Chapter 2019: In the depth of her memories (4)

As he said that, Dai Boqi passed a medicinal pill to her.

Huang Yueli received it blankly as she swallowed it in a daze, totally unaware of what she was doing.

Her thoughts were still within that nightmare earlier.

Just at the moment when she regained consciousness, her lost memories totally returned back to her mind.

In an instance, she was so infuriated that she almost exploded! She had totally not expected that she had been schemed by Liu Buyan!

Just because Liu Buyan had always been an easy-going man and as she had known him for two lifetimes, Huang Yueli had always trusted in his character, so she totally had not imagined that he actually did something so despicable!

Obviously knowing that Li Moying was already at his deathbed but not only did he disregard his friendship with Li Moying, he even had a big fight with him. Moreover, he even caused her memories to disappear!

God knew that if Li Moying found out that she had disappeared, just how huge of a blow would he suffer!

She simply could not imagine this scenario!

If something untoward happened to Li Moying, she... she... she would definitely tear Liu Buyan apart personally!

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli abruptly sat up as she wanted to get off the bed.

But she had merely moved slightly when the sore feeling from her entire body attacked her, causing her to fall back onto the bed once again.

“En hng...” She couldn’t help but gave a moan.

Dai Boqi immediately pressed her down, “What are you trying to do? You still can’t get up so casually! After taking that kind of antidote, your entire body will be depleted of energy and you must rest and recuperate for some time before you recover. If you move around rashly, be careful that you will cause an ailment that will follow you for ages! Moreover speaking, we still don’t know what kind of side effects would there be, so it’s best that you stay in bed for this period of time!”

Huang Yueli was still struggling as she tried her best to get off the bed.

“No... no way! I have... something very important... that I must... attend to immediately!”

Dai Boqi was stunned for a moment as he looked at her, “Does this mean that your memories have already returned back to you?”

Huang Yueli nodded her head.

Dai Boqi heaved a sigh of relief, "That's great, that's great! This old man was still worried that the medication that you took didn't have any effect! Then do you know now? Who was the one who harmed you, causing you to lose your memories? After your body is better, This Master will bring you over personally to settle the debt! As for the restrain on your meridians, This Old Man is still unable to release it so we have to find that person who harmed you before we can do something about it."

When Huang Yueli heard that, her gaze turned extremely profound.

"No need, Divine Doctor Dai, this has nothing to do with you. I'll personally settle the debt with him!"

The restrain on her own meridians could not be released, this was something which Huang Yueli had expected long ago.

Although Dai Boqi was also a ninth stage realm practitioner, but his level of mastery in terms of cultivation path was not high. When Pill Masters and Armament Masters cultivate, it was generally only to use their Profound Energy to aid them in refining pills or weapons so there were very few people like herself and Liu Buyan who spent so much effort on their martial cultivation.

Liu Buyan's martial cultivation was mainly due to inheritance from his family clan and Dai Boqi was naturally very far off from his own disciple in this aspect.

However, when Dai Boqi heard that, not only was he not assured, instead he grew even more anxious.

"Disciple, what situation are you in right now? Your restrain is set up by a ninth stage realm peak practitioner so don't you go send yourself off to your death. Still not hurrying up to acknowledge this old man as your Master, allowing This Master to help deal with this! Even if This Old Man's face isn't of any use, don't we still have Yan'er? As long as your fiance shows his face, there isn't anything which he can't settle for you in the entire Soaring Heavens Continent!"

Huang Yueli subconsciously frowned, "Divine Doctor Dai, please don't be mistaken. Divine Doctor Liu isn't my fiancée."

Chapter 2020: In the depth of her memories (5)

Dai Boqi jolted as he looked at her in surprise.

"Ah? What? Is this... is this really what Yan'er said?"

Huang Yueli knew that Dai Boqi had totally been kept in the dark but now her heart was burning with anxiety so she had no mood to make any extra explanation.

Hence she used her hand and propped up her head, showing a look which seemed as though she was giddy, "Divine Doctor Dai, I'm a little giddy and I wish to lie down a little while more..."

Dai Boqi hurriedly nodded his head, "Alright, then have a rest first, This Old Man will get them to prepare some food which is easily digestible."

Saying that, he turned around to leave.

The moment Dai Boqi left, Huang Yueli immediately opened her eyes as she forcibly propped up her sore and lethargic body, as she attempted to climb down from the bed.

“What the... what poison did Liu Buyan give me! Why is it that after I took the antidote, I feel totally lethargic?”

Her four limbs were soft and she totally didn't have any energy at all. Just taking a few steps made her extremely tired like a dog and moreover, her cultivation had yet to recover, so there was no way that she could use the method of regulating her breathing to recuperate.

This kind of situation made her simply anxious beyond hope.

“In this way, how am I supposed to rush back to Blue Profound Sect? I wonder how is Moying now... is he still alive?”

Thinking of this, Huang Yueli's heart thumped wildly as bouts of terror and desperation surged up her mind.

She hurriedly shook her head, casting these scary thoughts out of her mind, “No, it won't be! It's impossible that it will turn out like that! Moying is so powerful, and so strong, nothing can beat him and he will absolutely not die just like that!”

When Huang Yueli thought of this, she couldn't care about the aches and soreness in her body as she tried her best to walk outside.

No matter what, no matter how frail and weak she was, even if she had to climb, she would climb over to Li Moying's side!

She couldn't wait a single moment longer!

She clenched her teeth and showed overwhelming determination as she pushed the door and walked right out.

Whoever knew that she had just reached the door when she saw Dai Boqi leading the female attendant, walking over in a hurry.

She totally couldn't evade them in time as she was stopped by Dai Boqi directly.

“You... why did you run out? Have you forgotten what this old man has told you?” Dai Boqi was so angry that his eyes popped out while blowing his whiskers, “You don't want to live anymore? What's the exact matter which is worth turning you this anxious? Quickly go back and lie on the bed!”

Huang Yueli originally wanted to sneak out quietly but on seeing Dai Boqi in this manner, she knew that her plan of sneaking out was not going to succeed.

Her thoughts raced past quickly as she said, “Divine Doctor Dai, I really have something urgent on! It's related to saving one's life!”

When Dai Boqi heard that, he was stunned but immediately he gave a cold snort, “Save someone? Save who? This old man only knows that I have finally taken in a disciple and I cannot let you lose your life just like this! Don't even think about leaving this place!”

Huang Yueli clenched her teeth as she said, “But, if I don't leave this place... I will really die!”

“What do you mean?” Dai Boqi frowned.

Huang Yueli said, "I finally recalled that the person who sealed my meridians is indeed a ninth stage realm peak top exponent and moreover, his exclusive method cannot be undone by anyone else! If the time drags on for too long, it will also endanger my life! But this top exponent, before I lost my memories, he had already been diagnosed with an incurable disease and his life was hanging on the verge... I'm afraid that if he really dies, then no one will be able to release my restraint anymore! So I must be quick and hurry over!"

Dai Boqi's eyes opened wide, "What? There's such a matter? Who's the one who sealed your meridians?"

"It's.... Blue Profound Sect's Sovereign Mu Chengying!" Huang Yueli said.
