

Warning 1092

Chapter 1092 Invite Clare

Lennon's POV.

This afternoon, I happened to be having lunch with an investor in this restaurant. I went out to answer the phone when I noticed Clare, Emerson and another woman entering another private room. I assumed she was here for work and didn't bother her.

But when I went to the men's room later, I ran into that woman coming with them in the corridor. She was talking on the phone with a friend. Her voice was full of joy. She stated that the woman who accompanied her was being harassed and that she felt fortunate that she was not the victim.
