Chapter 1011: Entering the Scripture Depository once again (1)

Li Xue'er had never thought that dragging Li Moying down the water would not save her life. On the contrary, it sped up the process of her end!

She fell heavily onto the ground, feeling all kinds of weird gazes on her and different voices with words of ridicule so she finally could not help but rolled her eyes and fainted!

Young Sect Master Li was not like his wife.

Huang Yueli liked to beat the person up until they were convinced and ready to concede but Li Moying didn't care of that person was convinced or not. Anyway if they were not convinced, then it's just a matter of time when that person would be dead!

The students who were around saw this scene and did not feel that Li Moying was too harsh or heartless on the way he handled things. This type of scum who resorted to trickery was one whom Celestial Light Academy's students despised the most. So this time round, Li Xue'er had really become a scurrying mouse!

Mo Yi was stunned that Li Xue'er had fainted so quickly and not knowing what step he should take next, he looked at Huang Yueli for further instructions.

Huang Yueli had not expected Li Moying to get Mo Yi to make a move and she was dumbstruck for a moment. After a short moment, she simply smiled and shook her head.

She actually dared to splash dirty water onto Li Moying without even considering the fact that this Second Brother of hers was no soft hearted person?

Huang Yueli smiled and in a low voice, she said, "Brother Mo Yi, since she has already fainted, she's also quite pitiful so don't force her to walk on her own. Rent her a carriage and I'll come out with the money! So that others don't say that Young Sect Master Li is torturing his own sister!"

Mo Yi was speechless. This pair of fiancé and fiancée were more black-bellied than the other!

Really admired Li Xue'er to have the guts to anger them, did she felt that her end wasn't miserable enough!

The minute Mo Yi received the command, he proceeded to drag the person out and disappeared from the crowd's view.

But those present all understood that Li Xue'er was about to tour Sky Cloud City's streets and momentarily, they were slightly indecisive.

Running around naked wasn't a common sight and worth watching but the Armament Master certification assessment was about to proceed into the final stage and if they were to leave now, it would be a waste!

Sigh, which side should they stay with!

Tang Jinhua spent quite an amount of effort before he finally managed to control the entire situation. In the end, he finished the testing on the Profound Armaments which were refined by the other two examinees and gave the marks.

In the end, only one examinee's works had passed the testing and was recognised as a first tier lower grade Profound Armament, which met the passing mark and passed the certification.

When the examinee heard the result, he was so happy that he cried tears of joy!

Including Huang Yueli, there were a total of two examinees who had attained the certification to become a first tier Armament Master!

When the results were announced, the entire Profound Weapon Chambers was filled with thunderous applause and there were numerous words of praises filled with envy.

Before today, no one had imagined that there would be a genius like Huang Yueli. Not only did she had outstanding talent in cultivation, furthermore she had shocking innate talent and ability in armament refining! This had simply broke through their imagination!

Wherever that aristocratic figure went, everyone would automatically split out a pathway for him so that he could directly reach Huang Yueli's side.

Huang Yueli raised her head and saw his figure against the light and she too became stunned for a moment. Although she had already seen this face numerous times, but sometimes she felt that she couldn't help but be attracted by his suave and respectable grandeur, sometimes even forgetting where she was....

Li Moying lowered his head and saw her somewhat misty expression as the corners of his lips raised slightly.

He lowered his body and got up close to her as his warm breath blew right on her ear.

"Congratulations, Li'er for successfully passing through the assessment!"

"Ughh..... Ah, th.... Thank you!"

That pair of peach blossom eyes was so near and that gaze was so bright and tempting till Huang Yueli felt her face slightly hot and her tongue didn't seemed so sharp after all.

Li Moying smiled lightly and lowered his tone, bearing a charm filled with sexiness as he stretched out his hand towards her.

She could feel Li Moying closing in to her, very near.... Furthermore, nearer and nearer.... Did he wanted to kiss her?

Suddenly she felt a slightly warm sensation on her forehead followed by the man's wilful laughter.

Huang Yueli hurriedly opened her eyes only to discover that Li Moying had stretched out his hand to wipe away the soot which was smeared on her face when she was refining armaments and at the same time, gathered the hair strands stuck on her forehead to the back of her ear. He hadn't done any off-the-scale action and simply stood up.

The expression on her face turned stiff..... s..sh...she... this.... was a misunderstanding?

Li Moying saw through her embarrassed look and purposely stared at her in a teasing manner as he licked the corners of his lips and said, "Li'er, what unhealthy things are you thinking of? Are you thinking of doing something bad to me? En? But we're now in the Profound Weapon Chambers and there're so many people looking on! I cannot comply with you because I'd feel embarrassed...."

"You..... get further away!" Huang Yueli finally understood that this stinky man had done that on purpose!

She was so angry that she pushed him away and jumped to one side.

But at this moment, no matter how she tried to avoid arousing suspicions, it was useless because their actions had already aroused waves of whistling in the entire Profound Weapon Chambers.

"So sweet, Senior Brother Li and Junior Sister Bai are so compatible!"

"Isn't that so? One's ability is exceptionally outstanding and the other has such exceptional innate talent and moreover, she was an Armament Master so they simply cannot be more compatible!"

"Ahhhhh, I envy them so much! When will I be able to find someone as great as that as my other half!"

If in the past, someone felt that Huang Yueli's innate talent and status did not matched up to Li Moying's, then after today, no one would even dare to gossip about this!

To be able to balance both cultivation and armament refining, there weren't many of such geniuses in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!

Anyone who saw them both together really made others lose their courage to even feel jealous and could only admit the existence of such a perfect combination!

But very quickly, a set of different voices rang.

"Senior Brother Li, kiss her!"

"That's right, quickly kiss her! Can't you tell that Junior Sister Bai is looking forward to it?"

Huang Yueli's face flushed even redder! Damn, it was all Li Moying that scoundrel's fault. He actually... actually gave her that kind of hint! After that her head seemed to have water seeping in. Why had she lost her senses just after looking at that pair of eyes??

Huang Yueli turned around fiercely, thinking to find the one who took the lead in heckling but as there was simply too many people in the Profound Weapon Chambers, she had no hope of finding the culprit!

As for Li Moying, he displayed a natural and unrestrained manner and even nodded towards the crowd as he made a gesture for them to keep silent.

"Alright, alright, please don't anyway talk, Li'er is very shy. In addition, this is the Armament Master certification assessment so please don't let the minor details obscure the main point and affect Master Tang from presiding over the assessment."

On seeing Li Moying's rare gentle smile, instead of the screaming dying down, it became even more intense.

Chapter 1013: Entering the Scripture Depository once again (3)

Many female students even clutched their chests bearing a fainting look as they mumbled, "Senior Brother Li actually smiled, smiled..... oh no, I'm going to faint...."

Huang Yueli's lips kept twitching and she finally could not take it any further as she secretly kicked Li Moying and said furiously, "Have you had enough, do you still know that Master Tang is still presiding? Why did you get up here for? Go to one corner right now!"

Li Moying unwillingly stepped down.

Tang Jinhua gave a cough and his face displayed an ambiguous smile but he tried hard to curb it.

"Ughh, cough cough, following this, we shall not invite President Hu from the Armament Guild to award the badge for these two newly promoted Armament Masters!"

President Hu walked onto the stage and his face hung an amiable smile but in Huang Yueli's eyes, it seemed like a grandfather teasing her...

After President Hu awarded the first tier Armament Master badge for them, he smiled at Huang Yueli, "Miss Bai, I know that your strength had gone beyond the first tier but this certification only awards first tier badge. If you require a higher levelled badge, please do find some time to visit the Armament Guild personally. I will help you do the certification alone. But Sky Cloud City's branch can only award badges which are fourth tier and below so if you require even higher certification, you will need to visit Soaring Heavens. Continent's Headquarters!"

Huang Yueli smiles, "Thank you President Hu for the pointers. Some days later, I will definitely need to drop by and trouble you."

President Hu nodded.

Tang Jinhua was shocked to hear that. He also knew that Huang Yueli's strength in armament refining was extraordinary and definitely not merely at first tier but from how he saw it, to be able to be at second tier was already terrifying. Third tier.... Definitely was the limit! But from President Hu's tone, could it be that Huang Yueli's armament refining standard had already reached fourth tier?

This... this wasn't possible right? He himself was only merely at fourth tier and moreover, he was already thirty plus years old.....

In the end, even Jiang Tuxin also went on stage and made the final concluding speech, announcing the award of the Honorary Points to this round's newly promoted Armament Masters.

According to tradition, those who had obtained a first tier Armament Master badge would be able to gain one Honorary Point. But Jiang Tuxin had given Huang Yueli three this time!

Normally this kind of reward which broke the rule would easily cause other students displeasure but this time round, no one raised any exceptions!

Because Huang Yueli's outstanding performance had already deeply convinced everyone!

This time, other than obtaining the Armament Master certification, to her, the biggest reap was to obtain the Honorary Points!

With Honorary Points, she would be able to enter the fourth level of the Scripture Depository and take a look at what Bai Liu Feng had left for her.

Waiting for her was the same managing teacher as last time.

But as compared to the previous time, the reverent attitude which the managing teacher had towards her had increased by several notches!

Previously, Huang Yueli was only the new top student and even if she had acquired the top ten ranking in the Martial Arts Stage, it would only meant that her future was boundless but now, her status had jumped by three tiers!

Defeating Li Zijue, a renowned top genius in Celestial Light Academy and now even becoming a true blue first tier Armament Master!

This kind of status and strength, even if it was Principal Jiang, he had to treat her with respect!

Chapter 1014: Entering the Scripture Depository once again (4)

The minute they entered the Scripture Depository, Huang Yueli went straight to the point and asked, "Teacher, my purpose in this visit is to enter the fourth level of the Scripture Depository. This time I've managed to obtain the Honorary Points so I should be able to go in and take a look right?"

The managing teacher hesitated for a moment, "This..... Master Bai, I've already guessed your intention in this visit. But I wonder if you can still remember that according to the academy's regulations, each person can only exchange for two sets of Profound Skills. Have you mastered the two manuscripts that you've borrowed from the Scripture Depository the last round?"

Although he asked that question but he had already decided in his heart that Huang Yueli absolutely had not mastered it at all.

Although she was an all-in genius, but the two manuscripts that she borrowed previously were not reasonable at all!

One was the remnants of a heaven level cultivation method and the preface didn't match the ending whereas the other was an Earth attributed Profound Skill! Who within the academy didn't know that she was a metal and fire dual attributed practitioner? These two books.... Neither of it suited her at all!

The managing teacher shook his head silently, thinking that he had already reminded this young lass previously that she must choose a manuscript which she could master. Otherwise the next time even if she had Honorary Points, she would not be able to enter the Scripture Depository!

Who knew that Huang Yueli smiled instead, "Of course I remember. I have already mastered one of the cultivation methods so Teacher please allow me to demonstrate!"

Saying that, with a move from her right hand, a strong Earth attributed Profound Energy gathered beside her and very quickly, an earth wall formed right in front of her. Following the fluctuations from her surrounding Profound Energy, it continued to undulate variations!

Managing Teacher was so shocked that his mouth opened agape, "This... this is the Earth attributed Profound Skill <<Earth Crevasse Barrier>>! You... you managed to master it??"

Huang Yueli nodded, "That's right, this is the manuscript which I had exchanged previously and now that I've mastered it, may I choose another manuscript?"

Managing Teacher was still in a daze and hadn't regained his senses.

"But, but.... don't you have metal and fire dual attributes? Don't tell me.... You also have an innate talent for earth attribute?? Won't that mean you're triple attributed? How is that possible?"

Huang Yueli replied, "My Earth attribute innate talent isn't very good, it's just a little bit. Alright Managing Teacher, can I go in or not?"

"Oh, yes, yes.... Master Bai, please enter! Your scope of jurisdiction now allows you to enter any level of the Scripture Depository so please take your time to pick!"

Managing Teacher nodded his head repeatedly as he sent her away.

By the time he returned to his seat and thought back carefully, sweat started to form on his forehead.

Earlier.... Huang Yueli said her Earth attribute innate talent isn't good! But if her innate talent wasn't good, how could she possibly master an Earth grade Profound Skill in such a short amount of time?? Even practitioners with outstanding innate talents could not do it!

If she referred this to her innate talent no good, then just how heaven defying.... were her good innate talents?? Was she telling the truth or just bluffing her way??

Managing Teacher was in the middle of a daze when suddenly a black figure flashed past him.

"Who's there??"

He stood up immediately and shot towards the Scripture Depository's entrance!

But he couldn't see anyone after taking a careful check.

Managing Teacher thought it was strange and walked to and fro several rounds, checking everywhere but still didn't manage to see any signs of someone's appearance.

"That's strange? Earlier that figure.... there was obvious signs of someone entering the Scripture Depository secretly? Could it be that I saw wrongly?"

Managing Teacher scratched his head and returned to his position.

Chapter 1015: Entering the Scripture Depository once again (5)

Anyway there were many top experts sent over from Celestial Light Sect, watching over the Scripture Depository and if the others didn't discover any problems, then it should mean that there wasn't any issues right?

Probably..... he was overly suspicious.

But at this moment, a black figure had silently entered the inner zone of the Scripture Depository and following right behind Huang Yueli from a safe distance.

Huang Yueli walked in the secluded and uninhabited corridor and she seemed to have sensed something as she turned around to take a look but did not see anything at all.

"Today, the number of people in the Scripture Depository is really very little....." she sighed and silently continued on her way inside.

The last time she came, she had already understood the layout of the Scripture Depository so this time round, without any hesitation, she walked straight towards the fourth level.

"Third earthly branch Yan..... third day.... Wu, seems to be this..."

She turned right and walked into the designated room, searching everywhere for the book case number which was inscribed onto the identity token which Bai Liu Feng had left for her.

The number of students on the fourth level of the Scripture Depository was even lesser and the entire room had only three to four people present and without any exception, all of them were the top ten ranking students in the Martial Arts Stage or students who had made exceptional contributions to the academy, all of whom were legendary figures.

Upon seeing Huang Yueli entering the room, some of them even stood up simultaneously and nodded to her.

Huang Yueli casually nodded back but didn't engaged in small talk. She had a very important matter to do right now and if she were to get entangled with them, it would affect her proper business!

"Following that.... left eleven.... Is it referring to the eleventh row of shelving? What about upper twenty nine? This shelving doesn't have twenty nine levels!"

These tiles looked like it was very tidy and concentrated and ordinary people would not be able to tell any difference. But to an Armament Master like Huang Yueli, the inside seemed to have something hidden within and most likely, it was a mechanism.

She turned around and looked around. This corner was very obscure and no one would even notice this place.

She took a set of silk threaded gloves from her space realm and put it on. Following that she placed her slender fingers on the wall and carefully controlled her strength, searching the wall one by one.

This entire duration lasted for one hour and Huang Yueli had been very patiently moving her fingers slowly, using her sense of touch to feel the vibrations from the wall, and at the same time calculating in her mind.

After some time, she frowned, "How is that possible? I'm not able to find the mechanism to activate it?"

But very quickly, she recalled the scenario of the first time when she opened the mechanism when she was still in South Yue Kingdom.

At that time, Bai Liu Feng had left behind a Silk Cage which rendered her helpless but Little Phoenix told her the special way to activate the mechanism was to use her blood, which was left behind from the God Realm...

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli removed her gloves and using her teeth to bite her finger, she dripped her blood onto the surroundings of the tiles.

"Brrrrrrr..." A slight rubbing sound was heard.

The twenty ninth piece of tile flipped opened from the outside and revealed a small hidden compartment within.

Huang Yueli delightfully rushed over.

Chapter 1016: Entering the Scripture Depository once again (6)

However, after she took a careful look, she was stunned and revealed a disappointed expression.

“What’s going on? The inside of this.... is actually empty? What kind of riddle is father playing?”

Huang Yueli frowned as she squatted down slightly and inclining her head, she checked carefully and even used her fingers to touch the surrounds of the secret compartment, trying to find out if there were any other mechanisms which she had not discovered yet.

But no matter how she looked, the secret compartment was as empty as it was. Furthermore, she discovered someone unusual.

“The surroundings of this secret compartment has obvious white scratches... and the chinks of the tiles are not that concentrated..... this secret compartment seemed to have been opened before and furthermore, the person who opened this definitely doesn’t father’s blood so that person could only resort to activate this mechanism forcefully....”

The more Huang Yueli checked, the more serious her expression turned.

Under normal circumstances, Bai Liu Feng’s clue would definitely be given to his daughter only and this mechanism could not be opened by any others!

Since it had been opened and in such a forceful way, there was only one possibility and that was someone found out that the location where Bai Liu Feng had hidden the treasure and found a chance to forcefully activate the hidden mechanism then took away the item inside!

No matter what Bai Liu Feng left behind, it had already been hijacked by someone!

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli was extremely disappointed!

She finally found her way here and thought of so many ways, conquering the difficulties just so that she could find out more about her identity and clues on her father and mother! But in the end it just ended here?

Furthermore, the more important issue was that she didn’t know who it was or how that person who took away the thing that Bai Liu Feng left behind..... how did he find out about this clue?

Huang Yuei did a final check on the mechanism and verified that there were no other clues so she could only close up the secret compartment.

Looked like this time she could only return empty handed.

Anyway she still had two Honorary Points which had not been utilised so if there was a need, she could still enter another day.

The most pressing matter on hand now was to find a way to understand clearly where Bai Liu Feng's item had gone to and in whose hands was it in now?

Huang Yueli was not in the mood to stay any longer in the Scripture Depository and prepared to leave directly.

When she passed by the entrance, the Managing Teacher saw her empty hands and his two eyes almost popped out.

"I say, Ma... Master Bai, you're leaving just like that?? You didn't choose any manuscript at all! I've got to remind you that each time you enter the Scripture Depository, even if you didn't choose any cultivation method, one Honorary Point will still be deducted. Y.... You want to leave just like that? You're really not going to select any manuscript?"

It's not that she wanted to waste but she really had no mood on this aspect and on the other hand, according to the regulations of the Scripture Depository, she must master one cultivation method before choosing another one. If she managed to find another clue tomorrow but had not mastered that cultivation method, then wouldn't she be caught unprepared? Those cultivation methods which entered her eyes were not that easy to master!

Managing Teacher was dumbstruck as he watched her leaving, feeling that he had developed some form of hallucination.

How could there be anyone who would waste one chance to enter the Scripture Depository but didn't even select any manuscript?

When Huang Yueli walked out of the Scripture Depository, she suddenly felt that someone was watching her.

She turned around and took a look but only saw the Managing Teacher looking at her blankly and couldn't help but frown.

Chapter 1017: State of panic (1)

Could it be.... Yet another misperception?

Although Huang Yueli felt that something was not right, but there wasn't anything suspicious around so she could only conclude that she was overly suspicious and left the Scripture Depository.

By now, it was already midnight and the academy was extremely quiet.

The pathway towards the Scripture Depository had always been serene. Tall palm trees lined up on both sides of the path, forming a forest and in addition to the fact that the number of students who came by to exchange for manuscripts were originally very few, so this road had always been rather isolated.

Huang Yueli walked alone on the pathway as her mind kept replaying the scenario which she had seen in the Scripture Depository earlier.

Bai Liu Feng had already been extremely cautious when he hid the item in the fourth level of the Scripture Depository. The number of people who could enter that place were already not many. Furthermore, most students who entered would have their attention focused on selecting the manuscripts so it was not possible for them to discover a hidden mechanism.

So the person who took the item away should have gone prepared, aiming the item in the hidden compartment.

The Scripture Depository's security was tight and only those with Honorary Points were allowed to enter so suspects who fell into that category were in fact very little.....

Huang Yueli seemed to have thought of something as she frowned slightly.

But just at this moment, she suddenly felt a cold intent coming from her back!

Huang Yueli's reaction was swift as she immediately turned aside and shot towards one corner!

At this moment, a long sword had silently landed on the position which she was standing at earlier and a sliver ray flashed, quick as lightning!

A black robed man stuck out his sword but had landed onto empty space as he couldn't help but made a "hmm" sound.

But his reaction was quick as he hurriedly chased after the direction which Huang Yueli had ran in, striking out move after move!

After Huang Yueli had avoided the first move, she didn't even have time to turn around and look. Instead she immediately rolled on the ground and rolled right into the forest.

Her reaction was extremely swift and when she was rolling into the grass, she had already seen clearly the surrounding topography, throwing out concealed weapons to disrupt the sense of hearing as she rolled towards the back of a huge tree!

The night had gradually turned dark and in the depths of the forest, it seemed even more serene and dusky.

The black robed man was not prepared and had been hit directly by an incoming Thunder Flame Ball! His beard had instantly caught fire!

Following that, there were attacks from concealed weapons continuously. He was caught unawares and were struck by various types of Profound Armaments!

"Damnit, this wretched lass.... why does she have so many Profound Armaments!"

The black robed man was so angry that he went into a stomping fit as he was in a flurry to pat off the flames on his beard and clothes!

Even though there was a moment of confusion, but his ability was absolutely outstanding so the fifth tiered Profound Armaments which Huang Yueli had weren't able to cause him any fatal weaknesses.

The black robed man quickly put out the flames but he had lost all traces of Huang Yueli's whereabouts.

A large grass patch in the forest were fuming with black smoke and in combination to the dusky light ray, it made it impossible to see the situation in the forest!

Black robed man struck out several times towards the direction of the rising black smoke but none of it had managed to hit his target!

After the black smoke had dispersed, the forest regained its usual quietness, not giving out any single sound!

The expression on the black robed man's face changed as he had not expected that at such a close distance, Huang Yueli was still able to react and in the nick of time, managed to evade and avoid his ultimate move!

Furthermore, she was able to remain composed and used all her ways to disrupt his judgement to escape in time!

At this moment, Huang Yueli who had escaped this calamity was leaning against the back of a huge tree as her heart was pounding wildly!

Chapter 1018: State of panic (2)

She really had not expected that there would be anyone who dared to kill in Celestial Light Academy!

Furthermore the assassinator's strength was extremely strong and his cultivation had far surpassed hers, at least practitioner who was a seventh stage realm or above! This was not an opponent whom she could possibly win!

Luckily, she had faintly sensed that something was not right when she was leaving the Scripture Depository and had kept an eye on the surroundings enabling her to sense the opponent's movements. The assassin had not expected her to have such senses and had momentarily underestimated her, thus giving her the chance to escape.

Seventh stage realm.... with this kind of cultivation, even if it were in Sky Cloud City which was full of strong practitioners, he was considered as an outstanding top exponent! Such a top exponent actually wanted to kill a third stage realm lass like her? Moreover, taking the risk to strike in Celestial Light Academy!

Why on earth was this so?

Huang Yueli had a faint guess in her mind. This... definitely had something to do with the item which Bai Liu Feng left behind for her.

As for that person who attempted to assassinate her, there was a possibility that he was the one who took away Bai Liu Feng's remnant....

Who was this person?

Huang Yueli wanted very much to sneak a peek at this person, to see what he looked like but she managed to hold it in.

A top seventh stage realm expert, she couldn't even take one full bloomed blow. Even if she used up all the Profound Armaments on her, she would not be able to deal with any fatal damage to this seventh stage realm practitioner.

If she were to expose her whereabouts, then she would definitely be awaiting death!

Now the priority was to retain her life and as for the truth, it could be investigated later on...

Black robed man could not find Huang Yueli but did not leave immediately. Instead he held his long sword and walked to and fro around the surroundings of the forest, searching for Huang Yueli's whereabouts.

"Bai Ruoli, come out now! Do you think that by hiding in the forest, I'd not be able to find you? I advise you to show yourself. I have a few questions to ask you and if you answer me honestly, I will not make things difficult for you. Otherwise..."

The black robed man's sinister and hoarse voice reverberated through the forest.

Huang Yueli was stunned, feeling that this voice sounded familiar as though she had heard it somewhere before but she couldn't figure out who it was.

At such a tense situation, she was in no state of mind to think carefully on where she heard this voice before.

"... Alright, it seems that you'd not shed tears until you see the coffin, just you wait!"

The black robed man sneered, not making another sound.

Momentarily, only the rustling sound made by the black robed man walking within the forest could be heard in the quiet and serene forest.

Huang Yueli quickly held her breath and controlling the Profound Energy within her, she tried her best to lower her existence.

With her strong primordial spirit, her senses on the surroundings were stronger by three times more than ordinary third stage realm practitioners. The black robed man did not conceal his own whereabouts so she could still feel it distinctly that the black robed man was walking around nearby.

Furthermore, this black robed man apparently had rich experience in searching. The method he used was a carpet search, carefully searching every single area, bit by bit, not giving any chance to leave out any suspicious hiding spots.

The distance between the black robed man and her was getting closer and closer and if this continued, according to his concentrated search, it would not be any longer before she was found!

If there wasn't any huge disparity in their cultivation levels, then she could still use the advantage she had in her body motions to move away quietly.

But now that the black robes man's cultivation was so much higher than hers, no matter how good her body movements were, it was impossible to move without leaving any flaws...

Chapter 1019: State of panic (3)

The black robed man's footsteps were getting nearer and nearer and he had already walked to the back of the tall tree which Huang Yueli was hiding, on seeing that he was about to turn around...

Huang Yueli had no other choice as her right hand suddenly waved!

The black robed man was originally looking around, searching thoroughly and he had already searched a huge portion of the forest. He was just left with a little part before he could complete his search and there weren't many hiding places which Huang Yueli could hide any further. A victorious smile had formed on the black robes man's lips, just waiting to catch this sly lass alive!

That wretched lass dared to burn his beard which he had been proudly taking care of and even tricked him. So when she finally fell into his hands, he would absolutely not let her off easily!

Just as the black robed man was thinking of ways to torture Huang Yueli, suddenly he felt something fly past his head.

Following that, a few dollops of semi-wet things fell on top of his head and there was even some liquid which flowed downwards from his hair all the way dripping onto his face.

"What is this??"

The black robed man subconsciously stretched out his hand to touch and on taking a close look, he went into a blank but following that, he suddenly changed colour showing displeasure!

The sticky, murky, brown coloured dollop on his hand gave out a strange stinky smell, wasn't that..... wasn't that bird shit??

The black robed man was so disgusted that he almost threw up as the gastric juices continued to rise, he couldn't help but vomit.

He had finally managed to suppress the disgusting feeling as he raised his head to take a look and saw a golden red coloured bird speedily flying away towards the eastern direction.

The black robed man immediately reacted, "Damn you, it's this bird which actually dared to shit on the top of my head! I'll put your feathers out one by one to make it into a shuttlecock!"

That little bird nimbly avoided it and even made a chirping cry.

"How dare you ridicule me! Stupid bird, wait till you fall into my hands, I will roast you!" The black robed man finally couldn't tolerate it any further as he chased after it!

The golden red coloured little bird was little Wang Cai. Earlier Huang Yueli knew that she had nowhere else to hide and could only release him out!

Little Phoenix had grown a little larger recently and the intensity of his flame had grown stronger than before but it was still not possible to go against a seventh stage realm practitioner. So under dire circumstances, Huang Yueli thought of a move to deal him with tremendous damage and that was for little Wang Cai to shit on that black robed man's head!

Little Wang Cai had originally heard that there was a seventh stage realm top exponent and was a little apprehensive, not daring to come out but upon hearing that he could shit on his head, he was so excited that he couldn't wait but flew out almost immediately!

He flew over the black robed man's head and spread his legs and accurately released his 'ammunition'. Moreover as he was picky about his food, he had loose stools recently so it wasn't just disgustingly wet, the smell was also horrible...

Seeing the black robed man's face turned from red to black, then from black to white and finally from white to green, Little Phoenix was extremely delighted! He almost couldn't help but chirped!

Seeing his accurately pile of shit without a single inch of deviation, it was indeed the work of an extraordinary phoenix which could do that!

However before he had finished being complacent with himself, the black robed man regained his senses and the burst of Profound Energy had narrowly brushed past its tail feathers.

Little Phoenix went into a state of panic as it hurriedly flapped its wings and used all its might to escape!

It was a natural spiritual beast and its speed was naturally very fast but a seventh stage realm practitioner's speed wasn't something to dismiss as well. Following closely right behind it, Little Phoenix not only didn't managed to shake the black robed man off, in fact the distance between the both of them were decreasing!

Chapter 1020: State of panic (4)

Little Phoenix used all its might to flap its wings, increasing its speed, and further increasing it!

But there was a limit to its physical strength as it started to feel tired slowly.

At this point of time, it started to feel a bit remorseful. Why did it have to eat so many chicken drumsticks usually. This fat tummy of its was really heavy and had seriously affected its flying speed!

"Don't run, you lousy bird, still dare to escape? Still dare to ridicule me?"

Little Phoenix was full of tears, its chirping was not ridiculing the black robed man but was moaning! Flying was very tiring and it was going to tire the bird out!

"Hmph, I shall see where can you escape to!"

The distance between the man and phoenix were closing in and it was barely just half a meter's distance as the black robed man stretched out his hand, trying to strangulate Wang Cai directly.

But at this moment, Little Phoenix's tummy suddenly had a feeling as it couldn't help but tremble!

“Caught you.... Damn it, what is this?!”

The black robed man stretched out his hand and grabbed fiercely but he wasn't able to catch any feathers but instead, he grabbed hold of a pile of soft, warm.....

Disgusting.....

He had been struck once again and finally could not hold it in any further as he squatted on the ground and started throwing up!

This time round, Little Phoenix had learnt its lesson and did not stay behind to admire his “work”. It flapped its wings and hurriedly flew away to escape!

Just as the black robed man and little Wang Cai were in the middle of tussling, Huang Yueli tried her utmost best to lighten her footsteps and moved secretly towards the boundary of the forest.

She didn't choose to head back towards her own courtyard but moved towards the direction of the Scripture Depository.

As there were few people here, if she were to leave the forest rashly, under the situation where she had no protection, she would have revealed her whereabouts entirely to the black robed man's vision and on the contrary had given the black robed man a chance to make a move on her.

So her only choice was to get closer to the Scripture Depository because there were quite a number of top exponents from Celestial Light Sect who were stationed at the Scripture Depository. Perhaps the black robed man would be deterred by this and gave up the idea to pursue her!

By now, Huang Yueli had confidence about this because if the black robed man dared to kill her under the eyes of those top exponents stationed there, then he couldn't had followed her secretly till she left the Scripture Depository before making a move.

Just as she had already reached the boundary of the forest, the black robed man suddenly regained his senses.

“Damnit, I almost forgot about the official matters because of that damn bird's interruption!”

He had pursued after Wang Cai for some time but was unable to catch hold of it so he could only swallow this down and turned around to continue searching for Huang Yueli.

Wang Cai saw that he stopped his pursue and intentionally lured him, hoping the black robed man would continue to chase after it.

But he waited for quite some time and there didn't seem to have any movements from his tummy, so lacking the “valuable golden thing”, the black robed man wasn't hooked and that made Little Phoenix at its wits end.

Huang Yueli silently thought it was such a pity but as there wasn't any other thing which they could do, she could only remain composed and once again concealed herself while waiting for the next opportunity.

Black robed man searched an entire round and realised that Huang Yueli had already shifted as he cursed out.

“Bai Ruoli, aren’t you being arrogant and wild just because Li Moying stood out for you? How is it that you only know how to hide now? Do you think that hiding would be of any use? If you have the capability, then don’t come out forever! Otherwise... I will eventually catch you.....”

The sky was turning darker and Huang Yueli maintained her cool, directing the Chelonian Breathing Skill which allowed her breathing and fluctuations of her Profound Energy to be lowered to the minimum. So unless he saw her hiding her with his own eyes, otherwise just based on his senses and feeling, it was practically impossible to discover that a living human was right here.
