

W. Master 2251

Chapter 2251

In the northern part of this crevice, there was an extremely bulky heavenly sphere called the White Deer.

It did sound a little strange. It was said that the White Deer Heavenly Ball was named after a Heavenly Emperor. Heavenly Emperor White Deer seemed to be the first Heavenly Emperor that appeared from the Heavenly Sphere.

Currently, the Heavenly Emperor of White Deer was already a figure of legends.

Is it the end of my life, the end of my life, or the end of an accident... No one knew of his final outcome, and no one paid any more attention to it.

After the White Deer Heavenly Emperor, many more Heavenly Emperors appeared within the heavenly sphere.

Right now, there were two Sky Emperor in charge of the White Deer Heavenly Balls, a man and a woman. They were a pair of partners, and their cultivation had long since reached the Peak Upper Level.

Within the White Deer Sky Sphere, there were also five distinct levels of land.

Two Celestial Emperors lived on the highest level.

"Huh?"

In the center of the land, within an exquisite hall, a young man and woman, who were sitting cross-legged and cultivating, were suddenly awakened. They let out a low cry almost at the same time.

These two people were the Heavenly Emperors in charge of the White Deer Heavenly Balls. The man's name was Su Ye, and the woman's name was Jiang Han.

Quickly glancing at each other, a hint of surprise flashed in Su Ye's and Jiang Han's eyes. In an instant, both of them simultaneously jumped up and disappeared from the hall.

Not long later, the two of them appeared on the north side of the Sky Ball.

Without the slightest pause, the two of them continued shooting toward the north like lightning. Although there was no violent storm raging in the region near the Sky Sphere, the further they went, the darker the sky became. Thousands of miles later, Su Ye and Jiang Han stopped and continued forward, causing the sky to turn dark.

At the end of their line of sight, a black storm intersected with each other.

The air was in a mess as the black mist surged. It was as if there were countless evil spirits hiding inside, devouring every single living creature that had barged in.

However, at this time, in front of that dark region, floated a ball of white light.

Even though they were quite a distance away, one could vaguely tell that a slender black figure was standing within the light. The incomparably dense black Qi in the surroundings seemed to have received a great stimulation, advancing forward one after another. It crazily pounced on that ball of light, as if it wanted to completely crush it.

To this, the black figure in the light didn't show any signs of stopping and continued moving forward.

"Friend, please wait!"

Seeing this, Su Ye could not help but shout loudly, "It is very dangerous in front, you must not enter easily."

The area where the power of the Sky Ball spread was very vast. Within this area, the storm and the turbulence could not easily invade. As the masters of the Sky Ball, Su Ye and Jiang Han could feel any movement from the outside through the Sky Ball. Just a moment ago, an extremely strong wave of energy had erupted in front of him.

It was difficult for them to determine the cultivation of the person who had attacked, but they could only guess that he was probably a Heavenly Emperor.

The north side of the White Deer Heavenly Sphere was extremely dangerous. The two of them could not bear to see a Heavenly Emperor sacrifice his life there, so they specially came to stop him.

However, that man didn't seem to have any intention of retreating. Instead, he continued onward.

Not long after, the white light was obscured by the darkness.

Su Ye and Jiang Han looked at each other and sighed helplessly. Since the other party didn't listen to their advice, they had no other choice. Go and save them? It was basically impossible, because if he did so, the end result would be that he would have to sacrifice his wife instead of saving them.

After all, they were neither family nor friends, and their relationship was not at the point where they could risk their lives to save each other.

"What a pity."

Su Zha let out a light sigh, shook his head in regret, and turned around, saying, "Let's go back."

Jiang Han nodded her head. Just as she was about to turn around, she seemed to have discovered something and spoke with a hint of shock that could not be hidden, "Wait, look over there!"

Su Ye looked back. In his line of sight, that ball of white light actually appeared again, as if it was still approaching them. Not long after, it broke through the layers of darkness and floated towards them.

It was a rather young man dressed in black. He was tall and straight with a handsome face. There was a faint smile on his face. In the blink of an eye, he had arrived in front of Su Ye and Jiang Han.

At this time, the two discovered that the white light originated from the man in black. Strangely enough, there was not a single trace of Qi coming out from him. This discovery caused Su Ye and Jiang Han to look at each other, and some surprise appeared in their eyes.

The person in front of them was extremely weird. Even if the two of them had pushed their minds to the extreme, they would not be able to sense his cultivation level. It was as if the person standing in front of them was an ordinary person who had yet to cultivate.

However, the powerful aura he detected earlier, as well as that man's method of escaping from the darkness in front of him, as well as the unusual appearance of his body at that moment, proved that he was extraordinary.

At this moment, both of them had a feeling that this person's strength was perhaps even more powerful than they had imagined.

"I am Tang Huan."

The black clothed man cupped his hands and smiled, "Thank you for what you did just now. May I know how to address you two, my friends?"

Tang Huan? This name was rather unfamiliar.

Tang Huan did not seem to be one of the Heaven Emperors in this spatial rift.

Suddenly, Su Ye said with a smile, "Brother Tang, I'm Su Ye, and this is my wife Jiang Han, the White Deer Sky Ball that lives over there. We didn't really help much just now. Brother Tang, you relied on your own strength to get out of there.

Tang Huan could not help but smile, and said: "Brother Su, the two of you have lived here for a long time. I believe you all understand this region very well, and I wonder if you guys could explain it in detail."

Tang Huan followed the guidance of her bloodline, moving forward all the way until she reached the northern side of this chaotic space.

According to the map, the White Deer Sky Sphere should be his destination. However, none of the surrounding heavenly balls had a transmission array connection to it, and on the map, there was only one route to take to connect to the heavenly ball.

Following the map, Tang Huan rushed over. However, she realized that something was amiss.

When entering that pitch-black region, Tang Huan had encountered the greatest danger since she had entered this chaotic space. Even though the black storm there wasn't as large as the one she had encountered before, the power contained within the storm was extremely strange, and actually contained an extremely strong corrosive force.

Not only could it corrode flesh body, it could even corrode power.

The first time Tang Huan tried to activate his Sky Origin Stage, she was able to successfully disperse the several black storms that were howling at him. However, his Sky Origin Stage was also completely corroded by the power that exploded out from the storm.

After that, Tang Huan used her own flesh body to resist the corrosion of the storm. However, if it took too long, the power of her flesh body would certainly be constantly consumed, and in the end, they would become extremely exhausted.

Coincidentally, there were people trying to stop them from coming from behind, so after Tang Huan tried using the Primal Chaos Dao Fire, she left and prepared to ask the two people in front of him about the situation.

"Of course, but we don't know much." Su Ye forced a smile and nodded, but her face turned gloomy, "Brother Tang, at the beginning, the storm was also similar to other places. However, the situation became like this about a thousand years ago. The power contained within the black storm was extremely strange. Even if it was us ...

If a Heavenly Emperor like that were to enter, he won't be able to hold on for long. If you enter deeper and get lost, you'll die without a doubt. "

"According to our speculations, the transformation of the storm should be related to the 'Crescent Celestial Ball'."

"Ever since the storm changed, over the past thousand years, there has been no one who was able to go to the 'Crescent Moon Celestial Ball'. I wonder what the situation is inside the 'Crescent Moon Celestial Ball' right now, and if anyone is still alive?"

"Crescent Moon Sphere?"

Hearing these words, Tang Huan frowned.

According to the information on the map, the Sky Ball that he had to go to was the Crescent Heavenly Sphere. But now, it seemed that things were not going well over there. Moreover, the strange thing was that even the Celestial Emperor couldn't go to the Crescent Heavenly Sphere.

However, his mother was still alive, and the other cultivators in the Crescent Celestial Ball were probably still alive.

After a moment, Tang Huan muttered: "Brother Su, if I want to go to the Crescent Moon Sphere, is there no other way than to force my way through this black storm?"

"Indeed." Su Ye nodded, "However, I say, Brother Tang, you'd better not go. That Crescent Moon Celestial Ball is not a good place for cultivation. In terms of cultivation environment, the Crescent Heavenly Sphere would not even be able to enter the top 100. If they were to risk their lives and leave, it would not be worth it ...

"I don't want to go either."

Tang Huan laughed, "However, I have a family member of my elder that is in the Crescent Moon Sphere. No matter what, I will make a trip there and bring her out alive."

"..."

Su Ye and Jiang Han looked at each other, they did not expect that their goal in going to Crescent Moon Sphere was this. If that was the case, it would be hard for them to persuade her.

After a while, Su Ye suddenly opened her mouth and said, "Brother Tang, may I ask, what is your cultivation level now? If it was only the Upper Sky Emperor, it would be best if he did not go for the time being, because he would not be able to do so.

"If you are a peak Sky Emperor, you can give it a try. However, do not go too deep. If you feel that you cannot, then immediately withdraw." He paused for a second. Su Ye smiled bitterly and shook his head, "The hope of a peak Sky Emperor trying to break through is also basically zero."

"Unfortunately, here we are, cultivating to the peak of the Upper Sky Emperor Realm is almost our limit. If it's an Emphyrean, then there might be a possibility of success. "

"If a peak peak Emphyrean isn't able to make it through, then what about a peak Emphyrean?" Tang Huan suddenly revealed a smile.

"Upper peak Emphyrean?"

Hearing these words, Su Ye and Jiang Han were shocked.

The upper peak Sky Emperor could be considered the strongest powerhouse in this chaotic space, but the upper peak Sky Sovereign was probably the strongest powerhouse in this entire plane.

This Tang Huan was actually a peak Superior Emphyrean, what kind of joke was this?

In a moment, both Su Ye and Jiang Han relaxed. Tang Huan had only asked the Sky Sovereign at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm if he could pass through the black storm, he did not say that he was the Peak Sky Sovereign at the peak of the Upper Sky Realm. Thinking of this, Su Ye and Jiang Han could not help but laugh to themselves. Immediately after, Su Ye laughed: "Brother Tang, I have never seen an Upper Peak Emphyrean before, so I do not know how strong an Upper Peak Emphyrean is. However, if it really is an Upper Peak Emphyrean, through this black storm, I think they would be able to do it, even if they could not get through, returning would not be a problem. Only

"In our world, the highest cultivation is even on the peak of the Upper Sky Emperor stage. There aren't even any Demigod Emphyreans here, let alone a peak Superior Emphyrean."

Tang Huan smiled, an extremely terrifying aura, suddenly burst out from her body.

In this instant, the entire space seemed to have frozen.

Su Ye and Jiang Han felt their souls tremble violently. At this moment, Tang Huan, who was standing opposite of them, seemed to have turned into a majestic mountain, and an extremely small feeling rose from the bottom of their hearts. The two of them instantly felt a strong urge to kneel down and worship each other.

However, that aura soon disappeared.

The two of them came to their senses, but their eyes were wide open, looking at Tang Huan who was just inches away, with mouth opened wide enough to fit a fist.

"Brother Su"

After seeing the expressions of the two, Tang Huan smiled slightly. The two of them snapped out of their stupor. Their eyes were filled with shock and disbelief. Although they could not determine whether or not Tang Huan was actually an upper peak Sky Sovereign, they could deduce from that aura just now that she was definitely a genuine Sky Sovereign. Furthermore, it did not seem like there was a need for him to pose such a question ...

Fake.

Lin Ming never imagined that in this chaotic space, there would actually be an Emphyrean. Not only that, but it was a Highest Emphyrean!

At this moment, Su Ye actually started to get nervous, and stuttered: "Tang ... Brother Tang... Oh, no, no, Don. Senior Tang Huan... "

"Brother Su, there is no need for you to do this. "

Tang Huan laughed, "In a while, I will continue to the Crescent Moon Sphere to see if I can pass through the black storm. So, there is something I need your help with."

"Senior, please tell us. It is an honor for us, husband and wife, to be able to help you."

Su Ye took a deep breath and looked at Jiang Han. The two of them spoke at the same time. Tang Huan slowly said: "I just tried to see, after entering the area of the black storm, the map would lose the ability to guide the way. So, I plan to leave a Mind Stigma here so that I can rely on it to determine whether I will enter the Black Storm or come out in the future ...

"The direction."

"Senior, do not worry. We, husband and wife, will guard Senior's Mind Stigma and will not leave." Su Ye quickly replied, her tone filled with excitement. For a Heavenly Emperor like them, to be able to help a peak Upper Level Zun Stage Heavenly Jewel Master was indeed a great honor.

"There's no need to guard here, Brother Su, just bring my Mind Stigma back to the Sky Sphere." Tang Huan laughed, and with a thought, a thin jade piece appeared in his hand.

Chapter 2252

"You said that senior, is he really a peak Superior Emphyrean?"

After a long while, the figure in his line of sight had once again disappeared into the darkness in front of him. Su Hao looked at the jade slip in his hand and could not help but look at Jiang Han in the blink of an eye.

"I don't know either."

Jiang Han shook her head and smiled, "However, if words can be faked, then the aura of that senior cannot be faked. Moreover, there is no need for him to deceive the two of us."

"That's true."

Su Zha lightly nodded, and laughed involuntarily, "That senior's cultivation far exceeds ours, that's without a doubt. We are already at the peak of the Upper Sky Emperor stage, and those stronger than us can only be Emphyreans. Even if that senior isn't a peak Superior Emphyrean, he is at least a lower Emphyrean. "

Speaking to this, Su Ye had some doubts, "But, aren't we unable to say anything about Sky Sovereign here?"

Jiang Han muttered to himself, "That senior did not say that he was a cultivator here. Maybe he came from outside this space." It was hard to get out of here, but easier to get in. That senior is an Empyrean level expert. It would be even easier for him to enter. "

"Meeting this senior might be our opportunity."

Su Zhao took a light breath, and said slowly, "We will wait here, I hope Senior Tang Huan will be able to return safely from the Crescent Moon Sphere."

"..."

Su Ye and Jiang Han did not return to the White Deer Sky Ball, but stayed there quietly.

Within the boundless darkness, Tang Huan's body flashed forward like a stream of light. At this moment, not only had Tang Huan mobilized her flesh body to the limit, the "Primal Chaos Dao flame" within her body had also surged continuously, covering her entire body. The surging black aura quickly melted the moment it came into contact with the dao flame.

However, at the same time, the corrosive power within the black aura was also melting Tang Huan's firepower.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

A sharp whine suddenly burst forth, and a small black tornado shot over from the left like a flying shuttle.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan practically did not hesitate at all as her condensed "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" shot out from her palm.

In just a split-second, a wisp of white light pierced through the darkness like lightning. Once it collided with the black storm, the terrifying Strength Qi gushed out of the Origin Crystal like a volcanic eruption, as if it could topple mountains and overturn the seas, crushing all obstacles.

With a boom, the black tornado instantly dissipated into the darkness.

However, before Tang Huan could retract the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", a sharp wuwu sound once again rang out, and another black storm swept over from the front.

Tang Huan had already expected this, and in the span of a mind instructs (in a second), a "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" had already flashed out of the Dantian, howling as it rushed forward.

An explosive sound rang out once again, and the black tornado instantly shattered.

With his previous experiences, Tang Huan no longer channeled his Sky Origin Energy to directly face the roaring black storm around him, and instead used the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace". The power contained within the black storm could corrode power, but it couldn't corrode these two powerful treasures.

This was indeed the case.

After shattering the two black storms successively, the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystals" and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" did not have the slightest bit of damage.

"Phew!" "Hu!"

The Origin Crystals and the cauldron rotated in reverse.

Tang Huan did not put them away, instead, she controlled them to quickly linger around her body. Her powerful consciousness allowed Tang Huan to control these two treasures to the extent that she could control them with her bare hands.

"Boom!" "Boom ~ ~ ~"

Tang Huan advanced forward as earth-shattering explosions occurred one after another around him.

With the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" blocking the attack of the black storm and the "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" corroding the black aura, Tang Huan's speed was astonishingly fast. In this dark region, although that map did not help to lead the way, Tang Huan already knew the direction of the Crescent Moon Celestial Ball in her heart. The Mind Stigma that he had just left behind with Su Ye and Jiang Han were indistinctly connected to Tang Huan's soul, which allowed Tang Huan to constantly correct her own location.

Time passed quietly.

Unknowingly, the "Yan Luo Golden Immortal" had also appeared in Tang Huan's palm.

In this region, even though Tang Huan's rate of consumption was not as fast as when she was in the Black Hole Passage, it was still rather shocking. Although it was still far from being exhausted, Tang Huan still had to start to replenish her energy. After all, no one knew what would happen next.

Maintaining his energy at all times, Tang Huan was confident that he could face all kinds of dangers.

To be able to absorb the source energy of the Immortal Spirit Ancestral Court for cultivation, one's speed definitely couldn't be compared to other places. The Heavenly Energy here was rather weak, and the speed at which the Yan Luo Golden Immortal absorbed the source energy was rather slow. This made Tang Huan's rate of replenishing his energy unsatisfactory.

Of course, it was better to be slow than nothing.

Another long period of time passed.

"Hmm?"

Tang Huan raised her brows, and called out in surprise.

Just now, he had actually felt a breath of life. The aura of that life force was rather weak, but it was abnormally strong. Based on the strength of the aura, it was definitely not inferior to a God Emperor. In this chaotic and stormy dark area, there was actually life energy.

This was truly unbelievable.

After entering this dark region, Tang Huan did not push her mind to the limits, but only maintained an area of five thousand kilometers. The life energy that she had sensed earlier, was just at the edge of Tang Huan's range of perception.

In the blink of an eye, it had already left Tang Huan's perception range.

Since Tang Huan had discovered the abnormality, she naturally wouldn't easily miss it. After a moment, Tang Huan's perception range had begun to expand at an astonishing speed.

In the next moment, Tang Huan once again sensed the life force.

The location where Tang Huan first discovered it was thousands of kilometers away. From this, it could be seen just how astonishing the speed at which the owner of the lifeblood aura teleported was.

The chaos energy crystal whistled through the air and instantly shattered a black tempest.

The fellow seemed to have also noticed the movements here, he suddenly stopped, and then, Tang Huan caught sight of a powerful mind, and swept towards them.

Tang Huan could not help but laugh, purposely releasing a bit of Qi.

In the next moment, the fellow started flying towards Tang Huan. Crossing over ten thousand li of space was not a difficult task. After the flick of a finger, a small red dot appeared in the darkness. The red light rapidly expanded, and in less than a second, it turned into a red storm.

Within the storm, a blood-colored figure could be vaguely seen.

"He doesn't seem to be a human!"

Tang Huan's expression changed, after controlling the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" to blast away the black storm, she rushed straight towards the red lightning storm, her speed was fast like lightning.

"Who are you to be able to enter this' Phantom Divine Domain '?" A surprised voice suddenly echoed out from within the red storm.

"Demonic Ghost Divine Region?"

Tang Huan squinted her eyes and thought, "So this place is called the 'Demonic God Domain'."

"Forget it, it doesn't matter who you are. You will become a dead man, a dead man without any bones!"

Without waiting for Tang Huan's response, a cold laugh spread out from within the red storm, and immediately after, the red storm swept over with an even faster speed. A violent and violent aura surged out from within the storm, as if a wave of destructive power was about to gush out.

In a split-second, the distance between the two sides had been reduced by roughly half.

The red figure inside the storm was also clearly imprinted into Tang Huan's eyes. It was actually an extremely weird looking creature, with a body similar to Tang Huan's jellyfish from her previous life. It had no head, no limbs, and couldn't even see eyes.

"What the hell is this?"

Seeing this, Tang Huan couldn't help but crease her eyebrows, but immediately laughed. Without further ado, between the mind instructs (in a second), the small "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had already expanded rapidly, rumbling down towards the red storm with a domineering momentum, as though it could crush all obstacles into dust.

"This is ..."

The creature inside the red tempest immediately felt a great pressure. It couldn't help but be shocked. The tempest rapidly changed and abruptly changed its momentum as it spiraled to the side.

However, the "Primal Chaos Crystals" were astonishingly fast. In the end, the red storm could not be avoided.

In the blink of an eye, the red storm and Pang Shuo's pebbles heavily clashed against each other. Instantly, the storm started to collapse with a speed that even one's mind could not grasp, and within the storm, the jelly-like creature let out an extremely terrified cry.

At this time, Tang Huan's eyes could not help but flicker with a strange light.

The creature's voice was shrill and shrill, but when listening to it, its voice was bewitching. However, although that life form possessed power comparable to that of the Heavenly Emperor, it was still too weak when compared to Tang Huan. It simply could not shake Tang Huan's strong and sturdy soul.

In the very instant that the scream was heard, Tang Huan noticed that a streak of red light had escaped from the shattered storm.

"Trying to escape?"

Tang Huan could not help but snort coldly. Immediately, the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace' began to expand, and shot out explosively with an astonishing speed. In an instant, it stood horizontally in front of the red light, the mouth of the cauldron directly aimed at it, and the terrifying power of the sucking whizzed out from the cauldron like raging waves, enveloping an extremely vast area.

Domain.

The red streak of light was shockingly fast to begin with. With such a sudden turn of events, there was no time for him to dodge at all.

Soon after, he followed the flow of the sucking and entered the cauldron.

With a slight movement of his thought, the Nine Yang Divine Furnace returned to his side. Just as Pang Shuo's "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" smashed into the red storm, four black storms swept over from four different directions and nearly all struck the origin crystal at the same time.

Tang Huan's mind was connected to the Origin Crystal, and his soul immediately suffered an attack. Of course, an attack of this degree would not be able to harm Tang Huan's soul. In an instant, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had rapidly shrunk and returned to its original state. It rotated back and continued to linger around Tang Huan's body, and after the Nine Yang Divine Furnace had shrunk countless times, it floated onto Tang Huan's palm and started to spin.

He spun around.

Through the mouth of the cauldron, the red light entered his line of sight.

That red light was actually a long line, but after a short moment, the red light started to quickly dissipate. In less than a breath's time, it had turned back into the jelly-like creature.

That guy failed in his escape and was trapped in the cauldron. Tang Huan could clearly feel his panic and panic.

Tang Huan laughed, with a flip of her hand, he covered the cauldron, and with a light grab, a gentle force sealed the jellyfish like creature, and pulled it out from the cauldron. The jellyfishes struggled rapidly, as though they wanted to struggle free from Tang Huan's restraints, but to no avail.

"I didn't become a corpse, but you became my prisoner."

The cauldron and Origin Crystals shattered the black storm that swept towards them. Tang Huan, on the other hand, was observing the jellyfish that was imprisoned in front of him with a beaming smile. There was a trace of ridicule and ridicule on her face.

"Human, not only is it not beneficial for you at all if you capture me, it will instead bring about a fatal disaster for you." That jellyfish creature shrieked, "If you're smart, then you'd better release me immediately. Otherwise, my Ghost God Clan will definitely make you beg for death."

"The ghost clan?"

Hearing these four words, Tang Huan couldn't help but frown, and quickly searched his own memories, as if there wasn't any information related to it. Whether it was the Heaven Realm or the lower realms, there was obviously no such race.

"I don't know if I will beg for death, but you will soon be unable to beg for death." Tang Huan snickered.

"You dare?" The jellyfish shouted in anger, appearing to be trying to frighten the enemy inside out.

"Why would I not dare?"

Tang Huan laughed leisurely, then deliberately ridiculed them, "What's wrong with the 'Phantom God Tribe'? A group of beast like things are also acting in front of me, it's really funny."

"Bastard, you're dead meat!"

The jellyfish creature was extremely angry and laughed, "Our 'Phantom God Clan' is..." At this point, the creature seemed to have thought of something and its voice abruptly came to a halt.

"What is it?" Tang Huan said sarcastically.

"You'll know soon enough."

"Hmm?"

He did not know why, but in Tang Huan's eyes, that jellyfish creature looked completely different from a human being, but in that instant just now, Tang Huan saw an extremely strange smile on its face, and then, the red luster on the jellyfish creature's body quickly dimmed.

"This is bad!" Instantly, Tang Huan's face changed slightly, as her mental energy directly rushed into the jellyfish life form's body, but in that moment, the jellyfish life form's body became completely dim, the life force in its body instantly dissipating into nothingness.

Chapter 2253

That fellow died just like that!

Tang Huan couldn't help but frown. The situation just now was extremely strange, if a cultivator wanted to commit suicide while being trapped, they could only detonate their Nascent Soul or burn their soul, but if they were completely imprisoned, even if they wanted to die, they would not be able to, because their body was not under their control.

Since he had caught the fellow that looked like a jellyfish, Tang Huan would naturally prevent him from committing suicide.

However, that guy didn't try to burn his soul or any similar action just now. His soul seemed to have disappeared completely all of a sudden, without any warning.

However, that guy's appearance caused Tang Huan to feel a bit worried. This "Phantom God Domain" did not exist from the start, and had only appeared later on. And from the name of this area, its appearance was clearly related to the Phantom God Clan.

Perhaps the Crescent Moon Sphere in the middle of this dark area might have already become the home of the "Demonic Tribe".

From that fellow's situation, it was possible that the so-called Ghost God Tribe was not some good thing. In such a situation, if his mother was sent to the Crescent Moon Sphere, it would be very bad for him. He didn't know what was happening inside the Crescent Moon Sphere.

Tang Huan's thoughts changed, she was extremely worried.

However, there was no point in thinking too much about it now. The most important thing was to hurry to the Crescent Moon Sphere as fast as possible.

After a while, Tang Huan took a light breath and refocused her mind. Since the so-called "Ghost God Clan" existed in this place that was called "Phantom God Domain", it was impossible for it to only be that one fellow just now.

If he could capture one more, it would be difficult for the other party to commit suicide.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan continued to advance forward like a ray of light.

The black storm in front of them grew more and more violent. However, with the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" attacking them together, it was practically impossible for them to get close to Tang Huan. As Tang Huan absorbed the power of the origin of the "Celestial Ancestor Realm" for refinement, she continued to smash apart the incoming storm with incomparable speed.

At the same time, Tang Huan extended the range of her mind to cover a radius of several tens of thousands of kilometers so that she could detect any abnormalities in her surroundings in time.

However, what made Tang Huan a little surprised was that in the period of time that followed, that "Phantom God Clan" creature did not appear again. This made Tang Huan wonder. Could it be that her guess just now was wrong, that in this dark space, there was only one so called "Demonic God Clan"?

If not, he would probably know very soon. Based on the time, it should be almost time for the Crescent Moon Sphere.

After just a short while, the black storm that was at the edge of Tang Huan's range of detection suddenly started to dissipate a lot. This change caused Tang Huan's heart to palpitate. In the next moment, her mind continued to move forward and before long, the black storm completely disappeared.

Immediately, Tang Huan caught a glimpse of the powerful auras of life.

Although there was a slight difference in aura, it was completely the same as the jellyfish he met before. Both of them were most likely of the same race.

"Ghost God Clan? You guys are waiting for me here! "

Tang Huan thought for a bit, and then her face revealed a smile.

Tens of thousands of miles passed in the blink of an eye. After an instant, the boundless darkness suddenly disappeared, and the space in front of them turned blood-red.

In the sky several thousand meters away from Tang Huan, there were more than sixty figures, all of them Jellyfish life forms that she had encountered before.

However, that fellow had ridden on the red storm to come here, while these fellows were all floating in the air. Behind them, in the distance, a round ball was quietly standing in the air.

That should be the Crescent Moon Sphere.

The moment he rushed out of the darkness and entered this blood-colored space, Tang Huan seemed to have felt numerous ice-cold gazes that were filled with malice ... Although Tang Huan didn't find where those jellyfish like fellows' eyes grew, they should still have this organ.

Since they were waiting here, it was likely that they had long since known of Tang Huan's movements in the dark space.

"You actually were able to pass the 'Phantom God Domain'. This really surprises us." A huge jellyfish creature at the front suddenly spoke up, his voice soft and feminine.

"I was also quite surprised to meet you guys here." Tang Huan laughed, "I had thought that you two would stop me at the 'Demonic God Domain'."

"If you are to quickly die in the 'Phantom Divine Domain', there is no need for us to specially go stop you. If you are to walk out of the Domain alive, you will eventually meet us here. Why waste so much time?" The jellyfish creature sneered, "Human, now tell us, do you want to die or live?"

"So what if I want to die? So what if I want to live?" Tang Huan laughed in surprise.

"If you want to die, we can immediately fulfill your wish." That jellyfish creature said in a deep voice, "If you want to live, then just give up and let me bring you to the Crescent Moon Sphere to settle you down."

"I killed your people, and you're actually willing to let me live?" Tang Huan was a little curious.

"He's just a clan member. If he dies, so be it, he's dead, and what's more, our clan member isn't dead either. The only thing that died was just the embodiment surrounding him." That jellyfish smiled.

"Compared to a embodiment outside of one's body, a human cultivator who can safely pass through the 'Demonic Divine Domain' is naturally more important."

"It seems that I can't let myself be tied down even if I don't want to." Tang Huan's gaze swept across the dozens of jellyfishes in front of him. She suddenly shook her head and laughed helplessly, "It's difficult to fight four people with two fists, let alone more than sixty people from the 'Phantom God Clan'. Fine, I accept my fate. What do you want to do next? I don't think you will just bring me to the Crescent Moon Sky Ball ...

"Right?"

This group of jellyfish life forms were all at the level of the Celestial Emperor. The jellyfish leader that spoke was comparable to a lower Emphyrean.

Of course, with this kind of strength, even if the number of jellyfishes were to double, it would still not be enough to threaten Tang Huan. If they were to fight, Tang Huan would be able to kill them all in an instant. However, if they were to die, it would definitely alarm the other members of the Demonic Sound Clan within the heavenly sphere.

If they found out that Tang Huan was too much of a threat and completely shut down the Sky Ball, Tang Huan would have to spend a lot of effort to get in.

Since that was the case, he might as well let them catch him and bring him to the Crescent Heavenly Ball first.

"Of course not."

The jellyfish seemed to have a strange smile in his voice as he said slowly, "Next, you don't have to do anything. I will control you later. However, I must first remind you that if you were to suddenly resist when the situation is critical, we will definitely not show mercy. "

"Don't worry."

Tang Huan laughed helplessly, "The reason why I came to the Crescent Moon Sphere was because I was curious, if I lost my life because of curiosity, then it wouldn't be worth it."

"Alright!"

The jellyfish snorted and suddenly shouted, "Silent Blood God Binding Chains!" Almost at the same instant his voice rang out, a trace of an extremely congealed blood-colored aura rose from within his body. At almost the same time, a blood-red aura rushed out from the other jellyfish life forms. Then, like iron filings attracted by a magnet, it rushed towards the blood of the jellyfish chief ...

The colorful Qi gathered and fused with it. In the blink of an eye, the sixty or so blood-colored auras were completely absorbed.

In front of the jellyfish leader, the remaining blood-coloured aura had become as thick as a thumb.

"Go!"

With a loud shout, the blood Qi immediately shot out, and in an instant, it appeared in front of Tang Huan.

Sure enough, Tang Huan did not resist. After a moment, the blood red aura wrapped around Tang Huan like a snake, covering him from head to toe.

"Silent Blood God's Binding Chains?"

Tang Huan secretly chewed on the few runes a few times. From the names, he could tell that the methods that the sixty over "Silent Godly Ghost Clan" clansmen had used together were definitely not simple.

Sure enough, the moment the blood colored aura surrounded his body, Tang Huan felt a cold and powerful force invade his body. In just a short while, those circles of blood colored aura had completely permeated into Tang Huan's body and disappeared without a trace.

Tang Huan did not resist, and allowed the power to reach her four limbs and six organs.

An instant later, the power began to invade Tang Huan's soul and Dantian.

A layer of blood colored Qi quickly wrapped around Tang Huan's Dao Nascent Soul and soul, and then the cold energy continued to invade in bit by bit. Tang Huan allowed the power to enter his soul and the core of her Nascent Soul, and only protected the core area of his soul and the four divine crystals.

Under normal circumstances, no cultivator would have any ability to resist after being controlled like this, even an Empyrean was no exception.

However, Tang Huan was not an ordinary Sky Sovereign.

At this time, the jellyfish creature opposite us seemed quite satisfied, and said with a smile, "Human, are you really not afraid that after we return and control you, we'll kill you again?"

"Of course I am."

Tang Huan's body was still able to move freely, so she nodded and smiled bitterly, "However, I am still willing to gamble. Furthermore, it's not like I didn't prepare in the slightest before boldly entering this 'Demonic Ghost Domain'. I won't hide anything from you. The only thing that has come is an avatar of mine. "

"If you go back on your word, I'll just lose this clone."

Based on the strength that Tang Huan had displayed in the "Demonic Ghost Divine Domain", if she was afraid of death, then her hands would be tied down so easily. There was really no credibility to it, and this group of people probably suspected Tang Huan's real intentions.

As he had said, the worst scenario would be a loss of a doppelganger.

Losing a clone would indeed greatly affect his original strength, but it wouldn't pose any threat to his life. Of course, Tang Huan did not have any clones now, and his clones had already merged into his main body ... However, this group of demonic god clan members didn't know about this.

The group of jellyfishes slightly turned their bodies, as if they were communicating with each other.

"So it's just a clone. No wonder you're so fearless."

After a while, the jellyfish leader smiled. "I was indeed a little doubtful just now. Could it be that you want to use this method to sneak into the Crescent Heavenly Ball?"

"But now, it doesn't matter whether you want to or not."

"Although it is impossible for us to bind a Divine Realm expert with the 'Silent Blood God Binding Chains' that we used together, it is impossible for us to get rid of a creature that is weaker than a Divine Realm expert no matter how powerful it is. Furthermore, once you enter this Crescent Moon Sphere, you will no longer be able to escape alive. "

"Let's go back!"

After wrapped around Tang Huan's waist, they quickly brought him to the Crescent Moon Sky Ball. The rest of the jellyfishes crowded around him, their speed was shockingly fast, and the blood colored ball was also quickly expanding in Tang Huan's line of sight.

Before long, Tang Huan and the Crescent Moon Sphere were already within reach.

Just then, in front of Tang Huan, the sphere's surface, which was around ten metres in radius, suddenly fluctuated slightly, and after a moment, an arched door appeared inside the sphere. Tang Huan seemed to have completely accepted her fate, and followed the jellyfish into the arch.

In a split-second, Tang Huan entered the Sky Ball. This Sky Ball was much larger than the one Tang Huan had first entered into. Even when compared to the White Deer Sky Ball, it was not much weaker. At first glance, the sphere also contained five continents, with distinct levels. However, the higher one went, the thicker the bloody aura became ...

Upon reaching the topmost piece of land, the blood-colored aura seemed to have solidified.

However, the land at the bottom was covered with mountains, mountains, and rivers. It was no different from the normal heavenly balls. Only, there were certain areas on the land where a bloody light was faintly discernible.

"Which land is Mother on?"

At this moment, Tang Huan was very excited, she wanted to immediately break the seal on the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains", and take her mother out from within the ball.

However, Tang Huan quickly suppressed her strong impulse. She was unclear about the situation, but if her mother was already under the control of the Demonic Sound Clan, acting rashly would instead cause him harm. She decided to first understand the general situation here, and then make a move.

If he could find his mother first, then he would be able to do whatever he wanted with the sphere.

"What are you going to do with me?" Suddenly, Tang Huan couldn't help but retract his gaze and look at the jellyfish leader beside him, as he asked.

"You'll know soon enough."

The jellyfish leader's body slightly trembled, as though he was sizing up Tang Huan. He let out a strange laugh, and then, with a slightly low voice, he ordered, "Go, send him to the lowest level!"

"Yes!"

Chapter 2254

Above the vast expanse of land, the mountains were rolling up and down, and many large and small towns were scattered about.

Under the lead of a jellyfish creature, Tang Huan entered a small town at the northwest corner of the continent.

This town was no different from a normal human town in the lower realm. The streets and streets were crisscrossed within the city, and the houses were continuous. Cultivators could be seen everywhere. On the streets, from time to time, a jellyfish like water spirit would float past.

The human cultivators in the city seemed to have gotten used to these beasts.

In this city, everything seemed very normal.

However, this was the most abnormal part.

Tang Huan knew that this Crescent Moon Sky Ball was the same as the White Deer and the other Sky Balls, they were all human's territory. However, a long time ago, this Sky Ball had already been occupied by the so called "Demonic God Clan". After so many years, the living conditions of the human cultivators here could not be the same as before.

After a while, Tang Huan noticed something strange.

Whether they were adults or children, all of the humans here had blood-red deep within their eyes. The stronger their cultivation, the thicker the blood-red color.

Although these humans did not display an obvious puppet appearance, they were definitely under the control of the demonic god race.

Tang Huan's mind raced, and quickly followed the jellyfish life form. The appearance of this unfamiliar face attracted many surprised gazes on the street.

Not long after, Tang Huan was brought by the jellyfish to a hall in the center of the town.

The inside of the palace was rather wide, and a figure was actually seated inside the hall. Although the figure looked human, its two eyes were bright red. Although Tang Huan did not activate her mind to investigate, but with a glance, Tang Huan faintly felt that the fellow in front of him was a jellyfish creature.

"Disgusting, this is a newly captured human cultivator, give him a 'Soul Mirror'. "That's right, we have to get the highest level of 'Soul Mirror'. This guy is extremely powerful, he even killed one of our patrolling emissaries."

After giving some instructions, the jellyfish creature that was leading the way floated away.

"Tsk tsk."

The man sprung up from his seat, his two blood-red eyes looked Tang Huan up and down, as he made sounds of approval.

After a while, he laughed dejectedly: "To be able to be a patrolling messenger, you must at least be a lower level Sky Emperor. To be able to enter the 'Phantom Demon God Domain' and kill him there, your strength is indeed not bad. No wonder you have to use the 'Silent Blood God Binding Chains'."

"However, since we're here, no matter how strong you are, it's impossible for you to leave." "From today onwards, you should properly stay here and serve our 'Ghost God Tribe'. You can give up on any other thoughts you have if you wish to, otherwise, it won't be of any benefit to you. It's not easy for you to cultivate to such an extent.

It's not a pity? "

"Right, what's your name?"

"I am Tang Huan!"

"Tang Huan?"

After that, she raised her right arm and reached out her hand towards Tang Huan. A Blood Red Odor that looked like a strand of string walked out from her finger and covered Tang Huan's head, and then, bit by bit, it seeped into Tang Huan's body. A moment later, it stabbed into Tang Huan's soul.

Not long later, the Blood Red Odor left Tang Huan's soul like a receding tide, but when it left, it carried with it a strand of Tang Huan's soul aura.

It was about the size of a child's palm, thin as a cicada's wing, and round in shape. It seemed to be condensed from an incomparably dense, bloody aura, and it was actually crystal clear and smooth like a mirror.

Seeing that, Tang Huan thought of something, this should be the so called "Soul Mirror".

"The highest level 'Soul Mirror'?"

"In this Crescent Heavenly Sphere, it's very rare for a human to enjoy such treatment." As she spoke, she brought her hands together, and the strand of soul aura that she extracted from Tang Huan's body slowly fused into that round and round Soul Mirror.

In the next moment, the fusion was completed.

And it was also in this very instant that Tang Huan felt an abnormally strong restriction between her soul and some powerful existence in the underworld. It was as if she had made any kind of unusual movement and the other party could feel it and her opponent's thoughts could easily control his life and death.

However, Tang Huan did not care, as long as he was willing, she could break this seal anytime.

"This highest level of 'Soul Mirror' was personally refined by the Lord s of our Ghost Clan."

"From now on, your life and death is completely in the hands of our Lord. However, you don't have to worry too much, as long as you behave yourself and don't have any ulterior motives, Lord won't have the time or interest to care about you."

"For the rest of the time, you only need to bring along this' Soul Mirror 'and train nonstop."

Seeming to be afraid that Tang Huan would not take it to heart, he warned again, "Remember, you can't leave your body with the 'Soul Mirror'. Otherwise, you won't be able to endure the monthly 'Fantasy Blood Tide'."

"Ghost Blood Tide? What is that? " Tang Huan received the "Soul Mirror", and asked somewhat suspiciously.

"You'll know soon enough." The woman smiled mysteriously before walking out of the hall. "Let's go. I'll take you to see your residence first."

Very soon, Bewitching Heart stopped, pointed at a small courtyard in the center, and said, "This is the place. The people living in this area are all human cultivators like you."

"As long as the human cultivators are caught, they all live here?" Tang Huan's heart was moved.

"That's right." Perplexed, he didn't hide anything and waved his hand, "Go in. Remember, be diligent in your training."

Tang Huan did not speak further. She pushed open the door and entered the courtyard.

Ever since he entered the Crescent Moon Sphere, his experience had been extremely calm and peaceful, completely different from what he had expected. This made Tang Huan quite surprised. He originally thought that after he was captured, the Netherworld God Tribe would do something special to him.

But now it would seem that the matter wasn't developing as he expected.

From entering the Crescent Moon Sphere to being taken to the ground level and then finding a place to stay, the only special treatment he could give was perhaps the highest level of "Soul Mirror" in his hands. It seems that the "Silent Godly Ghost Clan" and the "Soul Mirror" were both very confident!

To Tang Huan, it was actually a good thing for the Fairy Clan to have such confidence. If they did not cause trouble, Tang Huan would save herself a lot of trouble.

Tang Huan laughed in her heart, then sat cross-legged in the courtyard.

All of the captured humans lived in this place, but it was unknown whether the mother, who was sent here from the Forging God Great World, was considered an aboriginal of the Crescent Moon Celestial Ball, or a human being who was seen as having been captured ... In the past, her mother's level of cultivation was not high, so it was more likely for his to be considered as one of the aboriginals.

Tang Huan looked down at the soul mirror in her hand, and her thoughts raced.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

At this moment, a long, low, and deep cry suddenly resounded in the surroundings, as if an extremely violent hurricane was sweeping over from the distance.

In a moment, Tang Huan noticed that the air around him was suddenly suffused with a faint blood-red color.

The color of the blood was becoming thicker. After a short two breaths, the originally clear space had turned red as if it had been dyed with blood.

A moment later, a violent fluctuation that could be seen with the naked eye roared towards them from the distant horizon. It was like a violent storm with an imposing manner that overflowed into the heavens.

Wherever it passed, a loud rumbling sound reverberated throughout the world. It was as if all the obstacles in front of them would be smashed to smithereens very soon. However, even though the blood-colored wave was approaching in full fury, the places that it passed through were completely calm. Not to mention the houses, even the vegetation did not change in the slightest.

"Ghost Blood Tide?"

Tang Huan's mind slightly stirred, and these four words instantly surfaced in her mind.

Soon after, Tang Huan realized that as the blood wave approached, the blood in his body was also affected. It flowed like boiling water, as though it wanted to break through the shackles of his body, and melded into the blood wave. It roamed around wantonly as it approached the heaven and earth.

Not only that, Tang Huan's soul also felt a huge pressure, as if his entire soul was going to be smashed into pieces by this blood colored wave.

When that blood-red wave whistled past the courtyard, the feeling reached its peak.

However, Tang Huan frowned her eyebrows very quickly, because he realized that after the wave of blood had passed, there was a new wave of blood coming from afar. The feeling of her blood boiling and the oppression of her soul grew stronger.

When the blood-red wave once more rushed across the courtyard, the third wave had already appeared, followed by the fourth wave, the fifth wave ...

The waves of blood continued to flow, as if they were endless and would never stop.

Tang Huan felt that the blood in his body was affected by the blood flow and turned into a roaring and surging dragon, while his body became a cage around the dragon. The colossal dragon became stronger and stronger, while the cage was always so small, it became harder and harder to trap it.

As a result, not long after, Tang Huan felt as if her entire body was going to explode, and her soul was about to be crushed by the pressure.

Of course, this was only one of Tang Huan's senses.

Just how powerful was the Chaos Immortal Spirit Body? If his body were to explode due to the effect of the blood wave, then wouldn't all of Tang Huan's years of cultivation be wasted on his dog body? And Tang Huan's soul, naturally, did not need to worry either.

Although the four divine crystals now existed in the Dao Soul stage, they were still closely connected to the soul.

Their existence was more than enough to allow Tang Huan to withstand any kind of suppression that was aimed at the soul. Even though she was safe, Tang Huan was still rather emotional about it.

Let alone the Celestial Emperor, even an ordinary Empyrean wouldn't necessarily be able to withstand the continuous violent impact of this blood-red tide of blood. However, from the seductive meaning of that, it seemed that this "Soul Mirror" would be able to help them resist the invasion of this "Phantom Blood Tide".

Tang Huan had not seen how the "Soul Mirror" worked, but she could roughly guess what it was.

This thing was intimately connected to the soul. If it was unable to withstand the Faerie Blood Tide, the "Soul Mirror" would be activated, releasing its power and condensing it into a barrier. The impact of the blood tide would disappear. In this way, he would naturally be able to survive the blood tide attack unscathed.

Tang Huan was not interested in using her own body to test this "Soul Mirror." Within his mind instructs (in a second), the four divine crystals within Tang Huan's Dantian began to quietly circulate. With the support of the four divine crystals, even if Tang Huan's soul and Dao Nascent Soul were trapped by the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains", he would still be able to use his mind.

Of course, under such circumstances, the range of the Perception Ability and perception would definitely be greatly reduced.

However, this was enough for Tang Huan.

After a moment's time, Tang Huan's mind had already spread out, enveloping the entire town inside. The existence of Divine Crystals transcended the Heavenly Dao. Tang Huan only circulated Divine Crystals, she would not alarm the jellyfish spirits that had condensed the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains", nor would she alarm any other living beings in the city.

As expected, the situation in the town was as Tang Huan had guessed. In the entire city, other than the temptation in the palace, all the other human cultivators carried "Soul Mirror" with them. Only a few of them could still barely hold on, the rest of the human cultivators' Soul Mirror had already been activated.

As for the humans who had been activated by the "Soul Mirror," they were currently immersed in their cultivation.

As for the few fellows who were still holding on, they all lived in this small courtyard and could be counted as Tang Huan's neighbors, with the closest one being less than a hundred meters away. Their cultivation were obviously the strongest in the city, and according to Tang Huan's judgement, all of them were Sky Emperor.

Tang Huan did not continue to pay attention to these fellows. Instead, she activated her mind and started to carefully search around the city.

What made Tang Huan a little disappointed was that Ji Ruyan did not exist in the city.

It was more accurate to say that Tang Huan, who had been reborn in this world, had never once seen Ji Ru Huan. His understanding of Ji Ru Huan came from the original owner's memories, and Tang Huan thus inherited the deep feelings the original owner had for her mother.

It was also because of this reason that Tang Huan almost became obsessed when she found his mother. Although Tang Huan was disappointed that he didn't find her here, she wasn't discouraged. Since she had already entered the Crescent Moon Sphere, as long as she was still alive, she would definitely be able to find her. Once she understood the situation here, Tang Huan only needed to destroy the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains" and with the guidance of her bloodline, she would be able to locate the place.

Her exact location. Tang Huan secretly sighed as he retracted his mind. His attention was also placed on the "Soul Mirror" in his palm, and the four divine crystals were instantly activated to the extreme.

Chapter 2255

At the same time, within Tang Huan's Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" also began to circulate rapidly.

Under the simultaneous attack of the four divine crystals and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", although the range of Tang Huan's reaction was greatly reduced, the Perception Ability was still incomparably strong. It was only a short while later that Tang Huan caught a glimpse of the faint connection between the "Soul Mirror" and it was rather minute, but it was also extremely stable.

The end of the connection should be the "Demonic God Clan" Lord who had refined this "Soul Mirror".

Tang Huan activated her mind and quietly followed the thread of contact and extended outwards. This state of mind was activated using the divine crystal, transcending the Heavenly Way. Tang Huan did not need to worry about being discovered at all, unless the Lord of the "Silent Godly Clone" was a true Divine Realm expert ... However, this was impossible.

A Divine level expert had long left this plane. How could they linger in this small space?

According to Tang Huan's guess, that Lord could be a peak Upper Sky Sovereign like Gu Daozi, at most, she was a half god like Hannya, Duan Yuan and the rest.

Tang Huan's mind was extremely focused, with that thread of connection, she quickly passed through the layers of the Crescent Moon Space.

Inside the Sky Sphere, the sea of blood was overflowing. However, this did not affect Tang Huan's mind at all, and after a while, she had already reached the top floor.

In the center of the land, several mountain peaks rose up, like stars surrounding the moon, protecting a massive round altar that was hundreds of meters high.

It seemed to be completely formed from fresh blood. However, at this moment, the blood-colored aura seemed to possess a life of its own as it churned violently, as if it was an ancient beast that was baring its fangs and brandishing its claws, wanting to devour someone.

The incomparably fierce blood colored waves surged in all directions.

Within the dense blood-colored aura, there was a giant sphere that was faintly discernable, constantly expanding, shrinking, expanding, and contracting ... It was like a living creature breathing.

"This is ..."

Tang Huan thought slightly, and that strand of mind retreated like a tide.

In the courtyard, Tang Huan slowly opened her eyes and a look of deep thought uncontrollably appeared between her brows. The Lord of the "Ghost God Clan" was currently on the top floor, inside that huge blood colored ball.

Just as his mind was about to touch the ball, Tang Huan caught a glimpse of a faintly discernible Qi.

That aura was incomparably strong, and even compared to the likes of Hannya and Duan Yuan, it was not inferior in any way. In fact, it might even be superior. Indeed, as Tang Huan had expected, the Lord of the Silent Godly God Tribe did not truly prove her dao, but rather that of a semi-god level expert.

In this space, the strongest powerhouse was only a peak peak Empyrean. Without an Empyrean, how could there be a demigod here?

Combining the information he had obtained from Su Ye, Tang Huan could confirm that this so-called "Silent God Tribe" was most likely outsiders. However, no matter how Tang Huan searched the memories in her mind, whether it was the upper or lower realms, she could not find any information related to this "Ghost God Clan".

Such a powerful race couldn't have suddenly appeared out of nowhere.

Logically speaking, before entering this crevice, the "Phantom God Clan" should have left behind some traces in this world after so long a time.

But in reality, the "Phantom God Clan" was extremely mysterious, so mysterious that no one knew about it.

Even if it was within the crack of the space, before Tang Huan, perhaps no one would have known that such a terrifying clan existed within this dark area that was enveloping the Crescent Moon Heavenly Sphere. If the "Ghost God Clan" wanted to, they could sweep through the entire space.

In this plane of existence, there was no information about the Fairy Clan. If not ...

"This' Phantom God Clan 'came from outside the plane?"

An extremely bold thought popped up in his mind, causing Tang Huan's heart to skip a beat.

With a sudden thought, the possibility of this happening was practically zero.

But after careful examination, Tang Huan realized that the probability of this happening was extremely high. Over at the God Ruins' area, the walls of the other planes weren't stable yet. The Heavenly Energy of the neighboring worlds had already broken through the barriers of the other planes and seeped in. In such a situation, it was not impossible for the "Silent Godly Ghost Clan" from that plane to sneak in ...

The entrance to the Ruins was blocked, so the Heavenly Dao of the neighboring world was able to use this gap as a springboard to continue infiltrating.

The more Tang Huan thought about it, the more she felt that it was possible.

This crevice in space was where the Heavenly Dao was weak. The Heavenly Dao's attention was focused on the Divine Ruins, so it was unlikely that they would be able to discover anything unusual here.

If that was the case, perhaps the dangers of this plane of existence were even greater than he had imagined.

He had to figure out the origin and scheme of this "Ghost God Clan" as soon as possible. Otherwise, he feared that an unexpected change would occur in this place.

Tang Huan's thoughts raced and she could not help but take a deep breath.

Initially, he had planned to pretend that he was completely controlled by both the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains" and the "Soul Mirror" and spend more time to find his mother, Ji Ru Mang. After that, he planned to think about it later, but now it seemed that he had to make some changes to his plan and find his mother as soon as possible.

With that thought, Tang Huan immediately made her decision.

This "Ghost Blood Tide" was an opportunity.

Human cultivators needed to use the "Soul Mirror" to resist the blood tide. However, the "Silent God Tribe" clan members, like the "Brotherhood", were completely immersed in the blood tide, like a baby returning to its mother's womb. They were intoxicated within it, unable to extricate themselves.

At this time, even if someone were to directly stand in front of them, they would not be able to detect anything.

Under such a situation, Tang Huan was completely capable of destroying the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains", and she did not need to worry about being discovered by the tens of members of the Demonic God Clan who had condensed the "God Binding Chains".

As for that Ghost God Clan's Lord ...

If Tang Huan's guess was not wrong, he should be borrowing this blood tide to cultivate, and the key to his cultivation, was controlling the "Soul Mirror" of human cultivators and his clansmen.

While this "Soul Mirror" protected human cultivators from the blood tide, it also continuously absorbed the soul force of human cultivators. This was something that ordinary human cultivators could not detect because they had already been manipulated by the "Soul Mirror". They were completely unable to discover the abnormality within their own soul.

Tang Huan had protected the core of her soul, so this unusual action naturally could not be hidden from him.

That guy was immersed in cultivation. If Tang Huan had not used his "Soul Mirror", even if he had noticed Tang Huan's movements, it would have taken him a while to react to it. And in that short period of time, it was enough for Tang Huan to find out the location of his mother, Ji Ru Man, based on the power of his bloodline.

"This matter should not be delayed!"

In between Tang Huan's mind instructs (in a second), the four divine crystals contained a boundless power that erupted like a volcano. Wherever they went, the blood-colored aura around them would melt like snow under the blazing sun.

It was also at this time that Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Dao flame" surged out from within the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace," and when combined with the divine crystal's power, it instantly spread throughout her four limbs, organs, and even the inside of her soul ...

Although the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains" was strong, it was no match for Tang Huan's divine crystal strength and Primal Chaos Dao flames. Before even the blink of an eye, it had completely disappeared.

Although the shackles of the "Soul Mirror" still existed, without the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains" to restrict him, even if Tang Huan's strength had not recovered to its peak, he was not far off from it. Such powerful strength made Tang Huan no longer feel as if his hands and feet were tied.

At that moment, Tang Huan did not hesitate.

With a thought, the "Blood Refinement Mantra" was unleashed.

His mother was still within the sphere. With such a short distance between them, there was no need to go through all the trouble like before. After a split second, the blood within Tang Huan's body began to boil as though it was boiling hot water.

Although this blood tide was powerful, it was completely unable to obstruct the power of Tang Huan's bloodline. In an instant, it blended into the surrounding space.

In less than a breath of time, Tang Huan could already feel the pull that came from the power of her bloodline.

"Over there!"

Tang Huan slightly moved her body, and her figure instantly disappeared from the courtyard...

... ..

"Hmm?"

On the top floor of the Crescent Moon Sphere, a cry of surprise suddenly rang out.

The next moment, an extremely terrifying aura roared out from above the high altar, and swept through the whole sphere like a bloody tide.

"Bloodline power?"

In the air above the high altar, a cold mutter resounded, "Human cultivator? There was actually a human cultivator activating the power of his bloodline? "Where did you run in from?"

"Is that my 'Soul Mirror'? "Moreover, it's the newly used 'Soul Mirror'!" If a human cultivator could possess the 'Soul Mirror' personally created by this sovereign, then he must be a Celestial Emperor! Weird, how did those little fellows manage it that they didn't even need to tie him up with the 'Silent Blood God Binding Ropes' ... No, that's not right, those little fellows definitely wouldn't be this careless. It must be him who broke free from the Blood Confining Divine Cord!

"To be able to do this, he must be hiding his true strength."

"It's a pity that this little trick has been used in the wrong place. In my Crescent Heavenly Ball, no matter how much strength I have hidden, it would still be a dead end."

"Brat, come over here —"

With a low shout, a blood-red stream of light shot out from the round altar. In an instant, it pierced through the layers of land and appeared at the lowest level of the Sky Sphere...

... ..

At the southern border of the land, a small city was completely covered in blood. Wave after wave swept through the city.

Aside from the sonic booms caused by the blood waves, there was nothing else in the city. Suddenly, Tang Huan's figure appeared in front of a wooden house without any warning.

"Mother is inside!"

In that moment, Tang Huan's thoughts became extremely complicated, even her heartbeat became faster.

Excited, happy, worried about gains and losses ... However, even though his mind was filled with all sorts of thoughts, Tang Huan's movements did not slow down in the slightest. He immediately lifted his hand and pushed open the door. Inside the wooden building, a beautiful young woman was sitting cross-legged on the ground with her eyes closed. Her expression was calm as she held a "Soul Mirror" in her hands. Her body was covered by a layer of blood ...

"Mother!"

That beautiful face was extremely familiar. She had long been branded deep within Tang Huan's soul, and had appeared deep within her soul time and time again. This also allowed Tang Huan to recognize her the moment she laid eyes on her despite it being her first time meeting her.

Just as expected, just like the other human cultivators on this Crescent Heavenly Ball, she was controlled by the "Demonic Tribe".

Even if this was the case, Tang Huan would have already expected it. But now that she had personally witnessed Ji Ru Mang's condition, she could not help but feel an intense rage rising from the bottom of his heart. However, at that time, Tang Huan did not have the time to think about it, and also did not have the time to wake Ji Ru Mang up.

With but a thought, the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared and rapidly expanded. A powerful suction force enveloped Ji Ru Huan and instantly sucked her in.

"Jianxin, protect her well!"

At the same time as he kept the scroll, Tang Huan sent out a mind instructs (in a second). In the next moment, Tang Huan gave a cold snort, and a ball of "Primal Chaos Dao Fire" wrapped up the "Soul Mirror" in his palm. The firepower continuously seeped in, with a power that was like thunder, it was unstoppable.

At this moment, Tang Huan had already released all of her firepower.

"Crack!" "Crack ..."

A crisp cracking sound immediately erupted. The surface of the "Soul Mirror" rapidly revealed countless tiny intersecting cracks. Under Tang Huan's all-out attack, the thread of connection between the Lord and the "Phantom God Clan" started to weaken rapidly.

"Brat, come over here —"

However, right at this moment, a thunderous yell seemed to have passed through the "Soul Mirror" and directly resounded within the depths of Tang Huan's soul.

The moment he caught sight of this sound, the wooden house exploded into pieces and a blood-red light fell from the sky. It was about the size of a fist and its speed had already reached an extremely unimaginable level.

Right now, although it was still around a few thousand meters away from Tang Huan, the surging Strength Qi had completely turned this entire house into dust.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan did not hesitate at all. "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" flashed out from her body, roared, and rushed up, aiming straight at the blood-red light.

However, just as the two were about to make contact, that blood-red light seemed to have eyes, and actually evaded the roaring cauldron, and split into two, split into four ... In the blink of an eye, it seemed as if countless tiny tentacles had intertwined towards Tang Huan.

"Huh?" A strange look flashed across Tang Huan's eyes, and immediately after, a dense power crazily surged out of his body with the power to topple mountains and overturn seas. In an instant, a formless energy wave that was almost transparent quickly spread out in all directions with Tang Huan's body as the center, like a rapidly expanding ball.

Chapter 2256

This was an attack from the Netherworld God Tribe Lord on the uppermost continent.

It had originally been an exceptionally powerful soul attack, but it had been combined with the blood-red wave. When the countless tiny tentacles appeared, the surrounding blood tide was stirred up and after that, there was a huge change. It started to revolve around from the surroundings and it was as if it became a huge vortex.

Tang Huan was at the center of the vortex.

The blood-colored vortex revolved at a high speed and countless tentacles danced about crazily. The two of them seemed to have reached a miraculous resonance and under its combination, not only the soul but also the flesh body, instantly erupted with incomparable might. From this, one could see the strength of the Ghost God Clan Lord.

Therefore, when the attack came, Tang Huan immediately retaliated.

That transparent wave not only contained a vast and boundless Heavenly Yuan, but it also contained a vast amount of soul power. The two perfectly merged together, and like a volcanic eruption, they erupted in all directions, blasting towards the rapidly spiraling blood-red vortex and the countless entangling tentacles.

In a split-second, that round, transparent ripple touched the blood-colored vortex and the earth-shattering tentacles.

"Boom —"

A violent collision broke out, followed by an earth-shaking explosion.

The transparent ball stopped expanding due to the obstruction, but it did not collapse. Instead, the blood-colored whirlpool first slowed down greatly, then under the terrifying impact of the Strength Qi, it became even more chaotic, and those countless blood-red tentacles also exploded into pieces.

"Huh?"

Then, a surprised shout sounded, "You have some tricks up your sleeve!"

"Soon, you will feel even more surprised!"

Tang Huan laughed coldly.

In between the mind instructs (in a second), the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" in the sky suddenly swelled up, and the terrifying Strength Qi, with the cauldron as the center, wreaked havoc in all directions. The originally chaotic blood-colored vortex could no longer hold on, and exploded with a loud bang, causing the blood-red flowing light, which was split into countless tentacles, to instantly explode as well.

"Hmm?"

An angry snort suddenly thundered in the sky above this subterranean world.

In an instant, Tang Huan felt the connection between the spirits of the "Soul Mirror" that had already become extremely weak, suddenly fluctuating intensely. In an instant, an extremely strong shackling force passed through that connection and directly reached the deepest part of Tang Huan's soul, as though it wanted to seal Tang Huan's soul.

It was clear that the ghost god clan Lord was planning to attack Tang Huan's soul through the shackles between both of their souls.

Noticing this unusual situation, not only was Tang Huan not worried, a hint of ridicule instead emerged from the corner of her mouth.

If it was another Sky Sovereign, they would have immediately lost all ability to resist after being tortured like that. Unfortunately, that fellow was targeting Tang Huan. Although Tang Huan's soul had established that kind of connection with that guy's soul through the "Soul Mirror", Tang Huan's soul had not been completely controlled.

As a result, when the ghost clan's attack entered Tang Huan's soul, it immediately caused Tang Huan's soul core to resist.

In the next moment, the four God Crystals activated even more crazily, and the shackling power that was transmitted to them through that thread of connection was instantly dispersed. Immediately after, the extremely weak connection between his soul was severed, and the "Soul Mirror" in Tang Huan's hand turned into a pile of fine powder.

"Good boy, I have indeed underestimated you!"

The voice rang out once again, the tone filled with rage.

As soon as he finished speaking, the blood colored wave that had filled the entire world retreated like the tides. In an instant, it had disappeared without a trace.

Tang Huan subconsciously wanted to go to the top floor.

At this time, the members of the "Demonic God Clan" on all the continents had yet to wake up, so from the looks of it, the Lord seemed like she wanted to stop cultivating and would not continue attacking either. As the blood tide retreated, Tang Huan could take advantage of this situation and charge to the top of the Heavenly Sphere without any obstructions.

However, the moment Tang Huan moved her feet, she immediately gave up on that thought.

In between mind instructs (in a second), Tang Huan withdrew her "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared at almost the same time. With a slight movement of her body, Tang Huan entered the cave.

Inside Supreme Profound Hall, Ji Ruxi was already lying flat on the ground with her eyes closed. She was motionless, as if she had fallen into a deep sleep.

"Jianxin, thank you!"

Tang Huan heaved a sigh of relief, and thanked the spirit of the cave.

The instant she entered the cave, Ji Ru Yi had already woken up. However, before she could react to what had happened, Jianxin used a method to force her to fall asleep once more. The reason he did this was naturally to prevent her from being affected by the "Soul Mirror." After all, she was already under the control of the ghost clan.

This time, Tang Huan gave up on rushing to the top floor, and chose to return here in order to help her solve this problem. Even though she had saved Ji Ru Mang, her life was still in the hands of the "Phantom God Tribe". The Lord's cultivation of the "Phantom God Clan" included all the "Soul Mirror" inside the Sky Sphere. As long as he used a snack, she could discover Ji Ru Mang's abnormality and determine his true purpose.

At that time, Ji Ru Huan's life might be taken in an instant.

Tang Huan would definitely not let this kind of thing happen before her eyes, so he needed to help Ji Ru Mubai break free from the influence and control of the "Soul Mirror" before he could officially start a war with the "Phantom Demon God Clan".

While thinking, Tang Huan's gaze fell on Ji Ruyan's right palm. A "Soul Mirror" was quietly lying there.

With a slight movement of his arm, Tang Huan grabbed the "Soul Mirror" into his palm. Then, his enormous mind completely wrapped around the small item that was as smooth as a mirror.

After a moment, Tang Huan heaved a sigh of relief, her face revealing a faint smile.

The rank of this "Soul Mirror" was not high. It was obviously related to his mother's cultivation base. Ji Ruxi was only in the Heaven Realm, and the one controlling her through this "Soul Mirror" was probably an ordinary member of the Demonic God Clan. According to Tang Huan's investigations, that fellow was only a high level Heaven Marquis.

With a low cultivation and a weak strength, relatively speaking, the connection and shackles between the soul was also weak.

To break the shackles on her body of this degree, was extremely easy for Tang Huan. However, before he could break the connection, he needed to protect Ji Ru Man's soul.

Her soul and the "Soul Mirror" had almost become one. In this kind of situation, if the shackles between her and the ghost clan members were to be severed, it was very likely that her own soul would be severely injured.

"Hu!"

With that thought in mind, Tang Huan didn't hesitate anymore and immediately moved. She sat cross-legged beside Ji Ru Mang and placed her hand on his forehead, releasing a gentle force that flowed out from her palm and merged into her head from afar, then slowly entered the depths of her soul.

With his enormous mind, Tang Huan's control over his own strength had already reached the point of being as pure as fire. He didn't have to worry at all that this kind of action would harm her soul. At about the same time, Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Dao Flame" had also tightly wrapped that "Soul Mirror".

The extremely powerful firepower seeped into the interior of the "Soul Mirror" like silk.

Because of this "Soul Mirror," his mother's soul was stuck with the ghost clan member's. To cut it off, he only needed to destroy this "Soul Mirror".

Under the condition of protecting Ji Ru Mi's soul, Tang Huan was completely capable of applying this "Soul Mirror" to his heart's content.

In the blink of an eye, countless tiny cracks appeared on the surface of the "Soul Mirror."

Following the onslaught of the firepower, the cracks grew larger and larger. In the time it took for a short one to two breaths, a "peng" sound rang out and the Soul Mirror completely dissipated.

"Ugh!" In the depths of her soul, there was a small ball of blood-colored aura that was closely intertwined with her soul. After the "Soul Mirror" was completely shattered, it was gradually dissipating, at a rather fast speed.

Slowly.

Tang Huan withdrew her strength and did not continue to interfere.

The process of the bloody aura dissipating deep within Ji Ru Huan's soul was actually also a process of her soul self-recovery. After being controlled for so many years, the blood aura and the soul would become too fused, and the process of its dissipation would also be slow. However, Tang Huan was in no hurry.

Once the blood-colored aura was completely gone, his mother, Ji Ru Huan, would naturally wake up.

Right now, the threat on his mother's body had been eliminated, and Tang Huan had nothing to worry about anymore. From now on, Tang Huan would have to face the threat from the Demonic Sound Clan.

"Hu!"

In the time it took mind instructs (in a second), Tang Huan's figure had already disappeared from the Supreme Profound Hall. When he reappeared, he was already at the ruins of the wooden building.

At this time, the sky had returned to normal, but within Tang Huan's line of sight, there was an additional group of blood-colored figures.

According to the aura that was being emitted from their bodies, the first few tens of jellyfishes were impressively those who had used the "Silent Blood God Binding Ropes" on him. And amongst these several hundred jellyfish life forms, there were about a hundred Heavenly Emperor s. The rest were mostly Heavenly Kings.

The strength of this "Phantom God Clan" could be seen from this.

"Everyone, we meet again." Tang Huan smiled as she looked at the dozens of jellyfishes. She extended her hand and grabbed, and the scroll flew into her palm.

"You actually managed to struggle free from our 'Silent Blood God Binding Chains'."

The jellyfish leader's tone was gloomy, he was nearly gnashing his teeth as he said, "However, if you think that you can escape from here without the 'Silent Blood God Binding Chains', you are simply daydreaming." If he were a human, at this moment, his face would definitely be filled with anger and embarrassment. Not long ago, outside the Sky Sphere, after they had captured Tang Huan, they had thought that he would never have the ability to rise again. Thus, after sending him to the ground floor and handing him over to the overseer, they did not pay any more attention to him.

A puppet.

However, after the blood tide, everything changed. Even the blood tide itself had changed. The duration was much shorter than before.

However, what they were more concerned about was the human cultivator in front of them.

Tang Huan, whom they had grabbed together, had actually managed to escape the restraints of the "Silent Blood God Binding Chains". This was equivalent to slapping them in the face ruthlessly — if they had the face! What made them even more inconceivable was that Tang Huan had even severed the shackle that the "Soul Mirror" placed on his soul.

To everyone present, this was extremely inconceivable.

One must know that the "Soul Mirror" that was given to Tang Huan was personally made by the Lord. Logically speaking, if Tang Huan were to make a move against the "Soul Mirror", it would definitely alarm the Lord, how could the Lord let him succeed?

But, Tang Huan had actually succeeded!

This was completely beyond their imagination.

From the movements in the area, it was obvious that the Lord had fought, but Tang Huan was still safe and sound. She had obviously blocked the attack from the Lord, could it be that the strength of the human cultivator in front of him had already reached a level comparable to that of the Lord?

Thinking of this, many jellyfish creatures were shocked.

"He's too naive!"

Tang Huan looked at the jellyfish spirits with a trace of pity in her eyes, "A mere" Silent Blood God Binding Chains "is able to trap me? However, with you guys, who are destined to be cannon fodder, I couldn't be bothered to argue. I am going to meet with your tribesmen. If you want to stop me, then come! "

The moment he said that, an incomparably majestic aura surged out from Tang Huan's body like a howling storm. In an instant, the surrounding space began to emit intense undulations that could be seen with the naked eye.

In the past, Tang Huan didn't need to intentionally control his own aura, so she would naturally restrain it.

With his current cultivation level, most likely no one in the entire plane would be able to sense his aura and investigate his condition, even the demigods in the Ruins of God. But now, Tang Huan had completely released his aura without any reservation.

At this moment, the depths of their souls were filled with deep shock.

When that aura appeared, they immediately felt an incomparable pressure. Instantly, their souls began to tremble with fear, unable to resist in the slightest. In that instant, that human cultivator seemed to have turned into a supreme deity, unstoppable.

Crush! Just the aura alone was enough to crush them!

It was as if the opponent only needed a thought to send all of them into a situation where they would never be able to escape!

In the blink of an eye, intense fear and panic emerged from the depths of the souls of almost all the jellyfish. Just what kind of existence was this fellow that they caught before? One had to know that even when they had faced the Lord in the past, they had never felt something like this.

Could it be that this human cultivator was stronger than the Lord?

The many jellyfish creatures constantly thought of various ideas, but their bodies were completely in a daze. The entire area instantly sank into a deathly silence.

"He's gone!" After an unknown amount of time, a cry of surprise suddenly shook the air. Only then did the many jellyfish creatures realize that the human expert's figure had already disappeared without a trace.

Chapter 2257

At this moment, the shock in the hearts of many of the charming god race clansmen could not be described with words.

In that instant, all of the surrounding clan members widened their eyes as they watched, but none of them were able to discover how Tang Huan had left this place. Previously, they were only guessing at how strong Tang Huan actually was, but now, they could already clearly feel how terrifying Tang Huan's strength was.

However, after a short period of shock, they all seemed to have woken up from a dream and quickly moved towards the staircase that led to the second floor.

At this time, Tang Huan used an astonishing speed to cross the stairs of the first floor's land, and entered the second floor's land.

Almost as soon as he appeared, Tang Huan saw a dense group of blood-colored figures. Those were the jellyfish life forms, all gathered in the center of the second level of the landmass.

Amongst this group of ghostly god race clansmen, there were actually three Emphyreans, thirty-six Emphyreans, nearly a hundred Emphyreans, and countless heavenly marquises.

Just the strength of this jellyfish population alone was comparable to the strongest sect in the nine heavens, the "Clear Void Dao Pavilion". And the experts that appeared in this place were obviously not the entire Fairy Clan. If the Netherworld God Tribe left the space between the cracks, they would probably sweep across the entire plane.

"Halt!"

The three Sky Sovereigns cried out at the same time.

The moment they sensed Tang Huan's Qi, their emotions started to fluctuate violently. They had only received the Lord's order to come here to stop Tang Huan.

To receive such an order from the Lord, the strength of Tang Huan could be easily imagined.

However, even though he knew that it was the same, he didn't have much personal experience. Thus, he didn't pay much attention to it. However, he never would have thought that the person who just arrived would appear, and the aura that leaked from the person's body would make even his or her soul tremble, to the point of being extremely terrifying.

"Idiot!"

Tang Huan sneered, her footsteps did not pause at all.

Between the mind instructs (in a second), the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" had already appeared in a flash, instantly turning into an incomparably large pebble, rumbling and crushing forward.

"Let's attack together!"

The three Empyreans roared out, and a thick tentacle shot out from their bodies. With a speed that even their minds couldn't grasp, they combined their tentacles and swept them towards the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" like a whip.

Almost at the same time, a large amount of blood-colored qi rose up from the surrounding jellyfish, absorbed by the tentacles. In a split-second, the already thick tentacles swelled up like inflated rubber balls, as if filling up the entire space.

"Boom —"

In less than half a blink of an eye, the tentacle had forcefully clashed with the "Chaos Source Crystal".

An earth-shaking explosion reverberated above the second layer of land. Under the extremely violent collision, the huge tentacle directly exploded into pieces, and the vast space was immediately filled with specks of blood-red light. The incomparably violent Strength Qi was like a monstrous wave, rolling in all directions.

In that instant, the three Empyreans were like meteorites falling from the sky, their bodies flying backwards like kites with broken strings. The surrounding ghost clan members were also sent flying by the violent impact, even the Heavenly Emperors and Heavenly Kings were no exception.

After his body was swept up into the air, he was barely able to hold on for a short moment before his body was torn to shreds by the extremely strong Strength Qi.

In the blink of an eye, it was unknown how many jellyfish had vanished.

"You think you can stop me with just these little trash?"

Tang Huan scoffed as her body shot forward like a ray of light, while the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" rapidly shrank. When it floated into her palm, Tang Huan had already appeared at the top of the spiral staircase that was not far away. After that, his figure flashed and in the blink of an eye, she appeared on the third floor of the Sky Ball.

On this floor, Tang Huan had still seen many jellyfish life forms, and there were still three Empyreans amongst them.

However, they were watching from afar and did not approach. It was likely that they had already discovered what was happening on the second level and knew that even if they tried to intercept them, they would be rendered useless. At this moment, the auras that gushed out from their bodies fluctuated intensely.

It was obvious that their emotions were incomparably complex.

Since the fellows around him did not intervene to stop him, Tang Huan was too lazy to bother any longer. Her figure slightly moved, flying up the spiral staircase, and in the blink of an eye, she entered the fourth floor's land. On this floor, Tang Huan saw fewer jellyfish life forms, but there was one more Sky Sovereign.

Almost none of the four Empyreans on this level lost out to Gu Daozi and Yuan Chao from the Clear Void Dao Pavilion.

The strength of this Netherworld God Tribe was truly unfathomable.

Tang Huan coldly glanced around. Originally, she did not plan to pay attention to them, but just as Tang Huan was about to rush to the spiral staircase that led to the top floor, the four Sky Sovereigns suddenly launched a violent attack at the same time.

The four of them occupied different positions as countless blood-red lights, each as thick as a fist, shot out from their bodies. They crisscrossed in the sky like a spider web, and in an instant, the four spider webs were linked together to form an extremely large, blood-red net that fell from the sky.

At this moment, the space inside the huge net seemed to have been cut open.

When the huge net appeared, the rest of the charming god race clansmen all took action as well. An earth-shattering blood colored aura rolled over from all directions with the force of overturning mountains and seas, enveloping the huge net as well as Tang Huan who was enveloped by the huge net. The heaven and earth became as red as blood.

Inside the blood colored giant net, Tang Huan stood tall and straight, and the "Pure Yang Divine Sword" had already appeared in her hands; his majestic suggestions seemed like they would explode at any moment.

After being enveloped by the huge net, Tang Huan had discovered that the space within the net seemed to have become an independent region, as if all ties with the outside world had been severed.

"An insignificant skill!"

Tang Huan shook her head and laughed sinisterly. The long sword in her hand moved, and an enormous white sword beam swept out like a waterfall, and the extremely terrifying sword intent followed the sword beam and rampaged through the entire space. An incomparably swift and fierce Strength Qi moved according to the sword beam, as if it could tear apart all the obstacles in the world.

"Slash ..."

Amidst the ear-piercing sound, a crack hundreds of meters long appeared on the net.

However, just as this crack was revealed, the blood-colored aura that covered the huge net gushed in. In an instant, the long and narrow crack had already been closed.

"Hmm? Interesting! "

Tang Huan slightly raised her brows, as astonishment flashed past her eyes. But after a moment, Tang Huan couldn't help but laugh. The "Pure Yang Divine Sword" in her hand swung out again, and another gigantic sword beam whizzed out from her palm. This time around, the sword intent was still overflowing and the Strength Qi was churning. But the difference was that there was an invisible wave of flame that lingered around the sword beam ...

In a split-second, the sword beam descended once again upon the net shaped round cover.

"Slash ..."

Another long and narrow crack appeared on the net.

Just like the previous time, the thick bloody aura outside roiled in an attempt to close the crack. However, the moment the fissure was about to open up, a blazing wave appeared, sticking to the two sides of the fissure. It then rapidly melted the net and the surging tide of blood-colored aura.

This was naturally the "Primal Chaos Fire" that Tang Huan had activated. Their existence made it impossible for the barrier to be as fast as before ...

Hurry up and heal.

Seeing that, Tang Huan could not help but smile.

"Chi!"

In that moment, Tang Huan swung her third sword.

In a split-second, the gigantic white sword beam, which was accompanied by a majestic sword intent, directly slashed into the crack. The extremely sharp Strength Qi crazily tore through the surrounding space. In the blink of an eye, the crack had expanded to almost double its original size, and the bloody aura that was gushing into the crack was instantly dispersed.

Tang Huan's body moved slightly, and appeared from the crevice in a flash, appearing outside of the round cover s.

"He came out!"

"Be careful!"

In a split-second, cries of surprise sounded out one after another. Many of the charming god race clansmen all stopped.

Without the support of the endless force, the blood-colored net instantly dissipated at a speed visible to the naked eye, before disappearing without a trace. Those ghost clan members obviously did not expect Tang Huan to be able to escape so quickly, and panic quickly flowed out.

Tang Huan's eyes slightly moved, a cold sternness flashing past her eyes.

In the blink of an eye, that "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" appeared once more and once again expanded, smashing towards the group of ghost clan members with a thunder-like momentum.

"Retreat!" "Quickly retreat!"

"Retreat!" "Retreat!"

Ghost wails and wolf howls sounded out, and the group of ghost clan members hurriedly retreated backwards, trying to escape the coverage of the "Primal Chaos Crystal".

The group of jellyfishes that were slightly further away at this moment had a great advantage, and used their fastest speed to create quite a bit of distance, but the near jellyfish creatures were not so lucky. In the blink of an eye, they were swept up into the air by the Strength Qi that was being pulled out from the "Primal Chaos Crystal", and were torn to shreds, and scattered.

As for the four Sky Sovereign level jellyfish beings, they were the ones that bore the brunt of the impact. One after another, their figures uncontrollably flew back. Even before they managed to stabilize themselves in midair, the bloody light covering their bodies had already dimmed. It was evident that this strike had heavily injured them.

After the first attack, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" began to contract rapidly and then turned into a white light as it shot out.

The first one to be targeted by Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" was one of the four great heavenly jellyfishes.

Not to mention falling to the ground, it didn't even have time to react before it was ruthlessly focused on the pebbles.

"Bam!"

With an explosive sound, the Sky Sovereign Jellyfish didn't even have time to let out a groan before its huge body exploded like a firework, turning into a cloud of blood.

"Run!" "Quick, run!"

"Lord, save me!"

This scene scared the souls of the other three Sky Sovereign Jellyfish. After stabilizing their bodies with all their might, they escaped into the distance, completely losing the courage to resist.

As for those jellyfish that had just been sent flying, they had not even managed to dissolve the terrifying force of impact that they had just endured. After catching sight of this scene, they were all stupefied. Their souls were already filled with deep shock; they did not even realize how they had even landed on the ground.

An Emphyrean level member of the Ghost God Tribe had fallen so easily.

Tang Huan's expression did not change at all, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" that was spinning back once again turned into a white light and shot towards the Sky Sovereign Jellyfish that was trying its best to escape.

"Chi!"

"Hu!"

At this moment, the "Pure Yang Divine Sword" in Tang Huan's hand was not idle either. A sword beam swept towards another Sky Sovereign Jellyfish, and even that "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was summoned out of the Dantian by Tang Huan.

"Ahhhhhhhhh!"

Shrill screams suddenly burst out.

The body of an Sky Sovereign Jellyfish was immediately cut into two halves by the sword beams, and then completely ripped into pieces by the Strength Qi that came from the sword beams. Almost an instant later, a loud bang resounded through the air. The "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had caught up to another Sky Sovereign Jellyfish and turned it into dust.

In just a short span of one or two breaths, three of the four great Emyreans had already died.

The remaining one probably wouldn't be able to escape either.

The several experts from the lower levels, including the Emyreans, rushed out from the center of this land mass. When they appeared, it was precisely at the time when the two jellyfishes were killed one after the other. After capturing the situation here, they were all dumbstruck. In fact, they even felt a trace of regret from their souls.

If he had known that the battle on this level was going so fiercely, he would have been slower.

"Stop!"

However, just when many of the ghost clan members thought that the jellyfish creature was also unable to escape, a thunderous roar reverberated across the land like a thunderclap. Immediately after, a blood-red palm image of Pang Shuo appeared out of nowhere, slapping towards the cauldron which was about to hit the Sky Sovereign Jellyfish.

"Boom —"

In a split-second, the blood-red palm shadow and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" fiercely collided. The extremely terrifying Strength Qi surged out in all directions like raging waves, upon receiving such a fierce collision, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" immediately began to shoot backwards, and the blood-red palm image endured such a powerful collision, causing countless cracks to appear, and like porcelain on the ground, it exploded into pieces.

It disappeared quickly.

"Lord!"

"Lord!"

After a brief moment of shock, the surrounding crowd of charming god race clansmen all jumped in joy. Their brows were filled with wild joy. The moment that Sky Sovereign Jellyfish fell from the sky in fright, the moment he had touched the ground, he, who had just escaped a calamity, had become paralyzed and could not move at all.

"You can finally bear it?" Tang Huan stood in the air with the Pure Yang Divine Sword in her hand and couldn't help but laugh. The "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" that had just rotated back earlier were already lingering by her side. In front of Tang Huan, a figure of Pang Shuang appeared out of nowhere. It was a jellyfish life form that was hundreds of meters tall.

Chapter 2258

The moment the giant jellyfish appeared, a terrifying aura frantically spread out in all directions with its body as the center. In an instant, the entire area was filled with violent fluctuations that could be seen with the naked eye. An extremely oppressive atmosphere filled the air, making it hard to breathe.

However, not only did they not feel any pressure, they felt as if they had been injected with chicken blood. All of them had blood-red auras boiling around them.

Although they didn't reveal their emotions through changes in expression like how humans did, they couldn't completely hide their excitement. Even with their eyes closed, they could clearly feel it. The appearance of that giant jellyfish made his clansmen explode with confidence.

At this moment, not a single trace of fear or panic could be seen on the bodies of the ghost clansmen.

"Brat, I have really underestimated you."

The enormous jellyfish's body violently shook, after which it became a tall and sturdy man dressed in blood-red robes, "You are much stronger than I imagined. "There's definitely no one like you in this space. If I'm not wrong, you must be from the Nine Heavens of this world."

"You guessed right."

Tang Huan smiled lightly, "This humble one is Tang Huan. In this plane of existence, I am ranked at the top of the revered list! Since you have guessed my origin, then let me guess your origin as well. You and your Ghost God Clan are also not living beings from the plane of origin, but instead from an adjacent plane. "

"I didn't expect that you'd even know this." Hearing that, a strange look flashed across the tall and sturdy man's eyes, and he instantly laughed, "I am You Yan, under the command of the heavens, and my clansmen passed through the walls of this place, just to arrive here, so that they can fuse together. Tang Huan, your strength is not bad, why don't you join my side, and conspire against me?"

"His eyes flashed with ridicule, and he slowly said:" Since it is a fusion, then why is it not your plane of existence, that is fused into our plane of existence, but our plane of existence that is fused into your plane of existence? If that face of yours can be assimilated, then you and I will conspire against each other to achieve great things.

"There is no reason why it should not be done." Tang Huan, your appetite is not small at all. " You Yan could not help but laugh out loud and ridiculed, "However, even the Heavenly Dao of your world does not have such a big appetite. It has to worry whether it will explode from not being able to digest it or not, but the Heavenly Dao of our world is finished.

"They don't have such concerns. Not only have they got a big appetite but they also have a strong digestion ability. No matter how much they eat they wouldn't die."

"Even if its appetite is big and its digestive system is strong, it still depends on whether or not its teeth are tough enough." Tang Huan laughed coldly, "Perhaps by the end, not only did he not eat it, he even broke all of his teeth. "You Yan, since we have met, I will pull out one of its teeth today!"

"Tooth extraction?" You Yan was slightly startled, and immediately understood the meaning of Tang Huan's words. She could not help but laugh mockingly, "Brat, speaking big words is not a good habit. I was cultivating just now, which is why I spent so much time inside this Crescent Heavenly Sphere. Now that I'm here, you ...

There would be no more chances. I have just given you a chance to live, but unfortunately, you do not appreciate my kindness, so ... "

"Then die for me!"

At the end of his speech, You Yan suddenly became serious.

The moment the last rune landed, Youyan extended her right arm, her five fingers were like hooks as they grabbed out like lightning. In a split-second, an enormous bloody claw shadow appeared in the sky. It whistled as if it wanted to grab the entire land.

Seeing this, the surrounding ghost clan members could only feel their souls trembling. In an instant, they were all excited as they shouted out repeatedly.

From their point of view, although Tang Huan was still alive, he was no different from a dead person.

As members of the Fairy Clan, they naturally knew how terrifying the Lord was. Now that the Lord had personally attacked, how could Tang Huan still be alive?

Just as Youyan took action, Tang Huan's eyes also slightly condensed as the "Pure Yang Divine Sword" in his hand struck out.

"Swish!"

The ear-piercing sound of air being torn apart sounded out as thousands of extremely sharp sword beams appeared in front of Tang Huan at almost the same time, flying like locusts as they roared towards the gigantic blood colored claw.

In the blink of an eye, a loud "boom" resounded above the land.

The bloody claw instantly exploded and turned into a bloody aura that filled the sky. However, the thousands of sword gleams were also quickly corroded and immediately disappeared into nothingness.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan coldly snorted, and the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" that lingered around him immediately smashed outwards with an astonishing speed, like a meteorite falling from the sky. In the midst of the earth-shaking roars, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" began to rapidly expand. A terrifying primal chaos began to spread wildly between heaven and earth.

Wherever the Origin Crystal passed, space itself trembled, carrying with it an incomparably savage, savage power.

At this moment, the many members of the ghost clan couldn't help but cry out in alarm. That huge pebble immediately gave them a huge pressure. Seeing the huge rock charge forward, they couldn't help but retreat, as if their entire bodies were about to explode.

"Come at me!"

Quiet And Steadfast let out an explosive roar from his mouth.

In a flash, his tall and sturdy body instantly returned to its original appearance. Then, like a balloon, it began to rapidly expand. A powerful aura swept out, forcing the surrounding ghost clan members to continuously retreat. In the blink of an eye, the jellyfish was several times larger than when it first appeared.

"Huff ..."

Immediately afterwards, countless tentacles extended from the body of the Netherworld Flame, densely wrapping around the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal."

In the blink of an eye, both sides had already neared each other and before they could even touch each other, a large number of tentacles were already crushed by the Strength Qi that erupted from the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal". However, in the blink of an eye, countless tentacles also made contact with the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and then, like suction cups, they firmly stuck to the surface of the crystal.

The next moment, billions of blood colored threads seeped out of the tentacles and spread rapidly along the surface of the Origin Crystal.

In the blink of an eye, more than half of the chaos origin crystal was covered by a layer of blood net.

"As expected of a demigod from another plane, he is indeed not an easy opponent!"

Tang Huan groaned inwardly. As he circulated his mind instructs (in a second), his mind was already at its limit as the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" began to retreat.

However, as he retreated, Tang Huan felt an incomparably strong suction force coming from the giant jellyfish. The numerous tentacles of the Netherworld Flame not only absorbed the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal," they also intersected with each other like a spider web, extending rapidly as if they wanted to cover the entire crystal.

"Kid, this thing of yours is not bad. I've accepted it!" You Yan laughed out loud.

"You want to swallow this' chaos source crystal 'of mine? Aren't you afraid your teeth will break?"

Tang Huan frowned slightly, and then let out a sneer. His figure slightly moved, and he had already disappeared from his original position, and when he reappeared, his figure had already entered the center area of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal." Currently, the Origin Crystal had not been completely sealed by the Netherworld Flame, so it did not affect Tang Huan's ability to enter or leave.

Tang Huan's body quickly fused with the mind sculpture, and the "Primal Chaos Dao-flame" immediately began to move crazily. The transparent flame followed the channels inside the Origin Crystal and roiled and churned forward. In just a short span of one or two breaths, the powerful flames shot out of the Origin Crystal.

"Whooosh."

As if numerous transparent fire dragons were roaring out from the inside the cave they were hiding in, the tentacles that were adhering to the surface of the Origin Crystals and the blood net that originated from them began to quickly melt.

In the blink of an eye, holes began to appear in the surface of the blood net.

"Hmm?"

Sensing this sudden change, You Yan could not help but let out an angry snort. An increasingly majestic blood colored aura surged out from the tentacles, and in the blink of an eye, the holes were completely covered by the blood colored threads.

Not long later, the entire "Primal Chaos Crystal" had been completely covered.

"Brat, you're just a little Sky Sovereign, how can you possibly fight with me?" You Yan laughed out loud. Her tone was filled with unbridled ridicule and arrogance.

"Haha, that Tang Huan is dead for sure!"

"He actually dared to fight with the Lord, now he's going to die!"

"The mighty Lord!"

In the distance, the many charming god clan members that caught sight of this scene were all cheering non-stop.

Originally, they were worried that Tang Huan and You Yan would face a stalemate for a long time, and the situation from before had also revealed some signs of this. However, they did not expect that in a blink of an eye, Lord had basically already established victory, and Tang Huan seemed to be unable to escape this calamity.

When they thought of this, the many jellyfish creatures all let out sighs of relief.

Under the watchful eyes of countless clansmen, You Yan's massive body began to wiggle violently as well, slowly devouring the huge rock into his body.

That Tang Huan was obviously hiding within the huge boulder.

Currently, he was trapped along with the stone. You Yan was not an ordinary cultivator, but a dignified demigod rank supreme expert. At such a stage, it would be extremely difficult for Tang Huan to make a comeback. Not only did the other clansmen think that way, even You Yan herself thought the same.

Next, it should be the process of the Nether Flame's body gradually shrinking.

You Yan's body shrunk, which meant that the huge boulder was shrinking as well — either because Tang Huan failed and could not maintain the gigantic boulder's size, or because You Yan had forcefully compressed the gigantic boulder by force — no matter which possibility, Tang Huan, who was inside the huge boulder, would not have any good fruits to eat.

However, as time passed, the surrounding demonic clan members were all stunned.

Lord's extremely muscular body was still wiggling rapidly, but from start to finish, it did not show any signs of shrinking at all. Obviously, Tang Huan was still holding up inside the enormous boulder ... He was actually able to hold on for so long even though he was completely trapped?

This was truly out of everyone's expectations.

Many jellyfish restrained the various thoughts in their hearts, so as to not disturb the flame, but time continued to fly by as they waited. One day, two days, three days ... Five days ... Ten days ... Unknowingly, nearly half a month had already passed.

What was going on?

Under the extremely strong pressure of the Lord, Tang Huan, who was trapped inside the boulder, was actually able to persevere and endure until now?

This was definitely abnormal!

Actually, they weren't the only ones feeling abnormal. You Yan had also felt very abnormal a long time ago. Unfortunately, he was currently riding a tiger and couldn't get down.

He had originally thought that he would soon be able to exhaust Tang Huan's strength.

He was a dignified SemiGod after all, and Tang Huan was merely an Empyrean. Even if he was a peak Superior Empyrean, his strength was definitely not as strong and powerful as a SemiGod like.

Tang Huan was at a stalemate with him, and had used up all of his energy.

If an Empyrean were to die from exhaustion, wouldn't it be a piece of cake for a demigod like him? With regards to this, You Yan still had absolute confidence. He had mocked in his heart more than once that Tang Huan had chosen the most foolish method to fight with a SemiGod like him.

From his judgement, it should only be for at most two days, then Tang Huan's power would be almost depleted.

But now, five days had passed and Tang Huan was still as lively as a dragon and a tiger. His fire energy seemed to be endless, continuously gushing out of those holes, melting away his energy.

Although he could also continuously absorb energy from the sphere to replenish his energy, the replenishing speed was still insufficient to make up for the depletion rate.

So far, his strength had been reduced by roughly thirty percent.

Of course, he, who still had seventy percent of his strength remaining, could still be considered to be brimming with energy. But if Tang Huan continued to persevere on like this, as time passed, the first person who would exhaust his strength would inevitably be him ... If something like that really happened to him, he, a demigod, would probably be the most tragic and foolish demigod in the world.

Thus, when he realized that it was impossible to succeed if he continued to hold on like this, he decisively changed his mind.

Unfortunately, just as he was about to spit out the "Chaos Source Crystal", an incomparably strong suction force came from the inside of the crystal, firmly sucking it into the surface of the "Chaos Source Crystal". The suction force was shockingly strong, and he couldn't think of a way to break away from it.

You Yan had already realized that he had no other choice other than to waste energy on Tang Huan.

At this moment, even You Yan felt regret.

Initially, even though he was separated by several layers of land, in the end, he had still been defeated and returned with empty hands. This had already caused him to pay quite a bit of attention to Tang Huan. However, no matter how much a dignified SemiGod valued an Empyrean, it wouldn't be able to do so. But now, this Empyrean actually gave him a ruthless smack.

"Tang Huan, do you think you can stall me like this? What a joke! " The giant jellyfish suddenly let out a harsh shout that seemed to pierce through gold and stone. "Dark Blood Reincarnation, the soul has returned!" The eight characters were like a thunderclap that surged back and forth in the sky above the land. As for the charming God Tribes that heard this voice, they were all startled.

Chapter 2259

Had the situation become like this?

However, after being stunned for a short while, all of the surrounding Faerie race members simultaneously curled up into a ball, and then a bloody aura rose from their round bodies, quickly fusing into the body of the giant jellyfish.

In the blink of an eye, his body had already expanded several times in size. The surrounding ghost god clan members, regardless of whether their cultivation was strong or weak, all of the blood-colored luster that was seeping out from between their bodies had swiftly dimmed down.

"Absorbing the soul power of our people to strengthen our own bodies?" Within the space within the Primal Chaos Origin Crystal, inside the mind sculpture, Tang Huan couldn't help but sneer to himself, "Unfortunately, if you want to use this kind of method to escape this kind of stalemate, you have to see whether I am willing or not."

The moment this thought appeared in his mind, Tang Huan felt the power of the Netherworld Flame abruptly increase. The countless tentacles that were stuck on the surface of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" faintly showed signs of escaping.

In between the mind instructs (in a second), inside the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace", the "Myriad Manifestation Sword Formation" had been activated to its limits. A terrifying suction force immediately roared out from Tang Huan's body, and then followed the passage of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", rolling out layer after layer.

Previously, Tang Huan had only activated the Nine Yang Divine Furnace, but now that he had added in the cave, the power of the sucking seemed to have increased exponentially.

In an instant, the detaching force of the giant jellyfish's tentacles came to a halt, they were once again firmly stuck on the surface of the chaos source crystal and were unable to move.

"How hateful!"

Outside of the Origin Crystal, the Netherworld Flame let out an earth-shaking roar.

Immediately afterwards, Tang Huan felt a blood-colored aura rush into the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" like lightning, and follow the flow of the sucking's power upstream. In an instant, they had arrived at the center of the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal", and explosively shot towards the mental statue, advancing forward with unstoppable force.

"Soul attack?"

Inside the mind sculpture, Tang Huan's thoughts moved slightly, and the four divine crystals immediately began to revolve rapidly as a mysterious and wondrous power spewed out like a volcanic eruption, welcoming the blood-colored ripple.

In a split-second, the two attacks collided soundlessly.

There was no sound, but an invisible wave of energy spread out in all directions, and that wave of blood energy disappeared in an instant.

The soul attack had no effect, and the chaos source crystal once more let out a deafening roar.

"Tang Huan, I have truly underestimated you."

You Yan's voice was ice-cold and filled with determination, "After so many years, you are the first human cultivator to force me to such a state! However, that's it! "

"Boom —"

The instant his voice fell, a thunderous, loud sound suddenly burst forth.

Inside the Origin Crystal, Tang Huan's body was separated out from the mind sculpture. She could not help but frown, and her eyes could not help but reveal an additional hint of surprise and astonishment. Almost at the same time the sound of the explosion rang out, the countless tentacles that were stuck to the surface of the chaos source crystal simultaneously exploded.

In this instant, it was as if millions of kilograms of explosives had been detonated at the same time, and it was also as if thousands of volcanoes had erupted at the same time.

Terrifying amounts of energy madly surged forth like raging waves, and the surroundings of the chaos source crystal seemed to be filled with an incomparably chaotic storm. This sudden burst of power not only fiercely attacked the chaos source crystal, but also brought about an exceptionally fierce impact on the huge body of the Netherworld Flame.

"En!"

Within the Origin Crystal, Tang Huan felt as if he had suffered a heavy blow and could not help but groan. He was actually in a trance, "This guy, to actually use such a method to fight me, both of us were injured."

Tang Huan already understood what was going on. Seeing that it was difficult for her to escape this stalemate using normal methods, she had actually chosen such a ruthless method, just like a gecko escaping from its tail.

That enormous amount of energy would immediately lose control, and would not only be able to bring about a huge impact to Tang Huan, who was connected to the mind of the Primal Chaos Crystal, it would also cause an incomparably huge amount of harm to his own body.

It had to be said that You Yan's choice was very decisive.

If it was Tang Huan, in a situation where he had no other choice, he would probably choose to let both sides suffer.

After all, in such a stalemate, it would consume even more strength if he were to drag things out any longer. After losing a lot of strength, even if they detonated countless tentacles, it would be very difficult for them to unleash a great amount of power. The end result was that they would suffer heavy losses while the enemy remained unharmed.

Although the explosion of the tentacles had severely injured him, it had also caused an incomparably intense impact to Tang Huan's soul.

This You Yan was after all not a peak Superior Empyrean like Gu Daozi or Yuan Chao, but a half god with nine divine crystals. His total number of divine crystals had even surpassed Tang Huan's. For such a strong Ranker to choose to battle Tang Huan, Tang Huan would definitely not be unharmed in the slightest.

"Aooo!"

Outside of the Origin Crystal, Nether Flame let out a howl of pain. Pang Shuo's body shrunk at a speed that was difficult to be seen with the naked eye. Finally, he was completely separated from the Primal Chaos Origin Crystal. The Netherflame didn't pause for even a moment. It turned into a streak of blood-red light and soared into the sky, disappearing without a trace in an instant.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

A deep whining sound suddenly reverberated and resounded over the five floors of the Sky Ball.

As if they were listening to an imperial edict, the curled up bodies of the surrounding ghost clan members rapidly relaxed. Then, one by one, they rose into the air and rushed towards the enormous chaos origin crystal.

Almost at the same time, the passage was rapidly opened.

Whether it was the human cultivators or the blood-colored jellyfishes, they were no longer restricted by their respective continents. They gathered like a tide from all directions to the central region, and then followed the spiral staircase to madly rush to the fourth level of the chaos crystals.

On the fifth stratum, one figure after another began to sink down.

"Whooosh."

Inside the Primal Chaos Source Crystal, Tang Huan had finally escaped from that trance state, but from the depths of his soul, waves of intense pain still came. The fierce impact that You Yan had brought with her had quite an impact on Tang Huan's soul. It would probably take a long time for it to completely recover.

However, Tang Huan was certain that the hidden flame itself was severely injured.

"Hmm? "What's the situation?"

Tang Huan tidied up his mood and instantly discovered the abnormality around the Primal Chaos Source Crystal. The members of the Demonic God Clan who had originally retreated to the distance all rushed back at the same time, surrounded by a dense crowd of blood-colored jellyfishes. They looked like they were covering the sky like locusts.

Those ghost clan members weren't simply charging over.

Every jellyfish revealed an unconcealable sense of decisiveness and extreme sorrow, like a moth flying into a flame. Even though they knew that rushing forward meant death, they still didn't show any signs of retreat. These demonic clan members were like deathsworn as they desperately rushed towards the chaos nectar.

Not only were ordinary jellyfish life forms like this, even those Heavenly Kings, Heavenly Emperors, and even Sky Sovereign level jellyfish powerhouses were not surprised.

Tang Huan subconsciously thought of the wuwu sound he heard when he was still in a trance.

The surrounding fellows definitely didn't do it on their own, but because they were ordered to do it by the Lord, they all disregarded their own deaths.

In a moment, Tang Huan's mind immediately revealed the Origin Crystal, and it spread out in all directions.

After a short while, Tang Huan's face became serious. At this moment, not only were the surrounding jellyfishes rushing over, the living beings on the three continents and the land below were also gathering towards this direction ... The total number of life forms on these five continents was at least over ten million!

Thousands of lives were fearless as they advanced forward, one after the other ...

The Netherworld Flame's heart was extremely vicious. It actually ordered so many living creatures to come here and die!

Tang Huan's face turned gloomy, his brows furrowed, he suddenly realized that there was a problem.

He escaped!

"This is bad!"

Tang Huan's heart skipped a beat, the deepest part of his soul immediately had a bad premonition.

Suddenly, without any hesitation, Tang Huan's figure flashed, and appeared outside of the Origin Crystal. In the next moment, the Origin Crystal was returned to the Dantian.

At this time, the jellyfish that had charged to the very front was already less than a hundred meters away from Tang Huan. The blood colored auras on their bodies violently churned, as if they had fallen into a berserk state.

"Leave immediately!"

Tang Huan thought for a bit, then immediately activated the sacred art "Yin Yang dao diagram", before half a blink of an eye, his figure had already disappeared.

"Boom —"

However, at the same time Tang Huan's figure disappeared, the bodies of all the living beings inside the heavenly ball suddenly exploded, turning into a cloud of blood mist.

Tens of thousands of bodies exploded at the same time. That sound was extremely terrifying, and a huge sound crazily shook the entire space. The vast and limitless power was like huge waves that were stirred up by a hurricane, wildly wreaking havoc within the heavenly ball wave after wave.

In an instant, the five continents began to crack apart at a terrifying speed, and the enormous cracks quickly spread to the spatial barrier of the Sky Sphere.

"Hu!"

Outside of the Crescent Heavenly Ball, there was a slight fluctuation in the air.

Tang Huan's figure separated itself in an instant. However, right at this moment, the heavenly ball behind Tang Huan suddenly exploded with a "bang", as if countless ancient volcanoes had erupted at the same time. The terrifying and berserk power transformed into a terrifying energy that rolled in the surroundings with a rumbling sound.

Just as Tang Huan escaped from the heavenly ball, before he could even inspect the situation, his body was swept up by the wave of energy that roared from behind.

Such a huge space in the sky, plus the thousands of living creatures in this space ...

It exploded in an instant!

At this moment, how powerful, how majestic, and how violent was the power it had unleashed!

In front of this level of strength, even if Tang Huan possessed four divine crystals, a "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and a "Primal Chaos Dao Flame", a Primal Chaos Immortal's physique and an indestructible and immortal soul, it still wouldn't be enough. This power was enough to tear apart any obstacle that obstructed its path.

The moment he realised that the Sky Ball had exploded behind him, Tang Huan had gained sufficient understanding of it.

At this time, Tang Huan could not be bothered with the viciousness and viciousness of the Netherworld Flame, the pity of the millions of living creatures inside the heavenly ball, and even more could not be bothered to celebrate the fact that his mother, Ji Ru Huan, had already escaped the heavenly ball ...

The moment he was drawn in by the power, Tang Huan pushed his Sky Origin Stage to the limit and roared out of his body without reservation, wanting to create a small space for himself.

However, Tang Huan was very clear that although his own little bit of power was extremely strong, he probably could not even hold on for half a breath. Thus, Tang Huan did not hesitate to summon his "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" at the same time.

At the same time as the cauldron expanded, Tang Huan quickly rushed in.

Sure enough, the moment he hid in the cauldron, his vast amount of Sky Origin Stage Yuan Qi was shattered by the sweeping force, and he was also swept up by the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace". Inside the cauldron, the flesh body energy within Tang Huan's "Primal Chaos Immortal Spirit" body was also fully unleashed as the surface of his body became crystal clear.

"Pfft!"

But even so, when the cauldron suddenly suffered from such a violent impact, Tang Huan, who was closely connected to it, felt as if his heart had been struck by a gigantic hammer, and a strong sense of dizziness assaulted him. Tang Huan blanked out for a moment, then immediately opened his mouth, and fresh blood uncontrollably sprayed out of his mouth.

Tang Huan's face turned pale, and couldn't help but let out a light snort. He endured the pain in his soul, and within his mind instructs (in a second), the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystal" and the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" appeared in front of him at the same time.

"Pfft!"

But even with the Origin Crystals and scrolls being shared, the impact that Tang Huan was receiving was still unparalleled, and not long later, he spat out fresh blood from his mouth.

Tang Huan's face became even paler, but around the Nine Yang Divine Furnace, the impact of the terrifying force was unceasing, as if it was endless. Tang Huan could only clench his teeth and persevere, while the [God Creation Art] had long quietly circulated, and at this moment, he had no other way other than to hang on with his life.

"Pfft!"

"Pfft!"

He spat out mouthful after mouthful of fresh blood, and very quickly, the blood was mixed with the shattered pieces of his internal organs. Unknowingly, Tang Huan's internal organs had already been crushed into fine powder by the impact force that was transmitted through the cauldron, while cracks also started to appear on Tang Huan's Primal Chaos Immortal's body. In the depths of Tang Huan's soul, tearing pain kept appearing, as though countless sharp swords were slicing apart his soul time and time again. Not long after, Tang Huan became absent-minded once again. Moreover, as time passed, the absent-mindedness became more and more intense ...

[illegible]

In the blink of an eye, several hours passed

Tang Huan suddenly woke up from his stupor. The force of impact that had been transmitted through the cauldron seemed to have stopped.

Was it an illusion, or ... Tang Huan's body tilted, and immediately fainted.

Chapter 2260

Using tens of thousands of lives as an offering to forcefully detonate the entire heavenly ball, the power it emitted was terrifying to the extreme, not to mention that it was the Crescent Heavenly Ball that was detonated.

The Crescent Moon Sphere was completely different from other heavenly spheres. Around this sphere, there was a vast and boundless "Demonic Divine Realm". The "Demonic Ghost Divine Domain" originated from the Demonic Ghost God Clan that occupied the Crescent Moon Heavenly Sphere. Once the heavenly ball was ignited, the "Demonic Ghost Divine Domain" would be affected as well.

The heavenly ball that was ignited was like a ball of blazing fire, while the surrounding Demonic Sound Divine Realm was like a large pile of dry firewood. When the raging fire touched the dry firewood, it would immediately ignite. As a result, after the heavenly ball exploded, the entire Ghost Domain started to boil, and that only increased the power that the heavenly ball gave rise to.

In the vast area around the Fairy Realm, the raging storm had been completely swept away. The heavenly balls that were near the Fairy Realm had also received a huge impact, and though they weren't injured, they were forcibly pushed far away.

"What happened over there?"

Inside the White Deer Heavenly Ball, Su Ye and Jiang Han had no choice but to return to their residence on the top floor. Feeling the movements of the outside world, their faces were filled with unconcealable shock.

This white deer heavenly ball was extremely close to the "Demonic Ghost Divine Domain", so the impact it received was naturally extremely fierce.

At this moment, the heavenly ball was being pushed back by the terrifying power that originated from the "Demonic Sound Divine Domain". It was also because of this that the two of them had no choice but to return to watch over the interior of the Sky Ball. The enormous change in the outside world had already caused the hearts of the people within the heavenly ball to be in panic.

"This change definitely has something to do with that senior!"

Jiang Han could not help but mutter under her breath. Her gaze instantly turned distant, as if she had passed through the heavenly ball and extended into the depths of that dark area.

"That's right."

Su Ye nodded subconsciously, "However, with how much activity there is, even an ordinary Sky Sovereign would probably disappear into thin air." Speaking to this point, Su Ye couldn't help but look at the thin piece of jade in her palm. That Mind Stigma still hadn't disappeared, which made him feel a lot more at ease.

Jiang Han let out a light breath, smiled, and said, "That senior is a Peak Superior Heavenly Sovereign, how could he be so easily met with an accident? Just you wait, he will definitely return safely."

"I hope so."

In the boundless void, a small tempest would occasionally whistle past. Under the sweeping winds of these tempest, a fiery-red cauldron could be seen drifting aimlessly.

As time passed, the tempest around them grew fewer and fewer, and the speed at which the cauldron was moving became slower and slower.

After an unknown amount of time, the cauldron finally completely stopped moving. In the vast space around them, there was no longer the whistling of the wind nor the silhouette of any living beings ...

This area had fallen into a deathly silence, as if time and space had frozen and were eternally still.

The cauldron just floated there in the air, unmoving.

This cauldron, was precisely the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace'.

His clothes had long been turned to powder and his exposed body had been covered with countless big and small cracks. However, the crystal clear luster on the surface of his body was no longer there, and the color was rather dim.

Lying on the left and right of Tang Huan were the "Primal Chaos Origin Crystals" and the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram".

These two treasures were similarly dim.

One year, two years ...

Time quickly passed by, the Origin Crystals and scrolls did not have the slightest change, but Tang Huan's body seemed to gradually be suffused with a layer of faint luster.

After a very long time, Tang Huan's body had become even more crystal clear and smooth, like jade, as if it was carved out of a gem.

"Hmm ..."

Suddenly, Tang Huan's brows twitched, a light moan flowed out from his throat, as if he had unconsciously made this sound while sleeping.

After a long while, Tang Huan seemed to have finally woken up from his deep slumber. His eyelids first twitched a few times, then suddenly opened up, revealing two eyes.

"I've finally woken up. I wonder how long I slept in this cauldron?"

Tang Huan suddenly flipped over and at the same time, swept his gaze across them. He found himself within the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", and secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

In that moment, with a thought, a new set of black robes appeared in Tang Huan's hand and wrapped around his body.

"His injuries are quite severe this time!"

Tang Huan secretly heaved a sigh of relief, and quickly checked his own condition. The flesh body's injuries had been completely healed, and all of the internal organs in his body had been reborn, while the cracks that had originally been exposed on the Dantian Dao's Nascent Soul was now completely healed.

The healing ability of the Primal Chaos Immortal Body that Tang Huan possessed far surpassed that of the "Celestial Body of the Sun" from before.

However, the injuries of a Dao Nascent Soul were not immediately healed. It was even more so for a severely injured soul.

Tang Huan knew that he must have been lying in the cauldron for a very long time.

On the one hand, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and the "Illusory Sword Heavenly Palace" had also suffered quite a bit of damage in order to help Tang Huan bear the impact of the attack.

Within it, the mind sculpture inside the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" had countless densely packed cracks on it. It was as if with a light tap, it would turn into dust and it would take a lot of time and energy to repair it.

It was already very difficult to operate the Limitless Sword Formation, and the sword heart's injury was not light. Although it was not as pierced as it was when he first obtained the cave abode, it would still take a very long time and a huge amount of energy to make it back to its previous state.

"As expected of a magical equipment!"

Tang Huan couldn't help but smile as his heart was filled with emotion.

After cultivating for so many years, this was the first time Tang Huan suffered such a heavy injury. The explosion of the heavenly ball caused the entire "Demonic God Domain" to shake violently. Let alone the peak Upper Level Emphyreans like Gu Daozi and Yuan Chao, even Hannya and the other demigods would be smashed to smithereens in the center of the explosion.

And only Tang Huan, with his strong body and numerous treasures, was able to survive.

That Silent Flame God Clan Lord, was indeed a vicious and merciless person. In order to get rid of his opponent, he did not hesitate to use the lives of millions of other people as a bargaining chip.

However, after this incident, Tang Huan vaguely understood what was going on.

Those countless jellyfishes, they were said to be members of the Wraith God Clan, but to put it bluntly, their embodiment was almost no different from Nether Flame's. As the Nether Flame of the Lord, it could easily control their life and death.

If Tang Huan had guessed it right, those Rankers from the Demonic Sound Clan could very well have been separated out from their bodies by means of some sort of Spirit Flame.

A normal ghost god clan member would be split out from the bodies of those Emphyreans and Emphyreans ... It kept splitting apart until it eventually formed an extremely large race. Originally, there was not much difference between the control of the human cultivators inside the heavenly ball and the control of the Netherworld Flame. If necessary, the Netherworld Flame could take over the control of the human cultivators from the hands of the tribe members.

It was also because of this that when the heavenly ball exploded, the ghost clan members and the human cultivators inside suffered the same fate.

Thinking about it, Tang Huan could not help but look sad.

Even though he did not kill the human cultivators inside the Crescent Moon Sky Ball, their deaths were still deeply related to Tang Huan. If he had not forced the Netherworld Flame to such a state, the Netherworld Flame probably would not have been so cruel and detonated the nest that he had been managing for so many years.

If Tang Huan had not prepared well in advance, he would not have lost that many people when he detonated the heavenly ball using his [Serene Flames].

However, at this point, it was already too late to say anything.

Now that he had recovered, the next thing he needed to do was to find the Netherworld Flame and exterminate it. However, Tang Huan was not in a hurry to do it.

"Senior."

Seeing Tang Huan's figure that suddenly appeared, Xu Hong immediately bowed and greeted, her eyebrows revealing a pleasant surprise.

Previously, when he was struck by that terrifying force, the space inside the cave was like the scene of the apocalypse. It seemed as if it could collapse at any time, scaring the Void Rainbow to the point of choking. Fortunately, the commotion did not continue and the cave space did not collapse.

Although the space within the cave wasn't as spacious as it was in the past, it was still fairly stable.

The only thing that the Void Rainbow was worried about was that something bad had already happened to Tang Huan outside. If it was really like this, then he really might be trapped in this cave residence forever, unable to escape. Even if he could forcefully break through the spatial barrier of this immortal cave, he didn't know how much energy he would have to expend.

Fortunately, Tang Huan had appeared safe and sound, so he was able to completely relax.

Tang Huan only nodded slightly before his figure disappeared from the Supreme Profound Hall. When he reappeared, he had already arrived inside a mountain valley within the dwelling. In the depths of the valley, there was a beautifully decorated wooden house. At this moment, Ji Ru Huan was quietly lying on her bed.

Her complexion had improved greatly, and she was no different from an ordinary person. She looked as if she was sleeping.

In between Tang Huan's mind instructs (in a second), his mind had already covered Ji Ruyan's entire body, as he carefully probed about. After a while, Tang Huan's face revealed a happy smile. Although her mother, Ji Ru Huan, hadn't woken up yet, the progress of her soul self-recovery had been quite smooth.

It was likely that her soul would be completely restored after a period of time. At that time, awakening would be a matter of course.

"Jianxin!"

Jianxin's figure suddenly appeared and he slightly bowed. "Master, what instructions do you have for me?" A tiredness that couldn't be dispelled seemed to envelop between the brows of Jianxin.

Tang Huan muttered to himself, "Do you know how much time has passed?"

"Almost eight years." In the past, Jianxin did not have much understanding of time, but now, he was more concerned with it.

"Eight years ..."

Tang Huan sighed lightly, and said somewhat guiltily: "Jianxin, it has been hard on you during this period of time. Don't worry, I will quickly provide you with sufficient strength to restore your cave to your original state." In the past eight years, Jianxin had not only maintained the cave, but he also had to look after Ji Ru Huan. It was truly difficult.

"This is what I should do." Jianxin said expressionlessly.

After a while, Tang Huan returned to the cauldron and with a thought, the "Primal Chaos Source Crystal" and the "Myriad Sword Heavenly Diagram" were kept. Soon after, Tang Huan rose into the air and rushed out of the cauldron.

"What the hell is this place?"

Floating in the air, Tang Huan frowned slightly. Before this, he had been observing himself and those few treasures, and hadn't paid too much attention to the situation in the outside world. After leaving the cauldron, Tang Huan suddenly realized that this area was rather odd. Time and space seemed to have frozen in here.

This was like a land of death. Even if a trillion years passed, nothing would happen.

With a slight thought, Tang Huan's state of mind crazily swept in all directions. In the blink of an eye, it had already enveloped a radius of five million kilometers. However, even if he had reached the edge of the sensing range, Tang Huan still sensed a deathtrap nearby.

In such a wide range of perception, aside from Tang Huan himself, there was actually no sign of life, nor was there the slightest sound.

This place was extremely strange.

Tang Huan was completely unable to judge the direction based on the results of his senses, because he did not sense anything here that could be used to determine the direction. Fortunately, Tang Huan had made preparations before entering the "Demonic Divine Domain". He left a Mind Stigma at Su Ye's place on the White Deer Heavenly Sphere.

As long as he followed the Mind Stigma's directions, leaving this place of execution should not be difficult.

Tang Huan calmed his heart and concentrated, sensing carefully. But in the next moment, Tang Huan frowned once again, some astonishment flashing through his eyes. The connection between him and the Mind Stigma had actually been completely severed. It was as if he was currently in a completely sealed off space.

Just a moment ago, he had placed his hopes on the Mind Stigma, but from the looks of it, the Mind Stigma was already useless.

What was the reason?

Tang Huan's mind raced, and in the next moment, he could not help but feel his heart thump.

He finally understood why this region was in such a state. If he guessed correctly, this place should be a place without the existence of the Heavenly Dao. To sense the location of Mind Stigma, one would need to borrow the power of the Heavenly Dao. Since the Heavenly Dao did not exist, it was naturally impossible to succeed.

There was actually such a strange thing in this world.

I wonder if this place still belongs to that crevice space? If it did not belong to him, where would it be? However, if it did belong to him, what position would it be in the crack space? All of these thoughts appeared in Tang Huan's mind like a lantern, after a short while, Tang Huan took a deep breath, and his mind quickly calmed down.
