

W. Master 611

Chapter 611 - Pterosaur

"Whooosh."

A loud sound could be heard from the front, and the next moment, a strong stench filled the air, causing everyone to feel nauseous.

Tang Huan raised his brows slightly, and a pair of wings condensed and formed on his back between his mind instructs (in a second). With just a light pat, Tang Huan passed through the gaps between the leaves above him, and floated a hundred meters in the air.

It was actually a huge dragon. Its mouth was slightly open, and its sharp fangs were faintly discernible. Its pair of round dark green eyes flickered with a cruel and bloodthirsty cold light.

The colossal dragon's body was covered in black scales, and behind its malevolent head, sharp spikes pierced through the back of its neck like sharp swords, extending all the way to its tail. The most astonishing thing was that there was a pair of enormous wings on the back of the enormous dragon.

"Pterosaur..."

Tang Huan's mind trembled, and his pupils contracted. He did not expect that there would be such a huge monster hidden in this place.

Just from the movement it showed just now, Tang Huan knew that its strength definitely surpassed any of the Spiritual Beast he had encountered in the past. Whether it was the "Three Heads Dragon-Wolf", "Amethyst King Snake" that he had encountered in the past in the Luo Fu World or the "Red Top Golden Vulture" that he had chased after, they were all difficult to match. Even amongst the experts of the three clans in the small world, there were very few who could be compared to them.

No wonder those "Red Top Golden Vulture" were scared away!

When he flew up into the air, Tang Huan discovered that the group of "Red Top Golden Vulture" had already escaped cleanly. However, Tang Huan did not follow them, and before he even saw the Pterosaur, he knew that he was already locked on.

"Roar!" Suddenly, the Pterosaur roared once again. Pang Shuo suddenly flapped his wings, and like a ray of light, he tore through the air, shooting over like lightning, and actually dragging behind him numerous afterimages.

"So fast!"

Tang Huan's heart skipped a beat.

The speed of that Pterosaur greatly exceeded his expectations. In the blink of an eye, it was still several hundred meters away, but in the blink of an eye, the distance between them had been shortened to only a few dozen meters.

"Heavenly Domain?"

Tang Huan's expression changed slightly as the two characters flashed across his mind. His body was instantly enveloped by the black Qi. At this moment, Tang Huan seemed to have returned to the moment when he looked like a Demon Lord Fen Tian. The surrounding world seemed to have turned into a cage as the feeling of being bound involuntarily rose.

The Pterosaur had already surpassed the Stage Nine and stepped into the realm of the Heavenly Domain?

If Tang Huan was not wrong, this Pterosaur did not seem to be a fake Heavenly Domain that only had the Heavenly Domain's intent, but a real Heavenly Domain. However, this Black Heavenly Domain did not seem to be particularly stable. It could be seen that this Pterosaur had just stepped into this realm.

But even so, the strength of this Pterosaur was most likely above Fen Tian's!

Tang Huan's face immediately became serious, he immediately understood that he had greatly underestimated the Pterosaur. Not only was the Pterosaur extremely powerful, its speed was extremely fast, and even if he ran, it would not take long for him to catch up, even if he used Space Aircrafts.

Since he couldn't escape, he would have to fight!

In the blink of an eye, countless thoughts flashed past Tang Huan's mind. In the next moment, a dark red light flashed, and the Conqueror Spear appeared in Tang Huan's palm. The Five Colors Spiritual Pills was activated to the extreme at the same time, and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" started to revolve at an unprecedented speed, forcibly resisting the restraining force produced by the Black Heavenly Domain. Its body instantly retreated a few meters, and threw the Space Aircraft in its hands to the forest below.

"Roar?" The Pterosaur seemed to be surprised, but his reaction was not slow at all. He was actually following him like a shadow, enveloping Tang Huan within once again.

"Evil creature!"

With a berserk roar, the Conqueror Spear in Tang Huan's hands thrust out like lightning. On the surface of the long spear, flames danced rapidly, and the several meters long spear light shot out from the tip of the spear like a streak of fiery red light.

A hint of ridicule flashed through Pterosaur's dark green eyes.

With a flick of his finger, a sphere of black Qi shot out from the bloody mouth, ruthlessly smashing into the fiery red spear light.

Amidst the intense ringing sounds, the black aura and the Fire Red Spear Radiance actually exploded at the same time, transforming into a powerful Strength Qi that wreaked havoc wildly.

It was also at almost the same time that the Pterosaur flapped its wings, pounced forward, and a fierce wind instantly howled forth. Pang Shuo's body was already less than twenty meters away from Tang Huan, and his long tail immediately lashed out, radiating an incomparably terrifying energy fluctuation, with a power that was like a thunderbolt that struck with an unstoppable force.

Tang Huan's face congealed, and he quickly stepped on it.

"Hu!"

With a sweep of the long tail, Tang Huan's figure instantly vanished into thin air.

"Chi!" At this moment, Tang Huan's figure appeared above the Pterosaur. The Conqueror Spear pierced forward once again, and the flame above the spear tip began to spiral rapidly, transforming into a cone that poured down. In an instant, it traveled across the space of a few meters, straight to the Pterosaur's head.

"Roar!"

The Pterosaur had already detected Tang Huan's attack, and his mouth issued a sky-shaking roar.

Almost at the same time, the Black Heavenly Domain seemed to have a life of its own as it started to undulate rapidly. An extremely strong binding power swept over from all directions, bit by bit delaying the attack from the sky. Even though the Flaming Pointed Awl still landed on the Pterosaur's head in the end, its power had been greatly reduced.

With a cry, Pterosaur's head suddenly dropped, but his thick and long tail simply flipped upwards, and lashed towards Tang Huan once again. With a violent whistling sound, Tang Huan's figure once again dissipated into thin air, and his body seemingly moved above one of the Pterosaur's wings at the same time.

"Chi!"

The long spear was like a dragon as the sharp spear tip pierced down once again.

The spear just now had only caused a few cracks to appear on one of the scales, but the Pterosaur's wings were unlike the other parts of its body, they were also covered with hard scales. If the spear had struck its head, it might have been able to cause even more damage.

At the top of the spear point, a captivating red spear light had already been spat out. However, this time, Tang Huan did not push the spear light out like he did before, but instead used the Divine Armament to stab downwards crazily, its sharpness peerless.

"Roar!"

The Pterosaur cried out, his wings contracted as the Black Heavenly Domain once again fluctuated violently. Following that, Tang Huan felt an incomparable resistance. As the Conqueror Spear continued to sink, the spear tip that was spewed out from the tip of the spear began to crumble at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye.

Chapter 612 - A turning point?

In a split-second, the spear light had completely vanished.

However, the Conqueror Spear still landed at the end of the Pterosaur's left wing. With a lightning fast speed, the sharp spear tip penetrated through it in an instant.

When the spear went in and out, it left a hole on Pterosaur's wing. The blazing flames that lingered around the spear tip also stuck onto it like maggots on the bones of the legs, burning fiercely. In an instant, the originally fist-sized hole had expanded by several times, and was already as big as a ocean bowl.

"Roar!"

The Pterosaur was furious to the extreme. Pang Shuo suddenly turned his body, and a thick black Qi surged out from his left wing like a violent storm, covering that ball of flames. At almost the same time, his long tail swept backwards, sweeping towards Tang Huan with lightning speed.

"Hu!"

After a moment, the figure had already disappeared into thin air, but Tang Huan appeared tens of metres away.

At this time, the serious look in Tang Huan's eyes became even more intense. After the ball of flame on Pterosaur's left wing was covered, not only did it stop spreading, it also rapidly weakened. Not long later, that vague red color disappeared within the black aura.

As expected of the Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts, they were actually able to extinguish the "Nirvana Sacred Fire"!

"Roar!"

Pterosaur swatted his wings, the black Qi condensed into a terrifying storm and roared towards Tang Huan, as though it wanted to shatter the space itself.

Tang Huan's footsteps were swift, and after leaving behind an afterimage, his body actually appeared under the Pterosaur's abdomen. During this teleportation, Tang Huan and Pterosaur were even closer to each other. The distance between the two was less than two meters.

"Chi!"

The Pterosaur seemed to have sensed something and with a flap of its wings, Pang Shuo's body started to float rapidly. The Black Heavenly Domain once again gave birth to a strong resistance as layers and layers of resistance wrapped around the Conqueror Spear. Tang Huan roared out explosively, the Genuine Qi stirred, and the pike forcefully stared at the layers of suppressing obstructing force, traveling through a few meters of space, and the pike tip immediately dropped onto the Pterosaur's abdomen along with an incomparably sharp tip.

Although the scales on the surface of Pterosaur were tough, it was still difficult to defend against the sharpness of the Divine Armament. Amidst the sounds of fierce collisions, the tip of the Conqueror Spear had already shattered a scale and drilled into the Pterosaur's body.

"Roaaaaaar!"

Immediately after, the Pterosaur cried out in pain. Not only did he not rise up to escape the scorching heat of the spear, but the muscles around his wound began to twitch and squirm, clamping onto the spear head tightly.

Tang Huan's spear succeeded, he immediately grabbed onto the spear's hilt and pulled, and was preparing to teleport away again, but what surprised him was that the spear tip had only appeared out of nowhere.

"This is bad!"

Tang Huan immediately had a bad premonition.

Indeed, in that instant of delay, Pterosaur's tail whipped over ferociously, causing a whistling sound that seemed to be able to tear one's eardrums.

By this time, it was already too late for Tang Huan to use "Visional Phoenix Five Footwork" and "Space Moving." With a thought, the boundless Genuine Qi roared out, and a layer of the Genuine Qi's barrier condensed on his back. At almost the same time, Tang Huan's body also seemed to have a layer of golden luster that was flowing on the surface of his body.

"Bang!"

In less than the blink of an eye, the long tail had already slammed onto the Genuine Qi barrier. Amidst an earth-shaking ringing sound, the Genuine Qi barrier instantly shattered, and Pterosaur's thick and long tail only paused for a moment before it once again smashed onto Tang Huan's back, moving as fast as a shooting star.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan was immediately thrown out uncontrollably, like a kite with its string cut.

The Conqueror Spear in his hand was brought out as well, and the dark red flame once again rose from the wound on Pterosaur's abdomen. Once again, a sizzling sound came out from within the heaven and earth, but when the strong black Qi surged in from the surroundings, the flames had already quickly extinguished, and the barbecue-like sound had also disappeared.

Dozens of meters away, Tang Huan finally regained control of his body, but his footsteps did not slow in the slightest. He immediately used both the "Visional Phoenix Five Footwork" and "Space Moving".

"Roar!"

The moment Tang Huan's true body disappeared, Pterosaur's ferocious bloody mouth pounced on him and swallowed the afterimage of Tang Huan.

Not far from Pterosaur, Tang Huan's figure flashed rapidly.

Only now did he have the time to take a deep breath and push down the blood pressure that was rapidly churning in his body. However, his face couldn't help but flush like a drunkard.

Even with the Genuine Qi barrier and the "Sun Spirit Body" resisting it, that tail attack from Pterosaur almost caused him to vomit blood. The attacks of the Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts were not so easily endured. It was fortunate that he had the "Sun Spirit Body", otherwise, he would have been reduced to a meat patty.

With the previous example, Tang Huan became even more cautious. In the blink of an eye, he teleported again, dodging the Pterosaur's extremely nimble pouncing bite, and appeared in the air above him.

However, the Pterosaur seemed to have figured out a pattern as her reaction was extremely sharp. Without waiting for Tang Huan to attack, her back suddenly dropped, but her head had already turned around at an extremely fast speed as she opened her mouth wide and spat out a ball of extremely condensed black Qi.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan's long spear was like a divine dragon flicking its tail, thrusting towards the black ball, the dark red spear light carried a monstrous heat wave as it whizzed out.

But before the two even touched, Tang Huan had a feeling, his real body flashed again, and dodged the long tail that was swinging back almost at the same time.

B00
M! Amidst an explosive sound, the Strength Qi rippled and a storm raged. The spear beam, the black ball, and the afterimage that Tang Huan left behind all disappeared into thin air.

At this time, Tang Huan, who was several tens of meters away from the Pterosaur, was frowning deeply.

Within the Black Heavenly Domain, the Genuine Qi in Tang Huan's body was passing away like water. The rate at which it was being consumed had reached an extremely unimaginable rate. In just a short span of a few breaths, Tang Huan had already exhausted all of his Genuine Qi.

"If the Genuine Qi can't be used, then we will switch to the Mind Power!"

Tang Huan didn't hesitate at all. In a flash, the Conqueror Spear disappeared from the center of his palms, but right after, the ten fingers on his hands started to flutter rapidly. An instant later, five huge fire dragons formed in front of him, spiralling and roaring upwards with astonishing might.

"Roar!"

Pterosaur turned his body, his wings flapping fiercely, a terrifying black storm swept out. In a split-second, the five fire dragons had been installed.

A Strength Qi that could cause people's hearts to palpitate wildly spread out, and the air within a radius of a few dozen meters violently fluctuated.

Tang Huan unhesitatingly shifted once more, his hands moving without any delay. But when the extremely sharp wooden spikes shot out one after another from Pterosaur's stomach, his eyes couldn't help but light up, and Black Heavenly Domain, who had enveloped him and Pterosaur, started to shake.

Chapter 613: Get the hell out of here!

This beast could not hold its Heavenly Domain any longer?

When Tang Huan stood inside the Heavenly Domain, no matter if it was launching an attack or using "Space Moving", the speed at which his strength was being consumed would drastically increase. But when the Pterosaur activated and maintained the Heavenly Domain, it would also consume a huge amount of energy at all times.

As time passed, the Heavenly Domain would find it hard to continue.

Seeing the current situation of the Pterosaur, it seemed like it would collapse very soon?

"Boom —"

Pterosaur Pang Shuo suddenly turned his body, and his thick and long tail swept out. Everywhere it passed, there was an endless rumbling sound, and the wooden spikes exploded one by one. At the same time, the Black Heavenly Domain shook even more violently.

Seeing that, Tang Huan's spirit was immediately shaken, his ten fingers moved swiftly, the Holy-ranked Incantation was executed consecutively, and earth-shattering sounds were released one after another.

"Roar!" After such a long period of time, he was still unable to deal with Tang Huan, and the Pterosaur had already become extremely irritable, the sounds of his roars resonating throughout the sky.

"Pah!"

Not long after, the sounds of bubbles shattering suddenly rang out, and the spherical Black Heavenly Domain suddenly disappeared into nothingness.

Just as Tang Huan made the "Space Moving" appeared on the right side of Pterosaur, he immediately felt his entire body relax. In an instant, the strong feeling of restriction that Heavenly Domain gave off disappeared, as if all the heavy shackles that were pressing down on him had been taken away.

"Roar!"

Without waiting for Tang Huan to continue launching attacks, the Pterosaur glared at Tang Huan hatefully and roared as he turned around and left. Although his eyes were filled with unwillingness, they did not show any signs of stopping. In just the blink of an eye, Pterosaur had disappeared without a trace from Tang Huan's eyes.

"Leaving just like that?"

Tang Huan stared blankly at him for a while before regaining his senses.

Although the Pterosaur could not sustain Heavenly Domain now, it was still far from the point where its oil lamp had dried up. However, he did not expect it to leave so straightforwardly.

However, other than the unexpected, Tang Huan also couldn't help but feel relieved.

If this battle continued, it would not take long before the Mind Power would be exhausted too. At that time, the recovery rate of the Genuine Qi would not even reach 20%. If the battle had lasted just a little bit longer, he might have exhausted all of his energy and lost his life.

This time, the conflict with the Pterosaur could be said to have ended with great luck.

Just as Tang Huan let out a light breath, a strong sense of dizziness hit him, and he almost fell down. He immediately shook his head, barely managing to stabilize his body, but right after, an extremely tired and weak feeling surged out from the depths of his soul.

Tang Huan knew that this was the side effect of using "Nine Yang Divine Furnace s" excessively, so he did not dare delay any further. Very quickly, Tang Huan found the Space Aircraft he had thrown down before.

The green whirlpool appeared quickly, and Tang Huan's body entered it in a flash.

The Space Aircraft was completely silent. Feng Ming and Xiao Budian kept pacing back and forth, their eyes filled with worry and worry. A long time had passed since he was besieged by the "Red Top Golden Vulture", yet Tang Huan still had not returned, so he did not know how the situation was.

"Yiya!" Suddenly, Xiao Budian seemed to have sensed something, and exclaimed in surprise.

"Tang Huan, you ..."

Feng Ming looked over in a blink of an eye, and finally a familiar figure appeared in her line of sight, causing her to be unable to restrain her joy. But before she finished speaking, she forcibly swallowed the voice that came from behind.

Xiao Budian, who was running towards Tang Huan like a wisp of smoke, also stopped in his tracks immediately.

After a while, the wall in front of the aircraft had started to turn transparent, and the scene of the outside world could be clearly seen. Under Tang Huan's control, the Space Aircraft passed through the forest quickly. In a few breaths time, it had drilled into a dense patch of vines, causing the outside world to turn pitch black.

Seeing that, Feng Ming and Xiao Budian could not help but stare with wide eyes, their expressions were all surprised.

But before they could figure out what was going on, the wall that was almost transparent solidified once again, and following that, a "plop" sound rang out. Feng Ming and Xiao Budian hurriedly looked over, to see that Tang Huan was lying on the ground, with his eyes closed, motionless, as though he had fallen asleep.

Suddenly, just like the time when Tang Huan fainted after his fierce battle with the fierce beasts, the four images of fused together appeared again and again in the depths of his soul.

With every passing moment, Tang Huan's perception of the "Great Harmony Heavenly Classics" seemed to deepen a bit, and his own imposing manner seemed to grow stronger along with it. It felt like his finger had flicked for an instant, and it felt like several days had passed before Tang Huan finally broke free from that wondrous state, and his consciousness gradually recovered once more.

At this moment, the bottom of Tang Huan's heart suddenly had a hint of understanding.

Fierce battle with the sea beasts, war with the Pterosaur ... In the battle before and after, the circulation of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" within Tang Huan's Dantian exceeded the limits of his body time and time again. This kind of increase, although brought a huge aftereffect to Tang Huan, also caused his strength to continuously increase.

Especially when the side effects broke out, Tang Huan's soul entered a chaotic state, as if it had merged with the deepest meaning of the "Great Harmony Heavenly Classics", and started to unknowingly comprehend the wonders of this technique. After two sessions, Tang Huan had already comprehended this cultivation method to a very deep degree.

The most miraculous thing was that the deeper the comprehension of "Great Harmony Heavenly Classics", the stronger Tang Huan's aura would be.

"Stage Nine is called 'Force', above 'Force' is 'Domain', when the 'imposing manner' has risen to a certain extent, it can be transformed into 'Heavenly Domain', and what I need to do now, is to slowly increase my 'imposing manner' step by step. As long as the 'imposing manner' is strong enough, the transformation will be natural."

"The fastest way to raise your 'imposing aura' is to continue comprehending the 'Great Harmony Heavenly Classics'; if you want to comprehend the technique, you need to once again enter the chaotic, bizarre state. To enter that state, you only need to allow the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace' to move faster than the limits of your body."

"To do this, the easiest way is to fight against the Pterosaur again!"

While he was thinking, Tang Huan suddenly opened his eyes, his eyebrows revealing traces of excitement.

In an unusually large inside the cave thousands of meters away, the Pterosaur suddenly let out a low growl, and slowly opened his eyes. His drooping head was also lifted high, and a trace of suspicion flashed in his dark green eyes. After recuperating for several days, the previously depleted energy finally completely recovered. But just now, a bad premonition arose from the bottom of its heart, as if something bad was about to happen.

"Roar!"

Pterosaur shook his head anxiously, the doubt in his eyes becoming stronger.

At this moment, a roar that sounded like rolling thunder came from outside the cave without any warning, "Evil creature, get the hell out!"

Chapter 614 - Promotion

"Roar!"

Pterosaur roared in anger, and rushed out of the inside the cave as if he had gone mad. He opened his gigantic wings and soared into the sky, looking extremely mighty.

High up in the sky, Tang Huan's expression was solemn. The wings on his back spread, and the Conqueror Spear appeared in his palm.

"Kill —"

Tang Huan roared madly, the spear in his hand dancing swiftly as he explosively shot forward.

Another great battle broke out.

This battle was even more intense than the previous one. "Flaming Rainbow Spear Art", "Phoenix Five Steps", "Space Moving", and all sorts of other skills were fully utilized by Tang Huan.

Pterosaur had also learned from the experiences of the past few days.

The two figures leaped up and down from the sky to the ground. Within a radius of a few thousand meters, the earth shook and the mountains shook. The sky changed color.

This time, the Pterosaur also activated her power, but the duration of the support for her power was shorter than the previous time, but the same thing happened: after the Heavenly Domain collapsed, although she was extremely furious, she did not continue to fight, but immediately left.

Tang Huan did not chase after him, he dragged his exhausted body and quickly returned to the Space Aircraft s.

However, after a few more days, Tang Huan's figure once again appeared in the air above the cave that Pterosaur was hiding in, his voice shaking the heavens.

"Evil creature, do you dare to fight me!?"

"Evil creature, are you hiding inside like a cowardly turtle?"

"Evil creature, hurry and come out!"

The great battle exploded again and again.

Towards Tang Huan's provocation, the Pterosaur was furious beyond compare. Every time, it would rush out of the cave like a firecracker, but the following battle made it feel more and more helpless. It seemed that after every battle, the opponent's strength would increase, and the time it took to maintain Heavenly Domain would become shorter and shorter.

Unknowingly, a month had already passed.

Inside the Space Aircraft, Tang Huan was lying on the edge of the round platform in the Central Plains.

By the side, Xiao Budian was sleeping soundly. Not far away from him, Feng Ming was also quietly sitting cross-legged on the ground. Initially, when she knew that Tang Huan had battled with a Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts, she was still rather worried, afraid that Tang Huan would have some mishap, but now, she was already used to it.

After a while, Tang Huan suddenly woke up. He turned around and sat up, and revealed a satisfied smile.

Battling the Pterosaur was indeed a shortcut for raising his aura. Although each and every battle was extremely dangerous, Tang Huan was still constantly enjoying it. After five consecutive battles, Tang Huan's aura had become twice as powerful as before, and after the sixth battle, Tang Huan faintly felt that his aura had reached its limit.

In a second, Tang Huan did not disturb Feng Ming and Xiao Budian, and quickly left the Space Aircraft once again.

The forest outside was full of potholes, as if it was in ruins. The originally lush and flourishing ancient trees were either scattered on the ground or completely turned to dust.

"Hu!"

With a slight thought, an exceptionally terrifying aura swept out from within Tang Huan's body, and rolled out like a stormy sea. The instant this aura appeared, it had already condensed into an almost transparent substance that enveloped the surrounding tens of meters.

In that moment, Tang Huan felt as if he had become the ruler of this small region.

"Heavenly Domain?"

This change made Tang Huan happy.

The biggest difference between an aura and a Heavenly Domain's aura was that after the aura seeped out of the body, it would no longer be under one's control, and would quickly dissipate, but would not dissipate. Furthermore, one could even control it, just like a Pterosaur, and could even use a Heavenly Domain to weaken Tang Huan's attack.

However, Tang Huan also understood that this wasn't the true Heavenly Domain he was in, but was instead a fake Heavenly Domain similar to Fen Tian. Although this kind of fake Heavenly Domain was condensed into a substance and would not dissipate, it was impossible for one to control it however they wished.

But even so, it was hard to conceal the joy in Tang Huan's heart. His aura condensed and did not disperse, which meant that he had already touched the threshold of the Heavenly Domain.

If there was a suitable opportunity, he could completely transform and become a real Heavenly Domain-level Expert at any time.

At that moment, Tang Huan suddenly had the strong impulse to fight the Pterosaur again.

"Hu!"

Without the slightest hesitation, wings condensed on Tang Huan's back and he soared into the sky. In about the time of a dozen breaths, Tang Huan had already arrived above a majestic and steep mountain range, and then descended quickly. A pitch black gigantic cave was clearly imprinted in his eyes.

"Evil creature, come out and die!"

Tang Huan bellowed, the sound wave was like a clap of thunder, being forced by the Genuine Qi to roll forward, as though it was trying to overturn the entire cave. But after a while, Tang Huan frowned, other than a few echoes, there were no other movements from the inside the cave.

Although that guy would retreat every time the Heavenly Domain was broken into pieces and stopped fighting with Tang Huan, appearing to be extremely calm, it was actually not affected at all. The reason that it had become calm afterwards was probably because it had exhausted too much energy and had no choice but to remain calm.

The previous few times, whenever Tang Huan scolded from the air, the Pterosaur would immediately rush out aggressively. But now, when Tang Huan shouted from the cave entrance, it actually turned indifferent?

Was it not in the cave?

"Roaaaaaar!"

Just as Tang Huan was thinking about this, a roar came from afar, sounding very familiar. After a moment of hesitation, Tang Huan extended his wings and rushed up into the sky towards the sound. After about five kilometers, Tang Huan once again heard the familiar roar.

"It really is the Pterosaur!"

Tang Huan could not help but laugh, but right after, another voice came from afar, "Gu — —" That sound was extremely strange, but it was extremely penetrating.

Pterosaur was fighting with other fierce beasts?

Ordinary fierce beasts, even if they possessed the strength of Peak Stage Nine, they wouldn't have any strength to fight back in front of Pterosaur.

Tang Huan couldn't help but become excited and suddenly increase his speed. The more he moved forward, the louder the cries of the two fierce beasts became.

After approximately five kilometers, Pterosaur's Pang Shuo's figure finally appeared within Tang Huan's line of sight.

A large piece of the continuously rising forest below seemed to have been bitten off from the middle. In that unkempt region, the Pterosaur sprung up, shook its head and wagged its tail, as if he had gone insane. If Tang Huan was not mistaken, its body was probably already riddled with scars, and its opponent ...

Tang Huan opened his eyes in shock, he actually did not see the Pterosaur's opponent, and could see that the fellow was jumping around crazily, as if he was alone.

It was impossible for the Pterosaur to not have opponents!

"Over there!"

Chapter 615 - A Little White Rabbit?

"Such a small beast?"

Tang Huan was in disbelief. The fierce beast below him was probably at most the size of a bowl, small to the point of being pitiful when compared to the Pterosaur with his huge body.

This kind of little fellow was actually able to cause the Pterosaur to be left and right, making it look extremely miserable. What was even more surprising was that the Heavenly Domain that was activated by the Pterosaur did not seem to have much effect on the little beast.

It was actually faster than the Pterosaur!

However, the Pterosaur can obviously fly high in the sky, why are they entangled with that little beast on the ground? The little beast didn't have wings, so no matter how fast it was, it wouldn't be able to fight against Pterosaur in the air.

Tang Huan couldn't help but be suspicious, but very quickly, he felt relieved in his heart.

To possess such strength, he must have lived for an extremely long period of time in this space. This meant that the small white beast and the Pterosaur must have known each other for a long time. That little beast must have had something else that caused the Pterosaur to be wary of, which was why it was willing to give up its greatest advantage.

At this moment, Tang Huan suddenly thought of the fact that every time the Pterosaur fought with him, the moment the Heavenly Domain dissipated, they would immediately retreat without the slightest hesitation. Could it be that it was because he was wary of the white beast that he wanted to preserve his strength and did not dare to exhaust himself too much?

"Hu!"

While thinking, Tang Huan continued to move forward.

After a short while, he arrived at the top of the two fierce beasts, he was only a few hundred metres away from them, but even with the distance separating them, it was difficult for Tang Huan to see the white beast's appearance, it was just a blurry outline.

"Goo —"

The thunderous cries suddenly rang out, and the battle suddenly stopped.

Tang Huan looked down, but after a moment, his expression became extremely strange. Pterosaur was lying on the ground exhausted, breathing heavily with a sound similar to that of Lei Ming's. Little white rabbit?

The one who fought with the Pterosaur and caused his entire body to be covered in injuries was actually a rabbit?

Tang Huan came back to reality and couldn't help but to rub his eyes. This result was completely beyond his imagination. Or could it be that the fierce beast only looked like a rabbit, but was actually a different species?

"Goo?" The little white rabbit called out again, as its eyes looked towards Pterosaur, as if asking something.

"Roar!" Roar! "Howl ..."

When the Pterosaur heard him, he immediately stood up with all his might and roared out loud. From time to time, he would lift his head up high to glare at Tang Huan, who was high up in the sky.

Hearing the voice below, Tang Huan's eyes flashed with a strange light, it seemed that the two fierce beasts were communicating with each other.

In the next moment, a loud noise came from the sky and earth, the mound below the little white rabbit caved in with shocking speed, causing smoke and dust to billow around it. Soon after, a small white figure soared into the sky, with a flick of a finger, he was already more than 10 metres away from Tang Huan.

Tang Huan was shocked, the one who rushed out from below was the little white rabbit.

In a flash, his abdomen swelled up like an inflatable ball. In the time it took for one or two breaths, it had become as big as a dustpan. However, his head and limbs were still small and exquisite, which made him look extremely strange. However, although its current appearance was strange, its body did not fall down. Instead, it floated in front of Tang Huan like a feather, looking curiously at him with its red eyes.

This time, Tang Huan finally understood why Pterosaur did not fight in the air. It turned out that this little white rabbit also had the ability to fly.

After the enlightenment, Tang Huan could not help but start probing carefully.

This white rabbit's original appearance was the same as Xiao Budian's, they were both small and exquisite, and from top to bottom, not a single strand of mixed hair could be seen.

What made Tang Huan even more surprised was that he could actually feel an abnormally rich spirituality from the white rabbit's body. It was not one bit inferior to Xiao Budian's. Could it be that it was not a fierce beast like the Pterosaur, but instead a Spiritual Beast like him?

The more Tang Huan thought about it, the more he felt that it was possible. In the past, Tang Huan thought that the Spirit Beasts Board was made by the Human Clan of this small world. But now, he finally understood that the Spirit Beasts Board was actually from the Forging God Great World.

Tang Huan had the second ranked Blue Dragon, Mu Yan had the seventh ranked Rainbow Spirit Mouse, and Shan Shan had two sixth ranked Blood Plume Heavenly Hawk. The only ones he had ever seen were the Blue Dragon and the Rainbow Spirit Mouse.

Other than Blue Dragon, Blood Plume Heavenly Hawk and Rainbow Spirit Mouse, Tang Huan had never heard of other Spiritual Beast appearing in the small realms. If this fellow was a Spiritual Beast, which one of the Spirit Beasts Board s did he belong to?

While he was thinking, the names of the Spirit Beasts Board flashed across his mind.

"Flying Jade Hare?"

After a while, Tang Huan could not help but exclaim softly. The third ranked Spiritual Beast of the Spirit Beasts Board was called "Flying Jade Hare".

Could it be that this little white rabbit was him?

"Goo?"

Just as Tang Huan was feeling that something was off, the little white rabbit called out again. It pointed its little front paw at him, then at Tang Huan and finally at the ground.

"You want to fight with me?"

Tang Huan regained his senses and could not help but cry out in surprise. The meaning of the little white rabbit's hand gesture was very simple. One could tell at a glance.

"Goo!"

The little white rabbit seemed to understand the meaning of Tang Huan's words, its head nodding like a chicken pecking rice, and its bright red eyes revealed unconcealable excitement and excitement.

However, Tang Huan did not feel any malicious intent from it.

This little white rabbit was actually a battle maniac! Tang Huan was surprised, with its strength, killing Pterosaur should not be a difficult task, but the Pterosaur was still alive and well. Either they were friends, or it left the Pterosaur to fight him.

Judging from the Pterosaur's injuries, the possibility of the two of them being friends was very small.

"Alright!"

In a moment, Tang Huan readily agreed to it. The more times he fought with the Pterosaur, the worse the results would be. If he had no other choice, Tang Huan could only fight with the Pterosaur for a few more rounds. Now that he had an even stronger opponent, Tang Huan could change his opponent.

Whoosh! With a flap of its wings, Tang Huan dove down.

"Goo!"

The little white rabbit let out an excited cry, and its round body began to sink rapidly as it shrank. In the blink of an eye, one man and one rabbit fell to the ground.

Chapter 616 - The Little White Rabbit's Heavenly Domain

Moments later, two figures stood there, staring at each other.

Tang Huan's fighting intent boiled, but his expression was extremely solemn. A Spiritual Beast that was much stronger than the Pterosaur, made him not dare to take it lightly. In between the mind instructs (in a second), the Conqueror Spear appeared in his palm, and on the spear body, a fiery red glow quickly circulated, its heat surging.

On the opposite side, twenty or thirty meters away, the little white rabbit was covered in fluffy fur and had completely returned to its original exquisite appearance. On the opposite side, twenty or thirty meters away, the little white rabbit was covered with fluffy fur and had completely returned to its original exquisite appearance.

The Pterosaur did not leave, but sneaked a few hundred meters away to watch the battle, seemingly taking pleasure in the misfortune.

"Goo!"

The little white rabbit sized up the Conqueror Spear with its eyes, then suddenly emitted a voice like that of Lei Ming. Its two hind legs stomped on the ground fiercely, causing countless sand and dust to rise into the air like a tide.

"Chi!"

Tang Huan was slightly shocked, the long spear in his hand had already pierced over by reflex, the Fire Red Spear Radiance flourished, bringing with it a blazing heat, it shot out from the tip of the spear in an instant.

Previously, when Tang Huan had seen the big battle between the little white rabbit and the Pterosaur, he was already shocked at its speed. Now that he was facing it personally, Tang Huan realized that its speed was actually faster than he had imagined.

The incomparably sharp spear light instantly shattered.

Tang Huan did not even have the time to react before the white figure continued to collide with the Conqueror Spear, bringing with it a terrifying surge of immense power. Tang Huan only felt his arms shake, his hands going numb, but his body was like a cannonball, uncontrollably flying backwards.

The white shadow was knocked back more than ten meters before it landed on the ground.

"Such great strength!"

Tang Huan was pushed back several tens of meters before he could finally sink to the ground. His feet created a deep pit in the ground as the blood in his chest surged. Compared to the Pterosaur, this little white rabbit's body was like a child's play, but the power that it exploded out when it attacked greatly surpassed the Pterosaur.

If Tang Huan had taken out an ordinary Holy-ranked weapon and not a Divine Armament like the "Sun Spirit Body", then not only would his weapon have been severely damaged, the Spiritual Meridian in his body might have been forcefully torn apart by the energy that invaded his body.

The existence of the Divine Armament and the Sun Spirit Body caused Tang Huan's body to feel a little uncomfortable, but it was not to the point of being uncomfortable.

"Goo!"

Dozens of meters away, the little white rabbit's red eyes widened, looking at Tang Huan seriously. Seeing that he was fine, it actually cried out in excitement. Immediately after, there was an explosive sound, and the white shadow once again rushed forward at an extremely terrifying speed, dragging behind it a string of afterimages. Behind it, the dust and dirt once again swirled up like yellow smoke.

"Hu!"

Seeing that, Tang Huan's pupils could not help but constrict, and in between the mind instructs (in a second), a majestic aura roared out, congealing into an almost transparent substance.

Although this Heavenly Domain was only an incomplete product, it was still better than nothing.

The little white rabbit could move around freely in Pterosaur's Heavenly Domain, so Tang Huan, this half finished product Heavenly Domain, was probably not much of a threat to it. However, Tang Huan had never thought of using this half finished product Heavenly Domain to block the little white rabbit's attack, he only wanted to use it to increase his own Perception Ability.

In that moment, the white figure ruthlessly crashed into Tang Huan's "Heavenly Domain" as if it was a meteorite that contained the power of fifty thousand kilograms.

"Chi!"

The Conqueror Spear in Tang Huan's hands thrust out without hesitation, the speed of his spear reaching its limit as well. Like a ray of fiery red light, it pierced through the air like lightning, meeting the attack head on.

In the blink of an eye, the sound of the collision was heard once again. Another huge force penetrated the spear and entered Tang Huan's body. Once again, as if he had suffered a heavy blow, Tang Huan uncontrollably retreated backwards. At the same time, the blazing storm created by the spear dissipated.

Only then did Tang Huan land on the ground. He forcefully suppressed the urge to vomit blood, and his face became even more serious.

As he expected, the little white rabbit's speed did not slow down in the slightest.

However, after activating this half completed Heavenly Domain, Tang Huan still discovered something that he did not notice before. The little white rabbit was actually enveloped in a completely transparent round cover.

Compared to Pterosaur's Pang Shuo's Black Heavenly Domain, the little white rabbit's completely transparent Heavenly Domain was almost negligible. However, its control over the Heavenly Domain was far beyond that of the Pterosaur's.

As it was shuttling through the air, the white rabbit curled itself into a small ball and rolled forward. But just as it was about to approach the target, its body stretched out, head facing backwards, tail forward, and then its two hind legs ferociously kicked out. When it did this action, the shape of the Heavenly Domain also underwent a strange change. The ball actually turned into a pointed cone, and at that moment, the white rabbit's attack seemed to contain all of the Heavenly Domain's power.

Although the Pterosaur could also be used to control the Heavenly Domain, under its control, the Heavenly Domain could only be used to suppress the opponent and slow down the opponent's offense. It was difficult for the Heavenly Domain to be like the little white rabbit, fusing the Heavenly Domain's power into its own attacks and allowing it to unleash an incomparably terrifying power.

In this regard, the two were on a completely different level. It was no wonder that the Pterosaur would be reduced to such a miserable state.

"Goo —"

The little white rabbit was even more excited. This time, after it landed, it didn't stop at all and once again stood up with its legs on the ground. Tang Huan shouted out explosively, the tip of his spear, flames roaring out, burning fiercely. Almost at the same time, the skin on the surface of Tang Huan's body emitted a layer of golden lustre, and the "Sun Spirit Body" was pushed to the limit.

"Boom!" "Boom ~ ~ ~"

Following that, intense sounds of collisions began to ring out.

The terrifying Strength Qi rippled and rippled as waves of dust and sand were swept up high into the sky. Within a radius of a few hundred meters, the area within a radius of a hundred meters was soon covered in billowing smoke and dust.

Different from the Pterosaur who wanted to kill him at all times, Tang Huan could not feel a single trace of killing intent from this little white rabbit. Thus, he rarely used such dodging methods as "Visional Phoenix Five Footwork" and "Space Moving" and only used it to fight the white rabbit head on.

The difference in strength caused Tang Huan to fall into a bitter battle.

However, relying on the powerful Genuine Qi and the "Sun Spirit Body", Tang Huan endured the attacks from the opponent time and time again. During this intense process, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" that Tang Huan originally thought had reached its limit, actually increased its circulation speed once again.

Chapter 617 - Stop!

Time flew, and Tang Huan and the little white rabbit were in the midst of an intense battle, but the gloating and gloating in the eyes of the distant Pterosaur had already been replaced by amazement.

It discovered that the bastard's strength that was pestering it had improved tremendously compared to the past few days. If it were to fight with him again, the result would likely be extremely bad. At least, with the Heavenly Domain unable to hold on, it would not be easy for it to retreat.

This could be determined from the situation that Tang Huan had displayed during the battle.

Soon, it was covered in wounds, and its strength was quickly depleted by more than half. As for that detestable bastard, even though he was at a disadvantage from the start, there were still a lot of things that happened between him and the little white rabbit.

Especially until now, there didn't seem to be any obvious injuries on that bastard's body.

The Pterosaur's two green eyes that were following Tang Huan's figure kept moving back and forth. Surprised and angry, there was an additional trace of anger in his eyes.

"Goo —"

The little white rabbit seemed to have eaten an aphrodisiac. The more it fought, the more excited it got. A tiny figure moved left and right, leaping back and forth. Its appearance could not be seen clearly.

Hearing the excited cries of the little white rabbit, Tang Huan, on the other hand, became more and more apprehensive.

The little white rabbit's attack method was very simple. It was the word 'stomp'. However, its two hind legs displayed such a single move so vividly that it was hard to guard against.

Its astonishing speed and terrifying force, along with the control of Heavenly Domain's arm and finger, allowed the little white rabbit's every kick to unleash an incomparable might.

Fortunately, when Tang Huan activated this half completed Heavenly Domain, he was able to clearly feel the trajectory of the little white rabbit's every attack. It was also because of this that he was able to attack continuously and also because of the extremely strong endurance and recovery ability of the "Sun Spirit Body".

If it was the Tang Huan from a few days ago, he would probably only be able to passively take a beating. If that was the case, even if he had the "Sun Spirit Body", he would have already fallen down.

Unknowingly, Tang Huan had retracted his Conqueror Spear, and the technique he used had also changed to five elements magic.

Following the rapid dance of his two hands, a dazzling golden light poured down from the sky like a waterfall, condensing into a shining golden round cover that enveloped him within.

At almost the same time, the little white rabbit's hind legs landed on top of the golden round cover, producing an earth-shaking cry. The substantial "Golden Bell Barrier" immediately cracked, and the moment Little White's legs reached their limit, a formless residual force smashed into Tang Huan's chest.

Bang! Tang Huan retreated a few steps, and the little white rabbit landed on the ground as well. However, it once again somersaulted and soared into the air, spinning towards Tang Huan.

"Stop!" The moment he stabilized his body, Tang Huan could not help but shout out.

"Goo?"

The white figure that looked like a shooting star first forcefully stopped in the air, then lightly floated down to the ground, revealing the fluffy body of the little white rabbit. The pair of crystal clear ruby-like eyes sized up Tang Huan a few times, and the little white rabbit cried out in a low voice, as if it was quite suspicious.

Tang Huan suppressed the urge to vomit blood, let out a long breath, and slowly said: "How about we end it here? We'll fight six days later? "

This little white rabbit that looked like the Spiritual Beast 'Flying Jade Hare' could be said to be an extremely abnormal battle maniac. After fighting for so long, Tang Huan had almost used up all of his Genuine Qi, and there weren't many left of his Mind Power left. However, the little white rabbit opposite him was still in high spirits, as if there was an endless amount of energy in his body that could never be used up.

At this point, Tang Huan had no choice but to give up.

If he continued to fight with it, it wouldn't be long before he ran out of energy. When the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" went beyond its limit, if he continued to run out of energy, he would faint immediately. At that time, even if the little white rabbit did not attack, the Pterosaur would probably come to take advantage of her.

Therefore, Tang Huan had to take advantage of the fact that he still had some power and make a plan in advance. If the little white rabbit didn't want to stop, Tang Huan could only choose to escape.

"Gu gu ..."

The little white rabbit seemed to understand what Tang Huan meant. It first tilted its head in hesitation, but then nodded its head. Then, its two front legs started to move nonstop, calling out nonstop, as if it was worried that Tang Huan wouldn't be able to keep up with it in six days.

Tang Huan quickly understood its meaning and his expression relaxed. He nodded and smiled: "Rest assured, I will definitely come back in six days!"

"Goo!" The little white rabbit immediately opened its mouth in delight. Its pair of long and pointed ears began to shake. Its eyes narrowed slightly, as if it was laughing.

"Farewell!"

Tang Huan cupped his hands together and the wings on his back condensed and flew into the sky.

A few hundred meters away, Pterosaur's eyeballs rolled as he stared at the figure that was getting smaller and smaller in the sky. A malevolent look suddenly flashed across his eyes, and he retreated backwards with light steps. After fighting for such a long time, that bastard definitely didn't have much energy left in his body. This was a good opportunity to wash away his shame.

"Goo!"

However, just as Pterosaur's figure was about to merge into the forest, an extremely familiar voice thundered into his ears.

Pang Shuo's body trembled all of a sudden when he heard this shout. His sturdy limbs also stiffened for a moment.

Immediately after, the Pterosaur acted as if he had heard the imperial edict. He turned around immediately and drooped his wings, dejected and slow as he moved forward. His eyes flashed with tears, as if he was about to cry.

"Goo — —" The little white rabbit dragged its voice and hooked a small claw at Pterosaur in dissatisfaction.

"Roar!"

Pterosaur released an extremely resentful screech, but he did not dare to tarry any longer. He braced himself and rushed forward, and the little white rabbit turned into a streak of white light as it shot over like lightning.

The battle that had been interrupted earlier had once again begun.

"Whoosh!"

Sensing what was happening below, Tang Huan couldn't help but laugh. He was originally worried that the Pterosaur would chase after him, but the unlucky fellow was already too busy to take care of himself. In a blink of an eye, Tang Huan pushed his speed to the limit, and flew forward frantically, the forest continuously flying past his body.

Before long, Tang Huan had already traversed tens of kilometers and found the hidden Space Aircraft, sneaking in.

Inside the cyan space, Tang Huan didn't even have time to speak to Feng Ming and Xiao Budian before he collapsed onto the ground, falling into a deep sleep.

Capturing these minute movements, Feng Ming slightly raised his eyelids, but he quickly closed them and continued to immerse himself in cultivation. Xiao Budian did not even open his eyes, and only muttered a series of indistinct murmurs from his mouth before he continued to sleep.

Chapter 618 Abduction

Inside the Space Aircraft, there was no distinction between day and night, but in the space outside, it was normal to alternate between day and night.

A few days later, in the middle of the unruly, ravaged ruins within the forest, a little white rabbit was squatting on the ground, scratching its ears and cheeks. Suddenly, it stood up and paced back and forth, and its blood-red eyes seemed to flash with an extremely human-like anxiety.

Not far behind the little white rabbit, Pterosaur was crawling on the ground, looking dispirited and listless.

"Goo!"

Suddenly, a thunderous shout rang out.

Pterosaur immediately got up in panic. Her entire body was tensed, only to see the little white rabbit in front of him jumping up high. In the distant horizon, a black figure flew over.

He heaved a sigh of relief and in the next moment, Pterosaur collapsed to the ground again.

He wanted to flee countless times, but in the end, he did not have the guts. He could only bear it in tears, and now that fellow was here, he was finally free. He was too lazy to even move his toes.

High up in the sky, the little white rabbit's body swelled up rapidly, once again turning into a huge white ball. Its pair of bright red eyes were filled with excitement.

"Whoosh!"

Tang Huan flapped his wings and flew over. Not long later, he was only a few hundred meters away from the little white rabbit. This time, not only was Tang Huan here, she was also petty and brought Xiao Budian here. It and the "Flying Jade Hare" were both Spiritual Beasts, so they might have something in common.

Although Xiao Budian was extremely strong in terms of the gem detection and sense of danger, his fighting ability was almost negligible. Even though his body had expanded to the limit, he was still not a match for Demon Clan.

If it were to meet a low level Eaglemen, it could still rely on its speed to escape, but if it met a Eaglemen of the Stage Nine, even if Xiao Budian wanted to escape, he could not. Being too weak could be said to be Xiao Budian's fatal flaw.

It was impossible for Tang Huan to keep it inside the Space Aircraft, and outside, it would be difficult for him to take care of it at all times.

If he had a companion like the "Flying Jade Hare", Tang Huan would no longer have to worry about Xiao Budian's safety.

Ever since he came to this world, this little white rabbit was definitely the strongest ever seen by Tang Huan. Even the Demon Lord Fen Tian, who was known as the strongest amongst the three clans in the small world, would not be a match for this little white rabbit without using a soul attack.

When he had guessed the little white rabbit's background, Tang Huan had already thought of this.

"Yiya ..."

On Tang Huan's neck, Xiao Budian let out an incomparably shocked cry. The two little claws that were grabbing onto Tang Huan's collar couldn't help but cover his mouth, while his pair of blue eyes widened, unbelievably looking at the fluffy white ball in front of him.

"Goo?"

The little white rabbit also discovered Xiao Budian's presence and couldn't help but call out to him in confusion. Its two hind legs stomped in the air and its round body shot forward at an astonishing speed.

Smiling at the little white rabbit, Tang Huan patted Xiao Budian's butt.

"Yiya, yiya ..." As if he had just awoken from a dream, Xiao Budian flapped her three pairs of small wings and floated up from Tang Huan's neck.

"Goo goo?"

The little white rabbit opened her mouth slightly, and sized Xiao Budian up from head to toe.

"Yiya!" Xiao Budian seemed to have understood the meaning of its voice, the little claws pointed at her wings, then turned around and patted the two sarcoma-like protrusions on her wings, as though it was showing off its fourth pair of wings that had not grown yet, a pleased look on its face.

"Gu gu!" The little white rabbit opened its eyes wide and let out an exclamatory cry. It seemed to be extremely envious.

"Yiya?"

Xiao Budian slowly approached and at the same time pointed at the round body of the little white rabbit in confusion. This time, it was the little white rabbit's turn to be complacent. Her inflatable body shrunk and expanded rapidly. Between sizes, it changed as it pleased.

"Yi ~ ~ ~ Ah ~ ~" Xiao Budian was dumbstruck as he watched, his voice sounding extremely long.

"Gu gu ..." The little white rabbit grinned as if it was laughing.

"Yiya!" "Eyah?"

"Goo, goo, goo ~ ~ ~"

"Yiya ..."

"..."

The two little fellows started conversing without any hindrance.

Unknowingly, both sides got closer and closer to each other. In the end, Xiao Budian couldn't help but use his little claws to poke the little white rabbit's round belly lightly. The little white rabbit, after being stunned for a short moment, couldn't help but touch Xiao Budian's shining sharp horn.

Ten metres away, Tang Huan did not make a sound, but was secretly rejoicing.

The reason Spiritual Beast were called Spiritual Beast was not only because their spirituality far surpassed ordinary beasts, but also because they possessed an incomparably shocking space to grow.

For example, the Pterosaur below him, his current strength had probably reached its limit, so no matter how much it increased, it would be difficult for a qualitative change to occur. However, Xiao Budian was different, he could still gradually grow into an eight-winged, ten-winged, or even a twelve-winged Blue Dragon. This was the same for the "Flying Jade Hare". Its current strength was far from its limit, and it could still continue to break through like a cultivator.

Flying Jade Hare obviously wanted it to improve its own strength further. Otherwise, there was no need for it to force the Pterosaur below it to become its sparring partner.

However, it was a pity that although the Pterosaur was already a Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts, their strength was far too lacking compared to it. No matter how much battle they had, it would only have a limited effect on the little white rabbit's growth. However, within this region, the Pterosaur was probably the strongest existence other than the little white rabbit. Therefore, the little white rabbit had no other choices, but if it really wanted to continue breaking through, it could only find another opponent.

Presumably, it was precisely because of this that the little white rabbit was able to obtain such a treasure with his appearance.

From this perspective, the chances of taking the little white rabbit out were very high. It had stayed here all this time, perhaps because it didn't know what was going on outside. As long as Xiao Budian could obtain the Flying Jade Hare's trust, it would naturally be able to leave this place.

Looking at Xiao Budian and the little white rabbit's current situation, this matter was very promising.

As Tang Huan thought about it, a slight smile unconsciously appeared between his brows. Bringing Xiao Budian here this time, was indeed a wise move.

"Yiya!" "Yiya!" In front of him, Xiao Budian suddenly pointed at his back.

"Goo!" However, the little white rabbit shook its head like a rattle.

"Yiya ~ ~ ~"

Xiao Budian cried out, her small body suddenly expanding rapidly. This sudden turn of events gave the little white rabbit a big fright. Its body suddenly retreated dozens of meters, and Xiao Budian raised his front paw again as he pointed at his own back, which had become even wider and thicker.

After hesitating for a little while, the little white rabbit finally approached Xiao Budian again. When she reached on his back, her body quickly shrunk like a balloon and she had already recovered in the blink of an eye.

Chapter 619 - Wonder Fruit

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian let out an excited cry. First, he brought the little white rabbit along with him and dove down at a high speed. When they were only a few meters from the ground, its three pairs of wings suddenly flapped, and like lightning, they shot up to a height of a few hundred meters high in the sky. Then, Xiao Budian started to spin like a top again.

The little white rabbit stayed close to Xiao Budian's back, not moving at all.

Although it had the ability to fly, it had always been straightforward. It had never made such a dangerous move before. All of a sudden, it cried out in excitement. Xiao Budian immediately looked as if he was on stimulants as he continued to perform all kinds of incomparably brilliant tricks in the air.

Tang Huan laughed secretly in his heart, after that, he retracted his wings and floated down.

At the ruins on the ground, the Pterosaur who was originally lying on the ground couldn't help but squat up. When he raised his head to look up at the sky, his large eyes stared blankly.

Only after a while did Pterosaur regain his senses. His eyes were actually filled with grief and indignation.

What right did that bastard have to get along so well with that perverted little beast, while he was being abused again and again? What right did he have to do that? Pterosaur suddenly clenched his teeth, with a sinister look in his eyes, he wished that he could grab the blue beast and strangle it to death.

However, just as this thought appeared in his mind, Pterosaur couldn't help but shiver. In the blink of an eye, that detestable bastard had already snuck up to her, and was already within reach. This made her heart ice-cold, and her eyes were filled with unconcealable fear.

Now, he was already exhausted. If he were to make a move, his ending would definitely be extremely miserable.

Seeing Tang Huan looking at him with a smile that was not a smile, the Pterosaur became even more terrified. After a while, it suddenly bent its front legs, and with a "plop", it knelt on the ground and looked pitifully at Tang Huan.

Seeing that, Tang Huan was startled, he suddenly stopped and could not help but burst out laughing: "Rise, don't worry, I will not bully you."

"Roar!"

Pterosaur growled as he hurriedly straightened his front legs. He felt as if a weight had been lifted off his shoulders, but at the same time, he felt a little ashamed and angry at the same time.

As a dignified Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts, it had fallen to the point of begging its opponent not to "bully" it, and the tears in its eyes were about to spill out. However, it did not dare to show the slightest dissatisfaction, because if this repulsive bastard changed his mind, it would not even be able to cry.

Tang Huan laughed, and suddenly realised that it was too quiet high up in the sky, he immediately looked up, and was shocked to see that Xiao Budian and the little white rabbit were already gone.

However, Tang Huan was relieved very quickly.

With the little white rabbit, Xiao Budian couldn't possibly encounter any accidents. As for the little white rabbit, it was even more impossible for it to have any evil intentions towards Xiao Budian. With its tyrannical strength, if it really wanted to harm Xiao Budian, it would have long been possible for it to do so.

Tang Huan calmed himself down and immediately sat down, quietly sensing the situation within the Dantian.

The big battle with the little white rabbit a few days ago had not only once again increased the circulation speed of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", it had also caused Tang Huan's aura to become even stronger and more condensed.

If he fought with the "Flying Jade Hare" a few more times, he might be able to continue to improve.

Tang Huan also had a strong urge at the bottom of his heart. If the circulation speed of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" reached its true limit, what kind of situation would occur?

"Hu!"

In a moment of thought, Tang Huan had already activated his aura, forming the half finished state of the Heavenly Domain, enveloping the area ten meters around him.

The Pterosaur immediately felt a huge pressure on him, as though he had been struck hard. He was so stifled that he wanted to vomit blood, and quickly ran a hundred meters away with his tail between his legs. When its power was at its peak, it could still withstand the pressure, but now, it was on the verge of collapsing.

Tang Huan calmed his heart and concentrated, and very quickly, he was immersed in it. The half finished Heavenly Domain suddenly expanded, and then shrank.

"Yiya!"

"Gu gu!"

After an unknown amount of time, Tang Huan was suddenly awoken by two clear cries. With a thought, the half-finished Heavenly Domain quickly shrunk, and his slightly closed eyes opened wide. Xiao Budian and the little white rabbit immediately entered his field of vision.

Dozens of meters away, Xiao Budian had clearly just landed on the ground, his huge body immediately retracted back to its original state, and ran back to Tang Huan excitedly. The little white rabbit was also incomparably happy. Its small body was bouncing up and down, and its two large front teeth were showing in its mouth from time to time.

"Looks like these two little fellows get along quite well!"

Just as he was about to spring up, he suddenly realized that Xiao Budian's two little claws were holding a round object, which was about the size of an egg. It seemed to be some kind of fruit, with a milky white color, and there were even strands of white mist lingering on the surface of the fruit.

Even from twenty to thirty meters away, Tang Huan could smell a refreshing fragrance. After taking a light breath, he felt as if all his organs and limbs had become extremely smooth.

"Hu!"

A hundred metres away, Pterosaur who had regained some of his strength seemed to have discovered something. His pair of green eyes suddenly released a bright light and became uncontrollable as he charged forward.

When Xiao Budian arrived in front of Tang Huan, he was already less than two meters away from. He opened his mouth, and his scarlet tongue shot out like lightning.

"Goo —"

The little white rabbit suddenly pricked its ears and let out an angry cry. It sounded like a thunderbolt, and the moment the note exploded, the entire world seemed to tremble.

Pterosaur suddenly woke up from his stupor, and his thick tongue paused in the air. The greed in his eyes quickly retreated, and his tongue returned to his mouth. He glanced at the little white rabbit, who was not far away, and bowed his head, showing a fawning expression.

"Yiya!" Xiao Budian regained his senses, angrily glared at Pterosaur, and brought the milky white fruit over to Tang Huan.

"For me?" Tang Huan was startled. He looked at Xiao Budian and then at the little white rabbit.

"Gu gu!" The little white rabbit nodded as its expression relaxed.

"Thank you very much."

Tang Huan laughed unwittingly, he raised his hand to touch Xiao Budian's head, and took the fruit from him. His tentacles were soft and extremely elastic, as though he was holding a small ball filled with water, and if he used even a little more strength, the skin would crack, and the juice would burst out.

Just from Pterosaur's reaction just now, one could tell that this fruit was definitely not ordinary.

Tang Huan took a light breath, the fragrance became even stronger, causing him to feel intoxicated. Not far away, the Pterosaur could not help but sniff, licking his lips, drooling from the corner of his mouth, as though he wished to swallow the fruit whole.

Chapter 620 - Breakthrough

Tang Huan gently caressed the fruit and glanced at Pterosaur's drooling appearance, he was even more surprised. This fruit was so coveted by Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts, who was at his level of strength, it must have a very miraculous effect, just that he did not know what the exact effect was.

"Gu gu!" Just then, the little white rabbit pointed to the fruit and then to Tang Huan's mouth. Her meaning was very obvious.

"You mean I should eat it now?" Tang Huan was startled.

"Gu gu!" The little white rabbit nodded.

"Yiya ..." Xiao Budian also quickly waved his two little claws towards Tang Huan, trying to urge him forward.

"Alright, I'll eat it."

Tang Huan did not react. Just by looking at the expressions of the little white rabbit, Xiao Budian and the Pterosaur, he knew that this fruit would definitely not cause any harm. Since that was the case, there was no harm in eating it. With that said, Tang Huan directly stuffed the entire fruit into his mouth.

With just a light bite, the sweet and thick juice burst open in his mouth. He quickly swallowed it a few times, and then, the entire fruit had been eaten, and not even the skin was left behind, a rich cool feeling spread from his throat to his abdomen, and then, wildly spread out, from the flesh body to his soul. In just the blink of an eye, Tang Huan felt like his entire body was wrapped up by that refreshing feeling.

Without any hesitation, Tang Huan immediately activated the "Great Harmony Heavenly Classics", inside the Dantian, the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the Five Colors Spiritual Pills quickly circulated, and not long after, strands of cool air converged onto the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", and after being refined, it quickly mixed with the Five Colors Spiritual Pills.

Time passed bit by bit, and more and more coolness was refined and fused.

At almost every moment, Tang Huan could feel a subtle but bizarre change from the spirit pellet, and after the initial surprise, Tang Huan had already completely calmed down and immersed himself.

By the side, the Pterosaur saw that after Tang Huan ate the fruit, he withered away like a wilted eggplant, and looked at the little white rabbit with a grudge in his eyes. Unfortunately, the little white rabbit seemed to ignore it, staring at Tang Huan, as if observing the changes after he consumed the fruit.

Xiao Budian also stared straight at Tang Huan, his dark blue eyes filled with anticipation.

"Goo — goo —" Not long after, the little white rabbit cried out a few times. A trace of astonishment and surprise appeared in its red eyes.

"Yiya!" "Yiya!" Xiao Budian knew that it was surprised by Tang Huan's speed in refining the fruit, and could not help but nod its head, with a smile in its eyes, and an expression of pride.

"Gu gu!"

"Yiya ~ ~ ~"

"..."

The little white rabbit and Xiao Budian chirped from time to time. They understood the meaning behind the other party's words very well, but in the end, the Pterosaur was not smart enough. Although it could occasionally think of something, most of the time, it would just listen with its head full of fog.

Time quickly passed by as the two little fellows emitted bursts of chirping sounds. Unknowingly, the sky had already darkened and the area was shrouded in darkness.

Xiao Budian squatted by Tang Huan's side and dozed off. His eyes suddenly closed and then opened, and his little head fell off, his entire body carelessly falling to the ground. After that, he woke up with a jolt, and immediately shook his head and sat back up, but not long later, he regained his composure.

About a meter away, the little white rabbit was sitting on the ground with its eyes closed, motionlessly.

Several hundred meters away, the Pterosaur was lying on the ground, sound asleep and snoring like thunder, the loud sound reverberating throughout the entire area.

After an unknown amount of time, some light finally appeared in the sky.

"Goo?"

The white rabbit that was as still as a statue seemed to have sensed something and her gaze landed on Tang Huan. In the distance, the Pterosaur also woke up. He flipped over and sat up, and looked towards Tang Huan.

At this time, Xiao Budian had already fallen into a deep sleep, his four limbs spread across his full stomach.

"Hu!"

Abruptly, the void began to fluctuate rapidly, as a terrifying formless energy surged out from Tang Huan's body, rolling towards his surroundings like a tidal wave.

All of a sudden, the surroundings were filled with sand and rocks, and dust was flying everywhere.

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian screamed as he woke up from his stupor.

Even if it flapped its three pairs of wings with all its might, it still could not withstand the force and involuntarily retreated a few meters away. However, it soon discovered that the surging force had suddenly disappeared without a trace, and its body also hovered in the air without any forewarning.

It was only then that he realized that the little white rabbit was floating beside him, and that his abdomen had already swelled up slightly. The transparent round cover that had grown out of his body had already covered both of them, and was resisting the invasion of the energy from outside.

At such a moment, the little white rabbit had already activated its Heavenly Domain.

"Yiya?"

Xiao Budian licked his lips and exhaled, but then he seemed to have thought of something and his gaze fell on Tang Huan. He started to scream anxiously, with a questioning tone.

"Goo!" The little white rabbit nodded, but continued to stare at Tang Huan without blinking.

"Yiya!"

Receiving a definite answer from the little white rabbit, Xiao Budian was immediately excited. His dark blue eyes revealed a terrifying light.

"Hu!"

Just at this moment, another terrifying energy fluctuation swept out from the two little fellows' faces, then followed by a third, then a fourth ... Soon after, a violent storm seemed to have been created around Tang Huan, as countless sand and dust began to swirl up in waves, and within a radius of a few hundred meters, the sky had already turned blurry.

Within the storm, the little white rabbit and Xiao Budian, who were both enveloped by the Heavenly Domain, did not even budge an inch. However, the distant Pterosaur uncontrollably spread his wings and soared into the sky, rising to a height of over a kilometer.

Dust filled the air and Tang Huan's figure was gradually covered up. However, the energy fluctuations that leaked out from Tang Huan's body did not show any signs of weakening and instead continued to grow stronger.

At that moment, Tang Huan was immersed in an abnormal feeling.

In the instant that the fruit was completely refined and absorbed, it was as if an invisible barrier suddenly exploded inside the Dantian and even the inside of the soul, and instantly disappeared without a trace. It made Tang Huan feel like he had been reborn.
