

W. Master 671

Chapter 671 - Ling Xiao Arch?

"Hu!"

After a short while, Tang Huan's figure was revealed within a deep ravine. Within the violently churning clouds, the silhouettes of numerous skeletons could be vaguely seen.

Without even waiting for the skeletons to approach, a pair of wings had already condensed on Tang Huan's back.

Soon after, the hissing sound started, Tang Huan's wings started to flap, he soared into the sky, and in a moment, he was out of the clouds, floating in the sky, in his line of sight, everything was bright and clear.

With a sweep of his gaze, Tang Huan determined that he was probably in the southwest sky of Foggy Sea Island. The teleportation array allowed him to travel from the southeast to the southwest, as they covered almost the entire island. In a moment of thought, Tang Huan had already calmed his mind and focused his attention on the cluster of soul in his palm.

"Huh?"

Not long after, Tang Huan exclaimed in surprise.

According to the memories he had obtained from the soul of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Hall Master, after his two embodiment left the White Skeletons Palace, one would head out to sea, while the other would hide in the Foggy Sea Island. However, from the situation he had sensed just now, those two embodiment s had actually gone to the center of the Foggy Sea Island.

After the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Palace Master's true body was discovered, did the two embodiment temporarily change their minds? But what were they doing there?

"It's better to be at the center of Foggy Sea Island than to escape from the sea!"

In the next moment, Tang Huan retracted his spirit power and rushed to the center of the Foggy Sea Island.

Seemingly at the same time, Tang Huan also used the connection between his souls to pass a mind instructs (in a second) to Feng Ming who was guarding the northern side of Foggy Sea Island, allowing her and Xiao Ai to approach him.

In the center of the island, the fog was getting thicker.

Looking down from above, it seemed to have congealed into a large mass of substance. Even though it was floating in the air, one could clearly feel an even stronger pressure surrounding it.

After waiting in the sky for a while, a red figure appeared in the northern horizon. It was Feng Ming.

In a moment, she was in front of Tang Huan. The little white rabbit was squatting on her shoulder, and its spirit had improved a lot.

"There are still two embodiment s that escaped the net, right below us!"

Without waiting for Feng Ming to speak, Tang Huan let out a low shout, and the Five Colors Heavenly Domain spread out again, enveloping Feng Ming and Xiao Ai within, and then began to sink down.

While he was moving around the island, the pressure from the clouds didn't affect Tang Huan much. Even if he didn't activate the Heavenly Domain, he could move freely. But in the center area, after entering the clouds, even with Tang Huan's strength, he would need to use the Heavenly Domain to resist the clouds.

In an instant, the consumption rate of Tang Huan's Genuine Qi greatly increased.

Given the strength of the two embodiment Masters of the Secluded Night Divine Palace s, they shouldn't be able to stay in this place for too long. However, they stayed below and didn't move at all.

While thinking, Tang Huan and Feng Ming had already landed on the ground.

The two of them looked at each other in astonishment. In the other regions, almost as soon as they appeared, they could see a large number of skeletons, but they couldn't even see a shadow of a skeleton. Could it be that not even the Stage Nine's skeletons could withstand the strong pressure in the middle of Foggy Sea Island?

With just a thought, Tang Huan had already retracted his mind, and followed the guidance of his soul, and sped forward.

Not long later, everything became clear in front of Tang Huan's eyes.

At this moment, what appeared in Tang Huan's line of sight was a round flat land, with a radius of several thousand meters. On the ground, it seemed as though there was an unusually large stone board, sparkling and translucent, like beautiful jade. And in the center of this flat ground, stood an incomparably huge arched door that was several hundred meters tall, as though it was formed from a curved, long, round stone strip.

Around the arena, there was a circle of enormous stone pillars that was a hundred meters tall. There were actually eighty-one of them.

Slate, stone arch, stone pillar ...

It was simple, but it emitted a majestic and unparalleled aura. When people saw it, they couldn't help but feel insignificant. Not only that, the huge stone slab on the ground, as well as the stone arch and the stone pillar, all contained extremely complicated patterns. Not only that, the huge stone board on the ground, as well as the stone arch and the stone pillar, all contained extremely complicated patterns.

"Yiya!" "Goo goo?"

Xiao Ai and Xiao Budian called out in surprise.

Tang Huan and Feng Ming could not help but look at each other. They could see an unconcealable sense of bewilderment and bewilderment from each other's eyes, they never thought that there was actually such a bizarre place in the center of Foggy Sea Island. However, with the pressure from the fog in the area, even Peak Stage Nine Rankers would not necessarily be able to reach this place. It was no wonder that the situation here never spread out.

"What is this place?" Feng Ming could not help but mutter.

"I don't know..."

Just as Tang Huan shook his head, a flash of inspiration flashed through his mind and he exclaimed, "Could this be the 'Ling Xiao Arch'?"

That "Ling Xiao Arch" appeared once every ten years, but it was impossible for it to appear for no reason.

After all, the "Ling Xiao Arch" was connected to the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road," and the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" was connected to the Forging God Great World. This strange object was not a rootless and rootless duckweed in the wind. It must have had a very powerful carrying object. Otherwise, it would have been impossible for it to open that passage.

This was the same logic as the teleportation array.

Whether it was engraved inside the "Magic Bead" or on the wall, each magic array had its own carrying object. Teleportation arrays couldn't be drawn in the air.

It was the same for "Ling Xiao Arch" and "Ling Xiao Ancient Road". Furthermore, the strength required to activate them must have reached an extremely terrifying level. It was possible that the fog in the entire Foggy Sea Island was prepared to activate "Ling Xiao Arch" and "Ling Xiao Ancient Road".

The more Tang Huan thought about it, the more he felt that it was possible.

"Ling Xiao Arch?"

Hearing Tang Huan's guess, Feng Ming was first surprised, but then she nodded as if thinking of something, "That might be possible. However, even if it was really the 'Ling Xiao Arch', it was still a dead object that had not been activated yet. What was that fellow trying to do with his two embodiment? Aren't they afraid that you'll find them? "

"Let's go in and take a look."

Tang Huan unwittingly smiled. What Feng Ming asked was exactly what he was wondering.

Ordinary Peak Stage Nine Rankers would not be able to reach here, but he was able to kill the Heavenly Domain-level Experts. It was impossible for the two embodiment s of that old fellow to not know of this point, yet they still ran over. According to the soul's guidance, those two embodiment should be in the arena in front of them. However, in Tang Huan's line of sight, they were not there, but were probably blocked by a certain stone pillar.

Chapter 672 - Black Skeleton

The two figures quickly moved forward, quickly stepping onto the incomparably vast stone slab.

In the next moment, Tang Huan felt relaxed. Within the area of the stone slab, the terrifying pressure produced by the clouds was actually completely isolated from the world. Inside the stone board, not to mention Feng Ming, the Peak Stage Nine Ranker, even Xiao Budian could move freely here.

Tang Huan thought for a while, then the Five Colors Heavenly Domain disappeared.

As expected, there was no longer any feeling of oppression, and what replaced it was an incomparably rich aura of power. This kind of power shared the same origin as the power in the surrounding clouds. In this area, this power did not bring any pressure, but it was a few times purer compared to the surrounding clouds.

This kind of power could be completely absorbed and refined. If one cultivated here, the speed of their cultivation would definitely be faster than the third level of the "Sky Spirit Realm".

Giving a meaningful glance at Feng Ming, Tang Huan composed himself and quietly advanced forward.

"Yiya?"

But after walking for only a few dozen meters, on Tang Huan's shoulder, Xiao Budian began to let out a low cry, and her chubby little butt began to twist back and forth, as though she was extremely uneasy. Tang Huan raised his eyebrows, he could not help but let out a trace of warning in the bottom of his heart, and the more he moved forward, the more obvious this bad feeling became.

However, Tang Huan was unable to grasp where this feeling came from.

The two embodiment of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Palace Master?

Tang Huan quietly slowed down his footsteps, this thought subconsciously flashed through his mind, but in the next moment, Tang Huan had already rejected it. Those two embodiment were equivalent to two Stage Nine Martial Saint s, and basically could not bring him any threat, nor would Xiao Budian feel any danger.

"Gu gu ..."

Immediately after, Xiao Ai released a soft cry, obviously sensing it as well.

Feng Ming frowned. She felt that something was wrong with the situation between Xiao Budian and her, as well as the change in Tang Huan's expression. Moreover, this place made her feel even more pressured.

Tang Huan squinted as he appeared once again in the midst of mind instructs (in a second). The Perception Ability had been raised to the extreme in an instant.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

A low roar suddenly sounded, as if an ancient beast had suddenly awakened from its slumber. The roar actually became louder and louder, at first, it was rather soft, but after a few breaths of time, the roar was like thunder, seemingly capable of tearing one's eardrums.

Accompanying this roar was an exceptionally terrifying aura fluctuation. Wherever it passed, space seemed to surge crazily.

Tang Huan's heart skipped a beat, he felt his scalp go numb.

The two embodiment of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Palace Master were right behind the arch, but there were not only them at that place, there was also a hidden expert of astonishing strength.

The moment he sensed that aura fluctuation, even Tang Huan's soul had been shaken.

Before, Tang Huan had only felt an aura of this degree from one person. It was the first sword form of the "Sword Seal" left behind by the "Ling Xiao Sword Sect" peerless expert.

The strength of the person in front was not one bit inferior to Jian Yi?

Tang Huan's mind trembled, and said anxiously: "Feng Ming, Xiao Budian, you two enter the Space Aircraft, Xiao Ai will help me outside." Without the slightest hesitation, with a slight thought from Tang Huan, the flying shuttle flew out quickly from his embrace, and started to fluctuate rapidly in the air.

Feng Ming had also realized the seriousness of the situation. If she had stayed outside, it would have caused Tang Huan to be distracted.

"Be careful!"

He only had enough time to give a concerned reminder before the flying shuttle sucking entered Feng Ming's body. Xiao Budian also cried out "Yiya" and "yiya" twice, following closely behind him as he entered the aircraft.

"Let's go!"

Keeping the flying shuttle, Tang Huan slightly nodded towards Xiao Ai who was on his shoulder and walked forward with large strides. The Conqueror Spear appeared in his hands at almost the same time and turned into a Eight Remoteness Dragon King. His mouth opened, and Secluded Night Divine Palace Palace Lord's soul swallowed it, reverting back to the appearance of a Conqueror Spear.

At this moment, Tang Huan was feeling slightly regretful in his heart.

Inside the soul of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Palace Master, there was definitely something about this place.

Unfortunately, when Tang Huan was at White Skeletons Palace, she was anxious to find his two embodiment, so after determining that he was not lying, she immediately set off to chase after him. If he had spent more time searching through all of his memories, he would have known about this place by now.

However, at this point, it was useless to regret.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

The wailing sound was like a clap of thunder, resounding through the air once more. Like a hurricane, the aura coming from the arched door grew increasingly stronger. Almost as soon as the roar was heard, the sound of footsteps could be heard. The sound was low and deep, but it seemed to pierce through everyone's hearts.

When Tang Huan was only a few hundred meters away from the arched door, a black figure walked out from behind it.

The only difference was that the skeleton was as white as jade, and the skeleton's entire body was as black as ink. When it appeared, the surrounding light seemed to be absorbed by the sucking, becoming dimmer and dimmer.

Behind the skeleton were two black figures. They were two old men.

"embodiment?"

The aura exuded by the two old men was exactly the same as that of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Hall Master. They were obviously the two embodiments that Tang Huan was looking for. As for the black skeleton ... When it looked at it, Tang Huan's pupils couldn't help but constrict and his expression became extremely serious.

"Goo —"

The little white rabbit opened its mouth and roared.

The deafening sound waves seemed to have solidified into a solid substance that rippled crazily in the entire region. At the same time it roared, the aura emitted from its body also started to churn violently, like raging waves in the stormy seas.

"Tang Huan, I never thought that you would actually come here, you are simply seeking your own death!" The moment they saw Tang Huan, an embodiment behind the skeleton began to laugh loudly.

"Tang Huan, you're dead today!" The other embodiment also laughed sinisterly.

"Just based on this skeleton?"

Tang Huan laughed coldly, and pouted his lips in disdain.

The appearance of this black skeleton gave him an even greater pressure. This gave him a premonition that even if he worked together with Xiao Ai, he still might not be able to defeat it. However, this did not mean that he would be afraid.

But after a moment, Tang Huan was slightly stunned, and the black skeleton actually spoke.

"Tang Huan..."

Inside the skull, a group of Blood Red Odor the size of a washbasin was jumping around like flames. A low and cold voice shook the skull, "To be able to come to this place, your strength is pretty good. However, this Foggy Sea Island is this king's residence, so you can't act recklessly here!"

Chapter 673 - Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique

The skeleton could actually speak? After a brief moment of surprise, Tang Huan began to laugh loudly, "A mere skeleton dares to call itself king, how laughable!"

"Hmm?"

The skeleton let out an angry snort and a black aura rose from its bones. A wave of terrifying killing intent swept towards Tang Huan and Xiao Ai like raging waves and billowing waves, and the space it passed through seemed to solidify. The shocking aura seemed to want to grind the obstacles in front of it into fine powder.

"Tang Huan, how dare you be disrespectful to Secluded Night Dark King!"

"How dare you!"

Almost at the same time, the two embodiments berated at the same time.

"Tang Huan, you deserve to die!"

The black skeleton, who was referred to as "Secluded Night Dark King," clawed at his chest and actually pulled out a long rib. In the next instant, he was like a ferocious beast that had escaped its cage as he charged forward like lightning, the black aura seemingly coalescing into a protective barrier around his body.

"So fast!"

Just a moment ago, it was still several hundred meters away, but in the next moment, the distance between it and Tang Huan had already shrunk to less than a hundred meters. What made Tang Huan feel even more apprehensive, was not its speed, but its Heavenly Domain.

The skeleton's Heavenly Domain had actually shrunk even more than his own Five Colors Heavenly Domain. It was as if there was a thin layer of skin that completely adhered to the surface of his body.

"Xiao Ai, get rid of those two embodiment s!"

Amidst the explosive shout, Tang Huan had already shot forward like lightning.

At this moment, he had already activated both "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and "Five Colors Spiritual Pills" to their limits. A blazing firepower mixed with a majestic Genuine Qi surged out violently, and the Conqueror Spear in his hands immediately released an incomparably dazzling red light. A terrifying heat also surged out from within the spear, spiralling rapidly along the spear's force.

"Goo —"

At about the same time, Xiao Ai also jumped up from Tang Huan's shoulder like an arrow that had just left the bow, and actually flew up hundreds of meters into the sky. Before even the blink of an eye, that small group of white shadows had already flew across the sky above Secluded Night Dark King like a meteor as it smashed towards the two embodiment behind him.

Seeing this, the two embodiment s were shocked, and practically shot forward without hesitation.

Although it was their first time meeting Xiao Ai, the aura Xiao Ai emitted made them understand that this was an opponent that even their main bodies could not defeat! Whether it was escaping or resisting, death was inevitable. Only by getting close to the Secluded Night Dark King would there be a chance for survival.

"Howl!"

Sensing Xiao Ai's actions, the Secluded Night Dark King roared, he did not turn around to stop him, but instead, continued to rush at Tang Huan, the rib in his hand extended out with the force of a thunderbolt, and a gigantic ray of black light whizzed out from the rib, instantly tearing through the air and sweeping towards Tang Huan.

"Swish ..."

Tang Huan's spear was like a dragon, thrusting out with an astonishing speed.

In the blink of an eye, Tang Huan had already thrust out forty-nine times. Streaks of fiery red spear shadows rapidly condensed in the air, instantly transforming into an incomparably large spear light, and roared forward. Even the air itself seemed to have been punctured by a gigantic hole.

This was the first style of the "Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique", "Divine Power Beating".

Before Shan Shan left the Heavenly Forging City, he returned the "Divine Armament's battle skill" to Tang Huan. Coincidentally, in that book, there was the "Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique" that was called the first Spear Technique. With Tang Huan's Heavenly Domain level of strength, cultivating this kind of Spear Technique shouldn't be too difficult.

Tang Huan was already familiar with the four forms of the Spear Technique.

This "Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique" was originally a set of Spear Techniques that was created for the Conqueror Spear. Now, when Tang Huan used the "Divine Power Beating" with the Conqueror Spear, he was actually able to unleash this kind of Spear Technique to the fullest.

In a split-second, that bundle of Fire Red Spear Radiance and that streak of black light fiercely clashed.

With an earth-shattering explosion, both of them burst apart at the same time, and the incomparably violent Strength Qi surged out in all directions like a wave. At this time, Secluded Night Dark King and Tang Huan's footsteps did not pause at all, and in the blink of an eye, they had already crashed into the rapidly raging Strength Qi.

"Hu!"

The ribs in Secluded Night Dark King's hand chopped towards Tang Huan once again. The Black Heavenly Domain on the surface of his body fluctuated violently and gathered towards the ribs like flowing water. Tang Huan didn't hesitate at all as he slashed the spear in his hand with lightning speed. The powerful Five Colors Heavenly Domain power also quickly gathered on the spear.

"Bam!"

In the blink of an eye, the rib cage that was as black as ink collided with the Fire Red Long Spear that was wrapped in the multicolored intent.

An enormous power instantly exploded out, and the air around the point of impact started to ripple abnormally clearly. The sound that seemed to pierce through gold and split stone was accompanied by a terrifying impact force as it rumbled in all directions, like a monstrous wave, shocking everyone.

In the blink of an eye, it had already passed through the Conqueror Spear and entered his body through its body. Tang Huan did not hesitate at all, the Nine Yang Divine Furnace continued to circulate its energy crazily, absorbing the energy into his body. Even so, Tang Huan felt a sharp pain in his palms, his arms were numb, the Spiritual Meridian in his body was swollen and the Conqueror Spear almost fell out of his hands.

"This black skeleton is so strong!" Seemingly at the same time as this thought flashed through Tang Huan's mind, the charging force had already roared towards him.

"Tap! Tap! Tap! Tap!..."

Tang Huan retreated a few steps before he managed to stabilize his body, but Secluded Night Dark King only retreated two steps, before his sturdy body managed to stabilize itself.

Both sides' attacks were ferocious, and in the blink of an eye, the Fire Red Huge Dragon had already entered the skull's gaping mouth.

The dragon head had already exploded, setting off an incomparably fierce fiery storm within the skull. It then pulled the entire body of the dragon into it, and even more violent and violent power erupted. The skull's surface immediately revealed several fiery red cracks, as if it would break into pieces at any moment.

However, the skull stabilized itself, after a slight pause, it continued to shoot towards Tang Huan.

This time, the attack from the Dark Night King was even stronger than before.

"Chi!" Tang Huan's eyes became serious, the long spear in his hand became like lightning, a group of fiery red spear lights shot out and struck the skull.

"Bam!"

The sound of an explosion rang out and the skull could no longer hold on, shattering into countless bits and pieces. But at this moment, the rib cage in Secluded Night Dark King's hands fell from the sky with the force of a ten thousand kilograms. The terrifying Strength Qi poured down like a waterfall.

Tang Huan completely didn't have time to change the force of the spear as he cried out explosively. The Genuine Qi roared out from his arms and poured into the spear body, and in an instant, the Conqueror Spear gave off an even more dazzling red glow. On the spear head, an abnormally fierce flame rose, and the surrounding temperature actually crazily increased.

"Goo —"

Almost at the same time, a thunderous roar sounded out. Behind Secluded Night Dark King, Xiao Ai, who had eliminated the two embodiment s, looked like a ball of white light as he shot forward like lightning.

"Howl!"

The Secluded Night Dark King roared, the rib in his right hand smashed onto the Conqueror Spear, while his left hand took out another rib from his body, and with the back of his hand he pierced towards the little white rabbit behind him, his attack was as fast as lightning, at the same time striking towards Tang Huan and Xiao Ai, his speed was not affected in the slightest.

"Clang!"

The long spear and the ribs ruthlessly collided, and a surge of immense strength gushed through the body of the spear.

This time, Tang Huan was prepared, the Genuine Qi blocked it heavily, but the force still managed to enter his body. Although it was eventually lured into the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace," Tang Huan's body was forced to retreat once again, as pain surged through his body. His arm felt extremely sore, and even the skin on his palm was split open due to the impact.

At this moment, Tang Huan was not alarmed, but instead happy. He suddenly realized that under the Nirvana Sacred Fire "burning, extremely fine cracks had appeared on the ribs in Secluded Night Dark King's hand.

Tang Huan knew that this was definitely not an illusion.

However, he was not surprised. The "Nirvana Sacred Fire" of the five elements fire was originally a type of Yang power that had a strong restraining effect on skeletons. In essence, the skeleton of the Secluded Night Dark King was no different from the Xuan Ming Ghost King's, Savage Heavenly Corpse's, and the vengeful spirits and blood spirits of the Sword Crafting Valley.

The only difference was that its strength far surpassed Xuan Ming Ghost King's and Savage Heavenly Corpse's, and was vastly different from those vengeful spirits and blood spirits.

In a moment, Tang Huan stabilized his footsteps.

Right at this moment, another loud explosion occurred. It was Secluded Night Dark King's other rib that pierced the white figure that was flying towards them from behind. In the midst of an earth-shattering sound, Xiao Ai instantly retreated several hundred meters, while the Secluded Night Dark King's muscular body staggered forward a small step.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

Secluded Night Dark King was enraged to the extreme, releasing a heaven-shaking roar.

Inside its head, the Blood Red Odor was surging crazily, and a majestic deathly stillness pervaded the sky and earth. Heavenly Domain, who had adhered to its body like skin, also surged violently, and from a distance, the tall and sturdy skeleton of the Secluded Night Dark King seemed to be burning with a layer of black flames.

"Again!"

Tang Huan immediately felt an even greater pressure, but his eyes were wide open as he rushed up high in the sky, the Conqueror Spear in his hands smashed down from above. This time, Tang Huan did not make any fancy movements. He just simply shot towards Secluded Night Dark King from the top.

However, compared to the two times he had used "Divine Power Beating" and "Dragon Soaring Break" before, the power released from this spear was not weak at all.

At this moment, the will within the spear had already reached its peak. An incomparably domineering aura roared out like a torrent. The moment the Qi appeared, it merged with the Qi that was emitted from Tang Huan's body, and the Conqueror Spear also seemed to have become one with Tang Huan.

In this instant, Tang Huan was actually as awe-inspiring as a war god, his domineering aura soaring to the heavens.

This was the third form of the "Overlord Way" among the "Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique s"!

"Goo!"

A few hundred meters away, the little white rabbit's eyes were red as she let out a furious roar. Her two legs stomped on the ground ferociously as she followed closely behind Tang Huan.

"Chi!"

The Secluded Night Dark King's right rib swung up diagonally, and a ray of blood light seeped out from inside the head. In an instant, it traveled along the arm and extended to the rib cage, and like a blade ray, it shot out from the rib cage. Under the force of the roiling black qi, it welcomed the Conqueror Spear.

The rib in his left hand had also pierced through the underarm. It seemed slow but was actually very weak. On the ribs, there seemed to be an unparalleled power.

"Clang!"

In the blink of an eye, the spear and ribs intersected once again as the Strength Qi rolled forward like a hurricane. Not only did the's right rib suddenly sink, even his knees were bent because of it, and his muscular body seemed to have grown two meters shorter in an instant.

On the other hand, Tang Huan was sent flying dozens of meters back along with his spear. With a "thump" sound, his two feet first landed heavily on the ground, and then his right leg uncontrollably stepped back to stabilize his body. At the same time, Xiao Ai collided ruthlessly with the rib bone in Secluded Night Dark King's left hand.

Xiao Ai retreated quickly as the Secluded Night Dark King staggered forward.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan did not stop at all, his body was like a wild horse untamed, rushing forward, the blazing Conqueror Spear swept out with a thunderous power.

Chapter 675 - Sweeping the Thousand Army

The Strength Qi and heat emitted by the spear seemed to have turned into a terrifying torrent, rolling towards the spear from afar, unstoppable, unstoppable. Even if there were thousands of soldiers and horses in front, they could still be crushed to pieces.

He had wiped out an army of a thousand!

This was the fourth and final move of the "Conqueror Breaching Army Spear Technique".

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~" With an exceptionally sharp roar, the ribs on Secluded Night Dark King's left hand released a bloody light. In an instant, the black light turned dark red, and then dark red, turning blood-red.

"Chi!"

The sound of something tearing through the air suddenly rang out.

The ribs in Secluded Night Dark King's hand were already chopping down towards the left and the sky. From afar, it looked like a blood-red waterfall pouring down from the nine heavens with an imposing manner that overflowed into the sky. A dark, cold and violent aura crazily filled the entire area and even the air itself was unable to withstand this terrifying fluctuation.

Almost at the same time, the cracked rib in its right hand swung behind it. In that direction, the little white rabbit once again brazenly attacked.

In a split-second, the blood-red waterfall that was split open from its ribs had already fallen onto the fiery torrent that was swept out by the Conqueror Spear. The earth-shaking explosion sounds seemed to have congealed into a solid sound wave, which surged in all directions, and the incomparably violent Strength Qi rolled out in all directions while intertwining with each other, wave after wave, layer upon layer, instantly distorting the space and creating huge ripples.

In that instant, the area within a hundred meter radius was enveloped by a terrifying storm, and the terrifying Strength Qi spread to a thousand meters radius.

Under such a violent impact, the blood red ribs and the Fire Red Long Spear were separated from each other the moment they came into contact, causing Tang Huan to retreat continuously. Secluded Night Dark King was also unable to resist as he continuously stepped backwards with his large feet. The ribs on his right hand had also unavoidably shifted in direction.

However, with Secluded Night Dark King at the front blocking the terrifying impact of the Strength Qi, Xiao Ai's attack wasn't too affected.

Seemingly at the same time as Secluded Night Dark King retreated, the white stream of light released from Xiao Ai's body passed right through his sharp ribs. Its two hind legs ruthlessly stepped on his spine, and the powerful Strength Qi exploded out of him in an instant.

With the Strength Qi in front and Xiao Ai's legs behind, under the pincer attack, Secluded Night Dark King's body uncontrollably took a few steps forward, then retreated a few steps back again and again. The bones in his entire body shook slightly, and the little white rabbit bounced back a few hundred meters.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

The sound of her angry roars filled the air, causing Secluded Night Dark King to be thoroughly infuriated.

Inside the head, the Blood Red Odor was wildly fluctuating as the bloody light spread out like a spider web. In just the blink of an eye, the black skeleton of Secluded Night Dark King had turned completely into a blood-red color. Even the Heavenly Domain on the surface of his body had been fused with the blood-red light.

"Whoosh!"

Tang Huan's body was like a flowing shadow as he once again waved his Conqueror Spear, pouncing towards Secluded Night Dark King. At the tip of his spear, flames suddenly surged, and the heat was just like a surging tide. On the opposite side, hundreds of meters away, the little white rabbit did not stop either. It once again jumped off the ground and curled its body into a small ball as it charged forward like a meteorite.

"Boom!" "Boom ~ ~ ~"

Earth-shaking collision sounds rose and fell one after another.

Secluded Night Dark King's entire body was filled with killing intent, the two ribs in his hand danced frantically, a blood red Strength Qi shot out, welcoming Tang Huan and Xiao Ai's attacks.

Tang Huan and Xiao Ai retreated time and time again, but again and again they charged forward...

Time passed quietly.

After another huge explosion, the little white rabbit flew back and floated onto the ground, baring her teeth as she glared at Secluded Night Dark King's back. At this time, its four limbs were trembling slightly, its mouth was opened wide, and the sound of panting was like Lei Ming.

More than a hundred meters away, the Secluded Night Dark King's muscular body was also trembling, as though it could fall apart at any time. Inside his head, the group of Blood Red Odor had already become much dimmer.

Tang Huan also breathed heavily like a little white rabbit tens of meters away from the Secluded Night Dark King.

Not only were his hands bloodied, the skin on his body was chapped inch by inch, and the blood that was revealed had already dyed the clothes on his body dark red. The situation inside his body was even more terrible, his Spiritual Meridian and internal organs were all injured, and the energy of the Genuine Qi, Mind Power, and even the Four Great Spiritual Fire s had all been used up almost completely.

Tang Huan and the little white rabbit attacked Secluded Night Dark King together. However, the majority of the attention of the Secluded Night Dark King was placed on Tang Huan, so every attack that he endured far surpassed the little white rabbit.

This Secluded Night Dark King was truly worthy of being the strongest enemy Tang Huan had ever encountered. When fighting against such an enemy, Tang Huan could not hold back at all, the power in his body was gone like water, and his energy replenishment was completely unable to keep up with the speed of his energy consumption. As the battle continued, Tang Huan's energy also gradually bottomed out.

In addition to the fact that there was the little white rabbit controlling him from behind, and the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace s" were constantly gathering power to attack his body, if not for this, Tang Huan would have already lied down.

Initially, he had thought that the Demon Lord Fen Tian was the number one expert of this small world, but in the end, he had seen the unfathomably deep sword first, then he had encountered this skeleton in the Foggy Sea Island.

The "Ling Xiao Arch" would appear once every ten years, and when it appeared, all the clouds on the island would dissipate. At that time, any Stage Nine Ranker would be able to board the island, but after all these years, no one had discovered the Secluded Night Dark King.

Even those Four Great Blood Red Skeleton s did not know of its existence.

"Tang Huan, your strength is indeed far beyond this king's expectations. I didn't think that there would be Heavenly Domain s like you in the three clans. However, even though you are able to dominate the three races, you are not a match for this king. " Secluded Night Dark King suddenly opened his mouth, "Tang Huan, it's not easy for this king to cultivate, if you leave Foggy Sea Island just like that, this king can let bygones be bygones, what happened today, this king will treat it as if it never happened, if not ..."

"Otherwise what?" Tang Huan's mouth formed a smile.

"Otherwise, don't blame this king for leaving you in the Foggy Sea Island."

The Secluded Night Dark King laughed sinisterly, "Of course, killing you like this is too much of a pity. So, this king will spare your life. You have killed that trash Gui Jia, you can just happen to be the top, and become the new hall master of 'Secluded Night Divine Palace'."

"The person behind the Secluded Night Divine Palace is actually you!" Tang Huan was a little surprised. "Gui Jia" was the name of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's Palace Master, he had long guessed that the relationship between the Secluded Night Dark King and the Night God Codex was very deep. He didn't expect that it was actually the real master who was hiding behind the "Secluded Night Divine Palace".

Chapter 676 - Killing Hands!

"That's right!"

Secluded Night Dark King's voice was overcast as he laughed coldly, "Tang Huan, you must think carefully about which choice to make. Don't regret it when the time comes."

Tang Huan laughed: "There's no need to think about it, I really want to see how you will make me regret this!"

This Secluded Night Dark King was hiding within the Foggy Sea Island. Although he looked harmless, he was the main culprit behind the deaths of Mountain Country and the mountain forests. Gui Jia was just a marionette in his hands. If this guy were to survive, it would be a huge disaster for both the Human Clan and himself.

No matter how heavy the injuries were, Tang Huan had to kill it.

After all, the Ling Xiao Arch would appear very soon, and Tang Huan couldn't stay in this small world for long.

"Tang Huan, do you really think this king can't do anything to you and that little bastard?" Secluded Night Dark King was furious, within the head, the group of Blood Red Odor started to undulate more and more violently, but it suddenly shrunk, and the blood red aura that was already fading on the skeleton once again became denser.

"Goo —"

Xiao Ai roared out in anger, like a hedgehog, all the hair on his body stood up.

Tang Huan's face congealed, he finally understood what Secluded Night Dark King's trump card was.

This huge battle with him and Xiao Ai had consumed a lot of its energy, so its current state was not much better than Tang Huan's. Under normal circumstances, it was indeed powerless to kill him and Xiao Ai. But now, it had burned its own soul in exchange for power.

This kind of method was extremely harmful to the user. Once it was used, it would take a very long time to recover. Furthermore, once the energy used up, it would become even weaker.

If he were to enter the Space Aircraft now, he could easily avoid the Secluded Night Dark King, but Xiao Ai would have to take on the powerful attacks from the Secluded Night Dark King in his place. With the distance between him and Xiao Ai, it was impossible to get Xiao Ai into the flying shuttle before the Secluded Night Dark King launched an attack.

Even if he were to take Xiao Ai in, this method was not advisable.

Seeing Tang Huan and Xiao Ai hiding inside the aircraft, the Secluded Night Dark King could not just foolishly wait here. It would definitely take advantage of its tyrannical strength to escape, and the moment it entered the surrounding clouds and mist, it would be extremely difficult for Tang Huan to activate the flying shuttle and find it.

After a moment of hesitation, Tang Huan's eyes became ruthless. Secluded Night Dark King had such a trump card, did he not have it?

"Hu!"

In the next moment, from between Tang Huan's brows, a congealed Five Colors Odor roared out, and in that moment, it turned into an extremely ferocious storm, sweeping towards Secluded Night Dark King, which seemed to be able to destroy everything, and a terrifying aura surged out crazily.

This was the "Soul Killing Storm", a soul attack method that was even more powerful than the "Soul Killing Stab".

However, Tang Huan had also been like the Demon Lord Fen Tian back then, and had not truly learned this method.

Only, at this time, Tang Huan could not care so much anymore.

The other soul attack "Soul Killing Stab" that he was familiar with, would probably not be able to pose too much of a threat to the Secluded Night Dark King, and this "Soul Killing Storm", even if Tang Huan had not successfully cultivated it, the power it could unleash would still far surpass that of the "Soul Killing Stab".

Right now, the Secluded Night Dark King was burning her soul, which was when her soul was at its most unstable state. It was at this time that she launched her soul attack, which had the best effect.

"Soul attack?"

Secluded Night Dark King's tone changed greatly as he explosively retreated, the two ribs in his hands actually slashing out at the same time. Wherever the red light passed by, the Strength Qi would turn, as if it wanted to completely shred that five-colored storm. It was a pity that although the power contained within its two ribs was strong, it did not affect Tang Huan's attack.

In the blink of an eye, the five-colored storm had already whistled past, charging straight into Secluded Night Dark King's head, frantically attacking the group of Blood Red Odor inside.

"Howl!"

The Secluded Night Dark King screamed, but his body only swayed slightly before stabilising himself.

Tang Huan's face slightly paled, and with a slight thought, another ball of Five Colors Odor shot out from between his brows like lightning, transforming into a rainbow-colored storm that surged forward.

An instant later, from within the head of the Secluded Night Dark King, another explosive sound rang, but Tang Huan did not stop for the third time.

"Howl!"

The Secluded Night Dark King screamed as his body staggered backwards. However, not long after, it was able to stabilize its body once again.

Tang Huan was stunned, the strength of the soul of the Secluded Night Dark King had actually far exceeded his expectations.

In a split-second, he let out a low growl, and the Five-Colored Storm roared for the fourth time. In the blink of an eye, it had already been sucked into Secluded Night Dark King's head, completely annihilating that group of Blood Red Odor which had shrunk to a size several times smaller than normal.

"Wuuuuuu ~ ~ ~"

Secluded Night Dark King whined and knelt on the ground, the two ribs in his hands barely supporting his upper body, in his head, there was actually still a fist-sized ball of Blood Red Odor left.

"Goo!"

Amidst the roar akin to that of Lei Ming, Xiao Ai actually leapt up once more, and his body turned into a small ball of white flowing shadows as he explosively shot forward.

In a split-second, its two hind legs already landed on Secluded Night Dark King's back. With a boom, the little white rabbit bounced back dozens of meters. When it landed, its four limbs gave way and its body fell limply onto the ground. There was no longer any movement. Its pair of bright red eyes also closed.

"Bam!"

The Secluded Night Dark King's burly body uncontrollably flew out like a broken kite, heavily smashing onto the ground. The two ribs in his hands that were full of cracks completely exploded, turning into countless pieces, and its body also crumbled into pieces. The blood-red aura on its bones quickly faded, becoming as black as ink once again.

"Xiao Ai."

Tang Huan cried out in alarm. The little fellow had almost used up all the energy in its body, yet it was still trying to launch another attack.

He really wanted to go over and see Xiao Ai's situation, but he couldn't move a muscle.

At that time, Demon Lord Fen Tian had only used "Soul Killing Storm" three times and his soul had already collapsed, but he had consecutively executed it four times. Although his soul was stronger than the Demon Lord Fen Tian's at that time, after using "Soul Killing Storm" four times, his face was completely pale, and even his head seemed to be about to split open.

"Tang Huan, this king will not forgive you ..." A weak voice came out, and Secluded Night Dark King's head, which was separated from his body, actually floated up.

"Go!"

Tang Huan fiercely gritted his teeth as the Conqueror Spear turned into a Eight Remoteness Dragon King and pounced out.

Seeing that Eight Remoteness Dragon King had swallowed the lump of Blood Red Odor in Secluded Night Dark King's head, Tang Huan could no longer hold on. He fell back onto the ground and smashed his body straight into it.

Tang Huan forced himself not to faint. With a thought, the flying shuttle flew out from his embrace, and quickly expanded in the air. Amidst intense trembling sounds, Feng Ming and Xiao Budian's figures seemed to be revealed at almost the same time. Tang Huan felt as though a weight had been lifted off his shoulders, but he could no longer hold on and slowly closed his eyes.

Chapter 677 - Ling Xiao Arch Appears!

"Is there any news about that brat Tang Huan?"

"Shan Lan, what's the situation?!"

Glory Continent, in the courtyard behind Furious Waves City's Blacksmith Shop, seeing Shan Lan enter, Ou Xie and the old fatty both jumped up at the same time, their expressions anxious.

Shan Lan did not say anything, he only smiled bitterly and shook his head.

Ou Xie and the old fatty looked at each other, feeling helpless.

After Tang Huan left the Furious Waves City, the last time he showed his face was when he was in Holy Spirit Continent. According to the news he received, Tang Huan obtained a new set of Space Aircraft from the Demon Area Desert, so he gave the original one to Xing Meng. After that, Tang Huan had never appeared again.

"Where did this brat run off to?"

After a long while, Ou Xie frowned and sighed.

With Tang Huan's strength, there were almost none in the small world that could threaten him right now. Furthermore, Tang Huan had a higher quality Space Aircraft, even if he met one or two stronger hidden experts, he could escape if he could not defeat them.

Even though he said that, there was still no news of him, so it was hard to not be worried.

Shan Lan's lips slightly moved, but just as she was about to speak, her expression suddenly changed as she looked to the east in the blink of an eye. At practically the same time, Ou Xie and the old fatty had the same reaction.

Just now, they suddenly felt an extremely terrifying aura.

That aura seemed to have come from a faraway horizon, boundless and majestic like a vast ocean. It was as if there was no obstacle that could stop this terrifying fluctuation.

When it brushed past them, even if it was a Peak Stage Nine Ranker like Ou Xie, the old fatty and Shan Lan, they all felt their hearts shaking, unable to resist at all.

"The Ling Xiao Arch has appeared!"

After a while, Ou Xie was the first to regain his senses. He took a deep breath and looked at the old fatty and Shan Lan as if they had just woken up from a dream, his expression was complicated.

They were extremely familiar with this terrifying aura.

Every ten years, this aura would spread out from the Foggy Sea Island and cover every corner of this small world. Ordinary people would not be able to discover this Qi, but Stage Nine Warriors could clearly feel its existence. The appearance of this aura meant that Ling Xiao Arch had also appeared.

When the Ling Xiao Arch was revealed, the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" opened as well.

Since ancient times, many Stage Nine Rankers from the Human Clan, Tian Clan and others had entered the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road", hoping to reach the Forging God Great World, but there were only a few that succeeded. The vast majority of them threw their lives there, but even so, it still made many Rankers yearn for it.

"Since the Ling Xiao Arch has appeared, that kid will definitely rush over as well." The old fatty suddenly said with a smile.

"Right, we will go to the Foggy Sea Island right now!"

"..."

... ..

Great Tang Empire, God-down City.

Deep inside the palace, Tang Moyang's eyes slightly narrowed, as he quietly sensed the waves of terrifying aura that were whizzing towards him. His brows slightly twitched, showing that his heart was extremely restless.

"Ling Xiao Arch, oh Ling Xiao Arch ..."

After a long while, Tang Moyang sighed, he slowly opened his eyes, and his gaze suddenly became resolute.

He had wanted to go and try out the Ling Xiao Arch for a long time.

Now that Tang Zhao had become a strong Stage Nine Ranker and still possessed a Divine Armament that he had spent a huge sum of money to forge, he could finally rest in peace.

In a blink of an eye, Tang Moyang had already shot up.

... ..

Holy Spirit Continent, Cloud Sky City.

"This is ..." Inside the quiet Heavenly Heart Hall, Hei Yan who was seated cross-legged on the ground suddenly opened his eyes, a strange expression flashing across his eyes.

"Has the Ling Xiao Arch appeared again?"

Not far away, on a recliner made from vines, Xing Meng's eyelashes suddenly trembled, then her eyes opened up, revealing a pair of eyes that contained an endless amount of vicissitudes of life. She actually woke up from her slumber, and her gentle voice broke the silence in this space.

"Lord, you're awake?"

Hei Yan was stunned at first, but soon after, she exclaimed in surprise.

Originally, Xing Meng thought that it would take a very long time before she would wake up, and might even be unable to wake up forever. After all, Xing Meng's age was right there, but she didn't expect that she would actually be awoken by the Ling Xiao Arch's aura this time.

"Lord!"

Another joyous cry rang out, and it was Mu Qing's figure that appeared at the entrance of the Heavenly Heart Hall ...

... ..

Tranquil Continent, Snowy Mountain Splitting Land.

On the cliff formed by ice and snow, a black shadow suddenly appeared. It was tall and slim, with a convexity that made it even more beautiful.

She was Shan Shan.

"The Ling Xiao Arch has appeared. If I didn't go over, that bastard Tang Huan wouldn't have been waiting for me there, right?" Shan Shan frowned, she didn't know what Shan Shan was thinking, but that tender and fair face of hers suddenly blushed, looking extremely alluring.

"Whoosh!"

After a moment, Shan Shan was like an arrow that had left the bow, flying swiftly through the vast snowy region. A kilometer above his head, two red figures followed.

... ..

At the edge of the Turbid Sea Area, in the middle of an exceptionally vast island, flames were blazing high up into the sky. molten lava were constantly spewing out of the volcanic crater at the center of the island, and a scorching heat spread across the entire island.

"Huh?"

Not far from the volcano, Yu Feiyan suddenly shot into the air. Her red skirt fluttered, and a strange light flashed deep within her beautiful eyes.

"Little girl, it's time for us to return."

The sound of laughter came from far away and near.

In a flash, a figure rapidly approached from the edge of the island. It was a blue-robed elder with white hair and a beard. He was tall and had a ruddy complexion. Behind the green-robed old man, a huge black bird was also waving its two thick claws as it followed closely behind at an astonishing speed.

"Grandfather, is that the Ling Xiao Arch?"

Not long after, the huge black bird spread its enormous wings and soared into the sky. Two figures sat on its back.

... ..

In a short span of time, that incomparably strong wave of energy had already spread to every corner of the four continents, including Glory, Origin, Holy Spirit, and Terminator. It even went deep into the region at the edge of the Turbid Sea Area, and wave after wave like a tide, as if it would never stop.

At this moment, the boundless clouds and mist above Foggy Sea Island had already disappeared without a trace, and eerie white bones could be seen everywhere. As for those skeletons, after they lost the cover of the mist, they seemed to have lost all of their spirituality. They laid on the ground without moving at all.

In the center of the island, the enormous stone arch and the surrounding huge stone pillars all seemed to have turned into living beings. The surface of the island was shining with sparkling lights, and even the huge stone slab on the ground seemed to have been given life, appearing exceptionally agile.

Chapter 678 Not us, but me!

Not far from the arched door, Tang Huan and Feng Ming stood there motionlessly, their eyes filled with unconcealable astonishment. By the side, Xiao Budian and Xiao Ai had also opened their eyes wide.

Back then, after he urged the Conqueror Spear's artifact spirit to swallow the last of the Secluded Night Dark King's soul, then called out Feng Ming and Xiao Budian, Tang Huan had completely fainted.

The "Spirit Dragon Sacred Marrow" within Xiao Budian's Golden Horn caused him to wake up very quickly. Adding to the fact that Tang Huan possessed the "Sun Spirit Body", the injuries on his flesh body were quickly healed. However, the serious injuries that Tang Huan had sustained from using the "Soul Killing Storm" several times in a row were not easy to recover from.

After that, Tang Huan did not leave the Foggy Sea Island, but stayed here to cultivate and treat his injuries.

This place was indeed a holy land for cultivation. After a period of time, not only had the little white rabbit's strength greatly increased, Feng Ming had also finally stepped past the last half step and become a real Heavenly Domain-level Expert. Compared to the time he had fought against the Secluded Night Dark King, Tang Huan's strength had clearly risen as well. It was only because the recovery of his soul was rather slow that Tang Huan's soul could be considered to have completely recovered not long ago.

But just as Tang Huan was preparing to leave, a huge change suddenly occurred in the Foggy Sea Island.

The eighty-one stone pillars seemed to have turned into eighty-one whirlpools as they continuously sucked in the surrounding mist. It would probably only take a day or two before all the mist in Foggy Sea Island was devoured, revealing the true appearance of the island covered in mist for the next ten years.

The strangest thing was that after the fog disappeared, the skeletons on the island were all devoured by the fog, turning into lifeless skeletons.

And after absorbing all the mist and all the skeletons' souls, this small region seemed to have awakened from its slumber, and began to constantly emit terrifying undulations of aura in all directions.

Everything that had happened here completely verified Tang Huan's previous judgement.

The massive amount of fog in the Foggy Sea Island was indeed there to incite the "Ling Xiao Arch". As for the souls of the skeletons, they had become the artifact spirit of the "Ling Xiao Arch" after they were absorbed and gathered together. Standing here, Tang Huan could clearly feel the boundless spirituality.

During his stay in the Foggy Sea Island, Tang Huan had searched through the memories of Gui Jia and the Secluded Night Dark King's souls and gained a deeper understanding of the island.

Before this, Tang Huan was very much in the future, but why have he not seen these skeletons from other places in this little world for countless of years? But now, Tang Huan knew that for all the skeletons here, this Foggy Sea Island was equivalent to a huge cage.

The clouds and mist on the island allowed the skeletons to possess great strength. However, once they left the island, the souls of the skeletons would leave the corpses and return to the Ling Xiao Arch.

The Ling Xiao Arch and the skeleton on the island were one.

Every ten years, the Ling Xiao Arch would absorb the fog and open up the Ling Xiao Ancient Road. After the skeleton and soul merge, they would become the spirit of the Ling Xiao Arch. In three months, when the Ling Xiao Arch closes his eyes, the fog that contained a boundless amount of power will be reborn, and the gathered souls will separate and return to their respective bodies. However, after this event, the souls of all the skeletons would become extremely weak.

In the following time, the mist in the island grew more and more numerous. The skeletons absorbed the energy within the mist, and their souls gradually grew stronger. After about ten years, the skeleton's soul had almost completely recovered. Then, along with the mist, it was once again absorbed. A new cycle began.

The Ling Xiao Arch continued to open and close, and the skeletons continued to experience this rebirth. After every rebirth, their previous memories would disappear.

A few hundred years ago, a powerful skeleton was lucky enough to merge with a treasure that was left behind countless years ago, lucky enough to leave behind memories, unwilling to continue experiencing this endless cycle and trying to find ways to avoid the cycle of reincarnation. Thus, the Secluded Night Divine Palace appeared.

And that skeleton was the Secluded Night Dark King.

A Stage Nine Ranker who had trespassed into the Foggy Sea Island to train, under the control of the Secluded Night Dark King when he was exhausted, became the first Hall Master of the Secluded Night Divine Palace. The main purpose of the Secluded Night Divine Palace's existence was to earn money and then purchase all kinds of precious herbs and artifacts for the Secluded Night Dark King to temper its flesh body.

As time passed, Secluded Night Divine Palace changed to another five Palace Masters. Although Secluded Night Dark King was still undergoing reincarnation, its body was growing stronger and stronger.

With a strong body and complete memories, the degree of weakening of its soul became smaller and smaller, and its strength recovered faster and faster.

Inside the White Skeletons Palace, the white bead inside the skeleton's head was the thing that the Secluded Night Dark King was preparing to use to hold its soul. Secluded Night Dark King had originally planned to divide his own soul into two after his strength had risen to the peak of Heavenly Domain. The first part was to stay in the skeleton's body to respond to Ling Xiao Arch's sucking, and the second part was to transfer to the white bead, then find a Stage Nine Ranker to possess it.

Secluded Night Dark King's method had an extremely high success rate.

But unfortunately, before they could even take action, Tang Huan had first eliminated Gui Jia and his embodiment, and then eliminated the Secluded Night Dark King himself. As of now, all of their remaining residual soul had already been completely refined by Tang Huan, and was absorbed by the Eight Remoteness Dragon King.

A large amount of souls had greatly increased the spirit of the Conqueror Spear. Its strength was no longer inferior to the spirit of the Xuanyuan Sword, it was now the spirit of the Heavenly Domain.

"Tang Huan, when do you plan to enter 'Ling Xiao Ancient Road'?" Feng Ming's voice suddenly sounded out, breaking the silence of this entire space.

"Right now, the news of the appearance of the Ling Xiao Arch has probably spread throughout the entire small world."

The strength of that wave of aura that originated from the Ling Xiao Arch had already far surpassed Tang Huan's understanding. This kind of wave was definitely able to spread to every corner of the small world, "Shan Shan and the sword should be arriving here very soon, as well as Master and the old fatty. It will not be too late to enter after they arrive, since this' Ling Xiao Arch 'will only be closed for another three months. "

"Alright, then we'll go back in a few days." Feng Ming was eager to give it a try.

"Not us, but me!" Hearing this, Tang Huan couldn't help but laugh.

"Huh?" Feng Ming was startled.

"According to what Jian Yi said, once I enter the Ling Xiao Ancient Road, the test will begin."

Tang Huan said with a smile, "If I am able to pass the test, I will be able to pass through the 'Ling Xiao Ancient Road', and the 'Ling Xiao Ancient Road' will forever exist in the Foggy Sea Island from now on. At that time, you, Shan Shan, my master and the others can directly enter the Forging God Great World from the 'Ling Xiao Ancient Road', and there will be no need for you to take the risk like the others. If I am unable to pass this test, I will definitely lose my life. If you still want to go to Forging God Great World, then it will not be too late for you to enter there. Of course, it would be best if you wait ten or twenty more years.

"..."

Hearing this, Feng Ming frowned and fell silent.

Chapter 679 - Divine Weapon Pavilion Master

"Hu!"

In the evening, a small boat rode the wind and broke the waves as it approached the vast sea.

At the bow of the ship was a slim and graceful young woman. Her black robes fluttered in the sea breeze, revealing her curvaceous figure.

In the dark sky, there seemed to be two small red figures following them.

In a short while, the small boat had landed on the Foggy Sea Island. The black clothed lady leaped up and floated down to the ground. Her figure was like lightning as she rushed towards the center of the island at a fast speed.

Thousands of kilometers passed in the blink of an eye.

Not long after, the incredibly large "Ling Xiao Arch" was imprinted into his eyes, and a dazzling white luster blossomed, reflecting the gradually deepening night sky and making it completely translucent.

"Is that bastard here yet?"

The girl in black paused and murmured to herself. Then, she moved again as fast as lightning. Very quickly, the bright area at the center of the Foggy Sea Island clearly appeared in his line of sight. Two figures were already quietly standing in front of the Ling Xiao Arch.

One of them was a young man around the age of twenty. He was tall and dressed in black, and his face was as handsome as jade.

The other was a young woman. Not only was her clothes red like fire, her eyes were also fiery red. Her facial features were exquisite, her face was gorgeous, and her figure was seductive.

"Tang Huan!"

The girl in black subconsciously stopped and exclaimed with a complicated expression.

Just as she finished speaking, Tang Huan suddenly disappeared from Ling Xiao Arch, and in the next moment, he reappeared in front of her. Just as she was about to speak, she felt Tang Huan holding her waist, and the words that she was about to say turned into a soft cry.

"Shan Shan, you're finally here." Tang Huan laughed loudly.

"You ... "Put me down ..."

Shan Shan was a little embarrassed and angry, a captivating captivating captivating red surfaced on her face. Unlike back in the Glory Sacred Temple, there was only Tang Huan and her here.

"Tsk tsk, what a lecherous concubine."

At this moment, a teasing voice came from afar.

Tang Huan could not help but put Shan Shan down and look up. Under the dim sky, a huge black bird flew over and on its back sat a red figure.

"Yu Feiyan!"

Shan Shan clenched her teeth, her face sunk.

When it was only twenty or thirty meters away from the ground, the red figure directly leaped down. It was actually a woman in red with a halberd on her shoulder, with a oval face, phoenix eyes, and long hair tied into a ponytail. She had a unique charm to her.

"Senior apprentice sister Feiyan, how have you been?"

Tang Huan cupped his hands and smiled, but then the corner of his mouth uncontrollably twitched. A piece of skin and flesh on his waist was fiercely pinched by Shan Shan.

Yu Feiyan's two eyes wandered around Tang Huan and Shan Shan as he chuckled. But before she could make a sound, another vigorous voice sounded out: "Girl, this is Tang Huan?" Although the voice was not loud, it was still exceptionally clear.

Tang Huan followed the voice and looked over, to see that under the faint shadow of the night in the north, there was an additional burly figure, in an instant, he had already passed through two of the Pang Shou pillars, and was actually a silky white haired old man in green robes with a long beard, with long sleeves floating in the wind, it looked like he had walked down the path of the heavens.

"Grandpa Yu!"

Shan Shan suddenly called out.

Although she did not like Yu Feiyan's looks, when she saw the green robed elder that suddenly appeared, her face revealed a happy smile.

Tang Huan also smiled slightly. He already understood the identity of the green-robed elder.

He is the Divine Weapon Pavilion Master!

... ..

As the days passed, more and more Stage Nine Rankers arrived at the Foggy Sea Island from various places and the number of people gathered at the center of the island also gradually increased.

Xing Meng, Mu Qing ...

Shen Guan, Ou Xie, Ye Chongshan, Shan Lan ...

... ..

Only then did Tang Huan realise that the number of Stage Nine Rankers in the Human Clan was actually more than what he had expected. Currently, there were dozens of Rankers from the two clans gathered in front of the Ling Xiao Arch, and about seventy percent of them were Human Clan Rankers. Of course, most of them were normal Rankers of the Stage Nine.

In the end, there were only a few who had reached the Peak Stage Nine level.

"Senior Jian Yi, we should depart now."

Another evening, Tang Huan suddenly looked to the side and laughed.

Hearing Tang Huan's words, all the surrounding experts were stunned. The direction that Tang Huan was looking in was empty, he could not even see a single person. A few meters to the left of Tang Huan, a thin old man in a white robe appeared. The Qi that leaked out from his body made everyone even more shocked.

Everyone already knew the origins of this "Ling Xiao Arch" and "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" from Tang Huan, and also knew of Yun Zhan's existence. They also knew that "Mazy Sword Valley" was a test set by the "Sword Seal" Yun Zhan left behind.

After Tang Huan passes the "Sword Seal" test, the moment he enters "Ling Xiao Ancient Road", the test Yun Zhan had left behind will immediately begin. This time, if Tang Huan could also successfully pass through, for this small world, the effects would be something that no expert in the past could compare to.

The moment they saw the white robed old man, everyone guessed that he was the one formed from the "Sword Seal," Jian Yi.

From the looks of the sword blade's expression, it was obvious that he had already arrived at this place. If not for Tang Huan's shout, even if a few more days passed, no one would have discovered his existence.

"Junior Brother Tang Huan, be careful!"

Yu Feiyan could not resist asking.

At this moment, although the halberd was still on her shoulders, but her body had already merged with the Divine Armament's "Square Aurora Halberd" that Tang Huan had given her.

"Tang Huan, you must survive!" Shan Shan could no longer care about it, there was a thick sense of worry between his brows.

"Little Tang, you will definitely be able to do it."

"Little brother, take care!"

"Gu gu ..."

Everyone spoke up, some were worried, some were expectant, and all of them had different expressions on their faces.

Tang Huan looked deeply at Shan Shan, Ou Xie and the others, he then took a deep breath and nodded towards the sword, then turned and walked towards Ling Xiao Arch, with big steps. On Tang Huan's shoulder, Xiao Budian grabbed Tang Huan's hair with one claw, while he continuously waved at everyone with the other paw.

According to what Jian Yi had said, during the trials that Tang Huan had to undergo, any expert of Stage Nine s and above could not be helped. Even if they were to enter the Space Aircraft, they would still be rejected by the Ling Xiao Arch. Otherwise, Tang Huan would have no choice but to leave Xiao Budian outside as a companion.

"Hu!"

After a moment, the air of Ling Xiao Arch fluctuated, and Tang Huan and Jian Yi's figures disappeared at almost the same time.

Chapter 680 - Ancient Path

"Goo!"

The little white rabbit growled again, and its red eyes were filled with reluctance.

Tang Moyang squinted his eyes and looked at the extremely huge Ling Xiao Arch, and could not help but mutter: "Everyone, do you think that little brother Tang Huan will succeed?"

"Of course."

Ou Xie and the old fatty said resolutely at almost the same time.

When the surrounding people heard this, they could not help but nod in agreement.

There were dozens of Rankers here, and none of them didn't want to see Tang Huan pass the test. If Tang Huan succeeded, they could also easily enter the Forging God Great World from this small world. If Tang Huan failed

In order to enter the Forging God Great World, everyone had to rely on their own strength to pass through the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road".

After seeing everyone's optimistic expressions, Feng Ming raised his hand to rub Xiao Ai's head and sighed in his heart.

She had a feeling that Tang Huan would not be able to succeed that easily this time, and the greatest threat he would face, would probably not be the test Yun Zhan left inside the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" ...

... ..

The Ling Xiao Ancient Road was actually just a path.

The path that was paved with large pieces of old and wide slabs of limestone extended forward far into the distance. There was no end in sight, while the clouds and mist on both sides of the road churned unceasingly.

"This is the 'Ling Xiao Ancient Road'?"

Tang Huan muttered as he looked back. Behind him, was also an ethereal cloud, and the place he was standing on was the first bluestone on the road. Here, the incomparably strong Perception Ability did not have any use, and he could not feel the situation within the cloud at all.

After that, Tang Huan subconsciously stretched out his arm. The moment his five fingers touched the clouds, an incomparably terrifying power surged out and flicked his fingers away.

"Yiya?"

Seeing that, Xiao Budian's eyes widened, and emitted out in surprise.

Tang Huan was also slightly shocked in his heart. Although he was severely injured while fighting with the Secluded Night Dark King, after his injuries healed, his strength had not decreased but instead increased. But even so, with his current strength, he was completely unable to resist the power that surged out from the clouds.

However, Tang Huan had already collected himself and asked slowly: "Senior Jian Yi, where is the test?"

"The test has begun."

A vigorous voice rang out, but it was faintly discernible, sometimes forward, sometimes left, sometimes right. It was unknown where it came from.

This was naturally the sound of Jian Yi's voice.

Sword1 was the "Ling Xiao Arch" that Tang Huan had passed through at the same time, but when Tang Huan stepped into the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road", he disappeared, as if he had merged with the ancient path.

"Has it already begun?"

Tang Huan frowned, he suddenly became alert, and in between the mind instructs (in a second), a dark red light flashed, and the Conqueror Spear appeared in his hand.

Lifting his eyes and looking forward, Tang Huan calmed down and slowly walked forward.

In the instant that the sole of his foot touched the ground, the scene in front of Tang Huan's eyes changed greatly — —

Even Xiao Budian who was squatting on his shoulder was no longer there. Instead, he had replaced him with the extremely familiar blacksmith shop in the Furious Waves City. Tang Huan had actually returned to the day when he was reborn in this world.

In the smithy, Tang Huan put down the three long blades that he prepared to exchange them for gold and frowned, a look of confusion in his eyes.

He realized that he seemed to have forgotten many things, but he couldn't quite put his finger on what he had forgotten. The sound of chaotic footsteps got closer and closer, causing Tang Huan to wake up. He looked over and saw three youths with swords hanging around their waists.

Tang Huan immediately recognized them. They were Tang Family, and were called Tang Hong, Tang Jiang and Tang Junjie respectively. They had contributed greatly to Tang Huan being able to come back to life in this world.

After a few sentences, Tang Hong was completely enraged, he sneered, and then smashed his right hand onto Tang Huan's shoulder.

Tang Huan snorted, he did not move his body at all, and with a punch filled with power, he punched towards Tang Hong's abdomen. But after a short moment, Tang Huan's face changed, he discovered that there was a sharp dagger in Tang Hong's left hand, which clashed with his fist and fiercely stabbed towards his lower abdomen.

With this punch, he was sure that he could send Tang Hong flying, but Tang Hong's dagger could still bore a hole in his abdomen.

"Retreat!"

Tang Huan didn't have any hesitation as he quickly retreated.

But very quickly, Tang Huan groaned in pain. He reacted very quickly indeed, but he forgot that his shoulder was still being held down by Tang Hong's right hand. After a slight delay, the sharp dagger had pierced through his clothes and opened a wound on his abdomen.

"Roar!"

Tang Huan roared like an injured beast, his left hand firmly grabbed the front of the dagger.

A tearing pain came forth, causing Tang Huan to faint. He felt as though all five of his fingers were cut off by a dagger, fresh blood oozing out, flowing through the gaps of his fingers and dripping down. Tang Hong opened his mouth wide in shock, obviously not expecting Tang Huan to use such a method to block it. However, before he could come to his senses, a "peng" sound rang out.

Tang Huan's right fist hooked upwards, striking Tang Hong's chin.

In the next moment, Tang Hong flew out like a kite with its string cut, and landed heavily on the ground. Before he could crawl back up, Tang Huan was like a wild beast that had just escaped from its cage. He rushed to Tang Hong's front with large strides, and his huge fist fiercely smashed into the bridge of his nose.

"Bang!" "Bang ..."

Tang Huan showed no mercy, he punched after punch. A moment later, Tang Hong's head tilted and he completely fainted. Tang Huan spat out, he fiercely looked at the dumbstruck Tang Jiang and Tang Junjie. But just as Tang Huan was prepared to teach them a lesson, the scene in front of his eyes suddenly changed. Tang Jiang, Tang Junjie, and even Tang Hong who was lying on the ground, and even the blacksmith shop, were all gone.

Appearing in front of Tang Huan were still surging clouds and blocks of stone tablets.

Tang Huan blinked his eyes a few times, completely stunned.

Thinking back to the scene from before, Tang Huan was so shocked that he broke out in cold sweat.

What he revealed should only be illusions, but it was too realistic. It was as if he had returned to the day he was reborn, and all his memories for the next few years had disappeared. That day, Tang Huan did indeed fight with Tang Hong, and in the end, Tang Huan won. But in the illusion, the situation was completely different, Tang Hong seemed to have already known that Tang Huan would punch his abdomen, and even prepared a dagger beforehand.

If it were not for Tang Huan's prompt decision to endure the pain and grab onto the dagger, his intestines would have been destroyed and he would have lost his life.

If he died in the illusion, did that mean that the test was over?
