

Watch Out 531

Chapter 531: Suspicion (3)

But even so, Song Qingxiao was not completely innocent.

First of all, her strength was hard to fathom, and she had a strange obsession with Nurse Lin's case. She knew about the underworld clan, so when they were in the car, she had specifically mentioned the death of the two people on Autumn Road, pointing out that the person who killed Nurse Lin might be related to the underworld clan.

Moreover, the wolf next to her was also suspicious. Captain An always felt that the Wolf's gaze made him shudder. That feeling was his intuition from many years of service experience. He thought that the silver Wolf was a dangerous creature.

These two points alone were not enough to completely clear him of suspicion.

He glanced at the silver Wolf, and the silver Wolf that was licking its claws raised its head as if it sensed his gaze.

Under the light, the Wolf's blue eyes were like two small fluorescent lanterns, which made Captain An's hair stand on end. He felt as if a big stone was pressing on his chest, making him hold his breath and subconsciously take a step back.

When he realized his fear, he looked at the silver Wolf again, only to see that the Wolf's eyes were full of light, as if it disdained him, and it lowered its head again.

"Where is the picture of the dagger?"

Song Qingxiao's words interrupted Captain An's thoughts, ah? He came back to his senses and realized that he had been stunned by the silver Wolf's glance. The cold sweat that had seeped out of his body had soaked his clothes.

"The daggers you have collected."

Song qingjiang repeated her words to Captain an, and it was only then that Captain an heard her. He took a deep breath and calmed down before taking out a key from the drawer.

“Wait a moment.”

Speaking of nurse Lin’s case, he returned to his serious expression. He opened the case information cabinet at the side with his key, fiddled with it for a while, and took out a thick folder. He threw it on the table and said,

“Take a look,”

The information fell on the table with a muffled sound. Song Qing opened the seal. Inside were the pictures and detailed information of all kinds of daggers collected by Captain an.

“This should be all the daggers designed by the various cold weapon designers of the Empire in the past thirty years.”

Logically speaking, song Qing was not supposed to let nurse Lin look through such confidential information since she was not a police officer.

However, special things had to be done differently. In the true sense, Captain an himself was investigating illegally.

In addition, nurse Lin’s case had a wide range of implications. At this point, he had to admit that it would be difficult to solve the case on his own. Therefore, he had no choice but to let song Qing look down on him in a moment of desperation.

However, when he saw song qingxiao’s face still twitching when she opened the folder, he reminded her,”

“I hope you won’t leak this information after you’ve read it.”

He didn't need to say this, and Song Qingxiao had no interest in spreading these things.

In fact, if she didn't want to find out the origin of her Black Dagger, as well as the murderer who had tried to assassinate her, and to catch the source of danger hidden behind it, she wouldn't have asked for trouble and gotten herself involved in such a matter.

The types, names, and size of the daggers, their origins, and year of production were all listed in the folder. The different angles and shapes of each dagger were clearly captured.

She flipped through the pages very quickly, and there was a rustling sound in the office, but Captain An kept feeling uneasy.

The more Song Qing scrolled down, the more disappointed she became.

When she flipped to the last two pictures, she removed the top picture and revealed a dagger at the bottom. Her eyelids drooped, hiding the depressed feeling in her heart.

Captain An had put in a lot of effort. He had collected a wide variety of daggers, and the size of the dagger matched Nurse Lin's blade. However, none of the daggers were the same as her mysterious black dagger.

Not only did they look the same, but she didn't even see the red leaf logo on the daggers.

The lead was cut off here. She put down the last picture in her hand. Captain An pressed a button in the office. The light distorted, and a four-dimensional image of Nurse Lin appeared in front of them.

Captain An's fingers slid across her neck, and her neck was enlarged and clearer.

"I'll get someone to input these daggers into the A. I. And compare them one by one. Come and take a look."

As he spoke, his fingers moved quickly. Every time he moved, a dagger would be inserted into nurse Lin's neck. He twisted it to imitate the murderer's modus operandi, and blood flowed out. The dagger disappeared, leaving behind a bloody wound.

The video was extremely realistic, as if nurse Lin was being slaughtered again. The sound of the knife stabbing into flesh and the sound of blood flowing out gave people the feeling that the scene was being recreated..

Chapter 532: Bait (1)

The blood was flowing straight down, as if it was about to flow onto the desk. The 'nurse Lin' in the picture also fell back slowly due to excessive blood loss.

"You see, if there's still a wall behind her, the height of the murderer and the strength of the knife will affect her falling posture and the flow of blood."

Captain an had obviously simulated it many times. His movements were skilled and his expression was calm.

However, upon closer inspection, one could still see his clenched jaw. Obviously, every time he killed nurse Lin in the four-dimensional image and recreated the scene before her death, it added another layer of torture to his heart, and he could not get out of it.

It was not until the position where nurse Lin had slipped in the simulation was exactly the same as when she had died that Captain an enlarged the wound in the simulation video and brought out the real wound on nurse Lin's neck. He then carefully overlapped the two wounds.

A virtual light appeared at the edge of the wound, and the rigorous data showed that there was a slight difference, which meant that his simulation failed again.

However, he didn't seem to be discouraged. He wiped his hand and started again.

Song qingxiao tilted her head and looked at him. He was so immersed in his work that he seemed to have forgotten that there was another person in the office.

Perhaps it was because of her fixed gaze that Captain an finally realized her existence. His hands didn't stop moving, but he said,"

"Qing Xiao, can you help me see which dagger is closer in size?"

"None of them." After she finished speaking, Captain an seemed to be even busier, as if he didn't hear her. However, his head was lowered, making it difficult to see the expression in his eyes.

"You can search again." His voice was a little muffled. In the virtual image, the wound on nurse Lin's neck was bleeding like an unscrewed faucet.

"None of them." Song qingxiao repeated what she said. Captain an seemed to have lost all his strength. He clenched his fists and pressed them against the table, unable to speak for a long time.

Time passed by second by second. The night wind that blew in from the broken window dispersed the silent atmosphere in the air.

Song qingxiao felt a little regretful as well. It was clear that she could not get anything more from this trip. The confirmation of the dagger had failed.

The dagger of the murderer who had assassinated her at that time was not in the information collected by Captain an, so she had to find another way to confirm the identity of the person. There was no need to stay.

Just as she was about to say goodbye, Captain an suddenly raised his head and turned off the virtual image. He said calmly,"

"It doesn't matter. I'll try my best to collect more information. One day, I'll find the real murderer."

Song qingxiao thought of the 'red leaf' mark on the mysterious dagger before she had nurtured it. If the killer was related to a reclusive family, the information on the Empire might not be able to find out.

However, she looked at Captain an's determined expression and didn't dispel his hope. She just nodded.

"In that case, I'll go back first."

When Captain an heard this, he quickly said,"

"Then I'll send you back." He was about to reach for his car keys when song Qingxin shook her head.

"No need," She turned to look out of the window, it's a dark and windy night. It's a good time to take a walk. Maybe something good will happen.

Captain an had said that he was being watched because of his obsession with nurse Lin's death.

She visited Captain an tonight and went with him to see nurse Lin's body. She wanted to see if the person behind the scenes had their eyes on her. If they did, she might be able to use her as bait to catch a fish.

".."Captain an looked at her speechlessly for a while, but in the end, he thought of her strength. As long as she didn't encounter an existence at the level of Qian Shan, with her skills and such a Wolf by her side, she should be fine.

He thought of the wolf and couldn't help but look in the direction of the wolf. He couldn't help but ask,"

"This Wolf of yours, where did you come from?" He probed," the sea of stars?"

As a former private guard of the Shi family, Captain an knew more about the sea of stars than Liu Xiao, who had yet to officially join the Shi family's private guard.

The reason why he did not think in this direction at the beginning was that he knew that in the sea of stars back then, after the high-level ferocious beasts' bloodlines were awakened, they already had intelligence that was no less than that of humans. Moreover, the pride of the high-level bloodlines made these awakened beast Kings arrogant and difficult to tame. It was impossible for them to submit to humans and be like pets.

Back then, the Shi family had paid a huge price, and even many of their core members had died. They had no choice but to give up the starry sky sea.

It was also from that incident that many of the surviving private guards learned of the hidden strength of the Shi family, and the existence of reclusive clans and cultivators gradually emerged.

Therefore, Captain an had never thought that the silver Wolf next to song qingxiao would come out from there.

It was only when the wolf obeyed her orders and split up, and was extremely cunning enough to jump into the office through the window instead of the front door, that Captain an had such a bold guess.

However, song qingxiao neither denied nor admitted to it, so Captain an could not do anything about it. He could only ask,"

"How long are you going to stay in the capital?"

For a person like her to bring a dangerous Wolf with her and stay in the capital, it was always difficult for people to feel at ease, afraid that something would happen.

"Just two or three days." Song qingxiao understood his concerns and smiled.

"But maybe he'll leave tomorrow. Who knows?"

Her answer was a bit fake, but she only had two or three days at most, so Captain an was relieved.

the majority of the people in the imperial capital are ordinary citizens. They don't get involved in these conflicts, and they don't know anything about the hidden families.

Song qingxiao nodded," I understand.

I won't see you off then. I've already spoken to the reserve team. I hope you have a good time on this trip. After Captain an said this, song qingxiao nodded slightly and walked to the door. The silver Wolf on the ground saw her move and got up as if it understood her thoughts.

Its huge body followed song qingxiao out of the office door. Its fluffy tail hooked on one side of the door and rolled it up casually. The door closed with a bang.

When Captain an saw this, he laughed bitterly and put his hand on his forehead. This Wolf seemed to have become a demon. He had a feeling that song qingxiao might cause some trouble on this trip back to the imperial capital.

However, it was already difficult for him to intervene in the battle between such high-level figures. Even if he was worried, it would only add to his troubles.

After song qingxiao left the office, she glanced at the silver Wolf and pointed in another direction.

"Split up, you hide in the dark."

After the scene in the underground parking lot in the southern suburbs, she was sure that the silver Wolf could understand her thoughts. As soon as she pointed at it, the silver Wolf flicked its ears and turned in the other direction.

Song qingxiao was in a good mood. After she left the guard Station, she walked around the streets.

She wasn't in a hurry to go back, so she released her divine sense.

The night entertainment in the Dongcheng Area of the capital was very rich, and there were many people on the streets. She could vaguely feel the breath of the silver Wolf not far from her, not close, occasionally out of control, but not long after, she could capture it again.

She wandered on the street for about half an hour before she felt an unfamiliar aura following behind her. It had been following her for about 30 to 40 meters from the pedestrian street on Shangqing Road in the East of the city.

The pedestrians on the road were in a hurry, and it was normal for them to occasionally go in the same direction. However, after following for dozens of meters, Song Qingxiao felt that the aura was not as simple as being in the same direction.

Could it be that she had just appeared tonight and had already attracted attention?

Chapter 533: Come out (1)

Thinking of this, Song Qingxiao didn't look back. Instead, she looked to the left.

It looked like a Food Street. There was the smell of all kinds of food. Under the night light, she could see many diners lining up in front of the shops.

She turned into the food Street and blended into the crowd. Not long after, her sea of consciousness moved slightly, and a strange spiritual power broke in.

She left a mark on her body with this mental energy. After confirming that someone was following her, she began to lead the people in a direction where there were fewer people without leaving a trace.

That aura had been following behind her. Further away, the silver Wolf's aura was faintly discernible, and it had been following her without getting lost.

Song Qingxiao didn't slow down until she entered the western suburbs.

There had been a few murders here some time ago, and they had not been solved yet, so it was very quiet along the way, without a single person.

Not far ahead, a few heavenly eyes in the dark turned left and right, capturing everything in the vicinity.

Tonight, song Qing had lured the young man here. He had never thought of letting him go, and he was not afraid of exposing his strength.

She split her divine sense into several wisps and threw them in the direction of the heavenly eye.

After a few soft 'bu bu' sounds, the A. I. Chip of the heavenly eye that was rotating suddenly exploded under the interference of his spiritual force. It emitted a light smoke and then stopped flashing.

Ordinary people wouldn't be able to catch this kind of movement, but the people who had been following her all the way here should have heard it.

Song Qing only stopped after he destroyed the surveillance camera.

"Come out,"

As she spoke, she turned to the South.

If the person following her thought that she was bluffing when she shouted after destroying the heavenly eye, the person hiding in the dark knew that she had indeed discovered her when she turned around!

Under the dim light, she was looking at the abandoned shop. Most of the roof had collapsed, revealing some dusty old furniture and other things.

As soon as she finished speaking, the shadow in the corner moved, and a black figure walked out from behind the mottled wall.

“You’ve indeed found me.”

It was a tall, thin man in a pair of jeans and a black jacket. He lowered his head, and the wide brim of his hat drooped down, forming a shadow that almost blocked his entire face, making it difficult for others to see clearly.

But from his voice, he was no older than twenty-five.

“Yes, I am.” Song qingxiao tilted her head and sized him up. She admitted readily, “you’ve been following me since shangqing road in Dongcheng. You must have been following me since I left the Dongcheng Guard Station. What do you want?”

When the man heard her words, he was shocked and subconsciously raised his head.

In the dark, the top half of his face was still hidden under the wide hat, but his chin was exposed. He didn’t expect to be discovered by song qingxiao as soon as he caught up with her.

He looked down on song Qing through the brim of his hat. She was standing in the middle of the station, and the lights on both sides of the street shone on her, making her figure very long.

There was a smile on her lips, and she didn’t seem to have any intention of hiding her appearance.

The man’s heart clenched, but he immediately found that the spiritual imprint he had left in her sea of consciousness was still there. This situation made his originally tense mood slightly relax.

“What’s your relationship with an Ji?”

His hands hidden in his wide sleeves were placed behind his back His fingertips moved slightly, and a dagger slid out of his sleeve and into his palm.

Since song qingxiao had noticed him from the start, there was no need to waste any more time.

“You killed nurse Lin?” Song qingxiao did not answer. She was a little disappointed.

She could feel the surge of spiritual power from the young man, but this aura was different from the one she had felt from the murderer in the western suburbs.

If this person was related to nurse Lin’s death, could it be that the person who killed him and nurse Lin was not the same person, but the same group?

“What’s your relationship with the Shi family?”

When the man with the dagger heard her question, he was first shocked, then he laughed.

“It seems that you know a lot. Then I can’t let you live.

“Really?”

Song qingxiao laughed instead of being shocked. Her calm appearance made the man instinctively feel that something was wrong.

‘OWW...’ A soft sound entered the man’s ears, as if a fierce beast was pressing down on his throat and making a threatening roar.

The voice came from behind him, but he had followed song qingxiao all the way here and did not realize that there was someone else following him. The man, who had taken a few steps, stopped and turned around to look. Behind him was a row of abandoned shops, which was where he had been hiding. When he was hiding inside, he had checked and there was no other person inside.

The previous sound might have just been the girl’s Bluff.

The man slowly turned his head to look at song qingxiao, but for some reason, he felt that something was wrong.

It was as if a pair of sinister eyes were staring at him from behind, causing his hair to stand on end.

He turned his head again, worried, as if he wanted to dispel the baseless speculations in his heart.

The row of abandoned shops behind him was shrouded in the shadow of the night, and the lights on both ends of the street could not penetrate the darkness brought by the night.

In the dark night, there seemed to be two green lights flashing by. The man's heart tightened and he immediately cried out in his heart. At that moment, he did not care about killing people to silence them. He turned around and ran to the left side of the street!

"Stop him!"

The girl standing in the middle of the street let out a soft cry, and the wolf King hidden in the shop let out a low growl. With a kick of its hind legs, its huge figure rose into the air and turned into a silver lightning bolt. Its speed was unbelievable, and with a 'Dong' sound, it landed on the top of an abandoned shop on the left side of the street, blocking the man's escape route!

The man only heard the sound of the wind beside his ear, and the breath of a fierce beast made his back feel cold. He came back to his senses and stood still in time. He looked up and saw a huge Silver Wolf staring at him from the top of the shop.

The silver Wolf was extremely large, and its eyes glowed with a flirtatious luster under the moonlight, firmly capturing him.

He had been ambushed!

The man laughed bitterly. He had followed Captain an tonight and found out that he had led his men to the morgue in the southern suburbs. He had only wanted to find out song Qing's identity, but he had not expected to run into such a tricky situation.

Captain an was just an ordinary person. If he hadn't been so persistent about the nurse's death, he wouldn't have been taken seriously by this group of people.

No one would have thought that such an ordinary person would know such a person!

Who was this young girl in front of him? Why did she intervene in the case of the nurse's death? why did she use the word 'you' when she mentioned the murder? she even asked about his relationship with the Shi family.

As song qingxiao displayed her strength, the man's heart gradually became heavy.

For such a person to appear in the imperial capital with an unknown background and a Silver Wolf, he needed to escape quickly and report this matter.

As he thought of this, he immediately grabbed the dagger and rushed toward song qingxiao like a ghost.

The wolf on the roof did not seem to be easy to deal with. He instinctively chose song qingxiao's direction as his breakthrough point..

Chapter 534: success _1

The man was not in the mood to fight. He just wanted to run away. He turned into smoke and was about to reach song qingxiao, but the woman in the middle of the street did not move, as if she had not reacted.

The street was extremely wide. As long as he could leap over and escape the siege, the crisis would be mostly resolved.

A trace of joy flashed in the young man's eyes. He took a deep breath and was about to go around song qingxiao's side when he suddenly felt a sharp pain in his sea of consciousness, as if he had been pricked by a needle.

“A spiritual attack?” A trace of panic flashed through the man’s mouth. Under the severe pain, his spiritual power stagnated, causing him to stagger and stop for a moment.

In that instant, the girl in the middle of the street turned around and took a step forward to stand in front of him, instantly blocking his way!

At the same time, she stretched out her hand and grabbed the man’s face. The man hurriedly turned his body to Dodge, but she still touched the corner of his hat.

The sound of falling gravel came from behind the man. In the wind, a cold killing intent came from his back, making him break out in a cold sweat.

He didn’t need to turn his head to know that the silver Wolf had made its move. He could feel the wind coming. He narrowed his eyes, clenched the dagger, and slashed at song qingxiao’s neck!

I was too careless tonight! He did not expect that he would provoke such a fierce person by just following the friend of an ordinary man who had retired from the Shi family’s private guard.

This woman was a spirit ability user, and she could use spirit attacks.

“Hmph, so what if your spiritual power is strong?” The man said coldly, “it just so happens that my spiritual power is not weak either!”

It was difficult for ordinary cultivators to cultivate both spiritual power and spiritual power at the same time. Firstly, they did not have enough energy, and secondly, it was difficult to cultivate both at the same time. It was easier and faster to master it if they focused on one.

Therefore, mental power cultivators were far weaker than ordinary cultivators in both close combat and physical strength. The reason why she brought a Wolf with her was probably to make up for her lack of physical strength.

However, the man was also good at close-range assassination in addition to his mental power cultivation. The dagger in his hand was almost touching song qingxiao’s neck.

At such a distance, with his speed, a spiritual power ability user would definitely not be able to escape!

A trace of joy flashed through the man's heart, and he said in a low voice,"

"You shouldn't have let me get close."

"Is that so?" As soon as he finished speaking, he heard the young girl in front of him sneer. When the dagger was about to stab him, she raised her hands to block it.

How could he block such an action?

If not for the wolf pouncing at her from behind, the man would have laughed coldly and thought that her actions were like an egg hitting a rock, completely useless.

However, the next moment, a gust of cold air hit her in the face. A piece of frost formed on Song Qing's small palm and turned into a thick shield in the blink of an eye. The tip of the dagger stabbed into it, and there was a crisp 'nail' sound. The dagger that was supposed to pierce her neck was blocked by the ice shield!

"Ice-type spiritual energy?" The dagger broke through the surface of the ice shield, bringing up some debris. The man subconsciously exclaimed," how is this possible?"

Song Qing lowered her head slightly. Under the light, she could see a Black Dagger in the man's hand. Most of the dagger was covered by his wide sleeves, so she could not see it clearly. However, from the angle of the tip of the dagger, it was similar to her dagger.

Her eyes lit up, and with a move of her spiritual power, ice and frost climbed up from the point where the dagger and shield met.

In an instant, the dagger was covered in frost crystals, and the man's entire arm was frozen as well.

Song qingxiao raised her left hand and reached for his palm. She wanted to take the dagger down to see what was going on. However, the man used his spiritual force and shook his arm.

With a 'Kacha' sound, the ice formed on the arm was shattered by the spiritual power, and the arm was free. He loosened his wrist, and a Black Dagger slipped off. It happened to be caught by his other hand, and he slashed it toward song qingxiao's cheek.

Girls usually cherished their faces and were afraid of disfigurement. In such a situation, they would definitely Dodge.

Sure enough, song Qing's small face leaned back. The man's heart was filled with joy. His arm, which had just thawed, slid down and hit her chest with full spiritual power!

If his palm hit her, even if her spiritual power cultivation was not weak, she would definitely suffer a great loss when she was defenseless.

However, before his palm could hit her, a soft and cold palm suddenly grabbed his wrist. The coldness invaded his body and made him shiver.

In a moment of desperation, the man pulled his hand back with all his might, but his palm was held by her and did not move at all!

"This is bad!" This thought flashed through the man's mind. In the low growl, he caught a flash of dazzling silver light from the corner of his eye. The fur on the silver Wolf's body was unusually cold under the moisture of the night and brushed past his body. The fishy wind blew past his cheeks. Its open mouth pounced straight at his arm holding the dagger, and it closed its mouth at an unbelievable speed!

He hurriedly used his spiritual energy to protect his arm, but the protective spiritual energy was completely defenseless against the extremely sharp teeth.

A clear 'Kacha' sound was heard, and a painful groan came from the man's throat. Warm blood splattered on the Wolf's hair. The wolf bit on half of his arm, and his huge body landed on the ground nimbly!

The wind blew at the wound, and it was cold at first, followed by an overwhelming pain.

“Oh...” The man’s face twisted, and he groaned in pain as he tried to seal the wound with his spiritual power to prevent the loss of blood essence and worsening the injury.

However, just as he attached his spiritual power to it, something that made him feel terrified happened again.

The wound on his arm that had been bitten off by the silver Wolf felt like it was being burned.

The fire seeped into his bones and seemed to flow into his body along his blood vessels, bringing him a feeling of pain that made him want to die.

As soon as his spiritual power touched the wound, it was swallowed by the strange flame and was unable to stop the bleeding.

The man’s body trembled in pain, and he bent down.

At the same time, general song Qing’s hand that had been holding his wrist loosened, and his body swayed toward the silver Wolf.

The wolf turned its head after it landed on the ground. It seemed to have a telepathic connection with her. When it saw her reach out, it instinctively opened its mouth. The half-broken arm flew out of its mouth and was caught by song Qing!

The man’s Black Dagger was now on the broken arm. She snorted coldly and clenched her fist, freezing the arm.

Song qingxiao squeezed the ice hard, and it broke with a sound. Her broken arm broke into countless pieces of meat and fell down, leaving only a dagger in her palm.

The black Dagger was similar to her dagger. She subconsciously turned the end of the dagger. It was covered in blood, but she could still see it clearly. There was no mark of the 'red leaf'..

Chapter 535: three tidbits (1)

There were a few fresh scratch marks on the dagger, which should have been left by the silver Wolf's teeth in the process of tearing the man's arm and taking the dagger.

Song qingxiao had a premonition before she took the dagger, but when she wiped the blood off the end of the dagger and didn't see the 'red leaf' mark, she couldn't help but feel disappointed.

This Assassin's strength was too low, and that mysterious dagger was obviously not an ordinary item. It was impossible for such a weak person to hold it.

She played with the dagger in her hand. The size and shape of the dagger were the same as the mysterious dagger, but the feeling when she held it was completely different.

This dagger was much lighter than her mysterious dagger, and the silver Wolf's claws and teeth couldn't leave a mark on the mysterious dagger. However, this dagger that looked similar was scratched by the silver Wolf's teeth.

Her eyes turned cold, and with a twist of her fingers, the dagger broke into two under the destruction of her spiritual power.

Although the two daggers looked the same, this one was just a fake. They were not on the same level at all.

However, when she was in Captain an's office that night, she had seen the samples of the daggers produced by the major weapon merchants in the Empire for the past thirty years. The black Dagger had a unique shape and had not been mass-produced by the weapon merchants.

Therefore, even if the assassin who was tracking her tonight was not the same person who killed her that day, the fact that he could have such a special weapon meant that he was definitely related to the person who killed her that day.

Thinking of this, Song Qingxiao grabbed the broken dagger and turned around. The man with the broken arm was hunched over. Under the torture of pain, he stumbled back and left a trail of blood on the ground.

But tonight, he was in her hands, and it was impossible for him to escape.

“Which family do you belong to?” Song Qingxiao took two steps forward and said coldly,

“If you tell me, I might let you die a quick death.”

The man held his broken arm and raised his head while breathing in with great pain.

The hat on his head slid down because of his rapid movement, revealing his pale face. He gritted his teeth, his eyes red from the pain, the veins on his forehead bulging, and cold sweat pouring down in large amounts.

When he heard Song Qingxiao’s question, he raised his uninjured hand and used his spiritual power to hit his head.

This person was well-trained. Once he was no match for the enemy, he actually had the intention to commit suicide.

Song Qingxiao’s expression darkened. Just as she was about to take a step forward to stop him, her heart suddenly skipped a beat.

■AwooThe silver Wolf let out a low growl and instinctively lowered its head, turning to look towards the southeast.

“Eh?” In the night, a man’s surprised deep voice rang out.

The voice was not loud, but it sounded like thunder in song Qing’s ears.

As soon as the voice came out, an invisible pressure swept towards her. She instinctively stepped back. With a ‘swish swish’ sound, a spinning knife with a strong spiritual power flew towards her. Because of her rapid retreat, she avoided being seriously injured. The whirlwind flew and fell to the ground, like a sharp knife cutting tofu, half of the blade was buried in it.

Under the destruction of this powerful airflow, seven or eight spider web-like cracks appeared on the ground with a ‘Hong Hong’. The cracks reached the bottom of song Qing’s feet, and there was still a terrible lingering charm. She hurriedly circulated her spiritual energy and chopped her foot, using her spiritual energy to confront it.

As the two forces collided with each other, the bricks on the ground ‘loudly’ shattered, turning into a sand mist that scattered in all directions, blinding everyone’s eyes’.

Under the force of the collision, song qingxiao instinctively took two steps back to resolve the impact.

At the same time, several threads as thin as spider silk went straight to the back of the man who was about to commit suicide, stuck him, and then dragged him back!

With a ‘whoosh’, the man was dragged out of song qingxiao’s control range. Song Qing carefully sank down and used his hand as a fan to sweep away the sand in front of him. He looked up and saw a slim figure in a black gauze dress slowly walking out from the darkness on the other side of the street.

A wave of spiritual pressure came from the air, and the terrifying destructive revolving saber stuck in the ground seemed to have been summoned. It slowly rose from the ground and flew toward the southeast sky.

She looked up and saw a tall man with a bare upper body standing on the roof of the abandoned shop.

He had one hand crossed over his chest. The spinning blade seemed to have a mind of its own as it stopped above his chest, silent and unmoving.

At the place where the silver Wolf had been standing before, there was now an old man with a hunched back, bending his back and groping the ground.

Before this, she had released her divine sense, but she had not noticed that three people had quietly appeared nearby. She did not know how long they had been here!

It seemed that after releasing the bait tonight, not only did he catch one fish, but he also caught three sharks. He was probably doomed!

These three people could quietly appear around her without her noticing. If it wasn't for her instinct to sense that something was wrong and the silver Wolf's roar as an early warning, she was afraid that she would have fallen into a trap. From this, it could be seen that the three people who appeared tonight were probably stronger than him!

"Third brother, this beast has some skills!"

The man standing in the southeast with a dagger floating in front of his chest let out a surprised cry. The 'eh' earlier was clearly from him.

I'm just in need of a guard dog. I've been looking for a dog for a long time, but I haven't found one I like. I didn't expect to meet one tonight!

His face was filled with joy. The old man he called 'third brother' slowly straightened his back, his expression somewhat serious.

It's indeed not bad. There's spiritual power in the claws. It looks like their bloodline has mutated. Could they be from the starry sea?

The old man was holding a few pieces of stone that he had broken off from the roof. With a rub of his fingertips, the stones turned into dust and were blown away by the wind.

“Third brother, this Wolf is strange!” The woman who was slowly walking over from the other end of the street also spoke. She looked down at the man she had saved.

In just a moment, his breathing had become rapid, and his face first turned green, then red.

Large amounts of sweat poured out of his body, and in just a few breaths, his entire body was like a shrimp on fire, his hands and feet began to curl up in the middle.

His breathing was weak. He had only lost an arm and was not fatally injured, but an aura of death appeared between his brows and the spiritual power in his body began to leak out.

The lithe woman’s fingers moved slightly, and a few streams of spirit energy entered his body.

These spiritual powers were far superior to the man’s own spiritual powers, and once they entered his body, they immediately alleviated his pain..

Chapter 536: Big fish (1)

-My Lord...” Once the man’s condition stabilized, he trembled and said in embarrassment, “it’s all my fault for being too incompetent. I had to trouble the three of you to save me.

“It’s not your fault,” The woman with the graceful figure said coldly, “No one would have thought that such a young expert would appear in the imperial capital.”

As she said this, her eyes fell on Song Qingxiao with a scrutinizing look. She asked the young man without turning her head, “Can you still stand up?”

“Yes, I can.” The young man nodded and slowly stood up with a pale face, enduring the pain.

He also knew that after the three of them came forward, there was no room for him to intervene.

“You must be careful, that Wolf’s teeth are poisonous.” He hugged his broken arm and reminded her. In fact, he didn’t need to say anything. When the woman injected her spiritual power into his body, he had already felt it.

The poison was extremely strange and difficult to deal with. It carried a flame that seemed to be able to burn everything. It attached itself to his wound and drilled into his veins extremely quickly.

The spiritual power that the woman had injected into his body couldn’t drive it out, but only temporarily suppressed it.

However, this flame poison seemed to have signs of devouring and corroding his spiritual energy. The spiritual energy she had injected into this man’s body would not last long.

The only way was to end the battle quickly, capture the wolf, extract its poison, and then study it.

“Third brother, we can’t let this Wolf escape!” The woman raised her head and shouted at the old man on the roof,” the Wolf’s fangs and claws are poisonous. Even my spiritual power can’t suppress it.

As soon as she said this, not only the old man, but even the half-naked man’s eyes revealed a bit of surprise.

“It’S been many years since a high-level bloodline has been awakened in the starry sea. It has cultivated spiritual power, its claws and teeth have mutated, and it seems to have spirituality, but it has not recognized its master ...” The old man’s eyes were filled with surprise, and his stare made the silver it's impossible for a high-level bloodline to be so calm after awakening. It's rare for a bloodline to protect its master even though it didn't recognize its master.

Wolf's hair stand on end. Feeling threatened, it growled continuously. He looked at the silver Wolf's ferocious face and stood beside the girl.

He clicked his tongue in wonder and then looked at song qingxiao with a gentle expression.

"Little girl, where did you get this Wolf?"

This old man's appearance was not surprising, and his hands were behind his back, but the burly man and woman who appeared were quite respectful to him. At the very least, their strength should not be inferior to these two.

Song Qing's heart sank. Tonight's scene reminded her of the first time she was hunted down by two people from the underworld clan.

However, the strength of the people who were chasing her back then could not be compared to the three people in front of her. When she was almost killed, she was extremely lucky to be summoned into the trial space by God.

However, such a situation was truly a coincidence, and it could only happen once.

It was definitely impossible to win tonight's battle by force, so he could only try his best to escape and save his life.

She didn't know how long these three people had been here, but fortunately, the man who had followed her before wasn't strong, so she didn't reveal much of her strength.

At this time, she still had a trump card in hand. With the help of the silver Wolf, she might have a chance if she took them by surprise and fought two against three.

“Which family do you belong to? Did you kill that nurse Lin?”

As she asked, she subconsciously reached out to stroke the wolf’s head.

The fierce Silver Wolf did not recognize her as its master, but at this time, it was obediently allowing her to rub it. This incredible scene made the old man’s eyes widen again.

She was not intimidated by the strong enemies and even had the time to ask a question. The burly man from the southeast frowned impatiently, “Third brother, why are you telling her so much? We’ll just capture him and search his soul.”

As he spoke, the spinning blade floating in front of him suddenly moved and flew in song qingxiao’s direction.

As soon as the knife moved, the silver Wolf also moved. It kicked its hind legs, jumped up, and pounced straight towards the southeast.

When the old man saw this, his lips moved and he laughed,”

“You’re too impatient!”

He shook his head. The woman with the outstanding appearance in the distance stretched out her hands, and several snow-white Spider threads shot out from her fingers. They divided into several wisps and bound the silver

Wolf.

With two ‘swish swish’ sounds, it stuck to the silver Wolf’s body and wrapped around its two limbs like a living creature.

The silk looked very thin, but it was quite tough. Once it stuck to the silver Wolf, it was difficult to get rid of it. The silver Wolf was stuck by the silk and instinctively turned back to bite it. The silk was very sticky, and it stuck to its teeth like malt sugar. It pulled longer and longer, and it was impossible to get rid of it.

The woman gathered her spiritual power, clenched her hands, and dragged the silver Wolf, which was flying in the air, down until it fell to the ground with a ■bang1. Its huge body crushed the stone bricks on the ground into several pieces.

The silver Wolf turned over and stood up. It was furious that it had suffered such a loss. It let out a furious roar and several sharp and extraordinary long armors suddenly appeared on its four feet.

The long claws were red, and under the light, the nails seemed to flow with fire. It raised its forelimbs and scratched its head. The White silk stuck to its legs and teeth were cut off by its claws, allowing it to regain its freedom.

The White silk was cut off, and the woman was forced to take a few steps back from the rebound. She exclaimed in disbelief,”

“Eh?”

Her white silk was her unique weapon. It was impervious to fire and water, and could be used by blades and Spears. However, it was actually broken by the Wolf’s claws. It really surprised her.

The silver Wolf was at a disadvantage after being hit by the spider silk. It immediately gave up on the burly man and pounced on the woman.

Its movements were extremely fast, and in the blink of an eye, it pounced on the beautiful woman. The beautiful woman subconsciously crossed her hands and opened them. A complete spider web appeared between her fingers. She shouted,”

“Go!”

The net left her hand and grew in size with the wind. It soon became a large net as tall as an adult man and went to cover the silver wolf's head.

However, the silver Wolf raised its two front legs, and with a tearing sound, the net was torn by its claws. It did not slow down and pounced straight at the woman, tilting its head to bite the woman's beautiful face.

The woman cherished her face a lot. When she smelled the bloody wind, her expression finally changed. When she was about to Dodge instinctively, she heard the old man's cold Humph. A pair of dry wood-like hands inserted in the air and directly grabbed the two front claws of the silver Wolf!

"Stop them first."

The old man ordered in a low voice. The silver Wolf came with great momentum. The impact of such a huge figure was no small matter, but he controlled it without changing his expression. At the same time, he slapped the silver Wolf's chest with a 'bang'.

The spiritual energy entered the silver Wolf's body along with the palm, but most of the power was absorbed by the fierce beast's extremely strong body. Other than the Wolf's body being slanted and its bite missing, it actually turned its head back after landing, as if nothing had happened. On the contrary, it seemed to have been aroused, and the color of its eyes changed.

"Ya?" The old man's expression changed when he saw this. He didn't expect the wolf to be so troublesome.

He originally wanted to capture it alive, so he held back and only used 40% of his strength. However, he did not expect that the silver Wolf did not lose its mobility and did not seem to be injured at all..

Chapter 537: A fierce battle (1)

The old man stopped the silver Wolf, and the beautiful woman was able to escape.

Her face relaxed and she immediately turned to look in song qingxiao's direction. She saw the big man's spinning knife spinning in the air. Under the night light, it turned into a knife array with killing intent, trapping song qingxiao.

The terrifying spiritual power leaked out, and even the woman, who was a few meters away, felt a stinging pain on her skin. But to her surprise, song qingxiao's figure dodged the rapidly spinning knife array and was not cut on the spot.

She went around the spinning knife and pounced forward. The rapidly spinning knife flew from her back, making a chilling 'swish' sound as it spun.

The speed was so fast that song qingxiao instinctively bent down and lowered her head. The spinning blade flew past her back. The sharp blade intent tore her clothes apart, and the powerful spiritual power tore open the wounds that had healed after being scratched by the Cerberus in the trial. Fine blood seeped out, forming several crisscrossing small blood channels.

Song Qing's small body tensed up and ignored the pain in her body. She quickly stood up straight.

The burly man from the southeast snorted when he saw this. After flying for about a meter, his dagger split into two S-shaped blades and flew back at song qingxiao.

As the blades spun, they brought up a huge Hurricane, and with the support of the afterimages, they turned into two huge blade arrays.

The buzzing sound of the blade suppressed the Wolf's howl in the distance. Under the interference of the raging spiritual power in the surroundings, song Qing's divine sense seemed to sense that there were countless blade shadows coming from all directions, as if they were going to cut her into pieces!

Under this attack, she was forced to retreat to where she had been standing. The knife rushed over and merged into one with a 'whoosh', turning into a huge rotating knife and slashing toward her chest!

The shadow of the knife was as fast as lightning. She seemed to feel the fluctuation of spiritual power behind her. With a 'swish, swish' sound, several white threads shot towards her back, blocking her way back and making it impossible for her to Dodge.

At this critical moment, Song Qing's small palm opened and summoned the mysterious dagger that had been nurtured in her dantian. She held it in her palm. When the flying blade was about to cut her chest, a large number of scales appeared on her cheeks and neck under the stimulation of the spiritual energy, which blocked the spiritual energy.

Song Qingxiao grabbed the dagger and clenched it in front of her chest. When the flying dagger hit her, she used her spiritual force and flicked the dagger into the center of the whirlwind!

'Ding'!

An ear-piercing crisp sound rang out as the spinning knife array was hit by the mysterious dagger. A terrifying spiritual power came from the dagger and passed through Song Qing's arms to her limbs and bones, causing her veins to shake and the blood in her chest to surge.

At the same time, the spinning blade let out a crisp sound of damage. A section of it was cut off by the mysterious dagger, and the attack was immediately halted.

The moment the flying knife broke, its spinning speed slowed down significantly.

The man standing in the southeast let out a muffled groan the moment the throwing knife was damaged. "Oh!"

"Cheap slave!" He was both shocked and furious, how dare you hurt my magical weapon!

With the sound of his clothes flapping in the wind, he jumped down from the roof. It was clear that because of the damage to the magical artifact, this man was now truly angry.

However, song qingxiao could not care about this. Although she forcibly broke the knife array with the sharpness of the mysterious dagger, she was also at a disadvantage. Two whooshing sounds came from behind her, and several thin threads were stuck to her elbows and waist!

As soon as the White silk touched her body, it quickly wrapped around her body like a living creature. A huge force came from behind and dragged her back!

In the blink of an eye, she was dragged back two or three meters. The man on the side flew towards her like a ROC with its wings spread.

In the nick of time, song qingxiao did not panic. She lowered the hand that was holding the knife, and the tip of the mysterious dagger hit the flexible white silk, breaking it with a 'Chi' sound!

Once her right hand was free, the dagger reappeared in her left hand. She did the same thing and cut off the White silk that was holding her other hand. Then, she turned around and cut off the White silk that was around her waist with two slashes!

As soon as the White silk was cut off, the silk thread wrapped around her body immediately turned into spiritual power and dissipated.

As soon as the drag from behind disappeared, song qingxiao felt a lot more relaxed.. But before she could breathe a sigh of relief, the man had already pounced in front of her and swung his fist!

Chapter 538: A fierce battle (2)

“Eh?” As soon as the White silk was cut, the woman in the distance was stunned for a moment.

Tonight was really strange. Her magic weapon was extremely unique, difficult to break with blades and spears. Usually, it could be used to attack and defend, and had never failed.

However, tonight, not only did he fail to trap the silver Wolf, he couldn't even trap a young girl in the spirit focus realm. He didn't know what method she used, but she actually broke the woman's magical artifact!

"Mu Cang, you have to be careful!" The woman's mind was meticulous. At this time, she rolled her eyes and realized that Song Qingxiao probably had some kind of magical weapon in her hand. Moreover, it was extremely sharp. Not only could it cut the man's flying knife, but it could also cut her own net.

"I'm afraid this girl has a high-grade magic weapon!"

As soon as she finished speaking, the burly man let out a strange laugh,

"It's good that you have it. It's just in time to refine and repair my magic tool!"

He clenched his fist and punched. The spiritual power on his fist seemed to turn into real flames. When he punched, it was as if the surrounding air was about to be burned up, making Song Qing's small pupils shrink.

The burly man's speed was extremely fast. Before his fist had even reached her, the shadow of his fist had already covered her. A powerful aura had locked onto her. In a hurry, she opened her hands and an ice shield appeared in her palms. However, in the next moment, a 'Hong' sound rang out as the burly man's fist wind swept over it. The spiritual energy was so powerful that it broke the ice shield into several pieces and fell to the ground with a 'clang'.

Even though the fist was blocked, it was still extremely powerful. Even if Song Qingxiao tried to Dodge, she was not fast enough. With a 'bang', he hit her in the shoulder!

The moment the spiritual energy entered her body, a large number of scales appeared on the surface of her body. However, under the tyrannical power of the attack, the scales only lasted for the blink of an eye before they all dispersed. With a 'crack' sound of the bones in her shoulder breaking, her body was sent flying like a kite with a broken string. With a 'boom', she fell in the middle of the street seven or eight meters behind her! free

The tiles on the ground cracked open, and a powerful spiritual force invaded her veins from the wound, messing up the spiritual force in song Qing's body. She sat up and spat out a large mouthful of blood.

Out of the corner of her eye, she saw the man whose arm had been bitten off by the silver Wolf was now holding his broken arm and looking at her with a face full of horror. His eyes revealed a look of disbelief, obviously not daring to believe that she was still alive after taking such a blow.

Perhaps he was too shocked, he actually forgot to step back.

"He actually didn't die?"

The burly man was flabbergasted. He didn't expect this girl's physical body to be so much stronger than he had imagined. She actually had the strength to sit up after taking a full-force blow from him.

"Hmph!" The burly man snorted coldly and stretched out his palm. The dagger that song qingxiao had cut off earlier seemed to have sensed his intention and flew towards his palm. It turned into a curved dagger in mid-air and was held in the man's palm.

At the same time, after the White silk was cut by song qingxiao, the woman clenched her fists. Countless white silk appeared in her palms and twisted into a long white whip, which was sent flying towards song qingxiao!

Song qingxiao had already experienced the power of these white threads before. Now that the countless white threads were combined into one, the power was unparalleled.

Song qingxiao endured the excruciating pain in her veins and rolled on the ground. The White whip landed beside her with a loud crack.

The floor tiles cracked open, and the whip was swung up, sending a large amount of gravel and dust flying. Some of the gravel fell on song Qing's body, leaving countless small wounds!

The long whip chased after her, making a series of air-piercing sounds. Sand and stones flew in a great formation.

The burly man held the long saber and slashed it down in the direction of song qingxiao's escape!

The spirit energy turned the shadow of the knife into a dazzling white light and chased after song qingxiao.

She was entangled by the woman's white whip and couldn't split herself. The knife light was unbelievably fast, and the corner of the burly man's mouth was cold.

At this moment of life and death, it was too late for song qingxiao to even use the 'Lin' word technique.

Furthermore, with the burly man's strength, if he used all his strength, the domain formed by the 'Lin' character might not be able to trap the saber light for long.

Amidst the chaotic sounds of her heart beating, she used her spiritual power to activate the stars in her body. In an instant, the Starlight on her body burst out.

Not far away, the man who was holding his broken arm in a daze saw this scene and his eyes widened. Then, he saw a flash of Starlight on his body...

Immediately, song qingxiao thought, reverse stars!

Under the reversal of the Starlight, she and the one-armed man's figures swapped. The saber shadow chased after him. With a loud 'boom', the one-armed man was cut by the huge saber Qi before he could react or even make a sound. His flesh and blood splattered as his body was cut into several pieces from top to bottom.. He died!

Chapter 539: A fierce battle (3)

Then, the woman's white whip fell on the skin and flesh. With a chilling sound, the body pieces were crushed into pieces, and blood fell like rain.

When the saber-wielding burly man saw this scene from a distance, he immediately flew into a rage.

Once song qingxiao was free, she did not dare to continue fighting. She immediately swayed toward the old man's direction and attracted some of his attention. She endured the pain and shouted at the silver Wolf,

"Let's go!"

"Can you leave?"

The beautiful woman said with a gloomy face. She and the burly man had joined forces to intercept song qingxiao, but they had failed. Not only had they failed to kill her, but they had also accidentally killed their own people.

This was a great humiliation to both of them, and they were really angry at this time.

She shook her hand and the long whip turned into silk, wriggling in the air to form a large net. The beautiful woman shook her wrist and said,

"Go!"

The net came down on song Qing's head at lightning speed and wrapped around her.

This net was different from the previous silk. In a hurry, she summoned a dagger to cut the net, but the other end of the silk was entangled in the woman's hand.

The woman retracted her fingers, and the net quickly slid in her direction with song qingxiao.

At the same time, the burly man swung the long knife in his hand. The knife flew out and turned into a spinning knife that flew towards song Qing. The burly man was afraid that he would miss again like before, so he clenched his fist and followed.

At this time, song qingxiao could not split herself up. She took out her dagger and slashed randomly. She had just cut the net, but she was already less than five meters away from the beautiful woman.

The spinning knife was about to hit her back, and it was too late to turn around and block it. The man's figure also flashed a few steps away from her, his eyes filled with killing intent.

There was a Wolf in front and a Tiger behind. Unable to avoid it, song Qing carefully sank down, ready to take the blow from the back and avoid the man's attack first!

She formed a hand seal and shouted,"

As she moved, the serious-looking primordial spirit in her sea of consciousness also made a hand seal. A large amount of divine sense turned into a solid barrier and covered her body.

"Solid!"

As soon as she said the word 'stabilize', the flying knife had already hit her back. Under the collision of spiritual energy, a light flashed on her body, causing the attack of the flying knife to slow down. The blade slanted, but in the next moment, it still hit the center of her back with a 'bang'!

With this slap, the defense formed by the swordsman token quickly collapsed. The spirit energy rushed into her body with an unstoppable force, stirring up a hurricane in her veins. Wherever it went, the spirit energy in her veins was swept away and cut!

As her meridians were severely injured, her spiritual power was in chaos. Song qingxiao's vision turned black and she spat out a large mouthful of blood.

The injury caused by this blow was several times more serious than she had imagined. Her consciousness had been destroyed by the powerful spirit power, bringing about extremely serious consequences. Her vision went black and a large mouthful of blood gushed out.

At the moment of life and death, she heard a lone Wolf's cry.

When the silver Wolf that was entangled with the old man heard that she was injured, it instinctively turned its head and happened to see her spitting blood after being hit by the flying blade.

The man's fist was about to hit her throat, and the beautiful woman behind her also raised her palm as if she wanted to hit her back. The silver Wolf's eyes were red, and it immediately turned around and gave up on the old man in front of it. Its long tail turned into a silver whip and swung at the old man. Using the momentum of this feint, it broke into the battle situation with force!

The dazzling silver light flew towards the beautiful woman at an unbelievable speed, and the long claws that were stretched out were shining with a chilling light under the light.

It clawed at the woman with its claws and bared its sharp fangs at the same time, showing its ferocious look.

The woman didn't expect that it would throw itself at her without any regard for its safety. Her face immediately turned pale, and she instinctively retracted her hands.

The silver Wolf's claws and fangs were poisonous, and the toxicity was not weak. It would be troublesome if anyone touched it.

She hurriedly retreated. At the same time, the man's fist had already arrived, but the silver Wolf suddenly attacked. At that moment, a murderous aura rose in her eyes, and her momentum did not reduce. She gritted her teeth and said,

"Animal!"

His fist landed on the silver Wolf's stomach with a 'boom'. The silver Wolf received the blow, and its fur trembled. It took the blow head-on, and its huge body only swayed slightly.

The man didn't expect that his all-out attack wouldn't knock down the silver Wolf. In his shock, the wolf became even fiercer after being injured. It immediately roared and turned around, biting his shoulder!

The sharp teeth easily bit through the man's protective spiritual power. The teeth were like extremely sharp magic weapons, and with a crack, the man's shoulder bone was crushed.

Everyone had seen the silver Wolf bite off the arm of the man who had been dismembered by the burly man earlier. At this time, the burly man did not expect that one of his arms would also be bitten by the wolf..

Chapter 540: Finally (1)

However, the burly man's cultivation was much higher than the unlucky man who had been bitten by the silver Wolf. Although his shoulder bone had been crushed by the Wolf's teeth, the burly man endured the intense pain and poured a large amount of spiritual energy into the wound, so that the silver Wolf could not tear off his arm.

At the same time, the burly man opened his other palm. The dagger on Song Qingxiao's back seemed to sense his intention and turned into a sharp blade, flying back into his palm.

He grabbed it and stabbed the silver Wolf's throat with the tip of the knife. He shouted angrily,"

"Bastard, you're looking for death!"

"Mu Cang..." When the woman saw this, a trace of anxiety appeared in her eyes. This Silver Wolf was most likely a rare beast with a high-grade bloodline. It had yet to acknowledge its master, and its claws and fangs were sharp. If they could capture it alive, it would be of great benefit to them.

However, the burly man was really angry now. She could clearly see that the man had the intention to kill. With this knife, the silver Wolf would probably not survive.

However, the burly man's strength was extraordinary, and it was difficult for the woman to make a move. Moreover, the wolf was extremely fierce, and the woman was not sure if she would be attacked by the wolf if she interfered.

"Al." The woman sighed. The next moment, Song Qingxiao spat out a large mouthful of blood. She looked up and saw the silver Wolf enter the battle and bite the burly man's arm. The burly man stabbed down with a knife in one hand. It was a thrilling scene.

She immediately formed a seal with both hands and forcefully gathered her spiritual energy. She shouted,"

"Draw the ground as a prison, trap!"

Her back had been hit by the spinning blade, and the spiritual power had destroyed most of her veins. Now that she had forcefully gathered her spiritual power, her injuries were even more serious.

Blood gushed out of her mouth as if her veins were being pulled by someone.

However, the domain formed by her spiritual energy trapped the tip of the knife the moment it fell!

When he recited the 'Lin' word, the surrounding spiritual energy fluctuated.

The burly man seemed to be greatly shocked and instinctively looked up. His eyes first showed disbelief, then horror, and then seemed to have thought of something, which turned into ecstasy.

Before the tip of his saber could touch the brush, it was blocked by an invisible barrier before it could penetrate the silver Wolf's body.

"The nine-word secret order?"

The burly man let out a cry of surprise. Just as the corners of his mouth curled up, Song Qingxiao took advantage of the moment when he was stunned. She endured the intense pain in her veins, summoned her mysterious dagger, held it, and slit the burly man's neck!

The bare-chested man only saw a black afterimage flash by and caught the strange movement of the spiritual energy. However, at this time, one of his arms was restrained by the silver Wolf, and the other hand holding the knife was trapped by the 'Lin' word technique, so he couldn't free it to block this attack.

When Song Qing's dagger swept over, he instinctively raised his head and stretched his neck to Dodge.

However, the moment he tilted his head back, the silver Wolf that had bitten his arm and refused to let go suddenly let go.

The burly man only heard a roar and a fishy wind blew on his elongated neck. A layer of goosebumps crawled on his back. Just as he thought that something was wrong, he felt a hot sensation on his neck in the next moment. Several sharp fangs dug into his flesh, and then a creepy sound of skin and flesh tearing rang in his mind.

Blood spurted out like a small fountain, and the pain was transmitted to his consciousness. The burly man staggered back a few steps and subconsciously reached out to touch his throat.

His throat was bleeding profusely. Almost half of his neck and a large piece of flesh on his shoulder had been torn off by the silver Wolf. The pain from this injury was far worse than the one on his shoulder that had been bitten.

"Ah!" The burly man let out a cry of pain. The silver Wolf had succeeded in its attack. It landed on the ground and swallowed the meat. Its bloody tongue licked the corner of its mouth, dyeing the silver hair around its mouth red.

Song Qingxiao and the silver Wolf worked together to hurt the big man, but at this time, she was already an arrow at the end of its flight. Her heart sank to the bottom. Tonight was really a bad night, and she definitely couldn't beat him in a head-on fight.

The thought of running away came to her mind again, but she heard the sound of wind behind her.

In her shock, she instinctively turned around with the dagger in her hand.

The one standing behind him was not the beautiful woman, but the old man who had been fighting with the silver Wolf earlier.

His figure turned into a gray mist and strode towards her. When he was only one step away from her, he moved his palm and his spiritual energy turned into a huge palm print, which slammed towards her like Mount Tai.

She was not able to resist the vast power at this time, but song qingxiao was not willing to wait for death. She gathered the remaining spiritual energy in her veins and formed a hand seal.

“As solid as a rock, solid!”

Under the swordsman’s command, all the Ling power in her body turned into flood dragon scales and wrapped around her body.

With a loud ‘boom’, the palm print hit her body. Under the absolute suppression of power, the scales that had just formed were shattered, and the swordsman token disintegrated with a loud bang. The terrifying spiritual power hit her internal organs and stirred up the world!

Song Qing’s small body flew out like a light leaf.

The silver Wolf leaped into the air and caught her with its strong body, causing her to fall heavily on the back of the silver Wolf with a ‘bang’. The remaining violent force drilled into the silver Wolf’s body, forming a strong wind that made its long hair sway!

A man and a Wolf rolled in the air. The silver Wolf’s four claws extended out, and it let out a low growl from its throat. It stabilized its body and landed on the ground!

Song qingxiao was lying on top of the silver Wolf. Her internal organs were all crushed, and blood with minced meat gushed out from the corners of her mouth and nostrils, forming threads that dripped on the back of the silver Wolf, dyeing its fur red!

At this moment, her sea of consciousness was trembling. The power of the old man's palm was far more terrifying than the burly man's.

She tried to move her fingers, but her broken body wouldn't listen to her. Her consciousness was also weakening as her blood flowed out.

I'm afraid I'm really going to fail tonight!

She had never thought that investigating a murder case would involve such experts.

As she gradually lost consciousness, the silver Wolf's roar mixed with the wind rang in her ears.

"Third brother, the wolf is running!" A woman's voice was heard, followed by the burly man's angry shout,"

"I can't let this beast escape, I must cut it into a thousand pieces!"

"Can you leave?" The old man snorted coldly, his tone was mixed with a sense of joy,

"I didn't expect to have such a harvest tonight. This girl had the nine-word secret order, so it should be 'God'... I'm afraid that the two servants of the Chu family were killed by this Wolf!"

The surrounding spiritual Qi fluctuated, and the silver Wolf ran left and right, trying to break out of the encirclement.

However, under the siege of the three experts, they were intercepted.

The sound of the wind suddenly stopped, and the silver Wolf let out a sharp cry from its throat. Its movements seemed to be restricted.

A skinny hand grabbed song qingxiao's arm and lifted her off the Wolf's back. The silver Wolf's angry howl could not be stopped. The old man looked at song qingxiao's face that was covered in blood and let out a surprised cry,

"Eh? He's not dead yet?"

She had been hit by his palm, and her meridians and internal organs were clearly shattered. Without the protection of spiritual power, she should have died long ago.

However, a young girl in the spirit focus realm was still breathing, although the aura was extremely weak, he was not dead.

"It's a pity that you must die." The old man shook his head. I can't take it if you don't die.

As he spoke, the silver Wolf, which was tightly bound by the net on the ground, growled fiercely and struggled to get rid of the shackles. The old man raised his palm, circulated his spiritual energy, and hit song qingxiao again.

As the palm landed, spiritual energy penetrated the girl's body and harvested what little life force she had left.

The corners of the old man's mouth raised slightly. He felt that her breath was gradually disappearing. Just as he was about to release his hand, he saw the eyelids of the girl who should have died slowly move. A flirtatious golden light flashed through her eyes. Her head, which was hanging powerlessly on her shoulder, slowly raised its head as the demonic light flashed.

"Ah?" The old man let out a cry of surprise when he saw this.

The eyelid slowly opened, revealing a pair of eyes that were as deep as the sea of stars.

“Finally...” She sighed softly, and a domineering and terrifying power emanated from her body, it’s out..
