

Watch Out 491

Chapter 491: Suspicious point (1)

Song qingxiao sat cross-legged on the ground and circulated her spiritual power through her veins, but she did not find anything strange.

The seal on his heart had not changed except for the wisp of evolved flood dragon blood that he had extracted from the undead altar to help him advance. Where did the huge amount of energy that she had absorbed go?

What was the origin of this God destroying technique?

Back then, she had spent 5000 points to buy it. At first, she had thought it was quite expensive, but after exchanging for the deity vanquishing spell, she had officially embarked on the path of cultivation.

This trial had allowed her to advance by an entire realm. With the soul annihilating skill and the method of primordial spirit cultivation, song qingxiao knew that she had gotten a great deal after her strength had improved and her knowledge had improved.

On the spirit altar, when the God destroying spell was cast, it could cause the star array that was absorbing her energy to flow in reverse. Such a spell was definitely not an ordinary thing.

The reason why she was able to obtain it with 5000 points that day was probably due to her low strength and the short time she had spent in the God trial. It was probably related to her 'level'.

After all, although the points were precious, the more trials there were and the more difficult they were, the better the rewards would be.

As long as one was strong enough, it would not be difficult to obtain a large number of points.

In the past, Song Qingxiao wouldn't have thought much about it, but she hadn't forgotten that the soul vanquishing technique had almost failed during the trial. The suction force had sucked away the massive energy that had almost caused her to explode and die, and the spiritual power in her body had almost been drained.

At that time, she couldn't control her body at all and was sucked in by the suction force. The spiritual power in her body was lost, and even the realm that had just been raised at that time almost fell back because of the loss of spiritual power.

If it wasn't for the folding of time and space, which allowed the two Song Qingxiaos to merge and stabilize the spirit focus realm, it would have taken Song Qingxiao a lot of effort to stabilize the spirit focus realm in the real world.

Her memories went back to the autumn Festival road a month ago. On that day, she had almost died at the hands of Qian Shan. On her deathbed, she had faintly heard Qian Shan mention the 'God destroying technique' to another man.

At the same time as the 'deity vanquishing technique', there seemed to be another 'su Wu'! .c(o)m

However, that finger of Qian Shan was extremely overbearing. That power went through her body, crushing her veins and internal organs, almost taking her life.

At the moment of life and death, her consciousness was scattered and she could not hear very clearly.

After that, because he had been busy escaping and recuperating, he had not had the time to investigate. Now that he thought about it again, he realized that there were many strange things.

She remembered that when she was about to die, she was very unwilling to let herself be at the mercy of others. When her consciousness was trapped and was about to disappear, a thought came from her spirit to take revenge for her.

However, she was not willing to give up. She burst out with a strong desire to live. Coupled with the recovery of her body with blue blood, she woke up in an instant.

When he thought about it later, he felt that there was nothing wrong with his body. In addition, he was in a life-and-death situation at that time, so he might have hallucinated. But now, when he thought about it again, he couldn't help but feel a creepy feeling.

Could it be that there was another consciousness in his consciousness that was spying on his every move?

However, she examined her primordial spirit again and again. Her primordial spirit was connected to her mind, so she didn't feel anything strange.

However, Song Qingxiao was a cautious person. Even though she had confirmed it again and again, she still did not dare to let her guard down.

Now that he thought about it, his consciousness seemed to have been swallowed up at that time, and there was a consciousness that wanted to avenge him. Where did that consciousness come from? What good would it do to take revenge for him? What kind of price would he have to pay?

“‘God slaying technique’, ‘su five’.” She murmured softly. What was the relationship between the two?

Qian Shan knew about the existence of the ‘God destroying technique’. Did this mean that Qian Shan's existence might be related to the God's trial? What's more, he might be a high-level existence in the God's trial!

And for the ‘God destroying technique’ to be mentioned by someone at Qian Shan's level, it was naturally not an ordinary technique. It was extremely likely to be an extremely rare item, which was why it was so sought after.

But the problem was that for such a Divine Art that could be mentioned by Qian Shan, she believed that even if the price was several times higher, there would definitely be high-level trial-takers who would be willing to pay a high price to obtain it. So why would it be reduced to the exchange of low-level trial-takers? Yet, it was obtained by her? There was probably some reason behind this, but she was still unclear at the moment.

Song Qingxiao laughed coldly, her eyes flashing with a cold light.

She didn't want to think about the questions that she couldn't figure out at the moment. She would find out one day.

The God's trial, Qian Shan's clan and the people who killed her, the reclusive family, and so on, she had to find out everything.

As for the thought that had suddenly appeared at the critical moment, she had checked her primordial spirit and divine soul and found nothing unusual, but it did not mean that it was safe.

The most important thing now was to improve his strength. If his cultivation was low, he would be at the mercy of others.

Song qingxiao let out a long sigh.

Although he knew that there might be a problem with the God destroying technique, he could only be more vigilant at the moment and figure out the strangeness in the future.

She closed her eyes, and her spiritual power flowed through her veins. At the same time, in her sea of consciousness, her primordial spirit began to cultivate the newly-activated God destroying technique. Spirit concentration chapter. In the past, when she was cultivating her spiritual power, she felt that the progress was not fast.

However, at this moment, his primordial spirit and body were both cultivating the soul destroying technique. When his spiritual power and divine sense resonated with each other, the feeling was far from what just cultivating spiritual power could compare to.

The vast spiritual power of heaven and earth was drawn into his body by the God destroying technique, turning into a cold current that flowed along his veins. At the same time, the primordial spirit drew in the spiritual Qi, which circulated around the sea of consciousness and tempered the primordial spirit.

After a night, song qingxiao's cultivation was as effective as several days of meditation.

In his sea of consciousness, the face of his newly formed primordial spirit seemed to be a little clearer than before, and his divine sense was also much deeper than before.

She didn't need to release her spiritual power, all the sounds around her were absorbed into her ears. Releasing her spiritual sense, she could hear people shouting and fighting in the distant training ground, some people clapping, some people whispering, all of which were 'seen' in her mind.

It seemed that after she had ascended, through cultivation, the range of her divine sense had been further expanded. Within a radius of 100 meters, no movement could escape her eyes and ears.

Song qingxiao opened her eyes in satisfaction. After a whole night of cultivation, the bleeding wound on her back had healed a lot under the nourishment of spiritual power. She would probably be fine after ten days or half a month of cultivation.

She stood up, and the place she was sitting on was frozen, freezing the floor she had destroyed last night.

The practice room was covered with a thin layer of frost, causing the temperature of the entire space to be very low.

On the contrary, song qingxiao's body did not form ice crystals like before, but there was some cold mist between her eyebrows and eyelashes. This should be a change after entering the spirit focus realm.

With the improvement of her strength, her control of spiritual power had also become more and more skillful. With more time, she should be able to completely control the spiritual power and no longer let the excess spiritual power leak out..

Chapter 492: The situation (1)

When song qingxiao came out of the practice room, the silver Wolf was still lying in the same place. Its fur was stained with a lot of blood, and some parts of it were burnt. A few wounds that almost cut open its abdomen were covered with a thick layer of blood scabs. It looked like the injury was very serious.

It had devoured the internal organs of the Cerberus, and this situation was similar to the time when it had evolved after devouring the internal organs of a flood Dragon on the demon Island.

Song qingxiao thought for a moment. She opened her left hand and a mysterious black Dagger suddenly appeared in her palm. She grabbed the dagger and cut her right palm. Then, she grabbed the fur at the back of the silver Wolf's neck, forced it to raise its head, and dripped her blood into its mouth.

Her blood contained the blood of a flood Dragon, so it should be effective for the silver Wolf.

After the undead altar shook the seal again, the power of the flood dragon's blood in the blood should be even stronger.

Song qingxiao used her spiritual power to seal the wound and let go of the wolf's head. The wolf's head fell back to the ground with a thud.

After doing all this, she recuperated for a while before preparing to go out for a walk. She wanted to familiarize herself with the reserve team first.

When she came over yesterday, it was already late. Coupled with the sudden pull of the trial, she was not familiar with the situation of the reserve team.

Since he was going to stay here for a while, he should figure out some things.

As soon as the door was opened, the sun shone in. Perhaps it was because she had been in the land of the undead for a long time, song Qing instinctively raised her hand to block it. A few pairs of eyes fell on her from a distance, and one of them was quite familiar.

The familiar aura seemed to have noticed song qingxiao. It hesitated for a moment before walking toward her.

As soon as she put down her hand, she saw the girl who had knocked on her door last night smile.

“Tanwen?”

After her eyes adjusted to the light, song qingxiao spoke first before she could.

She called out the girl’s name, causing the girl to be stunned.

“Did sister Ren tell you that?” But after a short while, tan Wen laughed again. “My friends all call me Tantan.” She pointed at the two people not far away and continued, “You can also call me that.”

The two teenagers she pointed out were both in their twenties. The boy was thin, but he looked cautious. He was not as enthusiastic as she was, and there was a faint hostility and inquiry in his eyes.

The girl was younger and looked a little timid. When song Qing’s eyes followed tan Wen’s hand, she timidly hid behind the boy.

Compared to the few people who appeared last night, these three people’s auras were quite weak and there was nothing worth paying attention to.

Song qingxiao’s divine sense scanned through them, but the three of them didn’t notice it at all. After tan Wen finished speaking, he said with some concern,

“Were you okay last night?”

“No, I didn’t,” Song qingxiao shook her head and did not correct her misunderstanding.

Tan Wen heaved a long sigh of relief after hearing what she said.

“That’s good!” She patted her chest, they’re different from us. They’ll be in the reserve team in the future, she looked a little disappointed.

we can only stay here for two years because of our elders. If we can’t make it to the reserve team, we might have to return to our original homes to work.

When she said this, the boy in the distance called her name. Tan Wen stuck out her tongue.

we’re going to have dinner. Do you want to come with us?”

She tilted her head and waited for song qingxiao’s answer. Song qingxiao had nothing to do at the moment, not to mention that she could travel with tan Wen and find out some information about the reserve team. Therefore, she nodded.

Tan Wen smiled until his eyes narrowed. He waved at the boy and waited for the two to carefully follow him. Then, he turned around and explained to song qingxiao,” that’s why we have different goals. They don’t think much of us and keep finding trouble with us. They always want to drive us away.

She pointed at the man and woman who came later and introduced them. The young man was called Jiang xiachuan and the girl was called Yu Yin. their families are old friends and came here together.

After tan Wen’s introduction, he was about to introduce song qingxiao, but he looked embarrassed.

“By the way, what’s your name?”

She had come to get close to song qingxiao last night, but she had been scared away by the group of people before she could ask for song qingxiao’s name.

“Song Qing Xiao.”

Song qingxiao gave his name, and tan Wen said,

Qing Xiao, you've just arrived. You might be watched by them. You have to be careful.

"I'm actually quite afraid of them," she said, a little embarrassed. The timid-looking young girl behind her had a look of agreement.

Song qingxiao's lips curled up and she nodded.

Tan Wen smiled at song Qing, lowered his voice and said," the people who live here are all new people who have just joined us in the past two years. Some of them were sent here by the local government, and some of them are like us, relying on the protection of their elders in their families.

From her, song qingxiao had roughly understood the basic situation here.

The reserve team was divided into two sides, One North and one South. The south side was where the reserve members lived, while the north side was where the reserve members lived.

The ones living on the north side were the newcomers. They were either selected by the government or those who were protected by their ancestors. Most of the people selected by the government were outstanding and had a certain Foundation. They were also quite skilled. They were all aiming to enter the reserve team and get into the Shi family's guards.

On the other hand, those who entered through connections were a mix of good and bad. A portion of them only stayed for two years before being transferred back to the Empire to take on other jobs.

With the experience of being in the reserve team, their resumes would look more radiant and would be helpful for their future work.

As a result, the officially selected people despised those who were sent here through connections, and conflicts often broke out between the two sides.

However, the reserve team advocated martial strength. As long as no lives were lost, the higher-ups would turn a blind eye to the ruckus in the reserve team, almost adopting the appearance of laissez-faire.

It was also because of this that the people who were officially selected had outstanding strength and loved to fight fiercely, forming a force.

In comparison, people like tan Wen, who came in through connections, had ordinary abilities. In terms of skills and actual combat, they couldn't be compared with him, so they were often bullied.

Except for a small number of people with real talent, most people either swallowed their anger and turned to flatter and ridicule these people selected by the government in order to survive the two years smoothly. There were also some people like tan Wen who grouped up with each other and often endured bullying and ridicule.

After she said that, song qingxiao understood why she had come to her last night to express her goodwill.

"I saw that du xingyun came to find you last night. Just bear with it for a while. As long as you can get through this period of time, you will be fine as long as you avoid her more often."

After tan Wen explained the general situation of the reserve team, Jiang xiachuan, who was behind her, sneered,"

"I'm not afraid of them." The teenager clenched his fist stubbornly and looked into the distance, one day, I will also enter the reserve team!

Tan Wen laughed dryly and whispered to song qingxiao," it's not easy to get into the reserve team. There are three spots every season, but you have to pass the monthly assessment to get an excellent score. When she said this, her face turned bitter, and even the timid Yu Yin frowned..

Chapter 493: The competition (1)

Song qingxiao saw the two's awkward expressions and asked,"

"What's the test?"

Tan Wen sighed. I'm not sure, but someone will be responsible for informing them on the 10th of every month, she seemed to have thought of something and shivered."Today is the 10th. He might have already come out."

Although there were no requirements for those who were not in the reserve team, they still had to take part in the assessment. She and Yu Yin were both worried, but Jiang xiachuan looked very expectant.

After getting the basic information, song qingxiao didn't say anything.

The few of them walked to the canteen without saying a word. There were not many people in the canteen. The food was served in rows of large buckets, which made people lose their appetites at first sight.

Tan Wen couldn't eat anymore and forced himself to eat a few mouthfuls. Then, he took a spoon and fiddled with the rice on his plate."I heard that the dishes in the reserve team were specially invited by a star chef. They taste much better than here."

After becoming a reserve team member, the benefits and treatment were several times better than now. When she said this, she saw that song qingxiao was not affected by the taste of the food. She was a little envious and sighed,"

“You have such a good appetite.”

Song qingxiao didn't say anything. She hadn't eaten since she left for the reserve team yesterday. Her current cultivation level wasn't enough for her to not eat.

The food here was ordinary, but she was not picky. Seeing her eat for a long time, tan Wen's appetite was aroused. He also ate two mouthfuls and put down his spoon. He seemed to have thought of something.

“By the way, I heard from sister Ren that you brought a dog?”

As soon as she finished speaking, song qingxiao stopped eating and slowly nodded after a while.

“No one here has ever brought a pet.” Everyone came here for different purposes, but the reserve team was by no means a suitable place to raise pets.

“Can I touch it?”

Tan Wen was very excited. Even the introverted Yu Yin, who rarely spoke, looked at song qingxiao expectantly when she heard that she had brought a 'dog'.

Their request put song qingxiao in a difficult position. Not to mention that the silver Wolf was still unconscious, even if it were awake, it would probably be very different from the docile 'pet' they had imagined.

Even if she agreed, the proud Wolf King would probably not be willing to let the two girls rub its head.

She rarely made friends with people, and just as she was thinking about how to refuse the request of these two people, tan Wen seemed to have thought of something, and his expression changed.

“However, you have to keep a close eye on the dog. Otherwise, I'm afraid you'll be beaten up.”

Song qingxiao could not help but laugh when she heard her.

“You mean the ones from last night?”

Tan Wen nodded, they’re good at fighting and often bully us, but they don’t dare to kill us because of the rules of the reserve team.

However, while the reserve team’s rules could protect humans, it might not be the same for animals.

it’s very likely that they’ll attack your pets in order to attack you.

Song qingxiao smiled,”

“The few of them can’t touch my pet.”

As soon as she finished speaking, before tan Wen and the others could say anything, a young girl’s cold laughter sounded,”

“What big words!”

Yu Yin threw away her spoon and hid behind Jiang xiachuan like a mouse that saw a cat.

Tan Wen’s face was also a little pale. She instinctively lowered her head and pretended to eat. Jiang xiachuan stood up with a vigilant look. He stepped forward and blocked Yu Yin’s voice. Then, he gritted his teeth and asked, “What do you want to do?”

Song qingxiao turned around and saw the group of people from last night entering the cafeteria. The girl in the lead was the one who had challenged her last night.

She looked disdainful, probably because she had heard what song qingxiao had said. She didn’t even look at Jiang xiachuan and only stared at song qingxiao. “New? We can’t touch your pet?”

She chuckled and looked song qingxiao up and down.

The two of them had already met last night, but song qingxiao's hair was disheveled, her face was dirty, and the stench from her body had driven her away, so she did not have time to look down on her.

Looking at her again, she had already washed up and tied her hair up, revealing her fair face, completely different from last night's embarrassment.

It was summer and the weather was hot. Everyone was wearing light clothes, but she was wearing long pants. A heavy coat wrapped her body tightly, and the collar was pulled up, covering her neck.

When her eyes fell on du xingyun's body, for some reason, it made du xingyun's hair stand on end and his clothes stand on end.

Du xingyun took a step back out of instinct and only came back to his senses when he bumped into his partner behind him. He realized that song qingxiao hadn't done anything yet, and he was already frightened by her.

Her face darkened and she struck with both hands.

"I'm a little eccentric. I like to do what people don't like to do."

Perhaps the girl was eager to regain her face, she raised her chin.

"Do you dare to fight? If you lose, we'll be in for a good meal. We can have a dog meat hotpot!"

As soon as she finished speaking, the others laughed along.

Tanwen's eyes were filled with anger, but he didn't dare to talk back to them. He only looked at song qingxiao with some worry.

Song qingxiao was not angry. She pushed the plate in front of her away and stood up.

She wasn't someone who acted on impulse. When she was working at the guard Hall, the provocation of the female guards couldn't make her angry, so the girl naturally couldn't anger her now.

However, this wasn't the guard Station. From tan Wen's words, she had already roughly figured out the situation of the reserve team.

Fighting was allowed here, and everyone respected the strong.

She didn't want to be in the limelight, but she also didn't want to be stared at in the future, especially when she had the silver Wolf by her side. If she didn't suppress the young girl's arrogance now, she was afraid that they would be ignorant and provoke the silver Wolf, causing a storm.

Seeing her actions, tan Wen was afraid that she couldn't hold it in, so he said anxiously,"

"Qing Xiao..."

As soon as she spoke, song qingxiao reached out to stop her from continuing. She smiled and asked the girl,

"Where do you want to start?"

When du xingyun came to provoke her, he didn't expect her to agree.

Now that song Qing had agreed, she was stunned.

People who got in through connections were all spineless and weak. Very few of them had outstanding skills.

Even if there was such a person, he would only want to enter the reserve team and would not bother to mix around with others.

What kind of strength could someone with tan Wen and the others have? It was right to teach him a lesson!

As she thought of this, a look of disdain appeared in her eyes. She pointed out,”

“Do you dare to go to the training field?”

Qing song nodded.

The news that the new member of the reserve team had accepted du xingyun’s challenge and wanted to have a match with her spread very quickly. Before they even entered the training ground, they could already see a group of people waiting to watch from afar.

The more people there were, the prouder du xingyun became. Song qingxiao’s expression was calm. On the contrary, tan Wen was very nervous.

“You shouldn’t have agreed to her request.” Along the way, she followed song qingxiao and muttered, “bear with it for a while. She left after she ridiculed me

“It’s fine. If you’re worried, you can leave first.” Song qingxiao replied to her, and she muttered, ““We’re leaving. If you get beaten up badly, who’s going to send you back?”

Song qingxiao could not help but laugh at her words.

As she said this, she raised her head and looked into the distance. She seemed to have seen something and exclaimed,” Captain Ren is here ... The person next to him is from the reserve team?”

As soon as she finished speaking, not only Jiang xiachuan but also Yu Yin, who had been hiding behind Jiang xiachuan, couldn't help but look up.

"Can such a competition alarm Captain Ren and the reserve team?"

In the reserve team, there were countless such competitions every month. Tan Wen muttered to herself, and the young girl who stuck her head out behind her said in a soft voice, today is the 10th. Captain Ren might be here to announce the content of this month's assessment.

Tan Wen came to a realization and looked at song qingxiao with sympathy.

"The reserve team is here." If song qingxiao were to lose, she would not only lose face in the reserve team.

If they lost too badly in front of the reserve team, Captain Ren of the reserve team might lose face, and song qingxiao's life would probably be difficult in the future..

Chapter 494: Newcomer (1)

"Xingyun, Captain Ren and the people from the reserve team are here." Beside du xingyun, a young girl also raised her head and saw the two people walking in their direction. She whispered in her ear," this is a rare opportunity," her voice trembled a little, and through the discussion of the crowd, her voice clearly reached song Qing's ears," it's the 10th today. Captain Ren should be here to announce the assessment content. After the assessment, there will be three spots for the reserve team.

It was a very favorable coincidence for du xingyun that the reserve team members happened to come and watch the reserve team's competition.

Today, she had crushed the newcomer and performed outstandingly. Perhaps she could be made an exception and be admitted into the reserve team.

Du xingyun's face turned red with excitement as he thought of this. He was even more determined to teach song qingxiao a lesson.

Because it was related to her future, she was very cautious. She even stretched her muscles when she arrived.

On the contrary, song qingxiao did not seem to have made any preparations and seemed very relaxed.

The surrounding crowd automatically moved away to make space for the two to compete. Amidst the loud cheers and laughter, tan Wen seemed a little anxious and kept biting his fingers.

According to the rules of the reserve team, as long as there was no serious injury or death, the people at the top would turn a blind eye to the fight. If it was any other time, du xingyun would not have been too harsh when he taught song qingxiao a lesson. However, this time, when Captain Ren and the people from the reserve team came, du xingyun obviously wanted to seize this opportunity and step on song qingxiao to get to the top. He would not hold back.

The laughter in the training ground attracted the attention of Captain Ren and Captain Ren, who were standing in the distance. The two of them turned around and looked at each other. Captain Ren laughed and said," it seems that it's better to come at the right time than to come early. You can also take a look. There are a few seedlings that I have high hopes for in this assessment. If there are any that you like, you can help me give them some pointers.

The man was about 25 or 26 years old. He had a strong figure and was a head taller than Captain Ren. After hearing what Captain Ren said, he nodded and the two of them quickened their pace.

After Captain Ren arrived, he didn't alarm the other members who were watching. Instead, he stood outside the circle and looked at the center. He immediately recognized du xingyun and pointed in her direction, whispering,"

"That young lady, I think very highly of her. She was recommended by long yang half a year ago. She just happens to be 23 years old and is very talented. He's been in the team for half a year and has made great progress. He's ambitious and is one of the seedlings I want you to see this time."

His words were full of praise for du xingyun, causing the man to also size up du xingyun and nod his head cautiously.

After Captain Ren complimented du xingyun, his eyes fell on song qingxiao again.

"That girl should be new."

He crossed one hand over his chest and scratched his chin with the other.

there was a newcomer last night. Her father used to be a member of the Shi family's Falcon team. Eleven years ago, he died in the process of a mission.

Captain Ren knew every member's information in the reserve team. Seeing that song Qing was unfamiliar, he immediately guessed her 'identity'.

"I brought a dog,"

The moment he heard that song qingxiao had entered the competition under the protection of her father, the burly man immediately lost interest in the competition.

If it wasn't for the fact that Captain Ren had to announce the contents of this season's assessment after the competition, he would have stayed to test du xingyun's potential. Perhaps he would not have wasted his time in this competition.

Inside the arena, du xingyun stretched his arms and legs, squinted his eyes and sneered at song qingxiao,

“At this point, I won’t show any mercy.”

She was extremely confident. The sun shone on her face, and her eyes were filled with pride and joy.

Song qingxiao smiled. She was the complete opposite of du xingyun. She had to control herself and show mercy.

As soon as du xingyun’s voice fell, he launched an attack without waiting for song qingxiao to speak!

She wanted to leave a good impression in front of the reserve team, so she made sure to hit the target in one shot.

As the crowd cheered, she clenched her fist and hit song Qing’s small face.

Her arms had beautiful muscle lines, and her fist was already slightly well-trained. In the blink of an eye, she had reached song Qing’s small face.

However, in song qingxiao’s eyes, there was a world of difference between an ordinary person and a trial-taker’s strengthened body.

Du xingyun’s punch was slow, and there were holes all over his body. Even if she didn’t use her spiritual power or spiritual sense to lock onto the girl, several ways to kill her in seconds flashed through her mind..

Chapter 495: Newcomer (2)

However, this was a competition, and it was not a one-off trial.

She stood there without moving, but in the eyes of the crowd, it seemed as if she was stunned by du xingyun's swift movements and couldn't react in time.

Yu Yin, who was hiding behind Jiang xiachuan, poked her head out timidly. When she saw that she was about to be punched in the face, she instinctively covered her eyes with her hands and let out a scream of shock!

Captain Ren shook his head and turned to the burly man, saying in a low voice, ll it seems that there's nothing to see in this competition ...

Before he could finish his sentence, song Qing, who seemed to be in a daze,'moved'.

Her lower body was still standing in the same place, and she only turned her neck slightly. She was like a sapling, and when the wind blew, the treetop shook, bringing with it a series of afterimages. The wind just happened to pass through the gaps between the leaves.

Du xingyun's fist, which was originally aimed at her cheek, just brushed past her shoulder, lifting up a few strands of hair that fell on both sides of her cheeks.

"Eh?"

The burly man from the reserve team, who was originally uninterested, suddenly changed his expression and let out a low cry.

"Eh?"

Captain Ren also noticed this scene from the corner of his eye and was quite surprised, this new guy is quite lucky... he said.

“It’s not luck!” The burly man’s expression froze and he interrupted Captain Ren, “look, she doesn’t seem to be panicking. She’s very calm, and the position she dodged to is just right. It’s as if she’s already anticipated the little girl’s attack trajectory.

Captain Ren was stunned for a moment when he heard what du xingyun said. The next moment, du xingyun’s attack missed. Everyone let out a surprised cry at the same time, suppressing the whispers of the two men.

Du xingyun himself couldn’t believe that his attack had missed, but he immediately attributed it to song qingxiao’s good luck that she had dodged it.

Her fist went through song Qing’s neck, and she immediately hooked her arm around her neck, trying to pull her toward herself.

At the same time, he bent one of his knees and slammed it into her stomach.

However, for some reason, song Qing was as small as a pine and could not be moved by her.

Before du xingyun’s raised knee could hit her stomach, he saw her raise an arm and slap her thigh.

Song qingxiao retracted her spirit power and only used 30% of her strength. When her palm landed on du xingyun, a ‘pa’ sound could be heard. Du xingyun still had a cold smile on his face, thinking that she was overestimating herself.

However, as the palm fell, it was as if a thousand tons of gravity had hit her thigh, causing her thigh to go numb at first. Then, a sore and soft feeling spread from the spot where she was hit to the whole body, completely smacking away all the strength she had accumulated, causing her to involuntarily let out a cry of surprise,”

“Ah...”

As soon as the power was dispersed, du xingyun fell back from the remaining force of song Qing’s little slap.

As her beautiful face turned pale, in order not to fall and embarrass herself, she immediately made a decision to take a few steps back. The place that had been hit was still numb and trembling.

As soon as she stepped back, she felt strange looks coming from all around her. A young girl's self-esteem was very strong, especially in front of the reserve team members, Captain Ren, and the burly man. It was especially unbearable for her to be forced back by song Qing's small move!

Song qingxiao only got in by relying on her connections, and she also hung out with tan Wen and the others. At this time, he couldn't knock her down with one move, but was slapped away by her. How could he swallow this?

After she barely managed to stand still, her eyes were filled with ruthlessness as she did not suffer a big loss. She let out a delicate cry and immediately jumped a few steps forward, her leg sweeping towards song Qing's small chest!

"This ..." Captain Ren saw it clearly. Du xingyun couldn't take down song qingxiao in one move. The little girl was embarrassed and had an irritable temper. This time, she was really angry and didn't hold back.

If she had kicked song qingxiao, she would have broken a few of her ribs and would have been bedridden.

It was just a competition within the team, and this was a little too ruthless.

His face darkened as he prepared to step forward to stop them. However, just as he moved, the burly man beside him pulled him back.

"Wait!"

The burly man's tone was somewhat fervent, and his eyes were filled with eagerness, as if his interest had been aroused.

"Let's take a look first!"

As soon as his voice fell, he saw Song Qing raise her arm and push her palm in front of her chest. Du Xingyun's long leg was caught in her palm, as if she had walked into a trap.

With a 'pa' sound, she grabbed Du Xingyun's ankle. Her palm was like an iron clamp, firmly holding him.

At the same time, Du Xingyun's other leg kicked towards her chest in an attempt to break free. Song Qingxiao's other hand also grabbed her calf with a 'pa' sound. She crossed her palms and lifted Du Xingyun's legs like a twist of a hemp flower.. Then, she threw him to the ground!

Chapter 496: Newcomer (3)

Du Xingyun's face turned pale with fright. He couldn't help but fall to the ground with a 'bang'. All the bones in his body seemed to have been broken. His mind was blank, as if his soul had left his body. He couldn't react to what had happened.

Dust rose from the ground, and the surrounding people were dumbfounded. No one had expected that in just one move, not only did Du Xingyun not kill the newcomer, but he was also knocked to the ground by the newcomer.

Yu Yin carefully opened the hand that was covering her eyes a little and saw Song Qing Xiao standing in the same place. Du Xingyun was lying on the ground, motionless. The force of his fall was blowing Song Qing's small hair.

This scene was very different from what she had imagined. Song Qingxiao wasn't beaten up by Du Xingyun. Instead, she had put Du Xingyun down.

"Ah?"

She let out a cry of surprise, waking up the stunned onlookers. She quickly covered her mouth instead of her eyes, afraid of attracting everyone's attention.

“What’s going on?”

Not only was Captain Ren’s eyes almost popping out of their sockets, but the rest of the reserve team were also shocked.

Song qingxiao was well aware of her strength. She had held back 70% of her strength before she made her move. Otherwise, if she had used all her strength, she would have sent du xingyun to the West!

But even so, du xingyun had suffered enough.

The bones in his body seemed to have been disassembled and reassembled. His entire body was trembling, and he couldn’t gather the strength to get up for a long time.

The exclamations of the people around her and the voices of her followers calling her name seemed to come from far away. Song qingxiao took a step forward, bent over, and reached out her hand. She asked with a smile,”

“Are you alright?”

Du xingyun was still in shock. At this moment, he saw the glaring sun above his head was blocked by a shadow. Song qingxiao leaned forward, and a pair of smiling eyes reflected in her eyes. A hand reached out in front of her, as if to help her up.

She finally realized what had happened and was thrown to the ground by her in front of everyone!

The people of the reserve team saw it, their followers and followers saw it, tan Wen and the others saw it, and even Captain Ren and the people from the reserve team saw it.

Tears quickly welled up in the young girl’s eyes, and hatred welled up in her heart. Immediately, she endured the pain and sat up, raising her numb arm to slap her palm.

“Who wants you to pretend to be good ...”

Before she could finish her sentence, the person who had been smiling and asking her if she was alright narrowed his eyes. His outstretched hand turned into an afterimage and moved towards her neck. His speed was as fast as lightning. In an instant, he had her neck in his grasp and was pressing down hard!

Du xingyun’s strength was like a Mantis trying to stop a chariot in front of her. He had no room to resist at all, and the back of his head hit the ground with a ‘bang’.

Song Qing’s little fingers clenched, and her neck bone made a cracking sound.

“It seems like you won’t be able to eat this dog meat hotpot.”

She murmured softly, but for some reason, her tone made du xingyun shiver.

A shiver ran down her spine and into her limbs. Her neck was being strangled and she could not even breathe. Her face was red and she tried to hit song qingxiao’s palms but she could not move her hands!

In the misty eyes, song Qing’s small pupils contracted like two sharp swords, exuding a chilling coldness. The sun was clearly high in the sky, but du xingyun kept shivering.

As soon as song qingjiang finished speaking, he felt du xingyun’s trembling. The young girl must have been shocked by the killing intent she exuded at that moment, as her eyes were now filled with fear.

The neck bone under her palm was very fragile. She only needed to exert a little force to break it. The life and death of this flower-like girl were in her hands!

Someone squeezed through the crowd behind her. She suppressed the killing intent in her heart, smiled slightly, and slowly released the hand on du xingyun’s neck, standing up.

The pressure on du xingyun’s heart disappeared as she stood up. Her breathing became smooth, and she suddenly coughed loudly.

This scene happened in a flash. Captain Ren didn't even have time to react before du xingyun was knocked to the ground.

"Are you alright?"

He furrowed his brows and reached out to pull the girl who was lying on the ground.

The young girl's hands were abnormally cold, and they couldn't stop shaking, as if they had been greatly frightened.

The reserve team had been competing all year round, and winning and losing was a common thing in the military. Even if song qingxiao had unexpectedly defeated du xingyun, it was reasonable to say that she shouldn't have scared him to this extent.

Captain Ren's expression was full of shock as he looked back and forth between the two. Du xingyun was still immersed in the fear of being dominated by song qingxiao. He couldn't even speak clearly, as if he was about to cough out his lungs.

When the person from the reserve team followed Captain Ren and got close to song qingxiao, his nose twitched and he did not hide the excitement in his eyes.

"Newcomer, Wan na fight?"

Chapter 497: Sparring (1)

Captain Ren was stunned when he heard what the burly man from the reserve team said.
freeweb(n)ovel

Regardless of whether it was the reserve team or the reserve team, although the wind of martial arts was strong, and the members of the team would occasionally exchange pointers with each other, it was very rare to see a situation where a cross-level competition occurred.

Most of them were competing with each other at the same level, striving for a breakthrough.

Like du xingyun's provocation of the newcomers today, everyone in the reserve team, including Captain Ren, was very clear about it. He was just using the newcomers to establish his power and deliberately bully them.

Usually, when the team sparred with each other, they would choose opponents with similar strength. This way, they could discover their own shortcomings and improve.

Captain Ren had a good relationship with the burly man, so he knew his situation quite well. The burly man had been in the reserve team for more than three years and was considered one of the top experts in the reserve team.

At the end of this year was the bi-annual selection of the Shi family's guards, and the burly man was very likely to stand out from the reserve team, so he ' attracted a lot of attention.

It would be difficult to find a worthy opponent even in the reserve team, yet he wanted to fight a rookie from the reserve team.

If Captain Ren wasn't present and heard the burly man speak, he would have suspected that he had misheard.

"Liu Xiao..." Captain Ren couldn't help but call out the big man's name. The big man didn't seem to hear his greeting. Instead, he looked at song Qing with great interest and belittled him,"

"Are you interested?"

Although he said that he was asking for Song Qing's opinion, he had already unzipped his coat, took it off, and threw it in Captain Ren's direction. He began to move his hands and feet.

'Hiss', when the onlookers saw this scene, they were both curious and excited.

It was not common to see people from the reserve team fighting. Although the two teams were in the same place, they were clearly separated from each other. The people from the reserve team usually did not dare to run to the wrong area, in case they were caught and taught a lesson.

At this moment, to be able to see someone from the reserve team make a move was beneficial to everyone. At the same time, they could understand the gap between them and the reserve team. Naturally, everyone was overjoyed.

At first, Tan Wen was still frightened when Du Xingyun provoked him, but he didn't expect Song Qingxiao to unexpectedly defeat Du Xingyun not long after the battle began.

She couldn't believe it, but before she could celebrate, she heard Liu Xiao from the reserve team challenge Song Qingxiao. Her laughter was stuck in her throat, and the smile on her face turned into worry.

Qing Xiao ..." She licked her lips, crossed her hands in front of her stomach, and twisted her fingers.

Song Qingxiao and Du Xingyun's match had ended too quickly, and she had just arrived, so the crowd didn't know her strength.

Although it seemed that she was definitely stronger than Du Xingyun, there was still a huge gap between Du Xingyun and the people in the reserve team.

"How do you want to fight?" The man didn't seem like he would allow her to reject him, and Song Qingxiao's interest was piqued.

She had not gone through proper martial arts training. Although her body had been strengthened, she had mostly relied on spiritual power and spiritual techniques to win in the trial. She rarely fought in close combat with others.

If she could gain some experience from the competition and strengthen her body's reaction, it would be a good thing for her.

As soon as she agreed, the burly man immediately got into position.

"You have a weapon you can use. How about we do it here?"

As soon as he said this, Song Qingxiao pursed her lips and revealed a smile.

"Sure."

Although she said that, she did not have any intention of asking for weapons from anyone. It was obvious that she wanted to fight the enemy empty-handed.

Liu Xiao frowned but did not say anything.

As soon as the two of them wanted to compete, the onlookers moved further away, leaving more space in the middle for the two of them to compete.

Some people ran out excitedly, obviously wanting to spread the news so that more people would come to watch.

Captain Ren saw that he couldn't persuade Liu Xiao and thought of Song Qingxiao's previous attack. He felt a little more at ease and became interested. He asked Du Xingyun,

"Are you alright?"

Du xingyun was still trembling. Song qingxiao's murderous eyes were reflected in her mind, causing a huge psychological shadow.

At this moment, when he thought of this person, he couldn't remember what she looked like or what she was wearing. He only remembered that when he was grabbed by the neck, her cold eyes were staring at him.

Song Qing's little hand was quite measured. Du xingyun was thrown to the ground by her. It looked like a heavy fall, but in fact, she had only used 30% of her strength.

The members of the reserve team were also good at wrestling all year round, so their physical fitness was far better than ordinary people.

It was just that she couldn't sit up at the beginning, but after a while, she felt much better. When she heard Captain Ren's question, she nodded, barely holding back the fear in her heart, and whispered,"

"I'm fine."

Having said that, Captain Ren still called for someone to take her to the infirmary for a physical examination.

She was a seedling that Captain Ren of the reserve team was very optimistic about, so she couldn't make any mistakes. However, du xingyun was stubborn and refused to leave.

Today, she had lost so much face in public, so she wanted to find out more about song Qing's background. Now that Liu Xiao from the reserve team was fighting with her, it was a good opportunity. In the future, she could only advance by knowing herself and her enemy.

She insisted on not leaving, and Captain Ren had no choice but to get someone to help her stand further away.

After he also took a few steps back, he smiled and said to the people around him,"

Liu Xiao is an expert in the reserve team. He's very likely to be selected as one of the guards this year. Open your eyes wide and observe his skills. Study his combat style and gain experience. Don't miss this rare opportunity!

When everyone heard this, they replied in unison,"

"Yes."

Captain Ren touched his chin and started to think about song qingxiao.

She was a newcomer who had just arrived last night. As she had entered the team by relying on the merits of her elders, Captain Ren had not taken her seriously at first. He did not expect the newcomer to give him such a big surprise as soon as she arrived.

From her previous fight with du xingyun, her reaction was quick and her strength wasn't bad. However, her moves were not organized, and it didn't seem like she had undergone systematic combat training.

As he thought of this, the two people in the field were already in a fighting position.

She had already fought with du xingyun once, but song Qing didn't seem to be panting or blushing. It was as if du xingyun wasn't even an appetizer to her.

Ever since she issued the challenge, Liu Xiao had not treated her as a newcomer, but as an equal opponent.

Captain Ren noticed that the muscles on his arms were bulging, and his aura was rising again and again. The people from the reserve team around him could feel his strong fighting spirit, and they were suppressed by him.

This kind of aura was accumulated by Liu Xiao through years of fighting and competitions. Before the battle even began, he could make people feel scared.

However, Song Qingxiao, who was standing opposite him, did not seem to be suppressed by him. Compared to Liu Xiao's tension, she seemed at ease and casual.

She was staring at Liu Xiao. Captain Ren noticed that her eyes were bright and clear on her slightly pale face..

Chapter 498: Strength I

When Liu Xiao first saw Song Qingxiao and Du Xingyun exchange blows, his dodging trajectory and attack movements had aroused his fighting spirit.

He had been in the reserve team for several years and had a wealth of combat experience. Generally speaking, when an opponent stood in front of him, he could roughly figure out the opponent's background. His eyes could capture the subtle expressions of the opponent and judge the situation from there.

However, now that the newcomer was standing in front of him, he vaguely felt that something was not right.

The person in front of her was like a pool of water or a mountain. He had preemptively released his aura, but it had no effect on her at all. He didn't know if it was because he had mastered the art of maintaining his aura or if he was just putting on an act.

He had already said that he would allow her to use weapons, but she did not take out any. Instead, she was just like him, ready to fight with her bare hands.

Liu Xiao's eyes darkened, be careful.

He reminded her and took the lead to punch her.

Compared to du xingyun, whether it was in terms of strength or speed, he was more than one level higher.

The audience first heard Liu Xiao's feet making a 'clang' on the ground, and then their vision blurred. Liu Xiao's body turned into an afterimage, wrapped in a large cloud of dust, and rushed toward song qingxiao.

Captain Ren saw this and nodded. He loudly pointed at the team members around him,"

"Did you guys see that? the dust that Liu Xiao created is also one of the methods to deal with the enemy."

There was dust on the training ground, which could easily blind people's eyes. It was a good time to attack when one's body dodged instinctively.

"All of you are still lacking compared to the real members of the reserve team, but you can learn some combat techniques."

Captain Ren's words were not only heard by the team members, but also by Liu Xiao and song qingxiao.

Liu Xiao knew in his heart that he was not only giving advice to his team members, but he was also deliberately saying this for song qingxiao to hear. However, he did not take it to heart.

As a member of the reserve team, it was reasonable for him to take the opportunity to give some advice to the younger generation.

Besides, Captain Ren could have pointed this out to song qingdian, but even if she knew his plan, she might not have the ability to avoid it.

He was about to punch her, but song qingxiao could roughly gauge his strength from the wind. She twisted her toes and quickly retreated.

She didn't have the intention to end the battle quickly. After all, she had just arrived here. She had already been in the limelight by defeating du xingyun today. If she quickly defeated Liu Xiao, it would attract too much attention.

Moreover, she had the intention to use Liu Xiao as a practice, so she had no intention of fighting back for the time being.

Liu Xiao's attack missed, so he retracted his fist and turned his palm into a knife, slashing toward her stomach.

Song qingxiao spread out her hands and put her palms together to block the attack. The knife-like hand hit her palm, but the force was completely blocked by her and could not go any further.

In the beginning, Liu Xiao was worried that he would hurt his opponent, so he restrained himself a little.

However, when he attacked, he felt like his power had sunk into a quagmire. His fingertips were sealed by the soft palm, and it was difficult to break through.

He was stunned for a moment. At this moment, song qingxiao closed her palms and caught his palms. Liu Xiao reacted quickly. He immediately exerted force from his waist, pulled his strong legs up, and kicked in song qingxiao's direction!

Song qingxiao had a rough idea of his strength after exchanging a blow with him.

Even if Liu Xiao's kick hit her, it would not cause any substantial damage to her. However, she still let go of her hand and quickly retreated again, allowing Liu Xiao to escape.

As soon as his hands were free, his legs kicked the air. His upper body immediately leaned back, and with his palms on the ground, he flipped over and stood up!

After testing out one move, Liu Xiao had a rough idea that Song Qingxiao's strength was at least at the level of a reserve team member.

In the reserve team, he was known for his strength, and few people could compete with him in strength.

Even though he had held back his strength, Song Qingxiao was able to take the blow head on, which was enough to prove that her strength was not weaker than his.

Thinking of this, Liu Xiao was overjoyed. He shouted,

“Again!”

This time, he no longer held back his strength. Every move was as fast as lightning, and his powerful legs swept across Song Qing's lower body. Every move was fierce.

The clashing sounds of the two people's moves made people's scalps go numb.

In the training field, no one dared to breathe too loudly. Liu Xiao went all out and attacked with all his might, while Song Qingxiao focused on defense and dealt with the attacks calmly.

In the blink of an eye, the two of them exchanged several moves. For a moment, only the sound of fists and feet joining together could be heard. Captain Ren clenched his fists and his blood boiled. For a moment, he forgot to comment to his team members.

Liu Xiao's moves were fierce. After each move, his muscles and breathing were in sync. When each move was executed, his body would form a memory and exert the greatest force in the most energy-saving way.

Song Qingxiao, on the other hand, had not undergone any systematic training. In Captain Ren's words, she was very wild.

However, her quick reaction left Captain Ren in awe.

It was as if she was born with fighting instincts. She could always Dodge or block Liu Xiao's attacks. Her figure was like a ghost, and she was still at ease under Liu Xiao's attacks. It didn't seem like she was going to lose.

After more than a dozen moves, Liu Xiao's palm hit nothing. He twisted his body, clenched his fists, and placed them on his waist. He raised his long leg and, taking advantage of his height, swept it down on song Qing's small shoulder!

Captain Ren's heart tightened when he saw this.

Liu Xiao's lower body was strong, and his leg strength was far better than the others in the reserve team. Judging from the sound of the wind and the force, he had probably used all his strength in this kick.

If it hit, song Qing's shoulder blade would have been crushed.

He opened his mouth, but he couldn't make a sound due to extreme nervousness. He could only instinctively grab du xingyun's arm, who was watching attentively, and his fingertips almost pinched into her flesh.

However, du xingyun's attention was completely focused on the fight between the two people in the arena. For a moment, he even ignored the pain and didn't make a sound.

Liu Xiao's long leg swept down, and song Qing clenched her small hand into a fist and raised her arm to support her shoulder. With a loud bang, Liu Xiao's heel hit her small arm!

Even though her body had been strengthened, she still felt her arm go numb from the impact. She could feel that Liu Xiao's strength was indeed extraordinary.

What song qingxiao didn't know was that Liu Xiao felt as if his heel had hit an extremely hard steel plate. The force was reflected back, and the bones in his ankle made a cracking sound.

He was shocked, but what shocked him even more was what happened next. Song qingxiao felt a sharp pain in her heel after being hit, but she seemed to be fine. She raised her arm and lifted her body up.

At this critical moment, Liu Xiao endured the pain and calmly took advantage of the momentum of her lifting. His body rose into the air and he jumped behind her.

Before he even landed, he twisted his body and tried to grab her back!

Song qingxiao's back was still heavily injured from the Cerberus's escape from the terror Battalion trial. Although her injuries had eased a little after her cultivation last night, if she had been scratched by Liu Xiao, the scabbed wound would have probably opened up again.

She quickly took a step back and turned around, not facing anyone with her back. Liu Xiao's grab missed, so he turned his palm into a fist and punched her chest!

This man was indeed experienced in combat. Years of combat had carved his ability to adapt to the situation into his bones.

When his fist came, song qingxiao also used 70% of her strength, clenched her fist, and turned around.

'Boom'!

The two fists collided in mid-air with a loud boom. The force of the collision forced Liu Xiao to retreat!

With this loud sound, the hearts of the surrounding members throbbed heavily. It was as if this attack had hit them. Everyone felt a dull pain in their palms and fingers.

The wind from the fist blew song Qing's hair and stuck it to her cheek. She took a few steps back before she could stand firm. Liu Xiao had already retreated a few meters away, but he still clenched his fist and panted heavily.

In this short period of time, he was already covered in sweat. His muscles were tangled and hot..

Chapter 499: Call for a stop (1)

The training ground was silent for a long time. Everyone was still immersed in the momentum of the two men's punch and took a long time to recover.

Dust filled the air. After Liu Xiao steadied himself, he slowly retracted his hand.

"Hahaha, I'm done, I'm done!"

His loud laughter woke up the stunned onlookers. Captain Ren came back to his senses and hurriedly let go of du xingyun's hand.

There were a few blue and purple handprints on her wrist, but she seemed to have forgotten the pain and had a resentful expression.

Although the exchange between song qingxiao and Liu Xiao did not last long, it was an eye-opening experience for everyone.

Liu Xiao's strength was unparalleled, but song qingxiao didn't fall into a disadvantageous position. She even had the energy to fight back. She fought back with Liu Xiao, who was a reserve member. It seemed like they were evenly matched, which shocked everyone.

Du xingyun's disappointment was beyond words. She had previously bragged in front of song qingxiao, but now she felt ashamed.

When she was pushed to the ground by song qingxiao, other than fear, she also felt a little unconvinced. It was only when she saw that song qingxiao was not at a disadvantage against Liu Xiao that she realized the gap between her and song qingxiao.

If she had used the strength she had when she fought Liu Xiao, she would not have been able to stand.

Captain Ren looked at the dazed girl and patted her shoulder to comfort her. Du xingyun had always been proud and arrogant, but he had probably suffered a big blow this time. It was unknown how long it would take for him to adjust his mentality.

today's competition is a rare and valuable experience. Everyone must firmly remember it in your hearts. Captain Ren retracted his hand and said to the team members in the training field with a serious face,"

"Liu Xiao's combat techniques and fighting style are worth learning."

As he said this, his eyes fell on song qingxiao, and he said with joy,"

"Qing Xiao's reaction is very quick, and her dodging is very skillful."

The competition between song qingxiao and Liu Xiao had piqued the interest of the other team members. They asked Captain Ren for advice one by one, and Captain Ren answered them patiently.

Some people gathered their courage and approached Liu Xiao, asking him about the tips of martial arts.

Tan Wen and the others walked towards song qingxiao in disbelief. Jiang xiachuan's expression was complicated as he looked down on song qingxiao.

Yu Yin, who was hiding behind him, also peeked out from time to time to secretly look at song qingxiao.

After the fight with Liu Xiao today, everyone knew that this new member, who had just arrived last night, would not be able to stay in the reserve team for long.

"Qing Xiao, you're amazing!" Tanwen's eyes were filled with admiration. He crossed his hands and clenched them in front of his chest, suppressing his excitement.

“He’s really, really amazing.”

Song qingxiao smiled and looked at Liu Xiao instinctively. Coincidentally, Liu Xiao turned to look at her while he was explaining to song qingxiao.

The two had just finished their match. Liu Xiao was drenched in sweat. His combat uniform was soaked and stuck to his body, showing the shape of his muscles.

She was only sweating on her forehead, but the coat was still firmly wrapped around her body. Her breathing was not disordered, as if she had just warmed up.

She pushed the hair stuck on her face behind her ears and turned to talk to tan Wen and the others. Many team members around her were secretly looking at her, but their eyes were different from the previous ones, with some worship. Taking this opportunity, Captain Ren announced that the assessment for this season would be held in five days. The specific assessment items would be sent to inform everyone later.

When they heard about the assessment, some people were happy, while others were worried.

After Captain Ren informed the candidates of the assessment, he sent away the reserve members who surrounded him and handed his coat to Liu Xiao. He was a little envious.

“Your strength has improved a little since the last reserve team assessment.” Although Liu Xiao and song qingxiao’s match didn’t last long, Captain Ren’s blood boiled when he saw the exchange of blows between experts of this level. It evoked the battle intent hidden in the bottom of his heart.

Liu Xiao nodded his head. He did not hold back his strength when he was sparring with song qingxiao, and Captain Ren could tell that something was wrong.

He took the clothes and put them on.

“Actually, with your strength, you are already at the level of the reserve team.” After entering the reserve team, they were surrounded by members of the same level. They often sparred and guided each other, and their progress was amazing.

If Captain Ren was envious, he could give up his duties as the captain of the reserve team and enter the reserve team to seek a breakthrough.

“I’m different from you.” Captain Ren waved his hand and rejected Liu Xiao’s suggestion. He was just being generous.

Captain Ren wasn’t old, but he wasn’t young either. He was close to 40 years old. At this age, even if he were to enter the reserve team, he wouldn’t be considered outstanding.

In addition, he had been managing the reserve team for many years and was busy with worldly affairs. Unlike Liu Xiao, who focused on martial arts, it was difficult for him to make such progress if he was not focused.

Liu Xiao was just making a casual remark. Since Captain Ren had rejected him, he did not continue to pester him on this issue.

As the two of them walked out of the training field, Captain Ren recalled the scene of the previous competition and was still a little excited. He smiled and said,

“I didn’t expect the reserve team to have such a good seedling. He saw Liu Xiao putting on his coat and asked,”

I don’t think this new guy will stay in the reserve team for long. I’m afraid he will become one of the top players in the reserve team in less than two years, just like you.

Captain Ren was overjoyed and rubbed his hands. As soon as he finished speaking, Liu Xiao stopped putting on his clothes and said with a serious expression,”

“No,” she said.

He shook his head, this newcomer's strength is not below mine.

Liu Xiao's words stunned Captain Ren. At first, he thought that Liu Xiao was joking, but when he saw Liu Xiao's serious expression, he couldn't help but widen his eyes.

"You're serious?"

"Of course, I'm not joking!" Liu Xiao swung his arm. you saw it during the competition. I didn't hold back.

However, almost all of his attacks were blocked by her. When he swept his leg towards her shoulder, she could actually rely on her own strength to resist, just this point alone was enough to prove that her physical strength was not inferior to Liu Xiao's, and even slightly superior.

Their fists collided in the end, and she was able to withstand all of it. She only took a step back, and it seemed like she was not at a disadvantage.

On the contrary, Liu Xiao's arm was numb and sore at that time, and he only felt pain now.

As he said this, he pulled up the sleeve of his coat to verify his words! Thin and dense purple bruises appeared on his muscular forearm.

It was caused by the bleeding of the capillaries after they burst under the shock of the force. Because they were so dense, it was quite scary.

Captain Ren took a look and was dumbfounded. Liu Xiao pulled down his sleeve to cover the marks.

"Besides, if I'm not wrong, she might be injured."

His words surprised Captain Ren even more, but Liu Xiao continued,"

“I can smell blood on her.”

Although she didn't look like she was injured and was very weak, Liu Xiao was very sure of that.

Her injury should be on her back. When he reached out to grab her back, she dodged it with great agility and even fought back.

Captain Ren's expression was a little stern. There was a newcomer in the team, and according to Liu Xiao, she might have been injured.

For Liu Xiao to smell the scent of blood, the injury was probably not light, but she was able to fight to a draw with Liu Xiao after the injury. The more he thought about it, the more shocked he was. He couldn't help but turn around and ask,”

“Who do you think this newbie is?”

Chapter 500: nothing happened (1)

Captain Ren frowned, this newcomer is so young, but he ended up in a draw with you...

Liu Xiao's action of pulling up his sleeve paused. In fact, this competition was not considered a draw.

He had called for a stop earlier because he smelled the blood on Song Qingxiao and knew that she was injured.

After he stopped, although they had only exchanged a few moves, he had used all his strength and was drenched in sweat, but she seemed to have just warmed up.

Based on this alone, Liu Xiao had a vague feeling that she had not used her full strength in this competition.

If that was the case, it proved that not only was this newcomer's strength not on par with his, but it was even more likely that he was stronger than him!

Liu Xiao was excited when he thought of this.

There was actually such a character in the reserve team!

He didn't point out Captain Ren's words. Captain Ren was frowning and deep in thought.

"This newbie is injured. Where did he get his injuries? With such strength, why didn't the higher-ups specially recruit him into the guards?"

"Don't care so much!" Liu Xiao wiped the sweat from his forehead, the people who can come in have family backgrounds that have been reviewed by the higher-ups for several generations. Who are you to worry about?"

besides, didn't you mention it yourself? her father was a member of the 'Eagle' team back then. Maybe it's because of his family's teachings?"

Captain Ren's brows were still furrowed. He shook his head and said,"

"I think there's a problem." Seeing that Liu Xiao did not mind, he added," she's here with me. If anything happens to her in the future, I'll have to take responsibility.

Liu Xiao tried to clench his fist. After the collision with Song Qingxiao, his arm was not as strong as before. He kept moving his arm, trying to recover as soon as possible. Hearing Captain Ren's words, he laughed without raising his head. "What does it have to do with you? Even if there's a problem, the examiner will be the one to take the blame, and you'll say you don't know anything!"

He then added,”

“Aren’t your leaders very familiar with shrugging off the responsibility? Why are you chirping so much now?”

Captain Ren’s mind was full of questions, but when he heard what he said, he immediately turned hostile and scolded,”

“Nonsense! Am I that kind of person?”

After being interrupted like this, Captain Ren’s previous worries were immediately dispelled. Seeing him move his arm, he couldn’t help but grin, she’s competed with you. If something really happens to her, you’ll also be guilty of not reporting it.

“It’s none of my business,” I’m just a warrior,” Liu Xiao said nonchalantly. I’m not from the intelligence Department. I’m in charge of collecting information.

He said irresponsibly,” in any case, I just want someone to compete with me. When this new girl recovers, I’ll come to her for advice. Don’t worry about it.

Captain Ren was rendered speechless by his words. When he wanted to speak again, he saw someone walking over from the other end of the training ground.

“The reserve team.” Captain Ren recognized the people from the reserve team and said in a low voice,”

“They must have heard the news of you competing with someone and specially rushed over to observe.”

After all, Liu Xiao’s moves were worth watching and learning from.

However, no one had expected the martial arts competition to end so quickly. Liu Xiao shrugged his shoulders and said, ““I’m afraid they’ll have made a wasted trip.”

"I won't go for nothing!" Captain Ren chuckled. He had already forgotten about Song Qingxiao's suspicions and was smiling widely. "Since you're already here, why don't you give some guidance to the juniors in the reserve team so that you don't make a wasted trip?"

As he said this, he walked toward the group.

After Liu Xiao and Captain Ren left, some of the people who had watched the match between Song Qingxiao and Liu Xiao also left to practice.

However, there were still a few people who stayed behind and followed Song Qingxiao.

Tan Wen was proud of this, and his face was red with excitement.

They had all relied on the glory of their elders to enter the reserve team. They were usually ignored and looked down on by others, and they had to avoid Du Xingyun and other people who didn't like them. They had been very timid in the reserve team. Song Qingxiao's action today had simply helped them vent their anger.

Qing Xiao, Liu Xiao is an expert in the reserve team. I broke out in a cold sweat when I saw his movements, but you didn't suffer any losses. You're really amazing!

Tan Wen's eyes sparkled, and the others also nodded.

Song Qing smiled slightly, feeling a little uncomfortable with the warm gazes and words of praise from the crowd.

"I just heard the captain say that the assessment is in five days? What are the general contents of the assessment?"

As soon as she asked, Tan Wen didn't even have time to speak before a young man spoke first,

Qing Xiao, you are new here and might not be clear about many things. Here, we have a monthly assessment. Those who perform well in the assessment will be recorded in the file. Every season, the reserve team will promote three members to join the reserve team.

As soon as he finished speaking, the other girl continued,” the content of the assessment is not fixed, but it's not easy. For example, in our assessment last month, we took the iron pen specially ordered by the captain and carved poems on the huge rock.

“That iron brush is at least two hundred pounds. It's hard to carry it, and you'll have to engrave a poem on it.” Everyone chimed in,

“The carved words can't be ugly, and the mark must be deep ...”

Someone said,” it still depends on the team leader's mood when it comes to such an assessment.

If he was in a good mood, the poem might be short and simple, if Captain is in a bad mood...

When the man said this, he shivered. The others all showed a look of lingering fear.

“I'm afraid this poem is stinky and long, like an old lady's foot-binding cloth.” Under such circumstances, the assessment was naturally a difficult and tiring job. Sometimes, if one could not complete it, there would be additional punishment. It was naturally unspeakable.

I only hope that this month's assessment won't be such a topic. After the person who said this sighed, everyone was silent for a long time. Then, someone said with little confidence,” the team leader said that he would send someone to inform us of the details of the assessment later. It should be another assessment content, right?”

Everyone was silent for a while. It seemed that they were really afraid of this test. Even tan Wen and the others looked like they had a headache.

“Forget it. We’ll know later anyway.” Someone spread out his hands. Qing Xiao, you’ve just arrived. I’m afraid you’re not familiar with this place. Why don’t we show you around and get to know more about it?”

Song qingxiao wasn’t used to having so many people by her side, not to mention that after she had a general understanding of the team’s situation, she was ready to go back to her room to meditate and see if the silver Wolf had woken up.

She declined everyone’s good intentions. Although everyone was disappointed, they did not dare to force her. Someone gathered his courage and asked,”

“Qing Xiao, in the future, if I don’t understand anything in cultivation, can I come and ask you for advice?”

She nodded, if I can help, no problem.

Everyone’s eyes lit up when they heard this and they thanked him profusely.

After getting rid of the onlookers, song qingxiao said goodbye to tan Wen and the others who were reluctant to leave. After she was alone, she let out a sigh of relief. After getting to know the specific location of the reserve team, she returned to her room..
