

W. Master 2061

Chapter 2061 - Kicking an iron plate!

Even now, he still didn't understand how he was captured.

To him, killing two peak Heavenly King Stage enemies was not a difficult matter. Even if there was one of them, the Disciples of the Mo Clan, he would still kill them without hesitation.

As a result, he had always been in a joking state of mind.

The moment he saw Tang Huan taking a step forward, he was ready to get himself together and have some fun with him.

However, just as he thought this, before he could even implement it, he had already fallen into the hands of his opponent. Furthermore, Tang Huan's claw seemed to contain a miraculous power. The moment the skin on his neck was touched, he could no longer move, and had completely lost the ability to resist.

Could it be that this Tang Huan was not a peak-level Heavenly King, but was instead a half-step Heavenly Emperor like him?

Pan Yi blankly stared at the smiling face in front of him. The shock in his heart could not be described with words. At this moment, he suddenly came to a realization that he hadn't seriously investigated the opponent's condition and hadn't even been able to determine his cultivation level.

A peak-level Heavenly King ... this was just his first impression, and he felt that his opponent was at such a level.

However, the truth was that his opponent's strength had far exceeded his expectations.

Mo Hanyun and Tang Huan weren't fools. If they didn't have someone to rely on, how could they not be alarmed when facing hundreds of Heavenly Kings and half-step Heavenly Emperors like him?

Could it be that this Tang Huan is ... Sky Emperor?

Thinking of these two words, Pan Yi couldn't help but shiver. His face instantly turned as white as a sheet of paper.

The more he thought about it, the more likely it seemed. He himself was also a half a step into Heavenly Emperor Stage. If Tang Huan was the same, he definitely wouldn't be so much stronger than him. Only a Sky Emperor was able to capture him, a half-step Sky Emperor, so easily ... He seemed to have kicked a metal board this time.

"Cough, cough!"

As if they had awoken from a dream, everyone subconsciously looked towards the direction of the voice. They saw that in front of the endlessly shaking arches, two figures were walking towards them at a leisurely pace. Although they looked like they were strolling leisurely, their speed was extremely fast.

The one walking in front was a young man around 20 years old. He was tall and straight with an extremely beautiful face. He was wearing a white robe which made him look like a goddess. He was extremely handsome. The person that was slightly behind him was a green-clothed old man with a short and thin figure and an unremarkable appearance.

"Grand Elder!"

After clearly seeing the man's face, Chu Ling and many other Heavenly Kings' eyes lit up, their pupils emitting a light of pleasant surprise. They could not wait to welcome him.

"Grand Elder, you've come at just the right time."

Chu Ling was extremely excited as she followed beside the white clothed man and spoke extremely quickly, "This Tang Huan and Mo Hanyun stole our 'Cosmic Dao Flower' from the void a few years ago. She didn't expect to meet them here after returning. Elder Pan Yi of the Pangu Heaven Sect wanted to help them but was restrained by Tang Huan. Fortunately, Grand Elder, you're here. With you here, Tang Huan and Mo Wuyun are definitely ... "

"Alright!"

Without waiting for Chu Ling to finish speaking, the old man in green robes interrupted her with a deep voice and said, "What should we do? The great elder has made his decision. Step down!"

"Yes sir!"

Chu Ting glared at the elder in green with dissatisfaction, but she could only stop in her tracks and stop following him. The old man was also an elder of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect, but because the elder had always been by his side, his position was much higher than his.

Fortunately, he had already said what he needed to say during that small exchange.

This Divine Firmament Sky Sect's Supreme Elder was extremely protective of his own weakness. After knowing about the conflict between them, Tang Huan and Mo Wuyun, he would never let them off easily.

Of course, the most important matter was that this Utmost Exalted Elder was said to have long been a peak lower Heavenly Emperor.

After the scene just now, Chu Ting had faintly understood that Tang Huan was most likely not the peak of the Upper Sky King, but an Inferior Sky Emperor. Otherwise, it would be impossible for the half-step Sky Emperor, Pan Yi, to lose so quickly. Although Tang Huan was strong, she was still inferior to the Sky Emperor who was at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm.

This time, Tang Huan and Mo Wuyun were really going to die.

Chu Ting's mind raced, but her two eyes viciously stared at Tang Huan, the depths of her eyes filled with malevolence and ridicule.

Under the watch of several hundred pairs of eyes, the white clothed man finally stopped in his tracks. The distance between him, Tang Huan and Mo Wuyun was already less than ten meters.

"This old man is Jiang Yu, the Supreme Elder of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect. Greetings, Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan." The white clothed man cupped his hands towards Tang Huan, his face had a gentle smile.

"Celestial Emperor! He really is the Celestial Emperor! "

"Inferior Heavenly Emperor? A God? Or a Celestial Emperor? "

"It's no wonder that Pan Yi is no match for him. Originally, it was actually a true Heavenly Emperor that he was facing."

Before this, when Tang Huan caught Pan Yi, the half step Sky Emperor, in a flash, they had speculated about this possibility, but they were only guessing that it was still a fluke. Now, however, they had lost it all.

The judgement of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect's Jiang Yu, the Celestial Emperor, could never be wrong.

In that moment, the faces of many Heavenly Kings changed, even Chu Ting was rejoicing in her heart, it was fortunate that Tang Huan did not start a massacre when they were in the void, if not, even with so many of them, they would not be able to escape.

It was fortunate that Jiang Yu was able to make it in time, if he had come any later, Tang Huan would probably have started a massacre here.

Tang Huan smiled calmly: "I wonder what business does the Heavenly Emperor Jianghu have here?"

"If this old man were to say that he had come here specifically for you, Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan, I wonder if you would believe him?" Jiang Yu said with a smile.

"I do!" "Of course!"

Tang Huan nodded her head, smiling, "I am a Peak Heavenly King from the lower thirty-six days. As soon as I entered the Non-Phase Sky, I ranked first on the King Board and became the number one king of the Heaven Realm. After that, I entered the Great Wisdom City and observed the Great Wisdom Sect for five years.

"Although there shouldn't be only one person like me in the Heaven Realm, it definitely isn't a rare sight. The Heavenly Emperor of Jianghu admires my elegance. He has followed me for hundreds of millions of miles. This truly surprises me. " As he finished speaking, Tang Huan spoke with an incomparably emotional tone, but his expression was actually full of ridicule.

Chapter 2062 - Rabbit and Fox's Grief

Hearing this, Mo Wuyun could not help but burst out laughing.

However, the crowd formed by the hundreds of Heavenly Kings was currently in an uproar.

Thirty-six Heavenly Kings ... Ranked first on the leaderboard ... Great Cloud Wall ... Inferior Sky Emperor ... This string of words provoked everyone to the point of going insane.

This Tang Huan actually came from the lower thirty-six days, and had even reached first place on the King Board before?

Back then, when they met in the void, they were obviously on the road to becoming eighteen from the next thirty-six days. Moreover, judging from the time, they should have arrived at the Non-Phase Sky, five years ago.

In these five years, Tang Huan had been observing the Great Cloud Wall and broke through to the lower realm in one go.

How could there be such an outstanding person in the world? It was his first time seeing the "Great Cloud Wall" for five years, and he could be promoted to a lower level Heavenly Emperor?

This was simply a joke!

Judging from the tone of Tang Huan's voice just now, it was indeed a bit of a tease. However, the person she was teasing was only Jiang Yu, and the information that he revealed made others feel that she was not lying ... Everything Tang Huan said, should be confirmed without a doubt.

Unknowingly, the crowd's clamoring gradually died down as everyone stared unblinkingly at Tang Huan and Jiang Yu.

"Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan is right."

In an instant, Jiang Yu revealed a smile, "Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan, you have been here for thirty-six days, yet you are able to reach the top of the Heavenly King's List. Furthermore, you are advancing to the lower Sky Emperor so quickly, it can be said to be an extremely rare and admirable event. I had wanted to catch a glimpse of you for a long time, how could you leave the Great Wisdom City after entering the Heavenly Emperor Realm? "Otherwise, that would be such a pity."

"Heavenly Emperor Jiangyu, you have also experienced my elegance. What are your plans for the future?"

Tang Huan squinted her eyes and sized up Jiang Yu, and said with a smile that was not a smile, "Are you planning to return to the Divine Firmament Sky Sect now, or are you planning to go for nine days with me?"

"Naturally, it's going with Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan."

"From the Non-Phase Heaven to the Nine Heavens, even if it's the Void Divine Ark known as the xuanji Pill House, it will still take several years. In these few years, this old man can exchange pointers with Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan for a good exchange, which will probably benefit both you and I."

Tang Huan laughed: "What you say makes sense, but, I have some conflicts with your esteemed sect's Elder Chu Ting and the others"

"That's easy to deal with, this old man will give you an explanation." Jiang Yu slightly nodded his head before his gaze immediately fell on Chu Xun, who was standing tens of meters away. "Chu Ting, come here!"

"Yes."

Chu Ting quickly ran over and bowed, "Grand Elder, do you have any instructions?"

At this time, Chu Ting's expression had already changed.

He originally thought that even if Jiang Yu didn't kill Tang Huan, he would still teach Tang Huan a ruthless lesson. However, the situation later on, made him a little confused.

Now, Chu Ting was even more bewildered and uncertain.

"Kneel!"

After a split-second, two light notes rang out. However, when Chu Xun heard them, it was like a clap of thunder. Her entire head felt dizzy and it buzzed.

"Didn't you hear what I said? Kneel down! "

Jiang Yu's expression slightly darkened. His voice was still light and indifferent, but his tone seemed to contain a force that could not be defied. Chu Ting shivered as she heard this. She felt an irresistible force pressing down on her, causing her knees to go limp. She couldn't help but kneel on the ground.

"Chu Mian, what kind of character is Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan? How could he covet a 'Void Essence Dao Flower' from you?"

Jiang Yu said indifferently, "That day, it must have been because the Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan was too weak and she wanted to snatch their 'Void Essence Dao Flower', but she failed. "Today, after returning to Wu Xiang Tian, you actually lied in front of me. Do you really think that you can deceive me with just a few words?"

"Great Clan Elder, I ... I was wrong! "

Chu Ting was drenched in cold sweat as she listened. She lowered her head in fear. She didn't expect that Jiang Yu would be so sure of the situation without even asking.

"It's good that you know your wrongs."

Jiang Yu said slowly, "Tell me, how should I deal with you?"

"Grand Elder, I'll return to the sect right now and enter the Immortal-Imprisoning Valley for a hundred years to reflect on my own life."

Chu Ting said with a sullen face.

Imprisoning Immortal Valley was a forbidden area of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect. After entering the valley for a year, their lifespan would be reduced by ten years. Only those who committed a great sin would be imprisoned. If Chu Lian invited himself to Prison Immortal Valley for a hundred years, his lifespan would be shortened by a thousand years. This was already an extremely serious punishment.

"I hate being deceived the most in my life. Chu Ting, how could a hundred years be enough? "Why not a thousand years!" Jiang Yu squinted his eyes with a carefree expression on his face, but his tone did not allow for any disobedience.

"A thousand years?"

After entering the Immortal Prison Valley for a thousand years, his lifespan would be shortened by an entire ten thousand years. Originally, it would have been ten thousand years before his end. However, after making this trip to the Immortal Prison Valley, he would only have a small portion of his life left. After a thousand years, it would be impossible for him to advance to the Heavenly Emperor Stage once again after leaving the Immortal Prison Valley.

In that case, he could only wait for death.

"What? You have a different opinion?" Jiang Yu's tone rose slightly.

"No" "No!"

Chu Ting's heart had already sunk to the bottom of the ravine. She felt as if her life had turned to ashes.

"Yuan Yin, send him back to the Divine Firmament Sky Sect and inform the sect master of my orders. Jiang Yu nodded at the elder beside him.

"Yes, too high!"

The old man in green clothes called Yuan Yin respectfully replied. In an instant, his gloomy eyes stared at Chu Ting as he coldly said, "Elder Chu, please!"

Chu Ting looked at Yuan Yin, then at Jiang Yu, her lips trembling as if she wanted to say something, but in the end, she did not say anything. She slowly stood up and followed Yuan Yin towards the arched door.

There was complete silence on the platform.

Not only did the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect have many Non-Phase Heavenly Kings, even the Pangu Heaven Sect's Heavenly Kings had complicated expressions on their faces, giving off the feeling of a fox who had died a rabbit's death. So what if he was an Elder at the peak of the Heavenly King Stage? So what if he held a high position in the sect? The Heavenly Emperor Supreme Elder had easily given up on him.

To a Heavenly Emperor, a peak Heavenly King was not even worth mentioning.

"Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan, are you satisfied with my punishments?" Jiang Yu laughed, and looked at Tang Huan.

Chapter 2063: It has to be him!

After pausing for a moment, Jiang Yu added, "Entering Prison Immortal Valley is the heaviest punishment of my Divine Firmament Sky Sect. If you stay in that valley for a year, your lifespan will be shortened by ten years. Imprisoning him for a thousand years would reduce his lifespan by a full ten thousand years. This kind of punishment is enough to let Emperor Chu remember it a little longer. "

There were also puppets from the Divine Firmament Sky Sect inside Tang Huan's cave. She naturally knew about the situation in the Immortal-Confining Valley, and Jiang Yu was indeed not lying. To a Heavenly King, no matter how extraordinary one's talent was, being able to enter the Imprisoning Immortal Valley for a thousand years meant that they would be crippled by the time they exited.

Jiang Yu had been quite merciless in being able to lay such a vicious hand on an elder of his sect.

"Of course... "Not satisfied!"

After thinking about it, a strange smile appeared on Tang Huan's face, "Heavenly Emperor Jiangyu, the ones who want to kill the two of us here are not Chu Mi alone, but hundreds of people. Among them, there are probably many Heavenly Kings from the Divine Firmament Sky Sect." As she said that, Tang Huan unintentionally looked around.

Hearing Tang Huan's words, the surrounding hundreds of heavenly kings all had a drastic change in expression, especially that portion of the Divine Nether Heavenly Sect's heavenly kings, whose expressions were unsightly to the extreme.

Jiang Yu frowned, and immediately laughed: "Sky Emperor Tang Huan wants to start a massacre? If you are really interested, this old man would be happy to accompany you. "

"That won't be necessary." Tang Huan smiled as she looked at Jiang Yu, "The Heavenly Emperor of Jiang Yu only needs to kill one person!"

"Who?"

Jiang Yu looked around and laughed hoarsely.

In an instant, the faces of the surrounding hundreds of Heavenly Kings all turned pale, as they became terrified and uneasy.

With the two Emperors here, it was impossible for them to escape. Even if they used teleportation tools, they could only teleport themselves to the void. In such an area, without the 'Voidwave Divine Ark', one would immediately lose their way and gradually disappear.

Therefore, if Tang Huan wanted to kill a person, that person's fate would not be in the least bit suspenseful, and that person would definitely die without a doubt.

"Him!"

He had witnessed everything that had happened here from start to finish, and naturally, he was incomparably anxious. Even the Sky King Elder who was at the peak of a sect, had actually been abandoned by the Heavenly Emperor of Jianghu. What else was there that he could not abandon?

Sure enough, when Tang Huan said that she wanted the Heavenly Emperor Jianghu to kill a person, all of the hairs on Pan Yi's body stood up.

When the word "he" came out from Tang Huan's mouth, even his soul seemed to have involuntarily shuddered, as fear and despair arose involuntarily.

It wasn't easy for him to reach the half-step Heavenly Emperor Realm. Moreover, he wasn't even ten thousand years old yet. In the future, he would definitely be able to become a lower level Heavenly Emperor. At this moment, he was filled with extreme regret. His hatred for Chu Ting and the others had reached an incomparable degree.

If only he had known earlier, why would he have gotten involved in this matter?

Saving a life was nothing? If they did not take the treasures they had collected from the "Void Divine Ark", it could be considered as repaying their debt!

"Lord Heavenly Emperor, have mercy, have mercy ..."

However, before he could finish his words, he felt his neck loosen as the boundless power seemed to have returned to his body. This sudden turn of events caused him to be slightly startled. He didn't even understand what was going on before his body was thrown into the air by a strong force, flying towards Jiang Yu like a soaring cloud.

Jiang Yu's brows scrunched together again, but he didn't attack immediately.

In a flash, Pan Yi fell in front of Jiang Yu. Although he had completely recovered his ability to move, he didn't dare to move at all, and looked at this Heavenly Emperor Stage powerhouse with a nervous expression. He didn't even dare to breathe loudly, fearing that any movement would provoke a thunderbolt attack.

Time trickled by. The entire platform was deathly silent and the atmosphere was oppressed to the extreme.

Tang Huan smiled as she looked at Jiang Yu, a tinge of ridicule could be seen between her brows, and she said slowly: "Heavenly Emperor Jiang Yu, our 'Voidwave Divine Ark' is not for nothing, if we want to ride it to the top nine days, we need to pay a certain amount of compensation, and the life of Pan Yi, is your reward."

"Does the Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan have to be him?"

Jiang Yu shot a glance at Pan Yi before sighing softly. When his gaze once again landed on Tang Huan, there was an additional trace of undetectable sharpness in his eyes.

"He has to!"

Tang Huan didn't know if it was because of Mo Hanyun or some other reason, but Tang Huan was determined to force Jiang Yu to kill him. But Jiang Yu obviously didn't want to do anything, of course he wasn't worried about him, but the Pangu Heaven Sect behind him.

To Pan Yi, the Pangu Heaven Sect was indeed his greatest trump card.

However, this rely on Tang Huan, because he was in cahoots with Mo Wuyun of the xuanji Pill Sect. But for this Jiang Yu of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect, the effect was very good. No matter what reason he wanted to interact with Tang Huan, the price of offending the Pangu Heaven Sect behind him was a little too high.

Previously, if he had successfully killed Mo Hanyun, then he would have also killed her because the Pangu Heaven Sect and the Phantom Pill Sect were rivals. Even if the Phoenixcloud Pill Sect found out, it would have no influence on him. However, he was different. If Jiang Yu were to kill him, he would definitely face the pursuit from the Pangu Heaven Sect.

After all, he was not the only Heavenly King of the Pangu Sect.

If Jiang Yu were to kill him, the news would definitely leak out. Unless, he was able to kill off the other Pangu Sect members, as well as the Divine Firmament Heavenly Sect's several hundred Heavenly Kings at the same time. And this, was obviously impossible. Furthermore, even if he managed to do this, both Tang Huan and Mo Hanyun were still alive.

As long as Jiang Yu dared to make a move, the Pangu Sky Sect would definitely find out who he was. Given the power of the Pangu Sect, it wouldn't be difficult for them to hunt down a Celestial Emperor.

He immediately said, "Heavenly Emperor Jiangyu, don't listen to this Tang Huan's nonsense. He definitely has ill intentions, I'm a descendant of the Pan Gu Heavenly Sect's Pan Clan. If you kill me, you will definitely become enemies with the Pan Gu Heavenly Sect, do not believe him."

After pausing for a moment, Pan Yi continued, "Heavenly Emperor Jiuyu, it would be very easy to head to the Upper Nine Heavens. After our 'Voidwave Divine Ark' is repaired, you can come with us. "In addition, if you, Jiang Yu, join my Pangu Sky Sect after nine days, I can also help introduce you to him."

However, Pan Yi's words did not seem to have any effect on Jiang Yu. After he finished speaking, not only did Jiang Yu's expression remain the same, even his gaze did not change in the slightest.

Chapter 2064 - Vanguard

Pan Yi was extremely anxious. Just as he was about to continue to persuade Tang Huan, Jiang Yu's voice rang out, "Heavenly Emperor Tang Huan, do you know that if you're too ignorant, it will lead to some unfavorable consequences?" At the end of his sentence, Jiang Yu's face, which was as beautiful as a woman's, revealed a hint of regret.

"Such as?"

Tang Huan smiled as she looked at Jiang Yu.

Jiang Yu smiled, a trace of pity in his eyes. "For example, you should have died on the path to the ninth heaven in the last 18 days, but you ended up dying here."

When the surrounding people heard this, they were all stunned. Immediately after, the hundreds of Heavenly Kings, including Pan Yi, could not help but be ecstatic.

This was truly a turning point!

Although he did not know what was the reason behind this, but the Heavenly Emperor Jiangyou had already had the intention to kill Tang Huan. He wanted to punish his clan's elder severely previously and show such kindness just for the sake of numbing Tang Huan.

It was a pity that Tang Huan seemed to be extremely wary of Jiang Yu and did not take the bait.

Now, Jiang Yu finally lost his patience and was about to reveal his true colors. In this way, their group would be much safer. At the very least, they wouldn't be able to be a pawn stuck between the two of them.

"Why didn't you say so earlier? Why did you beat around the bush for so long, wasting everyone's time."

Tang Huan said with a smile, "However, there is a saying that you seem to have said the opposite. In the end, the one who will die here, and not me."

"Oh?"

Hearing that, Jiang Yu did not get angry, but found it funny, "You are just an Inferior Heavenly Emperor who just got promoted a few days ago, it's rare for you to have such confidence in this old man. Tang Huan, do you know how many Inferior Heavenly Emperors have died to me in the past few thousand years? "

"I don't know about that, but you should be the first Lesser Celestial Emperor to die under my hand."

Tang Huan smiled slowly, and said, "However, I am a little curious. I came here from the lower Heaven Realms, and after I entered the Non-Phase Sky, I have always been observing the Great Wisdom Sect and have never formed enmity with anyone. Why have you been following me here from the Great Wisdom City, wanting to put me to death?"

A strange look flashed in Jiang Yu's eyes, but he said indifferently: "We did not have any grudges before, but I do not need a reason to kill you."

"What a good reason!"

Hearing that, Tang Huan could not help but laugh out loud, "Jiang Yu, even if you did not say it, I could already guess that you are not far from the mark. The so called" innocence of a man, possession of treasures is a crime ", I wonder if you took a fancy to the treasures on my body, or, are you interested in my three younger brothers and sisters?"

"Once I capture you, you will naturally know."

Jiang Yu laughed as he slowly walked forward.

Just as he took a step forward, the space trembled violently. A loud rumbling sound immediately rang out, and the huge platform beneath everyone's feet also shook violently. It seemed as if it could completely collapse at any moment and melt into the darkness.

One step, two steps, three steps

Jiang Yu's steps were light, as if he was taking a leisurely stroll. However, with each step he took, the vibrations in the air became more intense. In just a short moment, the entire space had become abnormally twisted and chaotic, as if it wanted to shatter everything within the space.

In an instant, the terrifying might had already filled up the surrounding area with no more than an inch of space.

The faces of Pan Yi and the others couldn't help but change. The oppressive feeling that emanated from the aura caused their souls to tremble uncontrollably. In the next moment, the crowd rushed forward. They actually mustered all of their Sky Origin Stage qi and ran towards the tunnel.

They knew very well that if they continued to stay in this situation, it would be no different from courting death.

It was impossible for the Heavenly King to withstand a confrontation between two Celestial Emperors, even if it was Pan Yi. Although he was half-step Heavenly Emperor, strictly speaking, half-step Heavenly Emperor was still within the realm of Heavenly Kings. When Tang Huan and Jiang Yu fought, he too could not endure it, and her life could not be saved.

The most important thing was to leave the platform as soon as possible, so as to avoid getting caught in the crossfire.

At this moment, they did not even care about Pang Shuo's "Great Void Divine Ark". Inside, there were many treasures they had collected from the void, such as the "Void Dao Flower" and the "Dark Crystal" of the "Void Beast". Those were crystals condensed from the power within their bodies.

Right now, it was still better to stay alive.

With regards to the escape of Pan Yi and the others, Tang Huan and Jiang Yu turned a blind eye to them.

"Tang Huan?"

Even though Mo Wuyun could feel the vibrations in space, that oppressive feeling had yet to envelop his body before it disappeared without a trace. The Tang Huan in front of him was like a towering mountain that had stopped him.

Because of this, Mo Wuyun appeared to be very relaxed. However, as a cultivator of the Celestial Sect of Wonders, she knew more about the methods of the Celestial Emperor than any of the other Faceless Heavenly Kings that had just run away. Although Tang Huan and Jiang Yu were both Celestial Emperors, one had just levelled up, while the other was already at the peak of the lower realm.

In the battle between the two, the one to lose would undoubtedly be the former.

This caused her to worry a little about Tang Huan's safety. Although she did not know why Jiang Yu came here, the moment he took action, she would clearly not show the slightest bit of mercy. However, Tang Huan seemed to have already guessed that Jiang Yu would follow them here, yet she still left Great Wisdom City. Could it be that she had enough confidence to deal with Jiang Yu's threat?

"No need to worry. First, enter the Voidboat."

Tang Huan smiled, that guy's act of seizing the initiative was really not bad. Normally, a newly promoted Inferior Heavenly Emperor might actually be scared by him.

But unfortunately, he found the wrong person this time.

"Be careful!"

Mo Youyun looked deeply at Tang Huan, then slightly nodded his head and entered the little fiery boat at the side. The Void Divine Ark of the Phecda Pill Pavilion was much more solid and stable than the massive Emptiness Realm Divine Ark. It was difficult to damage the power that came from the battle between two lower level Heavenly Emperors.

Tang Huan looked at Jiang Yu, who was approaching him step by step, and smiled with confidence.

"Rumble ..."

Jiang Yu's footsteps did not stop, but the further he went, the more surprised he became.

He had been at the Sky Emperor realm for many years, and with every move he made, he could use the Heavenly Energy. Although he hadn't made his move yet, the Heavenly Energy around him had been mobilized, and the pressure was getting stronger and stronger. Especially after he took the ninth step, the oppressing feeling reached its peak state. If Pan Yi and the others were still here, they would likely be crushed into mincemeat immediately.

However, Tang Huan seemed to not have noticed at all, her expression was still as calm and tranquil as before.

Chapter 2065 - Enlarging Eyes

It was like a gentle breeze caressing a hill, not causing the slightest bit of damage.

This caused Jiang Yu to feel that something was off. He was very clear about his own strength.

If he entered the Upper Nine Heavens, he did not dare to say what the situation would be. However, in the middle of the eighteenth day, the number of lower level Sky Emperors that were stronger than him could be counted on one hand. He could easily kill an ordinary Lesser Heaven Emperor. Even if it was a peak Inferior Sky Emperor, it would not be too difficult for him to deal with them.

Although Tang Huan had previously ranked first on the King Board, she had only been promoted to the lower Sky Emperor for a few days. According to common sense, no matter how strong he was, he wouldn't be able to snatch it away. It was precisely because of this that Jiang Yu dared to follow them from the Great Luo City fearlessly, and even brazenly tore off their relationship here with Tang Huan.

However, the situation now made him feel that Tang Huan was much stronger than he thought.

It had to be known, that even the lower level Heavenly Emperors would find it difficult to resist the power of the Heavenly Energy, but Tang Huan was still affected.

This was truly unbelievable.

"Tang Huan, as expected of the previous number one on the Heavenly King's List. This old man has indeed underestimated you."

Jiang Yu continued to move forward unhurriedly, and said with a smile. His voice was not loud, but it was extremely penetrating. In the midst of the rumbling sounds, it was still extremely clear. That terrifying pressure was still rolling forward like stormy waves.

Tang Huan's body still remained standing and unmoving, but the unusual "Void Divine Ark" behind him began to violently shake, and was even constantly sliding backwards. Under the control of Mo Hanyun, the small fiery boat beside Tang Huan shot toward the edge of the stage far away.

"You're right."

In that instant, the corner of Tang Huan's mouth twitched, and laughed: "You did indeed underestimate me, and overestimate you. "Jiang Yu, next is the time for you to broaden your horizons. You better prepare yourself."

While he was speaking, Tang Huan's Dantian's nascent soul had already started circulating, condensing into the 401 million dao crystal.

"An eye-opener?"

Jiang Yu slightly froze for a moment, then suddenly laughed out loud, "Tang Huan, this old man has been around for eighteen thousand years. What have I not encountered before? Come, come, let this old man experience it! "

"Alright, as you wish!"

Tang Huan laughed, "I have a rock, so I won't let you down!" The instant her voice fell, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had already appeared in her hand.

"Stones?"

After being stunned for a short while, Jiang Yu could not help but laugh, looking at the pebbles that flickered with a white light, "Tang Huan, this stone of yours, what is so special about it ... "Hmm?" However, after a split-second, he let out a soft cry as the smile on his face froze. He could actually feel a trace of primal chaos from the pebble.

That's not right!

The chaos energy was not just a trace. It was mighty and majestic, like a vast ocean.

Jiang Yu's expression immediately changed, but it was not fear, but greed and passion.

At this moment, Jiang Yu was like a hungry wolf that had seen fresh fat meat. Its two eyes were shining with a dark green light, as if it wanted to immediately take it for itself.

"What a treasure!"

In the next moment, Jiang Yu extended his hand and grabbed forward. In an instant, a huge claw silhouette appeared above the platform, rumbling and enveloping everything within a radius of a few thousand meters, and then with the force of a thunderbolt, the huge claw descended, it was as if the sky was collapsing, its power was extremely terrifying.

"Whooosh."

Tang Huan snorted lightly, and the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" expanded rapidly. In an instant, it reached a height of over a hundred thousand meters, and under his instigation, it roared loudly forward, causing the surrounding space to distort and distort wherever it passed. A powerful and peerless Strength Qi swept out, and the boundless essence of Primal Chaos roared out even more, covering the heavens and earth.

Seeing this, Jiang Yu's pupils could not help but constrict.

However, at this time, Pang Shuo's "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" forcefully clashed with the huge claw, and an earth-shaking explosion immediately erupted. Terrifying power wildly swept out in all directions, and the void shook incessantly, causing the platform that protruded from the spatial barrier to shake even more violently.

After a short moment, Jiang Yu's eyes were filled with shock.

That giant claw only lasted for a moment before it was smashed apart by the huge rock. In the next moment, Jiang Yu felt a terrifying sense of oppression accompanied by the continued onslaught of the huge rock. It actually caused him, a peak level Heavenly Emperor, to be unable to help himself from feeling suffocated.

"What treasure is this, for it to be so powerful?"

In a split second, the vigorous Strength Qi turned into a huge wave that surged towards the huge boulder. Wave after wave, it was like a violent and stormy sea, layer upon layer, it was unstoppable.

He didn't even have the time to blink before he hit the huge rock again.

"Bam!"

Yet another loud sound echoed throughout the area as the huge boulder's momentum finally came to a stop. Jiang Yu felt as if he had suffered a heavy blow just now as the blood in his chest churned. His body involuntarily flew back several hundred kilometers, as he had already left the platform and disappeared into the darkness of the void.

Finally stabilizing his body, Jiang Yu's eyes were filled with astonishment and disbelief.

In his first exchange with Tang Huan, he actually fell into a disadvantageous position, and looked rather miserable. This was too inconceivable! He was a peak level Heaven Emperor, and Tang Huan had just stepped into the lower Sky Emperor Realm. The difference in cultivation between the two of them could be said to be extremely large.

But now, the one who had the upper hand was actually Tang Huan.

Jiang Yu's beautiful face, which was as beautiful as a woman's, was covered by a layer of haze. Ever since he had stepped into the lower level Heavenly Emperor Stage, he had never been in such a sorry state before, especially after being forced to such a sorry state by someone with a lower cultivation than himself.

Just as he was shocked, the giant boulder that filled his vision finally disappeared. It suddenly shrank at a rapid pace, as though it had turned into a white light and returned into Tang Huan's palm. Immediately afterwards, the chaos energy disappeared from his senses, as if it had returned into Tang Huan's body.

Seeing that, Jiang Yu could not help but frown.

If Tang Huan had continued with his attack just now, he would have been at a disadvantage. He would probably be injured because of it, but, such a good opportunity to attack, Tang Huan actually let it go so easily. What on earth was he planning?

Chapter 2066 will not disappoint you!

"I have a flame that can melt all living things. I believe that it will not disappoint you."

Just as Jiang Yu was feeling alarmed and uncertain, Tang Huan's voice rang out from afar, clearly stimulating his ears. Immediately afterwards, Jiang Yu once again sensed the incomparably majestic and vast chaos energy, but he did not sense anything at all about Tang Huan's so-called "Dao flame".

"What big words you have there!"

Puzzled thoughts flashed through Jiang Yu's mind, and he instantly sneered: "Your dao flame can melt everything? "Then why don't you try melting this old man's saint rank dao tool?" As the sound of his voice faded, a mass of white light burst out from Jiang Yu's palm, as a sharp intent permeated the air.

"Chi!"

A sharp sound of breaking through the air suddenly burst forth. Jiang Yu's body neared and the white light in his palm also quickly turned into a streak of light, whistling forward. Wherever it passed, the space seemed to be penetrated.

The undulations were like a sea of fire as they rolled towards him like a surging wave. Their might was akin to thunder, but they were silent. In an instant, they were less than a thousand meters away from him. The incomparably majestic chaos energy that he had sensed earlier came from that transparent undulation.

"This is ..." "What kind of fire?"

Jiang Yu's heart was filled with doubts. In a split-second, the white light in front of him carried the violent Strength Qi Storm, clashing head on with the transparent wave.

It was like a clay ox entering the sea. After an instant, the white light, and even the Strength Qi that was wrapped in the light had already entered into the transparent undulation, and did not seem to cause any ripples at all.

But in the next moment, Jiang Yu's expression changed again.

In the blink of an eye, the tempest created by the Strength Qi dissipated, and the white stream of light also started to dissipate bit by bit. In the blink of an eye, that white stream of light had completely vanished, and a white sword appeared in Jiang Yu's hand.

The translucent ripple had already reached the tip of the longsword. It seemed as if it could completely engulf both the longsword and Jiang Yu who was holding onto the hilt at any time. In an instant, Jiang Yu could clearly sense that the dao diagrams contained in the longsword were constantly collapsing. The speed at which it was collapsing was inconceivable.

The dao diagram was connected to the mind. With the diagram being damaged so quickly, it was as if Jiang Yu's soul had been heavily injured.

"Yes."

With a grunt from his mouth, Jiang Yu gritted his teeth and retreated backward by a hundred li. He, who had just returned to the air above the platform, once again retreated into the void of darkness.

The elder fisherman heaved a sigh of relief, only then was he able to look at the sword in his hand.

The originally glittering body of the sword had become much dimmer now. After a brief sensing, he realized that at least fifty percent of the dao diagrams within the sword had been damaged.

Although he would be able to repair it with the profound skill of a saint rank Heaven-Craftsman, the difficulty was no less than the difficulty of forging a saint rank Dao item.

Therefore, this was more or less a declaration that this saint rank dao tool was almost a waste.

"Damn it!"

Jiang Yu's face slightly contorted as he uncontrollably let out a string of vulgar words. His heart ached to the extreme. He had spent a great deal of effort to obtain this saint rank dao tool, but in a fight with Tang Huan, it hadn't even been able to fully unleash its power, and it had already been damaged to such an extent.

Right at this time, Tang Huan's figure suddenly appeared in Jiang Yu's line of sight, the distance between him and Tang Huan was less than a thousand meters, but under the reflection of the luster released from the platform, Tang Huan's figure became indistinct, as though her entire body was filled with a mysterious aura.

"I have an Immortal body clone, and that shouldn't disappoint you!"

When Tang Huan's laughter filled the air, Jiang Yu suddenly sensed that a powerful and vast immortal aura had suddenly appeared.

Immediately after, in Jiang Yu's line of sight, the opposing Tang Huan actually split into two, her face was exactly the same, but one of Tang Huan's features seemed to be completely condensed from immortal spirit. If he did not know Tang Huan's background, she would have thought that the person standing in front of him was an Ancient Immortal.

What was with such a huge immortal spirit?

After the Celestial Realm collapsed and was transformed into the Heaven Realm, the immortals were no longer there. Under normal circumstances, only cultivators who had gone through heavenly tribulation from the lower realms would be able to release a dense amount of celestial spiritual energy, but it wouldn't take long before the aura completely disappeared. In the Heaven Realm, there were only a handful of people who could form celestial spiritual energy in their bodies.

Then, in such an environment, where did Tang Huan's Divine Clone come from?

Just as Jiang Yu was feeling suspicious, Tang Huan's body that contained a majestic immortal aura suddenly expanded rapidly, and in an instant, he was already ten thousand meters tall. At that instant, the aura of celestial spirits surged out of Pang Shuo's body like a terrifying wave. It was terrifying to the extreme.

"Jiang Yu, eat my punch!"

The avatar of the Immortal Body suddenly roared, and the sound reverberated through the void like thunder. The instant the sound was heard, the avatar punched out with its huge fist, the golden fist actually covered an area of tens of kilometers, and any obstacle could be destroyed with a single punch.

Jiang Yu's expression suddenly changed as he was shocked in his heart.

The golden fist shadows came crashing down with a rumble, making him feel as if he had suddenly become a lot smaller. Deep inside his soul, a feeling that was difficult to resist was born.

"Roaaaaaar!"

His body once again rushed backwards, but at the same time, his body also expanded rapidly like an inflatable ball, in an instant, he was already more than a few thousand meters tall, and also threw a punch forward, the huge white shadow of his fist rushing towards the golden fist.

"Bam!"

After the flick of a finger, the two shadows of the fists fiercely collided with each other.

Amidst the earth-shaking sounds, the two Strength Qi s, gold and white, crazily rolled outwards, making the surrounding boundless darkness seem to pale quite a bit. But right at this moment, a painful groan sounded out, and the white figure that was thousands of meters tall, was flung out like a piece of leather from the center of the giant boulder.

After this punch, Jiang Yu felt as if his body was about to explode.

His body rapidly shrunk as it retreated. In the blink of an eye, he had already recovered to his original size, and his originally fair face had already become a sickly dark red, like cooked shrimp.

Chapter 2067

After another ten miles, Jiang Yu finally stabilized his body, forcefully suppressing the urge to vomit blood.

"I have the Pure Yang Divine Sword, although it is a Heaven grade Dao item, I will not lose to saint rank, and I will not disappoint you!" A melodious voice suddenly entered his ears.

"Tang Huan?"

Jiang Yu was shocked. He instantly felt a majestic sword intent rushing towards him from behind like a monstrous wave, as if it wanted to tear him into pieces.

First was that bizarre stone, then that bizarre Dao fire, and then the Immortal's clone Now, there was another Dao item. Although it was a Heaven rank item, the sword intent it activated was extremely terrifying ... Just how many more powerful techniques did this Tang Huan have that she had yet to use?

In that instant, Jiang Yu felt a heartfelt shock and fear.

However, at this point, Jiang Yu had no time to think, moreover, although he was shocked, his reaction was not slow at all. He understood in his heart that if he were to allow the sword intent to strike him like this, even though he was a peak level Heavenly Emperor, he would not be able to withstand it.

In addition, the sword intent came too quickly. It was so fast that he didn't even have the time to prepare a strong enough counterattack. If he tried to counterattack in a hurry, it would only bring about harm.

Therefore, what he could do now was very simple ...

With almost no hesitation, the incomparably dense white-colored odor s surged out from within his body and instantly condensed into a white barrier. Then, with shocking speed, they expanded and expanded, and in an instant, they were already several tens of meters in radius, enveloping his entire body.

After a short moment, a loud sound suddenly exploded in the void of darkness.

The Strength Qi surged crazily but the white round cover exploded with a "pa" sound, like a bubble. Jiang Yu who was inside the round cover immediately suffered an exceptionally fierce impact. Her body was thrown forward while riding on a cloud, and blood was involuntarily spat out from her mouth.

It came from the attacks formed by the overflowing sword intent behind him. He was not able to completely block the protective barrier, and he was already quite heavily injured.

However, this was all within his expectations. He had never seen Chengdu's sword intent in his life, and it was indeed very difficult to resist. Even if he was at his peak, he might not have been able to withstand it.

It was a good thing that it was only an injury on the flesh body. With his Heavenly Emperor's body, as long as he could tide through today's predicament, he would naturally be able to quickly recover.

At this time, Jiang Yu was no longer thinking about how to capture Tang Huan, but how to escape.

Tang Huan's endless of tricks had slowly wiped away the strong self-confidence at the bottom of his heart. Although he did not want to admit it, she had no choice but to admit it. Even though Tang Huan had just become a lower Heavenly Emperor, her strength had already far surpassed a lower peak peak Heavenly Emperor like himself.

However, right at this moment ...

"Jiang Yu, take another punch of mine!"

Tang Huan's Immortal body clone suddenly punched over, the golden fist image was like a gigantic mountain that collapsed, as it smashed down from above. The terrifying Strength Qi poured down like a waterfall, enveloping the entire space beneath it.

Jiang Yu's entire body was covered in cold sweat, a bone-piercing chill coming from the depths of his soul.

In front of him was Tang Huan's divine body and behind him was Tang Huan's actual body. But now, even before the impact from behind had completely dissipated and Jiang Yu's body had even stabilized, the powerful attack had already come crashing over. An extremely dangerous feeling immediately arose from the depths of his soul.

"Divine ability, Mount Blood!"

As he roared, a fierce look flashed across Jiang Yu's eyes.

In an instant, his exposed skin had a layer of demonic dark red, as if it was dyed red with blood. There seemed to be a strange energy brewing inside his body, causing his forward momentum to abruptly stop as he forcefully stabilized himself in the air.

In the blink of an eye, a huge blood-red mountain range condensed and formed. Then, it soared into the sky and fiercely collided with the golden fist image.

Amidst the heaven and earth shaking exploding sound, the blood colored mountain actually erupted like a volcano, an incomparably powerful force gushed out, wreaking havoc, causing the golden fist image to instantly shatter, transforming into an extremely powerful Strength Qi, mixing together with the violently churning blood red Strength Qi, and churning about.

After a few thousand meters, Jiang Yu was like an eggplant that had been struck by frost. He immediately shriveled up, his expression appearing rather dispirited. The blood color on his skin rapidly faded, and his already pale face immediately became even paler.

In the blink of an eye, the Strength Qi came rolling over. It was as if Jiang Yu's body was pressed down with a giant rock that weighed over ten thousand kilograms.

"Tang Huan, I have indeed miscalculated this time, and underestimated you. But next time ..."

Jiang Yu cursed in his heart. In between his mind instructs (in a second), a sparkling and translucent white bead appeared in his palm.

This was a long distance teleportation tool. Under normal circumstances, no one would choose to use it in the void of darkness, but right now, he couldn't care less. Tang Huan's methods were astonishing, if this continued, even if he wanted to leave, he wouldn't be able to.

"Buzz!" Amidst intense trembling sounds, a dazzling white light burst out from the bead and covered his body.

"Jiang Yu, you're leaving just like that?"

A light laugh sounded out suddenly. It was Tang Huan's voice, and her tone carried a hint of ridicule. "I still have another method that you haven't seen before. I have my own cave that can swallow anything. Why don't you go in and broaden your horizons? "

"The estate?"

Jiang Yu was greatly shocked.

Almost at the same time, Jiang Yu discovered an incomparable suction force whistling down from the sky, causing him to immediately feel a strong traction force, and his body couldn't help but float up along with the suction force. This sudden turn of events scared the hell out of River Fishing.

Lifting his eyes, he saw the mysterious flow of mountains in the sky.

If the absorption force was truly Tang Huan's cave space, then he would immediately become a piece of fish on the chopping block, and could only allow herself to be slaughtered by Tang Huan. Amidst her shock, Jiang Yu used all her might to channel her Dao Nascent Soul, and the remaining Heaven Primordial Qi rushed out like a dam breaking and waves crashing.

He did not expect to completely isolate himself from the suction force, but as long as he hesitated for even a moment, he would be teleported out.

However, after an instant, Jiang Yu was on the verge of despair. Even if he used the rest of his Heaven Origin Energy to its utmost, he was still unable to interfere with the suction power in the slightest. His body was even moving even faster as he threw himself into the mountain range flying above him.

Chapter 2068 dead?

"Huh?"

Deep within the encampment of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect, the silence within an ancient hall was suddenly broken by a low exclamation. This voice revealed some surprise and bewilderment.

The owner of the voice was a skinny old man in a grey robe with wrinkles all over his face.

With a slight stretch of his arm, the right claw that was scrawny like a firewood grabbed towards the right of palace. In the next instant, a green glow floated over like a feather and landed in his palm. It was a piece of jade, about the length of a finger and the width of three fingers. It was thin like a cicada's wing, sparkling and translucent as it emitted a faint green sheen.

"Strange! "Strange!"

After a short moment, the grey robed elder furrowed his brows and muttered to himself. In an instant, he shouted, "Chang Yuan!"

"Elder!"

A burly dark figure walked in through the door. His legs were stiff and his steps were weird. He looked like a zombie.

The grey robed elder said solemnly, "Chang Yuan, go and check it out immediately. See where junior brother Jiang Yu has been recently? Did you encounter any major mishaps? "

"Yes."

Chang Yuan bowed slightly and retreated in response, his figure disappearing very quickly.

Looking at the jade slip in his palm once again, the gray-robed elder's brows did not relax. Instead, they tightened even more.

As Wu Xiangtian's most powerful sect, the Divine Netherworld Sect had a total of two Heavenly Emperors. One was Jiang Yu, the other was a peak low-level Heavenly Emperor, and the last was this gray-robed old man named Du Zhongxuan, a Mid Level Heavenly Emperor.

At that moment, the jade piece in Du Zhongxuan's palm contained the Mind Stigma s of the martial arts world.

In that instant, he actually felt an abnormally intense fluctuation from Jiang Yu's Mind Stigma, which made him very suspicious.

Jiang Yu seemed to have encountered a great crisis.

Fortunately, the Mind Stigma did not disappear, which meant that Jiang Yu was still alive.

This caused Du Zhongxuan to be extremely suspicious, in these 18 days, although Jiang Yu's strength was not at the top, but to be able to surpass him, was not a common occurrence, and in this Non-Phase Heaven stage, it was even more so. What kind of situation could have nearly caused the soul of a peak-level Sky Emperor to collapse and dissipate?

[How could someone threaten Jiang Yu to this extent in the Non-Phase Heaven?]

"Elder."

It was actually Chang Yuan who had walked in quickly, "There was news just now that returned to the sect. Elder Jiang had followed Tang Huan to the Non-Phase Heaven exit, and severely punished Elder Chu Ting, who had just returned from the void, so that he could enter the Immortal Confining Valley for a thousand years."

"Tracking Tang Huan?"

Du Zhong's brows slightly raised, "That Tang Huan who was promoted to the level of a lower Heavenly Emperor a few days ago? Junior Brother Jiang Yu, why did you chase after him? " Saying that, a puzzled look flashed past Du Zhongxuan's eyes. Just now, the violent movements of the River Fishing Mind Stigma, could it have been caused by Tang Huan?

Once Tang Huan entered the Heaven Realm, she immediately ranked at the top of the King Ranking. Furthermore, after her first experience of the Great Cloud Sect, she only used five years to step into the Heavenly Emperor Realm. However, no matter how much talent he had, she was still a newly promoted Lesser Celestial Emperor. How could she possibly threaten Jiang Yu?

"That is unknown."

Chang Yuan shook his head, and just as he finished speaking, a "pa" sound suddenly rang out. The jade piece within Du Zhongxuan's palm suddenly exploded, turning into a pile of green powder.

"This... "This..." The color of Chang Yuan's face changed and he could not believe his eyes.

"Dead?"

Just a moment ago, he was glad that Jiang Yu was still alive, but did not expect that not long after, the Mind Stigma had completely collapsed, and Jiang Yu's original body had also turned into ashes.

"Was it Tang Huan who killed him? How is that possible? "

Only after a while did Du Zhongxuan regain his senses. He took a deep breath and said in disbelief.

"Disciple Yang He seeks an audience." His tone was burning with anxiety.

"Come in."

Du Zhongxuan said in a deep voice.

"Yes sir!"

In the blink of an eye, a tall middle-aged man entered with large strides. His brows were filled with thick anxiety. Just then, news came from the entrance of the Non-Phase Sky, saying that the Great Master of the Rivers and Fisheries was unable to win against Tang Huan in time and was captured by him. "

This tall middle-aged man was Yang He, the current Sect Master of the Divine Firmament Sky Sect.

"It's really Tang Huan?"

Du Zhongxuan was extremely shocked. Even though he had made such a guess, he didn't care too much about it. After all, the probability of this happening was too small. But he never thought that the most impossible situation would be the most realistic one. Jiang Yu was actually captured by Tang Huan, and was even killed by him in the end.

"Absolutely."

Yang He nodded his head and said in a deep voice. His eyes still contained a trace of astonishment as he said, "Great. We must hurry up and set off to rescue the River Fishing Grand Master."

Even now, Yang He still felt that it was somewhat unbelievable, but he had no choice but to believe it.

At the start of the battle between Tang Huan and Jiang Yu, all the Heavenly Kings who were originally on the platform were so frightened that they scattered. But not long later, a few bold Heavenly Kings quietly went through the tunnel and slipped in, and in the end, they saw Jiang Yu getting beaten up by Tang Huan and getting captured in the end.

When this news reached the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect, all the Heavenly Kings, including Yang He, were dumbstruck.

Jiang Yu and Du Zhongxuan, the two Celestial Emperors, were the Divine Firmament Sky Sect's biggest backers. But now, one of them had been captured by a newly advanced Inferior Heavenly Emperor!

"It can't be saved!" Du Zhong Xuan sighed and extended his palm towards Yang He.

"This... This ... "Great ..."

As the Sect Master of the Divine Firmament Heaven Sect, he was extremely clear on what the green powder in Du Zhongxuan's palm meant. However, because of this, Yang He found it even more difficult to believe the truth before his eyes.

That was a peak-level Demigod, yet he died just like that?

Du Zhong Xuan collected his emotions and snorted: "Although I can't save him, that doesn't mean I can't do anything? This old man will go over and take a look, I hope that Tang Huan has not escaped! "

The moment he said those words, Du Zhongxuan's body expanded rapidly like a balloon, and the wrinkles on his face also spread out. In the blink of an eye, the originally short and thin Heavenly Emperor for Heaven had transformed into a burly, muscular man.

"Whooosh."

As if a cool breeze blew by, Du Zhongxuan's figure suddenly disappeared from where he stood. Yang He and Chang Yuan subconsciously exchanged glances and chased after him from within the ancient palace ...

Chapter 2069 - Universe Intent Plate

"Hu!"

On the platform where the void and darkness intersected, a figure suddenly appeared. It was a tall and sturdy figure with a ferocious face. It was Du Zhongxuan, who had rushed over from the Divine Netherworld Sect without stopping.

This vast platform was as silent as a dead land, and not a single person could be seen.

The platform was still as smooth as a mirror, there were no traces of a battle. However, in this space, there were still some traces of a faint aura remaining.

Du Zhongxuan's gaze swept across them and then slightly closed his eyes.

"Chaos energy?"

An instant later, Du Zhongxuan's eyes suddenly opened and a look of astonishment appeared on his face. He could actually feel traces of chaos within the aura around him. It was simply impossible for Jiang Yu to possess the Primal Chaos Inheritance, so it could only come from Tang Huan.

It was just that he did not know whether the primal chaos came from Tang Huan herself or some sort of treasure that came from his body.

In the blink of an eye, a palm-sized, white disk appeared in Du Xiangxuan's palm, which looked like a stone but not jade yet not jade. At a closer look, it seemed to be completely condensed from energy, and within the disk, there were dense lines and lines, as though countless spider webs were stacked together.

This disk was called the "Universe Will Plate", and it was a type of tool that used the power of the heavens to make speculations.

Back then, the Divine Firmament Sky Sect had a peak heavenly king searching for the "Spiritual Dao Heavenly Soul". This was because Du Zhongxuan had used it to deduce the time and location of the "Spiritual Dao Heavenly Soul". Now, he took out this 'Universe Will Plate' because he wanted to see exactly what that chaos intent originated from.

"Rumble ..."

A soft cry echoed out, and in the next moment, the round, glowing disc began to ripple. At the same time, a strange energy seemed to ripple out in all directions along with the surface of the disc, quickly fusing into the surrounding space.

After an instant, the surrounding area began to ripple as well, and a terrifying aura that could shock the mind began to appear almost at the same time.

This was the fluctuation of Heavenly Energy.

After about ten breaths of time, a faint white shadow was swiftly formed from Heavenly Energy. It was Pang Shuo, who had reached the extreme limit of at least a hundred thousand meters in height. He had filled up an extremely vast space, and his shape was like that of a pebble, with a large number of holes in it.

"This is ..."

Du Zhongxuan frowned as he thought about it. After a while, he seemed to have thought of something and could not help but take in a cold breath, "Primal chaos crystal?"

"Such an enormous amount of chaos nectar is something that is rarely seen even in the Celestial Realm?"

"What's more, this' chaos source crystal 'seems to have been refined!"

"Who has such a powerful ability and technique to refine the chaos origin crystal?" The owner of this' Primal Chaos Source Crystal 'was Tang Huan, but the one who refined it was someone else! Could it be that she was born in the last thirty six days, and was merely a lie by Tang Huan, and that he actually did not come from the Heaven of the Scarlet Radiance? "

After a while, the gigantic shadow on the cobblestone disappeared. Just as Du Xiangxuan was about to put away the "Universe Intent Plate", he could not help but exclaim out loud in surprise. A look of astonishment flashed across her eyes and in the distance, another gigantic shadow appeared. A completely transparent sea of fire!

"This is ..." "Dao fire?"

Seeing that, Du Zhongxuan's expression could not help but change, and he cried out in disbelief, "Tang Huan actually possesses a Dao Flame that contains the meaning of primal chaos?" Under his two fixed gazes, the fire phantasm in the distance finally began to dissipate. However, the astonishment in its eyes could not be dispelled.

This was indeed too unbelievable.

He had trained for many years, and he knew a bit about treasures which contained the power of chaos. He had seen some of them before. However, cultivators that possessed Dao fire that contained the power of primal chaos had never seen or heard of it before. Today, his horizons had been broadened.

Only after a long while did Du Xiangxuan come back to her senses.

"Tang Huan, you shouldn't have killed Junior Brother Jiang Yu."

Letting out a light breath, the shock in Du Zhongxuan's eyes receded, and his face darkened. He sneered, "A Weapon Refiner with this level of Dao flame entered the top nine heavens, I believe that the Heavenly Emperors and Empyreans there will be very interested." As soon as he finished speaking, he put away the disk in his hand.

After the time it takes to blink an eye, Du Zhongxuan's face had darkened, and he shouted: "Check and see, in the last eighteen days, is there any 'Voidwave Divine Ark' that's headed for the next nine days?"

"Yes sir!"

Hearing Du Zhongxuan's instructions, Yang He subconsciously agreed to it, but he quickly regained his senses and reflexively exchanged a glance with Chang Yuan. He asked in surprise, "Elder wants to go to the Nine Heavens?"

"That's right!" This old man has been wanting to go for the last nine days since long ago, so now is the right time. "

He suddenly realized that in the surrounding area, there was still some Immortal Spirit Qi left. From the looks of it, Tang Huan was also carrying some kind of extremely powerful immortal equipment.

"Yes, I will send someone to investigate."

"Whoosh!"

In the endless void, a fiery red stream of light was moving swiftly.

This was the "Voidwave Divine Ark".

"Did I miss something just now?" In the narrow space within the divine ark, Tang Huan suddenly frowned and muttered.

"Missing?" "What do you mean?"

Hearing this, Mo Hanyun looked at Tang Huan suspiciously.

Tang Huan pondered for a moment, before finally awakening from her thoughts, and said with a slight smile: "Before I left, I forgot to clarify the aura that was left behind. "However, it doesn't matter if you discover it."

With that, Tang Huan shook her head, and no longer took the matter to heart.

Perhaps those with great means could be able to deduce the existence of chaos energy from the remnant aura and deduce that he possesses a treasure or Dao fire that contains chaos energy. They could also deduce that he possesses a celestial item from the remnant aura ... But that was all.

The existence of the God Forging Crystal, the Immortal Body clone, and the Nine Yang Divine Furnace could not be detected.

"It really doesn't matter." Mo Hanyun laughed tenderly, but then instantly became a little curious.

"Tang Huan, you really killed that Jiang Yu?"

Chapter 2070 - I didn't think too much about it!

"How can this be fake?"

Tang Huan laughed involuntarily.

At first, Tang Huan had indeed wanted to turn Jiang Yu into a puppet. After entering the Upper Nine Heavens, a Heavenly Emperor Realm puppet would definitely be of some use. However, in the end, Tang Huan still killed him. Of course, before getting rid of him, Tang Huan had carefully searched through his memories.

This also allowed Tang Huan to know the reason behind Jiang Yu following him from the Great Luo City.

The reason why he chose to attack Tang Huan softly before he attacked Tang Huan was because of the Nine Spirits, Xiao Budian and Ling Tian. When he was in Hannya City, he acutely detected the strange changes in the bodies of the three little fellows. He actually coveted and coveted them, wanting to capture them and use them to refine medicinal pills.

"Jiang Yu is a peak-level Heavenly Emperor. Are you willing to kill him?"

Mo Hanyun said in disbelief, "If we use that puppet soul imprint to control him, wouldn't you immediately have another Sky Emperor slave?"

"When Jianxin hasn't recovered to its peak, with her current strength, using the 'Puppet Soul Seal' to control an Emperor servant is already her limit." Tang Huan sighed and said somewhat helplessly, "You should still not know that your fifteenth uncle Mo Yunfeng had already advanced to become a lower level Heavenly Emperor a few years ago."

"Really?" Mo Hanyun was overjoyed. Immediately, her beautiful eyes darted around a few times, "Jianxin really can't control a second Heavenly Emperor Servant?"

"Of course it's true."

Tang Huan nodded, and looked at Mo Wen Yun with a smile that was not a smile, "You seem to be very interested in this? Don't think too much into it, this is only temporary. On the way to the ninth day, I will absorb energy and continuously increase the space in the cave to increase Jianxin's strength. Maybe when he reaches the top nine days, Jianxin would be able to control even more Heavenly Emperors, and before that, the Heavenly King controlled by Jianxin would not have the chance to advance to the Heavenly Emperor Realm. "

When Mo Wuyun heard this, she could not help but be stunned.

She was indeed thinking that if she could become an Inferior Heavenly Emperor in the shortest amount of time, like what Uncle Fifteen did to Mo Yunfeng, she might be able to escape the control of Jianxin. Unfortunately, the little thought that had just surfaced in her mind was already completely extinguished by the ice water that Tang Huan had poured out.

Indeed, if Jianxin was controlled intentionally, as a puppet, she had no hope of advancing to the Heavenly Emperor Stage.

Thinking about it, the reason why fifteenth uncle Mo Yunfeng could successfully break through the shackles of the upper peak Sky King and step into the Sky Emperor Realm, was because Jianxin was still not certain how many Sky Emperors he could control, and secondly, there was an lower level Sky Emperor overseeing Crimson Light Sky Kingdom. This allowed Tang Huan to be even more at ease with the safety of his family and friends.

"I didn't think too much about it."

After a long while, Mo Hanyun finally curled her lips and gave a muffled snort.

Tang Huan smiled, and without further ado, she immediately said: "Hanyun, you can control the divine ark with ease. In the remaining time, I can accompany you here."

"Oh?"

Mo Hanyun looked at Tang Huan in shock. A smile surfaced on his pretty face as he continued to refine the Blood God Pellets and control the Voidwave Divine Ark all by himself. He was truly lonely to the extreme, if there was someone by his side accompanying his, even if he didn't say anything, he would feel much better.

However, not long after, Mo Wuyun could only roll her eyes.

Tang Huan had indeed stayed behind, but that extremely shrinking "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had also been left with him, and Tang Huan was inside that crystal.

How was this any different from when Tang Huan stayed in the cave abode a few years ago?

Just as Mo Wen Yun was cursing silently, in the center of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", Tang Huan's body moved slightly, and he had already merged into the mental statue.

It was just as he had said to Mo Hanyun just now. In the following days, his most important task was to help Jianxin absorb as much energy as possible and raise the dwelling's space. In the void of darkness, if one wanted to complete the mission better, they naturally had to rely on this "chaos source crystal".

Transforming the energy in this dark void into Chaotic Force was not only able to supply the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Mansion", but it could also be used for one's own cultivation.

After a split second, Tang Huan had already activated the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and a strong power of the sucking was born.

The inside and the outside of the Voidwave Divine Ark were not completely isolated, furthermore, Mo Wen Yun had already been instructed by Tang Huan. When the sucking flowed through the Origin Crystal, it immediately passed through the Divine Ark and spread out. However, Mo Wuyun, who was inside the heaven defying bead's space, wasn't affected at all.

Not long after, wisps of black Qi seeped into the Divine Craft's interior and was absorbed by the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal".

As time passed, the amount of black energy being absorbed increased, but the Origin Crystals were like a bottomless pit. No matter how many came, they were all cleanly devoured.

Seeing the scene close at hand, Mo Wuyun couldn't help but reveal a hint of surprise in her eyes.

She had thought that Tang Huan was just saying that, even if she was able to do it, the results wouldn't be too ideal. The energy within this void was extremely difficult to absorb. Furthermore, what Tang Huan wanted to absorb was the energy source within this void, so the difficulty was naturally even greater.

But unexpectedly, not only was Tang Huan's sucking origin power fast, it was also astonishingly fast in the void.

Although this was due to the help of the "Chaos Source Crystal", as far as Mo Hanyun knew, ordinary "Chaos Source Crystals" simply could not achieve such an effect. She had witnessed "Primal Chaos Origin Crystals" nine days ago, but they simply could not be compared with this one that Tang Huan possessed.

After entering the Upper Nine Heavens, if news of this "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" were to leak out, it would definitely attract the coveting of many experts.

Unless Tang Huan chose to join a strong sect, however, even then, it would be hard to protect the sect which he joined from having malicious intents.

However, she was only a puppet servant, so she didn't need to worry about that.

Mo Hanyun secretly laughed bitterly and stopped thinking about anything else. A moment later, he calmed his mind and focused all of his attention on controlling the Voidwave Divine Ark.

Through the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" Tang Huan used the source energy of the dark void, it had a significant impact on the Void Divine Ark.

Even if she pushed it with all her might, the speed at which the divine vessel traveled through this dark world could only reach seventy percent of its previous speed. This meant that reaching the ninth day would take longer and would also consume more "Blood God's Pills." It was fortunate that she had plundered enough pills from Mo Yunxi.

Time flew by. One year, two years ...

The Voidwave Divine Ark was like a rapidly moving fiery vortex, constantly drawing out the source energy from the surrounding darkness and devouring it.

Unknowingly, seven years had passed.
