

War God 741

Chapter 741 - 3000 star fields

After keeping the blue stone in the Great Void Realm, Long Chen took a deep breath, and walked towards the dark blue, half-closed door. After taking a few steps, he was already standing at the door. At this moment, there was a boundless blue starlight flowing in through the gap between the door and door. It was extraordinarily magnificent.

From the star chart, Long Chen roughly knew what the Sevenstar Monarch had left behind, the Seven Glorious Stars was one of them, and the other was a weapon that the Sevenstar Monarch had once used. Of course, among the weapons, the Sevenstar Monarch had also used offensive skills before!

The offensive skill was naturally at the emperor level, and the weapon was naturally at the emperor level as well. Furthermore, it was very likely to be of a higher level than the invisible whip.

This weapon was right behind this blue door.

Until now, Long Chen had only heard of the name of this weapon. The Sevenstar Monarch's Divine Weapon had a rather domineering name — — 'Three Thousand Star Regions'.

3000 star fields!

Just from this name, Long Chen still did not know what weapon it was. However, a faint image of a person had appeared in his mind, this was a Ranker that stood in the middle of the endless stars, wearing a full body of blue armor that was flickering with light. In his hand, there was a weapon that was more than two metres long, Long Chen was not clear on the specifics, the green dragon halberd he used in the past was a spear, but this '3000 Star Domain', he was not clear on either.

It would probably be a gun!

Long Chen had already learned how to use the sword, and had also learned how to use the halberd. If this '3000 Star Domain' was a long spear, Long Chen would have already focused on using the Emperor Seal, but if he could get a strong weapon to add to his attack, that would be a pretty good thing!

It was also Long Chen's strength that he relied on!

Honestly speaking, the Seven Glorious Star Incantation had already made Long Chen a little excited. Who would have thought that there would be a godly weapon and a matching offensive battle skill. Long Chen didn't know what other inheritances the other Seven Monarchs would leave behind, but for Sevenstar Monarch to leave behind such battle skills as offense, body tempering, and movement techniques, they shouldn't have many divine weapons, right?

3000 star fields.

With excited emotions, Long Chen's hand lightly touched the blue ice door, and then, he directly pulled open the door. This door was ajar, and with a light push, Long Chen was able to completely pull open the door.

He looked inside!

At first, Long Chen thought that he had come out of Star Tomb, but upon closer inspection, he realized that that was not the case. He was still in the middle of the Star Tomb, and in front of him was a vast expanse of space, which was actually the largest space in the Star Tomb.

In this starry sky, there were countless stars. More or less, these stars formed a star field, occupying this pitch-black night sky. Long Chen roughly estimated that there were about three thousand large and small bright blue stars!

Does this mean that these 3,000 star fields are related to the Divine Weapon 3000 star fields?

Just as Long Chen had this thought in mind, he suddenly felt an ancient aura surge towards him. The three thousand star realms actually began to move swiftly in front of him, and the three thousand bright blue stars gradually gathered in front of him. In front of Long Chen, exactly how far away it was, they converged into four shining words!

"Sevenstar Monarch!"

These four big words released a majestic aura. Behind the big words, Long Chen seemed to see a ranker standing in the middle of the stars!

As they moved, they gradually formed another four big words. This time, it was not outside of Long Chen's expectations, and the four words that appeared were, "Three Thousand Star Regions"!

At this time, those limitless stars, after condensing into four words, suddenly scattered, and an endless amount of starlight surged toward Long Chen with a loud bang, as if the entire starlight was smashing towards him. A total of three thousand star field stars, about ten meters in front of Long Chen, gradually condensed into a two meter long strip object.

Long Chen watched excitedly.

He knew, when this weapon was formed, it would probably be in the '3000 star field'!

Time quickly passed by, and the three thousand star fields slowly condensed into a blue and vibrant colored long spear. This was probably the most beautiful weapon that Long Chen had ever seen.

"So this is the 3000 star field?" The corner of Long Chen's mouth revealed a joyful smile. He realized that this '3000 Star Regions', was emitting a kind of majestic star power. This power was countless times stronger than the invisible whip that he had experienced before. The body of the spear was a smooth and beautiful blue like steel. The tip of the spear was even sharper as it emitted a blue light, causing the onlookers to tremble in fear.

Long Chen calmed his emotions and then walked towards the 3000 star fields. He knew that the Sevenstar Monarch was already dead, and he had already been acknowledged by the Sevenstar Monarch, so he had comprehended the Big Dipper Steps. Now, he only needed to take the '3000 star fields'.

This '3000 star field' was a Divine Weapon, and it wasn't something that an ordinary person could obtain. At this moment, the enormous pressure was actually as if there was a kind of power that was similar to a 'domain', preventing Long Chen from advancing!

If it wasn't for the Big Dipper Steps, Long Chen really wouldn't have been able to obtain these 3000 star fields. He used the Big Dipper Steps, and very easily reached the front of the '3000 star fields', where the weapon flowed with rays of blue light, which was extremely beautiful. Of course, this was the first time Long Chen had seen such a beautiful weapon, and of course, the '3000 star fields' wasn't as simple as it seemed.

As he slowly stretched out his hand, Long Chen gently held onto the 3000 star field. Suddenly, an ice-cold feeling assaulted his arm.

But Long Chen did not let go. Under the intense pain, he chose to endure it. The 3000 star fields also had their own pride. Normal people wouldn't even have the right to have it.

Streams of blue starlight extended out in every direction towards Long Chen's body. Very quickly, Long Chen's entire body was filled with the bright and resplendent starlight.

"This weapon almost has some independent consciousness. You can choose to bind it with blood. That way, you can truly brand your own bloodline in these 3,000 star fields."

The kitten reminded him.

Long Chen grunted. No one in this world could match his control over his blood, with just a thought, the blood in his hands immediately jumped out and merged into the three thousand star fields. This bright red blood was actually swallowed by the 'three thousand star fields'.

Long Chen took the opportunity to fuse his True Essence with one of the three thousand star fields. He had already gradually felt the world inside the three thousand star fields, a vast starry world.

When the bloodline completely fused with the 3000 star fields, a blood-red line appeared on the body of the 3000 star fields' blue spear. The red line of blood twisted and soon turned into an illusory blood-red dragon mark, imprinted on the body of the spear. After this, Long Chen realized that he had already completely controlled these three thousand star fields.

For example, this '3000 star field' was like his own arm. Previously, when he used the Mysterious Golden Soul to make it recognize him as its master, it was more or less like this. Of course, the power of the '3000 star fields' was far more powerful than that of the Mysterious Golden Soul.

Long Chen felt that, just like his current self, if he were to dance around in the Three Thousand Star Domain, he would also be able to fight against warriors at the seventh level of the Earth Martial Stage or higher. Of course, even if he were to simply wave around in the Three Thousand Star Domain, the amount of True Essence consumed would not be something Long Chen could imagine.

"With the Monolith of the War God and the inheritance of the Sevenstar Monarch, it is finally time for me to rise again in the Archaic Graveyard. But the most important thing right now is to recover my martial spirit. My martial spirit is injured, if I don't recover, then even if there is a Monolith of the War God, it will be useless! "

Long Chen was very clear about his own situation.

The only important thing at the moment was to recover his Martial Spirit. Only then would he be able to do other things.

Whether it was Feng Zhilin, Wu Guangyu, or any of the experts from the nine great clans, Long Chen would let them witness that the competition in Archaic Graveyard was not only between the nine great clans, but also Long Chen himself!

Of course, Long Chen's true goal was still to pass through the Archaic Graveyard and reach the Imperial Domain!

But the most important thing was that he had enough capital in the Archaic Graveyard. This Sevenstar Monarch did not have enough capital, so he needed an even more important trump card, and that was the five-color key in his hands!

"Could that Five Emperors' Treasures really exist?" The corner of Long Chen's mouth revealed a smile of anticipation.

He did not think anymore, but looked at the blue, flowing, and vibrant 3000 star field in his hands.

"Withdraw!" After he said that, the three thousand star fields suddenly exploded, turning into a total of more than three thousand stars, which fused into Long Chen's body. The tiny stars then started to fuse into Long Chen's skin, making Long Chen feel as if he was wearing a suit of armor, his physical body becoming as strong as a king level body tempering technique.

Chapter 742 - Reencountering Wu Guangyu

What he didn't expect was that the 3000 star fields would have such a benefit.

If he could successfully cultivate that seven star body, it would probably be even more terrifying.

"Even the inheritance of the Seven Monarchs is already this terrifying. I wonder what exactly is inside that Five Emperors' Treasures?"

The Five Emperors were the A powerful warrior of the Divine Martial Realm of the Middle Paleogene. How could the things left behind by Divine Martial Stage be simple? Merely the Five Emperor Prints that Long Chen had currently used was already enough to be terrifying. If he was able to obtain the other treasures of the three attributes, the combination of Five Great Emperors Seal s, then the attack that would be created would be far more powerful than any ordinary Royal Tier Battle Skills.

After he stored the three thousand star domains, Long Chen was still preparing to think of a way out. It was at this moment that he realized that the entire Star Tomb was trembling.

"Oh no, the Star Tomb is collapsing!" Long Chen had already realized that after he took away the Sevenstar Monarch's inheritance, this Star Tomb would probably be completely destroyed. The Sevenstar Monarch did not explain how to leave this place, does this mean that he, Long Chen, would be buried inside this blue planet?

The entire Star Tomb was shaking, stones and the like all shattered, raising up a huge cloud of dust.

Long Chen quickly ran outside, but as he was running, he discovered that a strand of energy was acting on his body. Before he could react, the power of the teleportation gate teleported him away, and by the time Long Chen could react, he was already standing on top of the liujin region outside.

It was outside of the Steel Tomb Forest, and was stained with blood. After a month had passed, this place had long been discovered by others, and many people had already appeared here. When Long Chen appeared out of nowhere, he immediately drew everyone's attention!

Amongst them, there were many experts. There was even an existence that surpassed Feng Zhiling.

Beside Long Chen, Feng Zhiling's body also appeared in the starlight, and the only two left standing were the two of them.

Seven star altars, the other five were already dead.

Therefore, right now, Feng Zhiling was already wearing the clothes that Long Chen had taken off. Of course, because of the lack of time, she seemed a little untidy, as if she had just been ravaged. Feng Zhiling ...

Fortunately, her movements were quite quick, and when she appeared, the others didn't see her sudden spring sunshine, and she immediately tightly wrapped herself in it. The moment Feng Zhiling appeared, the first thing she did was to wrap herself in clothes, and the second thing she did was naturally to look for Long Chen. She knew that if she was taken out here, Long Chen would definitely be brought out as well, and there would also be a flash of spring light at the side.

The invisible whip suddenly appeared in her hands, and crazily rushed towards Long Chen!

"Goodbye." Long Chen sneered, he had arrived here first, and when Feng Zhilin attacked him, he had already made sufficient preparations. Using the Mysterious Golden Soul, Long Chen directly escaped into the steel ground, his speed in the steel ground was extremely fast, the invisible whip grazed past his head, and completely shattered the surrounding steel jungle, turning into iron scraps.

"Sister Zhilin!" In the last moment of his departure, Long Chen heard a familiar voice. Out of the corner of his eye, he looked at the place where the voice came from, and it was indeed God Clan's Young Master Wu Guangyu, who was one of the people Long Chen wished to kill even in her dreams. He knew that this was not the time yet, so he did not choose to fight Wu Guangyu at this time!

Behind Wu Guangyu, Long Chen saw the Little Wolf's figure. The Little Wolf had taken human form, and obediently stood behind Wu Guangyu. His eyes were a little dull and bloody, similar to a normal demon beast's.

He was only waiting for the day where Long Chen would look for him. Furthermore, right now, the God Clan's Young Master thought that the little wolf had already completely pledged its allegiance to him, and had given him quite a bit of Flame Devour. Long Chen had already sensed that the little wolf's aura was already at least at the level of a king level 6.

The God Clan's Young Master probably didn't know the term 'raising a tiger to become a nuisance'.

"Big Brother, run!" When Long Chen suddenly appeared here, the wolf cub spoke to Long Chen anxiously in the language of the spirit beasts. Long Chen didn't say anything, only shot him a confident and pleased smile, and then disappeared. Although there was no time for communication, the wolf cub knew that from Long Chen's confident eyes, he must have a certain amount of confidence in his future.

Towards Long Chen, the little wolf was sufficiently confident.

Sure enough, Long Chen was able to escape from the hands of Feng Zhilin and the God Clan's Young Master just like that. After Long Chen left, Mo Xiaolang's gaze turned to Feng Zhiling who was flustered and exasperated, her face flushed red, and her clothes were tattered. Seeing Feng Zhiling like this, he thought in shock: Could it be that this woman, in the tomb, has been killed by his big brother?

Not only Mo Xiaolang, the others would also think the same way, but they only thought about it. With Long Chen's strength, one could tell that there was a huge gap between him and Feng Zhilin, with Feng Zhilin's strength, how could he obediently let Long Chen move around on his body?

After Long Chen left, everyone who heard the commotion looked at each other, not knowing what had happened. God Clan's Young Master called out and suddenly appeared by Feng Zhiling's side. Seeing her like this, his handsome face was also startled for a moment. He asked in confusion: "Little sister Zhilin, what's wrong?"

After saying that, he stretched out his hands, preparing to go to Windraiser. However, Feng Zhiling unexpectedly took two steps back. He tidied up his own clothes and asked calmly, "Why are you here?"

In the past, her attitude towards Wu Guangyu had always been like this. Feng Zhilin's indifference and haughtiness were famous amongst the nine great clans, causing Wu Guangyu to love and hate her.

However, even in front of so many people, Feng Zhiling still did not give him face, which made Wu Guangyu hold his breath. And why was Feng Zhilin's disheveled appearance for a moment, when he thought of the possibility of that happening, Wu Guangyu's face turned green, he asked in a daze, and asked: "Who was that brat just now? You have already been inside for a month, what exactly happened? Where is your wind race's guest elder, Xue Nv? "

"You haven't said why you're here?" Feng Zhiling ignored his question and looked at him warily.

When I went to the Huge Liujin City to look for you, your grandfather said that you were here. After I came here, I spent a lot of effort before I found out that you had actually already entered. So I'm waiting here. " Wu Guangyu said.

Feng Zhiling spoke in a deep voice. She had already finished packing her clothes, so she said in a low voice: "Didn't you go to find the inheritance of the Green Lotus Lord?"

Wu Guangyu laughed complacently, and said: "I have already obtained the inheritance of the Azure Lotus Emperor. With my strength and comprehension ability, before long, I will be able to reach the Heaven Martial Stage. That way, no one in the young generation will be a match for me, Wu Guangyu!"

Wu Guangyu said with a confident look in his eyes.

This kind of light made Feng Zhiling tense up a bit. She had already inherited the inheritance of the Azure Lotus King. Feng Zhiling realized that if she continued to be angry at this young man, she might get herself into big trouble!

Seeing that Wu Guangyu's expression had become slightly ugly, Feng Zhilin immediately let go of his cold and indifferent tone and said gently: "The Azure Lotus Emperor and the white lotus are the only couple within the Seven Monarchs. Their legacies have been obtained by your God Clan, it seems your God Clan is going to become the number one clan out of the nine great clans, congratulations!"

Wu Guangyu said: "The god race and wind race are of the same line. When you marry me, we will be even more like a family.

Feng Zhiling took a deep breath. Thinking of Long Chen, her heart was filled with anger and hatred, but when she thought about what had happened in the 'Domain', Feng Zhiling's face turned red, half of her face was red with anger, the other half was shame and anger. Growing up to this extent, this could be considered as his most painful memory!

"That brat has already escaped. There are a lot of people here, so I'll tell you as I go. This time, you'll probably need to use all of our wind race's power, as well as your god race's strength."

Feng Zhiling said.

"You mean, the inheritance of the Sevenstar Monarch?" From the seven altars, Wu Guangyu had already guessed a lot of things.

Walking on the road, Feng Zhilin told Wu Guangyu about what happened at the Monolith of the War Gods and what happened in there. However, she craftily lied about the humiliation that Long Chen showed her, saying that her clothes were torn off due to the berserk power of the 'Domain'. As for Long Chen, even Feng Zhilin didn't know, how he passed through the 'Domain' to obtain the inheritance of the Sevenstar Monarch!

The matter of the Sevenstar Monarch's inheritance could not be leaked out, otherwise, it would attract the attention of the nine great clans, so Feng Zhilin only told Wu Guangyu about it.

"Little sister Hailin, you have said so much. Who is this mysterious youth? Not one of our nine great clans?" Hearing Feng Zhiling's words, Wu Guangyu finally understood that it was no wonder that Feng Zhiling was in a bad mood. If Wu Guangyu encountered such a maddening situation, he would definitely go crazy.

Chapter 743 - Desolate Imperial Domain

Thinking about it carefully, that guy just now was right. When that brat came out, Wu Guangyu could immediately tell that he only had the strength of the fourth stage of the Earth Martial Stage at most. How could a weakling like that humiliate a powerhouse like Feng Zhilin, who was at the eighth stage of the Earth Martial Stage, and also possessed a divine weapon like the invisible whip?

Can an ant be an elephant?

Of course not.

Therefore, Wu Guangyu dispelled the worry in his heart. No longer blaming Feng Zhilin, but there was still one more point. Wind God's lineage had the same physique, the stronger Feng Zhilin was, the greater the benefits that it would bring to Wu Guangyu. Originally, Feng Zhilin had had an excellent chance of becoming an ultimate expert, or even becoming an expert of the same level as Wu Guangyu.

Such a great opportunity, the legacies of the Monolith of the War God and the Sevenstar Monarch were actually snatched away by an unknown nobody.

Although Wu Guangyu didn't say it out loud, he was still ridiculing him in his heart, "Other than mother, the other women really don't have many things that could be used in the competition. I had higher expectations of Feng Zhilin in the beginning, but I didn't think that they would actually be idiots too, with such good opportunities, be snatched away by a weakling at the third level of the Earth Martial Stage."

At this time, Feng Zhiling was silent for a while and then said, "You know him. You have met him before."

"You've seen it before?" This time, it was Wu Guangyu's turn to be stunned. He said in a speechless manner, "When have I ever seen such a weak warrior. Are you kidding me?"

He laughed.

Feng Zhiling did not laugh, she looked past Wu Guangyu and landed on Mo Xiaolang's body, smiled coldly and said: "I'm not joking, you still stole this demon wolf from his hands, but sadly, even you allowed it to escape?"

Hearing that, indeed, there was such a person in Wu Guangyu's mind, he had long forgotten about him, when Feng Zhiling mentioned him, he finally remembered, and his face immediately revealed a look of shock. What Feng Zhiling said was unbelievable.

"That brat is actually him? How could he have such a method? "Impossible, this is impossible!"

"Hehe, he even said that he would find you for revenge one day." Feng Zhiling paused for a moment, then hurried along the way while frowning: "With the Mysterious Golden Soul, he can travel underground in the liujin region, but as long as he reaches the surface, or any of the other regions in the Five Great Regions, it would be hard to escape. I need to return to the Huge Liujin City, and have my grandfather summon all the troops there to look for Long Chen's whereabouts.

At this moment, Wu Guangyu was still in a state of shock. He thought back to what Long Chen had told him before he left, that it was just a joke, but it could be seen now that this brat's luck and temperament were extraordinary.

Thinking about that, Wu Guangyu clenched his fists tightly, and said with hatred: "I will definitely help you in this matter, after I find him, I will personally come to kill him!"

"No, I will personally dismember his body into a million pieces, and grind his bones to dust!" A sinister look appeared on Feng Zhiling's face.

Behind them, Mo Xiaolang smiled faintly.

"Two idiots!"

Using the Mysterious Golden Soul, Long Chen once again escaped underground. The two that he had just seen, Wu Guangyu and the little wolf, had a huge impact on him. Seeing that the little wolf was still safe, Long Chen felt a lot more at ease. He could tell that Wu Guangyu had already been tricked by Mo Xiaolang, and thought that the little wolf was already loyal to him.

But even so, Long Chen still could not relax. He knew that Mo Xiaolang was definitely not willing to stay by Wu Guangyu's side. If not for the other party's oppressive power, he would have already returned to Long Chen's side. Therefore, Long Chen felt a lot of pressure in his heart. He knew that he had to become strong in order for Feng Zhilin and Wu Guangyu to see just who would be the one laughing at the end.

If he wanted to become stronger, Long Chen would have to find a medicine to nurture his soul and nourish his injured martial spirit. Only then would he be able to move towards a more powerful path.

"In liujin region's place, there are steel and sand everywhere. It should be quite difficult for spiritual medicines to grow here, so magical equipment would mostly appear in liujin region. As for spiritual medicines, I think there were quite a few in the previous Greenwood Region."

I have obtained the Mysterious Golden Soul, Feng Zhiling will definitely not give up on the Sevenstar Monarch's inheritance and Monolith of the War God so easily. She thinks that I will rely on the Mysterious Golden Soul to stay in the liujin region, but for the spirit medicine, I will be going to the Greenwood Region this time.

Target, Greenwood Region.

After making up his mind, Long Chen headed in the direction of the Greenwood Region. By the time he realised that the surrounding earth was no longer made of steel or sand but fertile black soil, Long Chen knew that he had already reached the Greenwood Region. At this time, the Mysterious Golden Soul was already useless to him and did not give him any additional speed.

His name was well-known in the liujin region, but not many people here knew him. The territory of the Greenwood Region was enormous, and there were probably only about two thousand of them. Amongst the two thousand people, there were probably three to four hundred other people from the great clans and the rest were ordinary warriors. Long Chen was now at the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, and could be considered the weakest of the ordinary warriors.

Fortunately, with the inheritance of the Monolith of the War God and the Sevenstar Monarch, Long Chen had the ability to quickly become strong. After arriving at the lush and verdant Greenwood Region, Long Chen began his journey in searching for spiritual medicine. In general, liujin region was previously made of ice and steel, but this Greenwood Region was overgrown with trees, and the fragrance of birds singing and flowers fragrance, was precisely where Long Chen liked to go.

"I reckon that when Feng Zhiling thought about how I would leave the Greenwood Region, it would take a few days. By that time, I would already be deep inside the Greenwood Region. This Archaic Graveyard has five domains, he doesn't know that my Martial Spirit is injured, how would he know which domain I would enter? In this Greenwood Region, there should be a gathering place like the Iron City. If that's the case, I will look around and see if there is anyone who has the ability to concoct spirit medicine, and then, be willing to exchange it with me. "

Thus, Long Chen went deeper into the Greenwood Region.

In total, it had been more than two months since they came to the Archaic Graveyard. Basically, everyone had dispersed to every corner of the Archaic Graveyard to search for treasures.

However, because Long Chen had Spirit Devouring Demon Pupils, he could easily avoid them when he was far away from him. In the dense forest of Greenwood Region, there were a lot of beasts, including many of the king level 6 or 7 beasts, or even some of the king level 8 beasts!

If an ordinary warrior did not have a Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil and they approached it easily, the result would definitely be death. Because Long Chen had the Spirit Devouring Demon Pupils, he could walk safely.

As long as it was something that had a soul, it couldn't escape from Long Chen's sight.

This kind of demonic beast was not enough to pose a threat to Long Chen, that was why Long Chen dared to approach it. When he got closer, he was shocked to discover that this demonic beast was actually an ancient tree that was erected on the ground.

"I didn't expect that this plant could actually turn into a demon and become a member of a demon beast." In some remote location, he found the eyes, ears, etc of demon beasts. These demon beasts were slightly different from humans or other demon beasts, but in their bodies, there were basically things that other demon beasts had, too.

"It seems that these Monstrous Beasts are purely covered by the outer layer of plants. Their inner layer is almost the same as other Monstrous Beasts."

Long Chen stayed here for a while and saw that the ancient tree had suddenly turned into a human form. After transforming into a human form, it became extremely ugly, its body still had the characteristics of a few trees, and even its hair was made up of a lot of green leaves.

"The boundless universe is filled with all sorts of wonders."

Long Chen lamented.

With regards to the Goblin Beasts, you probably thought that they were just some kind of powerful wild beast. But what you didn't know was that in the Three Great Imperial Domains, the Desolate Imperial Domain was completely controlled by the Goblin Beasts, but they didn't call themselves Goblin Beasts, but called themselves Goblin Tribe! In theory, amongst all the Three Great Imperial Domains, the one with the strongest power is actually the Desolate Imperial Domain. After all, the other two Imperial Domains are controlled by humans, and the Desolate Imperial Domain only have Goblin Beasts. Although the other two Imperial Domains are not in sync, the fact that they are able to support the heavens and the earth shows just how extraordinary they are. "

"Desolate Imperial Domain?" Long Chen was a little stunned. He had never heard of this before, when beasts reached King Stage, they could even take human form. In the Desolate Imperial Domain, most of the demon beasts could take human form. The stronger they were, the more they would look like normal humans.

"Just like this ancient tree, in the Desolate Imperial Domain, there is a very powerful demonic beast called the Ancient Tree of Life Clan. They have a certain level of immortality and can be revived even if they were chopped into several sections. Rumor has it that the Ancient Tree of Life possesses the bloodline of one of the Ten Great Ancestor Dragon's' Dragon of Life and Creation'."

From Cat's mouth, he spoke one thing after another about the Three Great Imperial Domains.

Long Chen began to yearn for the Three Great Imperial Domains. He could hear that, indeed, this was the greatest stage of the Dragon Sacrifice Continent, where the demon race competed for hegemony, where the millions of races competed and gathered, where the true strong gathered!

Chapter 744 - Demonic Beast Dream Demon

Greenwood Region.

Long Chen went deeper into the cave for a few days and saw many demon beasts. Most of the demon beasts here were plant-type beasts, and every single one of them were very strange. Only the wolf cub was extremely pure in this regard. Even though he was also a king level demon beast at the moment, after transforming into a human form, he had completely transformed into a human form without leaving any trace of a demon beast behind.

In the process of going deeper, Long Chen had seen many battles, only leaving behind traces. He was already dead, and after one or two months, even his corpse was taken away by the beasts, leaving behind a mess.

From this, it could be seen how tragic the battle in Archaic Graveyard was.

No wonder there were only a few hundred people able to leave every time over ten thousand people came in.

After walking around for a few days, Long Chen found a lot of spiritual medicines, only one of them had the ability to nurture a divine soul, but it was a pity that this medicine was only at the king level primary level, and was not enough to help Long Chen recover his martial spirit. Helpless, Long Chen could only continue forward, he reckoned that only by finding a king level middle grade spirit medicine, would he be able to recover his martial spirit.

In the process of going further, Long Chen finally found a city with people. Right now, what appeared in front of Long Chen was an abnormally tall tree, the size and thickness of the tree exceeded Long Chen's imagination, at least the tree trunk that appeared in front of Long Chen right now was like an endless wall!

"The city of the Greenwood Region is actually built on top of such a huge tree?" Long Chen raised his head in shock. The crown of the huge ancient tree in front of him now was equivalent to the entire sky above him. This was the first time Long Chen had ever seen such a huge tree!

Vaguely, Long Chen could see the shadow of a city on top of this enormous tree.

In the liujin region, the city existed as a Iron City. The city was made of steel, and in the Greenwood Region, it was even more mystical. The city was built atop a giant tree.

"I really don't know who lived in this Archaic Graveyard in the past. Be it the Iron City or the city on top of this giant tree, both of them are very interesting."

Long Chen thought as he headed towards the city in the sky above him. There should be places with people in them, and if there was people, then the chances of obtaining this kind of spirit medicine would be higher.

Furthermore, Long Chen did not know what was going on in the Greenwood Region, which of the nine great clans occupied the Greenwood Region? All of these were things that Long Chen needed to know. When he recovered his fifth stage of cultivation in the Earth Martial Stage, he immediately found a concealed place to start comprehending the Monolith of the War God and the inheritance of the Sevenstar Monarch.

Long Chen moved extremely quickly, and in a few breaths' time, he had already rushed onto the city on top of the giant tree. After passing through the city walls, Long Chen then ran into the city, and only then could he see that there were still criss-crossing tree branches in the vicinity of the city. The city seemed very desolate, with only a few stone houses and a majority of the houses that were directly made of trees, looking at the city's outline, it was already beautiful for a long time, but now it was in a dilapidated state. It was already in ruins.

Long Chen activated his Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil and started searching for human shadows in the city. Seems like the city on the giant tree was not occupied by any of the nine great clans, this way, the number of ordinary warriors who came back to protect the city would decrease, but Long Chen guessed that there were still people here.

Long Chen used his Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil to walk around the forest, and indeed, he very quickly found a person. However, what surprised him was that this person's aura was extremely weak, obviously, he was already at the brink of death, and when he first went to the planet where he inherited the Sevenstar Monarch's legacy, Long Chen had also met a person who was on the verge of death. He did not expect to come here, and he met another person.

"Was it because of the battle and the slaughter that I died?" Long Chen was a little speechless. This Archaic Graveyard, in truth, was like a meat grinder, with tens of thousands of people coming in, only a few hundred could leave the place. The majority of them died in the attacks of demon beasts and in the fight for treasures, there were even some who died because they could not turn the ancient tombstone token into gold.

Without saying a word, Long Chen immediately headed towards that direction. Very quickly, he approached the people the Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil were looking at, but before that, Long Chen had already seen a lot of corpses on the ground. These people should have been killed by each other, and there were many corpses on the ground.

It seemed that before this, an extremely intense battle had occurred here.

However, Long Chen felt that something was strange. He realised that every single one of their faces looked extremely strange, as if they had all experienced something that caused them to be extremely terrified before they died.

To die in fear, could it be that they encountered something?

Long Chen carefully examined them and discovered that they did not seem to have died for very long. Without saying a word, he immediately headed towards the only person still alive, and in a wooden house that was about to collapse, Long Chen found this person. This person was a skinny and small middle-aged man whose body was already covered with scars and was on the verge of death.

Long Chen was a little curious, what exactly happened here? Seeing that the middle aged man was still alive, and not completely dead, Long Chen stood beside him and asked: "What happened here?"

The middle-aged man looked at Long Chen for a long while before wiggling his tongue and speaking with difficulty, "There is a terrifying cat that can cause people to hallucinate ... Then, we'll kill each other."

"Cat?" Long Chen was stunned.

In the Great Void Realm, Cat laughed when she heard this: "A cat that knows illusion? I never thought that there would be such an interesting demon beast in Archaic Graveyard. It can just be used for a period of time in my body, boy, quickly go and capture this Nightmare! "

Listening to what the kitten said, it seemed like the cause of the tragedy was a monster, a cat that knew illusion?

"Little brother, you should leave first. If you are hit by that cat's illusion, you'll see something you're afraid of that will make you go crazy ..."

That middle-aged man finally reminded him with good intentions.

He was already severely injured, and even Long Chen was unable to save him. After saying that, he who was on the verge of death, died.

Long Chen pushed himself out of the wooden house and did not say anymore. He activated his Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil and started to follow the city on the huge tree.

"The fat cat seems to be saying that it can take over Nightmare's body? Now that the fat cat has helped me out a lot, if that's the case, I will help him out. "

Furthermore, Long Chen was more or less clear that if the fat cat took control of Nightmare's body, it would be able to help Long Chen a lot. Judging from the tragic state of the city on the huge tree, the Demon Beast called 'Nightmare' ought to not be a simple person.

"fat cat, that 'Dream Demon', what kind of demon beast is that?" During the journey, Long Chen asked.

The kitten laughed, and said: "Its level is not high, but it has a very magical ability, and that is to be able to use illusions, to let people immerse themselves in them, the level of this' Nightmare 'is only Ninth Grade Heaven Stage, and is not yet king level monsters, if a strong person approaches, he can kill it with a light blow, but it has to be said that its illusions are truly powerful, as you will all know, many fourth stage and fifth stage warriors have died in its hands."

Usually, Cat would be more ambitious than the sky, but now, it was actually praising a Spirit Demon beast with Ninth Grade Heaven Stage. Clearly, this Nightmare should be a very special one, although not as heaven defying as the Sun Devouring Demonic Wolf, at least it was still worth it. Moreover, Cat seemed to be very excited. This guy had always been secretive, and was very rare to be excited today, so Long Chen tried his best to look for the Demon Beast called 'Nightmare', to see whether or not it was in the Giant Wood City.

Because it was atop of a huge tree, the city's range was limited. As long as the Nightmare wasn't moving too quickly, Long Chen would be able to find it.

"Cat, are you saying that you can take over Nightmare's body and then use its abilities?" Long Chen asked while they were searching.

"Of course. With this god's power, you still can't do such a small thing? Not only can it be occupied, but this god can also amplify its power! When the time comes, when you are fighting with someone else, I will sneak attack him. It will be much more useful to you than a small black dog! " The fat cat said proudly with its big belly.

"There are no restrictions? "For example, if someone killed Nightmare, would you die because of it?" Long Chen tried to test the waters.

"Do you think this god is a cabbage? So easy to die! Honestly speaking, my soul is sealed within the Great Void Realm, so even if I occupy the other bodies, I will still not be able to get more than a hundred meters away from the Great Void Realm. "

Long Chen was startled. So that was the case, no wonder this kitten always bragged about him, but stayed in the Great Void Realm.

"This god has taken over the body of 'Nightmare', but it's just for fun. When this god gets tired of it, I can throw it away at any time. When this god comes back to life, I'll take over another body!" The fat cat said proudly.

Chapter 745 - Nightmares

"Why didn't you tell me before that you had that ability?" Long Chen asked.

In reality, this ability should be very heaven-defying. If he were to encounter any terrifying demon beast in the future, wouldn't it be possible for the kitten to directly occupy its body?

"It's because this 'Nightmare' has some strange abilities and looks like a cat, that's why I'm paying attention to it. If it were any other demonic beast, they would be uglier than the last. That's why I'm not interested in taking over their bodies!"

Long Chen understood and said, "I guess it's because 'Dream Demon' has Ninth Grade Heaven Stage, and you can only succeed in killing it. If it was any other demon beast, you would not dare to touch them."

The fat cat's mind was stabbed by Long Chen, and immediately became embarrassed: "You brat, what do you know, before I was sealed, you couldn't even imagine the power I had. Over the years, I worked hard to gather a lot of power, but all of it was used to recover your White Yang Town, and now you're still talking sarcastically, you're really pissing me off!"

Seeing the crazy look of the fat cat, Long Chen couldn't care less about it. He was still searching around the giant wooden city when its Spirit Devouring Demon Pupil suddenly found what he was looking for.

"The aura of this soul must be that of the 'Dream Demon'. I never thought that it still hasn't left this place. Cat, I'll have to rely on you later. If this Nightmare were to use illusions on me, I won't be able to withstand it!"

"Don't worry, hurry up and bring it over. Leave everything to me." The fat cat came out from the Great Void Realm excitedly and said anxiously.

Within a mile's distance, Long Chen arrived quickly.

The first thing he saw was an old man holding a blade in hand. This old man had a head full of white hair, his expression was extremely sinister and terrifying, his eyes were filled with veins of blood, at the moment, he was brandishing his wild blade, incessantly chopping at the many wooden houses in front of him. The wooden houses, under his crazy slashes, had all collapsed, and many of the sturdy tree branches had directly exploded from his hacking!

"Hu Dao1, die, die!" "You actually killed my wife and children, go and die!" The old man continued to roar out as the blade in his hand began to glow with a fierce light, causing the surroundings to turn into a mess.

Only then did Long Chen understand how those people had died. That 'Dream Demon' had only Ninth Grade Heaven Stage, and didn't have the ability to kill them directly. All it did was disturb the minds of others, making them completely lose themselves in hatred.

Not just hatred, but desires. As for the old man in front of him, he was probably lost in his hatred.

Long Chen's gaze swept past this old man and landed in a dark corner behind the old man. In a wooden house, a wooden door had already fallen down, and hung crookedly on the wall by the side, leaving behind many shadows. In the shadows, Long Chen saw a black shadow, this black shadow was only the size of a palm.

"My little darling, it's over there!" The kitten let out an excited cry.

Separated by another thirty metres, Nightmare didn't hear the kitten's vulgar words for a while. Long Chen only stared in that direction, and after a while, seeing that the old man's primeval essence was almost exhausted, the shadow in the dark finally moved, and a small ball of meat came out.

Long Chen looked carefully, and saw that it was a little black cat, it was a little fat and furry, only about the size of a palm. It was currently sitting on the ground, with a pair of big black eyes, looking at the old man with a curious expression.

Long Chen did not know that this cute demon beast was actually a murderer who killed people without batting an eye. It looked at the old man with a curious gaze, as if it was afraid of him.

"Nightmare, since you are called a demon, there must be something abnormal about it ..."

Seeing that the old man was about to take out his blade and wipe his own neck, Long Chen quickly urged the kitten: "Hurry up and make your move, don't wait for others to kill themselves before making a move."

Cat chuckled, "Trash, don't you know that heroes only appear at the last moment. I'll wait for him to touch his neck with his sword!"

"Get the hell over there!" Long Chen shouted in anger.

Hearing that there was a sound coming from this side, he suddenly turned his vigilant eyes towards Long Chen, and in that moment, Long Chen thought that he could see that the tiny eyes of the Nightmare had actually turned into a gigantic black vortex, and the black vortex had unexpectedly swallowed him whole!

"This is an illusion! This little guy is using an illusion technique on me!" Long Chen was dumbstruck for a moment, and then immediately realized. He immediately guarded his mind, preventing himself from being affected by the Nightmare. After all, he had seen the power of the Incubine Demon before, a warrior of the fifth stage of Earth Martial Stage. He would not be able to resist the Incubine Demon, let alone Long Chen.

"Brother Chen!" Right at this moment, Long Chen suddenly heard this voice. At the start, he thought it was just an illusion. Because this voice, was undoubtedly emitted by Ling Xi. This kind of voice had already been hidden in the depths of Long Chen's heart for a long time, and now that he suddenly heard this voice, Long Chen's longing exploded like a mountain torrent.

Long Chen suddenly realised that he did not seem to be affected by the Night Demon's hallucination technique. He was still in the Giant Wood City and everything around him was the same.

Long Chen suddenly turned his head around as if he had been struck by lightning. He saw a young lady wearing a white dress standing amidst the dense immortal energy, looking at him excitedly, his eyes already filled to the brim with sparkling and translucent tears.

This was the person Long Chen had been thinking about day and night, it was his woman, Ling Xi!

"Brother Chen!" If even this voice was so familiar, then her every expression and every action, was exactly the same as what Long Chen remembered! Long Chen would never forget these details. He knew that no matter how powerful Nightmare was, it would be impossible for him to bring Ling Xi out so completely, and that Nightmare had already escaped. Long Chen had a true feeling, he could feel the temperature, the light, and the toughness of the giant tree beneath his feet. Because of Nightmare's escape, the old man beside him had already recovered.

The woman in front of him looked at Long Chen with tearful eyes, and was unexpectedly speechless.

Long Chen wanted to shout her name, but when the voice reached his throat, he could no longer utter it. He realized that his throat seemed to be stuck at the throat, unable to produce any sounds, as if his thoughts were pouring out from nowhere. This feeling was extremely uncomfortable.

He even wanted to stand up and hug this woman, but he found that there was nothing he could do.

While Long Chen was in pain, the Ling Xi in front of him was slowly walking towards him. When the delicate fragrance from her body assaulted his nostrils, Long Chen realized that this beautiful figure was already standing in front of him.

Long Chen lifted his head and looked at Ling Xi crying. Her tears made Long Chen's heart ache, and he blankly reached out his hand, wanting to grab onto Ling Xi's white and slender fingers.

Right at this moment, Ling Xi wiped away her tears. She took out Ling Xi's sword from somewhere, and at this moment, a three hundred and sixty degrees change happened to her face. Her face, which was crying originally, had now turned completely hideous and ferocious.

"Long Chen, you are thinking too much! What qualifications do you have to be together with me? To be honest, I have never loved you, and everything that happened in Realm of Myriad Kingdoms was just to coax you to find the Nine Celestial Spirit Fruit for me. I never expected you to really believe me now! Now go and die for me! My sole purpose for coming to Archaic Graveyard was to kill you so that you wouldn't come to Imperial Domain and disturb my life! "

Her voice was like a sharp knife, repeatedly stabbing Long Chen's body and heart, causing Long Chen's body to be covered with wounds.

Long Chen suddenly felt weak all over his body. He even found it difficult to breathe, and this feeling of suffocation surrounded him.

"Go to hell!" Ling Xi laughed sinisterly, the Ling Xi sword in her hand, quickly thrust towards Long Chen's throat. Her sword was extremely sharp, and she had no intention of turning around to stop.

"Xiao Xi wants to kill me? She said that I went to the Imperial Domain to disrupt her life? He looks down on me? " Long Chen's eyes were filled with disbelief, it was just too far away from his imagination. He thought that Ling Xi would be at the Imperial Domain's side, crying and missing him everyday, but how could it be like this?

Long Chen's heart hurt greatly. He panted intensely, but no sound came out of his throat, and he could only look blankly at Ling Xi's sword, and thrusts towards him without any hesitation. Looking at her contemptuous expression, Ling Xi was completely unfamiliar to him!

Long Chen was at a loss. He did not know whether or not he should hide, but his whole life's goal seemed to be for this woman. Right now, this woman did not need him anymore.

I might as well die!]

Long Chen thought in sorrow, he bit his lips hard, and even spat out blood. Ling Xi's sword pierced towards him, but he did not dodge.

Long Chen was very familiar with this Ling Xi sword. Back then, Ling Xi was hiding in the middle of Ling Xi's sword, and it was Long Chen who saved her from Ling Xi's sword. Then, she used the Nine Celestial Spirit Fruits to give her flesh. Because of this, Long Chen instantly recalled every single detail when he was together with Ling Xi.

From the moment they met each other, they shared life and death together, to when they were chased by the Canyang Kingdom Royal Family and did not abandon each other, to when they were separated at the end, every single detail was firmly engraved in Long Chen's mind. The Ling Xi in his heart, was kind, cute, and pure.

"NO!" You're not Xiao Xi! " When Ling Xi's sword was about to stab into Long Chen's neck, Long Chen suddenly roared out, his expression suddenly changed, and he punched Ling Xi's body!

BOOM!

When Long Chen's fist landed on Ling Xi's lower abdomen, he saw Ling Xi's painful expression. Whether it was the feeling of his fist or Ling Xi's painful expression, everything was so real that Long Chen even regretted it a little. He was a man, he could not hit his own woman no matter what!

However, the moment he struck Ling Xi, he suddenly realized that his entire surroundings had shattered. Ling Xi quickly turned into white specks of light and gradually disappeared from his sight, while Long Chen was dumbstruck to discover that his finger was currently grasped around his neck. He was using so much strength, he almost suffocated from pinching himself!

"How can this be!" Ling Xi had long since disappeared without a trace, and the only thing that was by his side was Cat's fat appearance, which seemed to be just an afterimage. At this moment, Cat was mockingly looking at him and scolded, "Truly a trash, for a woman, you actually wanted to strangle yourself to death. Luckily, you woke up in the end, otherwise this god would not have gone to save you, you piece of trash!"

"What's going on?" Long Chen still did not react.

"This god is too lazy to tell you. This god has gone to take back my little nightmare!" The kitten said, and that illusionary body suddenly appeared before Long Chen's eyes. Long Chen followed the direction it disappeared in and looked in, only to see a black furry kitten suddenly hiding itself in the shadows in front of him.

"Nightmare!"

Long Chen remembered that the Nightmare had already escaped, why was he still here? After thinking everything through, he broke out in a cold sweat. He already knew that he had been hit by Nightmare's illusion.

What happened just now was actually so real, and even Little Xi's appearance was exactly the same as real. At this rate, if I don't wake up at the end and have Cat by my side, I might really be killed by this guy!

Thinking of this, Long Chen felt a burst of fear.

However, he was actually grateful to Nightmare, because it had given Long Chen a chance to experience Ling Xi's appearance once again. Everything that happened was so real that Long Chen wished he could immerse himself in the world.

After a long while, Long Chen finally let out a sigh and helplessly thought: "My heart is still not firm enough. This Nightmare must have used other's memories to create this kind of dream, it knows that Ling Xi is the weakest piece in my heart, that's why I fell for it, and even strangled myself in the end."

In the end, he was still able to escape this calamity.

Long Chen was deeply aware of the terror of this Nightmare. No wonder even Little Cat thought so highly of this little demon beast. It turned out that although this Nightmare's level was low, it was actually so mystical.

Only now did Long Chen understand why there were so many people who died under the illusions of Nightmare in this huge wooden city. Long Chen's's restrictions were much more severe than the illusions of Nightmare's.

Long Chen's gaze followed the direction of the Nightmare's previous location. When the mysterious kitten made its move, no matter how strong it was, the Nightmare would have to stop, and at this moment, in the shadows of the corner, the small Nightmare was already lying on the ground. A dense white mist surrounded it, and Long Chen could tell that the little guy had already fainted.

Speaking of which, the kitten was indeed scary.

At this time, after Nightmare was controlled by the kitten, the old man who was previously lost recovered. There were already many wounds on his body, but fortunately, they were not fatal, and when he regained his senses, he looked around in a daze and muttered, "Where is Hu Dao?" What about Hu Dao? I almost killed him. Where did he go? "

Suddenly, he saw Long Chen. At the beginning, he was frowning, but after discovering that Long Chen's appearance wasn't that of his enemy, the malevolent aura on his face lessened slightly, and he asked Long Chen: "Little friend, did you see a tall man? "Bald head, one eye!"

shook his head speechlessly, and said: "Did you know that a terrifying demon beast appeared here? It was able to use illusions and create an environment where people could kill others, commit suicide or be killed by others in the midst of hatred and desire?"

It seemed like he had long known about the Nightmare's matter, and had also seen the miserable state it had been in. Now that he thought about it, he more or less understood it, but the previous situation was truly nostalgic, which was why he was unable to clear his head in time.

Killing an enemy was the greatest pleasure. This was the dream of this old man.

"Sigh, it's already been over twenty years. Hu Dao has already been dead for over twenty years, and I'm also old. I'm still confused by this kind of thing. I'm truly old." Young man, did you chase away that terrifying Demonic Beast? " The old man helplessly shook his head, sighed in relief, and then looked at Long Chen.

Long Chen replied: "I don't know either, after I came here, the demonic beast that looked like a black kitten ran away."

No matter what, I have to thank you. The people here have probably all died, I never thought that my old man's luck was good, I actually survived, I have been alone for a long time, when I saw this place filled with dead people, I wanted to turn the ancient tombstone token into gold, but the ancient tombstone token turned gold, even my life is almost gone.

Only then did Long Chen remember that his ancient tombstone token had not turned golden yet.

That old man took out a few Qiankun bags from his chest, and walked towards Long Chen: "Young man, although you said that this Archaic Graveyard is only fighting, and does not have any feelings, but you saved me today, and I obtained these from other people's corpses. I don't even have time to look at the things inside, I think that there are many good things for you, and have given them all to you."

Long Chen immediately rejected it, and said: "These things were obtained by you, I cannot take them. Furthermore, I did not help in any way, and that demonic beast fled on its own, it is none of my business."

Honestly speaking, these people's Cosmos Sacks probably did not contain what Long Chen needed. This old man had always been alone, so the chances of him dying here was very high. His strength was only at the fifth stage of the Earth Martial Stage.

"Young man, don't be so courteous with me, you are only at the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, right? Without any resources, you will never be able to progress, and you are also just a single person, in Archaic Graveyard, for an inexperienced young man like you to be able to live to this day is already considered a miracle."

Long Chen suddenly thought of something, and said: "How about this, I don't need anything else, but I need a king level pill that can nourish the soul, can I look for it in these Cosmos Sacks?"

"I see." Seeing that Long Chen had rejected him, the old man did not force him, but he was very generous, he took out all the Heaven and Earth Pouch and placed it in front of Long Chen, and Long Chen counted, there were a total of dozens of Heaven and Earth Pouch.

He did not bother to be polite with the other party, and started to look through all of them one by one. There were a total of more than a dozen Cosmic Bags, and after a while, a satisfied smile appeared on Long Chen's face, because he had already found a king level medium grade spirit medicine.

This spiritual herb was called the Seven-colored Ganoderma.

Currently, what appeared in Long Chen's hands, was a lingzhi root that was radiating seven colors of light. This Rainbow Lingzhi was emitting a rich medicinal fragrance, and with just a whiff, Long Chen felt completely refreshed.

"This Seven-colored Ganoderma should be able to help my Martial Spirit recover quite a bit. I'm not sure how much." Long Chen was already very satisfied with this result.

Keeping the Rainbow Ganoderma in the middle of Great Void Realm, Long Chen stood up.

"Young man, did you only take one Rainbow Ganoderma? You don't even need these king crystal, spirit medicine, divine weapons, or secret manuals? " The old man emphasized, these Qiankun bags had a lot of good stuff, some things the old man would be excited to see, but Long Chen did not have any expression on his face. Was this young man's self-control really so strong?

"No need, I want this seven-colored lingzhi mushroom. I'll give you the other things." Long Chen said as he nodded his head. His eyes were filled with determination.

"Alright then!" At this time, he suddenly thought of something and immediately fished out about seven ancient tombstone tokens, handing them over to Long Chen: "These are seven of them. I'm guessing that your ancient tombstone token has yet to fuse into a gold color, these things can be given to you. In this Archaic Graveyard, the most difficult step is to fuse ancient tombstone token into gold. This time, I got lucky, and not only did I fuse the ancient tombstone token into gold, I even obtained a lot of things. Of the people who came to the Archaic Graveyard, how many would actually have the luck to do so? "

The old man sighed.

"Have you been staying in the Greenwood Region all this time? I want to know, where is the biggest city in Greenwood Region? " Long Chen suddenly thought of this and asked.

Chapter 747 - Greenwood Sky City

The old man saw that Long Chen actually turned a blind eye to the ancient tombstone token in his hands and was actually concerned about some Greenwood Region thing. He was a little speechless and reminded Long Chen: "Young man, this ancient tombstone token."

Only then did Long Chen remember about the ancient tombstone token. Seeing that the old man was insisting, he immediately put away the ancient tombstone token and took out his own. Half of his ancient tombstone token had already turned golden.

So half of your body has already turned golden. With your strength, being able to reach this level is already pretty good. How did you get your ancient tombstone token? The old man asked in surprise.

Long Chen was too lazy to explain too much, and directly said: "It was indeed I who picked it up. Otherwise, with my own strength, how would I have been able to obtain so many ancient tombstone tokens. Today, I have to thank you for your ancient tombstone token. With them, my ancient tombstone token should be able to turn golden. "

During the course of their conversation, Long Chen fused one ancient tombstone token after another with his own. That gray colored ancient tombstone token was quickly engulfed by Long Chen's golden ancient tombstone token and after that, with every fusion of one ancient tombstone token, the golden color of Long Chen's ancient tombstone token became denser.

When Long Chen finished speaking, his ancient tombstone token had already turned golden.

The old man revealed a gratified smile, but turned serious and said: "You, ancient tombstone token, don't let others see that you have already become golden like this. Others can just fuse with one of your ancient tombstone tokens, and they will immediately become gold, so this is a huge temptation, your own strength is not strong enough, if others were to take notice of you, there will be no good results."

Towards the old man's advice, Long Chen pretended to nod his head, but in reality, he just smiled and said nothing. Coming to the Archaic Graveyard, many people would struggle for the ancient tombstone token to turn gold, but Long Chen was different. To him, this was a very simple task, after all, when he first came to the Archaic Graveyard, his strength was only at the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage. If he were to casually kill a few warriors stronger than him, he would be able to fuse the ancient tombstone token into gold.

"Senior, may I ask where the largest city in the Greenwood Region is? Amongst the nine great clans, which clan occupies the largest city?"

The old man thought for a while, then said, "I know that the largest city in the Greenwood Region is the Cyanwood Heaven City, which is located in the center of the entire Greenwood Region. Currently, the entire Greenwood Region is under the complete control of the two races in the thunder demon lineage."

"So the Thunder Clan only occupied the Greenwood Region?" Long Chen was a little suspicious. There were a total of three forces in the Realm of Myriad Kingdoms: the Five Elements Alliance, the thunder demon lineage and the Wind God's lineage. It could be seen that he had a strong desire to fight, and this thunder demon lineage kept a low profile and hid inside the Greenwood Region, planning his next move.

"Who is in control of the Five Realms?" Long Chen continued to ask.

"Five domains?" When I think about it, I know that the thunder demon lineage is completely in the middle of the Greenwood Region. It's as if the wind race went there, and the god race occupied the Profound Fire Region, while the people of the Five Elements Alliance directly occupied two great regions, the Sky Water Region and the Deep Earth Region. As for liujin region, there will be wind race s and Jinshi s fighting for it. "

Listening to the old man's words, the structure of the various branches of power in the Five Great Regions, was extremely clear in Long Chen's eyes. From the old man's mouth, Long Chen knew enough things, and after that, he continued to chat with him for a while. The old man then said: "Young man, I wonder what your plans are now, do you want to advance or retreat with this old man?"

Long Chen immediately laughed: "Junior is used to living alone, life and death are both part of fate and wealth are within the heavens. I have never been afraid of death when I come to Archaic Graveyard, if senior has other things to do, feel free to go, junior will not send you off."

Therefore, he nodded his head and said: "Since it's like this, then this old man will leave first. But young man, this Giant Wood City is very dangerous, forget about those terrifying demon beasts, even if others were to come, they would probably guess that you have taken away those people's belongings. I think you should leave quickly."

"Junior will leave now." This old man is too long-winded, but, seeing that he was thinking of me, Long Chen replied him.

With that, the old man said no more and left the area.

After he left, Long Chen went over to the kitten's side. Right now, the Nightmare was lying on its back on the ground, its black and fluffy stomach was slightly moving, and it was obvious that it was still breathing. At this moment, the little guy's eyes were tightly shut, and the corners of its eyes were twitching a few times.

It was impossible for the kitten to lose. Long Chen waited for a while, then the fluffy little fellow got up from the ground with a whoosh, its large eyes opened, and looked at Long Chen with a foolish, crystal-like gaze. It took a while for its eyes to have the word 'god' in them, and only then did the little kitten completely control the Nightmare's body.

"Motherf * cker, this little thing really knows how to mess around. The power this god has gathered for so long has been completely tossed around by it!" After pausing for a moment, it looked at its own body in satisfaction, and even raised its soft, furry, and tender paws to look at it a few times, then said: "Although this looks a little ugly, not even one in ten thousand of this god, but it still works. Furthermore, it doesn't have to go back to Great Void Realm often."

After it finished speaking, it jumped onto Long Chen's shoulder and stared at Long Chen with its big black eyes and said: "Kid, what are you looking at, don't hit me with anything. My body is male, don't give me any chances, you're this god's mount now, let's go!"

"So noisy!" Long Chen extended a finger and flicked the kitten's forehead. The kitten felt the pain and immediately looked at Long Chen in anger.

It had to be said that Long Chen was very pleased to see that Little Cat could also have her own body.

"You have control of Nightmare's body. Are you able to use the illusion techniques of Nightmare?"

On the way, Long Chen jumped down from the enormous wooden city and spoke to the black kitten on his shoulder.

"Of course, this god knows how to do things, which is a small matter for this god. In the future, if you can't deal with an enemy, this god will make a move and use an illusion to help you settle it!" Cat puffed up his chest and said confidently.

"Is there no limit to how much you can cast an illusion?" Long Chen did not believe that such a great thing would happen. He had experienced the illusions of Nightmare before, but he knew that they could pose a great threat to the current him.

"My power is limited, almost the same as Nightmare from before. For opponents like you, I can hallucinate countless times in a day, but the higher the level, the lower the number of times I can hypnotize. Currently, I can face the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Stage, and make it ..."

Long Chen knew that it would be like this. If Cat could even deal with Heaven Martial Stage, he wouldn't have to cultivate. Even Nightmare couldn't be that strong.

"But you don't have to worry, I think I'll be able to use this little nightmare for a long time. As I recover my strength, the illusions I can cast will become more powerful, and after a short period of time, I'll be able to completely surpass you." The kitten said proudly.

had a rough estimate of his fighting strength from Little Cat's words. In general, it was pretty good, but it had a strong supporting effect on battles.

The fact that the kitten could abandon its so-called identity as a Reincarnation Godly Beast and fight alongside Long Chen was an enormous acknowledgement of the status of the Long Chen brothers.

"When the wolf cub returns, the three of us will fight side by side. Let's see who will be a match for the three of us, this Archaic Graveyard, and that Three Great Imperial Domains, haha!" Thinking of this, Long Chen's eyes flashed with a cold light.

He already had the Seven-colored Ganoderma, so when he fully recovered his strength, he could use the Monolith of the War God to reach a higher realm. He could even inherit the Sevenstar Monarch's legacy, which was the day of the God Clan's Young Master's sacrifice!

There were some people that Long Chen only needed to defeat, but there were some people that Long Chen had to kill in order to resolve his hatred, just like the God Clan's Young Master. If Long Chen did not kill him, it would definitely be difficult to suppress the hatred in his heart!

Long Chen first found a relatively secluded place. In the midst of the countless trees, he made a cave that was rather deceptive, and Long Chen immediately took out the Rainbow Ganoderma. The Rainbow Ganoderma was a king level middle grade spirit medicine.

The Lingzhi in his hand emitted a soft light, filling the cave with a beautiful rainbow radiance.

"Your looks are pretty good." Long Chen laughed gently, he was just about to refine the pill, but right at this moment, he thought of Ling Xi. Back then, Ling Xi had refined a medicine that nourished the soul so that she could live on, and then become a part of Long Chen's assistance.

In the Giant Wood City, Long Chen had been struck by an illusion. In the midst of the illusion, he seemed to have seen the real Ling Xi, causing him to become quiet.

"Ling Xi would never do that. She would only wait for me obediently in the Imperial Domain." Long Chen was certain of this, but when he thought of such a good girl waiting for him, Long Chen clenched his fists tightly. He knew that he had to continue fighting and walk forward bravely, so that those who looked down on him would have a whole new level of respect for him.

Not only must he have a whole new level of respect for them, he must also be greatly astonished.

After that, it was time to refine the Rainbow Ganoderma. Under Long Chen's refinement, the Rainbow Ganoderma's spirit energy quickly turned into the medicinal power, nourishing Long Chen's Martial Spirit.

Chapter 748 - Icy Pond

Time passed bit by bit and Long Chen's Martial Spirit was also gradually recovering. When the energy of the Rainbow Ganoderma was completely used up, Long Chen discovered that his Martial Spirit had already been completely recovered.

His martial spirit had already recovered to the fifth stage of the Earth Martial Stage.

"In terms of primeval essence, I'm still at the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage. However, my martial spirit has been recovered, so my primeval essence is very simple. As long as I kill a few beasts, I can recover."

The current Long Chen, as long as he recovered the true essence of the fifth stage of the Earth Martial Stage, ordinary people at the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Stage would not be his match. Even now, he could fight against an ordinary person in the sixth stage of the Earth Martial Stage.

As a result, Long Chen left the cave and went looking for the beasts to hunt. In the Greenwood Region, the beasts were the most common, especially those that were below king level 6.

Casually, Long Chen found two king level six Divine Wind Demonic Leopards and used the Golden Emperor Heaven Shrouding Seal s to kill them and then used the Blood Refinement Qi to swallow their blood. These two Heavenly Wind Demonic Leopards could already turn into human forms, and their bodies were covered with cyan colored demonic tattoos, which made them move extremely fast. They had treated Long Chen, who was only at the third stage of the Earth Martial Stage, as their prey, but they had never thought that he would actually turn out to be Long Chen's prey.

After devouring their blood, Long Chen successfully reached the fifth stage of the Earth Martial Stage. His previous strength could be considered completely restored, which also meant that he could now use the Monolith of the War God's to advance to a deeper level. After restoring the fifth stage of the Earth Martial Stage, Long Chen began to think about where he should go next.

"Cat, should I find a place to focus on studying this Monolith of the War God?" Although this guy loved to boast, at the critical moment, he could still give Long Chen a lot of advice.

"There's something I forgot to tell you." On Long Chen's shoulder, the black kitten rolled its eyes and said.

"What is it?" Long Chen asked.

"You have obtained the inheritance of the Sevenstar Monarch, and one of the seven star body's is a middle level Emperor level body tempering technique, which is no small matter, at least in this Archaic Graveyard, no one would be able to obtain a body tempering technique of this level, and cultivating this body tempering technique is also not an easy task. The cultivation of the seven star body requires one to use the astral qi in the sky to fuse with one's own body, and if you do not believe me, you can take out that blue stone and carefully sense it."

When Long Chen heard this, he immediately took out the blue stone. Before this, he had always been concerned about the recovery of his divine spirit, and had even neglected the inheritance of the Seven Glorious Stars for a moment, as he was completely immersed in the blue colored heart stone, and he could vaguely see an illusory figure, standing at the highest peak of the mountain. The wild part of the star power that was activated in the sky, rushed into his body.

Those terrifying astral qi were all swallowed into her body.

This was merely a picture, but it brought an enormous shock to Long Chen. He was dazed for a moment, and then asked: "Are you saying that if I want to cultivate this seven star body, I need to run to a high place to be able to trigger the astral qi?"

"You're right." The kitten nodded, then said directly: "In this Greenwood Region, from the arrangement of this place, the highest point should be the biggest city under the control of the thunder demon lineage. You have many grudges with the Wind God's lineage and the Five Elements Alliance, but it has nothing to do with the thunder demon lineage, if you can get on good terms with them, in the future, when you kill the God Clan's Young Master, they will help you get rid of it, so, you must go to the Verdant Wood Heavenly City."

Long Chen thought about it, and felt that what Cat said made sense, since he was going to look for a place to improve himself anyway, he might as well go to the Verdant Wood Heavenly City. If he stayed in a concealed place all day to study the Monolith of the War God, and did not have a strong opponent to fight with, his strength would definitely increase quickly.

Sometimes, one's comprehension in battle would be much better than constantly meditating.

Since he had already made his decision, Long Chen began to cultivate as he headed towards the direction of the Cyanwood Heaven City. Long before the old man had left, he had already told Long Chen the direction of the Cyanwood Heaven City.

According to the legends, Greenwood Heaven City was also above a tall ancient tree. The height and thickness of the ancient tree was more than a hundred times that of the trees underneath the huge tree city that Long Chen had visited before.

Such a big city was completely occupied by the thunder demon lineage. The warriors who stayed in the Greenwood Region would probably choose the Green Wood Heavenly City as their base of operations, so it would definitely be very lively there. As long as Long Chen did not let anyone know about his inheritance from the Sevenstar Monarch, there shouldn't be any problems.

The only people who knew that he had obtained the Sevenstar Monarch's inheritance were the higher-ups of the wind race and God Tribes. If they wanted to steal Long Chen's inheritance, they naturally would not spread the news, otherwise, wouldn't the Sevenstar Monarch's inheritance have been obtained by others?

Long Chen believed that they would not be so stupid.

As a result, he was not worried about the dangers of going to the Cyanwood Heaven City. Of course, if he were to truly undergo the astral qi body tempering process, he would have to be careful since Long Chen did not have any other methods at his disposal right now.

If he was unable to use the astral qi to refine his body, Long Chen could have completely stayed in the Greenwood Sky City. Compared to the other four great regions, the Greenwood Sky City was the most suitable for him, and if he lived there, he would also be able to obtain a lot of information. Long Chen came to the Archaic Graveyard to pass through, so he didn't want to miss out on any useful information due to cultivating.

Thus, he began to hurry toward the direction of the Cyanwood Heaven City.

This Greenwood Region was even larger than the Holy Martial Empire. Previously, when Long Chen had traversed across the Holy Martial Empire, he had taken around twenty days, but now, his strength had increased by a lot. With the same distance, in just five days, he had almost arrived.

When they were still very far away, Long Chen stood on the tallest branch and could see the gigantic ancient tree in the sky from afar. The height of the ancient tree, had already passed through the sea of clouds, and when Long Chen flew to the top of the ocean of clouds, the crown of the ancient tree, looked like a piece of land suspended in the ocean of clouds. It was extremely huge, and Long Chen estimated roughly estimated that the size of the crown, was probably equal to half of the Canyang Kingdom!

The Greenwood Sky City was built on such a Canyang Kingdom!

Long Chen did not dare stay in this altitude because he discovered to his horror that there were a lot of bird demon beasts here. These bird demon beasts were almost all stronger than the Divine Phoenix Birds from the past! These Goblin Beasts were all King Level 6 or above. Long Chen did not want to fight them head on since he knew that these Goblin Beasts lived in groups. If they surrounded him, Long Chen would suffer a tragedy.

"There's actually such a tall tree in this world, how rare." Long Chen laughed bitterly and shook his head, landing on the ground, he had no choice but to admit that the ancient cypress tree was too big, Long Chen had never imagined that there would actually be such a huge tree in this world. Long Chen suspected that if he stood in front of the ancient tree, he would think that it was a giant wall that was directly across the sky and earth!

"You really have no future, look at these ancient trees, you are stunned. In the Three Great Imperial Domains, such a huge thing can be seen everywhere, especially in the Desolate Imperial Domain, where although those demon clan members are normally human beings, if they were to recover their original bodies, that kind of huge thing would scare you to death! "The size of this ancient tree can only be considered average." The kitten looked at Long Chen with its chubby face.

Desolate Imperial Domain, Demonic Beast!

The current Long Chen could only be speechless every time he heard Cat talk about Imperial Domain. He was still a long distance away from reaching the realm of an expert in the Imperial Domain. Long Chen knew that although he had become stronger and stronger, his rate of advancement was still astonishing, but this was definitely not the reason he was lazy. This was because he was still far, far away from his goal.

After they landed on the ground, they arrived at a rugged mountain region with many trees growing here and there. Other than the old trees of the Cyanwood Heaven City, the closer they got to the city, the larger and more vigorous the other trees became. There were even many trees that reached the standard where they could build cities.

"In this place, the Spiritual Qi of Heaven and Earth that belongs to 'Mu' is so dense. I wonder if there would be any treasure here that would let me cultivate one of the Five Emperor Prints, the Emperor Qing Qing Tian Ji?" Long Chen thought.

This Archaic Graveyard was simply Long Chen's treasure trove. After coming here, Long Chen had obtained many good things, and now was the time to digest these things.

Gazing on the mountain as he galloped, it seemed as if the Greenwood Sky City was very close, but it was actually still a long way away. Long Chen walked on this rugged mountain land, and often, there would be huge mountains in front of him.

The trees here were all very tall, so there was basically no light that could reach here. The surrounding light also became a little dark, and the only sound was the distant beast howls that came from afar.

Long Chen did not think too much into it, and continued to travel. In front of him came the sound of surging water, and the closer he got to the source of the water, the colder Long Chen felt.

"There should be a cold pond up ahead." As Long Chen guessed, when he got closer, he discovered that there was a jade green cold pond in front of him. This cold pond's water was extremely cold, and was much colder than ice water.

Behind the cold pond was a mountain wall.

If he surpassed the cold pond, Long Chen would be able to continue heading towards the direction of the Greenwood Sky City. Because there were a lot of beasts in the sky that could not hide his body, Long Chen did not choose to travel in the sky.

Just as Long Chen was about to leave, he suddenly felt that there was a movement inside the Wintry Spring Pond. He just noticed it, and immediately saw a snow-white spring light appear at the bottom of the Wintry Spring Pond.

Long Chen only took a glance, and immediately looked away. The other party was not Feng Zhiling, so he insisted on not taking it seriously. Judging from the short observation, this should be a little girl, there was nothing to see.

She was probably taking a bath inside the Wintry Spring. Long Chen felt that something was strange, the temperature of the Wintry Spring was so low. Why did this little girl come here?

This girl was around fourteen years old or so, and her body was already practically complete. Even though it was just a quick glance, Long Chen was able to see her entire appearance, and this little girl was extremely beautiful, even though she was still young, but she had already grown to the point of flowing like a lotus flower out of water. Her skin was extremely white and smooth, and jade green droplets of water flowed out from her skin, falling into the water, filled with beauty.

The little girl's petite twin peaks that were slightly developed did not escape Long Chen's eyes.

Therefore, when the little girl discovered Long Chen's figure, she was stunned for a moment, then suddenly let out a shriek that was already trembling. Long Chen knew that this time, he was probably going to get into trouble, and now that he had seen the little girl's innocent body, if she was unwilling to let him go, Long Chen really did not know how to deal with her.

Long Chen turned his head away.

Very quickly, the young lady rushed onto the shore. In the process, she had already quickly dressed, and Long Chen was no longer afraid. He directly looked at her, and at this moment, the young lady who was as tall as Long Chen's lower jaw was filled with indignation as she pointed at Long Chen with her trembling hands, tears welling up in her eyes.

"You, you ..."

If Long Chen did not give it his all, he reckoned that it would be very difficult for him to defeat her. The other party did not make the first move, but instead looked at Long Chen with such anxiousness, Long Chen roughly knew that this young lady was also a good girl.

Therefore, he quickly said, "I didn't have any intention of peeping when I passed by just now. After I noticed you, I immediately turned around. I didn't see anything. Please forgive me if I offend you in any way."

Long Chen's words were spoken in a very proper and courteous manner. When the little girl saw the sincerity in his eyes, he didn't feel like he was deceiving him at all. Only then did she heave a sigh of relief, patted his slightly protruding chest, and used a melodious voice to speak to Long Chen. "It's good that you didn't see me, you don't seem like a bad person.

Long Chen saw that the other party was not blaming himself, and heaved a sigh of relief. Seeing that he did not meet his expectations, the little kitten beside him curled its lips with a look of despire.

"Since that's the case, then I'll take my leave." Long Chen nodded his head. had already seen everything that he should have seen about this young lady's body, he had lied and was preparing to find an excuse to escape. That young lady had mysteriously said that he had something to do, so Long Chen could take this opportunity to leave.

Seeing that Long Chen walked away so quickly, the little girl was startled, and thought to himself: "Truly a strange fellow, I hope he did not see me. Father said, if anyone bullies me, he will cut them into ten thousand pieces."

After finishing, a flash of bitterness appeared on the little girl's face. Perhaps she had thought of something, and her tears had already begun to flow.

"Father, Yan Er won't be able to see you again. Come find Yan Er quickly, wuu." As she spoke, she actually started crying.

The sound of the girl's soft sobbing came from the side of the cold pond.

Even though Long Chen had left, his sobbing did not go unnoticed by him. He stopped walking and turned his head around doubtfully, thinking, I was just looked at for a bit, there was no need to cry like that, right?

Towards this little girl that had not fully matured, Long Chen naturally did not have any intentions of talking about that. However, Long Chen still felt it was strange that she was crying in such a wronged manner alone.

"This little girl is injured, hehe ..." Cat laughed.

"What injury?" Long Chen was stunned, he felt that the other party seemed to be very healthy, how could he be injured?

"I'm not too sure either. You'll know when you get there." Cat said straightforwardly.

Long Chen originally had the intention to return, so after Cat finished speaking, he immediately ran in the original direction. Very quickly, he saw the young girl standing on the side of the cold pond, and Long Chen let out a cry as he stood in front of her. Just as he was about to speak, Long Chen saw a scene that shocked him.

Her entire body had become incomparably thin, as if it was going to be the end of the year in a blink of an eye. When the girl raised her head at this time, Long Chen was shocked to see that the muscles of the girl, who was initially like a lotus blooming in water in his eyes, had suddenly shriveled up, and her face was filled with dry wrinkles; she looked just like an old man in his twilight.

Long Chen saw it with his own eyes, so he didn't think that it was an illusion.

"What's wrong with you!" Just as Long Chen said this, the young girl already saw him. She shrieked and directly jumped into the Wintry Spring, diving into the deep underground with a woosh.

"Cat, what's going on?" The situation on this girl was simply too strange. Long Chen had never seen such a thing happen before.

Cat tilted his head and thought, "I don't understand. It must be some kind of secret technique that can help her body age faster, but this little girl is smart, she knows that in this cold pond, the temperature is extremely low and her body will slow down the speed of aging. But you scared her out just now, so she just came out for a while and she's already that old."

The kitten looked like a scoundrel who had nothing to do with it.

"So I made her worse?" Long Chen didn't want to owe others anything, and this little girl was indeed a little pitiful. Thus, his heart was moved, and he asked: "Tell me, what method do you think is able to save her?"

"Are you sure you want to save her? He's just someone they met by chance, why would you save him? "It can't be that you've been lustful of her beauty, right?" It had turned into a Nightmare. It was originally very cute, but now it had such an evil expression on its face. Currently, the kitten was extremely comical.

It had completely ruined Nightmare's cute appearance.

"If you have a way, then stop bullshitting for laozi." Long Chen shouted softly.

"Alright, alright, this secret art is a sinister technique and the thing that is most afraid of masculinity is righteous energy. Your dragon blood is a good thing. If you let this little girl drink it all, perhaps she can recover." The kitten lazily said.

"All? Then wouldn't I be dead? " Long Chen glared at him.

"What do you think?"

"Scram!" Don't talk nonsense. Seriously. " Long Chen shouted in anger.

Your dragon blood has the blood of an Archaic Blood Dragon, and the medicinal effects are extremely great. If she were to drink it all, her small body would have exploded long ago. If you give her a small mouthful, it would be more or less enough.

Long Chen thought about it, and felt that this method was feasible.

Although it was said that they had only met by chance and that Long Chen had always been cruel and merciless to his enemies, this little girl was not his enemy and because of how she had aged, Long Chen had a lot of responsibility. That was why he understood the intention to save her.

At this time, the little girl had already sunk to the bottom of the Wintry Spring, and without daring to meet anyone, Long Chen directly rushed into the Wintry Spring, without saying a word, he had already recovered his strength, although the water in the Wintry Spring was extremely cold, Long Chen was still able to instantly appear in front of the young lady!

When she saw Long Chen, the girl looked like a frightened little deer as he quickly retreated.

"Don't move, I can save you!" Long Chen said solemnly.

The young girl stared blankly for a moment, then she retreated back a short distance.

Long Chen was too lazy to waste his breath with her, after changing into this state, this young lady no longer had any ability to attack. Long Chen moved slightly, and directly went to her side, without saying a word, Long Chen held her frail body tightly, he cut on his wrist and suddenly moved his body closer to the young lady's mouth, coldly shouting: "Drink it!"

"Wuu ~ ~" The young lady was so scared that she was crying non-stop, her mouth was tightly shut, and was unwilling to drink Long Chen's blood. At this moment, she was completely terrified by Long Chen.

Seeing that she did not agree, Long Chen immediately stopped her and opened her mouth, pouring a small mouthful of dragon's blood into her throat. Only when she was completely forced to swallow it down, did Long Chen release her. The young girl had already shed a lot of tears.

Unfortunately, there was nothing he could do.

Long Chen stood in front of her eyes and looked at her. He was looking at the effects of the dragon blood to see if it was really feasible like Cat had said.

One was calm, the other panicked. Time passed just like that. At the bottom of this deep cold pond, neither of them spoke.

After a while, Long Chen could already see the effect, and sure enough, the young lady's skin was showing signs of starting to recover, so he quickly said: "I'm not a bad person, I just wanted to save you, now look at your own skin."

"Hmm?" When the young girl saw this, she immediately revealed a pleasantly surprised smile.

Chapter 750 - Demon Princess

With the nourishment of Long Chen's dragon blood, the girl's body was currently moving at a speed visible to the naked eye. Although the flow of time was not fast, it still took about fifteen minutes for the young girl to finally regain his original appearance.

Her attitude towards Long Chen, was filled with fear and resistance, and became full of gratitude and worship. When she had completely recovered, she looked at Long Chen with her watery eyes in gratitude. Her tender lips slightly parted, and she seemed to have a lot of grateful words in her heart, but she didn't know how she should say them to Long Chen.

"Let's go up and talk." Long Chen said.

"But after I go up, I will turn back into my previous appearance. I don't want it!" The young girl said in a low voice, somewhat timid.

Regarding this, Long Chen had already asked Cat clearly.

"Don't worry. You can still maintain this appearance for at least ten days. Don't you believe me?" Long Chen pretended to be serious and said.

"I believe you!" The girl said timidly.

Long Chen revealed a smile, then he returned to the shore first, while the girl followed him. She looked at Long Chen with a curious gaze, and followed Long Chen back to the shore as well. Beneath a jade-green rock, Long Chen turned around and looked at this elegant yet slightly shy girl. Honestly speaking, this girl did have a kind of ethereal and beautiful temperament, even though she was a bit young, one could tell that when she grew up, she would indeed be a rare great beauty.

Only after she was properly standing did Long Chen ask: "What is your name?"

"Su Su Yan." The girl pursed her lips and spoke with some nervousness as she tugged at the corner of her clothes. Just now, Long Chen had tyrannically given her some of her blood to drink, and then, he had allowed her wounds, which were impossible for her to recover from, to heal, so he had left a deep impression on her. At the start, Long Chen seemed to have seen her body, which was why she was a little angry at him.

"Su Yan?" Long Chen remembered this name, and then asked: "Where exactly did you get this injury? Who made you do this?"

was curious to know why there was such a mystical technique.

"I don't know who it is." Long Chen's question made him panic. He reckoned that she had thought of something that he was afraid of.

"Tell me the details." Long Chen said.

Therefore, she nodded her head and said: "Earlier, I was right around here, but there were a few strange people that appeared, and I couldn't even see their appearances clearly. Then, someone said that I was very beautiful, and suddenly, a woman became angry, so she lightly touched me, and said, Speak."

"What did she say?" Long Chen frowned, hearing Su Yan's description, it seemed that those people were not weak at all. Long Chen thought for a bit, even Feng Zhilin and the others would not have such methods, right? Could he be a Heaven Martial Stage Ranker? But in this Archaic Graveyard, how could there be so many?

"She said that I would grow old within a day and turn into a pile of bones. Let's see if I can still be beautiful," Su Yan said as tears almost fell from her eyes.

"Cat, what do you think?" Long Chen was silent for a while, before he asked.

"How would this god know?" Cat rolled her eyes and said.

Long Chen also couldn't understand how such a thing could have happened. He continued to ask, "Do you see how many of them are there?"

"There should be around six people," Su Yan said in a low voice.

"You are a warrior at the seventh stage of the Earth Martial Stage. Can you estimate their strength?"

"I don't know, but I feel that even if it's the ninth stage of the Earth Martial Stage, it's impossible for me to not have the power to resist them at all. I can't even see their appearances clearly, every single one of them seems to be as unfathomable as my father." Su Yan tilted his head and thought.

With Long Chen at her side, the fear in her heart had already dissipated by quite a bit. Furthermore, she had verified that the blood Long Chen had fed her previously, could really stop his from aging after she consumed it.

Long Chen had already determined who they were. Before he came to the Archaic Graveyard, he had always felt that there would be some sort of controller behind the scenes in the Archaic Graveyard. These people would most likely come from the Three Great Imperial Domains, and they would definitely have a way to go to the Imperial Domain!

However, why would the people of the Three Great Imperial Domains set up a game here? Long Chen was completely baffled by this point. Of course, this was not what he was most concerned about. What he was most concerned about was how to find a way to go to the Three Great Imperial Domains from seeing all these mysterious things.

The Three Great Imperial Domains was Long Chen's main purpose in coming to the Archaic Graveyard.

At first, he swore that he would definitely find Ling Xi within ten years. Now, after a little more than a year, Long Chen had already discovered that he might already be able to go to the Imperial Domain.

He was excited as he thought of this.

From the girl's experience, Long Chen found out that there were indeed some people behind the scenes in the Archaic Graveyard, and that the nine great clans were not the masters of the Archaic Graveyard. At the same time, he also knew that those people were probably nearby, but Long Chen did not dare to look for them openly.

"Brat, I advise you not to be too agitated and impulsive. You want to have the qualifications to talk with those people, you better quickly increase your own strength. Let me be honest with you, without Heaven Martial Stage, you don't even have the qualifications to talk with them."

Cat's words woke Long Chen up.

Long Chen took a deep breath, and started to sort out his thoughts. But he was still curious, what were these people doing in the Archaic Graveyard? If they coveted the treasures of the Archaic Graveyard, they could have just taken them. Why would they bring the warriors of the Realm of Myriad Kingdoms in every ten years or so? What were their intentions?

Long Chen was completely baffled by all these.

Now that he thought about it, Long Chen could roughly guess that after a year, those ancient tombstone token had yet to fuse into a golden person, and would still not leave the Archaic Graveyard. They would probably be wiped out by the Archaic Graveyard behind the scenes.

"Big brother, what are you thinking about?" Su Yan asked Su Yan after seeing him fall into silence for a while. Right now, she was no longer afraid of Long Chen, so she quietly walked forward and stood in front of him.

Long Chen regained his senses and looked at the girl. He suddenly remembered what she had said before, so he asked: "Su Yan, you said that their strength is as deep and unfathomable as your father's. Who is your father?"

In Long Chen's opinion, the father of such a daughter must not be a simple person. He must be a very famous Ranker in the Archaic Graveyard.

Su Yan thought for a while, but chose to believe in Long Chen. Thus, she said straightforwardly, "My father is the patriarch of the demon race, Bai Lan. You should know him. He's in the nearby Cyanwood Heaven City. I had thought that I would never be able to return."

The chief of the demon race?

What a coincidence.

Long Chen was slightly surprised, but when he thought about it, he realized that it was reasonable. The other party had to be at least at the eighth level of the Earth Martial Stage to be able to train this girl to such an extent. When she reached Feng Zhilin's age, she would definitely be at least the eighth level of the Earth Martial Stage.

Bai Lan.

It was only then that Long Chen learned of the name of one of the stable Heaven Martial Stage s, the Clan Chief of the Demon Clan. If that was the case, this girl's full name should be Bai Su Yan.

Amongst the three great forces, Long Chen and Wind God's lineage were sworn enemies. Even if Long Chen took away the Mysterious Golden Soul, the Jinshi would probably look for trouble with him, and the only power that he did not offend would probably be the thunder demon lineage. Therefore, if Long Chen wanted to have the qualifications to kill the God Clan's Young Master in the future, it was not enough for him to defeat the God Clan's Young Master, he needed a type of strength that could fight against the entire Wind God's lineage.

Therefore, he had to befriend the thunder demon lineage. At the very least, he needed to get to know the both of them. And now, wasn't Su Yan the little girl the bridge that he had taken to thunder demon lineage?

What Long Chen did not expect was that he would actually meet the Demon Princess here, and even successfully saved her, and even had to continue to save her. At the beginning, Long Chen thought that after saving Su Yan, it would be extremely troublesome in the future, but from the looks of it now, if she also wanted to return to the Greenwood Sky City, all the trouble would be gone.

"Um, big brother, what should I call you?" Su Yan asked.

"My name is Long Chen." Long Chen said.

"Oh oh, I'll call you Brother Chen then." Su Yan revealed a very enchanting smile towards Long Chen.

"Just call me big brother." Long Chen laughed and said, the title of Brother Chen was called by Ling Xi, so was not used to it even when others called him that. Su Yan, this little girl, reminded Long Chen of the tiger-headed Huangfu Qi. He treated Huangfu Qi as his little sister, and Su Yan was the same.

At this time, a hint of nervousness flashed across Su Yan's eyes, and she gathered up her courage to ask Long Chen: "Big brother, what I want to ask is, when you said that I would be like this for ten days, will I still die after ten days? "I ..." As soon as he thought of death, Su Yan's tears began to roll in her eyes.

Long Chen laughed, and said: "Don't worry, you won't die. "What I gave you before was my blood. In the next 100 days, I'll let you consume my blood once every 10 days. You'll be completely healed."
