

W. Master 801

Chapter 801 - Preliminary Examination

Tang Huan's heart was as calm as water, his attention completely focused on the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace".

On the other hand, the aura of the "Bodhisattva Fire" had been deliberately restrained to the extreme by Tang Huan, and wasn't leaked in the slightest, so as to not attract the attention of others.

Inside the cauldron, the green flame had tightly wrapped around each and every "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone".

Under Tang Huan's control, the condensed life force continuously separated from the flames, and seeped into the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" inside. Tang Huan carefully checked and found that, with the continuous flow of life, the gems seemed to come back to life.

This caused an uncontrollable astonishment to surface at the bottom of Tang Huan's heart.

thought that these gems could not possibly become living beings with spirituality. The reason why Tang Huan felt that they had come to life was because the countless tiny particles that had condensed within the gems, under the stimulation of life force, were all constantly swimming about, and their speed was even faster.

When those "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" leaned together, the granules that originally existed between the different gems began to quickly seep into each other. At this time, if one were to retract the flames, one would be able to see that some parts of all the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" were definitely embedded together.

"So that's how it is, the gem synthesis is actually like this!"

Tang Huan suddenly realized.

As an otherworldly guest who had lived on Earth for twenty to thirty years in his previous life, Tang Huan naturally knew that all the materials in this world were all made up of extremely minute particles. Different particles had different composition and structures, and what they revealed were naturally different things.

In the words of his previous life, the gem synthesis was actually just a restructuring of the gem.

After he understood this point, Tang Huan's heart had unknowingly relaxed. The nervousness that was brought about by the first time he synthesized the gem had completely disappeared.

In an instant, Tang Huan no longer held back, and activated "Xuan Ming Initial Fire" to its limits.

Water could create trees, and with the coordination of the "Xuan Ming Initial Fire", it was as if oil was constantly being poured into a flame. The "Bodhisattva Fire" suddenly gained a lot of momentum, and the green flame that covered the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" abruptly rose by a large section, becoming even more majestic and boundless in its circulation within the cauldron.

The speed at which the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" were fusing with each other was surprisingly fast. In about fifteen minutes, all the gems had been fused together into a large lump.

"So fast!"

Tang Huan was both surprised and happy. According to the description of "Ice Soul Divine Stone", although the process would take a long time due to the strength and quality of the Spiritual Fire, it would take at least an hour to complete the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" fusion.

A quarter of an hour compared to an hour, the latter was eight times the former.

With the addition of an "Nine Yang Divine Furnace," the efficiency of the fusion of the gems had increased by such a shocking amount. If this were to spread out, who knew how many people would open their eyes wide in shock, and Tang Huan would immediately become the target of public criticism. Even the Tiger Clan would not be able to protect him.

Of course, this was also because Tang Huan's strength was not strong enough.

If he had the power to protect himself even when facing the most top-notch experts of the Forging God Great World, then he would no longer be the target of the masses and would instead be highly sought after. It was a wise decision to reveal the identity of the Weapon Refiner and not reveal his ability to synthesize Divine Level Stone.

In his mind, Tang Huan's reaction wasn't slow at all.

"Hu!"

His life force flowed like a tide, continuing to madly seep in.

Not long after, the countless tiny particles within the "Illusory Moon Rushing Cloud Stone" also began to move. As soon as it came into contact with the large cluster of "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone s", countless granules began to spread rapidly like fish diving into the sea. Very quickly, all the "Mystic Moon Rushing Sky Stone" no longer existed.

This time, it took even less time.

Tang Huan's heart was as tranquil as water. Strictly following the records in the "Ice Soul Divine Stone" formula, he added various different types of gems step by step, without the slightest negligence.

If all the gems were piled up together, their size would definitely be several times that of a "Nine Yang Divine Furnace". The strange thing was, the more the gem fused, the smaller the final gem was. When the sixth gem was added, the original huge gem was reduced to the size of a washbasin.

It was foreseeable that this contraction would continue.

In addition, during the process of the fusion of gems, the properties of the various fine particles that formed the gems were constantly changing.

During this process, Tang Huan could also not blindly start a fire. Different types of gems also had different requirements for the firepower of the Wood Attribute Spiritual Fire.

If it was another Gem Synthetic Master who had made their first attempt, they would probably have to failed several times before they could grasp the mastery of the fire.

But Tang Huan was different. The existence of "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" allowed Tang Huan to grasp any minute changes to the gem inside the cauldron. Whenever he needed to increase the firepower of the "Bodhisattva Fire" and reduce it, Tang Huan would choose the right time and place. His control of the flames could be said to be flawless.

Unknowingly, the gem synthesis was nearing its end.

At this moment, the "Bodhisattva Fire" had already been largely withdrawn. Through the thin layer of green flames, one could even clearly see the lump of gem composition inside that was only the size of a bowl. It was crystal clear and white like snow.

"Hu!"

The last half of the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" entered the cauldron.

Almost at the same time, Tang Huan unleashed all his firepower. The originally weak green flame suddenly shot up to a height of one or two meters, the entire "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" was once again covered up.

Tang Huan slowly closed his eyes, his mind was completely immersed in the cauldron, not letting out a single trace of movement inside. This was the last step in the synthesis of "Ice Soul Divine Stone". Tang Huan did not want to end up with such a tragedy at this time, where he would carelessly neglect it and fail completely.

Time passed bit by bit ...

Those "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" soon adhered to the surface of the snow-white gem, but only the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" 's gem particles swam towards the gem in the center of the body, while the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone" 's that did not have the gem composition flowed towards the surrounding "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone".

At this point, the gem was like a vicious beast that had been starving for countless years. It opened its bloody mouth and continuously devoured the Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone's granules.

With the addition of the large amount of gem particles and the stimulation of his vitality, the gem composition's internal structure had undergone a miraculous transformation. The bone chilling cold had increased bit by bit, and its body had shrunk bit.

After about fifteen minutes, when the last wave of gem particles were absorbed, Tang Huan started to shrink his firepower. The green flames that covered the entire cauldron started to weaken, and the rich life force slowly extracted from the gem body.

In only a dozen or so breaths of time, the "Bodhisattva Fire" had already been completely restrained.

Chapter 802 - Judgement!

At the bottom of the cauldron, a gem that was around the size of a Azure Fire Purple Light Stone lay there quietly. It was round and shiny like a piece of beautiful jade, releasing a bright white luster that intertwined with the red light emitted by the cauldron, causing people's eyes to be dazzled.

"Ice Soul Divine Stone!"

Tang Huan's heart was stirred up, he extended his hand and grabbed it, the snow white gemstone in his hand was actually heavy in an instant, although the gemstone was not big, but it was at least 2000 jin in weight.

Immediately afterwards, Tang Huan felt as if he was holding a piece of ten thousand year old ice, the incomparable cold immediately permeated into his skin, and his hands immediately became stiff and numb. Tang Huan did not resist, and allowed it to spread up his arm quickly.

In just a few short breaths of time, the chilliness had already seeped into all of his limbs and organs, and Tang Huan seemed to have turned into an ice sculpture.

"Looks like this' Ice Soul Divine Stone 'isn't too bad."

After personally feeling the effects of the "Ice Soul Divine Stone", a hint of joy couldn't help but float up from Tang Huan's brows. If just one piece of Divine Stone could do this, then if he refined it into a low level Heavenly Soldier and then activated the Genuine Qi, the power that the weapon could unleash would definitely be even more astonishing.

"It probably only took more than an hour to synthesize this Ice Soul Divine Stone." Tang Huan's thoughts quickly turned, "The 'Bodhisattva Fire' has been used up by thirty percent, and the 'Xuan Ming Initial Fire' has been used up by almost twenty percent. With the remaining remnants of the Spiritual Fire's firepower, you can definitely create another 'Ice Soul Divine Stone'."

"In that case, I'll try again."

Then, Tang Huan kept the [Ice Soul Divine Stone] inside. With a thought, he recalled the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" back into the Dantian.

Tang Huan didn't plan to use the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" for the second time round. This way, he could see how big of a difference there was between the Divine Level Stone he could synthesize using these two methods. Since he had already made up his mind, Tang Huan no longer hesitated and immediately took action.

Pick a gem! Weighing!

After a long while, Tang Huan sat down in front of the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone s" that were divided into two piles on average. In an instant, a powerful flame roared out from each of his palms, and like two green fire dragons, it twined towards one of the "Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone s".

The powerful flames swept the several hundred kilograms of gems over and lifted them into the air in front of him.

At this time, Tang Huan had already activated both his "Xuan Ming Initial Fire" and "Bodhisattva Fire," raising his firepower to the maximum, but very quickly, Tang Huan felt a huge difference.

Compared to when he was using the Nine Yang Divine Furnace, the gem was made from his hands. The rate at which his life force seeped in was too slow. The two were like worlds apart. Within the cauldron, in just a short period of time, the tiny particles within the gem had become as alive as if they were alive. The fusion was completed in half a quarter of an hour.

This time, it took half a quarter of an hour for the life force to completely permeate through the gem.

After a quarter of an hour, the countless tiny particles inside the gem began to move, and after another quarter of an hour, the gem finally reached its peak state, and then began to permeate into each other, and it took almost a quarter of an hour before the Icy Sharping Spiritual Stone finished its fusion.

The time it took to complete this step was several times more than the time it took to synthesize the gem for the first time. However, compared to the hour described in the "Ice Soul Divine Stone" formula, it was a quarter of an hour less. An hour was the shortest time it would take to synthesize a "Ice Soul Divine Stone" in a low level Gem Synthetic Master.

The reason why Tang Huan was able to shorten the time by an hour, should have been because of the coordination of the "Xuan Ming Initial Fire".

"If everything goes well without the slightest mistake, it will take at least three to four hours to synthesize a 'Ice Soul Divine Stone'!"

Tang Huan originally thought that the remaining "Bodhisattva Fire" and "Xuan Ming Initial Fire" in his body would have enough firepower, but now he started to worry.

Although using the current method to synthesize gems consumed much less firepower than using the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", the duration of this method was far greater than the previous one. The amount of firepower consumed in the end would definitely not be little.

However, this thought had only turned in Tang Huan's mind for a moment before he gathered his thoughts and stored the "Mystic Moon Rushing Sky Stone" in the flame in his palm.

Time passed by quickly.

After a long while, the large ball of green flames finally disappeared, and a green gem appeared in Tang Huan's palm.

"Finally, I succeeded before the firepower was exhausted!"

Tang Huan let out a light breath, as if a heavy burden had been lifted from his shoulders.

In the process of fusing with the "Ice Soul Divine Stone", at first, it was nothing much, he had only spent a little more time. However, the more gems he absorbed, the more tensed his heart.

The reason for this was still not enough Perception Ability.

During the second fusion of gems, even if Tang Huan did his best to use both the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and the "Five Colors True Spirit", and used his own Perception Ability to the fullest extent, he was still unable to compare to the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" who was trying to synthesize gems inside the cauldron. The Nine Yang Divine Furnace had fused into his body, and was equivalent to a part of Tang Huan's body that had been placed inside the gem. Tang Huan was able to detect any movement from the gem, and synthesizing the gem with his hands, even if Tang Huan were to sacrifice his life, it would not reach such a state.

Even with his Perception Ability, he was in such a state, let alone an ordinary low level Gem Synthetic Master! But fortunately, the second "Ice Soul Divine Stone" was successfully formed.

"Hu!"

Following that, with a thought, Tang Huan summoned out the first "Ice Soul Divine Stone". Putting the two together, it was almost an obvious decision. The first piece of Divine Stone was even more sparkling and round, the coldness that seeped out of the gems was at least thirty percent more than the second one.

Furthermore, the same "Ice Soul Divine Stone", the first pellet was obviously smaller than the second.

"The quality of Divine Level Stone synthesized by the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace' far surpasses that of gems synthesized by ordinary methods. It's a pity that we do not have a third 'Ice Soul Divine Stone' synthesized by another person to compare. Otherwise, we would know the difference between the quality of our gems and the quality of other low leveled Gem Synthetic Master."

After thinking for a moment, Tang Huan did not think anymore about it, he kept the two gems and retrieved a set of Initial Spirit Heavenly Crystal s from the Sumeru Magical Ring and started to circulate his cultivation technique. As the two piece of Divine Stone descended, Tang Huan's "Bodhisattva Fire" and "Xuan Ming Initial Fire" were almost exhausted.

The Spiritual Fire was not comparable to the Genuine Qi, it would at least need tomorrow to fully recover.

Outside of palace, the sky was dark and Hu Qian sat motionlessly under the roof of the hall like a statue. On the opposite side, many cultivators of the Tiger Clan were peeking their heads out and pointing their fingers at Tang Huan, but with's strict orders at the front and Hu Qian's protection at the back, no one dared to spy on or disturb Tang Huan.

Time flowed like water. As night fell, another morning quietly arrived at Tiger Vigour Summit.

Chapter 803 - Power that defied the heavens

In the Tiger Crouching, Tang Huan was sitting cross-legged on the ground. A "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone" was placed on his palm and in the Dantian, both the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" and "Five Colors True Spirit" were operating extremely quickly.

Relying on the powerful Perception Ability, Tang Huan carefully probed the piece of Divine Stone.

Before he made a move on forging heavenly armaments, he had to do his best to grasp the situation of the Divine Level Stone s he needed, and the more detailed the better. Although there was no guarantee that he would be able to successfully create a Heavenly Soldier even if he had a very thorough understanding of the Divine Level Stone, if he didn't, he would almost certainly fail.

After a while, Tang Huan had gained a lot.

But just to be safe, Tang Huan immediately summoned the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" out of the Dantian and threw it in. In the next moment, the entire cauldron was enveloped by a majestic green flame, and a dense life force was separated from the flame, crazily rushing towards the Divine Level Stone.

Before long, the countless granules within the Divine Level Stone began to wander around, and they were becoming more and more active.

If this "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone" was taken out from the cauldron, from the surface, it did not seem to have any changes, and it was still hard and heavy. However, raging waves were set off within the Divine Level Stone, and every single fine particle inside seemed to have turned into a living being with intelligence.

Tang Huan slightly closed his eyes, carefully capturing the condition of each Divine Level Stone particle.

His mind was completely focused on the cauldron, and unknowingly, a strange scene appeared in Tang Huan's mind. All the Divine Level Stone particles in the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone" started to decompose.

Before long, another type of countless granules that contained a gentle aura was completely separated out and condensed into a ball outside of the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone". However, within the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone", the decomposition of the Divine Level Stone granules continued, and another type of granule of a different nature was born.

Again and again, the disintegration continued ...

"It can actually be like this."

After an unknown period of time, Tang Huan suddenly opened his eyes.

Through the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", he was actually able to deduce the process of the synthesis of this kind of Divine Level Stone. Now, he could even clearly state the formula for the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone": "Amethyst Cloud Returning Essence Stone", "Purple Clouds Origin Stone", "Azure Flame Stone", "920 kilograms", "...

Not only was the weight of the various gems used to synthesize "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone", the sequence of the gems added and the temperature of each step during the process of synthesizing the gems could be determined.

"If a 'Azure Fire Purple Light Stone' can be like this, then the other Divine Level Stone must be no exception!"

With his train of thought, Tang Huan couldn't help but smile.

In the Forging God Great World, the majority of the Divine Level Stone's formulas were in the hands of the Gem Synthetic Master s, and normally, they would not be spread to the outside world. If some sects managed to obtain a certain Divine Level Stone formula, they would always hold onto their treasures.

Just like the more than twenty different Divine Level Stone recipes Tang Huan had gotten from the "God Sealed Spirit Map" in the Myriad Caves City, at least fifteen of them were unique to the master of the cave.

To be able to deduce the composition of a Divine Level Stone through the use of the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" meant that in the future, any Divine Level Stone would no longer be a secret to Tang Huan. As long as he could obtain a piece of Divine Stone, it wouldn't be long before Tang Huan could completely deduce the composition of its formula.

"The uses of the Nine Yang Divine Furnace are endless, and what I know now is only a part of it."

After calming down a little, Tang Huan's heart was filled with emotions.

However, this kind of ability was the same as using a cauldron to synthesize Divine Level Stone s, it was simply too overpowered. If this were to be leaked out, Tang Huan would probably become a thorn in the eyes of the other Gem Synthetic Master s. Of course, the greatest possibility was that Tang Huan had been captured by a certain great power and completely controlled. Afterwards, they would be forced to help them deduce the Divine Level Stone's formula and fuse them into a Divine Level Stone.

After a long while, Tang Huan finally calmed down.

Then, the life force slowly flowed out from within the Divine Level Stone and the green flames that were covered with the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" quickly retreated like the tide. At the bottom of the cauldron, the 'Azure Fire Purple Light Stone' still maintained its original appearance and shape, shining brilliantly, the decomposition process before only existed in Tang Huan's mind.

After taking out the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone", Tang Huan walked with large strides towards the pile of iron ore on the right of the palace.

The first time he had entered this hall, the iron ore had been scattered everywhere in a very small quantity. The second time he had entered, there was already a small mountain inside that was formed from a pile of iron ore, which was at least a few hundred thousand kilograms.

The Tiger Clan must have collected all the good ores in the entire Wind Howling City.

Tang Huan already had a thorough understanding of the [Azure Fire Purple Light Stone]. Under such circumstances, picking out the [iron ore s] and other compatible gems was much easier. Very quickly, Tang Huan took out a large chunk of green ore. This type of iron ore was extremely compatible with Divine Level Stone s.

Immediately after, Tang Huan started roaming around palace again.

When he returned some distance away, he found a large bundle of gems wrapped in Genuine Qi s in his hands. There were dozens of them, a total of five in total, which happened to be divided into five elements; s.

"BOOM!"

Throwing that large chunk of cyan iron ore into the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace," Tang Huan finally began his first artifact forging after entering the Forging God Great World. In terms of mind instructs (in a second), the "Nirvana Sacred Fire" had already been pushed to the limit. A captivating red flame wildly surged out from his palm, covering the cauldron.

The blazing heat did not leak out at all, all of them continuously converging into the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" interior.

After a short while, the boiling heat in the cauldron had reached an unbelievable level. Not long later, the iron ore had melted into a lump of molten metal. Tang Huan activated his firepower with all his might. At the bottom of the cauldron, the molten iron boiled, and at the same time, strands of black smoke rose into the air.

This was the impurities contained within the iron ore. After using "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", it was easily removed.

Time flew, flames raged, and the black smoke was endless.

Spiritual Fire s like "Bodhisattva Fire" and "Xuan Ming Initial Fire" could also forge weapons, but only if they had firepower of the fire attribute. This was also the reason why there were so few cultivators of both Weapon Refiner and Gem Synthetic Master in the vast Forging God Great World.

When he was very young, he obtained the inheritance of the True Fire in the Heavenly Region and became a Weapon Refiner. After that, when his cultivation was very high, he was lucky enough to obtain the Wood Attribute Spiritual Fire and successfully fuse with it. The vast majority of Gem Synthetic Masters had fused with the Wood Attribute Spiritual Fire only after they obtained an extremely powerful cultivation. It was impossible for a Gem Synthetic Master like this to merge with the True Fire again, as they had already lost the opportunity to become a Weapon Refiner.

Unless they could directly fuse with another type of Spiritual Fire of the fire attribute, and the probability of this happening was pitifully small.

Chapter 804 - Heavenly Soldier Completed!

In less than half a quarter of an hour, the iron ore's impurities had already been completely removed.

"Hu!"

The red flame surged violently, and the large lump of molten metal actually slowly rose from the bottom of the 'Nine Yang Divine Furnace', and after a while, it had surpassed the cauldron by half a meter.

In the next moment, the flames violently fluctuated, and the molten metal enveloped by the flames constantly changed shape. In the blink of an eye, the molten metal had been pulled into the shape of a sword.

"Forging a weapon with a Nine Yang Divine Furnace really feels different."

Tang Huan's eyes flashed with joy. In the past, when forging weapons, in order to shape them into shape, it required a lot of time and effort, so simpler weapons were not too bad. But the complex shape of the weapons was enough to give people a headache, but using this "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" would allow one to do as they pleased.

To forge any kind of weapon, one had to forge whatever kind of weapon it was. No matter how complicated the design was, one could do it as long as the ability to control fire was strong enough.

Moreover, through this "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", not only could it strengthen its firepower, it could also allow Tang Huan's control of the firepower to reach an extremely unimaginable degree.

After a short moment, Tang Huan took a light breath and began controlling the sucking's heat. Although the sword-shaped liquid metal was still wrapped in flames, the heat in the liquid metal was leaking out at an alarming rate. It cooled down faster than any other way.

The molten metal gradually solidified and formed into a heavy sword in the time it took for ten breaths.

Tang Huan did not take out the heavy sword, but instead threw all five gems towards the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace". As soon as they entered the furnace, they were split into five parts, separated by the flames. If there were no "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", Tang Huan's ability to control his own would be put to a great test.

But now, it wasn't too difficult for Tang Huan.

"Huff ..."

Not long after, five balls of flames wrapped in gemstone liquid shot out from the cauldron. The tip of the flames condensed into a needle, instantly penetrating the ball of flame floating in front of the heavy sword.

The five balls of flame were like five nimble tentacles. The gemstone liquid flowed out from the tip of the flame, and under the urging of the firepower, went straight into the sword's body. In the time it took to take ten breaths, the five gems' sap had already been drawn one after another along with the moving flames.

"The last step!"

With one hand, Tang Huan maintained the firepower while the other hand grabbed a Azure Fire Purple Light Stone and placed it into the cauldron. Immediately after, Tang Huan did not hold back at all. Other than the "Sharp Spiritual Fire", the three great Spiritual Fire s were activated to their limits, and the heat was instantly raised to an extremely terrifying level.

Under Tang Huan's guidance, all the heat was transferred through the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" onto the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone".

In less than a quarter of an hour, the Lower Grade Divine Stone had already melted, but it still maintained its original gem shape.

The Divine Level Stone's liquid was wrapped in the flame and floated up, and the flame tip immediately condensed into a needle. It spun quickly like a top and drilled into the heavy sword's tip. As the flames continued to move forward, the solution of the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone" began to seep into it.

Roughly an hour later ...

"It's a success!"

Tang Huan exhaled a long breath as the heat from the fire sucking quickly retreated. The "Nine Yang Divine Furnace" also quickly returned to the Dantian and fused together with the cauldron phantom. As for his right hand, it was holding onto the heavy sword that was just forged.

The blade of the sword was wide and about 1.5 meters long. The sword itself was covered in dense, multicolored veined patterns that crisscrossed like spider webs. It was incredibly profound.

Another purplish and cyan pattern as thick as a pinky finger extended from the tip of the sword to the hilt. It completely penetrated the five colored pattern, but it didn't seem too sudden. Instead, it seemed to have a unified feeling. Its existence had turned the entire sword into a living spiritual object.

"Good sword!"

A satisfied smile appeared on Tang Huan's face, following that, a vigorous Genuine Qi surged like a torrent, passing through the center of his palm and entering the heavy sword's body.

"Buzz!"

In the midst of the thunderous roar, a flash of resplendent light that was intertwined with a cyan and purple color appeared from the sword hilt, and then quickly spread. When it connected the entire body of the sword, all the Spirit Map that the heavy sword contained were lit up at almost the same time.

"Hu!"

Also at that moment, an extremely strong aura surged out and swept in all directions. It seemed to set off an intense storm out of nowhere.

"Hmm?" At the entrance of the palace, Hu Qian who was seated as still as a statue suddenly opened his eyes.

"Heavenly Soldier? Did you succeed in forging it? "

Two pairs of eyes looked at the door, and Hu Qian leapt up like a spring, landing at the door, as though it was a conditioned reflex that he wanted to push the door open. However, the moment his fingers touched the door, Hu Qian was startled awake, forcefully suppressing the strong impulse that surged out of his heart, but his face immediately flushed red, and even his breathing became hurried, his eyes full of unconcealable excitement.

"This is ..."

"What a powerful aura, what weapon is this?"

"Heavenly Soldier? A low level Heavenly Soldier! "

"That direction... Tang Huan! His forging heavenly armaments succeeded? "

"..."

After a short moment, the entire Tiger Crouching was shaken, and cries of alarm rose one after another.

That powerful aura came and left quickly, and it soon disappeared without a trace. However, the commotion it caused grew larger and larger.

"Good!" "Alright!"

At the peak of Tiger Vigour Summit, inside the Tiger Divine Palace, Hu Lie was laughing so hard that his mouth couldn't close. His face was wrinkled like a chrysanthemum, and he continuously got up from the praying mat and sat down. He was already prepared for the Divine Level Stone to explode, but he didn't expect Tang Huan to successfully forge a low level Heavenly Soldier. He just didn't know if the first weapon he forged was a Tiger Clan's Divine Level Stone or a Snake Clan's Divine Level Stone.

When he thought of this, Hu Lie wanted to immediately go over to the Tiger Crouching to see for himself. After suppressing and suppressing with effort, he finally managed to suppress this thought. Tang Huan had just completed his forging heavenly armaments and was now either resting or learning from his experiences, so it was best not to disturb him.

It wouldn't be too late to ask Tang Huan to come out of Tiger Crouching first.

"I previously heard that Tang Huan was a Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith, but now that I have forged a Heavenly Soldier, that is a genuine Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith."

"It's a pity that Divine Level Stone are too rare. Otherwise, I would also like to ask him to help forge a Heavenly Soldier."

"Haha, good news, good news! That Tang Huan has successfully forged a low level Heavenly Soldier, I wonder how strong he is? However, no matter how weak it is, it is still better than a Saint-rank weapon. "

"..."

The entire Tiger Vigour Summit, both inside and outside, was in an uproar as countless people were discussing amongst themselves.

Chapter 805 - High Quality

After the aura disappeared, the palace regained its calm. Hu Qian returned to his original spot and sat down with his legs crossed, but was unable to calm down for a long time.

Days passed, and in the blink of an eye, half a month passed.

In the past few days, Tang Huan had not walked out, and the powerful aura that he had emitted previously did not exist in the hall.

The sun rose high in the sky and the sun shone brightly.

"Creak!"

There was a tearing sound, Hu Qian's ears were erect like a sail, he immediately turned his head, and then he saw a slender figure slowly walking out from the hall.

"Brother Tang!"

Hu Qian jumped up, his face was filled with surprise and joy.

Tang Huan nodded his head and laughed: "Brother Hu Qian, take the weapons inside for Lord to have a look, I will first go back to Wind God Valley to rest. That's right, those two snake swords were forged by the Snake Clan's Divine Level Stone."

"Two from Snake Clan?"

Hu Qian was stunned.

If the information he obtained was not wrong, the Snake Clan seemed to have given Tang Huan four piece of Divine Stone s and four piece of Divine Stone s. To think that he actually made two of them, with a success rate of fifty percent, this was extremely shocking.

If the Snake Clan had two, then how many could the Five piece of Divine Stone in the Tiger Clan forge?

When Tang Huan's figure left his line of sight, it was as if Hu Qian had just woken up from a dream. Like a gust of wind, he rushed into the palace and saw in the center of the palace, five weapons lined up on the ground in a row ...

"Swish!"

At the peak of Tiger Vigour Summit, Strength Qi moved horizontally and the sound waves split the air.

"Good sword!"

"Good saber!"

"Good spear!"

"..."

Hu Lie was so excited that his face was flushed.

He practically had to give a harsh compliment every time he waved the low level Heavenly Soldier that Hu Qian gifted him. He didn't even miss the two weirdly shaped swords that were like snakes, he put them down time and time again and picked them up again. Only after a long while did he finally stop.

"Tang Huan is indeed a rare genius in Tools Method. The nine piece of Divine Stone being able to forge five Heavenly Soldier s, the success rate has already exceeded fifty percent." Hu Qian couldn't help but ask. Even after so long, his eyes still contained a lingering sense of shock.

"Not only that."

Hu Lie said with a face full of smiles, his eyes filled with unconcealable praise. "A few years ago, when I went to the city of Yan State, I saw a lot of Heavenly Soldier s. Let's not talk about middle-ranked and high-ranked Heavenly Soldier. In the low-ranked Heavenly Soldier, it is rare to see someone whose quality can compare to a few weapons. "

"These five low-ranked Heavenly Soldier s, each one of them can be considered high-grade!"

It could be seen how much confidence he had in these low levelled Heavenly Soldier s, "To be able to get such a success rate and high quality after his first time forging a low levelled Heavenly Soldier, in the future, the quality of the weapons he would forge would definitely be even higher. At that time, there might not even be a possibility for ten Lower Grade Divine Stone s to become seven or eight low leveled Heavenly Soldier s." As he finished speaking, Hu Lie's expression was already excited.

"Hu Qian, go. Tell the little fellows from the Snake Clan s to have the Lord send someone to retrieve these two Heavenly Soldier s."

"Yes sir!"

Hu Lie's gaze landed on the five Heavenly Soldier s, pinched the hard moustache and muttered: "Next up, Tiger Clan's most important mission is to collect more Lower Grade Divine Stone, the more the better. Heavenly Blacksmith's Tools Method Attainments, will have to rely on a large number of Divine Level Stone to be able to reach it."

"If the Ten piece of Divine Stone really can become seven or eight Heavenly Soldier s"

Hu Lie's thoughts moved quickly, looking forward to it.

If he knew that Tang Huan's current success rate had already exceeded his expectations, and reached the level of nine Lower Grade Divine Stone and nine low-levelled Heavenly Soldier, his eyeballs would probably pop out of his eye sockets.

... ..

Wind God Valley, No.643 Courtyard.

The Space Aircraft returned to its original state and stopped in the courtyard, releasing flickering light. Inside the aircraft, Tang Huan was seated cross legged.

In front of him were four weapons, one of them a long blade and one of the pikes, all using the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone", but during the process of forging, he changed the way the Divine Level Stone was used, and the Spirit Map also changed accordingly. The first weapon, after solidifying, was the Divine Level Stone solution which penetrated the entire weapon. But here, the Divine Level Stone solution was used on the blade and the tip of the spear respectively.

As for the other two weapons, one of them was a heavy sword, with a broad and heavy body, similar to the first low-ranked Heavenly Soldier that Tang Huan had refined. The other one was a long sword, with a narrow and thin body.

These two weapons were forged using the remaining Divine Level Stone s of the Snake Clan.

In the Tiger Crouching, Tang Huan had forged nine low-ranked Heavenly Soldier s, but he had only produced five of them in the end. This was not because Tang Huan wanted to confuse them, but because he had no choice.

A one hundred percent success rate was just too scary. Even the more formidable Heavenly Blacksmith would not be able to guarantee a one hundred percent success when forging a low level Heavenly Soldier. But a first time Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith like him was able to do it ... Moreover, every single one of the Heavenly Soldier s were of high quality.

This completely exceeded everyone's expectations.

There were too many people in the Tiger Clan, if such a news were to spread, it would not necessarily be a good thing for Tang Huan.

While the success rate of nine Lower Grade Divine Stone becoming five low-leveled Heavenly Soldier was still rather astonishing, but in Forging God Great World, there were still a small number of Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith who were able to achieve this feat, and it was still within the range of everyone's acceptance. It was not too exaggerated.

"Hu!"

With a thought, the Conqueror Spear appeared in his right palm. Then, Tang Huan grabbed the spear forged by the "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone" with his left hand. In the next moment, two exceptionally intense humming sounds echoed in the air. The two weapons had exploded into a dazzling light that illuminated the entire space.

After sensing the difference between the two weapons for a while, Tang Huan understood it well.

In a situation where there was no artifact spirit, the might of a low rank Divine Armament and a low rank Heavenly Soldier were indeed about the same. The only difference was that the Divine Armament was able to integrate itself into his body. But with an artifact spirit, the low-ranked Divine Armament should have already surpassed the low-ranked Heavenly Soldier. Unfortunately, the artifact spirit of the Conqueror Spear was a little too weak now.

"If we can add God Sealed Spirit Map s into the Divine Armament, that would be great."

Tang Huan's brain worked very quickly, drawing the God Sealed Spirit Map's "Conqueror Spear", while killing the enemy, he could constantly seal the enemy's soul into his weapon, and he could use the "Heavenly Luo Soul Refining Art" at the same time when using his weapon to kill the enemy.

Conqueror Spear s were like this, Dragon Slaughtering Saber s, Xuanyuan Sword s, Exquisite Carving Bow s were the same.

When they were in the small world, Tang Huan had thought that after forging a weapon, no matter if it was an ordinary weapon or a Divine Armament, they couldn't modify any more weapons. Even if they were advanced weapons forged with "Phoenix Flame Essence" or "Dragon Crystal", they would only leave behind their own spirit channels on the weapon beforehand.

However, after the Nine Yang Divine Furnace had absorbed the Law of the Tao, he realized that not only could the cauldron transform a weapon, it could even raise the grade of the weapon.

Of course, there were conditions for modifying weapons.

"Go visit those Gem Store s again."

~ While thinking, Tang Huan made his decision ~

Chapter 806 - Nine Heaven Black Stone

"Two low-ranked Heavenly Soldier s!"

Within a courtyard in Wind Howling City, a few Snake Clan s exclaimed. Their eyes were wide and their faces were filled with shock.

"The message has been delivered. I will take my leave now." Seeing their expressions, Hu Qian felt like he had just seen himself not too long ago and couldn't help but laugh secretly in his heart.

"Thank you, Brother Hu Qian!"

The Snake Clan s seemed to have awoken from a dream and sent Hu Qian out. Until Hu Qian's figure disappeared, the eyes of the few of them were still filled with intense shock. They had long since received news from the Myriad Caves City, and had thus been paying close attention to Tang Huan's movements during this period.

More than ten days ago, when the news of Tang Huan successfully forging the Heavenly Soldier spread, they were still in high spirits.

However, success rate was something that was hard to come by. Some Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith s could succeed in forging ten pieces consecutively, and then fail ten times in a row. Therefore, they did not hold much expectation for the four piece of Divine Stone that Qian Yu had given to him.

To have one of the four pellets become a low level Heavenly Soldier was a joyous occasion.

But unexpectedly, Tang Huan's answer was actually two Heavenly Soldier s.

"Quick, quick, inform the Lord and ask them to send people here to receive him."

"Yes, yes."

"By the way, Lord, please gather as many Divine Level Stone as possible and have them brought along."

"Understood, understood."

... ..

"That Tang Huan, is his Tools Method Attainments really that powerful?" In a courtyard located in the northeast region of Wind Howling City, a tall and big elder could not help but pat the table in front of him out of surprise. He sprung up, and countless fine cracks instantly appeared on the stone table.

"Send the news back to Dragon Breath City immediately!"

In a blink of an eye, the tall old man made his decision and decisively shouted.

Just as the young man on the opposite side wanted to reply and leave, he was stopped by the tall elder, "Wait." Also, ask the Lord to consider sending some people over to collect the Divine Level Stone and ask Tang Huan to bring them over to. Right now is the time when Tang Huan needs the Divine Level Stone the most. To request for him to forge a weapon, the price probably won't be high, and there might even be a possibility of it being free.

"Yes sir!"

The young man bowed and left.

... ..

"How hateful!"

In a small courtyard on the southern side of Wind Howling City, a twenty-seven or twenty-eight year old man in a green robe could not help but grind his teeth and curse angrily.

This man's name was Ying Wu, a Rank Two True Spirit cultivator from Eagle Clan.

During this period of time, when the Dragon Ascending River had returned with great rewards due to the changes that had happened to them. The Eagle Clan had suffered a great loss, and even more so, due to the error in his judgement, not only had he lost ten of the mines he had obtained, he had also lost three Lower Grade Divine Stone s. This caused all the Eagle Clan s to feel extremely resentful towards the Tiger Clan, especially towards Tang Huan.

Now, Tang Huan had continuously spread good news around the Tiger Clan, causing him to hate Tang Huan to the bone.

"I can't let that bastard continue being this proud!"

"..."

There were a total of four Gem Store s in the Wind Howling City and the one located in the southeast region was the largest.

As the name implied, the Pure Yang Gem Store was a business owned by the "Pure Yang Sword Sect". As for the other three Gem Store s, two of them belonged to other forces, while the one that was opened by the Tiger Clan s was only one. This kind of situation did not only appear in the Wind Howling City, but also in the lairs of the other three great clans such as the Myriad Caves City.

The purpose of the Pure Yang Sword Sect's establishment of the Gem Store was to purchase gems. Although gems were also sold, there were very few that were sold. It was not that he did not want to sell, but it was just that it was difficult to sell, and the main reason why they did not sell was because Wind Howling City's and even Firing Dragon Mountain Range's did not have any Weapon Refiners.

Almost all the weapons of the cultivators of Firing Dragon Mountain Range were bought from outsiders.

As a result, the Pure Yang Gem Store was still selling all kinds of weapons, and it was also because of this that the Pure Yang Gem Store was packed full of people everyday, bustling with noise and excitement.

"I never thought that a Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith would actually come out."

In the room on the third floor of Gem Store, a middle-aged man with thin cheeks looked at Tiger Vigour Summit and couldn't help but mutter to himself, "Nine Lower Grade Divine Stone, five low-ranked Heavenly Soldier ... When our elder in Pure Yang Sword Sect was still a Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith, he did not have such a success rate. It is said that the ten Lower Grade Divine Stone could only produce three to four low-ranked Heavenly Soldier."

This middle-aged man was the owner of the Pure Yang Gem Store, Fu Haisheng.

Tang Huan had used a "Azure Fire Purple Light Stone" and nine other Lower Grade Divine Stone to forge five low-levelled Heavenly Soldier's. The Tiger Clan did not hide anything and in less than half a day, the news had already spread across the entire Wind Howling City. As the biggest shopkeeper in the Wind Howling City, he naturally knew about it.

"With a Lower Grade Heavenly Blacksmith like this, I will definitely buy Divine Level Stone with all my might from now on. I will definitely be able to sell some Lower Grade Divine Stone from the State City for a decent price."

Fu Haisheng immediately realised that there was a huge business opportunity hidden there. Of all the gems, the Divine Level Stone had the biggest profit.

"Shopkeeper, Shopkeeper ..."

An anxious voice suddenly sounded, interrupting Fu Haisheng's train of thoughts. He retracted his gaze, frowned and looked over, to see a young man running in hastily.

"Why are you in such a hurry?" Fu Haisheng was obviously unhappy.

"Owner, someone wants to buy our store's' Nine Heaven Black Stone'." The young man hurriedly said.

"Nine Heaven Black Stone?"

Fu Haisheng could not help but reveal a trace of surprise on his face, "You didn't tell him that the 'Nine Heaven Black Stone' was a product that was not for sale in our store."

"But that person insisted on buying it!" The young man smiled bitterly.

"Ignore it!" We're not selling it, but that person still dares to snatch it from us? " Fu Haisheng scoffed coldly. Pure Yang Sword Sect was the strongest power in the Yan State, and the Sect Master of "Pure Yang Sword Sect" was even revered as the ruler of a region in the Yan State.

"But... "But ..."

The young man muttered, "That person took out a piece of Divine Stone."

"Divine Level Stone?" Fu Haisheng was startled.

"It's a kind of Divine Level Stone that I have never seen before!" The young man quickly added.

"Oh?"

Fu Haisheng's mind trembled.

The servants of the Pure Yang Gem Store were all disciples of the "Pure Yang Sword Sect". They might not be all that powerful, but they were well-informed and had great eyesight, and the Divine Level Stone that that that man took out was actually something that even he had never seen before ... Could it be that another Gem Synthetic Master had invented a new Divine Level Stone formula?

However, how could the new Divine Level Stone recipe appear so easily?

"Are you sure?" Fu Haisheng was in disbelief.

"Shopkeeper, it's absolutely true!" The young man said resolutely and decisively, "That piece of Divine Stone's coldness is extremely scary. With my current cultivation at the peak of Heavenly Domain, I completely do not dare to touch it."

"Let's go and take a look first."

Chapter 807 - Ye Ze

"..."

"What's going on? Why was that door closed? It seems like everyone inside has been invited out. "

"It's said that someone wants to buy that 'Nine Heaven Black Stone'."

"Nine Heaven Black Stone? Don't joke around, that thing is extremely expensive and doesn't seem to be of much use. Furthermore, it has always been a non-selling item in the Pure Yang Gem Store."

"..."

On the first floor of the Pure Yang Gem Store, many cultivators looked toward the closed door on the inside of the hall in surprise. Behind the big door, there was initially a small dimension which was connected to the hall, and inside were the most precious gems in Gem Store.

Many cultivators that entered the Pure Yang Gem Store for the first time would open their eyes.

But not long ago, the customers inside were invited out by the staff of the Gem Store.

Right now, other than the servants and guards of the Gem Store, there seemed to be only that guy who wanted to buy the 'Nine Heaven Black Stone'.

Isn't that Storekeeper Fu Fu Haisheng?

Just as everyone was astonished, two figures suddenly came running down the stairs. The middle-aged man at the very front had his identity immediately recognized.

Under everyone's attentive gaze, Fu Haisheng quickly entered the room.

The room was spacious. On the left and right sides of the room, there were many different colored gems placed on the iron racks placed against the wall. There was also a very handsome looking pillar standing in front of the wall opposite the door.

In the middle of the layers of petals was a white gem.

There were countless specks of blue twinkling in it, like a gem containing a sea of stars in the sky. It was dazzling, dazzling, and exceptionally beautiful.

Around the stone pillar stood a few Pure Yang Gem Store servants and guards, all looking at a black figure with blazing eyes. It was a thin and tall man with sunken eyes and a sinister gaze, dressed in a loose black robe, looking to be around forty years of age.

He was pacing up and down on the left side of the room, his hands folded in his sleeves, looking slowly at the precious stones on the iron frame.

The moment he saw the black robed middle aged man, Fu Haisheng was shocked.

He could not sense any energy fluctuations from this person's body, as if the person standing there was an ordinary person. A fellow who wanted to buy a 'Nine Heaven Black Stone' and was able to take it out, naturally wasn't an ordinary person. From this, one could see that this person's strength was definitely unfathomable, and should have greatly surpassed the True Spirit Level. Even the people from the Rank Seven True Spirit couldn't do such a thing.

Of course, although he was shocked, Fu Haisheng was not afraid. He cupped his hands and smiled: "This friend, I wonder how I should address you?"

"Ye Ze!"

The middle-aged man in black robe said with an expressionless face.

Fu Haisheng searched through his memories, there did not seem to be any strong Rankers in the Yan State with that name, but that was not surprising, the Forging God Great World was not just one of them, maybe this person was from another few neighboring provinces. With a quick thought, Fu Haisheng stopped thinking about Ye Ze's background and smiled sincerely: "Brother Ye, I heard that you're interested in our store's 'Nine Heaven Black Stone'?"

"Yes, I wonder if the Storekeeper Fu can be sold?"

Ye Ze nodded slightly.

Fu Haisheng said apologetically: "I'm sorry, but I believe Brother Ye had already heard from the shop assistant that 'Nine Heaven Black Stone' is not for sale, I ..."

"Storekeeper Fu, there's no need to say such words."

Without waiting for Fu Haisheng to finish speaking, Ye Ze had already interrupted him with a wave of his hand, "There has never been a true non-seller in this world. "As long as the price is right, any item that is not for sale can be sold."

Fu Haisheng laughed awkwardly: "Brother Ye is mistaken, this' Nine Heaven Black Stone 'is really not for sale."

"One Lower Grade Divine Stone!"

Just as Fu Haisheng finished his sentence, Ye Ze suddenly spoke out.

Fu Haisheng laughed involuntarily, "Brother Ye..."

"Two!"

Ye Ze said again.

Fu Haisheng couldn't help but shake his head, and this time, before he could even open his mouth, Ye Ze laughed: "Storekeeper Fu, don't you plan on looking at the Divine Level Stone first?"

Fu Haisheng immediately remembered the assistant's description, and could not help but be moved.

Seeing that, Ye Ze did not say anymore, his left hand extended out from his sleeves and a fist-sized white gemstone appeared in his open hand, shining with a bright and dazzling light, in the next moment that it appeared, a burst of coldness spread out, and the entire room seemed to instantly turn into an ice cave.

Other than Fu Haisheng and a few other True Spirit Cultivator s, all the shop assistants who had cultivation at Heavenly Domain couldn't help but shiver.

"This is ..."

Fu Haisheng's eyes lit up, he could not help but take a few steps forward, wanting to take a closer look, but before his eyes flashed, Ye Ze actually threw the white Divine Level Stone over, and immediately grabbed it.

The moment the Divine Level Stone touched it, it's right arm immediately sank. He could immediately tell that the piece of Divine Stone's weight was no less than two thousand kilograms, and what was even more shocking was the piece of Divine Stone's characteristics. The intensity of the coldness contained within it had far exceeded his expectations.

Fu Haisheng had come into contact with many of these unique Lower Grade Divine Stone, but none of them could compare to the coldness of the one he was holding in his hand. With his cultivation level, he had to constantly mobilize the Genuine Qi in his body, in order to resist the cold attacks.

"It really is a new Divine Level Stone."

Fu Haisheng thought for a while and then laughed, "Brother Ye, the quality of this Lower Grade Divine Stone is indeed good, it can be said to be of high quality, but..."

"Take a look at this one!"

The corners of Ye Ze's eyes twitched, and another ball of white light flew over, as a biting cold chill swept out.

Fu Haisheng immediately extended his hand and grabbed, and unexpectedly, it was an identical white Divine Level Stone.

"Aiya!"

The entire floor in the room seemed to tremble violently, and the surface of his left palm was covered in a layer of ice crystals. If he were to continue on, his entire person would probably turn into an ice sculpture.

"Hiss!"

The surrounding cultivators, be it the cultivators or the few True Spirit Level guards, all subconsciously retreated backwards, all of them gasping for air, all of them had their eyes wide open, their eyes filled with uncontrollable shock.

"This, this is..." the same kind of Lower Grade Divine Stone? " Fu Haisheng could not believe his eyes as he looked at his left palm and then at the Divine Level Stone.

"Exactly." Ye Ze smiled lightly.

"Perfect!" Perfect! "

Fu Haisheng stared at the Divine Level Stone on the ground and screamed crazily in his heart. He wanted to maintain his composure, but he could not hide the shock on his face. Although it was the same type of Divine Level Stone, the chill coming from this piece of Divine Stone was at least 30%, or maybe even 50% stronger than the previous one.

Chapter 808 - Perfect Divine Level Stone

This was actually a perfect Lower Grade Divine Stone!

Because there were high and low levels of Gem Synthetic Master s of the same type, the quality of synthesized Divine Level Stone s were uncertain as well. Even the quality of synthesized Divine Level Stone s from the same kind of Gem Synthetic Master s were also different. According to the conventional way of speaking, it was generally a low-grade, mid-grade, high-grade and the perfect difference.

The first Lower Grade Divine Stone Ye Ze took out could be considered high quality, and the second one he took out was even more flawless. The effectiveness of this kind of Lower Grade Divine Stone would definitely not lose to a middle stage Divine Level Stone with the same characteristics, moreover, it was a middle stage Divine Level Stone.

He had already been the owner of the Pure Yang Gem Store for ten years. Before this, he had also managed businesses related to gems in the Pure Yang Sword Sect, so he had seen many Divine Level Stone. However, he had only seen two perfect Divine Level Stone to date, and the last time was more than ten years ago.

He had originally thought that he would only be able to see the perfect Divine Level Stone in the few large prefectures with the most powerful strengths, but who would have thought that he would actually be a remote Firing Dragon Mountain Range in the Yan State.

"Storekeeper Fu, how is it?"

Hearing Ye Ze's voice, Fu Haisheng seemed to have just awoken from a dream.

Using the Genuine Qi to melt the ice crystal in his palm, Fu Haisheng immediately said with a smile. "Brother Ye, the quality of this second piece of Divine Stone is even better than the first one.

"High-grade?"

Ye Ze glanced at Fu Haisheng with a smile that was not a smile and said indifferently, "Looks like these two Lower Grade Divine Stone are not enough to move Storekeeper Fu. Forget it, Storekeeper Fu, I will not force you. Goodbye! " With that, Ye Ze floated towards Fu Haisheng like a ghost, as if he wanted to take the two Lower Grade Divine Stone back.

"Wait!" "Wait!"

Originally, Fu Haisheng wanted to try and see if he could extort more things from Ye Ze's hands, but seeing this, he did not care about putting on an act, and immediately forced a smile, "Brother Ye, do not be anxious, I have not finished speaking. Although this' Nine Heaven Black Stone 'is not for sale in our shop, but Brother Ye being able to take out two high grade Lower Grade Divine Stone is proof of your sincerity. I am not a person who doesn't know how to change the situation. Brother Ye, this' Nine Heaven Black Stone 'is yours. "

The moment Fu Haisheng saw the first Lower Grade Divine Stone, he had already been moved, but he still had some uncertainty. However, after seeing the second Lower Grade Divine Stone, he had completely fallen. A high rank Lower Grade Divine Stone with a perfect Lower Grade Divine Stone, only a fool would not sell that "Nine Heaven Black Stone".

It was just as Ye Ze had said, there was never anything that was not for sale. If there was such a thing as a "non-seller's item", it must be that the price was not high enough!

Then, Fu Haisheng instructed: "Tao Wang, bring the 'Nine Heaven Black Stone' over and give it to Brother Ye."

"Yes sir!"

"Yes." The tall and sturdy man who was closest to the stone pillar replied and directly grabbed the beautiful dream-like stone from the top of the stone pillar. He then quickly arrived in front of Ye Ze.

Receiving the "Nine Heaven Black Stone," a satisfied smile surfaced on Ye Ze's thin face: "Storekeeper Fu, the transaction has been completed. I'll take my leave now!"

"Brother Ye, please wait a moment." Fu Haisheng immediately asked, "I have another question to ask, what is the name of this Lower Grade Divine Stone?"

"Ice Divine Level Stone!" The corner of Ye Ze's lips curled up, and his expression seemed to be somewhat strange.

"Ice Divine Level Stone?" After muttering these four words softly, Fu Haisheng smiled with incomparable enthusiasm, "Brother Ye, I'll send you off."

Under the stares from the crowd, the door creaked open.

Then, everyone saw the owner of the Pure Yang Gem Store walk out eagerly accompanied by a middle aged man dressed in black robes, and had even escorted him all the way to the entrance of the Gem Store. He only returned to the shop after watching the black robed man's figure disappear into the crowd. However, at the same time, a short skinny figure quietly left the Pure Yang Gem Store from the side door and followed the black robed man from afar.

"I actually lost him?"

After a long while, in the east of Wind Howling City, a short skinny old man looked at the road that led directly out of the city, his dry face revealing a trace of astonishment and suspicion.

... ..

Wind God Valley, No.643 Courtyard.

The Space Aircraft with a rather large body was still resting quietly in the courtyard. As the lustrous light lingered on, the entire area was so quiet that one could hear a pin drop. Suddenly, from the side of the aircraft, a figure appeared without any warning. It was a thin and tall middle-aged man in a black robe.

This person was the Ye Ze who exchanged two Lower Grade Divine Stone for "Nine Heaven Black Stone" in Pure Yang Gem Store not long ago.

The moment he appeared, Ye Ze's face started to twist rapidly, and his body also started to become more robust. In just one or two breaths of time, his appearance had changed greatly, the skinny middle-aged man, the sinister look in his eyes, disappeared completely, replaced by a slender and handsome Tang Huan.

To any True Spirit Cultivator, even though one's appearance could change many times over, it was very difficult to change one's aura.

However, for Tang Huan, this was not a big problem, because he did not need to change his aura at all. With the Space Aircraft concealing himself and the use of "Yin and Yang Void Method," no one would ever guess that he was Ye Ze.

"Hu!"

His figure moved slightly, and Tang Huan once again entered the Space Aircraft.

Taking out the "Nine Heaven Black Stone" from the "Sumeru Magical Ring", Tang Huan smiled in satisfaction. Although this "Nine Heaven Black Stone" was a gem, it was a gem of no rank. Its purpose was not to forge weapons but a strange power that originated from the nine heavens.

The amount of energy contained within was miniscule and could not be felt by cultivators, but the "Nine Heaven Black Stone" could absorb it.

"For cultivators, this power has endless uses, especially when they're trying to break through to higher realms. It's extremely useful, but unfortunately ..." Nine Heaven Black Stone's speed of gathering energy was too slow. Even a hundred to two hundred years would not be enough for a cultivator to breakthrough.

Furthermore, although Nine Heaven Black Stone were rare, they were not rare.

Because of all these reasons, other than the large sects that had a long history and would collect large amounts of "Nine Heaven Black Stone", the small forces, especially the individual cultivators, rarely bought this item. As for the Gem Store, this item was useless to them. No one wanted it, but they were not willing to sell it at a low price. It was because of this that the Pure Yang Gem Store + claimed that this "Nine Heaven Black Stone" was not for sale.

Initially, Tang Huan went to the Gem Store to try and see if he could find a gem that could transform the Divine Armament.

Last time in the Pure Yang Gem Store, Tang Huan had once seen a "Nine Heaven Black Stone," however, he didn't have such a thought like this at the time, and didn't mind it too much. But this time, the moment Tang Huan sensed the kind of power that the "Nine Heaven Black Stone" contained, he decided to get it.

If his judgement was not wrong, the transformation that the Conqueror Spear and the other Divine Armament had landed on this "Nine Heaven Black Stone".

Chapter 809 - Wolf pack!

"ROAR!" "Aoooo ~ ~ ~ ~"

The piercing sounds of wolves howling rose and fell, shaking the area several hundred miles away.

In a wide valley in the depths of Firing Dragon Mountain Range, there were short shrubs everywhere, and an extremely intense battle was occurring.

Surrounded by hundreds of Black Huge Wolves with huge bodies, a Fire Red Huge Tiger, a Golden Dragon, and a strange humanoid monster dashed left and right, killing all around them. Dozens of meters above in the sky, a white huge eagle dove down from time to time, raising bursts of gales.

For a time, a thunderous roar arose, and smoke and dust billowed everywhere.

At the center of this battlefield was a small hill that was over ten meters tall. At the top of the mound, Tang Huan crossed his chest with a smile on his face.

Right now, the ones fighting against hundreds of Black Wolf were his four Divine Armament s.

The Fire Red Huge Tiger was the spirit of the "Xuanyuan Sword", the Golden Dragon was the spirit of the "Dragon Slaughtering Saber" and the white colored huge eagle was the spirit of the "Exquisite Carving Bow". As for the humanoid monster, it was naturally the spirit of the "Conqueror Spear". Of the Divine Armament s that Tang Huan forged in the small world, he only kept these four items. As for the rest, he would give them all to his master before he entered the "Ling Xiao Ancient Road".

These four Divine Armament s all currently contained "God Sealed Spirit Map" within them.

The power that the "Nine Heaven Black Stone" possessed was extracted from the "Nine Yang Divine Furnace", and after it fused with the Divine Armament, a miraculous change occurred. The originally stable Spirit Map and the structure of the entire weapon had become completely active, allowing Tang Huan to adjust the Spirit Map.

After completing the transformation of the four parts of the Divine Armament, Tang Huan used his sacred art and quietly left the Wind Howling City.

His actions this time, other than Lord, no one else knew. Hu Lie was strongly against it, but under Tang Huan's insistence, he could only helplessly agree. He held Tang Huan's hand for a long time, explaining the details of the Firing Dragon Mountain Range before he let him go.

Once they were far away from the Wind Howling City, Tang Huan released the four Divine Armament s and continued to delve deeper and deeper into the mountain range.

Right now, it was already the ninth day since Tang Huan left the Wind Howling City.

During this period of time, every artifact spirit had absorbed and refined a large amount of spirit beasts, and all of them had reached the level of Rank Three True Spirit.

"Aoouuu ~ ~ ~"

In the midst of the sharp hissing sounds, a Black Wolf actually went around the four Spirit of Divine Weapon s and rushed up from the side, pouncing and biting over. Its sharp claws seemed to split the air, and its opened bloody mouth was filled with fierce fangs, droplets of saliva dripping down, as though it was going to swallow Tang Huan whole.

"Chi!"

Tang Huan glanced over in a blink of an eye, and a needle like Five Colors Odor shot out from between his eyebrows, and instantly stabbed into the Black Wolf's huge head.

Soul Killing Stab!

"Howl!"

The Black Wolf seemed to be in a trance, his body suddenly paused in the air, and then fell straight down, but before it could touch the ground, the white huge eagle transformed from Exquisite Carving Bow shot forward, its sharp hooked like beak pecking down, and with a bang, the giant wolf's head exploded.

The wolf corpse dropped down at an even faster speed, but at the same time, a dense black Qi entered huge eagle's mouth.

"Hu!"

The white eagle flapped its wings and pounced towards the other Black Huge Wolves.

The Black Wolf that had just endured Tang Huan's soul attack possessed the strength of a Rank Three True Spirit. Not only that, every single Black Wolf in the pack of wolves was tyrannical.

The strongest one was even at the Rank Five True Spirit level, and the weakest was at the Rank Two True Spirit level. In Firing Dragon Mountain Range, there were very few vicious beasts that dared to provoke such a pack of wolves, even if it was the strongest one.

In other words, when Tang Huan saw the wolf pack, not only did he not leave, he had even ordered the four artifact spirits to attack him.

As the battle progressed to this point, there were already dozens of fragmented wolf corpses on the ground. The thick smell of blood pervaded the air, but it had also stimulated the remaining Black Wolf to the point of insanity.

"Aoouuu ~ ~ ~"

Halfway through the cry, it suddenly stopped. The Black Wolf was sent flying by the Golden Dragon's tail in front of him, but before he could even get up, his body was ripped apart by two huge claws, and his soul was devoured by the Eight Remoteness Dragon King.

Not far away, a Black Wolf clawed at the Fire Red Huge Tiger's head, but it seemed to have hit the air, its claw flashed, but the tiger's head remained unharmed. But in the next moment, the blazing mouth bit Black Wolf's neck, ripping off half of its neck.

Similar scenes were playing out almost all the time.

With their current strength, normal attacks would not be able to cause any harm to them. Even if their entire bodies were to shatter, they could reform and take form again, but when their attacks landed on the ground, Black Wolf would still be injured.

Facing this kind of situation, many Black Wolf s were angry and anxious, but they could not do anything about it.

With their intelligence, they could naturally see that the key of this battle was Tang Huan, standing on top of the mound, going around the four great artifact spirits one after another, in order to kill Tang Huan. It was a pity that all of the Black Wolf that were trying to do so had ultimately turned into a corpse of a wolf on the ground.

Unknowingly, more than half of the Black Wolf s that fell around the mound had already fallen, and the ground was completely dyed red with blood.

"Aoouuu ~ ~ ~"

The strongest Black Wolf Leader that had been wandering around suddenly roared. Whoosh!

In the next moment, the Black Wolf who were originally scattered around the mound, suddenly began to retreat as if they were listening to an imperial edict. In just a few breaths of time, other than a few Black Wolf s who were unable to escape from the encirclement, the rest had all retreated to a distance of over a hundred meters. They all lined up neatly, and from afar, they looked like a huge black arrow, pointed straight at Tang Huan who was on the mound.

The commander of the Black Wolf stood at the front of the line, baring his sharp fangs, his two big eyes staring straight at Tang Huan, filled with a ruthless and bloodthirsty killing intent. Behind it, many Black Wolf s did not make a sound or move at all. The surrounding atmosphere became extremely oppressive.

"Huh?"

Seeing that, Tang Huan's eyes could not help but narrow as he exclaimed in surprise.

The remaining two hundred or so Black Wolf s weren't simply lined up. At this moment, the pack of wolves seemed to have formed a group based on the Black Wolf Leader, and once the auras became consistent, they started to soar at a shocking rate.

Peak of Rank Five True Spirit!

Rank Six True Spirit!

Peak Rank Six True Spirit...

"Rank Seven True Spirit?"

The aura had finally stopped growing, but Tang Huan was still shocked.

No matter how intelligent a True Spirit Level Beast was, it was impossible for it to understand without a teacher. To comprehend such a method, could this pack of wolves have been trained by humans before?

"Hu!"

The black arrow suddenly moved!

As if driven by an invisible force, more than two hundred Black Wolf s stepped forward at the same time, shooting forward like shooting stars;

Wherever the wolf pack passed by, it immediately set off an exceptionally violent black tempest.

"Aoooo ~ ~ ~"

Another wolf howl resounded in the void.

Immediately after, an incomparably large black wolf shadow rose from the pack of wolves.

Its body had actually reached a frightening length of over ten metres, and compared to it, the gigantic Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments was just like a small child in comparison.

The Black Huge Wolves opened his mouth, and immediately pounced forward, as if he was going to swallow the entire mound, including Tang Huan. The terrifying pressure was like a storm, crazily spreading out, with just a flick of his finger, it had already filled up a few hundred metres in radius, causing even the air to freeze.

"Hu!"

Tang Huan frowned slightly as his expression became grave in an instant. With a grab of his hand, the white colored huge eagle turned into a set of Exquisite Carving Bow and landed in his palm. Almost without hesitation, Tang Huan pulled out his hands, and his shining bow bent like a full moon, as a thick and long arrow rapidly condensed at the tip of his fingers.

"Bang!"

In the next moment, the arrow left the bowstring.

The sharp sound of something breaking through the air resounded incessantly. The arrow began to distort rapidly and turned into a huge eagle with slightly retracted wings. Its speed was extremely fast.

"Sword Art of the Inscription, Heavenly Eagle Slicing Feather Arrow!"

With the combination of the "Superior Arrow True Skill", the power of his archery technique increased explosively. The arrow was like a streak of white light as it streaked through the air. Wherever it passed, ripples would appear in the surrounding space. An incomparably sharp aura surged out, unstoppable.

Seeing the incoming arrow, the Black Huge Wolves, who was standing above the pack of wolves, suddenly raised his claws and smacked down fiercely. It was like a huge wave that reached the heavens, unstoppable.

In a split-second, the arrow-like arrows and the Black Wolf's huge claws collided head on.

Amidst an earth-shaking explosion, the huge eagle madly shattered, transforming into countless feathers. Each feather was an extremely sharp blade. It was as densely packed as a locust swarm, instantly enveloping the surrounding dozen meters of space.

In an instant, the huge wolf claw, and even the entire foreleg, was chopped into pieces. However, when those blade-like feathers cut into it, they instantly disintegrated, disappearing without a trace.

"Aooo!"

The giant wolf roared, and with a slight movement of its body, one of its forelegs reformed, and its pouncing posture slowed down.

"Ang!"

At this moment, the dragon cry shook the world.

Eight Remoteness Dragon King's five meter tall body suddenly shot forward, his huge fist was like a meteorite flying from the sky, rumbling towards the giant wolf's head. At the same time, the Golden Dragon's body somersaulted, its stretched out tail hacking down like a giant blade from above.

"Roar!" The Fire Red Huge Tiger, on the other hand, rushed towards the wolf's abdomen from the right side like a sharp sword.

"Aooo!"

With a furious roar, Black Huge Wolves arched his back, shook his head and kicked his legs.

In the next moment, Eight Remoteness Dragon King was sent flying by the giant wolf, while the Fire Red Huge Tiger was also sent flying dozens of meters back by the giant wolf's kick. The dragon tail that came flying down from above was also sent flying high into the sky by the giant wolf's back. The aggressive attacks of the three great Spirit of Divine Weapons had actually been completely neutralized by him.

"It's actually a spirit body?"

With a flick of Tang Huan's right hand, the Exquisite Carving Bow turned into a white huge eagle and whizzed forward. The Eight Remoteness Dragon King, Fire Red Huge Tiger and the other Golden Dragon once again unleashed a powerful attack, revealing the image of a weapon from within.

This was the Divine Armament's will, condensing into substance within their bodies.

When the huge eagle threw himself at him, the Exquisite Carving Bow in his body also drew an arrow with its bow. When the Eight Remoteness Dragon King, Fire Red Huge Tiger and Golden Dragon attacked, the Conqueror Spear, Xuanyuan Sword and Dragon Slaughtering Saber in his body would also move as well. In an instant, the Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments's attacks became even more powerful, and his power greatly increased.

After a moment, Tang Huan could not help but smile.

The giant black tiger collided, pounced, bit, and kicked ... Every part of his body seemed to have turned into a sharp weapon, continuously neutralizing the Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments's attacks. But the Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments's attacks were like a wave, wave after wave, making it hard for it to get any closer to Tang Huan.

"In the end, he is not a true Rank Seven True Spirit cultivator!"

Tang Huan's gaze swivelled back and forth between the black arrow that was formed by the wolf packs on the ground and the huge wolf above him, and had already discovered the secret within. When the wolf on the ground moved, the huge wolf above would also do the same action. That huge wolf was just like the shadow of a wolf.

The key to defeating the wolf was still on the wolf pack.

However, the wolf pack was completely surrounded by the Black Huge Wolves. If the Black Huge Wolves's defenses were not torn apart, the wolf pack below could not be harmed at all.

Tang Huan was not in a hurry. If he wanted to maintain such a huge spirit body and urge it to resist the Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments, that group of Black Wolf would definitely consume a large amount of energy. With the current situation, it was impossible for it to continue on for long.

The facts proved that Tang Huan's judgement was completely correct.

In less than a quarter of an hour, the giant wolf started to show signs of slowing down.

Being forced to such a state by Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments who only had the strength of Rank Three True Spirit did not mean that the methods used by the wolves were fake, but that they had chosen the wrong person to use. If the wolf pack had fought with four Rank Three True Spirit cultivators, they would probably not even be left with dregs. But to the Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments, as long as Tang Huan was still alive, they were practically indestructible existences.

In a fierce battle with the huge wolves, they would not be injured at all, and would only constantly exhaust their strength.

But the situation now was that the speed at which the wolf pack consumed their energy, had completely surpassed Spirits of Four Great Divine Armaments's. If this continued, the giant wolf would surely collapse.

"It's almost over."

Tang Huan thought for a moment and then used both "Visional Phoenix Five Footwork" and "Space Moving." The illusionary image stayed on top of the mound, but his real body had already disappeared without a trace.

"Ang!"

Dozens of meters away, Eight Remoteness Dragon King roared like thunder as two gigantic claws the size of a palm-leaf fan grabbed towards the giant wolf's head.

The Black Huge Wolves acted the same way again, sticking his head forward and attempting to knock it flying. However, just as his head was about to touch the two claws, Eight Remoteness Dragon King's figure suddenly disappeared. Beneath the giant wolf's neck, Tang Huan appeared almost at the same time.

With a grab, the disappeared Eight Remoteness Dragon King turned into a Conqueror Spear and landed in Tang Huan's palm. Almost without any hesitation, Tang Huan moved his arm, causing an excited buzzing sound to resound between heaven and earth. The Conqueror Spear that was releasing a resplendent red glow had already taken the opportunity to stab outwards.

"Chi!"

A gigantic Fire Red Spear Radiance shot out from the spear, like a rainbow piercing through the sky, in an instant, it pierced through the two forelegs of the huge wolf like giant pillars, striking onto the body of the Black Wolf commander at the front of the black arrowheads, its power and might was astonishing.
