

He's War God

Chapter 4 - Cultivation Stage -

C4 Cultivation Stage

Of course, Shen Qingfeng would not make a move against him because of these prejudices. After he left the villa area, he did not hitchhike home, but walked towards his Spirit Mountain.

On the way, he took out his cell phone and called his mother.

"Hello? Mom, I will study at Muwan's house tonight. If it's too late, I won't be going back."

He was prepared to start his training tonight. If he didn't have the strength, then anything he said would be useless!

"Great!" You have to be polite and not give them any trouble. "

A gentle voice came out from the phone, nagging at Shen Qingfeng.

Mother Yang Yajing and father Shen Wentian both liked Jiang Muwan very much, and treated her as if she was their own daughter.

Perhaps they also hoped that their son would truly bring such an excellent girl into their home.

"Got it, Mom."

Yang Yajing warned him in detail, then relaxed and hung up the phone.

In this lifetime, his Divine Demon bloodline had been completely sealed, and his physical body had become ordinary. However, his scope of vision was not low at all. He would definitely ascend to the peak of perfection!

"In this life, no one will ever dare to stop me again!"

Once, this entire world had submitted to him. This life, was still the same!

He opened his palm, revealing an extremely complicated pattern that seemed to contain the laws of the world.

This is the Reincarnation Seal!

The method to reincarnate and reincarnate was something he had coincidentally acquired with Chi You in a mysterious ancient tomb.

The two of them had discussed it for days and nights, but had not completely understood it.

He only knew that this was indeed an extremely profound secret technique, but it was hard to say if it could have the effect of reincarnation.

The Reincarnation Seal in his hands was one of the signs of the success of the secret technique.

"Thousands of years in a single dream, the world has actually become a set of Dharma Ending Age ..."

Shen Qingfeng felt the surrounding Spirit Qi become extremely thin, to the extent that it could make people's hair stand on end, and he couldn't help but frown.

As for why this land had become a Dharma Ending Age, he had no impression of it at all. Even if he had this portion of memories, it could have been sealed by the Dragon Soul.

Several thousand years ago, China's Spirit Mountain was everywhere, an era where demons and gods were dancing together, far from something this barren planet could compare to.

According to Shen Qingfeng's memories, all the cultivators on Earth seemed to have disappeared, leaving behind only a group of swindlers and scammers.

These people were just running errands for them. They had no real ability at all.

"Whatever, let's not talk about this for now. It's more important to recover our cultivation."

Dharma Ending Age was a calamity for the heavens and the earth, and was not something he could be worried about right now.

He was prepared to find a place with abundant spiritual energy and cultivate the War God Technique tonight!

War God Technique was one of the top cultivation arts in the Ancient Era. When cultivated to the limit, it can become the body of a War God, able to reach the heavens and destroy mountains and rivers with a wave of a hand!

Back then, during the great battle between Yellow Emperor Xuanyuan and Shen Qingfeng, he took the opportunity to launch a sneak attack and kill Hsing Tian, but he had already exhausted all of his immortal elemental energy.

Who would have thought that after losing his head, the devil body transformed from the War God Tactic would have his battle intent not extinguished. With his hands on his chest like an eyeball, he danced about in fear, causing Xuanyuan Po to not dare to fight anymore as he fled all the way back to the Heavenly Court.

"The place with the most abundant spirit energy is the Spirit Mountain. Tonight, let's go cultivate there!"

Spirit Mountain, verdant trees, beautiful scenery.

Sunny day, climb the sea stone, southeast and see a considerable sea; cloudy weather, the top of the cloud around the fog, gathering but not dispersing, called "Spirit Mountain wearing a hat."

A young man was shuttling through the forest, like a nimble cheetah, he was Shen Qingfeng.

Even though his speed was not slow, it still took him over an hour to find the center where the spiritual energy was gathering. The sky had already turned completely dark.

"This is the place with the densest concentration of spirit energy. Although it's still very sparse, it's at least much better than the city!"

Shen Qingfeng sat cross legged on a patch of grass, started to focus and gradually entered a state of cultivation.

According to the definition of cultivation realms given by Ancient Era, from lowest to highest were Foundation Establishment, Qi Refinement, Tribulation, Soul Formation, Sage – Sovereign – Emperor, and the legendary Immortal!

After one reaches Foundation Establishment, they will be able to wield true essence and use some simple spells. They can even make talismans to enhance their own mana.

In Ancient Era, a Sovereign Realm expert was already very rare, even in a large clan there might not even be one.

Once one became a supreme expert, it would be enough to protect a super great clan for thousands of years!

In that lifetime, Hsing Tian possessed the bloodline of the Gods and Demons. Not long after he was born, he naturally reached the Sheng Realm, and cultivated to the quasi Emperor Realm at the age of twenty. He became brothers with Chi You and the others!

Unfortunately, Yellow Emperor Xuan Yuan borrowed the endless Dragon Artery of China's great earth and broke through to the Emperor Realm!

If the two of them were of the same level, the outcome would be uncertain.

As for that ethereal immortal realm, even in that endless era, it was just a legend that no one had ever seen before.

It was rumored that the Yellow Emperor of Xuanyuan rode a dragon and ascended to the Immortal. However, Shen Qingfeng still held some doubts towards this legend.

Immortal Ascension was not such a simple thing.

Shen Qingfeng cleared his mind of all distracting thoughts and calmed his heart, as he began to channel the spirit energy of heaven and earth into his body.
