

Widow 111

Chapter 111

Sitting on the train, Debbie looked at the night sky outside the window and said impatiently, "Why haven't we arrived yet? How long has it been?"

It was already night, and the other passengers on the train were all resting. Her voice was loud, and many people looked at her with dissatisfaction. Debbie was not afraid at all. She widened her eyes and said, "What are you looking at?"

"Mom!" Compared with Debbie, Mia was embarrassed. She tugged at Debbie's sleeve and said, "We will only arrive at six o'clock in the morning. It's only one o'clock in the morning. Why don't you sleep for a while first?"

Debbie said, "Didn't you say that the train is very fast now? Can it be called fast?"

Mia said helplessly, "The one that is fast is called a high-speed rail. Don't you think it's expensive and didn't want to buy it?"

Who could be blamed for buying the train tickets?
