Chapter 1096 Watch A Movie

Clare's POV:

I shook my head. "I actually haven't seen it before. I've seen people recommend it, though. They say it's a great movie."

Lennon and I were both busy with work, so we could hardly spare any time to watch a movie or plan a vacation together. That was mainly the reason why we hadn't even watched a movie together ever since we got married.

I used to like movies so much. I remember going to the cinemas often just to watch the latest movies. I was still a student when I picked up on that habit. I remember still doing it even after I started working.
