

War God 3171

Chapter 3171 - Hongmeng Rules

It was called the law of space, but not all of it.

There was a certain difference from the rules of space that Ling Xi had now, and there was an even larger difference from the rules of space of the Anarchic Demoness. If the rules of space in the Anarchic Demoness were the rules of space now, then this Hundun Shenwu was simply a rule of space from the ancient era, from the ancient era!

In front of Long Chen, the three-headed, six-armed Hundun Shenwu had changed his body. Now, the one facing Long Chen was the other, and in his hands, it wasn't the Ancient Heavenly King Halberd!

Instead, it was the Heavenly Divine Martial Wheel that possessed nine nine-colored discs!

They were all Creation Divine Weapons with half a origin level!

With regards to the previous exchange, Hundun Shenwu already had an even greater fighting spirit in his heart, and his fury had also grown even greater because of the Primal Chaos Flame Dance. One of the two, when the nine colored wheel spun, the nine giant wheel seemed to fuse with the space itself, the terrifying might once again descended!

Hundun Shenwu casually displayed a rule that surpassed Primal Chaos!

"This sort of spatial law has something else added into it. It's like those nine elemental laws have the Chaos laws."

Ling Xi was also puzzled.

Anarchic Demoness also felt that the other party's spatial laws contained an ancient power!

Just like the Heavenly Dao Divine Martial Wheel, Hundun Shenwu had simply merged into the space without a trace, even the Everlasting Whirlpool was unable to control his figure.

"The primordial chaos is half mine. The other half of me is Grandmist. "

Among the treasures, there were Chaos Treasures and hongmengxinling.

These two words were the beginning of heaven and earth, as well as the turbid state of the universe.

"grandmist space is only the most ancient of spatial laws. It is far more than just a level higher than the spatial laws of this Anarchic Demoness!"

The rules of grandmist space!

Although he still did not quite understand, like the Primal Chaos Rules, space was similar to a type of primal chaos element. However, the laws of space were already strong, and were equal to a collection of nine types of primal chaos elements.

Hundun Shenwu was not bragging, he had already felt the power of this transcendent spatial power!

"Brother Chen, I feel that this primordial rule is similar to the Guardian Dragon's rule. It's just that I haven't discovered the deepest part of it yet. Seeing his grandmist rules, I really want to see the direction of where the dragon sacrifice goes to an even deeper level. "

Ling Xi was currently in the Beginner's Realm Hierarchy, and the highest state of being a Dragon Sacrifice was one that was infinitely close to the ancestral realm.

In terms of the realm of laws, she had already touched upon the limits of the laws of ordinary space.

"Is that so?"

Hongmeng, Space, Dragon Sacrifice

The instant Hundun Shenwu made a move, Long Chen connected these words together consecutively and suddenly recalled a bit.

Ling Xi had said that the future direction of the dragon sacrifice would be the primordial rule, so there might be a primordial rule in the second ancestor. Could it be that Hundun Shenwu's primordial rule is related to the second ancestor? "

No one knew what kind of rule the second ancestor had, but from the perspective of the Sacrificial Dragon, there should be some sort of spatial rule.

Furthermore, the Lord of the Chaos was able to transcend worlds and create invitation cards. It was obvious that he was more proficient in the primordial laws than Hundun Shenwu.

"These two must definitely be related to the second ancestor!"

Long Chen was completely convinced of his suspicions.

But of course, the most important thing right now was to defeat Hundun Shenwu!

Honestly speaking, if he had wanted to delay the time of the battle a bit, he would have a clearer understanding of the primordial rules. But the problem was that Hundun Shenwu was simply too strong, Long Chen was simply unable to grasp the rhythm of the battle!

When Hundun Shenwu completely disappeared from the space, the so called primordial laws exploded!

"The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal!"

Suddenly, nine discs appeared in the nine positions surrounding Long Chen. The entire Eternal Whirlpool was surrounded by it, and the rules of space engulfed it.

Instantly, those nine enormous discs began to change swiftly. Right in front of Long Chen's eyes, the nine discs opened from the center, forming nine great gates that originated from the Primordial Chaos!

Nine The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal s!

The door opened, revealing nine worlds. Each world seemed as if it were the beginning of Heaven and Earth. Nothing had yet formed yet. It was a prison, an eternally sealed world!

"Withdraw!"

Under Hundun Shenwu's control, which was everywhere, the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal began to shrink and the surrounding area gradually decreased. Every door simply had the same devouring ability as Mo Xiaolang, as they pulled Long Chen!

The space around them began to shrink.

Nine types of gravitational forces!

In Long Chen's position, under the suppression of the primordial rule, what he felt was different from what others were seeing him in. It was as if he existed in a primal world, and around him were nine enormous beasts that were as huge as the blue sky.

Moreover, its movement was originally very slow, so even if the Eternal Whirlpool changed its speed, it wouldn't affect it much. If he didn't have a way to fight it, Long Chen knew the consequences.

That was to be torn apart by the brutal laws of space into nine pieces, and then eternally sealed within the grandmist world, imprisoned for all eternity!

This was even more tragic than the Death Realm's Dragon Gate.

The Death Realm's Dragon Door doesn't have to be torn into nine pieces.

At this moment, under the excited gazes of the Ten Thousand Realm Gods and Chaos Clan, everyone felt that the outcome of the battle would be decided in an instant.

"Awesome!"

Long Chen had to sigh with emotion. Of course, he was not afraid, as he could sense the impressiveness of the Primordial Laws and wanted to search for the aura of the divine dragon from within. There was a vague difference in aura, but now that he was sealed within the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal, he casually pulled out the Primitive Dragon Sword!

Until now, he had only used his killing weapon.

"Infinite Life-Death Tribulation!"

Three types of fusion!

The natural law of the Ancestral Dragon was, of course, the most exalted of all worlds.

With a slash of his sword, the Sword Qi surged, endless Sword Qi rushed out, flying forward, his target was one of the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal!

These nine The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal s were linked together, and only one would be able to attack them all.

In the air, the endless tribulation of life and death instantly clashed against the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal!

laughed coldly. The Heavenly Netherworld Realm that came from Li Xuanji had coincidentally caught up to Hundun Shenwu at the same time. Ling Xi had found his location and told him that it was possible to succeed.

The reason they were able to find the location of Hundun Shenwu was probably because of the spatial laws of the Sacrificial Dragon, which had something to do with the primordial laws.

Naturally, to Hundun Shenwu, this was something that he had never thought of.

With the attack of the Heavenly Nether Realm's illusion, Hundun Shenwu was suddenly affected, and it was even Long Chen who had unleashed it. In this instant, it was precisely the moment of the endless life and death tribulation that had struck the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal!

Bang!

Lightning stone and fire!

In the beginning, the endless life and death tribulation could not be solved and the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal became weaker, but it could still be relaxed for the first time, let alone the endless life and death tribulation.

Bang! Bang! Bang!

When the last explosive sound was heard, the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal was destroyed and Long Chen rushed out unscathed. This was precisely the reason why all the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal were annihilated consecutively, and this primordial rule was completely broken by Long Chen! It was not because the primordial laws were not strong, but because Long Chen had perfectly timed out the endless tribulation of life and death with the Heavenly Netherworld Realm, which was why he had such an effect. Even after breaking through and coming out, Long Chen could not help but be a little shocked.

Chaos, grandmist!

It had to be said that either of these two rules were equivalent to one of the Ancestral Dragons!

Originally, the Rule of Curse of the Origin Ancestor was very strong, but it was only now that Long Chen realized that, in terms of rules, the strongest opponents he had met were still the Primal Chaos and primordial laws!

"Phew ..."

When Hundun Shenwu came out of Ripping Sky Nether Realm, the The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal had already disappeared.

"You actually found my position in the void, admiring!"

This was the most difficult thing for Hundun Shenwu to understand.

Of course, this was actually Ling Xi's help. For the entire battle, it was a little unfair, but the other party would never know, and by now, Long Chen had gained the deepest understanding of this person's capabilities.

"Below my father, I'm afraid I'll never be able to find an opponent of your level in my life!"

Even though Hundun Shenwu said this, he did not have any intention of stopping. Before this, he had only allowed Long Chen to understand what was called Primal Chaos and what was only the prerequisite for that. This time, his body would begin to spin in front of Long Chen's eyes!

Ancient Heavenly King Halberd, Heavenly Divine Wu Lun and Chaos Temple appeared before Long Chen's eyes one after another.

More than half of the origin level, the Creation God Equipment, made Long Chen's Primeval Dragon Pagoda appear very pitiful.

"Father, kill him!"

The voice of the Primal Chaos Fire Dance became the last of Hundun Shenwu's determination. Perhaps he was a little hesitant before, but for his own daughter, he had decided. Right now, the three types of Manifestation Divine Weapons were all brewing at almost the same time. It was an unprecedented killing move!

Now, Hundun Shenwu's body had become two separate parts.

One half of the head, three arms ... nine different colors of the Chaos element were wreaking havoc, like a wave of death.

On the other side, the grandmist rules fused it back into space!

The Ancient Heavenly King Halberd and Heavenly Dao Divine Martial Wheel were all filled with the power of the primordial laws.

And the Chaos Temple was already filled with nine types of chaos elements!

Finally, without Hundun Shenwu's explanation, the provenance corundum was shining with endless light, and as the power descended, it entered Hundun Shenwu's body like a pillar of light. With this provenance corundum, Hundun Shenwu had already surpassed the limits of A Highgod in the Perfection Stage!

"This is my strongest state in this life, for you, Long Chen!"

Hundun Shenwu's voice pierced through the entire Primal Chaos Realm and spread across all realms!

In the blink of an eye, he had actually transformed into Hundun Shenwu's appearance. When he took a glance at the provenance corundum, he did not expect the power of the provenance corundum to descend upon Long Chen's body as well!

BOOM!

Long Chen's gaze fell upon the provenance corundum and saw him at the very core of the group.

Chapter 3172 - Chaos Temple

Just a glimpse.

Although it was just for an instant, Long Chen could clearly see the ruler of Lord of the Chaos!

An existence that could force ten thousand worlds into such a situation.

The only difference was that his head was bright and snow white, without a single strand of hair. He only wore a pair of long pants, and his upper body was bare.

"Dragon Sacrifice Continent!"

Long Chen was extremely shocked, because although that Divine Dragon looked like a Divine Dragon, it was more like something else. It was the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, who was a dragon after all.

Why did the Lord of the Chaos's body have the pattern of the Dragon Sacrifice Continent?

It only lasted for a moment, and Long Chen did not see it clearly either.

"In that case, the majority of the mysteries between the second ancestor and himself should be related to and Lord of the Chaos."

"It has something to do with the Earth Flame Light Flag!"

"The most important thing is that Xuanji has already displayed his Divine Dragon Body. I presume that the Lord of the Chaos will have some doubts, but he did not express them. It is clear that he knows something that I do not."

In an instant, this thought flashed across Long Chen's mind.

It was just a flash, put it in his heart, and he couldn't think about it any longer, because his opponent, Hundun Shenwu, wouldn't give him the chance to do so.

"He can also use the power of the provenance corundum!"

When Long Chen's body was covered in a multicolored brilliance, all the Chaos Clans cried out in alarm. Before this, Long Chen had used the same method as him, and was not too shocked, but he could finally confirm that everything he did was from Long Chen.

Even so, in any aspect, Long Chen was not as scary as the current Hundun Shenwu. Anyone would know that Hundun Shenwu's actions had already exceeded his own limits!

Rays of light swirled around him, and he was surrounded by the two natural laws of chaos and grandmist.

The six gazes that could split heaven and earth came from Hundun Shenwu, piercing his body. At this moment, the Chaos Temple, the Ancient Heavenly King Halberd, and the Heavenly God Divine Wheel, the three half Primitive Creation Deity Equipment s all left Hundun Shenwu's hands, and the Ancient Heavenly King Halberd and the Heavenly Dao Divine Martial Wheel among them all changed their forms and shrunk into the Chaos Temple.

One of the three!

On Hundun Shenwu's body, six pairs of eyes were focused on the Chaos Temple, becoming the channel for the Chaos Temple. All of the power in Hundun Shenwu's body was channeled into the Chaos Temple!

"It's up to you whether you live or die."

In the end, Hundun Shenwu coldly warned her.

And then, within the Chaos Temple, it was simply to the limit.

"Primal Chaos Primordial Heavenly Dao!"

The laws were like a torrent, in an instant, it was as if there were billions of demons and gods appearing within the Chaos Temple. At this moment, billions of demons and gods were chanting at the same time, and countless culture surrounded Long Chen.

Naturally, there was also a sound attack!

For a moment, it was as if Long Chen had fallen into a vortex of Primal Chaos and Grandmist!

He was deeply aware that with the added bonus from the provenance corundum, if he still did not resist at this moment, then he would never have a chance to resist!

Buzz! Buzz! Buzz!

Those words and voices that appeared from the Chaos Temple contained the laws of Primal Chaos and primordial chaos. There were nine types of Primal Chaos, and nine large characters were produced.

RUU...!

Every single word, was like an enormous world, as all of its weight was pressed down onto the top of Long Chen's head.

A single suppression was a devastating blow!

On the Chaos Clan's side, under such a great momentum, even they themselves were slightly shocked.

However, such a terrifying instant also lasted for an instant, because in that instant, Long Chen once again used the Primitive Dragon Sword to attack him invisibly.

Rip!

That sword was just a ray of light.

Penetrating through chaos and grandmist, penetrating through all existence in the world.

"Past."

"Future!"

"Reincarnation Technique!"

There were a total of three waves of light, one of which was a fusion of three natural laws: Karma, Fate, and Transformation.

The tribulation of life and death lay in destruction, while the fusion of these three types of laws lay in change. This was a rather boring rule, and even Hundun Shenwu had no way of paying attention to this. To him, this was simply Long Chen's last struggle!

"Chaos Temple, suppress!"

The Chaos Temple arrived above Long Chen's head and followed the gigantic character down. Under this, even though Long Chen had already used his own fire of life to protect himself, his body was still filled with cracks!

This wave of Primal Chaos and primordial energy, with more than half of the Profound Creation Divine Equipment combined with the laws of the provenance corundum, could be said to be the most fearsome slaughter that Long Chen had ever endured in his entire life. In an instant, under the eyes of everyone in the Chaos Temple, Long Chen was defeated and turned into ashes!

BOOM!

It completely dissipated.

"Resurrection of the dead!"

But in the blink of an eye, Long Chen's body condensed once again, and returned to his peak condition.

Death and death, when the Chaos Clan saw this scene, before she even started to cheer, Long Chen had been reincarnated unscathed again!

Of course, they were very depressed!

But, the Chaos Temple is still here!

"Father!"

The primordial flame dance simply became extremely anxious.

Her intention was naturally to suppress him again! Long Chen definitely could not bring death back to life twice in a row!

But, no matter how urgent she was, Hundun Shenwu had already lost this chance. Because at this time, Long Chen's teleportation of the past and the future, had already completely wrapped itself around Hundun Shenwu and melded into his divine body.

Time seemed to have stopped in that instant.

Hundun Shenwu's colorful glow had already been completely covered by the light of the last life changing technique. It appeared above Long Chen's head and very quickly, the huge text outside Chaos Temple shattered due to losing the support of his power.

The voice suddenly disappeared as well as the billions of gods and devils in the Chaos Temple. The six gazes that were fixated on the Chaos Temple were cut off at the same time.

Everything was deathly silent!

Only Hundun Shenwu remained in the air motionlessly.

However, in that instant, under the effects of the past and future life skills, Hundun Shenwu changed. It was as if he had turned from a robust youth into a young child!

BOOM!

Karma, fate, and the power of change swept through everything.

When the Life Transfer Technique of the past dissipated, Hundun Shenwu once again appeared in front of everyone in the dead silence. Now, everyone almost suffocated as they stared wide-eyed at Hundun Shenwu!

That is ...

It was still him, so why did it feel different?

What exactly were the effects of Long Chen's rule?

"It seems that the Divine Martial Saint has weakened."

It was unknown who said this, but when they heard this, everyone finally understood what this strange feeling was! The current Hundun Shenwu, only had one feeling at all, and that was that he was only at the level of the Divine Emperor s.

The Divine Emperor, that's right, the Divine Emperor.

Everyone could see that Hundun Shenwu was no different than a Extreme Realm Divine Emperor.

But, why did the top A Highgod in the Perfection Stage suddenly become a Extreme Realm Divine Emperor? Not only the average person, even the Chaos Saint s thought that they were wrong.

"I ..."

Hundun Shenwu realized that his three Creation Divine Artifacts were already completely in a state of flight. He could no longer control them and had lost all sense of perception for them.

In addition, he felt that he was weak to the point of being a stranger. Many familiar rules were sealed into his memory like a dream, making it difficult to figure out what was going on.

Inside his body, the strength of his primitive level directly returned to his Eternity, to the point where it had even gone back to the level of Hun Yuan.

In an instant, he seemed to have returned to countless years ago.

The time when all the memories had disappeared.

"Where is my strength?"

At the beginning, Hundun Shenwu had thought that this was Long Chen's illusion technique. After encountering the Heavenly Nether Realm, Long Chen's illusion technique had left a deep impression on him. However, he soon discovered that everything was different. Everything was so real, just like those people who were looking at him in shock.

"I'm sorry, but if you really want to kill me, then I won't show any mercy either. My rules will make you change everything. For example, you are no longer the Hundun Shenwu from before. "

The current him, was a Extreme Realm Divine Emperor called Hundun Shenwu.

Long Chen had destroyed him.

"What kind of joke is this!"

Hundun Shenwu hugged his hands and said those words with a bitter smile with great difficulty.

"Impossible!"

On the provenance corundum, Primal Chaos Flame Dance let out a miserable scream as she stared at Long Chen and her brother with her eyes wide open.

Everything was still!

Suddenly!

A loud boom echoed out!

The provenance corundum had loosened!

All the hairs on Long Chen's body stood up, because at this time, Lord of the Chaos had already arrived from the provenance corundum! As expected, this terrifying guy could appear from the provenance corundum.

He had the best combat power!

"Godly Martial Arts!"

Just when he appeared, he reached out his hand and pulled Hundun Shenwu into his hands, then directly dragged him into the provenance corundum. In an instant, under the control of the Lord of the Chaos, the entire provenance corundum erupted with a boundless radiance, which frantically poured into Hundun Shenwu's body!

"Recover!"

The Lord of the Chaos's low and deep voice was simply like a sharp thorn that pierced everyone's bodies. Especially Long Chen, who suffered from the huge impact, that stifling feeling was extremely uncomfortable and extremely painful.

Obviously, the Lord of the Chaos was nervous and angry.

From the start of the battle until now, there had never been a single fluctuation in the Lord of the Chaos. However, at this moment, no one knew what he was going to do next. They might even kill Long Chen on the spot!

"God Lord, it's useless. These rules of mine cannot be changed."

Even so, Long Chen still had to say that Lord of the Chaos thought that Hundun Shenwu was only exhausted of his strength, so he used provenance corundum to fill the gap for him. In reality, that was not the case.

If the Lord of the Chaos were to continue, it would only cause Hundun Shenwu's body to explode and he would die.

This was how it was in the past and in the future.

Long Chen was already prepared to endure the torrential storm.

After all, if he had not acted, he would have died.

Chapter 3173 - Costs

"Unchangeable?"

Hearing Long Chen's words, the Chaos Clan did not believe him.

How could there be such a heaven defying rule in this ten thousand worlds? Even someone at Hundun Shenwu's level could completely change everything in a short amount of time, and even lose the majority of his power?

"What kind of joke is this!?" Who do you think you are? If you say you can't recover, you can't recover? " She naturally could not endure Hundun Shenwu's defeat, but she could also not endure Hundun Shenwu's eternal loss of power.

The other Chaos Clans also started talking at once, and they were waiting for Hundun Shenwu to recover his strength to prove that everything he said was all a lie.

However, even the Lord of the Chaos came out.

Everyone still had a bad premonition.

The current Ten Thousand Realms God Demons were no longer someone they could casually ridicule in the past. At the very least, in this battle, no matter what methods Long Chen used, he had won.

He defeated Hundun Shenwu!

So far, out of the eight battles, both sides had won four each.

After chasing after them for three consecutive rounds, the Ten Thousand Realms Demons had beaten the Chaos Clan three times, and it was in a battle with Hundun Shenwu and the other two at that!

Towards this person who could be considered an existence that came from nowhere, the Chaos Clan could only revere him. When the news of his victory swept through the entire Allworld like a storm, all the gods, devils, and common people fell into a state of ecstasy.

Naturally, they did not know about Long Chen's current situation.

The Chaos Clan s did not believe it, but at this time, the Lord of the Chaos suddenly stopped allowing Hundun Shenwu to absorb the power of the provenance corundum.

"Impossible!"

Within the Chaos Clan, many people had lost their minds. They would rather believe that Long Chen had defeated or even killed Hundun Shenwu than believe in a single rule of Long Chen's.

"Is that really the case?"

Shock, trembling, tears. Hundun Shenwu was at a loss, weak and powerless. As for the bare-chested and bareheaded God Lord who had the Dragon Sacrifice Continent tattoo, she stopped her movements.

"Father!"

Hundun Shenwu's voice was hoarse as he looked at the Lord of the Chaos in disbelief. He did not expect that even the Lord of the Chaos was unable to deal with him.

"The rules are terrifying. It has already become a foregone conclusion. He used supreme rules to change your karmic destiny. It is as if you have walked a different path in your life. When you reach this day, you will have to walk a different path in the future. "

"Impossible!" In this world, is there a rule that is even stronger than my Primal Chaos, primordial chaos, and yours? "I don't believe you!"

"There's nothing I can do even if I don't believe it. Maybe those rules don't exist, but the problem is that he fused the three types of rules together. That's why it's better than you. Of course, you also used the Chaos Temple to kill him. "

This time, Long Chen still won in bringing the dead back to life. If not for the fact that he had resurrected from the dead, he would have been the one to lose today. Hundun Shenwu was definitely not someone who was easy to deal with.

"Father!"

"Don't worry."

In the moment where Hundun Shenwu felt the most despair, the God Lord turned around and descended before his eyes. Now, all the Chaos Clan knew that the impossible in their hearts had already become a reality.

The reality was that Hundun Shenwu was crippled.

Of all these, the one who was the most heartbroken and hated the most was naturally the Dancing Chaos Fire. Today was the greatest blow she had ever received in her life, and her most respected and adored father was defeated by the hands of the person she loathed the most.

"Grandfather, kill him! Revenge for my father! "

Chaotic Flames Dance's words resonated with the entire Chaos Clan. In an instant, over a thousand experts of the Extreme Realm Divine Emperor s and above gathered together as they let out incomparably furious roars. Everyone's goal was to get the Lord of the Chaos to take action! At this point, who cares about the ten thousand world holy war, they just want to vent their anger.

They had no choice but to gather together, preparing to resist. Today, they could not be blamed on Long Chen, but they were proud of him and his dignity and face of an entire realm was taken back by Long Chen and the others. The battle between Long Chen and Hundun Shenwu was so intense that it was normal for them not to be able to control it.

Dignity and life. Having existed for countless years, they had chosen dignity.

However, no matter how much Chaos Clan roared, she was not moved. His illusionary, muddled eyes concentrated in Long Chen's eyes, and Lord of the Chaos was like Hundun Shenwu's magnification. His eyes allowed Long Chen to feel the existence of the Primal Chaos Rules and the Primordial Rules.

There was even a rule that was unclear and unclear.

"Long Chen, treating him like this is worse than killing him. It makes me feel bad."

When Lord of the Chaos spoke, no one dared to even breathe loudly.

Now, he was the absolute pinnacle of the entire Myriad Realms.

"Lord God, I can only say that I am very sorry. If not, then I am dead. The only thing I can do against him is this rule. Under the threat of death, I had no choice. "

That was the truth.

Actually, this was something that everyone understood.

The Lord of the Chaos was silent for a moment, until everyone's hearts were at their throats, then he said: "The nine battles are my rules, so I will bear the burden of everything that has happened now. Let me ask you, in the next battle, we will determine the victor of our battle of ten thousand realms against our Chaos Clan. Are you prepared for my opponent? "

Without even needing to make a move, Long Chen knew that they were probably The Supreme Divine of the Extreme Realm s of the The Supreme Divine of the Extreme Realm s, who were much, much stronger than Hundun Shenwu. He was the only person in the Chaos Clan that Long Chen deeply feared.

"Of course I'm ready. In five days, I will come with him." Long Chen answered without hesitation.

The Lord of the Chaos nodded his head and said: "Then I will have to be curious and look forward to it. It will be a miracle if I can find someone more capable than you in your Ten Thousand Worlds. If one were to say that there is no such character and that you wish to fight again in the end, if it were me, I wouldn't mind in the slightest. "

What he meant was that Long Chen could definitely give it another try. He, the Lord of the Chaos, wanted Long Chen to be his opponent even more than some random opponent. Now that it was Hundun Shenwu's fault, the Lord of the Chaos would not take action outside the Ten Thousand World Holy War. But in the last battle, he had to make Long Chen fight so he could give Hundun Shenwu an explanation.

To be open and honorable, to submit to the world.

Long Chen laughed: "God Lord, you can rest assured, that friend of mine will definitely appear. Other than that, I will definitely not send someone to participate, because in these nine battles, I have already won four matches, and I believe that there is still a great possibility for me to win, so I will naturally not give up so easily!"

This was the truth. He didn't want to admit defeat at all.

After the Lord of the Chaos heard it, he said, "Then I will look forward to his arrival even more. However, Long Chen, you have indeed angered me today. I abide by the rules of these nine battles and don't touch you for the time being, but if you really win these nine battles and win me, then I have nothing to say. But if you lose, I'll make you pay some price. "Make it up to my son."

He was quite direct, and that was the case for supreme experts. They were too lazy to make a turn, so they just directly said whatever they wanted to say.

"What kind of price does God want me to pay?"

Long Chen said bluntly.

The Lord of the Chaos did not hesitate as he said, "That rule of yours is even crueler than killing people. If that's the case, then the price you have to pay is that if you lose the battle, my Chaos Clan will take control of ten thousand worlds. At the same time, I will personally destroy a world, a world of primitive level! The source of those two worlds seems to be the Pangu Continent, which is why I'm going to personally destroy the Pangu Continent, as well as hundreds of billions of living creatures. "

Lord of the Chaos simply played it down and said these words. After hearing them, Long Chen felt his scalp go numb. It had to be said that this person was too unrivalled, and had long since disregarded the lives of countless lives. To him, within the entire primitive level world, the lives of millions of lives were not even comparable to the life of his son.

If their Chaos Clan won the Sacred War of Ten Thousand Worlds, because of Long Chen turning his son into a cripple, their Lord of the Chaos would be able to destroy the Pangu Continent. Of course, if the Ten Thousand Worlds were to win, there would naturally be people who would be able to defeat Lord of the Chaos, and Lord of the Chaos would not be able to be rash!

However, there were too many uncertainties in the kitten!

If the kitten didn't awaken, then the entire world would definitely lose. Wouldn't that mean that the Pangu Continent would be destroyed?

For a moment, it wasn't just the Ancient God of the Wilderness who was feeling anxious; all the Myriad Realm Fiendgods felt extremely nervous. Unfortunately, there was no one who could reverse the will of the Lord of the Chaos.

"God, is there no room for negotiation?"

Long Chen clenched his teeth, and looked straight at the Lord of the Chaos. This was the last pressure the other party was giving him. This decision of his, made the last battle even more important than before. Long Chen simply didn't have any room to lose!

"If you really want to do this, we can only resist!"

Long Chen said.

The Lord of the Chaos said: "Then we can only see, who exactly is faster and who kills more. According to my previous temperament, none of you will leave this place alive today. Destroying just one world now was quite courteous. If you have nothing to do, then go and arrange my opponents. If you want the Pangu Continent to survive, it's very simple.

Lord of the Chaos was getting more and more impolite.

Upon hearing these words, Chaos fire Wu and the others were finally relieved.

"Don't be complacent, your nightmare has just begun!" To be honest, she wanted nothing more than to kill Long Chen right now. Five days passed in the blink of an eye.

Since there was no room for further discussion, there was no point in discussing it.

Long Chen thought for a bit, and could only bring the Ten Thousand Realms God Demon back to the third floor of the Tower of Time. When they came, they could be considered to be hot-blooded and passionate.

The third floor of the Tower of Time was completely silent.

Everyone gathered around Long Chen, not knowing what to say.

"Long Chen, you better not blame yourself for this. We all know that the other party is actually very strong. No matter how careful we are, the weak are still the weak, and we will reach this step sooner or later. "

Seeing Long Chen not saying a word, Ancient God of the Wilderness quickly said.

"My main thought is, after thirteen years, will the kitten awaken?"

Chapter 3174 - Hidden Surges

No one could answer this question on Long Chen's behalf.

"That's all we can do. If we wake up, we have great hope. If we don't, it will be our doom. The future is no longer in our hands, but in the hands of fate. All we can do is wait. "

The Anarchic Demoness said straightforwardly.

No matter what happens in the future, we will have to make preparations. Since there is nothing much we can do, I suggest that we go to the Pangu Continent first, and move all the living beings of the Pangu Continent to the Life and Death Realms first. Although there is only five days left, at least, if something like that happens, we can still save some lives.

Now that only Long Chen had agreed, these seven hundred plus people would be able to move at any time to head to the Pangu Continent. Long Chen did not need to directly participate, he only needed to open up a passage.

"Me too." Long Chen said.

"No need, Long Chen, you have more important things to do. This matter is too important. You need more time to think and protect your friends. Perhaps thirteen years later, you will be different! "

Ancient God of the Wilderness said.

The others, had also advised Long Chen to stay, and looked at all of their sincere gazes. Even until now, everyone was still filled with hope for Long Chen, and that kind of gaze of trust was extremely touching for Long Chen.

Unity, faith.

They all respected Long Chen, and he respected them.

"No matter what, we do not believe that you, who can win three consecutive rounds in despair, will lose again to the Chaos Clan. You must have more power, more hope than we do. Long Chen, in the future, we will definitely depend on you. The four of us old fellows can only run errands for you now. "

As the God of Heaven Lu smiled, his pearly white teeth were revealed.

"Alright."

To Long Chen, the most important thing to do now was to live up to the expectations they had of him.

His eyes were filled with sincerity as he stared at every single senior and Fiendgod. From the bottom of his heart, Long Chen said to everyone in a solemn voice: "Thank you everyone for your trust in me! In the battle in the future, no matter what happens, and no matter what happens after, I can only say that in order to protect the myriad worlds and the lives of the masses, I, Long Chen, will not hesitate to die! "

This was not only their home, but also Long Chen's home.

No one would benefit from the destruction of the world.

"I will protect the Pangu Continent with my life."

This last sentence was something Long Chen had said to the Ancient God of the Wilderness. No matter what, Long Chen was still the fuse that ignited the anger of Lord of the Chaos in Pangu Continent. He had to shoulder this responsibility.

"We will guard together with you. The dignity we have lost, we all want to take back with our own hands. "

Anarchic Demoness said grandly.

Although their opponents were still terrifying, their hearts were filled with passion and bloodlust.

"Then we'll begin to split up."

Long Chen opened the Living Realm's entrance for them first. There were more than seven hundred experts from the Extreme Realm Divine Emperor s that had moved there, so five days might be enough time. As long as everything was properly arranged, perhaps the common people wouldn't lose much.

However, when Long Chen looked at this Pangu Continent, he couldn't help but feel sad. Maybe in the future, everyone on this continent would become homeless and become homeless people just like him.

What kind of sadness was this?

Their The Dragon God Clan were all the same now.

"So, no matter what, I cannot let the Lord of the Chaos destroy this place."

This had already become the obsession in Long Chen's heart.

"Brother Chen, go back."

Ling Xi was right behind him.

"Alright."

Long Chen returned to his Tower of Time and started to stay by Cat's side. It was not only him, Ling Xi, Li Xuanji, Mo Xiaolang and the others.

It seemed like there had never been such a tense moment before.

Inside the Tower of Time, it was as if everyone's heartbeats could be heard. Everyone looked at Cat anxiously, hoping that he would suddenly awaken.

That would be the ultimate surprise.

This kind of waiting, as time went by, was unintentionally tormenting.

"Cat!" "This scoundrel, doesn't he know that everyone is anxious!?" Zhu Xi was so angry that he jumped up and down. After all, even though she saw that Long Chen and the others did not say anything, and the atmosphere was heavy, he could not help.

Everyone was anxious, but there was nothing they could do.

Mo Xiaolang could not hold it in anymore and paced back and forth. There were several times when he hesitated to speak to Long Chen.

"What's wrong?"

Long Chen turned to ask him.

The atmosphere was too tense. Everyone was silent, and their words were like a thunderclap.

"It's been over a hundred years. I don't think there's much hope ..."

What he said was the truth. For more than a hundred years, there had been no signs of movement. If he wanted to wake up at the last moment, the chances were too low. From Cat's appearance, who knows how long it would take.

"Then we can only wait."

Long Chen said.

"No, I mean, if it's time and Cat still hasn't woken up, are you going to fight?"

Mo Xiaolang asked the question that everyone was worried about.

Lord of the Chaos had already said this, if there was no one else, Long Chen could come out to fight, he did not mind, and he was even looking forward to it.

Long Chen saw that everyone was looking at him with worried eyes, and said very straightforwardly, "Of course. No matter what, someone had to face it. I would also really like to see how strong the Lord of the Chaos is. In any case, if the kitten does not wake up, it will have to fight them sooner or later. "

"But you made Hundun Shenwu a cripple. [He must hate you and will not show you any mercy. I am worried ...]

Long Chen laughed amidst this solemn atmosphere. "This is unavoidable. The Lord of the Chaos had the right to be called an ordinary ruler. As weaklings, it's normal for us to be threatened by them. It was inevitable for people to go all out in this life. Besides, as a man, they had to face whatever they had to face. Since they couldn't avoid it, they had to fight bravely! Who cares what Lord of the Chaos they are, as long as they don't die, they will have a day to make a comeback. "

Since that was the case, Mo Xiaolang did not know what to say.

Actually what he was afraid of, was that the Lord of the Chaos would go all out to kill him, making it so that Long Chen had no day to return at all.

In truth, it was just as the four Chief Sovereigns had said.

As a result, time passed by in a very fast and strange manner. It was as if ten years had passed, and it was no different from five or six days. Everyone looked at Cat, feeling the passage of time, and their hearts tensed up.

The fear of the future was like a wave that swept through everyone's heart. Fortunately, Long Chen was still their pillar of support at this time. However, even if it was Long Chen, when time had flowed to its limit, he was helpless to do anything.

"In a battle with the Lord of the Chaos, there is a high chance of survival. If I die, all hope for the future will also be severed. "

If he could choose, Long Chen would naturally choose not to fight. But the problem was that there were only three years left, while Cat had still not made a move. As for the remaining three years, the chances of him waking up was already rather small.

"What should we do? What should he do? Ugly Cat, if you don't wake up now, I'm going to kill you! " Zhu Xi was so anxious that his face turned blue. She wanted to go up and beat the kitten up.

"Zhu Xi, don't blame him like that. If he knew, he would definitely want to wake up earlier." Yang Lingqing was also beside him. She was concerned about Long Chen too, but she knew that he had inherited everything about the Ancestral Dragon, becoming the hope of this clan. He had to take responsibility for everything.

A man should be.

Another year!

Every second that passed was like a drum beating their hearts. At the end, everyone was almost suffocated.

While he was waiting, Long Chen felt a strange feeling.

"It would be great if you could reverse the flow of time, reverse the flow of time, and reverse the flow of time throughout ten thousand worlds. But unfortunately, how much ability does one need to have in order to be able to accomplish this? If you have that ability, it will only be a matter of time before you take care of Lord of the Chaos. "

Long Chen could only sigh.

Time was mysterious and endless.

But the problem was that Long Chen was not yet able to reach the deepest, highest point.

In the blink of an eye, less than three years had passed.

"The chances are slim. I can only try my best." Long Chen suddenly moved. He controlled the Reincarnation Godly Beast's body and prepared to leave the third floor.

"Where are you going?"

"Eternal Whirlpool."

Amidst everyone's nervous gazes, Long Chen disappeared from their sight.

The Eternal Vortex was very hard to control.

What Long Chen wanted was the part where the speed was ten thousand times faster. Right now, he already had the time tunnel core, but controlling it would take a lot of effort, especially to stabilize the time of ten thousand times the speed!

The change in this place was too great. Unless absolutely necessary, Long Chen would not come here, since it was possible for him to not be able to hold on for even a moment, and if he were to enter a normal time, he would waste a thousand times more time.

"I can probably keep it up to a thousand or five thousand, and I can even keep it up to ten thousand times."

This was Long Chen's current condition.

He brought the kitten and rotated in the Eternal Whirlpool, roaming about.

To constantly exist at the position where the flow of time was at its fastest, it required a relatively large amount of energy and it would only last three or four years at most. That was why Long Chen made such a choice at this last moment.

But even so, the Reincarnation Godly Beast in his hands seemed to have no end.

"Little kitten, oh little kitten, you really make me worry." Long Chen sighed, and smiled bitterly. At this point, there was a 90% chance of Long Chen going to fight with Lord of the Chaos!

A hopeless fight.

In addition, the cost of defeat was simply too great.

The little kitten couldn't hear Long Chen's voice.

Zhuge Cat.

One year, another year, Long Chen was completely exhausted by the Eternal Whirlpool, yet the kitten still had no reaction, and despair had already fallen on everyone's body.

The four Chief Sovereigns had joined together with all the Ten Thousand Realms Gods and Demons. Basically, a large number of the barbarians had moved to the Life and Death Realms at a terrifying speed. Fortunately, the Life and Death Realms were infinitely large.

At present, most likely all living beings of the Myriad Realms knew of the current situation. Although the Myriad Realms Demons had reclaimed their dignity, they had once again descended into a state of threat of death. The arrival of this day had become the most terrifying day for all living things.

The barbarians had taken refuge in both the Life and Death Realms.

Chapter 3175 - Lord of the Gods

"There are only a few hours left, is there still no news?"

The Ancient God of the Wilderness stood atop the clouds, staring down at the vast and empty Pangu Continent below him. In all these tens of millions of years, he had never been this desolate.

"Not yet. If there were, we would have gone back a long time ago." Heavenly Dao Saint Emperor said.

Anarchic Demoness shook his head and laughed, "Then this is fate. But, it was clear that Long Chen was going to fight. This time, the odds are against us. It's all our fault, the four of us. Even if the four of us can win this battle, we won't be able to win it today. "

"That's not true. Chaos Clan is powerful, and can hide for a while, but not for an entire lifetime. What should come will eventually come. "

"Do we have no other way?"

"No more. I can only perish together with the Pangu Continent." If I die, it will still be a small matter, but Long Chen is hope and light, he should not have died. If only he can pass through this tribulation, my guess is that everything will be smooth sailing in the future. Our Ten Thousand Realms need not worry too much about him. "

Ancient God of the Wilderness looked at Pangu's heart, the place where he had lived for countless years.

Now, they no longer held any hope for the kitten.

The Anarchic Demoness was the most straightforward as he said, "Since that's the case, no matter what we say, we must protect him well in the battle between him and the Lord of the Chaos. If there's no other choice, we must think of a way to protect him. Given how fast he has grown, he will never treat us, the Ten Thousand Realms Demons, or the Infinite Creatures, unjustly. "

"Then it's decided."

The four Chief Sovereigns were now certain that they all had the same thought.

They were too lazy to stay at the Tower of Time s, so they just waited. When the time came, Long Chen would naturally let them go to Divine Master Continent.

Within the Eternal Whirlpool.

The appointed time had come.

The kitten still did not move.

Long Chen was no longer in a hurry, but he would still delay things for a while, and strive for his last hope. Thus, two years had passed, and even after seventeen years, there were still no movements.

It was his turn to face it.

"Can you not go out?" Li Xuanji asked.

But after she asked, she understood in her heart that it was impossible for Long Chen not to go out. The question was whether it was serious.

"Promise me that no matter what happens, you will not lose your life. There is only life. If it weren't for you, all of us would have disappeared from this world. Thus, your life is more important than anything else. "

Hearing her gentle voice, how could Long Chen not know of her good intentions?

"I understand, so I will do my best to survive. Now, I'm no longer a little kid like before. Naturally, I know what's the most important thing. Furthermore, the Lord of the Chaos is just a hurdle, there is no need for me to spend my life here. "

With Long Chen's words, Li Xuanji did not say anymore. She would rather stay on Long Chen's body, or else, Long Chen would remember to protect himself.

However, Long Chen knew clearly that if the other party really wanted to destroy the Pangu Continent, he would not be able to do it!

"Cat, cat, I still believe that you will show up. "Brother, you have been playing around for so many years, but you have never been vague about big matters."

Long Chen took one last look at the Reincarnation Godly Beast's statue.

And then, he asked the four Chief Sovereigns of the two worlds.

"This time, let me go face off by myself."

"No, we are a group. How can we let you go alone?" In the final battle, we had to work together. How could we let you weaken?! "

Long Chen could only bring them along, but Mo Xiaolang and the others had to follow him in this final battle, as the four great rulers insisted. No one was willing to be left behind to wait for news.

"Then let's go."

Long Chen knew very well that for the last time, they would land beside the provenance corundum with the Ten Thousand Realm God Demons, his women, brothers, friends, and so on.

BOOM!

The Myriad Realms Fiendgod had arrived for the last time. This time, they were nearly a full day late.

The Chaos Clan had long since been impatient, they had already suspected that Long Chen had fled many times. If not for the fact that the Lord of the Chaos was still able to remain calm, they would have started a ruckus a long time ago.

The fiery gazes of both sides collided for the last time!

The Chaos Clan was disdainful, passionate and hateful, while the Myriad Realm God Demons were a little arrogant and unyielding in the midst of decline. Even if they knew that their future was unimaginable, they were not afraid.

Both sides' eyes collided, and the Primal Chaos Realm was twisted!

Amongst the Chaos Clan's team, due to heavy injuries, Hundun Shenwu was no longer here. The other seven Chaos Saints stood behind the Lord of the Chaos, and became the God Master's strongest team. On the other side was Long Chen, accompanied by the Four Great Overlords, Mo Xiaolang, Ling Xi, and the others.

It looked like they were evenly matched.

Other than Long Chen and Lord of the Chaos.

At this moment, Lord of the Chaos's turbid gaze stopped at Long Chen. He said. "As expected, it's you."

It was made clear in a single sentence.

The one who was participating today, was still Long Chen.

"Are you still talking about his friends? They're just bragging! Long Chen, why don't you let that friend of yours take a look?" When she saw him, she was filled with boundless anger. She was about to start the fight, but she still couldn't bear it.

Naturally, no one paid any attention to her.

"God Lord, I will first experience your powerful technique. Perhaps, my helper will arrive in the next moment. "

Long Chen still wasn't willing to give up on the possibility that the kitten would suddenly awaken. As long as he could persevere, Cat would be able to replace him.

"You mean, I have two opponents today?" The Lord of the Chaos said indifferently.

"Maybe. But I don't think you'd mind. After all, to you, I am not worth mentioning. "

"You're right about that."

Lord of the Chaos was not courteous at all. Behind him, the Chaos Clan had a majestic aura. His divine might was vast and his battle intent was surging like a raging sea.

A short moment of silence.

"Whatever, as you wish. However, this time, I will not hold back in the slightest. "

With a wave of his hand, all the Chaos Clans rushed back to provenance corundum as if they had been injected with chicken blood. Many people had never seen the Lord of the Chaos make a move before, but nearly everyone saw the Lord of the Chaos as the supreme god in their hearts.

"Don't worry, everyone."

Long Chen turned his head and smiled at the crowd. Although everyone was extremely nervous, their hearts inexplicably calmed down when they saw Long Chen's indifferent smile. Although the little kitten had not woken up yet, they still had a lot of confidence in Long Chen.

"Only with life will there be revenge."

Heavenly Dao Saint Emperor said his last sentence, and then, the Ten Thousand Realm Gods and Demons would retreat, and give the enormous battlefield to Lord of the Chaos! Long Chen's aura remembered that he had spread the invitation card across all realms. It could rule the life and death of every Extreme Realm Divine Emperor and could even teleport all realms in an instant.

Long Chen was unable to forget their trusting eyes. They could also not forget the respect they had for him, especially Ling Xi and Mo Xiaolang. They were both Long Chen's closest friends, and in their eyes, perhaps Long Chen's life was even more important than theirs!

"It's just a small matter!"

The current Long Chen had already let go of everything when he turned around to face the Lord of the Chaos. He was impassioned, his heroic spirit soaring into the heavens.

A man of lofty sentiments was bravely fighting in every direction.

"You have guts." His voice gradually became gloomy as he said: "When I do things, I need to follow the rules. Now, this is the last battle of the nine battles, no mention of life and death, victory or defeat, it is the future of ten thousand realms."

"I originally thought that out of the nine battles, it wouldn't be my turn to decide. I didn't expect it to be my turn. And all the changes came from you. It just so happens that today, I will give you an end. "

"Perhaps this way, you will understand that I am actually above all of you."

Lord of the Gods.

When Lord of the Chaos smiled, the Dragon Sacrifice Continent on his body was also shining with an icy light.

"You seem to recognize this tattoo, right? Also, you can transform into a creature that looks like a snake but is not, right? Perhaps, there is still a connection between us. "

As he spoke till here, the Lord of the Chaos's aura suddenly underwent a tremendous change. Long Chen could clearly see that in the Divine Dragon Marking on the upper half of his body, pieces of real dragon scales had actually appeared!

Not an ancient Giant Demon.

If the dragon scales weren't an ancient Giant Demon, then they could only be a true divine dragon.

However, the Lord of the Chaos was not a Divine Dragon, it was just that he had the bloodline of a dragon.

Long Chen did not know what the hell was going on with him, but it seemed like it was not the case! It was hard to fathom. But they could not deny that when Long Chen displayed his power right in front of their eyes, Lord of the Chaos was simply a terrifying synonym.

"I, naturally know her!"

Long Chen took a deep breath and said.

"Alright then. It seems that I have to carefully investigate what exactly is going on with you." When the aura of primal chaos began to spread from his body, Long Chen realized that the surrounding world had completely disappeared. He and the Lord of the Chaos simply went to an entirely different world.

New and destroyed over and over again, going back and over again. The new world grew, the old world was destroyed, turned into chaos energy, and then into nine different types of chaos elements, scattering within this ancient space!

Chaos, Hongmeng

"Do I need to tell you? In truth, you have already passed through my The Gate of Hongmeng Eternal, and the current you, has already reached my grandmist space. In this place, I am my ancestor."

Chapter 3176 - Life-Death Line

Ancestor, what kind of ancestor was it?

The Lord of the Chaos was changing in the grandmist space and it was everywhere, surpassing everything else.

In the blink of an eye, he disappeared before Long Chen's eyes. The huge sense of danger Long Chen felt did not disappear, but instead, increased by a large amount.

Before his eyes was an endless mist of chaos, formed from those nine types of chaos elemental essence. There was no end to this world!

BOOM!

In the most dangerous place ahead, the clouds and mist dissipated and the Lord of the Chaos appeared in that spot once again. But this time, Long Chen was incomparably shocked to see him. It was not because the Lord of the Chaos was a three-headed, six-armed individual like Hundun Shenwu, but because he had turned into a gigantic beast that Long Chen seemed to have met before.

With his naked eye, Long Chen could not see its entire body. What he saw was a gigantic eye, and it was a blood-red color, a huge eye that was born from the Primal Chaos, in terms of grandmist space, this eye was as big as a Dragon Sacrifice Continent.

The current Long Chen, in front of this enormous beast, let alone comparing him with the gigantic beast, just comparing his eyes with it, was absolutely insignificant in the slightest.

He had to rely on his willpower to sense just how huge this beast was.

The huge beast was entirely silver gray, like a standing giant, but it was also hunchbacked like an ape. Its upper body was thick, had sharp horns, and two sharp claws; on its body, there was actually a portion of dragon's scale. Other than this portion of dragon's scale, the huge beast in front of Long Chen, was no different from the Chaos beast that the Star Lord of Primal Chaos had transformed into.

In other words, the gigantic and limitless beast in front of him was the real Chaos beast!

Only people the size of a world would be qualified to be called huge.

Weng! *

In just a breath of time, the Chaos beast was like a storm within these endless grandmist space. Long Chen stood in the storm formed by the destructive power, facing off against the terrifying might of the Chaos beast!

"This place is the world that I control. Today, I shall bestow upon you the punishment that you deserve."

BOOM!

The voice of the Chaos beast was like a destructive storm, sweeping over and causing great turmoil within the grandmist space! Long Chen didn't know what had happened to the others beside the provenance corundum, but at this moment, he truly felt how powerful the Lord of the Chaos was!

"In this grandmist space, I will gift you the primordial rule. You are a favored son of heaven, but you will not be of any use to me. Therefore, I can only grant you death and demise. As for the Pangu Continent ... they shall die alongside our son. "

Lord of the Chaos might be able to endure Hundun Shenwu dying in battle, but he couldn't bear it. His son's fate was actually changed, and he had a completely different life.

Even he was irreversible!

Within the grandmist space, the Lord of the Chaos was overflowing with anger! The current Lord of the Chaos simply knew Long Chen too well. After watching a few battles, he had a concrete grasp of Long Chen's battle, but Long Chen knew nothing about it at all.

"All living beings are ants!"

As Long Chen was in a state of vigilance, that primordial rule deeply penetrated the entire grandmist space and the entire world was shrouded in it. The only way for Long Chen to escape from this world was by escaping from this primordial rule, which meant that all living beings were ants.

In reality, this was also a type of spatial law. It was just that the space between heaven and earth was a bit different when it was first created. it could only be said that it was even more terrifying, and was completely impossible to understand. When the rules and the entire grandmist space were combined together, the entire world became motionless, and space became frozen! It wasn't even just freezing.

In front of the Chaos beast, everything was like an ant.

Unable to move, it died on its own.

Long Chen was now being combined with the grandmist space. The moment the grandmist space was broken, his body would be scattered a little, for example, in a short period of time, his leg had already disintegrated into countless particles which instantly disappeared.

With this slow disappearance, Long Chen was not even able to determine when he had died. It was obvious that the other party had found a rule that could restrain him from bringing him back to life!

"I don't even need to use the Creation God Equipment nor the provenance corundum. Just a single rule has already forced me to the point of certain death. Is this the true strength of the Lord of the Chaos?"

Long Chen was overwhelmed with shock.

This was a crushing blow.

"Compared to me, what you lack is the settling of time."

The voice of the Lord of the Chaos gradually weakened by Long Chen's ears. He was currently escaping this world, and if Long Chen was to stay still, it would end with the destruction of this grandmist space!

It was first frozen, then destroyed. Under these kind of rules, Long Chen naturally did not even have the chance to escape from the Life and Death Realms. If he used this rule, Lord of the Chaos would have probably thought of everything.

This is a method to make Long Chen die beyond the shadow of a doubt!

"Unfortunately, I didn't let you see me destroy the Pangu Continent. This Ten Thousand Worlds is so vast and there are so many spaces. If I do not shake them fiercely, how can this Ten Thousand Worlds be convinced and respect my Chaos Clan? "

"From now on, the structure of the ten thousand worlds should change. My Primal Chaos Realm happens to be the core of the Myriad Realms. "

"All of this starts from the moment I kill you."

After speaking that last sentence, the Lord of the Chaos had already disappeared, while Long Chen's hands and feet had already disappeared along with the grandmist space! Even so, he couldn't move at all!

"Long Chen, what do we do?" Li Xuanji was still in his body.

She could move freely within Long Chen's body.

Under the absolute suppression of this primordial rule, Long Chen wasn't even able to move his eyelids, and if Li Xuanji came out, it would naturally be the same. Li Xuanji was actually able to execute Long Chen's rules, so Long Chen said to her: "Lord of the Chaos doesn't know that you are in my body, this is just nice. You can try to execute the rules of the Death Realm's Dragon Gate here, but to you, this rule shouldn't be too difficult. If you have the Death Realm's Dragon Gate in front of you, I can use all of my strength and fight it with my life! "

This was his only hope!

"Alright!"

Li Xuanji quickly agreed.

A thin line between life and death!

This battle had made Long Chen deeply realize the enormous gap between him and the Lord of the Chaos. Now, no matter what he said, it was useless.

"Begin!"

"Death Realm's Dragon Gate!"

Li Xuanji struggled to open the Death Realm's Dragon Gate at the place closest to Long Chen. The moment this rule appeared, although it was extremely close to Long Chen, but under the invasion of all living things, it still quickly collapsed.

Without saying a word, Long Chen used all his strength to burst out all the power in his body and rushed towards the Death Realm's Dragon Gate. He was clearly only a few centimeters away, but it had already become the biggest chasm on Long Chen!

"No way!"

Long Chen's face turned pale white.

All living creatures were ants, but they were still too frightening. He had exhausted all of his strength, but he was actually unable to move even a single inch. He suppressed his strength to the utmost limit, and only managed to enter the Death Realm a little.

Bang!

The Death Realm's Dragon Door had been destroyed even before Long Chen had entered!

"Again!"

Li Xuanji's voice was a little hoarse.

"Yes."

Long Chen knew clearly in his heart that no matter who it was for, he should not give up hope at this moment! Right now, even more of his body had been destroyed, and all of them had turned into invisible particles that disappeared along with the grandmist space.

"Bam!"

Long Chen had also almost reached his limit. Now, Li Xuanji was already trembling as he was enveloped by despair, but with her tenacious personality, it was impossible for her to give up.

"Long Chen, everyone needs you. You can't die here."

"I know!"

After trying a few times but failing, Long Chen knew that he had to think of another way.

His time was very, very short.

"Maybe the only one who can deal with Lord of the Chaos is Cat ..."

At this juncture, many things could not be considered using common sense. But when Long Chen thought about Little Cat, an intuition suddenly appeared in his heart. In this critical moment, Long Chen made a decision that even caused Li Xuanji to be stunned.

"Help me open the time tunnel's door."

Although the time tunnel's core was Long Chen's body, Li Xuanji was only a part of it. She was unable to move it, but Li Xuanji was fine, as the power of the Yin Demon had reached the core of the time tunnel. As Long Chen had wished, the third level of the time tunnel's gate was opened right in front of his eyes.

Although Long Chen was unable to go in, he was able to get people to throw things out. Now that the Dragon Emperor's were still inside, Long Chen's first exposure naturally shocked everyone, especially Yang You!

"Aunt You, throw the kitten out for me."

After coming out, Long Chen placed the kitten back onto the third floor of the Tower of Time.

"How?"

Yang You's face was pale, but she was a decisive person. After knowing Long Chen's current needs, she was definitely worried, and immediately controlled the body of the kitten and threw it towards the door that was about to break.

"Daddy, what kind of game are you playing!" Long Yan stood at the side with her eyes wide open, watching curiously. If not for the Dragon Emperor blocking her, she would have rushed out.

The innocence and innocence of a child caused Long Chen to be completely moved. When he saw Long Yan's face, he discovered that he had boundless strength in his heart.

"Yan Er be good, daddy will play with you later."

In the next moment, the little kitten's body appeared within the grandmist space, and the time tunnel's gate also crumbled.

In Long Chen's eyes, when the kitten's body came into contact with the grandmist space, it had first melted a little, but just this little melting caused the crystal Reincarnation Godly Beast to suddenly move. It let out an earthshaking, angry roar that shook the entire grandmist space, and then, it burst out with a fierce, intense light. That white light had actually tore apart the grandmist space in an instant, allowing Long Chen to see the Divine Master Continent outside!

Chapter 3177 - Beefy Cat

This kind of effect was even more exaggerated than what Long Chen imagined.

He had only made a very risky decision at the last moment. He did not expect that it was because of this bold decision that he had saved his life. Naturally, he had saved even more things!

Without a doubt, under the effect of the rules of grandmist space and these ants, the kitten had truly awakened. Long Chen saw the Crystal Cat move with his own eyes. The gigantic beast's roar caused the grandmist space to tremble. The white light that had awakened tore the grandmist space in anger!

"Cat!"

Because the grandmist space had been broken, naturally, Long Chen had also been freed from the Lord of the Chaos's rule. Out of the crisis of death.

Now, Long Chen's heart was filled with joy. If it wasn't for him suddenly gaining intelligence, no matter how long he waited, Little Cat probably wouldn't have woken up. Even if he waited another hundred or two hundred years, it would be useless.

"Maybe he just needs some stimulation!"

If he put the kitten in danger from the start, the kitten would have woken up a long time ago.

In that instant, Long Chen heaved a sigh of relief.

And now, under the burning of his life force, the damage that primordial laws had on him was in the process of being healed. And in the midst of this torn grandmist space, not far away from him, the crystalline body of the kitten was currently undergoing a transformation in white light, from a cat or tiger shaped sculpture to a humanoid shape. This transformation could be considered to be extremely fast, in a blink of an eye, Long Chen saw a figure in the midst of the broken grandmist space with his back facing Long Chen!

Passing through the white light, Long Chen saw a man with skin as white as jade. Contrary to Little Cat's previous appearance, he was currently quite tall and sturdy, with light golden hair that was extremely messy, and muscles that could not be seen through. Hidden within the flesh and blood, was a power that even Long Chen could not estimate.

How was this even a cat? It was just like a white tiger, like jade, standing up, he had a temperament that could rule over all worlds, he was incomparably powerful, he looked down upon others, was unyielding, was arrogant and fearless. Maybe this was a true Reincarnation Godly Beast that dared to challenge Great Void Cosmic Dragons!

But the problem was that the originally wretched and lowly kitten had suddenly become like this. This temperament, even if it was just the other party's back, Long Chen was still a little startled.

Time seemed to stop at this moment!

In the next moment, Long Chen was awakened because at this moment, the kitten let out an incomparably domineering roar that sounded like a fierce tiger. In the midst of this roar, its grandmist space shattered one after another and Long Chen returned to the Primal Chaos Realm.

The Ten Thousand Realms Gods were stunned as they watched this scene unfold. Watching Little Cat and Long Chen break through the grandmist space, and how Little Cat and his appearance and Long Chen's survival was an unimaginable surprise to them, everyone couldn't help but cheer. Of course, it still required the Four Overlords and the others to take action and stop Little Cat's furious roar!

Miracle appeared again!

Long Chen had not disappointed them once, not even when it came to the most despairing of times!

The more fierce and powerful the roar of the kitten was, the more shocked they felt. They were shocked at how powerful the kitten was right now. Even Ling Xi and Mo Xiaolang couldn't believe their eyes when they saw the tiger-like, incomparably tall and sturdy kitten in front of Long Chen.

"Cat, she became like this?"

Mo Xiaolang was a little stunned. Obviously, the kitten's real form was not that of a cat, but something similar to a tiger.

He believed that everyone was not used to Little Cat!

But that doesn't matter! As long as Cat was strong, as long as he could help everyone get through this crisis, that was enough!

At that moment, the tall and sturdy little cat in the white light stared at Chaos Clan. That domineering voice sounded once again, it was the ancestor of demons! Even the Chaos Clan s could not help but tremble under the pressure of his aura!

"Who is it that has disturbed my sleep!?" "Who attacked this sovereign?"

Little Cat's dark blue tiger eyes enveloped all the Rankers in Chaos Clan like Shadow of Death. No matter how many Rankers there were in Chaos Clan, they did not scare him at this moment.

While the Chaos Clan was trembling in fear, the bald Lord of the Chaos appeared in front of the kitten. His pair of illusionary eyes intensely clashed with the kitten's, and the Lord of the Chaos's aura was majestic. Not only were there the Primal Chaos and Primordial Laws, there was also a third one.

"You, are the expert that Long Chen invited to deal with me?" Although Lord of the Chaos looked calm, in reality, the shock in his heart had already broke through the horizon! The appearance of Long Chen in the myriad worlds was already shocking enough, but who was this super strong expert who could destroy all living things in an instant, who killed his way out of the grandmist space?!

"Disturbing this sovereign, presumptuous!"

The little kitten had already locked onto Lord of the Chaos, and in front of its furious gaze, Lord of the Chaos was no different from any other person. At this moment, even the Lord of the Chaos did not expect that the little kitten would attack without any discussion!

His actions were very simple!

With a casual pull, that huge tiger claw miraculously landed on Lord of the Chaos's face without any obstructions, and with a loud bang, Lord of the Chaos was like a cannonball, as he directly slammed into provenance corundum. In a split second, that hard provenance corundum shattered as Lord of the Chaos deeply embedded himself inside.

"Today, I didn't want to kill anyone, so I spared your dog life."

The kitten blew on its palm, indicating that it had slapped its opponent and dirtied his hand.

What he did not know was that after this scene occurred, not to mention others, even Long Chen himself, was dumbstruck. He simply could not believe his own eyes.

Long Chen naturally knew just how powerful the Lord of the Chaos was. This was the kind of existence that could instantly kill Long Chen, but now, the Lord of the Chaos that could instantly kill Long Chen, was simply killed by a little kitten.

Whether it was in terms of rules or strength, it had completely surpassed the Lord of the Chaos. Even Long Chen himself, was completely unable to understand what exactly that slap was meant to hit the Lord of the Chaos's face.

"It doesn't seem to be fast, but Lord of the Chaos was still unable to dodge it. What kind of power is this, and can even be considered a law? "

The shock in Long Chen's heart did not dissipate for a long time.

On the Chaos Clan's side, it was deathly still without a sound. Everyone looked at the Lord of the Chaos in a daze, and saw that his body had been directly torn into thousands of pieces, shattering within the provenance corundum. This was the result of a single slap from a kitten.

The Lord of the Chaos borrowed the power of the provenance corundum to restore his body. With his abilities, he could quickly recover. However, as the person in question, when he was attacked, he would probably be unimaginably shocked.

In the blink of an eye, Lord of the Chaos was heavily injured without being able to retaliate.

Of course, the Chaos Clan was terrified, all of this was because of the terror of Long Chen's last helper. It was only now that they understood that there was an existence in the Ten Thousand Worlds that surpassed Long Chen.

Chaos fire Wu who was originally waiting for the Lord of the Chaos to kill Long Chen, now had a deathly pale face and was lying on the ground. His mind was probably blank as well. Today was the day that she received the greatest blow. Compared to the time his father was crippled, it was even heavier. The existence that she respected the most was actually almost killed with a single slap.

It was like the destruction of the entire world.

All of this was something that even Long Chen himself found hard to believe. He never thought that Little Cat was already this strong.

"Cat!"

Everything was over. Long Chen couldn't help but call out, his back facing his for a long time. No matter what, after so long, he could finally return and even find his original body.

Whoosh!

Suddenly, the kitten turned around and Long Chen saw him. Just by looking at his appearance, he was indeed an arrogant and unparalleled existence. Not only was it his appearance, but even his eyes, spirit, and willpower seemed to have been completely reborn. The difference between him and the other kittens was huge.

This caused Long Chen to be unable to resist the smile on his face.

"Are you addressing this sovereign?"

What made Long Chen astonished was that the little kitten said these words to him with an expressionless face.

"You don't know me?" Long Chen asked in a daze.

The kitten laughed coldly and said, "There are many people in the Myriad Realms who know of this sovereign. However, there aren't many who are qualified enough for this sovereign to know of them. Who cares who you are, this noble one is too lazy to care. "

Just like that, the tall and sturdy figure quickly disappeared from Long Chen's sight. No one knew what methods he used, but in a moment he disappeared. Even though he left straightforwardly, Long Chen's heart overturned.

It was an unfamiliar look.

Fortunately, their opponent was not as flamboyant. Chaos Clan was completely immersed in the injuries of the Lord of the Chaos, so no one paid attention to Long Chen and Cat.

However, Ling Xi and Mo Xiaolang who had just rushed over, had heard it already. Adding Li Xuanji, for a moment, all four of their faces were filled with astonishment. Although today, she had suppressed the Lord of the Chaos and seemed to have solved its crisis, it was just that ...

"Cat, after regaining his original body, it's very likely that he's only from before the era. He's the reincarnation of a demon ancestor, but he doesn't have any memories with us, so he doesn't seem to recognize us."

Long Chen helplessly looked at the other three. None of them had expected that their body would undergo such a change. This was something that he had never thought of before.

Moreover, no one had any way of resolving this issue.

After all, the kittens of today were simply too strong.

Chapter 3178 - Memory

"Is there any way to help kitten regain its memories?" Furthermore, what he does not know is that an era has already passed, right? " Ling Xi asked worriedly.

Long Chen shook his head: "I probably don't have a solution at the moment, but I must think of one. I think the Dragon Guards didn't expect it to be like this, and it might be because I moved the little kitten out of the time tunnel ahead of time, causing him to be in danger. "

At this time, he saw that Chaos Clan had basically finished assembling his body, so he said, "Regarding the kitten, we can talk about it later. No matter what, his appearance today gave the Chaos Clan the greatest shock! "

"They didn't know about the change in Cat. We can scare them, and the danger in Primal Chaos Realm will probably be resolved." Mo Xiaolang said softly.

"Allow me."

Let's put the matters with Cat aside, we should deal with the Chaos Clan in front of us first! Now, the Ten Thousand Realms Gods and Demons were filled with excitement as they gathered beside Long Chen and the others. On the contrary, all of the Chaos Clan were feeling dejected and humiliated.

Just at this moment, the Lord of the Chaos appeared again. It was just that his vitality was severely injured, and in his current state, he could not even hold his eyelids back. No one expected that a single slap would have such an effect.

Currently, it was as if the Myriad Realm God and the Chaos Clan had changed positions. In front of the Ten Thousand World God, the Chaos Clan s couldn't even raise their heads. Their faces were filled with shame and humiliation.

Long Chen said with a stern expression in front of the crowd, "Divine Master, along with the various Holy Sovereigns and all the Chaos Clans. Before, you brought up the idea of nine battles to decide the victor, but now, in the final battle, your Lord of the Chaos suffered a crushing defeat. According to the agreement, you are not allowed to attack the Ten Thousand Worlds again, and you can peacefully stay in your Chaos Clan.

When the Divine Master was defeated, the most unbelievable thing happened in that instant.

Lord of the Chaos raised his head with great difficulty and looked at Long Chen, speechless. Although Cat was not here, the Lord of the Chaos was not sure if that terrifying guy would suddenly appear.

Long Chen continued, "Chaos Clan, your battle with the Ten Thousand Worlds is over today. I hope that you will keep your promise and live in peace with the Ten Thousand Worlds. If you break your promise, for example, still want to attack the Pangu Continent, first, we will look down on you. Secondly, I can guarantee that if anything happens to your Ten Thousand Worlds, your Primal Chaos Realm will all be destroyed! "

In the end, he looked towards the Lord of the Chaos and said: "Divine Master, I am not the one warning you. We don't want to cause trouble. If you're stubborn, my friend won't just slap you in the face. Don't truly anger him, or else the consequences will be unimaginable. It was only because you went too far this time that he would make a move. "

In the face of Long Chen's warning, the Lord of the Chaos had nothing to say. They finally had a taste of humiliation.

Long Chen then opened the Living Realm, making it easier for the Myriad Realm Gods and Demons to return to his own world. Currently, the Chaos Clan was still an unstable factor, and Cat was actually not under his control at all. Therefore, for the time being, everyone was still worried about being spread out, and could stay in the Living Realm for the time being.

All the Ten Thousand Realms God Demons entered one by one. They came here humiliated in the past, but now that victory had left, these few days, their spirits had tightened. Now, they finally heaved a sigh of relief.

"Wait."

She did not care about anything else and directly rushed to Long Chen's front. Looking at the Lord of the Chaos right now, it was clear that she did not have the strength to stop Primal Chaos Flame Dance.

"When?" This woman's resentment is too great, and as Long Chen watched her approach with squinted eyes, he was actually already very vigilant.

"I want you dead!"

Indeed, she did not have much reason to say that she had lost so miserably this time. Even now, she could only use such an irrational method to attempt to kill Long Chen.

"Pah!"

Li Xuanji suddenly appeared from within Long Chen's body, and before the Primal Chaos Fire Dance could arrive, she slapped her face, making her roll back into her Chaos Clan.

This time, Primal Chaos Flame Dance was really heartbroken. She was jealous of Long Chen. That slap from Li Xuanji had drained all of her thoughts.

"Women are women, and you still dare to fight with me for women. If you weren't too proud and looked down on other men, you probably wouldn't be interested in women. Now you know, you're nothing. Be a good girl and don't be a slut for nothing. "

Long Chen really had too many things he wanted to say to her, but Li Xuanji was very straightforward.

"Long Chen."

Lord of the Chaos suddenly stopped him.

"God, what are your orders?"

was still quite cautious in dealing with him.

"Which friend of yours is he? What realm is he in?" "He's half a step into the Ancestor Realm, or perhaps he has already Transcended into the Third Step of Cultivation!"

Lord of the Chaos looked at Long Chen with his blazing eyes. That was his dream.

"I want to know too. Does it matter? In this Myriad Worlds, the strongest will always be him, not you. "I still say, don't go too far. If you go too far, there won't be a next time."

The more he said, the more he was exposed, the more everyone else returned, Long Chen and Lord of the Chaos looked at each other and walked towards the Living Realm. The moment he entered the Living Realm, it also meant that the battle that lasted for more than a hundred years, had finally ended!

There was happiness and worry.

Joy was that the ten thousand worlds were finally safe and free from the fate of being enslaved.

The worry was that even though the kitten had woken up, it had forgotten everyone.

Of course, if he wanted to get the kitten that belonged to everyone back, he couldn't give up on his brother, no matter how he changed.

Even if it was the first time he betrayed her for the sake of the Great Void Cosmic Dragon's Inherited Blood Essence, Long Chen had already forgotten about it. If he was afraid of this point, he wouldn't have needed to rush to the time tunnels to find the original body for him.

In front of him were the four Chief Sovereigns, the Allworld Fiendgods.

Long Chen told everyone about the current situation.

"It should be so. Since things have gotten to this extent, I don't think that Chaos Clan will have any thoughts of invading any of the Myriad Realms within a short period of time."

He thought about it, and decided to hide the matter of the little kitten a little, so that the Lord of the Chaos wouldn't dig up any information about the little kitten from these Divine Emperors or Hierarchs. Therefore, Long Chen was talking to them like a kitten and still needed to rest.

Anarchic Demoness said: "With your brother here, this Lord of the Chaos still has ten guts, we have to behave ourselves! Long Chen, I have to say, that kitten is truly a resourceful person! It is amazing, and it is actually from my demon clan! He must be the true ancestor of our demon clan. "

The others also started talking at the same time, wanting to know more about Cat.

gave a vague answer, then changed the topic. Right now, the Chaos Clan was basically obedient, but there was still a large amount of uncertainty. After discussing it with the four Chief Sovereigns, the four Chief Sovereigns trusted Long Chen and Cat, so they decided to return separately.

Originally, Long Chen could have let them go through the gate of the universe.

But he had to find Cat as soon as possible. Even if he forgot his memories, Long Chen could tell him all of this. Thus, he left the four Chief Sovereigns to go to the Living Realm on their own, and it just so happened that the Ancient God of the Wilderness would invite everyone to gather at the Pangu Continent.

Moreover, the barbarians of the two realms of life and death must rely on everyone to return to their homeland.

After taking care of them, Long Chen brought Mo Xiaolang and instructed him to use the universe's gate to head to Dragon Sacrifice Continent. They directly left Primal Chaos Realm, and from here to Dragon Sacrifice Continent wasn't too far away.

"Cat doesn't know how the Dragon Sacrifice Continent has changed. After he wakes up, he'll definitely go back there."

This was Long Chen's estimation.

Originally, Zhu Xi and the others had to keep up, but Long Chen felt that the current Cat was still quite dangerous. Although he and Zhu Xi had some fate and were playing around, in terms of relationship, the two brothers had a deeper understanding of each other. It would not be easy for Cat to regain back her memories with this period of time, at least for now, Long Chen had no other choice but to try to talk to Cat first.

When he realised that the Dragon Sacrifice Continent was destroyed, he would definitely have a lot to ask.

"At that time, Cat was imprisoned by the Great Void Cosmic Dragon, and it happened before the era's war. That was why Cat was able to escape this calamity."

Therefore, he didn't know what changes had occurred in the current Myriad Realms. Perhaps he just thought that he had escaped from the time tunnel and came to a small world of origin level.

He didn't know that the current Ten Thousand Worlds only had one origin level world.

In the blink of an eye, Long Chen had returned from the spatial tunnel to the edge of Dragon Sacrifice Continent. He and Mo Xiaolang had headed towards the destroyed Dragon Sacrifice Continent and saw the planet formed from enormous amounts of dust from afar.

Beside him was the Star of Destiny.

"Big brother, he's over there."

Sure enough, Long Chen and the others saw that above the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, there was a small white dot.

"Let's go."

He stood in that position without moving. Watching the world he once lived in being destroyed, Long Chen was certain of what kind of mood he was in now. Furthermore, he had thousands of questions and tens of thousands of shocks in his heart!

When he woke up, the world had been destroyed.

Their home had vanished.

Once the number one of the ten thousand realms, Dragon Sacrifice Continent.

Where did he go?

"I know that you have many doubts in your heart. That's right, an entire era has passed since you were imprisoned by the Great Void Cosmic Dragon. And in this era, many many changes have occurred. Now, I know everything that you want to know. " and the little cat started a conversation from a distance away. He had to explain all of this first, so as to not sweep her far away before he even got close to her. Now, when Cat saw the Dragon Sacrifice Continent being destroyed, his mood would definitely be crazed.

Chapter 3179 - Myriad Worlds past

At this time, Cat should still not be at its peak state and probably had not truly reached the ancestral realm yet.

However, as long as he recovered in the future, it would not be difficult for him to reach his peak state.

After hearing what Long Chen said, the muscular man with tiger eyes instantly arrived in front of Long Chen. He stared at Long Chen with doubt in his eyes.

The death of the Dragon Sacrifice Continent had shocked him too much. If it were not for the fact that his mental fortitude was not that bad, he would probably have gone crazy at this moment.

"You said that more than a era has already passed. The Dragon Sacrifice Continent, has already been destroyed? " Now, even his voice had become hoarse. One could see the shock in his heart.

When he woke up, everything had changed.

If he had the memory of the kitten, he would not be as shocked as he was now.

"That's right. Now that everything has changed, I can tell you exactly what happened from the beginning to the end. You just need to calm down and listen to what I have to say. "

In order to help him recover his memories, Long Chen would definitely use every method possible.

The kitten was silent for a while, then looked at the surroundings that had disappeared. In the end, its domineering gaze pierced into Long Chen's eyes, causing him to appear as if he had no secrets to hide.

"Speak, I'll listen."

It was hard to tell what his attitude was from the look in his eyes.

Long Chen looked around, and said: "To be able to exterminate the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, or even the entire ten thousand worlds, you naturally know what kind of existence it is.

"Then move on."

The walls around the tunnel flickered with various types of worlds. If one looked closely, one could see hundreds of millions of living beings, all of them flickering non-stop as they moved back and forth, forming a cycle of reincarnation. "This is ..." "UU... .."

"This is my reincarnation cycle. Only you and I know how to speak up here."

Under the little kitten's instructions, Long Chen knew that he could explain it from the beginning. However, communicating with such a cold and domineering kitten still made a very strange feeling in his heart.

Long Chen calmed down and started from the beginning. From the moment the little kitten was imprisoned within the time tunnel s, to the rise of the Heaven-Devouring Divine Clan, to the chaos Heaven Devouring Dragon bringing the Heaven-Devouring Divine Clan to rebel, to the birth of several existences comparable to the Ancestral Dragon, to the eventual destruction of the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, to the changes in the rules of the myriad realms that would result in the formation of the current world by the Divine Devil Giant Beast bringing about the rebellion of the Heaven-Devouring Divine Dragon.

"So, you are the successor to the Ancestral Dragon!" I can smell their scent from you, and it's not only one type, that Great Void Cosmic Dragon is also in your bloodline! "

The kitten's eyes were blazing with fire, as if it wanted to pierce through Long Chen's body.

"Heaven-Devouring Tribe, Heaven-Devouring Dragon, aren't you surprised?"

Long Chen asked.

He thought that Cat would be shocked by the rise of the Heaven-Devouring Tribe. Unexpectedly, his gaze had shifted to himself.

"It's not that surprising. The Primal Chaos Heaven Devouring Dragon is the complete opposite of the other Ancestral Dragons. It was born to devour and destroy people. I knew that something would happen to it. As for the Heaven-Devouring Tribe, I have seen them before. They are the miracles of the myriad worlds, the miraculous creatures that were born from mistakes. It made sense that they could even devour an Elder God of the Myriad Realms and kill the Ancestral Dragon. Now that the Dragon Sacrifice Continent has been destroyed and the ten thousand worlds are on the verge of extinction, they can only do it. "

It seemed like Cat still had a rough idea of what was going on.

He knew that Long Chen was the successor of the Ancestral Dragon, but he didn't think about what he could obtain from Long Chen. After all, the former Great Void Cosmic Dragon was an existence that he wanted to challenge day and night.

Long Chen immediately said: "I think you need to know how you managed to escape from the time tunnel. This is very important to us all. "

Cat waved her hand, gesturing at Long Chen to speak.

In fact, he still felt rather sad, but he was too lazy to show it in front of Long Chen. When you wake up after the era, no one will be calm in the face of such an important event.

From the first time Long Chen met him from the Great Void Dragon Symbol, he had proceeded together. He talked about the matter between them and Little Cat, all the way until the time tunnel found the original body, and finally allowed Little Cat's residual soul to return to his original body, which then created the current power of Little Cat.

"Perhaps, when I mention this, you can remember it?"

Facing the little kitten who was in such a state, Long Chen was still a little fearful in his heart. [I just don't know what kind of expression the guy in front of me has on his face when he knows that I was a slob in the past ...]

Speaking to this point, Long Chen and Mo Xiaolang looked forward to Cat's reaction.

"Little Cat, now that the Heaven-Devouring Tribe has probably fully recovered, and the Ten Thousand Worlds is at the end of its lifespan. Now that you have power that belongs to you, we all hope that you can come back and work together with us to save this world and protect our homeland."

Mo Xiaolang said.

"And who are you? Is this also a so-called brother? "

The kitten suddenly grinned, but its voice was filled with a boundless sternness. He suddenly released a fatal suppression, causing Long Chen and Mo Xiaolang to be unable to control their own bodies. Their life and death were in his hands.

Cat stared at the two of them and said, "This sovereign won't punish you for letting me know what happened today. But there are a few things you need to remember for this sovereign!"

"Firstly, I am not Cat. I am the reincarnation demon ancestor, the ancestor of ten thousand demons, the Reincarnation Godly Beast. You all have to call me ancestor, not brother! "

"Secondly, the one accompanying you all in your training is only my residual soul consciousness and not my true self. Now this is the real me. That's why you can understand it this way. Cat is already dead, and once he completes his mission, it is for the Reincarnation Godly Beast to be reborn in this world. "

"Third!" The little kitten practically put Long Chen and Mo Xiaolang on the verge of death and said with slight anger, "You inherited the Ancestral Dragon's legacy, but the Great Void Cosmic Dragon are enemies who have sealed me for an entire era! On the account that you allowed me to be reborn, I won't bother with you. But now, you can't even call yourself an ancestor, much less a brother to me. Not to mention the true body's boss. The sooner we stop thinking about that kitten, the safer you will be. "

Cat's words made Long Chen and Mo Xiaolang completely unable to do anything. Despite the anxiety and anger in his heart. However, no matter what, since the other party was so resistant, it would be quite difficult for him to regain that part of his memories through words.

Long Chen believed that memories were the most important part of a person's life, so this kitten was not an accident, but a real existence. It was just that now that he did not have that part of memory, even hearing Long Chen speak of it was strange.

"If you didn't have the Great Void Cosmic Dragon, you would be in the stomach of the Heaven-Devouring Race now." Long Chen gazed straight at the kitten.

The kitten froze for a moment, then let out a mournful laugh and said, "Then I would rather be devoured than be left alone in this broken world. Otherwise, I would be left alone and homeless."

Deep loneliness could be seen in his eyes, but it only lasted for a moment. This allowed Long Chen to understand that he had a good nature and was a man of character. But now, everything was too shocking, and it was hard for him to accept in his heart.

"If that's the case, then why not join us? While it is true that ten thousand worlds are destroyed close by, there is still hope. As long as the Heaven-Devouring Tribe is exterminated, the order of ten thousand worlds will be established, and everything that the Heaven-Devouring Tribe devours will be returned to the ten thousand worlds. "

Cat sneered and said, "Relying on you?"

Long Chen replied, "All of us."

"Before the era, the Ancestral Dragons were in their best condition, and were even destroyed by the Heaven-Devouring Tribe. Now, the Heaven-Devouring Tribe has devoured almost nine tenths of the entire Myriad Realms, and their strength has never been seen before. Not to mention you, even I am not strong enough for them to fill the gaps in their teeth.

His tone and attitude were filled with both negativity and despair.

It was true, Long Chen knew what he said was true.

This point was something that Long Chen had already known a long, long time ago.

However, if he could complete his final dream, let the divine dragon regain control of the ten thousand worlds, establish a stable order, and restore peace to the ten thousand worlds, he would need to attain a strength of ten thousand. Back then, when Long Chen found out about this difficulty, his strength was not even at one stage.

Now he had a hundred.

He was able to miraculously go from 1 to 100 times and explode by a hundred times. Why couldn't he go from a hundred to ten thousand? Furthermore, he was different from the little kitten he was now. He carried the promise he made to his father on his back, and Long Qinglan's sacrifice in exchange for his birth, he similarly carried the heavy responsibility of protecting the The Dragon God Clan, and his family and friends. If Long Chen was lonely and had no one to rely on, then he would be like the little kitten.

Long Chen understood.

No matter what he said now, Cat would not listen to him. He had no confidence in resisting, nor any reason to resist. His rebirth was a type of suffering for him.

As a result, he had just said that he would rather die in battle before the era, than to return at this time and witness the destruction of ten thousand worlds with his own eyes.

"Cat, since it's like this, I won't say anymore. In the future, I might want you to prove that all of my efforts are worth it. All of us, our partners and relatives, welcome your return.

"I'll say it again, I'm not a kitten."

He was slightly angry.

This kind of dispute was unnecessary. Long Chen shook his head and said: "Also, I hope you can spend more time to calm down. Don't act rashly and deal with the Eclipse Tribe. You know what the consequences will be. What we need now is recovery and growth. You think resistance is funny, but I never thought that way, unless I really died at that moment, maybe I would give up, but as long as I, Long Chen, am still alive, I won't. I will fight to the death with those who want to devour this world. "

Cat's gaze changed and looked at him with a complicated expression.

"Let's go."

Long Chen said.

"Wait."

Zhu Xi had already escaped from the Tower of Time.

Chapter 3180 - Troll Disaster

"Cat!"

Zhu Xi was usually heartless, it was difficult to find tears in his eyes.

"Divine Phoenix Clan!"

When Zhu Xi appeared, the little kitten looked as if it had been struck by lightning, and its gaze towards Zhu Xi had completely changed. He looked at Zhu Xi in a daze, and said, "You ... you shouldn't have been from the Heaven-Devouring Clan."

Long Chen and Mo Xiaolang were both stunned. What was going on?

"Oh, I was wrong!"

The little kitten shook its head and said, "It's nothing. The Sword Wood Sacred Tree was once a world of primitive level, and the creator of this world was the Divine Phoenix Demon Ancestor. A good friend of mine. According to what you guys said, she should have entered the stomach of the Heaven-Devouring Race. "

The Divine Phoenix Demon Ancestor was the ancestor of the Phoenix Clan.

Long Chen thought about it for a moment. There was a legend of a Holy God in the Phoenix Clan, who looked like a kitten. Of course, due to the influence of the Heaven-Devouring Race, the legends about the Holy God were full of mistakes. It could be said that it was because the kitten had a good relationship with the creator of the World Tree and had some intimate relationships with it. That was why it became a legend among the phoenixes.

"Cat, you are very bastard, everyone is waiting for you to awaken. Back then, in order to let you obtain your original body, Boss Long Chen had to expend a lot of energy to snatch it from the time tunnel. Are you done now, after obtaining your thing, you think you can escape?"

Zhu Xi was extremely angry.

However, when Cat glared at her, she became afraid again and retreated back to Long Chen's side.

"Little girl, are you willing to come with me? I want to go and take a look at the Tree Creation Tree." The kitten said these words at the most serious moment.

"Huh?" Zhu Xi was not prepared and did not know how to respond. He could only look at Long Chen for help, purely because she was angry and wanted to come out and scold him.

"Let's go." This was a great opportunity, and it was rare that Cat was treated as an exception by Zhu Xi. Perhaps because of their past friends, as long as he was able to bring Zhu Xi along, Long Chen would be able to control Cat's position at all times, and could also rely on Zhu Xi to spread the news. With Zhu Xi by his side, Cat would obviously have more of a contact with this memory, and the chances of her recovering in the future would probably be relatively greater.

"Alright, since grandaunt is so merciful, I'll go with you!" Zhu Xi grew bold, but he was not afraid of anything.

After saying all that, without a second word, Cat disappeared from Long Chen and's sight. When Long Chen and Cat returned to the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, they had already disappeared.

Long Chen and Mo Xiaolang looked at each other.

"Big brother, do you think the kittens from before will return?"

Long Chen pursed his lips into a smile, and said: "Before, I didn't think there was much hope. But right now, he has the best impression of Zhu Xi. With Zhu Xi around, I think the chances are pretty good. But if we want to return to our previous shameless appearance, it will probably be very difficult, and we'll need to spend a lot of effort. "

Mo Xiaolang helplessly shook his head, and said: "To be honest, I used to think that he would be so low that I would beat him up. But now that he has changed his appearance, I can see that no matter how angry he is, he will always be the same in the heart. Talking to us was impolite, but it would only scare us a little. It might not be true that he will make a move against us. As for the matter of the ten thousand realms, he might just be stronger, so he'll have a better understanding of the difficulty. "

In fact, Mo Xiaolang was right.

No matter how he became, the kitten was still the same, even if he tried to hide it.

"Zhu Xi, I will leave the mission of guarding the kitten to you."

Long Chen secretly contacted her.

"Don't worry. I will definitely discipline him well and see you again."

The two of them could not help but smile.

It seemed that this matter of headaches wasn't that difficult.

Mo Xiaolang said: "With regards to the kitten, it's still very difficult to find any clues. What should we do next?"

Now that the Chaos Clan was done, it was rare for her to relax, it wasn't as tense as before.

Long Chen thought for a while, then said: "Chaos Clan still needs to be on guard, before I have the strength to fight against Lord of the Chaos, I will not be able to relax for the time being. No matter what, this year's Allworld Fiendgod Bestowal had actually allowed the Deities to escape. It was obvious that his connection with the Ancient Giant Demons had deepened. For some reason, the Ancient Giant Demons had changed a lot. It didn't matter whether or not there was a Heaven-Devouring Race around, we still had to be on guard! The Ancient Giant Demons are not as easy to deal with as the Chaos Clan, just like the Primal Heavenly Demons. The moment they appear, their goal is to destroy all living things.

In Long Chen's heart, the Primordial Giant Demons were clearly more terrifying than the Chaos Clans.

The Lord of the Chaos was a righteous race who only wanted to dominate the Myriad Worlds. As for the Ancient Giant Demons, they were born to exist for the sake of destruction and they did not have the slightest bit of humanity.

Most likely, quite a few were as cruel as the Fiendgods of the primordial chaos.

"You mean, we have to go to the Realm of the Great Desolate Emperor to take a look?"

"He should have dug up everything that Shen Jun knew long ago. Previously, the calamity in the Chaos Clan was impending, but now that it has finally been resolved, we naturally have to make the best use of our time. "

Who knew that the ancient Giant Demons hiding in the ancient tomb of the Dragon and Demons would awaken in the next instant and then destroy the entire world?

If they had been born in the same place, it would have been fine. But if they had been born in different places, they wouldn't have even been able to kill each other, let alone anything else.

Of course, the matters regarding the Ancient Giant Demon were indeed important, but there was still another equally important matter in Long Chen's heart.

"The Lord of the Chaos is definitely related to the second ancestor. The Second Dragon Prince is currently at a loss. It was possible that the Lord of the Chaos knew about the inheritance blood essence and the Dragon Servant. It's just that I am currently not Lord of the Chaos's opponent. If I have any hope of surpassing him, I have to quickly fight him! "

The last battle, could be considered as Long Chen's crushing defeat. Of course, Long Chen was very unconvinced in his heart.

There was still a long way to go, so he would have to wait for him to make a comeback!

The Realm of the Great Desolate Emperor was one of the Star Alliance.

At this moment, the God of Heaven Lu was still helping the barbarians to return to Pangu Continent. The environment of the two realms of life and death was not suitable for a long time to live. If a strong enemy really came, he could hide for a while, but not for an eternity.

Relying on that door of the universe, Long Chen arrived at the Realm of the Great Desolate Emperor after almost ten days. He came here last time, but this time, Long Chen is even more powerful.

"Jun, come out."

Above the Realm of the Great Desolate Emperor, Long Chen stood proudly on top of it. His gaze swept across the entire world but he did not discover the existence of the handsome god, so naturally, he did not see Ji Taixu either.

However, the space in front of their eyes started to float. A pitch-black gravestone actually appeared before their eyes. On the gravestone was an enormous dragon covered with scales.

Kcha! *

The tombstone split apart from the center and a handsome man walked out. This Hierarch that was bound by the Giant Demon Contract actually had the black dragon scales of an ancient Giant Demon on his body.

"Long Chen, hehe, I have been waiting for you here for a long time. I knew that you would come back. "

That tombstone might have been the meaning behind the ancient Demon Dragon Tomb, but what shocked Long Chen the most was that the ancient tomb actually had the feeling of a time tunnel from two worlds!

If this was related to the Ancestral Dragon!

If there was someone controlling it!

That would be just like Long Chen, who could open the ancient Demonic Dragon Cave anywhere and allow the Ancient Giant Demons to attack tens of thousands of worlds ...

This made his heart instantly turn cold.

If his guess was right, the ancient tomb of the Dragon and Devil, would it be the world left behind by the Ancestral Dragon? His original name couldn't be the ancient tomb of the Dragon King, right?

"What are you trying to say?"

Now, if he could catch this guy, he would be able to get a lot of information, but Shen Jun was very careful, basically half of his body was still inside the ancient tomb, which was covered in black mist, and the inside was completely silent. If he didn't rush in, it would be very hard to find out what was inside.

The Archaic Giant Demons have been sleeping for a long time now, and they are all very hungry right now, so they are already prepared. Now that they have woken up one by one, when the time comes, it will be the time for us Archaic Giant Demons to descend upon the ten thousand worlds and invade them.

At this point, Shen Jun revealed a strange smile. Not far behind him, Ji Taixu's figure also appeared.

"Long Chen, I heard that you have settled Chaos Clan's provocation, and a super strong Ranker appeared by your side. After defeating Lord of the Chaos, I am really curious, who exactly is it? Furthermore, you can really torment yourself. In the blink of an eye, you have been tormented from the Divine Demon Zhou Shan all the way until now. "

Ji Taixu immediately sneered.

, you are merely a defeated opponent of mine, and now, you are even more so far behind me. What qualifications do you have to speak to me? If you really have the guts, then don't hide inside. "

Long Chen said indifferently.

"Hmph, Long Chen, you'd better not be happy too early. Let me tell you, the surprise will arrive in half a year. At that time, I'll show you who is the defeated opponent between us! The shame from back then, I will take it all back from you! "

After Ji Taixu finished speaking, he disappeared into the darkness.

"This child is too impatient. He even blurted out such an important time."

Although Shen Jun had said those words, he hadn't meant them as a reproach. In fact, this had been a threat and a warning for half a year. At this point, Shen Jun also wanted to return to his Dragon Demon's Tomb.

"Let's do it this way then. In half a year, us father and son will give the Ten Thousand Worlds the greatest surprise! Chaos Clan sure knows how to choose times. Coming out now, isn't that courting death, haha. "

Shen Jun laughed loudly.

Half a year. It was equal to five hundred years for a Tower of Time.

Long Chen wanted to rush into the ancient Demonic Dragon Tomb to give it a try at this time, but if god dared to do so, if Long Chen went in right now, the odds were against him. In half a year, it was enough for him to undergo a large transformation. Thus, he endured it.
