Chapter 60: Don't say

So many people had died in the hospital that night, and everyone was in a state of panic. The top priority was to find the murderer and make everyone feel more at ease.

At that time, Liu Yichen had used the process of elimination to exclude those who could prove that they were not the murderer during the period of doctor ou's death, and then he found the suspect.

That night, the patient in bed 15 on the third floor refused to cooperate. He kept making a scene, the doctors on duty at that time were doctor ou and patient 4. The nurses on duty included me, Xiaoyu, Xiaoyun, Xiaohua, and Xiaochun.

When she said this, she paused for a moment. Liu Yichen listened to her for a long time, but she still did not get to the point where she suspected Zhang Xiaoyu. She suddenly became a little anxious. "And then? You said you suspect Xiao Yu, but where's the evidence?"

After he asked, he did not notice that Zhang Xiaoyu's face was even paler than before.

"And then?"

Song qingxiao looked at Liu Yichen with a half-smile on her face. As the trial mission progressed, she had experienced more things, and her state of mind had also changed.

When she first entered the mission, she was so scared that she shivered when she saw Liu Yichen. When she was with him, she felt uneasy and guarded, and she was always haunted by the shadow of the previous trial.

However, she did not know if it was because she was getting stronger, but after spending more time with Liu Yichen, the fear she felt was not as strong as before. When she looked at him again, she was not as panicked as before.

"What else do you want, doctor Liu?"

She asked softly, "didn't you already ask about the situation? When doctor ou died, the patient in bed 15 refused to cooperate, and they kept making a scene. They locked Xiaoyun, Xiaohua, and Xiaochun in the ward."

Zhang Xiaoyu's body trembled even more violently when song qingxiao said this. Liu yixun was stunned, and song qingxiao continued, when Xiaoyun mentioned that they were trapped, didn't you ask where I went? II

Liu Yichen suddenly recalled that he did ask the nurses where they were and what they were doing when doctor ou died.

Tu Xiaoyun said that she and Xiaohua were delivering medicine to the patient in bed 15. Xiao Chun also came to help after delivering the medicine on the second floor. The three of them were trapped in the ward and were almost in danger. This proved that they were not at the scene of the crime when doctor ou was in trouble.

After he asked tu Xiaoyun, he turned to song qingxiao, ""And you?"

At that time, song qingxiao did not speak, and it was Zhang Xiaoyu who answered for her. Zhang Xiaoyu's original words were, ""Qing Xiao is with me."

But now, song qingxiao was saying that she was on the fourth floor, busy killing the '4' she mentioned, and was not with Zhang Xiaoyu.

In other words, when doctor ou died, among the nurses on duty that night, other than the three people who were unconscious on the fourth floor, Zhang Xiaoyu did not have any proof of what she was doing.

On the night of the incident, there was an accident with the surveillance camera on the third floor near the doctor's on-call room, so the real murderer could only be found by everyone's mutual identification.

With this confession and under the condition that no one had any 'suspicions', the spectacled man, Jia Yue, who finally arrived, was detained as the murderer.

"At that time, I was thinking, Xiao Yu, why did you help me like this?" Song qingxiao's hand, which was holding the whip, moved, later, I realized that you were not helping me. You were helping yourself.

If she dared to say that, it meant that she had noticed that song qingxiao was not present at the time. On the other hand, while she was proving song qingxiao's innocence, she also indirectly proved that she was acting alone at the time.

The fact that she could still notice song qingxiao's disappearance despite the chaos that night showed that Zhang Xiaoyu had consciously observed the surrounding environment, which further confirmed her suspicion.

When Liu Yichen heard this, she was silent for a moment. The nurses around her were shocked, and the only surviving security guard was scared. He subconsciously looked at Zhang Xiaoyu and moved away from her.

"Even so, you can't say that Xiao Yu is a suspect, right?"

Liu Yichen spoke reluctantly, and song Qing nodded.

"Of course."

She put her hand into her pocket, and this action made number five and number six's expressions change. It was as if they were afraid that she would pull out a terrible weapon and attack them. They instinctively put up a defensive posture. Even Liu Yichen and the others were shocked. They saw song qingxiao take out a ball of tissue from her pocket.

"After doctor ou died, her appearance was tidied up. When we found her, her clothes were neat, and her hair was combed carefully. People who are not familiar with this wouldn't waste time on this.."
