

W. Master 691

Chapter 691 - Chen You

In a daze, Tang Huan felt as if he had turned into a small boat in a giant wave, floating and swaying non-stop.

After an unknown period of time, Tang Huan finally woke up. He slowly opened his eyes and realized that he was inside an ancient small hut. The room was very simple and unadorned. Other than the wooden bed and chairs, there was nothing else.

"Yiya!"

A soft grunt suddenly sounded.

Xiao Budian who was lying on top of Tang Huan's chest shook his head, but after a moment, it seemed to have sensed something, and suddenly opened its eyes and looked towards Tang Huan. Their four eyes met, and Xiao Budian's eyes immediately lit up. He flapped his four pairs of wings excitedly and licked his face.

"Xiao Budian!"

Tang Huan laughed out loud as he held the little fellow's small body and sat up straight. His heart was filled with joy after surviving a calamity.

At that time at the exit of the canyon, he had already accepted his fate, but he did not expect his savior to descend from the sky and force the powerful Heavenly Domain Fierce Beasts to leave. Tang Huan could guess what happened next. It was obvious that after he fell unconscious, that girl brought him and Xiao Budian back.

Seeing Xiao Budian's situation, her injuries had probably already completely improved.

As for himself ...

Tang Huan secretly sensed for a bit, and quickly discovered that his flesh body's injuries had all healed as well. With his "Sun Spirit Body", as long as he was given some time, he would be able to heal his injuries, no matter how heavy they were.

What kind of place is this?

Tang Huan's face revealed a slight smile, and he jumped down from the wooden bed. Just as he stretched his limbs, Tang Huan was stunned, and then he was at a loss whether to laugh or cry, his shoes and the tattered robe that was stained with gold blood, had already been taken off.

Currently, Tang Huan was barefoot as well, with a piece of black Beast Skin wrapped around his waist. The Space Aircraft that was originally in his embrace had also been stuffed into his waist, revealing a small half of it. This kind of clothing, which revealed more than half of his body, made Tang Huan feel a little uncomfortable.

However, upon thinking about his savior's outfit, Tang Huan felt at ease.

"Creak!"

The door suddenly opened, and a thin figure walked in. It was a delicate and pretty youth with a beast skin around his waist. He was around eleven or twelve years old and had a basin of water in his hands.

"You ... You woke up so soon? It's completely different from what my elder sister said? " Looking at Tang Huan who was standing in front of the bed, the skinny boy exclaimed as he opened his eyes in disbelief.

"Little bro, was it your sister who saved me and brought me back?" Tang Huan's heart was moved.

"Of course!"

The skinny boy nodded subconsciously.

Immediately after, he placed the water basin on the table, and sized Tang Huan up with incomparable shock, "You don't know how miserable it was when you were brought back by my Big Sis, hearing my Big Sis say that there were many broken bones and dislocated bones in your body, especially your internal organs, all of them nearly ruptured. "After my sister gave you medicine, she said that it would take you at least ten days to half a month to wake up. If you want to get off the bed, you would need at least a month.

Hearing that, Tang Huan laughed: "Little brother, what your sister said is absolutely correct. If I were an ordinary person, it would indeed take me that long to wake up, but my body's recovery ability is much stronger than an ordinary person's, so I can move freely right now."

"Is it because of it?"

The frail looking youth pointed at Xiao Budian who was already lying on Tang Huan's shoulder, looking rather curious.

Tang Huan thought for a moment, then asked: "You recognize it?"

The thin teenager shook his head. "I don't know him, but my sister does seem to know him. She said that this little beast is very helpful in healing wounds. Is that true?"

"Indeed."

Tang Huan nodded and smiled, he did not hide anything.

This youth's older sister had obviously already recognized Xiao Budian's background, but she didn't covet his beauty, causing Tang Huan to sigh with emotion. After fainting, Tang Huan could no longer resist, and it was the same for Xiao Budian. If that lady had any evil intentions, she could have killed him and brought Xiao Budian back, but she did not do so. Instead, she brought and him back to their home for treatment.

Towards that young lady, Tang Huan's heart was even more moved.

Pausing slightly, Tang Huan smiled again, and said: "Little brother, where is your sister? If it wasn't for your sister forcing that beast away, I really won't be able to keep my little life! "

"My sister went hunting with the villagers. It will be a few days before she comes back."

The thin and weak youth was somewhat depressed.

But immediately after, his eyes lit up, "I heard from my sister that the fierce beast you met is called Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast, it is the strongest fierce beast in our area. However, it doesn't dare to hurt our people. Otherwise, even my sister wouldn't be able to save you. Although my sister is the strongest expert among the younger generation in the village, she is still a bit inferior to that 'Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast'. Oh yeah, I also heard my sister say that you were at least chased by your 'Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast' and ran for a few thousand miles.

As he finished speaking, the thin and weak youth's eyes were already shining, and his eyes were filled with admiration.

"How is this amazing? I was almost eaten by that guy."

Hearing the skinny youth's words, Tang Huan could not help but burst out laughing, and then said: "Little brother, my name is Tang Huan, I still don't know how to address you and your sister?"

The skinny teenager laughed: "Big brother Tang Huan, I am called Chen Mu, my sister is called Chen You!"

"Chen Mu... Chen You... "

After muttering these two names once, Tang Huan suddenly looked at Chen Mu and said gratefully: "Little brother Chen Mu, thank you for taking care of me these past two days."

"Nothing, nothing, I didn't do anything."

Chen Mu repeatedly waved his hand, and said with a bit of a blush on his face, "Big Brother Tang Huan, you can walk now, how about I take you on a tour around our Chen Village?"

"Alright, then I'll be troubling you little brother." Tang Huan chuckled.

"Big Brother Tang Huan, our Chen Village ...." Chen Mu laughed blushing, he walked to the side of the door and introduced the place to Tang Huan, but before he could finish, a cry of surprise could be heard from afar, "Not good, not good, those bastards from Tie (Iron) Village are running over!"

"Tie (Iron) Village!" Chen Mu's face changed as he suddenly rushed out of the hut.

"Chen Village? Tie (Iron) Village? " Seeing that, Tang Huan could not help but frown, and just as he followed her to the door, he seemed to have thought of something, and quickly carried Xiao Budian off his shoulder, and warned: "Xiao Budian, I will go over to take a look, you stay here for now, don't go out."

"Yiya!"

Xiao Budian nodded obediently.

After placing Xiao Budian on the table, Tang Huan walked out with large strides. When he walked out of the wooden house, he casually pulled the door shut.

Chapter 692 - Amethyst Thunder Lion

In the canyon surrounded by three sides of the mountain, many roads intersected and wooden houses were decorated in between, forming a small village.

This was the Chen Village that Chen Mu was talking about!

Tang Huan caught up to Chen Mu in a few steps. At this time, the two were most likely deep within the canyon, and there were quite a few figures running towards the mouth of the valley.

When Tang Huan and Chen Mu arrived at the wide open ground at the entrance of the valley, there were already hundreds of figures gathered. They were all young men and women, dressed in the same clothes as Chen Mu, with all kinds of weapons in their hands. They were all villagers of Chen Village.

Opposite the group of villagers stood over a dozen young men and women.

Tang Huan and Chen Mu stood at the back of the villagers and felt a chill in their hearts. The people in front of them were all extremely strong, almost all of them were Stage Nine Martial Saint s, and there was even a Heavenly Domain-level Expert s.

Amongst this group of villagers in Chen Village, there were plenty of Stage Seven Martial Master s and Martial Lord s of the eighth step, and there were also two Stage Nine Martial Saint s. On the way, he heard from Chen Mu that all the powerful young experts of Chen Village had all gone out to hunt.

Adding Chen You and the others to the mix, there were twelve Stage Nine Martial Saint s in the young generation, and there were even two in the younger generation.

The level of strength of the cultivators of Forging God Great World was definitely not something a small world could compare to.

had long since been mentally prepared for this, but what Tang Huan had never thought of was that the true situation of Forging God Great World was actually far beyond his expectations.

In Forging God Great World, Chen Village and Tie (Iron) Village were presumably just some unknown little village.

But in these two villages, there were three Heavenly Domain-level Expert s and more than twenty Stage Nine Martial Saint s. If you added in the seniors from two other villages, the number of Stage Nine Martial Saint s and Heavenly Domain-level Expert s would definitely be even more shocking.

This Forging God Great World was like a modern society with all kinds of high technology. After the small world broke away from the Forging God Great World, it was as if the small world had fallen from the modern world to the primitive society, even now, it had only just touched the edge of the modern world.

It was no wonder that the expert called Yun Zhan in Ling Xiao Sword Sect would set up a lightning domain to isolate the Turbid Sea Area. Otherwise, he would be able to act as he pleased in the small world by himself and the small world would never be able to develop to such a state.

"I wonder where Shan Shan, Feng Ming, Senior Sister Feiyan, and Master will be teleported to once they enter the 'Ling Xiao Ancient Road'?"

Tang Huan frowned, he suddenly became worried. In Forging God Great World, there were almost all over the place, if they were not careful they might encounter danger.

However, Tang Huan didn't even know where they were currently, and didn't even know if they had passed through the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" to come to the outside world. Furthermore, with Tang Huan's current situation and the vastness of the Forging God Great World, even if he knew their position, he would still not be able to do anything.

In that moment, Tang Huan suddenly had a strong desire for power.

As long as he possessed sufficient strength, even if Shan Shan and the others were to spread throughout every part of the Forging God Great World, there was hope of finding them all.

"Where's that bitch Chen You? "He's hiding and not daring to come out?"

A voice that sounded like the voice of a broken gong woke Tang Huan up. He subconsciously looked over and saw a young man from Tie (Iron) Village laughing loudly, a full face full of moustache, a tall and sturdy build, holding onto a three meter long mace, his entire body brimming with a ferocious aura.

"Tie Fenglei, you truly have no sense of shame, didn't you guys only come over to cause trouble because you saw that Big Sister Chen You was not around? If Big Sister Chen You is here, why don't you try stepping into Chen Village? "

The moment the Tie (Iron) Village's man's voice fell, a sneer came out, the one who spoke was a young man from Chen Village, skinny and tall with a face full of anger. In his hand was a long spear, and his body emitted an extremely powerful Qi, he was one of the two Stage Nine Martial Saint s.

"If Big Sister Chen You was here, they wouldn't even dare to come to our Chen Village."

"That's right, these bastards are too despicable!"

"Tie Fenglei, this Amethyst Thunder Lion cub was obviously caught by us. Even if we put it in, we will not give it to you."

"..."

Many of the Chen Village's villagers looked at each other with furious expressions.

Only now did Tang Huan realize that a young lady from the Chen Village was holding a small beast in her hands. It was as big as a kitten, it was fluffy and completely purple. It was obvious that this little beast had been born not long ago. It couldn't even open its eyes. At this moment, it was curled up into a ball, sleeping soundly in the arms of the young woman.

"Amethyst Thunder Lion ..."

Tang Huan glanced at the little fellow and roughly understood what was going on.

The two Stage Nine Martial Saint's and a few Tie (Iron) Village's villagers had discovered the infant Amethyst Thunder Lion at about the same time. After a fight, the few Tie (Iron) Village's villagers were no match, so the infant was taken away by the two Chen Village's Stage Nine Martial Saint's Stage Nine Martial Saint's villagers. In the end, the two Chen Village s had only just returned when the experts of the younger generation of the Tie (Iron) Village immediately caught up.

"Chen Rui, we took great pains to kill two Amethyst Thunder Lions. Just as we followed the footprints and found their lair, you guys interfered and stole their baby. How could there be such a cheap thing in the world?"

A gloomy voice suddenly echoed out. The one who spoke was a robust, horse-faced man around the age of 27 or 28. He held a long, dark blade in his hand. Although the horse-faced man's appearance was not exceptional, he was the only Heavenly Domain-level Expert among the people from Tie (Iron) Village.

"Tie Fenghan, what do you say? Do you have any proof that you killed those two Amethyst Thunder Lions? " Chen Rui said angrily.

"My words are evidence!"

Tie Fenghan curled his lips in disdain. "Chen Rui, cut the crap. Today, you have to hand over the infant Amethyst Thunder Lion, even if you don't want to, you have to hand it over." Saying that, his gaze landed on the Chen Village woman who was hugging her cubs. "I'll count to three, if you guys hand it over again, we can only take it ourselves."

"This is too much!"

"Chen Fu, you take the baby and go to the back, we'll block them from the front."

"Tie Fenghan, wait for Big Sister Chen You to come back. I will definitely not let you guys off!"

"..."

The plaza immediately erupted in an uproar, the people of Chen Village were furious, their eyes spewing fire. The dozens of Tie (Iron) Village men and women all looked at him with ridicule.

"One!"

Tie Fenghan laughed out loud, and a number came out of his mouth.

Chen Rui and the other handsome young man immediately took a few steps forward. They were the two Stage Nine Martial Saints. On the opposite side were over a dozen Stage Nine Martial Saints and a Heavenly Domain-level Expert. However, even if there was a huge difference in the number of people between the two sides, there was not the slightest trace of fear in their expressions.

Chapter 693 - Attack!

"Two!"

Tie Fenghan's face turned gloomy, his gaze became cold, and the instant the word came out from his mouth, he started to slowly walk forward, with Tie Finglei and the ten over people behind him pressing down on him as well. In a split-second, the atmosphere in this space became incomparably oppressive, with both sides about to erupt.

Under the pressure of a group of Heavenly Domain-level Experts and Stage Nine Martial Saints, the numerous young men and women of Chen Village were under the pressure and instead of retreating, they advanced instead.

"Three!"

Seeing that, Tie Fenghan snorted, a sinister smile actually flashing past his eyes, and he bellowed: "Chen Rui, since you all are asking for trouble, then I can only grant your wish." With that, he waved his hand. "Go, capture the infant Amethyst Thunder Lion!"

"Whoosh!" "Whiz ..."

The moment Tie Fenghan's voice fell, six young men and women pounced towards Chen Rui and the other two like lightning, while the rest of the Tie (Iron) Village s whistled past and rushed towards the other villagers of Chen Village, all of them releasing a sinister Qi, their auras oppressing.

These Tie (Iron) Village s were like tigers in a flock of sheep. Although there were a large number of villagers and the ones in front were all Martial Lord s and Stage Seven Martial Master s of the eighth step, they were not their opponents. For a time, cries of pain rose and fell as figures were blasted away one by one.

Chen Rui and the other two Stage Nine Martial Saint s looked extremely furious when they saw this scene, but they were all being surrounded by the other three. Furthermore, they were already in dire straits due to the crazy attacks of the other party, they were unable to come up with a way to support their opponents, and could only roar in anger.

Tie Fenghan, the Tie (Iron) Village did not make a move. When he saw the scene before him, his lips curled up and his face revealed a ridiculing smile.

"Boom!" "Boom!"

Tie Fenglei was like a wild beast that had escaped its cage, he knocked the two Chen Village villagers in front of him with his spiked club and rushed towards the young lady named Chen Fu. He reached out his thick arm that was covered in black fur and grabbed at the little purple beast in her embrace, "Give it to me!"

Chen Fu clenched his teeth and retreated, but she was only a Stage Seven Martial Master, her speed was incomparable to Tie Fenglei's. In a blink of an eye, her palm-leaf like palm was already close at hand.

However, just as he was about to grab the infant Amethyst Thunder Lion into his palm, Tie Fenglei suddenly felt his wrist tighten, as if something was holding him tightly in the air, unable to advance any further. In the next moment, a slender figure appeared in his line of sight.

"Hmm?"

Tie Fenglei's face suddenly changed.

He had already discovered that the one grabbing his wrist was the right hand of the person facing him. However, before he could clearly see the other party's appearance, he felt a tremendous force surging towards him.

This sudden turn of events stunned everyone around them.

Regardless of whether it was the Tie (Iron) Village or the villagers, they all looked over in the blink of an eye, all of their gazes landed on the young man who was standing in front of Chen Fu. Even Chen Rui and the others had stopped their actions.

"Huh?"

Tie Fenghan also noticed the change, his eyebrows knitted together, as he exclaimed in surprise.

He had already sensed that among the group of fellows, only Chen Rui and the other two were stronger, the rest were not worth mentioning. Where did this person come from, with just a swing of his hand, Tie Fenglei uncontrollably retreated so far away.

What was even more inconceivable to him was that from the fluctuations of his aura, the young man didn't seem to have cultivated it before. This meant that he had only used brute force just now.

Just with brute force, he was able to defeat Tie Fenglei?

Not only was Tie Fenghan surprised, Chen Mu felt that this was unbelievable. His eyes were fixated on the figure not far away, his mouth opened wide enough to stuff two eggs into it. The one who acted just now was Tang Huan, he never thought that Tang Huan, who had just awakened, would actually be so powerful.

The surrounding Chen Village villagers all looked at each other in dismay.

They had heard about Chen You saving a person and bringing him back, but they did not care too much about the person who had been unconscious for the past two days. Only now did they realize that that person had already awoken. Moreover, it seemed that he still possessed quite a decent strength.

"Who are you?"

Tie Finglei suddenly stood up straight, his eyes wide open, his anger turning into a roar. Although he was not injured, but a dignified expert of Peak Stage Nine, in front of everyone's eyes, had been humiliated to such an extent that it made him feel humiliated, and his dark face immediately swelled to a dark purple color.

"I am... Chen Huan! " Tang Huan squinted his eyes, and did not announce his name, but hearing his words, the other Chen Village villagers were all startled.

"Chen Huan? Get out of my way! "

Tie Finglei roared, his body leaping forward, the mace in his hand raised to the sky, with the force of a thunderbolt powerful, it smashed down straight at Tang Huan's head, the terrifying Strength Qi spread out, immediately creating an ear-piercing sound, the sound was extremely terrifying, like a mountain collapsing.

However, Tang Huan turned a deaf ear, did not dodge or evade, and his body remained standing and unmoving.

"Tang ..." Brother Chen Huan, be careful! " Chen Mu woke up from his stupor, and upon seeing the scene before him, his expression changed as he shouted out loud.

"Get out of the way!" Many villagers of Chen Village also shouted in shock.

"Whoosh!"

Just as the mace was about to land on Tang Huan's head, he finally moved. Stepping forward, his body going berserk as his right palm suddenly raised.

"Bam!"

With a violent cry, Tang Huan's palm had already struck the mace, and with an immense force, the mace immediately bounced up high. Tie Finglei who had just stepped on the ground felt his arm go numb, both of his palms were stung with pain and he could no longer hold on, the long weapon in his hands flew out and smashed backwards.

Tie Finglei never thought that the "Chen Huan" fellow would be able to send his own weapon flying with a palm strike. He could not help but change his expression, but before he could even react, the figure had already appeared in front of him, and a fist was quickly expanding in his pupils.

"Bam!"

After another loud noise, Tie Fenglei's body was like a kite with a broken string, flying 20 to 30 metres back before heavily hitting the ground beside Tie Fenghan. When he was about to hit the ground, Tie Fenglei let out a painful howl like an injured beast, and then fainted.

For a time, the vast plaza sank into a deathly silence.

Everyone looked at Tang Huan with their mouths agape. The entire crowd was so quiet that even a pin drop could be heard, especially Chen Rui and the other Chen Village villagers, they simply could not believe their eyes. Tang Huan had only slapped out a palm and smashed out a fist, yet he had actually easily defeated Tie Fenglei of the Peak Stage Nine.

If the one who acted was Chen You, to have such an outcome, it was not surprising.

But Tang Huan, who took action, had just fainted from serious injuries two days ago, and had just woken up today. Most importantly, Tang Huan's aura was fluctuating which made him seem like someone who did not cultivate at all!

Chapter 694 - Hit Me!

"Let's attack together!"

A furious shout sounded out, and immediately after, the seven young men and women nearby all brandished their weapons at the same time, and pounced towards Tang Huan. A violent and unrestrained Strength Qi swept out wantonly. Within a radius of ten meters around Tang Huan, the air fluctuated rapidly, as if it was about to be torn into countless pieces.

"Big Brother Chen Huan, be careful!"

"Despicable! "Shameless!"

Chen Mu and the others woke up from their daze, either reminding them or scolding them.

However, amongst their group, the stronger Martial Lords of the eighth step were all injured, the remaining of them could not possibly participate in the battle to this extent. Seeing so many Tie (Iron) Village experts surrounding and attacking Tang Huan, although they were worried, they could do nothing.

The six experts of Tie (Iron) Village surrounding Chen Rui and the others, upon seeing this, couldn't help but sneer. Although that guy called "Chen Huan" could easily defeat Tie Fenglei alone, he was currently facing against seven experts whose strength wasn't much weaker than Tie Fenglei.

However, after just one or two breaths of time, the smiles on their faces froze.

"Bang!" "Bang ..."

The deafening sound of a collision suddenly resounded.

The seven of them left quickly and retreated even faster. In everyone's line of sight, one figure after another flew out. When they came back to their senses, the seven experts from the Tie (Iron) Village were all flung dozens of metres away with weapons in their hands. Three of them fainted, and four of them laid on the ground groaning.

Seeing this scene, everyone's eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

The combined strength of seven people was not a match for "Chen Huan"? It was fine that they weren't a match, but to think that they would be the same as Tie Fenglei, defeated without a second thought.

Could it be that this fella who looked like he had never cultivated before, was actually a Heavenly Domain-level Expert?

Chen Rui and the other six Tie (Iron) Village experts looked at each other, and they could see the unconcealable shock in each other's eyes.

Everyone around was shocked, but Tang Huan remained calm.

Although his Genuine Qi, Mind Power, and even the Four Great Spiritual Fire s were all suppressed within his body by the mysterious power that originated from the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road," the powerful flesh body energy brought about by the "Sun Spirit Body" allowed him to possess a strength that was not inferior to an ordinary Heavenly Domain-level Expert.

The current Tang Huan was not a match for the powerful fierce beast called "Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast", but he easily dealt with some of the Stage Nine Martial Saint s.

"Who the hell are you? You are definitely not one of them in Chen Village! "

A gloomy and cold voice suddenly sounded. The one who spoke was Tie Fenghan, and he walked towards Tang Huan step by step with an extremely ugly expression.

Previously, when Tie Fenglei had easily defeated him, he did not put Tang Huan to heart too much. At this time, he finally started to look straight at the guy called "Chen Huan".

"I am Chen Huan, as for whether you believe me or not, what does that have to do with me?" Tang Huan laughed sinisterly.

"You ..."

Tie Fenghan was furious when he heard this.

He knew that there was no one named Chen Huan in all of the young experts of the Chen Village.

Of course, this didn't mean that the fellow had been hiding in the dark all along, so he wasn't known. But even so, his existence could hide from outsiders, but it was impossible for him to hide from the villagers, and looking at the expressions of Chen Rui and the many Chen Village s, it was clear that they did not know that Chen Huan possessed such strength.

This was completely illogical.

After a moment, Tie Fenghan suddenly suppressed the raging anger in his chest, and sneered: Right and wrong is only because you want to stand up for me! No matter if you are from Chen Village, since you want to become enemies with us Tie (Iron) Village, I will let you know now, that there are some things that require a heavy price to be paid. "

Hearing Tie Fenghan's words, many people from Chen Village seemed to have realized something, and their expressions changed greatly.

Although Tang Huan had displayed astonishing strength, no one felt that Tang Huan was able to contend against Tie Fenghan, who had already stepped into the Heavenly Domain two years ago.

This was completely a subconscious thought.

"Tie Fenghan, do you even have any shame?! An expert of the Heavenly Domain actually dared to make a move against someone who has never cultivated before!" Chen Rui was startled and angry. He subconsciously wanted to charge over, but the moment he moved his feet, the Tie (Iron) Village experts surrounding him blocked his path.

"Chen Huan, eat this!"

Tie Fenghan's face darkened, he roared, and sprinted towards Tang Huan like a runaway horse, the dark black long blade in his hand danced quickly, the majestic Strength Qi whistled out, and actually swept up an extremely violent black storm, that lingered around the wide blade body rolling forward.

Sand and stones flew everywhere, and the skies changed color.

Terrifying waves of energy surged out in all directions. Sensing the might of Tie Fenghan's blade, the expressions of everyone in the surrounding Chen Village changed. However, they could not resist the pressure that originated from the Heavenly Domain-level Expert at all, and all of them involuntarily retreated dozens of meters away.

However, what surprised everyone was that under this terrifying might, Tang Huan's body did not move an inch.

Not only that, Tang Huan even revealed a slight smile. Chen Rui, Chen Mu and the rest were all startled, he could still laugh at a time like this.

"Hu!"

In the blink of an eye, the black storm was right in front of him. Tang Huan's expression darkened slightly as he suddenly took a step forward.

Wherever the fist passed by, a whistling sound would be heard, bringing about a similarly violent wind.

After a moment, the gale collided with the incoming black tornado, causing the Strength Qi to wreak havoc, causing ripples to appear in the air.

However, the impact from the clash did not shake Tang Huan at all.

In the next moment, Tang Huan's right fist passed through the violent Strength Qi in front of him and landed on the blade's body with lightning speed.

"Bam!"

The deafening sound shook the world.

After a moment, the body of the long blade seemed to have been struck by a huge hammer, as it swung diagonally out, and Tie Fenghan who was holding onto the blade also moved two steps horizontally.

"..."

Seeing this scene, Chen Rui, Chen Mu and the others who were initially worried for Tang Huan, were all extremely shocked. The Tie (Iron) Village experts who were either lying down or standing up were also shocked, but their hearts were overwhelmed with shock.

Tie Fenghan's strength was not something that Tie Fenglei could compare to, he was a genuine Heavenly Domain-level Expert!

The attack he had launched just now was even more powerful, yet he could not deal with Tang Huan? Could it be that this Chen Huan was actually a stronger Heavenly Domain-level Expert, who had deliberately concealed his true Qi, and then pretended to not have cultivated in order to act like a pig to eat the tiger?

"Very good! Chen Huan, I have truly underestimated you! "

Tie Fenghan stabilized his steps, he also stabilized the black blade in his hand, but his face was ashen, the shame and anger in his heart could not be described with words.

"Take another stab at me!"

With a low roar, Tie Fenghan waved his blade and hacked down. Almost at the same time, a thick black aura surged out of his body like a flood and with a frightening speed, it swept out in all directions. In the blink of an eye, it had enveloped an area of over ten meters around Tang Huan.

Who the hell are you?

"Heavenly Domain?"

Tang Huan's eyes flashed, this was exactly the same as what he had predicted.

Although Tie Fenghan was a Heavenly Domain-level Expert, his cultivation was still at the initial stages of Heavenly Domain, and his strength was probably at the same level as Fen Tian's embodiment, which he had fought against Tang Huan in the "Dark Abyss" back then. Compared to Secluded Night Dark King, Sword One, and the Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast, he could not be compared at all.

Fortunately, this was the case. Otherwise, he would have been in a miserable state today.

With Tang Huan's current strength, he would only be able to escape if he met with the "Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast". However, he still had the strength to fight this Tie Fenghan.

"Hu!"

With a thought, Tang Huan turned his body slightly, and once again sent a fist flying towards the blade.

At this moment, he was in the middle of Tie Fenghan's Heavenly Domain and an enormous pressure was pressing down on him like billowing waves. This level of pressure would definitely not be of much use to someone who had just entered the Heavenly Domain. However, it was of little use to Tang Huan.

"Bam!"

With a loud crash, the black blade in Tie Fenghan's hand swung out again.

However, with the previous example, he had made sufficient preparations this time. He forcibly dispelled the huge force that was surging towards him from the blade and stabilized his pace.

Although he was not affected by the force from the blade as much as before, Tie Fenghan's face was still gloomy, he had already noticed that after activating Heavenly Domain, Tang Huan's movements did not seem to be affected at all, they were as fast as lightning.

"Chi!"

Tie Fenghan once again struck horizontally with his blade, and a strong black storm wrapped itself around it.

The moment the blade was unleashed, Tie Fenghan's mind instructs (in a second) slightly moved, and the Black Heavenly Domain around Tang Huan began to undulate like ripples, an even more powerful pressure sweeping towards Tang Huan.

With a snort, Tang Huan did not retreat but turned his fist into a palm and struck the blade.

"Bam!"

"Bam!"

"..."

Within Black Heavenly Domain, the heaven shaking sounds of collisions rose and fell one after another.

Everyone held their breath, their eyes wide open, staring at the movement inside without blinking, but they could only see two blurry figures constantly moving and flashing in the black area, with speed as fast as lightning, it was hard to tell who was Tang Huan and who was Tie Fenghan.

As time passed, the situation inside became more and more difficult to differentiate, but from the sound of it, Tang Huan and Tie Fenghan seemed to be evenly matched.

Many Chen Village s were pleasantly surprised.

Even Tie Fenghan, a powerful individual who had already stepped into the Heavenly Domain, had rushed over. On their side, there were only Chen Rui and the other two Stage Nine experts, so the chances of preserving the infant Amethyst Thunder Lion was extremely slim. Furthermore, although Tie Fenghan and the rest did not dare to start a massacre in the Chen Village, if they were to fight, the number of injured Martial Warriors s would definitely not be small.

Everyone made mental preparations for this.

But no one would have thought that during the critical moment, the person Chen You rescued would actually make a move. First, he easily defeated Tie Fenglei, and then, he easily broke through the encirclement of seven experts from the Tie (Iron) Village.

If nothing unexpected happened, then the infant Amethyst Thunder Lion would definitely be preserved.

Compared to the surprise of the people in the Chen Village, the experts of the Tie (Iron) Village were becoming more and more shocked. They thought that Tie Fenghan, who was the strongest amongst them all, would be able to regain some face, but seeing the current situation, their hopes were slim. Even if this battle ended in a draw, today's trip would be considered a failure.

A few of their faces were ugly, they did not even notice when Chen Rui and Mu Yurou had escaped the encirclement.

"Pah!"

After a long while, the sound of bubbles breaking rang out. The Black Heavenly Domain s that were covering dozens of metres in radius could not hold on and disappeared without a trace, the two figures that appeared faintly in the Heavenly Domain were clearly visible.

"Bam!"

In the midst of the intense sound, the long blade in Tie Fenghan's hand was once again smashed apart by the punch, and the black storm brought about by the long blade disappeared without a trace, as the strong force howled forth like a tidal wave, the Genuine Qi in Tie Fenghan's palm churned, and firmly grabbed onto the hilt, only then did the long blade remain in his hands.

At this moment, Tie Fenghan was already incomparably shocked.

The guy called "Chen Huan" on the opposing side clearly did not use a single thread of Genuine Qi nor did he use any battle skills, and only relied on the strength of his flesh body to fight him again.

Even if he was a Heavenly Domain-level Expert himself, when facing an opponent who was also from Heavenly Domain-level Expert, if he only used the power of his flesh body, it would be impossible for him to hold on for too long, nor would it be possible for him to win. But this Chen Huan, not only was she shockingly strong, she seemed to be eternally exhausted.

Until the end of the battle, Tie Fenghan kept on avoiding direct contact with his opponent's fists and palms, but it was still difficult to achieve his wish.

That terrifying power surged over and over again. By now, his palms were badly mutilated, and his arms had almost lost all feeling.

If this battle continued, he would be defeated sooner or later!

Just as that thought flashed through his mind, Tie Fenghan's expression suddenly changed. Before this, the other party had always been defending and now he was actually taking the initiative to attack?

"Whoosh!"

Tang Huan's body moved like a ray of light, the moment the long blade was blasted away, his body had already chased after it like a shadow, his fist striking out again.

Tie Fenghan was caught off guard, and before he even had the chance to change the blade's aura, that fist had already arrived behind him, smashing into the blade's body with an irresistible force.

"Bam!"

Immense strength surged, Tie Fenghan's arms completely lost feeling, the Genuine Qi could no longer wrap around him anymore, and his blade immediately flew out. A sarcastic sneer surfaced on Tang Huan's face, and just like the train from his previous life, he rushed towards Tie Fenghan like lightning.

Seeing that, Tie Fenghan's eyes revealed panic. With a thought, the Genuine Qi flew out from his body and congealed into a thick protective shield. At the same time, Tie Fenghan ferociously roared out and raised his leg to kick Tang Huan.

"Pah!"

However, Tie Fenghan's right leg had only kicked half, Tang Huan's two palms had already smashed down.

The sound of bones cracking suddenly came out, and couldn't help but to let out a scream due to the pain. But Tang Huan's footsteps were not affected in the slightest.

"En!"

Tie Fenghan let out a painful groan as his body flew backwards like a cloud, and fell heavily onto the ground tens of meters away from his long blade. The layer of Genuine Qi Barrier on the surface of his body completely shattered and dissipated under Tang Huan's exceptionally fierce impact.

"You, you ... "Who could it be ...."

"Pfft ..."

Tie Fenghan stared in shock at Tang Huan who had stopped in his tracks, he raised his upper body with all his might, but before he finished speaking, a mouthful of blood was spurted out, and his body fell to the ground, his head tilted to the side, and he fainted. His face was completely pale.

Chapter 696 - Youngsters' Village, Main Village

Tie Fenghan lost, and he lost so quickly!

In just the blink of an eye, the speed was so fast that people could not even react! A dignified Heavenly Domain-level Expert, actually suffered a miserable defeat!

This sudden change caused the entire plaza to become deathly silent.

But after the short period of silence, the heaven shaking cheers and cheers resounded above the plaza, the people of Chen Village were extremely excited. They were originally worried that Tang Huan was not a match for the Heavenly Domain-level Expert, but the current result had surprised and pleasantly surprised them.

However, the Tie (Iron) Village experts could not help but reveal expressions of fear.

Even Tie Fenghan, who was the strongest, was defeated. The hearts of the Tie (Iron) Village experts quivered, but Tang Huan's gaze still swept over them.

Although they were afraid, they did not dare act rashly. The strength that Tang Huan had displayed, especially the unstoppable might he displayed when he defeated Tie Fenglei and the other experts of the Stage Nine, allowed them to forcefully suppress the urge to escape. They knew very well that their chances of escaping were extremely slim.

"Scram!" A low shout suddenly sounded out.

"Go, go ..."

The experts of Tie (Iron) Village felt as if they had been pardoned off, they immediately brought the unconscious Tie Fenglei, Tie Fenghan and the rest to flee, and disappeared without a trace.

"Brother Tang Huan..."

Chen Mu ran towards Tang Huan quickly, his face flushed red with excitement.

He suddenly realised, it was normal for Tang Huan to have such powerful strength.

How powerful was that "Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast"? Let alone an expert from the Stage Nine, even if it was an ordinary Heavenly Domain-level Expert, they would still be devoured the moment they met that fierce beast.

Even though Tie Fenghan was also a Heavenly Domain-level Expert, he couldn't be compared to a "Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast." If he were to encounter that vicious beast, he would probably lose his life before it could even try to flee. However, under its chase, Tang Huan had to flee for thousands of kilometers.

With the strength of the two, it was obvious that they would be the strongest. It was not surprising that Tie Fenghan had suffered a crushing defeat at the hands of Tang Huan.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan heaved a long sigh, and his face flushed red. In the blink of an eye, he smiled at Chen Mu, and a strong sense of exhaustion surged out from his body, then he collapsed to the ground.

Seeing that, the surrounding people suddenly exclaimed, Chen Rui and the rest surrounded them.

Although Tang Huan's injuries had already healed, he had only just woke up and his strength had not fully recovered. In his battle with and the rest of the Stage Nine Martial Saint, he did not consume much power, but when he fought with the Heavenly Domain-level Expert Tie Fenghan, he almost exhausted all of his flesh body.

Fortunately, Tie Fenglei's group, especially Tie Fenghan's miserable defeat, had already frightened the courage of the experts from the Tie (Iron) Village, and had caused them to no longer have the courage to fight against Tang Huan.

If they had rushed forward at the same time, Tang Huan would not have been able to hold on!

After an afternoon's worth of time, Tang Huan had already recovered quite a bit of strength. Even if the people from Tie (Iron) Village came back, they wouldn't have to worry.

"Yiya!"

Inside the simple hut, when he saw Tang Huan opening his eyes, Xiao Budian immediately let out a loud and clear sound. In an instant, she covered her stomach and looked pitifully at Tang Huan.

Without realizing it, Tang Huan summoned out a small group of Saint Grade Gem from within the "Sumeru Magical Ring" with a thought. The Divine Armament was suppressed into the Dantian and could not be revealed, yet he was able to take out the things within the "Sumeru Magical Ring". Fortunately, this was the case, otherwise, this little fellow would probably be hungry for a while.

"Yiya ..."

Xiao Budian's eyes lit up, and quickly pounced over. With a lift of his tongue, the two Saint Grade Gem entered his mouth, and started to chew in satisfaction.

Tang Huan laughed, but in that instant, a look of urgency appeared in his eyes.

As long as he could activate the Genuine Qi, the Mind Power, and even the Spiritual Fire, he would be able to summon the Divine Armament. Even if he met the "Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast" and the strong cultivator at the peak of Heavenly Domain, Tang Huan would have the strength to fight him.

In this Forging God Great World, without great strength, you can't go anywhere. Maybe you can't even protect this little guy in front of you.

"Big brother Tang Huan!"

The door opened a crack, and Chen Mu's small head snuck in. After quickly sweeping a glance inside, she was pleasantly surprised ...

... ..

In the blink of an eye, several days had passed.

Within the Chen Village, Tang Huan enjoyed treatment akin to a hero. No matter where he went, the only thing that greeted him was gratitude and admiration.

In the past few days, the experts of Tie (Iron) Village did not come again, and the entire time, Chen Village was calm and peaceful.

While Tang Huan was cultivating, he was brought to every corner of the village by Chen Mu. Through the constant insinuations, Tang Huan had already discovered a lot of things.

This Chen Village was located at the "Firing Dragon Mountain Range" located at the southeastern border of the Forging God Great World.

As for exactly how long it was and how wide it was, no one knew. However, from their descriptions, Tang Huan could vaguely deduce that the size of the Firing Dragon Mountain Range was at least ten times more than the size of the entire small world.

When he came to this conclusion, even Tang Huan himself was shocked. If a mountain range at the border region is so huge, then just how vast is the entire Forging God Great World?

In the outskirts of the Firing Dragon Mountain Range, there were countless villages like the Chen Village and the Tie (Iron) Village, as well as many small and large towns. Amongst these villages, the Chen Village and the Tie (Iron) Village were all relatively strong, but the villages at this level of strength were rather special, they were all separated into two villages, the mother and the son.

Just like where Tang Huan was currently at, was the "Youngsters' Village". In the north, tens of kilometers away, there was also a "Main Village".

The young people of the village gathered in Youngsters' Village, while the Infant Child, the middle-aged and the elderly gathered in Main Village. Once one reached twelve years of age, they had to leave the Main Village to live in the Youngsters' Village until they were allowed to return and stay in the Main Village until they reached thirty years of age.

The Youngsters' Village was actually equivalent to a training ground.

Under normal circumstances, unless the Youngsters' Village was in danger of destruction, the experts and experts of the Main Village would not interfere. For example, the competition for the young of the "Amethyst Thunder Lion" was a contest between Chen Village and Youngsters' Village.

Every Youngsters' Village would have a village chief.

The village chief of the Chen Village was Chen Mu's sister, Chen You. Although she was only twenty-three years old, she had already been the village chief for three years and five years ago, she had already stepped into the Heavenly Domain Realm. After learning about this situation, Tang Huan laughed bitterly, five years ago, he had entered the Heavenly Domain Realm. This meant that at the age of eighteen, Chen You was already a Heavenly Domain-level Expert.

Chapter 697 - True Spirit

Other than Chen You, there was also a Heavenly Domain-level Expert among the Youngsters' Village s. His name was Chen Chong and he was already twenty-six years old.

Chen Village was also a Youngsters' Village, but he had two Heavenly Domain-level Expert s, so his strength was obviously stronger than Tie (Iron) Village's.

As the two villages were relatively close, there were many conflicts in recent years, but the Chen Village always had the upper hand. Taking advantage of the fact that Chen You and the others were not in the village, Tie Fenghan, Tie Fenglei and the other experts of the Tie (Iron) Village took action. Their main goal would probably be to teach Chen Rui and the others a lesson and vent their anger after being suppressed for so many years.

However, although Chen You and the rest were not here for the time being, they would definitely return. Was Tie Fenghan and the rest not afraid of fighting the Tie (Iron) Village after they returned?

Tang Huan was a little doubtful. He had a premonition that this matter would not end just like this. Of course, Tang Huan was not able to guess how it would develop, and he was not in the mood to ponder blindly.

These few days, Tang Huan spent most of his time on cultivation. That kind of strange power that originated from the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" was rather difficult to refine. Even if Tang Huan had the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", the speed at which it was absorbed and refined was not fast.

Although the Genuine Qi, Mind Power, Spiritual Fire and Divine Armament were still in a suppressed state and could not be activated, Tang Huan could clearly feel that after refining and absorbing the energy, his own strength was increasing bit by bit, allowing him to become more and more confident.

"Above Heavenly Domain, is the True Spirit Level."

Inside the hut, Tang Huan sat crossed legged, his mind working quickly.

The group of people who had entered the small world from the Forging God Great World were originally True Spirit Level Rankers. However, after passing through the Thunder Dominion, they had sustained heavy injuries and their cultivation had dropped to the Stage Nine. According to what Chen Mu had revealed, the Chen Village s in the Chen Village and the Tie (Iron) Village each had a True Spirit-level Experts.

The reason why the Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast who was chasing after Tang Huan had chosen to retreat after seeing Chen You was because it knew that Chen You was from the Chen Village. Even if its strength surpassed Chen You's, it did not dare to move rashly, lest it attract the attention of the Chen Village s from the Chen Village s and lose its life.

The Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast was extremely powerful and intelligent. It was not surprising that she would make such a choice.

Of course, in the entire Firing Dragon Mountain Range, the Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast could not be considered as that strong.

In the depths of the mountain range, there were countless beasts with even more terrifying strength living. Tang Huan had been sent to Firing Dragon Mountain Range by the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road" and only met with Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast, those beasts that were not as strong as the True Spirit Level Experts were considered lucky. If he encountered a Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast, Tang Huan would still have a chance to escape, but if he encountered those fierce beasts, Tang Huan would not even have a chance to escape.

In the small world, the Heavenly Domain Realm was almost the peak of cultivation, but in the Forging God Great World Realm, the Heavenly Domain Realm was only the beginning.

The ranks of the first to third stage were Martial Disciple s, the fourth to sixth stage were Martial Master s, Stage Seven Martial Master s, eighth stage Martial Lord s, and Stage Nine Martial Saint s. They were all small worlds and in Forging God Great World s, although there were ranks from first stage to Stage Nine, there were no such titles as Martial Disciple s, Martial Master s, Great Martial Master s, Martial Lord s, and Martial Saint s.

In the Forging God Great World, whether it was the Martial Warriors, the Mages, or the people with bodies like the Demon Clan, they were all cultivators. Any training method would have the same end result. The experts of the three clans that came from the small world all had to first condense their Heavenly Domain s and then step into the True Spirit Level.

"After I finish refining all the energy in my body, I might be able to directly step into the True Spirit Level."

Tang Huan thought for a while, then calmed himself down and continued operating the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", the energy in his body was slowly transferred into the cauldron.

Time passed quietly.

Tang Huan went out of the door less and less, and spent practically all day and all night inside the wooden house. Although Chen Rui and the others were very curious about Tang Huan and the others, they did not come to disturb him. On the other hand, Chen Mu and the other young men and women from Chen Village would observe Tang Huan's situation from time to time through the gaps between the wooden door.

Unknowingly, a few days had passed.

"Huh?"

During the night, a soft exclamation suddenly sounded from within the brightly lit wooden house.

Tang Huan suddenly opened his eyes, revealing a surprised look, but after a moment, the surprise had already been replaced by surprise, he suddenly realised that his Genuine Qi had become loose, it was not only for Genuine Qi, even Mind Power and Spiritual Fire were the same, as for Divine Armament ...

With a thought, a dark red light flashed and the Conqueror Spear appeared in his palm.

The suppression on the Divine Armament by that strange power also disappeared!

Tang Huan's thoughts quickly changed, and in a blink of an eye, he felt at ease. It had already been almost ten days since he woke up. In this period of time, the strange energy in his body had already been refined to more than fifty percent, and the weaker the energy, the weaker the suppression they had on Tang Huan's body.

In the past, he used to be strong of that kind, so Tang Huan was unable to use any of the power he had before, including the Divine Armament.

"Finally, I have some power to protect myself."

Tang Huan uncontrollably revealed a smile.

Ever since he came to the Forging God Great World, even after he was saved by Chen You, a heavy burden had been pressing down on Tang Huan's heart. At this moment, the boulder finally fell to the ground. Being able to use Genuine Qi, Mind Power and Spiritual Fire meant that Tang Huan was able to unleash his strongest fighting strength, and was also able to use his Space Aircraft. Even if he met an enemy that he was not an opponent for like Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast, he could still successfully escape.

In a moment of thought, Tang Huan could not help but circulate his cultivation technique. Inside the Dantian, the Five Colors Spiritual Pills was circulating to its limits in an instant.

"Buzz!"

After a split second, the majestic Genuine Qi surged into the Conqueror Spear like a wave, with a power that could topple mountains and overturn seas, the intense trembling sound suddenly shook the void, and the inside of the spear body exploded with an incomparably resplendent luster. If it wasn't for Tang Huan deliberately restraining himself, the crazy heat that filled the air might have already ignited the entire wooden house.

was surprised and overjoyed as he felt the Genuine Qi surging through his body like a torrent. Compared to when he had just entered the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road", his current Genuine Qi had increased by a large amount.

"Peak of Heavenly Domain?"

With a slight thought, the Five Colors Odor gushed out of the body. With a flick of a finger, it condensed into a thin membrane right next to's skin. Compared to when he was in Foggy Sea Island, the Five Colors Heavenly Domain was indeed even stronger, and his Perception Ability was also increasing explosively.

Now, even if it was the situation within a circumference of two hundred meters, Tang Huan would be able to clearly investigate it in an instant.

"BOOM!"

At this time, an earth-shattering drum sound suddenly resounded in the night sky, also entering Tang Huan's ears clearly. It was immediately followed by a second, then a third ... In just a short span of one or two breaths, nine drum beats consecutively sounded out; it was incomparably urgent, and the entire Chen Village was shaken awake.

"Yiya?"

Xiao Budian who was sleeping soundly suddenly woke up, and jumped up with a start. He quickly turned his head, and looked around suspiciously.

"What's going on?"

Tang Huan's brows slightly knitted, as he too, felt somewhat puzzled.

Following that, Tang Huan heard a series of footsteps, followed by the creaking sound of the door opening. The voice came from the room next door, and the one who lived there was Chen Mu. The footsteps quickly stopped in front of the wooden house, followed by a series of anxious knocks on the door.

"Big Brother Tang Huan, Big Brother Tang Huan ..."

Chen Mu anxiously called out.

Tang Huan's mind instructs (in a second) moved slightly, he kept the Conqueror Spear and immediately stood up. After a while, he opened the door, and saw Chen Mu's anxious face.

"Chen Mu, did something happen in the village?" Tang Huan said in a heavy voice.

"I still don't know what happened."

Chen Mu said anxiously, "However, something big must have happened. Otherwise, he would not have sounded the snake skin drum in the middle of the village nine times in a row, and would have gathered everyone."

"Let's go take a look!"

The corner of Tang Huan's eyebrows slightly raised, he looked at Xiao Budian who was inside the wooden hut, closed the door, and then pulled Chen Mu into his arms and flew away. Xiao Budian flapped his four pairs of wings, leaned against the gap of the door and peeked outside, he did not follow along, his eyes wide with curiosity.

The drum rang out nine times, shaking the heavens.

In the dark night, lights were shining in almost every room. One figure after another headed towards the center of Chen Village, causing the entire village to boil over.

In the center of Chen Village, there was a palace.

When Tang Huan brought Chen Mu over, there were already over a hundred figures gathered inside, and practically everyone had an expression of unconcealable grief and indignation on their faces.

At this moment, the palace was filled with an oppressive atmosphere.

Putting down Chen Mu, Tang Huan looked at the center of the crowd, a tall and slim figure stood there, her face was beautiful yet exuding a heroic spirit, her leather chest and skirt were covered up, the exposed wheat colored skin revealed an attractive luster, what was most striking, were her two slender legs, as though they contained astonishing elasticity and power.

At this time, she was wielding a purple long spear, and her body was as straight as a spear. Her two eyebrows were slightly knitted, and her beautiful face was as cold as water.

"Chen You!"

The moment he saw her, two words immediately appeared in Tang Huan's mind. Back then at the exit of the gorge, Tang Huan had only seen Chen You's back, he did not see his face, but, he was deeply impressed by the purple spear in her hand.

There were three figures standing beside Chen You. All of them were injured, and on the ground in front of them, two of them were lying unconscious, although they did not die, their injuries were even more severe, one of them had a wound that extended from his left shoulder all the way to the right side of his waist, it was so deep that the bones were visible, and his flesh was overturned. Although the bleeding had stopped, the blood that had seeped out earlier had already dyed his body completely red.

Seeing this scene, Tang Huan was slightly shocked.

Chen You and the rest had obviously just returned to the Chen Village. If he remembered correctly, Chen Mu had said before, among the Heavenly Domain-level Expert, Chen You and the other two people who went out to hunt, there were ten experts of the Stage Nine. However, it seemed that only Chen You and the others were left.

He didn't know what kind of unforeseen event had befallen them. Was the other person alive or dead?

Beside Tang Huan, Chen Mu saw all of this happening. Her eyes opened wide and her face was filled with shock, only after a long while did she come back to her senses.

"Sis!"

In the midst of the alarmed cries, Chen Mu could not help but run towards Chen You.

Chen You raised his head and looked over. When he saw Chen Mu, his eyes softened a little, but when his eyes touched Tang Huan, a strange light flashed past his eyes. It was obvious that he had realized that Tang Huan was the person that she had saved from the Saber-toothed Green Carapace Beast in the canyon.

Tang Huan nodded at Chen You with gratitude in his eyes. However, this was not the time for him to thank her.

Time passed bit by bit as people continuously poured in from outside the hall. Cries of alarm rose and fell one after another. In just a few dozen breaths of time, there were already several hundred close to a thousand figures gathered in the palace. This should be all of the Chen Family's Disciples in this village.

"Brothers and sisters."

"This time, when we returned from the hunt, we met with an ambush from a lot of Tie (Iron) Village experts at the 'Hidden Dragon Gorge' that is a hundred miles away. I led the injured brothers and cut off the backs of the three brothers.

"Tie (Iron) Village?"

"It's that bastard from the Tie (Iron) Village again, hateful!"

"They actually dare to attack us so viciously, are they planning to start a war with our Chen Village?"

"..."

Hearing Chen You's words, the inside of the palace was in an uproar, everyone was in a state of shock and anger as they shouted out.

Chen You's eyes swept across the crowd, then raised his hand and pressed. The hall immediately quietened down.

Immediately, Chen You said in a deep voice, "Since we have already fallen out with them, those fellows will definitely not let this matter rest. They will probably catch up to us soon, so we must immediately evacuate and return to Main Village. "Chen Tong, Chen Ming, hurry back as fast as you can. Tell them to send people over."

"Yes sir!"

A man and a woman shouted out, and without any hesitation, they rushed out of palace.

"Chen Rui, all of you, escort your brothers and sisters." Chen You growled again.

"Yes sir!"

Chen Rui nodded his head with a gloomy face, then shouted out loud: "Brothers and sisters, we will set off immediately!"

Just as Chen Rui finished speaking, everyone in the hall started to move quickly. Two Stage Nine experts with wounds all over walked at the front, and two cultivators of the eighth step followed behind while carrying two injured and unconscious Stage Nine experts. They surrounded the seventh and eighth stage cultivators.

Tang Huan secretly nodded his head as he watched. This group of Chen Village s could be considered to be under the prohibition, and after Chen You made his decision, they did not hesitate at all to carry it out, and no one dared to make a ruckus. In just a few moments, more than half of the palace was gone.

"Sister Chen You, what about you?" Chen Rui seemed to have thought of something, and asked suddenly. He was older than Chen You, but he called her sister naturally.

"I'll stay behind to cut off the rear."

Chen You slowly said.

Hearing his words, the Chen Village s who had not left the hall turned and looked at Chen You, their expressions filled with worry.

"You can't!" Chen Rui shook her head repeatedly, "Big Sister Chen You, it's too dangerous for you to cover your back by yourself. It's better for us to evacuate together."

"If we evacuate together, none of us will be able to escape. Chen Rui, bring Chen Mu with you and quickly escort everyone out. " Chen You shouted with an unquestionable tone.

"Sis!"

Chen Mu held onto Chen You's arm tightly and shook his head with all his might, tears already starting to roll down his cheeks.

Chapter 699 - Careful, Deceitful!

"Chen Rui, hurry up, are you trying to kill everyone?" Chen You's expression turned cold, and anger loomed between his brows.

"I ..."

Chen Rui's eyes reddened.

Chen You was the most astonishingly talented young genius of the Chen Village. If the experts of the Tie (Iron) Village were to give chase in large numbers, she would only have a slim chance of survival by herself.

"Chen Rui, you guys hurry up and set off. I'll stay behind with the village chief to cut off the rear." A voice suddenly sounded out, and it was Tang Huan who spoke.

"You?" Chen You frowned, as if he was displeased.

"Big Sister Chen You, I didn't have the time to tell you."

Roughly ten days ago, Tie Fenghan and Tie Fenglei came to our Chen Village to cause trouble, and it was Brother Tang Huan who helped us out, injuring Tie Fenghan severely and driving them away. Otherwise, who knows how many of us would have been injured. "

Sis, Big Brother Tang Huan is really powerful! Chen Mu rubbed his eyes and agreed.

"Oh?"

A hint of surprise flashed deep within Chen You's beautiful eyes, "Since that's the case, then you can stay behind and face the enemy together with me. Chen Rui, don't delay any longer. "

"Yes sir!"

Chen Rui was slightly relieved, he picked up Chen Mu and waved his hand, "Let's go!"

In just the blink of an eye, all of the remaining Chen Village s had left, leaving only Tang Huan and Chen You behind.

"Sis, Big Brother Tang Huan, you must survive!" Outside the hall, Chen Mu's voice could faintly be heard.

"Your name is Tang Huan? Thank you for helping our Chen Village out so much! " Chen You's gaze fell on Tang Huan and his expression became a lot more gentle, but the strangeness in his eyes became even more intense. Chen You had personally brought him back, so he had a very good understanding of Tang Huan's injuries. He never thought that would have already recovered ten days ago, and would even have the ability to defeat Tie Fenghan, who had already stepped into the Heavenly Domain Realm.

Although he was surprised, Chen You was glad.

At that time, she, Chen Chong and the others would already have left, and Chen Village only had Chen Rui and the other two Stage Nine experts. It was simply impossible for him to be a match for Tie Fenghan.

If not for Tang Huan's help, the Chen Village very likely would have already been destroyed.

After all, from the ambush she had encountered with Chen Chong and the others today, it could be seen that the Tie (Iron) Village had long planned to start a war with the Chen Village. Otherwise, it would be impossible for her to do such a thing.

"Miss Chen You, I have to thank you. If you did not save me, I would not be in this world anymore." Tang Huan said with a smile.

"It was nothing." Chen You waved his hand, and a look of apology appeared in his eyes as he looked at Tang Huan, and he said with a bitter smile, "Although I saved you, I had also dragged you into the grudge between our Chen Village s, I am truly sorry. Tang Huan, if you are unable to accomplish anything, you should leave first. I know that you have the Space Aircraft, so the people from Tie (Iron) Village shouldn't be able to catch up to you. "

"It's still too early to say these things now." Tang Huan laughed.

"You're right."

Chen You calmed his mood, his expression serious as he asked, "Tang Huan, what kind of weapon are you used to using? Behind the palace is our Chen Village's armory, there are also some weapons inside, you can go in and choose from. "

"There's no need to go through all this trouble." Tang Huan smiled indifferently, with a thought, a dark red light flashed, and the Conqueror Spear appeared in his hand once again.

"Divine Armament?"

Seeing that, a few more suspicions appeared in Chen You's eyes, but she seemed to have thought of something in an instant. She suddenly blurted out and a look of surprise appeared in her eyes as she looked at Tang Huan.

Tang Huan laughed: "It's only the lowest level Divine Armament."

"Even if it's the lowest level Divine Armament s, it would still be extremely shocking."

Chen You regained his senses, took a light breath, and couldn't help but say, "Tang Huan, for you to summon the Divine Armament in front of me, are you not afraid that I might have other thoughts?"

Tang Huan laughed out loud: "Miss Chen You, you are my savior. If I can't even trust you, then who can I trust?"

In the small world, Tang Huan could easily take out the Divine Armament and even directly forge them inside the Furious Waves City. But in the God Great World, Tang Huan would not be so rash.

However, Chen You was different from others. She did not even covet a Spiritual Beast like the Blue Dragon, so she would naturally not harbor malicious intent towards a low level Divine Armament. Of course, if there were still others in the Chen Village, Tang Huan wouldn't be acting so casually. Even if he had to call out the Divine Armament, he would try to cover it up.

"I ..." Chen You's expression became complicated, but before he could finish, Tang Huan squinted, and his face darkened, "Miss Chen You, they are here!"

"Let's go!"

Chen You's pupils suddenly shrank. Without saying anymore, he moved his feet and flew out of the hall. Without hesitation, he followed suit like his shadow.

In front of the hall, a wide path led straight out of the valley.

Currently, the Chen Village had already climbed over the mountains and left the back of the valley. At the entrance of the valley, a figure took advantage of the hazy moon to fly over.

"Just one person?"

Outside the hall, Tang Huan raised his eyebrows slightly with some suspicion.

"Chen Chong?" Just then, Chen You suddenly shouted out in surprise. Her body shot forward like a ray of light.

"Chen Chong? Another Heavenly Domain Ranker? "

Tang Huan's heart was moved, he looked over.

After a while, the figure was clearly imprinted in his eyes. It was a young man in his twenties. He was tall and sturdy. His body was covered in wounds and blood stains. The staff in his hand was dark in color.

Brother Chen Chong, you're finally back. Where are the others? Chen You's urgent voice sounded. In a split-second, she and Chen Chong were only less than two meters apart.

"Dead! All dead! "

Chen Chong stopped, his tone was mournful, and his face was filled with pain. "Little Sis, I'm sorry, I couldn't bring all of them back ..."

"Big Brother Chen Chong, you don't have to blame yourself, you can't be blamed for this! Those bastards of the Tie (Iron) Village, they deserve to die. We will take revenge sooner or later! "

Chen You's face turned gloomy, the killing intent in her heart boiling.

When she saw Chen Chong appearing alone, she had already guessed that this would be the result. It was already considered fortunate that Chen Chong was able to get back at her from the assassination attempts of the experts of Tie (Iron) Village.

"We will not give up until we have avenged this enmity!"

Chen Chong's face distorted and like an injured beast, he roared loudly. Then, he panted a few times in exhaustion and asked, "Little sister, where are the other siblings?"

"They ..."

Before he finished speaking, Chen Chong could not hold on any longer, he staggered and fell forward, while Chen You took a step forward to support him.

"Be careful, it's a trap!"

Tens of metres away, Tang Huan's face suddenly changed, as he shouted out anxiously.

Chen You was startled, then immediately he felt a tearing pain coming from his stomach. In his line of sight, Chen Chong's face that was covered in blood had become extremely sinister.

"Chen Chong, you ..."

Chen You staggered backwards, and when he saw the exposed black dagger on his abdomen, he could not believe his eyes.

Chapter 700 - Green Devil Snake

"It's you!" It was you who revealed our whereabouts to those bastards in Tie (Iron) Village! " In the next moment, Chen You suddenly woke up from his stupor, and stared angrily at Chen Chong who immediately retreated back several meters after he succeeded, and berated him while gritting his teeth, "Chen Chong, you traitor!"

"You're not stupid, that's right, it's me!"

Chen Chong laughed sinisterly, "Chen You, go and die!" While speaking, the staff in Chen Chong's hand released a dense black light.

At this moment, it was as if the surrounding light had been absorbed by the sucking. Just as he finished speaking, the long rod with a monstrous Strength Qi struck down at Chen You's head, for a moment, the air shook, a loud whistling sound resonated out.

"Chi!"

But right at that moment, a bright red light suddenly shot out, penetrated through the black light and clashed fiercely with the rod in Chen Chong's hand.

The red light exploded, turning into an exceptionally terrifying heatwave that raged wildly.

Chen Chong raised the long rod high up in the air, both of his hands became numb, and his weapon almost flew out of his hands. As for the roaring Strength Qi, it made him even more unable to endure it, and he retreated several steps. When he was more than ten meters away from stabilizing his footsteps, the sinister smile on Chen Chong's face had already completely disappeared, replaced with a thick sense of shock.

"Who are you?"

Looking at the figure that appeared at Chen You's side out of nowhere, Chen Chong's expression became unsettled. The person in front of him should be without a doubt Heavenly Domain Cultivator, but his appearance was unfamiliar, and definitely not from Chen Village. After a short moment, he asked in shock, "Are you the guy Chen You saved?"

Back then, when Tang Huan was saved and brought back to the Chen Village, he had gone to take a look, but that time, Tang Huan's hair was in a mess, and his appearance was not very clear, and just now, Tang Huan was quite a distance away, and the night was dark. Adding the fact that the majority of his attention was on Chen You, he did not immediately recognize him.

Now that he knew Tang Huan's identity, he was even more shocked.

He never would have thought that Tang Huan actually had such a powerful strength, and that the Perception Ability was also extraordinary, to actually discover that something was amiss the moment he made a move. If it wasn't for the fact that Chen You was not the least bit wary of him, he definitely wouldn't have been able to succeed in his sneak attack just now.

"Miss Chen You..."

After forcing Chen Chong away with one shot, Tang Huan did not continue attacking. Instead, he grabbed Chen You with one hand, and looked at her abdomen.

"He won't die yet!" Chen You pulled out the dagger and threw it on the ground.

"Poisonous?"

Tang Huan's expression immediately turned ugly. The blood that flowed out from the wound on his abdomen was not red, but was tinged with a creepy green color. Not only that, but that dark green color quickly spread like a spider web around the wound on his abdomen.

If his skin was like this, then his body was no exception.

Chen Chong tightened the grip on his long rod, and said sinisterly: "My dagger is smeared with 'Green Devil Snake's' poison, she will not last another quarter of an hour!"

"Green Devil Snake?" Chen You's face changed.

"That's right!"

Chen Chong mocked, "Chen You, I have to thank you for helping me kill that 'Green Devil Snake' a few days ago, died to the poison of the 'Green Devil Snake' that I killed. As he finished speaking, Chen Chong could not hold back his ridiculing laughter.

But after that moment, Chen Chong's laughter suddenly stopped.

The cold gazes coming from the other side made him feel as if he had fallen into an icy cave. A chill entered his bones and even seeped into the depths of his soul.

"Open your mouth!"

Tang Huan withdrew his gaze, did not pay any more attention to Chen Chong, and instead looked towards Chen You, and said solemnly.

"Hmm?"

Chen You raised his eyes in shock.

Tang Huan's right index finger immediately extended into her slightly opened mouth, and under his great strength, golden blood started to flow out.

His blood could not cure the poison, but suppressing the spread of the poison was no problem.

"You ..."

When Chen You just vaguely said that word, his mouth was already full of Tang Huan's blood, and he subconsciously swallowed it right away. After a while, she suddenly felt that the wound on her abdomen was wiggling very quickly. When Tang Huan withdrew his finger, she subconsciously looked down.

In his lower abdomen, the ghostly green color had already stopped spreading. The wound was actually gradually closing.

"How is this possible?"

Chen Chong had also noticed the changes in Chen You's wound, and exclaimed in disbelief.

Chen You's face was filled with surprise and joy. She knew that this was definitely the effect of Tang Huan's blood, even if the Green Devil Snake's poison was still in his body, as long as he could hold on for a little longer, it would be enough.

"Tang Huan, thank you! Give me time to kill this traitor with my own hands! " Chen You gratefully looked at Tang Huan, and after that, her two eyes landed on Chen Chong, who was facing her. Her beautiful eyes were filled with overflowing killing intent, and the long spear in her hand released a purple glow as she pointed it forward.

"Kill me?" Chen Chong sneered, "Chen You, do you really think I came alone?"

"Are you talking about the three men hiding there?" Tang Huan's lips revealed a trace of ridicule, and he raised his hand to point to the front left.

"You ..."

Chen Chong's expression suddenly changed, and he was even more shocked in his heart.

There were only three people that came with him. Furthermore, those three people were hiding at least two hundred meters away from here. So Tang Huan had already detected their presence?

"Haha ..."

A hearty laugh suddenly resounded through the night sky. Three figures flashed and appeared behind a wooden house about two hundred meters away, shooting toward their direction.

In the blink of an eye, those three people's faces had already entered Tang Huan's and his group's line of sight.

The one on the left was a strong horse-faced man who was around the age of twenty-seven or eight. He held a long blade in his hand, which was a dark black color, and was precisely Tie Fenghan who had once been in Tang Huan's hands. Last time, Tang Huan broke one of his legs and heavily injured his internal organs, but he did not expect him to recover so quickly.

On the right was a middle-aged man in his forties. He was of medium height, but his build was extremely sturdy. The weapon in his hand was wrapped in a cloth. From the looks of it, it seemed to be a giant hammer. In the middle was an old man about sixty years old, tall and sturdy, with a beard that was white as ash, and an extremely rugged face.

"Tie Tianbo! Tie Tianyan! Tie Fenghan! "

Chen You's gaze swept across the three people standing beside Chen Chong, and practically spat out these words word by word. The rage in his eyes burned fiercely, and he said: "Our Chen Village is not so easy to kill, from today onwards, our Chen Village and the Tie (Iron) Village will not rest until we die!"

"You don't give up until you die?" The tall and sturdy old man laughed, "Chen You, you think too much. From today onwards, I think there will no longer be any Chen Village left in this world."

"What?"

Chen You seemed to have thought of something, and was greatly shocked, "Tie Tianbo, what do you mean by that?"

The tall and sturdy old man called Tie Tianbo did not reply, but sized Tang Huan up while ridiculing him, "To be able to discover us from so far away, our strength is not bad, and moreover, we are young enough, with endless potential. Unfortunately, we will die here today."
