

W. Master 2201

Chapter 2201

The one who had advanced to the Sky Sovereign was actually Tang Huan — the Sky Emperor who had offended the Clear Void Dao Pavilion and the third place on the revered list, Yuan Chao!

This greatly shocked the minds of countless cultivators.

After all these years, there were cultivators from the lower Heaven Realm who came to the Heaven Realm, and there were also cultivators from the Heaven Realm who entered the upper Heaven Realm. There were also cultivators from the upper Heaven Realm who returned from the lower Heaven Realm and the middle Heaven Realm.

The more they knew, the more incredulous they became.

Furthermore, it was unknown where the news came from ... It was said that Tang Huan was not a cultivator from the Heaven Realm, but had transcended heavenly tribulation from the lower realms. This made everyone feel that it was even more inconceivable.

In such a short period of time, a cultivator from the lower realms had become one of the most powerful people in the Heaven Realm.

The speed at which Tang Huan rose up was indeed shockingly fast.

Furthermore, what shocked everyone the most was that Tang Huan's current cultivation level was absolutely not the limit that he could reach. Don't look at how Gu Daozi, Qin Xian Ye and Yuan Chao were currently in the top three, with Tang Huan's crazy progress, it might not even take a few years for him to surpass them.

After all, Tang Huan was far too young compared to them.

For those several dozen powerhouses whose cultivation had already stepped into the Empyrean realm, being young not only had an enormous advantage, but also incomparable potential.

From this point of view, Tang Huan's advantage and potential were undoubtedly extremely terrifying.

Moreover, Tang Huan was at the following Sky Sovereign level of cultivation, so she ranked twelfth on the list. There was no doubt that as long as Tang Huan did not die, she would be able to rush into the top ten ranks once he advanced to a Mid Level Sky Sovereign. And when she advanced to the Upper Level Sky Sovereign Realm, the title of number one on the list would definitely belong to him!

If Tang Huan continued to train like this, how terrifying would her strength be?

A Shrine of the Dao?

To Tang Huan, this might still be a little far.

However, in the present Heaven Realm, the last person to reach the Divine Realm was no longer Gu Daozi, Qin Xian Ye and Yuan Chao, but Tang Huan!

Such a judgment made the countless cultivators of the ninth heaven excited.

After the initial surprise, Tang Huan's state of mind quickly calmed down within the Crimson Sky Kingdom's Nine Palaces Peak.

Just like countless of people had guessed, for Tang Huan, an Inferior Sky Sovereign realm was not the end, but a new starting point. It was far from a time to slack off and furthermore, after becoming a genuine Sky Sovereign, Tang Huan could not wait to do one thing.

That was to use the "Blood Refinement Art" to deduce his mother's whereabouts!

However, although he was in a rush, Tang Huan was not in a rush to begin, since he had just advanced to the lower levelled Sky Sovereign, it would be better to wait for his cultivation to stabilize. After all, using the Blood Refinement Heart Canon to deduce, it would cause him to lose a lot of power in his blood.

If he couldn't deduce the exact result this time, he would have to wait for his bloodline power to recover before he could do that again.

Tang Huan cleared his mind, calmed his mind and continued to circulate the [God Creation Art].

Inside the Dantian, the amount of dao crystals needed to form a Nascent Soul was already as high as four billion and one. No, it would be more accurate to say four billion dao crystals and a divine crystal.

Before this, no matter how much the God Casting Crystal fused with Tang Huan, it would still be a God Casting Crystal. However, the instant it ascended to become an Empyrean, the God Casting Crystal had already dissipated, and a new God Crystal had appeared within Tang Huan's Nascent Soul. This was a God Crystal that truly belonged to Tang Huan.

In the remaining time, as long as Tang Huan diligently trained, the number of divine crystals would definitely continue to increase.

Before he ascended to the Divine Realm, the more divine crystals Tang Huan had, the higher the chances of him taking that crucial step. It was precisely because of this that so many Empyreans were desperately trying to condense a divine crystal before the Divine Correspondence. Unfortunately, there were very few Empyreans that were able to accomplish this.

Once the divine crystal was fully formed, it would become the core of the Dao Nascent Soul.

When Tang Huan's "Creation Art" began to circulate, that divine crystal began to tremble crazily and the other four billion dao crystals started to move as well. The power contained within the Dao Crystals and Divine Crystals was like raging waves that had been swept up by a hurricane, surging violently within Tang Huan's body.

However, although the energy was surging frantically, Tang Huan's mind was still as calm as still water.

Unknowingly, a month had passed.

"It's about time."

Tang Huan woke up from her cultivation and only briefly sensed the current situation of her body. She couldn't help but smile.

In the next moment, the technique of the "Blood Refinement Art" emerged from the depths of Tang Huan's soul.

This kind of cultivation technique was indeed worthy of being the top secret of the Clear Void Dao Pavilion. Cultivating till now, the power of Tang Huan's bloodline had at least doubled compared to the past. It was precisely because of this that Tang Huan had the foundation of using the power of her bloodline to deduce, and the stronger the power of her bloodline, the more accurate the results would be.

However, even though he said that, with regards to the whereabouts of his mother, Tang Huan couldn't help but be worried about loss and gain.

After a long while, Tang Huan finally managed to calm her mind and quickly activated the "Blood Refinement Heart Canon" to its limit.

"Hualala ~ ~ ~"

In a moment, a sound similar to that of Lei Ming's suddenly came out, as though a gigantic dragon had suddenly broke through the calm surface of the lake, and stirred up a wave that filled the sky. Immediately after, an abnormally rich golden aura surged out of Tang Huan's body like a volcanic eruption.

This aura contained the boundless power of a bloodline.

In just the blink of an eye, this golden aura had filled up the entire palace where Tang Huan was at and had also submerged his own body within it.

At this moment, Tang Huan's mind was completely focused. Almost without the slightest hesitation, his ten fingers began to dance quickly like a butterfly passing through flowers. Following the movements of Tang Huan's ten fingers, streams of golden blood continuously flowed out from the tips of his fingers, as if they were threads, and condensed into golden imprints.

As soon as these golden marks appeared, they quickly merged into the surrounding golden auras.

Whenever it was like that, the golden Qi would churn violently, as though it was being stirred up by a hurricane and was churning inside the palace. As time passed, more and more golden seals were formed and their speed became faster and faster. In a blink of an eye, several days had already passed.

Within the palace, the golden aura that filled the surrounding space was boiling to the extreme.

"Bloodline Attraction, Soul Linking, now!"

A low shout echoed in the palace without any warning.

In less than a breath of time, this palace had regained her clarity and clarity. Tang Huan's figure appeared once again, but in front of Tang Huan, a golden figure had appeared.

Chapter 2202: Success!

The golden figure was condensed out by the majestic golden aura from the void just now. Its appearance was identical to Tang Huan's, its body was extremely dense, as though it had congealed into real substance.

"Hu!"

Moments later, a blood-red figure suddenly separated from the golden figure and flew eastward. However, in the process, it quickly merged into the air.

Tang Huan knew that the blood shadow was pointing towards the direction of the mountains and rivers.

"Phew!" "Whooosh."

The blood shadows separated one after another and quickly merged into the empty space to the east. In the blink of an eye, there were already dozens of blood shadows.

Seeing this scene, Tang Huan could not help but be slightly startled.

Amongst the dozens of blood shadows, there were four that guided him in the direction of his four children. As for the ones that appeared, they were also closely related to his bloodline. They should be descendants of Tang Shan and the others from the lower realms ...

So many?

After being stunned for a moment, Tang Huan could not help but laugh.

Among his four children, Tang Ming, Tang Mu, and Tang Yan weren't married when they were in the lower realms. However, before Tang Shan ascended to the heavens, he had children in the lower realms. Children could also bear children, and after so many years, there were only a few dozen of them, so there weren't that many.

"Hu!"

Another blood shadow merged into the east sky and pointed towards Shan Lan.

Based on the results of the "Blood Refinement Heart Canon", it would point out that, for cultivators who were related to Tang Huan in blood, it was not only Ji Ru Lang.

Tang Huan's descendants, her close relatives and elders would all be among them.

As long as they were able to deduce the exact location, Tang Huan would be able to locate them using the guidance of his bloodline. Of course, in order to find the correct destination, there were still many deductions needed. After all, the guidance from his bloodline could not exist indefinitely.

"Huff ..."

A few more blood shadows separated, still charging towards the east and quickly merging into it.

They should still be pointing at the lower realms, but was unable to determine exactly who they were pointing at. However, they were definitely not his mother, Ji Ru Mang, and was most likely his mother's close relatives in the Tian Clan, which surprised him quite a bit.

However, at this moment, Tang Huan frowned slightly.

He had already deduced the positions of so many people, but not a single one of them belonged to Ji Ru Huan...

This kind of deduction was based on the distance that their blood vessels were dragging, the people who were related to Tang Huan, the closer they were to him, the faster it would be deduced.

Conversely, it is the same.

Right now, this kind of result means that if Ji Ruxi was still alive, the distance between them would be far greater than that of Tang Shan and the others who had lived for thirty-six days, and would also be far greater than that of and the others who were still in Forging God Great World.

That was, Ji Ru Huan was not in the Heaven Realm.

Otherwise, she would have left long before Tang Huan's grandson Houyi's deduction was made.

This kind of situation made Tang Huan worry even more.

"Hu!"

After a long period of time, a new blood shadow finally separated from the golden figure in front of Tang Huan and quickly blended into the north.

"Mother!"

Tang Huan's eyes lit up, and she leaped up.

He succeeded!

The blood shadow was pointing at Ji Ru Huan!

However, perhaps it was because they were too far away, the final position that Blood Shadow pointed out was not very clear. However, Tang Huan did not pay too much attention to this.

The attraction between bloodlines still existed, which meant that Ji Ru Huan was still alive.

After confirming this point, Tang Huan felt as if a heavy burden had been lifted from his heart, and a boulder in his heart fell to the ground. So many years had passed, and no one knew whether Ji Ru Huan was alive or dead. If they could deduce that Ji Ru Huan had already died, it would be a great regret to Tang Huan that was hard to make up for.

Right now, the result had already made Tang Huan extremely happy, and a happy smile instantly appeared on her face.

After the blood shadow, there were no longer any more blood shadows, and the golden figure in front of Tang Huan quickly dimmed down, and before long, it disappeared.

The deduction of the bloodline had finally come to an end.

Tang Huan did not follow the results she had deduced and instead, followed the guidance of the bloodline power to track her mother's tracks. Firstly, Tang Huan was still unable to determine exactly where region she was, but one thing he was certain of was that she should still be in a large world somewhere in the lower realms.

Secondly, Tang Huan still had not a secure way to descend to the lower realms.

Pan Ji, Empyrean Flamephoenix's embodiment, Tian Clan's Empyrean clone ... None of them entered the Forging God Great World using normal means. Among them, Pan Ji was sealed in the lower realms by Cast Divine Dragon Abyss. As for how the Fire Phoenix's embodiment and Empyrean's Avatar went down, Tang Huan had no idea for the time being.

But one thing was certain, whether it was the fire phoenix's embodiment or the Empyrean's clone, once they arrived in the lower realms, their strength would be greatly suppressed.

The former became a Spiritual Beast in a small world, kept on cultivating, and finally returned to the Heaven Realm. The latter was imprisoned inside a statue, and eventually disappeared into thin air under Tang Huan's hands. Tang Huan was an Empyrean of the Heaven Realm, but if she were to enter the lower realms, her situation would probably not be any better than theirs.

The lower realm was also very deep. If one was not careful, then their efforts would have been in vain.

Tang Huan had to be prepared.

In a moment, Tang Huan's emotions calmed down a little. After confirming that his mother, Ji Ru Mang, was still alive and figured out the approximate location of where he was, he put down her worries. What happened next wasn't something that could be accomplished overnight. She needed to slowly plan things out to accomplish it.

"After becoming an Empyrean and staying here for such a long time, I think Nine Spirit and the others must be tired of waiting."

Tang Huan smiled slightly, jumped up, and walked out of the hall at an unhurried pace, her enormous consciousness subconsciously spreading in all directions.

"Huh?"

After a while, Tang Huan could not help but pause her footsteps slightly, a look of surprise appearing between her brows.

On the summit of the Nine Palace Mountain, there were actually two abnormally powerful auras. One naturally originated from Liu Li, and the other belonged to who knows who? The aura was so strong that it far surpassed Liu Li's. Moreover, the characteristics of the aura were quite peculiar. It seemed to contain the essence of water and fire.

These two emotions had opposites in nature, but they had perfectly fused together, causing Tang Huan to vaguely feel a sense of familiarity.

"Which Ascendant is this?"

Tang Huan was a little dazed. With a thought, she continued to move her feet.

Chapter 2203 - Brother's scale

After a short while, Tang Huan had already arrived at the peak of the nine palaces.

Inside palace, two figures sat facing each other.

The graceful figure of the girl clad in a green dress with an elegant face was none other than Empyrean Glazed. Opposite her was a young man in a white robe. He looked rather handsome and elegant.

"Sky Sovereign Tang Huan, you're finally willing to come out and play around."

When he saw Tang Huan, who had appeared at the entrance, the white robed man was slightly stunned before he immediately sprung into the air and laughed. However, there was a flash of surprise in his eyes.

He actually did not notice how Tang Huan had appeared.

If not for him accidentally glancing at the figure at the door, who knows how long it would take for him to discover Tang Huan's existence.

He reckoned that on the rankings, there were only a handful of people who were stronger than him, but he could not find any trace of Tang Huan.

No matter what, just looking at Tang Huan's methods of concealing her whereabouts was already extremely shocking.

"Junior Tang Huan greets the Green Sky Ancestral Master!"

At the entrance, Tang Huan was already giving a deep bow to the white robed man.

Previously, Tang Huan was still a little doubtful.

But the moment he saw the white gowned man and then compared it to the situation he felt on the list, Tang Huan immediately determined his identity. This white-robed man was the supreme elder of the Black Yellow Dao Sect, Ji Qingtian. He was also the Green Sky Ancestral Master of the Crimson Light Heavenly Emperor, Long Tianfu.

Although Tang Huan had never seen him before, he had received his Tools Method Endowment back in the Emperor Dragon Sky Palace, so it could be considered as having received his favor.

Logically speaking, Tang Huan should have gone to visit him on Longevity Day after arriving in the Heaven Realm.

It was just that at that time, Tang Huan's cultivation was still weak and Ancestral Master Qing Tian was rumored to be cultivating in seclusion, so even if he went to the Black Yellow Dao Sect, he would not be able to see Tang Huan. In the following days, Tang Huan would either use it for cultivation or spend it in the Soaring Starry Sky Sect.

Now, seeing him in this Nine Palace Peak, Tang Huan felt both surprised and ashamed.

"Sky Sovereign Tang Huan, although we were of the same school in the lower Heaven Realms, this old man is Sky Sovereign now and you are also Sky Sovereign. We are still on the same level, don't call me Ancestral Master anymore."

Ji Qingtian couldn't help but laugh as he looked at Tang Huan with eyes filled with praise.

The reason he came to the Nine Palace Mountain this time was to ask Liu Li about Tang Huan's whereabouts, but he didn't expect that Tang Huan would be within the Nine Palace Mountain. However, at that time, Tang Huan had never come out of the hall he was cultivating in.

"That's right."

Liu Li also nodded and smiled sweetly. "Brother Tang Huan, if you call brother Ji as your ancestor, then wouldn't this generation be much higher than me?"

"This..."

Seeing Liu Li also joining in the fun, Tang Huan didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"We'll do it that way!"

Ji Qingtian laughed and said, "Heavenly Sovereign Tang Huan, if you don't mind, I will call you brother from now on. You can just call me big brother."

"Alright, little brother Tang Huan greets big brother."

Since Ji Qingtian had already said this much, if Tang Huan continued to beat around the bush, it would be a bit forced. She could only clasp her hands in greeting, but her mood was unavoidably a little strange. Ji Qingtian was originally his ancestor, so his seniority was unknown, but now, the two of them were actually calling each other brothers.

"Brother Tang Huan, there's no need to be so courteous."

The smile on Ji Qingtian's face grew even wider. It could be seen that he was in an extremely good mood right now.

Seeing that, a smile blossomed on Liu Li's face, and she said: "Little brother Tang Huan, Brother Ji has already stayed at big sister's Nine Palace Mountain for a long time, he has specially come to see you. "It's a good thing that you came out now. If you still don't show yourself in a few days, I really plan on going in to wake you up."

"Thank you, big brother Ji, for waiting for so long."

Tang Huan smiled apologetically: "After I consolidated my cultivation, I used the power of my bloodline to carry out a deduction using the 'Blood Refinement Heart Canon', which was why I took so much time."

"It turned out like this?" Liu Li asked in concern. She knew about Tang Huan's situation.

"Not bad."

Tang Huan nodded, "I can confirm that my mother is still alive. However, I'm not too sure about her location at the moment. Perhaps the world she is in is too far away from this Crimson Nimbus Guild, so when I advance to an Empyrean, I'll be able to deduce it once more."

"Brother Tang Huan, the 'Blood Refinement Heart Canon' that you spoke of, is it a technique from the Clear Void Dao Pavilion?" "Senior apprentice-brother Ji," Qingtian said, somewhat surprised.

"Exactly."

Tang Huan nodded. Seeing Ji Qingtian frowning, she couldn't help but ask with some doubt, "Big Brother Ji, is there something wrong with that 'Blood Refinement Art'?"

Ji Qingtian shook his head slightly. In order to deduce the whereabouts of the people related to him, the Blood Refinement Heart Canon of the Clear Void Dao Pavilion was indeed the best method to do so in the Heaven Realm. However, you said earlier that you could not determine the exact direction, so I'm afraid that it was not because of the distance. "

At this point, a grave look appeared on Ji Qingtian's face. "When you used the 'Blood Refinement Heart Canon' to calculate, I was here and sensed the power of your bloodline." With your bloodline's strength being so powerful, logically speaking, as long as your mother is in the lower realms, no matter which great world she is in, she should be able to accurately pinpoint her position. You can't accurately pinpoint her position, so it's very likely that she's not in the lower realm. "

"He's not in the Heaven Realm, nor is he in the lower realms. Where would he be?"

Hearing that, Tang Huan could not help but be shocked, could it be that his mother entered another plane of existence? The moment this idea popped up, it was rejected by Tang Huan. Wanting to leave this plane of existence and enter into another plane of existence, that could only be accomplished by a supreme expert who had already witnessed the existence of the Divine Realm.

No matter how high his mother's cultivation was and how much stronger she was, it was impossible for her to reach such a level.

After exchanging a glance with Liu Li, Ji Qingtian spoke in a low voice, "As far as I know, in the middle of the great worlds below, there are some gaps. Those gaps are connected to the surface barriers, transcending the Heavenly Dao." If your mother was somewhere within a crack in the space, you would be unable to accurately pinpoint her location using the Blood Refinement Heart Canon. After all, the Blood Refinement Heart Canon is still restricted by the Heavenly Dao. "

"I've heard of that kind of space before."

Liu Li also frowned and slowly said, "Only a very small number of lucky people were able to enter that kind of space. Otherwise, only the powerful people who can prove the existence of the Divine Thrones would be able to find them and enter inside. There is no other way. "

"Gap ..."

Tang Huan frowned. She thought that as long as she could deduce his mother's whereabouts after her cultivation level increased, he would be able to confirm her whereabouts.

According to what Liu Li said, other than the lucky ones who accidentally entered the space, only the Divine level experts could find them and force their way in.

From this point of view, the mother should be such a lucky person.

However, Tang Huan didn't think that she was that lucky. Even if she was, she might not even be able to enter the spatial crack where her mother was.

It was obvious that luck was the only way to find her.

Without luck, he could only rely on his own strength. Could it be that he would be able to fulfill this wish only after he had been proven to be a true Dao Deity?

From the Sky Emperor to the Sky Sovereign, it had taken dozens of years.

It had been at least several hundred years from an Empyrean to a true deity. This was the most optimistic estimate.

Countless talented Sky Realm warriors had either vanished when they reached the God Realm, or even when the end of the world came, they still couldn't take that step.

Based on the information that Tang Huan had gathered, it was already very good to have an Empyrean in the next ten thousand years as a witness.

Even though Tang Huan was full of confidence in herself, she didn't dare guarantee that she would definitely be able to corroborate a Divine Throne, much less prove that she would be able to do so within several hundred years.

While thinking, Tang Huan's face became more bitter.

"Little brother Tang Huan, you don't have to be too worried."

Liu Li and Ji Qingtian looked at each other before they instantly smiled and said, "This is only our speculation. Is this the case? It's not a good idea to say for now."

"Not bad, Brother Tang Huan, it's still too early to worry about this." Ji Qingtian nodded as well.

"Elder Sister Liu-Li, Big Brother Ji, please don't comfort me."

Tang Huan took a deep breath and quickly adjusted her mood. Regardless of whether it was the reason Liu Li and Ji Qingtian told him about, he needed to prepare for the worst. Instantly, a smile appeared on Tang Huan's face, "Even if Mother is really in the crevice of the lower realm, there's no harm in doing so. At the very least, this time we have confirmed that she is still alive. As long as she is alive, there will definitely be a chance in the future. "

"I'm relieved that you can think like that."

Ji Qingtian nodded and laughed, then let out a sigh of relief.

He had told Tang Huan about the possibility of Tang Huan's mother being in a space between worlds in the lower realms just to warn him and prepare her heart. It was originally her good intentions, if Tang Huan became discouraged because of this, it would be his fault. Fortunately, Tang Huan's personality was unswerving, and she quickly adjusted herself.

"Little brother Tang Huan, don't think too much about this beforehand."

Liu Li's smile faded as her expression turned serious, "There is a piece of news that I have to tell you. It is that the person who is ranked first on the revered list has just returned to the Flying Star Pavilion."

"Gu Daozi?"

Tang Huan's eyes slightly condensed.

Instantly, a trace of understanding rose in Tang Huan's heart: "I understand, the reason the Clear Void Dao Pavilion reconciled with me, is because we are waiting for Gu Daozi to return."

"So what if he's back? If the Clear Void Dao Pavilion continues to tangle with me, I'll let them know, regardless of whether Gu Daozi is back or not, for the Clear Void Dao Pavilion, it's all the same."

If he had heard this news before he had advanced to the Sky Sovereign Realm, Tang Huan would have definitely worried.

But right now, Tang Huan didn't have to care at all. In this period of time, although he had not fought with anyone, he was not completely unaware of her own strength. If she were to fight against Gu Daozi head on, let alone Gu Daozi, she might not even be a match for Yuan Chao.

However, whether it was Yuan Chao or Gu Daozi, it would not be an easy task to find and keep him.

If they wanted to fight to the death, they had to consider whether the Clear Void Sect could endure such an outcome.

"Well said!"

Ji Qingtian loudly praised, then laughed out loud, "So what if you're first on the honorary list? If that Gu Daozi comes knocking on my door, I'll just beat him up for a bit! When that happens, if that old fogey Qin Xian Ye is called over, even if Gu Daozi, Yuan Chao and Wei Xuanji were to all come over, they would not be able to gain anything from it. "

Liu Li smiled and said, "They won't be coming over for the time being. However, I estimate that we'll meet them in the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court before long."

"Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court?"

Ji Qingtian was slightly taken aback. "Qin Xian Ye found the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court?"

Hearing that, Tang Huan's heart was moved, her gaze landed on Liu Li. If the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court was about to find him, then he had to speed up. His divine clone was still stuck at the 18th petal space of the Yan Luo Immortal Manor, and had yet to enter that mysterious area.

Since the "Yan Luo Immortal Palace" was related to the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court, Tang Huan needed to find out the secrets within before entering the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court".

"At most, we'll see in three months."

"However, according to what he revealed, once the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court is revealed, it would alarm the entire Heaven Realm. All of the Sky Sovereigns from the previous nine days would probably enter the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court. At that time, the battle inside would probably be extremely intense."

"If that's the case, then we'll just have to depend on each other's luck and ability." Ji Qingtian couldn't help but laugh.

"Three months? "So fast!"

Tang Huan was a little shocked. He had thought that she would need another year or two at the fastest, this way he would have enough time to unravel the mysteries of the "Heavenly Net Immortal Palace". However, if it was only three months, then time was extremely tight. Not to mention, the one Liu Li said was at most three months.

"For the 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court', he has already spent hundreds of years." Liu Li laughed unwittingly, "Brother Tang Huan, since your cultivation has stabilized, we need to set off immediately. Only by doing this can we enter the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court as soon as possible and seize the initiative."

"Alright, I will listen to Elder Sister Liu Li's instructions."

Tang Huan laughed, but immediately became worried: "Sister Liu Li, we have all left, Nine Spirit Master, Little Thing and Ling Tian are all staying here, is there any danger?"

was a twelve-winged Blue Dragon, while Ling Tian was the "Holy Spirit of the Heavens". No matter which one it was, they were all existences that caused one to covet them. When they appeared together, even an Empyrean level powerhouse would find it difficult to resist this temptation.

If the three of them were to stay here and be discovered by an Empyrean, then they would be in great danger.

However, there is one thing that we need to be careful of. In the future, after we enter the 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court', no matter what, we cannot summon them out to the outside world. Furthermore, they are the Heavenly Emperor.

"I'll be careful."

Hearing that, Tang Huan's heart could not help but tremble.

Since the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" was a blessed spot, it was also a dangerous place, so he had to be extremely careful after entering.

Chapter 2205 - Qu Atian

Southwest of Qu A'tian, deep in the valley.

Countless streams gurgled out from the bottom of the wide and precipitous cliff, converging into a small river. It snaked out of the valley and disappeared into the distant peaks.

"Phew!" "Hu!"

At the source of the river, there was a slight fluctuation in the air. Two figures then appeared in the air. It was Liu Li and Ji Qingtian, who had come from the peak of the nine palaces.

"Brother Ji, let's just wait here." In the blink of an eye, Liu Li had already taken a look around.

"Sure."

Ji Qingtian had no objections and smiled as he nodded.

Moments later, the two of them chose an empty space and sat down. Liu Li then took out a small scroll and placed it beside her.

This was Tang Huan's "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram".

Inside the cave within the Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram, Nine Spirits, Little Thing and Ling Tian were also sitting cross-legged. In the middle of them, the "Monk Golden Immortal" was glowing with a faint light. Tang Huan's original body and her divine body were currently within the "Heavenly Net Immortal Palace" that it was carrying.

In the space within the eighteenth petal of the immortal estate, Tang Huan's heart was as calm as water but her Perception Ability had been raised to the limit.

At this moment, he was constantly analyzing the space.

When leaving the Nine Palace Mountain, Tang Huan gave the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" to Liu Li to carry around, while he herself entered the "Heavenly Palace" and never left the place half a step back.

Tang Huan had spent all her energy on this during this period of time.

The space at the eighteenth petal of the immortal palace was far more complicated than Tang Huan had expected. Even with Tang Huan's current ability, she didn't dare be distracted in the slightest.

However, with Tang Huan's hard work, the progress was rather smooth.

This also gave Tang Huan a bit of confidence.

Time flew by like a flying shuttle. Unknowingly, another ten days had passed.

"Rumble ..."

At first, it was low and deep, but moments later, it became extremely strong. It was as if thunder had struck the sky.

At this moment, Tang Huan felt that all eighteen of these spaces in the "Yan Luo Immortal Manor" had become alive.

Before this, every time Tang Huan entered a new space, the space in front of him that was cracking open seemed to have sunk into silence. But now, all the space in front of him was violently trembling.

They didn't fuse together; rather, they continuously fused into that mysterious region in the center of the Immortal estate.

"I've finally succeeded!"

Tang Huan's mind was uplifted, as she paid close attention to the changes in the immortal estate.

Thankfully, the process was smooth and no accidents happened.

Time passed by bit by bit. It seemed like several hours, but also like several days. Finally, the space between the eighteen petals had completely merged into one.

"Buzz!"

At this moment, an earth-shattering sound suddenly echoed out.

Originally, according to Tang Huan's senses, the area in the center of the immortal palace was shrouded in a layer of fog, making it difficult for people to understand the situation within. In Tang Huan's senses, it was like a woman with a veil covering her face.

Not long after, the veil descended and the mist dissipated. The mysterious area of the "Heavenly Net Immortal Palace" also revealed its true appearance.

Tang Huan let out a light breath as she slowly opened her eyes. In an instant, she discovered that the space in front of him had changed greatly, and this was no longer the eighteenth petal space, but a fusion of all the petal space. In this entire space, she looked like a complete "Yan Luo Golden Immortal".

What used to be the space of the petals had now become the space of the petals.

Tang Huan was currently seated cross-legged in the center of the flower. In the surrounding space, there was nothing else but in front of Tang Huan, floated a sparkling and transparent object, it was round and round, around the size of a fist.

"What is this?"

After the short period of astonishment, Tang Huan slowly closed his eyes as her immense consciousness enveloped that small round ball. After a long while, Tang Huan suddenly opened his eyes, and from the depths of his eyes, a hint of bright and resplendent brilliance instantly burst forth.

... ..

"Hmm?"

Qu Ah Tian, in the depths of the valley, Liu Li and Ji Qingtian exclaimed at nearly the same time. They then opened their eyes and leaped up, looking at each other.

"'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court' is about to appear!" Liu Li suddenly smiled.

"Rumble ..."

Almost at the same instant Liu Li finished speaking, a loud sound reverberated through the air.

A strange fluctuation seemed to have instantly ascended from an unfathomably deep and profound arrival, and it spread out in all directions at a speed that even the mind couldn't capture. Wherever it passed, the immortal sky's spirit energy in the sky started to surge crazily like the sea water that was swept up by a hurricane.

In less than half a blink of an eye, the entire Qu Ah Tian began to boil with excitement. Then, the few Heaven Realms closest to Qu Ah Tian, followed by the Longevity, Pan, Big Dipper, and Flying Stars Heavens ... In the space of a few breaths, the entire ninth heaven seemed to have turned into a pot of boiling water.

All of the lands of the Nine Great Heavenly Realms that had Celestial spiritual energy were shaking, and the places that did have Immortal spiritual energy were even more so.

At this moment, all the cultivators of the ninth heaven were shocked beyond words.

Southeast of Qu A'tian, ancient transfer array.

"Whooosh."

Three figures appeared at almost the same time, and two of them were surprisingly the Pavilion Master of the Clear Void Dao Pavilion, Wei Xuanji, and the Supreme Elder, Yuan Chao. Along with them was a thin looking old man in a blue robe. He was the Supreme Elder of the Clear Void Dao Pavilion, the number one on the revered list, Gu Daozi.

The three Ascendants from the Clear Void Dao Pavilion appeared at the same time as Qu A Tian.

Normally, if this news were to spread, the countless cultivators of this Qu Ah Tian would all be extremely shocked. As for Qu Ah Tian's Heavenly Sovereign, he would probably not be able to remain at ease.

In a split-second, the color on their faces changed.

"Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court?" However, in the next moment, Yuan Chao exclaimed in a low voice as a look of ecstasy appeared on his face.

"This old man's judgement is correct. The Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court is indeed in Qu Ah Tian!"

Gu Daozi narrowed his eyes and smiled, "We have to hurry up and get there as fast as possible!" As he spoke, Gu Daozi's figure became fainter and fainter, and he instantly disappeared without a trace. Just as he stood there, ripples appeared in the air.

"Let's go!"

The commotion caused by the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" caused Yuan Chao and Wei Xuanji's hearts to burn with passion.

Seeing that Gu Daozi had already left, the two of them became a bit impatient. They quickly exchanged glances and then disappeared from where they stood.

Chapter 2206

In the middle of Qu A Tian was the Golden Cauldron Immortal Sect.

"That is... "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court?"

Within the sect's encampment, in a simple little courtyard, a tall and handsome young man in red couldn't help but tremble. This was an extreme display of excitement.

This red-clothed youth was the supreme elder of the Golden Cauldron Immortal Sect, Chu Gao Ge.

The Golden Cauldron Immortal Sect was also one of the nine great sects in the Upper Heaven Realm. As the Supreme Elder of the Golden Cauldron Immortal Sect, Chu Gao Ge was naturally not weak.

This was indeed the case. Chu Gao Ge was a Mid Level Empyrean, ranked 16th on the Heavenly Rankings.

After a moment of excitement, Chu Gao Ge seemed to have thought of something and a white sword suddenly appeared in his hand.

Almost at the same instant it was revealed, the white sword's immortal aura started to move. Following that, the entire sword started to tremble. It actually appeared the same as the surrounding space, and was even more intense. With a clear and melodious cry, the sword in his hand seemed to want to break away from his grasp.

"Celestial Sect!" It really is the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court! "

Chu Gao Ge was not surprised by the abnormality of this sword, but rather happy.

This longsword was a celestial item that he had obtained many years ago. At this moment, the disturbance it had made previously had completely verified Chu Gao Ge's judgement.

"I really didn't expect that the legendary Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court would actually be here." Chu Gao Ge was indescribably surprised as he paced back and forth in the courtyard. Unexpectedly, he found it hard to control his emotions.

"The 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court' is capable of attracting all the immortal spiritual energy in the world, especially immortal spiritual energy. With its appearance, the entire Upper Sky Realm would be shocked."

"I can't delay any longer. I need to leave immediately and enter the ancestral courtyard as soon as possible."

"..."

In the next moment, Chu Gao Ge's figure was no longer in this small courtyard.

... ..

"The Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court actually appeared?"

Within the encampment of the Pangu Heaven Sect, Pan Zhou and Pan Xin stood up like springs to their feet.

These two Empyrean level powerhouses rarely lost their composure like this.

However, after a moment of shock, the two of them had already come back to their senses. They subconsciously looked at each other, and saw the joy in each other's eyes.

The Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court had always been a legendary existence.

After the Celestial Realm was destroyed and turned into this Heaven Realm, countless years had passed. From ancient times until now, no one had ever been able to find it.

Of course, those experts who had successfully verified the Divine level might be able to find something if they spent some time on it.

However, for an existence that had already reached such a high level of cultivation, there was no need to look for the Immortal Spirit Sect because they would be leaving the Heaven Realm very soon.

But now, the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court suddenly appeared.

Although they didn't know where the Celestial Sect of Ancestral Immortals had appeared from, the activity around them all showed one thing. It was that it had been found.

"Could it be Qin Xian Ye?"

Pan Xin suddenly said.

Upon hearing this, Pan Zhou could not help but be startled. There had always been a rumor that Qin Xian Ye, who was ranked second on the rankings, was looking for the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", but no one took it to heart. Since ancient times, it was unknown how many Emphyreans had tried to find traces of the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", but none of them had succeeded.

In the eyes of all the Sky Sovereign who knew of this, Qin Xian Ye was no exception. No matter how many years he had worked, it would all be in vain.

But now, the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" had appeared. Was it really because of him?

"Whether Qin Xian Ye found it or not is not important, what's important is that 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court' has appeared!" In a flash, Pan Zhou smiled with a fervent look in his eyes, saying, "Let's set off immediately. Following the direction where this wave is spreading from, it's very easy to find the location of the 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court'."

"You're right, let's hurry up and leave!"

"..."

... ..

"This is really surprising!" Beitang Tian, the Beitang Immortal Sect, the stunned black cicada finally recovered from the intense shock.

"Master, do you want to go to the 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court'?"

Zhuo Qinglan also came back to her senses. There was a fervent look in her eyes, but soon after, they dimmed down.

Although she was at the peak of the Sky Emperor realm and was only a step away from becoming an Emphyrean, she was still not a true Emphyrean. As long as she wasn't an Emphyrean, she couldn't go to the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court. Even if you hide in someone else's space tool and run in, it's useless because even if you go in, you can't come out.

Hiding within a spatial artifact the entire time, it was extremely difficult to obtain the benefits of the Ancestral Court. If he went there, it would be equivalent to not going there.

"Go!" "Of course!"

The black cicada spoke without the slightest hesitation. Its face was slightly red.

The Celestial Ancestor Realm was the origin of the Celestial Realm. It was because of its existence that all Immortals at that time possessed true Immortal bodies.

As the origin of the Immortal World, the use of the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" did not only mean that immortals would possess a pure immortal body. It was said that there were countless treasures with heaven and earth materials inside, and there were even treasures that could make Ancient Immortals gain the Dao and God position.

The path of cultivation was similar.

Being able to make the Ancient Immortals confirm their dao identity, naturally, they could also make the current Emphyrean of the Heaven Realm testify as well.

How could any Emphyrean not wish to own such a precious treasure?

Even if it was because of his physique that made it hard for him to bring out 100% of its power, if he really had that kind of treasure in his possession, the odds of success would definitely increase greatly.

Because of this, no Sky Sovereign could resist the temptation of the Ancestral Court.

The black cicada was naturally no exception.

After confirming that the commotion in the sky was caused by the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", his eyes began to flicker with a fiery light.

"That Tang Huan..." Zhuo Qinglan said hesitantly.

"Don't worry."

The black cicada waved its hand and started laughing coldly, "This old man may not be Tang Huan's match, but after entering the 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court', the real worry here isn't this old man, but Tang Huan herself. The Gu Daozi from the Clear Void Dao Pavilion has returned, with him and Yuan Chao here, Tang Huan is dead for sure. "

"Since the Ancestral Court has discovered that all of the Sky Sovereigns will be rushing there in the next nine days, this old man can no longer delay any longer. You can't be the first to enter the Ancestral Court, but you can't be the last either. "

"Master... "Take care."

For the first nine days, countless cultivators were stunned by this sudden commotion.

The dozens of Empyreans that were scattered throughout the various Heaven Realms were the first to react. They all began to move at their fastest speeds, following the direction of the undulations.

Their judgement quickly spread. The upper Heaven Realm was in an uproar as all sorts of rumors spread out.

"The Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court. That's the origin of the Immortal World. It's said that there are precious treasures hidden within that would allow an Empyrean to successfully witness the divine might. Right now, all of us, the Empyreans from the Nine Heavens, are rushing there like madmen."

"It is said that Tang Huan was the one who discovered the Celestial Ancestor Realm ... "Cough, don't laugh. I have my reasons for saying that."

"..."

Chapter 2207 - The Ancestral Court Appears!

Qu A Tian, deep within the valley.

"Whew."

As the scroll unfurled, Tang Huan's figure appeared in a flash. Sensing the movements in the surroundings, she revealed an expression of unconcealable shock.

However, compared to Liu Li and Ji Qingtian who were by the side, Tang Huan's feelings were even deeper.

This was not only because Tang Huan possessed the "Yan Luo Immortal Manor" and the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", it was also because Tang Huan possessed a pure Immortal body.

Not only did the appearance of the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" affect the "Heavenly Palace" and the "Heavenly Palace", it also greatly affected Tang Huan's divine body and clone. In the instant that the "Celestial Ancestral Temple" appeared, the immortal estate and cave dwelling began to shake unceasingly, while Tang Huan's divine body also started to become extremely active.

Not only that, Tang Huan could even feel that there seemed to be a miraculous connection between her divine body and the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court.

The "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" was the origin of the Heaven Realm. Since the Heaven Realm originated from the Immortal World, it was naturally the source of the Heaven Realm.

Of course, at that time, even if the Immortal Qi around him did not make any movements, Tang Huan would be able to accurately pinpoint his location using the senses of the Immortal Body.

"We have to get there right away."

Liu Li looked at Tang Huan and Ji Qingtian with a smile. The two of them had no objections and after a moment, three figures rushed into the sky.

Mountains, forests, cities, rivers and lakes ... It continued to fly downwards.

Along the way, Tang Huan sensed countless cultivators who were being alerted by the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court". In the cities, the sound waves were one after another, and a large amount of cultivators followed the undulations of the immortal sky spirit energy and rushed towards the Ancestral Courtyard.

Of course, they could only join in the fun.

Even if one was outside the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", they wouldn't be able to enter.

Unknowingly, almost two hours had passed, a ball of white light rose from the point of contact between heaven and earth, filling Tang Huan and the rest's line of sight.

Tang Huan's heart was moved, within the white light, a majestic aura of immortal spirits surged out in all directions, without end. Not far away from him, there was an extremely tyrannical aura faintly discernable. The owner of that aura was obviously Qin Xian Ye, who was ranked second on the revered list.

"Celestial Sect!"

Tang Huan slightly narrowed her eyes, which shone with a profound light. Liu Li and Ji Qingtian's eyes also revealed hints of excitement.

The three of them only paused for a moment before they continued to move forward as fast as lightning. After a short while, an incomparably large white ball of light appeared in front of the three of them. Bright rays of light exploded in all directions, dazzling them and making it hard to look at.

This huge ball of light was floating in front of a towering mountain peak. On top of the mountain, a figure stood there. His clothes were fluttering. It was Qin Xian Ye.

With a slight movement, the three of them landed beside Qin Xian Ye.

"Senior Liu Li, Brother Qing Tian, Brother Tang Huan, it's good that you guys are here. In a while, we will enter this' Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court '." Qin Xian Ye's face was full of smiles as excitement emerged between his brows. He had worked hard for so many years and had finally managed to reappear in this world. The excitement and joy in his heart could not be described with words.

"Brother Immortal Ye, long time no see." Clearly, Ji Qingtian had long ago become acquainted with Qin Xian Ye, and so he spoke with a smile on his face.

"Senior Immortal Ye, it's been a long time."

Tang Huan smiled and bowed.

From the way Qin Xian Ye addressed Tang Huan, it could be seen that she had already been placed on the same level as by Qin Xian Ye.

"Celestial Leaf, we've all been touched by your light this time." Liu Li was also smiling brightly.

"Senior Liu Li, there's no need to be courteous to me."

Qin Xian Ye shook his head with a smile, and immediately looked worriedly at the ball of white light, "Once this' Celestial Ancestor Palace 'appears, not only will all of the Emphyreans from the Nine Great Heaven Realms rush over, all of the Emphyreans that are cultivating in the fragment space of the Immortal World will probably be unable to endure the loneliness and rush back as fast as they can. Hopefully, we will be able to reap some rewards after entering this time, so we won't be able to marry them."

"Don't worry about that for now." Liu Li laughed, "You and Brother Ji are both the top ten powerhouses on the revered list. Furthermore, you are ranked second on the revered list, and there are few people who can contend against you in the Heaven Realm. If the four of us join forces, we would be able to contend against Gu Daozi, Yuan Chao, and the others."

"That's true."

Qin Xian Ye nodded with a smile and his expression turned serious, "It's about time!"

Almost at the same time his voice fell, that huge ball of light underwent a bizarre change. Billions of white rays of light that were condensed into substance began to fade away at a speed visible to the naked eye. However, the immortal spirit will gushing out from the ball not only did not converge, it instead became even denser.

After a few breaths of time, the white light completely disappeared, and the huge ball of light seemed to have disappeared. At the place where it was originally at, there was a ball of white chaos, and in the dense and vast immortal essence, an exceptionally pure source energy was faintly discernable.

"Come, let's go in quickly!"

Seeing that, Qin Xian Ye's eyes were immediately bright like the stars, the moment he said that, his body flew explosively towards the ball of white chaos, he was actually faster than a shooting star.

Liu Li, Tang Huan and Ji Qingtian also rushed out at almost the same time without any hesitation.

In the blink of an eye, the four of them were like four streaks of light as they charged into the ball of white chaos with lightning speed.

That ball of chaos was like a swamp, containing a terrifying suction force. In less than half a blink of an eye, it had engulfed Tang Huan and the others, and then, it quickly returned to its original state, not leaving any traces behind ... It was as if the scene just now had never happened.

Time flew. After Tang Huan and the others entered the Ancestral Court, a new figure quickly appeared at the summit of the mountain peak.

However, the people who appeared were not Gu Daozi, Yuan Chao, or any of the other Emphyreans. Instead, they were the cultivators from the nearby sects. There were dozens of them.

Staring at the sphere of chaos, everyone's eyes were filled with envy, causing many of the cultivators' hearts to tremble.

"It's a pity. Only Sky Sovereign can enter this' Celestial Sect of Ancestor Immortal Spirits'. We can only stay here to enjoy ourselves." An old man sighed with incomparable regret.

"Only Sky Sovereign can enter the Ancestral Court. This is only a legend. No one has verified it before. Who knows if it's true or not? I refuse to believe that only Emphyreans can enter! " A handsome young man laughed and suddenly shot forward like an arrow that had just left the bow.

"Whoosh!"

In the blink of an eye, the handsome man and that mass of white chaos were within reach.

Chapter 2208 - Strange Mist

"Come back!"

Seeing that, a Black Costume Old Man who was obviously the senior of the handsome man was shocked, she anxiously shouted, but the moment his voice fell, the handsome man who touched the ball of white primal chaos did not even have time to let out a scream, it was as though the snow under the blazing sun had melted completely away.

Before the white chaos, there was no trace of him.

Seeing this scene, not only did Black Costume Old Man's expression change greatly, but she was also stunned. The other cultivators were also shocked and paled, like a wooden chicken.

For a time, this mountain peak sank into a deathly silence.

Only an Ascendant could enter the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court. This was indeed just a legend, and no one had ever verified that it had evolved from the Immortal World to the Heaven Realm before. After all, the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court had never appeared before, but now, someone had used their own life as the price to verify the legend.

At this moment, the faces of the cultivators that were eager to try turned pale and their hearts became cold.

If it wasn't for that guy taking the lead just now, and if they had also rushed over in high spirits, they would have been just like that guy by now, reduced to ashes.

It was said that the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral House", which contained countless rare treasures, was not something they could covet.

That terrifying scene was like a bucket of ice water being poured on everyone's heated heads, causing them to immediately calm down and no longer dare to take even half a step further.

"This' Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court 'is not a place that just anyone can enter."

"Thankfully, I hesitated when that guy rushed over. Otherwise ..."

"Only the Sky Sovereign can enter. If we count it this way, there will only be a few tens of people in the entire Heaven Realm who have the power to enter."

"..."

After a while, the peaks finally started to talk to herself.

However, as time passed, the area became more and more lively because the number of cultivators gathering from all directions was rapidly increasing.

A few hours passed by in the blink of an eye.

High up in the sky, a red figure quietly appeared. It didn't attract anyone's attention. It was a red-clothed youth. He was tall and straight, and his face was as handsome as jade. He was the supreme elder of the Golden Cauldron Immortal Sect, Chu Gao Ge. Looking at the white mass of chaos, Chu Gao Ge could not suppress the excitement in his eyes.

"So many people have come, it seems like Qin Xian Ye has been in there for quite some time."

After a while, Chu Gao Ge finally calmed down a bit, but just as this thought appeared in his mind, the anxiety in his heart returned.

"Hu!" With barely audible sonic booms, Chu Gao Ge shot forward like lightning, and in an instant, he appeared in front of the white primal chaos.

"Someone else is sending us off ...."

A young man with sharp eyes subconsciously sneered.

Before the word "die" could even be uttered, his voice came to a halt like a duck being choked by its neck. His pair of eyes were wide open and the figure that suddenly appeared did not melt or dissipate, but instead swiftly blended into the mass of white chaos.

"Heh ..." They actually went in! "

"Sky Sovereign!" That's an Sky Sovereign!

"From the looks of it, it's possible that the person from the Golden Cauldron Immortal Sect ...."

"..."

Moments later, even more cultivators noticed what was happening, and cries of alarm filled the air.

He was actually mocking an Emphyrean level super powerhouse. Luckily, that Emphyrean had entered the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", otherwise, he would only need to lift a finger to completely destroy him.

However, even though there was no more danger, the young man did not dare to stay any longer. Very soon, he quietly slipped away.

His departure did not cause any waves in this area, and the number of cultivators that were attracted by the activity in the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" continued to increase.

Several more hours passed. In the air above the mountain peak, three more figures suddenly appeared, charging into the white chaos without the slightest hesitation.

They were Gu Daozi, Yuan Chao, and Wei Xuanji from the Clear Void Dao Pavilion.

At this moment, although no one recognized them, the moment they entered the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court, everyone already knew that these three people were all Ascendants.

Most of the cultivators gathered here came from the back.

Seeing that, the already noisy area on the peak became even more chaotic. After all, to the crowd, the Ascendants were usually high and mighty existences. They were rarely seen, and normally cultivators wouldn't be able to see one even after thousands or even hundreds of years. But now, three Ascendants had appeared at the same time.

However, as time passed, everyone quickly got used to it.

Because after that, almost every day, there would be Emphyreans that would be attracted by this "Celestial Spiritual Ancestral Court", and they would unhesitatingly charge into that mass of white chaos ...

... ....

The Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court.

"I'm afraid we've been walking in this damned place for several days!"

Tang Huan's voice suddenly came out.

At this moment, he, Qin Xian Ye, Liu Li, and Ji Qingtian were walking in an extremely dense fog. After entering the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", they were already inside.

In the beginning, the four did not pay much attention.

But after a moment, they discovered that this fog was extraordinary. What formed this fog was not the dense fog that was commonly seen in the outside world. Instead, it looked like a thick liquid, and when everyone was inside it, the space around them seemed to be filled with endless paste.

Even if their cultivation was as high as theirs, it would be difficult for them to unleash their speed in this area. They could only proceed forward step by step. Not only that, but at this place, as soon as everyone's consciousness could see through their bodies, they were all engulfed by the surrounding fog.

The four of them had tried to use their own power to dispel the mysterious mist, but to no avail. No matter what methods they used, once the energy left their bodies, it would also be completely absorbed by the mist. Even if everyone was exhausted, they couldn't do anything about the fog.

Here, Tang Huan and the other four Sky Sovereign were like blind people.

Helpless, the four of them didn't get separated. They even used the most primitive method, which was to hold hands and move forward together. Ever since they had entered the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", Tang Huan, Qin Xian Ye, Liu Li, and Ji Qingtian had headed in the same direction without any hesitation.

However, even until now, the crowd still had not walked out of the fog.

"If I remember correctly, this should be the seventh day." Qin Xian Ye couldn't help but laugh bitterly. Originally, he had been filled with hope and anticipation. However, he did not expect that he would encounter such a strange mist after entering the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court." This kind of situation was far beyond his expectations.

Chapter 2209

"I hope that after Gu Daozi and the rest enter the 'Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court', they will do the same. Otherwise, we won't have any opportunities to speak anymore." Ning let out a sigh as well.

"I hope that's the case. Else, all these years that I have been busy with would have been in vain." Qin Xian Ye said helplessly.

"Don't worry about that for now. Let's continue moving forward. I don't believe that we won't be able to get out of this damned place!" Liu Li snorted lightly and said while clenching her teeth.

"As I see it, we'll probably reach the end in at most another two or three hours."

Hearing that, Tang Huan suddenly laughed.

After entering the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", Tang Huan still had a sentence that she did not say.

That was, in this strange fog, the range and situation he could sense far surpassed Liu Li, Ji Qingtian, and even the second rank, Qin Xian Ye.

The reason for this was naturally because of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the divine crystal.

After activating the cauldron and the divine crystal to the limit, Tang Huan's mind could actually hold on to the spatial sucking and expand within this thick and viscous region. Moreover, the area covered by her mind reached a radius of a thousand meters. Compared to Liu Li and the others, this was already incomparably shocking.

The reaction range could be said to be broad, and the situation that Tang Huan could learn, was naturally more than Liu Li and the others.

Just like walking in this misty area, Liu Li and the others could only determine that seven days had passed. Logically speaking, if one walked continuously for seven days straight, even if it was at the speed of an ordinary person, he would be able to cross a long distance. Unfortunately, this was not the case.

Tang Huan calculated that although the four of them looked like they were continuously moving, they were actually only travelling a thousand meters per day.

After seven days, it was still only 7000 meters.

Right now, Tang Huan's mind was already able to touch the edge of this area, and the place where the four of them were standing, was only a hundred or two hundred meters away. They were all outside of the Immortal estate. They only needed to lift their feet to cross such a small distance, but here, they would need one or two hours.

The reason why this fog could cause the sucking's consciousness and power to cause even the peak level Sky Sovereigns to be helpless was because of the strange energy that was filling the surrounding space.

In short, the mist was completely formed from that strange energy.

Although that power was strange, it was an extremely pure source energy. It had even surpassed the Heavenly Dao. If Tang Huan channeled the "Godly Creation Art" and activated the Nine Yang Divine Furnace and the divine crystal, she could absorb and refine them. If that happened, Tang Huan might be able to add a few more divine crystals.

It was a pity that Tang Huan was not allowed to cultivate in the current environment.

Tang Huan actually wanted to use "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" to absorb this kind of primordial energy that transcended the heavens. If it really was like this, then even if she did not obtain anything else after entering the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court, just this huge ball of mist energy was enough to make Tang Huan feel happy. However, Tang Huan could only think about it.

Unless Tang Huan entered the immortal estate, she would not be able to absorb this kind of power.

Currently, Tang Huan could only take this opportunity to fill up the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" with this kind of strength. Based on Tang Huan's current cultivation level, this little bit of strength was not useful.

Fortunately, it was still early, and he might have a chance in the future.

Tang Huan quickly stopped thinking about this matter and shifted her attention away from the mist energy. As time passed, the area outside of the mist, which was growing wider and wider, was captured by Tang Huan's mind. Outside and outside the fog, there were two entirely different situations.

Tang Huan judged that outside the fog, it was a region filled with immortal spirit aura.

At that place, the density of the Celestial Energy had already reached a level that Tang Huan found unbelievable. After training for so many years. From the Forging God Great World to the Crimson Radiance Heavenly, then to the Nether Realm ... Along the way, Tang Huan could be considered to be someone who had heard a lot, but this was the first time she had seen this type of immortal energy.

"As expected of the source of the Immortal World."

Tang Huan secretly exclaimed in her heart as she continued to carefully investigate.

However, what made Tang Huan a little disappointed was that aside from the extremely dense amount of immortal spirit energy in the mist, there didn't seem to be anything else.

Of course, in a place like the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court, Tang Huan did not dare guarantee that she would not miss a thing.

Everything had to be seen through the fog before it could be seen.

Time passed bit by bit, more than two hours passed in the blink of an eye.

Suddenly, an incomparably relaxed feeling flooded over. It was as if the shackles binding his body had suddenly disappeared, and his entire body seemed about to float up.

"He's out."

Liu Li, Tang Huan, Qin Xian Ye and Ji Qingtian called out at almost the same time. Although it was still a misty white color, the feeling of being wrapped up in paste had completely disappeared from their eyes. An indescribable feeling of elation arose from the depths of their souls.

In that instant, Liu Li, Qin Xian Ye, and Ji Qingtian simultaneously felt that majestic spiritual energy that was like an ocean. Even though they were Empyrean experts, at that moment, they felt as if they were about to be sucked into it.

"Here... "Be careful!"

In a flash, Liu Li subconsciously opened her mouth.

However, before he could even finish his sentence, it turned into a shout of shock, as an unparalleled power screamed forth from the front, instantly enveloping all four of them, even a peak stage Heavenly Sovereign like Qin Xian Ye was unable to resist.

Although Tang Huan had sensed the existence of that force earlier than Liu Li and the others, the force was too fast for him to react in time.

Just as he was enveloped by the power, Tang Huan felt his body involuntarily teleported forward, while Liu Li seemed to be pulled away by a different direction by the power. The two people who were originally holding hands immediately separated.

This slightly startled Tang Huan. Since she and Liu Li had separated, Liu Li, Qin Xian Ye, Qin Xian Ye and Ji Qingtian should not be an exception. She had originally thought that with the four of them together, they would be able to deal with danger.

If they went to different locations, they would have to fight on their own for the rest of the time.

Now that things had come to this, there was no point in overthinking it.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan calmed down and focused. There was no other life energy within a thousand meters, and only a vast and mighty amount of celestial spiritual energy could be seen. At this time, the celestial spiritual energy seemed to have turned into a living creature, completely engulfed by the layer of energy that wrapped around his body.

Chapter 2210 - Celestial Ancestral Peak (1)

At this moment, Tang Huan finally noticed a situation she had neglected before.

After he appeared in the Immortal Ancestral Spirit Sect, Tang Huan's Immortal Body was in a state of boiling energy. When he entered the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" and advanced through the misty energy, it was still like this. However, even now, although the Immortal Body clone was still moving restlessly, it was beginning to show signs of taming.

Not only that, Tang Huan could more and more clearly feel that there seemed to be something in front that was dragging her Divine Clone.

Outside the Ancestral Court and in the midst of the misty energy, although Tang Huan could also feel the miraculous connection between the divine clone and the "Celestial Sect of Ancestral Immortals", the attractive force did not exist.

This sudden change made Tang Huan's mind think quickly.

Obviously, this change was only because of the avatar; the original body didn't have such a feeling. This meant that Liu Li, Qin Xian Ye, and Ji Qingtian shouldn't have felt this way either. If that was really the case, then it was very likely that the three of them didn't split up, but only he and the others.

In a split-second, a trace of understanding rose in the bottom of Tang Huan's heart.

After entering the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Courtyard" and passing through the fog, cultivators that possessed avatars would be teleported to one place and those without avatars would be teleported to another place. However, he didn't know if this was a good thing or a bad thing for him.

However, if it was really like that, one thing was certain, that Liu Li and the rest would very quickly meet up with Gu Daozi and the rest, and Tang Huan probably would not meet them so soon.

From this point of view, it was beneficial to Tang Huan.

After all, he entered the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" because he wanted to raise his own cultivation level or find treasures that could help him increase his cultivation level. Having conflicts with Gu Daozi and the others later was not a bad thing. Of course, this was only Tang Huan's guess. Whether it was really like this or not, it was still hard to say.

Since he was already here, he might as well settle for now.

Right now, even if he had such strange items as "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and "God Crystal", he wouldn't be able to resist the teleportation of this "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court". Furthermore, this Ancestral Court had never appeared before, and didn't have any information for Tang Huan to look at.

But Tang Huan could not help but feel some regret.

In the past when Tang Huan was in the Primal Beginning Immortal Domain, she had obtained Yuan Zheng's memories. Unfortunately, although Yuan Zheng's memories were condensed from fragments of the residual soul of ancient immortals and were too incomplete, the information regarding the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" was practically nil. Tang Huan had even heard these words from Yuan Zheng.

As for Yuan Zheng wanting to return to the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court", that was only an instinct in his subconscious.

If he was still alive, perhaps he could rely on this instinct to find the exact location of the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" before Qin Xian Ye did. Of course, if he was still here, with his guidance, Tang Huan might be able to follow him like a fish in water. However, Yuan Zheng had already been refined long ago, so there was no objection when he thought of this.

In an instant, Tang Huan's state of mind calmed down.

After a few hours or a few days, Tang Huan suddenly realized that the energy that was covering her body was starting to dissipate bit by bit. With the disappearance of this energy, the Celestial Energy that was being channeled by it slowly calmed down as well, while Tang Huan's speed continuously decreased.

Almost at the same time, Tang Huan's vision became clearer and clearer.

Originally, within Tang Huan's field of vision, it had always been a patch of white, like chaos. But now, Tang Huan's vision began to gradually clear up. Unknowingly, a mountain peak seemed to have appeared in Tang Huan's line of sight.

The mountain was not considered high, probably only a thousand meters tall.

Such heights of mountains, not to mention those towering peaks within the "Heavenly Imperial Dragon Palace", could not even be compared with those peaks in the Forging God Great World.

However, the moment Tang Huan saw it, a strange feeling rose from the bottom of her heart. Boundless, vigorous, majestic, majestic, vast ... These runes continuously appeared in her mind, as if what stood before him was not a thousand-meter-high mountain, but a world.

When Tang Huan completely stopped, she had already arrived at the foot of the mountain. Everything was quiet around him and Liu Li, Qin Xian Ye and Ji Qingtian were all nowhere to be seen.

Looking up at the mountain peak, a strong urge to bow down in worship emerged in the depths of Tang Huan's soul. That pure Immortal body clone seemed to want to separate from her body, as if a baby child had seen her mother and subconsciously hugged her.

Why did such a feeling appear? Tang Huan could guess that this "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court" was the source of the immortal world, and it was equivalent to being born from an ancient deity. Tang Huan's divine body was also equivalent to an ancient deity.

It made no difference.

However, although he understood the reason, Tang Huan was still wary.

If he did not suppress the impulse of the Immortal Body Avatar, once he truly left his body, the Immortal Body Avatar would no longer be Tang Huan's Immortal Body Avatar, but the Immortal Body Avatar of the "Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court". From today onwards, this Immortal Body Avatar would not be able to escape the influence of the Ancestral Temple.

If it was really like this, then it meant that all the hard work Tang Huan had gone through for the past few years had all gone down the drain.

In a moment of thought, Tang Huan had already refocused her mind and activated the "Creation Divine Arts", following that, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the divine crystal seemed to be operating at the same time, and after about half an hour, the impulse originating from her divine body was finally being suppressed.

After taking a light breath, Tang Huan finally had the energy to look at the thousand metre tall mountain peak in front of him.

Beneath his feet, a cloud could be seen, while this mountain peak seemed to be floating on top of the clouds. This cloud naturally wasn't a real cloud, but was formed from pure celestial spiritual energy. Clouds and mist rose up from the mountain range, then closed in the sky, forming an extremely vast space.

Within this space, other than the mountain peak, there was only the uninvited Tang Huan.

The bottom of the mountain was extremely wide, occupying at least a few dozen miles of space. As the mountain rose up, the mountain continued to shrink, and when it reached the peak of the mountain, it became extremely sharp. From the foot of the mountain, it looked like a sharp awl.

The strangest thing was that this mountain was not only conical in shape, but also had a very regular shape.

Since he was young, from his previous life to this life, this was the first time Tang Huan had ever seen a mountain like this. Not only that, the mountain was translucent like glass. The entire mountain peak was a transparent white color, and there were no flowers, trees, birds or beasts on the mountain.
