreat?

With this thought, everyone made a decision. Although sandalwood, Tao You and their master were great threats, the temptation of the "Spiritual Path and Heavenly Soul" was even greater. From ancient times until now, it was unknown how many peak peak Heavenly Kings had stopped at this level.

For peak Sky Kings like them, no matter how much effort they put in, they could not see any hope of breaking into the Sky Emperor Realm, so they spent a long time in between eighteen days to seize the "Spirit Dao Heavenly Soul".

To them, the "Spirit Dao of Heaven" was the only hope for entering the Heavenly Emperor Realm.

Otherwise, they would have no choice but to watch themselves approach the end of their lifespan step by step. This was practically the same as watching themselves die.

"Everyone spread out, let's attack together."

A youth dressed in white suddenly shouted out explosively. His handsome face had already become somewhat hideous and distorted. The instant his voice sounded out, a strangely shaped blood-colored spear appeared in his hand.

Amidst the sharp trembling sounds, the long spear seemed to come to life as it turned into a giant blood-red snake and shot explosively towards the mountain peaks that were rapidly expanding in his pupils. A violent aura spread out between the heaven and earth, and the giant blood-red snake ferociously bared its fangs, hissing out as if it wanted to tear that mountain range into pieces.

Almost at the same time, those people who had spread out for tens of kilometers all made their moves, launching their most powerful attacks.

The man in black had already disappeared. Was he still hiding in the vicinity, or did he leave this place with the "heavenly spirit"? Since he couldn't sense the aura of the man in black, it was impossible for him to investigate the man's whereabouts. Under these circumstances, everyone could only place their hopes on the sandalwood bell and Tao You.

As long as he captured the sandalwood and Tao You, he could force the two of them to find out the whereabouts of their master.

Right now, more than twenty of the peak stage Heavenly Kings were attacking together, their might could be imagined. After almost a flick of a finger, the ear-piercing sound had already resounded through the sky.

More than twenty attacks shot towards the rapidly moving mountains from all directions.

The air shook, and the world shook.

Such a fierce attack was enough to turn the world upside down and destroy the world.

If the one attacking was a peak stage Heavenly King, it could instantly turn him into ashes. However, when they landed on that group of mountains, a strange scene suddenly occurred. It was as if several dozen drops of water had suddenly fallen into the vast ocean, not stirring the slightest bit of ripples on the surface of the sea.

All the attacks had been swallowed up by the mountain peaks!

Chapter 1995 - Holy Spirit Sect

To this, everyone was not surprised at all. Although they were somewhat discouraged, they quickly pulled themselves together.

In the eyes of the crowd, activating such a powerful Dao Artifact would definitely expend a lot of energy and mental strength. In the end, sandalwood was still just a peak level Heavenly King, not a Heavenly Emperor Stage powerhouse like them. It was already the third time he was activating this treasure, and he definitely would not be able to hold on for long.

As long as he could last until the sandalwood bell was exhausted, or until his heart was exhausted, it would be as easy as flipping his hand to catch Tao You and him.

Of course, the most important thing was that they were already quite a distance away from Tan Zhong, and just as they attacked, they retreated once again, ensuring that they did not fall into the range of the sucking. This way, they could keep a safe distance from the terrifying Dao Artifact and not be drawn in.

As a result, everyone launched a new round of attacks without the slightest delay.

But in that instant, a terrified and helpless shout suddenly echoed in the world. Everyone turned to look and saw a white figure uncontrollably pouncing towards the rapidly moving mountains. In just the time it took to snap a finger, the figure had uncontrollably traveled tens of miles.

Surprisingly, it was the black clothed man who had disappeared without a trace earlier. A small ball of white light shot back from a distance and landed on his right palm, which was extended out of his palm. It spun around and revealed a faint white luster.

"Elder Yuan!"

A cry of shock suddenly sounded. The one who spoke was an old man, and his ugly face was filled with shock.

They could already see that the white shadow was a white-clothed youth. He was the supreme elder of the strongest sect in the eighteen days of Qing Xu Tian, the "Spirit Void Saint Sect". His name was Yuan Honglang, and although he looked like a young man, he was already over ten thousand years old and was already a peak-level Heavenly King thousands of years ago.

With his cultivation level and strength, he was so easily ambushed!

Although Yuan Honglang was still alive, he was forced to rush towards the mountain range. The power of the sucking there was terrifying, so how could he possibly have a chance to escape?

Sure enough, dozens of miles away, the white shadow only paused for a moment. It had just stabilized its body, but it could no longer withstand the force of the sucking and shot forward again, dancing non-stop, wanting to stop its charge. Unfortunately, all of its actions were in vain.

After a short while, Yuan Honglang had already disappeared among the mountains.

This time, there were three Peak Heavenly Kings from the "Spirit Void Saint Sect". One of them went to kill Tan Zhong and Tao You and was sucked in by that Dao item. Now, Yuan Honglang had entered the sect again, and in less than a quarter of an hour, there was only one left of the three Great Elders of the Spirit Void Saint Sect.

This sudden turn of events greatly shocked everyone. Although the attacks from their hands did not stop, their power had greatly decreased, and it was impossible for them to cause any ripples in the mountains. The crowd no longer cared about this matter anymore, and most of their attention was already focused on the black-clothed man.

However, the black-clothed man didn't linger any longer. In the next moment, he disappeared from everyone's line of sight.

The crowd had long pushed their thoughts to the extreme as they scanned the area over and over again, but they still couldn't find any traces of him. It was as if the man in black had disappeared into thin air. They didn't know where he was hiding or where he would appear next, but they felt a sense of fear rising from the bottom of their hearts.

"Everyone, don't panic!"

A tall and sturdy old man furrowed his brows and shouted loudly. A powerful aura of power surged out from his body, and in an instant, a violent storm seemed to have formed around him. The air fluctuated rapidly, and in the blink of an eye, it had covered an area of a few thousand meters around him.

Upon sensing the movements of the old man, everyone's eyes lit up.

The reason why the man in black had been able to sneak an attack was because he had been caught off guard. As a result, it was impossible for the man in black to approach him silently. As such, without any hesitation, all the peak stage Heavenly Kings imitated the tall and sturdy old man's actions, and violent undulations arose from all around them.

However, taking advantage of this moment, the mountain range that was continuously moving was already much closer to him, and the terrifying power of the sucking was already close by. Everyone was slightly surprised and immediately retreated backwards. The Dao Artifact in their hands began to move again. A violent and terrifying attack came whistling out.

"Aoooo ~ ~ ~"

At this moment, a wild roar filled with both anger and shock resounded throughout the sky.

Everyone's heart thumped loudly. They saw another figure flying out of control high up in the sky, disappearing into the crowd of mountains. This time, the one hit was the tall and sturdy old man from before. At his original location, a familiar black figure had appeared.

The actions of the burly old man were actually useless, as the black clothed man was still able to quietly sneak into his side.

This discovery frightened everyone. They felt their hair stand on end. A bone-piercing chill rose from the depths of their souls, spreading to their limbs and organs in an instant.

The reason why everyone chose to stay here to fight against that powerful Dao Artifact, was because the black clothed man's consecutive attacks were rapidly destroying their confidence. Such a sneaky sneak attack that was hard to defend against, which Peak Heavenly King could block it.

If they did not have the Dao Artifact that could give birth to the terrifying power of sucking, with their strength, being ambushed would at most result in heavy injuries and could still fight. If they gathered the strength of everyone, killing the black clothed man would not be difficult. But now, if he was ambushed, he would be done for immediately.

"He's gone!"

A middle-aged man shouted in shock.

Everyone could not help but feel their hearts tighten. They instantly heard a scream, and they instantly captured a scene that they would never forget. The black figure that had just disappeared appeared behind a purple-robed man like a bolt of lightning, and a mass of white light shot out from his palm like a thunderbolt.

The purple-robed man's reaction was fast and nimble as he waved the huge saber in his hand.

The result did not go against everyone's expectations. The moment the huge blade hacked at the ball of white light, it actually cracked open, and the purple-robed man also flew out uncontrollably as if he had been struck by a massive boulder. In the blink of an eye, he disappeared into the mountain peaks.

The third one!

They suddenly realised that for the black clothed man to succeed in his surprise attack, being able to catch them off guard was indeed one of the reasons, but most importantly, it was his terrifying strength. With his strength, even if he did not ambush them, he could instantly injure a peak Heavenly King.

An expert with such terrifying power, was he really not a Heavenly Emperor?

Chapter 1996

With such an existence, coupled with the sandalwood clock's Dao Artifact, anyone who was targeted would be doomed!

At this point, there were more than twenty Peak Heavenly Kings that had been lost. If they continued to stay, perhaps the remaining twenty or so would be lost as well.

As for the "heavenly soul of the spirit dao", wanting to snatch it from the hands of the black clothed man was nothing but a pipe dream.

A decision must be made immediately, or.

"Let's go!"

Seeing the man in black flash once again, the rune seemed to jump out of everyone's mind at the same time.

Although they were extremely reluctant to leave that "Spirit Dao Heavenly Soul", it was still more important to keep their lives at this time. However, just as the group of peak level Heavenly Kings was about to leave, the terrifying power of the sucking swept out, enveloping all the surrounding mountains.

Everyone's expression changed, but they forced themselves to calm down, as they were only hit by the sucking's energy, they had enough time to escape. After a short moment, everyone couldn't help but be stunned. They suddenly realized that the countless mountain ranges that were moving at high speeds had actually changed their direction.

Originally, with the numerous Heavenly Kings at the bottom of the mountains, the power of the sucking affected everyone.

But now, the mountains suddenly turned around, the sucking that was originally spreading out in all directions, only affected about half of the cultivators present. In that instant, the dozen or so Peak Sky Kings felt the power of the sucking multiply, their expressions changed, but they could not help but rush forward.

On the other side, the ten-odd Peak Heavenly Kings felt the opposite.

After the short moment of being stunned, they all became wild with joy. Now was the best time to escape, as for the dozen or so Peak Heavenly Kings opposite of them, they could not care about them anymore.

Let alone the fact that most of the disciples here came from different sects, even if they came from the same sect, their friendship with the Heavenly King might not be that deep. At this time, it was naturally more important for him to escape. Who would care if others could escape? They could just help him stall for time by staying there and holding on.

However, their ecstasy only lasted for a moment before they couldn't help but turn pale with fright.

Within his line of sight, the man in black appeared once again. However, with a quick thought, everyone calmed down a bit. No matter how powerful that guy was, he was only a single person. There were more than ten people here and most of them would still be able to escape if everyone split up.

Of course, there would definitely be a few unlucky fellows who would be stopped, captured, or killed.

If so, he could only blame himself for having bad luck.

But before they could continue to flee, the black figure disappeared once more ... However, this time, it didn't disappear, but was blocked instead. In an instant, the small pebble in his palm turned into an enormous object that was over a hundred thousand meters tall, and crazily smashed into it.

"Whooosh."

The heaven and earth trembled as the void resounded. Over ten peak Heavenly Kings were enveloped by their might.

Everyone was trembling in fear, all the hair on their bodies stood up, and they felt as if their flesh body and even their souls were about to be annihilated and melt by the vast and profound chaos energy. While everyone was still in shock, one after another powerful attacks shot out, striking towards the gigantic boulder that had the power of thunder.

"Bam!"

A moment later, a heaven-shaking, earth-shattering sound was heard.

The attacks of more than ten peak stage Heavenly Kings, although extremely powerful, were able to clash with the gigantic object head on. However, like an egg smashing on a rock, it instantly dispersed, transforming into a boundless Strength Qi that swept across the place like raging waves, while the gigantic object continued to crush forward with unstoppable force.

At this time, there was no time for them to dodge. They could only circulate their Tian Yuan to the extreme and use their fastest speed to create a thick barrier in front of them, hoping that they could block it.

However, in just a split-second, the colossal creature had struck their bodies.

"Bang!" "Bang ~ ~ ~"

In an instant, the sound of explosions rang out.

That barrier of energy almost exploded. Everyone's body seemed to have been struck by a meteorite falling from the sky, and they were all sent flying out uncontrollably. At the same time, a terrifying force entered their bodies.

At that moment, everyone felt as if their entire body was about to explode, and their inner organs felt like they were about to be crushed into dust. They almost vomited out in succession, and even their Nascent Souls revealed tiny cracks.

Fortunately, all of them were all at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm. With injuries at the Nascent Soul stage, it would not be fatal.

Moments later, everyone finally managed to stabilize their bodies.

However, before they could even catch their breath, their faces turned as white as paper. This was because they felt an incomparably terrifying wave of sucking power rush over from behind them. Turning their heads in shock, they saw that the countless mountain ranges had turned around, facing them.

As for the dozen or so Peak Heavenly Kings, they were all gone.

Those people definitely could not have escaped successfully, they could only be swallowed by the power of the sucking that came from the mountains. Sandalwood activated the Dao Tool, and after absorbing those people, he actually aimed at them! This combined attack immediately caused them to fall into a deathtrap.

At this moment, they could no longer escape.

A strong sense of dejection involuntarily emerged from the depths of everyone's souls. Under such a situation, there was nowhere for them to escape to, the terrifying giant monster and the terrifying sucking had completely sealed off all their escape routes.

In the current situation, even using a long distance teleportation tool would be useless.

If they had known earlier that such a situation would occur, they would have used that treasure just now, even if it was just in the morning, they would have had a chance to escape, but now, even if they used that treasure again, it would have been a waste of time.

Everyone's thoughts raced as they closed their eyes in despair.

After a moment, everyone could clearly feel the terror of the sucking's power. It was as if their bodies were being held tightly by an invisible giant hand, and they couldn't help but follow the sucking's power as they shot backwards towards the rapidly flowing mountain range.

Only then did they realize that they were already surrounded by ice and snow, and that they were standing on top of a mountain peak. The mountain peaks and valleys around them were all towering, and all of these mountain peaks and ranges were actually standing in the middle of a huge lake.

Chapter 1997 Total Destruction

When everyone saw this, they were extremely shocked.

They had all thought that since the scroll like Dao Artifact could suck a person in, there should be a space within it. However, everyone thought that the space inside was like that of a small Space Aircraft. They never expected it to look like this.

"A cave!" This is the cave's space! "

"No wonder it has such great power. So it's the cave's space!"

"How can a sandalwood have a cave?"

After a short period of blankness, the group of peak-level Heavenly Kings cried out in alarm.

If they had an immortal cave, it would be of immense help to their cultivation. However, after an instant, the burning pain in their eyes had already been replaced by bitterness. Now that they had been captured, even if they knew that this was an immortal cave, what could they do?

Just that sandalwood bell, how could it possess such a treasure? Moreover, to think that he, who possessed such a treasure, would actually become someone else's servant?

Could it be that this cave did not belong to him, but to the owner of that sandalwood bell?

That must be the case. Only such a character would have such a treasure in their possession, and they did not know how to deal with him after drawing everyone into the cave.

This time, it was a complete wipeout.

There were a total of forty-nine peak-level Heavenly Kings that had come eighteen days out of the eighteen days of the "Spiritual Dao of Heaven's Soul". Besides Tan Zhong and Tao You of the Asura

Supreme Sect who had become the black-clothed man's servants, the other forty-seven had already been sucked into the cave dwelling one after another, not a single one of them escaping.

If things continued like this, they would truly be wiped out.

In the entirety of the last 18 days, all the peak-level Heavenly Kings added up would only amount to a hundred or so people. But now, almost half of them had perished on the 36th day. If this news were to spread, what kind of shock would it cause in the eighteenth day?

Where did that man in black come from?

Also from the 18th day? Or was it from the Ninth Heaven?

Everyone was startled awake and subconsciously wanted to move, but suddenly discovered that there was an even more terrifying force pressing in from all directions. In an instant, it was as if their bodies were completely shackled.

At this point, they couldn't even move a single finger.

"Everyone!"

A clear voice suddenly reverberated in the air. Everyone turned to look, only to see that in the sky above the mountain range, a figure had appeared. It was the man in black with a handsome face and tall stature.

Everyone dispersed to different peaks. However, no matter where they were, they felt that the man in black was looking at them.

Looking at his smiling face, everyone had different expressions. Some were gnashing their teeth, some looked like they were spitting fire, some were looking surprised, some were shocked, and some were even extremely dejected.

"Let's formally introduce ourselves."

The black clothed man spoke again, and said with a smile. "I am Tang Huan, Principal of the Crimson Sky Kingdom's' Heavenly Law Holy Courtyard ', and also the owner of this cave abode."

"Crimson Radiance Sect?" "You are a cultivator of the Crimson Radiance Sect?"

"Impossible, how could there be a Highest Heavenly King in the Crimson light sky?"

"He's lying. I've never heard of a great sect called the Heavenly Law Holy Courtyard within the Crimson Waves!"

"..."

The peak of the mountain was in an uproar as everyone shouted out loud.

This group of people weren't like sandalwood; they were born into the Crimson Twilight. In order to prevent their whereabouts from being revealed, thirty-six days after they entered, they did not have any contact with the local cultivators. Moreover, with their cultivation and strength, they did not feel the need to interact with those cultivators who were far weaker than them.

Because of this, after they entered the Crimson Light, they directly headed towards their destination. Afterwards, they sneaked into the vicinity of the snowy peak, completely unaware of the existence of the Heavenly Dao Academy.

Otherwise, they should know that not only did the Crimson Light Heavens have Highest Heavenly Kings, it had more than one.

Of course, even if they knew about it, they would not take it to heart. At most, they would just be a little surprised, but in the next thirty-six days, they would not even be able to reach the peak of the Upper Sky Realm. It was impossible for them to pose any threat to the peak of the Upper Sky Realm from the last eighteen days.

However, after a short while of muttering, the crowd's voices could not help but soften, eventually disappearing completely.

That Tang Huan's self-introduction indeed sounded like a lie, but at this point, to them, who were already like prisoners, it was unnecessary for him to lie to them again ... From the looks of it, what that person said was definitely true.

In that instant, everyone fell silent.

However, in the hearts of the crowd, that inconceivable feeling didn't weaken, but instead became stronger. If this Tang Huan had come from the last eighteen or even the ninth day, they would feel that they would still be able to accept it.

This group of peak 18 Heavenly Kings had all been captured by a Red Radiance aboriginal. If this was told to others, it would be a joke no matter how they listened.

However, they had truly become the main characters in this joke.

"Everyone, I've come out to ask you guys whether you wish to live or die." Tang Huan held his hands behind his back, standing in the air, his eyebrows arched with a smile, but the question that came out of his mouth made all the peak stage Heavenly Kings tremble with fear, cold perspiration forming all over his body.

Want to live? Or did he want to die?

Of course, he was looking forward to it!

After having trained to such an extent, who would be willing to die so easily? However, with their current situation, wanting to die, was very simple. Tang Huan was the master of the cave. However, if she wanted to live, it wouldn't be that easy to accept.

"You want us to swear an oath to the Dao of the Heavens to be loyal to you?"

A sneer suddenly broke the peace in the sky above the lake. The white-clothed youth who spoke was the Supreme Elder from the "Spiritual Void Saint Sect", Yuan Honglang.

What Yuan Honglang said did not surprise the people on the other summits.

Putting up an oath to the heavens and being loyal to the other party was indeed a good way for them to continue to live on. However, it was also the most difficult way for them to accept.

"We have 47 Peak Heavenly Kings here."

Before Tang Huan could say anything, Yuan Honglang sneered coldly, "If I'm not wrong, you and Tao You must have sworn an oath to swear loyalty to you, right? Including the two of them, there were a total of forty-nine people! Making forty-nine of your peak level Heavenly Kings swear their loyalty and loyalty to you, Tang Huan, your appetite is really huge. However, don't you see if you can handle it yourself? Will you be crushed to death because of that? "

Chapter 1998 - Raising a Stone to Throw Your Foot

"What do you mean?"

Tang Huan looked at Yuan Honglang and smiled slowly.

Yuan Honglang said coldly, "Tang Huan, you are also a Heavenly King at the peak of the Upper Realm. Don't you know that the more people who swear allegiance to the Heavenly Dao, the more difficult it is for you to reach the Heavenly Emperor Realm?"

"Just accepting the oaths of the heavens from Tan Zhong and Tao You is already enough to increase the difficulty of breaking through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm by ten times. Under normal circumstances, becoming a Heavenly Emperor would be incredibly difficult, let alone advancing ten times that. "

The corner of Yuan Honglang's mouth curled up into a faint sneer, "If you accept the oath of allegiance of the forty-seven of us, no matter how talented you are, you will never be promoted to the level of Celestial Emperor. At that time, you will be at the peak of the Upper Sky King Realm until your time is up! "

At the end of his sentence, the scorn from Yuan Honglang's antennae intensified, "If the Oath of Heaven is so easy to bear, then how can there be so few cultivators who can accept the Oath of Heaven? In the eighteenth and ninth day, no one dared to accept the oaths of the other cultivators. "

"There is a bit of truth in his words."

Tang Huan nodded her head, her face still carrying a faint smile.

His previous understanding of the Oath of Heaven came from Pan Ji's memories. However, that Pan Ji's residual soul had existed for too long, and his memories were incomplete, leaving him with quite a bit of incomplete memories. Tang Huan was not clear about the consequences of accepting an oath of allegiance to another's heaven's way.

However, after receiving Tao You's oath of loyalty and searching his memories, Tang Huan completely understood everything.

Fortunately, Tang Huan's Heavenly King's Puppet and servants were mostly controlled by Sword Heart through the "Puppet Soul Seal", and there were very few who directly swore an oath of loyalty to the heavens. Furthermore, because Tang Huan already possessed the Divine Crystal, the impact of the matter on Tang Huan wasn't as strong as Yuan Honglang had said.

For the current Tang Huan, the biggest obstacle to advancing to the Sky Emperor Realm was not the loyalty of the several Sky King servants, but the question of how to allow her main body and clone to breakthrough at the same time. Only by breaking through at the first moment would Tang Huan be able to truly step into the Sky Emperor Realm.

Of course, if Tang Huan continued to accept other people's oath and allegiance, then the situation would become difficult to determine.

"If we cannot swear loyalty to you using the Heavenly Law Oath, then what's the use in keeping you all alive? It seems like you are forcing me to kill all of you! " In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan laughed again, and his tone of voice turned a bit colder, as if a strong killing intent was lingering above the towering mountains of this lake.

No one said anything, but hearing Tang Huan's words, their faces changed, and their hearts tightened.

Yuan Honglang sneered again, "Tang Huan, our forty odd people came from more than a dozen of the most powerful sects in the last eighteen days. If you kill us, the sect commander behind us will be your enemy. Don't think that by killing us, our sect wouldn't know? Within the sect, all of our Mind Stigma are sealed, so even if we die, the Mind Stigma will not immediately dissipate. The Celestial Emperor in our sect can definitely make use of those Mind Stigma to deduce the position and condition of the culprit, you. "

"At the same time, becoming enemies with so many powerful sects, no matter how much stronger you are, you will still be unable to escape this calamity. Moreover, since you are a Crimson Radiance Sect cultivator, your family, relatives, and fellow disciples are all in this Crimson Radiance Sect. Even if you don't think for yourself, you still have to think for them. "

"I didn't want your family and friends to be annihilated because of you. I didn't want you to be destroyed because of you. You'd better let us go immediately. "Rest assured, although we cannot swear an oath to serve you, we can swear to the heavens that we will never ever reveal what happened here."

"Moreover, we won't let you let them go for nothing. Each of us can offer you all kinds of treasures as ransom!"

At the end of his sentence, Yuan Honglang looked at Tang Huan with a look of certainty.

The eyes of the Heavenly Kings at the peak of the other summits lit up. What Yuan Honglang said was too good, with such coercion and temptation, they did not believe that Tang Huan would dare to kill everyone here. Otherwise, he might be able to escape death, but her friends and relatives would be in trouble.

As long as Tang Huan did not have an unusually vicious heart, she would not have any scruples.

"Yuan Honglang, you did remind me." Tang Huan squinted his eyes and smiled. "Killing you all does indeed have the possibility of bringing disaster to our Heavenly Law Holy Academy."

"It's good that you understand. "If you release us, you will not be at a disadvantage. Furthermore, with the oath given by the Heavenly Law, you will not be in any danger."

A smug look flashed across Yuan Honglang's eyes.

If they were to swear oaths to the heavens, they would be no different from puppets from now on. However, if it were other oaths to the heavens, they still had ways to avoid it, and as long as they succeeded in escaping and returned back to the place of eighteen, they could completely think of other ways to leak out the information regarding Tang Huan.

At that time, all the eighteen Heavenly Emperors would be interested in his immortal cave.

"If I let you go, I would not be at a disadvantage."

Tang Huan slightly nodded, and then suddenly changed the topic of conversation, laughing indifferently, "But, how can the small ransom you guys exchanged for compare to the more than forty Peak stage Heavenly King Stage puppets? Since it's not good to let you all swear your loyalty to the heavens, then let's just change the method."

A mocking intent surfaced between Tang Huan's brows.

In the next moment, one after another "Puppet Soul Seals" shot out from his palm, appearing like lightning in front of the Heavenly Kings at the peak of the realm. Tang Huan's smile became even wider: "Everyone, there is no need to worry if I can handle this, this is my cave spirit's condensed 'Puppet Soul Seal', everyone can feel at ease fusing this."

The smiles that had just appeared on everyone's faces froze.

The expression on Yuan Honglang's face became even more marvelous. He almost vomited out a mouthful of blood.

If he had known earlier that Tang Huan had other methods to control everyone, he would have never revealed the fact that everyone had Mind Stigma s sealed in the sect. If that was the case, as long as Tang Huan was incited to kill one or two people, everything regarding this Scarlet Radiance Heaven would be exposed. But now, Tang Huan absolutely could not kill anymore.

Right now, if they were truly controlled by Tang Huan and couldn't even use a countermeasure, if they had the chance to return to the eighteen days old, the sect would definitely not know that they had become someone else's puppets. At that moment, Yuan Honglang felt like he had been struck by a stone.

"Tang Huan, are you sure you want to do this?" Yuan Honglang's face was pale, and her voice contained a trace of unconcealable fear.

"Of course!"

Chapter 1999

The facts once again proved that the stronger the person's cultivation, the more unwilling they would be to die.

When Tang Huan exited the cave space and left the vast snow region outside, the forty-seven Peak Heavenly Kings who had been captured had all become puppets under his indirect control.

Naturally, the process was not as smooth as it seemed.

Even at this stage, there were still very few people who were willing to accept their fate and fuse with a Puppet Soul Seal. Even though Yuan Honglang and the other peak level Sky Kings still wanted to struggle in death, they concluded that Tang Huan definitely did not dare to kill anyone, and thus did not want to merge the "Puppet Soul Seal" into her soul.

Their resistance would naturally not succeed.

Therefore, even when their soul energy had been completely consumed by the cave's power, their souls still couldn't avoid the fate of being forcefully merged into the "Puppet Soul Seal". Of course, they were both at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm. Even in that situation, if they wanted to commit suicide, they could still do it.

But unfortunately, no one was willing to die so quietly.

Of course, as matters stood, it was no longer important how they had become puppets. What was important was that after Tang Huan possessed nearly fifty peak peak stage heaven king level puppets, her power had expanded to a terrifying extent. Relying on this kind of lineup, even if it was the middle of the eighteenth day, Tang Huan would still be able to destroy the majority of the sects there. Even if she met a lower heavenly emperor, she should have a certain amount of power to protect herself.

"This' Spirit Dao of Heaven 'is indeed interesting."

Inside Jade Imperial City, in a palace at the Heavenly Dao Holy Courtyard's main headquarters, Tang Huan's face revealed a little surprise.

At the moment, the "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao" was floating in front of Tang Huan, its entire body seemed to be sculpted out of beautiful jade, sparkling and translucent, overflowing with color, it looked meaty, white and tender. If not for the fact that there were no facial features, and no hair on the head, and if he was wearing clothes, he would be a two or three year old child.

The "Spiritual Dao of the Heavens" clasped its hands and bowed, then knelt in the air and kowtowed. Its face constantly fluctuated as it tried to squeeze out its facial features. Its expression was truly vivid. At this time, Tang Huan did not use his power to bind it, but it did not run.

"Brother, isn't this guy too intelligent?"

"It's begging for mercy?"

On the opposite side, Jiu Ling and Xiao Budian both had their mouths wide open, their eyes perfectly round as they stared unblinkingly at the soul of the spirit dao.

Tang Huan nodded her head and lamented. The strength of this "Spirit Dao of Heaven" Spirit Soul was indeed somewhat unexpected.

This was especially true since it had only just been born. If it was given a little more time, it would definitely be the next nine spirits and Xiao Budian. Not only that, the heaven's way of thinking within the body of this "spirit dao sky spirit" was extremely powerful. It was something that Tang Huan had only seen in her life, and it was indeed a treasure born from the power of the heavens.

With that thought, Tang Huan found it hard to bear to refine the little fellow again.

"Big Brother, are you really going to refine it?" After a while, Xiao Budian suddenly looked at Tang Huan with her pair of dark blue eyes, unable to bear it any longer.

"Xiao Budian, are you stupid?"

"Big Brother personally ran to such a far place, and even spent so much time with several tens of the upper peak Heavenly Kings before finally bringing this' Spirit Dao Heaven Soul 'back. You actually want Big Brother to not refine it?"

Xiao Budian shrunk her neck, glanced at the "heavenly spirit", and said somewhat guiltily, "Don't you think it's very pitiful?"

"Pitiful?"

Nine Spirits grunted and said unhappily, "It was born to be refined by someone. This is its fate, so what's so pitiful about it? Xiao Budian, you don't have to be so sympathetic and affect your big brother here. Brother is going to use this' Spiritual Path of Heaven Soul 'to attack the Heavenly Emperor Realm. "

"Oh!"

After Xiao Budian heard this, her head drooped down slightly.

Suddenly, he jumped in front of Xiao Budian, clasped his hands and bowed respectfully, then kowtowed and begged for forgiveness, just like how he did in front of Tang Huan previously. He looked like a pitiful father, making Xiao Budian even more annoyed.

"This fellow is indeed clever!"

Seeing this hilarious scene, Tang Huan could not help but burst out laughing, and instantly waved towards the "Spirit Dao of Heaven", "Little thing, come over here!"

He would occasionally turn towards Tang Huan, and sometimes he would turn to face Xiao Budian, but in the end, he could only move slowly towards him. From time to time, he would turn his head towards Xiao Budian, as if hoping that Xiao Budian would help him to plead for her life.

However, in the end, Xiao Budian did not continue speaking. Although she sympathized with the "Spiritual Path and Heaven's Soul" being concerned, she cared more about Tang Huan. If Tang Huan was really determined to refine this "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao" to attack the Heavenly Emperor Realm, she would naturally not object.

After a long while, the "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao" finally returned to Tang Huan's side.

"A creature like you, who was born into this world, is indeed very rare."

Tang Huan looked at this "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao" and could not help but sigh. Then she laughed and slowly said, "Fine, on Xiao Budian's account, I will not let you refine it. From today onwards, you will cultivate by my side. If one day you can truly become a spirit and materialize a human, that would also be your good fortune. "

The "heavenly soul of the spirit dao" was stunned for a moment, and immediately understood Tang Huan's meaning. Joy surged on its face, and with a plop, it knelt in front of Tang Huan, knocking its head against the ground. A short while later, the "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao" turned towards Xiao Budian and continued to kowtow in gratitude.

As if he had awoken from a dream, Xiao Budian hurriedly pulled up the "Heaven's Soul of the Spirit Dao", and said with a beaming smile as he looked at Tang Huan: "Thank you, Big Brother."

"Xiao Budian, why are you being so polite to me?"

Tang Huan unwittingly smiled.

The nine spirits obviously did not expect Tang Huan to suddenly make such a decision, they were stunned for a moment, then came to their senses. They immediately went up to Tang Huan, with their beautiful nine colored eyes bulging, and muttered in disbelief: "Big brother, this is the 'Spirit Dao Heaven Spirit', you have truly decided not to refine it."

"How can this be fake?"

Tang Huan raised her hand with a smile plastered on her face.

This decision of his seemed a bit willful, but it was a result that he was familiar with after pondering deeply. The second reason was because Xiao Budian begged for mercy. As for the third reason, he realized that the effect of this "Spiritual Dao of Heaven" on breaking through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm was not as great as she had imagined.

Chapter 2000. Business!

Of course, this did not mean that the role of the "heavenly soul of the spirit dao" had been exaggerated.

In fact, according to the results of Tang Huan's investigations, the usefulness of the "Spirit Dao Heaven Soul" was even greater than what the rumors claimed. If it was a peak level Heavenly King like sandalwood, Tao You and Yuan Honglang who had reached the Sky King Realm, they would have a 100% chance of being promoted to the Heavenly Emperor Realm if they refined the "Spirit Dao Heaven Soul".

For these thousands or tens of thousands of years' worth of peak Heavenly Kings, without even the slightest hope of breaking through, let alone 80%, even if it was just 10% or 20%, it was enough to make them wild with joy.

However, to Tang Huan, the effect of "Heavenly Spirit of the Spirit Dao" wasn't that outstanding.

The reason was very simple.

Tang Huan's Nascent Soul was bizarre, and was definitely not something an ordinary cultivator of the same realm could compare to. Just condensing a single dao crystal would consume several times more power than other cultivators of the same realm, and the amount of energy expended to reach a higher realm would be more than ten times more than other cultivators of the same realm.

Moreover, Tang Huan still had her Immortal body clone, so the amount of power she needed was not any less than her main body.

He wanted to break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm, how could a mere "Heaven's Soul" be enough? Even if another ten "heavenly spirits" were to appear, they might not be able to provide enough strength to support it.

Since a "Spiritual Dao Heaven's Soul" could not work as he had originally expected, what was the harm in keeping it?

"Big brother, then why don't you break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm ..." Looking at the joyous "heavenly soul of the spirit dao", the nine spirits could not help but frown as they spoke with some hesitation.

"Yeah, big brother, you ..."

After his initial happiness, Xiao Budian came back to his senses and stammered.

The "Heavenly Spirit Dao's Soul" also seemed to have noticed that the situation was bad and immediately quieted down. It obediently stood behind Xiao Budian, holding onto the corner of her clothes with its small hands as it pitifully looked at Tang Huan.

"You two don't have to worry about this."

Tang Huan rubbed Nine Spirits' head, and then pinched Xiao Budian's cheeks, laughing out loud, "Even without the 'Spirit Dao of Heaven', I can still enter the Heavenly Emperor Realm." As she finished speaking, a strong sense of confidence emerged from Tang Huan's expression.

After that, Tang Huan waved her hands towards the two, and said with a face full of smiles, "Jiu Ling, Xiao Budian, take this little thing for a tour around the Jade Imperial City. Be careful, don't expose its whereabouts."

"Don't worry, big brother."

Watching the nine spirits and Xiao Budian leave the palace with the "heavenly soul of the spirit dao" and quickly leave, Tang Huan could not help but exhale lightly as she sank into deep thought.

A few days ago, when he exited the dragon fountain at the encampment of the Dragon's Sky Mansion, his avatar had already left the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

Right now, his avatar had already fused into his body.

The return of the avatar of the Immortal Body also let Tang Huan know about the unforeseen event in the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace". The return of the Second Elder of the Dragon Clan was not too surprising to Tang Huan.

Heavenly Emperor Liu-Li was free, Great Elder Gu Keng was gone, and the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" was no longer the hunting ground for the Dragon Clan. Regardless of whether it was the Heavenly Emperor Glazed or the Spirit Hidden Cave Lord, Ye Tingyun, these experts would definitely not stay in the Dragon Palace for long.

After they left, Cang Xu entered again and naturally became the number one expert of the Dragon Palace.

To the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", Human Clan was just a passerby, only Dragon Clan was the master. With enough time, the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" would once again become the hunting grounds for the Dragon Clan.

It was a pity that Cang Xu had anticipated this, but hadn't expected this at all. He did not expect that after Tang Huan left, the Immortal Body clone would actually go back in, and he predicted that the outcome of his failure would be extremely tragic. Not only did the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace" not become his dominating ground, it had even become his burial ground.

Tang Huan was no longer concerned about the current situation of the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace".

What Tang Huan cared about was the situation of the Immortal Body clone, allowing it to enter the Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace which had an extremely dense immortal energy, it was truly a wise decision. In the years inside the Dragon Palace, the Immortal body clone did not waste any time, its cultivation and strength had both increased extremely quickly.

Right now, his Immortal body clone's cultivation base had also reached the level of a peak Superior Heavenly King.

Both his main body and his Immortal Body clone were already at the peak of the Upper Sky King. This meant that Tang Huan already had the basic ability to break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm. However, if Tang Huan recklessly tried to break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm at this time, the final result would definitely end in failure.

Firstly, Tang Huan had not prepared sufficient strength.

Even though the 'Primal Chaos Crystals' contained tremendous amounts of chaos energy, it was not enough for both his main body and his Immortal body to simultaneously use them to attack the Celestial Emperor Realm. If he wanted to set foot on that realm, Tang Huan would need to accumulate even more strength, in case his efforts were to fail due to lack of strength.

Secondly, although Tang Huan's main body and the Immortal Body clone were one, the cultivation levels of the two were not congruent enough.

If he wanted to reach the Sky Emperor Realm, he would need to train his cultivation level together.

It will be a long process.

Fortunately, Tang Huan now had nearly fifty Peak Heavenly King Puppets and had enough power to protect herself. There was no need to rush to break through to the Heavenly Emperor Realm, he had enough time to complete this step. So what if she didn't have the "heavenly soul of the spirit dao"? When everything is ready in the future, the promotion to the Heavenly Emperor will naturally happen.

"Tang Huan!"

A soft and delicate voice called out, pulling the thinking Tang Huan back into reality. Looking over, a figure walked over gracefully.

In the Heaven Realm, he was constantly bathed in the Celestial Qi. Adding to the continuous increase in his cultivation, Shan Shan was even more radiant than when he had just transcended the heavenly tribulation, to the point that he looked a few years younger. With a frown on his face, his mature charm seemed to be even more enticing.

"Shan Shan, have you seen Ancestor Gao?"

Tang Huan lifted his hand and gently pulled, allowing Shan Shan, who had just approached, to fall into her embrace. After that, she wrapped her arm around her slender waist, and brought his hand close to her neck to take a deep breath.

Shan Shan's fair and tender face immediately flushed red. He turned his body bashfully and nodded, then said with a little disappointment, "I saw him, but he left again."

During these few days, Shanhe returned to the Jade Imperial City. However, Shan Shan had just finished his closed door cultivation and coincidentally went to meet him.

"That's exactly how he is. He will come back once he has had enough time outside."

Tang Huan smiled and said, "Shan Shan, let's not talk about the old man, we have some important matters to attend to first." After he finished speaking, he carried Shan Shan's body up horizontally.

"Old husband and wife, you don't have to be tired of them." Shan Shan's beautiful face turned red as he said lightly.

"For such a great matter, even if a thousand more years pass, I still wouldn't get tired of it."
