Chapter 2391: Li Moying regains consciousness (1)

In actual fact, the man whom she had found was originally the most powerful man in the entire Soaring Heavens Continents, alright?

Adding on to her two lifetimes, other than when she was in South Yue Kingdom, she had never heard of anyone who said that Li Moying was too weak!

Take Dai Boqi for example who didn't want her to marry Li Moying initially, he always persuaded her in this manner, "A man can't just depend on potential. One look and you can tell that Young Sect Master Li's character is overbearing and overwhelming, totally not that kind of tender and considerate type, you following him would result in you being bullied easily by him!"

What was it that Bai Liufeng was the opposite?

Huang Yueli knew that she wasn't able to clarify this misunderstanding with just a few mere sentences so she could only placate him by saying, "Father, you've really thought too much! Moying's innate talent and potential are both very strong! But only because he has the Soul Detachment Illness hence he's now unconscious and moreover, his illness acted up because he wanted to protect me and crossed hands with Lord Zhan..."

Hearing that, Bai Liufeng was truly stunned but following that, he replied in disbelief, "You're saying... that stinky brat crossed hands with Lord Zhan?"

Huang Yueli nodded her head, "That's right, back then when we were locked up by Lord Zhan, in order to protect me, Moying utilised his secret technique hence resulting in his illness acting up suddenly... luckily my Senior Brother and the rest came in time, otherwise, the consequences would be dire...."

Saying that, Huang Yueli recalled the scene back then and also recalled how Li Moying stood up to block her behind him, without thinking about him and her expression went dim.

Bai Liufeng heard her clear and logical story but still found it hard to believe.

"This... how is this possible? What kind of potential does that Lord Zhan have? Even if it was your father I, when I go up against him, my chances are only fifty fitty! That stinky brat surnamed Li looks just twenty plus year old and yet he's able to cross hands with Lord Zhan? Moreover..."

Previously, Huang Yueli's body was stained with blood and looked dishevelled, but that was because she was smudged with dirt from the blood pool. In actual fact, she didn't suffer any injuries at all.

Now that she had taken a shower, she looked refreshed and other than looking a little wan and sallow, there weren't any abnormalities with her.

According to what she said, she and that stinky brat were captured by Lord Zhan, and they even crossed hands!

Under such a scenario, she was actually unharmed... this really made Bia Liufeng extremely surprised!

In this way, that stinky brat indeed wasn't useless, at least he knew that he must protect his Lass Li properly, and that was a positive point about him!

Thinking of this, Bai Liufeng forced himself to nod his head, "Alright then, consider this lad still has some consciousness, and still knows that he has to protect you!"

Although he said that, Bai Liufeng didn't believe in what Huang Yueli said. A twenty plus year old crossing hands with Lord Zhan, and yet not getting an instant kill? Just thinking about it was impossible! That stinky brat probably hadn't reached the ninth stage realm peak yet!

It was definitely because of his subordinates and Lass Li's Senior Brother who came quickly, and hence saved the both of them...

Huang Yueli could tell that Bai Liufeng had already loosened up a little as she hurriedly beamed and fawned on him, "Father don't worry, how would your daughter's foresight be so lousy? No matter what, a Tiger Father doesn't have a puppy for a daughter! Moreover, with Father to back me up, which man has the guts to dare bully me?"

Huang Yueli's flattery was really slick and she purposely chose those that Bai Liufeng loved to hear.

This acting cute technique was originally used to coax Li Moying, and now that it was used on Bai Liufeng, it was extremely effective as well.

Bai Liufeng's complexion instantly turned much better.

Chapter 2392: Li Moying regains consciousness (2)

He hurriedly nodded his head and replied in an extremely complacent manner, "Isn't that so? Can't they see whose daughter you are?"

Huang Yueli hurriedly nodded her head and after a few more flattery statements, she changed the topic and said, "Father, the night is not young anymore, do rest up earlier..."

Bai Liufeng swept a glance at her and said, "Lass Li, surely you're not trying to just say a few words of flattery and to cheat your father to go rest, then you can slip away to accompany that stinky brat right?"

Huang Yueli's heart pounded wildly!

Wasn't her father a little too smart? He could even see through this!

She quickly shook her head, "No... No such thing! Father has already said that this isn't good, how can I not listen to Father?"

When Bai Liufeng heard that, he replied satisfactorily, "This is good, indeed Father's obedient girl! You guys haven't eaten for the past few days right? Father will go find some food for you, have a rest then come out in around an hour's time to have your meal."

It was until now that Huang Yueli realised that she was so hungry that her chest was sticking to her back.

Ever since they entered the Snow Phoenix Palace, it had been two entire days and they practically had not eaten anything at all.

Everyone's interspatial rings indeed had some dried food but in a place like the Snow Phoenix Palace where they met with dangers repeatedly, they really didn't have any mood to eat at all.

After she entered the courtyard door, she realised that she seemed to ask Bai Liufeng a very important matter, and that question was to ask him why he was in the Northern Ice Fields, near Lone Sky Summit!

South Yue Kingdom's men all rumoured that Bai Liufeng had already died for many years and for over ten years, he indeed had not been back to see her, his daughter...

Now, he suddenly appeared in this place and moreover from the looks of it, he seemed extremely familiar with Snow Phoenix Palace and the surroundings, which apparently meant that he had been staying here for a very long period of time.....

Just what was the inside story to this?

Huang Yueli was filled with questions but yet she had not been able to find a chance to talk about this in detail with Bai Liufeng.

Because Li Moying's illness was erratic and occupied all of her attention span, hence she could not care about Bai Liufeng.

The truth was that day after she ate with Bai Liufeng, Cang Po Hun then ran over to look for her, saying that Li Moying was tangled in a nightmare and kept on twitching around in pain.

Bai Liufeng wanted to call out to her from her back, but alas, it had no effect at all.

When Li Moying's illness had not acted up, Huang Yueli was still willing to respect her Father and listen to him but when she really saw Li Moying suffering in pain, she totally could not care about anything else!

No one could supersede Li Moying's place in her heart!

"Li'er, Li'er... don't... don't leave me..... DON'T!"

Her heart instantly wrenched in pain as she took a few quick steps and dashed right next to Li Moying's bedside.

"Moying, Moying, how are you? Don't worry, I'm right beside you!"

"Li'er... don't... die!" He huffed in a low voice.

Chapter 2393: Li Moying regains consciousness (3)

At the same time, she coaxed him softly, "I'm not dead, Moying! See, am I not right here all well? I'm right here accompanying you....."

However, Li Moying merely quietened down for a few seconds under her hands and started to wrench around in pain once again.

Huang Yueli silently sighed as she lowered her head and planted her pink lips onto Li Moying's bloodless thin lips.

The original pair of icy cold thin lips, under Huang Yueli's warming up, slowly gained some temperature and the young lady's sweet breath lingered around his nostrils.

Slowly, Li Moying started to quieten down.

Huang Yueli then rose up her head as she sighed softly, placing Li Moying once again back on the pillow and covered him with the blanket then sat back on the bedhead to look at that handsome yet pale face.

Even though they had experienced a great deal of dangers and finally obtained the Bipolar Black Orchid. Moreover Liu Buyan had already started to refine the Purified Pill.

But she was still unable to set herself at ease totally.

After waiting for such a long time, her heart had been suspended for such a long time that it already had no way to face all these calmly.....

This was the last chance and she hoped that everything would go smoothly. Li Moying had already suffered so much for her so she only wished that heaven would stop playing tricks on the both of them.

"Knock knock knock!" A knocking sound was heard.

Huang Yueli was stunned momentarily, "Enter."

Cang Po Jun walked in and bowed, "Grandmaster Huang, is Sovereign alright now? Do you want to rest?"

Huang Yueli frowned slightly and shook her head, "I'd better stay here and accompany Moying. Earlier I just left for such a short while and his illness acted up again, how can I be assured! Guardian Jun, can I trouble you to tell my father... right, where's my father?"

Speaking to this point, she then remembered Bai Liufeng.

Earlier she was having her meal with Bai Liufeng and was called away by Cang Po Hun in the middle of it!

By right, Bai Liufeng should have followed over angrily! Why was it that he was missing now?

Cang Po Jun lowered his head and said, "Grandmaster Huang, earlier when you came in, Marquis Bai followed in as well but you didn't notice it! But he just left again."

"I see..." Huang Yueli first nodded her head then her thoughts raced and took a turn, somehow feeling something was amiss.

Earlier when she stepped in, in order to control Li Moying's nightmare, she even initiated the kiss...

If Bai Liufeng was following her all the while, didn't that mean that he already saw it all? Based on his protective nature as her father, he actually wasn't angry?

This... was simply fascinating?

Seeing Huang Yueli's slightly awkward expression, Cang Po Jun somehow understood what was going on and continued, "Earlier Marquis Bai was indeed rather angry but he seemed to have heard Sovereign calling your name continuously, asking you not to leave him....."

"Ah....." Huang Yueli then understood what was going on.

Looked like Bai Liufeng had more or less sensed Li Moying's genuine heart towards her.....

She hoped that after Li Moying regained his consciousness, Bai Liufeng would be able to accept this son-in-law sooner!

After this matter, Huang Yueli totally ignored Bai Liufeng's objection as she insisted on staying beside Li Moying every day, from morning to night to take care of him personally, not relying on anyone. Even feeding him water and medication was done personally by Huang Yueli.

Alas, Huang Yueli was bent on accompanying Li Moying so no matter what he said it didn't matter at all.

Chapter 2394: Li Moying regains consciousness (4)

Bai Liufeng could only wish that Liu Buyan would quickly refine the Purified Pill sooner, to cure this sickly stinky brat.

In this way, stinky brat had no reason to continue monopolizing his daughter!

Bai Liufeng had wishful thoughts and moreover, this day also came quickly.

Originally Liu Buyan estimated that he needed five days to refine the Purified Pill.

But in actual fact, on the fourth day's afternoon, the small courtyard room which was Liu Buyan's temporary pill refining room was suddenly opened with a blast.

The sound of the door opening shook everyone!

Even Huang Yueli also temporarily left Li Moying who was lying in bed, to run out and have a look.

Behind the courtyard door reflected Liu Buyan's figure but the only thing was as compared to his usual distinguished and accomplished casual and unruly image, the current him appeared much more dishevelled by multiple times. He didn't look much better than a beggar and there were multiple scorched marks on his clothes, and his face was even smeared with the dregs of medicine.

Huang Yueli excitedly rushed over as she held on to his tottering body as she asked urgently, "Senior Brother, is the medication refined already? Is it successful?"

Liu Buyan nodded his head and pointed to the pill refining furnace behind him, "It's still in the pill furnace and I've not taken it out yet! The medicinal effect of this pill is lost very quickly and the minute we take it out, we have to let Li Moying eat it immediately!"

When Huang Yueli heard that, she immediately threw him aside and ran towards the pill refining furnace.

Liu Buyan was pushed aside by her without any warning and almost stumbled onto the ground and if it wasn't for Cang Po Hun who supported him by the side, he would have made a fool of himself!

Seeing that Huang Yueli didn't even turn her head, Liu Buyan's lips twitched, "What the, she only has Li Moying inside her heart? Her Senior Brother I, had tirelessly helped her refine the pill, yet I totally could not even earn half of the treatment how she treats that fellow?"

Cang Po Jun sniggered silently, "Divine Doctor Liu, be resigned to it! What's a Senior Brother like you considered as? These few days, even Grandmaster Huang's biological father was almost drowned in vinegar!"

Huang Yueli carefully opened the lid of the pill refining furnace and at the bottom of the furnace laid a dark green pill which resembled a jadeite quietly.

This pill was only the size of a thumb and moreover there was only one piece. As compared to the usual times when they refined medicinal pills, there would readily be eight or ten pieces of pills and this was a totally different scenario.

It was exactly because of this, which reflected the value and difficulty of refining this kind of pill.

Huang Yueli took out a jade box from the Sky Phoenix Ring, which was used specially to store pills, and placed the Purified Pill in it.

Later on, she hurriedly ran back beside Liu Buyan and urged him, "Senior Brother, what are you waiting for? Let's hurry back and let Moying take this pill! I can tell from these past few days that his body is obviously becoming frailer and frailer... I'm really worried..."

Liu Buyan was originally feeling imbalanced and a little sour but on seeing this, as Huang Yueli was saying these, her tears seemed as though it was about to roll out and he immediately raised both his hands to surrender.

"Junior Sister, don't worry! As long as Moying's pulse is normal, he will definitely wake up after he takes the pill!"

Saying that, he turned towards Cang Po Jun, "Guardian Jun, can I trouble you to go invite Marquis Bai here. Earlier I said before that in order to treat the Soul Detachment illness, it doesn't just mean to take the Purified Pill. We also need four ninth stage realm peak top exponents and use our Profound Energy to help Li Moying fuse the medicinal effect, to restore his primordial spirit completely. Earlier I was still a little worried that there are only three of us here which is hard to handle. But now since Marquis Bai is here, that's just nice!"

Chapter 2395: Li Moying regains consciousness (5)

Cang Po Jun didn't object and nodded his head as he immediately turned around to leave.

But Huang Yueli seemed to have thought of something as she called out to him, "Guardian Jun, wait a minute!"

She looked towards Liu Buyan and her brows carried a few hints of worry, "Senior Brother, you haven't had much rest for the past few days and just managed to refine the medicinal pill but now you're going to use Profound Energy to help Moying fuse the medicinal effect? Your body will not be able to take it! Why not, you rest for the night and tomorrow then we'll treat Moying? I don't wish that after Moying regains consciousness, you will fall instead..."

Liu Buyan shook his head and said, "Rest for a night? Then won't you have to live with the fear for one more night? Since the medicinal pill is already refined, let's strike the iron while it's hot and treat Li Moying earlier, so that you can rest your heart."

For a moment, Huang Yueli couldn't say a single word as she could only look gratefully at Liu Buyan.

To tell the truth, just two months ago when Liu Buyan abducted her, and even used the knockout drug to seal her memories, Huang Yueli really hated him very much back then.

But now, she was filled with gratitude towards Liu Buyan.....

This man... he was simply outstanding. Although he had once struggled, hesitated, but at last, he still chose to sacrifice himself, to grant other people happiness....

Right until now, he was still considering it on her behalf, not bearing for her to worry for an extra night.

Liu Buyan saw her not talking and a hint of impish smile surfaced on his lips, "Why? Too moved? Decided to abandon Li Moying and give your heart to me instead?"

Huang Yueli's feeling vanished in an instant and she rolled her eyes at him, "Fat hope!"

Liu Buyan lazily waved his hand, "Hurry, go invite Marquis Bai and then let's all gather in Li Moying's room. I must show all of you how incredible this Continent's Number One Divine Doctor's medical skills are!"

When Bai Liufeng heard that it was to help treat Li Moying, he agreed readily.

Although he wasn't quite ready to marry his daughter to this stinky brat, but he didn't intend to hurt him, after all this stinky brat seemed to really have saved Lass Li's life before this.

When Bai Liufeng arrived, Huang Yeli, Liu Buyan and Cang Po Hun were already waiting in the room.

Liu Buyan's complexion was still a little greyish and he had eaten quite a number of high levelled medicinal pills to replenish his Profound Energy as he had been sitting on a soft mattress in the corner, while shutting his eyes to rest while cultivating.

When he heard Bai Liufeng and Cang Po Jun's footsteps, he opened his eyes and said, "Everyone's here, let's start!"

Saying that, he walked to the side of the bed and indicated to Huang Yueli to help prop up Li Moying, placing him in a cross-legged standard posture then asking everyone to surround Li Moying while sitting down according to the four directions North, South, East and West.

"Later on, after Li Moying takes the Purified Pill, roughly around ten over breaths over, the medicinal effect will enter his meridians. When I say start, the few of you just follow what I said earlier, to inject Profound Energy into his body in succession to help him absorb the medicinal effect. Otherwise the Purified Pill's medicinal effect might be overly strong and based on the current intensity of his primordial spirit now, he would not be able to take it...."

Saying that, he looked towards Huang Yueli, Junior Sister, now I must help Li Moying opened up his meridians and in this way, I will not be able to do acupuncture for him so later on, you will be doing the golden needle acupuncture for him alone. This mission, originally I wanted to pass to Master to complete, but alas he is currently far away in Sky Emperor City, so I can only depend on you!"

Chapter 2396: Li Moying regains consciousness (6)

Huang Yueli looked at Li Moying's almost translucent complexion and nodded her head firmly, "Senior Brother, don't worry!"

Earlier when Liu Buyan went into closed door seclusion, he had already given Huang Yueli an acupoint chart, which stated all the fine details of the golden needle acupuncture procedure and things to take note of.

These few days, other than taking care of Li Moying, Huang Yueli had been researching this piece of acupoint chart seriously and had long memorised the contents on it into her brain.

But this was merely the second time for her to administer the acupuncture for patients and it was such a complicated and difficult illness, which was filled with challenges.

If it was any other ordinary doctors, they probably would not dare to take the risk and nor did they have the confidence to do it well. However, Huang Yueli totally didn't hesitate at all.

Not only was this so, now there were no other choices and because of this, she had total confidence in herself!

Even Bai Liufeng also couldn't help but take a few more looks at Huang Yueli.

After spending the past few days with Huang Yueli, he had finally discovered just how talented this daughter was, and how incredible she was! Her innate talent was very high, simply surpassing his imagination!

She was already a seventh stage realm practitioner at such a tender age, moreover she was even a ninth ranked Pill Master Dai Boqi's disciple and he heard that she was an extremely talented Armament Master.....

If it wasn't for the fact that he had witnessed it for himself, he wouldn't dare to believe that there was such a genius under this heavens, and this person was his daughter...

Liu Buyan was confident of Huang Yueli and on hearing her guarantee, he nodded his head slightly and instructed, "Alright, then you can feed the pill to Li Moying."

Huang Yueli heard that and immediately opened the jade box in her hand, as she took out that piece of dark green pill and stuffed it into Li Moying's mouth.

Li Moying's deadly pale lips shook a little as though he was about to spit out the pill.

Huang Yueli hurriedly lowered her head and used her lips to seal his lips as the tip of her tongue pushed against his teeth, forcing him to swallow it down.

Bai Liu Feng was watching from the side and felt out of sorts, almost couldn't stop himself from separating the both of them forcibly!

However, just at this moment, Liu Buyan's voice was heard from his right side, "Everyone take note, the Purified Pill's medicinal effect has already started to spread, everyone be prepared to inject your Profound Energy, starting from Marquis Bai whose cultivation is the highest....."

Pinpointed by Liu Buyan, Bai Liu Feng could only clench his teeth hard to swallow his anger and started to follow Liu Buyan's instruction to take action.

But in his heart, he had silently given Li Moying a demerit point!

The few of them took turns to inject their Profound Energies to Li Moying and the latter's original pale skin became even more transparent, and even his body's meridians were seen indistinctively. Whereas on his forehead, he started to sprout cold sweat and not too long later, his entire face was dripping wet.

He was restrained by Liu Buyan and the other's Profound Energy so his entire body was immovable but his brows kept on twitching non stop.

Huang Yueli took this scene into her eyes as her fists were slightly clenched, but she still didn't make a single sound, deeply afraid that she might affect Liu Buyan and the others.

After a while, Liu Buyan's eyes gazed sideways as he spoke, "Junior Sister, you can start the acupuncture now!"

"Alright!" Huang Yueli replied and walked up.

Actually when she heard that she was to personally administer treatment for Li Moying later, she was slightly anxious but when it really came to this crucial moment, facing Li Moying's body, her inner heart actually calmed down instead.

Chapter 2397: Li Moying regains consciousness (7)

No matter what, this time round, they could only succeed and not fail!

Whereas she had already exhausted all her best, to personally save Li Moying!

Huang Yueli's gaze was determined and her fingers pinched the sparkly and shining golden needles, aiming at the few acupoints on Li Moying's body as she pierced it downwards resolutely!

Following her action, Li Moying's body shivered slightly as his throat also gave off a minute moaning sound.

Huang Yueli knew that this was the reflection of how pained Li Moying was.

Liu Buyan had told her way before this that the treatment process for treating Soul Detachment Illness was extremely, extremely painful and what Li Moying needed to endure was pain which was hundred times worse than being cut by knives. Ordinary people would probably not be able to wait until the treatment process was over before they went insane from the extreme pain.

Li Moying's determination was very strong and this sort of matter naturally wouldn't possibly surface on him so this was something that everyone believed in.

But the display of Li Moying's pain, to Huang Yueli herself, was a kind of test.

Every single needle she pierced onto him, would increase the pain that Li Moying felt and under this circumstance, even for someone like Huang Yueli who was so composed and resolute, would also be wavering.

Liu Buyan's eyes were half opened as he looked towards Huang Yueli's direction.

He was now injecting Profound Energy into Li Moying and it was the most crucial moment. In order to guarantee both of their safety, he couldn't even say a single word, in case Profound Energy leaked outwards.

But Huang Yueli's hesitation in her eyes made him extremely worried.

Liu Buyan's heart was suspended as he looked at her, worried that she might not be able to control herself and ruin the entire show.

However, the thing that Liu Buyan was worried about did not happen as Huang Yueli stopped for a few breaths and immediately held on to another golden needle, piercing down onto the second acupoint on Li Moying!

Her action was still resolute and determined!

Following that was the third needle, fourth needle...

Huang Yueli's actions became swifter and swifter as her action became more and more precise.

Li Moying's body, under her hand, was trembling non-stop because of the pain and the degree of his tremble was getting greater and greater, but she remained calm and determined as every single golden needle that pierced down was just nice. It was perfectly matched against the marked points on the acupoint chart, piercing one after another golden needle into Li Moying's body.

As time slowly went by, the Purified Pill's medicinal effect kept on diverging as it was slowly absorbed.....

His virtually routed primordial spirit, under the coordination of four ninth stage realm peak practitioners, was slowly restored....

Not knowing how long had passed, Liu Buyan slowly opened his eyes and shot a gaze to Huang Yueli, indicating for her to remove the needles.

It was already at this last stage and Huang Yueli was already extremely tired out mentally and physically, but still, her actions did not carry any hint of hesitation at all.

The golden needles under her slender and fair fingers flew speedily as one after another needle was removed.

Liu Buyan and the others also coordinated with her actions as they slowly retracted the Profound Energy which they injected into Li Moying's body.

It took another long period of time when Huang Yueli finally pulled out all the golden needles.

She kept away the last golden needle and heaved a sigh of relief, only to discover that the back of her clothes was soaked through in sweat, and she had already exhausted all the Profound Energy within her meridians.

Earlier, she had already displayed her Wood attributed innate talent to its best!

Chapter 2398: Li Moying regains consciousness (8)

Liu Buyan and the others also completed retracting their Profound Energy completely.

Following that they all got up and Li Moying's body slanted to one side as he slid towards the side of the bed.

"Moying!" Huang Yueli could not even be bothered to wipe the sweat off her forehead as she rushed towards the side of the bed and supported Li Moying, helping him lie flat on the bed once again.

Li Moying's sweat on his body was not any lesser than hers, and the corners of his lips even seeped out some blood.

All these happened while he was in extreme pain and were all responses which were done without any consciousness.

Huang Yueli felt an extreme heartache and while she wiped his sweat, she asked Liu Buyan, "Senior Brother, Moying he.... how is his situation exactly? Why hasn't he regained consciousness yet?"

Liu Buyan got off the bed and immediately took out a piece of Profound Energy replenishing pill as he swallowed it but his complexion was still deathly pale.

It was obvious that the exhaustion of his Profound Energy was simply too huge.

Even so, he still remembered to comfort Huang Yueli, "Junior Sister no need to worry. Li Moying's primordial spirit and the medicinal effect had fused very well and the administration of your acupuncture was done perfectly as well. But the restoration of one's primordial spirit is a long process and not something that could be restored perfectly at one go. So he will still be unconscious for a while and until his primordial spirit has restored to around eighty percent or so, he will then regain consciousness.”

Huang Yulei frowned slightly, “Eighty percent? How long will that take?”

Liu Buyan said, “At least seven days, at most slightly longer than one month, which are all possibilities. As long as he regains consciousness, he will be able to cultivate as per normal in future and his illness will not act up. But if he wants to restore to his previous powerful primordial spirit, that would take a long time to slowly nurture it... last time, haven’t you said that you have plenty of Spirit Saint Spring Water? Feed him a little every day and it will be advantageous to him.”

Huang Yueli was finally assured as she nodded her head, “Senior Brother, this time round, we really have to thank you! We are indebted to you and in future, if you need me or Moying’s help, we will go through water and thread on fire without any hesitation!”

When Liu Buyan heard that, his gaze seemed to dim a little.

What he wanted was not Huang Yueli and Li Moying’s favour. Moreover, hearing Huang Yueli putting herself and Li Moying as “we”, and placing him as an “outsider” who needed to be thanked, made him feel a strange sour feeling in his heart.

However, after a while later, Liu Buyan started laughing, “With your words, I am assured. You and Moying’s favor.... It’s extremely priceless! First, refine a God Relic for me to play around with!”

Huang Yueli was stunned and immediately started laughing as well, “Keep wishing! Just wait for it slowly, you!”

Due to Liu Buyan’s joke, the earlier melancholic atmosphere finally became a little relaxed.

Liu Buyan propped up his back and slowly stood up, “Alright, I’ve already completed everyone on my hands and following this, I will not care any longer. Anyway Junior Sister you’re an Armament Master, so you can take care of Li Moying properly. I’m going back to rest....”

Liu Buyan’s face was green and pale, as though his energy had been totally depleted.

Huang Yueli was deeply worried that he might fall on his way back as she hurriedly instructed Cang Po Jun and the others, “Guardian Jun, Guardian Hun, can the both of you send my Senior Brother back to his room? Let him have a good rest. You two have been tired out as well, quickly go back and rest too.”

Cang Po Jun and Cang Po Hun both nodded, “Young Miss Bai be assured, we will make a move now.”

After they left, there was only Bai Liufeng who was still standing in the room, looking at Huang Yueli and Li Moying.

Chapter 2399: Li Moying regains consciousness (9)

Huang Yueli first poured a cup of Spirit Saint Spring Water and fed Li Moying. Looking at his pale cracked lips being nourished by the spring water slowly gaining some colour, her lips curled.

Turning back, she saw Bai Liufeng who didn’t speak a single word and had a shock.

“Father!” Huang Yueli’s eyes opened wide, “Why haven’t you gone back to rest? Luckily we managed to get your help today, otherwise.... we don’t know where to find someone to help Moying treat his illness.....”

Bai Liufeng gave a cold humph, “I’m your father and you still need to say thank you to me! To this lad you used ‘we’, is your surname Bai or Li?”

“This.....” Huang Yueli was stunned momentarily and quickly gave a dry laugh, “Father, you think too much, of course I’m your obedient daughter! Father has been tired out, let me massage your shoulders!”

She tried to win his favour by giving a fawning smile, prepared to move over and flatter him.

Bai Liufeng took a step back and his expression was still not very good but his tone had evidently softened, “No need. Earlier you administered the golden needle acupuncture, you must have exhausted quite a bit of Profound Energy right? Have a good rest. There’s nothing wrong with father, this bit of Profound Energy, I can still afford it!”

This wasn’t boasting because Bai Liufeng’s ability was originally much higher than Liu Buyan and the others, whereas the four of them had exhausted the same amount of Profound Energy during the treatment so Bai Liufeng was naturally affected the least.

Huang Yueli immediately put on an adored gaze, “Of course you’re my father, your ability is indeed outstanding! You’re just too awesome!”

This flattery was actually a little exaggerated but coming from his beloved daughter’s mouth made Bai Liufeng feel comfortable from head to toe.

“Stop fawning!” Bai Liufeng spoke out with a little hint of tsundere but his curled up lips had already betrayed his true feelings.

“Father is going back to the room. It’s not that you can’t take care of this stinky brat, but it is only limited to this period of time when he is unconscious. After he regains consciousness, you have to avoid gossips! Do you hear me?” Bai Liufeng coughed softly twice, leaving this sentence.

She was still thinking that later when Bai Liufeng left, how was she going to slip back to look after Li Moying. But whoever knew that Bai Liufeng actually loosened up this easily?

This was simply out of her expectations?

Could it be that earlier that her empty flattery was effective?

Bai Liufeng could tell that she was surprised as he gave a slight harrumph, “This lad... isn’t totally useless. The pain of restoring one’s primordial spirit is something that ordinary people could not endure and those with slightly weaker determination would probably turn into a lunatic! This lad, not only did he not go insane, he didn’t even moan much so his determination is rather extraordinary. When I was injecting Profound Energy into his body, I also detected that his foundation was solid and his cultivation was firm, not some kind of soft embroidery pillow.”

Huang Yueli hardly heard about Li Moying's good points from her father's mouth.

Amid the shock, she quickly revealed a bright smile, "Father, I've already said that Moying is very incredible! He absolutely can protect me! Now do you believe in me?"

Bai Liufeng replied unwillingly, "Father only said that he wasn't a bag of straw, but his cultivation isn't bad doesn't mean that his ability is definitely strong. His actual battle power is another matter totally! After he wakes up, Father will test him properly! And also, this lad has some evil intentions, abducting you from South Yue Kingdom and deceiving you into being engaged while father isn't around, I cannot just let it go like that!"

Huang Yueli's face immediately sunk down, "Father, how can you be so unreasonable? I've already said that this marriage is something that I have agreed to myself!"

Chapter 2400: Li Moying regains consciousness (10)

Bai Liufeng put on a straight face and said, "A marriage match is arranged by the parents' order and on the matchmaker's word. Father still hadn't nodded his head, how can you decide on your own marriage? Anyway, this matter will be decided by father!"

Saying that, without even waiting for Huang Yueli's reply, he flicked his sleeves, "Alright, have a good rest. If there's anything you want to say, wait for this lad to regain consciousness first and let him say it personally!"

Li Moying's breathing had stabilised and that pale and wan handsome face a few days ago had gained some colour.

Huang Yueli wiped his body and changed his inner clothing and a refreshed Li Moying looked as though he was sleeping. That perfectly sculpted face had a quiet and tranquil look, as compared to the usual overbearing look, it was simply a totally different person.

Huang Yueli's mood instantly perked up, "Moying, you must wake up sooner! I believe that you will definitely make my father see you in a new light, am I right?"

She was confident of Li Moying's ability and even if Bai Liufeng was so powerful, she didn't feel that Li Moying would be disadvantaged.

So, even if Bai Liufeng had not agreed to their marriage and Huang Yueli made it sound so pitiful, but she wasn't really worried on the inside.

After Li Moying regains his consciousness and exhibits his ability, he would definitely be able to make Bai Liufeng extremely surprised!

The truth had proved itself that when Li Moying had indeed awoken, he indeed made Bai Liufeng have a rude shock.

But, it wasn't because of his potential...

Ever since Li Moying had taken the Purified Pill, he had been lying quietly in the room and his breathing was stable, as though he was sleeping.

Liu Buyan rested for three whole days and on the fourth day onwards, he went over to Li Moying's room daily to take his pulse.

Initially, Huang Yueli was still calm and because Liu Buyan's diagnosis was always "everything is normal" but as time went by, twenty over days had passed and Li Moying still hadn't regained consciousness and that was when Huang Yueli started to become anxious.

"Senior Brother, Moying in this state... is he really alright? Why is it that it had been so long and yet he still hadn't woken up?" On one occasion after Liu Buyan finished the consultation, Huang Yueli asked anxiously.

Liu Buyan sighed, "Junior Sister, you've already asked a few hundred times! I've told you long ago, that the primordial spirit's restoration will take a long time, and it might possibly take as long as one month! Moreover, the greater the damage of the primordial spirit, the longer the restoration time will take! Li Moying's primordial spirit in his past life is extremely strong and that's something that you know as well, so this matter... we can't be anxious over it! Don't worry, he will absolutely be alright."

Huang Yueli pouted her lips, "But till today, he's already been unconscious for an entire month! It's already been over one month, does that mean that there's an accident?"

The more she thought, the more anxious she was as she bit her lips, showing a pitiful look.

Liu Buyan saw her expression and almost burst out laughing and at the same time, he felt a little emotional.

Huang Yueli was someone who would not frown even if the sky fell down and usually she was extremely bold but now, Li Moying obviously was fine yet he was able to scare her into this state. This only meant that she had delved in too deeply, and had lost the judgement that she should have.

Liu Buyan patted her shoulder and said, "Junior Sister, you must trust Senior Brother's words and don't worry. Perhaps, Li Moying will suddenly regain consciousness in the next few night, and by then, don't faint from joy!"
