

Weaponsmith 1631

Chapter 1631: Returning to Sky Emperor City (4)

When Murong De heard that, a spark flashed across his eyes as though he had clutched on to the last straw, as he questioned relentlessly, "Really? She wouldn't harm Fei'er's life? That's great, Moying pampers this fiancée of his the most, her words.... Moying will definitely listen!"

Seeing Murong De heave a long sigh of relief, Yuan Zeyu silently shook his head.

Apparently, Murong De doesn't understand this Mistress of his. Otherwise.... he absolutely would not be so happy, perhaps he might not even be able to cry out!

According to Yuan Zeyu's slight understanding towards Huang Yueli, she indeed wouldn't let Murong Fei die, but.... she would let her suffer a fate living which was worse than death!

But Yuan Zeyu naturally wouldn't remind Murong De about this.

He cleared his throat and continued, "Third Miss also said that Celestial Light Sect is after all the place where my Master had resided in, so even if he left, he wouldn't not have any feelings for it. Master is a sentimental man so if Sect Master Murong is able to find a suitable successor, in future if Celestial Light Sect runs into any huge trouble, Master he will not stand aside and do nothing...."

"Will Sect Master Murong please consider this carefully!"

Murong De repeatedly thought about this for quite some time and the glow in his eyes started to lit up slowly!

Towards Huang Yueli's words, he had developed his own understanding as he felt extremely indebted towards her.

"Moying's fiancée is really a good person! Not only had she pleaded for Fei'er, she even helped Celestial Light Sect speak up.... ai, no wonder Moying likes her so much!"

As Li Moying and the others completely vanished from their sights, the entire public square started to clamour with voices of discussions.

The show today was simply too astonishing! It had totally exceeded everyone's limit of imagination!

Originally they thought that it was merely a coronation ceremony of a Young Sect Master and all they needed to do was to be a silent spectator.

Whoever knew that Li Moying suddenly came back to life and had even become a ninth stage realm top exponent! After exposing Li Lingchuan and Murong Fei's real faces, he left Celestial Light Sect in indignance!

With all of these, every single matter was enough to become a topic of discussion at one's leisure.

It was obvious that after today, not too long later, news of what had happened in Celestial Light Sect would have been spread throughout the entire South Sky Region!

Whereas Li Moying was merely twenty one years old and had already broken through to the ninth stage realm would at first instance become South Sky Region's top news!

This kind of peerless expert which made one unable to look straight at him would henceforth be the focal point for the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!

Outside the Sect entrance.

Hearing Yuan Zeyu's report on completion of his mission, Li Moying took a look at the young lady in his arms with a smile which didn't look like a smile, "Satisfied now? Murong De really treats you like his jolly good person! But you're really just a sly little fox!"

Huang Yueli blinked her innocent big eyes, "What's called 'treat me like' a good person? I am really a good person alright? Tell me, which part did I say wrongly?"

Li Moying shook his head helplessly, "No what you said is right! Whoever dares to say you're wrong, I'll be the first to disagree with it!"

Huang Yueli's lips curled up as she smiled broadly while leaning over, "That's right! Moreover speaking, isn't it all because of you that's why I said this?"

Li Moying exchanged glances with her. Their hearts and minds were interconnected hence he naturally knew what this young lass in front of him was up to.

His brows rose as he opened his mouth, "You're counting your chickens before they hatch, not knowing if someone is willing to listen to you or not?"

Chapter 1632: Returning to Sky Emperor City (5)

Huang Yueli smiled, "This is a solution which he could have his cake and eat it too, why would he not agree to it? I know, he's your loyal and devoted Junior Brother, so don't worry, I'll persuade him when the time is right!"

Li Moying pinched her perky cheek as he gave a low laugh, "Alright, I'll be relying on my wifey to help me plan by then."

"Who is your wifey?" Huang Yueli swept him a glance, she would not casually marry him just like that alright? Even if she only had eyes for this man, but if Li Moying didn't bring out one hundred and twenty percent of his sincerity to propose to her, she would not casually nod her head!

She murmured, "I only felt that you've been in Celestial Light Sect for so many years and have already set up a strong foundation there so if you were to just give up like that, it was really such a pity. Furthermore, South Sky Region's forces originally belong to Celestial Heavens Gate, so this chance is hard to come by....."

She made it sound very vague but Li Moying completely understood her meaning.

He had been Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master for many years and his foundation was very deep. It could be said that the entire Celestial Light Sect was within his grasp and furthermore based on Celestial Light Sect's status in South Sky Region, if it was used as a piece of chess in a suitable way, it could completely affect the entire South Sky Region's situation.

So Li Moying's leaving was really a pity but now that he had broken through to the ninth stage realm, it was definite for him to head towards Sky Emperor City to gain more space for development, rather than to continue mingling around in Celestial Light Sect.

In this way, the only way out for him was to leave a suitable successor, to help him take charge of Celestial Light Sect's forces, and at the same time become his agent for South Sky Region.

Luo Jiyun had always been loyal and devoted towards Li Moying and furthermore after Li Lingchuan and the others had all gotten into trouble, the only one with eight grade talent was him and in actual fact, he had already become Celestial Light Sect's highest innate talent and strongest abled talented practitioner.

For him to take over the position of Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master, naturally he was the choice for them to strike a balance in all aspects.

Huang Yueli had made Yuan Zeyu told Murong De all these, was so that he could plant all these thoughts into reality.

Actually, Li Moying had also thought of the same thing but as he considered Luo Jiyun's feelings, it was difficult for him to stand out but he had not expected Huang Yueli to be even more decisive than him as she immediately did so.

He lowered his head and took a look at his smiling Li'er as his lips curled up, with a slight tinge of sweetness and a little frustration.

Ai, to have an interconnected heart and mind fiancée, everything he was thinking of could not escape her eyes. Then in future wouldn't he not be able to do a single bad thing at all?

He was plainly most afraid of losing his freedom but why was it that when he thought of it, it actually made him feel full of anticipation instead?

That night, Li Moying led the entire group of them into Sky Cloud City as they settled down in a luxurious mansion within the city.

This luxurious mansion was one of the properties under Li Moying's name and he had first got the Shadow Guards to clean up the place, settling everything properly in advance.

Huang Yueli had been in a state of unrest for this period of time. Firstly she met with several dangers in Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region and later on they kept on hurrying back to Celestial Light Sect to exact revenge.

It was only until now that she had enough free time to soak herself in the mansion's huge warm sauna pool, enjoying her flower petal sauna bath.

By the time she spent over an hour coming out from the refreshing bath which invigorated her skin, she discovered that Li Moying had gone missing.

She took a tour around the rear courtyard and saw Li Moying sitting in the pavilion as he gazed afar, seemingly lost in thought.

Chapter 1633: Returning to Sky Emperor City (6)

Huang Yueli walked over in quick steps and hugged his arm as she looked at him from a slanted angle.

“Moying, what are you thinking about?”

Huang Yueli blinked as she recalled something in enlightenment, “That’s right, I haven’t asked you yet. What is our next step after leaving Celestial Light Sect?”

Actually, she more or less had confirmed that their next destination was a ninety nine percent chance of heading towards Sky Emperor City.

But for the exact next step, she wasn’t too sure of it. Only knowing that if Li Moying wanted to go over to take a look, she would follow him with no second thoughts, no matter if it was to the ends of the world...

But her fiance had always been a determined man, so he definitely had his own plan.

Li Moying turned back and took a look at her as he said, “We... shall stay in Sky Cloud City for a few days first. In the past decade, I have quite a number of properties in South Sky Region that needs to be handled, following that.....”

He paused for a moment and his voice seemed to add a few tones of anticipation.

“Following that, will be the time for us to return back to Sky Emperor City!”

Huang Yueli’s entire body shook!

Even though she knew long ago that Li Moying’s choice was so, but when she really heard it, it still made Huang Yueli’s heart undulate.

Sky Emperor City... Soaring Heavens Continent’s core, where innumerable top rated strong practitioners gathered. It was filled with opportunities anywhere and anytime, and at the same time, it was also filled with..... plots and betrayals!

That was also the place where she had lived for the past decades in her past life!

She had once been the existence of the most popular person in Sky Emperor City and as the Young Palace Lord of the Mythical Flame Palace, she was an exceptional genius with ninth grade upper talent and also the number one beauty who startled all the four seats in Soaring Heavens Continent.... Where innumerable light halos were placed on the top of her head.

However, even though she had the achievements which so many people were envious of, later on when everyone mentioned her, the first sentence would always be, “Number one top expert Mu Chengying’s woman” .....

Once, she disliked so much that she was casted this name by a man, as though all her hard work and achievements were all erased cleanly in an instance.

But now that she had already died once, she felt that this title sounded... rather flashy! Moreover it could also push back all those women who were eyeing Mu Chengying!

Sky Emperor City to her, did not have many beautiful memories.

That year when she was in the Northern Ice Fields, she had suffered the attack of three different Sects out of the Seven Sacred Lands. At that time her whereabouts were kept secretive and the only person who had sold her out was her best female friend – Celestial Heavens Gate’s Eldest Young Miss Ling Qing Yu.....

That kind of devouring hatred remained deep at the bottom of her heart. Like the cold from the Northern Ice Fields which had entered her bones that night had still not dissipated ever since that day.....

It was also this exact reason why she had been even more prudent this lifetime, putting on more defence against other people.

This lifetime, other than Li Moying, she couldn’t trust anyone else. Even though she didn’t usually display it, but she often left a hand in secret.

Furthermore, she didn’t have many friends this lifetime and all these were because of the psychological shadow which had been left from her past life.

Because of that, the mere thought of returning to Sky Emperor City had Huang Yueli feeling various kinds of feelings welling up in her heart so for a short moment, she was slightly dazed.

Li Moying raised his hand and caressed her silky long hair as he said softly, “Li’er, are you alright? I know what you’re upset about. Don’t you worry, I will help you get your revenge on the grievances in your past life one by one, absolutely not letting off a single one of them who dared to hurt you!”

Chapter 1634: Returning to Sky Emperor City (7)

Huang Yueli lifted up her head to meet those brilliant, sparkling peach blossom eyes.

Beneath those eyes was deep and tender sentiments, as though it would drown her within.

In an instance, Huang Yueli felt her eyes turning moistened, almost crying out right there.

Because she discovered that no matter if it was in her past life or current, no matter if she was in favourable circumstances or in adversity, the person who had stood beside her unwaveringly..... had always been this man!

She hugged Li Moying’s waist with increased strength, burying her face into his wide and robust chest. She blinked and tears seeped into the cloth material on Li Moying’s chest.....

Li Moying didn't say anything much, only embracing her in an even more gentle and resolute manner into his arms.

Sky Emperor City.... To them, it was a place which was filled with memories!

It took quite a while before Huang Yueli raised her head and said to Li Moying, "Thank you, Moying. I know you wholeheartedly want to protect me. But revenge is a dish best served cold! You need not be too anxious as well. After we reach Sky Emperor City, let's plan slowly! After all, things are no longer the same as before....."

Huang Yueli sighed softly.

She was grateful to Li Moying for his willingness to give his all wholeheartedly but she really didn't want him to take such a big risk just because of her own reasons.

After all, the Li Moying now was not the same as the-then Mu Chengying.

He had just broken through to the ninth stage realm and although his innate talent was much more superior than it was then but it was still totally different as when he was in ninth stage realm peak condition.

The difference in ability and battle power between ninth stage realm practitioners was actually extremely, extremely huge and the disparity between the strong and the weak was a world of difference.

Huang Yueli's past life's does were all part of Sky Emperor City's largest powerhouses, Seven Sacred Lands where all of it had been around since ancient times. Their inheritances had lasted for several hundred thousands of years, as the top exponents under them were innumerable!

Even for the past life's Mu Chengying, if he didn't have a proper plan and just abruptly headed up, he would likely also suffer a disadvantage. What more now that his ability was a far cry from his past life, and that he had departed Sky Emperor City for more than a decade. Not knowing just how much force he would be able to gather back from the past, Soaring Heavens Continent's current situation was something which they weren't sure of....

Huang Yueli absolutely would not allow Li Moying to take action under such a situation!

Although she wanted very much to exact revenge, but after her rebirth, in her heart she was very clear that nothing was more important than Li Moying!

As compared to his safety, revenge of whatsoever had all become small issues.

Li Moying's heart was moved as the arm which embraced her grew tighter as he lowered his head to take a whiff of the fragrance of her hair while sighing softly, "I know, Li'er, do you think I look like a rash person? Don't worry, I won't do anything which I don't have any certainty of."

As he was saying that ,Huang Yueli suddenly had a strange and uneasy premonition.

She suddenly raised her head and grabbed Li Moying's collar, "Moying, you... you must promise me... no matter what situation you are in, you must place your safety in the first place and you must always, always accompany me, staying beside me properly!"

Li Moying went into a slight daze as his eyes flashed past an astonished glint.

Li'er... had she detected something?

Impossible, he had obviously..... concealed it very well.... It could be said that to be flawless.....

Li Moying merely hesitated for a breath's time when he regained his senses and smiled, "What are you worried about? I'm right by your side isn't it? I will naturally keep you accompanied properly, after all I've spent so many years before you finally nod your head to be together than me!"

Chapter 1635: Returning to Sky Emperor City (8)

Li Moying's smile was extremely perfect as that gentle and adoring attitude was exactly the same as before.

Huang Yueli knew clearly that Li Moying was absolutely not some rash young lad.

But she didn't know why she had an indiscernible feeling in her heart, as though she seemed to have missed out a very important matter.....

Li Moying saw her distracted look and frowned slightly as he lowered his head to plant a kiss on her cheek.

Huang Yueli's face immediately flushed a bright red shade, "Why are you moving your hands while we are talking!"

Li Moying innocently replied, "I only moved my mouth, since when did I move my hands? You're the one who is obviously lusting after my body, you hugged me so tightly so aren't you laying your little hands on me? Isn't this called thief yelling thief!"

When Huang Yueli heard that, she immediately became gloomy as she raised her little fists, just about to incur domestic violence onto him.

Li Moying could obviously evade her moves but he just stood there obediently, allowing his fiancée to vent her anger on him.

After a moment later, he grabbed hold of Huang Yueli's wrist and dragged her into his arms, "Alright, alright, if you continue hitting me, your hands will start to hurt and in that way, I'm the one who will feel heartache... En?"

He leaned closed to her delicate fair cheek and blew some air on her in an ambiguous way.

Following that, while Huang Yueli had not regained her senses, he leaned forward and gave her a deep kiss.

A man's overbearing presence invaded her as that handsome looking face was right in front of her eyes. Huang Yueli's heart was pounding wildly as her brain turned into glue, other than obediently inclining towards the man in front of her and allowing him to kiss her wilfully, she totally could not react at all, not to mention having the mind to think about any other things.

This submissive her made Li Moying feel a passionate fire burn up within him and plus the fact that she had just taken a bath which made her body give off a light rose scent, it was even more effective than any aphrodisiac.

Li Moying kissed until he almost lost control, to the extent that..... he just pushed Huang Yueli onto a chaise longue as he buried his face into her slender long neck, following all the way downwards, planting deep strawberries (love bites).

Huang Yueli didn't stop him because she felt very comfortable.

Everytime she laid in this man's arms, she felt as though she was turning into a puddle of water, totally unable to control herself.....

"Eldest Senior Brother, I heard.... AH—!"

A shocked cry was heard.

"Ughh, ah, I didn't know... that... I'm sorry, sorry! I didn't see anything at all, I'm leaving, Eldest Senior Brother, lil Sister-in-law, please continue to be busy....."

When Luo Jiyun got closer to them, he detected the ambiguous atmosphere in the pavilion and instantly understood why Mo Yi and the others kept stopping him from entering this place. Unfortunately he was just too rash and had given too much thought to their words.

Now.... it was too late for him to regret as he could only bore the brunt of his Eldest Senior Brother's murderous gazes as he turned around and scurried away in a jiffy!

Interrupted by that joker, Li Moying turned around and sat up as his good looking face was taut bearing an icy cold expression.

Huang Yueli raised her head and sized him up as she couldn't help but burst out "giggling".

Li Moying turned back and started at that little fox who was gloating over his misfortune but the latter wasn't a single bit afraid at all, as she intentionally smiled sweetly, "Moying, why are you unhappy? Are you in a bad mood? Do you want me to give you a kiss?"

She's really a little fox who added oil to fire! Didn't she know that with the love bites on her collarbone, saying such things, what kind of effect it would cause?

Li Moying's gaze dimmed, "So proactive? Then let's return to our room in case we get interrupted by some little brat....."

Chapter 1636: Entering the city (1)

As he said that, he walked to the front of the chaise longue and stretched out his hand as he was about to carry her up horizontally.

Huang Yueli immediately had a change of expression and right before he could even touch her, she jumped up like her butt was on fire.

“Alright, stop fooling around! Junior Brother Luo came running over at this timing must be because of that matter, we’d better hurry over to take a look at him!”

Li Moying laughed softly, “Why? Have the heart of a thief but no guts? Earlier who was the one who wanted to kiss me and comfort me? Thinking of just running away like that?”

Huang Yueli’s face turned red, as she really couldn’t hope more than to kick him!

Mentioning the pot which didn’t boil! Look at his ill-intentioned look, who dared to kiss him! What if she kissed him and it caused him to get heated up?

Li Moying looked at her biting her lips as her eyeballs kept roving around and found it extremely amusing as he couldn’t help but shot upwards like an arrow, pulling her wrist and wrestling her into his arms.

“Li’er, it’s not right to lie especially to your fiancé. Since you’ve agreed to kiss, then you’re not allowed to renege on it!”

Huang Yueli acted blur, “Reneged on a debt? Since when had I reneged on a debt? I merely don’t want to kiss already, treat it like I owe you one for now!”

Owing and owning, and it would be forgotten.

However, how could Li Moying not know about this little thing’s tricks as he held her slender waist tightly and inched his face close to hers.

“Why not like this, you don’t kiss me, but it’d be the same if I kissed you.....”

When Huang Yueli heard the mellow and sexy voice around her ears then looking at his long and thick lashes which were like a fan drooping down, her heart jolted as she started to feel a little dizzy again.

But immediately she detected a flame in Li Moying’s profound eyes and this made the alarms in her heart rang as she hurriedly said, “I’ll kiss, I’ll kiss, don’t come any closer!”

Li Moying’s action paused and was just about to say something when he suddenly felt a warm sensation on his lips.

His little fox had swiftly pounced over and swiftly nibbled him on the lips then using force she pushed him away thinking of withdrawing herself from him.

Li Moying’s lips curled upwards, knowing that this lass was going to come out with the same tricks. Using a chick-pecking-on-grains-like kiss to pacify him? alas, a man wasn’t that easy to deal with. After being tricked so many times, he had learnt to become smarter.

His body hadn’t moved but instead he locked on to her waist with slightly more force as he turned from guest into host as he lifted up her chin and planted his kiss onto her once again.

Huang Yueli had not expected her plan to fall through as her eyes opened real wide and tried her hardest to push him away.

Li Moying was hugging a wriggling, uncooperative little fox and had no choice but to dabble and stop and not long later, he loosened his grip.

Huang Yueli started hard at him, "Quick, don't... don't fool around! Junior Brother Luo is still waiting outside and if he doesn't go out, what will he think!"

Li Moying laid lazily on the chaise longue as he replied in an absent-minded manner, "Who cares what he thinks? Anyway.... What he's thinking in his mind is the truth....."

Huang Yueli's face flushed a bright shade of red, she had truly been defeated by this thick skinned man!

She gritted her teeth and said, "Are you going out or not!"

Li Moying saw his little fiancée exploding and could only give a light cough, "I'll listen, I'll listen, let's go.... but, can we wait a little longer first?"

Huang Yueli went into a short blank but immediately, her gaze started sweeping onto the horizontally inclined man lying on the chaise longue in a seductive posture and her gaze followed all the way downwards from his half exposed chest...

Chapter 1637: Entering the city (2)

She had to admit that this man in front of her was an excellent piece of work. Every single muscle line was just nice, so beautifully perfect that made one unable to shift their eyes away.

In her past life, she thought that Mu Chengying was the most handsome man but in this life, as he possessed God Clan's bloodline, his looks were even more breathtaking now.

Huang Yueli's vision followed downwards subconsciously.

She finally knew why Li Moying had refused to stand up. Because his bodily reaction was just too obvious and with this state, it would be strange if he dared to meet anyone else.

"You..... You....."

Huang Yueli simply didn't know what to say as she bit on her lips and gave him a stare, then slipping away immediately.

Li Moying looked at her departing figure as he gave a bitter smile.

This lass.... indeed had the ability to force one into insanity. She set the fire and after realising that she had created trouble then ran off on her own, moreover bearing a look which looked like she was bullied by him.....

But even so, he was totally helpless as he could only allow his little fox to throw her tantrum in whatever tsundere (presenting as unfriendly and blunt but warm and tender inside) way she wanted.

Huang Yueli ran out of the pavilion and readjusted her clothes before she headed to the front lobby.

Luo Jiyun had been waiting there for quite some time as Mo Yi and the other Shadow Guards stood around chatting with him.

On seeing Huang Yueli appearing alone, everyone's gazes all turned to her instantaneously. Not knowing if it was because she had a guilty conscience, she somehow felt that everyone's eyes were filled with ambiguity.

She hurriedly gave a slight cough, "Ugh, that.... Junior Brother Luo, why have you come over so late at night?"

Luo Jiyun heard that and hurriedly explained, "Lil Sister-in-law, really.... Really sorry! I really didn't know.... ughh, have I interrupted you two? I..."

This hotheaded lad had totally not noticed that Huang Yueli was showing an embarrassed expression as he was still apologizing non stop. It was right until Mo Yi pulled him from behind when he finally realised that something was amiss and hurriedly shut his mouth.

Huang Yueli's lips twitched, "You haven't interrupted...."

Luo Jiyun heard that and kept on nodding his head, and at the same time he put on a pitiful look while pleading for help, "Lil Sister-in-law, please me to persuade Eldest Senior Brother, ask him not to leave me here alone! I want to leave with Eldest Senior Brother!"

Huang Yueli's brows rose as she looked at him, "Why? You're not willing to stay on in Celestial Light Sect? You probably aren't very clear yet right? Among the current direct disciples in Celestial Light Sect, there are just but a few top exponents left and plus the fact that your Eldest Senior Brother still had some power left around here, you only need to stay on and you will definitely become Celestial Light Sect's Young Sect Master!"

"Actually, earlier Brother Mo Yi had already told me about the stakes involved. But, I... I don't want to become a Young Sect Master! I just want to follow Eldest Senior Brother!" Luo Jiyun persisted.

Huang Yueli smiled slightly as she stared at him and continued asking, "Are you sure? Have you really thought through this clearly? Such matters cannot be decided so rashly alright? You've also witnessed with your own eyes on how Li Lingchuan had tried to obtain the position of Young Sect Master and expended so much effort, even plotting an audacious plan of murdering his Senior Brother but eventually he still didn't get what he wished for!"

"Whereas for you, you could easily take on the position of Young Sect Master. Your Eldest Senior Brother would also support you in future, so are you really not going to do it? If you miss such a good chance, there will be no next time again!"

Chapter 1638: Entering the city (3)

Huang Yueli reiterated this once and again.

Actually, without her saying, anyone with brains were able to think of this as it was the next logical thing to do. Status and authority, were just an arm's length away!

However Luo Jiyun continued to shake his head, “No, I don’t want to be some Young Sect Master, I only want to follow Eldest Senior Brother!”

Although Huang Yueli had long known of his unyielding loyalty towards Li Moying, but his resolute attitude had even eliminated any sense of hesitation, which made one surprised.

“Why? This is such a good opportunity, why do you choose to give it up? Haven’t you considered that your Eldest Senior Brother had betrayed Celestial Light Sect, running off to roam about in Sky Emperor City but there are so many top experts there, perhaps Moying isn’t even anything over there. He might even offend someone unknowingly, unlike you who could stay relaxed in Celestial Light Sect!”

Luo Jiyun lifted up his head and looked at him, “But isn’t the art of cultivation about pursuing challenges? Greedy for a peaceful life could not possibly bring out the potential within! Following Eldest Senior Brother around indeed isn’t as easy in Celestial Light Sect but I believe that it would lead me to head towards an even higher cultivational realm pathway! Moreover, Eldest Senior Brother wouldn’t continue to be a nobody forever. Based on his innate talent, he would definitely become a somebody who could command the wind and summon the rain, so following him around is definitely not a wrong choice!”

Huang Yueli saw Li Moying walk over slowly from behind Luo Jiyun and couldn’t help but laugh, “Moying, I really couldn’t tell that this Junior Brother of yours.... Really has unconditional trust in you!”

Li Moying grazed lightly over Luo Jiyun as he was apparently rather impressed.

He muttered, “Since you have this thinking..... then following me around is of no harm! But don’t be like me to separate yourself from Celestial Light Sect. Tomorrow you will go over to tell Murong De clearly that you’re just temporarily following me to Sky Emperor City to go on experience learning and will return in future.”

“But, Eldest Senior Brother—!”

Luo Jiyun was rather astonished, “You’ve already left Celestial Light Sect, I... why should I stay there for? I’m really not interested in the position of Young Sect Master!”

Huang Yueli beamed as she spoke up for her fiancée, “You’re not interested but your Eldest Senior Brother is interested! Moying’s foundation which he had laid over the years, should we just let go of it like that? In future, we will rely on you to help him safeguard it, don’t tell me you’re not willing to do so?”

Luo Jiyun then revealed an enlightened look as he patted his chest to express that he would definitely follow Eldest Senior Brother’s instructions.

After Luo Jiyun left, Huang Yueli pulled Li Moying back to their room and the minute they entered the room, she pursued him for an answer, “You agreed to let Jiyun to follow you? Why? Could it be that... you’ve already confirmed where we will be staying when we return to Sky Emperor City?”

Earlier when Li Moying nodded his head in approval, even she felt surprised.

She had assumed that Li Moying would not allow Luo Jiyun to stay in Celestial Light Sect, out of concern for his safety.

Later on, having a change of thoughts, she understood it immediately. Probably Li Moying had already thought of a plan hence he decided on this.

Li Moying's arms were crossed as he lowered his head and looked at the young lady in front of him as his lips curled up, "You're so impatient to pull me back to the room, I had thought that... you're preparing to continue the matter earlier which you had not completed!"

"Earlier... what matter...." Huang Yueli blinked and suddenly comprehended as her face flushed red, "You... you're so shameless! Stop with the rubbish and quickly tell me the answer!"

Li Moying then slowly replied, "It's not considered as a plan but since I was the Sovereign of Blue Profound Sect in my past life, naturally I will return to my own Sect!"

Chapter 1639: Entering the city (4)

Huang Yueli's eyes turned wide open as she felt extremely surprised when she heard what he said.

"What? You want to return to Blue Profound Sect??"

From what she thought, this was the most impossible option which Li Moying would take.

After all, so many years had gone by and no one could be sure of the current situation of Blue Profound Sect. So heading back abruptly might not necessarily be a good thing, in fact it might be very risky.

Because Blue Profound Sect as the number one super powerhouse in the then Soaring Heavens Continent had plenty of strong exponents and based on Li Moying current ability, there was no way that he could resume to the same state that year, to suppress so many top exponents. At the very least, Li Moying's Four Great Guardians under him were all much stronger than he was right now.

He quickly followed up with an explanation, "You don't need to worry too much. That year when I left Blue Profound Sect, I'd already arranged everything that I needed to within the Sect. Some days after we left the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region, I've also sent out a secret signal and obtained contact with Blue Profound Sect. Although so many years have passed, there is bound to be changes within the Sect but I still have my own way to control the Four Great Guardians so you need not worry too much over this."

"Moreover, based on our current ability, to help you exact revenge, it's just too slow to do it step by step so it's better for us to return back to Blue Profound Sect first, so that we can speed up the process of our strength quickly."

Huang Yueli naturally believed his ability and also believed that since he said there would be no problem, then there would definitely be no problem.

But unknowing why, she somehow felt that something seemed wrong somewhere.

"But....."

Huang Yueli frowned and thought for a moment as. Her eyes lit up and said, "Right! Last time when you were in Celestial Light Sect, your Soul Detachment Illness acted up and you regained most of your memories from your past life. Hadn't you said in the past that all the memories that is related to my self-explosion, you weren't really able to recall it all? How is it that you are able to remember what happened before you left Blue Profound Sect? Your memories.... Has it recovered completely?"

"Ughh..." Li Moying's heart pounded wildly!

He simply had not expected that Huang Yueli would be so intelligent to this step, to actually see through the truth which he had tried all means and ways to cover up!

That was right, when they were in the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region, his illness acted up when he was on the verge of death plus the fact that he was struck on lightning, all the memories came rushing back at one shot.

By the time he regained consciousness, he discovered that he had recalled everything that had happened.

Before this, no matter how he racked his brains, he totally couldn't recall anything from after Huang Yueli's death. That bit of lost memory had all returned to his mind this time round.

But it was exactly because of this which was why he knew that.... what exactly, was he about to face.....

Li Moying's thoughts turned swiftly. Although he was exposed earlier and had a slight instant of being dazed, but he quickly concealed his own loss of self-control.

"Ughh, Li'er, I also wished that I could recover all my memories but unfortunately it's not within my control. I can only indistinctly remember bits and pieces of very small portions, basically just the portion on the agreement with the Four Great Guardians..."

Huang Yueli frowned, "Really? So coincidental? Has this memory come back to you the last time your illness acted up in the Cloudy Qilin Mystic Region? Other than this, what else can you remember? What happened after I self-exploded and why did you reincarnate and reborn as well? Have you recalled all of these?"

Of course he had recalled all of these, but...

Li Moying's expression was as per normal as he shook his head slowly, "These... I can't remember it at all! I've tried several times but the minute I try to recall, my head would hurt so much as though it was about to split open..."

Chapter 1640: Entering the city (5)

The minute Huang Yueli heard that, she immediately got tensed, not daring to ask any further.

"What? Why did this happen? Then you'd better not try to think about it, anyway.... Anyway from the looks of it, your memory is starting to come back to you bit by bit so there's no need to force it. Perhaps when the time is near, you will know."

Li Moying heard what she said and secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

However, Huang Yueli thought of something as she hurriedly added on, “Ah, that’s right! That year, Four Great Guardians were all your trusted aides! I think they would definitely know the situation then. When we reach Blue Profound Sect, we can interrogate each one of them so perhaps we might be able to discover something.....”

“Cough cough...” Li Moying’s expression turned slightly pale again.

Why was his fiancée so, so intelligent! It was practically impossible to defend against her effectively, it was simply too difficult to hide anything from her.

Luckily she told him whatever was on her mind, telling him her plan so he should nip the problem in the butt before it happened.

There were some things which he absolutely could not afford to let her find out!

Li Moying hurriedly said, “What you said is correct, as long as we reach Sky Emperor City, the truth will be out. Moreover whenever I advance into another level, there is also the possibility of regaining my memory so you shouldn’t worry too much! Or is it that... if I didn’t had these memories, you don’t love me anymore?”

Huang Yueli rolled her eyes at him, “You.... what rubbish are you sprouting? I’m just worried about you! Somehow I feel that..... things aren’t that simply, what on earth had you done in your past life? Why is it that you have also reincarnated and reborn? And why is it that after I’ve self-exploded, but I recollected all my senses? I simply don’t understand all these...”

Li Moying sighed softly as he held her hand and said in a mellow voice, “Stop thinking about it. What matters now is that we’re together isn’t it? To me, for this moment to come true, I’d be more than willing to pay any price for it!”

Huang Yueli raised her head and looked at him as her heart jolted, unknowingly on why an indescribable heartache started to make her tremble slightly.

“You...”

“Li’er, you’re trembling, are you feeling cold?”

Li Moying immediately held her hands and took her into his arms.

The two of them embraced tightly at a close distance.

Taking a whiff of Li Moying’s familiar and mild scent of a man, Huang Yeuli finally felt a little better as the uneasiness in her heart wasn’t that much anymore.

Only, these questions had been shrouded around her mind – Just what happened after she self-exploded?

Li Moying and the entire group stayed on in Sky Cloud City for close to two weeks, processing the properties and other important matters he had in Sky Cloud City.

In between, Murong De sent someone over several times in bid to retain Li Moying but Li Moying's attitude was resolute as he didn't entertain him at all.

Huang Yueli also took some time to settle some matters, basically to make arrangements for the place of residence for those servants whom she had taken in.

The majority from Celestial Light Academy, did not have much outstanding innate talent and their achievements in the way of cultivation in future wouldn't possibly be too high. Hence Huang Yueli didn't forced them to head towards Sky Emperor City with her, but to let them choose their own path.

A portion of them chose to stay in Celestial Light Sect, and that included Su Qingyue.

Huang Yueli handed Cai Wei and some other lower levelled practitioners over to Su Qingyue to manage, allowing them to cultivate and manage the properties which she and Li moying had left behind in Sky Cloud City.

In future when Luo Jiyun returned to Celestial Light Sect successfully with achievements in his cultivation, he might need the aid of these hidden forces to stabilise his own status.
