

Widow 151

Chapter 151

Crystal smiled. "This is a good thing. Don't cry. If your father sees it later, won't he be sad again?"

She patted Alissa's shoulder. "Everything will get better."

"...Yes." Alissa wiped her tears and said, "Everything will get better."

She looked at Crystal and said, "I think you are really a very strange person."

"Hmm?"

Alissa said, "I feel warm standing beside you."

Crystal asked, "Could it be that my body temperature is higher?"

Alissa was speechless.

said anything sensational the government and were decent people. They were very gentle to Crystal. Crystal chatted with the two old people for a while, then went out of the ward with Alissa and told Alissa about what happened in his mother would be worried, Crystal felt that she should let Alissa know about

"You said that Bernard... but Bernard has never told said, "He's afraid that you'll worry about him. Bernard is too sensible. Leland transferred to another school and Mr. Beardsley was dismissed. Bernard said you." Alissa sobbed. "If it weren't for you, I really wouldn't know when I if he keeps too many things to himself, it will affect his growth. You should communicate with took a

at Crystal. "Why did you

Bowles? Even Mr. Beardsley was partial to her. There was no reason for the principal to suddenly speak of justice.

the principal to fire Mr. Beardsley, the power behind Crystal was absolutely unfathomable. Why would am working because Alissa was speechless.

"Even if I take out all the money Caleb gave me, I

Crystal, "?"