Chapter 1991: Who is this genius? (6)

Steward Qin turned back his head and took a look at Feng Zhensheng, completely unsure why he did so.

Feng Zhensheng hurriedly gave a meaningful look at him, staring so much that his eyes almost started cramping.

Steward Qin had a change of thought and suddenly understood something.

That's right, Feng Zhensheng gave him such a huge advantage just so to scheme against Divine Doctor Liu's little fiancée. But now that young lass had submitted the entire box, probably filled with weeds, Divine Doctor Dai must be furious. Moreover he didn't believe that someone would be so dumb to submit in weeds hence he was certain that someone was out to scheme this young lass, hence he summoned him over for questioning.

So he must cling on to the truth that this matter was done personally by Huang Yueli, to substantiate her crime.

With this thinking in mind, Steward Qin hurriedly added on, "Divine Doctor Dai, don't worry. Under this subordinate's supervision, no one would be able to practice fraud! I personally saw them pick the medicinal herbs one after another and also submit their jade boxes one by one. When they submitted their jade boxes, they were the ones who sealed it themselves and the serial numbers were written on by me, so there is absolutely no confusion at all!"

Saying that, Steward Qin even gave Feng Zhensheng a delightful smile, assuming that he was explained perfectly and would be able to dispel Divine Doctor Dai's misgivings, helping Feng Zhensheng solve a huge trouble.

But the face was when Feng Zhensheng heard this, his eyes went black and almost fainted!

This, this, this.... how did it turn out like this?

He had finally thought of an idea to expose that wretched lass's real nature but in the end, because of the dumbass Steward Qin who thought that he was very smart, it actually proved that these medicinal herbs origins were no issue at all!

This was simply moving the rock to smash on his own feet!

As expected, when Divine Doctor Dai heard Steward Qin's words, his joy was shown on his face as his feelings were even more agitated.

"Good, good! That's just great! Looks like the medicinal herbs are indeed harvested by her personally, there's no issue now! That's simply great!"

He took a few steps back and lifted his head looking outside the door as he asked anxiously, "What's the matter? Why is the person who has been sent to look for the apprentice still not back? Isn't it just passing a message, is there a need to spend so much time? No way, I must head over personally to take a look!"

Saying that, Dai Boqi could no longer wait and walked out in large strides as he headed out of the door personally.

Feng Zhensheng's expression changed as he tried to talk up and stop him, "Wait, Divine Doctor Dai, you... how could you head over personally? This is simply lowering your own status..."

But Dai Boqi waved his hand and replied unconcernedly, "For this peerless genius, even if it means to lower my status, what does it matter? What do you guys know?"

He was saying that and already walking out in anticipation.

Feng Zhensheng's face turned green because he had totally not expected that things would take an unexpected turn to such a step!

Shouldn't this wretched lass be chased out of the Alchemist Guild?

Why was it now that not only was she not chased away, instead, she had changed into Dai Boqi's eyes' peerless genius?

Dai Boqi had always had a ridiculously high standard, and he didn't even approve of the Alchemist Guild's President, him. But right now, he actually lowered his own status, just to personally head over to ask that wretched lass to take him as her Master?

This was simply... meeting a living ghost!

When Steward Qin who was standing by the side, saw Dai Boqi leaving in such an agitated and excited manner, he somehow felt that something was not right and finally realised that he seemed to have done something wrong.

Chapter 1992: Self-sentimental (1)

"Feng... President Feng, this... what's going on exactly?" Steward Qin was a little apprehensive as he asked carefully.

When Feng Zhensheng saw his look, his anger just suddenly rose up!

He gave Steward Qin a fierce stare, "You... you're really a dumbass! Do you know that the medicinal herbs in the jade box had been switched by someone? It's not a pile of weeds stored inside, but forty over stalks of high levelled Drought Land Pearl Lotuses?"

Steward Qin's mouth opened agape as he was tongue tied, "Wh... What? How could that be possible? Although... although I didn't see her do the harvesting with my own eyes, but I'm certain that she had not left Divine Doctor Dai's small courtyard so even if she wanted to engage in this fraudulent activity, there's no chance for her to leave and look for those medicinal herbs? Forty over stalks of Drought Land Pearl Lotuses, surely that's not something which is easy to find anywhere right?"

Feng Zhensheng also knew this point but other than Huang Yueli switching these medicinal herbs sneakily, he simply couldn't think of any other possibility.

Feng Xiaoyan was even more miserable than anyone else. She was injured because of Huang Yueli twice previously and had finally managed to recuperate slightly but in order to make Huang Yueli run into bad luck, she braced herself to go knock against the jade boxes, hence inflicting serious injury once again onto herself.

But in the end?

Not only did she not manage to stir up anything, instead it even allowed that wretched lass to obtain such a huge advantage!

“How do you know that she hasn’t left the small courtyard? Anyway, that Pearl Lotus in the number eight jade box is something that everyone saw so it would absolutely not be wrong! Haven’t you seen the euphoric Divine Doctor Dai was? Ughh! What a complete bungler you are!”

Feng Zhensheng was trembling as he shouted, so infuriated that he could barely stop himself from punching Steward Qin.

Maybe it’s because both Feng Xiaoyan father-daughter duo’s gazes were too ferocious looking and too frightening, Steward Qin trembled as he heard fear in his heart.

The Alchemist Guild’s Headquarters’ President had a huge amount of power and his entire family was staying within the Alchemist Guild to make a living. Offending the President and his daughter would absolutely result in a miserable ending.

Moreover, that seemingly dignified and virtuous Eldest Young Miss Feng, was actually a vicious and sinister person on the dark side.

Right at this moment, he was feeling extremely regretful...

Suddenly Steward Qin’s mind flashed past a thought as he hurriedly said, “Wait, wait, both of you... will both of you don’t throw your tempers first! Things aren’t as bad as what you expected. I still have a way to expose that little slut’s real face!”

Feng Xiaoyan was already planning to drag this fellow who had spoiled their plans to be beaten to death but upon hearing this, she looked over suspiciously.

“What idea? If you come out with some lousy ideas again, don’t blame me for being vicious and merciless!”

Steward Qin wiped the sweat off his head, “Yes, yes, this idea should be effective, will Eldest Young Miss please inspect....”

“Really? This Young Lady will believe you once again. Tell us your idea?”

“Yes! President Feng, Eldest Young Miss, think about it. Although we don’t know what method that Bai Ruoli used to change the medicinal herbs to deceive Divine Doctor Dai, but she doesn’t have any pill refining innate talent at all and that chinces it. Someone fake, will absolutely not be real...”

“There’s nothing wrong in putting it like this, then... what plan do you have to expose her?”

Steward Qin’s voice was suppressed even lower.

“I have an idea...”

In the room where the apprentices-in-waiting were staying.

Huang Yueli casually flipped a medical book and after reading it for a while, she prepared to take a rest earlier.

Alas, she had just laid down when a shuffle of clamouring came from outside, which made her unable to sleep.
