

Widow 117

Chapter 117

Mia also said, "Your father is so kind to you. He has always given you everything. How can you repay him like this?! If your father knows that you are so heartless, he will die of anger!"

She reached out and poked Crystal's head with her finger. Crystal felt a sharp pain, and tears were about to burst out of her eyes. She pursed her lips and said, "Grandma, mom, what do you want?" Hearing her words, Mia and Debbie looked at each other and said, "What are you talking about? Are we here to ask for money?! Your father missed you and asked you to go back to see him." Crystal's eyelashes trembled. Before she could say anything, Debbie added, "But this is our first time in Fairby. You have to show us around, don't you?"

"Yes, yes, yes... She is now the real Fifth Miss of the Evans family. She must have money." Hearing this, Mia was also excited. She turned to Debbie and said, "Mom, do you still remember the necklace. I showed you the day before yesterday? That necklace is so beautiful..."

"It cost more than a hundred thousand," said Debbie.

Mia glanced at Crystal. "Isn't there someone paying the bill?"

Debbie thought of the people she had seen along the way who were wearing all kinds of jewelry. She couldn't wait to go to the most prosperous city center to have a look. She pushed Crystal and said, "Why don't we leave now?"
