

Watch Out 501

Chapter 501: Guan Yi_I

When song qingxiao came back, she first looked at the silver Wolf. It was still lying on the ground, unconscious.

However, she did not know if it was her illusion, but she felt that the silver Wolf's aura seemed to be stronger than before she left, as if its injuries were gradually healing.

With a serious expression, she squatted down and reached out to touch the silver Wolf's fur.

The Wolf's fur was soaked in blood, and after the blood dried, it turned dark brown, causing the fur to stick together. Under her grasp, a large piece of dried blood fell down along with the silver hair she had grabbed.

Under the fur, a wound was revealed.

There were many wounds on the silver Wolf's body from the three-headed dog's claws and bites, and a large amount of its fur had been burned to pieces by the three-headed dog's flames.

There were a few wounds on its abdomen that almost split open. She had checked it before she went out in the morning. The wound was still bleeding, but in just a short one or two hours, the bleeding had stopped and a thick layer of scab had formed. It did not look like a new wound at all.

She reached out and touched the scabs. Even in a coma, the silver Wolf's body still reacted to external contact.

The wound was a little scorching, which should be related to the flame poison in its wound from the Cerberus.

However, the silver Wolf's recovery ability seemed to have improved compared to the last time it was injured.

Was it because the Cerberus's genes had been further modified after it had eaten its internal organs, or was it because he had given it his blood before he left?

She couldn't think of a reason for a while. After confirming that the silver Wolf was fine, she got up and walked in the direction of the practice room.

The frost that had formed on the floor when she left in the morning had already melted, but the temperature in the room was quite low.

Song qingxiao only took off her coat when she returned.

The wound on his back had opened up during the previous exercise, and blood seeped out, sticking to the wound and his clothes.

She took off her clothes. The wound was torn, and blood flowed down her back. Song qingxiao frowned, troublesome.

Although there was usually no one in the reserve team to control them, it was normal for the members to compare notes and compete with each other. In addition, there would be an assessment in a few days.

According to the people in the team, the assessment was not easy. If the injury on her back did not heal as soon as possible, it would make it difficult for her to move.

Moreover, she still wanted to go out after the assessment. Being injured would definitely affect her.

Although this trial had just ended, she wasn't sure when it would open again. It was always better to recover in advance.

Thinking of this, Song Qing used his divine sense to browse through the divine trial exchange space.

She remembered seeing it in the exchange space last night. There was a special medicine exchange.

It was just that she didn't pay special attention to it at that time. Instead, she browsed through the weapons, cultivation techniques, and so on.

At this time, her spiritual sense sank into it and fell on the 'medicine exchange'.

The medicines in the trial space appeared in her consciousness. Among the medicines that could be exchanged in the trial space, besides medicinal pills, there were also medicinal formulas, medicinal herbs, and tools for refining medicine.

However, after using her divine sense to scan the area, she found that these things required a lot of points. Learning the basic pharmaceutical skills required at least 10000 points, which was not something she could afford.

She ignored all these and focused on the medicine.

There were all kinds of medicines. In addition to antidotes and healing pills, there were also various kinds of pills that could preserve one's beauty, strengthen one's body, and enhance one's spiritual power.

Song Qingxiao's consciousness first fell on the elixir that enhanced the cultivation of spiritual power. Red spirit pill.

The pills were red in color, indicating that each one was worth 100 points.

Song Qingxin's heart skipped a beat, and he clicked on the exchange button.

As soon as she finished the exchange, 100 points in her sea of consciousness were immediately deducted, leaving her with only 333 points. At the same time, a red pill appeared in her palm.

She did not hesitate to put the elixir into her mouth. As soon as the elixir entered her mouth, it turned into a warm current that flowed into her throat. It turned into a small stream of pure spiritual power and scattered in her veins.

When the small amount of spiritual energy entered his veins, it was like a small stream flowing into a River. It did not cause a single splash.

Song qingxiao vomited so much that her chest hurt. She had spent 100 points to exchange for spiritual power. It was not as good as meditating and cultivating for a few days. n ovel.com

However, if this kind of medicinal pill was exchanged, it would be useful in some special emergencies during the trial. Unfortunately, it was of little value to her now..

Chapter 502: Guan Yi_2

She didn't have many points left, and she had just wasted 100 points. Even if she regretted it now, it would be useless.

Above the red spirit pill, there was another brown pill called the 'true spirit pill'. It was also a pill that improved the cultivation of spiritual power, but its effect should be better than the red spirit pill. However, each pill cost 300 points.

After what had just happened, song qingxiao naturally did not dare to point randomly. Her divine sense quickly moved away from the true spirit elixir and landed on the antidote.

After taking the Cerberus's attack, there was flame poison left in her body. It had seeped into her veins and had a certain effect on her.

Although it was controlled by her spiritual energy, her own strength was also restricted, and she couldn't completely get rid of it in a short time.

She quickly browsed through the antidotes. There was a complete range of antidotes. There were basic antidotes, mid-grade antidotes, and antidotes that were specifically targeted at snakes, insects, rats, and ants. However, they were all expensive and not what she could afford at the moment.

The basic antidotes were cheap, only 50 points each.

This kind of pill should have no problem curing ordinary poisons, but it probably couldn't cure the fire poison in her body.

She thought of Luo zhiyu. He had been injured by the silver Wolf's claws and teeth, and the medicinal pill he had taken after being poisoned should have been exchanged from the trial space. It was very likely that it was an ordinary detoxification pill, and the effect was not obvious.

Song qingxiao gave up on the thought of exchanging for antidotes and focused on the healing medicine.

Ordinary external injury medicine was divided into three grades, high, middle, and low. The price of each grade was different. Each low grade medicine required at least 100 points.

She gritted her teeth and endured the pain as she sent her divine sense to the middle-grade healing medicine! beginner healing medicine, mid-grade, each set costs 300 points. ]

Song qingxiao painfully exchanged for a mid-grade healing medicine. After the points were deducted, she only had 33 points left. An ancient-looking white bottle appeared in her hand.

The mouth of the bottle was stuffed with a wooden stopper. She pulled the stopper open, and a bitter medicinal fragrance assailed her nose.

She first cleaned the wound, then poured some medicinal powder on it and carefully applied it to the wound with her fingertips.

After doing all this, she returned to the practice room and meditated. As she circulated her spiritual power, she absorbed the medicinal herbs that had just been applied to her wound to help it heal faster.

The afternoon passed quickly. Song Qing circulated his spiritual power for two large cycles. When he opened his eyes again, he felt that the burning wound on his back was much better than before.

She touched the wound with her hand. The wound that was still bleeding in the morning had already formed a scab. The degree of recovery in half a day was much better than the effect of cultivating the entire night.

Song Qingxin was satisfied. Just as she put on her clothes, she heard soft footsteps. It seemed that someone was coming over.

She got up and walked to the door. When she opened the door, she saw tan Wen standing in front of her door, raising his hand as if he was going to knock.

“What a coincidence,” She raised her head and smiled at song Qing,”

“I was just about to knock on your door. I didn’t expect you to come out.”

Song qingxiao didn’t explain that she had heard her footsteps and opened the door. She just nodded and asked,”

“What’s the matter?”

She tilted her head and tried to look into the room through song Qing’s small body, but she only opened the door a crack. She stood at the door and blocked the room.

The room was quiet, and there was no sound of animals running.

“Ah ...” She was still reading when she heard song qingxiao’s words. She was stunned for a moment before she came back to her senses.

“Oh, there is.”

She pursed her lips, the assessment is out. I thought you didn't know about it yet, so I came to tell you. "It's dinner time, let's talk while we walk," she said enthusiastically.

Song qingxiao nodded and closed the door behind her.

Tan Wen glanced at her and couldn't help but ask curiously,"

"Where's your dog? You're not bringing it?"

Song qingxiao could hear her desire to touch a 'pet', but the silver Wolf was injured and unconscious, so she couldn't let her see it.

She had just arrived last night, and the silver Wolf was still fine when she came. If someone found out that it was injured now, song qingxiao would not be able to explain it.

"No, I won't." it just came to a new place," she said calmly, it might be shy. Let it adapt for two days.

"Oh." Tan Wen was a little disappointed, but he could tell that she didn't want to mention it again, so he tactfully didn't ask further.

The two of them walked in the direction of the restaurant. Tan Wen mentioned the assessment this time.

"Five days later, the team leader will give you a set of tools and ask everyone to go to the forest to mine 50 Jin of ore each and bring it back,"

Chapter 503: Guanji (3)

Speaking of the assessment, she didn't look very nervous.

Her physical fitness was average. From her breathing, footsteps, and weak spiritual power, Song Qing could tell that she did not have any martial arts foundation. This assessment should not be easy for her.

Perhaps he noticed that Song Qing looked down on him, Tan Wen explained with a smile,

"I'm not participating."

For such an assessment in the team, those who were not strong enough could choose to give up.

However, after giving up, they would write it on their resume. Generally, those who could enter the reserve team were carefully selected and sent in by the local governments. They were aiming to be selected to be the Shi family's guard. Naturally, ordinary people would not give up such an opportunity.

However, Tan Wen was different. Although she was the same as Song Qingxiao, she got in because of her relationship with the elders.

However, she wasn't a good seedling for martial arts, and her ambition wasn't in this. Therefore, the monthly assessment was not an easy task for her, and she chose to give up every time.

As a result, Du Xingyun and the others in the team naturally didn't like people like her who occupied a spot but 'ate and drank without paying', so there were often conflicts between the two.

but even if we don't participate in the assessment, we still have other work to do. Yu Yin and I will follow everyone to monitor and see if anyone is trying to be sneaky.

During the assessment, some people would follow the rules, but some people would have crooked ideas. She asked Song Qingxiao,

"You should be participating in the assessment this time, right?"

Song qingxiao had thought that every member had to participate, so she had exchanged for some healing medicine in advance. Now, she knew that she could give up. freewebno(v)el

However, since she had already made preparations, there was nothing wrong with participating. It was just a physical exercise, so she replied,”

“It should be,”

“I think so too. If you can beat du xingyun and compete with Liu Xiao from the reserve team, you might be one of the three people who will be selected to the reserve team this season.” Tan Wen said with a smile.

The two girls chatted as they walked. Most of the time, it was tan Wen who spoke, and song Qing responded with a few words. They soon arrived at the dining room.

The restaurant was full of people from the reserve team. When they saw the two of them come in, everyone’s eyes fell on song Qing. They had obviously heard the rumors about her match with Liu Xiao in the morning.

Some of these gazes were filled with vigilance, some with curiosity, some with caution, and some with eagerness.

Song qingxiao turned a blind eye to these people’s gazes, while tan Wen straightened his back and looked around. He saw Yu Yin standing up in the corner of the dining room and waving her hand timidly,” “Let’s go sit there.” Tan Wen whispered to song qingxiao when she saw someone familiar.

“Here.”

The people in the restaurant were whispering to each other, discussing the competition between her and Liu Xiao during the day.

An extremely complicated gaze fell on song qingxiao. She turned her head and saw du xingyun, who had challenged her earlier in the day.

The girl looked a little dispirited at the moment, as if she had suffered a great blow. She was not as spirited as she had been last night and this morning.

Song qingxiao turned around and looked into her eyes. She lowered her head like a Frightened Rabbit, obviously shocked.

But soon, her young girl's self-esteem made her raise her head again. She looked at song qingxiao unhappily, but song qingxiao only nodded at her and turned her face away. She had no intention of coming over to show off.

After sitting in the corner with tan Wen, people around them still turned their heads from time to time. Yu Yin was so scared that she kept holding Jiang xiachuan's hand tightly.

When they were getting their food, the middle-aged man who was serving the food looked at song qingxiao and paused.

"Are you new?"

Song qingxiao nodded, and he asked excitedly,"

"The one who had a match with Liu Xiao from the reserve team this morning?"

This time, song qingxiao didn't reply. Tan Wen, who was standing beside her, said first,"

"Right!"

"That's amazing!" As soon as the middle-aged man heard tan Wen admit it, his hand trembled, and he put another big spoonful of food into song Qing's small plate, the reserve team is really full of talents this year. Young man, eat more and don't stand on ceremony!

Song qingxiao was speechless. She didn't expect that her competition with Liu Xiao would attract so much attention.

Tan Wen looked at her with envy and sympathy. He envied her for being powerful and getting everyone's attention, but he also sympathetically looked at the extra spoonful of unknown-colored food in her bowl, which made people lose their appetites at first sight. This really wasn't a good reward.

When they brought the food back to the table, song qingxiao couldn't help but ask,

"Liu Xiao is very strong?"

As soon as he said this, not only was tan Wen stunned, but even Yu Yin, who didn't speak much, also opened her mouth wide.

Jiang xiachuan gave her a strange look, as if he found it unbelievable that she would ask such a question.

"Of course he's strong!" "Liu Xiao's strength is one of the best in the reserve team," he added in a determined tone.

At the mention of the reserve team, the young man's expression was somewhat excited.

although there is only a one-word difference between the reserves team and the reserve team, their strength is an obvious dividing line. He clenched his fists and explained,

"It's already very impressive for an average person to enter the reserve team. If you can enter the reserve team within two years, that's normal. To be able to enter the reserve team within a year, he must be someone worth paying attention to in the team, just like..."

He paused here and turned to look in du xingyun's direction. He raised his chin and said,

“Just like that du guy.”

However, a situation like song qingxiao’s was extremely rare.

He was a newcomer, but he had the ability to fight with the experts of the reserve team. He had obviously reached the level of the reserve team. Jiang xiachuan didn’t understand why such a talent would end up in the reserve team and waste his time.

There was a certain difference in the strength of everyone in the team, but the difference would not be too big.

Jiang xiachuan had also seen Liu Xiao’s attack today. Later, he recalled Liu Xiao’s attack. If he were in Liu Xiao’s place, he might not have been able to last more than three moves.

Song qingxiao was able to exchange more than ten moves with him without being at a disadvantage. This alone was enough to make her famous in the team.

Jiang xiachuan looked at her with a complicated expression. If she did well in these assessments, she would probably be promoted to the reserve team by next quarter at most. It was really enviable.

After understanding this, song qingxiao did not say anything else.

A few days passed by in a flash, and the day of the assessment arrived..

Chapter 504: Assessment (1)

On the day of the assessment, song Qing opened his eyes early and stood up in the training room.

In these five days, other than eating, she had been meditating in the training room.

After entering the spirit focus realm, she could use cultivation to replace sleep.

She had gained quite a lot from her cultivation these few days. In addition to the spiritual power she had gained, the wound on her back that was scratched by the Cerberus had healed a lot faster after she had used healing medicine and nourished it with spiritual power.

Perhaps after a period of time, when the scar fell off, there should be no major problems.

Before she left, she took a special look at the silver Wolf. The silver Wolf's recovery rate was even more amazing.

In just a few days, the scars on its body began to fall off, and new tender flesh grew.

The newly grown meat was initially red like the flames on the Cerberus's body, but it had begun to fade over the past two days.

It seemed that after eating the Cerberus's internal organs, the silver Wolf's genes had changed further.

After it absorbed the poisonous fangs of the wyrm dragon on the demon Island, it had obtained the skill of poisoning its claws and fangs.

He just didn't know what kind of benefits it would get after fusing with the Cerberus's gene.

It was about to wake up. When Song Qingxiao touched its wound, its limbs tensed up, as if it could open its eyes at any time.

Song Qing rubbed the wolf's head twice before getting up and leaving.

There was a tense atmosphere in the reserve team, probably due to the assessment today.

After breakfast, she went to the assembly point. As soon as she arrived, she saw that many people had already arrived and were standing in groups of three to five.

There were many unfamiliar faces in the team. She had just arrived, and other than the competition with du xingyun and Liu Xiao on the second day of her arrival, she had spent most of her time in her room, cultivating behind closed doors. Therefore, this was her first time meeting most of the people in the team.

She glanced around and didn't see tan Wen and Yu Yin. She remembered that tan Wen said that they should have other work arrangements for them after they didn't participate in the assessment.

Song qingxiao's arrival attracted the attention of the other people who had arrived first. Even though she stood to the side, a few people still took the initiative to walk in her direction.

"Qing Xiao." The enthusiastic young man in the lead ignored her cold expression and greeted her first. Then, he lowered his voice and whispered, "you have to be careful. The one distributing the mining tools today is the vice-captain, Zhang Yi.

He stood beside song Qing and reminded her,"

"He is of the same origin as du xingyun, and takes very good care of her, like a disciple." Last time, du xingyun provoked her, but was defeated by song qingxiao. Zhang Yi might find trouble with her.

As the assistant of the captain of the reserve team, if he wanted to find fault with song Qing, he might have tampered with the assessment tools and dragged song Qing down, causing his assessment results to be not outstanding.

Song qingxiao nodded and accepted his kind reminder. Before she could thank him, she saw a group of people dragging things in from outside the assembly hall.

The person walking in front was a man in his 30s with a buzz cut, wearing a team uniform that made it easier for him to move, and holding a name list in his hand.

After entering the hall, his eyes swept across the crowd. When he saw Song Qingxiao, his pupils shrank slightly and he immediately looked away.

Although he concealed his expression very well, Song Qing had been on the edge of life and death several times, so his senses were extremely sharp. He could still catch the hostility he was trying to hide and guessed that he should be the Zhang Yi the young man had mentioned.

Everyone should be clear that the assessment this time is to bring your tools up the mountain and collect 50 catties of green iron ore.

Zhang Yi explained the content of the assessment. When the members of the team heard this, they sighed.

"Green iron ore?" The young man standing beside Song Qingxiao also had a bitter expression on his face, as if he was having a headache. "This isn't easy to pick."

Green iron ore was one of the toughest types of ore. It was rare and usually appeared in the form of associated minerals.

In other words, if he wanted to dig up 50 catties of green iron ore, he would have to mine a lot of other ores.

This way, the difficulty of the quest would increase. It was no wonder that everyone was protesting in dissatisfaction.

vice-captain, this is different from the initial stipulated mission. Someone said loudly," Captain Ren didn't say that when he first issued the mission.

That's right. No wonder the mission this time was so easy. They only asked for 50 catties of ore. The team leader is too cunning!

"That's right!"

Everyone protested, but Zhang Yi didn't seem to notice their dissatisfaction.

I would like to remind everyone that this assessment is very important. It will be recorded in your files. At the same time, it will be the key to whether you can enter the reserve team next season.

He paused and smiled maliciously.

in order to prevent everyone from getting bored while mining, the team has given special care to people. They have stationed personnel at the distribution points of the mines to accompany and chat with them!

“What!” As he said this, the protests became even louder.

he's clearly trying to supervise and see if anyone is cheating. He's making it sound so nice.

Zhang Yi raised his voice.

“Due to the lack of manpower in the team, the captain specially borrowed some members from the reserve team.”

With the people from the reserve team around, there was naturally no need to think of any devious ideas during the assessment. However, at the same time, in the process of getting along, everyone might also receive some pointers from the members of the reserve team.

“This is a rare opportunity for everyone.” Hearing Zhang Yi's words, the people who had been very dissatisfied before couldn't help but look forward to it.

He slowly heaved a sigh of relief and picked up the name list.

now, after I read out the names of each person, I will come forward to collect the materials and tools.

After he was done with the business, he continued to read,”

“Su Quan,”

A member of the team hurriedly came forward, and Zhang Yi’s assistant took out a huge bag made of special materials and handed it to him. The bag was heavy, and the things inside made a ‘ding dang’ sound when they collided.

After Zhang Yi read out more than a dozen names, he finally said,”

“Song Qing Xiao.”

Song qingxiao walked toward him. Zhang Yi glanced at her, and the assistant next to him handed him a similar bag with some difficulty.

The bag was woven from an unknown material and was very strong. Song qingxiao took it and weighed it in her hand. It was at least 50 to 60 pounds.

Zhang Yi’s assistant’s arms ached when he lifted it for a while, but song qingxiao carried it as if it was nothing.

Her behavior not only made the assistant look at her in surprise, but even Zhang Yi, who was about to Continue reading the list, turned his head and looked at her with a strange expression.

The bag contained several hairpins, an extremely large hammer, and a small map.

She took out the map and studied it. Zhang Yi quickly read out the list. After everyone got their tools, he said,” everyone, follow the map. Those who complete the mission will get their results by the time they return. I wish everyone a happy assessment.

“Happy my ass.”

Someone muttered, causing the others to laugh along.

Zhang Yi couldn't help but smile. He looked at the time and then waved his hand. Everyone carried their things and ran out of the meeting hall..

Chapter 505: Mine (1)

As soon as the assessment began, everyone was racing against time.

Everyone wanted to be the first to reach the mine and start mining.

Song qingjiang took out the map from his pocket and carefully studied it for a while. After remembering the several marks on the map, he confirmed the direction, closed the pocket, and turned to leave.

The mine she was assigned to was far away, and she had to pass through the forest behind the mountain. Song qingxiao was one step behind the others because she had studied the map first.

However, she was not in a hurry. Instead, she entered the forest at a steady speed.

The terrain in the forest was rugged, and it was not easy to walk.

Brambles and short trees were everywhere, blocking the intruders' steps and increasing the difficulty of entering the mountain.

The brambles at the entrance were trampled by the players who entered the forest first. Song qingxiao followed the traces of the others.

The bag in her hand was heavy, and the mining tools inside clattered against each other as she walked.

Without the sense of urgency that concerned her life during the trial, this mountain path was not difficult for her at all.

As the sun rose, the temperature in the mountains began to rise. Along the way, song qingxiao saw signs left by the reserve team to confirm the route, and she caught up with several teams that had set off first.

However, the deeper she went into the forest, the fewer team members she encountered, and the fewer trampling marks she left on the ground. It was obvious that the people walking in front of her were getting fewer and fewer, and most of them were left behind by her.

Inside the mountain range, du xingyun and the others had walked for more than two hours. They were so tired that they were gasping for breath. They leaned against a big tree and rested temporarily.

Xingyun, our mining spot isn't too far away this time. From the map, it'll take at most half an hour to reach it."

A young man standing next to du xingyun took out a map. His words caused the few young men and women who were gasping for breath to involuntarily let out a sigh of relief.

"Fortunately, the vice-captain took good care of you, xingyun. The mining spot he arranged for us wasn't far from the others."

If the mining site was near, it would save a lot of time and energy compared to others, which was also beneficial for the assessment.

“We’re the ones walking in the front, right?” A young girl used her hand as a fan and fanned her red and sweaty face a few times before asking.

These people were all outstanding existences in the reserve team, and their physical fitness was quite good. In addition, because du xingyun and the vice-captain were like master and disciple, they had obtained the route map to enter the mountain early and studied it in advance without any delay, so they were far ahead of the other team members and walked ahead.

Du xingyun nodded. Hearing the praises of the others, his eyes revealed a bit of pride.

Ever since she had been defeated by song qingxiao, she rarely showed such an expression. Just as she was about to speak, she heard rustling sounds from the bushes not far away.

Everyone was stunned for a moment and turned their heads in unison to look.

A white and slender hand reached out from the bushes and pushed away the trees blocking the way. Song Qing’s small figure passed through the bushes and appeared in front of them.

The moment they saw song Qing, the few people who were chatting and laughing revealed looks of surprise.

From the moment they entered the mountain until now, everyone was sweating profusely and exhausted. In contrast, song qingxiao looked like she was on an outing. Her face was not red, and she was not even panting.

Her eyes swept over du xingyun and the others. Then, as if she had confirmed the route, she silently passed them and went in another direction.

Song qingxiao appeared quickly and left quickly. Not long after, her figure disappeared from everyone’s eyes.

This...” The young man holding the map looked in the direction she disappeared and was dumbfounded.

“Let’s go!” Du xingyun, who had a relaxed expression earlier, bit his lips and stood up.

Song qingxiao walked past them and went to the front of the group.

When there was no one else around, she took out a hairpin from her bag and held it in her hand. She used her spiritual power to split the thorns in her way. With this, she moved even faster and soon arrived at the mine marked on the map.

This mine was located in the middle of the forest, and most of it had been excavated, revealing bare stones.

She walked to the marked point on her map, and about half an hour later, she arrived at the marked mining site.

In the meeting hall, Zhang Yi had clearly said that there would be people supervising the mining meeting today to prevent people from cheating, but at this time, perhaps because she was the first to arrive, the supervisor had not come yet.

Song qingjiang threw away the bag in his hand and started to explore the small area of mineral resources.

The area allocated to her was not small, but the more troublesome thing was that the stone quarry here was a smooth whole piece, making people feel that there was no way to start.

She had seen other ore sources on her way here, and they all had traces of being mined. She thought that the reserve team must have had an ore excavation assessment in the past.

However, because this ore belonged to a whole piece, it was quite difficult for ordinary team members. It seemed that no one had been interested in it for a long time, and the surface of the stone was covered with a thick layer of moss.

After she scraped off the moss on the surface with her hairpin, the hard stone material that was wrapped underneath was revealed.

Song Qing's small palm moved, and the black Dagger that had been nurtured in her dantian appeared in her palm. Before she could do anything, her divine sense caught an aura that was quickly running towards her.

She furrowed her brows and clenched her fist. The dagger that had just appeared was kept back into her dantian.

She turned around and saw a person approaching her from afar. The person's aura was quite familiar. It was Liu Xiao, who had competed with her in the school's training field five days ago.

Before he even got close, he seemed to have noticed Song Qingxiao. He waved his hand and ran even faster. Like a spirit ape, he appeared in front of Song Qingxiao in a few leaps.

Ha, I didn't expect you to come even faster than I did."

After Liu Xiao arrived, he clenched his fists and placed them on his waist, spinning around in the mine.

He was covered in sweat, and it was obvious that he had rushed here.

The reserve team's Zhang Yi had said that in order to prevent the team members from cheating, they had specially invited supervisors. Because the reserve team did not have enough people, Captain Ren had specially invited some people from the reserve team.

"It's you?" Song Qingxiao didn't expect Liu Xiao to be the one supervising her. She had heard some rumors about Liu Xiao from the other Reserve members after their match.

He was one of the candidates from the reserve team who had the highest chance of being selected into the guard team in the past two years. He should have been preparing for the selection at the end of the year, but he had actually appeared here to supervise the reserve team's assessment.

"Yup," He was still a little breathless. He had been running all the way to the mine without stopping. Although he was fast, he had used up more than half of his energy. His heart was beating very fast.

In contrast, song qingxiao was calm and composed. No one knew how long she had been here.

"I shouldn't have been involved in such a small matter, but I asked to come after we had a spar last time."

Liu Xiao ran a few circles in small steps. After he had adjusted his breathing, he started to spin on the spot.

He wiped the sweat from his forehead and glanced at song qingxiao. It was not unexpected that she was the first to reach the mine..

Chapter 506: Making things difficult 1

However, to Liu Xiao's surprise, song qingxiao was leading the way to the mine without any signs of fatigue.

Compared to the last time they sparred, her face was not so pale, and the smell of blood on her body had dissipated. It was obvious that her injuries had improved in the past few days.

Liu Xiao rolled his eyes.

"When we're free, let's have another round?"

"Alright." Song Qing responded with a smile. Liu Xiao was no match for her, but his moves were Orthodox and he was experienced. He did have his merits.

As soon as she agreed, Liu Xiao's face lit up. Just as he was about to speak, his eyes fell on the ore, and the smile on his face gradually disappeared. He frowned and said,"

“Why did the reserve team arrange for you to mine here?”

He had a carefree personality. When he came up the mountain, he was so focused on inviting Song Qingxiao to another fight that he didn't notice the surrounding environment. Now that he saw it, he was dissatisfied.

The stones here are whole, so it's not easy to get them. The reserve team knows that most of them will not be assigned to this place.

The person who arranged this assessment mission was an old man in the team. He should be very clear about this. Now that he had specially marked the mining location for young general Song Qing, it was clear that he wanted to mess with her.

Song Qingxiao couldn't help but think of what the young man had said to her in the meeting hall, “The vice-captain Zhang Yi, who was in charge of distributing missions, was from the same village as Du Xingyun. He often taught Du Xingyun martial arts moves, and was considered half a master to her. She had just joined the reserve team not long ago, but she had already embarrassed Du Xingyun. It seemed that he was deliberately targeting her. “The reserve team needs to mine 50 green iron ores for this mission. Did they make a mistake?” Liu Xiao scratched his head and heaved a long sigh,” “Aiya, I don't care anymore.” He spread out his hands, later on, we'll find a better place to dig. If we work together, I don't believe we can't get 50 catties of ore!

Song Qing looked down on him. The reserve team had invited them to supervise the team members and prevent cheating from happening. However, Liu Xiao didn't have the slightest sense of supervision. Instead, he took the initiative to suggest cheating.

However, Song Qingxiao shook her head.

“No need,” Although she did not want to cause trouble, she was not afraid of trouble.

She shook the pouch, and the stone hammer and hairpin fell out with clanking sounds. “I'll do it myself.”

Song qingjiang picked up the item and held it in her hand. Liu Xiao was stunned for a moment. He saw her step on the stone and seemed to be measuring its size. Then, she held a hairpin and nailed it down with force! This stone was extremely hard. Without any tools, how could she nail it in with her own strength?

Just as Liu Xiao was about to speak, he heard a crisp 'clang'. It was as if she had done it effortlessly. The hairpin was firmly nailed into the stone after being held by her.

"This ..." The scene before him was completely out of Liu Xiao's expectations. However, song qingxiao did not seem to notice his shocked expression. She took another half-step forward with a hairpin in her hand. Just like before, she stabbed the hairpin into the stone!

The reserve team gave each member of the assessment five hairpins. She stuck a hairpin into the stone at a certain distance from each other.

After doing all this, Liu Xiao seemed to come back to his senses and hurriedly went forward to take a look.

The hairpin was not deeply embedded, only about three or four centimeters into the stone. Even so, Liu Xiao was still shocked.

His strength was not small. If he had accumulated all his strength, he could also do this, but it was definitely not as easy as her, and he could still stab several hairpins in a row without changing his expression.

While Liu Xiao was still in a daze, song Qing had finished inserting the hairpin into his hair. He then picked up the heavy hammer and smashed it down!

A crisp sound rang out as the dagger-ax made contact with the stone, and the hairpin sank into the stone!

She dropped a few hairpin into the stone, and a huge crack suddenly appeared in the stone. Under the heavy strike, it cracked and rolled down!

The stone material split open, revealing the ore within.

There were a few dark green translucent crystals next to the dark ore body, which was the green iron associated mine that the reserve team had asked for. Liu Xiao saw her smile and was about to go get the ore. His expression changed from surprise to seriousness.

In the previous match, after he exchanged a blow with Song Qingxiao, he could vaguely feel that Song Qingxiao's strength was extraordinary.

However, he did not expect Song Qingxiao to be more powerful than he had expected. Just based on the power she had displayed during the mining process, he would have suffered more if she had not been injured during the Battle.

Song Qingxiao's mining speed was naturally faster. Liu Xiao had originally expected her to spend an entire day in the mine. Even if it was not noon, she would have a large bag of green iron ore.

The originally flat stone had been chiseled into a mess, and many green iron ores could be vaguely seen among the scattered ores.

"It should be enough."

Song Qingxiao weighed the bag in her hand. When she estimated that it was about the right weight, she put away the tools that were scattered on the ground.

She glanced at Liu Xiao, who was squatting in the corner, and prepared to go down the mountain.

Compared to when they went up the mountain, the way down the mountain was a little easier.

However, she had only come with mining tools and a large bag of ores on her back, but she was running like an arrow, not falling behind Liu Xiao who was running at full speed.

It was only three o'clock in the afternoon when the two of them returned to the reserve team.

Zhang Yi's assistant, who was in charge of registration, was drowsy in the meeting hall. When song qingxiao came back, he rubbed his eyes in disbelief and instinctively looked at the time.

"How is that possible?"

He let out a cry of surprise and immediately got up to check the bag that song qingxiao had brought back. Other than a few tools, there were ores underneath.

The man poured the ore out. It was all green iron ore, without any other minerals mixed in.

He then called out to the others to collect the ores. After he was done, he looked at song qingxiao with a strange expression,"

"65 catties, that's too much,"

After confirming that she had completed the task, the person entered song qingxiao's assessment results into the computer.

After song qingxiao left, the meeting hall exploded.

As soon as she left, the assistant immediately informed Captain Ren and vice-captain Zhang Yi to report song qingxiao's results.

This time's assessment wasn't simple, but the new team members were the fastest to complete it.

If the newcomers in the next assessment still maintained this standard, she was very likely to be the first member in the history of the team to be promoted to the reserve team!

Song Qing walked out of the meeting hall, and looked at Liu Xiao, "

“A match?”

Liu Xiao had volunteered to fight with her today, but to her surprise, Liu Xiao shook his head after a moment of silence.

“Another day,”

After he said this, he seemed to be eager to try. ‘I’m not in my best condition today. I’ll come back another day.’”

Song Qingxiao nodded, and the two separated at the door of the meeting hall. When she returned to her room, she felt movement in the room before she opened the door..

Chapter 507: Rumor (1)

Song Qingxin was overjoyed. She felt the fluctuation of the silver Wolf’s aura and opened the door. The silver Wolf stood up shakily.

Judging from the recovery of the silver Wolf’s injuries, she guessed that it would wake up in one or two days. However, when Song Qingxiao saw that the silver Wolf had really woken up, the heavy stone that had been hanging in her heart was finally put down.

The reason why she was able to escape from the terror Battalion this time was definitely related to the silver Wolf’s help. Naturally, she treated the silver Wolf differently from before.

She flashed into the house, locked the door, and walked in the direction of the silver Wolf.

This time, the human and Wolf entered the trial together and fought side by side. In addition, because of the trial space, the silver Wolf was once sealed in her body, so the human and Wolf seemed to have a closer relationship.

When song qingxiao walked over to the silver Wolf, the silver Wolf's Green eyes were not as alert and guarded as before.

She squatted down in front of the silver Wolf and reached out to its back.

The silver Wolf's eyes were fixed on her hand, and it turned its head as she moved. It let out a low 'wuwu' sound from its nose. It was not until song Qing's small hand landed on its back that its pressed ears moved, and its tense body relaxed.

Many wounds on its body had already recovered. The few wounds that had almost cut its stomach open had completely healed, leaving behind light pink scars.

However, its hair had not grown out yet, making it look a little disheveled. It did not have the majestic feeling it had before.

Perhaps it was because it was seriously injured and had been unconscious for a while, its stomach was sunken, and the rows of ribs were very obvious.

Song qingxiao patted its head. The silver Wolf raised its head and squinted its eyes. It seemed to hesitate for a moment before rubbing its head against song qingxiao's palm.

Its aura was gradually recovering. Its powerful evolutionary genes allowed it to not only recover in such a short time after suffering such a fatal injury, but it was also very likely to evolve again.

She grabbed the silver Wolf's forelimbs to check, and the silver Wolf lazily let her lift its legs.

Its claws were about the size of her palm, and its sharp claws were retracted. When song Qing's small hands touched its claws, it curled up again as if it was afraid of hurting song Qing.

A strange look flashed in song qingxiao's eyes. This was a good sign. The silver Wolf's actions were enough to prove that the proud Wolf King's attitude towards her had changed after the trial.

She took out the internal organs of the Cerberus that she had shared with the silver Wolf from the trial space. These few days, she had been using ice to freeze the internal organs to prevent them from rotting.

After taking out the internal organs and placing them on a plate, Song Qing took out a dagger and cut her palm. Blood gushed out and dripped on the internal organs.

The silver Wolf seemed to have smelled the blood and instinctively turned to look at her.

Song Qing sealed the wound with her spiritual force and placed the basin in front of it.

“Let’s eat,”

The internal organs were not as fresh as they were in the trial scene, but perhaps it was because it was mixed with her blood, the silver Wolf still opened its mouth and ate it.

Song Qing sat cross-legged next to it. As he watched it eat, he thought of something,” after eating the wyrm dragon, your claws evolved. She seemed to be talking to herself,” after eating the Cerberus’s internal organs, your genes should have evolved again. What changes did you get? ”

She did not expect a response from the silver Wolf. Its evolved ability might only be reflected in a certain battle in the future.

Who knew that just as her voice fell, the silver Wolf that was originally eating raised its head, its forelimbs opened the plate, and its retracted claws quietly poked out.

It moved its forelimbs and scratched the ground. Its extremely sharp nails were like invincible knives, easily cutting the floor and leaving a few marks.

Song Qing's small lips were tightly pursed, and she instinctively leaned over to take a look. The place where its claws had scratched was glowing red, and there was a burning smell.

She couldn't help but reach out to touch the ground. The temperature of the claw marks was extremely high, and it was very hot.

"This is..." Song Qingxin was overjoyed. After the silver Wolf's genes evolved again, it seemed to have absorbed the Cerberus's ability. There were flames between its claws.

After it was done, it lowered its head and continued eating.

The silver Wolf's ability had evolved once again. Its claws and teeth already contained the poison of the flood Dragon. If it was added with fire damage, song qingxiao would have another killer move if she could still bring it with her in the next trial..

Chapter 508: Rumors (2)

The next morning, song qingxiao brought the silver Wolf with her when she went out for breakfast.

There weren't many people in the reserve team in the restaurant, and all of them looked listless.

When she arrived, tan Wen and the others, as well as du xingyun's small team, were also there.

As soon as song qingxiao entered the restaurant, she attracted the attention of everyone in the restaurant. When tan Wen saw her, he waved his hand and signaled her to go over.

The silver Wolf followed her step by step, and everyone's eyes fell on this man and Wolf, with different expressions.

“Ah ...” After seeing her approach, tan Wen’s eyes first fell on the silver Wolf, and he let out an extremely disappointed voice,

“Qing Xiao, is this your dog?”

As soon as she said this, the silver Wolf lazily raised its eyes and glanced at her, then turned its head away.

Although its injuries had healed, its fur had not yet grown back after being burned. It looked bald in all directions, neither majestic nor cute.

Tan Wen began to hear that the new team member had brought a pet over. In her mind, the pet in her mind was initially a furry little cutie that would make a baby voice and act cute.

After seeing song qingxiao beat du xingyun and even tied with Liu Xiao, she thought that a girl like song qingxiao would have a majestic, cool, and handsome pet.

She couldn’t believe that song qingxiao would bring out a ‘mangy dog’, and she couldn’t hide her disappointment.

She didn’t feel anything was wrong when the silver Wolf looked at her, but Yu Yin, who was sitting beside Jiang xiachuan, felt goosebumps all over her body.

Song qingxiao pulled out a stool and sat down. She nodded. “Yup,”

She could see that tan Wen was a little disappointed. Perhaps the ‘pet’ she brought was different from what she had imagined.

As soon as she sat down, the silver Wolf also lazily bent its limbs and lay at her feet.

This action saved a good impression from tan Wen.

“It seems to be very close to you.”

Hearing this, song qingxiao turned to look at the silver Wolf. “Yup,”

“Have you been raising this old dog for many years? I feel like I have a good rapport with you.” The silver Wolf had a cold appearance, but for some reason, tan Wen felt that its temperament and demeanor were somewhat similar to song qingxiao in some ways. They both had a sense of alienation and coldness.

When song qingxiao heard her calling the silver Wolf ‘old dog’, she couldn’t help but smile.

Before this trial, she and the silver Wolf were still on guard against each other. She didn’t expect that after the trial, the man and the wolf would work together, and this situation would gradually change.

She stretched out her hand and touched the silver wolf’s head. She did not answer tan Wen’s question, but changed the topic.

“By the way, why aren’t there many people in the restaurant today?”

Tan Wen had been full of curiosity about her pet before, but now he was greatly disappointed. As soon as she changed the topic, tan Wen seemed to have thought of something and suddenly sat up.

“Aiyo!”

Although tan Wen and Yu Yin didn’t take part in yesterday’s assessment, as members of the reserve team, they naturally couldn’t do nothing.

As the supervisor, they also followed him up the mountain.

That Mountain Road wasn’t easy to walk on for people like her and Yu Yin who didn’t practice martial arts. After walking back and forth yesterday, they were in pain all over and couldn’t even lift their arms.

Her big movement made the silver Wolf's ears stand up. After she let out a scream, she gritted her teeth and slowly sat back down.

"Aiyo," She gasped as she rubbed her arms and legs.

"You don't know?" She tilted her head and looked at song qingxiao with a strange expression.

you were first in yesterday's assessment.

Song qingxiao didn't really care about the ranking of the assessment yesterday, but when she came back, the people who were registering in the meeting hall did have a strange expression.

you're not only in first place, you're ahead of second place by a full four to five hours! Speaking up to this point, tan Wen was a little excited.

"The second place is du xingyun."

When she said this, she secretly glanced in du xingyun's direction.

Du xingyun's personality had been restrained a lot after being rebuffed by song qingxiao. Recently, he didn't target tanwen and the others. However, her previous actions still made tanwen very afraid of her. When he mentioned du xingyun, his voice was very low.

"Her mine is closer and easier to mine than yours, but she's still far behind you.."

Chapter 509: Gossip (3)

Yesterday, song qingxiao woke up because of the silver Wolf, so she didn't even eat dinner. She just cultivated in her room and didn't pay much attention to what was happening outside.

At this time, tan Wen told her what happened after the assessment yesterday. Many of the people who participated in the assessment only came back in the evening, some of them only returned to the reserve team in the middle of the night and didn't even finish the assessment.

Those who had come back from a day of mining were exhausted, so until now, many of them were still lying in bed, unable to get up.

When tan Wen said this, he looked at her several times, as if he was hesitating whether he should say something to her.

Song Qing looked down on him, but pretended not to know.

She was not very curious, but tan Wen couldn't help but remind her,"

Qing Xiao, I heard that the vice-captain is a little suspicious of the assessment results.

She leaned her upper body in song Qing's direction and whispered,"

"Last night, the captain and a few others went up the mountain."

When Captain Ren went up the mountain, he wanted to confirm the safety of the members of the reserve team who had not returned yet, but tan Wen heard the news:"Maybe he's going to check the mine that's been given to you,"

A person like her was already in an awkward position in the reserve team, so she paid special attention to these kinds of rumors. She asked more about things and treated it as the foundation of her standing in the team. Sometimes, she would reveal some information to others so that she could get on good terms with them and avoid trouble with them as much as possible.

After spending a few days with her, song qingxiao had more or less figured out her personality.

Since tan Wen could say it, it proved that this matter was very likely to be true.

Captain Ren went to the reserve team last night. I heard he went to look for Liu Xiao, but he didn't see him.

This further proved that what she said was true. Song qingxiao's outstanding performance yesterday had attracted the attention of others, and they had begun to doubt the authenticity of her results.

Captain Ren had probably checked the mountain and confirmed that she had indeed mined the green iron ore in the designated area. He probably suspected that her results were related to Liu Xiao's help, so he went to the reserve team again, probably to find Liu Xiao to verify the situation.

However, song qingxiao did not care. She was only here to find a temporary hiding place. She was only taking advantage of the situation to participate in the assessment. As for her results and whether she could enter the reserve team, it was not her goal or the key to coming here.

He had already said so much, but song qingxiao still showed a calm look. Even tan Wen was a little anxious for her.

"It's true!"

"I know," She nodded, and tan Wen was a little speechless.

"Why are you still so calm when you know?"

Song Qing asked,

"Then what do you think I should do?"

"I should explain it to the captain." Tan Wen clenched his fist, "do you know that the vice-captain treats du xingyun like a disciple? she was originally one of the best members in the team, but you taught her a lesson the moment you came. The vice-captain might be targeting you!"

Song qingxiao only smiled. Seeing her like this, tan Wen became even more anxious.

“If this matter is not handled properly, it might overturn your assessment!”

She ordered some food, suit yourself then.

It wasn't necessary for her to be in the reserve team. If she couldn't, she would stay in the reserve team for two years like tan Wen and the others.

Two years later, she should have entered the trials quite a few times, and her strength should have improved by a large margin. At that time, even if she was not a match for Qian Shan, she would definitely not be like that day on the autumn Festival road, when she was faced with Qiu Shan and was unable to even fight back, almost being killed in an instant.

After her strength had increased, it was no longer surprising that she would not stay here.

Tan Wen's eyes widened. After looking at her for a long time and seeing that she didn't react, he immediately deflated like a balloon.

“I'm not going to care about you anymore.”

She laid down on the table and saw that song qingxiao was not in a hurry to comfort her or explain or apologize. Instead, she nodded and then turned her face away gloomily.

Yu Yin, who was a little timid, saw that she seemed to be arguing with song qingxiao. She was so scared that she hid behind Jiang xiachuan, and the atmosphere became a little awkward.

Song Qing gobbled up her food and said goodbye to the unhappy girl.

For the next few days, rumors about song qingxiao's excellent results spread throughout the team. However, song qingxiao didn't care about them. One week later, Liu Xiao came to the reserve team to look for her and said that he wanted to have another match with her.

After not seeing him for a few days, Liu Xiao's aura was a little different from before.

He should have been adjusting his body these few days and entering a state of preparation in advance.

"Fight in the training field?" His eyes shone with a bright light, and his entire person was in high spirits.

I've already informed old Ren in advance. He should be leading the reserve team over to watch.

As a member of the reserve team, although Liu Xiao was obsessed with improving his strength, he still remembered his duty as a member of the reserve team to guide the younger generation at critical moments.

"As you wish."

Song qingxiao didn't mind and nodded..

Chapter 510: fight_I

Liu Xiao's eyes fell on song qingxiao. Her expression was calm, as if she had just agreed to Liu Xiao's simple condition.

He didn't feel particularly excited or worried because there would be a large number of people watching the next battle. He wondered if her reaction meant that she thought victory was in her hands, or that she was indifferent to winning and losing.

Song qingxiao's performance in the test was like a bomb. Not only did the reserve team explode, but they also heard that song qingxiao was in seclusion to adjust his physical condition for this test. However, Liu Xiao could not see any uneasiness on her face.

This newbie was really strange!

He frowned and looked at the 'dog' with white fur that had been following song qingxiao.

This dog's appearance was really shabby. Most of the fur on its body had fallen off, revealing the meat hidden under the fur.

The flesh in many places had just grown out, perhaps because of the skin disease.

The reason he didn't drop any fur or grow any new flesh on the 'dog' was because it was injured. Liu Xiao thought that if the 'old dog' had been seriously injured, it would not have survived.

Song qingxiao had been very famous in the reserve team recently, so the 'dog' she was leading was also quite famous.

However, Liu Xiao only took one look at the 'dog' and quickly lost interest. He turned his head away.

This 'dog' looked ordinary, except that it was much larger than ordinary dogs.

There was really nothing special about it.

As for why a person like song qingxiao would bring such a 'dog', Liu Xiao did not rashly ask.

At this time, his thoughts were all on the competition that was about to begin. The aura in his eyes rose again and again, intending to control the situation before the competition began.

When the two of them arrived, the training field was already filled with a dense crowd.

After Liu Xiao informed Captain Ren in advance, everyone from the reserve team arrived, including the reserve team!

“Eh?” As soon as Liu Xiao came over, he let out a surprised cry, ““Captain Cao, why are you here?”

In the crowd, the reserve team was led by a strong man with his arms crossed. They stood behind him in order. Other than Captain Ren, who came over to talk to him, the other members of the reserve team hid far away and stared at him with admiration and envy.

“Hmph! It’s rare to see you take the initiative to challenge someone in the reserve team. Now, not only did you find the reserve team to pick an opponent, but you also came twice. I have to come and see.”

The person Liu Xiao called Captain Cao was scrutinizing song qingxiao, as if he was trying to find out what was special about her.

However, no matter how he looked at her, Captain Cao felt that there was nothing outstanding about this girl.

“I don’t think it’s much!” The muscles in her arms were not developed, and her legs were not strong. It looked like the foundation of her lower body was not very stable, as if it would fall if the wind blew.

Captain Cao sighed when he heard that she ranked first in the assessment.

“It seems like the people of the reserve team are getting worse with each generation!”

Captain Ren’s mouth twitched. Captain Cao’s words were like a slap to his face in front of his team members.

Although he had some doubts about song qingxiao’s results in this assessment, he had personally seen song qingxiao defeat du xingyun and compete with Liu

Xiao.

Her reaction was very agile, and her movements were also agile.

Liu Xiao's attacks were known for their ferocity, and few in the reserve team could match his strength. Song qingxiao was able to Dodge more than 10 moves in the beginning, which was more than enough to defeat many in the reserve team.

Not to mention the last exchange between her and Liu Xiao. He had clearly seen Liu Xiao's arm being hit by the backlash, which was enough to prove that song qingxiao's strength was not weak, and it was not what she appeared to be. "What the hell are you talking about, old Cao!" Captain Ren retorted angrily, without the reserve team to send you talents, how can you be happy like this?

"It was years ago when the reserve team sent me talents!" Seeing that he was angry, Captain Cao raised his head and snorted at him, looking even more proud.

I heard that an accident happened during the assessment this time. A few team members couldn't even complete their tasks and only came back in the early hours of the morning crying!

As soon as he said that, a few people in the reserve team lowered their heads in shame, but they successfully ignited Captain Ren's anger.

"What back then? If you're old and your memory isn't good, how about I help you recall?" He cracked his fingers, looking like he was about to fight.

"Alright, come on!" When Captain Cao heard this, he immediately got into formation. I haven't fought in a long time. It just so happens that there s a venue here. Let's have a fight!

Liu Xiao looked like he was having a headache. He quickly stepped forward and pulled the two captains apart.

"Alright, old Ren, calm down!"

yeah, otherwise, we won't be able to regain our face if we cry in front of our team members. Captain Cao's words were like a bucket of oil being poured on the fire, making Captain Ren, who had not completely calmed down, furious again.

The members of the reserve team saw that their leader was about to go berserk and quickly came forward to pull him away, afraid that the two disrespectful leaders would fight in public.

Captain Ren's face was red with anger. He was pushed away by a group of team members. He turned to Song Qingxiao and shouted, beat Liu Xiao up today. We'll earn some face for our reserve team! fr(e)

“..” Liu Xiao stared at Captain Ren speechlessly. Hearing this, Captain Cao raised his head and laughed,

“Just based on her thin arms and legs, and her bean sprout-like figure?”

After he said that, Captain Ren, who had been furious earlier, turned his anger into joy and laughed sinisterly.

Captain Cao had never seen Song Qingxiao and Liu Xiao's match, but he had. Liu Xiao had said that Song Qingxiao was not at her peak during the last match.

At that time, she could exchange more than ten moves with Liu Xiao even with her injuries. Now, her injuries had recovered a little. As long as she could hold on for 20 moves and not lose, it would be enough to embarrass Captain Cao.

“Captain ... Captain ...” After dragging him away with his reserve team member, he looked at Captain Ren's chuckling and said in fear,

“Have you gone crazy?”

“What do you know?” Captain Ren stopped laughing and turned around to scold, “Just you wait and see how old Cao is humiliated!”

“Let go!” After he returned to the reserve team, he shook off the team members who were holding him and straightened his clothes.

“Hmph! This old Cao has been showing off for too long. We have to show him some colors.”

The two team leaders stopped, and the crowd cleared the middle area. Song qingxiao stretched out her index finger and poked the silver wolf’s head twice.

She asked Liu Xiao,”

“Do you need to warm up?”

During this period of time, there were more and more onlookers in the training field. The silver Wolf was pressed by her fingertips, and as if it understood her intentions, it slowly sat down with its legs bent.

I ran all the way from the reserve team, he shook his head, no need.

When he said the last two words, his expression became serious..
