

Watch Out, CEO Daddy! Novel

Chapter 164

The next day after Simon went out to work at the usual time, Sharon was lying on the sofa in the living room in boredom. She felt much better today and had the energy to go back to work, but that domineering man forbade her to.

She could only lay down at home and play on her phone. There was a sound that alerted her she had received a notification on her phone. It was a message from Polly, her colleague who was quite close to her.

After Sharon clicked open the message, she saw the content that read: [Sharon, hurry up and look at the corporation's internet forum!]

The message seemed urgent, as though something big had happened.

Sharon logged into the internet forum while feeling confused. The first thing she saw were photos that had been magnified, and they were placed in the most prominent spaces.

She felt her heart shudder as she stared at the photos without blinking. They were photos of her and Howard during their wedding five years ago!

It had been five years and she thought the photos were gone. Why were they appearing on the corporation's internet forum now?

She could not keep her body from shaking after she saw these photos. The scenes from the past kept appearing in her head, and she was livid.

Was it Howard or Sally who uploaded the photos?

Now, everyone in the corporation would have seen these photos.

There was an anonymous article under the photos with an eye-catching headline. 'The B*tch Sharon Jeans Was Two-Timing Five Years Ago and Committed Marital Fraud. Five Years Later, She Attempts to Seduce the President of the Corporation!' <sup>1</sup>

There were not only photos from five years ago in the article but also photos of her kissing Simon in front of everyone during the anniversary celebration.

Sharon knew others would have photographed the scene of her kissing Simon in front of everyone during a huge event like the corporation's anniversary celebration. However, she did not expect them to be so malicious that they would make an issue over that photo.

She stared at the photo and could not help but feel impressed with the photographer's skills. She had indeed kissed Simon voluntarily, and from the photo, she even looked like she was trying to seduce Simon.

With those photos from five years ago, anyone who did not know the entire story would definitely think that she was a licentious woman who was now having thoughts of seducing the corporation's president!

After she read the made-up article, she then saw that there were a lot of comments under it. Aside from the ones criticizing her, there were also comments asking her to resign from Central Corporation.

It seemed that she had completely turned into a public enemy, especially to those women in the corporation. They must be dying for her to get lost.

No, she had to go to the office. She had to find out who was the one who posted the photos. 1

Sharon changed her clothes and hailed a cab to head to the company. The moment she stepped into the doors of the company, everyone started to criticize and berate her.

"Look, that's Sharon Jeans who wants to seduce President Zachary!"

"What a wh*re! She still has the cheek to come to the company? Back then, she two-timed Young Master Howard, and now, she's even attempting to get close to the president. She just desires for what she's not worthy of!"

"Exactly. A woman like her should be chased out from the corporation. She's an embarrassment to the corporation!"

They were cursing and berating her one after another. The only thing they did not do was spit in her face.

Sharon felt a ball of rage in her chest. She wanted to argue with them but her rationality told her that it would be meaningless to fight with people like them. 1

They completely fell for that cock and bull story. At the moment, they saw her as a woman with loose morals, so no one would believe what she was going to say anyway. 1

She clenched her fists tightly and suppressed her anger. She tried her best to ignore the criticisms and immediately ran in after the elevator arrived on the floor.
