When Long Chen turned back, suddenly the soul was scared to fly, and the eyes behind him were red, and the guy who was chasing him, the distance from him would not exceed 20 meters, so that it would take less than a quarter of an hour, he would probably return to the West. It is.

"I haven't finished so many things, I have to die in this place?"

He was extremely reluctant, and he repeatedly screamed and tried his best to escape. The speed of the guy was too fast. In the blink of an eye, Longchen had already smelled him.

The taste of the wolf.

"Go to your mother, Lao Tzu still fights your beast!"

The blood in his heart tumbling, knowing that this will continue. If the other party catches up, he can penetrate his back absolutely, so at the last moment, he suddenly turns around and screams, suddenly bursting out of the starlight, like a blast from the sky. Comet, instead, rushing toward each other!

"Eat Laozi hits the comet! Give me to die!"

With a bang, the star demon wolf screamed with anger, holding his claws and banging it out. His huge force instantly broke through the dragon's comet boxing and slammed into Longchen's body. Long Chen suddenly spewed out a blood and flew away. , crashed to the ground.

"Even the Stars can't stop him!"

Just a blow, the body of Longchen was tumbling, and the combat power suddenly lost half. At this time, the star wolf once again made a roar, and a paw came to Longchen's head. If it hits, it will be the head. The consequences of smashing!

Looking at the huge momentum he has hit, this is the most powerful opponent that Long Chen has ever met. He is almost in front of him, without any defensive power. The cold light on his head is getting closer, and Long Chen suddenly laughs out. Come, he clenched his fist tightly and snarled wildly: "It's not so easy for you, you want to kill me!"

Suddenly pulled up, once again try their best, use all the power and infuriating of the stars and battles, such as a comet that is dead, returning to the stars and wolves!

The feeling of holding your hand in your hand and being able to throw it away at any time stimulates all his madness and riots!

Although he was injured, it is true that the attack that is now launched is the most powerful blow he has ever made. With the comet boxing, he almost exhausted all his infuriating.

"Stupid, why are you so desperate!"

At this moment, a crying voice rang on the back of Longchen. His eyes were blooming. Suddenly a faint light appeared in front of him. At that moment, Long Chen suddenly felt that he was dreaming.

In front of him, the coffin sword is suspended, and at this time the coffin sword has a large amount of white mist pouring out, suddenly fascinated by Longchen's vision, a figure condensed in the fog of the coffin sword, Longchen only It was to see her back and two words appeared in her mind.

"Fairy..."

This misty woman has a charming black hair, a sultry, delicate skin, such as warm jade, soft light, a light blue dress, waist is not a grip, charming and boneless, into the Yan Three points, the beauty is so innocent, so beautiful that it does not eat human fireworks.

Although he only saw one back, he was convinced that she must be beautiful.

The injury I suffered before was actually much more serious than he thought, but he was stubborn and didn't want to die here so he didn't feel much serious. At this time, the coffin suddenly came out of the sword, and Long Chen suddenly felt very in the heart. peaceful.

Then, the pain of overwhelming tears his body, he was seriously injured, and then he took the infuriating spirit again. At this time, he was already the end of the strong, suddenly, his mind became more and more blurred, and the beautiful figure in front of him also Gradually disappeared in front of my eyes.

For a long time, he woke up and found himself in the middle of two huge stones. He looked up and the sky was still gray, proving that he was still ridiculous.

I still feel a little uncomfortable, but I feel that it is no longer a problem. Long Chen remembered the things before the coma, and he panicked and said: "Oh, where are you?"

"it's here."

A weak voice remembered, Long Chen saw that the Lingbi sword was leaning against the boulder next to it. Before the coma, Longchen was vividly in sight. At this time, watching the coffin, the heart was also intimate, and the coffin Shocking and beautiful, he is firmly in the heart.

The voice of the coffin still sounded very weak. He was worried. He quickly said, "Are you alright?"

"Nothing... but it's really tired. I have no strength to talk. Since you woke up, I have to sleep well. If you wake me up, I will kill you... oh..."

Speaking of the back, she has some ambiguity.

"I fell asleep so fast, it was a pig."

Long Chen smiled and said, but thought that this girl not only saved herself, but also in her own coma, she still resisted fatigue and weakness and did not sleep.

"How can I not understand this love? If you don't understand it, then this girl is so bitter, I will let my long time repay her!"

The coffin was destroyed by the mysterious iron sword, and then the soul was inhaled. Long Chen already knew.

"That star demon wolf is estimated to be repelled by the coffin, I have now got two mountain demon ginseng, just to make the strength go one step further."

When I think about it, he observes the surroundings and confirms the safety. Then he takes out the mountain demon ginseng and takes the next one. In the blink of an eye, Longchen can feel that a heat spreads in his body and cycles through the body several times. While nourishing his body, he went to his Dantian again.

"This heat is the potency. Take this opportunity. I want to refine this medicine as soon as possible and turn it into infuriating."

Time is a little past.

After half an hour passed, the strength of a mountain demon ginseng has been digested by him. Longchen frowned. "The mountain demon ginseng is a medium elixir. I am afraid that a mountain demon can not let me immediately have the impact." The power of the four dragon veins, then I will take another one. I practiced the star battle, and the meridians are stronger than the average person. I must be able to withstand this huge potency!"

I want to do it, another mountain demon is under the service.

The strong potency began to spread ~www.mtnovel.com~ Longchen stepped up refining, and the real gas in Dantian was more and more, gradually reaching the critical point, and even exceeding.

"Everything is finished, this time, let me hit the Dragon's Circumstances fourth. Every three dragons in the Dragon's context is a hurdle. Entering the fourth weight will inevitably make my strength rise again. Once again, I will encounter the Star Wolf and no resistance. Power!"

The mighty instinct rushed toward the fourth dragon pulse. The collision of the fourth dragon pulse was several times more difficult than the third dragon pulse. Longchen suffered strong resistance for the first time.

"The cultivation of the dragon veins is really difficult. I have the instinct of the old man, and I still serve two mountain demon ginseng. I can't break it, but this is not my limit!"

Biting his teeth, Longchen mobilized all the infuriating, and the rumbling rushed toward the fourth dragon, and the whistling dragon screamed in his body.

After half an hour, a loud bang was heard, and a powerful momentum erupted toward the surrounding area. Longchen stood up and his eyes surged.

Hold your fist and feel the power of your body.

"This is the fourth most important thing in the Dragon. It is really powerful. The guy who has the strength of Yang Zhan has lost it to me. It is really waste."

He looked at the Lingbi sword and said: "The spirits are rushing out of the sword. I am afraid it is not easy to wake up. There are not many time left in the family assembly. I can't waste it. Just watching her sleep, I practice the stars and battles. The fourth heavy repair of the Dragon Thread is solid, and I will hit the fifth."

The strength has improved, and the flustered heart of Longchen has stabilized. He sat down and continued to practice.
