

Widow 146

Chapter 146

After Crystal finished speaking, she felt that her face was burning hot. She quickly got out of Harold's arms and opened the door of the passenger seat. She sat up straight and said obediently, "Let's go. I'm so hungry. Dana must have made delicious food for me."

Harold looked at her with a wry smile. "You're pretty good at running."

Crystal said seriously, "Eating is the most important thing in the world. I'm hungry, of course, I'm in a hurry to go home."

Harold didn't argue with her. He watched as Bernard got into the car before entering the driver's seat.

Bernard was a very obedient child and he didn't make any noise along the way. When they arrived at Flower Land, Crystal took his hand and walked into the villa. She was afraid that CoCo would scare Bernard, so she closed the back door. She then called Alissa, saying that she had already fetched the child.

out. She simply exchanged a few words with for both Bernard and Crystal. Crystal touched Bernard's head and said, "Do you want to now. I don't want her to worry about me." He raised his head and looked at Crystal. "Sister, can you not tell

"You are too sensible,

you are very good. There

Although it was a kind and noble character,

end, "you can watch TV for a while

Bernard nodded.

lamb legs, seafood soup, and a plate of stir-fried vegetables. It was probably because Bernard her territory by the dining table. Dana came out of the kitchen with the bowls. and said with a smile, "Go and ask Master White to have a little afraid of Harold. She wouldn't even dare to